BIG TOPS

THANK YOU

Two weeks after opening last year, we released the first issue of our newsletter. This newsletter would not be possible without Alyssa, Leah, and Christopher. Eternally grateful for all of the folks that keep us pushing forward. Speaking of that, this week we have just been overwhelmingly loved by our neighbors. Kit was outside having trouble pulping up cardboard for mask-making and no joke, 5 minutes later our sweet neighbor brought over her emulsion blender. About 5 minutes after that, another neighbor walks up and jumps right into the messy job that is creating cardboard pulp. This is one example of all the goodness happening every day. Couldn't do it without every single one of you. That is so real. Sunday, we had our Cryptid Mask-Making Workshop and let me tell you that the studio was absolutely buzzing. Every single maker Locked IN, POPPED OFF, and created magic. We cannot wait to see them finished and worn at this Saturday's Covington Cryptid Block Party (free) and truly one of the most fun times of the year in the Cov. Artmarkit will be there! Slingin' Mothman & Abominable Snowman mask-making kits, cryptid painting kits, and hybrid creature collage kits, t-shirts, and all sorts of other fun, handcrafted goodies made by us in store. The storefront will be closed but we are 'open' at the block party! Our new operating hours start this week - We are now open Thursday, Friday, Saturday and TBD on Sundays. Our first open Sunday is this one! Oct 5th! Bengals Pop Up at the Shop! <3 B4 the game, 12 to 3.
