About QueenAilin

Ailin Ochoa, known professionally as QueenAilin, is 21 years old. She was born February 20, 2001 in San Antonio, Texas, where she has lived most of her life. Inspired by artists like Selena and Michael Jackson, QueenAilin started singing at five years old. That inspiration has led QueenAilin to continue pursuing her dream of becoming a legendary singer. Life hasn't always been easy for Ailin. She was bullied as a child and felt different from everybody at a young age. However, Ailin never let this situation prevent her from pursuing her dream of being a superstar. QueenAilin was involved in many talent shows in the second, fourth, and fifth grades, as well as in middle school (eighth grade). Throughout her four years of high school, Ailin's orchestra class held talent shows. Ailin was selected to perform at each one through her senior year. Also, Ailin participated in Mariachi in her junior and senior years as one of the female lead singers and also as one of the lead violinists, who were called "The Mariachi Unidos!" When she was 18 years old, Ailin auditioned for Reina De La Canción, a singing competition, and made it all the way to the end of the casting rounds, which would potentially be a television feature. It was a beautiful experience that gave her extra motivation and focus to make her dream a reality. QueenAilin has sung at fashion shows, weddings, quinceaneras, church events, and funerals. After her parents heard Ailin singing as a child, she became a member of the church choir. Since childhood, Ailin has felt that God created her to be on stage and to inspire many people with her God-given talent and voice.

Over the years, via Instagram, QueenAilin has amassed a dedicated following and a true fan base who have been anticipating her first single release. On January 5, 2023, QueenAilin signed with the independent record label Imperial Elite Music Group. Imperial Elite is currently producing and coordinating QueenAilin's first recording album, which will be released in the latter part of 2023. In closing, QueenAilin wants the world to know that she is dedicated and focused and that she will continue striving for greatness in every aspect of her career. ("STAY TUNED, EVERYBODY. I AM QUEENAILIN AND I'M ON MY WAY!!!")
