

Food From All Over the World

Ask your students if they like sushi? What kind? Which country does sushi derive from?

Ask students to list the native food of other countries. Have a cultural food party. Perhaps students can bring in food from different cultures. Make different food during class time – perhaps you can roll sushi.

