

MAGELLANIC PENGUIN

POPULATION : 1,300,000

LOCATION: Southern Chile & Argentina

ACTIVITIES: They build nests using seabird droppings that provide protection from predators

FOOD: Cuttlefish, sardines, squid, krill

WEIGHT: 5.5 pounds

FACTS: Adults have black backs and white stomachs. In the wild, Magellanic Penguins can live up to 25 years.

EXTINCTION FACTORS: Oil tankers filling their tanks with water for weight and then emptying the water out with traces of oil.

CONTINUE