

- c. If certificate holders have no further need for burial rights during their lifetime, they may sell their certificate to the cemetery at the price originally paid. Lots may not be sold to anyone other than the District.
 - d. Rules and regulations of the District will be subject to change by approval of the majority of the Board. Rule changes will become effective on the date of approval. The effected changes will be recorded by the Secretary.
- 6. LIABILITY. The District, individual members of the Board, the Superintendent and all other personnel of the District will not be responsible for injury or damage suffered by anyone including children in their use of the cemetery grounds. Any person using the streets or paths does so at his own risk.
- 7. EMPLOYEES. The Board will employ a superintendent, bookkeeper and other employees necessary for the operation of the District. The duties of the above employees are described in a separate document labeled Valley Center Cemetery District Employees and their duties.
- 8. HOLIDAYS. For the special holidays two unbreakable vases or pots of plants or flowers are permitted plus one other item described below which will fit within the confines of the gravestone. For safety reasons, no candles are allowed. The special items may be placed seven (7) days before the holiday and must be removed seven (7) days after the holiday. Appropriate holiday decorative items other than those mentioned above may be allowed with the prior approval of the Board of Trustees. No other items are allowed. District personnel will remove decorations according to these rules and place them just outside the office door.
