MEDIA RELEASE

12-28-21 Police Warn of Phone Scams Asking for Bail Money

Hawai'i Island police are warning the public about continuing phone scams that attempt to deceive unsuspecting people for assistance in obtaining bail money for a family member who is incarcerated and needs immediate assistance.

Potential victims are being asked to send money via electronic money transfers or to provide confidential credit/debit card information.

The public is reminded to never provide any personal information, including birth dates, social security numbers, credit card information, and bank information to anyone.

If you believe you are contacted by a person involved in a scam call the police department's non-emergency number at (808) 935-3311.

BEING A GOOD WITNESS

This is a good form to keep copies by your window, in your car or on you when out & about.

Trying to remember things several days later can be difficult.

Call 911 if a crime is being committed or call the police non-emergency number 935-3311

When a crime is committed, police rely on witnesses to tell them when it occurred, how it happened, where, who and why. Witnesses are crucial in tracking down the criminals based on accurate physical description and type of vehicle they were driving. The following are helpful things to look for if you are a witness or victim of a crime. Police need our help!

TIME: _____ DAY & DATE: _____

Suspicious activity being reported: _____

PERSONAL IDENTIFIERS

Gender	Male	Female
Age
Race
Eye Color/ Hair Color/ Facial Hair
Build/Height/Weight	Height	Weight
Scars/Marks/Tattoos
Mannerisms
Accents/ Voice
Other

VEHICLE IDENTIFIERS

Lg. TRUCK	Sm. TRUCK	SUV	Sm Car	Large Car	OTHER
Color
License Plate
Make/Model
Style			Sedan, hatchback, pickup, Van, Bike/quad
Stickers
Condition			Dents, faded paint
Modifications			Rims, exhaust, lifted, lowered, spoiler, racks, other
Direction of travel
Number of occupants

A good witness can help the police find and identify the criminals responsible by simply giving good descriptions. You can practice this on a daily basis simply by describing five things about a person or a car that passes you on the road.

HINDERING PROSECUTION

ANY PERSONS ASSISTING OR HARBORING INDIVIDUALS WANTED BY THE POLICE MAY BE ARRESTED AND CHARGED WITH HINDERING PROSECUTION.

§710-1028 Hinderling prosecution; definition of rendering assistance. For the purposes of sections [710-1029 and 710-1030], a person renders assistance to another if he:

(1) Harbors or conceals such person;

(2) Warns such person of impending discovery, apprehension, prosecution, or conviction, except this does not apply to a warning given in connection with an effort to bring another into compliance with the law;

(3) Provides such person with money, transportation, weapon, disguise, or other means of avoiding discovery, apprehension, prosecution, or conviction;

(4) Prevents or obstructs, by means of force, deception, or intimidation, anyone from performing an act that might aid in the discovery, apprehension, prosecution, or conviction of such person; or

(5) Suppresses by an act of concealment, alteration, or destruction any physical evidence that might aid in the discovery, apprehension, prosecution, or conviction of such person.

§710-1029 Hinderling prosecution in the first degree. (1) A person commits the offense of hinderling prosecution in the first degree if, with the intent to hinder the apprehension, prosecution, conviction, or punishment of another for a class A, B, or C felony or murder in any degree, the person renders assistance to the other person.

§710-1030 Hinderling prosecution in the second degree. (1) A person commits the offense of hinderling prosecution in the second degree if, with the intent to hinder the apprehension, prosecution, conviction, or punishment of another for a crime, he renders assistance to such person.

(2) Hinderling prosecution in the second degree is a misdemeanor.
