

Discover the authentic regions of

Champagne & Alsace, France

with

Philippe & Lisa Boët

September 10-20, 2026:

Join us for an 11-day culinary-wine exploration of the unique regions of Champagne and Alsace. After meeting in Paris, we will travel to Alsace and stay in La Maison des Têtes in the historic village of Colmar for six days. While in the heart of the Grand Cru Alsatian wine region, we'll explore the Vosges mountain foothills with excursions to the villages of Kaysersberg and Riquewihr. Additional destinations include Munster Valley, home of the famed farm cheese, the European capital of Strasbourg and Switzerland. Flammekueche, Kougelhopf, and sophisticated wines will delight your palate while we dine in traditional winstubs and Michelin-starred restaurants. Next we'll travel to Reims and Epernay, home of the world's most exclusive bubbly wines and spend two nights in Les Crayères. We will finish the trip in Paris for the last night together.

Accommodations and Meals include:

Ten nights in 4-star and 5-star hotels, 10 breakfasts (in hotel), nine hosted lunches and 10 dinners. Excursions include an escargot farm visit, tastings in Champagne houses and Alsatian Grand Cru wine villages, an exploration of Munster Valley and the Vosges mountains, a trip to Switzerland for lunch, among other delicious discoveries in store for a small group of gourmands! If you are interested in this tour, please feel free to contact us for more information. Call Lisa Boët at 239-595-7002 or Chez Boët at 239-643-6177.
