

Dr. Betty Porter Walls, retired educator at Harris-Stowe State University (HSSU) and the University of Missouri-Columbia, and adjunct at Webster University, is past president of the Missouri Association of Colleges of Teacher Education (MACTE). She serves as an executive board member of state and local affiliates of the International Literacy Association (ILA). A noted consultant/presenter, she coordinates the Beginning Teachers Assistance Program (BTAP) professional development for the St. Louis Public Schools. She has presented at the Write to Learn, Early Learning, and Interface (STEM) Conferences in Missouri and nationally for the ILA, National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), National Network for Educational Renewal (NNER), and American Education and Research Association ((AERA).

Internationally, Betty has conducted PD in Iceland, Germany, and Senegal. Her noted “Literacy is a Family Affair Project” was recently presented at the Hawaii International Conference on Education (HICE). Bety currently serves on the Educational Advisory Board of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, the Emerson Electric Scholarship Committee, and the SLPS Teacher of the Year Committee. Dr. Walls has received numerous honors/awards including those from the Governor of Missouri, HSSU, University of Missouri-Columbia, B’Nai B’rith, and the St. Louis American Newspaper.