What Are Your Plans?

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Psalm 100

The conclusion, when all has been heard, is: fear God and keep His commandments, because this applies to every person. For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.

The new year is viewed differently by different people. Some use it as a time to evaluate where they are and where they want to go in life. Others face the future with fear; after all the unknown can be so intimidating. Yet others are very cynical about the whole thing. They think, "Since nothing ever changes (at least nothing for the good), why bother with things like resolutions and such? They only lead to disappointment."

God's people should have a different view. We are people on a mission. The clear command to introduce others to Christ and be encouragers of one another should impress in our minds the fact that God has plans for us.

The writer of Ecclesiastes tried everything imaginable to pump meaning into life by his own effort and plans. He failed, and finally turned to God. Fearing (being filled with awe and respect) and keeping God's commandments (obeying) are his inspired advice for us if we want to see the meaning in our existence.

Remind yourself of His presence and power. The 100th Psalm can serve as a challenge for us to be a people who launch into life with anticipation of the best of God's blessings and care. Real work for a real God who loves us and uses us to spread the light of life in dark places; into dark hearts. Trust God and watch the things He will use you to accomplish for the Kingdom of Heaven. Let's watch Cornerstone grow in spirit, love, and number as we praise and work for a dynamic Savior who offers hope to every person.

Blessed to be serving with you,

Jay

1 Peter 1:3-5

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
