BIG TOPS

THANK YOU

Hi there! Thank you for reading! And just being here in general. The last two weeks have been much slower in the shop than anticipated for this time of the year, and I've had my moments of panic, but I also know that is the ebb and flow of small business. What's really looming is that come January, we will no longer have a rent-incentive that we've had for 12 months. We applied and were awarded this amazing one-time grant from the city that gave us $425 a month toward rent, which is $1000/m. I would love to see you in the shop or plan an artist-led event for you, your kiddos, or your friends. Artmarkit is a sole proprietorship, a true one-woman show built on passion, very late nights, and a whole lot of heart. Every purchase, every class, every drop-in directly fuels this space and keeps the vision alive: a creative third place our community can rely on. I'm sharing all of this not for sympathy, but for transparency. If you've been meaning to stop in, grab a kit, attend a workshop, or simply say hi, this season is a wonderful time to do it. Your support genuinely sustains this dream and makes it possible for Artmarkit to keep showing up for Covington in the ways that matter. Catch us in the shop Wednesday-Saturday this week! Can't wait to see you :) Love you!, Kit
