Book Description: In Sheng Xiao, zodiac spirits power rituals and technology—until warlord X steals the sacred Yin Scroll, triggering an eclipse and a hungry prophecy: balance light and dark, or chaos consumes everything. Empress Jade summons the Twelve Zodiac Guardians: quick-witted Rat sharpshooter Veronica, genius Rabbit coder Alice, honor-bound Dragon swordsman David, and more. As X poisons spirits and hunts talismans, the team races across misty forests, neon towers, volcanic shores, and golden plains—facing betrayal, forged bonds, and dangerous connections. To restore balance, they must claim the talismans' power... at any cost. A high-stakes YA fantasy blending Chinese zodiac mythology with tech-magic. Ideal for fans of epic quests, found family, and ancient spirits in neon futures.
