BIG TOPS

THANK YOU

Hi, hello! It's so nice to have all you in mind as I write this out each week. I think about you reading and putting your energy into us so that we can keep going. It fuels me every single day. Artmarkit is a creative reuse hub; a place where we get to interact with one another in ways that invite play, experimentation, and a place to plan with intention for a future where every one of us is liberated. We know that creativity is an act of resistance. We know that every time we reuse and repair, we resist consumerism. We know that everytime we create alongside each other, we resist isolation. The goal is to build a better world around us. Everytime you tell a friend, spend money at the shop, write a review, attend a workshop, book a class, share a post...you are actively building this reality. I am just eternally grateful for every single one of you.

We hope to see you this week! Thursday & Friday we will be making mini haunted mansions for the Make & Take, and Saturday after we are open 12 to 5, we will set up our tent at the Dia de los Muertos festival to celebrate and honor the lives of our loved ones. If you've never been, take this as your sign! 6 to 10 pm find vendors, food, drink, and live music along Holman and in the grass across the street! Can't wait to see ya!

FEATURE OF THE WEEK

Dia de Los Muertos Festival by Olla

Saturday November 1
6-10 pm

Our neighbors are back at it again with their annual Dia de Los Muertos Festival. Come out and enjoy live music, delicious food, vendors, and fun as we gather together and celebrate the lives of our loved ones. Olla will have a section of the street in front of the shop as well as the grassy area all decked out and ready to fiesta! Artmarkit will be under our tent, selling various art kits and hosting community art making experiences. Stop by and join the celebration!
