PROULOGUE

"My Precious Child, I bring you back to My Holy Mountain and into My Inner Sanctum. Write as given."

"My Lord Jesus, I shall."

"Child, you have worked hard on these works since May of 1997. I have steadily brought you to new heights in Me as you have persevered. Many shall try to make you a laughing stock. They shall ridicule you or try to derail My work in you, even some of the ones I have called to prophecy. But know, My Little One, as they do so I shall cut them in stature and cause them to become stagnant in their own walk. I shall make them to become as tinkling cymbals, a noise to the ears of like mind.

I have chosen you from before the foundations as I have chosen many for My work in these latter days. There is much to be revealed, which has not been known or understood. Through you I have spoken many truths, which shall seem foreign to the ears and minds of many. Let them accept, if they will. I bring mine to greater heights in Me if they care to come.

The churches are bogged down in religiosity and teachings of the carnal mind. They have pushed out My Spirit with mediocrity and lies. I do not allow My Spirit to go amidst those teaching lies and half-truths, which are one and the same.

Beware, My Precious Ones, of the Toronto's and the Pensacola's of the world. For, the works of Satan are abound. Many a miracle you shall see which is the work of the Father of Illusion, Satan himself.

I come not amidst hysteria. I come not amidst wide-eyed euphoria seen in such places. I come in the sweetness of the Spirit of Truth, yea in a presence of humility, even joy of a pure kind. Spare me the rock music, the drums and the ways of the modern generation. Hear my silent quiet voice as it comes through My Spirit. You push me away with your clamor.

Forget not that I am one with Jehovah. Yea, The Father of all is a jealous God. He is a punishing God. And He sends me back with a sword. Yea, I shall smite the wicked, the evil, with a heavy blow. I shall lay low the perverse, the followers of the King of Illusion, Satan himself. I have no time for the half-hearted, for those who speak love for me and profess a lie in their hearts. Yea, the straight and narrow is where I find My faithful sheep. The rest are lost among the wolves.

Come out of the evil churches, My People, lest you too, receive their bitter cup. I raise the cup and even now my bitterness is being poured upon the masses, who love deceit, who love a lie.

I am about My Father's business, and His business is about purity of soul. Yea, speak not a lie to Me about your purity when you chase illusion, when you love a lie, and when you love the glamour of the world.

I come back for a church which is pristine, which is white as snow and pure. Get away, backstabbers and gossipmongers! You have no place!

Fool not yourselves, those among you who cast stones at this one, My Chosen. For, you are no better than a stray dog, seeking crumbs from a table. You have strayed from My Spirit. And I am angered. I will turn your lives upside down, inside out! For when you reject one who loves Me so and honors Me, seeking Me daily, you reject Me and My word. You shall look for a place at the last day; but you shall not find it. For you have loved a lie more than me.

Now, Child, leave This Mountain and write as seems fit for The Introduction to these books. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God."

As you read these visions and prophecies be aware that they contain many, many symbols, which can be interpreted only by The Author, Jesus, who is one with Lord God Jehovah. If you try to interpret with your carnal mind, you will usually be wrong. Even when you look at words and get a mental certainty that they mean this or that, take all to the Spirit of God. Only God can give meaning to these visions and no one else. And in this you must persevere. For, your mind may speak to you and as it clamors you may not hear God's Spirit.

This is an example of what I mean by looking for deeper meaning. A couple of weeks ago, my brother called and asked me to pray for a friend of his, who was diagnosed with leukemia and was given a prognosis of only a week or two to live.

The day he called I took this need to Jesus in prayer. This is what Jesus told me: "You ask of your brother's friend, Child, as he is distraught for the loss of a friend through leukemia. Child, he shall not lose this friend so long as he lives. You have seen the Fire of God fall upon him. He will walk again a well man. Mark this, Child. For it is so, even as I speak. Yea, he shall run again and be well." My interpretation was that this man would be made physically well, cured of the leukemia.

However, in very few days this man died. Believe me, I was shocked! So, I had to go back and look at what Jesus said. When I looked at what He said, I understood that in dying this man would become a well man. I also noted that Jesus said, "he is distraught for the loss of a friend." My brother had not lost his friend to death yet, but Jesus was speaking as if it had occurred already.

I made the mistake of not asking for more information, which is what many of us do. We must go beyond the words and deeper into His Word to understand His intent. When we look at His Words as black and white only, we deny ourselves the beauty of a multicolored tapestry of meaning, which is richly interwoven throughout God's messages.

My deepest prayer for you is that you strengthen your walk before God, that you humble yourself before God, seeking His will in all your affairs. Many will not ask for

God's will in their lives under any circumstances. For they are willful even unto death. God gives us a free will that we humbly relinquish it to Him; for He has a perfect will for each of us. His will may be 180 degrees from our own, and this is frightening to many.

The most difficult thing for anyone to see is that we live in an illusion. Everything around you is here today and gone tomorrow. As you look around yourself, take a look at what you cherish most. Is it your house, your job, your car, your ego? If you cherish any person or thing more than you cherish God, you are lost in illusion. For, Lord God Jehovah is The Father of all. If He had not created you, you would have no life. Get it?
It is time to let go of the things, which hold you down spiritually; and humble yourself before God Almighty. We are entering the seven-year reign of Lucifer on this planet. This reign precedes the return of Christ. If you do not know God already, the push of illusion and darkness upon you may become so great that you become totally lost in darkness and wind up in the Pits.

A great delusion (false belief system) has befallen the minds of the people. Part of this great delusion is that God's people will be raptured out and not have to go through the great tribulation. Do not buy into this lie. If you do, you may become one more hell-bent tragedy! Many of those who believe this lie will give up on God when they see themselves amidst great war, chaos, death and disarray. You only need read The Book of Revelation to see that many of the saints are killed and the prophets are killed. (See Revelation 7:10&11, 7:14, 13:7, 16:6, and 20:4.)

Hell is real! No one who really believes in hell would want to go there. God has carried me there in visions and shown me; but even if He had not done this, I would believe it. As The Holy Book of Truth, The Bible, speaks it. There is no darkness like that of hell. And every foul thing imaginable lives there. Great, great numbers of souls shall go there. As Jesus has told me, "Hell is enlarging every day."

Remember: You are responsible for your behavior. Don't buy the common lie that Jesus is going to work some kind of magic on you and make your guilt disappear just because you profess Him with your mouth. Jesus does not erase the guilt of the unrepentant. The repentant heart is broken and sorrowful. It is broken of willfulness and is teachable. Jesus will forgive a repentant heart.

Will you forgive another? Not as long as you have a hard feeling toward this person. When you have forgiven another you have love and compassion in your heart in the place of hurt and anger. Do you see? Many say they forgive but they cannot forget. This is just another way of saying that they have not forgiven. If you truly forgive, you have only love and compassion toward the one, who has hurt you. True, you may remember, but your memories will be colored with love. Therefore you will not have the same memories; for the love of God will heal them.

When you come to accept that Jesus is Lord and Savior, you are a babe, and need to be nurtured and fed a constant diet of His spiritual truths. You need to receive regularly from The Spirit of God and you need to be faithful to God's commands to the best of your ability. When you have problems, bring them before God, seeking forgiveness. Make amends to those you have hurt where possible and try to stop doing the same offensive thing over and over. Do not give up on God and He will not give up on you. But if you are willful, He will let you be willful until He's had enough. Then, He will smite you.

The straight and narrow is a very difficult path. You may find yourself alone on this path, one against many, who are lost and accusing. But you must stand strong before God and do your best to be obedient, realizing that none are perfect. Never let a day go by that you do not come to God in prayer and thanksgiving. Regular fasting will help you have more of the Spirit of God in your life. Fasting also brings spiritual discipline, healing; and it breaks all yokes (Isaiah 58:6-9). Read the Bible regularly and your walk will be strengthened through spiritual wisdom. Make your home holy and stay away from the clamor of the masses. This darkness is most subtle. Its purpose is to steal, to kill and destroy as Lucifer is at its helm.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

In all things, walk in humility in the Light of God. Respect Him, fear Him, and love Him with all your heart, for He is your reason for being. There is none other.

Jesus is My Life,

BLESSINGS AND WARNINGS

"I will bless every hand that takes part in this prophetic work. For as the prophets of old spoke, you would have never heard about it if scribes had not treasured My Holy Word. I will bless all those who have a hand in the transmission of this work. I will reward you in ways you do not know and keep you from the plagues and disasters written herein. To anyone who feeds this prophetess, as with the widow who fed Elijah, your supply will be multiplied, for he who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet SHALL RECEIVE a prophet's reward. He that denies and resists these prophecies shall drink of their terrible bitterness; you resist your own deliverance; you will perish for lack of knowledge. Anyone who tries to destroy this prophetic work I will destroy, for it is written, 'TOUCH NOT MINE ANOINTED, AND DO MY PROPHETS NO HARM."

"As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." Matthew 24:37-39, NIV

Message for the Noahs

"Those that love the world will despise the prophecies of its demise. They will weep and howl at the destruction of their Babylon, their human construction of works, built by human effort through human wisdom, which is devilish.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Those that seek no continuing city on this earth, but one with foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God, are Abraham's true children who please Me and are My friends, loving Me more than even their own life, because I am the Author of life. They rejoice that by these signs their redemption draws nigh.

Those that seek to preserve this earthen life deny its impending doom. Those that love Me and My righteousness are vexed by the wicked and welcome the overthrow of darkness.

As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the coming of the Son of Man. For they mocked and laughed until it was too late.

I have given these prophecies because there are Noahs who I want to hear them. They will receive the Word gladly and bear fruit and glorify Me. Do not be alarmed by unbelievers who become enraged as the Pharisees were. The Laodicean Church is puffed with self-suffiency and pride. By and large it will not repent, but for the sake of some open hearts inside I knock and speak," says Jesus.

These prophetic words will divide asunder, judging the thoughts and intents of hearts. They will manifest the secret tendencies of men, whether they truly love Me or their own life.

All human accomplishments are as nothing before Me; all is vanity under the Sun. All this strife will come to and end, as I will not always strive with this fallen race. It is temporary; its days are numbered; it was poisoned by the fruit of the forbidden. From dust it came and to dust it shall return. I spoke words of re-creation to this fallen race, so that whoever would believe would have a new life. The condemnation is that some preferred darkness.

I came in a body of flesh so you could be clothed with the body of Spirit. I died your death so you could live My life. I took on your sins so that you could take on My righteousness.

I try men's hearts, and I will use these prophecies to cause many to be tried, and search their souls, repent and be delivered. The Ninevites listened and repented.

Many will find salvation through these words. Do not look for affirmation from the church but fruit from the "Gentiles". The Jews rejected Me, but the Ninevites believed and were delivered.

You will have a multitude of spiritual children.

My word, which goes forth, will accomplish the good purpose for which I send it. It shall reap a harvest, for it is the Word of Life, and the truth will set many free, though the liars will rage."

INTRODUCTION THREE

GOD'S HAND IN MY LIFE

In 1987, I experienced a head-on collision between the world and myself. My beautiful dreams of success were tainted by dark and menacing shadows.

Job burnout, loneliness and boredom stole my fulfillment as a school psychologist. So, in late spring of 1986 I moved across several states to pursue a doctorate in psychology, and to take a job working with the mildly mentally retarded at a developmental center.

Like tossing a bone to a dog, the unit director tossed me leftovers no one else wanted when I reported for work. "Take it or leave it," she said, "I am the new boss!"

"Severe profound retarded! On a closed unit!" I withdrew in despair.

These precious souls were trapped in twisted bodies with windswept minds, unable to communicate their simplest of needs. The smell of urine pervaded a large day room imprisoning more than twenty. Amidst loud, unintelligible sounds of the residents, I surveyed the monumental task of writing programs for their habilitation.

Working in a mental hospital years before had taught me to be hypervigilant with unstable patients. Clearly some of these had mixed diagnoses--like the runner who had assaulted a number of staff members to get at a cigarette butt. Many were clearly autistic. Others were like infants of one or two months, whose every need must be anticipated and met. One young woman riddled with venereal diseases masturbated every day all day.

In the coming months I wrote programs for care and behavior management which were largely ignored. These programs were vacant words on empty pages filling bureaucratic waste piles.

It seems that the dregs of society were hired to play minimum wage games; and when no one was looking they allegedly had orgies with these, who were helpless.

This job was a razor slicing deep wounds into an already bleeding soul. On occasion, a typhoon brewed within me. It threatened to override my interpersonal boundaries. It started in my dark recesses and pushed my heart to explode. My thoughts raced wildly, cascading one upon the other in quick succession. Tidal waves of barren emotion bathed my withered sense of self.

Oh, the darkness! Such darkness! How I feared the darkness in me and around me. I was like a gazelle pursued by a lion in the shadows. I knew the presence of the lion. I could smell the lion. I could hear the panting of the lion. I feared that I would touch the lion and be consumed of its hot breath.

"Run! Run! Run!" Yes, I must run from the lion in the darkness.

I would tear out of the day room and onto the grounds. I hoped no one saw. At least no one questioned. At night alone I was even more fearful. For, this state would hit me late at night, and I would run full speed ahead into the night. I would expend my last bit of energy; and when my fear of losing my mind had eased I would rush into my apartment and pour another shot of whiskey.

Whiskey, Oh whiskey! Just one more shot of whiskey. A friend in need is a friend indeed. Sweet solace! It healed my sense of aloneness. It bathed my fears. It kept the lion at bay. Whiskey plugged holes in my makeup like fingers in a dike.

For years whiskey had been part of my fun and joy. I partied with those who loved it. Then, I started to drink alone. I did not like myself when I drank too much, which was often. Drinking to oblivion stole my self-esteem. It robbed me of self-control. Jack Daniels and I two-stepped a love-hate dance. Like impassioned lovers, we groped one another through fits of desperation.

For five months I anguished in the deep abyss of imprisoned souls. I thought I saw a ray of light when a nearby mental health center offered me work counseling children. For many years, children were the love of my life.

I cherish their spontaneity of thought, and sincerity of emotion. Their sweet smiles and precious hearts can heal; they can bring to life the deserts of any mind.

I wish I could tell you that all went gloriously well with this job. But I am sad to say that from day one I knew something was awry. Therapists left one after the other. When a pastoral counselor was fired, I felt deep sorrow.
I did not have much time to dwell on my surroundings. I was very busy with counseling at the center and setting up the first pre-school in the state for emotionally disturbed children. Within six months, there was a waiting list for enrollment. I went into ghettos looking for children and followed up on leads. My responsibilities had mushroomed.

When my immediate supervisor left, half of her work responsibility fell to me. I had precious little time with going to school two nights a week and being on call one night a week for the center.

The little energy I had was being sucked in all directions. The future of my son worried me constantly. His decision to live with his father in December of 1985 broke my heart. I watched helplessly as a governor's gifted child failed school, chased the wild crowd and fell into the tight clutches of marijuana and its harem.

Another counselor was hired to ease my workload. When the director called me in for my six-month review, she advised me that this person never showed up. She made it clear that I would get no relief in the foreseeable future.

Something snapped in me because of her dry words. At the point of tears, I refused to do the work of three people any longer. I told her that I would do one job, and only one job.

The next day she walked into the preschool early in the morning. I shall never forget her cool and indifferent manner as she handed me a letter of termination.

My immediate feeling of despair was soon replaced with pure loathing. She would never see my sorrow again. I worked so hard, created a big money maker, and was cast aside as a worn out shoe. This firing was a first and last for me.

The darkened lights of my spirit called out to Jesus, to hear the cries of one so lost. I had been searching spiritually for months, going from church to church but never seeming to fit in. Suddenly, the aloneness of my situation was the longest night I had ever known. My soul anguished amidst such great drought of spirit.

"Please, please hear my prayers. Please, please help me," I begged Jesus. "I am alone and destitute with no money, no energy, no life." Dark thoughts of suicide raced through my mind. Jack Daniels and the lion were winning.
Amidst my aloneness, my heart flip-flopped in the notion of finding a loving man. I desired this every day of my life but common sense prevailed. I always picked men who mistreated and abused me. Then I rejected them. I had been married and divorced four times by the age of 31, and had now been single for seven years.

In relationships, I was reliving unfinished business from my childhood. My Father who had schizophrenia favored my sister, and disliked and rejected me. I followed him around our sharecropper's house as he hid rocks and talked to himself. I tried to sit on his lap, but he shoved me away repeatedly and said in a mean voice, "Get on!"

Deep inside I feared rejection from all men. This deep sense of loss kept me from knowing and giving unconditional love. This rejection was always at the forefront of my mind; and in my loneliest of times it came rushing forth like a huge giant on a thunderous walk across my emotions.

Late one night as I begged Jesus in the company of Jack Daniels, a gentle warmth pervaded my bedroom. A great peace moved in and coddled me like an infant. Such peace I had never known. A bright radiance bathed a corner of my room.

"Child, I am Jesus. Come and sit on my knee. I will never reject you, and I will heal you of your hurt toward your father."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

I was consumed of this radiance. Then, suddenly Jesus took me up in His Spirit and I sat on His knee. I don't know how long this went on. What I know is that from that day forth, I have never had another bad feeling toward my Father. That night Jesus healed my heart.

You are probably asking, "Wasn't this a little strange to you?"

Absolutely. But, I knew it was real. I glowed with the love from this experience for days. It gave me hope when I had none. It brought me joy when I knew only sorrow. It showed me that Jesus is real and that He hears the prayers of the most lost and forlorn. Jesus gave me life and a desire to live.

My surroundings were just as bleak in many ways in spite of the experience. I had no money and no job, but I was given what money cannot buy: a miracle.

When I told my neighbor a few days later that I was having trouble sleeping. She said, "Try L-tryptophan."
I bought it and took six L-tryptophan capsules a day for two weeks. By the end of the second week, the lion was pushed into the shadows never to return again.

Several years later, I learned that I was having panic attacks caused from a hormonal imbalance brought on by the hysterectomy in late 1985. My immune system was also weakened by an autoimmune disease.

One Sunday afternoon in late March 1987, perhaps two weeks after being fired, another spiritual experience hit me totally by surprise and set my soul in turmoil for years. You may think this experience to be from the mind of one drunken with "the spirits" or high on LSD. But, I was "sober as a church mouse," as the saying goes.

I lay on my sofa for a Sunday afternoon nap, lazily gazing out the picture window and focusing on the billowy clouds far overhead. Whether I got caught up in a vision or dream, I cannot say. But what ensued forever changed my life.
Suddenly, I found myself alone in another location. It was not a place to party or have a picnic. There were no other people, rooms or landscapes. To my right, I could enter through a very ornate, black, guilded door. Or, I could go to the left and ascend a white staircase, which disappeared behind a white wall.

I stood for a while and pondered my choices; first one, then the other. There was no doubt that I was to make one of the two choices.

The brightness of the myriad ornaments attached to the guilded door captivated my attention. What could possibly possess one to decorate a black door in such gaudy décor? Soon, there was no choice to be made. I would go through the guilded door. For, surely the door opened into sleepy, winding streets bathed by luxurious hills.

I stepped forth, pulled the handle of the door, and it moved readily toward me. Was this a trick? If so, who devised it? For the door, which held such allure, opened to a black wall.

Befuddled I turned to the stairway, certain that it, too, would yield disappointment. Still, curiosity settled in. I stepped upon the stairway and began the simple ascent. The climb was most arduous. It seemed that my feet were carrying weights of lead balls.

After a brief while, I looked down in astonishment to see that the bottom of the stairway was no longer visible. Driven by curiosity, I determined to proceed. Feelings of foreboding, which would seem normal, had no place within me. My feet were on automatic pilot, carrying me ever upward.

In time, the undue feeling of heaviness began to disappear. The pull of gravity was diminishing. My body was becoming increasingly lighter as my feet glided from step to step. Feelings of joy and inner peace enveloped me.

I don't know how long I had been on the ascent when I looked down to see that my clothes were missing. In their place was a most beautiful, flowing, shimmering gown of golden-white light. When the radiance of the gown caught my eye, surprise and elation suddenly enfolded me.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Then I saw a beautiful, radiant, golden-white light filtering down the stairway. I couldn't see its origin, but I was aware that the power of the light was quickly pulling me the stairway. My feet no longer touched the steps, as this light pulled me directly up the stairs. Within a matter of seconds I had come to the end of the stairway.

With delicate gown flowing gently in the light, I stood at the end of this stairway in front of a set of double doors. These doors opened into a huge sea of golden-white light. Its vastness and allure were all consuming. The light created a perfect melody of pure, unparalleled splendor and filled me with joy and peace. It was a heavenly symphony reaching high notes within my soul.

I longed to step through the double doors and out into the sea of glorious light. It seemed I had found home at last.

To my great surprise, The Light said, "You will have to go back."

Suddenly, I was back in my apartment. I felt like a child who had lost a parent or dear friend. The bleakness of my surroundings was magnified many fold, and I wept uncontrollably. I felt the sting of my life out of control in a cold, uncaring world.

"How could God be so cruel as to tease me in such a way? Why had He brought me to the boundaries of home only to send me back? Why had He allowed me to know such beauty only to snatch it away in a moment's notice?"

I had no answers, just questions. Come what may, I would never be the same.

If the other worldly experiences had stopped with the journey up the stairway, surely time would have moved in to claim some of the beauty. But the journey up the stairway was only the beginning. The light forever changed me. Supernormal experiences began to invade my simple mind. Within a flash, I would glimpse energy fields around the bodies of others. Often, I would see these fields clearly divided into various layers. At other times, I would glimpse sickness and disease in others as dark blobs. I would see power lines dance with electrical currents. Power fields around wall sockets, computers or microwave ovens captivated my attention. Spirits of deceased, and foreboding entities on dark missions painted my world. But, the most beautiful and humbling of all were the many guardian angels, dressed in white robes with hoods and eyes like fire.

By nature of being able to discern demonic entities and disembodied spirits--spirits of dead people, who are in this sphere instead of in heaven where they should be--my greatest question was, "What can I do about them?"

I cannot tell you how frightening and fascinating it was to see people coming and going loaded down with these demonic entities. At times I would go into a restaurant and watch in sheer horror as patrons came and went loaded for bear, some with ten, fifteen, twenty or more. "What could these people be doing that they were literally bathed in these entities?"

The horrible thing for me was I had no control over "seeing." Suddenly, my eyes had been opened to another world and my cup was full with my own problems. It seemed that I had no room for more.

It is said that God will not give you more that what you can handle. But in this sense, clearly I challenged God. I could not handle this cup!

The awe of what was happening imprisoned me. I ran for more of Jack from sheer terror. My sense of aloneness was further compounded by the reactions of others. My Mother said, "You are sounding just like your father." Other would cut me off in mid-sentence or hang up the telephone when I started to speak of these experiences. They thought I was crazy. Even a dear fellow psychologist I had known for years said he thought I was schizophrenic. I consulted various churches and talked to various ministers. They would imply that I was dealing with less than a full deck or just withdraw.

God started giving me something else about this time, the uncanny ability to know a person's heart, especially about spiritual matters. In visiting a church and talking with a minister, I would get a picture of his real connection with God. What I saw began to repel me from churches. If a minister could not explain what had happened to me, I knew I did not belong in his church. I reasoned that if they had a close connection with God, they would know that God had given me something special.

I started reading every spiritual book I could find. I spend thousands of dollars on books within the next five or six years. I read Christian, Buddhist, New Age, American Indian and any spiritual book about another's journey. If it looked like I could learn something, I would read it. The greatest spiritual benefit I reaped from all this reading and studying was a refined sense of discernment. God would speak subtly to me as I read and suddenly I would know the truth about what I was reading. I needed this schooling to work on discernment, to readily tell if something is a lie or the truth, to be able to tell if God is speaking, if the devil is speaking, or if the author is speaking pretending to be God.

Many will write as if it is God speaking. The gift to know who is really speaking can only come from God through His Holy Spirit. This is the gift of discernment in operation, and it is a test of perseverance and faith.

With all my soul, I wanted to be healed of the terrible hold of alcohol. So, I entered an alcohol rehab in the spring of 1989. Within very few days of getting to this center, I realized that a precious spirit was trapped within the center. From my bed, I watched her night after night, as she favored a room next to mine. She was a young woman, dressed as if she might have lived in the sixties. I saw images of her whirling around a large lake in a boat with an older man. I did not see the lake take her life, but I had a strong feeling that she had drowned in this lake.

The two staying in that room knew a spirit kept them company. In the middle of the night these frightened women would run often into the hallway, crying out.

When all were downstairs for early morning classes, this distraught spirit could be heard roaming the hallways above. I took note of others looking around the huge table counting faces.

One night, I called upon The Lord with all my inner strength. "Lord, I am deeply saddened for the plight of this lost soul. Please, I beg of you. Send your precious angels to guide her back to you."

The guardian angels came, a pair of two dressed in beautiful white robes with hoods. That spring night in 1989 a precious soul was carried home. Glory to God!

When I got out of rehab, I had no money and no place to go. My son, who had gone to live with his father at age 13, had become a full-blown drug addict. At age sixteen, he came back to live with me, deeply incorrigible. I ask you, "How can a practicing alcoholic care for a practicing drug addict?" He alienated everyone, who tried to help him and wound up at a rescue mission at age seventeen.

After rehab, a black woman by the name of Easter took me in. She had a halfway house in the most dangerous part of Little Rock, AR. Six to seven of us shared two, small rooms, and paid twenty five dollars a week for food and board. I worked odd jobs and prayed and prayed. Each day was a reminder to me that I never wanted to go back. I had been arrested twice for alcohol abuse and had lived homeless. I had worked in a bar making just enough to pay daily to live in a seedy motel, to scrounge for food and Jack. These memories still bring tears to me eyes.

Alcohol and drugs quickly steal the lives of the unsuspecting. Addictions are difficult and deadly diseases. People with addictions are hounded day and night by huge numbers of demonic entities. These hang on the unsuspecting and goad them into drinking and drugging. These feed the obsessions, which fan the addictions.

After three months, I moved out of the halfway house. God took me to a place out in the country. Rent was a blessing at only $100.00 a month. My son came home to live, but this was very hard, as he was still addicted.

One afternoon, he came home from work in a daze. I said, "Son, you shot up something today. I know it."
"No Mom, I promise. I did not."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Yet, beneath the wild eyes and erratic behavior was another truth. On his back was a disembodied spirit. I saw him goading my son into shooting up. A little time and some checking told me that I was right.

Disembodied spirits are spirits of people who die but refuse to cross over to the other side. They are lost and confused, loving some facet of this life so much that they refuse to leave it. Most people do not realize that even in death or absence of the body, we make choices.

Soon after moving into the mobile home, I became aware of another spirit. At night, I could hear it going through the pots and pans making noise. In time this spirit started taking things. He particularly liked to steal my son's cigarettes. One day as I was cleaning the kitchen, I became aware that it had stolen a glass of water I was drinking only a few seconds before.

I sat down and prayed a deep prayer from the depths of my soul and I could see the spirit of an elderly man with gray hair. I begged Jesus to send His precious angels to take this soul back to him. Immediately I saw two guardians dressed in white headed toward me. One had a white robe in his hands and was offering it to me.
"Take this and wear it," the angel said. "It is a gift from God for you."

"So, I took the white robe, put it on, and have been wearing it ever since. I watched as the angels took this poor soul, one on each side of him, and they disappeared from sight.

As for my son, you'll be glad to know that he went to rehab twice, and has been clean for three years. Still, we carry miles of distance between us. Spiritually, he is struggling. He blames for me his failures and refuses to forgive me. I am greatly sorrowful. For I love him dearly.

By the fall of 1990, I was feeling really lonely. I told God that if He intended for me to be single the rest of my life, this would be fine. More than anything, I wanted to do the will of God.

I had been single eleven years since the last marriage. I had been hoping for a mate but not seriously looking, as my fears of failure were so great. One night I poured out every last bit of sorrow to Jesus and shared with Him my deep hurts, my old wounds. A great peace suddenly settled in on me. If He had no one for me, I would continue on in peace knowing this to be His will. Above all, I wanted to live the will of God.

About a month after this conversation with Jesus, I had a dream. In this dream, a man came up to me and took me by the arm. We walked across a solid crystal walkway, flooded from beneath and above with pure, white light. At the end of walkway, we headed into this pure, white-light radiance and disappeared.

"Son," I said, "God is sending me someone."

In very few days a letter came to the house, which said, "Welcome to the Happy Birthday Club." This sure looked like a scam, but it listed various names, addresses and telephone numbers of those involved. This letter was nagging me to respond.

Dennis Newkirk from Little Rock was listed. After a month or so, I gave him a call to see if this were a scam. We talked back and forth on the phone for several weeks, and finally he asked us out to eat. Right away, I knew this was the one from the dream, as he was short, had dark hair and such a sweet spirit.

As weeks went by I knew that I was falling in love with this man, and began to cherish every moment with him. He was deeply in debt from a recent divorce. He had nothing, and I had nothing.

My immune system had been poor since 1981, when I had been taken with fevers, severe arthritis, rashes, seizures and a tendency to catch other illness easily. Bizarre illnesses had plagued me for years and I had no idea why. I did not know the extent of my illness when we married. There was never a name. But, time would show that my husband married a real liability.

After knowing one another for four months, we were married. That was nearly seven years ago. We still live in the same place and have to watch our pennies. I have not been able to work in years because of immune system failure related to silicone breast implants I received in 1973.

Never could I have imagined that doctors, medical institutions, research universities and the press could lie and cover up to such a grand scale about something, which is killing more and more women every day. The decision to get these to hide a flat chest has been another cross for me to bear. As King Solomon would say, "vanity."

When I determined that these implants could cause illness, I got them out immediately. But, my problems only intensified. The surgeon who took them out spilled silicone on my chest wall. Immune problems, which had been only nagging, became severe. I developed full-blown Systemic Lupus. Peripheral nerves became inflamed and started to die. White spots appeared in my brain and my frontal lobe started to shrink. I became so tired that I could hardly remember my name at times. Memory problems became an everyday thing.

Yet, through all this, my precious husband has stood by me. He has held my hand through many bizarre illnesses and hospitalizations. He has made many a trip with me to emergency rooms, and has stood by me to witness the horrors of meningitis, which lasted for sixteen months. Every day of my life I thank God for Dennis. In the midst of all this suffering, God was not far from my mind. For many years I had made a practice of getting up at 4:00 AM to pray, meditate and read The Scriptures. Sometimes my mind would be so cloudy from the disease that I could hardly focus on my prayers. But I persevered, each day begging Jesus for a teacher. I reasoned that if only He would send me a teacher, I could understand what had happened and be strengthened spiritually. Others had spiritual teachers or mentors, why could I not have one?

About six months after my husband and I married I heard someone speaking to me in meditation. A great peace enfolded me with the presence of this voice. In short time I could see this person. He identified himself as the prophet, Moses. His countenance was of white light radiance. He was dressed in white and had a long, white beard. At first, I was frightened. Was this really Moses and if he were why did he pick me?

He continued to appear to me almost daily starting in the spring of 1991 and continuing for about six months. He taught me about spiritual things and gave me spiritual understanding where I was lacking. He gave me simple messages about Jesus and Father Jehovah. Deep within my heart, I knew he was Moses. The language was so simple and comforting.

I shared the nature of these messages with someone in San Francisco, who had a computer website. He was interested in these messages and shared them with others. In a short time Jesus took the place of Moses in these messages and began speaking to me like a dear friend. I sat for lengthy conversations and wrote what He had to say. He gave me greater spiritual understanding and grave warnings for troubled times ahead if people did not come back to the living of The Laws of Love and The Ten Commandments.

Back then, I was attacked from many sources. The devil worshipers really came after the man with these messages. They threatened to kill him and taunted him day after day. Others, who did not believe in Jesus, reviled me. These messages were largely rejected in a part of the country where the greatest numbers are spiritually bankrupt.

I was deeply saddened as God opened up my vision further to show me the cult of devil worshippers having orgies with children and even sacrificing children. This horror story gripped me. It depressed me. It stole my peace day after day.

One day, I said, "Jesus teach me how to fight this. Teach me how to go up against this evil. I cannot stand to look at this day after day."

He said, "Child, bind them. Bind the evil demons and send them out."

I called in warrior angels with great swords of light and asked for their help. I went in The Spirit of God and took giant nets of Spirit and tossed it over and around these huge, dark ugly demons. They fought. They hissed and cursed. They were strong. I cried for help, as I felt like such a babe, and this was a great job for someone so young in spiritual matters. But, the angels and I persevered. This war seemed to use up every last bit of my energy, as I did not know how to replenish myself with The Holy Spirit as I know now. Neither was I at the point to carry as much Spirit of God as I do now.

So, I fought, and won victories for God, however small. Yet, I lost. I got more and more sickly. But, still I persevered. Out of the blue someone would call me about someone lost to devil worship. And, I would go again with the angels in spirit to fight this evil.

Over the years, God has amplified my vision in detection of evil spirits. I allow them no place in our house or around my husband or me. He brings them home regularly from the mental hospital, where he works. Every day I bind any and all demons and send them into The Pits of Hell in the name of Jesus Christ, to remain there until He releases them. For the disembodied spirits, I call on The Guardians, who coax them into heaven, as I have told you previous. Spiritual warfare has been an intricate part of my work for God. It is not one I look forward to, as it is a war, but I work willingly for My God that people may be free.
By the grace of God, I have not touched a drop of alcohol since April 25, 1989. God has told me that He will heal me. The breast cancer about which doctors lied is steadily shrinking and the problems with the autoimmune disease is largely under control from taking nutritional supplements. Jesus sent me information about what to take through the mail. I put my faith and trust in Him, and my faith grows steadily as Jesus reveals Himself constantly through His love, compassion, faithfulness and mercy. I know with all my heart and soul that Jesus truly is Our Savior. No one can prophesy without this knowing.

In the following pages, I share the spiritual experiences given to me by Jesus and Our Most High God, Jehovah. It is my hope that these experiences will help strengthen your spiritual walk.

When I speak of Jesus Christ, remember that He is One with The Father (John 10:30). He has said to me, "See me as THE BRANCH, and The Father as THE TREE." When Jesus signs off in the writings as: I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah Most High God, remember that He is One with The Father. Know that Jesus is The Way, The Truth and The Life, (John 14:6), and The Light (John 8:12). He is your Way, your Truth, your Light and your Life.

Understand this through and through and know it with all your heart. This is the nature of Jesus.

After the horrible devil fights in California I ceased writing for a while. Survival took priority, as the illness became so intense. Still, I would get up about 4:00 am to read the scriptures, pray and meditate. My heart became so heavy in 1995 and 1996 for the weights upon me.

I determined to go after the doctor, who dumped silicone in my chest and to make the irresponsible breast implant manufacturers pay. But, it was not God's will for me to be involved in any kind of payback, lawsuits or any waste of time in this kind of thing. He closed every door I tried to open. He turned others on me with a vengeance. One woman began stalking me and stalked me for over one and one half years.

I withdrew more and more into The Lord. I filled every waking moment with thoughts of Him and His majesty. With every breath He and His purposes were not far from my heart. I desired more than anything to walk in humility and submission before Him.

Month after month my early morning prayer was the same. "God, show us the way. Please don't let us be lost in the darkness. I beg of you, please, please help us!"

On the night of May 9, 1997 I had a recurrent dream of walking with my husband through great darkness An individual with powerful eyes, dressed in white, appeared and reappeared throughout the night, urging me to read Psalms. I got up about 3:00am and came out into the living area. I prayed to God, and asked him what the dream meant. His loving voice said, "Read Psalms 18."

Hurriedly, I read through this scripture, which is a song spoken to The Lord by David in the day that The Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. When I got to verse 28, I knew that God was speaking to me through this Psalm. Verse 28 says: "For, thou wilt light my candle: The Lord, My God will enlighten my darkness." As I look back on this I see the powerful prophecy in these words. I am so deeply humbled by God's love.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

On May 15, 1997, I had a dream of traveling along, trying to get back to a school where I had been before. I got lost and found myself on a narrow mountain road, curving around the outside of the mountain. The headlights on my car didn't work. I was not wearing my glasses and could see nothing. Fervently I prayed to God to help me find my way. (This dream is pushing me to let go of any dependence on the dark mountain of self and reach out to God. The earthly glasses cannot help me on this journey. It involves a leap of faith off the dark mountain to His Mountain. At this point, I would have no idea of the great role His Holy Mountain would play in receiving these prophecies and growing in His Spirit. This dream is so important as it bring me to new levels in Him that I could never have imagined a few years before. Read on.)

Suddenly, I was at the bottom of the hill amidst much light. I found two children, and asked them if they could tell me where the school was located.

From their directions, I found the school with no problem. (This is the school of the prophets.) It was situated atop a mountain, illumined brightly with a golden white light.

Another person, who was not traveling with me, found the school at the same time. We were both greeted by someone from the school, who was dressed in white. I shared with the one dressed in white my experiences of being lost on the dark mountain. As we stood on the illumined mountain, this one attired in white fed each of us something like ice cream. (Mind you, this was not ice cream, but something of this consistency.)

After eating, I turned to look far across the valleys to hills in the distance. I could read what was written on the hills far away, even though a mist was forming near the tops of the mountains. In the dream, I marveled that I had 20/20 vision. (Would I ever get vision! Like never before!)
In the early morning hours of May 16, 1997, Jesus spoke to me in meditation and said, "You will be given many visions. Have no fear. Walk with me." (At this time, there was no way of knowing just how many visions I would get. But as you read on and study what He has given you will be shocked at the depth of these words.)

Since that time, I have had many visions, indeed. I am reminded of a passage in

Ecclesiastes 1:18, which says, "For, in wisdom is much grief: And, he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow."

My sorrow runs deep for a people who are asleep. Soon, war and destruction shall fall upon The USA and most of the world.

The following is an excerpt from one of my most troubling, earlier visions.

On the morning of May 24, 1997, I saw Satan stand above The Earth. He had puppet strings attached to the leaders of the world, even and especially The United States of America. One of the darkest and heaviest strings was attached to The Congress of The USA, another to The United Nations, one to Russia, one to Germany, one to China, one to Mexico, one to Africa and one to The Arab Alliance. These were large, dark, heavy strings.

Then, Jesus said, "Look!"

I looked and saw a cloud, red and noxious, emerge from Russia, striking out across The Atlantic Ocean and settling beneath the sea. Dark submarines surrounded The USA and lurked silently in the deep waters of the oceans. Then I saw a man in a watchtower and heard him say, "We are ready."

The writing beneath the watchtower read: "USSR." The soldier in the watchtower was watching The USA.

As he watched, dark storm clouds gathered over The USA, and Satan pulled the thick puppet strings of Russia, Germany, China, Mexico, The Arab Alliance and The United Nations. They came together to form a line against The USA.
Then, Jesus said, "Behold!"

I looked to see a mother carrying a new babe. On the mother's feet and wrists were chains. The chains had no locks; she could be free if she wanted to be. But, the woman still saw herself as in chains, in bondage. The baby was crying for milk, but the mother's breasts were dry.

The mother was a giant among mothers, and stood tall, but her knees were those of a puppet; her legs were wooden. Her eyes were blinded with a heavy, dark covering, and, where there should have been pupils and irises, there were none. She wore the eyes of the blind beggar. Across her chest was the USA Flag. The baby wailed.

Then, I heard the voice of Jesus say, "And lo, Behold!"

Suddenly, from the sky, a hangman's noose appeared. As I looked, I could see that it was attached to those, who had the dark, heavy attachments to the puppet master. These dark attachments went to Russia, Germany, China, Mexico, The Arab Alliance and the United Nations. They controlled the hangman's noose. The noose was fitted snugly around the neck of the woman. It was tightened, and the eyes of the woman bulged. As this happened, the pupils and irises of the woman returned. She was near death. She dropped the baby, and as it broke into 1,000 pieces, I saw that it was made of clay.

Then, Jesus said, "Behold!"

And, like a thief in the night, the submarines began to fire upon the USA. These are the areas I saw hit by the bombs, but not necessarily in this order: 1.Los Angeles; 2 A desert area; 3 Dallas; 4 Houston; 5 Little Rock; 6 Minnesota; 7 New York City; 8 Mobile; 9Chicago; 10 Cincinnati; 11Pennsylvania; 12. St. Louis; 13 Washington DC (three times); 14 Atlanta (one fizzles in air, but others hit) 15Virginia; 16 Florida (several locations); 17New Orleans; 18 Ohio, again; 19Kentucky; 20 Tennessee (two places); 21Michigan (four places); 22Oklahoma City; 23 Cheyenne, Wyoming; 24 Alaska; 25 Hawaii. These are not all, but they are the majority.

The woman fell and great numbers of people lay dead and dying. In many areas, the bombs killed only the people and left the buildings. The evil ones had plans for the mighty buildings of Babylon. But, the soil and the water were contaminated and the food was not fit to eat.

When this country falls others will go in like fashion. All will turn on each another until Lucifer has his face off with Jesus Christ. But Lucifer will lose, and so will those who follow him. The punishment for those who follow will be severe.

The above vision reinforces another shorter and less detailed vision I had on May 16, 1997. In that vision I saw a nuclear war take place in The USA in 1998. I saw white fire shoot across New York City. Outside lay snow.

Many subsequent visions show war beginning in the USA near mid-December, 1998. An economic collapse, seen in 1991, will precede this war.

One day in early summer of 1997, I was out in the garden under a shade tree praying. As I prayed a radiant angel dressed in white appeared to me. The angel said, "Follow me."

As I began to follow the angel, I found myself in spirit climbing a very tall mountain. Finally, we came to the top of this mountain. At this point that I knew that this was no ordinary mountain. It shone with a radiance, and the experience was full of light and joy. A few weeks later I ran across a passage from Isaiah 2:2.

"And, it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall Flow into it."

What I did not realize in the garden that summer day was that this journey up The Mountain of The Lord was just the beginning of a long series journeys up The Mountain. Time after time, I have been deeply humbled by the truths given of Our Precious Lord from the heights of This Mountain. These journeys have brought great light into the life of a simple person, whose greatest desire is to serve God.

In early summer of 1997, My dear brother deeply prayed for God to give me the gift of speaking in tongues. God answered his prayers. Amidst the beauty of this heavenly language, and on the wings of His Holy Spirit, God takes me regularly to the heights of

His Mountain where he feeds me.

In the pages which follow, you will read much about your destiny. The heavenly truths imparted to you through these pages will forever change the lives of many.

THANKS

To Our Precious Jesus and Lord God Jehovah, I bow down with gratitude and humility and great love for making this work possible, and for providing a way to get it out to you. In all He is faithful. I trust in His Way.

I stand before God with all my frailties and claim no power or authority of my own. I have been called of God to prophecy, anointed for this walk and given freely of His Spirit. You will read the visions, prophecies and experiences given me of God. I have worked diligently, but can claim no perfection. Try as I might my human frailties come through. I pray that I have not made too many errors, but if I have made them I beg God to look at my heart. For it is full of love for Him. I only wish to serve Him.

God told me early last summer to get ready to do much writing for Him. In the course of these writings, I have been given three meat dreams. In each dream angels came and brought me more and more meat. I had never seen so much meat as I saw in one of these dreams. It was all over the counters, in the refrigerator and in the stove.

The Bible says that meat is not fit for one new to the Spiritual Path. The babe cannot digest it, as this one needs milk. Many will not accept the meat of the word in these prophecies. They are still at the milk stage. In I Cor. 3:2, The Apostle Paul writes, "I have fed you with milk, and not with meat; for heretofore ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able." But now we are in the very last days before the return of Christ and He wants the truths to come forth. Many of these truths have been hidden or denied the masses since His journey on earth. This shall be no more. The meat shall be made available for those who can digest it.

God told me that He would make the way to publish these works and to be quiet, sit still and wait on Him. For the space of a month, from the middle of December 1997 to the middle of January 1998, I waited on the Lord. Jesus told me to go on a modified fast for five days and, after five days had passed, to make a decision about how to proceed.

During the interim, one called to prophecy from another state wrote me and told me that God directed him to build me a website. But God had not told me this. So, I prayed and Jesus told me to wait for three more days before I made a decision. On the third day, which was the fifth day of the modified fast, Jesus told me that this man who offered to build the website would take offense to some of the writings and that he would make decisions in his mind against them. I sent the man what Jesus said and did not hear anything for several weeks. But Jesus' very words would come true at later date when this man turned on me, leveling accusations from his mind.

The same day that I e-mailed the above man, I went to the post office and received a letter from a prophet in another state, who had been going through a hard time. In this letter he sent enough money for us to build a website. We ended up buying numerous programs before the website could be built.

My dear husband studied these programs day after day, week after week, working, correcting, studying, and working. I have been so touched in his dedication. God has given him a talent, a perfection, and He is using it for God's glory.

This precious prophet who sent the money also sent a note from God. I wish to share this note with you:

"Here is a prophetic word the Lord gave me for you:

Hold fast, My Angel, to what I have shown you. Though ten thousand or ten million be against you, they are as nothing before Me. I AM architect of over a hundred billion galaxies, yet I watch over every hair on your head, so be at peace.

You are marked with My Precious Blood. It is upon the doorsteps and lintels of your house, and the angel of Death must pass over, for I the LORD have spoken it.

Be not afraid of the arrow of criticism that flies by day or the terror that comes by night in Satanic attack. My rod and My staff are your comfort. I will never leave you nor forsake you.

Though a hundred fall at your side, the enemy will not harm you; though fire consume all around you, you will not be burned, for I created all and My power is limitless. Rest in the land and enjoy safe pasture, for your Shepherd watches over you and is on the lookout for wolves day and night."

J. Douglas Swaffield

To receive this word was so very meaningful and timely. For several nights, I had fought demons in my sleep. His words about criticism are so precious, as so many criticize me already.

As you read this page, know that I thank God for your life and hope that you know the hand of God in your daily affairs. We cannot make it on our own, though we may think so. I have been there and never wish to go back to the darkness I have known. (See "God's Hand in My Life".)

Know that the world sits on the eve of great destruction. It is time to take your spiritual walk very seriously. If you love complacency, you will be lost. Seek God and He will give you salvation. Jesus is your truth.

Standing in Jesus Love,

Linda Newkirk

CHAPTER ONE

THE VATICAN PROPHECIES

Latter Day Prophecies relating to The Fall of the Vatican

The prophecies and visions in this book come from The Mountain of The Lord. God carries me there on The Wings of His Spirit after deep prayer and spiritual seeking. But, from time to time, God gives me visions in different ways. The following vision is one such vision. I include it because of its relevance to The Vatican Prophecies.

06-29-1997

I was standing over the kitchen sink washing dishes and praying, when I clearly saw Pope John Paul II. He was pushing a very large casket through the streets of Russia. On the casket was a white flag with black letters that said: USSR. The casket was closed and was situated on a low platform with wheels.

As The Pope pushed the casket along, he would reach into his left pocket with his right hand and grab a large handful of gold coins. Then, he would take the gold coins and throw them across his left arm to large numbers of peasants, who were standing alongside the road, separated from him by a fence. He dropped some of the coins on the street, but seemed unconcerned as his pockets were overflowing. Then, he would repeat the procedure with the other hand. The gold coins had the likeness of Lenin engraved on one side and Stalin on the other.

He kept at this for some time. After a while, I saw that the casket was being pushed open from the inside. I saw a large red giant rising from the casket. The giant rose up and came completely out of the casket. Then it pushed the casket off the platform and stood on the platform very, very tall, being pushed by the power of The Pope. All along, The Pope continued to toss gold coins to the peasants.

After a brief while, The Pope pushed the red giant to a very steep cliff. The platform eased off the edge of the cliff and the giant tumbled forward. He rolled forward not as a red giant, but as a huge, black ball, which hit the ocean with a great splash.

The huge, black ball traveled beneath the ocean for some time. Then, I watched as it emerged from the ocean and went into a tunnel. The giant then appeared and knocked on a small door with a very small window. A person peeped at the giant through the tiny window, and said, "Come on in."

I looked to see the name of the person, who answered the door. The name was "Florida." The giant then went up Florida and stopped at Cape Canaveral.

An Interpretation of this vision through Our Lord, Jesus:

"Child, it is I, Master Jesus. As you will see in visions to come, all is not as it seems with this Pope. His works are dark and his hands are soiled with gold. For, he has stepped in to feed the peasants but has bought them with glitter. Yea, The Pope is working in darkness to bring communism back to new heights. For, he has plans of his own.

Child, do not believe that what you see is real regarding him and his works in the media. For, he is caught up in illusion. He gives the masses what they desire and in darkness he carries out his own agenda which is to bring down The United States.

His idea is to rule the world. But, all shall not be, as he believes. For, soon he shall die and behind him even more wicked shall follow who shall also be puppets of the antichrist.

You ask about the infiltration of Florida by communists from Russia and whether The Pope has played a role in this. Child, did you not see him help to raise the red giant? Did you not see this in vision? Yea, there is much which goes on in darkness which will shock, yea surprise the masses. Stand strong in me, Child, for I shall reveal all. I am Jesus, yes I am one with Jehovah."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

This interpretation is given of Our Lord on January 29, 1998 as I am getting these prophecies ready for Internet distribution. See below for more:

Around mid-November of 1997, the 6:00 news shocked my senses. I watched as Florida law enforcement officers worked feverishly to fight The Russian Mafia, which has taken a stronghold in Miami. The news reporter described this Mafia as without conscience, infiltrating the Miami area with scams and violent crime. The report showed Russians killed senselessly and left on the streets like dogs. Florida has become a select area for migration of Russians. Why?

Second Vision Regarding Pope John Paul II

July 1, 1997

In a vision, I went to the top of a huge, radiant, golden-white mountain with The Spirit of God, The Spirit of Truth, sent by Our Lord, Jesus. The Mountain was situated well above all activity on Earth, and I was aware that from this vantagepoint, I could see whatever might be going on down below on The Earth.

The Holy Spirit said, "Look down there."

I looked far down, and my attention was directed to The Vatican. There, I could see that The Vatican was flying its flag at half-mast.

"Who died?" I said.

"Go in and see," The Holy Spirit said.

I opened the heavy doors in front and went into a large building. Inside the building, it was completely dark, except for the whites of dark eyes, which seemed to fasten on me and follow my every movement. I saw these eyes in every corner, from every part of the hallway, from the ceiling and from the floors. As I looked at the floor, I saw slithering, black snakes as they scattered in all directions.

I slipped on something, and almost fell. "My Lord, Jesus," I said, "guide me through this, for this is one dark, wicked mess."

Jesus spoke to me through His Spirit saying, "Child, I am with you always. I in you, and you in Me."

I looked back to see what I had slid on, and it was a banana peel with rows of tiny mirrors. I instinctively knew that the peel had been put there to make me slip, and the mirrors were there to watch my every step. The mirrors sent signals up to a large balcony. I looked up to see two thugs dressed in black on the balcony waiting with a snare. They were hoping to catch me and hang me in their noose.

"My Lord," I said, "Look at that!"

I felt The Holy Spirit coursing through me and I blurted out, "Hashi, Shiya, Hafta!" This was translated to me by The Holy Spirit: "You hang on your own snare!" Then, I saw the thugs snatched up. Right then and there, they hung together from the balcony on their own snare. Soon, they took their last breath and died.

I traveled on with The Spirit of God as my pure friend and companion to an open area. The area was a round, tiled foyer of sorts, with a stained glass dome overhead, affording light from above to the area. I saw something fall from above and hit the tile. It was a small bottle cap like that of a carbonated drink bottle. The cap was bent on one side, as if an instrument had pried it off the bottle, leaving a turned-up corner. I picked up the bottle cap and looked on the top of it. On the inside of the cap was a small round piece of cork, which apparently had been used as a sealant. I took my fingernail and lifted the cork from the cap.

Something came pouring out from beneath the cork. There were many pictures connected one to another by plastic holders. These plastic holders reminded me of the ones used to hold pictures in a wallet, and were about the same size. The long line unfolded like an accordion, and fell from my chest area all the way to the floor. It kept unrolling all the way down the hall and into The Square outside where it finally stopped by a brick wall.

Someone climbed out of the last plastic picture holder. He wore cowboy boots and saddle pants with jeans. I followed his feet as he climbed a ladder by the wall. He kept climbing up the ladder until he stood on the wall. "Who is this man," I said.

Then, I saw him pull off his cowboy hat. He stood there on The Great Wall of China waving his hat back and forth and smiling. It was Bill Clinton.

Someone from the Secret Service ran up to Mr. Clinton, and said, "Mr. Clinton, you must come down from there. We've had a bad explosion, Sir. America is burning. The United States has been bombed, Sir."

"By whom?" The president said.

"We do not know, Sir. Our towers aren't functioning. We can't track it. We can only tell that we're surrounded, Sir."

There was not another word, and the picture faded. I said to The Holy Spirit, "Is there more?"

"Yes, The Spirit said. "Look at this."

I realized that I was still standing in the foyer, and my eyes fell on a picture just in front of me. It was the first picture in the sequence, and when I picked it up I saw that it was a picture of a pig. He stood in front of a black and white wood-burning stove wearing a white apron and holding a black frying pan. He was cooking link sausage one at a time in the pan; and he held a plate of hot biscuits, which he placed in the warmer above the stove. Now and then, he would toss the sausage into the air. He was cooking his last one when the stove caught fire from the grease dripping onto the stove.

Then, the pig caught fire. His apron was burning. His flesh was burning. The kitchen caught fire, and the house burned down. The Pig managed to escape, but it was not the pig, which I saw emerge from beneath the flames, but a man, who looked like Clint Eastwood.

"Clint Eastwood!" I said.

The Holy Spirit said, "Yes, Clint Eastwood."

"Why?" I asked.

The Holy Spirit said, "Would he not make a good Marlboro Man?"

I said, "I don't know."

"Well, they think so," The Holy Spirit said.

Then I saw the Clint Eastwood look-a-like going through fields of rice patties in The Orient, giving away cigarettes to little children. They were smoking them, their eyes running with tears. These children grew up into adults, wearing black, and dying early of lung cancer.

I said to The Holy Spirit, "Why are you showing me this to me now?"

And, The Holy Spirit said, "Look!"

Then, I saw four dark railroad ties situated to form an entranceway into a dark tunnel. The tunnel traveled far into The Earth.

The Holy Spirit said, "Get into the railroad car."

I said, "But, it has no power."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"But, you have me."

So, I climbed into the car and took off through many mountains at high speeds to the end of the tunnel, where it came out at the edge of a lake.

"That tunnel," I said to The Holy Spirit, "where did it begin?"

"Saint John's Lake," The Holy Spirit said.

"Where did it end?"

"At The Lake of Our Lady."

"I don't understand," I said.

"You have a man-made tunnel connecting Saint John's Lake in the Soviet Union with Our Lady's lake in Rome."

"Why is this?"

"They are one and the same," The Holy Spirit said.

"What are these lakes?"

"They are fed from the same spring," The Holy Spirit said.

"What spring?"

"The Spring of the Equinoxes," The Holy Spirit said.
"The equal days and nights spring?"

"That's right," The Holy Spirit said.

"I don't understand this."

"My Child, go back and look at the label on the train."

I did. The label said, "I kill women and children."

"I still don't understand," I said.

"My child, those leaders connecting these two shall try to make the days and nights equal, the blacks and whites, the rich and poor, equal in all ways through communism. These springs feed these lakes in The Soviet Union and The Vatican, Child. The train going through the cave connecting the two will kill women and children."

"Why women and children?" I asked.

"To control population," The Holy Spirit said.

"Why will these leaders not kill men?"

"Men are needed more for war and labor."

"Yea, but why Marlboro?"

"It is systematic now in China for population control."

"But, why Clint Eastwood? Is this real?"

"It is," The Holy Spirit said.

"So, we go from a pig, to one, who looks like Clint Eastwood, to killing in China, to making people equal, to killing women and children. What does it all mean"

"See the Vatican burning?" The Holy Spirit said.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes," I said.

"See the Pope dead?"

"Yes."

"See Russia laid to waste?"

"Yes."

"See major infanticide and killing of huge numbers of women worldwide?"

"Yes," I said.

"Child, these are beautiful lakes on the surface and the pig is fat and fun on the outer. The pork is fat, but the fat burns, My Child, and all, who partake of the fat die in the fire."

"What is this fat?"

"This fat, My Child, is the taking of innocent life by any means. All shall die a horrible death in the fire," The Holy Spirit said, "but, the ring leaders shall never leave the fire."

"You said ‘never’," I said.
"Look at the Lake of Fire, My Child. Do you see them leave?"

"No," I said.

"Then, ‘tis so. This is the fate of The Pope, who is raising The Soviet Union to bring you down. He wishes to make you all equal through war. He plans to rule the world, but he is a fool. Russia plans to rule the world. She is a fool. The Syrian plans to rule the world. All are fools, for The Red Dragon says, "I shall rule it." But, he is a fool, for The Lamb has already paid the price. He is the heir."

"This is a lengthy procession," I said. "And, all those pictures in this long line give a piece of the puzzle?"

"They do," The Spirit of God said.

"And, will you open them up to me? " I asked.

"I will," Jesus said through His Spirit.

"Then, break the seal and let them roll," I said. "By the power and blood of Jesus!"

From henceforth, I will make a statement at the end of each vision: as witnessed, dictated and recorded. This means witnessed and recorded by me, Linda Newkirk, and dictated by Our Lord Jesus, who is one with Jehovah. The above vision was witnessed, dictated and recorded on July 01, 1997.

Linda Newkirk

I was in the super market in the week of the 7th of October 1997 and picked up The Weekly World News tabloid. When I opened it up, cold chills ran up and down my spine. Near the front of the magazine was a picture of a Chinese youth with his mouth brimming full of lighted cigarettes. There must have been 100 plus cigarettes in his mouth! The article went on to describe how Chinese children are smoking themselves to death. Many promising students are dying from nicotine poisoning as these kids bid to see who can smoke the most cigarettes. According to the article, businessmen sponsor these smoking contests. The Chinese Government is described as "concerned." The Chinese Government is not concerned, as The Spirit of God has spoken differently.

CHAPTER TWO

THE VATICAN PROPHECIES

Jesus presents most visions to me after seeking Him in prayer from 30 minutes to one and one half hours in the early mornings. Each time, I feel the power of The Spirit of God as it descends upon me and I see its white flames, lapping upward. The presence of His Spirit illuminates any dark entities or dark attachments they have made to me, to this house, property or anything around us. Through the power of The Holy Spirit and under the authority of Jesus, I work in conjunction with Holy angels to bind any demons and send them into The Pits until Jesus sees fit to let them out. He has told me that they of ten do not stay there long, but at least this gets them away from me. It is so important to seek out and get rid of any demons every day as Satan will often sneak in and try to tie me up or bind me in my sleep. I can clearly see any attempts as chains or ropes bound to my hands, feet, legs, head etc. The Fire of God burns away these things which look like ropes or chains. This Fire comes in and cleanses my soul and surroundings. It is very important for anyone serious about prophecy to do this every day. Satan is so subtle and so oppressive. The mere presence of these ropes and chains is terribly oppressive. Where these are you find attempts of Lucifer to bind the Light Bearers. Once I have prayed long in tongues and have done the above spiritual warfare, I am surrounded by God's Spirit, which blocks out all interference until my focus is squarely on God, what He shows me and speaks to me.

I do not always get a firm grasp on what He says through His Spirit. Sometimes, I am totally lost or learn by bits and pieces. This is especially true of the unfolding visions.
When I started receiving prophecies, I saw myself as a child with two, long, brown pigtails skipping along on various journeys. Later, Jesus put me on The Path of the Prophets and give me a white prophets robe with a white hood.

Prophecy is a journey. It can take one to many places and many levels. Prophecy requires great discipline, if one is to grow in The Wisdom and Power of God.

When there are no words to describe what I see and hear, acknowledge my feeble attempts. For, instance, there is no way to describe the feeling of peace at the top of The Mountain, or to describe the beauty of The Light there. I cannot describe the feeling of The Power of The Holy Spirit, or the deep humility I feel for knowing such love and power.

You may be left with many questions, as I am. But, if you keep searching for God's wisdom in all things, He will hear you and give you understanding. The same Light, which has brought me truth and understanding, will illumine all to you.

Funeral of The USA

July 01, 1997

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. The winds of war rage, Child, and unknown to you and the rest of the world the mighty military equipment sits on ready. Pluck the pearls from your eyes, sleeping children, for your days of merriment are numbered, and run shallow to the last of the pail.

Now, Precious Child, your heart wonders on the last vision from The Mountain and into the Vatican, as you were shown there a long line in a sequence of pictures, yea visions to be given you. And, as I speak through My Holy Spirit but truth, Child, you shall be fed more truths from The River on this subject.

Now, My Child, come up onto The Mountain. And be not afraid for the height is great and the air is fine. From this stance one is given to see the tiniest of specks. From this vantage point My Child, the River runs pure, yea, crystal clear.

Now, Child, dip your cup into The River and drink of water so pure that the soul is illuminated. Yea, every speck stands before God, for all is known. Known, My Child, of your frailties before me, yet, you keep coming back to this River to swim and drink. Known, My Precious Ones, all your frailties. For each of you stands naked as the day of your birth. You hide nothing, for I see all. The pure of heart does not exist among you.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

I see and know your hearts. I seek the willing of heart, who strive to be perfect, even as I am perfect.

Fear not, those who keep coming to The River, for you shall never thirst. I fill your cup full and running over. For, I am He, who sends The River to you, that you may thirst no more. Yea, I am Jesus,…Jehovah, Most High God of Earth.

Now, Precious Child, behold the long line of pictures running from the Vatican. You have been shown the first and the last through vision and prophecy. And now reach down, My Child, and pick up the second picture."

From the heights of The Mountain, I was suddenly carried back into The Vatican; and the long line of pictures lay before me. I picked up the first picture and I saw on it a weathered, half-opened door with heavy door facings. The lock to the door required a skeleton key. It was of radiant brass, clean as if it had been kept polished through repeated usage of the key. Outside the door was a well-worn path with a beautiful array of flowers dotted carefully here and there.

"Go on in, My Child," Jesus said.

I stepped over the threshold, which was raised quite a bit--maybe six inches. Once in, I could see that the door did not open into a house but a countryside. I found myself on a well-worn path, which led into a forest. The path dropped off rather steeply up ahead. Dark woods loomed just ahead on the left; and to the right was a huge black bear. He wanted to get at me, but could not as a steep wall of glass suddenly appeared between us. He followed my every step, clawing at the glass.

I looked in his direction, and the huge black bear turned into a fairy the size of a person, with a magic wand.

"What would you wish, My Child?" She asked.

I ignored her and continued to follow the path. It was steep and the rocks were jagged. I had bypassed the forest, but now found that the boulders were huge--so huge that it was impossible for me to walk further. The path seemed to disappear, and I found myself out on a ledge overlooking a deep canyon.

"My Lord, I am stranded on this ledge," I said.

"Behold, My Child," Jesus said. As he spoke, great angels came with hands like cotton; and they picked me up and sat me in a very tall tree.

"What do you see, My Child?" Jesus asked.

"Oh, My Lord, I see a funeral procession. It is coming down the very trail I just traveled. Many people are coming through that door, every one of them is dressed the same, … in black."

"What more, Child?"

"My Lord, the only thing of color I see is The Flag of the USA draped over a bronze coffin. This is a great contrast to the black suits and white shirts worn by all the women and men. Now a woman with flaming, red hair comes into view. She wears black high heeled shoes, and has twisted her ankle just now on a rock."

"What more do you see about her?"

"I see that she has a very big, black purse, and that she takes something from the purse."

"And, what is this, My Child?"

"My Lord, it is something black. It is a black roll, kind of like a black roll of film, but seems to be heavier than film, almost like a very small black tarp on a roll. She rolls it out on a table, and then I see miniature dancers appear and start to dance on the black roll. There are two of these very small dancers. Soon, they stop dancing and go into an army tent."

"Who are these, My Child?"

"My Lord, they are Bill Clinton and Nikita Khruschev. It looks like they are fighting, but I cannot see very well. I see men lurking in the shadows. Clinton's hands are tied behind his back and Khruschev stands with his feet on Mr. Clinton's back. Then, Khruschev says, 'Guard, get me some seltzer water.'

"My Lord, why would he need seltzer water?"

"Look, My Child!"

I see Khruschev cut his wrist until he draws blood. Then, he drips the blood into Mr. Clinton's mouth.

"We are blood brothers," he tells Bill Clinton. Then, he unties Clinton, and lets him up. I watch as they both drink blood from the same cup of seltzer water, which contain the blood of Khruschev.

"My Lord, Mr. Clinton's teeth are red!"

"Yes, indeed, Child, his teeth are red."

"I do not feel good about this."

"Neither, should you, My Child, for The Red Dragon has the most unlikely acquaintances."

"What about this woman with the red hair. Who is she, My Lord?"
"Look on the purse, Child. What do you see?"

"It says, ‘Everything is fine and dandy here.’"

"My Child, what of her shirt?"

"It says, ‘United Nations’ on the right pocket of the shirt."

"And, what of her back, My Child?"

"My Lord, the back of her shirt says ‘Dead and gone.’ I am not sure I know what this means."

"Child, look at the casket."

"Yes, My Lord, I see it. It bears the flag of the USA."

"Look inside."

"My Lord, I see nothing but one ball. It is rotating, with one half, which is black and one half, white."

"Take it out, My Child."

"I have it."

"Look inside, open it up. What do you see?"

"My Lord, I see a golden dragon, like the ones seen in The Orient. It is not alive, but steam is from its mouth."

"Look in its mouth, Child. What do you see?"

"I see a Chinese blacksmith with a long piece of metal. He is melting the metal into the shape of a sickle, like the kind used in harvest of olden days."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"What more do you see?"

"This is all. Just the man in that hot oven, forming the sickle. Oh, My Lord, I see more! There is a vulture, a very large, black vulture over the man's head. This blacksmith does not see the vulture. But the mouth of the vulture runs blood for the steel worker."

"Who is the steel worker?"

" My Lord, I do not know. I see only his feet working back and forth, pushing the pedal, which makes air, and feeds the flames. Now a name appears on his feet. And, the name is 'Red China'. The vulture is waiting to eat Red China."

"Who is the vulture?"

"I do not know."

"Look, Child, on the back of the vulture. What do you see coming from the back?"

"My Lord, I do not see anything, but I hear the words 'Hong Kong'. My Lord, how shall Hong Kong eat China?"

"My Child, look at the hands of the worker there with the iron. What do you see?"

"I see that he has brass knuckles, but the knuckles have holes. What does this mean?"

"Child, look at his knees."
"My Lord, his knees are also covered with brass fittings. These brass fittings cover the knees, just as the brass knuckles cover the hands, but these too, have holes. My Lord, I do not know what this means."

"Child, look at the big toe."

"My Lord, I am looking at it. I see a door in the big toe. The worker does not know it is there, as he is so busy working. I then see Chinese peasants go in and out the door of the toe. I see one now with a basket."

"And, what is in the basket?"

" My Lord, the basket is full of fish. As they hop out of the basket and onto the ground, I see that they are not fish, but people. People, My Lord! And they are running from black helicopters. They run through the fields, and hide here and there. I do not understand."

"Look at the casket, Child. This is the death of The United States of America. This was done in secret long ago. Clinton made a pact with the devil, himself, through blood agreement with Khruschev to go The Red Way. The death knoll tolls for The USA, My Child, and many will be involved in this secret--not only Russia but China, as well. All is not well in China. While China prepares for your death, she has a very large, black vulture on her own back. This vulture will help to devour her from within."

"My Lord, what of the black and white ball?"

"The ball within the casket is black and white, as the black and white issues, My Child, will help bury The USA. But, at the center of the black and white issues are not real black and white issues, but communism, being molded and fanned by Red China. Issues which may appear to be black and white issues are really communist issues being propelled by Red China."

"My Lord, what of the brass knuckles and knee coverings?"

"They show the hole in the makeup of Red China, My Child, which is Hong Kong. When Red China is not looking, Hong Kong will devour it. This is in the works. Red China shall not prevail as they wish, for internal strife shall be great."

"My Lord, you have shown me the red headed woman. Tell me about her."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"When the USA dies, she shall be very prominent. My Child, this is the Red Dragon of Communism. She is dressed in black, as she brings death. Her purse is large, as she will take from you all you have."

"My Lord, who are these in black at this funeral?"

"Look, My Child."

"I see Bill Clinton. I see Margaret Thatcher. I see several from Germany. In fact three from Germany now take the casket and lift it. They throw it over a steep cliff. There are mountains all around, and these mountains are named The Swiss Alps. Then, these three dust off their hands, and the others applaud them. Even Bill Clinton applauds. He is walking back up the path with several of them, and they are chatting. He is talking to the king of Saudi Arabia. Someone comes by with a copy of The New York Times. On the front of the paper is written, 'US sells out to Oil Rich Countries.'"

"Clinton takes a copy of it and laughs. He says, 'They will never know, will they?' He sits there alone with the Saudi Arabian king. Night begins to fall and Clinton says, "Well, we must go. Something is beginning to bite me." He starts scratching all over. The crickets come out and start singing. The Saudi Arabian king stays on. Clinton pulls out a bottle of calamine lotion. He pulls his pants down and starts to rub this lotion on his legs. As he does huge sores appear on his legs. Each sore has an ugly black spider on it. Clinton is covered all over with these ugly black spiders. The king gasps as he sees the sores. He hops back, then turns and runs off."
"Clinton watches the king leave. He begins to tear at these wounds, and blood pours from each wound. Then, each wound begins to speak. They are each speaking different things at the same time and I cannot understand a single word. My Lord, this is a mess! This itch, then the spiders, then the sores, then the voices, all saying different things."

"My Child, look again, what do you see?"

"I see atomic bombs going off everywhere all over The USA. But what does this have to do with Clinton and his sores?"

"My Child, the itch comes from the conscience that he has sold his country for fame. This rash is red, as it is started by the red communist take-over. It will make him very uncomfortable. Then, My Child, this irritation will turn into deadly spiders, whose venom will destroy him. My Child, these spiders are the black military forces trained to take over The USA. You hear many voices speaking at once. These are from two sources: the many voices of foreign soldiers upon you, and the voices of innocent persons, he has murdered. These sores caused by atomic war, My Child, shall eventually kill him, and all who took blood covenants, as he has."

"Why did all forsake him but The Arab, My Lord?"

"My Child, as long as a single vehicle moves, you shall need oil. But, even The Arab shall forsake you. Does this show you your future state, My Child?"

"I see it, My Lord. But, who are these others at this funeral?"

"My Child, look! France is not there. England is there along with Russia, China, Mexico, and Switzerland. Canada is not there. Australia is not there. Belgium is there, along with Germany, who has three representatives. Peru and Columbia are there along with Panama. And, there are others. All in all you see 22. These are mostly countries, but there are three individual families represented. The Rothschilds of Germany are the most prominent. (Make not of the mention of these three families. You will see much about their evil.) These, My Child, have planned your demise for a very long time. It is no accident that Bill Clinton was in The Soviet Union as a war protester. His red connections run as deep as blood. He was hand-picked by Satan even before this life to do Satan's work, as he is smooth and credible."

"My Lord, you say that Satan would hand-pick someone before birth?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"'Tis so, My Child. Do not forget that he has access to much knowledge, which you do not have. Did you not see the black bear try to get at you as you entered the door just now?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"This was Satan."

"And, he then became the beautiful fairy, ready to grant my every wish. Yes, My Lord, I saw this."

"This is his way. He is the great deceiver, My Child. All should hold steadfast to their focus on me, lest they be deceived."

"My Lord, this is a terrible thing to behold, the funeral of The USA, and all the double-crossing liars. It is a terrible thing."

"Yes, My Child, 'tis so. There shall be no turning back from this. This is done, My Child."

CHAPTER THREE

THE VATICAN PROPHECIES

Prophetic Words of wisdom

July 10, 1997

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. I come in response to your prayers. Look around yourself and see the flames of My Spirit, and the protection afforded you that these messages may go out. My Child, my hand is upon you, and my foot is upon the enemy. I guard the purity of My Word as a mother hen guards her chicks. The enemy abounds and wishes to stamp out these messages. But this shall not be, I am in charge. And, I am Supreme Commander of Earth. Yea, I am Jesus, Most High God of Earth."

"Now, Precious Child, come with me into the garden on the mountain, and I shall afford you vision, as to what unfolds below."

I looked around myself on The Mountain of golden-white light and there were pastel flowers of the most beautiful shades. My eye caught sight of a single, red rose, which bloomed among the beautiful lilacs. On the leaf below the rose, which was almost fully in bloom was a single dark spot. The rose shot up, a single bloom, and the thorns radiating from the stem were thick and plentiful. "My Lord," I said, "What is this rose amidst the rest? For, it is truly out of place."

"My Child, worry not on this rose, for all shall be revealed. Take the telescope and look far to the base of the mountain, and you will see all as it unfolds."

The Lord handed me a telescope and I put my eye to it, still keenly aware of the rose. I looked far down and my eyes became fixed upon The Vatican, its flag at half-mast. I went skipping along toward The Vatican. I noticed rather quickly that I was being followed by a black and white spotted dog. He followed behind, but kept his distance. When I turned to look at it, it began to growl at me. Speaking in tongues, I cursed the dog, "Hayi Heshna Obi di shani osha!" Suddenly the dog turned into the fairy with the wand.

"I shall grant your every wish," the fairy said.

"Hetu diosha!" I curse you. I said.

The fairy became a croaking frog and hopped away to hide under a rock at the opening of a cave.

"My Lord," I said, "I am at The Vatican, and true evil abounds."

"Yea, My Child, it is so."

"My Lord, I have come to The Square, and have seen the flag, but am now on a yellow brick side walk. I go not through the front doors into The Vatican, but go down this sidewalk, which takes me around the building to the side door. It is locked, My Lord, but I notice that I have the key in my hand. It is a very small skeleton key. With this key, I shall unlock this door. Already I am aware of the eyes peeping through the keyhole at me."

"Yes, My Child, for they know you are coming."

"Why is this, My Lord?"

"The Rose has told them."

"The Rose, My Lord?"

"Yes, My Child. It was no rose, but Satan himself, in one of his many disguises."

"My Lord, he has access to The Mountain?"

"He does, My Child. He knows well your mission and the missions of all like you."

"My Lord, how many are these, like me?"

" 144, 000."

"And, he knows the whereabouts of all of us at all times?"

"He does."

"But, My Lord, The Book of Revelation says that we are ‘virgins.’ How is this, for I am no ‘virgin’?

"Yea, you are all virgins."

"I do not understand, My Lord."

"Child, open the tiny book beside you."

"I have it, My Lord." I pick it up. It is a tiny book, maybe 3 and ½ inches by three inches. It is a light cream color with a light flower border. "I have it, My Lord. And I have opened it to the very first page. But there is no writing."

"Go on."

"Here on the next page, My Lord, I see a man with a cane. He is very thin, and has a very long white beard. One of his eyes is a very pale, beautiful blue, and the other eye seems to have some sort of twinkling star in it. The man is giving me something on a silver tray. It is a cookie, My Lord."
"Take it."

"My Lord, I have it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Break it open, and take out the message."

"I have the message."

"Read it."

"My Lord, it says, ‘Never on a Sunday’."

"Read the reverse."

"It says, ‘Psalms 28.’"

"Find this and read verse 22."

"My Lord, I have My Bible, and I am looking, but there is no verse 22."

"’Tis so, My Child."

"Then, My Lord, why did you have me look for this verse, when there is none? I am confused."

"Yea, you are confused, My Child. For none of you are virgins, as you believe you are"
"Then, My Lord, how are we virgins?"

"Look on his back, the back of the prophet. What does it say?"

"My Lord, it says, ‘Free of sin.’ But, I do not feel free of sin. I am a lowly person, with many faults, many shortcomings."

"Yes, My Child, but you bathe in The River daily. Daily, you lift your heart to me for forgiveness, for salvation. This is how you differ from most."

"And, My Lord, that the 144,000 follow you everywhere, how is this?" (Rev. 14:1-4)

"My Child, do you not follow me everywhere? I in you, and you in me?"

'My Lord, I do my best. I am weak in so many ways, but My Lord, I seek this."

"Then, you follow me everywhere. Child, this is not hard to understand, save it be with the carnal mind. For, only Spirit can give this understanding. Now, Child, we have detoured with reason here, but now you do understand why you are so stalked by the evil one. But fear not, My Child. For now you have power over him and his. When I give him power over your life, your work therein will be finished. Child, never forget who you are. Each of you is being called to This Mountain now and each is being given a keen awareness of who you are. Now, Child, take the key and go in. Have no fear, for these have power over you only, if you allow it."

I opened the door with the key, and was suddenly aware of little pebbles in my pockets. I took the pebbles and tossed them to the front and sides of me and they created light, like some sort of firecrackers. Yet, they made little sound, and remained there in front of me and to the sides, burning, giving off smoke and light. In front of me was a very old and dusty platform on wheels, with a handle of some sort sticking up about three feet high. In the dim light I looked around and was aware of cobwebs hanging everywhere. Furniture was covered by old sheets, and must have been covered for a very long time, as these sheets were now brown from the dust and dirt. I was aware of an old bird overhead in the rafters, which looked something like a pelican, yet was different, as it was darker. The bird made a call and got my attention only briefly.

"Pay no attention, Child, you know who this is."

"Yes, My Lord, it is one sent of Lucifer to distract me."

"Take the handle, My Child, it will steer you forward."

I took the handle, and exclaimed, "My Lord, it is hot to the touch."

"Child, this is an illusion. It is not hot, but cold."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

I took the handle, and then it felt cold.

"Command it, My Child, to move forth under the Power of God. Under My Power."

I commanded it as The Lord directed me and it lifted off the ground, and began to glow with light. The whole area lit up and the dust was immediately burned off the sheets. They became white with The Light. I was up in the air, with the platform, but was not going anywhere."

"Look behind, My Child."

I looked back to see that a vine had grown around the base of the platform.

"Curse the vine, Child, for it is Satan, in disguise."

"Hata asha ti diosha! I curse you to death." The vine became brown, crisp, and then it fell apart.

"Now, Child put on your Son glasses."

"My Lord, I wear these glasses given of you, The Son. They make the far seem near and the very small seem large."

"Let it roll, My Child."

I took the handle and sped along dark corridors with incredible speed. Dark bats flew all around. I heard organ music. "My Lord, I sense that this is funeral music."

"It is, My Child."

"Whose is it, My Lord?"

"Take the picture from the hand of the guard, Child, in the rotunda. Look in the picture."

"My Lord, I have the picture. I see Pope John Paul II. He is there in the study of The Vatican and he is dead. Suspended up in the air, but dead. I see someone who seems to be a magician. He has a round hoop waving the hoop around The Pope's body to show that he really is suspended in air. Then, My Lord, I see an archbishop with a bucket of black axle grease sitting at The Pope's feet rubbing his feet with the black grease. The Pope has a ring on the toe next to the big toe on the right foot. It is mostly gold with something white stuck to the top surface, like a light coating of ivory. This archbishop takes the ring, kisses it, and says 'This is my ring.' The ring has writing on it, which is very hard to read. I am trying to see it. It looks like the year 2001."

"Then, I see George Bush sitting on a red sofa. He is the only one I see, My Lord. He is drinking a golden goblet full of blood. On the outside of the goblet is written, 'The Pope's Blood.'"

George Bush smacks his lips, and says, "I thought this day would never come." He finishes the goblet and sees a dime in the bottom. He takes the dime and throws it out the window. Then, he says, "To hell with this dime! Never again!" The dime bounces on the sidewalk and it turns into a very old man with long white hair and a white beard. The old man is hobbling. His left leg badly swollen and red with infection is about to pop open.

Then, the archbishop takes The Pope and rubs him with something like varnish or shellac. The Pope becomes stiff, like a mummy, and the archbishop puts him in a corner cabinet. Then, My Lord, I see a very festive gathering in the Rotunda. Here comes the carriage of Queen Elizabeth! But when she gets out of the carriage, she looks like the fairy godmother. Satan, again?

"Yes, My child," Jesus said.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Well, My Lord, The Queen gets out as The Fairy God Mother with her husband, Prince Phillip. He looks the same, but she suddenly looks like a hunchback. Her spine is bent over and she walks with a cane. She has a leg iron, My Lord, over her left leg. I cannot see where this chain to this leg iron originates, but it is a very long thick chain.

"Look up over the hill, My Child."

"I see a castle upon that hill with the very large sun behind it, as if it is suspended from the sky. I see bats flying from the castle turning into little blue birds as they fly out of the castle."

"Yes, My Child, 'tis so."

"My Lord, what does this mean?"

"Child, you have entered the inner sanctum of The Pope: The Vatican, itself. Much evil abounds therein, and no one wishes the truth to be known, as you saw when you tried to enter. But, I shall have it known, and by My Power, it shall be known. The Pope shall soon die, and there shall be a fight for his place of power. Magic shall abound at his time of death, as he serves Satan. George Bush represents those, who partake of this evil power, as he, himself is one of the ringleaders in Satan's work. He tosses the dime from the cup of blood, which he drinks. My Child, he will drink of The Pope's blood, as he is among those scheming to bring down The Papacy to set up a universal church of Lucifer. He tosses out the dime, which becomes an old man. In this, he tosses out the idea of tithing.

The idea of tithing turns into an old man with an infected leg. Tithing to win a place in heaven is a very old idea, which is full of infection. The Catholic Church is the old man and the sick leg is the notion that one can buy his place into heaven. This twisted notion is bringing death to a sick system. The old is being purged, My Child. A new day in me and mine is coming."

"Then, My Lord, what of The Queen?"

"Her back is fully laden with her sins, My Child, and she is chained to The Devil in full force."

"But, the Queen's husband is not as bad off?"

"Child, look at his pockets. They are empty and he has no shoes. His teeth are rotting, and falling out. He is losing his hair, and going bald. He has patches on his clothes. My Child, need I say more?"

"Yes, My Lord, be very plain as we proceed. I am a slow, and wish to assume nothing."

"Very well. Continue."

"Then, I see the one in charge of the horses for the carriage--the driver-- who looks like a wooden toy soldier. He climbs up in the driver's seat of the carriage. The Prince gets into the carriage with The Queen and they look just as they do today, dressed in all their finery. The driver whips the horses three times. Then, mighty storm clouds come. Rain falls in the streets and comes halfway up the carriage wheels, then to the top of the wheels. But the carriage continues with the toy soldier driving and no one seems to notice the water. The Queen and her husband continue to chat with someone in the carriage, even though the water is well above the carriage, and the toy soldier continues to drive on."
"Finally, the Queen looks out and sees fish swimming by her. She grabs her throat and says, 'My God, we are surrounded!'"

"I see someone in the carriage with The Royals. He looks at first like The Pope, but I soon see that he isn't The Pope. I don't recognize this man. His forehead is very wide. His hair is brown and pulled straight back, yet it is thin, as he is balding in the temples especially. I believe that this is one of The Rothschild Family, as I hear this name. My Lord, is this so?"

"'Tis so, My Child, but only half so. Look at the other side of the man. He has a twin, called Rockefeller."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, they are carbon copies, sitting front to back, one to the other. They sit there looking first like The Pope, then twins back to back. And, now, My Lord, they are there in the carriage with The Queen, surrounded by water. What is happening?"

"My Child, The Queen and The Prince are riding along under the direction of a toy soldier."

"And, the toy soldier is?"

"The toy soldier is riding under the power of self."

"And, their selves do not see the rain coming?"

"Their selves do not. They are blinded to this."

"Why, My Lord?"

"For, they have not me, Child. They follow the leader of darkness, Satan himself, and, he leads them into Hell."

"But, My Lord, I do not see them go there. I see only that they are surrounded by and covered with water."

"Child, you do not see them go there now, but you shall. The rain, My Child, is the enemy. It pours over them, and they are covered before they know what has happened."

" And, the fish, My Lord? "

"The fish are surveillance from the enemy."

"The Royals are unaware of this surveillance?"

"Nay, they know not. For, it comes from within."

"In what way, ‘from within,’ My Lord?"

"My Child, who keeps them company in the carriage and distracts them from the rain?"

"The two R Families."

"Well, Child, ‘tis so. Those who distract them, plan their destruction."

"How so?"

"For power, for greed, in the race to rule the world."

"So, The Queen is in chains, and knows it not?"

"‘Tis so."

"And her husband, The Prince, is like a clown, barefoot with little money and losing all the time."

"‘Tis so."

"Then, My Lord, what is their fate?"

"Do you see The Prince dead?"

"Yes, My Lord. And The Queen is crying, with the leg chains on. The carriage is gone. She is there with only one horse, a white one. On the side of the horse is a sign that says, ‘Out to Pasture’. The date I see, My Lord, is 2002. I see the white horse with The Queen rise up and gallop off, My Lord. It has a sign on its rear, which I cannot read. Help me with this, Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Adjust your glasses."

"My Lord, it says, ‘The Queen of Mean’."

"That’s right, Child."

"My Lord, I see her stop the horse by the dark rushing current of a stream. It is a full moon. She lifts her dress and wades the dark current and goes to the other side. My Lord, she meets Saddam Hussein."

"‘Tis so, Child."

"Then, My Lord, she gets into the back of a small, red buggy, and he carries her to a tent. It is an army tent, and they sit in the tent and chat. His teeth are sharp, My Lord, and his hair is long and black."

"‘Tis so, Child."

"Then, My Lord, she will lose her power, The Prince shall die, and she shall be very angry. Because of her losses, she will team up with Saddam Hussein. She will lose power due to plotting of others?"

" ‘Tis so."

"Then, My Lord, she shall be split in half because she loses power? Or, is it because her husband dies?"

"Neither, My Child. She shall be split in half through war."

"In what way, My Lord?"

"Through carnage and pillage, Child, she shall be split in half."

"You mean destroyed?"

"Utterly. All she is and all she represents."

"You mean her properties, split in half?"

"Much more than just properties."

"What, My Lord?"

"Her height shall be split in half. Her weight shall be split in half. Her family shall be split in half. Her children shall be split in half."

"I do not understand."
"Look, My Child, what else do you see?"

"My Lord, I see much nuclear war. Who brings this?"

"Look, Child."

"My Lord, I see Russia. Then, over the mountains and hills comes Red China."

"'Tis so, but not all."

"Is there more?"

"Yes, indeed. See whom she squabble with?"

"My Lord, it is Saddam Hussein. What does he do now?"

"He rides over The Queen with his black horses."

"But, why My Lord?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"To get his half."

"My Lord, this is terrible. But does it all relate to the castle on the hill? Tell me about this castle with the bats flying out turning into blue birds?"

"Child, I have reserved this for last. There is a rope ladder. Take it on up to the castle."

"My Lord, I have the rope, and I am climbing now up this ladder. This is very hard climbing, as this hill is very tall, and the castle sits way up on the hill, by itself. I see now, My Lord, that this castle has a door on either side. On the one side there is a sign above the door, which says Rothschild. On the other door, it says Rockefeller. Two families living in one, big castle on a hill."

"Or, so it appears, My Child."

"Now kick the door that says, ‘Rothschild’."

"My Lord, I am kicking, but it is only a paper door."

"’Tis true, Child, only a paper door. Go on in."

""My Lord, I am in a very light and airy room. I do not see the roof, as there are trees growing in here. It is a room full of computers generating huge piles of ticker tapes. These tapes fall into piles, My Lord, and these piles turn into something."

"What do they turn into?"

"Rocks. These are talking rocks. They make a sound like the sound of a loud horn. And, they say the same phrase."

"And, what is that phrase?"

"'Everything is alive and well on planet, Earth.' Then, My Lord, each of these rocks tosses a small piece of paper with this message into a spring, which bubbles up in their midst. The spring takes the messages and turns them into worms. My Lord, this spring is full of worms. And, at the base of this deep spring is someone sitting on a rock, weeping. My Lord, it is Rapunzel."

"Child, do not be tricked by this one. You know this is Luciferian."

"Thank you, My Precious Lord, for reminding me. I was about to be tricked by a sob story. Now, I see two very tall trees, with very long trunks, and at the top are many, many branches with leaves. These two trees go all the way out the top of the castle, where I see many blue birds flying around the top of the tree. Sitting among these blue birds at the very top of the castle, I see a very large, ugly, black vulture. My Lord, what does all this mean?"

"Child, go to the door on the right and open it."

"My Lord, I am at the door, and it is only another paper door. I can stick my hand right through it. In fact, I am walking right through it."

"'Tis so, Child. Now go outside and look at the name over the door. What does it say?"

"Rockefeller."

"Now, My Child, come around to the front of the castle. Walk around the circular porch. What do you see there?"

"My Lord, I see one empty bench. Then, I see a large clay flowerpot, which is also empty. This is all, My Lord, except for a screened door. The screen on the door is old and it is falling apart. The screen has large holes in it where it has corroded away. There is no need for this screen as it is so rotten and serves no purpose."

"Exactly, My Child. All is known."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, will you explain this to me?"

"Child, I will. It is what you see. Two families living as one. They have no wealth save it be paper. This door to their castle is easily broken. Their computers constantly generate much saying all is well financially, but My Child, the rock solid appearance of their financial reports feeds Satan's spring, which is based on a lie. My Child, paper burns. It may enwrap the rock, as in a child's game, but in short notice it will turn into worms and feed Satan's stream of rot and destruction.
"Blue birds fly above these two trees, The Rockefeller and The Rothschild Trees, as they believe all is 'chirpy'. However, My Child, look who sits among the trees."

"It is a black vulture, My Lord!"

" 'Tis so, and it shall devour them. For, they send out bats, which they wish all to see as bluebirds. Their works are evil, yet they wish others to see them as good. I stamp my foot in this castle, and the windowpanes crack and fall out. I toss a match into the midst of this castle and burn it to the ground. Now, Child what do you see?"

"My Lord, I see a hill with charred bricks and rocks. The trees are gone and nothing remains but one charred stub. The Rockefeller tree is burnt not even with the ground, but burnt into the ground, leaving a black hole where it once stood. The Rothschild tree, My Lord, has remaining a black trunk of about 18 inches high. This is all that remains."

"My Child, what you see is true. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah...even Most High God of Earth."

Questions to The Lord about The July 9th Prophecy

"My Lord, as it is upon my mind, I come to you this morning on 10th of July, 1997 to drink more of The River regarding the man with the cane, who gave me the cookie yesterday."

"Blessed Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Blessed are you, indeed, for your heart yearns to swim the depth of The River, and in time all shall be shown you. The man, Little One, is The Prophet John, the same author of The Book of Revelation and more; even your son at the time of my death."

"My Lord, you said, son?"

"Child, I am saying to you that he was indeed your son (in another life)."

"Well, My Lord, people will once again toss out all for they do not believe in this thing called reincarnation."

"Nay, many do not, but go not with the masses or be concerned with religiosity. My Child, religiosity is a ritual devoid of me. I am not to be found in religiosity. Worry not for the masses. Write as I say."

"My Lord, I do my best, well aware of my faults and shortcomings. Being called to write for you humbles me to the ground."

"For this, I call you: for your love and compassion, for your kind heart, My Child, toward me and others."

"But, My Lord, I do not feel kind at times. It seems that my tolerance is low."

"And so it should be for lying and double crossing, for malice and contempt. Yea, let your tolerance be short for this and let your patience and tolerance run long for the true suffering, the sincere of heart."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, it is just hard sometimes to tell the difference as some run first one way and then the next."

"'Tis so, My Child, for all mankind. It is given to you to know the difference and this comes not from the mind, from thinking, but from spirit to Spirit. The more you are found worthy to have The Spirit of Truth, The Holy Spirit of Promise in you, the more you will discern, even discern at all times, 100% of the time."

"My Lord, I pray for this, and work for this. When I stumble, I just pick myself up, dust myself off and go back to the trough."

"'Tis so, My Child, and this is as I expect for all, who love me. Not perfection, for there is not one among you who is so. But striving, My Child, striving to be so. This comes through error, most often trial and error. For, so many of you do not wish to know the depth of My Word, which can only be given you through The River.

"Now, Little One, of The Prophet, John, who has come to you in a vision. He has one eye, which is crystal clear. It runs a crystal clear blue with The River. The other has a rotating sphere, which twinkles as a star. My Child, the two eyes represent how one will discern The Book of Revelation. Most will discern it with the eye of the material world--the twinkling star. Those, who discern clearly will do so only with The River--The Holy Spirit of Promise. The Prophet is thin, as My Word in this Book is lean."

"How is it lean, My Lord?"

"The Book of Revelation is devoid of fat, devoid of fluff. Every sentence is meaningful. It is lean with the muscle of My Word, of strength in me."

"Then, My Lord, what is the cane?"

"The man is old as The Book of Revelation is old. He walks with a cane as one is crippled in understanding this word if seen through the eyes of the world."

"What of the tray and the cookie?"

"The ornate tray is the ornate word of The Book of Revelation. The pattern is carved deep into the tray, as My Word goes deep in The Book of Revelation. Just as in these visions given you, Child, there is much more than meets the eye."
"And the cookie?"

"The cookie is that given you of The Prophet John, your son from another life."

"Which is?"

"The great prayer for the gift of prophecy for you."

"My Lord, where is he now?"

"Well, Child, he sits among The Twelve."

"My Lord, my mind digresses to a vision I had ten years ago when The Apostle Paul appeared to me, adorned in radiant white. He shocked me deeply when he identified himself as The Apostle Paul. I cried so, as I was afraid and could not understand why he came to me. Why did he come to me?"

"The parallels in your life to that of Paul."

"But, My Lord, I never persecuted Christians."

"Nay, but you had little tolerance for the shallow walk. You never fit in. This angered you, and you knew not why,"

"Yes, My Lord, this is true I was searching for so many years and did not know what I was searching for. Life became so hard, so difficult and lonely."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Then, you gave up on life. Drowned your sorrows in alcohol. The Apostle Paul appeared to you to give you a foreshadowing of what was to come in your life."

"My Lord, I am no apostle."
"But, you are a latter-day prophet. I am raising you up to do a mighty work for me."

"My Lord, this is frightening."

"Be not frightened. Draw on the strength of your past as The Prophet Aaron, and other prophets. This path of prophecy is not new to you. I would not send those to the front lines to do battle as generals, who did not have a long history of battle. Go deep into The River, and you will be able to summon this past strength, and more!"

"Nevertheless, My Lord, I feel as if I am standing on a ledge way up high alone."

"Yea, in terms of a person to hold your hand. For others belittle you: even your own family. They do not understand you and wish to place you like a peg in a hole. Child, you will not fit--as your journey is unlike theirs. Yea, it is a lonely journey, for you have no tangible human hand to carry you upon This Mountain. But, My Child, the human hand is for a short while only. I am for an eternity."

"Praise be to God! Then, My Lord, what of the message in the cookie, which says, "Never on a Sunday."

"My Child, it means what it says, 'Never on a Sunday.'"

"Never what on a Sunday, My Lord?"

"Never do toil and trouble on a Sunday, but rest in The Lord."

"My Lord, what of doing these works for you?"

"My Child is this 'toil and trouble'?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then it speaks for self."

"And Psalms 28?"

"Does this not speak for self; that this is a Psalm for you, for your life? That John, The Apostle, sends this to you? Study and memorize, as one day you will not be able to own a Bible."

"My Lord, I bow in reverence to You, to all The Apostles and what they went through in olden days. I honor them in their paths."

"Child ‘tis no more than what you will walk, and many like you.

Yea, I am Jesus, Even Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

As dictated and recorded this 10th day of July, 1997

A Psalm of David, Psalms 28:1-9

Unto Thee, will I cry, O Lord my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if Thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.
Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto Thee, when I lift up my hands toward Thy holy oracle.
Draw me not away with the wicked and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbors, but mischief in their hearts.
Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavors: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their just dessert.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Because they regard not the works of the Lord, nor the operation of His hands, He shall destroy them, and not build them up.
Blessed be the Lord, because He hath heard the voice of my supplications.
The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise Him.
The Lord is their strength, and He is the saving strength of his anointed.
Save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance; feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

Before I began to receive messages from The Mountain, Jesus sent angels to give me messages. I sent some of these out via the Internet. A message that reincarnation is true caused an explosion of hate mail. I was accused of calling up dark and seducing spirits, communing with the devil and so on.

Many still believe the rumors that I am New Age and a crystal user or worshiper. I get mail requesting me to substantiate my faith. My brother cut off all communication with me for a while and sent me books against reincarnation. Oh, the push is on to save me!

I am including here a message from Jesus about reincarnation and also verses from The Bible for you to read and understand. Seek The Spirit of God in all things and you shall not go without understanding of Him and His Ways. Look for a great rain of God's Spirit in our midst. See. Zec. 10:1. This great flowing in of His Spirit will draw those of the true church, one to another. A mighty army shall rise from within this circle and will go with great miracles among God' people. For, He has spoken it.

Bible Passages (KJV) Regarding Reincarnation

John the Baptist was the spirit of Elijah reincarnated.
Matthew 11:11-14
Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.
For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

And if ye will receive it, this is Elijah, which was for to come.

Jesus spoke to prophets gone on:
Matthew 17: 1-3
And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,
And was transfigured before them: and His face did shine as the sun, and His raiment was white as light.
And, behold there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with Him.

Jesus speaks again of John the Baptist as being Elijah:
Matthew 17: 10-13
And His disciples asked Him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come?
And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elijah truly shall first come, and restore all things.
But I say unto you, That Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.
Then the disciples understood that He spake unto them of John the Baptist.

"Neither can they die ANYMORE..."(caps mine.)
Luke 21: 35-36
But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:
Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

"But in it (the land) shall be A TENTH, and it shall return..." (Caps mine.)
Isaiah 6:10-13
Make the heart of this people fat and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their hears, and understand with their heart, and convert and be healed.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Then, said I, Lord, how long? And He answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate,
And the Lord have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.
But yet it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

"Him that overcometh…"
Rev. 3:12
Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he SHALL GO NO MORE OUT: and I will write upon him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, which is new Jeruselum, which cometh down out of heaven from My God: and I will write upon him My new name. (Caps mine. Why is he talking about going out again? If people died and went to heaven and stayed they would certainly go out no more. But they do go out. Read below and you will see.)

"The first resurrection…"
Rev 20: 4-5
And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
BUT THE REST OF THE DEAD LIVED NOT AGAIN UNTIL THE THOUSAND YEARS WERE FINISHED. This is the first resurrection. (caps mine.)
[If we go back to the ten percent in Isaiah, we see that 90% are elsewhere. How many of these will live again? Also the many who are not resurrected will die again if we look at Luke 21, above.]

Inherit Holy Mountain…

When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in Me shall possess the land, and shall inherit My holy mountain.
[From King Solomon's blunders, we know all about vanity. Most everyone has had to deal with vanity. We have loved the worldly and pushed out God. We cannot love God and things of the world at the same time. As we grow spiritually and become strong in our spiritual walk and in wisdom from God, we do not seek the worldly, but things of God. We learn to live a simple life and walk a simple walk. God supplies our needs. And He shall reward us. For we shall inherit His Holy Mountain. On this mountain is much that our minds cannot imagine, even The Tree of Life.]

New heavens and new earth…
Isaiah: 65:17
For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and THE FORMER SHALL NOT BE REMEMBERED, NOR COME TO MIND. (caps mine)

Must be born again of flesh and of Spirit
John 3:4-7
Nicodemus saith unto Him, How can a man be born when he is old…can he enter the second time into this mother's womb, and be born…
Jesus answered. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. (Jesus is talking about two separate things here. Birth through water, the birth canal, the flesh. And birth through The Spirit. Both are required to get into the kingdom of God. The meaning of this one simple statement has been missed over and over.)

On Reincarnation

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. I come as you have summoned me from deep within your heart. Look around yourself and observe the flames of The Holy Spirit, and know that it is I, who commune with you through My Spirit.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Precious Child, You have been weary with heat from summer, and pain in the nerves of hips and legs. You are weary that many have hearts so closed to greater and deeper truths of The River. In sending these messages, you feel like you are shooting arrows in the darkness toward no certain destination."

"My Lord, this is so. I do wonder why reincarnation in not better explained in The Bible?"

"Child, at one time it was spoken of regularly, and most certainly known among all apostles. Yet, to know of reincarnation is not necessary for salvation. It is necessary for greater spiritual understanding. To know of one's journey provides much, but does not guarantee anything.

I guarantee Eternal Life through my simple message, Child. Most all are infants. For this reason, I have kept my focus simple."

"Then, My Lord, why have you given me this to carry forth at this time? Many wish to discredit all Your teachings because you have sent me with this to carry forth."

"Child, it is more for your spiritual growth than theirs that you get this out now."

"I do not fully understand how this can help me, My Lord. But in all things I wish to edify you."

"Let it be known that many will follow you in this. Those, who reject all you say as they do not accept one part, lose. Do you see? They break their own backs because they will not bend. If you had refused to send as I directed, you would have cut off part of your legs, even your feet, which you need to stand. You do as told, and I will use you for bigger and greater things.

The child may not wish to do the laundry. But, as he does chores, he later learns to drive a car, graduates school and marries. If this child will not do as asked, punishment unfolds. You do not seek punishment, but to act as my voice, to do my will."

"Yes, My Lord, this is so."

"On the other hand, those who reject that reincarnation is law or reject you or the rest of these messages lose. These messages, given to you, will not be fully appreciated until you are gone. Then, they will be priceless. Do not expect a large market. You will find interest here and there. After the war begins, these messages will go far and wide.

You are as Jeremiah bringing the wicked to reform: 1. They do not believe that they are wicked (a delusion); and 2. They are not worried about a punishing God, as they do not believe that there is a one.

I wish this fullness of My Gospel to come forth at this time. You need to be concerned only with doing as told. Write it and I will take care of the rest. Depend on me. Rely on my word. Rest in the truth of My Word. I bring the means to get these out. Rely on no one else. Be still and know that My Word is Truth.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

THE VATICAN PROPHECIES

A Better Way

July 11, 1997

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. I honor your self-discipline to get these messages out. The hour draws near, My Child, when you shall be hunted like an animal for writing the truth. But, have no fear. For, none shall lay hand on you until I say your work is finished.

Now, My Child, you find yourself upon this Mountain, most beautiful, indeed. Take the hand of Kikiara, The Keeper of the Book of Life, and descend the steep path. You will come to a cavern across your path, and rushing currents, but do not worry. For, you have the most adept angel to carry you; and remember My Child; you have The Power of God. This Power will remove boulders from your path, even mountains. Now, go and record as given."

"My Lord, I descend now, aware of this very tall angel, with eyes of fire, attired fully in white. This angel is just to my right, and slightly behind. These rocks are slippery, My Lord. I am falling on them. I am sliding down this path over very slippery rocks. A slimy goo like that of algae is clinging to me."

"Curse it, Child, curse it."

" Hada, esheo, hada." It is translated, "You melt and fade as nothing." Then, I see all of it disappear at once and I know that it was one of Satan's tricks. At once, a most unusual red flower springs up on one of the rocks. These are very tall rocks and smooth, where no flower could grow. But, one springs up with great roots, which pour over the top of the huge boulder. This small flowering plant quickly grows into a large tree. It becomes tall and bushy with many red flowers and a thick trunk.

A door appears in the tree. A cuckoo bird hops out, and sings, "Cuckoo, cuckoo." Then, the "cuckoo" sound dissolves into gibberish, as if many voices are speaking at once. "Hayi heshno, ashidi." This is translated, "I curse you to ashes." And, the tree dissolves into gray ashes.

I see ahead on the path a dark overhang. It is made of rocks and hangs over the path like a cave. "My Lord, I know this is The Devil's den, and I do not cherish going through it."

"Then, Child, go not through it. Use the Power of God, and go over it."

"My Lord, how shall I do this?"

"Reach in your pocket, Child, for a small set of controls. Just push the control, which says, 'up', and The Power of God shall take you over this trap."

"So, I reach for the controls, and when I find them, I pushed, 'up'. I travel up and over the path. The Mountain breeze is cool and refreshing. I soar over great mountains, valleys and wide, swift streams, suddenly aware of wearing my Son-glasses, and carrying in my left hand a small, square, lunch box, something like a child would carry to school. "My Lord, what is this lunch box for?"

"Child, this shall feed you, as your journey shall be long. When I tell you, take out and eat what is therein; and it will empower you as you tire."

"My Lord, I see The Square. I know I am headed back to The Vatican."

"Yes, Child, for many pictures remain."

"My Lord, this must be the most evil place on the planet."
"My Child, 'tis one of many."

"Now, stop there on the wall. Sit and watch below, and take out the pear and eat of it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I am eating this pear. It is most juicy and delicious. The juice is pouring from it, and dripping onto my hands and clothes. Everywhere it touches, it radiates white light. I see that my body is glowing, My Lord, my hands are glowing. Even my head is glowing."

" ‘Tis so, Child. This is food from above to nourish you, for your energies are low."

" I keep chewing, My Lord, but it just doesn’t go away. The pear just builds in my mouth."

"When I tell you, Child, spit it out on the worker you see below, sweeping the square."

"As you say, My Lord."

"Child, look through your microscopic eyes at this man, do you recognize him?"

"No, My Lord."

"Look at the sign on his back. What does it say?"

"My Lord, it says, ‘Frank Sinatra.’ Frank Sinatra is sweeping The Vatican."

"He is."

"In what way, My Lord?"

"Spit it out, My Child, on his head, and you will see."
"My Lord, I spit it, but it only bounced off his head, as a hard ball and it caused him to split in half."

" ‘Tis so, Child. And what do you see now?"

"My Lord, it is a semblance of Porky Pig. He has a cookie sheet, which had sausage, as there are remnants, but no sausage. He holds it up and turns it over. A few sausage crumbs fall out along with a few drops of grease."

"My Child, look at the grease spots."

"I see them, My Lord. This Porky look-alike has turned into Mr. Sinatra. He is busy scrubbing, trying to clean up the grease spots."

"Look, Child at these grease spots, and follow them all the way into The Vatican and beyond. Do not step on them, just follow them."

"Then, My Lord, I shall use The Power of God to fly above them, as I do not wish to walk near them. Is there a contol button so I might be able to fly over these spots? Where are the controls, My Lord?"

"Nay, I do not wish you to fly above. You must walk alongside. Precious One, your controls are gone nowhere. They are in your left hand."

"My Lord, I do see."

"Then, hop from the wall and follow these spots. The angel is beside you."

"My Lord, I am down here. I see these spots, which looked so small from above, but they are actually huge. The pig is scrubbing mightily, but he cannot get them up. They have become like amber, but much darker. He scrubs them furiously with a wide flat broom but only scratches them. My Lord, what are these spots?"
"Sin."

"In what way are they sin?"

"Child, take the control, point it at the large spot behind the pig, and cause it to open."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I am doing this, My Lord, and I see a stairway going down somewhere. Mr. Sinatra, maybe twenty years of age, is following this stairway down."

"Then, what?"

"My Lord, I see people drinking, smoking, partying, and gambling. Then, someone drops a pitcher of beer onto the floor, and as it hits the floor, it starts a fire. Flames are leaping high, but few notice. I see only one woman, who is running hither and yon, shouting. She is the one, who dropped the beer. She is dressed like a Las Vegas showgirl or like a Playboy bunny without the tail. She is wearing fishnet stockings and high-heeled shoes. She has something on her right wrist. It is a cuff only of a shirt, which is for decor. This cuff has a cufflink, and it looks like a Lapis Lazuli stone is set in it. My eyes are called to this blue and white stone. I do not know why. The fire spreads up the legs of this woman, and burns off her stockings. She drops something, My Lord."

"Get it."

"I have it. It is a picture."

"Go into the picture, Child."

"My Lord, I have stepped into the picture and I am here in the study of The Pope. I see Pope John Paul II talking to someone, who is seated on a sofa beside him. He hands this person something, which she puts into her wallet."

"Child, whom does he talk with?"

"My Lord, I cannot make out the face. But it looks a bit like Cinderella."

"Are you certain?"

"No, My Lord."

"Look at her feet."

"I see them, My Lord."

"The tops of the shoes open up. Open them and take out the papers from both shoes."

"My Lord, I open the left shoe from the top and I take out the paper. It is at first only a blank sheet of paper. But, now I see that it has one black spot in the center. This black spot spreads and becomes a red spot, which consumes the whole page. The paper is now soaked with this red substance, which drips from the paper. This red substance looks like blood, and it is dripping onto the floor. My Lord, it falls to the feet of this woman, and is making a puddle."

"Get the paper now from the other shoe."

"My Lord, I have it. It is a very sticky paper, and hard to open."

"Curse the sticky part. You know who put it there."

"Hayi heshno odi." It translates, " I curse you to nothingness." As the sticky part vanishes, My Lord, I see Joan Crawford, standing in front of a mirror at a very old dresser, one reminiscent of the 40s or 50s."

"What is she doing, Child?"

"My Lord, she takes something from a drawer. It is a gun."

"Then, what?"

"She shoots a man in the heart, and kills him."

"Then, what?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, she puts him in a trunk under her bed, locks him up and hides him. She then goes to the window and opens the window. I see her looking out at the ocean. It looks like there is a thatched roof. I see straw hanging down outside."

"What more do you see?"

"My Lord, I see her put on a hat with a single feather. She pulls the trunk out the door and into the night. She drags it across the beach and goes out into the waves with it. The tide is going out, and she sends the body out into the dark waters. Then she gets out of the water, puts sand between her hands and rubs them together. I hear her say, 'I am done with that bastard.' My lord, this is an awful thing. Did she actually kill someone?"

"She did."

"Why did no one look for this?"

"They have."

"Then, why did they not find that it was she?"

"No evidence to speak of."

"No blood?"

"Not that they could find."

"My Lord, what am I looking at here with this man trying to clean up in The Square, then the trip down the stairs, then Sinatra partying, then The Pope with this woman?"

"I shall tell you, My Child, but first let us go back to The Pope in the study. Who stands beside this woman with the shoes?"

"My Lord, I see a man behind this woman, who is Joan Crawford. He is not looking at her, and he is not looking at the pope. But he is holding onto the back of the couch behind Joan Crawford, gripping it with a great strength. His grip is so strong that his knuckles are turning white. He looks out the window and he cries. He says, 'My poor baby. I want my baby.'"

"Child, who is this man?"

"My Lord, I do not know. He is dressed in a dark suit with a black and green plaid vest. His shoes are black and white. They are clown shoes. The toes are very big and inflated in size. My Lord, he also has a very big, red clown nose and is crying big tears. These tears are falling down on the head of Cinderella/Joan Crawford and are melting this Cinderella appearance. Her head, her dress, everything is gone now, melted. It looks like the wicked witch of the West has taken the place of Cinderella. I see her now in a basement area. There is no one there but her, and she is standing before a black potbelly wood burning stove. She is steadily feeding wood into this stove. The fire is blazing hot, but she just keeps on pouring in the wood. She is all dressed in black, and her teeth are dripping blood. I see, My Lord, that each block of wood is hollow."

"Go there, Child. There is a written message in the piece of wood now in her hand. Take it out, and read the message."
"I have it, My Lord, and I open it up. On the piece of paper, I see only this Porky pig look-a-like out in The Square with a broom, trying to clean up spots."

"Look below, Child, and read the message."

"My Lord, it says, 'I am a murderer of innocent women and children.'"

"Who is a murderer, My Lord, and what does this mean?"

"My Child, you are in The Inner Sanctum of the pope again."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"But, My Lord, he professes no birth control and large families. He is against abortions. This, he speaks."

"My Child, he speaks lies."

"Why, My Lord, would he go before the masses and urge people toward these large families?"

"To deceive them."

"How, My Lord?"

"Who sits with the pope?"

"Well, it is Joan Crawford, the murderer, and someone I do not know."

"Child, this one you do not know is the hidden voice of Joan Crawford, the clown."

"My Lord, how was she a clown? I do not understand."

"Child, do you see the wicked stepmother there in the carriage, going to The Ball?"

"Yes, My Lord, I do. And, beside her is Joan Crawford, looking like Cinderella."

"But is she Cinderella?"

"No, My Lord, she is the wicked witch. But how does this make her a clown?"

"The inner self, the hidden self, is dressed in black. It is evil. It wears a vest of black and green close to her heart. The green represents money. The black represents death. The clown has a red nose, as it belongs to the Red Dragon. The clown has white shoes, as this is the foot she wished to put forward…a white pure foot. Yet, it was a foot, adorned with black in parts, as she could not hide her true self from those, who knew her."

"But, My Lord, why is she talking to the pope?"

"For forgiveness, Child?"

"But, My Lord, surely she had no religious connections."

"Oh, she had religious connections!"

"With The Pope, My Lord?"

"With his kind."

"What do you mean, ‘With his kind?’"

"They serve the same master."

"So, she did not actually go to The Vatican?"

"She did not need to."

"How is this?"

"Satan’s temple is everywhere."

"Why do you show me this?"

"To show you, My Child, that the most unlikely ones serve the same master."

"And, what of Frank Sinatra and the pig scrubbing and the drinking and the smoking and gambling? And who is the cocktail waitress, who started the fire?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Do you remember what happens to the fat? That the fat burns, for it has participated in the taking of innocent lives."

"Yes, My Lord, but how does this relate to Mr. Sinatra? How has he participated in the taking of innocent life?"

"Through his hidden works, Child."

"Like what, My Lord?"

"Pornography and prostitution."

"I have never seen this."

"Nay, you would not."

"My Lord, he has presented a certain image to the public."

"Child, do you believe you are naive?"

"My Lord, I am in certain ways."

"Go to Mr. Sinatra there at the table in the bar. Take the knife from his pocket. Open it up and read what is written on the blade."

"My Lord, I have a large knife with a pearl handle. I open it and on one side it says, 'I kill', and on the other side it says, 'innocent women and children.'"

"Child, look at Mr. Sinatra. What do you see?"

"My Lord, I see someone with thick, black, slicked back hair. His fingernails are long and look like knives. He is chewing something and smacking as he chews. It is a ball of something. I do not think it is gum. He is fully dressed in black with a little bit of tan trim along the front where his shirt buttons and along the edge of the fly of his pants. His shoes also look like clown shoes, with big black toes. But the heels are missing in the back part of the shoes. I see drops of bright, red blood on his shoes, My Lord, which are dripping from the knives/fingernails. His teeth are white, but his mouth is like one, big black cavern."

"Look in the cavern. What do you see?"

"My Lord, I see blackness with a few twinkling stars."

"Go on in."

"I will as you ask me, My Lord, but this is no joy, as it is foul in here. The fumes are awful. They are burning my nose."

"Take the white handkerchief from your pocket. Cover your nose, and you will no longer smell it."

"Yes, My Lord, I am fine, now."

"What do you see?"

"My Lord, I am shining this light as it is so dark in here. I see bats hanging from the roof of his mouth."

"What more?"

"A fountain of a black liquid is gurgling from his throat. It looks like black ink."

"Touch this ink.

"It is greasy."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"What more, Child?"

"My Lord, it is sticky. It sticks to my fingers like thick glue. I cannot get it off."

"Curse it, Child."

"Hayi heshno odi." I curse you to nothingness. Then, it disappears from my hands and from around me. The inside of the mouth becomes a light tan, still with twinkling stars. Yet, the black spring still gurgles. And, the fumes still pour forth from the spring. "My Lord, tell me what all this means."

"Child, you are seeing the inner Frank Sinatra, not the outer image. You have heard of his underground connections. But, they go far deeper than what you know: into prostitution, gambling, drugs and other vices. The woman, who dropped the pitcher of beer near the table of Frank Sinatra, was the woman of prostitution. She dropped the beer and it caught fire, as he was engaged in the spreading of the vices of liquor and gambling through the underworld. His connections through this spread like fire and grew to include drugs. Do you see that he looks like a gangster all dressed in black with thick black hair? The state of his soul is black, devoid of My Light. His shoes look like clown shoes, and he would have you believe he is pristine."

"My Lord, how is he a clown?"

"He dances a jig for Satan with his black shoes. The backs are out of the shoes, as he has a very large hole in his image before the public. He is a clown, because he is an act. People see through this hole in his makeup, but he is blind to what others see and know. His clothes are black, as he is evil through and through, save it be the small border along the front of his shirt, and fly"

"What is this border, My Lord?"

"My Child, this tan border has to do with image. It has been carefully sewn into these places to create an image of caring. Along the opening of his shirt just outside the buttons, to project an image of ‘I would give you the shirt off my back’, and along the fly to mean, ‘I would give you my own pants. Even this, Child, is tan. It is not white, as the motive is not pure. It is good but for show. Therefore, it is seen for what it is, something added to, something sewn on the exterior of his shirt. My Child, his hands have knives, which drip blood on his shoes, as his works have caused numerous people to die. The pearl-handled knife is a utensil. It is pearl on the outside to show good intentions, works done to show good. But, if you look beneath the surface, you will see that through his works with the mob, he has killed many innocent women and children."

"My Lord, how?"

"Through alcohol, drugs, prostitution, pornography, and even kiddy porn and abortions. This is how, My Child. This kind of thing The Mob does."

"My Lord, this is very sad, as this man is dying."

"Yea, My Child, for it is one soul to hell."

"My Lord, is this man one of the Ring Leaders, who never gets out of The Lake?"

"He is not, My Child. For, much of what he has done has been through ignorance, and he has taken such bait as that offered by The Pope. Child, there are many, many, who will end up in hell, because they have traded their souls for power and fame. Most of these are lost, My Child. They hear the call of the worldly, and begin to worship money and material. They become lost and know not why. I do not fault the ignorant, My Child. But, I hold great judgment against one, who knows truth, who knows me, and casts me aside for a life with Satan. Child, the punishment for this one is much more severe. Now, My Child, I do hope you understand why reincarnation is a necessary thing. Child, look at The Lake of Fire, what do you see?"

"My Lord, I see many, many souls in great agony. Many are cursing you. Some are weeping. Now and then, My Lord, I see one say, ‘God help me.’ Then to this one, I see an angel throw a life vest, and I see this one pulled up to the top of a dark mountain and given something to drink. Now and then, My Lord, I see one of these weeping being led to the door by this one, who gives the drink. The door says, "God is The Way Out.'"

"'Tis so, My Child. It is not my desire to have any suffer more than what they need. But, you must remember, My Child, that a rebellious spirit is un-teachable, save it be through trial and error. And, this is a very long road."

"So, My Lord, those who are the most rebellious will have many difficult roads?"

" 'Tis so. For, they must be broken of self will, that a higher will can bring them to a better way. The way of the material is the way of destruction--here today and gone tomorrow. The way of My Spirit, My Way, The Higher Way, is eternal. Child, one's journey is about recognition of me as Lord of Earth. It is also about evolution of the soul to higher, more purified levels.

Child, I cannot and will not wave a magic wand and cause negative parts of you to dissolve. Satan waves the magic wand. I bring you along the rocky roads of self until these are purified through My Light. This is not overnight as many in religious circles would have you believe. Child, this involves a great desire to walk a narrow course and it is great work to stay on the course.

The grease spots you see in The Vatican can never be cleansed with a broom. Neither, can The Pope wave a magic wand. But, I will give you, each of you, the soap and water of My Word; and you will do your part.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER FIVE

THE VATICAN PROPHECIES

Death of the Papacy

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You come to the garden, most wondrous, atop The Mountain. Yet, not all grows to perfection here. In times past you have seen the rose most thorny; and now the hawthorn you see, as it stands tall among the lilies. But not for long, Child. For, I shall take my hand and pluck it and its roots from this mountain. And this mountain shall glow with my complete radiance and purity minus this thorn and his roots.

Now, Child, you have in place your son-glasses, and you have strengthened your feet in Me and My word. You wear my helmet and I have fortified your ears to hear my voice. Look below, Child. And, write what you see."

"My Lord, I see the golden chariot of Queen Elizabeth, and it is pulled by two black horses. There at the helm of the carriage is one with a steep, black top hat, who looks like a toy soldier. He is dressed in an ornate red coat and black pants. I see The Queen as the toy soldier helps her from the carriage; but, My Lord, her face is different. I see one rotten tooth. It is in the upper front and it is rotten to the gum. Her gums below her bottom teeth are red and oozing infection and her breath smells rotten. I see little flies flying around the outside of her mouth. But when I look closer, My Lord, I can see that these flies are military planes.

The Queen wears a vest-coat of tan brocade with a white ruffled shirt. The ruffles have green trim along the outer boundaries. She wears a tan skirt with large pockets, stuffed with keys. A long chain of keys hangs out of each pocket. These keys are attached to and embedded into her hipbone. Her skirt is very short, way above her knees, and her knees are knobby. She wears a black garter belt with thick, brown stockings, which old ladies used to wear; and she wears thongs for shoes. My Lord, she has no underwear and shows her firm buttocks as she is a little humped like a hunchback. Suddenly, she changes to an upright position, looking much younger and seductive.

I see someone getting out of the carriage behind her. It is Saddam Hussein. He has left a large, black ledger in the carriage. The book has a bookmark and at the top of the bookmark is written, ‘seal of approval.’ My Lord, what is this book marker?"

"Child, peel the tab off the outer cover and read the label."

"My Lord, I am peeling, and I see a large, red dragon and writing, which I cannot understand."

"Adjust your son-glasses."

"I have done so, My Lord. The writing says: ‘Keeper of the World.’

"This is so, Child. The devil is now in charge of the world. The red dragon runs the show among the elite."

"My Lord, I see Saddam Hussein get out of the carriage, dressed to the hilt with a green striped suit. This suit is black with very tiny green stripes. His teeth are very sharp, and are of gold. Behind each tooth is a platinum screw. I do not know if these hold the gold teeth in place, but they are there. He smiles, then takes his military cap and pops the queen on the rear end as she bends forward to adjust the stockings around her toes. His shoes are large and very black and shiny. They look a little like clown shoes with very big, black toes, and a black strap around the heel. He is wearing light green and plaid socks.

When he pops The Queen on the rear, her left hip gets very red and deflates, leaving the hip looking old and wrinkled. It is devoid of flesh, with nothing remaining but skin and bones. The Queen does not even seem to notice. She just keeps on adjusting her stockings between her big toe and the next toe. There is a wrinkle, which is aggravating her. She spits on her forefinger and rubs the spit on the thumb of her right hand. Then, she rubs the spit between these toes, which are giving her problems. Then, she raises up, and takes Saddam's left arm with her right arm.

Then, they go dancing a jig. I see little gnomes all around The Square at the Vatican singing, 'We're off to see the wizard.' Then I see a fountain, which suddenly appears in The Square. It is made to resemble a birdbath and shoots up clear water. Water rolls off the edges as there are no boundaries. The water is clear and there is a most enigmatic image in the water. It is an image of Uncle Sam. He has the face of Uncle Sam, minus the top hat. However, he has only a torso, with no lower body, legs or arms; and he wears a red-striped vest. I see smoldering, smoking places on the torso. Around the head the smoke is collecting as it passes out the eyes and ears of Uncle Sam. But the mouth is sealed with iron bars. Behind these bars is a thick, white wall and no smoke gets out the mouth.

This clear water flows out the center of the fountain and onto this dark round, circular area. The minute this water hits the round area, the area around the ghost of Uncle Sam, it turns a deep, dark color, as if dark ink has been suddenly thrown into this water. It flows off this elevated round area, which is about three feet high and onto The Square. When it hits The Square, it is seen as thick, black oil almost tar-like.

The Queen and Saddam do a jig around and around the fountain in the midst of this black muck. She slips as her feet are shod poorly. But, Saddam is big and strong, and he picks her up in his arms and holds her high. Oh, she is high for a minute!

Then, Saddam says, 'We had better go, as the midgets are looking and talking.' He takes her hand and both go back to the carriage. Thick, black goo falls from their shoes as they get into the carriage. The Queen notices this and decides to take off her shoes and stockings. Then she throws the shoes and stockings into The Square along with the gooey, black stuff. She sits in the carriage with Hussein, wearing neither stockings nor shoes.

'Let us go around back,' he says, and the two direct the toy soldier around to the back of The Vatican. Once, there, the Queen hops out barefoot and runs in through the back door of The Vatican. Saddam stays in the carriage. I see him take a black book. He opens it to page 493. On the page are three columns, each numbered to 25."

"My Lord, what are these numbers?"

"Child, take your son-glasses, and adjust them. Look in the left-hand corner. What does it say?"

"My Lord, I see some words written in a circle. These words say, 'Center for Disease'. And in the very center of the circle is a skeleton, playing a piano. He has a single red rose on the piano in a small bud vase. The skeleton plays a tune. My Lord, it is a funeral march. Saddam makes an entry in each column, at number eight and he writes, 'satisfied.'

My Lord, The Queen enters The Vatican. But does not look like The Queen. She looks like a beggar. She wears a plain tan and yellow plaid scarf around her head. Her hair is very gray. I notice large calluses on some of the toes of her left foot, but none on her right foot. The toe next to the big toe on her left foot appears to be broken."

"Child, go up to the mailbox and look in."

"My Lord, I am here. As I look in the box I see a 3"X5" card. On it is a picture, which is covered by clear cellophane. I am opening this; so as to get a better view. My Lord, it is a picture of a keyhole. There is gold metal around the hole, and I see that a skeleton key will be needed to open this."

"Climb through, Child."

"My Lord, I have climbed through this keyhole and I find myself on a yellow kitchen counter. I see a bear below me on the floor. He is reaching into a tree and taking out blocks of honeycombs, which are covered with bees. He is eating this honey, and these bees are flying all around his mouth. But, the bear does not seem to care. The bear, My Lord, is The Pope. First the bear, then the Pope. The face is not of Pope John Paul, II, but of someone else. He has something of a ruddy complexion with rotund cheeks and brownish hair. He wears the cap of an archbishop, but looks like a pope. He is dressed in white. Now, he is the bear, eating honey again, with the bees all around.

He has emerged now as The Pope only, My Lord, and I see him on a platform with wheels. He paddles over the ocean, then travels over the land, basking in the sun. This man has dimples and he carries a gold knife, attached to his right ankle. This knife is covered so others do not know about it. My Lord, he is basking in the sun when suddenly he hears an explosion. The Earth rumbles. It cracks. I see lava running forth from a mountain and down the streets. Where it travels is fire. Houses, trees, everything is burning. There is a volcano, which has blown. Rocks and ash are spewing forth everywhere. The Pope runs inside and dials 911.

I see Queen Elizabeth run from the back door. She has two bags full of gold bricks. Saddam is waiting. They direct the driver out of The Vatican and they leave in a fury through an archway. Then, I see this pope/archbishop go to the uppermost floor of The Vatican. He smells smoke and sees fire for great distances. He is very nervous. He has a chain of gold keys which go all the way around his waist. He looks off in the distance and sees the great destruction. He paces back and forth, as he has called 911, but no one has come.

A large rat appears and says, 'I will give you a ride.'

The Pope/Archbishop gets on the back of the rat. He puts on a brown monk's robe, so that he will not be noticed, and climbs aboard a tiny platform with wheels, driven by a large rat. The rat carries him swiftly through the streets and out to sea. The hot lava pours into the sea, and the sea is becoming very, very warm. The Pope/Archbishop says, 'I am drowning,' as he fights the heated sea. He looks around and the rat scurries into a big, black hole. The rat beckons for The Pope to come into the hole. Frightened, The Pope goes into the black hole.

He looks around in the hole and sees several Mafia types, each of them wearing heavy, black chains. The Pope/Archbishop looks at his own legs and arms to see that he is in heavy, gold chains. One of the Mafia types pulls out a very large, sharp, black knife and cuts off the right ear of The Pope. He spits on the ear, and then mashes it beneath his black and white striped shoes. Then he says to The Pope, 'I will make you a deal. Your freedom for half of your gold chains.'

The Pope/Archbishop thinks for a moment, then says, "Deal." Then, the Mafia type cuts his thumb, and The Pope/Archbishop cuts his thumb. They bleed into each another--a blood covenant. Suddenly, The Pope/Archbishop looks very old. His hair is very white. He grabs his stomach and keels over. The blood of the underground, Mafia type was laced with cyanide. The Pope became poisoned quickly and died.

The underground rat comes out of his hole, all dressed in white. He is big, round and fat. His black and white striped shoes stood out like two zebras on his feet. He smokes a very large cigar, as he stands on the wall at The Vatican. He boasts, 'I own half The Pope.' Then, he reaches down to the other side of the wall, where a frightened, old, thin, white-haired man crouches. And, he drags him up by the nap of the neck and puts the old man on the wall, 'The next pope,' he says.

I look at the next pope who is old and emaciated. Several rats/people are goading him in the side with black swords and he is stumbling to remain erect. I see him go into his study late at night. The clock on the desk reads 11:59 PM. The date is June 02, 2001 and the pope says, "I am dying." He puts his head on his desk and quickly disintegrates into a pile of dusty bones. I hear the sounds of the ambulance in the distance as it comes up to the door of The Vatican to get the corpse. But there is no corpse, only a short, wide board which reads, "Never again."

"My Lord, this is very lengthy, and most definitely way above my powers of understanding. Please help me."
"Child, you see Queen Elizabeth come up to The Vatican in her gold chariot, but it is driven by black horses of Saddam Hussein."

"Why two horses?"

"Child, he has grown to twice the stature."

"And the toy soldier is…"

"Her toy soldier. She has been relegated to the position of toy soldier in the world."

"And, her appearance?"

"Child, her rotten tooth is her blood agreement with Saddam Hussein. Her lower gums are infected and swollen. Child, these are her outlying possessions. There is sickness therein, caused by germ warfare."

"And, the tan brocade coat?"

"The frills of royalty. She continues with the appearances, even with a white shirt. She wishes to appear pure. This frill is laced with US currency--the green on the ruffle. She has a mini-skirt, as her legs, her outlying holdings, are exposed. These legs are covered with thin stockings, and are ill equipped to protect themselves. She is holding up these outlying areas through darkness--the black garter. She has problems, real problems here; as her skirt is short, it does not cover her legs. Her military power is inadequate in these areas. Her rear is plump and exposed. She is focused on her appearance, and does not see that these outlying areas are not covered.

Hussein has a black book. Child, this is an evil book of his works. He carries it in the carriage with The Queen. The bookmark says, "Seal of Approval," because she approves of his works. Remember the blood covenant. The Book is the black book of The Devil--The Red Dragon--Lucifer himself. The Queen and Saddam are adding to this book. They work for Lucifer.

Saddam's suit is black, as he is evil. His shoes are large, black and shiny as military shoes, but with large toes, like clown shoes. Is he a clown, Child? No. But, he may look like a clown to some. The back is out of his shoes. In its place a black strap. Yet, both his shoes have thick, black doors behind these green and tan plaid socks you see.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Child, look at this teeth. They are gold and sharp. Hussein is a rich man. His teeth represent his military. They are polished and are like gold, with platinum screws behind each tooth."

"My Lord, what of the platinum?"

"Child, is platinum more valuable than gold?"

"I do believe so, My Lord."

"Then, ‘tis so, his teeth, his military might are expensive, with costly reinforcements in place. He is armed to the hilt in the underground city. The heels on his shoes show green and tan socks. These are military socks. Behind these socks are dark doors, which lead far into The Earth to great military installations. He leans forward and pops The Queen on her exposed rear end, but she does not know it. She is busy trying to straighten out a wrinkle in the covering between her big toe and the toe next to the big toe. Child, these toes are on her right leg. This is the leg she leads with, the leg from her home. Then, as she bends to focus on the smaller picture at home, he swats her with his military on her behind. This is one large area governed by The Queen.""

"And, this area, My Lord?"

"Child, it is Canada."

"And, how so, My Lord?"
"Through bacteria and germ warfare Saddam strikes her in a silent way. She does not know this, and continues to go arm in arm with him. She cuts a jig with him and rejoices as The US has fallen. It is only a ghost of self, with no military might. It has only a head, a president, but this head is locked and barred by The UN--the white wall behind the bars of the mouth.

The smoke of destruction flows through its eyes, the people (of The USA). And through its ears, the people. Long before, the people stopped looking and listening. Now, it is too late. For, The US has been utterly destroyed from within and without.

The Water, The Spirit of Truth, My Spirit, flows freely from My Fountain--My River, from within the ghost. But, it goes nowhere. Communism is abound, Child. Blackness, darkness abounds all around the ghost of The US."

"What does ‘around’ mean, My Lord?"

"Just that, Child--all around, everywhere. The Spirit of Truth cannot spread."

"And, what of the black goo?"

"This darkness pours from the US and its boundaries--Canada, and Mexico. The Queen and Saddam rejoice in this. But, The Queen does not know that he has brought germ warfare against her in Canada. She sees that her shoes and stockings are black with this stickiness, this darkness, and she casts aside her shoes and stockings for a ride Saddam, and she leaves these other areas to fend for selves. For, she is looking out for self. She and Saddam get back into the carriage, and goes to the rear of The Vatican. She gets out looking like an old hunchback with no shoes, as she has tossed out the covering of her feet--her outlying areas. Now, she is bare behind, and her feet and legs are bare. She looks like an old hunchback with a tan plaid scarf. She wears this tan scarf like the military wear in the desert, like that of Hussein. She is no longer able to defend herself."

"My Lord, she goes into The Vatican. Why?"

"Child, for gold. Did you not see her emerge with two very large bags of gold bricks, carrying them into the waiting carriage with Saddam Hussein? She gets gold from The Vatican to survive. She is half-naked."

"Then, My Lord, what of the journey through the keyhole into the kitchen?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"The new pope/archbishop/devil is dipping into the honey tree--the tree of liquid gold--to secure gold for The Queen. The bees are the warplanes. They are flying around the mouth of The Pope. What is the mouth, Child?"

"My Lord, I do not know."

"The mouth is the opening to The Vatican."

"Which is?"

"The Square, Child. War is near The Vatican, but the Pope never believes that war will touch The Vatican. He believes that The Vatican is untouchable."

"And, My Lord, what of Hussein in the carriage?"

"Child, it is his record of germ warfare. It is the black book of darkness, of death."

"Why page 493?"

"Child this is his code. The four represents the four horses--red, black, white and the pale horse of death."

"And, 93 represents?'
"Child, nine is for minus, or negative. And three is for God, --The Father, Me, and The Holy Spirit. In other words, 493 translates war, death and the absence of God."

"The three columns are numbered 1-25. Why, My Lord?"

"There are three, who ride with Saddam."

"And, these are?"

"Victory, power and destruction."

"And that he makes a notation at number eight?"

"Child, he is 1/3 of the way through with his destruction."

"And, the title of the book mark, Center for Disease?"

"He is the center for the spread of much disease. That is the plan of the devil to kill many, many through germ warfare. The skeleton of death plays a death march. The red rose represents the blood, which will be shed, Child, by this man and his. Yet, the appearance will be through good, beautiful things that this blood is shed. Many will be deceived, even the Queen."

"So, there will be a new pope?"

"One in the stages of confirmation, acting as pope, basking in the sun unawares."

"And, a volcano will blow?"

"It will, Child. And war."

"Is this pope is rescued from a sea of angry people?"

"He is rescued by The Mafia, who kill him."

"Then, The Mafia gets their own pope?"

"They do, Child, but this one is for only a very short while. The Papacy dies--it is done away with. The ambulance you hear is the sound of 911 coming to rescue The Pope. The noise is loud, like an ambulance. But, the people cannot rescue it. All that remains is a board. And the board, the governing body of the world, says, ‘Never again.’

"My Lord, I thank you, and pray that I have seen and heard as you have directed and spoken."

THE UNITED NATIONS PROPHECIES

"Hear me, Oh, child, from The Mountain. It is my voice, the voice of Your Savior, Teacher and Confidante, Jesus, Lord of Earth. You have cried out to me in earnest, as you seek my truths, my direction. You sit high upon The Mountain. The air is most pure and cleansing, the garden, most radiant. Yet, all is not devoid of Lucifer and his traps set for you. Behold the dark tree. It has many dark roots, but no leaves. It has a dark door; and across the path leading down the mountain, he has placed a stumbling block. There are many paths down the Mountain, Child, the least of which is to walk.

Now, be aware of your son-glasses. And know that your feet are shod in my word, my wisdom and power. Behold your ears as large radiant cones for receiving my word, and My Spirit, enveloping you. Child, I have given you extra protection today; for, you shall need this in your travels. Now, Child, behold in your hand a radiant umbrella of golden light. Take it and open it, and glide slowly down The Mountain. Write as you see, and record as you are told."

"My Lord, I have the umbrella. It is opened, and I feel myself rising above The Mountain. I go now among clouds and feel the moisture on my face. I am aware of a thick shield--a force field--around me. Lord, I see the angel, Kikiara, beside me. I am approaching now the land below, and find myself on a wall. I am not sure what this wall is. It looks at first like The Great Wall of China. I see mountains to my left, and to my right I see a paved courtyard, a brick square. There are several flags, flying outside. I see The Canadian flag, The US flag at half-mast, The UN flag, and several other flags. I do not recognize many of them. My Lord, I am counting, and have stopped at 20 flags. There are many more than I had originally thought. I am looking past these flags at this huge building, which is United Nations World Headquarters. I see this sign over a set of double doors."

"Go up to the doors, and go in, Child."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I am here, and am trying to push these doors open, but they are stuck together with a substance that is like chewing gum, but thicker."

"Shine My Light upon it, Child, from the flashlight you have in your pocket."

"My Lord, I have done so, and the goo is now melting, falling onto the floor, and making a puddle. I have opened the doors, My Lord, and see a large rotunda below, filled with many rows of seats. I see open walkways around this area, with a vaulted ceiling. I see a vine hanging in front of me, My Lord."

"Ignore it."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Go down into the rotunda and up to the podium."

"Yes, My Lord, I am doing so, and am now here. All are gone, and it is very quiet in here, except for a cricket."

"You know who this is."

"Yes, My Lord, I know that it is another of Lucifer's tricks to distract me."

"Look at the manila folders in front of you, filled with many papers. Place it on top of the podium."

"I have it, My Lord. The vine has now moved over, My Lord, and is wrapping itself around the podium. It is trying to keep me away from these papers."

"Curse it."

"Hayi heshno odi!" The vine became dust, My Lord."

"Open it up."

"My Lord, I am trying, but here is the glue again. I shine the flashlight and it has melted it into a puddle, which is dripping into the dust. I have opened the folder, and the papers are starting to fly out one by one."

"Command them back."

"I command you back in the name of Jesus Christ! My Lord, they are returning, but I smell the most peculiar odor."

"Command it to die."

"Hada ishi oyihi! Oh, My Lord, the evil herein is so thick, so terrible. It is an awful thing."

"Yes, Child, 'tis so, but you are in charge here. You go under my power, which is far greater than that of any evil on Earth. Now, Child, look at the first page."

"My Lord, I have it. I see a library card on the left, and it looks as if many have checked out these pages. They are stamped by many, many countries in various years."

"'Tis this, and much more, Child. Now, look at the first page and record."

"My Lord, I see some writing and a date, but this sticky stuff is all over the page again. But shining your light makes it clear. It is written: 'We have entered into an agreement among undersigned nations to pursue this war to the end for purposes of a better government, designed to serve all equally in government, in restitution of trade, and balance of power. Military force will be used as deemed necessary to make sure that all are governed fairly under this agreement of freedom for all. All for one. One for many. The United Nations World Government, June 03, 1999.' My Lord, once again I am lost in this. Please explain."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, as is written…one government for all, all treated or deemed equal by this government, world communism, the forerunner of the Antichrist takeover. He is orchestrating all, and will shortly embody."

"Oh, My Lord, this is most frightening."

"And should be, for the hourglass moves to the last few grains of sand. Turn the page, Child."

"My Lord, I have turned it and see a limb of a tree devoid of leaves. It is a limb divided into two parts. One part of the limb goes away from me. It shoots down, and is burned. It is smoking. There is one part of the limb, which is brown. A bluebird is sitting on the limb. The bluebird is very fat and is whistling merrily. I believe this fat bird must be one of the 'R' families."

"This and more, Child."

"How so, My Lord?"

"'Tis a blue bird with a red stomach. Is it not?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"It is red with communism. It sings opposite the decree for one world government. It is more than just The Rothschilds; for these have swayed many nations to join the Bluebird Way. Remember the bluebirds, flying as bats, then bluebirds. Well, this is what you see. The flag of the USA is at half-mast. The Rockefeller arm is still smoldering, burning. War abounds. And this arm rises to world prominence. Did you not see that Germany was the one to help in the tossing of the casket of a dead USA over into The Swiss Alps? They nail the nail in your coffin through finances in The Swiss banking system. Child, this has been planned for much time. Be not brokenhearted in this. The greedy must fall. These must be brought down, and it will happen, one by one, until my return. Many innocents will go, but do not be overcome by this. Child, there is a higher way."

"So, My Lord, the fat Rothschilds are now in charge of world communism?"

"They are ringleaders, but not all. There is a group, who has long sought world dominion, called the Bilderbergers. These are the red stomachs of the Bluebird, and these include many world leaders as well as others of leadership quality. The rich wish to get richer and keep the masses as slaves. They are closing in on you more and more every day. Truth is a scarce commodity among them; and they have taken such control over your media that you, as a people, are strangulated. You starve for truth. You are served their rendition of truth. You are to know no hint of war, Child, until you are destroyed. Many parts of the world know of the great military maneuvers being performed with the sole purpose of bringing you down. Your secret government most certainly knows; but you, as a people, are being kept in the dark. Child, your time as a free country wanes."

"God, help us! God, help us!"

"Precious Child, many of you shall not make it through The Great Tribulation. This is so, and this great tribulation is upon you. You sleep. Awaken in me! Serve me that you--all of you--have eternal life! Now, Child let us continue. Look to the next page."
"My Lord, I am here, but this page is covered with a dark page, coated with a sticky boundary. I will take your light and burn it off. I am lifting this top page, which is gray in color. Now, My Lord, I see a page radiant with your light. And I see a leader. I believe he is the ruler of Egypt."
"'Tis so, Child."

"He talks with a woman. She looks like a dark-skinned Indian woman, adorned in Indian dress with a red dot in her forehead."

"She represents The Country of India."

"So, he is speaking with India, My Lord. She puts her hand on top of this small glass table, and he puts his hand atop hers. I see blood flowing from her hand onto the table, and off onto the thick, red carpet. He is sticking what looks like a very sharp nail right through her hand. He has her hand pinned to this table, but she makes no attempt to get up. He gets up and walks off hurriedly, and she gets up, My Lord, with a big hole in her right hand, which looks like a burn hole. She gasps and runs from the UN Building. There are German warplanes overhead. The Indian woman is frightened. She is running; and the warplanes are chasing her into the mountains where she hides.

I see a German commander walking the streets of India. Every now and then, he clicks his heels and salutes someone, who comes by. My Lord, I cannot make out their faces. They move by quickly and are fuzzy in appearance, like ghosts."

"'Tis so, Child."

"My Lord, I am quickly becoming lost in this. Please explain."

"Child, you have seen the Egyptian befriend India under false pretenses."

"How so, My Lord?"

"He gave India a hand. India believed it was sincere, but Egypt 'stuck it' to India."

"Stuck what, My Lord?"

"Child, bloodshed through war."

"Egypt attacked India?"

"It blew a hole in her hand."

"And, her hand is?"

"Her hand is her youth."

"I still do not understand."

"Look at the piece of white paper, Child, folded and then folded again. Open it."

"My Lord, it is opened. I see a piece of paper with a hole burned through the center. Behind it, I see dry, dusty earth. Sitting amidst this dry, dusty earth, I see an Indian peasant woman, washing filthy clothes in a tub of filthy water. Behind her is an army tent, and outside the tent is a German soldier with a telescope. He looks at a mountain far, far away. Across many mountains is desert. In this desert, I see the country of Egypt.

The Egyptian President is in his office. He picks up the phone and calls the tent of the German soldier. The Egyptian says something to the German soldier, which I do not understand. And, The German soldier says, 'Well done, My Friend.'

So, My Lord, Egypt has double-crossed India, promised them something, yet teamed with Germany to help invade India."

"There is more, Child."

"Like what, My Lord?"
"Child, see the old lady washing clothes? She has no shoes. Her teeth are rotten, and all but gone. She is a beggar with no food in her tray. In her pockets, she has a large roll of money--a loan from many countries. Yet, this money is still in her pocket, as she is truly a beggar. It was never spent on her youth, who are truly starving. She cannot defend herself, as she has no shoes--no military. Her military might--her teeth--is gone. Remember that Germany is in charge. The Egyptian has double crossed India, and has actually helped The Germans invade her."

"But, why, Lord?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"To eradicate, to kill and to control in the quest for world power."

"And, India is washing dirty clothes. What does this mean?"

"She is washing her sins, Child?"

"Which are?"

"Everything under the Sun. India has degenerated into the foulest of behaviors. She washes through superstition and religiosity."

"My Lord, are there not some Christians in India?"

"Yes, Child, but few."

"My Lord, what of the German soldier and the ghosts?"

"Child, the German soldier in India salutes ghosts of people quickly passing into oblivion. Death is rampant and moving on at a very fast pace."

"So, India was given money by those in power, yet they had no intention of her ever using it?"

"'Tis so."

"And, Germany/UN quickly took over India?"

"There is more?"

"Like what, My Lord?"

"Every disease known to man."

"So, Germany and the UN One World Government unleashed germ warfare on them?"

"Along with nerve gas and chemical warfare. This is why you have seen the people in India flee to The Mountains, where she will not be hunted by the military."

"Oh, My Lord, this is terrible."

"Yes, Child. You must remember that The Antichrist has given orders to decrease the population of the world, such that the remaining numbers will be small. When he comes, the world will be in a terrible state, and those, so suffering, will be eager to take 'the mark.' Those, who establish themselves far into the mountains, will have a chance to survive this.

Now, Precious One, I see you tire. Get these typed.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

THE UNITED NATIONS PROPHECIES

The rise of Germany, The fall of England, and other countries

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You come, seeking My Way, My Light, My Life. I know your heart, your mind, and your soul. And, I know that you are about my work. Sit upon This Mountain most pure, and breathe this rarefied air. Swing my swing, which goes back and forth in My Word, My Truth, and My Light. Fear not the lion, which approaches from arrears, for you go under my protection. I empower your mind with My Mind, your spirit with My Spirit.

Now, Child, see the three angels of great light behind you. Take the stairway down The Mountain. Your feet never need touch the ground, lest you so wish, for you go under my power. Now, Child write what you see, and as given you to write."

"My Lord, I am skipping along down these steps, aware of these three radiant angels. They are very tall, maybe twelve feet tall or more, dressed in white, with eyes of white fire. I come now to a step, which is broken. I will glide over this one."

"It is an illusion, Child."

"I see, My Lord, that this is an illusion. I look to my right now to see a black and white spotted rabbit. It looks like a cartoon character; it is about five feet tall, sitting on its hind legs. It is looking my way, laughing. He most certainly thought I would fall, but I am gliding under your power, My Lord Jesus.

I notice that I am wearing a small round, white cap on my head. My feet are most radiant of golden-white light. I am wearing a white robe, like yours, My Lord, with a golden sash. I lift my arms, and am now levitating, gliding above these stairs, gently descending This Mountain. The air is crisp and clean. I am looking far below where the darkness is dense. These steps follow right into the middle of this great darkness."

"'Tis so, Child. And, for this reason, I have sent three mighty warrior angels to accompany you. These have great skills in warring the darkness; and you will need this.

"Yes, My Lord. I have come now into the fullness of the darkness at the base of This Mountain. I am looking behind me at the great light atop Your Mountain, and am aware of such great contrast. I find myself here in the courtyard of The United Nations for a second time. I see flags, still flying high, but the numbers flying have diminished considerably since my last visit. All is dark within The UN World Headquarters Building, except for a faint light, which I see flickering from one of the windows.

My eyes are brought to these flags again. One of these angels is holding up The Flag of Canada, which has fallen into the mire. Dirt and muck are all over this courtyard. This flagpole for The Canadian Flag is broken off clearly at the base. I am getting an image that black horses have trampled this flag. There is much black mire and red muck all over this flag that I can hardly discern this as a flag.

The Flagpole of the USA flag is broken, and the flag is almost invisible. It has not been severed at the base, but is pushed over within a foot of the ground, The Flag in the mire. The stripes have been trampled, so they are no longer visible. All but ten stars are gone. I see ten gold stars at the top of the flag, shining brightly. The rest of the flag is virtually covered in red muck.

I see a black flag, flying high with a gold half moon. I do not know what this represents. Other flags are flying high, but I do not recognize which countries they represent. My eyes are guided toward a hill in the distance, where I see the Australian flag waving.

Next to the Australian flag on the hill is an army tent. I see soldiers come and go from this tent, carrying wounded soldiers into the tent on stretchers. The wounded keep going in, but I never see any come out. I see a soldier hobbling, with one wooden leg. He carries a sign, which reads, 'I hate Iraq.' Then, I see a red cloud start to descend upon the hill. A fine, red mist covers this flag, and the Flag becomes deep red, as the mist is soaked into the flag. Soon, deep red drops begin to fall from the flag.

Elsewhere, the red cloud hits the ground and begins to saturate the ground with red moisture. This liquid moves to low places and collects. Small tributaries begin to form in the low places. These meet one another and form red rivers. These red rivers move fiercely sucking people under their currents. I see homes, factories, and farms disappear. Everything in the path of these red rivers is sucked into them, and carried along.

I hear a rooster. Then I see it--a red rooster-- sitting atop the flagpole. It crows repeatedly. The red storm has settled and all in sight is utterly destroyed. The forests look like someone has taken huge machetes to the trees. Everywhere, houses are rubble. I see untold numbers out in the streets of the cities, dead. I see the Pope go here and there holding mass. Yet, only a handful of people are at his feet, worshipping him. Most run the other way when they see him. Here and there in the forests, I see the eyes of those seeking shelter. They collect in small numbers of two or three, shivering from fear. Tanks and army trucks rumble over the terrain, pushing the dead up into piles. The soldiers, running this military equipment, are Chinese. These poor people and their land have been utterly destroyed by The Red Chinese.

"'Tis so, Child."

"My Lord, I am wondering where The Queen of the Kingdom is."

"Child, we shall come to this. For now, go back to the flags."

"My attention is now back to the front of The United Nations World Headquarters. I am looking at these flags here amidst this darkness. I am aware of five flags toppled and consumed by this red muck. I see others swaying, about to fall. I do not recognize many of these flags. The Flag of France is hanging low, but Germany's flies high. As I think of England, I am getting a vision of her overrun by black boots, which have trampled this flag into the black mire. I am searching for flags of South American countries, but I see none. Instead, I see a ring, which reminds me of a key ring. Within the center of this ring is a white flag-- The Flag of The UN. I am looking for other European countries. Belgium is still flying high, alongside The UN flag. It looks like the flags of most European countries are trampled into this mire. I see The Flag of China, flying high on her soil. Yet, I see the sword of China--the red sword--clash with the black sword from of The Arab alliance. This is taking place on Chinese soil."

"Child, you see the war go after the industrialized nations. One by one, these will succumb."

"Then what remains?"

"Some of the smaller island countries?"

"Like what?"

"Look for self: The Philippines, Singapore, some of the South Pacific Isles and other remote island countries."

"My Lord, it is very dark here at The UN. In the window a candle flickers, giving off little light."

"Child, go in."

"My Lord, I am trying, but all is locked and barred. One of the angels with me now takes a swipe across the doors with his sword of light, and cuts the doors into four pieces. Then with the power of his hands, he melts the doors. They vanish."

"That is my power, Child."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I am so tiny and they are so tall and mighty with your spirit. I am so humbled. I do not feel that I am worthy to behold such power."

"Were you not worthy, Child, you would not be called. Now, walk the trail of light."

"I am walking this trail of Your Light, as it goes before me. It leads up to the podium, where I came for the last UN Prophecies. As I look around, I see that no one is here. All is quiet. The lone, white candle is nearly burned out. It has dripped much wax onto the table, and has cascaded from the table onto the red carpet. All that remains of the white candle is a bit of liquid wax in the candleholder. The wick is black and almost burned away.

I have moved to the podium, where I see the same manila folder on a shelf just beneath the top of the podium. I take the folder and place it atop the podium. All is very easy to see and to read, as the light is most brilliant. I am very aware of these great beings standing around me, and am very grateful for their presence."

"Open the folder, Child, to part two."

"My Lord, I have opened this folder to Part Two. Beneath the words, 'Part Two', is written 'Gulf War Syndrome.' Why this, now? The Gulf War Syndrome is something of the past."

"No, Child, it is not in the past. This is very much alive, here and now."

"How so, My Lord?"

"Open it and you will see."

"I have opened 'Section Two', to find several pieces of white paper. On the second page is a skeleton at a black, grand piano. Sitting on the black piano, above the keys and to the left, is a red rose in full bloom, placed in a white bud vase. The skeleton is playing a catchy tune. He plays harder and louder, with many base notes. It is a funeral dirge.

To the left of the skeleton on the wall is an open window. The wind howls through the open window, causing the curtains to flap furiously. I am noting that these curtains are white with a small amount of black trim.

As I look through the open window and into the distance, I see the castle of The Rothschild and Rockefeller families. From previous prophecies, you have shown me that this castle is divided into two parts. One door, I have seen labeled 'Rockefeller'; and the other door I have seen labeled, 'Rothschild.' You have shown me that these wish their works to appear as good, but that their works are in fact dark and evil. Now, I see that this castle has taken a hit through war. The Rockefeller side of this castle is now empty; and the door bearing the Rockefeller name is gone. In fact, the whole wall bearing the door is gone. Two partial walls and a floor remain. The third wall is part of the Rothschild section of the castle.

I see great activity around The Rothschild part of this castle. Large, black bats are swarming over this castle. Before my very eyes, these bats turn into black helicopters; and they darken the sky. Behind the castle, I see a large, bright sun in the sky. The sun is playing a tune. In the castle, I see men in black suits sitting in small chairs like those of children. These men are playing musical chairs. When the sun plays the music they stand and move around this circle of chairs. When the music stops, each takes a seat in a child's chair. I see many vacant chairs. As I count, there appear to be 24 chairs, but only eight men.

As I look at this sun, I am aware that this is no ordinary sun. It has bright, golden flowers around the borders. In fact, this border is rather thick with bright, golden flowers. Within the center of this sun is a smiley face. Suddenly, half the sun disappears before my eyes. It is as if someone took a knife and cut half of this sun away. A dark gray area takes the place of the missing half. This darkness seems to be causing a shadow to fall on the remaining half. It appears that the remaining half-sun shall be setting soon, as it is just above the horizon.
Suddenly, the game of musical chairs comes to a halt, and one from The Rothschild Family stands. He puts a telescope to his eye and he looks far in the distance toward Ireland and beyond. He focuses on The Bank of Man; then picks up a walkie-talkie and speaks to someone in this bank, saying: ‘We will be shutting down this thing soon. Get ready for the new system.’ My Lord, what is the new system?"

"Cashless, Child, cashless."

"Then, I see the man with the telescope compress the telescope until it appears to be a round object of approximately three inches in diameter. He puts this round object into his pocket. As he does so, a great explosion ensues. This explosion causes streaks of light, similar to lightening, to go in all directions from the castle. I look closely at one of these beams, and see written on it: ‘I hear everything.’ What is this, My Lord?"

"Surveillance, Child."

"So, The Rothschilds will be surveilling everyone?"

"It is their specialty."

"So, they are behind the cashless society?"

"They are."

"But, why?"

"They have managed to acquire a vast amount of it and they wish to keep others as slaves--keep others from having any."

"What is this sun?"

"Is it real or is it fake?"

"It is fake, My Lord."

"Who is the fake son?"

"Lucifer, My Lord."

"Well, he smiles on The Rothschilds, directs their every move. They obey him. He has led them to great wealth."

"And, they continue on, My Lord?"

"Yes, Child. They wish to rule the world."

"It seems that many wish to rule it."

"Yes, Child, they have worshipped Satan for much time, and each has been told that he would rule the world. Is this not his way?"

"Yes, My Lord. I see that eight play the musical chairs now. Each of these eight thinks he will rule the world?"

"Remember, you saw eight of The Rothschild clan play musical chairs. These are eight, who have joined The Rothschilds. They know that they are in The Rothschild Castle."

"And the black helicopters?"

"They belong to Germany."

"So, this worldwide blitz of black helicopters belongs to The Germans?"
"And to Lucifer."

"How, My Lord?"

"Child, you have heard of the men in black, the clones in these black helicopters. These have been created of Lucifer in conjunction with Germany, primarily."

"And also in conjunction with the USA?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, indeed but at this point, The USA has fallen."

"So, Germany will use the clones to terrorize?"

"They will use them to terrorize and to spy."

"In what way?"

"Child, they possess super-human abilities. They are part Luciferian--given to have abilities of mind reading, and mind altering, which you do not have."

"So, these so-called aliens, or Luciferians, kidnapped women? Then, mated with them and created these clones, or the men in black which some have seen?"

"'Tis so."

"And where are these mostly?"

"Underground."

"Are some in military bases?"

"Yes, within mountains, deep within Germany. Also in your military installation currently within the desert."

"So, these clones, or the so-called men in black will be unleashed in great numbers? How many are there?"

"In excess of 200,000."

"So, they will help round up Christians?"

"'Tis so."

"Are they expendable?"

"Yes."

"In what way, My Lord?"

"Through sickness, disease, war--the same as you. They are half human."

"This is disgusting. Will these be done away with?"

"Yes, when I return all will be wiped out instantly."

"So, you know each one and his whereabouts at all times?"

"I know every one."

"What can people do to defend against them?"

"Be free in me. Live my laws. Know that the physical body is for a short while, only. I promise eternal life to those, who love me, and honor me through living my laws."

"So, My Lord, when the US military acts like they do not know anything about the aliens or the men in black, they lie."

"They do."

"Are all flying saucers Luciferian?

"The USA and Germany have them."

"Those over Mexico?"

"Man-made."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"And, the rest of the flying saucers?"

"Luciferian."

"My Lord, do those of your kingdom, or others on benevolent missions, ever use such crafts?"

"We do."

"Do you use them to come her into our midst?"

"We do not."

"Why?"

"These are not needed for me or mine to come therein. You have My Holy Spirit. My angels travel therein by projection. In other words, they image a place and are instantly there."

"And, Lucifer and his do not?"

"They can."

"Then, why the vehicles?"

"For transport, for research."

"What do they transport?"

"Dense objects."

"Like?"

"People, animals, equipment."

"So, The Luciferians created these flying saucers to operate in this sphere?"

"They did."

"My Lord, would you use them to travel to other galaxies?"

"Possibly, but they are not necessary, as we have The River."

"I read many years ago of other beings coming here in spacecraft from other stars to help with the ascension and Great War. Is this true, My Lord?"

"It is most untrue. The Father has entrusted Me with much power--all the power I need, and more. Remember, I have huge numbers of angels and saints at my disposal. Child, there are many, many, who commune with demons, and with Satan and his. Many are lost in this. What is coming upon you is one, great purge. It will rock the lifestyles of the comfortable. You will be forced either in My direction or in the direction of Satan and his. The force against you to keep you from going My way will be mighty. But, for those who stand for Me, and remain faithful, the rewards are great. Remember who you are, Child, and be not overcome by the darkness, which is surely about to fall."

"Thank you, My Precious Lord. For, I love you with all my heart. I have more questions so please bear with me. Will the British Empire fall?"

"For the most part, Child."

"And, Canada and Australia?"

"Great losses and destruction. When you, as a country, fall they will go swiftly behind you."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Is there no safe place, My Lord?"

"In Me and My Word, Child. As you know, there is freedom in Me."

"I have picked up this Part Two of the United Nations Papers and have had an explosion of pictures, are there more?"

"There are, but we shall stop for today. Rest in Me, Child. For, the day is The Sabbath. Keep it holy and show reverence toward Me in all things. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

08-04-1997

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have returned to The Mountain, most wondrous; as you heart burns with unanswered questions from yesterday's message. You question the words in Part Two, as is written: 'Gulf War Syndrome.' Are you not given to see death play a mighty tune? You see, as well, the winds blow upon death, the wind coming from the direction of the R. family of Germany. Is this not so?"

"Yes, My Lord, but how is this Gulf War Syndrome?"

"Child, those behind the creation of the Gulf War Syndrome are at it again."

"Please explain."

"The R. Family of Germany remains fully intact. Previous, there were two R. families in the castle on the hill, and a third you have not seen."

"So, the 'R' families concocted this idea to kill our soldiers?"

"They did so, along with other Luciferians. They are following directions from Lucifer, as the same worship him in secret."

"I hear this funeral dirge play. Then, I see this castle minus the Rockefeller family from The USA."

"Child, they turn on one another."
"Who is the third family I have not seen?"

"This shall be given. Shall I say, you have seen this one ride with Saddam Hussein?"

"You mean Queen Elizabeth?"

"The Royal Family."

"Now, I see, My Lord. In the original prophecy regarding the castle on the hill. You showed me the two R. families. But there was a third door. On this door, the screen was rusted and disintegrating. I commented on this screen. You said that all is seen. The screen, which once served a purpose of keeping out was no longer functional. The Royals can no longer hide behind screens.

I am looking behind the third door of the castle, and am aware of Queen Elizabeth in bed over in the corner. The light is very diminished in the room where she is sleeping. She looks very old, like someone of 120 years, at least. She appears to be no more that a skeleton with very wrinkled, pale skin stretched over bones.

The older Rothschild man comes in. He is very tall, and with his hair pulled back, black and balding in the front, he looks like a vampire. He has long, white, sharp teeth, which are dripping with blood. He goes to The Queen's bed. She is turned away from him, and does not seem to notice him come in. He walks quietly to the bed, then reaches down and bites The Queen on the neck. The skeleton-like Queen begins to swell until every wrinkle disappears. Then, of a sudden, this skeleton, which has swollen to look like a balloon, pops. It bursts with a huge blast, and pieces of it fly everywhere.

Then, My Lord, I am aware of an island with a large ship approaching, called The Queen Ann. A woman gets off, who is a semblance of Queen Elizabeth, but younger. A huge crowd awaits. This one of the semblance of Queen Elizabeth begins to disembark. She joyfully looks over the cheering crowd, and tosses upon them large handsful of popped corn. She wears a large, tan hat with fake flowers around the rim. As she takes off her hat to wave to the people, little, white birds flutter out. These white birds quickly become little, brown sparrows, which fly into a huge oak tree nearby.

She reaches the last step of the gangplank. Prince Phillip is there and, he picks her up and carries her over the last step. As she leaves the boat, I see that she wears no shoes. The crowds quickly disappear as she walks along with The Prince. Along the way, I see that she stops for a minute to bathe her feet in a clear stream. This stream appears just to the other side of the sidewalk over which she and The Prince travel.

She wears the crown of queen, but she complains about the weight of the crown. She rubs her neck as if it is sore from carrying the weight of the crown. Her long skirt has two large pockets in front. She reaches down into the pockets in search of money. There is no money in her right pocket, but in her left pocket, there is one, gold coin. Around the outer rim of the coin is written ‘E pluribus Unum’. In the middle of the coin is a plain bridge.

She holds the coin up to her mouth and spits on it. In the saliva, she sees her reflection at a large ball. She is dressed splendidly. Her heels are high, but she walks painfully, as the shoes are too small. She manages to waltz for a while, but soon retires to a side room, where she falls into a deep slumber. A servant comes in and sees her sleeping and fears that The Queen is dead. For, her heart beats so faintly.

Suddenly, she hops up. ‘I am not dead! Damn you,’ she says. ‘The Royals shall never die!’ She gets up and goes to the barn where a solitary horse awaits. It has the coloring of a palomino pony, but it is of full size. As she gets on the horse, I notice that she wears a black patch over her left eye. But, with her right eye, she sees well. She has cowboy boots, with spurs and long fingernails, which look like knives. ‘To Ethiopia,’ she says!

She goes to Ethiopia and sits with a black man at a table for two. ‘I’ve got money,’ she says. And, she pulls piles of currency from her back pocket. Then, she opens a black treasure box, and takes out a small, gold crown, which she places on the head of this man from Ethiopia. ‘Follow me,’ she says. And, this black man, with this gold crown follows her. She storms into the Rothschild Castle, and puts listening devices in the part of the castle, which had once belonged to The Royals. These devices detect through the walls what is being said in the Rothschild part of The Castle. She is listening carefully. There are whispers, but she cannot make out what is being said.

‘Get me the dogs,’ she orders!’ And, two huge dogs appear. They must have been eight feet tall. One of the dogs scratches a tiny hole in the wall to the Rothschild Castle, and Queen Ann rolls a tape into the presence of these men. After a while, the Queen pulls the tape back and says to the two dogs, ‘Read it!"

The two dogs spend two and one half days back and forth, back and forth, trying to read the tape. It is encrypted. ‘Get more dogs,’ she orders! Then, 18 more dogs appear. They run the tape through many computers. After 21 days, the code is broken. The tape reads:

I am The Supreme Commander of all world forces.
I have been given authority, dominion over Earth, and all its people.
All are subject to me and my directions.
The Rothschild Manifesto

The Queen puts a telescope to her eyes and looks far away to The Rothschild Headquarters. She believes that she sees The Pope get into a black limousine. Following him are several men in black suits. Yes, he is in a black limousine, following a black hearse; she is sure of this.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

My Lord, I am looking within the hearse, and I see a casket, draped with The Flag of the USA. On the side of the casket, is written: 'Freedom, no more.' There is an entourage of eight or ten black limousines filled with these men, dressed in dark suits following the hearse into this mountain. They have gone into the mountain and disappeared. I go in after them, and find myself on some rails, which lead off into the mountain. There is little light, save the small amount, which winds its way back from the opening of this tunnel. But, there is enough light to see before me two very large, polished, mahogany doors. Above these doors I see a sign, which reads 'Hostile Control Center.'

Inside, I see The Pope, lying on a table with others, seated around him. Each person seated around him in a circle says the same phrase, 'Omnibi usha'; and as each says this phrase he pours something from a small pail onto The Pope. What comes from the pail is a green substance. It falls onto the Pope and readily becomes green slime, which quickly finds its way off the table and onto the floor.

Suddenly, I see a large, red spirit emerge. My Lord, they have summoned Lucifer or one of his great demons. This entity is talking to them, and now each one is on his knees with his head on the seat of his chair. There is a foul smell in this room. I see smoke rising from this evil thing, which is speaking, and from the green scum on the floor. This thing--this demon--is now possessing The Pope. It speaks through The Pope. They are all bowing in reverence to this evil. Each is making a peculiar hand signal to the other. I see Bill Clinton. His hair is as white as snow. He is smiling his agreeable way. This is full-blown devil worship and is disgusting. My Lord, this burning sulfur smell is overwhelming."

"Now, you see, Child."

"Yes, My Lord, I see who gives them power and plots to make slaves of every one of us!"

"But, not for long, Child. Not for long."

" I am focusing once more on the new Queen. I notice now that she is wearing one black shoe on her right foot; her left foot is bare. She takes the black shoe and tosses it into the river. ‘Cursed be this evil thing!’ she shouts. Then, she gets on the tan and white horse and returns home. She is distraught for what she has seen, and wanders back and forth wringing her hands. She is trapped--closed in on all sides by high walls. She sees no way out.

One day, she sees that a mouse has dug a hole under a wall. She goes face down onto the dirt and pushes herself under the wall through the small hole. She gets out in this way. All looks sunny out. The birds are chirping, and she feels a new day. But, she fails to see an old troll dressed in black behind her. He comes up from behind, and hits her fiercely over the head with a black cane. Then, he proceeds to beat her all over her body with the black cane. The ugly troll then assumes a man’s face. Dressed in a black suit, he is riding in a black sedan, with another. The one driving resembles Dracula. The troll-turned-man picks up the lifeless body of Queen Anne, and puts her in the trunk of the black sedan. This evil looking man at the wheel is The "R" man of Germany. He has beaten poor Queen Anne, and she lies lifeless in the trunk of the car. "My Lord, this is sad."

"Yes, Child. One by one, each goes."

"But, not The "R" family of Germany?"

"Yes, Child, even the "R" Family will go in time. Now, you see Queen Anne and her problems."

"Yes, I do. But, what is the situation with The Ethiopian king?"

"An alliance, Child for money. She has it. He needs it. Yet, he has a position in the world, where she needs to be in touch with what is going on."

"And, the walls?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"She is isolated, sees no way out."

"And, the mouse?"

"A mole, Child, a mole."

"So, she follows a mole, and gets caught by her enemy? Do they kill her?"

"They do not, at first. But will in a short time."

"So, Lucifer has told this "R" man that he will rule the world? And, The Pope is possessed by The Devil or one of his?"

"Most completely, Child, from time to time. As you see, these worship in secret in this dark mountain. Much magic abounds, as you have seen at The Pope's death."

"Well, My Lord, this has answered a lot. This kind of worship is what I have seen with those in the "R" family as they played musical chairs with the fake sun."

"Yes, Child, playing to the tune of a false son."

"My Lord, a question about the clones. How did they get souls?"

"Child these clones are created of Satan and his in a laboratory. They have no sense of self, save that, which is programmed into them. God, The Father has sent no soul to them through The River."

"How do they operate without souls?"

"Electrical impulses."

"But, My Lord, these have abilities much higher than we."

"'Tis so, Child, but these cannot evolve. They are complex machines, created through the alteration of DNA in lab settings. They have been prostituted and do not come in through legal avenues of The Father. It is Satan's attempt to prove that he is God. Each of you has power over them."

"How so, My Lord?"

"Curse them to die in the name of Jesus Christ--my name."

"And, then it shall be so?"

"It shall be so when you speak with My Spirit, and My Power. In fact, many of you shall help in the eradication of these in just this way. For, they are not legal before The Father. Each of you is a legal soul, with legal rights. You have many rights and much power if you honor me and my path set for each of you to follow. I promise you much and I give much."

"So, they do not have a soul?"

"Not a human soul."

"Then, what kind of soul?"

"An aggregation of darkness collected within tissue. Remember, darkness also has power."

"Yes, My Lord, I do remember this. I thank you, My Precious Jesus, for bearing with me. I desire so to do your work, and be some small part of your great victory."

" 'Tis not My victory, alone, Child. But, My victory for all. All, who stand for Me in faith across this short time shall be victorious. Come back to me, all who are lost! For, the darkness pushes in on you.

Aug 05, 1997

Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have come once again, seeking clarification. And, your wishes have been granted. For, you have been chosen. And, you have volunteered to be my powerful messenger these latter days. Your heart is known to me. I know of your sorrow at what you behold. But, you must be at peace in me, Child. For, I reveal the same to you, that you might carry truths to many, who are lost in appearances, delusions, lies. It is a dangerous time to believe one's senses. For, the senses are subject to believe what is of the world. And, the world, Child, is based upon illusion, here today, gone tomorrow.

My Spirit is in the spirit of those, who love and honor me. The same honor the ways of The Father and know eternal life. The way of the illusion is self-delusion; and is wrought with cheap good times, which leave one vacant. My Spirit fills to completion. It leaves no holes, but brings to completion all in me. You, each of you, know the physical as a means of ironing out your debts. Yet, soon all will be forgiven those, who walk the straight and narrow. For, grace abounds now in great measure to the humble of heart who honor me.

Now, Child, you have asked several questions. Let us start with your question about Queen Elizabeth. For, you have seen the kiss of death to her kingdom--the kiss of the vampire on her neck--and you now ask of this. Child, the skeleton represents the body of The Royal Family.

"Yes, My Lord, and what does her neck represent?"

"Her neck is the connection of her head to her body."
"And, this is?"

"The Position of Queen."

"So, the vampire does away with the position of Queen Elizabeth--the monarchy?"

"With his kiss, he inflates it. The wrinkles are ironed out briefly. And, then the whole thing explodes."

"How so?"

"Child, what do you see?"

"My Lord, I see the "R" man from Germany digging a hole in the ground. The hole is for a casket. I see a tombstone, which reads 'The Death of Queen Elizabeth, 2002.' I am looking in the casket at this grotesque form. Is this The Queen, or the position of The Queen?"

"Child, 'tis her position as queen. Queen Elizabeth shall be no more."

"So, what of this old, wrinkled, bony skeleton in this casket?"

"It is the appearance of Great Britain."

"So, The Queen is dead also?"

"She is dead, and has been for five months."

"Then, what is this month?"

"See, 'May.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord, I see May, 2002. What was it that she died of, My Lord?"

"Was she not bitten?"

"I thought that Great Britain, only, was bitten."

"How can she be bitten, and The Queen be utterly spared?"

"My Lord, I do not know."

"What is the specialty of The "R" family (of Germany)?"

"Germ warfare."

"'Tis one."

"So, she was killed by germ warfare?"

"Chemical warfare directed at her. Remember the surveillance within the Royal Family, coming from the "R" Castle on the hill?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, 'tis so. She was murdered by this source. This source kissed Great Britain with the kiss of death, which was war. And, through this kiss, most especially germ warfare and chemical agents, this kiss spread rapidly. It exploded among the body parts--exploding within the population, killing not just The Queen, but many."

"Not Prince Phillip?"

"Not at first, but he does not live long."

"Who appoints Queen Anne?"

"This has been decided for some time."

"So she comes to Great Britain on this boat?"

"She comes in on a tide of people. Many will support her."

"What is this popped corn she throws?"

"What do you believe it to be?"

"My Lord, I do not know."

"Look around yourself. What do you see?"

"I see a fairy godmother type."

"Exactly. This white, fluffy substance she throws on the people is fluff. It is airy. It tastes good, but has no substance."

"And, the people leave her?"

"Child, she is Queen in name only. She has no power. Look in her pockets, no money, just a single gold, coin of European currency."

"And she spits on this. Why?"

"She spits to see her reflection."

"What is her reflection?"

"Someone of the social scene. One of status, who is cramped. Her shoes are too tight. She does not like this cramped position. She flees for a while and others think she is asleep. She is angered that they think this, so she comes out fighting."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, Child, ‘tis so."

"And, Phillip is there with her for the last step?"

"Yes, Child, for the last step of The Monarchy."

"My Lord, Jesus, I thank you for you help. Without it we would all be lost."

"Child, I provide truth that all may be the wiser.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth.

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE UNITED NATIONS PROPHECIES

Iraq, The Super Power

"Precious Child, you are upon The Mountain, most high, most wondrous. Look above and you will see my radiance…the radiance of The Son."

"My Lord, I am looking above, and I see a pure radiant, white light. Within this light, I see many angels. I see one with a magic wand, who stands apart from the rest. Who is this?"

"This is Lucifer. Though he may appear as brightness from above, he waves the magic wand. Child, I need no magic wand. Neither do others of mine. For, I have the Light and power of The Father and no magic is needed."

"My Lord, your light illumines all."

"'Tis so, Child. I illumine every dark recess."

"My Lord, I saw a dark flutter, followed by something of white fluttering quickly behind. This seems to be a fight. What is the nature of this?"

"Child, even on This Mountain, tension abounds. Lucifer is becoming ever bold as he is within the Earth sphere. A war herein will soon ensue. He and his will be defeated, and cast therein. Scuffles are taking place daily."

"So, confusion abounds where he and his go?"

"It does."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, I have sent you many protective angels today, to guard and protect you on this journey. For, you shall need them. Go in the Power of God to the base of this mountain. Write what you see, and as given you to write."

"My Lord, I have descended from the brightness of This Mountain, and have come now to its base. From this position in air, barely above the trees, I am able to see many houses. All is dark except for the lights emanating from the windows of these houses. I have come once again to settle in the courtyard of The United Nations World Headquarters'. I note that all the flags are gone except one. This is a white flag with a gold tassel hanging from it near the top of the pole.

One of the angels holds up the flag, showing that the interior of the flag has been cut away. This large jagged hole consumes most of the flag, leaving only a jagged white border, which is no more than one inch thick in some places.

The angel has motioned for me to enter the flag through this hole. As I do so, I find myself in an army camp in front of a green military tent. I am being motioned to the rear of this tent, where I see a fire made of wood. Around the fire is a number of folding chairs. Many of the chairs are empty. Most of the men in the chairs are seated with their backs to me. A soldier stands opposite these men, and seems to be explaining something intently to these men in another language. I am having difficulty hearing what is said, as the tanks are roaring to the rear of the soldier past a long line of tents."

"Move in and listen."

"My Lord, I am here behind these men, squatting on the ground behind them. I am listening, and do hear English being spoken. Someone says, 'We'll take them at 0400.'"

"What more, Child?"

"A man with blonde hair jumps up. He throws down his gloves and says, 'Nein, nein.' Then, he speaks rapidly and angrily. I do not know what is said. Then a fog rolls over these men. They scatter, leaving only burning embers, where once they sat. As morning comes, warfare ensues. I see bombs exploding and hear snipers. These bombs appear to be coming from The Russians. In the distance troops are encamped amidst mountains. These men in the mountains are firing upon the men in the valley.

Suddenly, someone jumps out of a German warplane into the midst of the soldiers in the valley. He is coming down in a parachute. I see writing on the parachute, which says, 'Sickness and Disease.' I get a picture now of a tent with many wounded soldiers. Someone is moving around in the tent with an object, which makes smoke. This one, dressed in white, passes the cots of the sick and dying. As he does so, he says a prayer in Latin, and wafts some smoke upon those, who are sick and dying. Soon, each of the dead and dying are surrounded by much smoke. The one dressed in white is The Pope. A German officer comes up to him and says, 'Job well done.'

Then, I see that the infirmary is suddenly evacuated. It is cleaned of every person and every scrap of paper. Those in the infirmary are loaded like livestock into a train. The dead are stacked several layers deep in boxcars, then frozen. Those who are living are put in many separate trains and sent in many different directions.

The long train with the sick comes to a building on the right of the tracks and stops. This building appears to be a depot. The sign above the door to the building reads, 'UN Peace Negotiations Closed.' A little, old lady sits in the window. The conductor gets out of the train, and gives the little, old lady a note. The note is a white piece of paper, folded in half. On this paper is written, 'call me tomorrow.'

The little, old lady is dressed in a white night cap and pink floral nightgown. She wears gold wire rimmed glasses. From her appearances, she looks as if she is about to go to bed. She takes the note from the conductor, and puts it in her mouth. As she chews on the paper, it swells in her mouth. Her cheeks bulge until they look as if they will burst. Finally, she swallows the white note, and it sits like lead in her stomach.

She starts to get up, and I see that she is a little old lady from the waist up only. She has the abdomen of a very large man. Her lower half is dressed in military pants with heavy, black military boots. She picks up the telephone and dials ‘O.’ Then, she gives an unintelligible message, yet it seems to go out as the same message in many languages. She removes the cotton from her ears and pours oil into her ears. Next, she pulls long strips of cotton from her nose. Quickly, her eyes begin to roll around in her head. She smiles and I see that her teeth are large, gold and sharp. She blows through her mouth, and her breath melts a candle on the desk beside the window. She takes one deep breath and pops the little, old lady gown. Off blows the nightcap. Underneath all is a military uniform. A very large man now appears. He flexes his muscles and rubs his biceps. ‘Of steel!’ he roars. ‘Of steel!’ He starts to speak in English, then German, ‘Get me the deal,’ he says. ‘Get me the deal!’

A little midget, named ‘Italy’ brings him a belt with many, huge bullets. He puts on the belt and growls, ‘I am not satisfied!’ Then, the little midget brings him two more belts full of large bullets. ‘More,’ he says. So, the little midget named ‘Italy’ brings him three anklets of large bullets for his right ankle. I look now at his ankles and see that these anklets come with leg chains. The military man is wearing leg chains, put there by Italy.

Now, the soldier is a giant. He growls, ‘Get me the sauce.’ Then, he seizes a bottle of red sauce, and pours it all over his food. Red sauce overflows his plate and runs from his mouth. I see white streamers flowing from his shirtsleeves. His hair is very black and shiny.

I am searching for his name. I see a patch across the left pocket of his shirt. I am peeling this away to get at his name. As I peel away the patch, I see behind it miles and miles of desert. I see men on camels with binoculars, looking far into the distance. Their eyes travel over deep sand dunes to a nearby country. This is the country of Iraq. I see some peasants just outside the boundaries of Iraq. They seem to be dancing a Turkish dance.

"So, My Lord, this soldier, dressed first as a powerless, little, old lady is Iraq. And, Hussein is indebted to Italy? He is indebted to Italy?"

"To The Vatican, Child."

"How, My Lord?"

"Weaponry."

"But, how did The Vatican get weaponry?"

"Remember who takes over The Papacy?"

"The Mafia?"

"Exactly."

"So, The Mafia feeds Saddam Hussein military might?"

"They do."

"Why?"

"For power, world control."

"So Hussein is very indebted?"

"He is in no way free."

"He has greatly grown in military might."

"He has. And he has deceived many."
"My Lord, the military camp at the beginning, who was that?"

"Did you see one flag flying?"

"Yes, My Lord, what does that represent?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"The UN Flag. All that remains of it is a fragment of self. It has been cut down to this."

"And, the gold tassel?"

"Gold remains, Child, but little else."

"I heard English and German spoken at this camp after I climbed through The Flag. Explain this to me."

"You see Germans and English disagreeing on how to proceed with war against The Russians. Many chairs are vacant, as many have pulled out of The UN. While they argue, chemical warfare rolls into their midst, brought in by The Russians. All that remains of The UN fire is a little zeal--burning embers. No real fire."

"And, the parachute?"

"The Germans bring sickness and disease."

"I was thinking that The Russians brought sickness and disease through chemical warfare."

"The Russians did in fact bring chemical warfare, but The Germans spread great disease through germ warfare."

"The Germans spread this upon themselves?"

"They spread it upon others of The UN camp."

"Why? Are these not allies?"

"Child, they have no allies. They believe that all is fair game in war. Remember, they desire to rule the world. And, they have managed to attain vast wealth, unknown to many of you."

"So, they send germ warfare among their own allies?"

"Your own army, in collaboration with the three powerful families, sent germ warfare among your own soldiers. You were the first great trial among military. They did this to your soldiers (in desert storm) to see how it disables. Most certainly, they will attempt to take out others in the same way until only they remain."

"So, The Pope moves among the sick and dying with his prayers of antiquity spreading a smoke screen?"

"He does, Child."

"Yet, he is double dealing with The Mafia and Saddam Hussein?"

"He covers all fronts, for he believes he will rule the world."

"And the smoke screen for the sick and the dead, what is this?"

"That their sins are forgiven, that all is well."

"That all is well, and a war is raging?"

"It is so, Child, for all must be kept in the dark."
"And at this point, people are still so in the dark?"

"More than ever, Child, for, they are looking for a religious leader to wave a wand, and make all perfect."

"Why is the infirmary cleaned out?"

"War shuts down in one area, and moves to another."

"Why are the bodies frozen and stacked?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Frozen to arrest the spread of disease among their own, and stacked to get a hold on the disease."

"Stacked to get a hold on it?"

"Yes."

"How so?"

"To organize disease, to follow its spread."

"And what of the train which departs for many areas?"

"Child, it is the war train. The train bearing the sick, the ill, leaves Europe and departs for many areas."

"Then, it stops at a building, which says, ‘UN Peace Negotiations Closed.’ And the little old lady eats the note, which says, ‘call me tomorrow’.

"The train loaded with sick and dying, Child, stops and gives Saddam Hussein a note. The note says, ‘call me tomorrow.’ He eats the note. It becomes lead in his stomach, then makes him strong. What is this train, Child?"

"It is a train of those, killed or diseased by germ or chemical warfare. So, Saddam will use this train in the near future?"

"In the near future. And, it will add to his stature and power."

"Why does this note grow in his mouth?"

"It grows behind his teeth--his military might."

"Why does it become as lead?"

"It is a heavy weight, Child."

"In what way?"

"How is lead heavy, Child?"

"Dense molecular weight."

"True and more."

"Like, what?"

"Its toxicity makes it very dangerous. It is very heavy in the tissues, making it a killer for the nerves."

"So, this is nerve gas?"

"'Tis so."

"Who did he call?"

"He called Zero. What is zero, Child?"

"Nothing."

"Yes, but more."

"Like what?"

"It is a circle, a line which meets itself, a closure, a completeness."

"So, he brings closure to a part of his military?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"To a large part."

"And, the cotton from his ears?"

"Child, he is removing the stops, those he has listened to in the past."'

"And, what does he pull from his nose?"

"From his nose he pulls long lines of troops, heavily equipped in many kinds of warfare."

"What is his breath?"

"Nuclear warfare. After he begins to attack with nuclear bombs, others will see him for the large military threat he really is."
"And, the muscle flexing is war?"

"'Tis so."

"And he is demanding some sort of deal with The English and Germans?"

"He is."

"And what is this deal?"

"Child, he wants more."

"More what?"

"More military might."

"So the English and the Germans do not respond, but The Vatican does."

"Italy arms him to the hilt to help him bring down England and Germany."

"And, the red sauce is communism?"

"'Tis so."

"What are the white streamers?"

"Child, still he wishes to be buddy-buddy with England and Germany, with The UN."

"Yet, The Vatican gives him the military might to fight them?"

" 'Tis so. As said, all wish to rule the world, and none can be trusted. For, all will attempt to kill everyone else in the bid for this power."

"My Lord, this is the worst kind of evil and perversion."

"'Tis so. Child, go in my love and power. I am Jesus.

I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth. I come for mine shortly."

CHAPTER NINE

THE UNITED NATIONS PROPHECIES

The Fall of the United Nations, The Rise of Germany, Christian Revival in India

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have come to The Mountain, most high and wondrous. The scent is most pure, the flowers most radiant. You swing back and forth upon the swing of my knowledge, my word of truth and honor. Step down from the swing and onto The Path of Truth and Light. Write as you see and as given you, Child. Cherish this honored path. For, it is The Path of The Prophets."

"My Lord, I behold this radiant path. I see that I am only a child with two brown braids, hanging in front, the vision of myself I have seen many times. But, as I step upon this path, I see that I wear a white robe. My hair is golden. I wear sandals and carry a scepter. It is a rod with a dome on top. I have now placed my feet upon the path, and feel its radiance move up my legs."

"Pound the earth three times with the rod."

"My Lord, I have done so. I find myself now at the edge of a very clear pool. It is inviting, and I believe I shall go for a swim. I am jumping into the clear pool with all my clothing. The feel of the water is so pure, so inviting and comforting. I feel renewed. I emerge and sit at the edge of these pure waters. My Lord, I have bathed in the radiant pool, the fire of Your Spirit. I know that this pool is part of The River of Life."

"'Tis so, Child. Now, adjust your son-glasses, and look far into the distance. For, today you shall journey today to another land."

"My Lord, I have done as you ask, and find myself on the streets of a foreign land I believe to be India. The people are very dark. Yes, My Lord, it is India, as I am aware that this is the land of the Taj Majal. A man of very dark skin approaches and offers me a piece of white paper, folded in half. But, I decline. He is very insistent that I take this paper."

"Take it, Child."

"My Lord, I have reached to take it, but it has slipped from my fingers. As it falls, I see that many white petals of daisies have fallen from within the paper. Here and there I see the yellow centers of the daisies, which are separated from the petals. These are numerous, as they fall around my feet. As I look at the white petals, they are multiplying before my eyes. They swell past my ankles, and are fast moving up my legs toward my knees. They have reached my waist. These white petals are spreading throughout the dark, narrow streets carrying a smell of vanilla. As these spread, there seems to be a bleaching, a cleansing. The darkness is fast disappearing, and I see a brightness in the shops. The windows, which were before as dark as soot, now radiate cleanliness.

To my left, I see a new trains emerge from around the bend. It rides upon new tracks. I count ten in all. The train is coming, its whistle a sound of glee. I see the train is brimming with people. They seem so happy. They are all waving through the windows, laughing and smiling. A sun of pure white light radiates upon them. I hear music: 'When Johnny Comes Marching Home' And I see marching drummers, attired in bright blue coats and yellow pants. My Lord, this is most joyous.

But all is not well. To the right of the train I see a black vulture in a tree. The tree is a brown tree with many limbs but no leaves. The limbs are cut off bluntly as if by a saw. The sight of the vulture amidst such joy is deeply oppressing.

Suddenly, the whole scene is gone. I see in its place a short, rotund, balding man with dark hair. He looks somewhat like Danny DeVito, but he is not. This man places a brown hat on his balding head. He is dressed in a dark brocade vest, black pants and a white shirt. His shirt is unbuttoned to the waist, and he wears no shoes. The pockets of his pants are all pulled inside out. He is scratching his head, saying, 'What shall we do? What shall we do?'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Then, he puts a telescope to his right eye and looks to the UN. As he looks, I see what he sees. He focuses on the courtyard of the UN. I see a very large base of a flagpole. A white flag flies atop this pole. The pole is very weak, as it sways with the wind. The flag is a large, white flag. It appears to be made of flimsy, porous material like cheesecloth. In the center of this flimsy flag is a large, faded, red cross.

I see that the doors to The UN are down and have been trampled upon. As I look inside, it looks as if someone has put a match to an accelerant and gutted the interior with fire. Little remains of the rotunda, except for charred ruins. Dust and cinders have claimed the remains. The curtains appear to have been shredded. The windowpanes seem to have burst from the heat, leaving large holes in the walls. As I look toward the front I see only the charred remains of the podium. As I look around I see some papers beneath the charred remains of a seat. As I look closer, I note that the charred chair once read New Zealand. I move in to see that beneath this chair is a manila folder, which is covered with cinders, dust and spider webs."

"Go in, Child, and get the folder."

"My Lord, I have entered the charred UN Building and have moved down the aisle to the charred remains of this chair. I am retrieving the folder, but I see that a spider has woven a web tightly around it. I curse this web to nothingness in the name of Jesus Christ!

My Lord, I now see a large, black spider hiding beneath the rubble. He changes his appearance and now looks like Dracula. Then he goes into a secret door beneath the chair, labeled ‘Rothschild Only’.

I have taken the folder. As I open it, I see a pile of papers. The first page reads, ‘Bermuda Triangle’. Otherwise, the page is blank.
I turn to the next page, which has encrypted writing. ‘I command you, words, to be legible in the name of Jesus Christ.’ My Lord, I am now aware of a flow of words moving very quickly. ‘I command these words to move slowly in the name of Jesus Christ!' Now, these words move slowly, but German. 'I command these words to flow slowly in English!' My Lord, these words flow now in English as a mirror image. 'Satan, I curse you in the name of Jesus Christ! And command these words to be legible, in English, and to flow slowly.' My Lord, I read three words, 'CLOSE THE DOOR'. These three words are written in big, bold writing. Beneath these words flows a muddy stream quickly over sharp rocks. At the bottom of the page are more words, 'SIT IN QUIET.'

On the next page is a woman high up in a tower. She has very long, brown hair, which she is letting down upon the rotund, balding man. She reminds me of Rapunzel. The rotund man is saying to the woman in the tower, 'Let me up!' He holds onto the hair of the woman, her hair all around him; and he feels comfortable. He sees the hair as white as cotton; but as the hair leaves the woman in the tower, it is actually deep brown. This woman looks like a witch, but not to this man.

I am focusing now on this fat man. He is holding onto the hair and waltzing around, totally at peace with himself, singing, humming. He is surrounded by a glass dome and has gold leg irons on his ankles. I follow the chains to these leg irons and see that they lead to the Rothschild Castle. Of the three families, which once thrived in the castle, only the Rothschilds remain. The light in the window of this castle is now flickering. The dark branches of the tree still shoot up through the roof of the castle. The branches now have no leaves. At the very top of this tree is one black vulture.

As I focus on the black vulture, it suddenly changes into the older Rothschild man. He is in the castle seated at a table, finishing off a large meal of lamb chops. He licks his lips and fingers vigorously. His plate is now empty, but beside him on the table is a large pile bones. He takes the bones and tosses them to his rear. There, piled up against the wall from previous meals, is a small mountain of lamb bones.

He sits at the table and perceives a peculiar smell. He cannot quite make out the odor, but believes that it is citronella. 'Oh, yes, citronella,' he says. Then, he sees a little, black pot, which is openly brewing it. This little, black caldron is sitting on the table near him. He dips the thumb and forefinger of his right hand into the citronella and puts dabs of it behind his right ear and on both wrists. Then, he takes a cigarette from behind his right ear and smokes it. Smoke starts billowing out his nose and ears. His eyes look like roulette wheels. As I look at his eyes, I see people throwing dice into these wheels. The dice fly off the wheels, just as quickly as they are thrown into them and with a great force. These wheels are turning with such great speed that no one can get access to them. They are totally under control of this older Rothschild man.

He takes three long puffs from the cigarette. Smoke continues to flow from his eyes and ears. With each puff, he fills his lungs completely. He goes to the balcony of the castle, and tosses the cigarette over the balcony. He watches the cigarette as it drifts downward and lands amidst the mountains, creating a fire. The fire quickly becomes a very bright fire of white light. It spreads quickly, and looks very much like a nuclear chain reaction. It seems to light up everything in its path. I see Denmark and Norway burn with the light of this fire. It moves to include Finland. Then, I see that all is black and charred.

Following the fire and subsequent blackness, I see soldiers dressed in red coats playing snare drums. Behind the drummers, I see miles and miles of soldiers, dressed in black, playing flutes. The flute tune is light, airy, and very catchy. I do not recognize this tune, but it is in stark contrast to the dark, charred surroundings.

Now, I behold the bald, fat man amidst the long white hair of the Rapunzel look-alike. The white hair, which was once soft and inviting, is now sharp and prickly. It is beginning to stick into this balding man. The prickly hair cuts into his neck and hands and he is bleeding. He tries to move about, but is resigned to one place, as the thick gold chains with locks on his feet make his movement almost impossible. Every time he tries to move, he is stuck by this thick, sticky, glass-like hair. My Lord, who is this balding man?"

"Child, peel the label off his back, and look underneath."

"My Lord, I have moved around to his back and am now removing the blank label on his back. As I peel it away, I see the large trunk of a hollow tree. This tree has many branches but few leaves. The few remaining leaves are falling to the ground very quickly. I see a red mailbox on the tree."

"Reach into the box and take out the envelope."

"My Lord, I have the envelope. It looks like a Western Union envelope. As I open it, I see a single piece of yellow paper. It reads, ‘Europe is paralyzed.’"

"‘Tis so."

"Why are the leaves almost gone from this tree?"

"Child, the leaves represent life force. Europe is paralyzed, and has little life force."

"Why is Europe paralyzed?"

"Who controls Europe?"

"The evil "R" man."

"‘Tis so, and more."

"Who else?"

"Lucifer and his. The evil one has fallen."

"You mean Lucifer and his have been booted down to earth? And Europe has fallen into his hands? Does Lucifer possess the Rothschild man?"

"He owns him."

"So, Lucifer keeps him in power for now?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"For now, but not for long. For, he shall be destroyed along with the rest. He shall be used up and discarded."

"So Rothschild got control of Europe and then knew he had to bring destruction to these three countries?"

"'Tis so."

"And what of the drums and the catchy tune?"

"Child, the red soldiers of communism bring the snare. This snare, this drum, this beat, comes to conquer. It is loud and ominous. Once conquered, the tune is catchy. For, the promise is for one world government under the power of Germany. It sounds good, light and airy, welcome amidst such bleakness."

"And the lamb chops consumed by the 'R' man?"

"The orders to kill my sheep. He will launch an unprecedented campaign to kill Christians and will be responsible for killing millions. The works of Hitler will not compare to the works of this man and his machine."

"What evil! It breaks my heart that one could be so evil. My Lord, I continue to pray for guidance that I might bring more of your precious truths to those who will listen.

What is the citronella?"
"The attempt to ward off attacks by the enemy. He will do all in his power to ward off the enemy attack, and when he feels that it is most imminent; he will light the fire, the nuclear fire. It will come from his ears and eyes."

"What are his ears?"

"Those aligned with him, who spy for him."

"Which are?"

"The leaves still left on the tree."

"Which are?"

"Spain, Portugal, Sicily, Romania and others. Pockets scattered here and there, especially throughout Europe."

"So, he fears an attack from these countries he attacks with nuclear bombs?"

"He does, for they do not align with him, but he fears with Russia."

"So, he does away with them, and then promises them the moon?"

"'Tis so."

"Do they fall for this?"

"Child, look at these poor people."

"My Lord, I see the devastation of nuclear holocaust. It is an awful sight."

"And, Child, neutron bombs in places."

"My Lord, I see ghost towns. All the people are gone, leaving only the buildings. I sense absolute desolation. There is smoke coming from his ears and eyes and I do not quite understand this."

"Child, where there is smoke, there is fire. Fire burns for him in the areas I have given you. Smoke came from the body of this man. Do you see?"

"Yes, My Lord. And the three times he inhaled and blew smoke?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Three great attacks or raids."

"And poor Europe in bondage under the chains of gold now realizes that this soft pure hair is really like fiberglass—sticky and painful."

"'Tis so but they are locked in by the gold, by the money."

"So, the vulture in the 'R' tree is really the devil?'

"'Tis so, Child, but not for long. For, all is moving very quickly now."

"My Lord, what of The Bermuda Triangle and 'Close the door,' and 'Sit in quiet.'

"Child, The Bermuda Triangle is just that. See Bermuda in the Atlantic Ocean?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"What goes there, Child?"

"My Lord, I see many cream stairs leading up to a very tall tower. The tower itself has green awnings and is situated on the beach. I am adjusting my son-glasses, so as to be able to read what is written on the awnings. The writing has been faded greatly by the sun. I command these words to appear in the name of Jesus Christ, and I command you to be fully legible and in English. My Lord, the words say, 'town house.'

As I stand up by the tower, I see bulldozers pushing heaps of dead bodies out into the sea. There is much death here. The smell is awful. A little gold finch has landed on the balcony next to me and has given me a white piece of paper, folded in half. On the paper is written, 'never tomorrow.' I am confused more than ever."

"Child, get down on the beach and look around. Who occupies the land?"

"The Germans, My Lord, and the men in black uniforms. I look around and see many of these clones, dressed in black."

" So, whose town house is this?"

"The Germans, My Lord. And, the note from the finch?"

"It says, ‘Never tomorrow.’"

"Yes, My Lord, but what does this mean?"

"Child, it means that never again will the Germans occupy this land. They shall never again bring such carnage to this land. Their days are truly numbered here, and shall be short, indeed."

"Why did they take it to begin with?"

"To have a stronghold in the area to monitor you as a nation."

"Then, My Lord, what of the white UN flag with the red cross?"

"Child, The UN is gone. The red cross is not the red cross as you believe it to be, but the red German Cross. It is red with communism. The UN has been dissolved. It has been defeated. It is no more."

"And, My Lord, the white petals, India and the new train?"

"Child, the white petals represent My Spiritual Movement."

"And, the golden centers of the daisies?"

‘Child, the gold represents the radiance of My Spirit, and the white represents the pure of heart."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"But, My Lord, Your Spirit is a white light fire."

"Yes, Child, but ‘tis gold when it hits the human flesh. For, you are human, and not of my strength."

"So Your Spirit takes a hold in India?"

"Child, there is great, great bleakness, great darkness in India, but a great revival in me comes through India. This is the train full of people. Child, they rise up and know me and my joy."

"Why the ten tracks, My Lord?"

"Child, they shall find many depths in me. For, as you know, not everyone is on the same spiritual level. I speak to you and accept you at the level where you are. My word goes deep--the meat--or it feeds the babe with milk, the shallow walk. I love you, nonetheless if you are a babe. You grow with desire and discipline over time."

"The vulture, watching from the tree…this is Europe?"

"Yes, Child, Europe watches India. More specifically the ‘R’ family of Germany watches India. They do not like this revival. You have seen pile of lamb bones, as these have been eaten by the ‘R’ family."

"My Lord, I thank you for your help in this, and hope that others will profit along the way. For, we must know the enemy, Lord, that we may be the wiser."

"‘Tis so, Child. Walk in My Spirit, all of you, and be free in me.

For, I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

END OF FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES BOOK ONE

CHAPTER ONE

Last night, or should I say, in the early morning of September 15, 1997, I dreamed that some gracious people asked me to eat with them. I accepted the invitation; and when I went was met at the door by one dressed in white with piercing eyes. I took a fresh beef roast and was about to unwrap the meat but the hostess, seeing that I had brought the meat, graciously accepted it and placed it in the freezer section of her refrigerator. Then she went to the oven, opened it, and showed me that the oven was full of meat, which was cooking. Next, she motioned with her arms to the counters, which were lined with meat, cooked and was ready to serve. Everywhere I looked was more meat; and I was really looking forward to the meat meal.

Hebrew 5:14 "But, strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil."

This is one of several meat dreams I have had since I began receiving these complex visions in May of 1997. This meat follows in "From the Mountain, Book II."

THE ILLUMINATI

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Behold yourself atop the Mountain, most wondrous. The fire, which bathes you, is My Light, and my grace enfolds you. For, I know your weaknesses and strengths; and I accept your humility before me as a willingness to do my work. Child, I do not look for the perfect. For, there is none among you, who is perfect. But, I look for those who are humble, teachable and sincere in their love for me.

Today you shall go on a trip like none other; so adjust your son-glasses and get ready to travel. I have sent you Kikiara (a known angel) and a long line of warring angels, for you may need them. Now, look far below and follow the map before you. Record as given and seen that others may be the wiser."

"My Lord, I have a map before me, which I do not understand."

"Adjust your son-glasses."

"As I do so, I find myself on the streets of Paris and I keep getting images of Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz."

"Dismiss this image in my name."

"I command this image to cease in the name of Jesus Christ!"

"From looking around me at these buildings I see that this is Paris of long ago. The streets look much older and darker; and are adorned with gas streetlights. A man is coming up in a black buggy, which is pulled by a single, black horse. On the side of the horse is the word, 'Illuminati.' I look closer at the man to see that he is dressed in a black suit with a black top hat. As he stops he looks in my direction and says, 'Do you wish a ride, Madam?' Sharp, gold teeth fill his cavernous mouth and strike a radiant cord against his black attire. My Lord, I do not wish to ride with him."

"Get in, Child. You have many angels."

"I step into the black carriage, keenly aware of the black surroundings, but I know that these precious angels are my companions and I am not afraid. I seat to the rear of this menacing driver and am immediately aware of a screen directly in front of me. On the screen are many moving pictures, which are crossing so rapidly that I cannot make out a thing."

"Slow the pictures."

"In the name of Jesus Christ, I command these pictures to move slowly and legibly. As I speak, My Lord, the movement slows; I clearly see burlesque dancers and hear the words, 'Moulan Rouge.'"

"Go into the picture."

"My Lord, I walk through the picture as you ask and find myself back on the streets of Paris. An open circus boxcar passes lazily up some tracks and in it is a clown, waving and smiling. The clown looks my way, waves and throws a very large gold coin, which bounces a few times and falls at my feet."

"Pick up the coin."

"My Lord, I have it. The coin has writing around the perimeter, which reads ‘Never on a Sunday.’ In the center of the coin is a man blowing up balloons. Each balloon has a blank label on its surface; and I feel there may be writing behind these labels."

"’Tis so. Go in and open the labels on the balloons."

"My Lord, I walk into the coin, and am now in front of the balloons. I shall reach for the balloons one by one and peel back the labels to see what is written. The first balloon I choose is a blue, and on it is written ‘justice.’ The second balloon is yellow and it reads ‘fear.’ The third balloon is orange and states ‘baboon.’ The fourth balloon is red and spells ‘heliotropic.’ The fifth balloon is purple and states ‘royalty.’ The sixth balloon is green for ‘peace.’ The seventh balloon is black, and on it is written ‘death.’ The eighth is white and reads ‘Tigris and Euphrates.’ The ninth is pink and states ‘joy.’ The tenth is gray and spells ‘hope.’ Well, My Lord, as usual, I am lost. Please help me understand what I have seen."

"Child, what part do you not understand?"

"All."

"Very well. Child, you have seen a map of Paris and have gone there. You have gone back in time about 100 years. A taxi driver dressed in black with a black carriage and black horse offers you a ride. This is evil, yet bedecked in gold, as you see in the teeth.

The gold teeth are sharp, as they allow the evil to cut through much to go places. As you know, evil has thrived on gold for much time.

You have seen pictures pass quickly on a screen before you in the Illuminati taxi and do not understand them. They look like burlesque dancers to you, but when you get into the picture, you see part of a circus pass with a clown. This clown throws a very large, gold coin at you, which you pick up and read. 'Never on a Sunday' is on the outer boundary of the coin; and you see a man in the center of the coin blowing up balloons. The balloons are many colors, but you must remember that these balloons came from The Illuminati carriage, which is black. It is evil reinforced by gold.

The first balloon is blue, which corresponds to justice."

"Why blue?"

"Child, note that the balloon is round, representing a full container of air. Justice is seen as blue, as it is cold, without life force, full of air. The Illuminati does not give justice except that which is fake and full of air. Child, this group is evil to the core.

You see the second balloon, which is yellow for fear. It is yellow, Child, for these are cowards, who use fear to control and manipulate. And they thrive on controlling the fearful through unjust means, which leads to the next color, orange for baboon. Child, even a baboon has a healthy respect for fear, and will back off when challenged; but these seek ways to be even more intimidating when challenged.

Yet the simple plant is helioptropic. And what these are doing through their means of cowardice and intimidation is turning many of you toward the light, My Light.

Many of these are steeped in royalty--the fifth balloon; but their days of peace, the sixth balloon, shall soon come to an end. For The Illuminati, death shall move in like a snare, the seventh balloon. For, I stamp my foot in their midst. I overturn their money tables, and I release the dread angels of The Tigris and Euphrates. I turn one against the other until utter destruction reigns. And, into the hearts of my people, I bring joy and hope."

"My Lord, I now understand this. But, why do I see darkness thriving in Paris 100 years ago?"

"My Child, the darkness has been thriving in Paris and elsewhere much longer than 100 years. For, this darkness is the same which was from the beginning."

"So, from their secret societies they pass evil from one generation to the next?"

"Yes, Child, and these love and what it can do for them. It is their love of gold, which ensnares them."

"And their children?"

"And their children's children for many generations. For, this darkness lays hold of the spirit from generation to generation and can only be broken by divine intervention."

"How many from the days of Noah are still caught up in this?"

"Many."

"What has happened to the souls of those from the days of Noah, whose bodies were utterly destroyed?"

"Child, many are caught up in darkness."

"Still caught up?"

"More than you will ever know."

"So some of those who ‘live’ after The Millennium, as stated in Revelation 20:5, could be from the days of Noah?"

"Many are from the days of Noah."

"Some of these are Illuminati?"

"Many are Illuminati."

"Human souls?"

"We speak of human souls."

"Shall hell hold all of these?"

"It is expanding daily."

"So, My Lord, the deceptive Illuminati are one of many secret organizations, who love gold and wish to make us slaves?"

"Child, there is only one."

"You mean, Luciferian?"

"They all server the same master, who is Lucifer. In secret, they have gone since the beginning to serve this darkness. Remember Child, you cannot serve two masters. You serve one or the other. Those, who love gold and the father of darkness, cannot serve me, the Lord of Light. This is impossible. You serve one or the other; and one who sits on the fence and tries to please two masters does not serve me. Child, I cannot be bought with gold, which is what some affluent have tried to do through The Catholic Church. These do not appease me, but Lucifer."

"My Lord, I see that you will crack the whip."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, you see that the whip is cracked. I come in a mighty whirlwind to wipe the Illuminati slate."

"My Lord, it is interesting that their name means illumined."

"Yes, Child, for is darkness illumined of darkness? Nay it is not. In the end they will see that their magic will be short lived, for they are ripe and shall be plucked violently.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWO

ALLIANCE, DIVERGANCE USA, RUSSIA

"Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have come to new heights on this Mountain through love of Me, My truths, and discipline over time. The mountaintop is more narrow, the air is more rarefied, and you find yourself high above in my clouds. My servant dressed in white, a radiant angel, comes to feed you. Take all."

"My Lord, I see this radiant angel appear in the mist before me with a tray containing twelve food items. She hands me a spatula and tells me to remove each piece from the tray and to eat it."

"Child, what do you see?"

"My Lord, as I eat this food, I see radiant white energy coming from my head and my body. Amidst this light a book suddenly appears in front of me, and my vision is intensified so that I can see minute specks on its cover. Far below, I hear babbling brooks, and catch the smell of bacon as it is cooked at the base of this Mountain. My touch is magnified and I can feel the stripes or plaids in a shirt, suddenly laid before me.

A radiance is consuming me and I look first puffy then thin. The thinness soon vanishes and my body looks normal with much radiance. The mist is gone and I see a great shield protecting this part of the Mountain. Before me is a white doorway, and on the other side of this door is a stairway of golden-white light, which goes straight down the mountain. Everything has the bright radiance of white light. Even my clothes have taken on this shimmer and I notice that I still have the scepter and a great sword of light. Around my waist is a string of keys attached to a chain.

"Child, where do you believe you are?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, in a upper realm of your mountain."

"Yes, Child. There are many levels to this mountain. There remain two more you have not seen."

"I see other souls on this mountain."

"Yes, Child, ‘tis so. These are doing my work. They love me greatly as shown through the living of my laws and persevering in my work through humility."

"My Lord, might I be found worthy! For, the material world holds little appeal except for the bare essentials needed to live. I wish only to do your work."

"Child, it is known. Now, let us begin today where we left off yesterday."

"You mean with the balloon man?"

"I mean with the Illuminati. Child, you perceive at a deeper level now and your work shall be easier in some ways; but you will be pursued more by the evil one and his. Fear not, for you have been afforded more help. As Isaiah, (the prophet) warned, those in Me go line upon line, precept upon precept. This is My Way. Take your telescopic eyes, Child, and look far below."

"My Lord, I am looking at a building with a dome-shaped top, which is rolled back half way, exposing the interior of the building. Soldiers are rushing down many flights of stairs to an elevator. On their shirtsleeves is written ‘UN’ and ‘Russia’ is written on their boots.’

I see one soldier among them with US on his boots. A Russian soldier, about to get into the elevator, turns to the US soldier next to him and says, ‘Let’s go at 0900.’ This US soldier nods in approval and the two of them enter the elevator.

It is interesting to note that chains attach these two soldiers from hip pocket to hip pocket and locks are attached to these chains. Both soldiers share something in a can called ‘lager beer’ and a cigarette called ‘destiny.’ Both share a handkerchief, and as they blow into it a big, black hole is blown out of the center of the handkerchief. Both tear the handkerchief apart and each puts half in his pocket.

My Lord, these handkerchiefs have turned into a series of pictures falling from their back pockets, bound in plastic like wallet pictures.

The elevator ascends and stops in front of a guard shack; but there is no guard present. Beyond the shack is a chain-link fence; and past the fence are planes waiting on the runway. As these two soldiers go past the fence, they pull against one another and the chains break. The Russian soldier goes to the left and the US soldier goes to the right. As they walk off, I see long lines of pictures streaming behind each soldier. But the line, which trails the Russian, is much shorter than the one trailing the American.

The Russian soldier goes into a black building called, ‘I spy on you’, and the US soldier gets into a green cargo plane. The nose of the plane looks like a big, red button; and when it is pushed it says, ‘Get outa my way, Squirt.’ As the cargo plane takes off, I am aware of another set of wings above the wings of the plane. These wings look like eagle wings or hawk wings. The plane backfires as it chugs along slowly up the runway, coming to rest in front of a set of locked gates.

The lock bears no writing, and I am wondering who has the key. I peek into the large keyhole on the lock and am aware of a set of eyes peering at me from within the darkness. Someone is whispering, ‘Germany.’

My Lord, I am reaching into the hole and taking hold of this person. As I pull him through the keyhole, I see that he is a German soldier. Who sent you here?"

"My Commander."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Who is?"

"German intelligence."

"So, you were sent to put a lock on US military?"

"On their cargo, Ma'am."

"Why cargo?"

"To stop your expansion."

"What do you mean?"

"To stop your growth."

"So, who gave Germany this authority?"

"You did."

"How so?"

"You spied on us. We spied on you."

"What does this have to do with anything?"

"Everything."

"How so?"

"You must be controlled."

"So, The Germans think!"

"So, we know. Are you not controlled?"

"My Lord, he seems right on to me. Now, what shall I do with him?"

"Child, open the lock and leave him be."

"This I have done, My Lord. The lock was made to look like it was locked, but was not locked."

"'Tis so, Child."

"My Lord, I have removed this lock and have opened the gates. I motion the plane through, but see that the pilot is blind. He has no pupils and irises."

"'Tis so, Child. For, he cannot see."

"Cannot see what, My Lord?"

"That he is blinded by the Germans."

"What shall take place here, My Lord?"

"Child, reach behind the US soldier in the plane and take the first picture."

"My Lord, I reach behind him and take the very first picture from his right back pocket. On the back of the picture is written: 'With love, Peter, Paul, and Mary.' On the front I see a military officer, and across the front of his black boots is written 'US Marine.' He is kneeling at an altar before many, red candles, which are flickering.

I see black curtains moving gently behind the altar as someone moves about. I hear whispers and cannot quite make out the words, so I am fine-tuning my hearing. Someone says, 'What shall we tell the soldiers?' The other one says, 'Tell them nothing.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Let them go to hell!' My Lord, as I look behind the curtains I know that the first voice is that of George Bush and the second is that of the evil Rothschild man.

Suddenly, the curtains fly open and the marine is startled to see someone, who looks like Dracula. The Dracula-look-alike stands above the marine, who is kneeled, and says, 'Sonny Boy, you come to worship me?'

"No, I came to pay tribute to my fellow soldiers, who are dying of aids, desert storm disease, rare tuberculosis, chronic fatigue, fibromyalgia, typhoid and malaria. I came to pay homage to those, who are dying of germ and chemical warfare."

"Run along, Sonny Boy. Your concerns shall be short-lived. For, we have a pill for every ailment. You know we own the pharmaceutical trade." Then, the Dracula-look-alike hands the soldier a large cream-colored capsule, which reads 'I die for you.'

The marine takes the pill along with a glass of water offered by the Dracula-look-alike and he begins to feel very dizzy. Quickly, his legs start to paralyze and become spastic. He begins to vomit and cries, 'Help me! Help me! I am dying.'

Nurses go in with red crosses on their sleeves and 'Little Italy' written on their shoes. One of the nurses gives the soldier something, which looks like seltzer water. 'Laced with hydrogen cyanide,' she chuckles. 'He will never know.'

Quickly, the nurse pulls off her disguise to reveal a soldier in a tan camouflage, military garb and a green beret. His face is that of Saddam Hussein. He pats his back pocket, which appears to hold a very fat wallet; but in place of money, his wallet is stuffed with small packets of hydrogen cyanide.

He picks his teeth with a straw, which reads 'ablaze with nuclear war.' He bends over and coughs a few times and large clouds, called 'noxious clouds', come from his mouth. As he continues to cough, watery diarrhea comes from his rear end, falls to the ground and begins to form a pool. In the pool, little gnomes gather to dance in a circle. On their chests are the words, 'out to lunch.' The gnomes break the circle, form a line, and begin to sing a catchy tune. Several play flutes as all hop and skip along, singing:

"Violent thunder! Violent thunder!
Across the desert, across the sea.
Violent thunder! Violent thunder!
From me, from me.
We join fast, one to another,
Arab kings and princes.
We join to one another.
A long line, a long procession
We make war with Russia.
The Americans must go! The English must go!
The Israelis must go, They must go.
Happily along, happily along,
No one can stop us!
For, we're buried alive
Beneath tons of sand
Many miles deep.
We are safe from our foes.
Their land is ours.
No one can stop us,
Not even Germany!
Ho! Ho! Ho!
Ho! Ho! Ho!"

They march across the desert over many miles of sand and come to some heavy wrought iron gates called 'Israel.' Behind them is a procession from many Arab countries with Iraq leading the way. These are the names of the countries I see: Iran, Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Jordan, Palestine, Syria, Turkey, (which is in the rear keeping a distance), and Kuwait which is funneling money their way.

"But, My Lord, aren't these countries allied with Russia?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, you will see that both the Russians and the Arabs wish world dominion; and for this reason can be no one's ally for long."

"My Lord, I am led now to focus on Saddam Hussein and his desert allies as they take a sword and cut a line right through the heart of the United States from the Gulf of Mexico upwards to Canada. Then with Hussein as their leader, I see Hussein take a sword and cut the trees of Russia in half. I watch as he lays his sword to Great Britain and to England, where he cuts England into three pieces. Afterwards, he does a jig all over England with his black boots.

Then, he turns toward Germany, where he takes his big slingshot and shoots stones at The 'R' Castle. I see the castle begin to crumble as its bricks fall down the sides of the mountain tumbling to the ground far below. I watch some of the bricks as they come together to form a pattern. Adjusting my son-glasses, I am aware of a date-- 2004.

The black horses of the Arab Alliance ride up to The 'R' Castle. From the castle comes a hissing sound, something like steam coming from a boiling kettle. The castle swells and bricks begin to fly in all directions. The 'R' Castle is fallen and little remains but maybe ten feet of the Rothschild tree and remnants of the castle walls.

The 'R' man remains in the remnant of the castle and begins to duel with The Arabs, but they have surrounded him. He curses the Arabs and the day he was born; for he sees the burning flames, which await him in the Lake of Fire. He spits on the floor and a cobra appears within the spit saying, 'Master, what shall I do for you?'"

'Get me iodine.'

'Yes, My Lord,' the cobra replies.

The snake causes the iodine to appear before the 'R' man and he takes the iodine, rubs it all over his body and pours it all over his head. 'I shall change my colors' he says. Then, he begins to do a jig, dressed as an Irishman of antiquity. He taps his heels together in midair as he dances and sings, 'We're off to see the wizard, we're off, we're off.' Then he puts on a white wig like the one worn by George Washington. He has changed the outer, but on the inside he still looks like Dracula. Beside the stump of his tree he sits at a desk, like those used by high school students; then he takes a fresh piece of paper and begins to write.

'Dearest Comrades:
This is a day like none other. We have seen much war, disease and pestilence. But, let us not lose sight of peace. Let us follow a course of brotherhood that the world may be saved. I offer you this that the world may be a safer, better place to live. For, we mourn for our losses. Our families mourn. Let us call a peace and embrace one another through God, our only God.'

Yet, the Iraqis and their coalition are spying. They watch his deceit and when he stands up with the note, they blast a hole right through his back. He falls in the remnants of his castle beside his wiped out tree. The note catches fire and the fire begins to spread. 'Peace! Peace! We want peace,' the people shout. This message of peace spreads throughout Europe, which is paralyzed through war, disease and famine.

A little bird flies to a gray castle in Belgium and drops the note. A maid picks up the note and whispers; 'You mustn't bother the queen, for she needs her beauty naps.' Outside the castle in Belgium, the people clamor with knives and forks and shout, 'Feed the hungry!' Pans are hurled in the direction of the castle breaking glass. The maid finally arouses the Queen. 'Queen, the people are starving. What shall we tell them?' 'Tell them to look to the direction of the Red Sea,' she growls, 'perhaps something will float in.'

The Queen sleepily decides to finish her nap and as she sleeps she begins to dream. She dreams that a courier, dressed in white, comes to her door. The kind countenance of the courier leads her to believe that the courier is an angel. 'Here is a check for a trillion dollars,' the courier says. 'Feed them corn.'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Suddenly, the castle begins to fill with dried corn kernels and is soon overflowing with corn. The corn rises to the ceilings of the castle and pours out the windows. The Queen and all her help suffocate and die. A sign outside the castle reads 'Out to lunch.'

The poor people clamor and soon The Queen is dead.

News of her death is slow to travel, but when it does get out, the people rejoice for they feel a sense of freedom. But this sense of freedom will be short lived, for the sounds of soldiers and drummers can be heard in the distance. Amidst the rumble of the drums is the airy sound of flutes.

Beyond the sounds are the midgets in single file, who surround Europe. Europe is down and the midgets begin to applaud. In front is Iraq and she reaches in her mouth and pulls from it a long, long hose, similar to the ones on fire trucks. She takes the very long hose and pours foam all over Israel. This foam looks like large, fluffy clouds. Then, she doubles back and pours foam all over Europe and dots it here and there in the USA.

In looking at the terrain of The United States, I see that it looks much different. Houston is mostly gone and The Gulf has moved in. New Orleans and Mobile have been obliterated. Florida looks like a group of large Islands. Atlanta, Ga. looks like a big hole. Macon, GA is greatly damaged and the ocean has moved in to claim most of Savannah Ga. Chapel Hill, North Carolina--a big hole. Virginia--a great line of destruction to Washington, DC. New York City is catastrophic with the ocean moving in to claim 80%. The Great Lakes are enlarged connecting with the Mississippi River separating the country into two pieces. In Michigan I see four, big potholes. Minnesota--one very large devastated area with three smaller ones. Kentucky, not much damage when compared other places. South Carolina has Russian submarines parked near the coast. West Virginia, people hiding out in the hills. Dallas, clipped by bombs in the South. Oklahoma City, a big pothole. Little Rock, AR to Pine Bluff, great devastation. Tennessee, Memphis is gone with two other areas in TN showing mild to moderate destruction. Minnesota, one very large concentration camp. Iowa, a large prison overflows with civilians. Nebraska, I see no sign of nuclear bombs having been dropped. Utah, The Mormon Church is nothing but rubble. Nevada, the desert base is nothing but waste. California, the ocean has moved in and claimed much. San Francisco is gone. Los Angeles is mostly gone. Three other large population areas in California show considerable damage. Washington State, a volcano has blown. Bombs have hit Seattle and the ocean has moved in. A volcano has gone off in California. The New Madrid fault has blown with cracks going from it into Ohio, Atlanta, GA., across Memphis and down into Mississippi, west to Missouri, and even to Iowa, across AR to Little Rock and west to the border of Oklahoma. It moves east toward W. Va., and North Carolina. Bombs have hit Hawaii and Alaska. A volcano is erupting in Alaska. In Hawaii, the volcano activity has claimed much land and there is little life in Hawaii. Bombs have hit Cincinnati, Ohio and another large area. Indiana, one city seriously hit by bombs, Indianapolis. Chicago hit several times, particularly in the south. Oregon, I do not see much bomb activity, but chemical and germ warfare. I see concentration camps strung out, especially in the South where the people are made to be outdoors. The guillotines have executed many millions. Religious freedom is considered a danger to the new government and is forbidden. The new government of the USA flies a flag with ten gold stars. Churches are burned. The country is divided into different areas, with an appointed governor for each area. This governor accounts to the head of state, who has been appointed by the world government leaders. There is much, much sickness and disease. Many are literally hiding deep in the Earth in caves. My Lord, I hear you say, ‘This is the day of reckoning.’

"‘Tis so, Child."

"I know that I have probably missed areas hit by bombs or otherwise destroyed. If this is so, My Lord, please guide me back to this."

"Child, you have the most part. What you must realize is that all places are subject to attack by germ and chemical warfare, both of which have already started against you."

"My Lord, I have many questions."

"Child, ‘tis so, but as this has been lengthy, let us do so at another sitting.

CHAPTER THREE

DARKNESS BEYOND THE ILLUMINATI FACADE

"Precious Child, you have reached out to me today that you may receive deeper guidance from me, your Lord and Master, Jesus, One with The Father. You find yourself back upon The Mountain, wherein we last talked at a most rarefied level. You see my servants, adorned in white, and you see yourself, clad also in white. Child, go and sit in the chair, named 'Wisdom.' It is My wisdom and the wisdom of those gone on before; it is the wisdom of the prophets, which shall come forth. Sit and write as directed and seen."

"My Lord, you know I have many questions from the last two series of visions."

"'Tis so, Child. Let us begin with the visions of The Illuminati."

"Yes, My Lord, please explain the burlesque dancers and the Moulan Rouge."

"Child, go up on the stage to the line of burlesque dancers in The Moulan Rouge. What do you see?"

"My Lord, I see women with ornate hair styles and scanty clothes with feathers adorning their shoulders. They dance quickly in rhythm for a while. Then, each one takes a feather with her right hand and brushes the feather across the tip her own nose. This seems to cause each one to sneeze; and after each sneezes, myriad pieces of tiny confetti blow from their noses, falling on the stage. Then they turn around in unison and shake their behinds exposing a blank label across their rears."

"Command these labels open."

"I command these labels open in the name of Jesus Christ!"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, the labels have burst open and little yellow birds, which look like ‘tweety birds,’ have popped out singing, ‘cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo’"

"Now, command the tiny pieces of confetti to come together to form meaningful pictures with legible words in English."

"I command you, tiny pieces of paper, in the name of Jesus Christ, to emerge as one piece of paper to form a series of meaningful pictures and words in English!"

"My Lord, this is taking place. I see Hitler as he stands on the stage and salutes Bill and Hillary Clinton in the audience. The only ones in the audience are Queen Elizabeth, The Rockefeller Family and The Rothschilds with little children. Bill Clinton is grinning from ear to ear and The Queen is sour and frowning as usual.

There is writing rolling across the base of the stage, facing them. It reads, ‘Mary had a little lamb, little lamb, little lamb. Mary had a little lamb, who died at our hands. We are the master manipulators of all time. Let us make your day.’

Then, Hitler falls through a trap door, where he speaks with the older Rothschild man. A reddish black cloud suddenly appears and envelops the two of them and they turn into one very, large, green frog with black spots. This frog croaks now and then; and in the midst of this croak, I can actually discern these words, ‘I lay eggs.’ My Lord, this is very confusing -- from the dancers to the this man laying eggs."

"Yes, Child, ‘tis so. But not as confusing as your human mind would have you believe. The burlesque dancers represent that aspect of The French and the world which is showy. With the bright ceremonial dancing of the world, these dancers tickle their own noses."

"How so, My Lord?’

"Child, is red, green and green, red?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then do not believe what you see as pomp and ceremony to be good and pure."

"Whose pomp and ceremony?"

"Who sits in the audience?"

"The Three "R" families and The Clintons."

"'Tis so, but more."

"How is it more?"

"Who sits with the Three 'R' families?"

"Clinton and his wife."

"Then, he is one."

"One, what?"

"One of them."

"You mean, he is one of the same family?"

"He is."

"You mean by birth, a descendent?"

"Oh, yes indeed."

"What about the yellow birds, which sing 'Cuckoo?'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, who wears these yellow birds?"

"The burlesque dancers."

"And what do they represent?"

"Pomp and ceremony."

"'Tis so and more."

"Like what?"

"Like adultery."

"Adultery with whom?"

"You mean, among whom?"

"Then, among whom?"

"The Three R's and The Clinton family tree."

"So, Mr. Clinton comes from this family tree?"

"It is known and true."

"But, why the cuckoo birds?"

"Child, this is symbolic. For, the burlesque dancers-these whores among men-are cuckoo, crazy, if they believe that they have the world fooled. Child, others know. You have become so crippled because Clinton's ties to the Three 'R's run deep, very deep. He has worked to sell out you as a country more than any before or any after. His work goes beyond treason. In the end, you who remain will see. But, it shall be too late."

"My Lord we have ceased to vigilant. We as a people have slept while the evil has thrived and my heart is heavy with sorrow. I pray that the greatest numbers awaken to your truths and that their precious souls not be lost to the darkness, which grows among us like a terrible cancer. As we proceed, My Lord, tell me about the confetti."
"Child, the confetti is garbled language blown from the noses of the burlesque dancers, the whores among nations--The Three 'R's and The Clintons. To confuse others, they blow out this garbled language through their pomp and ceremony. But when the picture is put together, Child, one can see that these are directed by the hand of Hitler."

"In what way?"

"Through their ways of stealing and killing.'

"The song of the lamb, My Lord, is about their murder of you?"

"Yes, Child, these are the ones who killed me when my body was placed in their hands at the cross. They are demons who steal human bodies and go from generation to generation to kill and destroy. The Rothschild man of Germany is heading up one of the greatest assaults against Christians since my day, but this is nothing new to him. He has persecuted and killed you before. You see Hitler fall through the door, disappear in the red-black fog and emerge as a very large frog with black spots."

"Yes, My Lord, please explain."

"This is the "R' man, who bears evil spirits, which also inhabited Hitler. Watch out Jews; your destiny at the hands of Hitler is not finished."

"When the frog says, 'I lay eggs', what does that mean?"

"The Rothschild man with the Hitler demons is the huge frog. By your terms this frog is huge, maybe 75 pounds. And he is reproducing--laying eggs--to hatch more of his kind."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"How so?"

"Through the clones you have seen."

"The half-human men in black?"

"Half-human, half-Luciferian."

"My Lord, I understand now of the burlesque dancers; but what of the open circus box car?"

"The open box car, which is adorned to look like a circus, is The Illuminati car on a destination."

"Yet, My Lord, it is not black but cheerful looking."

"Yes, Child, darkness often comes in cheerful packages. Notice that the car is a single car, which travels on a single track traveling under its own power. Do you see a locomotive?"

"No, My Lord."

"Look beneath. What do you see?"

"I see the old 'R' man, the Dracula look alike; and he has long claws, which look like talons. These claws are black with fire shooting from them. Suddenly he changes into the frog and takes a hop on the track beneath the boxcar. As he does so, he pushes the train along. With each hop, he croaks and through this croak I can hear the words, 'All together now.' In this way, he propels the illuminati car down the track. My Lord, what is meant by 'All together now?'"

"Child, who lives inside the frog?"

"The demons of Hitler."

"And more."

"Who?"

"Like what, Child?"

"Then, what My Lord?"

"Child, look at Hitler standing next to the door. What is written on the door?"

"Lucifer."

"Then, Child, ‘tis so. Lucifer himself inhabits this man from time to time."

"But, he is not considered The Antichrist?"

"Child, would you not consider him an antichrist?"

"I have no doubt about it, My Lord"

"But, Lucifer shall seize another body for victory over nations."

"My Lord, this is?"

"That of The Assyrian, or as you say, ‘Syrian.’ For, Lucifer shall come to rest among the warring, who were historically anti-Christ, or anti-God."

"And, this shall be after the ‘R’ man is dead?"

"Remember how these turn on one another."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord."

"And the gold coin tossed my way which reads, ‘Never on a Sunday?’"

"See for self, Child."

"My Lord, I see a jail cell and in this cell is a clown with a red nose. His clothes are dirty and disheveled. He turns his pockets wrong side out to show that they are empty, save a single gold coin, which falls to the floor. The coin rolls behind the clown and through some parted curtains into a bright shop. The shop is adorned with pastel walls and frilly pink and white curtains. These windows are open, but the brightness of this shop quickly changes as the pastels fade before my very eyes and I find myself looking in a barren, cold gun shop. The clown is now in this gun shop selling guns from various cases. In comes Saddam Hussein who is very fat and he purchases a machine gun. I look at the clown and across his right front pocket is a tag, which reads ‘Germany lost the war.’

Saddam takes the gun and does a jig on the glass floor. He is wearing tap shoes; and as he dances, the taps on his shoes make little popping noises, like those of firecrackers. ‘I’m about out,’ he tells the clown. So, the clown pulls out a Howitzer machine gun, or something like this, which is huge. Saddam takes this gun, taps his heels, turns his back on the German, and salutes huge crowds waiting outside the shop. He leaves the shop and disappears in a cloud with all the people.

The clown rubs his face, then pulls a flask of whiskey from his right pocket. He drinks all, lies down on the counter and begins to snore. He snores so loudly that the building begins to vibrate.

Saddam Hussein returns quickly to find the clown sleeping. He takes the sword to the sleeping man and cuts his head off. Then, he takes a hatchet and begins to cut his body into blocks. Next takes the blocks and throws them into the roaring fire of a stove and burns up the clown. I hear the head of the German clown utter some words from the fire, ‘It was a blast. Try it again, sometimes.’"

So, My Lord, Germany starts to look like a down and out clown behind bars, who is dealing arms with Hussein from the store in back."

"'Tis so."

"But Hussein and his Arab group eventually destroys Germany?"

"'Tis so."

"Yet, what does this have to do with 'Never on a Sunday?'"

"Child, what does 'Never on a Sunday' mean to you?'

"That we should keep The Sabbath holy."

"Child, this is correct. But, what do you think it means to The 'R" Family of Germany?"

"Nothing."

"'Tis so, Child. So, Why do you believe it to be on a gold coin, which depicts works about them?"

"My Lord, I do not know."

"Child, it explains self. Those, who love gold, never honor God on a Sunday. For, they cannot honor God on any other day of the week. One cannot love gold and me also. This is impossible."

"And the man in the center of the coin, who is blowing up the balloons?"

"Is this on a gold coin?"

"Yes, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Who blows out air from the center of the gold coin?"

"The ones, who love gold."

"These are those, who cherish it above all--especially The Illuminati--and any organization, which honors Lucifer."

"So, Lucifer blows the balloons?"

"He and his."

"But one of the balloons says, 'Joy', and the other says, 'Hope.' How can they blow 'joy', and 'hope?'"

"Good observation, Child. They do blow these without knowing what will unfold. For, many shall turn away from the oppression of evil, in effect turned by it the other way. Joy and hope shall rise out of and above much of the evil, and they shall not be stifled. See that 'joy' and 'hope' come last and come from people turning back to me. These evil ones cannot stop this."

"Tell me about the Tigris and Euphrates?"

"Child, where are these?"

"In the deserts of the mid-east."

"'Tis so, Child. What emerges there in the deserts?"

"An Arab Alliance."

"This and more."

"Like what?"

"Child, the dread angels come to empower The Arab Alliance over Germany and the rest of the world; and the Antichrist emerges in this area to assume world dominion. (Lucifer occupies the second beast.) The word ‘dread’ is used; for the world will quake under his rule."

"My Lord, I thank you deeply for bringing in more Light."

"Go in me, Child. To all, who love me, honor my laws!

For, I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER FOUR

NEW WORLD ORDER ON THE MOVE

"Precious Child, welcome to the radiance of this Mountain and the chair called 'Wisdom and Knowledge.' Sit, take your son-glasses, and get ready to view through my eyes. Write as given and seen."

"My Lord, I am aware of such radiance here and feel deeply in awe. I am greatly humbled and thank you that I am allowed to be a small part of Your works. I recognize my humanness and feel so unworthy; for You are so great and I am a mere human. Please be with me as I stand before You and Your mighty angels."

"Do not degrade yourself before Me. I cherish all, who love Me. I know your weaknesses, Child, but you come with love for Me and a willing heart."

"My Lord, I do."

"You have many questions about The US soldier from a previous prophecy."

"Yes, My Lord, let us start from the beginning of the visions of 09-16-97. My Lord, I am curious as to the twelve items I ate from the tray?"

"Adjust your son-glasses and look at the tray. What does it say?"

"It says 'manna.'"

"Child, this is heavenly food, which many of you will receive to empower you; for assaults against you by the evil one and his are unending."

"My Lord, I love You with all my heart, and You know that You are my Life. Your love for us is without bounds and You provide our every need. Yet, Your ways baffle my simple mind. Why did you send twelve food items?"

"Child, look beneath the tray. What is written?"

"My Lord, I have turned the tray to look beneath, and see only pure brightness. From within this great brightness, I see someone emerge with the kindest of eyes. He says, 'I am Peter. I represent The Twelve.' Then, he puts a necklace around my neck. The necklace is made of stones of radiant white light. 'A gift from The Twelve,' he says. My Lord, the radiance from the stones is flowing down my body, my arms and up my head, down my abdomen and legs. There is great beauty and peace in this. Was the manna was a gift from The Twelve Apostles?"

"'Tis so."

"My Lord, know and accept my humility and deep love for these precious souls."

"This is known and accepted. Child, they wish to help strengthen, protect and empower all, who make it back to The Mountain. Theirs is a work you are not aware of; yet, they continue to do a great work."

"My Lord, what happened to Judas?"

"Child, as I forgive, so must you. I have the whole picture and you do not. For this reason, you have been told, 'judge not.'"

"Yes, My Lord. I am curious as to how long this empowerment will stay with me, as I am still plagued with aspects of this autoimmune disease."

"Your life has been saved many times through this power from above, and from the work of My Holy Angels. The Luciferians have tried to kill you many times, as they knew of your work to come. You have had a difficult life, and it will not get easier in some ways. But, you know what is ahead.

Each of you has a shell, a house, called a body. This body is for a while only, Child; therefore, focus on the journey of the soul. And do those things, which bring My Power, My Light, and My spirit to the soul. Do these. Put your focus on these.

Breaking spiritual laws brings darkness to your soul and gives Satan and his dominion over you. He demands an eye for an eye. I provide grace and forgiveness. But, how can I provide grace and forgiveness if you dishonor me, or if you reject me in your life. Many walk blind to my ways.

I am just and you must remember this. But, when you follow Satan, you fall under his demands; and he will lead you into damnation, yea darkness. Remember: salvation comes only through me.

"My Lord, I do understand this. You know I have been in the darkness and I have a sense of great sorrow for those caught up in it.

Now, My Lord, I would like to ask you of the dome-shaped building in the previous visions of September 16, 1997. Please explain this to me."

"Adjust your son-glasses and look down."

"I am looking at this dome-shaped building and cannot quite figure it out."

"Go back through the guard gate to the elevator. What do you see?"

"I am here at the elevator and it is open. As I move in I see a floor mat, which says 'USSR.' I am reaching for the elevator buttons, but I see that there is only one button. An array of fiberglass-like strands has appeared in the air, waving around the button. I curse these strands to nothingness and they fall onto the floor, like powder. But the powder has now turned into big, red ants, which are moving up my pants legs."

"Red ants, I curse you to death in the name of Jesus Christ! My Lord, the ants have fallen down dead and I am taking the elevator down to the lower level, where I saw the soldiers get on. As the elevator door opens all is quiet, but, suddenly to my left, I hear a bird squawking. I see a large raven fighting with another big, black raven. They are standing upon a cylindrical shaped object of about ten feet tall and three feet in diameter. One raven says to the other, 'I will kill you, bastard!' And the other raven says, 'Don't hurt me!' What is going on?"

"Child, who are the ravens?"

"I am looking for a name. Suddenly, they disappear along with the cylindrical object. A door opens, which was behind the cylindrical object. Out comes Saddam Hussein with a smoking gun. I look in the room to see Boris Yeltsin, shot in the chest. You mean, Hussein kills Yeltsin?"

"Child, he does through his Muslim factions."

"What does this have to do with The US and Russian soldiers?"

"Child, see The US and Russian soldiers connected at the hip pocket, the money pocket?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"See them break and go their separate ways?"

"Yes, My Lord."

'Why do you suppose this is?"

"Because Yeltsin is killed?"

"This and more."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Like what?"

"Treason."

"Treason by whom?"

"Yeltsin and his."

"How so?"

"They have committed the unforgivable."

"Which is?"

"Being joined at the hip with The USA."

"So, the hammer is about to go down in Russia, and this is really brought about by Iraq?"

"Iraq and Muslims in Russia. They despise the USA and all it represents."

"So, to them the USA and Russia have been synonymous."

"'Tis so."

"So, from the vision we see that The Russians go their way to spy on us?"

"This will be amplified. But, as you know, it has been going on for years."

"I see the US Military is blocked from expansion by Germany, and the average person is blinded to this?"

"'Yes, indeed! The average person is blinded to this."

"My Lord, I see the unfolding of the pictures from the hip pockets of The US Soldier and The Russian Soldier. Since there are many pictures, I suppose this to mean that I will be given other visions on this."

"'Tis so, Child."

"Please explain the picture which reads, 'With Love, Peter, Paul and Mary.'"

"Child, who do you believe these to be?"

"My Lord, not the popular singers, but your mother on Earth, and Peter and Paul, The Apostles."

"Yes, Child. They send their love for the suffering and dying. For, such utter darkness unfolds."

"And, The Marine?"

"Child, it speaks for self. He pays homage to those dying of much disease amidst communist rule, represented by the red candles."

"What is Bush doing there with The Rothschild man?"

"Honoring his agreement."

"Which is?"

"Destruction of many billions of you."

"How long will George Bush be allowed to continue in his evil?"

"Until the water gets hot."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"What do you mean?"

"Until I reach down and burn him personally."

"When will this be?"

"See … 2002. I will burn him with the steam, the hot water. He shall not escape his evil, neither in this life, nor in the life to come."

"And the marine, who is poisoned by the German pharmaceutical trade?"

"Many of your military are poisoned by their trade."

"Is this actually hydrogen cyanide or something else?"

"Something just as deadly."

"And they will actually be fed this and told it will cure them or prevent disease?"

"Prevent disease."

"And what of the woman with the red cross which reads ‘Little Italy?’"

"Child, what does the red cross represent?"

"The Germans."

"‘Tis so."

"And Little Italy?"

"The Mafia."

"So, The Mafia is connected to the Germans, … that is to The Rothschild family?"

"More than you will ever know."

"But the nurse became Hussein?"

"'Tis so, but the shoes said 'Little Italy.'"

"Please explain."

"Where does Hussein get much support early on?"

"The Mafia."

"Then, speaks for self."

"Is this ever a mess! Every evil person on the planet uses and abuses every other evil one to climb to the top. They cannot be separated from one another."

"They represent the same force."

"Why is Hussein carrying so much Hydrogen Cyanide in his pocket?"

"You mean so much poison, nerve and chemical agents?'

"I guess so, My Lord."

"To kill you, to own you, to cause you to worship him."

"And the straw, which reads 'ablaze with nuclear war?'"

"It is in his mouth, is it not?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"It is."

"And his teeth, his military might, chew on this straw. Do they not?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, Hussein is ablaze with military war. It comes from his teeth, his military, and he causes much of it. The noxious cloud, which you see coming from his mouth, is nuclear war."

"What is the cough?"

"More clouds of nuclear war."

"So, he starts this war and this diarrhea follows. Tell me about the diarrhea."

"It follows the cough and creates a puddle, does it not?"

"Yes, My Lord. And, who accumulates in the puddle?"

"His Arab alliance. What is the puddle, Child?"

"I do not know."

"Look at the puddle. Do you see a reflection?"

"I do see a reflection, My Lord, and it is of a fat man, who looks like a king. He is a king, I suppose. And, he is at a very large table eating a huge plate of meat. As he eats the meat, he tosses the bones into a big pile behind him. He is eating legs of lamb. I do not know who this man is."

"Child, look beneath his plate. It says ‘Rockefeller.’"

"So, Rockefeller destruction is the puddle?"

"Child, he (Hussein) defecates on The Rockellers, and their destruction is seen in the puddle. The Arab Alliance gathers in the defecation to rejoice."

"Why would they rejoice about this defecation?"

"Child, what is the defecation which comes after nuclear war?"

"Destruction."

"Exactly. It is destruction to The Rockefellers."

"So, Rockefeller is a king of sorts?"

"More than any of you know."

"And he will be responsible for killing your sheep?"

"He has been behind the wars of many religions factions: Yugoslavia, Ireland, and Africa are but three. He has fed the fire to bring about destruction and your press has covered up and lied for him and his."

"So, why do the little gnomes spell ‘Out to Lunch?’"

"Who is out to lunch?"

"The Rockefellers."

"‘Tis so."

"My Lord, I see these Arabs go to the gates of Israel, but do not attack. Is there more?"
"Yes, Child, but, let us stop for today that you can attend to business. I am Jesus.

I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER FIVE

MESSAGE FROM THE APOSTLES

More on Invasion of USA

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have come to the top of this Mountain, most radiant and pure, after much seeking. As you have seen, the evil one and his dog you constantly. But always remember, Child, freedom is in Me. Now, sit in the chair of wisdom, knowledge and power. For, a new dimension is added to your journey--more power in Me. Child, go carefully in this greater dimension and always with much consideration. For, with your mouth, your spirit, your being, you shall call much to pass. Step from the chair and receive this anointing. Write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I stand amidst others clothed in white robes and we are bathed in a white light. Someone comes, My Lord. As he gets closer, I am aware that he is the Apostle, Peter."

"'Tis so."

"Child, take the message from Peter and read."

"My Lord, I have a plaque, which seems to be of a metal substance; and it radiates a blinding white light. As I hold this plaque in my hands, I discern that there is writing, but cannot clearly see the words because of the bright light. My hands are radiant with this energy and my body is shaking beneath this power. I feel as if I am in the midst of an earthquake, encircled with bright energies. Gradually this shaking subsides and I see this great brightness coursing me. As Peter stands before me, I see that his eyes are full of compassion and gentleness."

"This is a gift to you and to others on their way to this station," Peter says. "Dry the tears from your eyes and read from the message."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, this is deeply humbling. How precious the soul of this one to come in love for us, showing great concern for our journeys. My weaknesses are magnified before such power and love."

"Child, you are who you are," Peter says " and you are no less than heaven's stars. Remember your source of origin. For, the Father has created all; and all created of the Father is to be cherished. Expand His radiant love in your heart through use, as God's pure love grows in this way."

"My Lord, as I stand here and listen to Peter, I have a question. How is it that God, Our Father, allows destruction?"

"Child, the absence of love creates darkness and brings about its own destruction. The Father has created all in this way."

"But, My Lord, you are coming to bring destruction. Are you not?"

"Child, I come in obedience to the Father and bring closure to His Plans. Lucifer has done much to destroy, but I will bind him and destroy his dark handiwork."

"My Lord, you release war?"

"Child, when the fruit is ripe for the picking--ripe with iniquity--and mankind has turned its back on Me and The Father, He allows the inevitable, which is destruction."

"So, you will come as a whirlwind?"

"Child, I come not only as a whirlwind, but a great cyclone. No evil shall withstand my path; for I sweep a mighty sweep. I represent the Father and have His power."

"Others may fear Lucifer, My Lord, but the greatest fear anyone should have is toward You and The Father manifest through you on Earth."

"He is All-Supreme and I am one with His will. But many say 'God is just love. God is love.' Child, God is love. His love expands and its fire burns a white, pure fire, which destroys darkness. When darkness rears its ugly head to fight against the white fire of God the Father, it is destroyed."

"But My Lord, darkness murdered you."

"'Tis so, Child, for it was the will of the Father. Remember that the Father's time is His alone and His will is Supreme. He is Supreme God of all, and I follow His Will and Way. I knew I would die at the cross and I anguished over this fate, but I followed The Will of the Father."

"So, My Lord, it is His Will that we go through much darkness?"

"Child, remember The Mountain and that there are many levels on The Mountain. Yet, one level cannot deny the truths of another. As Isaiah said, one learns spiritually line upon line, precept upon precept. In your schools one goes from step to step, grade to grade. If one works hard, he or she may skip grades; but the precepts are still learned line upon line.

Do not fault others if they call you a liar for bringing truths about reincarnation. When their souls are ready, they will open to this. They will come to me on bended knees begging for a confirmation or lack of. Because many have taken from The Bible the idea of one life does not mean that to each is given only one life. This means at least one life. I am the only one among you, who has had only one life. Child be at peace in me regarding this, and let others believe as they will."

"My Lord, I thank you from the bottom of my heart, for I needed this. I am looking now at this plaque, which is radiant--like platinum--and on it is writing I do not understand."

"Child, this is the heavenly writing known in all these realms. You have the idea that this looks like Hebrew, and this is true, but it is not Hebrew."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Was Hebrew taken from this language?"

"It is a variant."

"So, the Jews had this degree of heavenly closeness at one time."

"You know they did as you were there. Now behold the plaque and what is written."

"My Lord, I have the plaque in my hands and have adjusted these son-glasses. Suddenly, the plaque is gone and I see words bubbling up from a beautiful fountain of pure, clear, white light and landing on a tray which appears in my hands."

"Read the words."

"They are as follows:

The boundaries between man and angels are but boundaries set by the mind. The boundaries between man and God are boundaries set by The Spirit. It is natural for mankind to follow mankind, and unnatural for him to follow God. All must be taught to love and honor God.

In this lack of teaching you have failed as a people and hold a grave responsibility for this failing. For none can be faultless when all fail and all are at fault when one fails. The destiny of all depends on the teachings of a few. How can one be blameless before God when such destiny unfolds? A few hairs growing on a head cannot be separated from all hairs, for they all come from the same head. Neither can a few sand particles on a beach be held apart from all sands; for they come from the same Earth.

Responsibility is the key to a better life on Earth. Who will take it? Who will reach out to his fellow man to show him the truth? Will all fall as The Earth is lacking? Or, will some rise, as a few, to take the plunge to lead amidst oppression. A life lost for the causes of Jesus, Our Lord, is a life gained in Him. Yet, this life lost in His causes can bring many to His Light.

Shall the pig remain forever a pig to wallow in the mire? Or, shall the pig be transformed to a something more through an inner work of God. Marvel not at the workings of the world. For, all fail who are lost to this way. Marvel at the workings of God. For, all are found in this way."

We are the Counsel of The Twelve. And, we work beyond the scope of human. We are not lost to you; for we are you in another space in time. Fear not that you stumble and fall and see no way. For, there is a way through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Be patient in your struggles; for his hand is a sure hand; His way is a sure way. Though you wobble on the Path, stay on the Path. Along the way you will bring many to this Path by the gaining of inner truths. For, inner truths put there by the presence of The Holy Spirit echo from one to another the essence of all there is--God, The Father through Our Lord Jesus.

We are The Quorum of The twelve, The Twelve Apostles, who serve beneath Our Lord Jesus doing a silent work; nonetheless an important work in the salvation of souls. Stay the narrow way even if it means your body lost to the forces of darkness. For this shall come to pass for millions, yea billions. Yet, fear not. For fear is of The Adversary. Be at peace in your mission for a Higher Way. ----------THE TWELVE APOSTLES

"My Lord, Jesus, I have written as I have seen, and I know that this is truly from Your Twelve. I honor The Apostle Peter, My Lord, your messenger in this. I know that many of us will die in the coming calamities through war, pestilence, disease and destruction. Yet, let us fear not as we are told; but go through faith, that we do a part, however small, to bring others to Your precious truths."

"Child, ‘tis so. You have many questions still about the writings of 09-17-97, of which we were discussing on 09-21-97. Let us continue."

"My Lord, The Iraqi invasion of The USA has been on my mind."

"Yes, Child, on Hussein and his."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I am thinking on the approximate invasion route of Hussein and feel that this is around the area of I-55 going northward from the area of the Gulf. But I am suddenly impressed that the largest area is still somewhat west of here."

"Child, take your son-glasses. Magnify and look very closely."

"My Lord, I see three ports of entry as they come up from The Gulf of Mexico. As they enter, I see that the bombs have gone off. The most westerly point of entry is around Port Arthur Texas. Going eastward from this point I see an entry around Cameron, Louisiana. Going eastward still further, I see another port of entry around Baton Rouge, Louisiana. They go northward from these points of entry. However, the most westly invasion immediately branches out to flow over Texas and beyond. The middle-most route goes straight up through Louisiana, through Arkansas, to the West of Little Rock, up through the Western part of Arkansas, up Missouri and on up toward Canada. The division, which passes through Baton Rouge, goes somewhat northeasterly up the I-55 area. I see these traveling up I-55 and through Memphis. My Lord, who goes among them?"

"Child, look at the flags."

"I am seeing Iraqis, Pakistanis, Iranians, Syrians and others."

"I see also, Palestinians. Are there more?"

"Look, Child. See Russia, NATO, Germany, Mexico, and Cuba."

"Then, My Lord, it is a great invasion of The USA led by Russia and The Arabs?"

"Don't forget China."

"Where are the Chinese troops primarily?"

"Look."

"I see them flowing in through the East Coast around New York City in huge lines. It looks like they are allowed in by NATO. By NATO?"

"Look at the gate through which they enter. Read it."

"It reads ‘North Atlantic Treaty Organization.’ My Lord, this is awful! The people will never believe this, not one word of what I write."

"Oh yes, Child! They will believe. For, truth shall cause them to believe. None will escape the effects of the invasion."

"So, what is this date, My Lord?"

"December, 1998."

"My Lord, I am having trouble seeing the day."

"Look overhead, far overhead."

"I see a ONE."

"Then, I believe I see a SEVEN. It looks like DECEMBER 17,1998? My Lord, I am not too sure of this date. At a later time, I shall ask for further confirmation. As I look at this date, I am wondering why they would pick this date."

"Because of the cold of The Christmas Season and to catch you unawares on a ‘pagan holiday.’"

"But, My Lord, this holiday is in celebration of you."

"For few, My Child, very few. You do not find me in glitter or decorated trees. This is Luciferian at the height. When you reach out to the poor and destitute with a spirit of love I honor it. But the greatest numbers of you have become lost in glitz. This is the material illusion at its height. And you shall be invaded amidst this material illusion."

"My Lord, I am looking at a series of things done by Saddam Hussein and his: the invasion of The USA; the striking down of the leaders in Russia; the destruction of England and its division into three pieces; and the invasion of Germany. Please explain what is meant by the division of England into three pieces."

"Child, you have seen Hussein and his allies invade England."

"Yes, My Lord."

"And, you have seen England cut by her height, her breadth and her length?"

"Which is?"

"Cut by her stature, her power and by her leadership, with losses in her ruling family through sickness and disease. With all these losses she is cut in her importance."

"What do you mean, importance?"

"Stripped of her royalty."

"Is this not the same as power?"

"This if far greater, Child. For England is cut of both power and royalty."

"How is she cut of power?"

"Through disease, war, dearth."

"So, the people starve and die from diseases and war and they are the power?"

"Without the people there can be no power. For, there must be people to follow through on commands from above."

"When does the English Monarchy fall?"

"You have seen Queen Anne emerge in 2002. Watch the blackness, which goes into the fall of 2002. See the castles crumbling in September, October November. See the raven fly from the rubble of Kensington Palace with the date, 'November 2002.' See, The Monarchy is dead."

"Yes, My Lord, I see this and I have seen The Arab Coalition bring down Germany. Tell me about the Belgium Queen and the corn?"

"Child, what is corn?"

"A food item."

"What does Queen Anne feed them?" (This is a in previous prophecy.")

"Popped corn."

"What does this Queen feed them?"

"Hard corn."

"Can they eat what she gives out?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then, they do not eat it. They do not go for it."

"And, she dies?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"She dies buried beneath the corn."

"You mean buried beneath her unpalatable words?"

"This and more."

‘Like what?"

"Like her corset, which is too tight."

"I don’t understand."

"Look at the corset. What is written above and across the breasts."

"It reads, ‘I love lamb chops.’"

"Then, ‘tis so."

"She kills Christians."

"As much as the others."

"So, the unpalatable words and her killing of Christians brings about her death?"

"Look, Child, behind her."

"I see a crazed man with a large, black knife. He stabs her in the back with the knife and twists the knife."

"What is his name, Child?"

"I do not know."

"Look at the sword. Read the name and look at the reflection."

"The reflection I see in the sword is that of the evil 'R' man of Germany, the Dracula-look-alike. The name on the sword is 'USSR.' So, The Russian sword kills her, but The Germans are behind it. Why would they do this? After all, she hates Christians."

"The corn, Child, the corn."

"So, she says something they do not like?"

"She does something."

"Like what?"

"Takes the money."

"You mean, the trillions?"

"I mean the money from the area of The Red Sea, which looks like a trillion to her."

"So, she takes the money from The Arabs, and is seen to be their ally. Then, she is killed by The Russians, who are backed by Germany?"

"Child, her death is made to look like The Russians did it but Germany is responsible. None of them can be trusted. All, who hate Christians and kill them, will fall to the swords of the others. These have short lives nowadays, the same as many of you. Yet, the lake of fire awaits them. But, those among you, who are faithful to Me and My word, know eternal salvation."

"My Lord, as we continue on past the situation with The Queen of Belgium, I see that Hussein pulls the hose from his mouth and pours foam all over Israel. What is this foam?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, ‘tis viral warfare."

"And, this which he pours on The USA?"

"Viral and chemical warfare."

"My Lord, would you please amplify my vision, so that I can see the places hit in The USA?"

"Child, see the invasion. This takes place in the South, by air and by ground, as these enter The USA. Look and note: 1. Baton Rouge; 2. Lake Charles, LA; 3. Beaumont, Port Arthur, TX area; 4. Biloxi, MS; 5. Shreveport, LA; 6.Little Rock, AR. They despise Clinton and wish to destroy his state. 7. Memphis, TN; 8. A large area in Missouri, and 9. Oklahoma City.

Then, they move east and west. See clouds in Nashville, clouds in small towns in Mississippi, but especially Jackson MS and into ALA. See Birmingham, Huntsville, and Montgomery. Then, to Atlanta, GA, especially the airport area. Child, there is a strong emphasis on the central area of the country for the Arabs. Russia, China place more emphasis on the coastal areas. Do you see the central part of the USA? Even though they fan out, the central part provides the least resistance. What do you have to defend you there?"

"Resistance is lacking here, and this area is mostly flat."

"‘Tis true."

"So, any area within this central portion is subject to this kind of warfare."

"Yes, especially the larger population areas as they wish to bring great death."

"I see, My Lord. I am also concerned about the volcano in California. When does it blow?"

"See: 2000."

"The one in Washington?"

"Child, it is getting ready to blow, even as we speak."

"Then, how long, My Lord?"

"Child, it shall pour steam for more than a decade, but the greatest destruction shall come within two years."

"When will The New Madrid Fault blow?"

"Child, look at the old miner's cabin at the edge of the fault. The old kerosene lantern on the porch is swinging back and forth. Stop the lantern, take it down, and lift the lid. Then take out the paper and read it."

"I have the lantern, and have removed the lid. I remove the paper, open it up and I see that there is writing on the paper, but I cannot read it, as it is moving. I command this writing to be legible in the name of Jesus Christ! My Lord, the paper has cracked into myriad pieces, as it is so old."

"Command it to reassemble."

"I command this paper to reassemble in Jesus' name to form legible writing.'

"My Lord, it is coming back together in my hands. I says June 5, 1999.

"Look again. Bring it to the light."

"I have brought in into the light."

"Use your microscopic lens from the son-glasses."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I can't quite make the writing."

"Look up. Take the note from the angel of great light and open it."

"My Lord, it says, May 03-June 05, 1999. How can that be?"

"The unfolding of the same."

"You mean tremors leading to the quake?"

"I do, Child. Be aware those within 500 mile radius, but especially those within 100 miles of the epicenter. The Earth will reclaim much terrain, and with it many, many people. Be warned."

"My Lord, is there no safe place?"

"In Me, Child, in Me. For all shall come and go, but My word is eternal."

"My Lord, we ask your guidance toward moving. Will you help us?"

"Soon, Child, I will."

"Help your precious children, My Lord. For many hearts are heavy with what unfolds."

"My Child, I am a prayer away. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER SIX

U.S. BAILBONDSMAN

"Precious Child, come up to the top of the Mountain and sit in the chair of wisdom, knowledge and power. Cast your two-edged sword far below to the waiting masses and watch it spread, first like a small light, then like a streak, then like a fire. Yes, Child, it is your sword. For, this two-edged sword of My truths, wisdom, and power, which is entrusted you, shall go among many peoples, nations and tongues. Long after your body is gone, this fire will burn. Now, Precious One, sit and write as seen and given."

"I thank you, My Lord for this knowledge. Sometimes I wonder what will become of these writings."

"Child, these prophecies shall be read by kings, queens, and noblemen, the poor, destitute, the middle-classed, the young and the old. Near, far and wide they shall travel, at first like a spark, then as a streak of fire and ultimately like a vast fire. The world shall seek these works; for they shall be sorely lost and looking for a way. When they read them, they will know that I am their Way, and they will know that you are a simple person living a simple life on simple means. They will know how you fought great hardship and serious illness. They will know how you and your husband sacrificed to get the first works edited, how you endured in spite of great criticism from family, friend and foe. They will know how you fought your own insecurities as you listened to these messages, how you doubted, how you feared, and how you died for what you know to be true. They will come know your weaknesses and your strengths.

For, you are they and they are you. You all share the same strengths and weaknesses at some space in time. For this, Child, I warn all, JUDGE NOT ANOTHER. I SHALL JUDGE. FOR, I KNOW ALL!

Now, Precious One let it be known that I know your sorrow for what you behold. I know your deep sadness for that, which is unfolding. Yet, have you chosen darkness over light? No you have not! You have steadily sought My Light over much time; yet you harbor fears that you have heard wrong or seen wrong. You have fought constant Luciferian attacks as he and his try to disable and kill you daily. You strive for perfection; yet I shall not beat you over the head or strike you down for error. I know that you desire is to serve me, that you have humbled yourself and sought to do your best. Child, I honor this! Remember this when you come to My Mountain.

I give you what you can handle. I have not shown you gory details of the great dearth, starvation, murder, and cannibalism. For, I know that you heart would be broken. Child, seek and strive for greater heights in me and fear not. Know that you are greatly loved and cherished, that I am with you and (so are) many angels, even apostles."

"My Lord, I ask for further confirmation of some of the dates given me. It is important that these be accurate."

"Yes, Child. ‘Tis so. And, I shall provide these."

"We were writing of The US and Russian soldiers, who were joined at the hip. Is there more?"

"Yes, Child, adjust your son-glasses to that of telescopic vision, and look far below to the gates at the base of the Mountain."

"My Lord, I see some very tall, thick gates, which are locked and barred."

"Child, take your scepter, your sword, your keys and take these mighty, warring angels with you. Go below to the gates and when told take the key and unlock the gate."

"My Lord, I am here at the gates aware of the angels towering above me. They are so mighty and I am so small, appearing as a child with two brown braids. But, before my eyes, I begin to assume the appearance of the prophetess, dressed in a white robe with a white hood covering my head. One of the angels points to a bright key and motions for me to take it from a chain around my waist. I reach down and take this key of white light radiance and am suddenly blinded."

"Place it between your hands."

"My Lord, I have done so and am still aware of the great radiance as it shines through my hands. Once I open my hands, I see that the brightness has gone, and a small brass key remains. They key is tarnished as if it is old, or has been used a lot. My Lord, the lock on this gate is huge and this key seems so small to open such a lock."

"Child, you have the key which will fit many locks."

"My lord, what is this key?"

"Love and honor."

"I am still somewhat puzzled."

"Push it in and see."

"My Lord, I take the key and place it into the lock. It goes straight through to the other side, and suddenly looks like a skeleton key. The lock clicks, opens and falls to the ground."

"Push on the gates and go in."

"My Lord, before I go in, will you tell me where I am?"

"Look at the placard to the left (of the gate), near the top of the wall."

"I see it, but I cannot read it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Climb the wall."

"I have climbed the wall and am looking straight at the writing. I see that it reads, ‘US’ something."

"US, what?"

"I cannot tell."

"Open the mailbox beneath the word, ‘US.’"

"I open the box to see that it is full of mail."

"Take out a piece."

"I have a letter and the name on the letter is ‘US BAILBONDSMAN.’ Why bailbondsman?"
"Climb down, go through the gates and see."

"My Lord, I am walking across a freshly-poured concrete sidewalk. This walkway leads up to a building with very tall, arched windows in front."

"Go into the building, up to the counter and give the man the key."

"As I enter the building I see the counter and a man behind it, who looks like a mannequin. He readily takes the key and gives me a paint tray full of grease. ‘Take this,’ he says, ‘and paint the walls with this bacon grease.’ What shall I do, My Lord?"

"Take the brush from the counter, Child. Place it with the grease in the container and take all out onto the patio. As you get there note the two walls. One says, ‘US’, and the other says, ’USSR.’ Then, take the grease and paint the wall, which says, ‘US.’"

"My Lord, I am painting this wall with this grease, and as I do so, a blazing fire starts on the wall."

"Continue to paint the whole wall. The fire will not hurt you."

"My Lord, it seems that I will need to paint little more, as the fire is quickly burning away the entire wall. I see a social event taking place in the room behind this wall. Queen Elizabeth is present and next to her is Bill Clinton with his constant smile. Nearby is BorisYeltsin and across from him is the 'R' Man of Germany, who is laid back in a lounge chair with his feet resting on an ottoman. Many unknowns mingle around, but I see two I recognize: Fidel Castro and a Chinese leader.

Now, I am focused on Bill Clinton as he talks to The Queen. The appearance of The Queen is disturbing. On the front, she wears the regal garb of the queen, but on her backside she wears a camouflage suit of a soldier. In her belt are many stacks of English currency. She removes five stacks of this currency and hands them to Bill Clinton."

"I sure needed this," he says. "I was afraid the press would find out. And, you know that would be a disaster."

"Oh, they would never print such a thing!"

"Oh, they would print it about me," Clinton says.

"Well, they have no power," The Queen sniffs. "We have the press sewed up."

"Hey, Queen, would you give me a dance?"

"Just this last time, Bill."

"The Queen and Clinton begin to dance; but she has spurs on her boots and Clinton's feet get caught up in the spurs. In fact, the spurs cut him along his legs in several places and he begins to bleed. Blood begins dripping down his legs and onto the floor, but he continues to dance with the Queen, failing to see the problem. In a short time, he slips in the blood and falls to the floor. Others keep dancing, but Bill Clinton cannot get up. He grabs a piece of The Queen's gown and tries to get up but she just keeps on dancing and pulling Clinton along.

I see one, who is aware of a bleeding Clinton down on the floor, being carried along by The Queen's gown. This one is Germany and he spits on Clinton. The Queen drags Clinton to the open door where I see her take some very large shears and cut off the portion of the robe to which he was clinging."

"Clinton quickly grabs the portion of the severed robe and pulls it to his nose. Deeply he inhales the scent of the robe. 'Ah, royalty,' he says, 'the smell of royalty!" Then, Clinton drags himself back to the chair he was seated in earlier and sits down. Taking the piece of royalty, he sticks it into the front of his pants. He doesn't seem to notice that his pants bulge with the piece of royalty and that a small piece is hanging from his fly. Clinton's body, face and elbows are very bloated from the fall; his teeth are wide and his mouth is large, too large for his head. His eyes roll backwards and I hear the sounds, 'tick-tock, tick-tock.' His eyes roll on the 'tick', then stop on the 'tock', and roll forward to repeat the process again. He has no money in his front pockets, but in his back pockets are the five stacks of currency from the Queen. I look at the clock on the wall as the party goes on. The time is 11:57 PM, 1998."

I hear The Rothschild Man speak to someone and I look to see that he is speaking to a man wearing a lamb's suit. Who is this man in this lamb's suit, My Lord?"

"Child, look at the front of the belt, see 'Saudi Arabia.'"

"So, is this a lamb or someone disguised as a lamb?"

"Child, look beneath the suit on the head."

"My Lord, I see horns. This is no lamb, but a goat! Now, I hear the Saudi Arabian goat tell The 'R' Man from Germany: 'Clinton is about to be creamed.'

My Lord, in the prophecy called ‘The Funeral of the USA’, I saw all allies desert the USA, but The Arabs stayed."

"‘Tis so, Child. Yet, this does not mean that they are your friends or that they are sheep. They know who bombed your soldiers (a fairly recent bombing of an American barracks in Saudi Arabia). Birds of a feather will flock together. The problem with The United States is that you do not have birds of a feather. These Arabs will flock together to gain world dominion even though they have fought against each other for so long. To this end they will have a common purpose."

"My Lord, back to the celebration mentioned above, tell me more about this."

"Child, go to the bar, ask for a napkin and read it."

"The man behind the bar gives me a white napkin. On one side it reads ‘Greco-Roman Empire’ in black; and on the other side, ‘The United States is treasonous’ is written in red. I don’t get it."

"Child, what is the ‘Greco-Roman Empire?’"

"This is history I have forgotten."

"Child, this is not history but current events."

"In what way? "

"Look at Clinton and The Queen."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Look at Germany."

"Yes, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Look at Malaysia."

"Malaysia?"

"Yes, indeed."

"Look at China."

"I see, My Lord."

"Child, look at the wooden blocks beneath the window. These look like alphabetical blocks, but there is one difference. They are hollow and a black train runs through the middle of them. The black train reads,'Russia is dead.' It carries a cargo, which is of putrid waste and the train goes nowhere. The 'R" Man of Germany tosses a match, which lights a fire behind this train of putrid waste and propels it forward. Within the darkness of the blocks, the train takes off like lightening. You see The 'R' Man of Germany, standing behind the train, lighting a cigar, and saying, 'Job well-done, Nigger.' Then, you see him place the cigar in his pocket while it is still burning, and it causes him to be propelled into the air, so that he can watch your destruction. Then, you see Clinton crucified."

"Yes, My Lord, I see all this, but what does this have to do with Greco-Roman?"

"Child, the very same demonic entities pass from generation to generation, doing the same kinds of things, ruling the same lands. These are far more cunning in their abilities than any of you. The only way you can ever win over them is through Me and My power. But you have deserted me, and they have done it again. You are as Rome at another space in time. Yet in many ways, you are far worse. Those, who destroyed Rome--the same warring, demonic entities--will destroy you again."

" My Lord, I know we face great, great evil. I have a question about 'the treasonous US.' What does this mean?"

"Child, not only have your leaders committed high treason against you, as a people. They are committing it among themselves, as to agreements and treaties they have drawn for world order."

"So, The US Bailbondsman is England?"

"Not for long, Child. Clinton will taste royalty. He will stuff himself with royalty; but it is showing through his fly."

"So, he has fornicated with royalty?"

"Yes, indeed!"

"How?"

"By taking the five stacks of money from England's military."

"I don't understand."

"Child, why would he want money from her military?'

"I suppose for some treason he committed against us."

"'Tis so and more."

"Like what?"

"Through the raping of your armed services."

"So, he took money to help shut down our military?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"This, and more, Child. Look at the English soldier beneath the commands of The Queen. He salutes her and then salutes Bill Clinton, who follows. Both sit side by side on a ship, which reads 'US NAVY.' Does this seem strange to you?"

"My Lord, is it not common for a soldier to salute a foreign head of state?"

"Not when the one on the ship is the enemy."

"How is she the enemy?"

"Child, she has poured drugs into the USA for years. She has colluded with The Germans to bring war your way."

"But, My Lord, I did not see a heavy, dark attachment going from the great puppet master to England in an earlier vision about invasion of the USA. How could she be a key player?"

"Child, she is not a key player in those attacking you. Nevertheless, she is a player. Remember this."

"So, Clinton takes this money for his own use?"

"He does."

"Then what happens to it?"

"It goes into Swiss banks."

"Why does she give him the money?"

"To buy your military."

"You mean, to downsize it?"

"And, more."

"Like what?"

"Like casting your pearls before swine, Child."

"This is confusing."

"Child, she is given privy to your military secrets, your pearls. She is the swine, who will pay Clinton, and then kick him until he bleeds. Yet, he is happy; for, he has gotten a piece of royalty?"

"My Lord, if he only gets money, how does he get a piece of the Royalty?"

"Child, when he gets money from them, he gets a piece of them. For, The Royalty is about money and power."

"But, My Lord, others see this."

"Child, other see and know; and it is not liked."

"So, will he ever face the music for this?"

"He will pay with his life."

"Who will take his life?"

"Who has his foot on the back of Clinton?"

"The ‘R’ Man of Germany."

"What do you see next?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"The ‘R’ Man cuts off Clinton’s legs at his knees and Clinton walks with wooden legs, but Clinton keeps falling into the dust and getting up again. After a while the wooden legs have grown to look like stilts and he walks with his head held high above the clouds. As Clinton seems to be soaking in the rarefied air, airplanes begin to buzz his head. One buzzes Clinton alongside his head and crops his hair. Then, others continue to hit his head until there is no hair left. Along come other planes and they cut off his stilts and legs until Clinton is nothing left but a body in a chair. As these planes fly away, I see that they are German.

Clinton sits in his office, just a body in a chair, peering over huge stacks of papers. In comes Hillary with another stack of papers and piles them before him. ‘I can’t take it anymore,’ she says, ‘get another secretary!’ She turns to leave and he reaches out for her. ‘Help me! Help me! I am falling!’ He begs. Then, I see some big men with red crosses on their arms come in and say, ‘Sir, help is coming. But for now, you will have to stay where you are.’

A black horse, adorned with a gold saddle, rides to the front of The White House. Cannons on the side of the black horse begin to fire upon the White House and windows shatter in The White House as it begins to crumble beneath the fire. People are rushing everywhere and Clinton is begging, ‘Help me! Help me!’ The German soldier closes the door to Clinton’s office, and out of earshot to Clinton, says to another soldier, ‘Turn up the heat!’

Mr. Clinton gets very thirsty and reaches for a glass of water, but he finds the glass empty. He reaches for his eyeglasses, buts finds them broken. He reaches for his walking cane, but finds it out of reach. He reaches for the telephone, but finds it disconnected. The White House continues under fire from the black horse and it is falling quickly, leaving only Clinton."

"My Child, I see that you tire. We shall stop for today. In this we shall continue.

I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER SEVEN

FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Look around and behold that you are indeed upon My Radiant Mountain. You sit in My chair of love, most pure, and garner My gifts of power and knowledge, but see a new gift emerging. It is the gift of miracles.

Look before you and see a radiant pool from The River of Life. Step down and bathe your hands and face in the pool, only your hands and face, Child. For, you shall be given only a small dose of the miraculous at a time.

"My Lord, this is the most radiant of The River I have seen."

"Child, remember that the Mountain has many levels, and one is given what one can handle."

"My Lord, as this water runs from my face and down my clothes, it purifies all with its radiance."

"Step onto the prophet's path, Child, wearing the robe of the prophet. Then reach down into the pool again and bring more water to your face and hands."

"Yes, My Lord. As I lift this radiant water through my cupped hands to bathe my face, I marvel at little, white doves flying from the water and encircling me. I follow them in flight as they light here and there in a most beautiful garden, which surrounds me. This garden is filled with heavenly flowers in pastels so pure and alive that they could grow only in Your very presence. I breathe in the heavenly fragrances and rest my soul in the quiet of such beauty. Yet I hold a quiet anticipation that the evil one will raise his ugly head in one of his many disguises."

"Child, Lucifer is forbidden here."

"Oh, My Lord, I rejoice and dance with glee in Your garden, for I feel full of joy and radiance! As I dance I see that my prophet's robe has turned into a flowing, shimmering gown, like the one I wore when I ascended the stairway of light in 1987. My Lord, might I just embrace this joy for a while? For, my soul has become weary with what unfolds below."

"Child, go to the tree and eat of the fruit."

"I approach this radiant tree and I pick a single, round fruit. As I hold the fruit, I am aware that it has many protrusions and is somewhat malleable. I toss it into the air and it becomes perfectly round, but when I catch it, I see and feel the protrusions once again."

"Eat, Child."

"Oh, My Lord, the flavor is like nothing I have ever eaten. It is full of juice and has a flavor, which seems to be a combination of peaches, pears and pineapples. I eat more and more and am still hungry for this fruit. It seems to go down and be absorbed quickly by every cell of my body. The more I eat the greater my thirst and hunger for it. I must have eaten thirty pieces and still long for more.

Where I pick it, more, fully ripe fruit quickly appears on the tree. This heavenly food restores my soul and I am beginning to feel a great peace overwhelm me. A most inviting bench beneath the tree is calling to me. My Lord, do you mind if I stretch out for a moment?"

"Child, do so."

"As I lie here beneath the radiance of this tree, I am caught up in a state of pure peace, joy and relaxation. As I think of sleep, a vision begins to unfold. In this vision I feel myself floating up, up, up to a door, which is closed."

"Child, knock on this door."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I am knocking on the door. Suddenly it swings open, and I find myself being sucked through the door and into a channel of spiraling light. I am traveling very fast and going ever upward into this spiral."

"Child, look where you are."

"My Lord, I have come out of this spiral and am at the top of the stairway of light I climbed in 1987. The doors are open and I stand on the precipice before the radiant sea of golden-white light."

"Jump into the light."

"I am here, My Lord, amidst such beauty, basking, floating in total, complete joy, beauty and calm."

"This is My Light, Child."

"Oh, My Lord, this is such pure peace, love and joy! May I stay for a while?"

"You may. Reach out and receive."

"I have been given a tray, and atop this tray is a water glass full of a radiant, golden-white liquid."

"Drink it, Child, this is of Me."

"I have consumed all."

"This is living water. Be cleansed and be whole."

"My Lord, I accept gratefully, and acknowledge humbly and sincerely that You are my Life."

"Child, take the key which has appeared before you and go back to The Mountain."

"I take the key and wonder why You have given it to me."

"It is the key of knowledge. Eat it."

"My Lord, I eat it and it is soft and sweet like ice cream."

"It is a gift from me. Go and use it to better discern."

"I shall."

"Child, you have worried about various dates and whether you have seen or heard correctly. Know that you have done your best. As you find yourself back on My Mountain, go to the wall before you and take the tray from the drawer on the wall. You will see and feel dates in the tray. Record them."

"I take the tray, and the first thing I see is 'Invasion of the USA, Dec. 12, 1998.' My Lord, I had seen the 17th before, yet was having trouble seeing that day, and as you know was not sure of the date at that time."

"Child, the 17th is not totally incorrect, as your invasion will be ongoing for many months. Now see clearly 'Dec. 12.'"

"I see, My Lord. But I have further questions, which I beg to have clarified. When does Israel fall? The answer appears on the tray before me and is '2001.' Next, I seek affirmation of the year in which Lucifer will be kicked down from the upper realms, and I see '2004' appear on the tray. My question now is about Germany and whether this is the country spoken of in Revelation--the one with the two heads, one of which was healed? I see the word 'yes' appear in golden-white light, hanging before me as if on a clothesline. I seek further confirmation of a two-part question: Does Lucifer take over the body of the Arab; and, do the Arabs defeat Germany? I see the word 'yes' appear, as if hanging from a line, in response to both questions.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

My Lord, The Bible states in Revelation that the dragon is the one with seven heads and ten crowns and the one with the healed head. Is this dragon the German?"

"Yes and no."

"Please explain."

"Satan inhabits the German from time to time as you have been told, but is not kicked down from heaven until 2004."

"Why is there not more in The Bible about the Arabs?"

"Child, who are 'the Kings of the East,' and 'the four angels of the Euphrates?'"

"I cannot be sure."

"Take the card from the other drawer on the wall and read."

"The Kings of the East are Iraq and allies and they go up against the country with the healed head."

"Look further, Child."

"I see 'Jordan, Syria, Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, the Palestinians, and more.' What does 'more' mean?" "Adjust your vision and look beneath the word, 'more'."

"I see 'Soviet Union and other allies.' My next question: Does Lucifer take hold of the body of the Syrian leader?"

"Seek the answer in the drawer."

"I finds a placard which reads ‘The Syrian is Lucifer.’ If the Syrian is Lucifer, My Lord, who is the false prophet as spoken of in Revelation?"

"Child, he is a Muslim."

"What is his name?"

"Go to the drawer, get the letters as they appear, and put them on the line."

"I am hanging the letters on the line as they appear, and they spell K- U- R- D-I-S-H. So, he is Kurdish. Is there more we should know about the Kings of the East."

"Look in the drawer."

"I find a piece of paper and it reads: ‘The kings of The East, who set out to destroy the USA, will also set out to destroy your so-called ‘allies.’ The dragon, who controls The New World Order, sees the continuation of his plan to a higher level of control through the Syrian. The focus of control shifts from Germany to Syria and the beast system continues. It is not done away with, but enhanced.’ Next, I ask for a confirmation for the fall of Germany."

"Go to the drawer."

"Written on a piece of paper is ‘2004.’ I am reaching back into the drawer for a confirmation of the fall of Israel and I am retrieving a small scroll. This is what the scroll says: "Child, you believe that when Israel is attacked, this will be the end of Israel. Remember: these very tenacious people will hold onto their homeland for some time. They will be fed a constant supply of guns and ammunition from their friends and allies around the world. For all purposes, they fall in 2001as you have seen. But, in reality these have an unconquerable spirit. This unconquerable spirit cannot be fully brought down until The Antichrist emerges in 2004 (in the Syrian). At this time, he and his will fully gain control. You must understand that The Arab forces are split, fighting around the world. War is going on all over Europe, The United States, Russia, Canada, and Australia. The German tries to stop the war and fails; but the Syrian wins where he fails. The world is literally beaten into submission. So, does Israel fall in 2001? Yes. As you fall in 1998-1999. But, Israel is not beaten in 2001. By 2004, the Israelites are fully beaten. In all, they are trampled for three and one half years.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"So the USA is fully beaten in 1998-1999?"

"Go back to the drawer."

"I find another small scroll and it reads, 'The USA is in for a bitter battle, which will rage for years. The number of guns on US soil will make the defeat very difficult. During this time, there will be anarchy, as the people will revolt against the oppressive government. Civil war will break and you will be given the iron hand treatment. There will be strict government schools, no churches or freedom of assembly.'

I am wondering what happens during this time in South America. As this is my next question, I shall go to the drawer and seek this information. Again, I take out a small scroll with the answer. It reads, 'South America will be untouched by war and strife in some places, particularly the mountainous areas, where life will go on as always. Food will be scarce due to weather, and temperatures will range from very hot to very cold. Many will hide out in the mountains there.'

I thank you, My Lord, for allowing me to come back to your Holy Mountain to seek this knowledge. In Your love for us, You wish us to be wise about the plans of the evil ones. In You, My Precious Lord, is our Victory!"

"Child, you are being brought rapidly to new heights. For, the people perish for truths.

I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER EIGHT

WAR AGAINST THE WHITE HOUSE

"Precious Child, you have been brought to the Mountain, most high, to receive of Me; for I am Master Jesus, Your Lord and Savior, given this dominion of The Father.

Child, look at the chair in which you sit, for it is the chair of wisdom, knowledge, and power; and see 'miracles' emerging here and there. Your practical, intellectual side may throw these miracles to chance; but do not be allured into such thinking, for you and many others are being brought up very quickly now, and you shall need these miracles.

I know you are most concerned about a certain, tired person, and you feel that he wishes to choose death over life. If you see him do this, do not be dismayed, for many will choose to rush headlong into the enemy and many will be slaughtered. Some of you will flee and live in safety until you will be pursued and killed. Remember: Death is the inevitable for all.

The one you are concerned about is hardheaded; I speak to him, but often he dismisses Me, as he wants more signs. Leave him be and allow his choice to stay in a war zone; but be prepared to move on."

"My Lord, my heart is so weary."

"Child, this is known; but now is a time of great discipline in Me. Be not overcome by what unfolds; be inspired. You are still concerned about the date of the USA Invasion, so put on your Son-glasses, adjust them to microscopic vision, look far below to Times Square, and watch the date as it comes by."

"My Lord, I see 'December 12, 1998'; I wish to re-run this. Here it comes again, 'December 12, 1998.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, do you see what happened before when you read the 17th?"

"My Lord, I must have followed the horizontal part and the vertical part, but did not see the lower, horizontal part. Still, I am asking for more confirmation of this as we go along."

"Precious Child, you tire, but let us continue; for, what unfolds is important."

"Yes, My Lord."

"You have the white robe, the radiant sword and three guardians; I am sending you to the base of the Mountain."

"My Lord, as we arrive at the base of the Mountain, we make a right turn and go down a desolate street, which is called Pennsylvania Avenue. Buildings which once stood tall and beautiful and in crumbled ruins. Before us half of the White House stands, the rest obliterated with debris all over the lawn. Behind the White House flies a flag with a quarter moon and a star, and a red horse rears beside the flag. Someone is singing:

‘Ride on, ride on
O’ harvest moon!
O’ harvest moon!
True, you are,
O’ moon, to me.
See, see
What you do for me!’
Then, the tune changes:
‘I Can’t hold you,
So, I Toss you away!
I see your fate,
I cash you in,
I go my way.

I cannot make Heads or tails
Of what they've done.
So, I'll Give them the guns.'
Then, the tune changes:
'Guns are forbidden!
They must not be hidden!
Or, I'll make you a day
Like no other day!
Camps are waiting
For all, who lie,
For all, who steal,
A meal, a meal!
The tune changes again:
I cannot wait
For them to adjudicate!
The trucks come for you
To take you A-W-A-Y!
Again, the tune changes:
I'm a Little Hitler,
Little Hitler, am I!
Empowered by the Germans
Over you, over you!
I'm a Little Hitler,
Little Hitler over you!
Empowered by the Germans
To steal, to kill!
Give me your guns!
Give me your food!
Give me your clothes!
Give me your houses!
Give me your tools!
Give me your cars!

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Give me your all!
For, I come to take,
To kill, to steal,
To pillage, to plunder
You-hoo!
Saddam Hussein and Company

My Lord, I hear this singing coming from the area of The White House. Where, is Bill Clinton?"

"Child, look at Clinton; he has no legs, arms and teeth -- except the one tooth in front, which is gold with a white star. His ears are huge and he is blind; he fumbles for paper, but cannot see how to write. The windows in his office are shattered and his help is gone. Hillary has practically deserted him, along with his so-called friends. What more do you see, Child?"

"I see a country invaded and conquered by Arabs and others foreigners."

"War will rip you of every prize you own; it will take your food, clothing and shelter; it will rape you of every penny and you will fall as a free country. Child, I have warned mine through revelation to flee. Why would you not heed me? My curses are upon you as a nation and you are accursed the world over."

"My Lord, this is an awful thing to behold. As I look at the White House in shambles, I wonder what happens to the Congress?"

"Dissolved."

"To the governors?"

"Dissolved."

"We know that the churches are burned and we know that Germany is behind this destruction."

"You know this to be true."

"But, the Germans are dealing with a runaway train."

"Through and through. We shall stop for today, Child. I pronounce many blessings upon you and your family; and you shall begin to see them unfolding quickly."

"I thank you, My Lord; we need them so."

"I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, yea Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER NINE

A COUNTRY ACCURSED BY GOD…

USA INVADED BY NATO AND OTHERS

"Precious Child, behold the vision of beauty from atop My Mountain, most high and pure. Come and sit in the chair of love and honor toward Me and know the depths of truth, wisdom, and knowledge. Remember, Child, accept and receive My miracles, for you and your brother shall know many; and, so shall all, who humble themselves likewise. Stand in the beam of My pure light and be purified; for I know you suffer beneath the weight of what you have seen. Be buoyant in Me and be whole, for I am in control of this planet."

"I am deeply humbled, My Lord, for your love touches the depths of my aching heart. I am greatly troubled for what is about to unfold and I shall not be able to endure unless you strengthen me. I bask in this radiance, soaking it up, My Lord, for you are my strength. As I look down at my white prophet's robe, I see a stain on the lower part, the same stain I was shown in the dream when you gave me Your journal and allowed me to read three pages. I know now that the three pages are the three books of prophecies and the stain on my robe is your blood, which was shed for each of us."

"'Tis so, Child."

"My Lord, how long shall this remnant of Your blood remain on our robes?"

"Until resurrection, then it will be purged."

"So, we wear your blood and carry Your wounds among us?"

"You carry a reminder of My wounds. You have deep knowledge that I came, was crucified for you, and arose on the third day; and you show this wound. For, you are My sheep and you honor the price I paid.

You were reading in Ezekiel today, and you saw the way I dealt with Ezekiel. I deal with all prophets in a similar way, yet there are differences. Child, I have given you complex visions, which only I can give meaning to, as I am the author of these visions. Those, who try to interpret these visions with the carnal mind, will fail. Now, take the book from the angel, Kikiara; it is turned to a certain page, as it is opened. Be aware of your keys, your sword, and your rod, and go through the opened page. Three warring angels will accompany you. Write, Child, as seen and directed."

"My Lord, I am entering this page, which is no more than a border of a page, as the center is cut away. As I enter, I am aware of something like fiberglass strands, which are floating all about me. When these touch me, they pop, crackle and disintegrate. My Lord, the energy you gave me has caused me to be aglow with your power; for, my feet look radiant and the ground around them looks radiant.

In front of me is a wooden door, surrounded by a stone archway. I try to open the door but it is locked; and one of the angels seeing this steps forth with a key in hand and says, 'Remember the key.' The key fits snugly into the lock and the door opens behind a chain-link fence. I stop and look at soldiers on the other side of the fence, who are running to catch waiting cargo planes and helicopters. Many soldiers seem to be coming from within a dark mountain, following the lead of one speaking a foreign language, who has NATO written on his boots.

In Jesus' name, I command the language of this officer to flow slowly in English! Now, I hear the German soldier say 'Fill them up. Do not leave any headspace. This will be a tough call; but there should be no unexpected problems. The bastards are sleeping; let's go!' Then, he runs around calling, 'On your mark! On your mark! On your mark!' Quickly, he moves his hand in a downward motion and huge numbers of planes take off in rows. My Lord, explain to me what is going on."

"Child, go into the large cargo plane and observe."

"I am inside the plane and the rumbling from the engines is deafening. As I look around, I see soldiers of many nationalities, which include German, Italian, English, Russian, and Spanish, to name a few. Is this a NATO alliance?"

"This and more."

"What do you mean?"

"It also includes United Nations; see Germany, Mexico and smaller countries."

"Tell me more, My Lord."

"Child, where are they headed?"

"It is night and I cannot see."

"Look at the flight plans."

"I see ‘destination: Chicago, USA.’"

"Is this all?"

"I see ‘New York City.’"

"What more?"

"‘Washington, DC.’"

"And?"

"‘Miami.’"

"List all you see."

"I see: ‘Pittsburgh, PA; Tampa, FL; Tallahassee, FL; Atlanta, GA; Mobile, AL; Houston TX; Dallas TX; Sacramento, CA; Michigan…four stops; Rhode Island; Connecticut.’ Most of these areas seem to be near the outer perimeter of the country."

"This and more."

"What more, My Lord?"

" Huntsville, AL; Little Rock, AR; DeMoines, IA; Las Vegas NV; San Francisco, CA; Butte, Montana; Charleston, SC; Raleigh, NC. These are the primary sites."

"Primary sites for what?"

"For the NATO led group to infiltrate you."

"This is mind-boggling."

"Child, you will be infiltrated by land, by air, and by sea. You will be bombed and destructed by nuclear bombs, germ, chemical, and nerve warfare. Your missile silos will be attacked and the storage facilities for your germ and chemical agents will be destroyed. You will be invaded by mass numbers of troops before you know what has happened and this will be done in the midst of the night, in the cold of your Christmas season. They have colluded with those within your government for decades to bring you down, and many of your leaders are among those at the front lines."

"Name some."

"The Kennedys, the Clintons, the Bushes, those, who run The Federal Reserve, many of your congressmen and governors, and many of the owners of your news media. Child, you are ripe for the picking and you will be laid low quickly in one day; but your country will be plagued with geurilla warfare for years."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I have seen the UN fall, when will NATO fall?"

"As soon as you are done away with."

"Child, let there be no mistake about why this is happening to your country. You have brought this upon yourselves through your own rebellion against Me. You have turned aside from Me to chase your idols of gold and silver; you have turned to pornography, violence, killing, and gluttony; and you have become slaves to the media, to the stars of Hollywood, and various cults. I am bringing destruction upon you through your enemies, because you have forsaken Me and you know Me not.

Your lying preachers feed you popped corn. They fornicate with the moneychangers and worship money and what it can buy. Your churches are empty and people perish for My truths; but you have hardened your hearts against Me. Yea, I strike my rod of fire in your midst and I cripple and blind you; for My fury is upon you. I break your media crutches over your heads and I whip you into submission. I bring great droughts among you and cause one-third of you to die of starvation; I bring war among you, and I kill one third; the remaining third, I cause to howl at the moon, to rent your clothes.

Many of you will curse the day you were born; yea, you shall crawl upon all fours like dogs and beg for scraps from a table. Your captors shall spit upon you; they shall rape your women and children, kill your wives and mothers, ransack your beautiful homes, and leave no stone among you unturned in their quest for victory over the one they call ‘great whore.’

For, you have beamed adultery, sodomy, and every vile thing into their countries, into their bedrooms and into the midst of their children. They shall reap hate upon you not unlike that of Alexander the Great or Hitler. Nay, gas chambers, guillotines, and firing squads will not kill you fast enough to suit them. The cries of the sick and dying shall go on from morning ‘til dark; and silence shall be sought, but your minds will not escape the shrill voices of those, laid to waste at the hands of your enemies.

Yes, you have fornicated with nations; you are accursed; and I shall stick my sword among you and twist and turn it until few remain. Yea, I shall whip you with the plowshare until it is smooth, polished, and few remain, but the malleable. Yea, I stamp my foot amidst you, and you are devoured in quickness as a hungry shark devours.

Listen, My Sheep, prepare to flee, lest you too fall recipient of My curses.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TEN

GOD'S PROMISES AND WARNINGS

"Precious Child, blessed is the day you were born. And, blessed be the days of all, who were born to carry My truths--My Word--and My power among the lost and destitute. For, I shall restore you when you are weak. I shall feed you when you hunger. I shall clothe you when you are naked. I shall guide you when you are lost, and I shall visit you through dream and vision. I shall lie beside you when you are weary, and I shall comfort you when you are sad. I shall move you when you must flee; and I shall empower you when you need the means to flee. I shall lay a loaf on your table when you see no way to eat, and I shall multiply this bread before your very eyes. I shall bring you new shoes when your shoes have holes, and I shall bathe you with My pure water when you need bathing. I shall lift you up at the last day and I shall bring you home to go out no more; for, you have traveled long and you are weary.

I shall wash your feet of the earth dust, give you new clothes and a crown. I shall enlighten you to a new life, a new way, a new road; and never again will you thirst, hunger or know loneliness and despair. Never again will you cry or beg. Never again will you search and long for something, yet you know not what. Never again will you know the pains of birth or the agony of crossing into consciousness. Never again will you wail like a lost child; for, you shall drink of My cup of eternal love. This cup has no bottom and overfloweth for each of mine.

HEARKEN! HEARKEN! HEARKEN!

The time is at hand like none other. I shall not intervene if you choose the way of darkness over My way. I have availed you a free choice, and would not stop your choices if I could; for, in your choices you make or break you own self. I have provided you a gentle, loving way, a road unfettered with the traps of the worldly glitter. I have provided you a sure way out of the land of toil and trouble.

Yet, it is illusion, which the greatest numbers of you prefer. My heart aches for your losses; but you have made your choices clear to Me. Blame not this prophetess as she lays your cards of destiny before you. For, you have chosen your cards. Know that they are not cards of chance, but cards of choice. The wise one chooses My simple, uncomplicated way; he humbles himself before Me and puts all the material in perspective.

Giving is the nature of loving--giving with an unselfish heart full of deep, genuine compassion and concern. The selfish heart--the one full of love for Satan and his illusions-- puts things before others.

Now, Precious Child, you see yourself once again atop My Holy Mountain, most pure and radiant. From this stance, you can look down and see many levels. The souls on the lower levels must not be faulted for their perception of My Word; for, many of these are babes and they need tender nurturing, not condemnation. If any is to be judged or condemned, I will do so.

Carry them the truth, Child, that they may drink of it at all levels on this Mountain. By bringing one to the light, you may bring many. Remember this! By bringing one to the darkness, each of you may also bring many, as you do not live in a vacuum. Know that every word, yea every thought, is energy on a collision course with energy some place else. Let your thoughts be powerful and of Me; and let your actions be fair, reasonable and just. Stand in the gap for Me.

For those on the upper levels of this Mountain, I expect much more. I expect constant prayer, much fasting and strict obedience to Me and My word. I expect you to be My messengers, My truth bearers. I expect you to be My warriors and My healers. Indeed, you are My prophets and apostles; and I empower you to heal and to bring forth miracles. I empower you with wisdom, knowledge, and discernment; and I empower you to be a beacon for My Light. I empower you to build up, and I empower you to bring down. You carry my two-edged sword in your mouth, and I empower you to curse and to speak My fire. I raise you up to stand over nations; and from you, I expect much. Remember who you are: to whom much is given, much is expected.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Now, Child, you have seen something of your station. Be not concerned about where someone else fits on this Mountain. Just bring others to the Mountain. Do you understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"I have nurtured you over the last ten years. I have guided you through terrible storms of self, through sickness and disease, through poverty and food shortages, through loneliness, despair, great searching and longing. I have brought you up slowly through great inner seeking and longing. Child, I do not give you what I know you cannot handle, but what I know you can handle and carry through. Yours is a great work, which will keep many from falling to the wiles of the evil one. This work will give others the faith and courage to carry on and will continue to bring others to Me long after you are gone. Child, you are a way shower, ordained of Me. Yes, it was I, who came to you in a dream last night."

"My Lord, You were dressed in white, and I knew when I saw You in the dream that I loved You so. Then, You dumped a great deal of fertilizer at me feet, and You told me You were making fertilizer. Yet, it did not look like fertilizer, as it was do radiant."

"Nay, Child, it was not earthly fertilizer; it was My Word. You think it looked like pearls, Child; but, My word, My Pearls of Wisdom, cannot compare to pearls in the earthly world."

"Then, why would the word, ‘fertilizer’, appear in the dream?"

"My Word, Child, is fertilizer for the soul. A soul can grow quickly in Me and My ways through obedience to My word. This is My way."

"My Lord, when I reached out to hug You, You reached far into the heavens and shone with such radiance. And when I awoke, I knew that you had given me the dream."

"Child, I have known the weight upon your soul as to what you see unfold. You have seen the ravages of Lucifer upon your homeland and around the world. Yet, Child, you have brought this upon yourselves. When you live my laws, I am bound to you. When you forsake me, Lucifer has full rights. This is the law. My righteous anger has been kindled against a nation I have nurtured for much time. My foot is upon you and I turn my face from you; for, your ways are an abomination in My sight.

I have warned you, Child, and I have warned others. Do not tarry therein, lest you know the unbridled wrath of Satan. I have advised you well in advance to prepare. Do not cry that you have been forsaken when you have been told this in advance what you must do to shorten your own suffering.

I cannot stop some of you, who choose martyrdom. Yet, there will be more fertile fields for many of you to do My work elsewhere. Do you not see that in choosing martyrdom, many of you take out warriors I need in My camp? Feel the heaviness in your heart about your decision to martyrdom. I am placing this heaviness in the hearts of many, as you are choosing to strike out on your own. You are not listening to Me. You are not preparing to flee. You have been brought up many years in Me to get to your space in time; and your strengths will be sorely needed elsewhere to help others, who are malleable, who are not stiff-necked, who are not proud and haughty.

When the USA goes, it will be hard for even a mouse to live in many places therein. Why are you settling for this now? This is a warning. HEAR ME! HEAR ME! HEAR ME!

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER ELEVEN

REMORSE FOR WORDS

"Precious Child, you do not have to struggle to get to the top of this Mountain as you once did. For, I bring you solely upon My power. You have reached new heights in Me through seeking and obedience over time. Let it be known, Child, that many are being brought up in like fashion. Not all are given to write, but all are given more power, wisdom and truth in Me. Now, behold that you sit in the chair of truth, love, honor and obedience to Me. Yea, 'tis the chair of wisdom, knowledge and miracles."

"I am ever grateful to be upon Your Mountain in your chair, My Lord; but my heart is sad and heavy. You know how I went into the garden a few days ago and asked for your hedge of power and protection over and around the rows of the greens. At that time, I was so distraught; for something had devoured the tops of the greens and had ravaged the broccoli. Daily for weeks I had gone out to pray and these pitiful plants would look worse every day. Over several weeks' time, I became so discouraged, as I knew that these revenous creatures would not leave single plant. In my anger toward them, I spoke death to all the last time I prayed over the garden, as I believed the locusts had set in to eat every scrap of greenery. When I saw a dead mouse the day after this prayer, I wanted to think that the mouse just happened to die next to a collard plant. Even when I saw a large, dead bee a row or two over, I wanted to believe that it was just chance. But, within a few days, my husband and I found a dead rabbit without a bite or mark on it. And, within a few days of the first rabbit, we found a second dead rabbit. My Lord, I have felt such sorrow for the innocent deaths of these rabbits; for, I know that I spoke death to them through my mouth. You warned me of the two-edged sword in my mouth and I have caused harm. My Lord, I am deeply sorry, for I believed I was praying against locusts. Forgive me this, My Lord."

"Child, I know your sadness, and know that you did not fully realize the power in your words. Yet, you have been told in advance that your words will carry great power. You have been told that you will know many miracles through the two-edged sword, which comes from your mouth. This sword is My word, My truth, My power; it is the power of the prophets. Let this be a lesson to you, Child, to be aware of your speech. For, what you curse, I curse. What you bless, I bless. What you cause to prosper through your mouth comes from Me. I have empowered you with this.

Let us stop this for now.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 3rd day of October, 1997,

Linda Newkirk

I was devastated by the deaths of these precious animals, and could not utter another prayer against them even though they got most of the broccoli and onions. In spite of their continued attacks on our little garden, God blessed us with greens most all winter. Near mid-winter, hunters came along the railroad tracks up the road and killed many rabbits.

In late winter, a deep cold set in with temperatures dropping to around 20 degrees for two nights. On the third night, temperatures dipped to about fifteen degrees. Each night I prayed for the shield of God to be placed over, around, and beneath the garden and was elated to find that they had survived even the 15-degree weather. A long row of mustard was thick with blooms and not a bloom was effected by the cold. Nearby daffodils in full bloom were burned by the cold and turned brown, but not a single plant in the garden suffered.

Each time I drive in and out of the driveway and pass these beautiful plants, my heart sings with joy and love, for I see God's miracles all around.

CHAPTER TWELVE

THE BITTER CUP

MORE ON THE MAIN LINE TRAIN,THE STOCK MARKET CRASH, ETC…

"Precious Child, I, Master Jesus, have brought you atop My Mountain through My Spirit because of your deep prayers. Know that I shall bring none here, save each is ready and possesses a deep longing. This Mountain is not new to you, neither to the rest of the 144, 000, who make it to the top, nor to the millions of you, who are at varying levels. Many shall make it to My Mountain."

"My Lord, how is it that this Mountain is established among us, and was not established before; as Isaiah 2:2 says that it shall be established in the latter days?"

"Child, remember that where much evil abounds, much good--power from Me--abounds in greater measure. Satan, the Evil One, Lucifer has his top demons among you ruling the world. I have some of My most powerful prophets among you, who shall move mountains. These shall raise the dead, heal the sick and work many, many miracles."

"My Lord, you have told me that the spirits of some of your prophets of old are back in human bodies?"

"Child, all around the world this is true, as, you, yourself, are a prophet of old."

"My Lord, you have told me previous that I was Aaron?"

"Aaron, it is; and, Child, you have been three lesser prophets over time. All your life, you have been yearning and seeking, but your inner heart brought you to know the falseness of doctrines taught by many churches. Do not be surprised that you do not belong to a church, as many prophets are loners and are often very misunderstood.

Their mission is a hard one; for, it means telling the masses what they do not wish to hear.

Child, the ridicule you have received from family and strangers is common for prophets. Most often the family members are the first to cast derision, as they wish to see you as one of them. They wonder how you can be one of them if you have a special relationship with God. The element of fear and envy enters and takes hold of their minds. Some feel that if they can criticize enough, the prophet will forget 'such nonsense'--as many call the walk-- and be one of the family again. In the initial stages of the prophetic walk, when one needs the support of family and friends the most, there is often little or none.

Child, do not despair in this; certain family members will come around in time. Yours is to do this work and remember that you are never alone, for I am always with you. Now, Child, you find yourself atop My Mountain in My chair of wisdom, honor, love, faith and knowledge. Receive of Me. Drink of the cup, given you by my angel, Kikiara; and be strengthened and lifted up."

"My Lord, I take this cup and I drink what is in it. The liquid is at first sweet, like very sweet syrup; then, it seems to taste like a green persimmon, as if it is turning my mouth wrong side out. It is getting very bitter, but I drink all; and it lays heavy in my stomach, like lead, causing me to feel sickly and bloated. My Lord, how can such a thing strengthen me or lift me up? I feel dragged down and sickly by this and must put my head down for a minute."

"Child, this cup you carry for Me is a bitter cup, indeed, and the weight of what you carry does make you feel sickly; but you are sickly only in your mind. For, you are doing as I say, Child, … following directions. Step from the chair onto the Path of the Prophets and be free in me."

"My Lord, I step upon this Path and suddenly feel so radiant. A beam of white light falls upon me from above and I bask in this light. Oh, to stay here forever; for I am so weary at times."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, your weariness is known; but be not overcome by the weight of the chair or the bitterness of the cup. Remember: this light awaits all, who are faithful to the end. Nothing on Earth can compare to what awaits My faithful Ones. At all times remember this Light, and do not be tricked by the physical illusion. Fast and pray often and know that I will send you some of like mind."

"My Lord, how can these be of like mind? For, those, who call themselves Christians and quote the Bible often, do not believe in reincarnation."

"Yea, Child, not now. But, they shall know the truth; for, I shall speak it through the mouths of many prophets. My mysteries shall be revealed, as spoken in Revelation. Those, who believe the Book of Revelation to be my word, will accept as true the mysteries, which will unfold, but not the babes, Child. For, these are yet at the breast." (Rev. 10:7)

"I thank you, My Lord for the time you have taken with me. Words cannot describe my deep gratitude; but I know that you perceive my heart through Your Spirit."

"Child, I know all."

"My Lord, I have questions remaining from the visions of yesterday. When I first saw the train with wood, before it went through the dark tunnel, I noted just the wood. Yet, you showed me what went on in the tunnel of obscurity and many soldiers entering the train after it emerged from the tunnel. I am a little confused here. Did the wood on the train represent soldiers before it went through the tunnel?"

"Child, you are baffled, as you did not believe there were soldiers on the train before it went into the tunnel. What is the train before it goes through the first tunnel?"

"I suppose it to be a train."

"Wrong. It is no train, but plans, a train of dark thoughts placed one upon the other to look like a train. This train of thought goes through the tunnel of obscurity, where it becomes a reality."

"But, what of the wood?"

"Plans, Child, plans. Are these soldiers not hidden in wooden crates?"

"Yes, My Lord, but once these get on the ship and get through the first tunnel, what is the train at this point?"

"Child, see … 'Main Line Train.'"

"So, this train is 'The Main Line China Train?'"

"Yes, and more."

"Like, what?"

"It is the train of 'Main Line China' and the train of 'Main Line Diseases and Addictions.'"

"I don't get it."

"See the cigarettes catch fire."

"Yes, My Lord."

"See that these ignite a spark, which follows this train."

"Yes, My Lord."
"Addictions follow the train. Remember one of the first prophecies I gave you about The Chinese using cigarettes for population control?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord."

"Well, this is so. Cigarettes are glorified among them, and these bring heavy addictions."

"But, why this now?"

"To remind you, Child, of what has been told you before and what is coming among you."

"So, the Main Line diseases come from cigarettes?"

"Look at another addiction, … sex."

"Sex addiction?"

"Yes, indeed. For, there is an over supply of males in China and many are deprived of sex. Homosexuality is more rampant than you will ever know and so is the disease, aids. You will see a great increase in aids brought in by these foreign soldiers, who invade you."

"Oh, My Lord, this goes form bad to worse."

"Child, you sit now in the lap of comfort; but I assure you that eyes have not beheld devastation like that, which will take place in the USA. For, at no time in the history of the world have things been so terrible as what you shall withstand; and only small numbers shall survive until My return."

"There is no way any of us can understand this at this time. We must go in the palm of Your hand, My Lord that we can endure in hope until You call us home. My mind is back now on the soldiers as they enter the Empire State Building. Explain the flurry of papers."

"Disarray, Child, disarray."

"Disarray of what?"

"Of your economy."

"But, I thought that the stock market would crash after this country was bombed."

"Your thinking is wrong, Child. For, your economy shall fall first."

"How shall this be, My Lord?"

"Child, see the tractor in the fields."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Look at the farmer. He looks into the heavens and sifts dry sand between his fingers. The sand falls like powder. Look at the creek beds, Child, parched. Look at the riverbeds, low. Look at the wind, Child, hot and dry. Look at the wheat, little. Look at the bugs and the locusts, many. Child, the dearth, the food shortages, will begin next year. Your farmers will begin to see my wrath fall upon them. Look, Child, you will see shelves coming up with empty spaces. Your meat will begin to soar because of grain shortages.

My hand is in this, Child. Your stock market will start to see large fluctuations. Many will begin to sell off stocks from fear and your economy, which is now strong, will start to sink. You will see panic set in. When you are caught up in self and trouble at home, these will invade you, as you will be unprepared."

"Will the Germans play a role in this crash of the stock market?"
"They will."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"How?"

"By placing scares in your media. Remember the castles with the three families and the ticker tapes. Who feeds the tapes?" (This is a previous prophecy showing the Rockefellers, the Rothschilds of Germany and the Royals of England in one castle, with separate doors. All are conspiring to control the world.)

"The three evil families."

"Remember their time line to do away with you and have their government in place."

"What is this, My Lord?"

"No later than 2001."

"So, they help the scare with their media control?"

"Absolutely."

"So, there is panic?"

"'Tis so, Child, and amidst the panic you will not notice what is about to come against you. Add this panic to your 'pagan holiday', and you will understand how this could unfold as is told. Child, very lean times are before you. See the lean, hungry wolf."

"Yes, My Lord, who is this wolf?"

"'Tis hunger, Child, hunger."

"My Lord, I ask for further confirmation of the dates of this invasion."

"Reach out, Child. Take this box, and take out the numbers one by one and feel each."

"My Lord, I feel a ‘one,’ next a ‘two,’ then a ‘one’ and a two. Now, I feel a ‘nine’ and an ‘eight.’ This is 12-12-98. My Lord, I am so fearful that I have seen wrong or heard wrong. Please be with me, for I want to see correctly. This is a very difficult role."

"‘This is known, Child."

"So, this winter will be very cold, but next summer will be very hot?"

"Child, you will see much snow and flooding. It will be very cold, and then you will see many floods. Many will be unable to plant crops and the summer will bring much drought. Now, Child, let us continue. Take the red envelope given to you of the angel Kikiara, and read as written."

"My Lord, I have opened this envelope, and have taken out a piece of white paper, folded in half. The writing is golden, I believe. A white light hits me in the face from this writing and it is so bright that I cannot read what is written."

"Adjust your Son-glasses."

"I have done so and I see a radiant writing of white light."

"Child, reach and touch the lettering, which is raised and read what is written."

"My Lord, it says, ‘You will be shocked within the next 45 days.’ I don’t get it."

"Child, take the raised letters and place them on the tray before you."

"My Lord, these letters have come tumbling off this page and onto the tray. The brightness is incredibly blinding!"

"Reach out, Child. Touch the letters. What do you see?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, the letters have fallen onto the tray, and have taken the shape of a door. It is a radiant, white door with a simple, bright, golden knob. Around the door are radiant facings made of white light."

"Go through the door."

"My Lord, I have opened the door, and have entered through it. As I do so, a rushing sound follows me. I am standing here by a rail and see a nun with a rosary. She is kneeled at this rail, praying and she looks so young, kind and delicate."

"Go up to her and tap her on the shoulder. Tell her not to worry; for, her son shall be fine."

"Her son? She is a nun."

"Child, do as told."

"My Lord, I shall. I touch her shoulders and she turns into a very old, wrinkled woman. She is not a nun, yet, she is praying. When I tell her that her son will be fine, she jumps up, grabs me and hugs me. My Lord, I do not know what to make of it. Suddenly, she is gone and I confused."

"Are you surprised, Child?"

"Surprised is a good word, My Lord. Yet, I am also confused."

"Why confused, Child?"

"I do not know why you gave me this experience."

"Child, the old woman is a beggar, who was once a nun."

"I still do not understand."

"Child, open your hand and read the scroll."

"My Lord, the scroll reads:

PERSEVERANCE IN ME
I have neither given you burdens to bear,
When your back was too small to bear them,
Nor pails to carry,
When there was no destination to carry them to.
Neither have I promised you rain,
With no intentions of raining.
Nor brought gray skies at eve
With no promise of night.
Neither have I brought birds of spring,
When no Spring was in sight.
Nor allowed waters to flood
With no signal of cresting.
I have not made young old
With no rime or reason.
I have kept my promise.
I have brought slow faith.
I have moved with slow precision;
Yet, precision, no one can doubt.
I have carved mountains from glaciers,
And made canyons from rivers.
I have hung stars in balance,
And made constellations the homes of your brothers and sisters.
I have harbored no ill will
When you have waved Me good-bye.
I have taken you in
When you were destitute and hungry.
Yet, you have accursed Me
And made Me desolate in your minds.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

You have deserted Me in you home,
In your heart and your life.
I remember the hardships
You have suffered for Me.
I remember your prayers and accolades,
Your wishes, your hopes, cast in my direction.
I am neither deaf, nor blind.
I am neither distant, nor afar.
I am in your midst,
And I know your every move.
I watch you sleep,
I watch you wake.
I watch your children,
I watch your old.
You change with time,
And, so does My place in you.
I cannot desert you,
For, I am bound to you.
But, I can chastise you,
And I can reward you.
I can claim you,
The ones, who claim Me.
If you forget Me, ignore Me, or do not know Me,
I do not forget you.
Yet, I cannot give you the same place in My heart,
Reserved for those, who obey Me, who truly love Me.
See the chariots, see the white fire chariots.
Mine will ride in these under My power.
True rewards await those who bow to Me, who obey Me,
Who honor Me through the living of My words;
Yea, true rewards
Unknown in the language of man;

For, you have no words
To describe what awaits.
Come close, My Little Ones, like chicks
Beneath the wings of a mother hen.
Come close
And rest in My peace and security.
For, the world shall be topsy-turvy,
And I shall churn the unfaithful.
As with beaters of a powerful mixer,
I shall churn the rebellious amidst their own mire.
Step forth, My Chicks, step forth!
Come away from the illusion and rest in My hand.
For, soon I take you home;
And you shall never again know such sorrow, such desolation.
Hear the bell!
Hear the trumpet!
For, the trumpeter stands atop My Mountain,
And he begins to sound.
Hear the bell!
'Tis the dinner bell.
It sounds for the feast
I have prepared for My faithful.
Hear the trumpeter!
Hear the trumpeter!
It sounds the beginning of the end
Of the world, as you know it.
Come, Chicks, come!
I call you forth to stand with Me on My Mountain.
Let not the idea of death or derision,
Pestilence, poverty or dearth cause you to fear.
Little Ones,
The world has no more glamour for you.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

WINGS OF HEALING & MAIN-LINE TRAIN

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Welcome to My Mountain, most high and pure. You have come with healing on your mind; and know that this healing comes quickly. See the wings of healing."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Reach and take the wings of healing, Child, and bring them to your chest."

"My Lord, I take these wings of white fire and bring them to my chest. I have never seen healing come on wings."

"Well, you have now. Absorb them, Child, for they are my gift to you. Be healed. Be whole."

"My Lord, I thank you from the depths of my soul."

"Child, you shall see many miracles; do not discount them. Know that I am the source. In the future, you shall use the wings of healing to heal yourself and others."

"My Lord, I am deeply humbled beyond words. I know that through my own merits I am not worthy to receive this gift, that this gift is a pure manifestation of your love to be shared with all, who are sick and dying. No words of gratitude can adequately express my feelings of deep, abiding love toward you."

"These healing wings are a gift from me, though they may not be available to you at all times, as I do not wish to heal some. Others may not truly wish to be healed. At other times, you and the one, who is sick, may have to fast and pray before these healing wings come to you. Now, Child, there is much work to do, as time passes quickly. Many souls shall be lost, so the truth must go out."

"My Lord, please expedite the publishing."

"This shall be so, Child. Now, take the Son-glasses, which you find in your hand, and sit in my chair of truth, power, wisdom and love. Look far below to the base of The Mountain and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, down below I see a black train traveling along with many boxcars full of wood. The train passes through a tunnel with a red caboose trailing behind. As the train passes through the tunnel, it comes to a halt, with the red caboose stopping not far from the dark tunnel.

I see a very long line of Chinese soldiers beginning to enter the train from the caboose. This line extends across sandy plains and seems to come from mountains far in the distance. Search as I may, I cannot see the beginning of this line of soldiers. I watch the soldiers board the train, and as each does so, he tosses a cigarette butt along side the steps. These butts are creating a small pile of smoldering cigarettes; and the soldiers don't seem to notice that they have started a small fire. Each gets on the train, salutes an officer of the Red Chinese Army, and piles into the boxcars with the wood. The soldiers are standing on and around this wood, packed like sardines, as the engine of the train chugs along. On the side of the train are the words, 'Main-Line Train.'

As the train pulls off, I look back at the pile of smoldering cigarette butts and to see a most peculiar thing. The cigarettes have ignited, forming a small fire, which seems to follow the train. Popping, cracking sparks follow alongside the train, reminiscent of the sparks made by a fuse when a stick of explosive is ignited.

In its course, the train travels across great stretches of desert terrain; and nothing is visible in the distance but mountains, which seem to be very far away. Soon, the train comes to a second tunnel, and as it passes through the tunnel, the nose of the train emerges as a subway train in New York City. As it comes to a halt, many, many Chinese soldiers hurriedly exit. They carry machine guns and chase behind a leader, who runs down the street toward The Empire State Building. As they run into the building, I see a flurry of papers whirling about thickly in the air, as if they are caught up in a great wind.

One of these Chinese soldiers throws something into the interior of the building; and as I look closely I see that it is a bomb in a suitcase. Then, the soldiers flee this building; and I see them fan out and go into the Trade Buildings, placing a suitcase in each building. Next, they go to The Statue of Liberty, and in and out other skyscrapers. In each skyscraper, these soldiers leave suitcase bombs, which are set to detonate. Then, I see these soldiers scurry; they run far, far away from the tall buildings. Now, I look to see that Chinese soldiers surround New York City.

I am looking for the number of these suitcase bombs and I see the number '20.' Then, My Lord, I look again to this steady stream of Chinese soldiers; and as I look at them, I am curious about the number of Chinese soldiers coming into this country. I see the words appear, 'in excess of 400,000.' My Lord, I am looking for the date in which these bombs are placed and I see 'December, 1998.' I am searching for the day. Here it is: 'December 12.' My Lord, please explain this to me."

"Child, you see the black train filled with wood as it passes through the first dark tunnel. Look above the tunnel for a label. Go there, peel it back and read what you see."

"My Lord, I am here above this tunnel beside the label. As I pull it open, I see written, 'Clinton's Surprise.' What is meant by 'Clinton's Surprise?'"

"This tunnel."

"Whose tunnel is this?"

"European underground. See them emerge."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, what European underground? As I ask this of you I see some writing emerge before me. It says, ‘NATO, George Bush and Co., German elite, Spanish Inquisition, All hell breaks loose.’ This is what I see, My Lord."

"Then, Child, ‘tis so."

"You mean, through these connections, the Chinese are brought in?"

"Through these and more."

"Like, what?"

"Through your trade agreements, Child, you handed them power over you; and who is most responsible for this?"

"The Congress and Clinton?"

"And, more."

"What do You mean, by ‘more?"’

"Through your shipping fronts, your ports. These avenues have allowed huge numbers of Chinese soldiers onto your soil, unknown to you."

"These soldiers are here, already?"

"And, building all the time."

"So, they have come in, and NATO and others will betray us by allowing others in?"

"‘Tis so, Child. ‘Tis so. You do not know even a small part of what is being done steadily to whip you into shape."

"My Lord, the train travels over great expanses of desert. What does the desert represent?"

"Child, let's go back to the train before it went through the first tunnel. You believed that it was carrying wood, did you not?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Was it carrying wood?"

"I do not know. Where did this train originate?"

"China, of course."

"When it went into the first tunnel I could not see soldiers, only wood. Were the pieces the wood really soldiers made to look like wood?"

"Child, the train went first through the tunnel of obscurity and you did not see what went on in the tunnel, only that it went through the dark tunnel. Is this not so?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, look in the tunnel and see what goes on."

"I am looking, My Lord, and I see the train stop in the tunnel and disappear completely. In its place, I see Chinese peasants getting into dingeys in the middle of the night and paddling out to a large ship called, 'America Bound.' My Lord each looks to be a Chinese peasant; but as each gets on the ship, he salutes officers of the Chinese Military. These so-called peasants go into various rooms at night to study maps and terrain of the USA and cram bits of English; then I see them swear allegiance to China and swear to bring down 'the great whore.'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Each is given a hydrogen cyanide capsule to ingest in case of being caught. I see them look like Chinese soldiers, then peasants, soldiers, then peasants. They hide in various wooden crates beneath rows of manufacturing goods. They are very small people, and two can fit into a single crate, stowed away in secret compartments. When the ship docks in America, some Chinese meet the ship. The soldiers are smuggled off and the crates are filled with stuffing. This is a huge racket and I hear that they are hiding in 'every eighth to tenth crate.' So, they get through the first tunnel and appear to be coming from a desert. Please explain this."

"Child, let's go back to the train and the 400,000 plus Chinese, who ride it. You see them come from hills far away and cross the desert."

"Do you mean actual desert?"

"Child the faraway hills are China and the desert is the USA."

"You mean actual desert?"

"I mean desert of despair; for many of them shall live a desert of despair. And they are doing so, even as I speak."

"So, My Lord, they go from the desert of despair and plant bombs over New York City?"

"This is so, Child, but not just New York City."

"Are there more areas?"

"Primarily, New York City, DC-Maryland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Miami, and Houston."

"But, My Lord, I saw Russians bomb most of these areas."

"'Tis so, Child, these get a heavy dose."

"How many illegal Chinese soldiers are in the USA at this time?"

"Look, Child, 'in excess of 25,000.' Yet, by the time you are invaded, this number will exceed 50,000."

"My Lord, I have seen that 400, 000 come into this land!"

"Child, 400,000 men to rape your women and children. This is partially what is meant by 'snare'; as you have no clue that these, who have total allegiance to China, are within your country."

"Why would they want to bomb San Francisco? There is a Chinatown in San Francisco."

"They consider these to be traitors."

"So, what do they consider us?"

"A whore, a slut, to be reckoned with. Remember that these have been programmed by the state from an early age. The Chinese have sent their most promising, their most faithful, among you."

"So, the Chinese are strongly aligned with the Russians, just to bring us down?"

"Just to bring you down. They despise Christians and a freedom; it must not be allowed. Child, you know who the author of this is."

"Yes, My Lord, it is Satanic to the core."

"Child, blame no one but yourselves. For, you have opened up to this."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I do know this. I do know it. But, I ask, 'Why would they wish to surround New York City, when it will be contaminated with nuclear war?'"

"Child, they do not burn all buildings, but leave some for themselves. They burn all that is green, human, and animal. Do you see? The fire you see sweep the land will leave them access to a part of the city they want."

"But, My Lord, I have seen the ocean move in to reclaim 80% of the city."

"Child, the ocean does eventually reclaim 80% plus, but not at first. Earthquakes will not allow them to keep their plans; but initially they do believe so, and they will set up shop in some of the buildings."

"My Lord, you say 'earthquakes?' When will these take place?"

"See, ' Feb. 2000.' There is more fire with great earthquakes. See the rocks falling from the sky."

"What are these rocks, My Lord?"

"Great meteorites hitting you."

"Why, My Lord?"

"Look at the screen, Child, in front of you. What do you see?"

"I see something pass The Earth, which pulls The Moon from its orbit. The Moon looks like it is tumbling. It is tumbling and the Earth lops over as a planet passes the Earth. Rocks are falling everywhere as the Earth flips over. It looks like the force of this passing planet causes the Earth to flip, and the oceans move in and claim many cities. What am I seeing?"

"You see what has been called by some as 'the lost planet'. Yet, it is not lost to me."

"My Lord, tell me of this planet."

"Child, your science keeps this from you. Since your world will be in chaos, they do not wish you to know. It returns and moves between you and Mars, moving close enough to you to pull the Earth from its orbit. The Moon will roll like a ball, over and over; and it will give no light. The Earth will receive no sun, as great dust clouds shall be stirred everywhere. Many volcanoes on the verge of erupting will erupt, and millions will be swept out to sea as the ocean sets new boundaries. Huge rocks will fall from the sky everywhere. A new continent will rise from The Pacific off the coast of The USA and a series of mountains will rise in the South Pacific. You will know great darkness for three days before the Sun begins to shine again. All these calamities will claim billions of lives." (This is foretold in Isaiah 13:10 and Isaiah 24:1.)

"How many billions?"

"In excess of two. Those near the coast will be inundated with tidal waves greater than 100 feet high, and this water will go inland for 200 miles in some areas. Great mountains will split in half, tossing great boulders into the heavens, which must come down somewhere. Child, many of these huge rocks will come down on you, your cities, your homes, and your animals.

Many animals will become wild; as the disturbance in electrical vibrations created by this approaching planet will affect their sensitive hearing. They will become insane and so will many of you. These vibrations, new to you, will cause many of you to experience temporary insanity, strange illnesses and to exhibit bizarre behavior. These manifestations will begin to show six to eight months before the passing of this planet and continue for six to eight months after it passes."

"My Lord, what shall we do? For, all looks so bad."

"Child, None of you shall escape the effects of my wrath. For, truly, I shall turn your lives upside down and I shall whip many into submission. As I have told you before, all need areas underground. Your military has known about this planet for years; and your space program knows of this approaching planet, even now. Child, they wish to keep you in the dark, that the greatest numbers perish. For, if there are fewer, you will be more easily controlled."

"My Lord, how will the passing of this planet effect the war?"

"Child, you have seen the war escalate and cover Europe. The effects of this planet passing cause many to be even more unstable. The evil ones, seeking world dominion, will be thirstier to run the world; and they will not be slowed. For, they will see how you have been weakened by this great disaster. Those without a strong attachment to Me will be mowed down like grass. For, they will be confused and unstable, Child, like cinders in the wind; and they will be conquered easily."

"So, Germany will rise?"

"Not as easily as they think. For, once you are out of the way, she will have no real friends among the other renegade communists. Yet, they collude in appearances for a while, as you have seen. Eventually, Germans go against the Russians, the Israelis and even against European countries. Germany has no allegiance to anyone; and when her so-called 'allies' find this out, Germany will be no more. This is the intricate web, Child, which is thick with evil; but the Germans will not fall as quickly as many think. The war and catastrophes will go on for years, as you have seen.

Now, Child, your horror is known at all this. Let us stop for a while.

I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Note: Receiving these healing wings led to a complete healing of gallbladder problems, which had plagued me for months. The medical profession had really let me down. Expensive tests indicated a problem with the gallbladder; and even in the face of pain and other problems, the doctor assured me that the gallbladder was fine. .

I call down the power of Almighty God on the lying, stealing and thieving doctors, with whom I have had far too many dealings. Let the wrath of God rest upon them. For, they have come to love a lie, to love the dollar above the welfare of human beings.

I believe that God has shown me so many horrors in the medical profession so that I could speak destruction into a sick system. Praise be to God! Jesus Christ is the Great Physician. I speak this from the depths of my soul, for I know this to be true. Jesus, how great the name!

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

THE HUNCHBACK & THE LAND OF PROMISE

"Precious Child, you have made it to the top of My Mountain though great prayer, humility and desire, brought not on your own power, but on the wings of My Spirit. Look around and see that all is aglow with My Power, My Light and My Spirit. To your ears the Holy Spirit sounds like beautiful wind chimes, but to others it may sound like rushing waters. Even you have perceived it differently at times.

Child, you are concerned about a dream you had last evening. Discount the dream. It is not of me, but an attempt of the evil one to confound you, to cause you to spend precious energies. Remember the three sources of dreams: yourself, the evil one, and Me through My Holy Spirit.

Now, Child, you have questions regarding the messages of the 6th of October and what you will receive within 45 days, which will shock you. It will be a message. Secondly, you have questions about the nun, who turned into a beggar before you very eyes."

"Yes, My Lord, who is this person?"

"This beggar-nun is you in another life. On the outside you may look young, but your spirit is very old, as you have been often to the Earth realm."

"But, why do I look like a beggar?"

"Indeed you are a beggar, even now; for, you come daily to beg before Me, to beg for your family, to beg for your country, to beg for the world. When you pray in tongues, Child, you do not know what you say most of the time; yet, you are begging for the hungry; you are begging for the lost; you are begging for the old and young; you are begging for My mercy."

"My Lord, in the vision I look so ragged, almost toothless and worn out."

"Child, you are weary and you have few teeth, for you have little bite left in you for things of the world. You are very old, as your time grows short on the Earth. Yet, to others and even to yourself, you look young. Remember your dream of wearing a camouflage suit, after which I told you, "All my sheep are camouflaged." You may look to be of the world, but are far from it."

"But, My Lord, please tell me about the necklace I hold."

"Look carefully at the necklace with the cross, surrounded by the beads. Each bead represents one life and each life represents one trip away from Me, the cross in the center. I am the center of these lives, as they originate with Me."

"My Lord, it looks like a rosary."

"Yes, but this is not so."

"Well, why do I look like a nun?"

"In real life you look like a nun."

"How is this? For, I am certainly much different."

"Child, when it is cold do you put on socks and stockings?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"And when it is hot, do you wear fewer clothes?"

"Yes, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Then, when you do My work, you wear the look and you are known and recognized by Me. Child, you entered My door to find this young nun and old woman, and you have gotten a glimpse of yourself. This door is My door within your very heart. Remember: only I can afford you meaning of the symbols."

"My Lord, thank you for revealing this."

"Child, let us proceed; for time grows exceedingly short."

"My Lord, I know this to be true and am concerned about how people will receive these writings before the Great War, unless you provide great miracles."

"Child, I am the miracle maker and you shall see many."

"Now, note that you sit in My chair of love, power, wisdom, truth, honor, peace, joy, miracles and more."

"My Lord, each time I sit here I am aware of the greatness, which resides in You, and I am deeply humbled. I search for adequate words to put to the experiences, but words fail to describe what I see and feel."

"Child, all is known. Now, take the mirror, as given you by Kikiara, and behold what you see. Write as given and observed."

"My Lord, as I look in this mirror I see a hunchback coming from a door in a mountain behind me. The hunchback has a large mole below his huge nose, with ten hairs growing around it. He wears a red, black and white checkered scarf around his neck and carries a cane with a door in the handle. The door opens to show a flight of stairs going straight down into the darkness. Beside the stairs a small light radiates faintly. Looking again at the hunchback, I note that she carries a very large, dark green, metal box on her back, which is partially covered by a dark shawl. Her hands are old, wrinkled and gnarled and she has overgrown, curled, stiff fingernails. When she blinks her eyes, I see dollar signs popping up indicating varying amounts from $1.45 to three trillion. Her walk is that of a robot and she seems to have gears in her back, which propel her legs and arms in a jerky slow motion. As she walks, her head turns slowly and mechanically from side to side.

She leaves the door in the mountain and goes forth slowly at first, but as she descends the road she picks up speed. Her legs and arms move like a toy soldier in rapid motion and her head wobbles rapidly from side to side and up and down. Her eyes bat feverishly and the dollar signs keep on rolling by. Her feet have broad bases, which remind me of military tanks, and they grind forward with surety over rocks and rubble. Someone hidden beneath the cape is in full control of the hunchback.

Looking back at the door coming from the mountain, I see that there is a sign above the door, which reads ‘Land of Promise.’ This noted, I am very interested to see who is controlling the gears of this machine. As I look beneath the cape, I see Saddam Hussein sitting in the dark lifting levers and shifting gears. Above him is a dark box called ‘ready to detonate.’ My Lord, what is this hunchback?"

"Child, see ‘Arab Alliance’ written across her forehead."

"Yes, My Lord, but please explain the mole and the ten hairs."

"Israel is the mole and the ten hairs are Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Turkey, Jordan, Syria, Kuwait, Oman, Lebanon, Afghanistan."

"What about Saudi Arabia."

"See the space between the first and the tenth hair."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Saudi Arabia shall emerge in this space. There are nine additional tiny hairs, which you cannot see in this space; and they represent others in this alliance."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Why does the hunchback come from ‘The Land of Promise?’"

"What is ‘The Land of Promise?’"

"Israel."

"‘Tis so, as you see them gather around her."

"My Lord, what am I beholding?"

"You are beholding Saddam Hussein gathering up allies, gearing up for war with a mighty machine."

"Kuwait will ally with this evil after we came to their rescue?"

"Child, birds of a feather…"

"I know, My Lord, they flock together."

"But some of the ones, who are flocking, must not be of the same feather."

"‘Tis true, Child. These are the smaller hairs far in the background; but they have a common purpose, which is to bring down the one in their midst they call ‘the great whore.’"

"My Lord, who is the great whore, as spoken in Revelation? The United States of America or the Catholic Church?"

"Child, see the whore, who sells Me for money."

"You mean, the Pope and his cohorts?"

"‘Tis true, Child, but there is more."

"Please explain."

"See the religious machine including the International Council of Churches, which aligns with The Beast System to feed you lies. All, who sell Me, make up the great whore."

"The USA is called a whore."

"'Tis so, Child; the USA is a whore, even as your accusers label you; for you have fornicated with nations. But make the distinction--the great whore sells Me."

"My Lord, I know you have shown these countries surrounding Israel for a reason."

"Yes indeed, Child. Behold missiles from this machine firing upon Tel Aviv."

"Yes, My Lord, I see. What is this date?"

"See … '1999.' Once the USA is gone, these countries move to attack Israel."

"Surely, Israel will know of their planned attack."

"Child, once Israel sees what they have done to you, she will be on red alert. You have seen that Israel calls on those, who should be her allies, but gets little help."

"What happens?"

"Look at the barricades around Israel. They will fight a terrible war, and through this war Tel Aviv will be nuked by the Saddam Hussein machine; but the Israelis will send nuclear bombs amidst the Iranians, Pakistanis, Iraqis and the Lebanese. Child, look at Israel. She is bombarded with biological and chemical agents, nerve gas, and explosives. She is severely crippled, but receives a steady stream of supplies from various ones all over Europe, Canada, and South America. Jews all over the world are determined that Israel will not go through another holocaust. The Israeli flag is tattered and in shreds, but these people persevere. They have large amounts of food and supplies stored within the earth that the world does not know about, and unlike you, they have known for years that they would be invaded. Also, unlike you their flag will fly for several years."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I have seen them fall in 2001."

"Child, for all practical purposes they come under the rule of The United Nations One World Government in this year. The USA falls to this communist rule much sooner."

"My Lord, what has happened to Russia in all this?"

"Hard line, Child, very hard line. These hard liners have gone in with the intent to kill all capitalists and restore a tight control over the Russian Confederation. There is much slaughter on the internal scale, for these are determined to do away with all freedoms. The people are frightened as they see many hundreds of thousands die in the gas chambers and before the firing squads. They cannot feed their prisoners, so they kill most of them. Food will be scarce."

"While the foreign alliance is destroying the USA, does the USA not get any fire on others?"

"Child, who gives the orders? Who declares war? Your draft-dodging president. Remember, you are controlled from within and without. Clinton has been promised a world leadership position and his heart yearns for this great power and recognition. Do you remember that Clinton knew of the drugs being run into Arkansas by you own government planes? Have you forgotten this? When he saw this gross decadence and even death due to the running of these drugs into Arkansas, what did he do? Did he not drag his feet and offer a minuscule amount of money to research this? In the end, he did nothing and was elected president from relative obscurity."

"Yes, My Lord, many are aware that he was told of the government planes flying into the remote airfields of Arkansas and did nothing, even in the face of murder there."

"Not only did he do nothing, but colluded with these evil ones to run drugs and pay for secret CIA work. He helped create drug addicts, kill innocent children, and feed a secret society, whose intent is to do away with your constitution. Many think that he is not colluding with these dark groups to bring your demise? Child, he is in on your demise."

"Will do a token amount to protect us when the war starts?"

"Token, indeed! His aim is to get your guns and he will never do this legally. He is being told one thing by his comrades, but will see another unfold. Remember what you have seen of him and the Queen. This will come to pass."

"You mean, the money for the piece of royalty?"

"'Tis so, Child. He is head of your armed services and he is a traitor. Your country will fall like a dry haystack in a fire. Need more be said on this? Think and observe, Child. Then you will clearly see what is unfolding."

"So, a weapon or two may be fired toward Russia. This is about all?"

"'Tis so, Child. See her smoldering in some of the larger cities. But, you will be hit hard from many sides and you will be paralyzed quickly. The evil world leaders have Clinton over a barrel; he will be given a fancy UN Title, but he will not survive long. They will take him out, as they have no use for a weak link, a traitor."

"So, the UN will come right into the USA for the takeover?"

"Yes, Child, the UN and NATO will bring foreign troops to invade you, to kill you, and to shut down your churches. You will see the communist UN rise with Germany at its head. But, this is for a while only, as you have seen."

"So, the UN and NATO will support the fall of Israel?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"'Tis so, Child, for Israel must go. This is one of Satan's priorities."

"My Lord, I wish a better picture of this, but as I am somewhat tired, I ask to proceed on this another time."

"'Go under My Power and know that you shall begin to work many miracles.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

MORE PROMISE OF HEALING

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. See the angel Kikiara before you. Accept the shawl, bearing My stripes; for you have begged to be healed of infirmities and you shall be. You have been told ten days for the gallbladder to be healed. Test this; hold Me to My word; for My word is truth. Continue with the fast; I honor your fasts before Me. Neither look to the rear nor sides, but straight ahead; keep your attention on Me.

Many impurities are being released in your system at once. Type as you can and I will bring you back to the Mountain when you have more energy and are more focused. Neither I nor My angels have deserted you; for, I am always with you.

The gallbladder has been feeding poisons into your system for months, and your liver has become overloaded with toxins. The milk thistle three times a day will help, also take 1000 mg of vitamin C once a day, along with colon cleanse in the AM. Within five days of the beginning of this fast, you will be able to feel a great difference as the sluggishness starts to move on. I am with you, Child. I hear your prayers and have not deserted you. Reach out and take the nectar brought you on the tray by the angel; for, it will strengthen you."

"My Lord, I have taken the nectar from the tray and consumed the whole glass. My heart is full of deep gratitude toward you. Please hear and answer my prayer requests."

"Child, you shall receive answers for all requests. For some requests the door is open. For others the door is closed."

"For which is the door closed?"

"For the monetary request, the door is closed for now, see. But, the door can be opened through prayer and fasting of those involved."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, we humbly give our prayers and fasts."

"Child, you are up against Satan, himself."

"But, My Lord, remember the hearts of the sincere. Shall we not take power over him and be victorious? I lay this before you, My Lord. We need financial miracles and so do many of your children."

"Child, you shall see financial miracles, but perhaps not as you think."

"Then, how, My Lord?"

"See the book, printed and rolling off the press."

"Yes, My Lord, but how and when?"

"Soon, Child."

"My Lord, what of a move?"

"Look toward another land."

"How shall this be? We know no one."

"But, you shall."

"Thank you for all, My Lord."

"Child, go in me.

For, I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

In a prayer on the 6th of November, Jesus told me that I would be healed of the terrible gallbladder problem within ten days. Above, he is recalling to my mind what he said previously.

The gallbladder problem was healed within the timeframe given of God. The financial door was closed on the matter prayed about and the first book of prophecies was published in March 1998.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

CLINTON FALLS OUT WITH QUEEN ELIZABETH,

THE ROTHSCHILD BACKLASH,

THE DEMISE OF CLINTON…

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Your fasts are honored and your prayers are heard. Welcome to My Mountain, most high and pure. Angels await you, for you are cherished; and I honor what you attempt to do. Child, sit now in my chair of truth, honor, love, obedience, power, wisdom and miracles abundant. You come and pray long in tongues, unaware what you speak. But often, you call to pass miracles, which you are unaware of. When I bless one with the speaking of tongues through My Spirit, this language is My gift, Child, and can be received in no other way.

In your mind, you ask if Satan also provides a gift of speaking in tongues. Child, all spiritual gifts are of Me, yet for all My gifts Satan has a counterfeit. The speaking of tongues without the presence of the Holy Spirit is null and void, for My Spirit brings the language. Many may utter foreign words and say that they are of Me, but if My Spirit is not present, these words are meaningless.

Child, remember that Satan is the great counterfeiter, and he offers a copy of whatever I do, yet one full of holes. Only My Holy Spirit can teach you about these counterfeits through My Gift of Discernment; you will not be able to discern them through human reasoning.

Now, Child, we shall continue today with post-invasion visions of The United States. Take my son-glasses and look far below to the base of The Mountain. Write as given and seen."

"My Lord, I am looking far below and I see a Chinese soldier in an army-green military suit with orange trim on the sleeves. The boots of this soldier have the words, ‘peace keeper.' I see the soldier stop an older Cadillac convertible at a four-way-stop. The soldier stops the driver and reaches for his license; but there is a glare on it from this vantagepoint, and I cannot discern the picture on the license. In Jesus' name, I command this glare to disappear and all information to be perfectly visible! A face clearly emerges on the license, and it is that of Bill Clinton, minus most of his teeth, with a German cross imprinted on his forehead. He sits calmly in the car conversing with the Queen of England. Clinton is wearing a light blue suit and very large, black, military boots, while the Queen is bedecked with a heavily jeweled crown, and many strands of diamonds hang around her neck. Dripping from her arms are many jeweled bracelets, and diamonds cover her high-healed pumps.

As the soldier motions Clinton and the Queen through the stop sign, I see a large military truck come to a halt on Clinton's right. The large bed of the truck is covered with a heavy, army green military canvas concealing many American soldiers in shackles, who are seated facing one another. Each soldier feverishly swallows a mouthful of Jim Beam Whiskey from an open quart bottle and passes it to the next. On the floor between the two rows of soldiers is a box with eight full and ten empty bottles of whiskey. As the truck moves through the stop sign, the bottles make a clinking noise; otherwise, there is little sound, except for an occasional belch. The sign on the outside of the truck reads 'Convoy to hell.'

Clinton cruises through the stop sign ahead of the soldiers, then reaches over and touches the Queen on the leg. Immediately, she slaps his face and continues to do so until his face is red like a beet. Then, she slaps his hands until they are a deep crimson 'Sure looks rainy out today,' Clinton says. But the Queen opens the door and attempts to get out of the running car. She looks at Clinton in terror and gasps, for there many snakes dancing, darting wildly in all directions from his head. Terrified, jumps from the running vehicle and tumbles headlong down a steep embankment. In the fall, part of her lace dress tears away, because it is caught in the console between the seats. Bill Clinton sees the Queen tumble headlong down the steep embankment, but he is mesmerized by the piece of royalty he holds between his hands. 'Ah, the smell of royalty,' he utters.

The Queen tumbles over many rocks and lands in a pile of mud at the base of a hill. Her head is wobbling from the weight of the crown and she struggles to maintain her royal stance.

Bill Clinton stops the car, puts it in reverse and gets out. As he looks far below, he sees the Queen deep in the mire, struggling to hold up her head beneath the weight of the crown. From atop the mountain, he calls to the Queen and begs her, 'Come back Elizabeth, come back! Elizabeth, you know I won't hurt you.' 'The hell you won't!' Elizabeth shouts. 'You are a monster, a tick, trying to bleed me dry! I spit on you!' Then, she spits in his direction.

Bill Clinton charges down the steep embankment, his Medusa head dancing wildly with the snakes, and he finds the Queen sitting on a rock, weeping. 'You have destroyed my dress,' she wails at Clinton. 'Look! You have torn a hole in my best dress!'

Bill Clinton knew that he had tucked a portion of the Queen's dress into the console between the seats and closed the lid on it. While the Queen watched the scenery, Clinton schemed about getting a piece of royalty. Her torn dress was a deliberate act and he knew it, but she had not seen it coming. 'You are making me a mockery before my people, and I shall eradicate you!' the Queen shouts.

'I only wanted my share,' Clinton says. 'Here, I will split this with you.' And, Clinton gives back half of the piece he holds in his hands.

The Queen stops sobbing for a moment and takes the piece of dress Clinton offers her. She looks at the torn piece in her hands and then at the stolen piece in his hands and growls, 'You have not seen the depth of my anger! I shall bury you, you infidel!' Then, the Queen charges ahead over slippery rocks, along creek beds, hopping from one stone to another, trying desperately to keep her dress out of the mud.

Bill and his snakes run up the hill to the waiting convertible. He travels the road alone and follows the creek bed for miles, watching the Queen below as she struggles to maintain her head erectly beneath the weight of the crown. She bogs up to her knees in mud at times, all the time holding her royal dress high to keep it out of the mire. 'Please come back. Please come back,' Clinton yells to the Queen from above. 'We need you on our side at the summit.' The Queen looks his way and gives him the finger. 'Not as long as I live, traitor!' she huffs.

Bill Clinton continues to follow the winding road as it goes to the top of the mountain. At the top of the mountain, he gets out of his Cadillac and goes into the cave, labeled 'Rothschild Manor.' In the cave he sees the Rothschild man and the Pope. The Pope is stretched out over three chairs placed side by side; he is sleeping and Clinton finds himself face to face with the 'R' man in the manor. 'Get me some stinging nettles,' the Rothschild man calls to his help. 'I shall have to sting this one a little.'

Clinton pays no attention; for, he believes the 'R' man is speaking of the Pope. A maid, wearing a black and white apron and bearing the name 'Costa Rica', brings the nettles to the 'R' man. Straightaway, he tosses the pan full of nettles onto Clinton and they stick into his face, penetrate his clothes and bury into his body. Even the hissing snakes are full of nettles and are writhing in agony from the stings. Clinton begins to itch and scratch and complains, 'Why have you done this to me? I have done everything you asked.'

'You have been keeping company with that whore,' the 'R' man snarls.

'What whore?' Clinton asks.

'Your finances, your economy, that is the whore! You have aided and abetted. You have lied, forsaken and stolen. You have trampled and mangled for your own sake and now I shall trample and mangle you. I shall cause you to writhe like the snake you are. I know of your dalliance with the Queen; for, I see all and I know all. Lucifer is my king and he supplies my every desire and need. You have failed Lucifer and you shall die.'

Clinton gets up and attempts to run from the Rothschild Manor; but he finds himself suddenly in chains. From his head to his feet he is bound in chains, even the snakes are wrapped in chains. The chains are wrapped tight around Clinton's waist and he is gasping for air. 'Help me! Help me! I am smothering!' Clinton gasps.

The 'R' man gets up from the table, opens the front door of the cave and kicks Clinton down the mountain. Clinton falls into the stream below and hits his head on a giant bolder. On the boulder is written 'From here to eternity.' One by one, the snakes begin to die, hissing until their final breath. Then, Clinton's head sinks slowly into the muck and the mire as he gurgles his last words, 'I want my mama.' Clinton is dead.

A large black vulture sits in a naked tree above the dead body of Clinton. The large, black vulture descends upon Clinton in the cold of winter and begins to pick his bones. On the chest of this black vulture is a black door and every hour on the hour, a little golden chick bursts through the door, and sings:

'I am a big, old, nasty bird.
Cling to me, to my every word.
Inside you see my heart is pure.
For, my words are those of an innocent babe.
A babe, a babe, a babe am I.
Powerless to kill, powerless to steal.
See my chick, see my chick,
Harmless as a dove, harmless as a dove!'

My Lord, who is this vulture?"

"Child, look on the talons and read."

"I see Germany, Canada, England, France, USA, Italy, and four talons with no writing."

"No writing that you can see."

"So, this vulture consisting of these countries eats Clinton's bones?"

"'Tis this and more."

"Why?"

"They are hungry, thirsty for blood."

"You mean, even Canada?"

"Even Canada, as you will see."

"My Lord, I look back now to the bones of Clinton, which are being pushed slowly into the mire of this stream by this swift current."

"But, Child, this is not all. Look back to the cave."

"My Lord, I am in the cave, and I see the 'R' man with the Pope. The Pope seems to be in some sort of semi-conscious state and the 'R' man has a stethoscope listening to the Pope's heart. 'Barely breathing,' he says. 'We must move fast. Call in the calvary; for, we shall need backups.' Then, he dials 911. 'Get me a pony and a buggy! It is now or never.' Then, the 'R' man passes through some curtains into the back part of the cave. There, he sees a belly dancer, who is pregnant. The belly dancer wears a headband, which says, 'Jewel of the Nile.' Her feet are huge and do not match her body in size.

'Look,' he says to the Jewel of the Nile. 'We have to do some hot stepping. Can you do this for me? We must begin to plan what we shall do next; for soon, we shall dissolve the Papacy. A new day is coming, a New World with a new order to things and the old must be done away with.'

The Jewel of the Nile scratches her deep, black hair and dandruff starts to fall on her shoulders. The more she scratches the greater the amount of falling dandruff. Finally, the pile of dandruff is up to her ankles, then up to her knees, but she continues to stand there, looking more puzzled and scratching continually. The dandruff continues to build up to her hips, then to her waist, and finally up to her neck. ‘Stop scratching your head, idiot!’ the Rothschild man growls. ‘You are causing an overflow. Clean up this mess! We have work to do!’ But, when the Jewel tries to walk, she slips and falls into the huge pile of dandruff. The ‘R’ man turns around and his eyes are racing ‘round and ‘round in his head. ‘I will make a grease spot of you. Now, get up and get to work! Clean it up!’

The poor Jewel gets up and gets a broom and a dustpan. She sweeps and sweeps, and sweeps. Yet, there is no receptacle big enough to hold the huge pile of dandruff. So, she puts the dandruff in a pile at the back of the cave. By the time it is cleaned up, the Jewel is extremely tired and she puts her head down on the table to take a nap. Immediately, she begins to dream.

In the dream, Saddam Hussein appears in full military attire with a machine gun in his hand. He stands beside the road as Clinton’s unmanned convertible comes rolling by. Hussein takes his machine gun and shoots out the tires of the moving vehicle. ‘Stop that car! Stop that car,’ he commands. ‘Stop that car, it belongs to me! Stop it! Stop it!’ Several soldiers run out to stop the runaway car. One soldier jumps into the car, pulls the keys from the ignition and puts his foot on the brake; but the engine keeps racing loudly. When the soldier lets loose of the brake, the car takes off again. Hussein walks over to the car and says, ‘Get over, soldier. I will ride this car!’ He hops behind the driver’s seat and gets ready to ride, but as Hussein gets into the back seat, a hidden US soldier jumps on Hussein and begins to beat him over the head and shoulders. Hussein is bruised a little, but the soldier, driving the car, turns around and kills the American soldier. Then, Hussein throws acid on the American soldier and tries to dissolve him. ‘This machine is mine,’ Hussein says, ‘ and I shall run it!’

Hussein gets behind the wheel of the car and pushes the gas pedal, but he hears a dragging noise. He looks back and sees large chains coming from the rear of the car. The chains are connected to a heavy metal object, which drags loudly. On the side of the wide, heavy, metal object are the words, ‘House and Senate.’

‘Cut ‘em loose!’ Hussein ordered. The soldier, riding with Hussein, takes a hatchet and pounds the chains with force, but every time the soldier hits the chains sparks fly but nothing more. The soldier continues to hammer away, but he only makes small dents in the metal.

‘Give me the acid,’ Hussein says, and he pours the acid on the chains. The acid is powerful, but it cuts into the chains only a little. ‘Get me a tractor!’ Hussein yells. ‘We shall hook up these chains and pull this metal off the car!’ So, he hooks up the tractor to the heavy metal object with the chains, and he pulls and pulls. In a while, there is a snap. The chains have been broken from the car, and with the chains come the ‘House and Senate.’

The car moves forward with Saddam Hussein at the wheel. On the hood of the car are the words,‘New Boss.’ Yellow petals come down all over Hussein from the windows of apartments as he goes down the streets. ‘My home, my home. I shall never desert you,’ he tells the Iraqis, who cheer him.

My Lord, this is overwhelming.

"Yes, Child, ‘tis so. Let us continue another time. Finish the typing of the rest. For, publication of same must be done."

"Yes, My Lord."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

MORE ON ILLUMINATI HISTORY

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Sit and write from atop the Mountain; for your cries have been heard to the heavens. Time is short to get these messages out and you need great discipline to get them typed, so that they can be published."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, climb into My chair of power, wisdom abundant, knowledge, miracles and more. You shall need to prepare your son-glasses for microscopic vision; for, you shall need to look far below. Write as seen, and given."

"My Lord, I am looking far below and find myself in a room. There is a man in this room, pacing back and forth, who appears to be George Washington; but as I look at him man I know that he is wearing a disguise. When he takes off the disguise, I see that he is a younger Ronald Reagan."

"'Tis so, Child."

"Why the disguise?"

"What is before him, Child?"

"The Declaration of Independence. This George Washington/Ronald Reagan enigma looks admiringly at this document and seems to be pleased. There are others in this room, where a celebration is unfolding. He approaches others with the 'high-five' sign, slapping their hands with glee. I look outside and see abundant snow on dark, narrow streets, and with the exception of several horses tied to posts just outside the door, all seems rather deserted. Inside, Washington rolls up the Declaration of Independence and puts it under his arm; then, he takes a lantern, leaves the festivities, and heads down the snow-filled street. He follows the street a short distance and comes to a door, which is labeled 'Martha Washington.' He knocks on the door and much to my surprise Nancy Reagan answers the door. She invites him into a modest house and they sit at a table for two.

'The Yankees are coming,' he says. 'We must bed down for the night.' Then, they put on their nightcaps and go to bed. At 1:00 AM there are three, strong knocks at the front door. A very large man, resembling the late Dan Blocker, stands at the door and says, 'The Yankees are coming, we must prepare.' The two dress hurriedly and go outside into the cold night air, where the snow is falling steadily. Martha takes a broom and begins to sweep aside the snow, but it falls faster that she can sweep.

'Get into the carriage!' George exclaims. 'Hurry, the Yankees are coming!' Hurriedly, Martha jumps into the carriage and the fat man drives. The roads are very rocky and Martha's hat keeps falling over to one side. Washington blurts out, 'What shall we do about the Melai Massacre?' Martha pretends not to hear and keeps on knitting. As they travel on, they come to a small stream called 'The Stream of Life,' and they cross it. It is rocky, indeed, but they go over, even though the carriage sways from side to side. 'Get me some lotion, Martha,' George commands. 'My hands are chapped, and this journey shall be long.'

Martha pulls a bottle of Jergens Lotion from her purse and oils his hands and feet. Washington is beginning to look very old; his hair is white and sparse and his face is chapped. 'What shall we do, Martha? The Yankees are coming and they shall kill us, surely.'

'Dear, we shall ride the West Wind. Ride the West Wind!' In the flight on the West wind, the two get caught up in cinders. Gray-black cinders cover them and Martha says, 'I despise soot. Look at us. We are black with filth.'

'Yes,' Reagan says, 'but, we have reached our destination; we are at the base of the mountain. See the writing of the mountain, ILLUMINATI WELCOMES YOU, WELCOME HOME.'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

At the base of the mountain is a black door, through which both enter, awaited by cheering crowds. Then, they lie on conveyor belts and travel down them until they end in front of steam pressers, like those found in laundries. Both Ronald and Nancy pass through the steamers and are ironed flat. Someone dressed in white, with a chef's hat, takes them off the conveyor and stands them up. At first, they look like cardboard cutouts, but soon they begin to expand on their own. As they come to life, they begin mingling with in the crowd.

As I look over the crowd, I see George Bush, President Carter, Gerald Ford, Lyndon Johnson at the bar drinking one shot of whiskey behind the other, Clinton, Gore, of course the 'R' man, Queen Elizabeth, Newt Gingrich, and an array of other people I do not recognize. I see a famous movie director from Los Angeles, Henry Kissinger, and Barbara Walters, hobbling on a cane. Nearby is Diane Sawyer. There are many at this gathering, who embrace evil."

"Yes, Child, 'tis so."

"My Lord, why did you show me this?"

"To show you something about the history of your country."

"So, George Washington was of The Illuminati?"

"'Tis so."

"Ronald Reagan is the spirit of George Washington?"

"Back again."

"Looks like he picked the same wife?"

"Have you not seen it?"

"Yes, My Lord. Washington had much to do with the founding of our country, yet he loved the secret societies of evil?"

"Both George and Martha were caught up in this evil."

"Who are the 'Yankees?'"

"Those they consider infidels."

"What do you mean?"

"Those opposed to Illuminati causes."

"Why would they be concerned about this?'

"Threats to power, Child."

"We believe that good men founded this country, but it was a haven for Luciferians from the beginning."

"The wheat grow with the tares."

"Why were they so eager to get away from the 'Yankees?'"

"They had a dread, a fear of being caught."

"So, they carried this fear with them when they crossed the stream of consciousness?"

"'Twas one rocky road."

"Why did they make a decision to go west in this life?"

"To get away from Washington and their past."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"But they went back to Washington."

"Yes, indeed. For, unresolved conflicts draw one to the same places and situations."

"Explain the cinders and the soot."

"What do you believe this to be?"

"When they died they were caught up in darkness."

"This and more."

"Please explain."

"Where there's smoke, there's fire."

"They went to hell?"

"Were they not black with soot?"

"Yes, My Lord. If they went to hell last time for their secret, dark doings, why did they come back and get into the Illuminati darkness again?"

"Birds of a feather."

"Reagan could be so charming."

"Charming, indeed, just as Clinton is charming. Those, who follow Lucifer, can be the smoothest, the most charming of all."

"My Lord, why was Martha trying to sweep the snow at night?"

"What is the snow?"

"I cannot be sure."

"Drought of the soul."

"Like a cold soul?"

"Exactly."

"So, she was trying to expunge guilt by her actions?"

"Expunge coldness, absence of Me."

"My Lord, they entered the cave and went down the conveyor through the presses. What does this mean?"

"Through ritual, Child, their humanness has been ironed out. They came out stiff from ironing and then became the life of the illuminati party, did they not?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, ‘tis so, in real life."

"Reagan has seemed so easy-going."

"In some ways, yes. Where he is lacking, Nancy supplies the iron."

"This is most amazing."

"Amazing, yes, how the Luciferians have managed to control you from atop since the beginning."

"And, we hadn’t a clue."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Neither, do many of them, Child. They just feel the pull of like mind and spirit and they travel it."

"With these at the top, how have we managed to stay afloat as long as we have?'

"Child, you have had many in your government, who were not Luciferians."

"Like John Kennedy, perhaps? Was he killed because he would not go along with the Luciferian plans?"

"He was killed because he would not accept their plans for world expansion."

"You mean, the New World Order?"

"This and more."

"Like, what?'

"He would not smoke the 'big cigar.' See the 'big cigar.'"

"My Lord, I see a big cigar, which reads 'Money changers.' The cigar has a brown door, which opens to a dark stairway, which has a single light on the wall."

"Go down the stairway."

"My Lord, I have done so; it is exceedingly cold here at the base of these stairs and the wind is howling, like an Arctic wind. I see a steel-gray, metal door in front of me."

"Push open the door.'

"I have done so and find myself amidst great boulders of ice, and snow is all about. I see an office in the rear of the room and the lower part of this office is wooden, but the upper part is glass, and I can see into the room. The door to the office has writing, which says, ‘Rothschild only;’ and I see one of the ‘R’ family in the office chewing up a huge cigar and spitting out the chewed up pieces. Incredibly, he is spitting out these chewed up pieces, spit and all, into ice trays and freezing this concoction in various freezers, lining the walls and hallways, as far as I can see. Looking beneath, I see three basements full of these ice trays. So, My Lord, this ‘R’ man was in on the death of JFK because he would not play and pay the Illuminati way?"

"This, and more."

"Like, what?"

"Like, whom?"

"My Lord, whom?"

"Child, who has his nose up the rear end of this ‘R’ man?"

"Lyndon Johnson. You mean, he knew?"

"Not only did he know, he was an active player."

"Did Oswald fire the shots that killed Kennedy?"

"Child, you know the story. He was a plant. The real shots came from elsewhere, from those within your own government, from your own Illuminati secret service. Child, why do you believe them to be called ‘Secret?’"

"Because their deeds are so evil, and they must work in darkness that others not know."

"‘Tis so, Child. Like attracts like."

"My Lord this is chilling and dark to the core."

"Yes, indeed, Child, the Illuminati have controlled nearly 2/3 of your presidents."

"Now, we find out. All the time, we believed we had a democracy."

"Child, you have had a battle ground, where good and evil have fought for control. At least, you have had this chance, but this has changed dramatically. The evil ones have gained control of your legislative bodies, where they get their way 95 to 100% of the time. These evil ones have you sewed up. They own you; they own your media and work to destroy your youths. You are decadent and this is why you must go as a nation."

"My Lord, I know and the fall comes swiftly."

"'Tis so, Child, as you are ripe. Go in me.

I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

THE PAGE OF TIME

"Precious Child, through great prayer and supplication, you have been brought to this upper room of My Mountain, most pure. You have asked for healing for the painful area beneath your clavicle, and this shall be given readily to you. Before this day is gone, so will this pain be gone. You asked for healing of the muscle spasms in your neck and shoulder, and were told that this would be so within 24 hours. And, as you see, this has been so, with no effort on your part. You are experiencing some of the miraculous; for I healed you of this problem, which would have sent you to a doctor. Remember, Child, I am the greatest physician.

Now, as for another praying against you, he is blinded but I shall make him see. In the interim, I return his arrows to his feet; for if he used My gift of discernment, he would know that you serve Me, Your Lord Jesus Christ, one with Jehovah. Child, you find yourself on a new level, where the energies are more radiant, and there is no need to walk; for you need only to image, and it is so. In time, you will learn to come here and create great miracles on Earth; but your focus now is on the written word, of which I am the author.

Child, go to the desk in front of you and sit, though this is not necessary; for you can suspend yourself easily in these energies, but your mind and spirit are not accustomed to this. So, sit, take the quill, and place one drop of living water from the quill onto the page of time. Record as seen and given."

"My Lord, I see what you mean about this new level; I am so light that I am floating above the chair. Yet, I am at such peace that this does not bother me; the beauty of this light is deeply soothing.

I place one drop of living water on the page and as it falls gently from this quill, I see a door of radiant, golden-white light emerge. Across the door is the date, '2002', which quickly dissolves in pure, white light, and the door opens slowly to show Queen Elizabeth giving some keys to a woman. ‘Keys to my kingdom,’ she says. Queen Anne reaches out and takes the keys; then I see the body of the Queen, as it lies in state. The door closes slowly and the vision is gone."

"Proceed again, Child."

"My Lord, from the quill comes another drop of living water, which falls gently on the page of time, and a deep blue radiance hits me in the face. It fades quickly to a pale blue, like that of a clear stream, and within it I see an image of Prince Charles of England, standing beside a white horse. Camilla Parker Bowles comes beneath the belly of the horse and takes his hand; then they walk to a simple, wooden buggy for two and climb in. As they ride away, I see a ‘Just Married’ sign on the back of the carriage. A large, black horse pulls the buggy; and with each step it keeps sinking deeper into the red mud until it finally disappears. Charles gets out, stares at the horseless carriage and scratches his head as dandruff falls all over him. He sees that they have the carriage but no power. Charles goes up to Camilla and kisses her hand, which is radiant with diamonds. ‘I am not concerned about my future. I have you,’ he says. ‘We shall retire to the country home.’ Then the two begin to walk toward the Scottish country home; and they are within clear sights of the home when a helicopter appears. A soldier in the helicopter puts a megaphone to his mouth yells, ‘Charles, come back. The Queen needs you. She is dying.’

As the helicopter flies away, Charles looks at Camilla and utters, ‘The old bloke. We have our lives. Let us leave them in peace.’ Charles closes the wrought iron gates in front of his Scottish home and on the gates are the words, ‘sinister works.’ Once inside the castle, Charles paces back and forth and exclaims, ‘Oh, what use am I to this kingdom!? Let her rest in peace!’ Then, he gets in bed with Camilla and goes to sleep. The vision begins to fade quickly until black covers the page; then the black disappears, leaving pale blue."

"Proceed, Child."

"My Lord, I place another drop of living water on the page of time and I see a dark entranceway made of railroad ties, which leads into a cave in the side of a huge mountain. A date above the entrance reads '2004.' I look deep inside the cave and I see the evil 'R' man, who has built a bonfire; and keeps piling on the wood.

A big, fat man named 'Europe' comes up behind him and says, 'They shall hang you for your checkered past. All is known and you shall no longer escape your creditors. Czechoslovakia is ready to go and the panic buttons are being pushed worldwide. You are walking on wooden legs, so do not get too close to the fire; for you have created something, which is going to burn you.''

Then, the spirit of a huge, evil demon, aglow with red flames, springs from within the fire. 'Hail to the chief,' the evil demon says. 'How shall I serve you, Master?' The evil 'R' man scratches his head and dandruff falls onto his right shoulder. 'Get me some aspirin; I have a mighty headache named 'Poland.' Help me; this thing is out of control. How dare them want to eat at a time like this! Decadence! Decadence!' The evil spirit materializes a bottle of aspirin and pours them into the open hands of the evil 'R' man. He puts two handfuls into his mouth and exclaims, 'Elixir! Elixir for the soul!'

Inside the head of the 'R' man, a little gnome appears and begins to play a xylophone. The music is light and airy at first; but soon the sounds of a loud foghorn intervene, drowning out the xylophone. Deep mourns of the fog horn fill the air and chickens come running toward the 'R' man from all directions. Many jump right into the fire and the smell of roasting meat fills the cave. 'I am hungry,' the 'R' man says, 'and I shall eat some of this meat.' He pulls a chick from the fire named 'Romania' and cleans its bones. I see 'Paris' jump in and another named 'Brussels.' The evil 'R' man eats the chickens until his belly is big and fat, and when he tries to get up, he cannot; for, he is walking on wooden legs, and has not mastered the walk. On one of his legs is written, 'terrible' and on the other is written, 'mess.' He struggles to stand upright, but each time he stands, he loses his balance. Finally, he staggers to his feet, and makes it to the cave door, which is the basement exit from his castle. He is about to exit the door when he hears a rustling in the leaves outside. He looks up to see a raven-haired man, whose face is covered with a black bandana; and he rides a black horse. The black bandana bears a small red strip all the way around its perimeter and the name on the side of the saddle is 'Iraq.' On the left side of the saddle is written 'Syria on the rise.' The 'R' man tries to run the three flights of stairs to the top of his castle, but is limited to crawling because of the wooden legs. The bandit, seeing him attempt to flee, dismounts the horse and pursues him. The evil Rothschild man crawls hurriedly on all fours, rushing to get to his precious computers. He is just ahead of the dark bandit as he crawls up to them and pulls up records. The computers are covered with copious amounts of dust and rust, but the date, 2001 is still visible atop one of the machines. 'Damn them!' he says. '2001 was a damn killer!' Then, he wades through piles financial records to a running computer; across its screen is 'New World Order, Alive and Well.' He touches the keys to type a message, but the computer is jammed. 'Damn you! I raised you! I fed you! I clothed you! And, in my hour of need, you have deserted me!' Then, he takes a gun and fires into the computer, but the bullets bounces off and hit him in the right leg.

Fear churns within him; for he hears the bandit dragging chains up the stairs. Quickly, the 'R' man sends a message from the teletype. 'Geronimo! Geronimo! Geronimo,' he pleads. 'Let us have peace! I proclaim a new 15-point plan for peace! Let us surrender to an age of peace! A chicken for every pot!' The news goes out and the people rejoice; but the 'R' man does not rejoice. From the heights of his castle, he looks over the balcony and sees Arabs on black horses, surrounding his castle. Within seconds the big bandit storms his room; he kicks the evil 'R' man, beats him with chains, spits on him and leaves him for dead. But, the 'R' man is not dead; and when he thinks the soldier is gone, he begins to stir, to move a limb, a finger or two, and to bat an eye. He is planning to stand again, but the dark bandit is still in the castle, watching him through a keyhole.

When the rider of the dark horse sees the movement of the evil 'R' man, he storms into the room and fills him full of bullets. He shoots the evil 'R' man until little is left of him but a pile of raw meat and a pool of blood. Then, the huge soldier takes the remnants of the evil 'R' man and hangs him from a tree outside; all that remains of the Rothschild tree in the castle is a small stump. Then the bandit pours gasoline all over the stump and sets it afire. The burning stump creates a smoldering pile of rubbish'; then the huge soldier looks beneath the pile to see some of the 'R' family in hiding. 'Nuke them to the death of the very last one!' he orders. The black vulture tries to flee, but is vaporized; then the entire castle is vaporized. Around the world, the people rejoice; for they believe they have been saved. Then, the picture fades until it is gone.

My Lord, a most beautiful angel comes and places a cape of radiant white light around my shoulders. The cape quickly disappears into my robe as the angel speaks some words, which seem to make the air come alive. These words are translated 'The love of the prophets', and my heart is warmed with pure heavenly love. Then, the angel disappears.

I place another drop of living water on the page of time and something, which is cream-colored and thick like putty, bubbles up and flies off the page."

"Smear some of it on the wall before you."

"I do this quickly, My Lord, and I see it spread rapidly across the entire, white wall, crackling, popping and twinkling. Amidst this activity the year '2001' emerges in golden-white light. Then, the entire wall disappears quickly, and I see a rabbi, who looks very worried. He paces back in forth in a Jewish synagogue, which is packed with people. Outside, a long line waits to get in. Some carry banners, which read 'Israel, losing the war.' Many sick and dying lie in front of the synagogue, seeking God's miracles. They are all praying and begging for help from God. The rabbi breaks a loaf of bread and gives each a small piece, for food is very short.

As I look out over Jerusalem, I see a great angel in the air, followed by a long line of angels. This great angel holds up his sword and says, 'Not yet. Not yet.' This line of angels goes around the Earth three times; and I hear the words, 'angels and saints, angels and saints.' UN troops are all over Israel, and the tattered Israeli flag still flies beside the UN Flag. A very long line of military tanks leads off into the distance and signs on them read 'Arab Alliance.'

The Rabbi follows a stairway into an area beneath the synagogue. Soon, he returns with machine guns and ammo, which he gives to people around the synagogue. Others help to distribute boxes of ammo and weapons to each person, and many disappear through underground tunnels. My Lord, they are fortifying their land and calling every citizen to fight. I see these words appear in very large, black letters: 'WAR! WAR! WAR! NOT DEFEATED YET! NOT DEFEATED YET!' Then, I hear them whisper among themselves, 'Not defeated yet! Not defeated yet.'

My Lord, this vision is gone, and I place another drop of this living water on the page. Straightaway, I see a roadrunner emerge from within a field of white light. Suddenly, the roadrunner turns into an ostrich and begins to run at breakneck speeds. Finally, it comes to rest at a pond in a green field, where it begins to eat and to drink. As I focus on the ostrich, it begins to fade and Saddam Hussein emerges in a tent, conversing with a Chinese military man. Hussein takes his knife and makes an 'X' on the palm of his hand and the Chinese takes the knife and does likewise. Each places his hand atop the other's bleeding hand, and a covenant is made; but Hussein is bleeding badly and the Chinese sheds no more than a few drops.

'Ah, Chinese blood! I shall own you one day,' Hussein says to himself. The covenant is made, and the Chinese leader gets up to exit the tent, but Hussein trips him, and he falls face first into the hot desert sand. Hussein is turned talking to a man from Saudi Arabia, and does not see the missing teeth of the Chinese man in the sand. The Chinese leader is embarrassed, then mystified as to why a friend would trip him. He becomes angry, aloof, and takes on the appearance of a fox.

Hussein continues to act like a friend of the Chinese fox, embracing him in a jovial way. Yet, the Chinese leader goes underground at night and makes duck calls to all below in hiding 'Quack, quack! Quack, quack.' The fox buddies up to Hussein with mirrors on his shoes and telephoto lens on his shoulders and rear. The fox constantly relays pictures to satellites, but still plays and parties with Hussein.

A deep, black night falls upon Hussein in the desert and he is totally blind. The fox has the advantage over Hussein, the roadrunner; for roadrunners must have the light of day to see how to run, but foxes run well at night. Hussein tries to run at night; and when he does, he runs straight up against a wall called 'Arab Alliance.' Hussein hits his head hard against this wall; and while he is seeing stars, a sneaky one, named ‘Syria’, who bears the countenance of a snake, slits Hussein’s throat. The body of Hussein lays on the desert floor and bleeds to death in the darkness of the night.

The year 2005 is near the horizon, but cannot be seen yet. The red, black and white checkered snake sits in a chair and suddenly turns into a king with five crowns. In the center of the crowns is a dark golden ball of light. ‘I shall go neither to the right, nor left, neither up nor down; for I have the scales of balance,’ says the kingly snake. On the scales are the words, ‘My Will.’ The king with five crowns takes a scepter and breaks it over the head of Iraq; then, he takes a second scepter, beats it over the head of Iran and heads toward Pakistan, but Pakistan cowers.

The sly fox hides in the mountains with telephoto lens and watches the Syrian; but the snake is more cunning than the fox. When the fox was not looking, the snake springs from among the rocks and bites him many times all over his back and head. The fox is very swollen over his whole body and is left to die; but, as he is about to die, a throng of Chinese peasants whisks him away on a stretcher.

The Syrian snake writes:

EDICT! EDICT! EDICT!
No more fighting!
No more killing!
Peace, peace, peace!
A chicken in every pot,
A pot for every table.
Jobs! Jobs! Jobs!
Jobs in world reconstruction!
The world is headed in a new direction
Of love, joy, and obedience to universal causes.
(‘My Causes,’ he chuckles. ‘For, I am supreme, and I own the swine!’)

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

EDICT! EDICT! EDICT!
This is the edict!
One universal church,
The Church of the World,
Forbids intermarriage to one,
Who does not belong to the Church.
It forbids fornication
Among those not belonging to the Church.
It forbids birth to a mother,
Not belonging to the Church.
I promise eternal salvation
To all through the one and only church,
My Church of Triumph and Universal Salvation.
I am the Christ … the only Christ!
There will be no blasphemy
Against universal causes of good and peace!
Seek and you shall find!
For, I shall restore the Earth
To a state of balance through my Church!
I shall restore peace!
There shall be no guns or violence!
This shall be enforced strictly!
I am god supreme of Earth!
And, I own Earth and its people.
All shall fall to worship me!
There shall be no dissidence!
And, for your worship
I provide all needs!
Those, who love and honor the only god,
Will receive my identification mark,
Which will allow you freedom at the marketplace.
Those opposing, serve the evil one;
And will not be allowed to live!

I am Jehovah!
I am god supreme of Earth!
I rule all!
Those, who follow me,
Will have all their needs met!
Jobs! Jobs! Jobs!
Peace and protection by my forces,
And to mine, eternal salvation!
No allegiance, sudden death!
No exception to the rules!

Then, I see someone, who looks like Darth Vader of Star Wars, going through the streets of all the cities. From this evil presence flees the clones, dressed in black; and they travel the world over. The heightened senses of the evil clones allow them to spot dissidents straightaway; they gather up the dissidents, haul them before firing squads and guillotines and kill them each morning in public squares. Then, their bodies are burned openly in public bonfires as poor family members look on and weep.

Many go openly to register under the new system and each is given a shot into the right hand or directly under the skin in the forehead. The shot contains a liquid with three or four computer chips, which serve three purposes: location; poison and mind control. Those, who take these injections, will be killed slowly by deadly neurotoxins; and those, who receive these injections in their heads, fare the worst, as the neurotoxins begin to effect the brain very quickly.

The locator devices receive messages sent out from radio stations worldwide. The following are some of the types of messages, beamed at these unsuspecting individuals:

1. I want to kill myself. I want to kill others.
2. I am a tramp. I crave sex and adultery.
3. I have total allegiance to this government.
4. I will turn on all, who are dissenters.
5. Dissenters are my enemies. They hate me and wish to kill me.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

These kinds of mind-control messages are beamed daily into the bodies of the ones, who take this 'mark.' The neurotoxins will cloud judgement and inhibit impulse control. Those who love darkness, and the ignorant and unsuspecting will take this mark; but the wise will flee to the mountains and hide in the caves. God will guide many to safety through prophecies. Bands of light will protect many of God's elect and Lucifer and his clones will not find them. God's will provide many miracles to his Beloved Ones, who flee. On the surface, it may seem that these Luciferians are winning, but they are doing only what God allows. He is bringing the end to an evil system.

The Syrian snake, dressed in a black and white with a red robe and five crowns goes through the streets all over Europe, the USA, China and elsewhere, throwing out candy from his vehicle. Those, on the sidelines, pick up the candy and read its label, 'I worship the beast.' This candy must not be eaten, for it is laced with poisons and control mechanisms. This snake will try to deceive those into the taking of this 'mark', who will not do so willingly. Yet, these forced 'marks' will prove to be powerless over those, who truly love and serve Jesus. They will disintegrate and disappear; and the toxins will dissolve. This is the power of Jesus Christ upon his people.

These pictures slowly fade and I see an angel come to me at this desk. She adjusts the robe around my neck. 'One more vision,' she says. So, I take the plume and release a drop of radiant, living water upon the page. The drop hits the page of time and pops and crackles, like boiling water. As this boiling disappears, I see an angel, wearing a cape like mine, come through a door of radiant white light. 'Take the date from the tub before you,' she says.

So, I reach down into the tub and take the date, which says '1998.' Then, I reach again and take out a 'twelve,' then, another 'twelve.' I put them on the wall … 12, 12, 1998 … that is Dec.12, 1998. Then, the angel says, 'Go through the door before you.' I pass quickly through this radiant white door and a newspaper clipping falls before me. I catch it and read what is written, 'USA devastated by atomic warfare … Dec. 12, 1998.' Then, the paper goes up in flames and a knight upon a horse comes to rest in front of me. The knight throws me a large, dark bundle. I reach to catch it, but it is very heavy. The weight of it pulls me to my knees, but I fiercely hold onto the bundle. The knight turns to leave and I see on the rear of the horse, ‘Dec. 12, 1998.’ I try to get up with the bundle, but cannot, as it is too heavy.

A radiant, white light falls upon me and I hear Jesus say, ‘Child, rise above this.’ I rise above the dark bundle into the white light and look at it from above. On the top of the dark bundle are the words, ‘Death to America, Dec. 12, 1998.’ The dead weight of the bundle lies far below; and I shed a tear, called ‘helpless,’ which falls upon the dark bundle. Where it falls, a flower called ‘love’ begins to grow. Green grass grows up around this flower and spreads, causing the darkness of war to fade, wherever it grows. From above, the blades of green grass look like a thick carpet, spreading across the land. But, as I look closer, I can see that the blades of green grass are actually scattered here and there, with distance between each blade. On each green blade is written, ‘I survived the holocaust!’

Soon, the vision fades and I hear the familiar voice of My Lord Jesus, ‘Child, you have seen much; yet, much remains. I shall empower you to type and make ready for publication.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER NINETEEN

ISRAEL, DOUBLE TOIL…

"Precious Child, after much prayer, you have been guided back to My Mountain, most pure. Give gratitude for the great work being done to draw others to this Mountain; and, remember: as you grow in spiritual strength, so do others, who find this Mountain and do the work to stay herein. You have asked for more information about the Arab Coalition and its rise against Israel. Take your Son-glasses, look far below, and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I have fine-tuned these glasses and am looking below at a gate, which reads, 'Israel, Israel, double, double, toil and trouble.' Saddam Hussein lights a match by the gates of Israel; and the match starts a fire, which makes a ring around Israel. The flames burn high and seem to follow the course of an accelerant. Many bodies are brought through this fire; they are wrapped in white sheets and placed on stretchers. The bodies are put in red helicopters, with gold writing, which spells 'US Naval Hospital.' The fire ceases, leaving a black trail all the way around Israel. Inside the trail, I see movement, which looks small ants plodding along; but as I look closer, I see that these are men on all fours, spying. German and Chinese soldiers are eagerly waiting in the distance. The Russian bear is hobbling from war, but is sending a steady stream of trucks and tanks. Israel is surrounded, My Lord. What will she do?"

"Look to the left, Child."

"I see Queen Elizabeth in her castle, dressed in her queenly garb, sitting on a stool and talking to the Israeli leader. 'I need reinforcements,' he says. 'I need backups.'"

The Queen has a sparkle in her eye and glee in her heart. Smiling, she says, 'Servant, get me the ketchup. I fear I will throw up!' She hangs up the telephone and drinks a bottle of Heinz Ketchup. Her face turns red, and her arms turn red; then she turns to a soldier and says, 'Send it through the back way. You know this is forbidden.' A line of ships heads far out to sea; and they drop anchor, watch, and speak among themselves, ‘It is forbidden. It is forbidden.’

The fire moves from the perimeter spreading slowly over Israel; and where it travels nothing but charred ground remains. My Lord, will you please explain this."

"Child, who has gone to the gates of Israel?"

"The Arab Alliance."

"And, more."

"Who else?"

"Clinton and his, the Germans, Chinese and Russians; but these are not all. See the clones."

"All are against her?"

"Do you see any for her?"

"No, My Lord. So, these have decided that Israel will fall soon after the USA falls?"

"They have made this decision, and it shall come to pass."

"My Lord, what year does this occur?"

"See the banner."

"My Lord, it is blank."

"Adjust your Son-glasses."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I see a large O."

"Go into the O."

"I am here at a counter, and behind this counter is a ticket man."

"Take the ticket. Read it, and touch it."

" I have it, and am looking at it and touching it. It reads ‘2001.’ So, My Lord, Israel stands for about three years after we are invaded."

"The worse three years in their nation."

" Surely, they will get help from others!"

"From their own kind worldwide. This allows them the three years."

"So, they are taken out bit by bit?"

"Child look beneath the ground where many stay. They have been far wiser that you; for they have known what is coming, and have prepared; you have not. Still, starvation and disease shall be rampant."

"My Lord, are they able to fire upon their evil neighbors?"

"One against a multitude."

"My Lord, I have seen that Lucifer occupies the Rothschild Man at times. Please tell me when he takes hold of the Syrian."

"Child open the locked trunk, which reads, ‘Syria.’"

"I am doing so, My Lord. Oh, what a foul odor! Something is flying out, like the brown spores of the dried mushrooms, we used to call 'Devil's Dust.'"

"Pull out the lead apron, and put it on."

"Put it on?"

"Yes, Child, put it on. And, put on the visor to protect your face. Then, get the metal file and start sanding off the word, 'Syria.' Beneath, you will find a plain envelope."

"My Lord, I am sanding and sparks fly everywhere. This is a lot of work, but the word 'Syria' is finally gone; and a little yellow envelope protrudes from the opening of a small mailbox. I am trying to take this envelope, but something is growling at me. 'Demon, I curse you in the name of Jesus Christ to cease and desist immediately!' I see him, My Lord, he is cowering behind the hole.

I have the envelope, which is now oozing a sticky mess. 'I curse this sticky mess to nothingness in the name of Jesus Christ!' Now, My Lord, the goo is gone and I am opening the envelope. Some rusty trinkets fall on the ground and a rusty piece of folded paper is inside. The paper says, 'I come to thrill and kill in 2002.'

"Child, curse this deception."

"I Curse this deception in the name of Jesus Christ, and command this information to be absolutely true and accurate."

"My Lord, I see '2001'. Would you please verify this."

"Child, look at the chalk board in front of you."

"I am having trouble seeing."

"Take the numbers in your hand and feel them."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I have ‘2004.’"

"‘2001’ is not correct?’

"Remember, Lucifer first inhabits the German."

"But, not constantly."

"‘Tis, so, but enough to do great, great harm."

"After the German is killed, Lucifer takes over the Syrian in 2004?"

"‘Tis true."

"Israel will go down by degrees?"

"They become paralyzed through germ, chemical and nuclear attack. They will be devastated, Child, devastated!"

"Do the Arabs take over Israel?"

"The One-Worlders take over Israel."

"What is this about Queen Elizabeth and the ketchup?"

"Communism to the core. She will not go against the Germans and One-Worlders who say, ‘Israel must go!’"

"My Lord, from the vision of 09-16-97, Hussein took a sword, cut the USA in half, cut the trees in Russia and her Russian Allies, and then did a jig on England. Please explain."

"The sword to you is an invasion of you. You see it go from the Gulf northward to Canada as this is the invasion route; then, they fan out from the central route."

"I am seeing the general area of invasion from I-55 northward through Jackson, Mississippi."

"'Tis so."

"If they allied with the Russians to bring us down, why would they go after them?"

"Threats to their goals of world dominion. "

"What are the trees of Russia?"

"Those, who stand tall in Russia, the leaders."

"So, they start picking off the leaders?"

"'Tis so."

" My Lord, I must sign off with your love and protection, in Your Precious Name, as interruptions prevail."

"So, it is, Child. Go in my power.

For, I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY

THE GENESIS OF MAN

"Precious Child, your great prayers have been heard; and I have brought you once again to this upper room on My Mountain. You see how your spirit floats amidst these pure energies; but be not alarmed in this, Child, you rest within My Light and My Power. Take the note as it floats to you, and read and record as written."

"My Lord, I receive a small scroll, which exudes a white light radiance!"

"Hold it firmly, and My Spirit shall reveal all."

"My Lord, I am beginning to see writing emanate from within this light. Please give me one word at a time, as I want to record accurately.

'THE GENESIS OF MAN'
'You are created of a Higher Force beyond your reasoning or intellect. You hold on to the earthly; yet, you are far from the Earthly. Your spirit radiates the gift of the Father, which is the promise of life into eternity. Yet, this promise is dependent on two things':

1. Fitness of the role as offspring of God … progeny;
2. Deliverance … a release of the ties of Earth.

"My Lord, what is meant by a fitness for the role?"

"See:
1. Absence of malice; presence of love and honor toward others, especially toward Me. For, I am heir to Earth proper, and all, which resides within.
2. A lost desire for self-gratification through the physical realm. This includes a greater desire for that, which is spiritual, and a fine focus on Me.

3. A love for all, not based on gender; but based on compassion, understanding, and acceptance of others, their pains and their shortcomings.
4. An intolerance for evil. Child, you ask in your mind, ‘How can one accept another’s weaknesses when you say have ‘an intolerance for evil’? I ask you, ‘What is evil?’ Let me say this, ‘Evil represents an attempt to kill or harm, whether people or animal.’ "

"My Lord, is gossip evil?"

"Does this harm?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, it speaks for self. Child, you think about all, who lie, and think it harmless. Lying of any manner, whether the so-called ‘white lie’ or the ‘whopper’, serves the same purpose."

"Which is?"

"A lie brings darkness to your soul. My Light can not abide the presence of darkness; so, when you lie you become a bed for darkness. Lies breed lies. Darkness breeds darkness. It is said that those, who lie steal. Yea, for to lie is to steal first from one’s self. This is the worst theft; for, over time, the soul will become so dark that the only fit place for it after death is the darkness of hell. Child, remember: ‘like attracts like.’ A soul, filled with darkness, will seek out its own kind. Those, who lie, associate with those, who lie. Those, who love the truth, cannot abide a lie.

Lying is utterly destructive. You need only look at your halls of Congress and see who is in charge. 98% or more of them love a lie. Satan, himself, is the father of the lie. When he sets up as ruler on Earth, those of you left will get to know the height, depth and width of his lying machine.

When you are told that you will go through the fire before I return, Child, it is meant that you will go through the fire of adversity, of evil. Anyone, who can abide My truths amidst such dark forces, will come out a mighty person in principles of righteousness. This kind of person will be a leader during my 1,000-year reign. So, you understand somewhat now of the FITNESS FOR THE ROLE. ‘Are most you fit for the role? Few.’"

"My Lord, will the lost souls be lost through the eternities? Will they go into black holes? What will happen?"

"Child, interesting that you ask about the black hole phenomenon. For, love expands and it is our Father’s Way in the universe. Black holes suck in, or draw in. Look around you, Child, do you know of people, who are microcosms of the black hole? They are constantly feeding on the energies of others, taking, not giving, selfish, draining. These are the black holes within your society and they attract one another. When stars stop giving off light, they become black holes for all, which is around them. This includes souls, who are black holes within themselves. Even the Earth and all that resides on it will fade one day. It will cease to live and and will not stay in orbit. The stray energies of Earth will end up in black a hole, along with the black hole spirits."

"Then, what about hell?"

"Child, hell is primarily for human souls, who stand a chance of improving through punishment.’

"When the Earth collapses, will those evil demons, who are not cast forever into the lake of fire, go into a black hole, also?"

"This and more, Child."

"Like, what, My Lord?"

"Child, the accumulation of darkness within the energy field of the Earth, created over thousands of thousands of years will go also. The black hole is a garbage disposal, sucking and pulling that of like kind. Those, who love darkness over much time, cannot escape this."

"My Lord, what of their identity?"

"Child, souls dark enough to wind up in black holes have little identity. They have taken on the identity of demons, of the material world, they are darkness and they love a lie."

"My Lord, this is terrible and deeply troubling. So, they become part of this black hole?"
"Child, their consciousness is totally wiped out and any sense of self or differentness is gone. The pull within this hole scatters all energies sucked into it. You might see this hole as a subatomic particle divider. The spirit is obliterated, literally no more."

"So, this is the Father's way?"

"He has devised a way for all, Child, as He is supreme. He is divine love at its height, that is, expansion. But, those who will not accept God's Light, who love darkness over much time, will be no more. For this reason, Child, reach out to others, that you might save their soul through love. I came, was crucified, and died on the cross, that I might save souls. You have often asked, 'save them from what?' Save them from destruction, Child. From destruction. You have no way of knowing how a kind word can turn around another and bring them to Me. For this, Child, be kind. Reach out to others. The sands of time for Earth are running out.

Child, you are thinking, 'For this reason, we are given other lives.' It would be so unfair of God, the Father, to give you only one life, one chance to get it right. God, the Father, is a just God. He is a fair God. And, for this reason, you are given not one, but many chances."

"My Lord, I still wonder why this has not been stated more clearly in the Bible?"

"Child, I spoke it, 'You must be born again.' Yet, your churches have referred to this as a spiritual rebirth, only."(See John 3:3)

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"But, My Lord, do we not go through a spiritual rebirth when we get serious about our walk with you?"

"Child, you are given the fire of My Spirit to indwell you, as you are worthy. This is indeed a spiritual rebirth, as you were strong in My Spirit before your birth. But, you have taken this spiritual rebirth to mean born again only of spirit and you have ignored the obvious, which is literal. Literally, you must be born again until you overcome dark stumbling blocks, created of you; and you must recognize that I am your connection to the Father, your Savior. (See Revelation 3:12)

"What about your forgiveness for our sins?"

"How can I forgive a debt created between you and another person, when you are not remorseful and will not forgive? I am not in the business of wiping slates and absolving you of your guilt to another, living soul, when you show no remorse or repentance. What kind of Master would do this? I cannot, and I will not; as I abide truth and good will. Within each of you good will must reign supreme, or you will not overcome. During the coming years, many of you will be killed. During these times many of you will be faced with the choice of whether to kill or lay down your life. I say, 'You shall not kill! I forbid it!' Therefore, if you lose your life for principles of righteousness, let it be a life lost in Me. This is courage and long suffering."

"What of killing animals for food?"

"Child, so long as meat is eaten sparingly; meat is bad for the kidneys and the liver. When you eat meat, you must rid yourself of great toxins stored in the animal and great toxins created in its digestion. It is best that all proteins be eaten sparingly, or in moderation. By doing this, one has more spiritual energy.

Let us stop for today, as this is much to understand. But, at least you now understand what is meant by salvation, Child; for, superstition abounds among your religious organizations. I bring you truth, that more may be the wiser.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Note: This morning, 24 hrs after the prayer for healing yesterday, the deep throbbing of the fibromyalgia pressure point beneath the right clavicle is gone. The extremely painful area, which was excruciating to touch, is now gone. Jesus told me that before this day was gone, the pain would be gone; and it came to pass, just as He said it would. In the past, these pressure points have given me excruciating pain, which would go on for weeks, or months. Jesus is the miracle, and His word is truth everlasting! Glory to God! How we are loved!

CHAPTER TWENTY ONE

A SURPRISE

"Precious Child, your cries have been heard to My innermost room, to the heights of the heavens and to the zenith of My Mountain. Look Child, Satan has tried to place a chain on your leg. Curse this chain to nothingness, and curse the evil source that sent it."

"I curse this chain to nothingness, Precious Jesus, in Your name; and I curse the evil source, that sent it. Suddenly, it is gone and I find myself high on Your Mountain, amidst Your most radiant energies. My Lord, who has prayed this upon me?"

"Child, a relative is praying to stop you, to cause you to be bound in your work and to be put in chains."

"How could this be? I do no malice toward him."

"His prayers against you have been answered by the evil one, but can have no power over you. For, you see what has been done, and have power over it. He truly believes that you serve evil, and is praying for your downfall."

"How could he be so deceived?"

"Ignorance. He does not use the discernment of My Spirit, but goes of his own mind."

"My Lord, I am sorry for this prayer and do not want to harm him. Let his prayers against me fall at his feet, that he be confounded every time he begins to pray against me, that he forgets what he prays about."

"Very well, his prayers against you are walled in and shall go nowhere. When he prays against you, he shall be confounded, and lose his train of thought. Now, Child, you note that you are in this upper room of great light."

"My Lord, did he pray to jail me, to chain me?"

"Both."

"I forgive his ignorance."

"Child, look before you at the altar in front of the stained glass windows."

"I see a beautiful window amidst pure radiant white light."

"Kneel at the altar."

"I am here, My Lord, kneeling; an open canister containing several keys is beside me. A golden skeleton key, radiant with white light, rises from this canister and begins to nudge me gently on my left hand."

"Take the key."

"I have it."

"Now, go to the radiant door beside the stained glass window and open the door with the key. Notice the single word of the key, ‘Surprise.’"

"My Lord, I insert the key in the door, turn it and suddenly the door disappears. Then, I take the key, which is now hanging from a bracelet, and slip it around my right wrist. On the key, I see the words, ‘hidden,’ on one side and ‘treasure,’ on the other. The powerful, white light energies of the door pull me through it and propel me forward, bringing me to a stop, flat on my face on a wooden floor. Looking around, I see many people, who are celebrating. Streamers are flying from the ceiling and from various fixtures and everyone seems to be in a very festive mood. In front of me is a cozy fireplace, and on either side of this fireplace are windows. Through the windows, I can see that it is near night; and snow is steadily falling. As I pull myself up, the people begin to sing:

'This is a song for you, for you,
Of love, of joy, of growth.
For, mysteries come, and mysteries fade;
But, through discipline over time,
All is known.
All is known.'

They keep singing, but I am caught up in a vision. I see a brown horse pulling a carriage; and it suddenly turns into a beautiful, white horse. The carriage, which was plain and brown, becomes golden and radiant; and it comes to a stop in front of a very large, white house, where a ball is in progress. A dashing, young man opens the door of the carriage and takes the hand of a beautiful lady, who is adorned in a white gown, reminiscent of plantation days. This woman seems to be going to the ball, alone; and appears to be a guest of honor.

She enters the door from the upper balcony and looks far below at a ballroom full of people dancing and mingling. She stands alone, peering at those below; but soon she is interrupted by a butler, who says, 'Madam, shall I take your wrap?' 'No. I shall not be long,' she says. Suddenly, the woman changes into a soldier of long ago, perhaps from the days of The French American War, or before. Suddenly, he jumps into the midst of those below and begins to socialize. Soon, he goes into a side room, where he takes off his soldier disguise, and appears again as the woman in the ball gown.

'How long shall the ball last?' she asks a fellow soldier, dressed in blue and yellow. 'Until the water gets hot,' he says. 'Then, take the garter and be off! Go! Be off! For, the journey is long.' He reaches for the garter, takes it, and reads the inscription, 'I take the cake.' The woman sits in front of the window and begins to cry as she watches him disappear into the darkness. For, snow is deep outside and she fears that the man shall not make it.

'Madam, madam,' someone says from the party. 'Are you alright?' 'Sure, I am fine,' I say, looking again at the snow outside, then at the key on my wrist. 'Let us cut the cake. It is your birthday, and we all wish you well,' a young man says. Then, he cuts the cake. In the center of the cake, it says, 'Best wishes', and around the perimeter is written, 'How can you say no to friends?' The friendly, young man, with golden hair and blue eyes, cuts the cake into eleven pieces. 'Let us eat,' he says, 'for the night is coming, and the snow is falling heavily.'

Then, the nice, young man gives me a saucer with a piece of cake and he says, 'Eat up!' I take the cake and eat the whole piece. Immediately, it begins to expand in my stomach and I feel very full. The young man, sensing my fullness says, 'Come and stand by the fire; for, the cake has done this to all of us.' 'What kind of party is this; and what kind of cake would look so good, and be like dead weight in one's stomach?' I ask.

This is a party for your rise to nobility; and the cake is the food for your soul,' the golden-haired man answers. 'For, your rise may seem good; yet, the weight of it makes you heavy.' 'Nobility!' I am of no nobility,' I stammer.

Amidst the scene, I hear you speaking, My Lord Jesus, 'Cut, Child, Cut!' This reminds me of someone stopping a scene in the production of a film. Then, I find myself standing beside the altar, where I began, the key, still on my wrist. As I look at the radiant key, I realize that the writing has changed on the stem of the key. On one side it reads, 'I believe'; and on the other, 'In miracles.' My Lord, this whole episode makes little sense to me."

"Child, where did you begin?"

"On my knees at the altar."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"What was before you?"

"A large, beautiful, stained-glass window and radiant, white door; but how is this relevant?"

"The window is the window to your soul; and the door is My door to another part of you"

"I don't understand."

"Child, did I give you a skeleton key with the word, 'surprise?"'

"Yes, My Lord. What is the surprise?"

"My Door."

"What do you mean?"

"What is behind my door, which opens another part of you?"

"A festive gathering."

"It is a party in your honor."

"What does 'hidden treasure' mean? "

"Look at the key, Child. What do you see?"

"I see that I love a certain man very much."

"And he loves you likewise."

"Who is this man?"

"Child, go into the tent and deal the cards to the man. What do you see?"

"I see all hearts; but who is he?"

"Open the label on the back of his shirt."

"My Lord, I see my husband's name."

"He is your hidden treasure."

"My Lord, he is not hidden to me; I know he is my treasure."

"Yet, Child, the depth of this treasure is hidden to you."

"My Lord, help me to understand the depths of what you are telling me."

"I shall. Who is giving you this party?'

"I do not know."

"These are angels from above."

"Why is this party taking place, My Lord?"

"It is because you are cherished."

"They sing for me?"

"They do."

"This is the surprise?"

"This and more."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"What more?'

"Rainbows and flowers, Child."

"My Lord, I still do not understand this."

"Child, take the book, which is wrapped in ribbons; remove the ribbons, look on the inside cover and read."

'It says, 'To: Linda Newkirk, With Love. We are your brothers and sisters of another space in time. We honor your path. Signed: The Quorum of The twelve and Blessed Saints of another era.' Oh, how I love these precious souls! Bless them, My Lord! Please tell me more about this book."

"Child, see 'From the Mountain Series.'"

"Yes, My Lord; but why have they signed the inside cover?"

"Child, it is with love that these do so, to honor your work. For, they play a role, of which you are not conscious, like being at the ball."

"So, they prepare a party to celebrate the completion of this work?"

"'Tis so, Child."

"But, the cake makes me sick."

"Child, it not only makes you feel ill; but also the ones, who served it and ate it."

"Why is this, My Lord?"

"Child, this party is festive, for the work is published; but it is heavy and hard to digest."

"This, I know, My Lord."

"Child, you digest it even though it is heavy; and you celebrate in spirit with those, who give the party. They watch this work carefully and do a work behind the scenes, of which you are not aware."

"What kind of work?"

"Thought transfer, protection and imaging, to name a few. Child, you were selected for this work before you were born."

"Yet, I shall be persecuted for this work?"

"Yes, by some."

"And I shall be killed for this work?"

"Your life shall be cut short for love of Me."

"My Lord, let it be so; for there is no better reason to die. Give me strength, My Lord, to do your will in all things. I have one more question about the woman in the carriage, is this me?"

"Yes, Child, you change from being in the carriage, driven by the horse of the material world to being driven by My horse."

"Why do I look like a woman, then a male soldier?"

"Child, you may look feminine, but you are a warrior, a soldier for Me."

"Why the antiquated uniform?"

"You have been a warrior since times of old."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Why was I dancing with others at the ball?"

"As a warrior, you dance with many angels. This is the warrior way; for, you need them in your work."

"Who is the soldier in the blue and yellow?"

"This is your son."

"I ask my son how long the ball shall last?"

"'Tis so."

"But, why?"

"Child, do you speak with him in a side room?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, he is not a part of the ball?"

"I suppose not."

"'Tis so, Child. He does not celebrate this work."

"Why, My Lord?"

"For, he does not rejoice in things of the Lord."

"Please explain."

"Child, he believes that your spirituality will last 'until the water gets hot.'"

"What do you mean?"

"Until bad times strike. He does not know the depth of your spiritual life."

"Why does he take the garter, which says, ‘I take the cake?’"

"Child, does he not take the cake?"

"Yes, My Lord, I suppose he does."

"You see him in the depth of his coldness toward you, toward your family and toward Me. He has gone out into the coldness, and you fear he will not make it."

"My Lord, I fear so that his soul will be lost. Please don’t let him be lost."

"Child, look beside the fireplace. Whom do you see?"

"I see the soldier, dressed in blue and yellow."

"Does he eat of the cake, Child?"

"My Lord, he does. I see him stand near the fire and his stomach is bloated. He is rubbing it like the rest of us."

"Do you see others you know?"

"Yes, my brother. My mother is in bed, but eats of it. My husband studies at a table behind a glass wall. I cut a hole in the wall, and offer him a piece; but he says, ‘I am full.’ He has eaten of the cake as he has it on his mouth. I see my sister, who has tasted the cake; but she runs from the room and out into the snow. ‘Bitter, bitter,’ she says, ‘I will not eat this cake.’

"The cake, My Child, is the book."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"How many will eat the cake?"

"Child, look, … ‘millions.’"

"My Lord, in this vision, it is snowing at the birthday party; but my birthday is in the summer. Explain this, and also explain what is meant by, ‘How can you say no to friends?’"

"Child, this comes in the winter of your life, and it is your birthday before Me."

"How so?"

"It is the day you have birthed these writings to the people; and how can you say ‘no’ to your friends, the ones, who love you?"

"I see, My Lord, but why eleven pieces?"

"Child, watch 11 months from this month. Then, you will know why. You will know also why you must eat; for the depth of winter is truly coming and a deep night is about to befall you."

"My Lord, please explain this rise to ‘nobility.’ You know that I am a simple person, who loves your simple walk and do not care to be known in any other way."

"Yea, Child; but others shall put you in a slot above. And, you have no choice in this."

"My Lord, regardless of what others may do, I cling to simplicity. That of the world has little value to me."

"‘Tis so, Child; and this is known.

I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, … Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY TWO

MYSTERY OF THE CLOWN

"Precious Child, pick up the pen and write. For, My Spirit has brought you once again to My most radiant Mountain. You stand on the zenith, but not alone; for I am with you and my radiant angels are all around you. Child, take the drink given you by Kikiara, the angel; and consume it. For, it will restore you and give you strength through your fast, a strength you shall need."

"My Lord, I take this glass and drink the liquid to the last drop; and I am beginning to float steadily upward. I keep floating until I enter your upper room, suspended in peace. It is as if my feet have invisible wings, which carry me here."

"Child, you come on the wings of My Spirit. Reach out and take the key; then write as observed and given."

"My Lord, I hold a golden gold, which radiates a bright, white light. On one side is written, ‘love’, and on the other is the word, ‘charity.’"

"Take this key, Child, and unlock the door, which says, ‘My Heart.’"

"My Lord, I go to this plain wooden door, which is old and weathered and as I open it, I am blinded by a radiance of power of the purest kind. From amidst this white light, myriad white doves fly out and all encircle me. Then, My Lord, within the light I see a hobo, or perhaps a clown, who is seated in front of a wooden tub of clear water. He offers me a drink from the tub, but I decline. I see grass, bushes and even trees, radiant with this light, surrounding the clown. I move to the side of the tub and look inside to see very clear water, which looks like a well of water. The clown keeps offering me a cup of water and looks very sad that I refuse; then he begins to shed tears. On each tear is written the word, ‘sorrow’; and as each tear falls upon his pants leg it forms a large, perfect, radiant diamond. The diamonds gather on his pants legs and fall down beside his feet. He just keeps crying; My Lord, what shall I do?"

"Take the cup, Child, and drink of it."

"My Lord, I have the cup, and I drink. But, as I begin to drink rocks appear in my mouth. As the water goes down, it forms glowing stones all the way down. I can see that they are perfect diamonds; but they cause no pain. I take some of the diamonds from my mouth and look at them. What beauty and radiance!"

"Child, swallow all."

"My Lord, I swallow all, even the diamonds in my hand; and as I look at the diamonds inside my abdomen, I see that they are beginning to melt, giving off pure white light, which is spreading throughout my body. My abdomen is aglow; my hands are aglow; and so are my arms, legs and feet. What is happening?"

"Child, who is this beggar, who looks like a clown?"

"My Lord, it is Peter, the Apostle. Why does he look this way?"

"Child, Peter brings you the living water of healing, which you need. You think he looks like a clown, or a beggar, but he is neither."

"My Lord, I do not understand."

"Child, pick up the diamond at your feet.'

"My Lord, I have a diamond large enough to hold in two hands; and it is brilliant."

"Put it on your neck."

"My Lord, I have done so."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"What do you feel?"

"I feel a deep warmth, which is very soothing. The radiance brings comfort to my shoulder area and with it a wonderful, healing sensation! Yet, I am still confused about the clown/hobo image."

"Child, this is only a image. Peter is no clown, but a healer to you today."

"I perceived him as a clown at some level?"

"Yes, but he turned into a beggar. Did he not beg you?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, this is nothing more than an attempt to get you to think, to analyze for self."
"So, I thought he was a clown; but was made to see that I need to look deeper. Appearances are not as they seem."

"Not only this, Child, but, you have seen My heart."

"A clown in your heart?"

"Child, is red black, and black red?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then, you have seen a clown and a beggar in My heart."

"My Lord, I have seen it, and have written as seen; but still do not understand it."

"Child, take the page from the angel."

"My Lord, I have it. On the page is written, ‘Never on a Sunday.’ Please explain."

"Child, never desert Me on a Sunday."

"I know, My Lord, I did not come for prayer and writing. The day just seemed to vanish and I feel very badly about this."

‘Child, are you to follow Me five or six days a week?"

"No, My Lord, I am to follow you every second of the day."

"Then, do not perceive of Me as a clown or as a beggar. I need to be first; for there is coming such confusion, that you will have to search for quiet places to do My work."

"My Lord, I understand. Please forgive me this; for, I never, ever wished to see you as a clown or a beggar."

"Child, it was Peter, who came with this vision of the clown-beggar. But, he also brought you healing. Is the pain in the neck gone?"

"Yes, My Lord, it is gone totally." (I awoke with a terrible "crick" in my neck. If you are reading this, you know how these can go on and on; but Peter came with healing through the heart of Jesus, and the pain was healed immediately."

"Child, Peter brought you diamonds and he brought you power from Me and My heart. Take this power and use it to do My work; it is a blessing, Child. Look at the diamonds on your feet; pick up these and fill your pockets. They are My words, My truths, and My honor."

"My Lord, I have filled my pockets with this radiance."

"Take the large diamond from the bench and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I hold this radiant diamond and it explodes in my hands. I smell cinnamon and peppermint."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Follow this scent, Child."

"I follow this scent and find myself stepping on a train, which is ready for boarding. An attendant approaches me, who is dressed like a Swedish villager and says, 'Tea, Mam?' I decline and take a seat by the window, but soon someone comes and sits directly across from me. He begins to read a reading a newspaper and I notice big, black, bold writing across the top which says, 'USA DESTRUCTION, DEC.12, 1998.' My Lord, I am unnerved by this. Where am I?"

"Child, see … 'Train to nowhere.'"

"Train to nowhere?"

"Yes, indeed, Child, pull the handkerchief from the man's pocket."

"My Lord, this man is a clown with black and white striped pants and black clown shoes. I had not seen this earlier because I was concerned about the paper. In his coat pocket is black handkerchief, but as I take it and look at it, I see that the center of it is cut away."

"Climb through the center."

"My Lord as I climb through, I find myself in the study of Queen Elizabeth, where a fire is burning in the fireplace. Bill Clinton is here with the Queen and she is serving him whiskey. The tip of his nose is very red, like a clown; he wears big, black clown shoes; 'nickel' is written on one shoe and 'dime,' on the other. I wonder whether he has consumed all of the whiskey in the crystal decanter on the table beside him, as most of it is gone. In front of the fireplace is a small, round dance floor.

'Shall we dance?' The Queen asks. Bill starts to get up, but is stuck to the chair with thick glue; and the Queen seeing this, ignites a fire to the sticky goo. The fire takes off, burns a hole in Clinton's pants; and his rear is glowing with burning embers. 'Oh, I would like a dance,' he says, 'but, I would be embarrassed.'

Then, the Queen puts a butcher knife to his throat, and says, ‘You will dance or else, traitor!’ She cuts Bill Clinton’s throat with the knife and blood spurts forth; as she has cut the jugular vein. Bill dances a step or two for the Queen; then she drags out a whip. ‘Faster! Faster,’ she growls! Bill dances a few more steps; but he is losing blood quickly, and his face is becoming ashen. ‘Faster,’ the Queen snarls! Bill Clinton’s blood is all over the dance floor and dancing is becoming harder and harder. ‘Scum,’ the Queen huffs! And, she spits on Clinton. As Clinton lies on the floor dying, the Queen calls 911. ‘Okay,’ she says to The ‘R’ man on the other end, ‘My work is finished!’

Then, a gurney is pushed into the room by men, who bear the inscriptions, ‘Saddam’s Men’, on their sleeves’; and they load Clinton onto the gurney. ‘Clean up the mess,’ the Queen storms, ‘or I will show you a thing or two!’ In comes the mop squad, and begins to clean the floor feverishly. In minutes, the floor sparkles. Then, the Queen goes to bed with Hussein. 'Lights out,’ she orders! ‘We have some undercover business to do!’
"My Lord, what is this ‘train to nowhere?’"

"Child, who is the clown?"

"I am not sure."

"Pull back the labels on his shoes."

"My Lord, the label on the first shoe reads, ‘In debt,’ and the label on the other shoe reads, ‘Up to my ears.’ But, who is this clown?"’

"Child, look on the forehead of the clown and read."

"It reads, ‘USA.’ So, the USA is a clown on a train to nowhere and this clown’s pocket has a handkerchief with a hole; and this hole has to do with Clinton, the Queen, and Hussein."

"Child, ‘right as rain,’ as you would say; but, what of the ‘R’ man and the mop squad?"
"My Lord, I have seen this mop squad before. Who is they?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, look at the dust pan. What do you see?"

"On the dust pan is written, ‘cold war over.’"

"And, on the mop handle?"

"It says, ‘Hussein in charge,’ on one side of the handle; and on the other side it says, ‘No one else."

"So, Hussein is the ‘mop man’; those, who work for him, make up the ‘mop squad’, and they are brought in to mop up Clinton?"

"Exactly."

"My Lord, I have a question from the vision of the Queen riding in the open convertible with Clinton. He steals a piece of her dress as she jumps out of the car into the muddy stream. In this vision, who is the Queen of the Nile?"

"Child, who has been the Queen of the Nile for ages?"

"Egypt."

"What is the dandruff, which drops from her hair in the ‘R’ man’s cave?"

"Complaints."

"So, Egypt complains, then gets tired and falls amidst her own complaints?"

"Yes, indeed. This and more."

"Please explain."

"Her garter, which says, ‘Rothschild to the core,’ is cutting off her circulation. See, her leg is swollen and she is becoming crippled from the ‘R’ hold."

"Will she aid in the destruction of the papacy?"

"Child, her leg is crippled and she is falling, amidst her own complaints."

"Yes, My Lord."

"But her dream shows, who is running for the ‘R’ man. Child, all is prepared far in advance for the USA. We shall stop for now.

I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, … Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY THREE

WALKING THE PATH

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You bear concern with the last, few messages; for, I did not identify myself in the beginning of each message as Jesus, and you fear that you could have been tricked. Child, it was I, Jesus, the Christed One, the Redeemer, who brought you the messages. Do you not fully recognize My voice and My Spirit after all these years? Do you not recognize the feel of My Spirit, the sight of My energies and the presence of My power?"

"My Lord, I am always concerned about being tricked by the evil one or deceived by my own self. This is a difficult path and I do my best to write as given of you; but, you know how the Evil One has dogged me."

"Child, you come long in prayer; you bind the demons, sent to attack you; and you ask for great fortification from My hedge, My shield, and My armor around you, your family, and your property. You ask that mighty warrior angels be stationed around you, your house and property; and you beg for the presence of the Holy Spirit in and around you. Child, do you believe that these prayers are unanswered when you show such devotion to Me day after day?"

"My Lord, I do not doubt you. I doubt me; for, I am a vessel with many holes."

"Child, My Spirit fills holes and brings completion. Have you not seen this?"

"Yes, My Lord, I have seen this."

"You get up to turn off the heat as you believe it to be hot; but My Spirit warms you."

"My Lord, forgive me these doubts. I need assurance; for I feel as if I am a child, who is just beginning to read."

"I do know this, and I know that yours is no easy journey; for you rely on the voice of One, unseen, and you rely an unseen Hand; but this Hand shall be unseen less and less as you go along. For, It shall dip down, and bring mighty miracles before your very eyes."

"Just yesterday, did you not see the hostile attitude of one changed to kind and loving? This was because of your perfect prayers, spoken in the Spirit. This attitude could have gone on and festered, but it was healed through the miracle of My Spirit at work. Do not discount the miraculous, which comes through your deep seeking and praying."

"My Lord, I thank you deeply for this pep talk; forgive my weaknesses."

"Child, your weaknesses are known. A strong one admits weaknesses and a weak one ignores or defends them. Now, look at the radiant energies around you in My upper room. Look through the window at the previous levels; and see My chair far below. Then, look before you and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, You stand before me; You are exceedingly tall, dressed in white and Your body rises far above. I fall to your feet and see the indentations made by the impaling of the nails. I kiss and embrace your feet and feel the holes. The love, which comes from You, is all-consuming; I feel deeply humbled and know great sadness for a world, gone awry. 'Jesus' how precious the name, a name above all others! My Lord, the sweetness of Your love bathes me; it takes away my sorrows and makes my heart joyful. Thank you, Precious Jesus, You are my Light.

In a moment, you are gone; and I remain here on bended knees with bittersweet memories. The power, the love, which has come from this brief encounter, has touched me to the very core of my soul. Now, that you are gone, I feel that a dearest friend and a cherished family member has left me and I am left with a hole in my heart."

"Child, I am more than a voice and a vision; and you bear a deep conviction within you heart that I am, who I say. You have this deep knowing; for I have appeared to you more than once. This deep knowing, Child, is the Spirit of Prophecy; and no one can prophesy without it? Get up, sit in the white chair by the window and receive a blessing."

"My Lord, these are finer energies and require a different kind of discernment, but as I sit in this chair, I am aware that someone is coming toward me, dressed in white. He wears a little, rounded, white cap, like those worn in some religious circles; and he reaches out and adjusts two crowns on my head, one smaller placed behind a large crown. Then, he runs his hand down my spine and across my shoulders and says, 'Blessings from Our Lord, Jesus Christ.' Immediately, the soreness from my spine and shoulders is gone; and as this pain disappears, so does he."

"Child, your spine along your neck gives you much pain; and your shoulders knot up so that you have trouble typing. Is the pain gone?"

"Yes, My Lord, all is gone. Who is this man and what are these crowns?"

"Child, he is a messenger from Me. The larger crown is the crown of righteousness and the smaller crown is the crown of obedience. For, one goes with the other, and you have had both for some time; but you forget them. No one can be a prophet without these two crowns; yet some have more crowns than others. My Power comes with these crowns; don't forget this. Where one loves Me much and honors Me, I honor them without fail; but, Child, the key here is love and honor over time. The prophetic is not the walk of the babe, even though you may feel like a babe and be perceived as a babe, you are no babe. For, you have a third crown; it is a small crown, called the Crown of Faith. Do you see?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"For, you cannot walk this path without much faith. Now, Child, you have concern about many things, and, for reason; for, much unfolds quickly. Look before you at the image of the woman, named 'No Way Out'; she has a full apron, called "Destiny; and it is gathered up around her waist; but the apron has a hole. And try as she might, the woman cannot keep the goods within the apron; for destiny brings calamity and there is no way out!

When all begins to unfold, each event will be followed very quickly by the next; and the series will begin with the fall of your stock market. You are already seeing a foreboding of things to come through your weather patterns and volcanoes, but you have seen nothing yet. I am Jesus.

I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY FOUR

MORE FROM THE PAGE OF TIME

"Precious Child, your cries have been heard to the heights of heaven, itself. Without knowing what has been said through the speaking of tongues, you have spoken many perfect prayers. You have called forth miracles and healings, of which you know nothing. You have put stumbling blocks before the Adversary and those, who love him; but your consciousness nothing of this. You have seen a lesion in your lung, which you did not know about, and this will be healed within 30 days.

Child, you have begged to continue to be a bearer of My messages, even though you know your fate, and the fates of many, like you. You have been given great hardships in this life, that you would be ready to carry the weight of My word; for such a job is not for the weak. You have seen your destiny in the physical realm that you not enter this work blindly. But, remember that I am always with you, even amidst great persecution."

"My Lord, help me to see with your eyes and to view the evil-doers with compassion; for it is so hard for me to tolerate evil toward another living thing."

"You have been told to stand against evil; but a time comes when some must lay down their lives for principles of righteousness. These know their journey; for I do not send Mine in blindsided."

"I ask only for a triple dose of Your strengths, of Your love and compassion."

"Child, this is not too much to ask, and shall be forthcoming. You ascend My stairway one step at a time."

"My Lord, when I went to the lung doctor last year, was this lesion present?"

"Child, this lesion has been present for years, but ignored. Doctors consider these harmless and will ignore them until you have full-blown cancer."

"Then, what good are doctors to someone like me?"

"Little, for large numbers love a lie; and they support one another in lies, even into hell. Most all love money and what it can buy. This seen, be the wiser."

"I have lived through the depths of their darkness!"

"Child, Let us continue. You see that you have been called back to My Mountain upon the wings of My Spirit. You have more questions about Peter and the hobo-clown image. I have shown you much about these images, but there is more. The hobo-clown image serves three purposes: 1. To beg you; 2. To warn you; 3. To forecast or predict."

"I see that he was begging me to drink of the liquid diamonds, Your word."

"Yes, Child, and more."

"Please explain?"

"Begging you to come for healing, renewal, and refreshing of the spirit.'

"And, the warning?"

"Warning you to drink often of the Spirit, lest you be as a vagabond, a hobo, in a world gone awry. Do not forsake My Spirit on a Sunday or any other day."

"Yes, My Lord, but what about the forecast?"

"The forecast, Child, is of the USA as a clown, a hobo, destitute around the world, begging."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I knew that this was much more than surface appearances; but, I would have never grasped all. Thank you, My Lord."

"Child, your relative will come around soon; for he will realize that you have been called and that he does not have all the answers; give him space. You have questions about the timeline? (Note: within five days of these words from Jesus about this relative, he called me to see if I was all right. He was his usual self and I love him dearly; but he flew into orbit about reincarnation, telling me that it is a lie. He, along with many, many millions will face the fact that this is true and involves responsibility for our actions and spiritual growth over time.)

"Yes, My Lord, I am very interested in this timeline."

"Proceed."

"I am suspended in these radiant, white light energies of Your upper room; and I sit at the desk, though this is somewhat difficult, as my spirit wishes to float. I take the quill and place a drop of living water on the page of time; and it pops and cracks as it hits the page. From amidst a smoky haze, a clear image of Queen Elizabeth emerges. She is riding in a black car with Bill Clinton. The car pulls to a stop at a curb and Bill Clinton leaves the car from the side opposite the curb. The piece of the Queen's dress (as noted in a previous vision) is seen protruding from his partially zipped fly as he waves to the shouting crowds. The Queen gets exits the car on the opposite side.

'Come, Bill, let us go,' the Queen motions to Bill Clinton. Then, the two of them hurriedly enter a door, which leads into a subterranean complex; and they disappear from public eye. Once inside, they follow the hallway and enter a room, where documents are drawn up, waiting to be signed. These documents bear the signatures of many; and right away, I see that of Henry Kissinger. The two sign the documents, and Clinton curtsies to the Queen. She looks about with a scowl, but Bill Clinton wears the ever-smile.

My Lord, I am searching for the name of this document; but the Queen is eager to get it into her purse. On the top of the agreement, I see ‘Limited Arms Agreement,’ in bold print; and beneath this title in smaller print is written, ‘Directional Sales Computational Forfeiture.’ This is definitely ‘Greek’ to me."

"Child, what does the small print mean to you?"

"My Lord, it looks like a lot of double talk."

"This is the problem, Child; it means nothing."

"If it means nothing, why the agreement?"

"Child, what is directional?"

"Toward some direction or destination."

"Yes, indeed, toward some direction.’

"So, it is the sale of something toward some destination?"

"Yes, indeed. Do you see ‘Limited Arms Agreement?"

"Yes, My Lord. So, this is about the sale of arms for a certain destination?"

"More than this."

"What, My Lord?"

"Child, what destination do you see?"

"My Lord, I see the coat of arms of The Royalty."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Then, Child, ‘tis so, to The Royalty."

"But, My Lord, why the words, ‘computational forfeiture?’"

"Child, does this seem verbose?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Is it meaningful to you?"

"Not that I can see, unless there is a sale, made to look like there is not a sale."

"Exactly, one made to look like it is not a sale."

"My Lord, Clinton still has the piece of royalty hanging from his fly."

"Exactly."

‘So, there is something weird going."

"Child, more than you will ever know; but be advised in advance that this will happen."

"My Lord, show me this time."

"See, Child, 2001."

"What could he sell the Queen in 2001? Will we not be defeated as a country?"

"In most ways, but not all."

"Well, if we have anything left, why would he give anything to her?"

"Who are they up against?"

"The evil ‘R’ man."

"‘Tis so"

"But, My Lord, what goes wrong?"

"Clinton is double dealing, and he is seen as the traitor he has been all along."

"So, Clinton will be around in 2001?"

"This, you will see.’

"But, I thought that Hussein would have finished off Clinton by then."

"Child, you will have begun to feel the great sting of your invaders, and the truth will be known about the Germans. But, remember: Clinton is a coward, who wishes to play both sides against the middle. The bad thing is that he is the middle."

"So, prior to this time, these oppressors will let him have some dominion over the USA."

"As planned."

"But, how much of the USA will remain?"

"Child, you will be hit hard at first and brought under UN control. Clinton is involved in this plan, and he believes that they only plan to get your guns; but the war gets out of control. Clinton does not realize the German plan to rule the world or to crash the stock market; for he has been duped. You have seen Clinton in the White House for a while, even while the black horse is firing upon the White House."

"And, who is this black horse, which is unmanned?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Look on the rear of the horse."

"It says, ‘Saddam Hussein and Co.’ My Lord, there is a red horse beside the White House and beside the horse is the red flag with the half moon and star. Who owns this flag?"

"China."

"So, the Chinese flag flies?"

"Yes, indeed, red communist to the core! This red will be felt through and through, as these people deal a crushing blow to the USA."

"So, the Chinese will come in at first?"

"Did you see NATO let in thousands and see others hidden in boats, coming into the USA?’

"Yes, My Lord."

"You have them in your country, already."

"Then, Clinton shall make it until 2001?"

"2001."

"And, Hillary?"

"She shall be hanged."

"How will Clinton die?’

"See bullets riddle his body?"

"Will anyone be elected after him?"

"Child, not until my return will your land see freedom again."

"Oh, My Lord, I am deeply saddened by this. Times have been plentiful and we have grown in freedom, but as you say it has been the wheat with the tares".

"Child, take the quill, and place a drop of living water of the page of time."

"My Lord, I have done so; and I see something, which looks like a streak of lightening, course the page rapidly."

"Look, Child."

"My Lord, I see Wall Street closed. Is this permanently, or for a while only?"

"Child, operating one half day. Look how your market has fallen."

"My Lord, I see it down past 2000, with much bleakness. I see long lines of people waiting for food stamps and rations and each has the pants of his pockets turned out to show that he has no money. I see airplanes, parked at the terminals and businesses working only partial days. Across the top of The New York Times it reads, 'Wall Street at all time low.' My Lord, when is this?"

"See, Child, fall of 1998."

"My Lord, I see the leaves dropping from the trees. The date is Oct. 10, 1998. But, the Market has been dropping steadily for months."

"Child, the owners of your press have played up scares; as they want the USA to fall before the Earth flips."

"Why, My Lord?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, these believe that when the Earth flips, you will see a great spiritual awakening; and they wish to catch you unawares in the height of your decadence."

"My Lord, I ask for further confirmation on this time line of the Earth's flipping."

"Child, take the quill."

"I have it, My Lord; and I proceed to place a drop of the liquid on the page, where it pops and cracks, and a large planet emerges, which is several times the size of Earth. How much larger, My Lord?"

"Child, see, … almost four times larger."

"Does it have satellites?"

"See, Child, one, two, three, and some smaller ones, which appear as large rocks."

"How close will this planet come to the Earth?"

"Eight to ten million miles."

"My Lord, how can we be deceived about this planet?"

"Child, who controls your media?"

"Those, who love illusion and deceit."

"But, it seems that something of this magnitude would get out."

"Child, it will. A few months before the passing."

"And, the date again?"

"Feb., 2000. Go and compare this with the date given to you previously."

"I shall, My Lord." (This is the same date.)

"Remember, Child, you have been told in advance that the Earth will flip. Advice: Get away from oceans and great mountainous areas. Prepare an underground shelter inland; for the winds shall be in excess of 300mph. Tornadoes and hurricanes shall roar for two to three months afterward. Now, Child, take a break.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY FIVE

FORTY-TWO MONTHS EXPLAINED

"Precious Child, you know My voice and My Spirit. I am Jesus, One with Jehovah … God of old, of present day and tomorrow. Child, you see the white fire of My Spirit and the wall of My protection around you as you come to My upper room on this holy Mountain."

"My Lord, I am afloat in this pure, white light; and as I look out the window of Your upper room, I see the many levels below and the very chair I sat in many times. In front of the chair are others on the Prophet's Path, who are waiting to sit in the chair and receive from You. My Lord, bless these precious souls, give them many angels of protection and guide them to help others."

"This is My Way. Now, Child, you have further questions about the three and one half-year period involving Israel?'

"Yes, My Lord; and I ponder on your return. (See Revelation 11:2: 'And, the holy city shall they (the Gentiles) tread under foot forty and two months.')

"Child, 2004 is a pivotal year."

"How is this pivotal, My Lord?"

"The United Nations, under the German reign of terror will fall. You have seen that the German works strictly under the leadership of Lucifer; and you have seen that Lucifer embodies the Syrian in late 2004. Remember that this is late 2004, within six weeks of 2005."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, you have thought at times that the three and one half year period for Israel would begin with the entry of Lucifer into the Syrian."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Yet, I have stressed that Lucifer has been in charge already."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, look closely at the year, 2001, when Israel is primarily defeated; her flag is tattered and she flies the UN Flag.

"My Lord, what month shall this be?"

"Child, go to the page of time."

"My Lord, I place a drop of living water from the quill onto the page; a white light brilliance hits me in the face, and I fear that it shall blind me. Slowly, this white light disappears and I see a banner, flying above the gates of Israel. It reads 'House of Israel, My First Love.' The gates are open, and a large, military tank is parked just outside. On the side of the tank is written 'UN Peacekeepers.' I watch as a UN soldier raises the UN Flag; but search as I might, I cannot see the month.

This scene disappears immediately and I see red, blinking lights consume the page. Amidst the lights, I hear a voice, which says, 'Get ready for UN takeover!' Then, I see a 10 appear in black, flashing letters, and another voice comes from the page saying, 'October 15, October 15, October 15'. This voice stops and I see the year, '2001', move slowly across the page.

So, Israel falls by October 15, 2001; and the gentiles will have three and one-half years from this date to trample Israel. Does this mean that you will return around the spring of 2005?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, this is the approximate date."

"So, the Antichrist will have the body of the Syrian for about for four to six months?"

"This and more."

"What do you mean?"

"See the white stork, carrying the baby?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, what does this mean to you?"

"A birth."

"Yes, indeed! Then, there shall be a birth."

"What kind of birth?"

"The birth of a New Kingdom in Me."

"Praise Your name, My Precious Lord; and bless your beloved sheep, who live until Your return. So, the Syrian's journey will be short, indeed!"

"Within this time, you shall see him rise; and you shall see him fall."

"So, Archangel Michael stands over the desert with the saints, ready for this great victory?"

"Yes, indeed!"

"My Lord, how shall this take place?"

"Child, this shall take place rapidly, in a flash. Those, who love the earthly, who love and serve evil, will not know what happened or how it happened; they will die an instant death. The wicked will perish; and any, who take the mark, will go straight into torment. Those, who love Me, will be caught up in this Light; this is the rapture."

"My Lord, will many take the mark?"

"Yes, Child, but not as many as you think. The wise will know who the Syrian is, but the lost will perish. For this reason, Child, these writings must go out quickly."

"My Lord, make miracles that these writings can get to the people."

"I am in charge. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

To: The Precious Souls, who read these messages. You are reading them because of the miracles of God in these works. He caused us to know a dear prophet from another state, who paid for the website and has been such a blessing in our lives. This same prophet supplied the money for the first edition of book one and helped us to self-publish it. If you have not ordered one of these books for your friends and family, I urge you to do so. There will come a time when people will be searching for these messages and will have difficulty in finding them. Many will think that there will be no end to the evil, which is to befall, but Jesus has shown the end.

If you are putting any person, place or thing before God in your life, stop doing this today. If you put faith in movies or television, stop doing this today. Put your faith in Jesus. He loves you more than you can ever know and He wants your love and honor. He is the rightful heir to this planet and will come very soon to make this known. If you chase after illusion, know that you are the looser. Jehovah is the Father is truth, and he reveals it through His Son, Jesus, and His Holy Spirit. If you wish truth, seek Him and He will lead you to truth; but if you love a lie, He will let you love a lie. Remember: Satan is the Father of the lie and the master of illusion. He does not love you, but wishes to destroy you. Who do you serve?

Our Father gave each of us a soul and sent His Precious Son to show us the Way home. Our Father gave us life and allowed us to be on this Earth, a place of great trials and tests. Know that you come from another realm, called Heaven; but you have been given a free will, that you may truly love or hate as you choose. If you choose the love of God, you will be free; but if you choose hate, you are the prisoner. It is time for each of us to put God before all; or we stand to lose the greatest blessing of all, … His eternal presence.

We love you and care about your destiny.

CHAPTER TWENTY SIX

UNITED NATIONS TAKEOVER OF ISRAEL

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have come back to My Holy Mountain after great prayer and seeking. You have seen a dark angel sent to make war with you, but neither this one, nor any other will win; for I call them back as fast as they are sent. If the one praying for these is not careful, I will loose them on him and confound him; for he wishes his will over mine. Now, Child, come back to My upper room on this Mountain; and I shall answer your questions. Write as given and seen."

"My Lord, I find myself once more amidst Your splendor of peace and calm; and my first question is about the specific date for the invasion of Israel in 1999. So, I go to the page of time, sit at this desk, take the quill, and place a single drop of living water on the page. Immediately, I see many military tanks around Israel and rockets headed toward her. I hear the words, 'Beirut' and 'Iraq', and there are more, who are part of the Arab Alliance and the 'United Nations; but NATO is disbanding. I see the date, 'September 05', emerge; then I see a fierce black beast attack a lamb. However, this is no ordinary lamb; it is made of a very hard substance, like solid porcelain; and when the beast attacks the lamb, it only scratches the surface. On one side of the lamb is written 'Israel,' and on the other side is a hidden door, which suddenly opens. An Israeli soldier stands in the door and converses with his commanding officer. The officer proclaims loudly, 'We are reinforced to the hilt and we shall not be defeated!' The soldier shakes his head in agreement and slowly closes the door. As they disappear from sight, I see these words appear on the door, 'UN Dead Here'; then, the door is gone. As I ponder once more on this attack, I see the flashing date, 'Sept. 05, 1999.' On his first attack against the lamb the beast barely makes a scratch; then he backs off.

My Lord, from the message of Oct. 30, 1997, I see the UN takeover of Israel as Oct. 15, 2001. Three years from this date is Oct. 15, 2004. If the gentiles occupy Israel 42 months, we proceed forward from this date of Oct. 15th another six months and we arrive at the 15th of April 2005. Is this right?

"Child, you have asked a very good question because you believe that you have made an error, but you did not make an error."

"My Lord, I don't understand."

"Child, take the scroll and read it."

"My Lord, this scroll is blinding with a white light and I cannot read it."

"Adjust your Son-glasses."

"I focus on this writing, which reads, 'July 2001, UN takeover of Israel, Defeat of Israel Apparent.' So, the takeover is in July, 2001, rather than October?"

"Read on."

"I see 'UN preparing to move for total takeover of Israel, August, September, October, 2001.' So, the actual date of this takeover is not altogether clear."

"'Tis so, by degrees. The lamb loses first a leg, then a chunk from its side, then an ear, an eye, etc. Israel goes slowly, bit by bit. The actual date for the UN takeover will be argued; but you have not seen wrong. You have calculated and seen as I have shown you."

"My Lord, I was worrying about making a mistake."

"Child, this is known. Now, take this pitcher, drink from it, and receive this anointing; for, you shall need it."

"My Lord, I have consumed all the radiant liquid within the pitcher and it bathes me with a great peace from the inside. I am lifted up in Your complete joy and radiance! You are my Life! Thank you, My Precious Lord!"

"Child, you receive My power and anointing. Go in My strength; for, where you lack, I make you whole."

"This, I know."

"I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

END OF FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES BOOK TWO

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

INTRODUCTION

On the night of April 26, 1997 I had a dream of standing alone at the base of a mountain. In my hands were the prophecy books stacked one on top of the other. From the top of the mountain came the mighty voice of Jesus, which said, "I am well pleased in these works."

I stepped back in astonishment as the books turned suddenly into a mighty steamroller, which was guided by some unseen hand or power. It rolled forth, cutting large swaths of wheat, which grew in fields among tall buildings.

Suddenly, I found myself at home, but it did not look like the humble abode we call home. In this very large room was no furniture, save a desk. I stood behind the desk and heard the great voice from the mountain. Jesus said, "Sell the books."

At that instant, someone with a battering ram charged through the door. He was from law enforcement and brought along many hippie friends, who were stoned or drunk. They ambled around this simple room and when told to leave they would not.

The man from law enforcement said, "You had better not sell the books. There is a very rich man down the street, who will not like this!" But, I told him that I was not afraid of this man and would sell the books! Then, I ordered him and his hippies out of our house. They refused to go, and I told them that I would pray to my Father in heaven for some miracles against him if they would not leave. One by one, they ambled out; and I watched as the last one moved past me with eyes red from alcohol or dope.

Not long after I got this dream another prophet was given a prophecy about these works being a steamroller, but he had been told nothing about the dream. These prophecies are truly harvesting souls, cutting wheat (and tares). They are trying the hearts of those, who read them.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

The law enforcement agent with many demons came to visit. After a few weeks I told my husband that he must leave; and in the end the law enforcement man sided with those, who reject these prophecies.

I tell you about this dream to help you understand prophetic dreams. This dream was one of counsel, teaching, warning and prognostication. We have published Books I and II and hope to have Book III out soon. All books will be sold, as this has been commanded. I pray that the prophetic words of these books will help you in making right spiritual decisions about your future and that you will share these books with others, that they might be the wiser.

For example, Jesus said in December of 1997 that within six months the stock market would take a downturn. The market reached a high of 9311 on May 04,1998. On June 16, 1998 it dipped to 8524. Many are not concerned about this downturn, but those who are vigilant will be. The stock market will fall to great lows before the year of 1998 over. This year truly begins the seven-year-period of tribulation.

If you are on the spiritual fence, you are wearing spiritual blinders. You many think you see, but you are in denial. You are living an illusion and suffering delusions. Soon, you will find yourself flung violently to the other side. God will take what spirituality you have and you will find yourself in total spiritual darkness. If you profess a love for God, but love the material, you will be given over to the material illusion. You will not believe that your material, golden cow will soon run dry.

When you die in your materialistic world, will your materialistic idol keep you out of the dark pits? What is your idol? Your job? Television? Your hobbies? Dope? Alcohol? Sex? Will your idol keep you from roaming as a lost soul in this sphere after you die?

In death as in life many continue seeking the same kinds of things, which caused them to be lost while in bodies. They will not leave the thing, which gave them the most pleasure. Folks, disembodied spirits are down here in great numbers. In death as in life these souls continue to choose the material over God, because they loved the material when they had bodies, and did not love and serve God. Sound strange and unbelievable? Yea, if you cannot see them.

Do you keep you head buried in books or glued to the television? Do you fill your time with anything or everything, so that you do not have to face your aloneness before God; so that you do not have to repent and be accountable for your actions? Stop putting off until tomorrow the spiritual work you need to do today! You might not have the chance tomorrow! Make amends to those you have hurt and shut down the tube! Get your heads out of the computer long enough to spend quality time with God daily. Buy your wife some flowers or to spend some quality time with your hubby and children! Don't let the coming disaster catch you with no spiritual connections to your Father or to His Precious Son. In all things, seek God's will for your life: and remember…

Jesus is our Light,

CHAPTER ONE

The Cave Man

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. I honor your praying and seeking for My truths. Look around and see that you are in the upper room of My Mountain, as My Spirit has brought you here. You question whether you have done right to take such a firm stand against two, who were lying and attempting to deceive you?"

"Yes, My Lord, I have seen demons in control of them."

"You see and know; for My Spirit has shown all. Stand firm against evil."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, what you have done is not easy; for you love them. I ask you, Child, 'Can those know love, who are controlled by demons?'"

"My Lord, they cannot."

"Child, they are confounded. But you have prayed a mighty prayer on behalf of these two and the rest is up to them. You have cast out demons, who feared and blasphemed you; and in this you have done My will. Now, Child, be free of any idea that you have done wrong; for you have done my will."

"My Lord seeing those I love chase after lies and darkness has been very hard; but Your Spirit has kept me on course. In all things, My Lord, I seek Your will."

"Child, in time you shall see a change in them. The evil demons in control have maintained an 'in-your-face attitude' for years. It is time for them to humble themselves before Me; for I know all; I see all. Now, Little One, I have more for you today." (Note: These words, spoken of our Lord about the positive changes to come about in these two people, have begun as this date, July 01, 1998.)

"Thank you, My Lord, let us proceed."

"Child, look at the rotating disk before you. Notice that it has many holes; and through these holes pours a white light?"

"Yes, My Lord, it is before me; and I notice that others in white robes are seated around me."

"Child, take hold of this sphere."

"My Lord, I have grabbed hold of it, but it is vibrating mightily. As I strive to hold on, it suddenly explodes, leaving someone standing before me, who looks like a caveman. Then, the caveman disappears leaving a crumpled white robe on the floor, which soon vanishes. In an instant the caveman returns, standing behind a large tree, holding a wooden club in his right hand. Behind him is a rather dark forest with many of these cave men, hiding behind trees, holding wooden clubs, and looking this way.

Suddenly, I am aloft, soaring upon the Wings of Your Spirit. The gentle breeze of Your Spirit carries me to an area on the other side of the forest, which is lighted well with bright light. In this lighted area, I see a low hill with a castle atop it. The castle is well lighted, and within it is a person dressed like a king. Flying saucers are steadily entering and leaving the base of the hill and little soldiers, who look like gnomes, come and go saluting the king.

The king places a monocle to his right eye and looks far to the area of the Red Sea. ‘I shall own these whores,’ he says. ‘I am the king. I am the one, who will place enough leverage on their fine asses to make them honor and worship me. I am their master, and they SHALL worship me.’ My Lord, would you please explain what is happening."

"Child, did you come to My upper room on this Mountain?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord."
"Did you see several of my angels, dressed in white, seated on either side of you?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Did you see a sphere with many holes, with white light shining through the holes?"

"Yes, My Lord, what was it?"

"Child, is black, white, and white, black?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then, just as surely as black is not white and white is not black, Lucifer does not serve Me or the causes of Light."

"But, My Lord, what does this have to do with the sphere?'

"Child, look at the sphere. Do you see it changing back and forth?"

"Yes, My Lord, it changes back and forth from the sphere with lighted holes to the sphere of the Earth."

"Child, this rotating sphere with the radiant holes is the Earth."

"But, why would I hold the Earth in my hands?"

"Were you told to do this by Me?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, you have held the Earth in your hands."

"I don't understand."

"In what way?"

"I don't understand what happened."

"You held the Earth, and it vibrated mightily. Is this not right?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, look deeply. Think deeply. Be deep in this. You hold the destiny of the Earth in your hands, and it has shaken you mightily; for you see its holes."

"Yes, My Lord, I follow you in this; but the Earth disappeared and a caveman with a club appeared. Please explain."

"Child, go to the red convertible and open the door. Who gets out?"

"It looks like Queen Elizabeth; however, when she turns to me, she is clearly not the Queen but an ugly black and red lizard, which is sticking its forked tongue in my direction. I am wondering what her connection is to the cave man?"

"It is great! Child, did you see the caveman vanish and the white robe fall to the floor?"

"Yes, My Lord; but what does this have to do with the Queen?"

"Child, as the Gila monster/Queen gets out of the red convertible, what does she drag behind her?"

"My Lord, she drags the white robe; which is stuck to the end of the lizard tail. Every now and then the Queen appears and she puts on the white robe. When she wears the white robe, she stands before large crowds, tears white petals from daisies and tosses them to the waiting crowds. 'I shall keep the gold centers,' she says; and she places the gold centers of the daisies in the pockets of the white robe. It is very difficult to separate the Queen from this dark monster, as she changes back and forth so quickly. My Lord, what does the Queen have to do with the cave man?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, who is the cave man?"

"My Lord, he is the evil ‘R’ man, who comes and goes from the cave in the mountain, which is really the basement of his castle."

"Child, you have held the destiny of the Earth in your hands, and have been shaken mightily. You have seen how the destiny gives way to the works of the cave man and the one, who wears the white robe, the Queen. You have seen many cave men, hiding behind trees in the dark forest, all clutching clubs. What do you make of these cavemen?"

"This is complicated. These cavemen are perhaps extensions of the evil ‘R’ man and these clubs are not really manual clubs, used to strike, but are secret organizations of the dark forest, representing Lucifer."

"Child, this is close, but not all. Look at the cave man. When he smiles, what do you see?"

"I see that he has teeth, which are very white for a caveman. They are big, strong teeth, with a single gold star on the left, front tooth. His fingernails are curled and thick; and when he walks his curled, thick toenails dig into the dirt and give him traction. His keen hearing allows him to perceive the slightest sound. His knees are wooden, like those of a puppet; and his right leg is cracked and weakened from the crack. He hears every tick of the clock and watches his time very carefully. He walks with the steps of a giant, and when he walks the earth trembles; but he has back trouble. One of his disks, called ‘slippery elm’, keeps slipping from side to side. Yet, he goes forward despite a mighty headwind and lights many fires in his path. He climbs atop a mountain and from afar his mighty roar can be heard, piercing the air like that of a grizzly bear.

Looking closer, I see that the feet of the cave man are chained to the King of the hill. This King takes a mighty whip and beats the cave man until his back bears stripes. The whip tears into the back of the cave man: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten times it cracks. The stripes burn hot and flames appear on the cave man's back. Amidst the furor of the flames, the angry cave man roars and charges ahead, gaining speed from the heat of the fire. But, soon the fires of the stripes begins to dwindle, leaving nothing but charred stripes. 'Poland' is the last burning stripe to go; and when it goes, the cave man falls into red mire, face first. Then, the King of the hill throws a match upon the caveman and burns him into ashes.

'I am The King of the Mountain,' the one atop the hill says; and little gnomes dance at his feet. 'Get them ready, boys,' he shouts to the gnomes. 'The good ole days are just beginning!' Then, he lights a roaring fire in the giant living area of his palace and he begins to clean out the palace, piece by piece, and throwing all into a roaring fire. He shakes in his boots, but is careful that the gnomes do not see. When all possessions are burned, he flies out of the castle upon the wings of his king's robe. Behind him, the castle goes up in mighty flames.

'Cross the stream, Master, cross the stream,' one of the gnomes calls out to the so-called king. 'It is about to dry up, and no more than a trickle shall remain!' Then, the so-called king takes one jump and crosses the stream. He pauses a while unnoticed and watches a chess game in the desert. Soon, he becomes bored with this chess game; for all is moving too slow. 'Pour out the fuel around the perimeter,' he orders! And, the gnomes pour fuel all the way around the perimeter of the desert. 'Stand guard, ' he barks! Then, flying saucers appear and stand guard around the perimeter of the desert. 'A star is born,' he says. 'A star is born! A star is born!'

The self-proclaimed king is wise as the owl, cunning as the fox and slick as the snake. 'Get in the rotunda now! It will happen! I will make it happen,' he growls. Immediately, a person in black, who looks like Darth Vader of Star Wars, takes a sword of light and strikes it across a large, standing army. Quickly, the soldiers begin to fall until only one-third remains. Then, the wannabe King goes after the Red Horse, who carries the red flag with the star and the half moon. He orders the Darth Vader look-alike to throw a ball of white fire into the midst of the Red Horse; and it causes a great burning of flesh. ‘Nuke them into nothingness,’ the King commands. And, those of the Red Horse are nuked. They are the Chinese!"

"Child, you tire, but this is not all. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWO

THE CAVE MAN & COMING OF LUCIFER CLARIFIED

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Your cries are heard. Even to the depths of your soul, you beg for the highest good for others, that they not be lost. Come into My Radiant Upper Room and meet my angels, who are ready to greet you. Your energies are low but I shall renew you. Reach out and take the fruit from the tray. Eat it, Child, and write as given and seen."

"My Lord, I take this fruit, which reminds me of the fruit from The Tree of Knowledge; but it has no projections. It tastes sweet like grapes, but has a scent of almond. As I chew, it expands in my mouth and seems to be absorbed as pure, radiant energy through my tongue, my cheeks, my teeth, and upward into my head. This fruit travels down my throat as a liquid and seems to have a mind of its own, somewhat like water, seeking its own places. I see tiny white light stars beginning to form throughout my body. They begin to explode, like individual sparklers, each reaching out to touch another, creating an expansive explosion of light throughout me filling tiny recesses in my soul.

The heavenly nectar of this fruit spills onto my hands and runs down my clothing, creating a white light brilliance. I have eaten the whole fruit and am surprised to see that it has no core or seeds. Another fruit appears on the tray before me and I grasp it hungrily, as it fills a hunger in my soul like nothing I have ever eaten. I cradle it gently in my hands and devour its tender, juicy flesh. Its divine radiance bathes my soul, heals my wounds, and restores me with divine light. I consume this one and reach for another, devouring it in like fashion. The fruit has expanded within me and filled me exploding me with feelings of satisfaction, joy and peace. All around me, little stars of white light twinkle, colliding one with the other, to produce an explosion of white light, which burns within and around me a pure, heavenly melody. What inexplicable joy! Thank you, My Precious Jesus. You have brought great joy to a soul, which was weary with the sadness of the world. My Lord, I am deeply humbled and grateful beyond words. Please explain what has happened."

"Child, you have eaten of the fruit of The Tree of Life. This powerful fruit has restored you, renewed you, and brought you to a much higher energy level. It has healed you, brought you balance and peace of mind; and it has empowered you with a greater life force. This anointing is a gift from Me."

"Praises to you, My Precious Lord! Your love fills me to overflowing! As I look around, it seems that my spirit reaches far beyond its normal bounds and I am filled with great light."

"Child, you are not used to such depth of power; but you must learn to get used to this. For, this is just the beginning."

"Thank you, My Precious Lord! With this power, I pray for rapid printing of these books; and I see that in time all From the Mountain books are printed."

"Now, My Lord, I have a question. In June of this year (1997), You told me that Russia would turn on the USA in five months; but I have not seen this. You have told me to challenge You on what You say, so here goes."

"Child, it is good that you challenge Me on these messages; I expect this. Look far below to Russia. Russia does have, in fact, five other countries, which are part of a secret Soviet alliance, which will be known in time. You will hear more about this Red Alliance by the end of Nov. 1997. The days of Boris Yeltsin are truly numbered." (Note: This five-month timeline would come to pass almost to the day, just as Jesus said. Russia, China and France sided with the Arabs in Geneva against the strict policies of the USA toward Iraq in Nov. of 1997. As of this date, which is July 1998, there is widespread opposition to Yeltsin in Russia, with talk of impeachment. The Russian economy is hurling downward with many, many in government employ unpaid for months. The economy of Russia is said to be in ruins, and Russia is seeking more loans from the International Monetary Fund. The USA is the fat cow situated to the South of the hungry bear and all should be gravely concerned!)

"You told me that Yeltsin would be murdered by factions of Muslims."

"Child, you shall see all come to pass. The communists are getting ready to move; much is being done covertly and the cards are falling into place rapidly. The hard-liners will see the demise of Yeltsin and this will be sooner, rather than later. Look for a very black winter for Russia beginning with the winter of 1998. This black winter will lead to great internal chaos, which will be a time for them to seize control."

"The prophecy of June 17, 1997 states that Russia will take a stand against the USA and turn back red."

"Child, go back and check. I said that Russia will take a stand against you in five months, and that the government will turn back 'red.' Much is going on, which you cannot see, as your media is so controlled. Strong anti-American sentiments prevail in Russia and in many places around the world. The communists are building up much hate for you; the red tide is rising and you are a sitting duck." (Note: Within this time frame, I see that the Russian Parliament has a bill before it to stop Americans from adopting Russian children, one indication of the rising red tide.)

"So, by then end of November, 1997, I will see Russia take a stand against the USA?"

"You will see it; for I will bring it across your path. Make note of this; for you will have been told that this stand is coming." (See above note about the Russian stand.)

"My Lord, I have a few questions about the messages from yesterday. Let us start with the giant cave man. What is the star on his left front tooth?"

"The star on his left tooth is Lucifer."

"But, why the left tooth?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Why not?"

"I do not know."

"Child, I am the right way. I sit on the right hand of The Father. Lucifer, on the other hand is the opposite of the right way. He reaches far, far to the left, as far from the right as he can get."

"What does the cracked, right leg mean?"

"Child, Germany walks on two legs, East and West; and East Germany bears the crack. This crack is very obvious if you go there; and this crack will drain the giant in his walk."

"How so?"

"One with a cracked leg has trouble walking quickly and erectly. Know that the crack will bring problems."

"Tell me about his back trouble?"

"Child, see the disk problem, called ‘slippery elm.’ What is ‘slippery elm?’"

"Slippery?"

"‘Tis true."

"But how would this relate to the giant?"

"Child, that, which is slippery, cannot be held. It is constantly falling from one’s grasp."

"So, this is the snake part of this man? His slippery nature causes him to have problems walking erectly?"

"Child, his slippery nature causes him to lose face; and in time he will be unable to walk erectly among others. For, all will be seen and known."

"Tell me about the burning stripes."

"The ten countries, which follow after him."

"And, these are?"

"USA, Canada, Denmark, Poland, England, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy (Oh, yes! Italy!), Sicily."

"What about Belgium?"

"You will see and hear much about this little country as time goes along. Child, do these double deal with Hussein and his?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Are these the only ten?"

"These are the ten stripes."

"I do hope that I have heard and written these countries correctly."

"Child, your fears are known."

"When Lucifer crosses the stream, does he then take the body of the Syrian?"

"Yes, indeed!"

"My Lord, explain the chess game."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"It is a game in which Iraq is the pawn, along with Iran, Pakistan and anyone, who thinks he can outsmart this one."

"What is the fuel?"

"Limestone."

"Limestone?"

"Yes, Child, ‘tis so."

"What does this mean?"

"Child, what is limestone to you?"

"It is a very porous rock, which is a common earth substrate. As it is very porous, water dissolves it and often creates caves or pockets beneath the earth. But, why limestone?"

"He pours out destructive, porous material around the perimeter of the desert and any, who might cross, will be dissolved, just as water dissolves limestone."

"Is this a destructive substance he has concocted?"

"Yes, indeed."

"Not yet known to man?"

"Yes, indeed."

"So many innocents are killed?"

"Exactly; for, this looks like crushed limestone."

"And, what about the flying saucers?"

"They will activate this substance through beams of light."

"Is this like a radioactive substance?"

"It looks like crushed limestone, but emits a poison, a toxin, which travels."

"What kind of diabolical mess is this?"

"It is diabolical."

"So, this is the 'fuel'?"

"Yes, indeed."

"What star they are watching for?"

"It is he, Lucifer, who comes in a flash of light. This flash will be visible over the desert; and he will make his presence known when he takes over, as there will be many unexplained phenomena. Some will rejoice, but many will quake in their shoes; for they haven't a clue what is happening. Mine will not rejoice in this because they know Me and My word; they will know that this show is Luciferian to the core."

"I have seen this Darth Vader look-a-like machine twice. Does this represent the Arab Alliance? If I once knew, I have forgotten."

"Remember, the men in black, the clones, … the swords of light they use represent lasers. They are using high tech to wipe out large segments of standing armies, to vaporize them literally with these beams. It may look like Star Wars, but it is not. This is real Luciferian."

"So, he attacks the Arabs, then the Chinese, and they all fall in line?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"He wants to think this. Indeed, they are powerless to his sophisticated machine. They are in a state of shock, … mesmerized."

"Tell me about the false prophet."

"See him (Lucifer) pull the man from the casket? He is sleeping toy soldier when Lucifer dusts him off and gives him a double dose of his power. This one will appear within very few weeks of the appearance of the Antichrist. Watch for this; for, he will do many things you believe to be miraculous, even heal the sick. But, do not be fooled; for, I have told you in advance what to expect."

"My Lord, this seems like science fiction. It is so bizarre."

"Child, I see you tire. We will get do more at a later time. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER THREE

ANOINTING AND BLESSINGS OF THE TWELVE

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Look around and you will see that you are atop My Mountain, in my Upper Room. Your great prayers from deep within your soul have brought you here. What do you see?"

"My Lord, I see many men, all dressed in radiant white. Each has a powerful, radiant, white-light energy field around him. Their eyes radiate this same powerful, white light; and I believe they are the Twelve Apostles. In deep humility, I fall to my knees; for I do not feel that I am worthy to be in the same room with such devoted ones. One pulls me up to sit in the white chair and I am weeping. I recognize him as The Apostle, Peter; and he is so kind."

"Child, why do you weep," Peter asks?

"Peter, I weep because of my inadequacies before you, who are so powerful in your walk before God. I feel so small and you are so great."

"Sit in the chair, Little One, that we may anoint you. From this point, your walk will get harder, as you go with more power. Remember those of us, who have gone on before, and how difficult the path. When you believe you are alone, remember that you are not. When you feel alone, never fail to come with great seeking to Our Lord, with a great yearning in your heart; and you shall be filled with The Holy Spirit. This is The Promise of Our Lord. Even in the face of death, remember to pray; and you will be filled with love and power of The Holy Spirit; the sting will be taken away. It is known that you and many others will die for the causes of Our Lord.

You have been chosen for a work like few others in this day. Remember: we do much that you are unaware of; and when you expect it least, we are with you. Now, we lay our hands upon your head and shoulders and we bless you. We of the Twelve bless you with the gift of miracles; for, you shall see many. You shall heal the sick with a touch of your hand, with a prayer, with the sound of your voice; and you shall raise the dead. You shall bind evil and stand in its ugly face; and you shall shut down evil places and actions with curses from your mouth. You shall walk dark and dangerous streets and you shall be safe until it is your time. You shall speak death to the clones and to those, who love evil, and they shall die. You fear this, for you love life. But, remember: those, who love evil, promote harm and death of others. Do you uphold this, or do you stand, even a single one, against this?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I stand, even alone, against evil."

"Then, be blessed with the power to speak against this evil and bring it down. You will be revered and you will be feared; and you will be cursed and blasphemed; but dark words shall slide off you as water off a duck. They will effect you in no way, regardless of what is said; for, you rely on the almighty power of The Holy Spirit. It is sealed to you through good and bad, riches and poverty; for, you shall know the depths and heights of both before you die. We seal upon you these Blessings of The twelve, each of us in agreement. If you feel weak or shaky, it is because of the power, which has been poured into you. For, we are of one accord."

"Yes, I feel very weak and shaky."

"But, this shall not be for long' for you shall go with much more power and energy. You shall be healed of your infirmities; even your vision shall improve. These blessings we impart to you; and you shall see all come to pass. You are a prophetess of God, called of Our Lord, Jesus. You have dedicated yourself to His causes, and (have been) found worthy to walk this path. You will do a mighty work from your humble abode; and when you leave, you will have brought millions away from evil and back to Our Lord. Millions will thank you that you saved them from torment.

Your feet are shod in The Word. Your eyes are ablaze with The Fire of God; and your heart carries the depth of His compassion. Your mind carries The Wisdom of Our Lord, and your hands bear the miracle of healing.

We are with you. We are The Quorum of The twelve, The twelve Apostles. We do a mighty work, of which you are not familiar. We walk beside you, even to your dying day."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 6th day of November, 1997,

Linda Newkirk

Note: Some of the blessings and words of wisdom given by The Apostles in this message have definitely come to pass. Among them are a number of miracles. One most astounding miracle is the miracle of the irises. I picked three white irises to give to a friend, who could not carry them on the plane. Jesus instructed me to put them on a shelf without water. "Let them be a testament to Me," he said. Jesus told me that the irises would bloom six days, on the sixth day they would begin to turn brown, and on the seventh day they would all be dead. The irises sat on the shelf in the heat of the high eighties and continued to bloom in majestic beauty. I could see a glow around them and knew that it was a light from Jesus sustaining them. They died as Jesus said they would, by the seventh day, a true testament to Him and His word.

Jesus performed a miracle on our dog, Cookie, who was hit by a car. The bone in his leg was broken and actually swung back and forth; and God showed me in a vision how it was severed. Immediately, I began to pray and prayed daily for this precious animal. We did not have money for a veterinarian and I knew that his healing depended on God. As the days went by, the leg started to swell. Then, the swelling slowly disappeared and he began to stand on his leg, then walk, then run. God completely healed his leg within a few weeks. Praises to our Lord!

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

There have been other miracles, but I will not go into all.

What I was told about life getting harder has definitely been true. People I thought to be friends turned on me with a vengeance; even certain family members; and all of this came about because of the prophecies. During this time, I became very sick and was ill for many weeks. The work on Book III came to a standstill because I was so tired so much of the time. Praise God for adversity. There is a reason for all things. Adversity is not necessarily bad. It is just hard.

CHAPTER FOUR

SPIRITUAL DEATH

"Precious Child, your deep prayers, your deep searching, and desires to serve me have brought you once again to this Upper Room upon My Mountain. Your prayers have been recorded and they include many questions about others. Yea, because of your prayers, I have opened you up to greater power in your walk and dissolved wounds of long ago. Those involved will begin to see with different eyes, hear with different ears, and speak with different voices.

Those, who live in the past, can have no present or future; for, their lives are stagnant. They need prayer, not condemnation. You, too, will see through different eyes, hear through different ears, and speak with a different voice about those, who have hurt you."

"Yes, My Lord, I can only feel love for those, who have hurt me, because I see how lost they are. But, I do not fail to recognize their games of manipulation. I watch as these manipulative games move into all their affairs, groping to ensnare others. These snares look like fiberglass hooks, which flow forth from the manipulators, and threaten to sting. My Lord, I abhor these tools. They cause such heartache. I am sorrowful for those, who use manipulation to control and to lie; my Lord, have mercy. Be forgiving. Keep us free in You, Jesus. There will always be those, who love the world, but let the worldly learn their lessons sooner rather than later that their souls do not get caught up in darkness and lost in the Pits or wander in these sphere lost and cut off from You and our Precious Father. Precious Jesus, You are our Life!"

"Child, you are the wiser for seeing these tools. You have pointed out these tools to those, who use them; but they just do more to use them in the face of your words. These two shall enwrap themselves in these tools and they shall sting themselves as if they were caught in a school of jellyfish. They shall sting and itch as if they stood in a bed of fire ants. You ask if this punishment is of Me. Child, this is of them and is the end result of manipulative games. Manipulators are users and abusers of others; they play emotional and mental games to get their way. They want control at all costs; but they lose much more than the ones they rip off. Each time they manipulate others, they take a scoop and dig a deeper hole. This hole is called ‘self-doubt and isolation.’ What they throw out with the scoop is called ‘self-esteem and love’; for they lose favor with themselves in their own eyes; and this is the most damning. In time these holes become so deep that the manipulator is in one, great, dark hole and their souls become dark to the core. And, you guessed it: When they die, their spirits, their souls, go to dark places; and I have not even mentioned the hurt these have caused others by their using and manipulating.

This hurt inflicted on others will come back on them when they expect it least. It will inflict wounds on them like bee stings and they will be in a constant source of pain. They reap what they have caused others. Child, you say, ’Well, most of us never get to see how others reap what they sow.’ At times, you do; at other times, you do not. But, remember, Child: "The weight of one’s actions is like The Sword of Damocles. It stands ready to deal one fatal blow."

"You mean, such weight can bring a swift death?"

"It can bring a swift mental death, a swift physical death, a swift emotional death, and especially a swift spiritual death. The first to go is the spiritual; and it is fast in coming."

"My Lord, explain the spiritual death."

"Child, the one with the spiritual death is the one with a dark soul. This one knows neither Me nor Our Father, breaks most if not all spiritual laws; and has no spiritual life. The Holy Spirit will not indwell such a person, and this one cannot reach me as long as he continues in manipulation.

I respond to the sincere of heart. Most often, these (who are spiritually dead) come to God when they wish to manipulate God; but God will not be manipulated. These (who are spiritually dead) spin a dark web, which carries them into The Pits of Hell, where they will play their games of manipulation, as long as they work. Child, pray the perfect prayer for them: that the will of God be done in their lives. This is My will and is a perfect will.

Now, Little One, I have taken you back to The Book of Revelation, and you have seen the appearance of The Second Beast. As many times as you have read The Book of Revelation, you have failed to see this part about the second beast. Yet, I have told you of the two powerful ones, who continue with The Beast System, … Germany and Syria. It is the same system, only more tyrannized under the second leader, as this is Lucifer, himself, embodied. You have asked about the ten heads and the seven crowns. You have seen the ten heads under Germany. You ask of the seven crowns. My Child, have you been given crowns of honor?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"This system of the red dragon will wear seven. They are not crowns of honor but crowns of darkness. They are: 1.malicious persecution; 2.death; 3.betrayal; 4.disease; 5.the conquering spirit; 6.malingering in all forms, and 7.diabolical (Luciferian) power."

"Explain ‘malingering in all forms?’"

"These are evil works, which include any and all attempts to harm. These works include the love of a lie and what a lie can do. Those, who love Me and My causes, love the truth. They live the truth and they maintain their lives based upon truth. It is better to be poor, even homeless, and love the truth rather than a lie. Those, who embrace truth, know Me and the principles of Our Father; but, those, who love a lie, love Satan.

This path of truth is a difficult path; for lies come often in pretty packages. Lies are the tools of convenience, and it is often impossible to know the truth from a lie unless you have My Holy Spirit. To know the difference between the truth and a lie is the basis of the gift of discernment; but you shall not have this gift to begin with if you love a lie, or engage in lying; for, My Spirit will not indwell you. This is the nature of the difficult path.

Child, you think about the so-called psychics, the sensitives, who pick up on subtle vibrations from others' voices, emotions or body language. Often, they operate through their own wiles with the help of familiar spirits and demons. Your world is replete with those, who seek help from any source but Me. I am The Way, The Truth, The Light and The Life. Those, who depend on psychics for guidance as a way of life, will find themselves with less money and more confusion over time; for they will be told many lies. Yet, subtle truth mixed with lies will keep the lost coming back; for they seek a remedy for their hurting souls. The bad news, Child, is that the more a person relies on another person for spiritual direction, the more dependent this one becomes on others, who are also lost to varying degrees. In this, the one, who is searching, moves further and further away from Me, your source of truth and light. I am truly The Life, The Way, The Truth and The Light. Those, who move closer to Me over time, know this to be true without fail.

Child, I will cover more later about the simple way: My way. I will bring simple words, simple tools, to show the lost how they must build their lives, step by step in Me and My word. This is a simple path; yet few find it or stay on it; for to grow in Me and My light means putting Me first. The glitz of the world carries away the masses; and just when the promise is greatest for the faithful, Lucifer speeds up his desire to take more souls. Truly, this is a time like none other. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

THE TWO COMING PROPHETS OF ISRAEL AND MORE…

"Precious Child, pick up the pen and write. You have sought me long and hard in prayer, speaking mightily through My Spirit. You have brought closure to longstanding situations, which begged for closure; you have barred lies and you have caused My Spirit to pour forth a true, living water, where needed. In ways that you do not know, you have brought miracles, and to the ways of the wicked, you have brought curses. Nay, Child, the wicked shall not stand, but shall burn as stubble in the last days. Woe to the wicked, and to those whose love runs cold for me. They are in the clutches of Lucifer and My foot is upon them.

Now, Child, look around, for you are in My Upper Room of My Mountain. Indeed, all is glorious with My radiance. This is The Sabbath, a day or rest in Me. Yet, around the world so few rest in Me. Indeed, My place in their hearts is reduced to a token and their love for Me runs cold. I am squeezed out by the lure of the material illusion, but not for long. For, I shall forge a place in the lives of many through adversity. Many, who squeeze me out amidst comfort, will come on bended knees, amidst upheaval and destruction. Yet, in their time of plenty they knew me not. Shall I be quick to respond to those, who have loved the material over me? Nay! This shall not be. Many shall come to a dry well; for I shall forsake them for a time."

"But, My Lord, you are all-forgiving."

"Child, 'tis so. I shall forgive when the heart and spirit are ripe for forgiveness; many of them shall go a long time before they are ripe for forgiveness. Child, you have been there, you know. It takes much time for the threads of darkness to be removed from one's spirit, one's body, one's being. And, evil demons will stalk those with these threads. Have you not seen this?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, many shall come before Me with dark, evil threads in their make-up, and with minds and hearts bearing a pittance for Me. Shall I illumine this with My Spirit? Nay, It shall not indwell this, but will indwell a heart, a body, a mind, a soul, which is totally broken, humbled in deep sorrow. The majority of these shall not know deep sorrow; for they have lived an insincere existence, founded on a lie, the lie being that they have loved Me all along. Nay, they have often on perverse preachers of the word to bring them truth. Yea, they have relied on the lost to feed the lost. In their great day of need, these shall be caught up in a dark whirlwind of their own making. Child, I have placed a curse upon the USA through the mouths of My prophets, and it shall prevail a long time."

"How long, My Lord?"

"Its remnants shall be upon the land for 250 years. And, even though The Millenium shall emerge and My Light shall befall this planet, many, who live in the USA, will struggle. For, you are a stiff-necked people, once blessed, but now accursed. You have prostituted the minds of the children and carried whoredom and prostitution into the homes of innocents the world over. Yea, you have a debt; and even in the face of bounty the world over, The United States of America shall lag behind."

"My Lord, this is great. Please have mercy upon these people to come? I beg this!"

"Child, your requests are known. Yet, My inroads into the minds of the offspring shall be slow and well into The Millenium before great prosperity will be known again. The USA will be reduced to rubble. See it will sparkle again in 350-post millenium. And it will thrive again until near the end of My millennial reign, when it will know downfall afterwards."

"What about the evil ones in Germany and the Syrians?"

"Even their fate shall not compare to that of the USA; for you have polluted the entire world for decades. They will kill millions, even billions; but you were once My chosen, My blessed, and you deserted Me as a nation for love of Satan. In your love for him, you brought millions into his clutches. Yes, what you have done is great; for, you have stolen My place in their hearts and made them ripe for destruction. Child, you cannot know the depths of what you have done as a country, but it is deep, very deep. You have other questions."

"Yes, My Lord, I have questions about the two prophets, who will prophesy during the last few years of UN rule over Israel."

"Child, it would do no good to name people or show faces; these are My chosen prophets. You ask if they are Elijah and Enoch. I say, 'No, these are not Elijah and Enoch, but will do works just as great.' You ask if they have worked as My prophets in other lives. I say,' Yes, even as you have been the prophet, Aaron, and others of lesser stature, these have been prophets in other times, even Samuel and Zechariah. Yea, these have been mighty prophets, who wished to return. Called and chosen, they know who they are; and I am preparing them to return to Israel from different parts of the world. They have been called to this Mountain, even as you. Child, these are the latter days and Satan has his most powerful governing the world. I, likewise, send My most faithful to carry out My work. Let it be known that many false prophets will show up in Israel, believing they are the chosen; but they will go by the wayside readily. The two, true prophets, who are not only chosen, but have requested and desired to do this work, shall stand amidst great harshness. But, I am with them, and until it is their time, they shall have all power over evil. Yea, Child, these are My mysteries revealed to My tried and true servants.

You read yesterday that Tony Alamo believes himself to be one of the two and that he believes his wife will be raised from the dead to be the second. Nay, this is not so, but of his own imaginings. Child, he never made it to the top of My Mountain. No one can receive deep prophecies from me, unless this one makes it to the top of My Mountain. You have experienced the great opposition Lucifer exerts to keep all off this Mountain. This opposition, darkness, and evil of Satan and his servants strives to stop each and every one from rising to such spiritual heights. Yet, My desire instilled in My Chosen is a strong force, which attracts and propels. And, the evil ones cannot defeat what I have decided will come to pass. My will is supreme and in accord with that of Our Father. Child, remember this."

"My Lord, I never cease to be amazed and humbled. At times I feel life a small ant before such power; I feel so inadequate and lacking."

"Child, this is known; but My Spirit empowers you. It brings ability, where you are lacking; and it provides power, truth, and wholeness in abundance to My faithful. Your cup runneth over."

"My Lord, what is meant by Your Spirit is 'sealed' to me, as Your Apostles said when they blessed me. I have also read in the Bible that Your Spirit was sealed to The Ephesians."

"Child, look in Revelation and see where mine are sealed in their foreheads. These are the 144,000 and these were decided upon before the foundations of the world. The Ephesians, though not large in number, were sealed to My Spirit, as you have been sealed, in the forehead. Yet, this was known before the foundations."

"What is this sealing, exactly, and what does it do?"

"It is a promise, given of me, that you know the depths, the heights and breadths of my word, of my mysteries. It is a promise that you will have The Holy Spirit at all times to empower you; for you have been tested; you have been tried; and you have been found worthy to have this honor. You know and show Me to be your first love, your truth, your way, your light, and your life. And, you honor Me in this way continually. You go often on your knees to seek forgiveness, to keep your cup clean and overflowing with My Living Water, My Spirit. You humble yourself before Me and you abhor evil. Child, in this way, My Spirit is sealed to you. This is My Holy Spirit of Promise; this is My Promise. And, yes indeed, Child, you keep my commandments and you detest a lie. When you think that this is a difficult walk, you think right. The Ephesians had others to walk with; but, Child, you walk alone; this is the difficulty of the path. And, even though The Ephesians had others to walk with, they stumbled and lost favor with Me; for, they began to put eating, drinking, and socializing before Me. That of the world began to take precedence over Me and My Spirit. This is why I had something against them. The Greek translation is right in this; for I had something against them."

"So, they were among the 144,000, selected before the foundations. Are some of these back now?"

"Child, many are back and upon My Mountain. Read Revelation and you will see the 144,000 upon My Mountain. These are virgins; their cup is pure; it overfloweth with My Spirit; and My Spirit is sealed to them. They are undefiled with love of the material; they love Me through and through."

"But, My Lord, are some of these 144,000, who appear with You on Your Holy Mountain, in spirit?"

"Child, some are in spirit, but are bound by this common thread: they were chosen before the foundations. You ask if all know who they are. Some do, but these are few. Child, let us stop for today. I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

MOSES AND THE STAR OF DAVID

"Precious Child, your great prayers have brought you to the heights of My Mountain, even to My upper-most crest. Yea, you stand on the top of My Mountain, most pure and radiant. Child, take this radiant ball of white light; immerse yourself in it, and be renewed in me."

"My Lord, as I take this ball of white light in my hands, it expands and envelops my body. Immediately, I feel a higher energy level, more power, and total peace and calm. How I cherish this space!"

"Child, enter my Upper Room; for this door is open to you."

"My Lord, someone greets me with radiant, blue eyes, which shine with pure a white light. He wears a long, white beard and is dressed in a white robe with a hood; yet, the hood is pulled back and exposes his head of glistening, white hair. He stands before me, his feet clad in sandals. My Lord, I believe this is Moses, the great prophet."

"Child, this is so; for you know Moses well; you have spoken to him many times in this life."

"Seeing my old friend and brother stirs up knowledge of his past anger toward me; for I failed him; I was foolish."

"Yea, Child, but let go of these memories and receive your relative now. For, you are connected from long, long ago, and bear a love, which spans time."

"My Lord, he wears a radiant watch and is pointing to the time. The brilliance, which comes from the watch, is nearly blinding; but I can discern that it is a few minutes shy of 12:00."

"Little One," Moses says, "Do you remember how I came to you first in 1991. You begged for a teacher and came daily praying at 4:00 AM, rain or shine. I came to you then and I come to you now, to reaffirm your work, to cause you to take big steps, to jump over islands and oceans. For, there is much to be done, and so few, who are worthy."

I fall to the floor before Moses and begin to weep. "But, Moses, of all I am perhaps the least worthy in so many ways."

"Yea, the least shall be the greatest, and the last shall be first."

"Why are you here, Moses?"

"To bring you this."

"It is a Star of David, attached to a ribbon."

"Little One, this is no ordinary Star of David, and this ribbon is no ordinary ribbon."

"I look at this, which you have placed around my neck; and I feel a Star of David. It glows with a white fire and sticks to my chest. When I touch The Star, it sticks to my fingers like a cube of frozen ice. Indeed, it is cold to the touch. The ribbon of green, red and white has melted into my shoulders and neck and has disappeared. This Star of David sticks to me and will not come off my chest. It is strange that it feels cold yet radiates such light; but as my fingers rest on it, it gets warmer and warmer, until it is hot to my hands. Steam begins to rise. What is going on? I fear that I shall be burned."

"I am on bended knees before Moses when he puts his hands on my head. His right hand is on my forehead and his left hand is on the top of my head. The sounds of the ticking watch fill my ears as Moses begins to speak. Some unknown language pours from his lips, but the Holy Spirit translates immediately: "Hurt nurtured over time must be cured, it must be healed, let go of. Be free of past hurts from our day that you can be more empowered in this present day. Old wounds last a long time; but, at the hands of Jesus, a heart can be made whole."

"Moses, I am not consciously aware of old hurts; I have only read of them. But, if I have them, I beg Jesus to dissolve them and set me free, that I can have these dark spots filled with His power and light. I wish to carry no ill feelings toward anyone."

"Then, Little One, let it be so, that old weights be lifted, dissolved in entirety. For, I come to help, to show you the way in these latter days. Yea, all prophets called in these latter days need to be able to call on the expertise of those gone on. For, it is this collective wisdom, this collective knowledge, which can be accessed. For, you are guaranteed this wisdom of the prophets."

"Then, I beg of you, and I beg of My Lord, Jesus, that I may be found worthy to carry the wisdom of the prophets, to exercise this wisdom, this power, for the highest good, to carry out the will of our, Lord, Jesus. Might I be found worthy.'

"Little One, this is a must: a fast, even a fresh juice fast devoted to Our Lord two to three days a week, a great prayer and fast day each Sunday, a specific request repeated to Our Lord for these powers, this wisdom. And, prepare yourself to receive this power. Expect it, and you will see and do what I did, yea, even to the parting of waters. Yet, you must seek this and to you it shall be given. This is my promise to you. I am Moses, and I come under the stewardship of Our Lord, and Savior, Jesus, The Christ. All latter day prophets have this same access. Many will not do the work to get it, and many will not hear us or see us. This does not change this promise. This is part of the seal of The Holy Spirit of Promise. This is part of the promise that you know the height, the width, and depth of The Spirit. There are many ready, willing and participating in the work of Our Lord behind the scenes, of which you know nothing; and all do a powerful work. I will go for now. But, carry this blessing."

"Moses, what is the nature of The Star of David?"

"Little One, this shall come to you in time; and, you shall have a full understanding of this. For now, just be advised that you have been blessed with the power of The Star of David. Wherever you go, you carry The Star of David. You have been given this and no other prophet has it at this time. You will see much unfold, which involves This Star, and you will be amazed. Mark this. You will throw open your mouth, and cover it mouth with your hand. Then, you will say, 'I am amazed!' And, you will remember this conversation."

"My Lord, Moses is gone, and I am deeply humbled his appearance. I start to stand up with This Star around my neck and feel very heavy, like I can hardly walk. I feel like I am made of lead."

"Yea, Child, but in time this shall cause you to feel buoyant. It will carry you places, where you have never been before, in your sleep and in your wake. But, for now, this will make you feel heavy. Remember to do as told, as you will have this added dimension of The Promise."

"My Lord, I shall."

"Let us stop for today. I am Jesus, yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER SEVEN

MESSAGE FROM MOSES

"Precious Child, you know the sound of my voice and the presence of My Spirit. I am Master Jesus, yea Lord of Earth. You have come with great seeking, yea great longing to establish My Spirit, My Word, and My Power many fold within you. Look around; for, you are suspended in My Spirit upon My Mountain. And, yea, the door to My Inner Sanctum is opened to you.

Look far below to the various levels, and see others, as they come to sit in My chair. They come to achieve new spiritual heights, or to stumble and fall to lower levels on My Mountain. Child, this is a serious role, and few are dedicated enough to pursue it day after day, week after week, year after year. This journey involves a serious relationship between Me and the one called; and, it cannot be attained because of the support of others. No amount of human support can hold one upon this Mountain, … only a great inner desire to do My work. Precious Child, you have been weighted down since our last meeting here."

"My Lord, it is the weight of The Star of David, and the fear that I am not worthy, or that I have something unsettled from long ago, which I have not dealt with."

"Child, you have been made to see that when the priesthood was taken from you (as Aaron), you perished on Mount Hor. In your death, you knew great sorrow. You did not die happy; and this weight has been upon you."

"My Lord, please, please heal me of this, that I can go forward."

"Child, you have seen who awaits you."

"Yes, My Lord, I see that this is Moses."

"Child, pay attention to Moses; for, he has more prayers and blessings for you."

"Yes, My Lord. Moses, I beg your forgiveness in ways I failed you and in ways I lost face before others. Most of all, I beg forgiveness from Our Lord, that this gap from long ago be closed, that it be healed. I am on bended knees before you, Moses, to beg forgiveness for any debt to you."

"Little One, we failed one another and we failed God. Our great travails over many years did not bring us to our destination; for, as leaders, we failed The House of Israel. But, behold the gap; it is closed, sealed off with the radiant Light of God; and it is no more. In our weaknesses, in our humanness, we faltered; but we have been forgiven. Now, I have blessings and prayers for you."

Moses moved closer to me and placed one hand upon my forehead and placed the other hand upon the top of my head. "Sit up that I can pray," he said. I sat upright on my knees, and amidst the ticking of his watch, these are the words I heard him pray.

"Little One, we stand before God, Almighty, in the presence of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, and I utter these words:I pour out these blessings upon you, that in your time of need you be strengthened by my words; that you be empowered by the Holy Spirit; that through adversity you lose not, but gain in the strength through Our Lord; that you gain over time a greater helping, a greater share, of the Power of God; and that the power of the prophets and the wisdom on the same be with you always.

"In the name of Our Lord, Jesus, The Christ, I bless you with the power, which was given to me in my day. I bless you with the power of my rod, that it shall flow through your hands, through your voice, through your spirit and body. I bless you with miracles abundant and the ability to bring a lost people together through these writings, to put them on The Path of God and to keep them there. I bless these writings and the hands, which write them, the eyes, which see the visions, the ears, which hear what is spoken and given. I bless your heart with pure compassion and powerful love as given by The Spirit of Our Lord. I bless you to attain perfect health, a powerful, strong body, a clear, alert mind and emotion, to have a sure foot upon this Mountain and upon the Earth as you walk it. I bless you, that where you go, you bring the Holy Spirit with each step; that the world shall be strengthened through your walk. I bless you with empowerment as you walk through darkness, that no evil thing or energy shall lay hold on you, as long as you walk the Earth. When it is your time, may the power of the Holy Spirit enfold you and bring you total peace and joy; for you will have worked hard and brought spiritual truths to great numbers, without which they would have been sorely lost. I bless you to bring millions to Jesus Christ through the power of this word and the truth of this word.

I bless those, who read these writings, to know and accept the power, which comes through them, that evil, which grips them, shall fall away; and that the truth of the spoken word shall lay hold of them and cause a great change for good within their souls. I touch them through these writings; and I, Moses, bless them with the power of the Holy Spirit to know that Jesus is Christ. I touch their souls, and their entire beings through this prayer, to command them to begin anew to live the commandments of God, that they be found worthy to have the Holy Spirit indwell them. I challenge each and every one, who reads this prayer to fall to the floor, to beg forgiveness from Jesus for wrong doings, that each one may be found worthy to have the Holy Spirit as a great, wondrous companion and friend. I challenge all to acknowledge Jesus, the Christ, as Lord of this world, yea the only one, who can save their soul from an ultimate death. I challenge all to bow before Jesus Christ and to walk in righteousness; for it is a time of the sorting. 'Come back Little Sheep, to the fold. For, the wolf drips blood from his teeth, and he is about to pounce.'

I challenge all to walk upright minute by minute, day by day, week by week, and year by year. I challenge you to stand strong in the face of evil; for, one, who is righteous, is no coward. The righteous person does not back down from evil, but calls upon the power of God for guidance. In this way, one deals with evil; and in this way one will be guided to make the right decision.

You think about patience and long-suffering, Little One. Yea, this is expected of all. But, never does one compromise one bit of righteousness for one bit of evil. For, in this kind of compromise, the evil one gets a toehold, then a foothold, then a leghold in one's life. Nay, stand strong in the face of evil; and you shall grow in the power of God. Other prophets and I are with you, Little One, in your walk. Do not forget this; for, we have been ordained in this by Our Lord, Jesus. You are not alone, as you believe often; for a long line of us waits to help you. On this Mountain, within this inner chamber of Our Lord, you shall see us from time to time. For, Our Lord, Jesus will have brought us here.

Little One, I bless you with power, power, power of The Holy One, Our Lord Jesus; and I bless you with the power and wisdom of the prophets. This is my promise, my gift to you, that you be found not lacking in your time of need; but that you be strengthened to deal with the assaults of the adversary as he and his come to attack. Yea, you shall have all you need over them until it is time; then you submit your life.

You have more questions about the Star of David because you do not realize the full impact of this. In time, you shall do a work with Israel. You will sit among rabbis and you will pray, yet, not of your own choosing. See the powerful angel above you; see the fire of God; this will take you there. This blessing to you is like none other; for you and I go back a long way, even before the foundations."

"Moses, I am floored! I do not know what to say except thank you from the depths of my heart. I thank you for your prayers and blessings and for the gift of the Star, even if it is very heavy."

"But, not for long; for in short time, it will be very radiant and will carry you many places with The Word."

"'My Beloved Moses, how precious you are!' And, I stood and hugged Moses as he wept and I wept. His tears fell upon my shoulder and my burning tears bathed my cheeks. In a moment, he was gone, and I found myself in The Upper Room alone. 'My Lord, I feel deep sorrow that he is gone; I have just beheld a great friend."

"Child, 'tis so; but, Moses left a set of papers behind."

The Moses Papers, Part - I

"Precious Child, blessed are you among women; for you love Me, you love truth and My way. You shall be blessed mightily in very few days in ways of which you know not. But, when these blessings come, you will say, 'Yea, for Jesus, himself, told me.' Indeed, I have brought you again to My Holy Mountain where the air is pure and the energies are radiant. Yea, your soul is refreshed and the feelings of illness are all gone."

"Yes, My Lord, even thirty minutes ago, before I started to pray, I felt very ill. I believed it to be from the juice of Cabbage leaves and turnip roots."

"Yea, for this is strong, but very cleansing. Continue with the fast until I lead you to stop. I will fill you with My Spirit and take away all hunger."

"My Lord, I know this is true and I deeply thank you for taking away this ill feeling. I beg you to honor this fast for greater spiritual strength and direction.'

"Child, this is known and honored."

"Come into My Inner Sanctum."

"My Lord, I enter and see someone, attired in a white double-breasted coat with gold buttons and white knee pants. His head is adorned with a white wig, like someone from the George Washington era. Glancing at his face, I am aware of a harelip; otherwise, his features are unremarkable. He offers me something from a tray; but I decline, as I have no idea who he is or what he is offering. The items on the tray are cut into squares, and he has one on a spatula, which he is pushing in my direction. What shall I do?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Take a square in your hand; for all is not as it seems."

"My Lord, I have learned one thing from these visions: little is as it appears. I take this square in my hand and suddenly the man disappears. In his place, I see a brown-haired child, peeking from behind the open flaps of a small tent. The child says, 'Come on in.' I am hesitant, as this is a little strange."

"Go in, Child."

"My Lord, I enter the small tent, and this child says, 'Take a seat. I am the child of Israel.' I sit in a child's chair; but suddenly the child disappears and I am in the tent alone. A draft is stirring and the temperature begins to drop quickly. In an instant, the tent vanishes and I am surrounded by a winter wonderland of ice, alone in the child's chair. An old man appears with a lamp and a small table, and he says, 'Sit at the table'.

Looking to the small lantern, he says, 'I shall turn up the light, and this shall create great heat. The amount of light will blind you at first, but soon you will adjust; as this is your calling. Then, he reaches down beside me and takes a sheet from the clipboard, holding The Moses Papers. 'Remember, you have been given The Star of David, and you have been anointed of Our Lord, Jesus and Moses to carry this word. The power of The Light of God shall make all clear. Fear not; pure faith casteth out all fear.'

Suddenly, the old timer is gone, and I see four angels around me in white attire, all with golden hair and eyes of white fire. Each carries a mighty sword. "My Lord, I am in awe; this is deep."

"Yea, Child, but touch The Star of David on your chest. See and feel its radiance. You are not forsaken, but have great support. Now, read and write as written and remember that you are under heavy anointing of Me."

"My Lord, I shall do my best. At the top of this white page, which is rolled under like a little scroll, is gold writing. This page radiates such brilliant, white light that my eyes are having trouble adjusting!"

"Yea, but your eyes are anointed and so are your ears; and as you see these words, you shall hear them well."

"My Lord, the title is ‘Chamber of Silence’; and it reads as follows: ‘Take my hand and let me carry you through The Chamber of Silence. For, it is a chamber deep within the soul of each, which is ignored, lost and forgotten. Touch your heart and open the door to The Chamber of Silence. Take the golden key from Jesus, Our Christ. For, it is the only key, which will open The Chamber of Silence.’

"My Lord, I see a golden key, dangling before my face."

"Take this, Child, and open the door."

"My Lord, I have they key and am inserting it amidst The Star of David right into my heart."

"Open the Chamber."

"My Lord, I open This Chamber, and I see a door, which goes into a library. There is only one table with one chair; and the shelves behind the table are full of old books, and all bound and titled. The binding along the top of each book is a dark shade of red, and within the red area is the title of each book. There is much dust in this small room, as if no one has been here for some time; yet, the air is crisp and clean. I see words of bright light, enclosed in a glass box above a bookshelf and they are blinking like a neon sign. Little, white doves fly around in the glass enclosure; but cannot get out into the chamber. The blinking words say, ‘Jesus Lives Here.’"

"Yes, Child, these doves cannot get out; but the key to the Chamber is attached to the waistband of your robe, and it is yours to keep for a long time. Now, come back to the table and proceed."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I continue to read: ‘This inner Chamber is lost to The House of Israel, as this remnant stands as a nation; for, it can only be accessed through this key, which says, ‘Jesus, Lord of Earth.’"

"My Lord, they will not accept this."

"Nay, Child, not at this time; but, in time, yea; for all shall be revealed. Then, they shall know My laws to be true and shall abide by them. Now, proceed."

"I read as follows: ‘Knock on the door of My Inner Chamber’, thus saith the Lord, ‘and, this Inner Chamber shall be opened to you in time. Much awaits those, who find this key … much truth, much love, and many honors among men. For, few find this key, or know what to do with it.’"

"But, My Lord, Is it not true that many have found this key, which is You?"

"Child, there are few; for many seek; but few shall find."

"My Lord, I feel so lowly and unworthy.’

"Nay, Child, for if you were unworthy, you would not have the key. Read on."

"I read as follows: ‘Little differences can mean big miles of separation from God. Little differences create deception, fraud, and draw one away from the concepts of truth and righteousness. Yea, the ones, who split hairs and look to make divisions create gulfs within themselves and separate themselves from God. Great trauma is created by little differences! It is said that one ‘makes mountains of mole hills’. Nay, one makes gulfs out of molehills, gulfs between one’s self and God. It is said, ‘Forgive the little things that these not be allowed to fester and grow into big things.’ I ask, "How many of you have little things against your son, your daughter, your employer, or your neighbor? Will you find The Inner Chamber as long as little things weight you down? Nay, this shall not be. For, these little things are as grains of sand against a naked foot in a shoe. They abrade the spirit. They aggravate the soul and steal the Light of God. Nay, hold nothing against another; for, your grudges will keep you from God. Forgive and you shall know God's true glory. If you will not, you shall wobble amidst self-deception. No preacher of The Word or attendance in any church can absolve you of these sands upon your soul. Only you can forgive another; and as you do so, Jesus will forgive you.

It is mightier to forgive with love, than to gift another with all the gold in the world. All gold is to be viewed with caution, lest it mesmerize you into thinking it is real, when it is only an illusion of happiness, loved by those, who are truly lost. Yea, gold will satisfy the senses, but destroy the soul. Look to Your Father in Heaven and to Jesus, Lord of Earth, for the eternal "gold", which is everlasting life. Jesus is the author of eternal life on Earth; for, he came in the flesh and gave His life to save all souls. I am Moses.'"

"Now, Precious Child, you have written as seen and given. Do you have questions."

"Yes, My Lord, who is this George Washington type with the hair lip?"
"Child, what did he give you?"

"Something from a tray."

"And, this was?"

"An invitation by a child into a tent."

"Yes, and who was this child?'

"I do not know."

"A hidden part of you."

"You mean, The Secret Chamber?"

"Exactly. But, you question about the one in the attire."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord."

"He is an image to cause you to question, to seek deeper."

"Well, it startled me, like the image of the hobo-clown."

"No need to fear, Child, look on the rear end of this man and read."

"It is written, ‘Another space in time, William Penn.’ So, William Penn had a hair lip?"

"Not that you would know. What is written on the hair lip?"

"It says, ’A journey into you.’ So, a part of me from another life, William Penn, offers me something, which reveals a trip into this chamber?"

"Child, you have seen communication from your Inner Chamber."

"This explains the child and the chair."

"Yea, for a child is teachable."

"And the cold?"

"The cold is also a part of you, along with the white."

"How so?"

"You must go through the cold and be purified to get to the heat of my white light."

"You mean, each of us must be purified by the cold of ourselves?’

"I mean the absolute coldness of yourselves and the harshness of the world. You will have to endure bitter cold before you come into My Light."

"I have seen this coldness of many toward these prophecies; and I have endured great aloneness to receive them. I know that we must be child-like if we are to have a one-on-one with You."

"When you are child-like, you are teachable."

"Let all receive this, My Lord, and draw closer to You."

"I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER NINE

A New Room Open & The Moses Papers - Part II

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Because of your great praying and seeking, I have brought you once more to My Mountain, where the door to My Inner Sanctum open. Come amidst my radiant energies into My Upper Room.

You have looked below to see two entities, which have needed to be bound. For, they have come into your home through TV and Internet; Child, these are two of the devil's avenues to infiltrate the homes of the unsuspecting. Yea, the gates of hell are opening to release many of these dark demons, that they may persecute those, who love Me. You have the learning, the power and authority to bind them and send them to The Pits; but most do not have this knowing or ability, for it is a work and no easy one. Moses has told you that your work will get harder. Yea, you will be attacked more; and you must fast and pray often to have power over the demons. I promise you greater power with each fast. Now, Little One, come into My Upper Room; and write as given and seen,"

"My Lord, the door to Your Upper Room is open and I float in upon the wings of Your Spirit; all is bathed in great brilliance and peace. Before me is a sturdy, old door made of faded wood. Suddenly, two white, fighting cocks appear in front of the door. Their claws aglow with radiant, white light, they fiercely attack one another. To the rear of the cocks and beside the old door are The Moses Papers attached to a clipboard, hanging on a nail. A sign above the door reads, 'Secret Chamber.'"

"Yea, Child. It is 'secret', but you have the key."

"Yes, My Lord, I have the key, but one question: what do the cocks represent?"

"Look on their backs."

"On the back of one, I see a piece of paper sticking up. I take the white paper but it disintegrates in my hand. Suddenly, the cocks are gone; and I see that the door to The Chamber has raised up a few inches, making enough room for me to crawl under. I will crawl through this opening, but the fighting cocks still linger in my mind. My Lord, what do they represent?'

"Parts of you."

"Tell me more."

"They represent your fear of what lies behind the door."

"I am afraid?"

"You fear the unknown."

"My Lord, please remove this fear with Your Holy Spirit; I wish to bring only faith upon this Mountain."

"Child, you fear your inadequacies before Me; but if you were not found worthy, you would not be here. You are worthy to open the door with one full sweep; for you have the key."

"My Lord, forgive my insecurities. I feel so young and foolish at times, standing before such wisdom and power."

"Child, look behind; the door is open and radiant, white light flows onto you."

"Yes, My Lord, and the glass box above the book shelf, which was enclosed, is now open. The white doves are flying about, thick everywhere, all over me, in my hair, on my arms and feet. This is a glorious, precious, sweet time of joy and peace. The pulsating, words of light, which were in the box, are gone and a window is open, bringing in an abundance of pure, radiant white light. This light hits the table bathing it in its purity. The books have taken on a golden hue and radiate this pure light. All remnants of dust are gone and the table has changed from wooden to glass, acting as a prism, separating the fragments of this pure light into its realm of beautiful colors. On all four sides of the room, glorious windows have miraculously appeared, all open, with this pure light coursing through them. I stand amidst beams of such pure and perfect radiance hitting me from all four directions and I feel so weak, like a tiny being in caught up lightening. 'My Lord, that I may be worthy!' Suddenly, I am sucked off my feet, levitating above this table, tightly clutching The Moses Papers to me breast. 'How glorious this day of freedom in You, My Lord! I do not understand this; but I know that a new day has opened in you, My Lord. Long live the name of Jesus, Lord of Earth! And, blessed are those, who love and serve Him.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, do you remember when I brought you to My Upper Room and told you, 'There is another you have not seen.'" (Before the first trip to the Upper Room, He told me that there were two I had not seen.)

"Yes, My Lord."

"This is it."

"See the many books."

"Yes, My Lord."

"These books will answer your every question."

"For, this is The Chamber that many seek, but few there be that find it. To be worthy to behold what is herein and to grow in My power will take great work, yea continual dedication, prayer and fasting."

"My Precious Lord, I pray to be found worthy; for, you are my life, my light, my truth, and my way. Empower me, Precious Jesus, that I may bring Your truths to others, that the greatest numbers may be saved."

"As we go along, Child, I will show you what is written in some of these books. But, for now sit at the table and read page two from The Moses Writings. Notice that the door closes behind you."

"My Lord, I read as follows:

Dedication and Sincerity

Strike the heart of the insincere from the records, from the books of God's dedicated ones. For, the Insincere of Heart will fail in every measure before God. They will fail in kindness and in love. They will fail in receiving spiritual gifts. Nay, they shall not know the fullness of The Word, but shall thrive on bits and pieces. They shall never make it to The Mountain of the Lord, but shall perish in the dark forest of the Adversary.

Raise up your hands, O' Sincere of Heart. Raise them up high to Almighty God, the one who carved the oceans in the Earth and made canyons from rivers. Raise up your hearts to Almighty God, who made you in His image, that you too should know the gifts of His mighty Spirit.

Nay, Sincere of Heart, you shall not fall. You shall not be neglected in the last day; but shall rise to new heights in your love for Your Lord, who is Jesus Christ, Lord of Earth, even one with God, given dominion by Him. Sincere of Heart, plow ahead with determination, and with love and honor for Your Lord, Jesus. For, if you love Him, you truly strive to live spiritual laws, given you for your own good.

Would a loving child obey his parent? Yea, he would obey; but the rebellious one disobeys. The rebellious one is lost in the dark forest of Satan and knows it not. The rebellious child is unteachable and is not counted among the Sincere of Heart; this one is lost to the cunning ways of Satan.

Look around you. How many are sincere of heart? Nay, not many; for most try to manipulate the world to suit selves. They deceive; they lie, and walk on the feelings of another to get ahead. Yea, this is the way of the world. Little Ones, be in the world; but, not of it. Take television from your home; it fills your house with darkness. Fathers and mothers: Guard your children from the Internet; it is a snare, ready to dig into the soul of the innocent child. Likewise, the Internet has lured many an adult into the evils of pornography.

Yea, pornography is bondage; for to lust after another is to commit fornication in your mind. You married men, who lust after the darkness of pornography commit adultery; and this drives a stake in your relationship with God. You attract evil entities, which feed on your lusts and drive you through thought transfer to lose control, so that you are in a war daily for your very souls. When you abide pornography, you shall in no wise have The Spirit of God. Instead, you fill yourself and your home with evil entities, which are set to destroy you. You, who love pornography, go in ignorance thinking that what you do is harmless because you have forsaken spiritual laws and walked away from the tried and true. You believe you can do as you will with no consequence, but you cannot; for every action, good or bad, has consequence. In the closets of your mind, you have stuffed the truth: You reap what you sow. When you hurt yourself, you hurt those, who love you. To hurt yourself may seem innocent to you, but your actions reach far into your environment in ways that you will never dream. Where you go, the end results of your actions go, whether to a super market, a school, or telephone; and you never escape who you are and what you do. Your unrighteous behavior makes wide sweeps, but in like fashion, your righteous acts affect many. The power of the Holy Spirit goes with the righteous and carries wholeness wherever it goes; yea the power of the righteous to bring lasting changes is great, indeed. Righteousness avails much.

Long live the Sincere of Heart, those, who truly love Our Lord through and through. For, theirs are kingdoms without end! I am Moses'

"Precious Child, we shall stop here for today. Go in the power of this anointing. You think about the child with the broken neck. Go there and take healing from Me. Within six to eight weeks, he shall feel again, and he shall walk again, a gift from Me. Tell him so, and that he must dedicate his life to serving Me, lest worse befall him. Go fasting and praying, and you shall see Me move in this. I am Jesus, yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TEN

The Moses Papers, Part III

"Precious Child, blessed are you indeed, among women; for you come daily to humble yourself before Me in deep prayer. Child, I know you are concerned, for the roof has sprung a leak over one of the computers. Do not start up this network until all is dry. For, not one drop of water shall remain before it is started, and all shall be fine. Yea, Child, I have spoken My power through your voice and you have commanded this leak to cease with the anointing of My Spirit. Before your very eyes, you have seen it stop; it is an attempt by Satan to ruin your equipment. Child, when I am for you, who can prevail against you?"

"My Lord, You are my strength and I only wish your will in all things. This leak sprang when there was no rain; and I knew that the evil one was at work. With my own eyes, I beheld the leak stop immediately after I commanded it to cease in Your Name through the power of Your Holy Spirit. When I prayed, I felt great power from You come over me."

"Child, My hand is upon you. And, My Spirit is your constant friend, companion and servant. I send My Spirit to do My bidding through you. You are my servant, and you shall see many a miracle, even as you saw last evening when you prayed in My name for the owl to move on. Yea, you prayed seven times for it to leave, and it was gone. Child, these are the miracles, which come through service. You are brought once again to the heights of My Mountain; and you see that the door to the Upper Room is open. Come in; for, My Spirit brings you here."

"My Lord, oh what power and purity in this glorious, rarefied light! The peace and joy, which enfolds me is beyond any human words. Every time I come here, my soul craves this space; I feel so drained by the darkness of the world."

"Yea, Child, look down at the gray and black energies swirling around certain places. Here and there within this darkness is one, who loves Me, one, who radiates the power and light of My Holy Spirit."

"My Lord, I see; and I see that they are most often alone, except for the company of angels."

"Yea, Child, here and there one leads a congregation of souls; but most often this is not the case. Child, you enter My Upper Room. Write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I see a box, a wooden chamber, which looks rather small. Suspended above the box in the light, the box looks ominous to me. I know it is the Secret Chamber; but, My Lord, how is it that the chamber was in the Upper Room all along, and I never saw it?"

"Child, there is much herein, which you have not seen, and much that you will never see. You see what I allow."

"My Lord, your works are mighty and I am thankful to take a small part. You are merciful and full of grace. You loved me when I could not possibly even love myself. Glory to the name, Jesus, the name above all. Forgive me, My Lord, for assuming anything about this precious space."

"Child, never make any assumption about what is and what is not. My Spirit reveals all when the time is ready; yea when the soul is ready to receive."

"Yes, My Lord. There are many of us, who think we have the whole picture, but we have only a taste. I have been there, thinking I knew it all, but was lost in darkness."

"Yea, Child, this is EGO, ‘easing God out’; as you have heard. Those, who think they know the most know the least; the first shall be last, and the last first. Child, the humble heart is teachable."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I beg to be teachable, My Lord. Strike down piousness and know-it-all behavior in me that I may be humble and teachable. The more I see, the more I learn, and the smaller I become in my own eyes. My Lord, your power frightens and humbles me."

"Child, I know this; now, come down to the wooden door, take your key and open the door."

"I insert the key into the door and it opens immediately to show the four beams of light as they meet in the center of the room above the table. As I approach this room to enter, two more leaks appear in the ceiling below in our humble abode; water is steadily dripping from the ceiling. I leave this room and mountain to go and pray over the leaks. One leak stops immediately, but the second continues to drip water."

"Yea, Child, when one is plugged, another erupts; I have allowed this to show you the armor of man. So, it is, when one hole is plugged another is leaking. But, all shall be stopped within 15 minutes. Get up and time me. Prove me in this. For, this shall be so, and your prayers shall not have been in vain."

"My Lord, this will be 8:47 AM; I have marked the time."

"Now, Precious One, I bring you back to My Mountain. For, I am Lord of Earth. And, upon My Spirit you come once again with your key to this door. Child, open this door and go in."

"My Lord, I have entered and am met with the four beams of white light and I see a pale image of the fighting cocks."

"Child, take them to heart and address these fears; for, they have no place herein."

"My Lord, I grab hold of these fighting cocks, and I feel a deep sadness. This sadness begins to grip me and I feel a deep sense of mourning, of loss and sorrow. Great tears begin to flood my eyes and fall down my face. From the pit of my stomach, a great sorrow, dread, and fear well up. I fear that in some way, I shall lose your love; that I shall be unworthy and you will cut me off. I fear that I shall lose face before you as I am lowly. I continue to embrace these fighting cocks amidst great sobs. Huge tears bathe my face and fall downward. Suddenly, I am keenly aware that the cocks have disappeared and I am embracing a single, white, porcelain object; it is a white, polar bear, piggy bank. The tears fall into the slot on the bank and makes clinking noises, which remind me of the sounds made by the leaky ceiling. My tears have become radiant, golden coins and the light from them rushes upward, bathing my face and soothing my eyes. This light is warm and calming and the polar bear now radiates great warmth; it is furry and cuddly. I love this bear, I embrace it and cuddle it. As I embrace it, it becomes smaller and smaller until it is gone and there is nothing left but a ball of pure, white light."

"Go and place this radiance on the table and sit.'

"My Lord, I do so, and find myself amidst these four beams of pure, white light."

"Take the Moses Papers from the angel, Kikiara, and write as seen."

"My Lord, I have the next page; and this is what I read:

"Judgement is mine," thus saith The Lord.

Bright eyes and ears adorned with radiance of The Holy Spirit, hear the resonant voice of The Lord. For, His spoken word is clear to those with the bright eyes and ears bathed in such a way. Hearken to the voice of The Lord. For, unto Him is given to judge, to condemn, and to sanctify before the measure of truth and right. Yea, He is given the measure, the rule, by which all conduct is measured over time.

And, so have you been given the rules by way of The Commands of God, brought by me and brought to new and greater levels by Our Lord, Himself. Fall to the ground in obedience to His Word. Follow His laws, that you be not lost and confounded. But, leave the judging to Our Lord.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

How many of you have condemned another to hell, when ‘the pot was calling the kettle black’ as you say? How many have tossed the first stone from a glass house? How many have left the homeless to starve, and gone living amidst luxury and plenty? Are you, any of you, so perfect, so mature spiritually, that you can condemn and judge? For, that, which you condemn and judge you have been, or you shall be.

To rise above a state does not give one a right to condemn others below. And, to fall below does not give one right to condemn those above. Yea, reach out to the lost not with condemnation, but love, gentle reprove, and compassion. And, teach them a better way through example. For, condemnation cannot help, but hurt. Rejection cannot bring up, but casts down. Deliberate hurt cannot heal, but destroys. Humiliation cannot bring together, but divides. Division of one against another by any manner of falsehood or negativity casts stones to the one, who divided.

Love and compassion are the mortar between the bricks of companionship. Gentle persuasion is that, which mixes the mortar. It holds together love and compassion. Let your thoughts be gentle, yea kind one to another. Wish no man ill will. For, this is the devil’s tool of destruction. Send thoughts of kindness, of love and compassion to your enemies, that they may see you with like eyes. The soft heart carries the ability to soften hearts. The wise among you learn these things early on. The rebellious spirit takes much time. I am Moses.’

"Child, I am Master Jesus. Yea, I shall judge all. My Spirit is one of long-suffering and kindness. I cherish those, who love me and I bless mine; yea, to kingdoms without end, into the eternities, I bless mine. Come Precious Children, from your rebellious ways. For, my hand reaches out to you.

"Stand up in My beam, Child"

"My Lord, I do so, and I feel myself start to vibrate. I am caught up in these swirling energies of great light. A white lily forms at the base of my feet, and I am drawn to sit on it. The smell is pure heaven."

"Breathe in, Child; you will be strengthened by this."

"My Lord, this smell is very pleasing and soothing; and I am beginning to feel relaxed, calm, peaceful and sleepy. How precious this blessing!"

"Yea, Child, this shall bring healing to your sinus allergies. Do not run the electric heater at your feet; for, this brings dust upward into your sinuses. Now, Child, check the clock."

"My Lord, it says 9:00 AM, and the third leak stopped long ago."

"I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, yea Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Blessings Given, Blessings Denied

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus; and I bring you upon My Mountain by the power of My Holy Spirit, where the door to My Inner Sanctum is open. You sorely need My love, power, direction, and blessings."

"Yes, My Lord, I fall on bended knees before Your precious presence. My soul is aching because the chaos in the world escalates so rapidly. Many have blasphemed me because you have spoken that reincarnation is true; and I am saddened and troubled about the bickering that goes on, even in my own family."

"Child, raise up, be blessed; and write as given and seen."

"My Lord, there is someone here in white raiment, with a small white, rounded cap over his head, whom I believe to be The Apostle, Paul. A pure, white light bathes him as he places his radiant hands on my head; then gently pushes my head into a river of clear, sparkling water. A cool, clean glow of absolute pure light caresses my head; then, he picks me up and submerges me totally in this pure water. ‘Be blessed,’ he says, ‘in the name of The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit. Receive the power of the prophets, and likewise the wisdom; for you shall surely need this.’ I stand up from the stream full of light, peace and joy, holding a very large, radiant sword. As I pull the sword from its sheath, it glistens with pure light and power. On the sword is written, ’The hand of God is With You.’"

"Child, place the sword in its sheath, and fasten the belt around your waist; for, you shall need this sword. Where this sword goes, the hand of God goes; this is part of the power of the prophets."

"My Lord, I see a mighty armor come down all around me; it is thick, and surrounds me like a huge cylinder. It is radiant with a constant, pure, white light and even though it has the appearance of being solid, I can take my hand and pierce it."

"Yes, Child, but little reaches through to you, save what you bring in. Therefore, you must be careful what your bring in, lest you have a penalty to pay. I will be much harsher on you than another; for I give you more and I expect more."

"My Lord, I understand.'

"This armor will not always be obvious to you; nonetheless it is yours, a powerful gift for protection. Worry not about the criticism of others or the evil darts they shoot at you. Their evil will be returned upon them ten fold. Thus, they had best be careful what they do to harm you; for this is My promise to you. You are a chosen one, given a difficult role; and you will have My power to back you."

"My Lord, you commanded me to go yesterday fasting and take healing to the one, who is quadriplegic, the teenager, crippled in the football game. I went there with a powerful anointing given by You and did my best; but the family would not let me into ICU. They viewed me with suspicion, as they were black and I, white. When I went up to a group of them and began to speak with them, they fled. The mother shunned me and looked down at me with crossed arms and a cold, unbelieving expression. I was turned away, but returned a second time and waited. A second time I was turned away, unable to anoint this young man as you had commanded."

"Child, you did your best. You had the anointing, and you called aside the mother to pray for her, to anoint her, to take the anointing in to her son. I blessed you in this. This young man will walk again. He will run and pray again, … even, as I have told you, but not as soon as would have been; for I sent you there on a mission, and they would not honor this completely. Therefore, I will honor My promise slowly. Child, know that I speak truth, and this one shall be healed in time to do a work for Me.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, I went out to go to the hospital and the car was totally empty. I knew that the reading on the gas gauge was accurate because the car was sitting on level ground; and I knew I would not have enough gas to get across town to the hospital. I said, 'Lord, look, this tank is empty! You have commanded me to go, but I have no gas.' Then, you commanded me to anoint the gas tank with The Holy Spirit, and told me that there would be gas. As I started out the yard, the tank read, 'empty'; but as I went up the road the hand steadily climbed upwards to nearly a quarter of a tank. I was in awe. You commanded me to pray for an anointing on the tank and I did it, but when the gas miraculously appeared in the tank and kept climbing, I knew that I was witnessing a miracle. What a miracle!

However, those suffering people at the hospital had no way of knowing the blessing you had given me to for them. The racial tension was so strong, heavy and clearly visible. I went only with love, but they could not receive my love because of their own distrust. I wanted nothing except your perfect will for them and a healing for this precious, young soul. My Lord, I am deeply saddened because of their sorrows, and my prayers and thoughts are with all of them through this terrible tragedy. Praise you, my Precious Lord. You are Lord of Miracles."

"Child, you are seeing My Miraculous Word in action. Many speak love for Me, and many proclaim to serve Me; but few see miracles. I am not with these, who only profess verbally a love for Me; they do not have My Spirit."

"Child, you are pondering the 'shock' you are to receive within forty-five days. The forty-five days are almost up; and you shall know this shock, this surprise, before day's end. Mark My word on this."

"My Lord, I know I will receive this today. Your word is truth and Your Way is honor; and I look forward to knowing. I wonder how I shall address many, who have written, criticizing these prophecies; and how shall I address the one, who is spreading many lies that I love New Age?"

"Child, write them as time permits; but, let nothing come before this work. As for the one, who accuses you of being New Age, tell him: Thus saith the Lord, Jesus Christ, Lord of Earth:

'I am a patient, one with God, and recognize his diligent pursuits in Me. I recognize his plodding over much time. I am just and fair, yea slow to anger. But, I will not continue to tolerate blasphemy against one, who loves and serves Me.

I shall begin to slap him with his own words when he expects it least. He has not been called to prophecy. Nay, this has not been done. Thus, if he continues to lambaste one of My chosen without thought or reservation, I shall smite him physically in his lower body.'"

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, yea Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWELVE

THE TREE OF LIFE & MOSES PAPERS PART IV

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Yea, blessed are you for your great perseverance in seeking, praying, and desiring to do My work; for I shall not fail you in the latter days of your life. Yea, I shall strengthen you and lift you up in My power. Already, you go amidst ridicule and persecution; but let fear have no hold on you. I give you My Spirit to build you up in faith and carry you far above the confusion to My Most Holy Mountain. See that My Holy Spirit has brought you here, where the door to My Inner Sanctum is open to you. Move in and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I am floating high above Your Mountain on the wings of Your Spirit. I hear the rushing sounds of Your Spirit as I am carried aloft and through this door. As I cross the threshold, I am aware of a most beautiful, radiant tree with glistening fruit. It has old and gnarled roots, which shoot outwards from the bottom. The Holy Spirit moves like wind and whispers softly among the radiant leaves of this tree. Gently, Your Spirit lets me down at the base of this tree where I can appreciate its huge size. Great sprawling, radiant branches reach far and wide and a deep peace beyond words bathes me. The tree is singing a very high-pitched sound like that of many bees. Surely, the Holy Spirit is playing it as a beautiful lyre and I am hearing the leaves whisper high notes of love and joy."

"Yea, Child, you have perceived right; and you have been brought to the tree for a reason. Sit beneath the tree; pick the fruit, and eat as long as you wish; for this fruit will bring you to a new level in Me. With each piece you eat, a new dimension is added to you, like blocks placed upon one another to build a wall."

"My Lord, the tree is obeying Your commands. A bow has lowered itself to my eye level and I gently reach out to pick a beautiful piece of this radiant fruit. A faint breeze stirs among the glistening leaves and bathes my soul with love, peace and joy! I bite into the succulent fruit and luscious juice fills my mouth and bathes my hands. Copious amounts of this nectar run down my arms, past my elbows, onto my clothes and onto the ground, making radiant puddles of white light. The heavenly nectar flows gently down my throat, like a stream coursing over its bed; and tiny, radiant explosions of light can be seen forming here and there throughout my body. These tiny explosions quickly meet one another, forming a mass of white light, which grows in and around me, bathing tiny recesses of my soul.

I pick another piece of fruit and eat it in like manner, savoring its delicate sweetness. A great hunger stirs within me and I pick another. All the time, I am keenly aware that the rushing sounds of the Holy Spirit building within me. The same sound, which is manifest in the tree, is now manifesting within me; soon I am one with this sound. One by one, I have devoured the heavenly succulence of seven fruits and my soul is sated with a pure taste of heaven."

"Child, you have been brought to The Tree of Life and can come here as often as you wish. This is My promise. You have a new strength in Me as of this day and the power of miracles, which shall come through you, will astound you. For, through you comes the power of The Tree of Life. From time to time, I shall have you perform these miracles and you will write of them that others will know I speak truth through you, My Chosen One. Likewise, Child, your faith shall be strengthened by these miracles; and before it is your time, your works shall have strengthened the faith of many.

Child, yesterday you saw the emergency meeting of Russia with other countries on the behalf of Iraq at the Geneva Conference. Did I not tell you in June of 1997, that within five months, Russia would turn on you?"

"Yes, You did and it came true."

"Did I not tell you that Russia would go back ‘red.’"

"Yes, My Lord, you told me this."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, see them align with China, Iraq, and others against you; as I am stirring up them against you. This will intensify by spring of '98 in great ways."

"Did I not tell you recently that within forty-five days you would be 'shocked?'

"Yes, My Lord."

"Is this 'shock' of the Russians taking a stand against you with the Chinese and Arabs not near the 45 day mark?"

"Yes, My Lord, it is right at the 45 day mark."

"First, I told you that within five months, the Russians would take a stand against you; then, I told you that within 45 days you would be shocked, yet you could not know what would shock you. But, you were shocked to see that the 45-day mark also ended the five-month period for the Russians to take a stand. I have given you these two dates, which came true, just as I told you they would. Believe that others will also come out as I have said. Even yesterday I told you that before the day was over you would be 'shocked'. Child, you will see more and more come to pass, as I tell you it will. Place total faith in Me and not in the world. If the world says rain, expect sunshine and vice versa. Listen not to the world, but listen to Me. I speak through you; I work through you and I shall smite those, who try to hurt you. Yea, even as in ancient times, many shall fear you; for, My hand is upon you. You are My chosen, and I make a way for My work to be done through you. Now, Child, as you sit beneath the tree, pick up the clipboard with The Moses Papers attached and read page four."

"My Lord, I have it and it reads as follows… My Lord, I have to adjust my vision, this writing is radiating a very white light! One question, My Lord, shall I be guided into The Silent Chamber?"

"Child, you are in The Silent Chamber."

"But, My Lord, it looked so small before."

"Child, did you not notice that when The Chamber was flooded by My Light, the walls disappeared?"

"My Lord, there is so much I do not see. I ask you, ‘Where are the books?’"

"Child, the books have been replaced with The Tree."

"I don’t understand."

"Child, you will eat regularly of this tree, and there shall be no need for any books; for all is contained within this fruit. It will give you access to any record of any book over time, as it is bathed totally in My Holy Spirit. It bears My Living Word of Truth and power. In this way, all is revealed."

"My Lord, I know I am extremely slow about some things."

"Yea, but I shall make you wise. You have been anointed with the wisdom of the prophets. Have you not?"

"Yes, My Lord, and this was from Paul, The Apostle?"

"Yes, Child, it was he. You saw him first in 1987 when you were lost to yourself, but others knew of your destiny."

"My Lord, I was caught up in such darkness and You loved me through all this, even enough to bring me out of it and set me free so that I can serve you. Glory to you, My Precious Lord. You are my life and my way in all things."

"Child, you have been called and chosen and there is much work for you to do. Continue on with the next page."

"My Lord, it says:

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Precious Child, this from Moses, as ordained by Me."

"My Lord, there are those, who say I commune with familiar spirits when I get messages such as these."

"Yea, Child, this will be said. But, did you go seeking after them? Nay, you sought them not. They are sent of Me. You have sought no familiar spirit on this Mountain or at any time since I have been speaking to you. Blessed are you, Child, for you write as given and told. Yea, you shall be blessed mightily in ways you know not. Be strong, for I am with you. My Spirit indwells you.

I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

'Never on a Sunday'

'Blessed Ones, you have been told to never toil and labor on a Sunday. For, a Sunday, the Sabbath day of the gentiles, is a day of rest. Yea, let there be a day of rest among you, where you toil not, but dedicate this day to worship of The Lord, Jesus and Your Father, who is in heaven. Dedicate this day to forgiveness and making amends. Dedicate this day to a service of love for another.

This day is only one seventh of your time. Yet, you have chosen to neglect this day of service to The Lord. You have chosen to bypass this day for whimsical reasons and for love of the material. You have chosen to chase violent sports, like football, and have made this the god of your Sundays. You have chosen to eat, drink and be merry and even to carouse with harlots. You have chosen to rot off your spiritual leg, to despise your journey before Causes of Righteousness. Great numbers of you turn your faces in shame from the principles of good and right.

Yea, you stomp the heavenly commands, given you for your own good. You have denied The Lord that which is His; and have gone selfishly with your abundance. You have neglected your commitments to one another to chase vanity; and you have left your children to fend for selves. Yea, the very core, the very structure of the family unit, has caved in and allowed an unholy alliance between yourself and Satan to take hold of your destiny. You have forsaken the Lord, Your God; and you have blasphemed His Name. You have made cheap, Holy Places, and prostituted His Purity. You have sold His goodness to the highest bidder. Yea, you have trampled His Robe of Righteousness. You have chased after whore churches, which are empty and lacking of His Spirit. Yea, you are a proud, a haughty, a stiff-necked people; and the door of destruction is open to you the world over. I clap my hands three times over North America; for, all of you shall whine and have cause to seek the face of The Lord before your time is due. Yea, the clouds of destruction shall fall with a mighty wind and you shall cry out to God. But, He shall be slow in hearing. For, in your time of plenty, you chased false gods and gods of old. You have relied on your own devices and kicked Him out of your heart, out of your home and your life. You have brought up your children to serve false gods. Have you forgotten that He is a jealous God, that He is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow? Yea, you have forgotten this. You have strayed mightily and the foot of The Almighty God is upon you! A year shall not have passed before you see the handwriting of the wall. For, you are doomed as a nation and as a people. I am Moses.‘

The Moses Papers, Part V

Precious child, you know My Spirit and you know My Voice: I am Master Jesus; and you see that My Spirit has brought you once again to My Sacred Mountain, after much prayer and seeking on your part. Yea, Child, you are under the control of My Spirit, even as the ancient prophets. For, times change, but My truths do not. I am, indeed, the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. Many have discarded the lessons of the ancient Israelites to their own undoing. For, that which brought condemnation then likewise brings condemnation today. Now, Child, observe yourself aloft on the wings of My Spirit. Yea, peace enfolds you; it enwraps you and brings you back to another time when many of you knew this Mountain, especially those of the 144,000, known and chosen before the foundations. If you have had a difficult time in this life, it is partly due to these memories of perfection, which have surfaced in your wake and sleep. You have sought perfection and compared the rules of the churches with those distant memories, and you have never found happiness in any church; for, you have seen the charades before Me. You have rebelled against these games and have become a spiritual loner, seeking to build your own strong connection to Me through obedience. This has been a very difficult road, yet you have not given up, but have pursued in the face of many obstacles. Yea, you have forsaken the material, save it be what you need to live; and I honor this. This is the only way, lest you get caught up in the material illusions, the traps of Satan. Now, Precious One, come into My Upper Room, My Inner Sanctum; for, it is open to you. Notice that you carry My key, which opens many doors. Child, write as given and seen."

"My Lord, I enter through this door on the wings of Your Spirit, its rushing sounds moving through me and caressing my hair. A beautiful peace lifts me above all darkness below; it allays my fears and bathes my soul with joy. I ride on the wings of You Spirit to the Tree of Life. Gently, it lets me down at the base of this beautiful tree, where I am captivated by the rustling of the radiant, musical leaves."

"Eat, Child,"

"My Lord, the tree is alive with Your Word. Once again, one of the bows has lowered itself and is gently stroking my arm. A piece of radiant fruit beckons to me and I am eager to eat once more of its healing nectar. I sit in cross-legged fashion beneath this precious tree and bask in its glory. Praise You, My Precious Lord! Glory to Your Precious Name! I gently bite into this luscious fruit, which is at once a solid and a liquid; and with each bite its succulence bathes my soul with the freedom of its radiance, pushing away all darkness as it illumines me. Living waters from the fruit well up within me; they renew and restore me. A luminescent puddle of pure, white light forms within and around me as the radiant liquid of the fruit swells like a mountain stream in spring. Its sweetness is like none other, with tastes of almond, cinnamon, vanilla and banana, the flavors are ever-changing."

"Yea, Child, it is like none other; and, few there are who eat of this tree. Yet, in the latter days, all My Anointed prophets shall eat of it. For, I shall not send you into battle against the most evil, lest you be empowered of Me in the highest way."

"My Lord, My soul thirsts so after the fruit of this tree and I have already eaten ten pieces. I am learning a little about eating this fruit; it is not really necessary to eat it, all one needs to do is just suck its liquid nectar. It is a malleable and if I put it to my lips and suck on it, the juice follows its own course, like a stream. I have continued to eat until I have eaten fifteen and I am swollen with a great white light; but I am not heavy. This fruit has filled me with joy and I feel like dancing and singing Your praises. Glory to God! Precious is the name of Jesus! Around me are numerous, radiant butterflies, flying all around, and lighting on me. I feel like I could lie amidst the beautiful fragrance of this tree and rest for a while in its glory."

"Yea, Child, this is known; but there is much work to be done. See the Moses Papers to your right. Pick them up that we can proceed."

"My Lord, I pick up the next page from The Moses Papers and it reads:

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

‘Blessed is he, who loves the Lord, Jesus, with all his might; for the Lord will shield this one in His love. Yea, the Lord knows the Sincere of Heart and will not play second best. Those, who profess love for Him, must show real devotion; they must follow the Lord in simplicity and humility.

Very few will sacrifice the material in the face of plenty. Those, who know plenty, stand the greatest chance of becoming lost. In the face of plenty, they will cling to the material and the false sense of joy and security, which it affords them. Yea, they will become confounded the fastest.

Was Solomon not made the wisest of all Israelite Kings and blessed mightily with material wealth and riches? Yet, he forsook God’s laws. He chased harlots and those of pagan religions, even to the building of places of worship for pagan gods.

Yes, the one with plenty eases God out of his life the quickest, becomes lost the fastest, and knows spiritual ruination first. Remember this: Our God is stirred to anger when those he blesses turn on him to serve other gods. When His anger is kindled, He will allow dark forces to prevail over those He once blessed. Yea, he allows this destruction; He stirs up the evil ones to overcome, to overtake those, who have forsaken Him.

Yea, you say, "God is love." But, He is a jealous God; and He demands strict obedience to His laws or He will turn from you. Yet, He is a merciful God; and when those, who were blessed and turned away, come back, they are blessed again. God does not respond to the Insincere of Heart; He responds to those, who humble themselves before Him, and place Him above all in their lives. He wants all to love Him with the fullness of their hearts, not just a small portion. He wants all to think of Him continually and pray to Him all day every day, not just on Sundays.

He blesses those, who love Him completely. These are the ones, who will be raptured out. Many are confounded about the rapture process; they believe lying preachers of the word, who lead them down the primrose path. Those, who are raptured out are the pure of heart, who love God and His Beloved Son completely in honor and obedience.

Jesus is strict and demands that God's spiritual laws be obeyed. When you walk in obedience, you honor Him and Our Father, who sent Him. In all things, you must show love for Our Father and His Beloved Son; and likewise you must love your brethren. I am Moses'

"Precious Child, this from Moses, as ordained of Me. Remember that you and he go back even before the foundations. Now, be blessed this day, be lifted up and made whole. Yea, Child, the cancer in your breast is quickly becoming nothing. It is evaporating from your body. You shall be healed of this, as I have told you. I am the Great Physician. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

The Moses Papers, Part VI

"Child, indeed, you are blessed mightily among women that you might do My work in the latter days. Yea, you come under the control of My Spirit to the top of My most radiant mountain. The door to My Inner Sanctum is open to you; come in, Child, and partake of the Tree of Life that you might be kept strong spiritually from day to day."

"My Lord Jesus, I enter Your Upper Room on the wings of Your Spirit, aware of the white of my prophet's robe fluttering in the wind. On the lower part of this robe is a faded spot of blood, which stands as a testimony that You loved us enough to suffer a horrible death to bring us a Higher Way. The horrors of what You went through for us make my heart heavy; it brings tears to my eyes. The evil, which was abound then and now is tearing apart the souls so many, who are lost in the darkness."

"Yea, Child, and the evil shall grow much worse in the approximate seven-and-one-half years until My return. As I have stressed to you before, truly you have seen none so severe as what the Antichrist shall bring upon you. It is important that all be aware of what ahead, lest you be so overcome that you submit to it, just to survive. Each of you must remember the example I laid before you and remember that I expect no less from those, who love Me. You must go in peace, not war. Do not kill, as you see killing about you. Nay, do not do this. If you choose a path of violence, you will be the same as those, who love violence. Have faith in Me and I will carry you until it is your time; this is the test. For, those, who are violent, will be violent. But, My Sheep shall not be violent. Nay, you must not raise a hand toward another in violence; but I shall cause many to die, who lay a hand on My Beloved. I am the Shepherd and you are My Sheep. The Shepherd watches over His Sheep and protects them in unknown ways; for the sheep do not have the full picture.

Precious Child, if you must give your life that the prophecies be fulfilled, go in peace and honor for My Words. I command this of you. Now, Precious One, sit beneath the Tree and eat of the fruit, that you may be strengthened."

"My Lord, this precious tree has lowered a branch before me, which is heavily laden with the pure, glistening fruit of heaven. My soul is hungry for this perfect nectar and I ravenously drink it. Its radiance bathes my soul and renews me in all ways. One after the other, this radiant fruit fills me and soothes my innermost parts; and a glorious white light builds in and around me. The smell of vanilla fills the air and myriad white butterflies flit hither and yon, filling the space around me. The gentle flapping of their wings tickles me as they pass around me in quick succession. One by one, they have landed on my arms and legs, making straight lines. Gently, they continue moving their delicate wings in quick succession, a mesmerizing beauty. My Lord, tell me about these butterflies."

"Child, remember the sparkling, energies of white light created by the fruit. At first, you were keenly aware of this, but now it is a usual thing and you do not notice it so."

"Yes, My Lord."

"You perceive these sparkling energies to be butterflies, yet they are not. These radiant energies dance around, coming to rest on your extremities, where you will absorb them."

"My Lord, my attention is drawn from this tree, as there is confusion below in the room around my body."

"Yes, Child, this is known. But, others should be more considerate of My Work through you. Continue, Child."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Pick up the Moses Papers and read Part VI."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"I have the paper and at the top it reads:

'Condolences to the Lost'

Beloved Children, weakness in all things spiritual across much time can bring one's soul to a state of utter devastation. As the dog chases its tail, the one, who loves the material, also chases his own tail into the eternities. The one, who loves the material, brings utter confusion into his life and into the lives of those around him.

Children, get your hearts right. Weed out selfishness, jealousy, disharmony, hate, malice and all negative feelings, because they drag you down into the Pits as fast as a stone dropped into a lake. You, who disrespect your parents and wreck havoc in your homes, steal not only the peace of your own soul; you steal it from the souls of others. Your behaviors are of the worst kind and you pay a mighty price.

Stop the disharmony by being obedient to God's Laws. You have been given the Ten Commandments and the Laws of Love; yet, you flaunt your rebellion in the face of rules. This rebellion is an abomination to God, the Father and it, too, will carry you into the Pits as fast as a stone falls to the bottom of the water.

Cherish one another. Love one another. Be patient and suffer long in the face of obstacles. Reach out to the lost and the weary; and set up brotherhood among yourselves. Yea, you have become so self-reliant that you think you need no one else.

In the coming years, many shall perish for this self-reliant attitude. You shall not make it through these hard times without help from others. You must learn to give, to take, and to help the less fortunate; and, you shall survive and prosper in the face of adversity. I am Moses'.

"Precious Child, go in Me and My power this day and under the anointing of My Holy Spirit. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

The Moses Papers VII & Warning for Preparation

"Precious Child, on the wings of My Spirit, you soar to the heights of My Mountain, where you are fortified in Me and My power. You bear My stripes of healing, for healing shall begin to play a greater role in your life. The door to My Upper Room is open to you; enter and write as seen and given."

"My Lord Jesus, the rushing sounds of Your Spirit fill my soul as I enter this Upper Room and I am greeted by Your precious Tree of Life. I am so thirsty for the healing nectar of this luscious fruit. May I sit and eat of it once more?"

"Child, partake. This fruit is given to you that you might be strengthened in your spiritual walk."

"My Lord, I reach out to the glistening tree and cradle a perfect fruit in my hands. Heavenly scents of purity bathe my soul as I sip the fruit's healing nectars. Inside my head the stirring energies of the fruit makes gentle swirling noises, which let me know that I am communing with this fruit deep within and am taking on its pure life force. In short notice, these gentle noises settle down as they nurture my soul, bringing it up to higher levels of light, love and power. That, which is of the tree, is now in me. With each fruit, I am becoming sufficiently sated with purity of divine power, and love, as a completeness of beauty overcomes me. A gentle joy bathes my soul and my heart sings with ecstasy. I sit beneath the tree, consuming one fruit after the other until I have reached a space of pure light and beauty. Thank you, My Precious Lord, for allowing me this experience once more. You are truly my Life. Suddenly, a piece of paper drifts downward before me; and as I reach out to gather it up, I see that it is the seventh in the series of the Moses Papers. These are the words written on the paper:
'Good Comes to those, who follow God's Laws'

‘Beloved, hold tight to the laws of God and keep His Commands. Walk the straight and narrow; forsake your love of the material and come back into the obedience of His Laws. Honor the Lord, your God, and love Him above all. He will keep His promises to you and He will lift you up at the last day if you love and honor Him with all your that you are.

Make your path simple, that you be not confounded; and keep your way straight. Veer neither to the right nor to the left, but keep focused on the Lord and your God. Those, faithful to Him, shall see many miracles in these latter days; for, He is true to His Word that these times are like none other.

Feed your spirit with the Light of God that it does not darken and die. Feed it daily with the Holy Spirit, that you have the power to overcome. Be worthy to have this Spirit by nature of love, forgiveness and obedience to God’s Commands; and keep Jesus Christ at the front of your mind each and every day, that you not be tricked by Satan and his glamour. Beloved, keep your life simple and with all your heart, cling to Jesus. He is the Way, the Truth, the Light and the Life. I am Moses’.

"Precious Child, this as ordained by Me. I realize that some will say degrading things about these messages from Moses and others gone on; but ignore all. Allow no negative a place in your mind. Now, Precious One, you have concerns about world events."

"Yes, My Lord, I have many concerns and the people have many. Please address these concerns."

"Child, many are worried about finances and how they will survive. These are some of my recommendations:

Sell and get out of the cities and at least 100 miles from any military facility, nuclear power plant or military storage depots;

Build shelters underground at least six feet, but preferably ten;

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Store up at least one year's food and water supply; but preferably two;

Store up medical supplies, including antibiotics, especially of the sulfur-bearing nature;

Store up vitamins, healing herbs, and green food supplies, such as dried barley leaves;

Store up dried food, which is held tightly in thick, water-proof containers;

Store up water purification products and agricultural supplies;

Have on hand a portable generator and short-wave radio with a generous supply of batteries;

Have a way to dispose of human waste under ground;

Keep plans secret and your location secret. Family will turn on family and friend upon friend. Bounties will be placed on the heads of many Christians;

Keep close to Me at all times, that you can hear My voice in time of need;

Ignore others, who tell you to do this or that. The devil has the minds of most;

Many, who are in debt, shall see some easing up in the next six months. Child, you ask if the stock market will fall within the next six months. Open the door before you. What do you see?"

"My Lord, this is a black door, which says, 'Wall Street' at the top. People are running around, some scratching their heads and others are stupefied. I see piles of the old timey ticker tapes all over the floor and machines continue spewing them out everywhere. Above the floor, I see lights in red, which read, 'Stock Market crashing.' My Lord, what will happen to these, who are in debt?"

"Child, the world over major companies will begin go fall, to shut their doors. Many average people will lose all. They will be unable to pay debts, almost overnight."

"Here comes another vision. I hear a loud banging noise. It is dark and I see huge waves crashing against a shoreline. Boats are loosed from their moorings and are banging one against another, crashing into shorelines, even light poles. The huge waves furiously override the seawalls on the beaches and pour into the city streets. I hear the words 'Hong Kong.'"

"Yes, Child, you hear 'Hong Kong.' You see Hong Kong. For, a great crash there shall send the rest of the world into a tailspin."

"But, My Lord, why will there be a crash in Hong Kong?'

"Communist rule, Child. Communist rule. See the iron hand of communism put its stamp on capitalism. This is what happens. Companies around the world have great investments in Hong Kong, but not for long. The iron fist shall confiscate all. This kind of economy shall not stand in the face of communism."

"But, My Lord, You said that the Germans would feed the scare and contribute to the fall of the Stock Market in the USA."

"The evil Germans, who have your monetary system in a snare shall tighten this hold when Hong Kong falls. This grip shall put a mighty squeeze on you and those on Wall Street shall be in a frenzy. They shall be in a state of shock and they shall run from one to the other crying, 'What shall we do, what shall we do?' The extent of this shall be unexpected. You television shall shout. Your newspapers shall shout, 'It is unexpected. This is unexpected.' But, Child, not to those behind the scenes. Those, who serve Lucifer, know of this in advance. You are sitting ducks before the Red Tide. You are the blind giant.

Heed Me, Child, this is coming. Do not be wasteful at Christmas. Give others this survival message and tell them of what awaits you. Let this be a Christmas gift. It is time for each to wake up and be responsible for his own destiny. This business of adding more to one's debt to give Christmas gifts, which may be a burden, or go unappreciated, must come to a halt. Give that, which is of Me. Give this, which I tell you, that others may prepare.

Know, Child, that I am with you. I shall see the two of you out of debt that you can prepare. This is My promise to you. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth. Be blessed, Child, for you are one of My Chosen. Many a miracle you shall see before it is your time."

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

The Cave Bat

"Precious Child, as you know My voice to be true and that of Jesus, I speak to you and your family myriad blessings this day. I speak peace where there is conflict, wholeness where there is disease, and comfort, where there is despair. Child the whole world is in a state of turmoil. Even those, who love Me and do My work, are weighted down with the state of the world. Sadly, this state is degenerating minute by minute; but, let Mine rejoice in Me. For, My Spirit brings joy. It brings completeness in Me. Be not carried down by the negativity, but rejoice in Me. For, where you are lacking, I bring completion. Where you come up short, I fill in the gap.

Precious Children, raise up your eyes to a new day in Me. For, all must come down as it now stands. Be at peace when you see the evil people and governments fall by the way. For, My hand is in this. Even though millions of you shall die horrible deaths, this season must come to an end, that a new day can begin. Be strong in Me, My Sheep. Stand in the face of adversity and fear not; for, I am with you. Turn not from Me in your time of need; but, turn to Me in greater measure, that I can comfort you; for, My hand is upon My Cherished Ones. When you see all falling around you, remember: I am in this. The evil one runs rampant, but this time has been prophesied. Be strengthened in this; for, it is the word of God manifest.

Now, Precious Child, you are aware that through My Holy Spirit, I have brought you to new heights on My Holy Mountain. Come into My Inner Room, for it is opened to you. Write as seen and given."

"My Lord Jesus, I float into this room upon the wings of Your Spirit; and before me is the Tree, buzzing with life. I am drawn quickly to this tree, as I am so thirsty for this fruit. I long so to drink of its sweet nectar and to bathe in its radiance. As I pick my first fruit and consume its sweet fragrance, I taste apricots, bananas, pineapples and vanilla. The copious amounts of juice bathe my hands and trickle down my clothing, forming rows of radiant diamonds. This radiant liquid quickly flows into my mouth, and through my head and body. It travels its own roads and makes old places new. Its journey is smooth, easy, and deeply soothing to my soul. I eat and eat until I feel very full, satisfied and peaceful. Amidst such beauty, I am faintly aware of the rustle of the sounds of Your Spirit within and around me, weaving in and out the branches of the Tree. What joy! It fills my heart with glee and love for You, My Precious Lord and I am bathed in pure beauty!"

"Yea, Child, but today we shall go on a journey. Adjust your son-glasses and get ready to travel."

"My Lord, I do as you ask and suddenly feel myself rising from the base of this tree, lifted upon the wings of Your Spirit, rushing ever upward. Suddenly, I come to a stop before a wooden door built into a dark mountain."

"Child, take your key called ‘destiny’ and open the door."

"My Lord, I put the key into the lock and turn it. The key is very large and so is the lock. As the key turns, it makes a very loud click; and the door grinds, squeaks, and pushes forward inch by inch. My Lord, where does this door lead to?"

"Child, look above."

"My Lord, I see a set of rails etched above the door, yet no train. On the railroad ties, I see some words, which are too dark to read."

"Shine My Light upon them."

"My Lord, as you say this, I look upon these railroad ties and light comes out of these glasses. This light illuminates what is written; and it says, ‘Destruction, Destruction, Destruction to the good OLE USA’. My heart is sinking as I fear what I shall see."

"Child, proceed forward."

"My Lord, I now enter a very large room with an extremely tall ceiling and a floor made of black and white marble squares. A cold draft courses this vacant room, which leads off into a dark cave. Overhead, many black bats are clinging to the ceiling; and suddenly I hear rustling sounds, like the sounds of wind among leaves in autumn. Drifting from the back of the room are lugubrious sounds of a distressing dirge. The steady beats of drums add to the darkness of the moment, and airy sounds of flutes rush forth to mock the darkness. What a cacophony now, as a rumbling foghorn rolls forth, adding its own distressing dimension! Goose bumps rise on my arms, a personal statement of my own sense of fear.

Suddenly, a large bat flies down from the ceiling and clings to the wall near the entrance of the cave. The bat is looking at me, one of its eyes a gold rotating disk. It caws like a crow and suddenly defecates a large pile near the entrance of this cave. The stomach of the bat is very large as if it is pregnant; and before my very eyes, it is changing into a man. He is wearing black and white striped pants and very large, black, clown shoes. His hair is red like that of a clown, but only on the sides; he is bald on top. With his large clown shoes, he begins to do a jig on the black and white tiled floor; and as he dances he whistles…'I'm off to see the wizard'. Over and over, he whistles the same verse, dancing merrily along, seemingly oblivious to my presence.

Now, he is singing:

I have no regrets,
No regrets, no regrets,
I am a prostitute,
A whore among men.
I like being a harlot,
A slut, a harlot, a harlot,
A slut am I.
Doo-doo, we do,
Doo-do, we do.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

Then, he takes a black cane and breaks it over his left knee. My Lord, please explain what is going on."

"Child, look at the bat with the rotating eye of gold. Who is this?"

"My Lord, this is Germany; but Germany falls and becomes a man."

"Child, Germany hangs high in the ceiling of its dark cave with the eye full of gold; yet, he falls in his very cave and becomes a clown."

"My Lord, I see this. I am curious about the train tracks outside the cave, which tell of the destruction of the USA."

"Child, you see no train, only the tracks. The role of Germany in the destruction of the USA is not obvious at first and will not be obvious for quite some time. For, the bat hangs in darkness. But, the bat shall fall to the black and white floor and the clown dance shall be seen."

"My Lord, why is the floor black and white?"

"It represents good and evil. When Germany falls to the floor of good and evil, all shall be known."

"And, when shall this be?"

"Child, see … 2002."

"It will take that long?"

"Oh, yes; for these are the ones with the white hats. Remember?"

"Yes, My Lord, the white hats and the black hearts."

"So, Germany does the jig and breaks the cane; but why?"

"Child, what is written on the cane?"

"My Lord, I see a piece of paper hanging from the broken cane, so I will take it and read it. It says: 'The German European Consortium is a Lie.' Please explain."

"Child, who is running the show in Europe?"

"Primarily, The Royals and the Rothschild Family."

"Yes, Child, but primarily the Rothschild Family. Do you not remember how they spy on the Royals and how they do things, which lead to the death of some of the Royals, even to the death of the Monarchy in England? They work constantly behind the scenes to do much double dealing, even to set up the destruction of the USA. The bold voices, which speak now through the Russians, the Chinese and the Arabs, are backed by Germany, who heads the United Nations behind the scenes. This family is primarily responsible for the control of the monetary system in the USA, of course in concert with the Rockefellers and the Royals. Others play roles, but do not forget who the key players are. Never forget this."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Now, Child, watch the clown."

"My Lord, he is pulling an off-white ribbon from his back pocket. He pulls and pulls on this ribbon until there is a large pile of ribbon at his feet. The pile of ribbon grows to great heights and the clown diminishes in size until he becomes a midget standing beside a huge pile of ribbon. All his pockets are now turned wrongside out and his red hair is standing straight up, as if he has been electrified. The ribbon is, which comes out the end of his fingers, is stuck to his hands. He tries to shake himself free from the ribbon, but cannot because it is a part of him. He tries to run, but his feet are glued to the floor. Suddenly, a huge foot comes down upon the clown and squashes him into a grease spot.

On the large boot is written ‘Arab Alliance is angry as hell.’ Then the one behind the foot, who is Hussein, throws a match on the grease spot and starts a fire. The cave becomes thick with smoke, and others come from within the bowels the cave holding their throats and coughing. I do not know who they are; but they have been smoked out."

"Child, look on their foreheads as they come out and write what you see."

"I see written across their foreheads: ‘European Alliance’, ‘Trinidad’, ‘Poor Polish’, ‘Trickle-Down Economics’, ‘World Hunger’, ‘Air Pollution and Fallout’, and ‘Sugar Daddy No More’."

"Child, you know that the Arabs take out Germany in 2004."

"Yes, My Lord; but why are they so angry?’

"Child, this will be seen as a building up of tension over oil; for, oil will be used to control many. Israel will tap into the Mother Load of Oil; and this Mother Load will push the United Nations to take over Israel. But, this will not work, for it is clear that the Arab Alliance wishes to control the oil. Nevertheless, Israel will control a mighty Mother Load for nearly three years."

"So, these two buddies split fast over the oil?’

"Yes, indeed, Child, and you see who wins over whom; but Hussein shall be replaced by the Syrian."

"My Lord, I remember this. Now, tell me about the off-white ribbon?"

"Child, take a piece of the ribbon and walk into it."

"My Lord, I jump right into the ribbon through the power of your Holy Spirit; and I hear the power saws and see trees falling right and left. On the falling trees are names of countries: I see 'Denmark, Samaria, Finland, USA, Canada, Australia, Most of Europe, Parts of China, and Russian Allies.' So, this tape has to do with countries destroyed by Germany; and the more destruction the clown creates, the smaller he becomes, as they turn on him. The clown does not have the support of the people, so he has no power. My Lord, it is good the Arabs go into his cave and get him because Germany has done this evil for so long. Glory to the day when this evil is brought down."

"Yet, Child, he will kill many of My Cherished Ones, especially My saints and prophets."

"I know this, My Lord; but wherever we are, we shall rejoice when this evil is taken out."

"Precious One, go in Me this day and know the joy of Thanksgiving. For I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

Oil In Israel

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. As asked, you have been given a double anointing of My Spirit this day. This anointing has made greater places for My Spirit to reside in you daily. You do not understand what I say, but accept that it is true. Now, Child, see that My Spirit has brought you to My Upper Room. And, yes the Tree of Life is available to you."

"My Lord, I find myself standing beneath this glorious, humming tree with myriad butterflies of white light all over me and around me. They are beautiful balls of white light, which sink into me. I slowly sip the nectar of this heavenly fruit and savor its sweetness. Reaching out, I gently hug this radiant tree, thankful, My Lord, for the joy and beauty it affords me. A most wondrous peace and joy bathe my soul. Little noises like exploding firecrackers fills my ears as I continue to hug this tree and I just keep on embracing it. My Lord, I love this tree; I love the spirit of this tree and its luscious fruit; but most of all, My Lord, I love you with all my heart."

"Child, this love is known, honored and cherished by me. Now, find yourself outside My Upper Room atop My Mountain on the wings of My Spirit. Child, you have a journey ahead of you this day. Be not concerned, for you are armed with My power and My Spirit."

"My Lord, Your Spirit lets me down gently in front of set of very tall cream-colored curtains. Stage lights bathe the curtains from below and give them a gold appearance. I look out in an opera house to see that no one is there, save someone sweeping with a wide broom. He wears a hat like a gas service attendant of old days. He even wears a green striped shirt, green pants and white socks. I believe he is an Oilman. I look on his left pocket, as there is writing. The writing says: 'Israel, mopping up in oil.' This Oilman stops for a minute, as he is whistling and does a little jig right there in the middle of the floor. He believes he is alone, but a very large, fat man with dark skin named 'Saudi Arabia' is jealous, smacks the Oilman in the jaw, and knocks him down. The fat Arab cowers over him and says: 'Stop this now, or else.'

As the fat bully turns to walk off, Israel shoots a line of urine all up and down his back, which starts several fires; and the Arab walks away with a large, smoldering hole in his back.

Suddenly, some people appear in the small section of the balcony seating area; and Light shines on them as they applaud Israel for the move against the Arab. I see the names of some of those, who are applauding and they are several of the Baltic Countries. Toward the Oilman's left and out in the auditorium, I hear rumbling in the dark. Then, I hear sounds like the firing of a pistol.

Upon the stage, a giant sheik emerges. He bears the garb of an ancient Arab warrior, carries a sword, and speaks a language unknown to me; but The Spirit of God translates his words:

'No more pie, no more candy, no more cake!
What is ours is ours!
What is yours is not!
Stop the sale, or there will be a tale to tell!
Ha! Ha! Ha!
Ha! Ha! Ha!'

Suddenly, the Oilman begins to grow exceedingly tall very quickly and he rises above everyone else, though the Arab has more mass. Soon, little dogs, like laughing heinas, begin to bite him in the rear end. Dogs named 'Russia' and 'China' come forth with heavy missiles on their backs. Another dog named 'Germany' hides behind a rock; and nearby is a large pack of dogs named 'UN.' The dogs charge at the Oilman. They bite and nip constantly at his heels and shoes and they tear at his pants; but every time they nip at the shoes, the shoes shock them in the teeth.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

A black vulture, named ‘Rothschild to the Core’ flies around Israel, circling and waiting for the death of the Oilman. The vulture defecates on the left shoulder of the Oilman and the defecation begins to eat into his shoulder, exposing bones of steel.

The Oilman begins to kick up dust, which flies up from his heels, making huge clouds. The fat man coughs and holds his throat, and chunks of meat begin to fall from his leg. His left eye bursts open and falls from the socket, leaving a hole in his head.

A missile intended for the fat man misses and hits Saddam Hussein in the head. Although it bounces off, Hussein is very angry, and he begins to stir up dust and roar like a lion. In fact, he takes the shape of a lion, paces back and forth, and plans his assault on the Oilman. Hussein roars words, which are translated:

‘I can’t stand it anymore.
We have nipped.
We have tucked away our arsenal.
Now, it is time to move.
The whore must go.
She’s a danger to a free oil economy.’

And, he growls fiercely as fire shoots from his mouth and nose, blasting the Oilman. The fire is a blazing hot and it burns the pants off the Oilman, leaving only bones of steel in his legs.

‘Oh, phooey,’ says the Lion.

I can’t chew this!

So, I shall spit it out!

Then Hussein spits a huge wad upon the Oilman’s head, and it travels down his head and shoulders, all the way to his waist. This pile dissolves the hat of the Oilman and it melts the skin on his head and neck. It incinerates his shirt and skin to his waist and exposes the Oilman,s gold head, gold heart, steel shoulders and steel backbone.

The Oilman walks clumsily now, but when he walks the earth shakes. His huge, steel feet plow across Saudi Arabia and Iraq. Then, he walks over Syria and Lebanon and makes Lebanon like boiling water. The Oilman walks all over the desert and where he walks, he leaves huge potholes.

But, the desert came to the Oilman and pours an accelerant all the way around the Oilman's boundaries and sets it afire. The black vulture continues to encircle the Oilman and to drop huge piles of vulture poop on him. Soon, the poor Oilman falls to his knees, as huge swarms of tiny sparrows come and peck him all over; and he must close his eyes to keep the sparrows from pecking them out.

Amidst the sparrows are tiny mosquitoes, sent to sting. Clouds of noxious fumes fell sent by the dogs fall on the Oilman; and the clouds are the most severe because they begin to dissolve the steel legs and feet, making waste of the gold head and heart, leaving huge pockmarks all over the remnants of the Oilman.

The Oilman falls, and he began to cough noxious clouds, which fall on the dogs and the desert rats as they scamper from their holes. Everywhere are huge numbers of dead rats, and maimed and dead packs of dogs as huge, nuclear clouds rumble across the desert.

The oilman is down with only pieces of his steel arms and legs were scattered hither and yon all over the desert floor; and in Israel, a great howling goes up, as the remaining dogs are ready to pounce. The black vulture flies into Israel and gobbles up every piece of the Oilman he can find; and the vulture grows quickly in statue as he sets up an office in the home of the Oilman. The evil, black vulture squawks:

'The slut is down.
The whore is gone.
I shall rain a rain like no other.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

I am he, who devised it all,
Who fed the stream of fire for you, hoo.
I am a schemer.
There is none no meaner.
Look at me.
Worship me.'

The poor Israelites are outraged by the greed of the evil buzzard, and they spit on him. They also spit on the UN, the Chinese, the Russians and the Arabs. It is a sad time in Israel as I look out across the Mount of Olives. There, atop the mountain in radiant, gold letters is a date: It is July 2001. A ball of light rolls from this mountain and starts a fire in the hearts of the people; and they shout:

'Our Lord is coming!
He is coming!
He is coming!
For, it has been told!
It has been prophesied!'

Precious Child, we shall stop for today. This explains self. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

BACK TO THE PAGE OF TIME

"Precious Child, I have brought you to the zenith of My Mountain on the wings of My Spirit because of your great prayers. My Upper Room is open to you; come and eat of the Tree of Life, that you might be strengthened."

"My Lord Jesus, I am so grateful to be once more on Your Mountain in the presence of this healing tree. It restores my soul and gives me life. I shall take a while, My Lord, to commune with this tree and feed myself with this rare and perfect food. Once more I eat this divine nectar and once again I marvel at the radiance which fills me to completeness. Thank you, My Wondrous Master, that I am allowed in the midst of such pure joy and beauty. My Lord, You are my life and I rejoice in You. Praises to Your Precious name; glory to Your Precious Spirit. I love you with all my heart, My Lord; guide me in all things according to Your pure will."

"Child, I have chosen you because of your love for Me, and I shall not forsake you."

"My Lord, give me strength to fight the attacks of the evil one. Was it he, who gave me the horrible dream about someone wanting to kill me?"

"Child, sit in the chair at this desk in My Upper Room. The dream was of Me as there is someone, who wishes to kill you; and it is Lucifer, working in the minds and hearts of others. He wishes to kill all, who love Me."

"My Lord, in the dream I was given a test. At first, there was only myself and another person. The math seemed easy enough, but I knew that I was failing the test."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, you have been tested with many problems, especially financial. You have often thought that you would fail, as you have had to juggle numbers. Yet, did you fail the test?"

"My Lord, I believe that I would have failed, but you brought someone to show me how to work all the problems and I completed all in the dream with help."

"This is right, Child, you shall complete all financial problems. You shall have help."

"My Lord, the last problem in the test was a prophecy problem and I got it right."

"Yes, Child, you got the prophecy problem right with the power of My Holy Spirit."

"But, My Lord, the prophecy is that someone wishes to kill me."

"Yes, Child, this is true, as you have been told. Lucifer, working through the minds of men, wishes to kill all prophets, all saints and all, who love Me. Yet, you have seen that this he is bound for now. He is jailed; but as you have seen in the dream, he cannot be held for much longer."

"My Lord, what was the main reason for this dream?"

"There are two reasons: 1. To answer your request for a financial blessing; 2. To warn you about what lies ahead."

"My Lord, I understand and I ask only that you give me an abundance of Your Spirit. Answer this my Lord: explain to me why I had to pray so long today to receive Your Spirit,"

"Child, you are tried and tested over and over. Would you pray for great lengths until you saw My Spirit come to bring you here? Would you get on the floor on your face? Would you work to bind every entity, great and small and cast them out? Would you persevere? This is the nature of doing My Work. All must persevere, as times shall get very hard."

"My Lord, I understand."

"Child, go to the Page of Time; for I shall show you things to come."

"My Lord, I am here at the Page; and I take the quill and place a single drop of living water on the Page. As I do so, a white light shoots from the Page. Amidst the white light are the burlesque dancers, who beginning to emerge. Surely, these are the Illuminati."

"Child, as you would say, 'Right as rain.'"

"The dancers are kicking up their heels on a stage; and on closer scrutiny I see that they are 'ugly as sin'. They look like men in drag, dressed in tutus. Some have beards, and some even have Arab head wraps. What a strange mix! Among them are Yeltsin, Clinton and Queen Elizabeth; and hiding behind the curtain, watching, is the evil Rothschild man. Even Hussein is in on the action, with runners on his feet, like those on tanks.

Overhead, I see a parrot, which watches the dancers intently. The name on the parrot is 'United Nations'. Now and then, the parrot says, 'Good dance, Boys, kick 'em high.' Hussein is kickin' 'em high; and Clinton keeps trying to dance', but is slippin' and slidin' because the evil 'R' man keeps tossing banana peels under his shoes. The Queen stands on stilts with her nose held high, obviously above the others. Saudi Arabia and Kuwait dance opposite each other. A large, slimy, black, white and red snake slithers among the feet of the dancers; but they never notice it. On the back of the snake is written, 'Lucifer to the Core.' The snake wraps itself around the feet of this one, then that one, biting each up and down their legs; but none seems to take notice of the snake, and all keep on dancing.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

From the back of the stage comes a string of drummers, followed by several flutists. On the drums are the words: 'Cairo Egypt, Cairo Egypt, Cairo Egypt.' The flutists play the same tune over and over, 'Merrily, merrily, merrily, life is but a dream.' On the rear ends of the flutists is written, 'Germany fooled you.'

The evil 'R' man lingers in the back and embraces a black box. He opens the black box, which is labeled, 'My Dark Secrets'; and out jumps the green spirit of evil. 'Master, shall I serve you?' 'Yes,' the 'R' man replies to the evil spirit, 'get me a handkerchief. I shall have to wipe my behind.' And, a box appears before the evil 'R' man, who takes the handkerchief and wiped his behind of foul feces. Then, he throws the feces-laden handkerchief in front of Clinton.

'Get on down there, Sonny Boy. Take a smell,' he sneers at Clinton. Then, Clinton falls on a banana peel, called 'ambush', and rubs his nose on the stinky handkerchief called 'sabotage.' 'I've got you,' the Rothschild man growls. Clinton tries to get up, but the floor was so slippery from all the banana peels that he cannot. On the end of his nose, the nasty napkin is stuck, but he cannot remove it because his hands are so sticky with the slime from the banana peels. The harder he tries to get the stinky napkin off his nose, the worse it sticks and smears. He tries to stand up, but the more he tries, the more impossible it becomes. He keeps slipping and sliding on the banana peels and he is down and cannot get up! However, the burlesque dancers keep on dancing. They are kicking their heels high and never seeming to pay much attention to Clinton, who is no longer able to dance. 'Hmmm,' says the Queen, 'serves him right. He should keep his hands to himself.'

The evil 'R' man takes a grappling hook and drags Clinton off the dance floor. By this time Clinton's pants have fallen down to his ankles. He has banana peels all over his knees, feet, and elbows; and the feces-covered handkerchief is stuck firmly to his nose. Clinton sees the evil, green monster looming from the box and says, 'Oh, you again. I should have known that you were behind this.' The evil spirit looks at Clinton and contorts, 'That's right, Sonny Boy, and I'm here to stay.'

The evil ‘R’ man takes his big, black shoe with runners like a tank and he kicks Clinton until he is unconscious. ‘Bring in the Mop Squad,’ he orders! And, the Mop Squad enters with a mop, a broom, and a large dustpan. They sweep up Clinton and the mess with him and they put him into a dump truck. On the truck is written, ‘Iran is the victor.’ And, the Mop Squad speeds off with Clinton in the truck.

The truck pulls up to a stop at a place called, ‘Swiss Bank Scandal,’ and dumps Clinton in the street. Clinton tries to pull the remnants of the handkerchief off his nose; but he cannot get all the defecation off. He hurriedly tries to clean himself up and make himself presentable for a large meeting at the bank; but the peels are stuck tightly and the foul poop just won’t go away. Looking a mess, he takes a seat in a large meeting room. A huge man, dressed in black, comes in and offers Clinton a cookie from a tray. The tray is piled high with cookies and on each one is written, ‘Take your cut now.’ So, Clinton reaches out and stuffs his pockets, front and back, with the cookies; and he nervously waits for others to arrive.

But, none come, save a pack of laughing heinous; and on their backs is written, ‘You’re sorry now.’ The dogs laugh and laugh and laugh; and as they turn to leave the writing on their rear ends says, ‘International Monetary Fund.’

A whore named ‘Gibraltar’ comes in and nuzzles Clinton. She has bleached hair and overflowing breasts; and Clinton sticks his stinky nose between the whore’s breasts and says, "I make a bet on Spain.’ The whore sits in Clinton’s lap and fornicates with Clinton; and they drink champagne. In the bottom of the champagne glass is a note, which reads, ‘You’re fired, SOB.’ Clinton gets up to find the whore dead; and a black hearse comes and carts her away.

‘How did this happen,’ Clinton says. ‘I am no monster.’ Then, the laughing heinas appear again as Clinton stands behind the hearse, scratching his head. ‘We’ll take you share. We’ll take your share,’ the heinas laugh and cajole. Clinton is confounded and he goes and sits on a curb; but he does not realize that a drain is beneath his legs on the street, or that the drain leads to a series of underground tunnels. These are sewerage tunnels; and soon the stench begins to reach Clinton’s nose. Faint words are written on the stench as its waves drift upward: ‘Russia at it again.’ The stench is full of toxic chemicals, which cause Clinton to swoon; and he lies on the sidewalk and goes to sleep.

Beneath the sidewalk in the dark tunnels are long lines of soldiers, dressed in black. They whisper, ‘He’s asleep. He’s asleep. Catch him now. Catch him now’. And, as Clinton sleeps, the submarines cover the depths of the waters surrounding the USA and the soldiers plot their strategies. The man in the high tower above Russia cries, ‘The time is now. The time is now.’ And, the submarines line up in the dark waters and fire upon their planned targets. The date, which emerges on the Page of Time, is Dec. 12, 1998. Their plans are to hit the large cities and military installations. They say, ‘We shall destroy the whore in one day!’ However, the Russians were not alone. The leader of the orchestra is the evil ‘R’ man. ‘How sweet the sound,’ he crows! ‘A symphony in perfect tune! My Soul is bathed in victory, the ultimate victory!’

But, this is only the beginning of the covert, German ways; the evil ‘R’ man will bring down many from the shadows. On the Page of Time, I see that Canada is invaded in 1999. Australia is invaded in the fall of 2001 by hoards of Chinese and Arabs.

"My Lord, I wonder about the Stock Market crash and the problems in the Orient. Will Japan be involved?

"Child, there will be natural calamities in the Far East, which will affect several countries. A volcano will erupt in Japan and they have earthquakes and tidal waves.’ Calamities in Japan will lead them to withdraw money from the USA; and they will begin to recall debts."

"My Lord, my mind if full of questions."

"Child, this is known; but we shall proceed another time. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER NINETEEN

A Look Into The Millenium

"Precious Child, I am with you, even and especially until the end; for, you are among My Chosen, who were before the foundations. If one lacks faith, let him lack faith. If one lacks vision, let him lack it. If he lacks direction, let it be so. Worry not about those things you have no control over. Focus on Me and what I control.

Many will rise up against you, as they call you New Age or 'lost'. But, many shall sink even further into the mire and be more confounded. For, I have chosen you as a latter-day-prophetess to carry My messages. Worry not about what others communicate back and forth about you; for you rest in the palm of My hand, and I will protect you until it is time to submit in the physical. Then, you will come home on the wings of My Spirit with many angels. Neither worry about the publication of these prophecies; for, I say that they shall be published. What you must do is to write as told, and do as I say."

"But, My Lord, there seem to be so many delays."

"Yes, Child, but this is for only a season. There is a time for all things. Now is the time to get all prepared. Little One, see yourself once again upon My Mountain in My Upper Room, where you wish to eat once more of the fruit, as it sustains you."

"Oh, yes, My Lord, I am so thirsty for the fruit. Hungrily, I pick a piece and bite into its rich nectar. Many, tiny diamonds burst forth from the pure, heavenly food and fill my mouth, dripping from my hands. A taste of banana, pineapple and vanilla soothes my soul and bright white light takes shape in my hands, then my mouth and begins to radiate throughout my entire body. White flames lap upward from my legs as Your Precious Holy Spirit envelops me. This radiant, white fire catches me up and whirls me ever upward above the radiant branches of this perfect tree. I grab hold of one of the limbs and float for a moment amidst its beautiful perfection and harmony. My soul is at peace and I am living in this moment of perfect joy. Long live Jesus Christ, Lord of Earth, the name above all! May Your will be done on Earth."

"Yea, Child, for I have been given dominion over Earth."

"My Lord, bring the people into submission; such great numbers are lost in folly and darkness! Most are in great rebellion."

"My Child, I am about to do so. The fall of your stock market will mark the fall of an era, where Lucifer has taken too many souls to the Pits of Hell. Yea, Child, I shall purge Earth of evil; for My reign shall not tolerate what you see today. Yea, I shall rule with fairness and gentleness; but My rule shall be one of iron. For, evil shall not thrive."

"My Lord, I have questions about the Millenium. We know little about things to come."

"Yea, Child, you know little. But, I shall allow you to know more. For, I shall speak through you what many shall see. Go to the Page of Time and write as given and seen."

"My Lord, I go to this desk and sit in the chair. Suspended in this white fire, I take the quill and place a drop of living water on the page. Straightaway, I see a pool of water, which is at first blue; but immediately forms gold ripples of light. Quickly, these ripples turn into pure, white light, which radiates from the pool.

My Lord, I see you emerge from within this pool of white light wearing a white robe. You show your hands with the visible scars, made from the piercing of the nails. Then, you pick up your feet and show me the scars made in Your feet by the nails. My Lord, this makes me feel so sad, as I see the holes in your feet, which go all the way through. My Lord, You are bathed in a radiance of pure, white light; and on Your head are many crowns. Suddenly, the crowns disappear from your head, which is flowing with long, brown hair.

Beside You is a very large lamb, a sheep with pure, white wool. You touch the sheep and a white light comes from it. Then, You sit on a rock beside the sheep and You open the back of the sheep revealing many tools inside of it, things like wrenches and pliers. On one wrench handle is written: ‘My Words’; and on the handles of the pliers are: ‘A better’ and ‘Way.’ As You open up the lamb, a river of clear, radiant water begins to flow, and it flows out over the land, creating a crystal-clear river. Within the river are tiny fish and on each is written, ‘I feed My people.’ Long lines of people, dressed in white, come to the River and each bears a white, paper cup, which reads, ‘I love Jesus.’ People come from all over the world on pilgrimages to drink of this water and the line is very long. The river bubbles and speaks to the people saying, ‘I am living water.’ The water provides physical and mental healing, and spiritual renewal. What an amazing thing to behold!"

"Yes, Child, I come and I bring My Tools."

"My Lord, what does the sheep represent?"

"Child, the sheep represents you. You are My Sheep. Tools for a better way, a better life through Me, will reside in you; and I open you up to My Living Water. Child, this Water will flow among you, as real, radiant stream, which is visible; and you will drink of it. You will touch it and you will behold its living, miraculous qualities. This Water will not be just in the spirit any longer; but I will cause it to materialize, that My faithful can drink of it and be renewed."

"My Lord, how long will people live?’ Will each live to be 1000 years old?’

"No, Child, each one will not live to be 1000 years; but all will live longer than you live now, as long as you honor Me, and My Laws, and drink of My Living Water."

"I see many go on pilgrimages to drink this Water?"

"Child, ‘tis so; for it will flow out of Jerusalem."

"So, many will be born during this time?"

"Yes, indeed, Child, many will be born and many will die. But, those, who are lost to the causes of darkness, shall not be born. They shall not live again until after the Millenium."

"Who will be born?"

"Child, those, who are good souls, will be born: Those, who know that I am Lord of Earth, and have something good to give back. Many will choose to be born, who do not have to ‘go out’ again."

"Will all saints live during the Millenium?"

"So many as wish the earthly travail again."

"So, some will go home to such beauty and not wish to leave?’

"Child, eyes human have not seen what awaits those, who overcome; and many will wish to rest in this beauty. Even under My rule on Earth, all will not be perfect. There will be sickness, disease and death; and many will have to come back due to unfinished business. These are not they, who love evil, but those with work yet to be done. By the end of My rule, the Earth will have great numbers of people once again, though not as many as now."

"How will Your rule be set up?"

"Child, I have divided the Earth into sections; and I will establish one as a ruler over each section. Each ruler will report to Me and I will appoint others to work with these chosen ones. There will be no taxation; yet, he will give, who has the most to give. All proceeds will go to a common pool, from which government expenses will be met. The poor will be encouraged to work and care for self and the sick will be taken care of freely through My Spirit and my Living Water. There shall be little need for hospitals and greedy doctors and medical establishments shall not rape the poor. Usury shall be abolished and I shall encourage the growing of herbs and limited eating, that the soul may grow. Many souls shall choose to come back and work in My service, who have overcome; for they have a great love for Me."

"My Lord, I am getting a picture of great freedom and creativity."

"Yea, Child, and great worship across the land for Our Father and obedience toward Me. Great truths heretofore known shall emerge; for I shall teach the hidden. Many shall be shocked at what enfolds. I shall destroy religiosity and there shall be only one church. In these last days, Satan shall attempt a cheap replica as he tries to force many to bow down to him. But, Mine shall come eagerly and many souls shall be fed great light. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth.

Another Look at The Page of Time

"Precious Child, you ride upon the wings of My Spirit to the Upper Room of My Mountain. Come in, Child, and eat of the Tree that you might be restored."

"My Lord Jesus, I humbly thank You for allowing me to eat the fruit of this tree. There is such abundant radiance here, as compared to the Earth below. The Tree hums with life and I eat eagerly of the fruit's fleshy pulp, with its delicious tastes of cinnamon, vanilla, banana, and apricot. Such sweetness bathes my soul with a white fire, as radiant diamonds appear in my mouth and explode. This radiance renews me and brings me peace of mind, soul, body and emotion, an experience so vast that it defies adequate description."

"Child, your sincere heart is known and recognized."

"My Lord, my attention is called to my body, which rests in the house below. I am aware at this time that an evil entity has entered our house and is standing near my body. I have taken a moment to descend from the Mountain, to bind the entity, and to cast it out, along with its black baggage. Fortify Your shield of protection around me, our house and the property surrounding our dwelling. My Lord, what brought this into our house?"

"Child, it was sent upon you."

"By whom?"

"By someone, who is close to you."

"Why?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, he is lost and the devil has him by the tail, using him to gain access to you. You love this person, even though he is lost."

"My Lord, I know who this is, and I do love him even more because he is lost."

"He is a child of God, lost to evil like so many. He had better get a handle on his life, for he shall pay a price in due time."

"My Lord, please help him. Circumcise his heart and speak to his mind. Help him forsake the love of evil and cling to You, My Precious Lord. I am so worried about his soul."

"Your prayers are heard and will bring him salvation when he expects it least. Now, Child, you are back in My Inner Sanctum; go to the Page of Time."

"I am seated before the Page of Time, and I take the quill and place a single drop of Living Water on the Page. It pops, crackles and spews forth a red and yellow fire. From within the fire comes a red devil with a pointed tail. He pauses a moment and then dives headlong back into the fire, which has become spinning, concentric rings of red and yellow light. Suddenly, the devil and the spinning rings of light disappear; and a black door, built into a black wall, takes center place."

"Take your keys and go through the black door. You have the fire of My Spirit and four warrior angels."

"My Lord, a large key shines above the rest, and I place it in the large, dark lock. As the door swings open, I see the current Pope, Pope John Paul II. He is wearing a white robe with a little, white cap; and around his neck are numerous gold chains. The Pope is seated in a booth behind a thick plate of glass, reminding me of the glass enclosures for the ticket sellers at movie theatres. At the base of the glass, and to the rear of the Pope's desk, an archway is cut into the glass, making a way for others to stick their hands through the glass.

The Pope has a roll of tickets in his hands. He unwinds them, one by one, and breaks them off individually. Then, he breaks each ticket in two and he punches one half, which he puts into a large green trashcan. He puts the other half into his desk drawer.

A most interesting thing is going on with the trashcan. At the base of it and on the side away from the Pope is a small door; and mice, dressed up like cartoon characters, steadily come and go through it filling up tiny wagons with the punched tickets. Hurriedly, they pull the tiny, loaded wagons to waiting boxcars. Each, tiny car is stacked high with mounds of punched tickets and topped with cellophane, which is pulled tight to hold the tickets in place.

The Pope, who is very busy punching and tearing, does not seem to notice that the tickets are disappearing from the trash can. From time to time, one, a pirate comes up from the basement to get the load of tickets, or to bring up a load. Wearing pirate's clothing, decked out with many gold chains, flaunting few teeth, and laden with black filth, the pirate comes repeatedly up the stairs, clears his throat and spits something out the window, which is situated alongside the stairway.

The pirate carts the tickets to the basement, where they overflow large, round cardboard containers. The tickets are processed and sent along wide, black conveyor belt to their destinations. Workers walk along the dark conveyor belt as they help pile up the tickets and route them properly. Now and then, a worker, walking the conveyor, will hit a grease spot. And when this happens the unfortunate soul will be carried the length of the conveyor, and dumped off. Without fail, each person hits his or her head on a rock at the base of the conveyor and is knocked unconscious.

As a witness to these tragedies, numerous dead and decaying bodies lie at the end of the conveyor. Forsaken and forgotten, they are foul and putrid but bags of bones. Once a poor soul meets this end, there is no way out; but business continues on as usual. Oddly enough, the poor lost and dead souls seem to be largely women.

Outside, large, black dump trucks arrive frequently full of fresh rolls of tickets. The tickets are shoveled into the tall round, cardboard containers and rolled into the basement for storage. The Pope busies himself day after day processing the tickets; and the pirate and the mice do what they always did. My Lord, tell me more?"

"Child, go inside the Pope's mouth."

"My Lord, I could get lost in here. It looks like a large, black, hollow cave. A simple, wooden stairway ascends to the left and all around the roof of his mouth is railing. I get a strong smell of something burning, and it is coming from the back of the Pope's mouth. My Lord, I see papers back there burning, smoldering, smoking, and giving off flickers of fire here and there. I need to get out of here; the smell is taking my breath away."
"Child, reach back there and take the protruding page from the fire."

"I have it, My Lord. It is charred a little around the edges; but across the page are several obvious red streaks. Within these streaks are words in white, which say: 'There is some monkey business going on between the Pope, China, Cuba, Russia, England and more.' Okay, My Lord, I have read this and I am outside the Pope's smoking mouth. Please explain this."

"Child, go to the dump truck and read what is written on the truck."

"On the door of the truck, a white sign with red writing says, 'Khruschev is dead, but his spirit lives on.'"

"Child, pick up one of the tickets from the bed of the truck. Look at it and see the common thread, which is on it, and all tickets."

"I have one of the tickets and I see a thread on it. The thread is on all tickets and it is wide and gold, with a line of green at the base."

"Child, what is this common thread?"

"It is gold interwoven with the currency of The USA."

"'Tis true and more."

"What do You mean?'

"It is gold, US green, and the lapidary stone."

"I've missed something."

"Child, what is around the Pope's neck?"

"I see a large stone."

"Then, the rock is also part of the common thread.'

"My Lord, what is the rock?"

"The Rock of Gibraltar."

"Of Gibraltar?"

"Yes, Child."

"You mean, the Gibraltar plot, which involves Clinton, also involves the Pope?"

"Yes, indeed, Child, and the Swiss Banks."

"Tell me more."

"Go back to the tickets and observe what the Pope does with the small, round area he punches out."

"He keeps it, because on each piece is written, 'Mine.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, ‘tis so."

"Now, look on the front of each ticket."

"My Lord, on each ticket is a small, arched section of the gold and red concentric circles the devil jumped into at the beginning of this vision. This arched section is made to look like an gold and red rainbow."

"Child, remember the devil and the concentric circles on The Page?"

"Yes, My Lord; and I saw the devil jump into these circles.’

"So, what is the devil doing with this arched section of the circle?"

"He is processing this part of his evil domain through the Pope."

"Exactly. The Pope does his part; he plays his role in the devil’s work, and don’t ever forget this. He is adorned in white for appearances and he is draped in gold, processing the devil’s work."

"My Lord, who are the ones, who slip and die on the conveyors?"

"Child, these are the ones, who have slipped up doing the pope’s evil work. The inevitable for all, who slip up doing his work, is death. There is no way out."

"And, the pirate?"

"Child, pirates steel from others. The Pope is fed by that, which is stolen from others; and he does as he will with what he takes from the good of heart."

"Tell me about the mice and the little train."

"Child, who are the mice?"

"I don't know."

"Is a door cut open in the trash can so as to feed them the tickets?"

"There is a door."

"Well, he knows. The Pope knows they are being fed."

"But, who are they?"

"Child, look on their tiny back and read."

"It says, 'True Servants of God.' My Lord, this is very sad. These precious souls are being fed crumbs. This reminds me of the story of Cinderella and the wicked stepmother. My Lord, what about the huge piles of tickets brought in by the trucks.'
"Child, read the back of each ticket.'

"My Lord, on the back of each ticket are the words: 'I love money.'"

"Child, the Pope is not what he seems and all will find this out soon enough. He is black to the core, yet on the outer he wishes to convey something pure. He is working hard for the dark forces processing their work. Their love of money feeds his love for it. The dark forces thrive on gold, and US currency feeds them all. The pirate brings tickets to the Pope, which are pirated from many good people. The Pope keeps half of what he gets for the desk of the Pope and even sneaks some for himself. He puts half back into the trashcan, where a small amount goes back to the 'lowly ones', who love Me. The Pope is living high. Do you get the picture of this evil machine and the ones he colludes with?"

"Yes, My Lord, I have known this."

"Yes, Child, you have known this; but something shall happen within the next six months, which will remind you of this very conversation."

"You mean, something negative about the Pope?"

Note: And, something did happen within this six-month timeframe, regarding the Pope. I turned on the news one day in the spring of 1998 to see the Pope down in Cuba making headlines as he publicly forged a friendship with Castro. Fidel Castro even made the statement that communism and religion can get along with one another well.

Hello! Is this the same Castro, who has a history of persecuting those, who love God? Is this the same one, who has made himself a god among men? Yes, indeed, communism and religion can get along fine, as long as each serves Lucifer.

Anyone, who saw this show between Castro and the Pope, and did not do a double take, is sound asleep. Folks, the Pope is not who you think and soon this whole dark web of the Vatican is going to tumble down on those, who love its darkness. Woe to those, who depend on dark institutions for their connections to God! You will be lost in the coming darkness as world communism fights to push out God's Light.

Get in your prayer closet and build your own connection to Jesus and to our Precious Father. Do not get caught up in religious charades, which distract. The temple of God is within. Go there for your spiritual strength!

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

Fall of Market in North Korea Foretold, and more on Invasion of USA

"Precious Child, you have come and prayed long and hard. Times are exceedingly difficult, as you find yourself in a world gone awry. You know such sadness, for many are lost spiritually and know it not. Just yesterday, you witnessed Oprah Winfrey speak out on behalf of gays and in support of Ellen Degeneres. You heard her say that all should be allowed to live their own truths."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, what kind of world would exist if all are allowed to live their own truths? Clearly, there is a right and a wrong, a left and a right. There has been an orderly society since mankind was given the Ten Commandments. Your schools have order, your streets have order and you are governed by rules and laws. Yet, Oprah Winfrey is saying that everyone should live according to their own truths. Child, this is dangerous thinking; for living one's own truths can lead one into a life of torment, a life of chaos, and into an afterlife of great darkness.

Within the soul of each is a piece of the Divine. Does our Father say, 'All is well and fine. Do as you will.' Nay, he does not. Our Father lives through Me and you, and He is a firm taskmaster. One cannot grow in the Light of God if he or she accepts every behavior as just fine with no restraints. One grows in the Light of God by discipline over baser desires. The nature of spiritual strength is through mastery of the commands of God. Remember, do not follow the masses; for the masses are lost. And, do not follow Oprah Winfrey's ideation in believing that everyone should live their own truths.

It is true, Child, that she does much to help others. I cherish this and I honor this. She has a good heart; yet, she is wrong in believing that everything goes sexually. It is not just fine for everyone to choose and accept perverse, sexual behavior. Sexual perversions steel the light from one's soul.

"I hear your thoughts, Child. You think that this one or that one says that lesbianism is just fine. They say that the gay lifestyle is grand. Child, how can one be fine when he or she is lost to sexual perversion? It is true that various cult churches have sprung up around the world embracing sodomy and other sexual perversions. I am not in the midst of this and neither is My Spirit. This is Lucifer's domain. This lusts of the flesh is of man and most often supported and encouraged by any number of demons.

Yea, indeed, you are lost to this in great numbers, and your media pushes you toward blatant sexuality. You, as a country, are lost to sexual perversions; and the whole world is quivering beneath the weight of this darkness. This is one reason why you, as a country, must be destroyed, the rich and the poor, the black and the white, the straight and the gay. You have taken those things sacred and made them cheap, and I am bringing down this system. Mark My word on this. If you die amidst perversion, you die in it. If you die amidst love for Me, you die in it. Those, who love darkness and spread darkness will follow on into darkness. Those, who love Me, and honor Me through obedience to sacred laws, will see My face and know glory. This is simple enough.

Now, Child, you see that My Spirit has brought you atop My Mountain. Come into My Upper Room and eat of The Tree."

"My Lord, I am so grateful to be here; and my soul is so thirsty for a taste of the pure, Divine River within this fruit. Hungrily, I pick and eat one piece after the other until a great, radiance of white light begins to build within me. My Lord, I hear you say, 'This can heal cancer.'"

"Yes, Child, you will be healed of this cancer as I promised you. You have a right to be afraid of the medical profession; for they have tried to kill you by lying about a large mass in your left breast. Fear not, Child, I shall heal you as I have spoken. And, I shall also take care of those, who have tried to kill you. They have only begun to see the curses, which shall carry them into an early grave and on into great darkness. For, you are not the only one they have tried to kill, but one of many."

"My Lord, remember all the other women, who have received silicone breast implants. Many did it because of vanity or terrible insecurity. Others got them because they lost breasts to cancer. Many, many have been made terribly ill and have even died; but the manufacturers continue to hide, to cover up and to lie with bogus research. Major universities have gotten in on the cash flow to lie and cover up. Labs across the land have lied and covered up and radiologists have lied on films. My Lord, this is one horrible disaster and the people in general have no idea. Huge numbers of doctors have been wined and dined by these manufacturers to lie and cover up and the poor women, such as myself, have had to depend of these liars and thieves for treatment. My Lord, deliver me forever from their hands and help these women. Expose this evil and guide these poor women. This is a horrible thing, a terrible scab on society. Open it up, My Lord, and expose the puss and corruption. It is in Your hands, and may Your precious will be done in all things. My Lord, I know I shall be healed. I have no fears as I rest in the palm of Your hand."

"Now, Precious One, let us continue; for our time is short."

"Yes, My Lord, I know this."

"Child, go to the desk in this Upper Room and look at the globe. A certain area is blinking. Write as seen and given."

"My Lord, the area, which is blinking, is North Korea. I see a red, blinking light, which is bright like fire, with yellow extending around the edges. The blinking light gets smaller and smaller until it disappears, leaving only a very small red dot. Amidst the surrounding darkness, I see much smoke and a very small fire, but the darkness is otherwise all consuming. Within the darkness a human form emerges. He has a shovel, and he is shoveling something onto the fire. The shovel is full of US currency. This currency is feeding the fire and the fire begins to ignite and to burn very brightly. The roaring fire hops to another location, then to another, then another. Many fires are springing up around the country. The black, which was once thick, has totally disappeared and now there is a bright red light everywhere.

Here comes Clinton with a wreath of green with white lilies. He gives the wreath to the leader of this country. The leader takes the wreath and goes inside a building with Clinton. Clinton says, 'I am sorry for your loss. Maybe, this will help.' And, Clinton pulls out a bullet clip from a gun and hands it to the leader. 'Oh, it looks like one bullet is missing,' Clinton says.

The leader takes the clip, puts it in his pocket and says, 'Oh, I see that it is missing. I will take care it this.' Then, he asks Clinton if he wishes to dance; but Clinton says, 'No, I've got to get back to the White House. There is an emergency meeting of the Geneva Banking System. Something's got to be done. This thing has more holes than a pair of nylons.' Then, Clinton leaves the meeting with the Korean; but he is having a hard time walking because his feet are bound in gold chains and locked with a padlock.

'Hurry, Mr. Clinton,' an aid calls. 'We shall miss the summit if you are not careful.' Clinton tries to hurry, but he falls and hits his head on a rock. A huge place swells on the right side of his forehead, and turns black and blue. Clinton tries to get up, but he has been seriously cold-cocked by the Rock. 'Help me,' he says to the assistant. 'I've been cold-cocked by the Rock.' And, on the Rock is written, 'The Rock of Gibraltar'.

My Lord, the vision seems to have stopped."

"Child, it does not stop. Proceed."

"Next, I see Clinton get up and he is unable to walk. So, his assistant drags him to a waiting Air Force One. When the plane lands in the USA, huge numbers of military men greets Clinton. They see that Clinton is unable to walk and they also see that every time Clinton attempts to say anything, he winks with his right eye. 'What is wrong with Clinton,' they ask. 'Every time he says anything, he winks with his right eye.' 'Oh, we can fix that,' a naval officer says. 'Let us punch him on the other side.'

So, a big foot named ‘US Naval Reserve in Combat’ hits him on the other side of his head. ‘What was that,’ Clinton asked? ‘Oh, Sir, it was just the wind,’ his assistant said. And, about that time Clinton felt a bite on his rear end. ‘What was that,’ Clinton exclaimed! ‘Oh, it was just a pussycat,’ the assistant said. However, it was no pussycat but a lion named ‘Saudi Arabia.’

‘What was that,’ Clinton asked again? For, something had landed on his right shoulder. ‘Oh, it was just a little monkey business,’ the assistant said. In fact a large monkey had landed on Clinton’s shoulder; and while Clinton was distracted with the monkey, a big boot kicked him in the stomach. Clinton doubled over from the pain, ‘My, what was that? It was awful,’ Clinton howled. ‘Oh, it was just a little gas,’ the assistant assured him. But, on the big black boots was written, ‘Congress Sick of You’ on one boot; and on the other, ‘Dead End.’

Clinton was truly in a state of mental confusion and amidst this confusion he thought he saw an angel overhead. ‘Look,’ Clinton said. ‘There is an angel overhead.’ But, Clinton was deluded again by his lying help. ‘Oh, yessir, sure is an angel.’ It was no angel, but the grim reaper riding atop a tank; and on the tank was written, ‘Russia on the prowl.’ ‘Go to sleep, Mr. Clinton,’ the aide assured him. ‘You are tired and need some rest.’ So, My Clinton lay on the sofa called, "Dead to the World,’ and snored loudly. On each snore were the words, ‘Can’t get up! I need a rest!’ And, Clinton slept and slept and slept.

While Clinton slept, it snowed outside and someone with gray hair and a beard came to his window. ‘Mr. Clinton, what would you like for Christmas? Sir? Sir,’ he called! But, there was no response from Clinton. So, the old man with gray hair left the window, scratched his hair, picked his beard, mounted his sled and got ready to pull off with his reindeer. ‘Give him a pickle,’ one of his elves said. So, the old man threw a large pickle outside Mr. Clinton’s window.

Clinton slept all day and all night and in the early morning hours an aide awoke him, ‘Mr. Clinton, Mr. Clinton, this pickle’s for you, Sir. It is for you.’ And, Clinton took the pickle, smelled it, sliced it, and rolled the pickle around. But, he could not eat the pickle; for it was not pickle at all, but a series of pictures he could not understand. ‘This is not pickle,’ he said. ‘I do not know what it is.’ And, while Clinton pondered on the strange thing before him, storm clouds gathered and troops in black uniforms gathered outside his cheery room. The troops called on a megaphone, ‘Mr. Clinton, Mr. Clinton, surrender, surrender!’ Yet, he paid them no attention. ‘We have you surrounded!’ But, Clinton was not concerned, as it was the Christmas season!

‘Mr. President, they have us surrounded, Sir. We must move. The Russians have us surrounded!’ Clinton looked out the window to see soldiers in black and fires here, there, and everywhere. ‘How did this happen? How did this happen? How did this happen,’ Clinton exclaimed! ‘You were sleeping, Sir,’ the aide interjected!

"My Lord, this is awful!"

"Yes, Child, and we shall come back to his. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

…And the stock market did fall in North Korea. Last pictures I saw showed them so poor that vehicles were all parked and the streets looked deserted. The people could no longer afford even gas. How much aid poured into North Korea?

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

Clinton's Downfall, the Truth about the Murder of Princess Diana & more

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Recognize that I have brought you to the heights of My Mountain on the wings of My Spirit, but only after you have come in deep and sincere prayer. Child, you have disciplined yourself and your prayers have been honored. Come into My Upper Room and eat of The Tree as you like."

"My Lord, how grateful am I! This singing tree electrifies my soul. Once again, I pick this luscious fruit and hungrily devour its savory goodness. One after the other, I fill myself with the sweet nectar of completeness and my soul shouts with joy. I am caught up in Your glory, My Lord, and bask in the presence of Your Precious Spirit. A large shape, like that of a diamond forms in my mouth from the nectar of this fruit and explodes within me like a volcanic eruption of white light. With each piece eaten, I see a brick go on a wall."

"Yea, Child, with each piece you eat, you are building a greater spiritual strength, which is lasting. This fruit is not called the Tree of Life without reason. It adds spiritual life to you and increases many fold your spiritual power, which you sorely need in this day. Your work is psychologically, emotionally, and physically draining; but I give you strength and I give you joy."

"Yes, indeed, My Lord, I am filled with joy radiant happiness!"

"This is as it should be. Now, Child, let us continue with an explanation of the vision of December 11, 1997."

"Yes, My Lord, I have questions."

"Sit at the desk, Child, and we will proceed."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"My Lord, what are the red, blinking lights in Korea?"

"Child, see the word, ‘danger’, written on the lights."

"Yes, My Lord; but tell me about the yellow light around the edges."

"Child, see the words, ‘just fooling’, written on the yellow light."

"Tell me about the blackness, which takes over."

"See the words, ‘serious debt’, written on the darkness."

"I don’t understand."

"No, but you will; for all is not as it seems in North Korea. Remember, Child, that those, running the world are creating many situations, which look like danger, but are not."

"But, it says ‘serious debt.’"

"Oh, there is serious debt, but that, which fans the danger is the real scare, not the debt."

"And, this is?"

"Your New World Order intent on taking out the financial markets one by one until only one remains, that of the New World Order. Child, these schemers own enough around the world that they can crash any market simply by manipulating it. The roads are being paved for your own crash. Child, you have asked about whether this will take place within six months or so, I say, ‘Watch for a fall beginning within six months. It will be a manipulated thing, which will set off a chain reaction; and it will explode within the press. They consider you as pigs, which must be controlled and led to slaughter. Do you see?’

"Yes, My Lord. But, why is US Currency going into North Korea?"

"To prop up your own interests. Why else? Your businesses are concerned about foreign labor and exports. Get it? The ones at the top are grinning, laughing, and toasting one another, as everything is on schedule. This is just the beginning of their evil plots."

"So, the black changes back to red?"

"Yes, indeed. It is red, which grips the North Korean economy through and through."

"Tell me about the symbolism of the wreath."

"It is green and white. It is US money."

"What about the bullet clip with the bullet missing?"

"Child, what is written on the clip?"

"It says, ‘Communism Tomorrow.’"

"Child, what is on the bullet, which is missing?"

"I see it in Clinton’s pocket and on it are the words, ‘I spy on you.’ But, why does the Korean leader place this clip in his pocket?"

"He is deceived."

"Tell me more."

"Child, what looks like salvation is an invitation to conquer. You will see."

"How so?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Is Clinton on the up-and-up?"

"My Lord, he is as manipulative as they come."

‘’’Tis so, and what looks good is really suicide in the making."

"What about the meeting of the Geneva Banking System."

"Does Clinton speak of the holes in the system?"

"Yes, My Lord. Is this meeting to fix the holes?"

"Not at this time, Child. There will be even more holes before all is said and done."

"Tell me about Clinton’s fall."

"Does he fall because his feet are bound in gold?"

"Yes, My Lord. And, the gold is?"

"Child, look on the lock and read."

"My Lord, the lock reads, ‘Tick-tock, Tick-tock. An explosion is coming.’ Does this mean an explosion about Clinton’s gold?"

"This, you will see."

"Who will cause this?’

"You mean, ‘what’."

"So, what?"

"Child, the Rock of Gibraltar. Does it not give him a goose egg on his head and an affliction of his right eye?"

"Yes, My Lord, but I do not understand this."

"Child, the goose laid the egg on his head."

"And, who is the goose?'

"The one, who lays the golden egg on his head, is the Queen of England."

"So, tell me more about the Rock."

"Child, it is the albatross around his neck, which is seen to you as the Rock of Gibraltar, over which he stumbles and falls."

"Is there more about this rock than meets the eye?'

"See, Child, "Covert, Secret Deal in Arms.'"

"I see, My Lord; but, why does he wink?"

"Child, see that he winks and winks and winks with his right eye…"

"Yes, My Lord, I know this, but why?'

"Child, what does his right eye represent?'

"I do not know."

"It represents tax evasion."

"So, he winks at tax evasion."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Every time he bats his right eye."

"Why the right eye?"

"Is the right eye not the right way, the tried and true way?"

"My Lord, I do not know, but if you say it is, I believe it."

" ‘Tis so."

"So, My Lord, he winks at the right way because he does not go that way."

"Child, he is out to fool all, but he will not fool all. For, he has enemies in high places, who wish to see his demise. Have you not figured this out yet?"

"Yes, My Lord, I have seen this and he must have figured it out also because he has been pursued around every corner."

"Yes, Child, but this Swiss Bank Deal will open the door for the wolves and foxes."

"Who are the wolves?"

"The Russians."

"And the foxes?"

"The Germans."

"Tell me more, My Lord?"

"Child, his stealth and cunning are seen by the wolves and foxes through and through; and they will bring his demise."

"And the Queen is in on this?"

"From the beginning."

"Yet, she wishes to appear otherwise?"

"For a while, Child, her role will not be known. Yet, she is evil through and through; and all will find out soon enough."

"My Lord, was Princess Diana murdered?"

"Child, she was murdered, just as surely as the Pope worships Lucifer."

"Who orchestrated it?"

"Whose name did we just mention in reference to England?"

"The Queen? But, My Lord, the bodyguard was drunk."

"Not as drunk as you have been led to believe. Those in high places have brought this about. Those in high places, working in collusion, have brought this about, and the whole truth will never be known. Remember, Child, those with enough money get whatever results they wish. You have had enough experiences with labs to know how they can lie. Understand that she was killed due to enmity between the Queen and Dodi's Father. This was planned and executed well by secret order of the Queen. The white car responsible is scrapped, cut to shreds, in a heap to be melted down. When you think of Diana's death, look no further that the Queen. Diana was blessed, indeed, that she survived as long as she did."

"My Lord, back to the vision of the 11th, why did the Naval Reserve hit Clinton on the other side of his head?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, we have spoken of the goose egg on the right…"

"Yes, My Lord."

"And, the Naval Reserve gives him one on the left. Is this about money?"

"'Indeed, it is."

"Then, why did Clinton ask what it was?"

"Does Clinton wink all the time?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, Child, he knows."

"But, why did his assistant lie to Clinton?"

"Child, Clinton wishes to be lied to. He promotes others' lying to him. He sees what he will and believes what he will. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord; but tell me about the Saudi bite."

"Does it nip him in the back like a small cat?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"This shall come to pass."

"In what way?"

"Through oil revenues."

"What about oil revenues?"

"He shall be duped, Child. Yet, he shall not see this, as he wished not be see this. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord. Tell me about the monkey business."

"Child, who is the monkey?'

"Saddam Hussein."

"Then, the monkey business takes place with Hussein. Do you see Clinton distracted by this?"

"Yes, My Lord, the monkey does distract him. Is this for real"

"Oh, he is truly distracted by the monkey, as he wishes to be distracted."

"And, along comes Congress and kicks Clinton in the stomach."

"Definitely."

"What do the phrases mean, 'Sick of You,' and 'Dead End.'"

"Child, your congress will have every right to start impeachment proceedings against Clinton. For, he is a liar on every front and an embezzler. The Jones lawsuit will not help, and his other immoral dealings will add more fuel to be used to burn him further."

"So, Clinton will be in a state of confusion and Russia will be on the prowl. Yet, Clinton, being asleep, will believe that the Russians are his friends. He looks at the angel of death and he has no clue."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Child, this angel of death will come to visit many millions of you, yet Clinton will be asleep."

"Who is the Santa, who leaves the pickle?"

"The Santa is called, 'All in your head,' and the pickle is called, 'Tough Times Ahead.'

"And the pictures within the pickle?"

"A movie of his life, which will flash before his face. For, he will see the evil he has condoned all his adult life; and he will not be able to eat it. You will be attacked in your Christmas Season as told. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth.

As I type these prophecies in August of 1998, which were given to me many months ago, I am astounded at the number of things, which have come to pass. I have had the hardest time going back to Book III and typing it because of the dream in which The Great Physician allowed me to read three pages from his journal. These were three large pages, and when I finished the last one, great darkness fell all around me. Jesus, The Great Physician, said 'You will think that I have deserted you, but this shall be for just a while.' In my heart of hearts, I have dreaded so to see this book finished because of the darkness to ensue after, but have known that it must be done. As I type along, I am surprised at many of the things, which are unfolding, or have come to pass. In the prophecies given on this date, you will read these things, which have come to pass and possibly others I am not aware of:

The North Korean Market fell and if I remember correctly there was a financial bail out. Television, I believe it was 60 minutes, showed this to be so bad that no one could drive their vehicles, as they could not afford gas.

The US Stock Market fell 800 points in June, but a prophecy given in Book II shows it below 2000 in October. Watch out, people! The USA is going to be in chaos and people are going to be hungry!

Just yesterday, a friend brought me a copy of The World News and it was speaking of a great fall predicted for the stock market in October of '98. Also in this article was mention of banks, which have fallen in Switzerland; and people are rioting in the streets. Have we missed this on the 6:00 news? As forewarned before, get yourself a shortwave radio for the truth in the evening news.

Hussein has continued with his monkey business, defying the United Nations and Clinton. He is stock piling weapons of mass destruction and biological and chemical weapons in great underground facilities (This has been shown in other prophecies.); but this will never be caught because Germany is in collusion with Russia and China behind scenes. Hussein knows that the United Nations intent from high up is an evil joke!

Even now, the newspapers are talking of impeaching Clinton. He will not be removed before the war, but this talk will seriously affect people's faith in his ability to govern. The Stock Market, which is riding high, will take a near-fatal blow.

I never realized until about three or four months ago that there is a powerful bank in Gibraltar. I saw information about it on television, that it came up suddenly and out of obscurity. I also believe that I saw this on 60 minutes. It seems that this bank is one of the most powerful in the world. No doubt, it is one in which the powerful hide their money. You will hear more about his bank! It is going to suffer as the One Worlders manipulate their money.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

We have entered the seven-years-period of tribulation. It does not matter whether you believe this. We are in it. Also, it does not matter whether you think you will be raptured out and not have to go through these trials. The truth is that if you live you will not escape the tribulations, which will come upon us because of the evil ones running the show. My advice to you is to get your head out of the sand and start seeking God with all your heart. Look to God and God will provide. There is not going to be an early out rapture. Jesus suffered and died a terrible death. His Chosen apostles and prophets were persecuted and many were killed. Do you think that you are above Jesus or His Chosen Ones? Wake up and get prepared for what awaits you. Lying and lost preachers have led many astray in this notion of early-out rapture. It is not going to happen. You have been lied to; and many will fall away because of it. Wake up!

Many will turn against God in anger because of this lie! Don't be one, who falls away because of it. Read the Book of Revelation and you will see that the saints are killed and the prophets are killed. Folks, we are entering times like none other. The only way you will survive is to be able to hear God. If you cannot hear God, you need to listen to those, who can hear Him. He is sending out His prophets to advise and warn. Wake up! There is so little time. Jesus is our Way, our Life, our Light and our Truth. Know this with all your heart. Seek Jesus in all things! He is the heir of the Earth and He will respond the Sincere of Heart.

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

The Crown of Perseverance

"Precious Child, I have brought you upon the wings of My Spirit to the radiant top of My Mountain. Come into My Upper Room and see My Precious Servant ready to greet you."

"Yes, My Lord, I know him to be the Apostle Peter."

"It is I," says Peter; and he places a crown on my head."

"This crown is a gift to you, ' says Peter.

"My Lord, I do not understand why I am receiving this. The last few days have been so very hard, and I feel that I have made so little progress."

"Yes, Child, but you have persevered, even amidst constant attacks by Satan. Some you have met on the Internet have prayed to stop you, to cause you to be bound by Satan. They have caused you to be attacked by demonic entities, who have placed chains around your legs and your wrists while you slept, even around your throat."

"Yes, My Lord, I have seen them this morning in prayer and have worked through Your Precious Spirit to remove them. I felt to heavy and down and out emotionally."

"Yea, Child, but the power of My Spirit has been your ally in overcoming. You noticed your right leg aching all night; and this was from the spiritual chains digging into your leg. Touch this part of your leg with your right hand and all pain will be gone."

"My Lord, I do as you say, and the remnant of the pain vanishes immediately."

"Now, Child, look at the crown and you will see that it is old."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"Yes, My Lord, I see this."

"Child, this is a Crown of Perseverance, which will give you strength through great trials. This has been and shall be My promise, which is interwoven in the crown. You see it now, but it will quickly fade from your awareness. Just remember that the crown is with you and when your life gets difficult, remember My promise through this crown. Unstable, diabolical types will come at you from all directions; but I shall strengthen you to withstand. Child, I empower you with greater power of God, with more of My Spirit, and with greater vision.

Yea, Child, your heart is heavy for one called to prophecy, who ignores the devil and his demons. You have spoken truth go him as regards your fights with evil. But, he has also spoken truth to you when he said to keep your eyes on Me. You strive to keep your eyes on Me and you work hard for Me, much harder than most. And, I have led you into great spiritual battles that you get to the top of My Mountain to receive My Word.

Many called to prophecy will not make it to this level. You have spoken My promise to this man that My Mountain awaits him, but only if he has the means to stay on this Mountain. He refers to My sword, given to you, as an ‘imaginary sword’; but you know differently. For, you have fought many a battle of evil with this sword.

Child, with this crown, I am increasing your power to withstand and with it comes more and mightier miracles. Demons sent to derail you will quake at My power operating through you; but they will still come."

"I hear your thoughts, Child, and you are right. When I sign off as ‘Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth’, many mock this. They do not believe that God, the Father and I are one; and they do not believe that I have been given dominion over Earth. If they do not believe this, they cannot believe that I will return to rule the Earth. They are lost. Do you see, Child?"

"My Lord, these mockers believe that you are the Son of God. That is it."

"Yea, for many it stops here. But if you consider that the Father is The Tree and I am the branch of The Tree, how can you separate Me from The Tree? For, The Tree and I are one. I do the will of The Tree. Do you see? The Father and I are one, He in Me and I in Him."

"Yes, My Lord, I understand; but many do not see this connection."

"Child, they do not have to see this; but realize that every work I do is a work of our Father Jehovah, working through Me. I cannot separate myself from Him; I am an extension of His will, I in Him and He in Me."

"My Lord, I know this to be true. May I be worthy, My Precious Lord, to do a tiny fraction of Your works."

"Child, you shall do as I have done and more. You shall perform many miracles, which shall surprise you. For, I send the Spirit of God to empower My Sheep. Child, you are my precious sheep, surrounded by wolves. Would I not give you the tools to defend yourself! However, do not expect Me to do what you can do. Would you ever grow if I did?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then, Child, you must discipline yourself and love one another; but do not follow one another. You may end up like the blind leading the blind. Follow Me. I am Jesus. Yea, even Jehovah, the Most High God, speaks through Me to you."

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

Praises at Christmas

"Precious Child, much has happened to you this morning in prayer; and I have seen your love for Me, and your dedication. Child, I am aware that you are attacked endlessly by the evil one, but I have not sent you into war unprepared. I have given you the greatest Christmas gift you could possible receive. I have greatly increased the power of My Holy Spirit within you. This power will be steadfast, and this increased amount of Spirit will go with you to all places. I have greatly fortified your home and property to further keep out the low-level entities, sent by the evil one; and I have given you warrior angels of greater stature.

You see that I have brought you to the heights of My Mountain upon the wings of My Spirit and have allowed you to eat of the fruit of the Tree of Life."

"Yes, My Lord, and a most unusual thing has taken place. The Tree, sensing my presence, has let go of fruits and directed them to my mouth. With great eagerness, I cherish this succulence. Now and then, I swallow many diamonds. Many butterflies of white light fill the space around me; they light on me and disappear into the radiance of the Holy Spirit, which bathes me.

My Lord, I am led to sing for joy. My heart is so full of gratitude that I could burst with its light. I will sing verses that I sang ten years ago, when you appeared to me as I was lost in darkness and alcoholism. Deep meaning is attached to every word:

Jesus, I adore you,
Jesus, I adore you,
Jesus, I adore you,
Jesus, I worship you,
Jesus, I worship you,

Jesus, I worship you.

My Lord, I fall on my knees beneath the Tree, as tears of joy bathe my face. A host of heavenly angels is before me with some of the apostles and my Precious Friend, Moses. They all sing the same choruses, but with a great blend of heavenly notes of perfection. The voices of this chorus of perfection reach high notes, unheard on Earth. A joyous sound fills my soul and makes perfect a season, which is meant for love of You, My Lord.

Suddenly, great light falls upon me from above and I look up to see you, My Precious Lord. From your hands fall light and airy things. I catch the scent of roses as rose petals fall in my hair, catch on my clothing, and light all around me."

"My Beloved in whom I am well-pleased. You are my source of great joy; and your love is returned to you many fold. Little One, be joyous at this Christmas season. You carry a financial burden, which shall soon be relieved."

Then, Jesus wipes the tears from my eyes and He is gone. I sit beneath The Tree bathed in such radiance and glory as few human eyes have seen. Before me, a beautiful leaf drifts down from the tree. I reach out and grab it, noting the message inscribed on it, 'Tomorrow will bring you joy.'

"Precious Child, 'tis so. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth,

Note: We had the poorest Christmas season we have ever had. Right before Christmas, a financial emergency took all our savings. It was a time of oppression as we were worrying about bills. On Christmas Eve, we borrowed my Mother's artificial tree, decorated it and celebrated Christmas with the love of Christ. On Christmas morning, my precious husband surprised me with a gift of perfume, which brought tears to my eyes as times were so hard and I knew that we could not a afford it.

In the messages, Jesus said not to go in debt worrying about gifts, and this is just what we did. I sent His message out over the Internet warning everyone to get ready for the war and the dark tides of the stock market. Jesus meant for us to follow His advice, and we were forced to do so. I will always remember Christmas of '97 and how we celebrated in joy with so little.

May the will of God be done in all things.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

Jesus' Message about Prophets

I have been so blessed in recent weeks to meet a number of God's precious prophets via the Internet. As I read of your journeys, I often recognize so much of my own path. I know your joys, your hurts, and sorrows. My heart is heavy, as I have seen the destinies of many, who wear the white robes.

As I spoke with Jesus this morning, He gave me a few words about a prophet's calling. I am sharing these with you, as I have been directed to do so. What is contained herein may be old to many of you. To others, it may seem very strange. I hope this is a blessing to you in some way.

Long ago, I learned to follow through on what I am told to do, no matter how strange it may seem to me at the time. So here goes with my message:

"Precious Child, you have come to me with a weary soul, as others blast you as New Age and a crystal worker. Let all go, as their words will come back on them with a mighty sting. For, I shall burn them with their words.

Few there be, who are as dedicated as you, who come day after day, seeking my truths that all may be the wiser. This one in California, who continues to spread lies will know great tragedy, as he has not listened to my warnings to stop smearing your name. I shall smite him as promised.

Now, Precious One, I have brought you to new heights, yea to new levels, to newer and unknown fruits of This Tree."

"Yes, My Lord, I did not know that this Tree (of Life) has many levels, and different kinds of fruits."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Yea, Child, I told you that there is much upon This Mountain, which you have not seen."

"Yes, My Lord, and each time I see something new, I feel so totally humbled to think I ever knew anything at all. For, Your mysteries are so great."

"Yea, Child, you wonder about this second level and why you see fruits hanging from The Tree in gift boxes. When you eat the box with this fruit inside, the fruit is bitter, sour or stringent."

"Yes, My Lord, I wonder about this."

"Child, this is part of the nature of the bitter cup. The more you receive the more alone your walk, the more bitter your cup. For, fewer and fewer reach these levels on This Mountain. Fewer and fewer will know of what you speak or have testimony of its veracity, save it be through My Spirit.

Even many prophets called of Me in these latter days will not be able to verify some of what you see. For, it will seem strange to their minds, and their minds will reject some of your visions, … not My Spirit, but their minds. Since many are young on The Path, they will perceive that their interpretations are right.

Child, look for this in a seasoned prophet:

This one hears my voice through My Spirit and knows I am He, sent to save you. All have this knowing; otherwise, they cannot be prophets.

This knowing is pervasive and includes a knowing of the veracity of that which My Spirit speaks. Many younger prophets struggle in this, Child. Speak encouragement, as you have been there; but, do not lead them to big-headedness, which is easy for the beginner; as this one sees himself as special before me, and may forget humility.

Initially, my prophets may only hear my voice, and be told to go forth with my messages. I expect this obedience. All is built upon obedience because prophecy is a journey.

Through discipline, I open up the visual channels. Young prophets would experience overload if they saw great visions immediately. Very few are given this. Child, you know this to be true.

With great discipline over time, I bring all prophets back to My Holy Mountain. What they are allowed to see upon This Mountain depends upon their discipline before me over time. As you know, there are many levels on This Mountain.

I will allow all (prophets) to eat of The Tree of Life, as they overcome. Yet, to overcome (to get to this level on the Mountain) is a great battle.

One cannot overcome, save one be a seasoned warrior, and have great faith.

Child, you know that the nature of this journey is one of great struggle. You fight the devil on every corner.

Your great faith as prophets will bring you many a miracle. As you discipline yourselves over time, I will bless you with more and more of My Spirit.

Child, as you have seen, I will seal My Spirit to you; and I will send legions of angels, as you have seen.

As prophets, I will not forsake you, but am your constant companion. Yea, I am Your Light, Your Life, Your Truth and Your Way. This is the knowing of the prophets, expanded within you from day to day.

I am The Miracle Maker manifest through you according to your faithfulness in me.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

Child, encourage the prophets, who come along. Send them this, that they be helped in some way.

I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God."

We have so much to do and so little time. I cherish the walk of each and every one of you.

In Jesus' Precious Name,

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

The Bitter Fruit and a Message for You

"Precious Child, blessed are you! For, you have come long in prayer, seeking Me, My will and direction; and I have brought you once more to the heights of My Mountain. Come into My Upper Room; yea, even to the second level of My Tree and eat."

"My Lord, I am looking at this tree and its fruit, which is plentiful on each bow, but each piece is wrapped in a box and tied with a ribbon. I stand before it, wondering how to proceed."

"Child, eat, as your soul requires it. The fruit is bitter, but I shall make it sweet."

"My Lord, I am ready to eat it; but as I start to pick the fruit, a powerful beam of light falls upon me and illumines me with white fire. I am overcome with tears of joy and humility, as I know that this fire is a special anointing from You. Amidst this powerful beam, I stand beneath the tree and pick the first fruit. I hungrily devour the fruit: box, ribbon and all. My Lord, it is not sweet, but bitter; and sits like lead in my stomach. Suddenly, I am filled with great sadness for what lies ahead."

A precious angel appears before me with a handkerchief, and I take it and wipe my tears. The radiant light upon me reflects back to me from the handkerchief, and I know your powerful fire bathes me. My Lord, do you mind if I sit here beneath your Precious Tree and shed a few tears? I am suddenly so overwhelmed with grief for what is about to unfold in the world, and my soul is heavy through and through."

"Child, your sorrow is known; for, your walk is difficult and others revile you. Even other prophets, called by Me, mock you with phrases like ‘off-beam’ and ‘misguided.’ Remember that the mockers are young minds, thinking they know all, and are themselves guided by their own minds. Unless they repent, I will withdraw My Spirit from them. Let go of these hurts, Child. Send no more correspondence unless I direct you specifically to do so. I will deal with some of them, who think they know it all; for, I shall cut them off from My Spirit, and they shall be deceived.

Now, Precious One, eat. For, whether you believe it to be so, this bitter fruit will strengthen your walk"

"My Lord, I voraciously eat one, then another; and I swallow them quickly as the taste is so bitter. I am feeling very heavy and bloated, as if I am carrying great weights in my stomach and I am beginning to swell. I can eat no more."

"Get up, Child, and stretch."

" I get up and stretch; and as I do so, I shoot straight up, like a tall pole. This is very strange, My Lord, I was short, stubby and bloated, then suddenly became very tall and free. And, from this vantagepoint, I smell the most beautiful fragrance. Funny, I did not notice this before. Suddenly, I am hungry again, and I ravenously eat a piece of fruit, then another and another. I continue to eat until I am full once more and am heavy with the fruit, but am content and peaceful."

"Child, an angel comes with something for you to read."

"My Lord, I take the tablet from the precious angel; and it looks to be light, but is heavy. The tablet shines with a great brilliance, and on it are words in a heavenly language. I take the delicate son-glasses from my pocket, put them on, and read:

‘Oh, Cherished Ones of Mine’
‘Oh, Cherished Ones of Mine, called and chosen before the foundations.
Why is it that so many of you go "My-My, Me-Me",
And fail to see My hand in your lives?
You get together and gossip.
You spread rumors and lies about one another,
Even and especially about others, who are likewise chosen.
Do you believe that this behavior builds you up?

Do you believe that it makes you wise?
Do you believe that it makes you superior to others when you pass judgement?
Nay, this kind of behavior makes you low.
It steals My space in you.
It causes you to stumble and to falter in the darkness.
Yet, you continue with your egos gone awry.
You continue with your pride and go "Me-Me, My-My."
You do this in My face, and you sadden Me.
You bring deep sorrow to Me;
For, I have called you and chosen you for this journey from before the foundations.
Why have you let me down in this way?
Do you suppose that I allow each prophet to know all?
Nay, only part.
Have you not been told this?
Have I not shown you that what one is given may be different from what another receives?
That your journeys may be different.
Do not degrade the journey of another,
Or think your wisdom is superior about their journeys before Me.
I have opened your eyes to different messages,
And I have made manifest within you different gifts.
Stop the nonsense of judging or criticizing one another.
Have you been told to judge?
Nay!
You have been told to love.
You have been told to be obedient.
You have been told to be wise.
You have been told to be faithful.
You have been told to harbor no will.
Yet, some of you spread malicious rumors, or outright lies.
My tolerance runs low in this;
I expect the best of My Chosen.
I expect the best; or I shall desert you

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

And allow you to fend for selves.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

Level Three of The Tree of Life

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. I bring you to the heights of My Mountain of the wings of My Spirit. Come into My Inner Sanctum and eat of the third level of My Tree."

"My Lord, I thank you so for hearing my heartfelt prayers and for bringing me to this Mountain once more. I am here at another level of this tree and I see new things. Around The Tree are resplendent, vibrant colors of blue and pink; but The Tree dances with the purest of brilliant, white light. A most, pervasive scent of jasmine gently bathes me. Shimmering with these radiant colors of pink and blue, I step toward The Tree, and electric stars twinkle brightly all around. My Lord, might I eat of the small, radiant fruit?"

"Child, I have brought you here to eat but, beware; all is not as sweet as it smells."

'My Lord, I pick a single fruit, which is radiant, but is heavy, like lead. I try to take a bite, but the exterior is tough like leather. Slowly, the skin of the fruit breaks, releasing its contents in my mouth. The flesh of the fruit is a deep blue and the tastes bitter like quinine. Oh, My Lord, to eat this is more like punishment."

"Yes, Child, it may seem that way; for, it carries bitterness like you have never known."

"My Lord, why did you bring me here to eat of something so utterly bitter?"

"Child, your soul is ready."

"My Lord, I feel that I shall be sick."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

‘Nay, Child it shall not make you sick, but strong. For, it shall soak into your soul in bands, yea in layers, like nothing you have ever known. It creates new levels of Me in you."

"My Lord, this is a mystery."

"Child, as the fruit is tough, it entwines you with tough sinews; and as it is dark blue, it writes a hidden message into your soul."

"My Lord, what is the hidden message?"

"It is hidden; and when you expect it least, it shall make itself known. It is a new dimension of Me in you; and when you see it, you will know it. Child, you are thinking about eating one more fruit. Eat five, altogether."

"Very well, My Lord. I pick the second fruit. It, too, is tough like leather, and oozing a rich indigo life-force; but as I get to the center it tastes like peanut butter."

"Yea, Child, it tastes like peanut butter; but it is far from peanut butter. You will have more understanding about this in time."

"Now, My Lord, I eat the third piece, which is also tough like leather and oozes the bitter dark color; and its center contains a round ball with a slimy covering. When I try to eat the slimy ball, it moves around in my mouth."

"Yea, Child, swallow the ball."

"Now, My Lord, I pick the fourth fruit. I chew through its tough exterior; and liquid gushes into my mouth and washes away all remnants of the previous fruits. The blueness has disappeared altogether and I see clear, radiant water coming from the remnant of the piece in my hands. A white fire starts burning in my mouth and covers my hands; and it grows quickly, consuming my entire body in glory and freedom."

"Child, eat the last fruit."

"I pick the last fruit, bite through the tough exterior and taste something sweet, like bananas. This thick pulp swirls in my mouth, moving of its own accord. Then, it travels quickly down my throat with no need to swallow. The white fire is still within me, pushing outward and creating a perfect, radiant forcefield. My Lord, I cannot understand this; but I know you do, and I pray to be worthy to understand."

"Child, you shall know soon; for I shall open another door and show you what I am preparing you for; and you shall be amazed at the many things you shall come to see and to know.

I have given you two weeks for inner rest, that you can prepare internally for the very busy times ahead, and for your great destiny in Me. You have not been mistaken in taking this break; it has been afforded you.

Child, a great train is coming. You will enter this train with your husband and you will toss out My Word. Get ready for this. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

I have needed every bit of strength to get these three books written and typed. This has been such a war. The devil has fought me on every corner through those I know and through those, who are total strangers. People have turned on me, whom I have tried to help; and Satan has seized every opportunity to oppress these works and me. I have had to deal with constant satanic attacks on my health and on my family; but Jesus is bigger and the power of God overcomes.

As long as we live, we will have to fight. We are in a war for the souls of men, and Satan would snare all if he could. Glory to our Precious Father, who gave us life; and to

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

His Precious Son, who brought us salvation. Let us always be grateful for our precious gifts and let us keep our eyes of Jesus. He is our Way. There is none other.

My husband and I got on the spiritual train. I received the books and he has worked tirelessly to set up the Internet site and to publish the books. God has gifted him mightily with skills needed to get these works out. Praises to God, Our Father. He is all knowing and all-powerful. Glory to His Name!

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

More Disaster from The Page

"My Chosen Child, I have brought you to new heights in My Upper Room. Yea, in this room there is a depth of My Spirit you have not known before. For, as you are faithful, I give you more and more Spirit; and I add new dimensions to what you have. Child, reach out and feel the pure power and peace; and write as given and seen."

"My Lord, this great power is definitely new and I do not know what to make of it: it is cool, yet hot. I find that I am in awe and really without proper words to describe what I am experiencing."

"Child, sit at the desk and write from the timeline. You have written from it many times; but now you are in a new space. A new door has been opened, see?"

"Yes, My Lord, I am aware that I am in a new and greater dimension. I sit at the desk and even without placing any Living Water on the timeline, I clearly see the face of Saddam Hussein emerge on the page. Beneath his face is written, 'War, 1998.'

Hussein fades quickly and I see Queen Elizabeth with her ball gown pulled up, revealing a garter on her right leg. She takes money from the garter and gives it to Clinton. Then, she gets up, takes his hand; and the two of them mingle among others as they dance. A large sign beside them reads, 'Ball for the Elite'; and beneath the sign is a flashing red-light sign, which says, "No Secrets Here!"

Suddenly, Clinton gets his foot caught in the Queen's dress; and as he struggles to maintain balance, his shoe tears a hole in her royal attire. It is most amazing to see a large knife in its sheath adorning her left ankle. On the knife case are the words, 'Bad Boy Syndrome.' Amidst the faint light on the dance floor, the handle of the knife catches the light wonderfully, as it is made of platinum and gold. The Queen can no longer dance because of the torn dress, so she walks away, the torn piece trailing behind. A closer look at this torn piece reveals the words, 'No More Falkland Islands!' Suddenly, The Queen gets a nosebleed; and blood is running profusely down her face and onto her clothing. She catches the blood with a handkerchief called 'I bleed for you!' Once it is saturated with blood, she passes it to Clinton. He grabs it eagerly and puts it in his left coat pocket, which is plastic-lined; but Clinton cannot get the blood off his hands.

In short time, a bloodhound called 'Rothschild to the Core' sniffs out the blood and stares intently at Clinton's hands. Suddenly the dog turns into Robinhood; and he shoots many arrows into the ankles of Clinton. At least they seem to be arrows, but on closer examination, they are revealed to be knives. Clinton tries to walk but the knives constantly abrade one another with their bumping and clanging; and in short time the friction starts a fire.

Aids, congressmen and secretaries gather around Clinton in Washington and whisper, 'We shall lose him. We shall lose him!' But Clinton sees them looking at the knives and whispering; and he breaks them off even with the flesh. Clinton walks with a little limp, but is still able to play tennis. On the tennis ball in his hands is written, 'I am the winner!'

Bill Clinton goes to a river called 'Corrupt to the Core', and sits on its banks. He smiles and laughs with his daughter named 'Chessmate;' but he does not know that 'The Russian Giant Bear' is watching. Behind the bear is Saddam Hussein with the red flag bearing the star and half-moon.

Clinton is basking in his happiness, and he is unaware of the watchers. They have sent a large mole; in fact it is so large that it looks like a beaver; and it is tunneling its way underground, cutting away the area beneath Clinton and his daughter. Soon, they are left sitting alone on a tiny island, called 'Doubt and Confusion'; but Clinton is caught up in his own world, and does not notice that he and his daughter are isolated.

Suddenly, the bear rises up with a big broad chessboard and says; 'Play chess, My Clinton?' 'Sure', Clinton says. But, immediately, the huge bear takes a gigantic hammer and breaks the board into many pieces. Mr. Clinton looks at the shattered pieces in surprise. Then, the bear stands very tall and clobbers Clinton over the head with the huge hammer. Clinton sees stars, but he attempts to get up. Soon, however, he realizes that his feet are pinned to the island of Doubt and Confusion.'

Meantime, many dogs surface in the lake, carrying on like laughing heinas. They laugh and mock Clinton, and he becomes so angry that smoke is coming from his ears. His eyes bulge with anger, and he swells up as he growls. The black bear flees into the forest, but does not go far. I see August 1998. Clinton tries to walk but he cannot, as he cannot get off the island. A plane flies overhead with a banner, which says, 'Give it up, Clinton;' but Clinton would not and could not budge, as he was stuck on the island. He called up to the plane and said, 'Know Mother Teresa?' She is gone now, but I need some help.

The plane flew 'round and 'round Clinton, dropping piles of manure on him. Big clods fell on his head and hit him all over his body. On each clod was written a word; and these are some of the words I saw: 'narcissism; foul heart; bigheaded; proud; vain; deceitful', and similar words. But, to Clinton the manure looked like valentines and he picked up each piece and held it to his heart. 'Thank you, God, I needed this,' he said.

Clinton sat there on his island, and started to realize his plight. He called up The Reserves and The National Guard; and he called up new recruits. 'Get ready for a war,' he said. 'We shall take on those, who have done this. This is November 1998; and Clinton should have kept his mouth shut. Before he could move, the bear organized his allies in the night and moved against Clinton, who was already surrounded."

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

The Page Reveals More

"Precious Child, you have prayed long and hard this morning; and you have seen how the evil one has come in your sleep and tried to bind you. But, he cannot succeed, for you have the Fire of My Spirit, which burns away all. I have brought you once more to the heights of My Mountain on the wings of My Spirit and I have allowed you to eat of several levels of My Tree. You find yourself at the Seventh Level; but I forbid you to write of these experiences, save what I tell you. Child, time grows short for billions of you. You have seen in Isaiah that only 10 percent remain faithful to the end. Yea, Child, this has been spoken and it is true; for strait is the way, narrow is the gate, and few find it, because it is a strict way! Notice that I have brought you back to My Upper Room to a new timeline. Write as given and seen."

"My Lord, the energies here are a radiant purple, the desk is round with a V; and I sit in this V."

"Child, touch the top of the desk with your hands and write as seen."

"As I touch the top of the desk, I see a swirl of multi-colored energies. Quickly, this fades and I see Bill Clinton. He stands before two black doors and he knocks. On the doors are the words, 'Mysteries of Babylon.' The doors open slowly revealing Pope John Paul II. Before him, seated in a chair, is Paula Jones; and the Pope is sprinkling water over her head. As The Pope shakes the water, Paula disappears, leaving a black puddle on the floor. Clinton steps into the puddle and becomes smaller and smaller. The Pope becomes very large in stature and Clinton just keep on shrinking until he is the size of a tiny midget about one foot high. Then, The Pope takes Clinton and puts him under a glass dome. Clinton tries to speak but he croaks like a frog. Clinton's breath soon fogs up the glass and he disappears in it the mist. Amidst the fog, and out of sight, Clinton quickly grows to a much larger size. Soon, he bursts through the glass and shards fly out in all directions. Some of the shards, called 'Deceit and Cover-up', stick into The Pope; and as The Pope begins to walk away, he slips on the grease spot left by Paula Jones. The Pope, now down in the grease, calls for Clinton to help him up, but Clinton is now huge. 'No Way,' Clinton says, looking down at The Pope. 'Let the buzzards do it; I've got work to do!' So, Clinton turns his back on The Pope. However, The Pope is able to rip out one of the shards and throw in into the back of Clinton, and Clinton never notices. I see the date as June 1998.

Steam begins to pour from the eyes, the ears, and mouth of The Pope. As the Pope steams, so does a volcano in Italy! I see an earthquake hit Italy and building cave in as the Earth shakes mightily. Fire and hot lava spew forth from the volcano and on the lava is 'July 1998.' Driven by steam, The Pope takes a match and lights a fire. The fire follows the course of an accelerant and goes all the way around The Lincoln Building. Then, The Pope lights another fire; and it follows an indirect path all the way to Russia. Next, he puts the match to another line of accelerant and it burns a path into Germany. The mighty fires of The Pope burn bright with the date 'September 1998'; and amidst the blazing flames are the words 'Just Desserts.' The Pope fans the fire of 'Just Desserts' and says, 'Give the USA a double portion. Let them have their just desserts!'' Then, The Pope turns in the direction of The USA and breaks wind. It smells foul, like sulfur dioxide or rotten eggs. Then, he says, 'I howl at the red moon; it is a harvest moon!'

Then, I see black boots, swords, guns, and military vehicles pointed toward the USA. On the swords are the words, 'Enough of You,' and on the black boots are the words, 'I'll Stomp You!' On the guns are the words, 'Red China;' and the tanks bear the name, 'Russia.' Many shields are seen and they say 'Nerve Gas Protection,' and 'Bio-warfare Protection.' Then, I see a large, black horse coming up from behind, and on the horse is written 'Saddam Hussein Hates America.' Behind the black horse are many nuclear missiles, which read, 'USA-Bound;' and they bear the date, 'Dec. 1, 1998.'

Next, I see Turkish dancers, with their faces covered. They look like innocent women, but they are militants; and they change quickly into full military apparel. Firecrackers go off in the desert, and I see Israel, busy with the West Bank. Bogged down with internal affairs, she does not see those lining up against her, who are Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria, Iran, Iraq and others. Even the UN is about to take a stand; and the date is 'Now.'" Precious Child, we shall stop for now as there is much work to do. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER THIRTY

The Timeline Reveals…

Precious Child, I, Master Jesus, have brought you once more to the heights of My Mountain; and you have eaten from the Seventh Level of The Tree. As you sit at The Timeline, you know that times is running out for The USA. Your scandal-ridden president, who feeds off sexual perversions, and embraces dark secrets, lies and deceit, shall fall flat on his face. Along with him, the USA will also fall. I warned you, Child, in1992 of the dangers of this man and the fate of The USA, if he were elected.

You flex your military might and raise the ire of the red giants; and you will find yourself alone against many. You are the fool; you create one calamity to hide the other. How deceitful! You can hide neither the sun nor the Son with your hands; for, I shall push your enemies to lay you low.

Child, stay away from many, who are called to prophecy. They have been called, and they think they know it all; but remember that they are my ears and mouthpieces as long as they are humble. I do not raise up prophets to sit in judgement over others. I raise them up to go in humility. Yes, Child, even the apostles go in humility, or they are no longer apostles.

Child, you have seen my cross upon your shoulder as you carry my burden. Yea, the burden of the world is heavy, but my burden is light. You ask again whether you are an apostle as I have told you this recently. Yes, Child, I have called you as an apostle. You are just as much an apostle as anyone, who forsakes all to serve Me. You pick up My cross and you follow Me. Many wish to tag all apostles as male only, but this is a mistake. My apostles are those, who forsake all and pick up My cross. They have a heavy responsibility, and all listen to Me and do My work. Many are forging new terrain where there are neither boundaries nor limits. Frequently, they go alone, as they have been chosen for a solitary work. They are not fed from groups or masses, but have great inner strength, which comes from a deep service to Me. Child, worry not about the burden of My cross, which you have just seen. It has been with you for some time. I have chosen you to carry these messages as a prophet and apostle, as your soul is ready; and I shall bring along others to help in these works. I have brought the prophet, Doug. He is faithful, Child; and I have more for him. He shall be strengthened in many areas.

Child, as you sit at My Timeline, observe and write."

"My Lord, I see the date, 'October 1998' and many soldiers. They have black their faces etched with black; and I believe they are marines. Some are crouched here and there in foxholes, with machine guns. Suddenly, the word, 'Iraq' flashes across the timeline in big, bold red letters; and a large cargo helicopter comes into view and hovers above the soldiers in one of the holes. A rope ladder falls from the helicopter and dangles, as a soldier grabs hold it and climbs out of the hole. Inside the helicopter is Clinton is grinning from ear to ear, saying, 'Never again! We are through with Iraq!'

Below, I hear a small group of German soldiers whispering, 'We shall take him by night, lest he suspect our attack; and he shall never know, as he is sleeping.'

Back home, I see Clinton's popularity rise, as people cheer in the streets. I see that there has been a slump in a graph or chart, as the chart hit rock bottom. The numbers were very low, but because of the war the numbers on the chart began to rise. At the top of the chart are the letters, 'NYSE.' Throughout the streets of New York City bells ring and people rejoice. Clinton is praised, 'You stopped him,' they shout! 'You stopped Iraq!' But, all is not as they believe. There is a round-table discussion going on in the desert with President Arafat, the leader of Egypt, the leaders of Iran, Saudi Arabia and others. In all, there are seven countries represented. 'We shall put a stop to him,' they say.

Then, I see a military truck with a German red cross on its rear; and it is travelling over a bumpy, desert road. The truck is loaded with munitions and atop the munitions is a pair of eyes. As I question 'who is behind this', up come these words: 'Iran is behind this.' The truck stops at the gates of 'The Mid-east Delegation' and unloads; and when I look in the distance behind this truck, I see a line of military trucks, as far as I can see.

In the next vision, I see an Iranian on the telephone with Yeltsin. Yeltsin says, 'We are with you!' Then, the Russian calls the Chinese dictator, who says, 'You have our cooperation.'

A picture of a Swiss bank then appears, and in it is much gold. Gold is being poured from one very large container into another. A skeleton key called, 'I steal from you' is inserted into a lock on gate; and as the gate swings open, container of gold is ushered behind it and into a locked vault. On the gold bars are the words, 'Stolen from the USA.' I do not know who is behind this, but as I look on the huge container with wheels, I see 'United Nations.'"

"My Lord, what a mess!"

"Child, it is. But, all must come to an end in a government, which is corrupt to the core. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

The Smoking Gun

Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Your world has been in a state of confusion as you have been trying to determine what to do about these writings. Self-publish at first. Greater avenues will come about, as you are faithful.

Rest in Me, Child. I will clear away the dross in your relationships. I will dismiss any, who come your way with the intent of manipulating or harming you; and I will make their world cold.

You have asked about the fight between Hussein and Yeltsin, which you saw months ago; and you want a further confirmation about this. Child, what you have seen in the vision is so. They will fight; but you would not believe this now. Their fight will lead to the death of Yeltsin; yet no one will connect the two. The wise will see the smoking gun; and those, who look behind the scene, will see the Muslim connection. Russia is going back 'Red, Red, Red;' and this will be sooner, rather than later. It will happen well before the year, 2000. Mark My word.

Also, expect more rhetoric from Hussein, more stalling. For, he is a master manipulator; and Clinton is a clown, a novice compared to Hussein.

Now, back to the situation between Yeltsin and Hussein. Child, you question when this will take place. Look for it before one and one half years have passed. Remember that none of the countries, which want world dominion, can be trusted. None can be real friends; for they do not have this capability. Hussein, at this point, is the most dangerous man in the world; and The Arab Machine will be difficult to deal with.

Words of Encouragement

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have prayed long and hard, and I have poured out My Spirit into you and around you in great measure. I have brought you to My Holy Mountain and back to Tree of Life, where I have fed you. Now, Child, you sit at My desk in My appointed Room; and remember: I love you dearly; for, I have called you and chosen you; and I have nurtured and groomed you.

Yea, I have chosen many for special walks in Me and My ways. For, these are the latter days, and My angel stands ready, with the trumpet to his lips.

Child, worry not about the criticism, rejection or aloofness you receive from others. I am at the helm of your ship. Depend on no one for spiritual strength; for all will desert you at some time; yea, if for only a short season. But, I, being in charge, will provide you with what you need at any given time. You feel bewildered that others have rejected the notion that there are women apostles. Worry not about this. Look before you at the writing, which appears on the Timeline. Read and record the same."

"My Lord, this is what is written: 'Among you are women apostles and to disregard them is wrong; for, I call whom I will.'"

"Child, you have seen and written as I have shown. Now, be comforted in this; and lift up your eyes, for I am before you on My Holy Mountain and I bring you peace, beauty and joy."

"My Precious Lord, I see You above me and Your brilliant radiance illumines all. How grateful I am to behold Your glory; I love You with all my heart."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Yea, Child, I have given you the Crown of Life. Let some be jealous if they will; but this crown is for all, who persevere in My works amidst great hardships. Yea, Child, I will give this crown to all, who put Me first and make Me their life. If some reject this crown; or, are jealous about this, so be it. For, few have given of their time and life to Me as intently as you have; and I honor your love and obedience. Go your way, Child, and get the second book finished. I am sending you help with the publication of these works. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

The Crown of Life

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus; yea, one with The Father and full of His power. As you have come in great prayer and seeking, and with great humility, I have anointed you heavily with the fire of My Spirit. My fire burns brightly in and around you. See the lapping, white flames."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, proceed with the work to get the first book published as directed; and get 100 copies published. Worry not about how this work will go forth. I will make a way.

Yea, you see that you are in The Upper Room of My Mountain; and your vision is clear. The Apostle, Timothy, is present and you will note him behind you adjusting your crown. Yea, this is The Crown of Life."

"My Lord, I am so humbled, and feel so inadequate. I have never sought any kind of crown or recognition. I have only wanted to serve You, because You loved us so that You gave Your precious life for our salvation. I was lost in the darkness and you loved me, brought me out of the pits of despair, and gave me a reason to live. You are My Life and my reason for living; and I owe you all. Life without You, My Beloved Master, is no life, but a prison of darkness. I do not know how to express my deep thanks for this gift. My Lord, just look at my heart; and if you will, My Lord, please explain this crown."

"Child, this crown is given to those, who are set aside to do My work. These are they, who persevere amidst great hardships and adversity. It is a crown of My life through you, an ever-presence, which will lift you up in the most difficult of times. This crown is My honor, given to you, because you have worked hard in Me and My Way; and I am your Life."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Lord, I accept this with deep love and gratitude. I love you with all My heart, and only wish to do as You and Our Beloved Father so desire. You are my life, and have been for some time."

"Child, you are entering a new phase of you existence, one before the public scrutiny. Your every action and word will be weighed and analyzed. As I have given you many truths about the evils of the world, the evil ones will come after you in full force. Many "Christians" will come after you with a vengeance and will try to batter you. But, Child, look at My thick shield around you, your husband and your household. I have pruned you, nurtured you, and prepared you for this day. I know that you worry about whether you have seen wrong or written incorrectly. Child, leave all as is unless I direct you otherwise. To this point, have I directed you to make changes or alter visions in any way?"

"No, My Lord, I have altered grammar and spelling."

"Then, Child, continue in this way. If I wish otherwise, I will tell you. Know that I have brought you to My Mountain, and I have made you see.

Yes, many will be shocked to know that there are women apostles. I set aside My apostles and I teach them. I guide them and I give them great authority over evil and especially healing, as you have seen. As I have told you, I have called you to be an apostle and set you apart, though many will not believe this. Nevertheless, Child, to this end I have called you. And, for this reason, I have cut you off from associates of the world except as I see fit. For, there is no time to waste on diverse friendships. In addition, I have blessed your husband with computer skills and he has done well; but he has not begun to see the blessings he shall reap for doing as told.

Now, Precious One, go in My power and strength this day. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

A Look into the Year 2000

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You know my voice well, and you hear me with ease; for, I have nurtured you over much time. Child, note that I have brought you back to My Holy Mountain and into My Upper Room. Yea, the energies here are powerful and healing. Child, eat of The Tree and be given new life through Me."

"My Lord, as you have commanded, I have eaten. As I stand beneath this Tree, I am reminded once again of the Star of David in my Chest."

"Yea, Child, this is your destiny and it shall be with you always."

"My Lord, you said ‘always.’"

"Yea, Child, ‘tis so. For, it is your past, present and future; and you do not fully understand the full ramifications of this. However, in time you shall. Come and sit now at the desk, which has The Page of Time and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I am here at The Page and I notice that there are several beings around me, all dressed in white."

"Child, these are angels of great stature, who have been sent to be with you at all times. I have commanded them to be with you, wherever you go."

"Thank you for these beloved souls. At times, I am aware of many angels around me, in our home, on our property, and even around our vehicles when we are traveling. My Lord, I thank you for your protection as we need it so; and I thank these precious souls, who work so tirelessly. Bless them, My Lord. They do a mighty work. Now, I will proceed with The Page. As I look at it, I see the year, 2000, blinking in red lights, filling up the whole page; and around the numbers are yellow and red flames, lapping upward. Within the flames an evil spirit appears, and says, ‘Double, double toil and trouble!’

Then, I see many soldiers running through woods in camouflage suits with grenades in their hands. These are American, but Oriental soldiers are hidden in the woods; and they do not wear military apparel. Then, I hear the words, ‘Chesapeake Bay,’ and see gray, battleships parked nearby in the bay. An alarm is sounding on one of the ships and soldiers are rushing off the ship. They are Caucasian, and I hear the words, ‘Fighting Irish.’ As I look across the bay, I see fires here and there in neighborhoods and smoke is billowing. I see people in the homes, hiding in fear, and I hear babies and children crying.

Then, I see words pass quickly before me and I cannot read them. ‘I command them to be legible in the name of Jesus Christ;’ and the words appear quickly. They say: ‘An open hanging of Bill Clinton.’ Then, I see him hung by a rope; and I am not sure if this is in effigy or if it is real."

"Child, he would hope it to be so easy!"

"This vision passes and I see German soldiers outside the Congress of the USA; they have machine guns, and seem to be guarding it. Inside Congress Halls, all is dark and there is not a soul. My Lord, this is a depressing sight."

"Yea, Child, for you have seen a window of the war and how fast this war shall ensnare you. The USA shall be crippled completely and readily; and death and destruction shall reign from coast to coast, and on all four boundaries."

"My Precious Lord, what shall we do?"

"Child, I am preparing a way for many of you to flee. Have faith in this. Some of you will flee and return to utter devastation; but many of you will live abroad, and in the end you will be hunted like dogs. Child, I have spoken of My curse on America and I have not spoken this lightly. But, fear not, My Little Ones; for, I shall pour out a great rain upon those, who love and obey Me. Though many of you shall die, you shall die a victory in Me; and in your deaths, you shall know My glory. Go in Me this day, Child, and get these works out. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

An Option Given

Precious Child, I am Master Jesus, Yea Lord of Earth, given this dominion of The Father. On this day you have received a special anointing from Me, and from this day your walk shall never be the same. For, you shall walk with the sweetness of angels and with love and purity of My Heart. Yea, you shall walk with humility in all things, a true servant to your brothers and sisters.

This day, you have been given the added choice by Our Father of whether to die on March 02, 2002, or to live until My coming. If you choose death, this shall not be held against you; for you shall be very tired. If you choose to persevere until My return, your husband shall also live until My return; and you shall go among a group of seven prophets, of which you are also an apostle. Two of the others may be made apostles, depending on their perseverance.

You will be guided in living arrangements and you will never want as long as you live. Neither will those with you want; for, I shall provide in abundance. As long as you choose to live, you will be given mighty victories over evil, and you shall be a great sore in the side of Lucifer. For, he shall seek you with great fury, but shall not be able to find you. For I shall hide you beneath a great wall of fire by day and by night I shall hide you beneath an army of angels.

On this day, Moses has officially given you his staff. No one shall ever have this again. Listen not to this one or that one, who say that Moses has given it to them. This is not so, and is rubbish, spoken of mind of entity. Child, I have called you aside for a work like none other. You, once Aaron, were chosen long ago for this work; and you chose to return from the heavens above for this difficult role, along with the rest of the 144,000. Many of you are sitting idly by, waiting for Me to hand you power, to give you this or that. What are you doing for Me? The greatest numbers are lost, Child, to this cause or that cause. The dazzle of the material world has holds on some of those I love the most.

Pray for them, Child. Fast for them, especially at the time of the Jubilee; it is part of the announcement of My Coming. Yea, it heralds the last seven days (seven years); but during the last five My signs and miracles shall appear all over the world. You are just beginning to see some of these.

Do not get caught up in the illusions of others. Come to Me for confirmation in all things. Child, I am your Master, your Teacher; and yea I came to you in a dream last night and asked to marry you and to bring you by the River. Child, I have an engagement ring for you, and My Secretary, Moses, called you on the telephone to remind you. But, you were afraid and said that you had to flee because of the war. Child, your dreams are full of work, work, work, which you have asked for. But, I shall give you dreams of beauty, hope and glory; and you shall rejoice in these.

In your dream last night, you found yourself cleaning up the feces of a child. This has been left by one of My children and you know who it is. Yet, you did not complain, but cleaned it up. Child, this is My Way; and in this, I bless you.

I have given you three days of intense focus on Me. Yesterday, I made you see the great, giant demons, which have been trying to control you from afar. And, I showed you that I allowed the demon to possess the woman, who came to your house to chop down your only shade tree. I allowed this to happen with this woman, to cause you to search out the darkness, which is moving in on you. Child, I also allowed the hail to fall on your home, so that you would seek. I made you see all this and more, that you would seek more of me; and have the added strength to fight these spiritual wars.

Because you have obeyed and taken the time for intense spiritual work, I have showed you these things and I have anointed you greatly, supplying the strength you have needed to overcome. You have wondered why you get up in the morning and see the chains put there by Lucifer. You break them through My Spirit and they are back the next day. You have felt this horrible oppression week after week. Child, I made you see them and sent you five ministering angels, which will be at your service as long as you live. You will see others, who have been chained by the Adversary; and these angels will work through your commands to set them free.

You will see others, who have been implanted by Lucifer and you will be able to break these deep holds through the fire of My Spirit. Months ago, you were told that you would receive this gift and you know that it is not true.

This day, I have made you see once more the date of the burning of the USA and you have seen Dec. 12, 1998. Yesterday, you were carried to the realms of Heaven, where you saw the apostle Peter, the Beloved One. Our Father, Jehovah, blessed you mightily and when you asked for 'more', he loaded you down with more. In that you have asked, Child, you shall receive. Veils have been rent from the heavens that you see more, receive more, know more and carry more weight of The Father. For, this reason, He has given you the option to extend your life. Child, you are chosen and you are blessed. Do not let another prophet, or even apostle dictate to you. I dictate to you, The Father dictates to you, but no on else. Do not get in the trap of trying to live up to other's desires and expectations. I set you free, and you are free in me. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

Through the Fire of Adversity

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. Yea, you have been through great trials. Lucifer has come up against you with a fury; and this adversity has created problems in your home, in your health and in the lives of others around you. He has attacked the weak links in your life, be it people, places or situations. Child, you have been through the fire of adversity, but you have come daily for prayer, even when you have been too sick for little else. You have seen so-called friends turn on you with a vengeance; even family members have turned on you with fangs; but Child, all has been for a purpose unto heaven. Yea, this has been a time of purification, of breaking, of molding, and of sorting; and you have persevered. I am not angry with you that you have not finished typing Book III. Yea, you have needed every last bit of energy to survive at times; but, be advised, Child, that I see all and I know all. At times, you could have done more, but I do not know of one, who is perfect among you.

Yea, I gave you the dream of the prophecies turning into steamrollers, and I told you to sell the books. You harbor regrets about selling My Word, but let go of these regrets. I command that the books be sold and in time will provide the best way. In the meantime, sell them through the Internet. Child, put the works first and all shall be added unto you. Make it a priority to finish Book III. The world is full of those, who will take, take, take; but few wish to pay the price. If they want the prophecies, which tell of their future, let them pay. Child, you have paid a mighty price to receive them.

Now, you ponder on the Stock Market. Yea, it took a dive in June as I told you it would in December. It will continue dipping and many, who gamble in it, will not see the crash coming until one day soon, when there will be a panic. The truth will burn them that their president is a liar, cheat, thief and sexual deviant; and this problem will hang your stock market. When your enemies see your fall, they will seize the moment. Child, you worry about how all of you will make it through this tribulation, but know that even now, I make a way. Trust in Me. I will not let you down.

Yea, as there was a danger in running the sprinkler on your roof, I sent an angel to break the turn-on valve on the hose. Water was getting into open wires in your wall, and nearly started a fire. Child, I hold you in the palm of My hand. Rest in Me and know that I love you and reach out to you, even in your sleep. Now, look before you and see the bright door."

"My Lord, I see it."

"Knock three times."

"I do so, My Lord, and as I finish the third knock, the door opens. I see myself as a small child, and before me is Moses."

"Yes, it is Moses."

"Moses picks me up and puts me on his knee. He is full of love and kindness and tears stream down his cheeks."

"Child," Moses says. "Jehovah loves you very much and the angels of heaven watch over your every move. They cheer for you and they cry because of your great trials. Remember that I have given you my rod, which bears the full power of God. I love you and petition Jehovah frequently on your behalf. I, myself, have petitioned Him for a publisher for these works and for financial blessings for all of you. Come together often in prayer and fasting before Yeshua and Our Father. We are aligned in agreement toward the dissemination of these works and for the salvation of many souls through them. I embrace you with love, Child; for your trials are many. This walk is steep, but there is none other. Do not be discouraged, because many will continue to scoff at these prophecies until you are invaded. Then, they will listen. Put one foot in front of the other and continue on.

Dennis is going to get a dream, which will change him in many ways. You will see, Child. Remember that you are greatly love and that many, many in these realms are aware of this work, and are doing things to help you. I bless you, Child, with keen vision, boldness and strength in God. Be blessed. I am Moses."

"Child, Moses is your deepest friend. He loves you dearly, for you are the only one he has talked to in these latter days, and with reason. Our Father has sent him, for your work is so hard. Now, Child, be strong and seek Me in all things. Go in peace. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

My Dearest Fellow Travelers,

As I type the last chapter in this book, I am fully amazed that it is finally done. Finishing this book has been one of the most difficult things in my life. A deep dread settled in on me for months every time I would think about typing it, because I would remember the dream in which Jesus let me read from his journal. In this dream, I had finished reading three pages, when great blackness fell upon the world. I felt great distress because I felt so alone in the horrible darkness. Jesus told me in the dream that I would think that he had deserted me, but only for a short while.

I have known that the great darkness would fall soon after Book III was finished; and by delaying, I had some irrational notion that perhaps I could postpone the inevitable. During this time, I went through great personal trials and was very sick; but Jesus was with me through all; and I feel that we are all better for having endured.

The day after Moses promised the dream to my husband, he received it. He came out that morning and said, "Honey, I had a really weird dream. Then, he went on to tell how he had been driving his car when a hand came down and made scratches across the windshield. "I thought I could see fine," he said. "But, where the hand scratched across the windshield, all was clear; and I became aware that there was a film on the windshield. Then, I was troubled by the film because there was such a contrast between it and the area with the scratches."

I thank my precious husband for the role he has played in these works. He worked tirelessly to build the website and to publish the books. In addition, I thank a prophet named Douglas Swaffield, who read the prophecies and knew they were the word of God. He has helped to make these works a reality and has suffered as many have scoffed and made fun of him because he believed. God has special blessings for those, who step out in faith. Many times, the faithful go against things cherished by the pack, and are persecuted for taking a stand.

The masses believe they understand God's ways. But, I am here to tell you that as God reveals more of Himself, the wise and even more humbled and frightened. We have an awesome God, who is to be loved deeply and feared. He blesses the Sincere of Heart; but woe to the fakes, the phonies, and the worldly. If you love the world, God will let you. Because He has given you a free will, He will let you drown in your choices if these choices push Him out. If you want God in Your life and what He has to offer, you had better clean up your life. Get down on your knees and get truthful with God; and look to His Precious Son, Jesus (One in the same as Yeshua.), and do your best to live the Laws of God, seeking forgiveness when you fail and forgiving others for what they have done to you. Do not let your own darkness, or the darkness of others, continue to weight you down. Forgiveness is the key to open all dark doors; and love sweeps out what is hidden behind them. Wherever there is darkness, The Light of God is not.

I bless you in the name of Jesus Christ that so long as you seek His truths, you shall find them. Those, who love the truth, will be blessed by these prophecies; but those, who love a lie, will be accursed. Now is the time of the harvesting of great numbers of souls. Get a fire in your soul for God and awaken to the simple messages of His Precious Son. Above all, love Our Father and His Beloved Son with every bit of your strength; and fill your days with prayer and praise them. Make Our Father, Jehovah, your Life and He will give you Life. Make Him your Truth and He will give you Truth.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

Make Him your Light and He will give you Light. Make Him your Way and He will provide you the Way. Jesus is the Truth, the Way, the Light and the Life. Get busy. The way is narrow; and few find it, and stay on it, because The Way is at odds with the world.

Go in the Light of Our Precious Lord, Jesus; and be true to God in your affairs.

Jesus is our Life,

Linda

CHAPTER ONE

More Books…

"Child, see the door before you called ‘obedience.’"

"Yes, My Lord Jesus."

"Open it."

I step forward and enter through the door, realizing quickly that I am upon The Holy Mountain of The Lord and in His Upper Room. Within this room, I see Moses and He says, ‘My Little One, see this shiny pan. Take it.’ So, I take the pan, which looks very radiant as if it is made of platinum; and immediately, I hear rumbling as that of many thunders and I am caught up in a terrible shaking.

Soon, the rumbling and shaking subside, and I behold something in the pan, which resembles a small, brick of gold. Puzzled, I gaze at this brick; soon realizing that a fog has appeared around me engulfing Moses. Beyond the fog is a radiant light, which is as brilliant as the sun. And within the fog, I hear Moses saying, ‘Child, step through the fog; come, make the steps. I know that you cannot see where you are going, but put one foot in front of the other, making small steps; and soon you will be through the fog.’

So, I put one foot in front of the next and make very small steps through this dense fog, aware that the ground is rocky. As I move forward, I reach out and touch a large rock called ‘procrastination.’ I pass this rock and find myself readily on a bridge; and beyond the end of the bridge is Moses. "Look down, Child, he says." I see a pirate looking up at me; and he says, "Steal. See, I steal these prophecies and make them my own."

"My Lord, who is this pirate and what does he mean by his remarks?"

"Child, listen to Moses."

"Little One," Moses says, "take your sword and stab the pirate in his heart."

"As you say, Moses." So, I take the sword of righteousness and I push it into the heart of the pirate. Immediately, the pirate dissolves into a black puddle and Pope John Paul II emerges within it. Shaking ‘holy water’ over the area of this dark circle, the Pope moves slowly ‘round and ‘round, moving but never going anywhere.

"Little One," Moses says, "these prophecies have reached the hands of the world leaders. They will try to steal them and make them out to be lies. But, the more they try to do so, the more they will be proven wrong. They will even try to discredit you about a future invasion of the USA, but they will not succeed. What you must do is to get through the fog. You cannot see where you are going, but I can. Your Father can and Our Beloved Master Jesus can. Child, remember that the pirate is killed by the sword of righteousness. Now, look to the right; what do you see?"

"I see an angel with the three completed prophecy books. They are bound as one book, and are called "From the Mountain Series." Then, I see more books on a table, but they are not bound; and they are called "From the Mountain Series, Books Four, Five and Six." An angel appears beside the new books, raises his hand over them, and directs great light into them, which is full of stars and diamonds."

"These books begin to burn with a white fire and I see Book IV, called "Into the Millenium", stand up on the table. Beyond the table, I see Our Lord Jesus on a white horse. Around the neck of the horse is a sign on a platinum chain; and the sign reads, ‘Israel Forever Mine.’ As I watch Our Lord upon his horse, the Fifth Book stands up on the table amidst the burning, white fire; and the whole room begins to vibrate. Books IV and V fall off the table and I see writing on Book VI, which says, ‘The Final Victory.’ These three books come together and explode into a great light, but the first three books remain bound. Suddenly, a great angel…"

"Child, this is Timothy," our Lord Jesus says."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Then, Timothy comes and takes all six books and loads them into a wheelbarrow; and on its wheels are the words, ‘Round and Round." Timothy pushes the wheelbarrow to a very steep cliff, dumps the books over it; and they tumble down, one by one, until they reach a door, called, ‘The King’s Door.’ The door opens and the books tumble through the door, gliding one by one onto a shelf called, ‘From whence they came.’ Beautiful music, like that of many harpsichords, plays as I behold You, Our Beloved Jesus, in all your glory."

"Child, I shall not forsake you; I am always with you. You have worked hard to finish the first three books, which are bound; but I am setting them all free. See how they fly though the sky in great numbers, filtering down on many and into their hands. Child, there are a few believers, who will come forth to help in these works. I promise this. Do not worry about how this shall be, just know that it will take place. And, do not worry about where you shall go, what you shall do, and how you will be provided for. I provide. (Note: All these things spoken by Our Lord to me have come true, even and especially His words about those, sent by Our Lord to help in these works. This fall, I had a dream about someone knocking on our front door; and when I went to the door, there was Our Lord Jesus with many singing children. They all sang so beautifully and I felt so blessed. Indeed, Our Lord has brought many Singing Children to our door and we are pleased to know all of you. You have helped with Our Lord’s works in searching for and disseminating truths to others; and you have blessed us with your precious spirits. I pray that Our Lord blesses each of you and your families mightily; and that in these coming times of great adversity you shall not want.)

"Yea, Child, you are troubled about the behavior of one called to prophecy. Remember the narrow way and that I will take those from around you, who try to manipulate."

"Yes, My Lord."

"As for others stealing these works, it would be better for them if they had a millstone around their necks and were cast into the ocean. These works will destroy anyone, who tries to destroy them. These works are the handiwork of Me and your Father. Remember this, Child. Respect it and go in deep humility."

"Yes, My Lord, I know this and it frightens me because I know I am so inferior."

"Child, this work is very serious and when one detracts from its purposes they will be removed. I want your attention on Me and Your Father. Woe to those, who try to manipulate and control you. If others knew of the power behind these works, they would fear them. Now, Child, look ahead and write."

"My Lord, I see gold writing on a sign, which says, "Knock three times." A dense fog then engulfs the sign, receding slowly and leaving a white door in its place. The door is closed, but a bright light shines beneath the door. As the door flies open, My Lord, you stand before me. I fall to your feet in humility, for I feel so overcome by your power; Your love, grace are overwhelming; and as I clutch your feet, I feel and see holy fire shoot from them. I can't stop crying as I am filled with such overpowering love and sadness. "My Lord, my troubles have been so great; and I have missed you so."

"Child, this is known. My love rests within you and my blessings are upon you for greater works in Me. Know that I have more work for you to do. Go forward. I shall not allow these last three books to set bound and stagnant. I am turning them free. This has nothing to do with anything you do, but what I do. Do not worry about this. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWO

August 18th Prophecy Explained

"Precious Child, because of your mighty praying and seeking for greater truths in Me, I have brought you once more to My Holy Mountain. You sit in the midst of My musical Tree of Life and you are fed. I make you strong and deliver you from illness. Heavenly radiance bathes you, soothes you, renews you, and restores you; and it brings you new purpose and direction. Now, Child, you have questions about yesterday's message."

"Yes, My Lord, what does the shiny pan represent?"

"Child, look on the bottom of the pan and see the radiant spoon attached to it."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Lift the spoon from the pan."

"I have it, My Lord."

"Look at the writing beneath the handle and read it."

"My Lord it says: 'Your Father Jehovah loves you very much as He has given you great trials. You have been tried and tested and found to be true."

"My Lord, the trials have been great; but my love for you and my Father surpasses all circumstances. My reason for being is to serve Our Father's purposes through You."

"Child, this is so. Now, you wonder about the radiant brick in the pan."
"Yes, My Lord."

"Pick it up and read what is written on it."

"My Lord, it is very hot and burns my hands. I am able to hold it, but it is creating a lot of steam in my hands. On it is written, 'My Prophetic Words in Books I, II and III.' Then, My Lord, Moses takes it and disappears into the fog."

"Child, this is steam created by the prophecies, as they are hot and you are holding them."

"Why does Moses disappear into the fog?"

"Child, the prophecies must be sent to Israel and then the fog will disappear. Moses is telling you to take the steps in sending the books to Israel. Do this and the fog will disappear. Get your husband to make these copies and do not procrastinate this. Tell him that I command him to do this today. Do you understand, Child?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, My Lord, I make it through the fog and onto the bridge, but what is the bridge?"
"Child, I am the bridge. I am the bridge to Moses."

"And, the pirate?"

"Child, the pirate if Lucifer and he wishes to steal from these works through procrastination, depression and defeat."

"So, when I stab him with the Sword of Righteousness, he disappears into the black puddle?"

"Exactly. He is seen for what he is and cannot endure in the presence of the sword."

"Why does Pope John Paul II then appear in the black circle?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Does he not exist among a black circle, the circle of darkness, which rules the world?"

"Yes, My Lord, but why did he appear suddenly?"

"Child, you know the truth about the Pope, but few know. Neither will they accept that one they worship is so evil. Lucifer will use the minds of others to beat down these prophecies, but in the end those, who survive will be made to see the pope in his dark circle."

"My Lord, tell me about the ‘bound’ books."

"Child, you see the books here as one. They are bound, but soon your Father shall take his hand and release them around the world with the speed of light. Suddenly, millions shall be reading them, but not now; for so many are caught up in illusion. Within three months you will see this begin. Focus on Me, Child, and know that our Father is in control of the universe. Trust in Him; serve Him and step out in faith. The whole world shall pass away, but His words shall never fail."

"So, My Lord, since I have asked our Father for more works and He has agreed for this and even to extend our lives, He shall give me three more books."

"Child, as you see at this time."

"I understand, My Lord. Tell me about the words, ‘round and round’"

"Child, this means that these books shall go ‘round and ‘round the world many times. They shall be sought and read the world over. This is My promise to you, as you have persevered amidst great hardships."

"And, the king’s door is Your door?"

"Yes, Child; and the words in these books begin with Me. They go out and do not come back void, but make a great impact on the lives of many people. These words will defeat Lucifer many times at his own games."

"My Lord, have I heard your words correctly about a certain prophet?"

"Child, I shall give him a chance to repent, but if he does not I shall withdraw from him and he shall go elsewhere. I require much and I give much. One does not drift along and grow in Me, and spirituality cannot be gotten from another. Therefore, unless he digs in spiritually, I shall set him free to go elsewhere and he shall be deceived."

"My Lord, does ‘knock three times" represent You, Our Father and the Holy Spirit?"

"Yes, Child."

"My Lord, give me guidance this day."

"Child, get the two master copies of Books II and III ready. Get past this fog and know that I am the bridge. Moses interceded for you, and this work shall be taken seriously in Israel. I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 19th day of August, 1998,

Linda Newkirk

As Our Lord commanded, we made the copies of the books and mailed them as He directed. I contacted the Prime Minister’s office in Israel and advised them of the books and offered to send them copies, but they did not respond. Instead, the Israeli Mossad contacted the Luciferian CIA, who began to stalk us, and continue to do so.

The One Worlders have taken these prophecies seriously enough to want to eradicate Saddam Hussein; but they will not succeed, as they believe; for Our Lord has shown how Lucifer empowers Hussein for a spell.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

As Our Lord indicated, Our Father Jehovah set the first three books free in the month of November 1998, which would have been the third month from the time Our Lord indicated above.

CHAPTER THREE

Clinton and the Cave

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus. You have sought Me long in prayer and obedience; and because of this, I have brought you once more to the heights of My Holy Mountain. Yea, the wind of My Spirit bathes you and My River cleanses you. Even the fruit of My tree heals and renews you. Child, in a moment you are in My Inner Sanctum and before you is a tent. You clearly see Bill Clinton in a small military tent, where he is speaking with Hillary and Chelsea. He picks up a small aluminum frying pan and begins to tap himself and the two of them on the head repeatedly. Child, write as seen and given."

"My Lord, Clinton lays the pan aside and picks up a pipe called the 'Peace Pipe', which he smokes and then gives to Hillary and Chelsea. Within the smoke, I can see the words, 'Saddam next.'" (At the time of the typing of this prophecy in January of '99, both of these situations have come to pass, with Clinton trying to reconcile with Hillary and Chelsea and also Saddam. However, it seems none of the three have been successful; as we hear from the media that Hillary plans to move to New York and run for senator; and we have read of Chelsea's on-going emotional turmoil as regards her father. The peace pipe, which Clinton smoked with Hussein in November of this year, was broken in December when he carried out the "sneak attack" on Iraq.)

The smoke curls upward revealing Clinton's knocking on an old door built into a mountain. The doorposts are made of old railroad ties and are worn and faded by the ravages of time. As I look closer at the doorposts, I see that there is writing on them. On the left are the words: "Give me some gum," and on the right is written "sneak attack," while overhead I see "I've gotta spit." (Watch for the meaning of all three of these within the body of this prophecy.)

Clinton knocks one, two, three times on the door and calls out, "Mr. Fellowship, Mr. Fellowship." Then, a person opens the door, wearing a black top hat. His expression is stern and his face is adorned with a moustache like that of Adolf Hitler. He wears a black and white clown coat and black knee pants; but his feet beg most for attention as they house huge, black clown shoes. The Hitler clown smokes a pipe, which bears the words: "I love nectarines." Suddenly, he stops smoking the pipe and puts it in his back pocket; however, the pipe changes into a stream of grapes; and they cascade from his back pocket.

The enigmatic man/clown allows Clinton to enter through the door into the large cave. The floor of the cave is made of black and white marble squares; and high above in the ceiling of the cave is a large bat with a photoelectric eye. As the clown walks over the floor, the taps of his shoes make music like that of discordant harpsichords and a breeze begins to stir around his feet. Within the wind can be heard the words "Drop Dead Hitler! Drop Dead Hitler!"

Clinton follows the clown to a solid gold door; and as he trails the clown, he notices words on the tails of the clown's jacket..."Geneva Bank is Restored." The clown knocks three times on the gold door and his brass knuckles glisten in the light, revealing the words: 'Hot to Trot!'

"My Lord, who is this clown?"

"Child, look atop his hat."

"I see the words, 'Kissinger am I.'"

"Child, proceed."

"The door is open, My Lord, and I see a room with solid gold walls, a golden floor and desk of pure crystal. Music of mystique fills the air, like that of murder mysteries. Behind the desk is the Dracula-look-alike Rothschild man and across his head are the words: "I AM GREED!" Clinton gets on his knees before the man of greed and says, "Sir, I've got a hangover. Would you make my spine straight?" The "R" man looks at Clinton on his knees before him and says, "Sonny Boy, let me give you an adjustment." Then, the Man of Greed takes a key from his right, top, desk drawer named "Fox Key.' Reaching over to Bill Clinton, he says, "Smell this Boy. It will wind you up."

Bill Clinton smells the key; and then the Man of Greed takes it and puts it into the lock in Bill Clinton's back, winding and winding until it stops. Suddenly, Clinton stands up and his spine is very straight; but his movements are very jerky, like those of a toy soldier. Bill Clinton walks around the room of gold, his head moving from side to side; repeating rhythmically, "I've gotta go now, I've gotta go now!" Bill's knees and elbows are hinged and his neck is hinged to his head, but his spine is very, very straight. Up and down Bill's spine are many doors; and the door at the top right of his spine suddenly bursts open. Behind this door, I see Hillary and Chelsea crying and waving goodbye to Bill Clinton. Chelsea says, "We shall never see him again;" but Hillary just smiles and says, "Oh, he'll be back. He's the comeback kid." This door closes; and many doors begin to open up and down his spine with birds hopping out of them door, singing, "Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo! Bill Clinton is cuckoo for bombing the embassies." At the end of his spine is a large, black gator, which swishes in a pool of dark water. On the back of the black gator are the words, "Bill Clinton has a death wish." As the gator moves about in the dark pool, the dark water bubbles and it says: "Double, double, toil and trouble. When you start to deceive, you weave a dark weave."

With the many doors on his spine closing and the birds singing, the gator swishing and the waters speaking, Bill Clinton turns to walk out of the office of the Man of Greed. His spine is straight and his head is held high; but his walk is that of a toy soldier. Suddenly, Bill Clinton slips on a banana peal, as the rigidity of his spine keeps him from watching his feet. "That smarts," Bill says; and he looks above to see a group of laughing heinas on the balcony around the ceiling. They all laugh and whisper among themselves saying, "Clinton's going down! He's going down. His fly's missing cause he's been a kissing Monica; and fornication is Bill's first name. He's a pervert, a whore, a slut. He's a cheap shot!' And, the heinas laugh and whisper, and laugh and whisper. Then, in unison, they all turn to walk away, dressed as businessmen in black suits and on their backsides can be seen the following phrases: 'Sour Land Deals; Raw Bank Deals; and Clinton Cover-ups.'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

From below, Bill Clinton watches every one of them leave; and he tries to get up, but he is stuck to the floor with thick gum, bearing the words: "Scandal and more scandal;" and Bill struggles to free himself, but he cannot. Suddenly, from high in the top of the cave a trap door opens and many bricks and rocks come tumbling down on Bill's head. Some of the bricks form a pattern of words as they fall; and these are what I see: "You coulda, shoulda, woulda lived if you'd stayed away from Afghanistan and Iran. Iraq hates you. Boo-hoo!" The bricks and rocks continue to fall until they nearly cover Bill Clinton; and yellow police tape, bearing the words "Clinton is a Reject", suddenly appears around Bill and the bricks, marking his crime scene off from the rest of the cave.

As I look at these words on the police tape, the gold door slams shut; and monkeys, hanging by their tails, appear around the top of the cave. On their tails are the words, "I've got you, I've got you!" And each monkey chews a banana and spits mouthfuls of chewed banana upon the pile of rocks surrounding Clinton. Each chewed up glob reads, "Been there, done that." Suddenly each monkey holds out a sign, which says "Clinton ousted from the inner circle, … Nov. 1998."

Smoke begins to fill the cave and more monkeys appear, called "Sea of Debt;" and they howl at Bill Clinton. They shriek at him from within the thick smoke saying things like, "Bastard, see what you did! See what you did!"

In the darkness, Clinton reaches for a hand, any hand, to help him out from under the weight of the bricks; and suddenly the cold, iron glove of the clown clasps Clinton's searching hand. However, just as readily, the opposite hand of the clown pops Bill Clinton in the teeth, knocking out two of his upper teeth and two of his lower teeth. Through the darkness emerge these words on the missing teeth: "The Shopping Cart News;" and the Shopping Cart News Teeth fall to the floor among the bricks and rocks, where they start a fire.

Though the thick smoke, Bill Clinton is able to make out words on the pants of the clown; "I doubt you, Phony." Suddenly, the clown grasps Clinton by the nape of the neck, pulls him from among the rocks and bricks, and tosses him out of the cave. Down, down the side of the mountain goes Bill Clinton, rolling, rolling, and rolling.

Who would believe that one could fall from such heights and still land on his feet? Well, Bill Clinton did, but he is now face to face with an Arabian soldier with a large machete. The soldier beneath the bandana is none other that Saddam Hussein; and Hussein quickly takes his machete and divides Clinton into two parts. One part goes to the right and one goes to the left. "Let's get him," the masked Hussein says, "He is divided."

And, as Bill Clinton fights a fire in the Mideast and a fire at home a great, black storm begins to form over the USA. On the huge, billowy clouds are the words, "Sneak attack by Russia, China, Germany, The Vatican, NATO, and the UN. Suddenly, the USA is ablaze with many fires in the darkness as great nuclear clouds light up the night sky over San Francisco, Chicago, New York City, Miami, Dallas/Fort Worth and many other large cities.

From within the night, a black vulture appears with a flag hanging from its mouth. The flag says, "Surrender Now, or More Will Die!' The death toll numbers many, many millions and before me is a large casket, which is open. Lying in it is a very young child of perhaps three years old. She has an envelope in her hand, which I take and open. On the paper are these words "75 Million." Great cries and wails punctuate the night air as the sun begins to rise, revealing thick smoke filled with debris.

"My Lord, San Francisco is gone and little is left of Los Angeles."

"Yea, Child, 'tis true. We shall get back to this later. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER FOUR

Iran Conflict, and more…

"Precious child, I am Master Jesus. You have disciplined yourself this day to honor my requests to sit and write; and you shall not go unrewarded. You are on the heights of My Holy Mountain as I have brought you here on the wings of My Spirit."

"Yes, My Lord, I am here, flying freely on Your Spirit, and suspended in air; but suddenly it seems that something like pudding is hitting me all over my body, and I feel as if I am in some kind of storm."

"Yea, Child, you think that this is a storm, or that it is pudding, but it is a gift from your Father, … pure power, which sinks into your soul and strengthens you."

"My Lord, I realize that this is happening as I can see that I am aglow with this substance and it creates a pure, radiant light. Suddenly, I notice a satchel near me; which beckons me to unzip it; and as I begin to do so, a radiant umbrella pops out. I reach for the umbrella, but it disappears; and I am drifting ever upward in this glorious light. I must have missed Your Upper Room."

"Child, you have not noticed it, but you are in My Upper Room."

"What was the purpose of the umbrella?"

"To make you realize that you are moving upward in Me and I provide the Way. Grab hold of the umbrella and read what is written on it."

"It says, 'I am here for you. Jesus, Your Master.'"

"My Lord, I know this through and through; and I love you with all my heart."

"I carry you upward when you expect it least. Now, My Little One, look before you and see a radiant door."

"Yes, My Lord, I see it."

"Child, ride upon the wings of My Spirit and enter."

"My Precious Lord, what pure beauty enfolds me as I am bathed in the light of your love and peace. Your wondrous Spirit carries me as a peaceful wind through this door and now spellbound I drift over a most beautiful, glass floor. Below me, all is illuminated with waves of flashing lights in many pastel colors."

"Stand on the floor, My Child, and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, upon standing upon this glass floor, I behold a very clear vision of Bill Clinton dining with Queen Elizabeth; and they are eating steak and lobster with red wine. On Clinton's lobster are the words, 'I've got you Babe.' The Queen, on the other hand, has eaten all of her lobster except for one remaining piece. And, as she talks to Bill, she does not notice that a tiny mouse called the 'Iran' conflict runs out of the last bite of lobster. This mouse scampers into her lap, down her dress, and back up under her skirt. She begins to feel the movement of the mouse and begins to squirm, but she continues to eat her meal as if nothing has happened. On her steak are the words, 'Joggle this and joggle that.' The steak looks slimy and is moldy; in fact it is rotten and stinky, but she does not notice that the food is putrid; and she continues to take small bites."

"Every time the Queen takes a bite of the rotten meat, a gnome with pointed ears rides into the Queen's mouth atop the meat. Each gnome lands on its feet with flashlight in hand and begins banging around on the Queen's teeth with a crowbar and a hammer. One of the gnomes whispers, 'She doesn't suspect anything yet. Let's get busy.' So, they take drills and begin to make tiny holes at the base of her molars. Then, they put tiny amounts of dynamite into each drilled hole. When the first tooth blows, called Ireland, it smarts and the Queen grabs her throat, just as an ugly pirate comes up behind her. ‘This is for the Princess of Wales,’ he says; and he cuts off the end of the Queen’s nose. She is bleeding and in a state of shock, but Clinton just keeps trying to cut a piece from his tough lobster.

"Meantime, the gnomes keep working, drilling, stuffing and blowing until steam begins to come from the Queen’s eyes and ears. One gnome stands amidst the smoke playing a tape loudly in the Queen’s right ear, which says:

‘Clinton is a liar, a sneak and a thief;

And you made him your friend.

He is a traitor, like YouHoo.

What shall you do?

For, all is seen,

You Queen of Mean.’

"As Bill Clinton is occupied with eating his tough meat, he does not notice that blood is dripping from the Queen’s nose; and on each drop of the Queen’s blood are the words: ‘The Queen of Mean Killed Diana.’ Underneath the Queen’s chair, the pirate has placed a jack and it pushes the Queen up and makes her tall. On this jack are the words, ‘opium and dope trade.’ With this jack, the pirate keeps elevating the Queen higher and higher until she is looking far down at Clinton. But, still Bill Clinton does not notice the plight of the Queen; he just kept on picking at his tough meal."

"‘You Sorry Scandal,’ the Queen blurts out to Bill Clinton. ‘You are rotten to the core! You have lied about the embassy bombings and you have lied about who did it! You did it, you farce; and you have made me a fool! I shall destroy you! You idiot! You are scary!’"

"Still, a gnome sits on the Queen's shoulder, and has replaced the first tape with a second. It blasts into the Queen's ear:

'Scary, scary,

Fe Fi Fo Fum!

Who will carry

The sales pitch home?'

"'The sales pitch,' the Queen ponders. "Hmmm, I will carry the sales pitch. After all, I am the Queen of the House of Windsor. The whole world shall bow down to me. This is the sales pitch:

'See,

I'm no witch, but a Queen of Grace.

See my face.

A smile or two for You Hoo

Will make you see me

As your Queen

Of Everlasting Kindness!'"

"But, the gnomes do not like her words, so they dig out bigger holes in her front teeth called 'London' and 'Paris Underground,' and they plant hollow bullets in the teeth with timers attached to them. 'When she stands up,' one of the gnomes says, 'we will blast out her front teeth. She will have a knee-jerk-reaction and cover her knees named Kensington and Buckingham, but we will send more gnomes to sweep and rake them.

And, more gnomes come called ‘Rothschild to the Core’ and they sweep and rake her knees. Then, they climb her head and go after Prince Charles. ‘He’s a wacko,’ the gnomes say. ‘Let him have it in the head! When he beds Camilla for a thriller, we will steal his meal deal.’"

"So, as Charles lies in bed with Camilla, they bombard him with energy waves; and on each wave are the words, ‘microwave hit.’ ‘We shall not miss,’ the gnomes say, ‘hitting him in bed with his story book friend. For, we shall put an end to his notion of being a king, …to the end, My Friends.’"

"Poor Charles is befuddled. He is confused and settles for being second best, but king no less if only in reverence, no title or crown. For, Charles fell on and broke his good leg. ‘Diana’s the victor; she wins over Charles. In life as in death, the Queen of Mean loses. She loses. She loses,’ say the gnomes.

"My Lord, this looks very bad for the Queen and it looks like the Rothschilds are scheming at how they will take over the Monarchy."

"More than you will ever know."

"But, the Queen and Prince Charles do not see this and neither does Clinton."

"Child, is Clinton not blinded by his own ego?"

"Yes, My Lord, he is blinded by it and asleep to it."

"So, My Child, the gnomes are busy."

"Creating unrest for the Queen in the underground."

"Exactly."

"So, they shall go after the palaces?"

"They already have."

"My Lord, what does ‘sweep’ and ‘rake’ mean?"

"They have entered the palaces and swept for listening devices and raked them up. And they have implanted their own, as you were told long ago."

"So, once again we hear of the Queen’s killing Diana and Dodi."

"Child, she is responsible for the killing of Diana and Dodi, but they shall be victorious over the Queen." "And, Clinton and the embassy horrors?"

"Child, to cover his sins, to start one evil thing to cover up another."

"My Lord, will the people ever know the truth about the bombing of these embassies?’

"It will come out, and is known even now by others around the world. This act of aggression opens the door for the destruction of the USA, as you will see."

"My Lord, let us go back to the vision of August 20, 1998. Tell me about the door Clinton knocks on. It has writing on three doorposts. Please explain this."

"Child, on the left doorpost are the words, ‘give me some gum.’ Clinton is walking into a sticky situation when he enters through this door. ‘I’ve gotta spit’ means that he will wish to get rid of this sticky gum, but he will not be able to do so."

"So, Mr. Fellowship is the "R" man?"

"He has been a great source of his fellowship and commands."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"What about the clown?"

"Who is the clown, Child?"

"Henry Kissinger."

"And, Kissinger also represents Germany."

"My Lord, what do the nectarines represent?"

"The gravy, Child, the nectar of power."

"And, the grapes?"

"Child, walk into one of them."

"My Lord, I walk into one of the grapes and I see Queen Elizabeth eating a piece of celery; and on it are the words ‘never’ on one side and ‘will Clinton win’ on the other."

"So, the Queen is actually behind Germany to get rid of Clinton?"

"This will be seen."

"So, she is two-faced to the core?"

"She’s a user, an abuser, a drug trafficker and a killer. Do you trust this?"

"No, My Lord, not in the least; and I suppose that the black bat in the ceiling of the cave is surveillance?"

"Child, it is more than surveillance."

"How so?"

"It is a death trap. See the guillotines killing my sheep. It sees all it wishes to see."

"My Lord, I abhor this evil and it saddens me deeply. As we move along with this vision, My Lord, please explain the musical shoes and the words made on the wind around the clown's feet."

"Child, the walk of the clown creates disharmony and dread; and the cries of the dead and dying will utter the words, 'Drop dead, Hitler!' For, Hitler is at it again. The same spirits, which controlled him are back in control of Germany."

"My Lord, I am so saddened for so many of us, who will be subjected to this evil."

"Yes, Child, but remember: I am the victor!"

"And, the clown restores the Geneva Bank?"

"Remember who manipulates world money?"

"Yes, My Lord; and I suppose that the mystery murder music is for Bill Clinton."

"Child, this is a mystery and Bill Clinton will be the last to find out."

"Well, what is meant by the hangover?"

"Clinton is looking for a cure for his excesses and is begging off. He needs help to straighten things out." "What about the adjustment and the fox key?"

"Oh, he will make Bill Clinton's spine straight with his foxy ways; and he will put him on his toes. He will make Clinton's walk tall, but his walk will not be smooth. Clinton is rigid and his walk will be most difficult." "What did he do for Clinton?"

"He gave him a few months."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"A few months for what?"

"To live and reign as president."

"But, My Lord, Bill Clinton does not know what awaits?"

"He does not."

"So, Bill Clinton says ‘I’ve gotta go,’ because he thinks he has gotten what he wants from the ‘R’ man?’

"Child, he thinks this. He has received money manipulation in the US economy, but only for a short while."

"What is the conversation between Chelsea and Clinton?"

"Child, it is about Bill Clinton, who is lost in the Monica situation. Hillary has seen him bounce back so many times and is not worried, but she does not see the cuckoo birds and she does not know that your secret and dark service bombed your own embassies. Child, the black gator at the end of his spine is the end result of what he has done. He has been given a death wish. This death wish is to kill and to be killed. The weave of deception is darkness and death."

"My Lord, tell me about the banana peals."

"Read what is written on them."

"I am having trouble reading as there are mirrors on them. I curse this evil to nothingness, in your name, My Lord; and suddenly I see the words: ‘Clinton’s ruination.’ Does this mean that the bombing of the embassies will be his ruination?"

"Both his and that of the USA. The people will find out the truth in time."

"So, if Bill Clinton had been impeached straightaway for the Lewinsky situation, some of this would have been avoided?"

"Child, Bill Clinton has a free will, but his will is for power and control."

"My Lord, who are the heinas?"

"Child, see: 'the Swiss banks, global moneychangers and new worlders;' read what is before you."

"The bricks are the weight of his wrongs. But, Iran is in the picture?"

"Oh, yes, Child, remember the prophecy of June 17, 1997 in which I foretold the summit in the fall of '97 involving Iraq, Russia, China and France against the USA. At that time, I told you that there would be five countries, but you did not know who the fifth country was. It is Iran."

"That's right, My Lord, you said that Russia would take a stand against the USA and that there would be five countries involved. These countries were Russia, China, France, Iraq and now you reveal the fifth as Iran. And, Russia did take this stand in the fall of '97 and continues to do so. But at this time, there are many more countries supporting Russia and China against the USA."

"My Lord, please explain what is meant by 'sea of debt.'"

"The USA is in a sea of debt, Child; and what you see as the economic picture is a lie."

"And, the clown, who pops Bill Clinton is Germany?"

"This and more."

"My Lord, what do you mean by 'this and more?'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Clinton and the Raquel Welch scandal."

"Raquel Welch?"

"Yes, indeed."

"You mean figuratively?"

"I mean truthfully."

"So, he has had an affair with Raquel?"

"He has bedded Hollywood."

"So, My Lord, there is a Hollywood scandal?"

"To the core."

"You mean like ‘wag the dog?’"

"I mean, ‘bed the dog.’"

"My Lord, when Bill Clinton is popped in the mouth by the clown, what do the teeth represent?"

"Status and prestige."

"So, this is the same as ‘shopping cart news?’"

"Child, what is ‘shopping cart news?’"

"I do not know."

"Look at the shopping cart."

"I see it, My Lord; and it is empty."

"Child, this is the news. Great famine is coming upon the USA."

"And, the great famine starts a fire?"

"It starts a roaring fire."

"And Hollywood and Germany ultimately say openly to Bill Clinton, 'I doubt you, phony!'"

"Every word."

"And, Clinton is thrown out of the "R" cave?"

"Yes, indeed!"

"And, we see Hussein meet Clinton at the bottom of the hill… Is this Capitol Hill?"

"It is."

"My Lord, how does Hussein divide Bill Clinton?"

"Through war, disease, famine, illness and death, he divides Clinton's home."

"How does Hussein fight a fire in the midst of a fire?"

"He fights his own fires at home and on your soil."

"So, the USA will be devastated through war and it will surrender?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"This is their plan."

"But, will it be so?"

"This is one thing you will decide. If you want freedom, you will fight for freedom with every ounce of your strength and you will come back to Me. But, even so, Child, what you have or can have under this world government system is very limited. You have become decadent and lazy and most stopped fighting long ago. Most of you only fight one another. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER FIVE

The Roosevelt Horse

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus; and after much prayer on your part, I have brought you to the heights of My Holy Mountain once more. Find yourself in My Upper Room, seated before The Page of Time. Know that the hour is late; as you see the word 'late' blinking on the page. Child, write as seen and given."

"My Lord, on The Page I see a grave and on it is the name "Yeltsin." It is bitter cold and a heavy state of sorrow seems to be all-pervasive. However, there is so snow on the ground. Suddenly, someone rises from the hill beyond the grave and his head is covered with a green army blanket. Immediately, I know this person to be Saddam Hussein. He says:

'The plot got thick,
But we burned the wick,
Which caused the chase
To make a face,
Which led to the grave for the one,
Who lay with those to the South.'
'Goodbye and good riddance
To the man with the plan
For world capitalism.'
'He was a joke,
A laughing stock was he
To me.
And now, I've got the one
Who will lead us to war
With the evil ones down south.'

"Continue, Child."

"Then, My Lord, Saddam Hussein gets on his black horse and turns and spits on Yeltsin's grave. The spit crackles and pops making a fire and within the fire I see a door with the words: 'Russian Communist Regime.'"

"Open the door, Child. You have the key."

"My Lord, I find a skeleton key in my hands; and on it are the words: 'Jesus is the key.' I place the key in the lock of the door and the door opens revealing the inside of a meat locker. Hanging from a hook is a dead horse with his stomach split open and his insides are hanging out. I am looking for identifying information on the horse, but there is nothing."

"Child, look at the rear hooves."

"My Lord, on both hooves are the word 'Roosevelt.'

"Very well, Child."

"My Lord, who are these butchers?"

"Read what is written on their coat pockets."

"It says, 'UN'. So, you mean that the UN butchers the Roosevelt Horse."

"'Tis so, Child, and look what they are taking out of the horse's belly."

"They have taken out a very large, heavy, dark chest; and are opening it with a large key. I watch them take out a number of papers and on all of them are the words 'High treason.' One by one, they take three smaller boxes out of the large box and begin to open them, revealing more papers with writing. These are some of the words and phrases I see: 1.Never again, My Friend; 2.Slut, whore; 3.economic fraud; 4.grand jury tampering; 5.fraud; 6.deceit; 7.cover-ups; 8.great evil and darkness; 9.world-wide communism or bust; and 10.No man's friend."

"Here comes more boxes and great amounts of gold, diamonds and more papers showing control of great oil reserves, radio and telecommunications control and I see the words: 'Destruction, destruction, destruction.' These men are standing in blood up to their knees as worms, maggots and black snakes swim and work around their legs. Yet, they seem oblivious to the blood and what swims in it as they are so overtaken by what comes from the horse's belly."

"On the wall above the men is the big, black buzzard named 'Rothschild to the Core'; and it looks very pregnant. Why is this, My Lord?"

"Child, the buzzard is about to squawk and when it does watch and listen."

"My Lord, what is this date?"

"Child, look at the blinking lights on the wall."

"My Lord, it says, 'January through June 1999.' Suddenly, the buzzard opens its mouth; and as he squawks he vomits a long piece of videotape. This vomit continues to roll forth and forms a large black pile on the top of the blood and gore; however the end of the tape remains connected to the insides of the buzzard. The frames are numbered and I feel that I shall know something about these frames in the future."

"Child, you shall; but for now we shall take a break. I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Lighten the Load

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus. You come to The Mountain today weighted down with stress, not knowing how you shall survive; but I know. Have faith in me; for I make a way and I provide. Receive of the fruit of My Tree and know a freedom you have not known for days. Child, devote every minute of each day to Me and keep this your number one priority. There is no reason to live, save to do My work and your Father's work. Remember this and do not worry about finances; for money is here today and gone tomorrow. Look to me; I provide. Now, Child, step through My door and into My Inner Sanctum; and be blessed."

"My Lord, I see Timothy and others."

"Yea, Child, they are of The Twelve."

"I kneel on my knees, with my face on the floor in love and honor for You, My Lord; as my heart is so heavy and your Beloved Servants before me are so full of love and goodness." Timothy comes to me and bids me look as he is speaking. He points to my ring finger on my left hand and I see a radiant ring. Timothy says, "You are married to Jesus Christ. Take this walk seriously at all times; and do not despair when it seems that all is going very poorly. For, the dark cloud has a silver lining; look for this. You two will have what you need and more. As for others, do not allow them to take away from your purposes unto God. This day, I bless you with a clear alert mind, great diligence and oneness of purpose unto our Father's work. Now, My Beloved Sister, eat this."

And, I eat a small radiant box. Then, he offers me another and I eat it as well. Then another and so on until I have eaten ten, small boxes in all. But, with each box, my abdomen grows, expanding to painful dimensions until it becomes very large; and I cannot stand.

"See, My Beloved Sister, the load is heavy; and only the power of our Father can lighten it; so ask for this."

"My Father, the load is heavy. Please lighten this load."

I had barely finished saying these words when the load begin to lift, at first slowly, then quickly, until the swollen abdomen was gone entirely; and all the weight disappeared.

"See," says Timothy, "there is only one Way; so seek after none other."

I begin to weep and clasp Timothy's feet; and I feel so overcome with love and emotion that I cannot stop weeping. Deep sobs engulf me, as I am so full of gratitude toward this beloved soul; for I have known such great sadness about the world conditions.

"Look in this mirror," says Timothy.

So, I look into the mirror and I see that my face is full of tears and my eyes are red and all is dark around me. Shades are pulled on the windows to my rear and light shines around the edges of them."

"Reach behind you and open the shades," says Timothy.

I do as Timothy says and I see one standing there in white raiment, as many people wear in the desert; and across his right shoulder is a striped blanket. "Who are you?" I question.

"I am Moses from days past," he says. "See the way I looked and how dusty my feet were, how plain and old I seemed. But, our Father made me new; He gave me a new, clean robe and great radiance. Child, he will do the same for you and all, who love Him above all. Nothing in the world can compare to the love of your Father. Money can never compare to His rewards; for monetary systems will soon fall. Child, do not be concerned about finances; be concerned about your Father's work and be concerned about warning Israel about the disasters, which will soon be upon them."

"I am doing as you say to warn them, but I fear that the masses shall not receive what I am sending. They shall not know of the Great War in time."

"Yes, My Little One," says Jesus, "many will reject the words of My messengers. But, they shall not reject the truth of their predicament; and many will perish for want of the truth."

"My Lord, I know that this is true; but many will not understand these messages and they shall reject them outright."

"This is true, My Child; each of you must never, never, never assume anything about My Word; for, you may be wrong. Ask Me for understanding; and I will provide this. Do you understand?"

"Yes, My Lord; how I know!"

"Child, be at peace this day; and move forward in Me. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Inside the Red Rooster and More

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus, your friend, counsel, and yea your Savior. For, I come to teach, and to bring freedom and wholeness; but I come also to bring the sword. Many think that the Evil One has an unbridled hand, but remember: he does only what your Father in Heaven allows; for your Father is Supreme."

"When you see evil come up against you, fear not. For, so it has been in all the days of the prophets. But, I shall protect you and yours, Child. Listen to me and do as I say; and I will hide you. They shall search for you; but they shall not find you, even forgetting about you in time; for the evil ones shall suffer many losses as their elaborate plans crumble and become as chaff in the wind."

"Now, Child, see that you are upon the heights of My Mountain. You hold in your hands a sphere with many holes; and through these holes shines great light. Throw the ball of light on Jakarta Indonesia; and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I see the bright, radiant ball of light flying through the air making quite a show until it disappears as a tiny speck. I watch it as it hits Jakarta and a great explosion of light erupts. Then, I see Bill Clinton sitting and communing with an oriental."

"Oh, don't worry," Bill Clinton says. "It is just another scandal. Give them ten days and they will forget." The oriental man…"

"Child, he is the president of Indonesia."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

The President of Indonesia has a map, which he is looking at as he speaks to Clinton. And, he says, "Well, Hong Kong looks strong and Japan is holding its own. But, what will happen to us?

"See the money tree," says Bill Clinton.

"Yes," says the Indonesian President.

"Well, have no fear," Clinton says. "For, I hold the money tree. Leave it to me and I will see that you do not fall like the others. Do you see?"

"I see," says the President of Indonesia. "You're the man with the plan for the re-arranging of the world economy and if we believe, we cannot be deceived. For, your plan for the reorganization of the world economy will work unless, of course, the Jamaican leaves or the Saudi moves. Then, there's trouble on the double. Right, Mr. President?"

"Well, we'will not worry about the poor; for this plan makes every man equal. We're all the same. Right, Mr. Pres.?"

"Oh, this will work, alright, a plan like this. Each like the other, no rich no poor. This will work, of course, of course."

"Then, My Lord, this image disappears."

"Yes, Child, but this is not all. Continue on."

"My Lord, near me is a most beautiful, perfect, radiant angel. This angel touches me on the shoulder and then touches the Star of David on my chest. As the angel touches the star, the star says, "Israel, Israel, Israel, pain and sorrow. Israel, Israel, Israel, hear the rumble." Then, My Lord, I look before me to see a big man in a suit, like a band man; and he is banging on a very large drum, which resonates loudly. Who is this man?"

"Child, look on his rear end; and read what you see."

"My Lord, I see Nikita Khruschev at a table building tin soldiers; but I don't understand why."

"Child, what part do you not understand?"

"All of it."

"Well, look at his left leg. What do you see?"

"I see Fidel Castro hidden in Khruschev's sock and Castro has a gun."

"What more do you see?"

"On Khruschev's same leg I see a cut; and blood is running down his leg' but the blood does not get on Castro. Please explain this."

"Child, now look at Khruschev; and tell me what you see."

"I see that Khruschev's face looks exactly like that of Boris Yeltsin, but he is not building toy soldiers. Instead, he is drinking booze from a gallon jug, and he looks very drunk. His eyes are bloodshot and when he opens his mouth, I see frogs in his throat croaking. He is smoking a cigarette. Smoke is coming from his ears; and his eyes are closed tightly, as if they are steel traps. My Lord, tell me more about this."

"Child, do you see the Caspian Sea out the window before him?"

"Yes, My Lord; and on the sea are the words, 'All is well, sleep on.' But, I don't understand.'"

"Child, look to the right on the floor."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Lord, I see a red rooster and it is fat and healthy. On its back are the words, "I am communism." The rooster is eating from a large pile of grain, which says, 'Fed by the USA.' Every now and then the rooster pecks the right foot of Yeltsin, but he does not seem to notice. Perhaps, his foot is numb from the alcohol; but I also see that it is swollen and infected. Yeltsin is in trouble."

"Yea, Child; look behind him."

"My Lord, I see a bandit on a black horse wearing a black bandana on his face; and on the bandana are the words, 'Arabs ready for war.' But, My Lord, I still do not understand this."

"Nay, Child, you do not, but look before Yeltsin on the table."

"My Lord, it is a map of the USA and on it are many Xs. Yeltsin is not paying much attention to this map, but suddenly the rooster jumps up and begins to peck at the map. Inside the rooster, I see many men sitting around a table and before them is a plan called the Red Plan. On the Red Plan are the words, 'UN Takeover.' And on the bottom of The Plan are some numbered phrases. This is what I see: 1.Sicily is ours; 2. The UN is ours; 3. The USA is dead and is ours; 4. The Carnival King is mean and he is dead; 5. Better red than dead, but few shall see that blue is one too. The Royals are red; 6. China is big and think they're secure, but china shall fall from within from hunger, famine and disease. China will go. 7. The Trade Winds must stop. No more trade. There is one way, the Red Way. 8. Death and disease will kill the millions, and we'll starve the billions, and control the masses through lethal injections. 9. Strong is the arm of Russia. It will rule over Galapagos, from Spain to Maine, from the Red Sea to Timbuktu; 10. Russia, Ruler of the world.

Next, I hear the leader of the communists say, "Death to the USA. We have them surrounded. They are confounded by our lies and our smears. Our tactics have worked and they think we're asleep; but they are the ones, who are asleep. And, in their sleep, they shall die!"

"Well, My Lord, I sense the Communist takeover of Russia at hand. Yeltsin is drunk and blind and his leg is infected, but why is his left leg bleeding?"

"Child, he is wounded."

"By whom?"

"Who is behind him?"

"The Arabs."

"Then, ‘tis so. The Arabs have wounded him."

"And, what is going on with Castro?"

"Castro is hiding out in Yeltsin’s leg."

"My Lord, I see this, but I don’t understand it."

"Child, Castro is on Yeltsin’s side, but you know and I know that he is a survivor. Even though Yeltsin is bleeding, his blood will not touch Castro. However, when the Russian Red Rooster takes over, which has been fed by USA resources, Castro will crow right along beside it."

"My Lord, I have seen the two large Russians submarine fleets, one around AK and the other in the North Atlantic; but, Russian troops are building to the South of the USA."

"Yes, indeed, My Child; you have been looking for them in Russia, but they are building to the South of you and preparing for your invasion. So, be warned."

"My Lord, what of the war with Iraq, which is supposed to begin in October of this year?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, see the horses out of the barn."

"Yes, My Lord."

"See the writing on their rear ends, which reads ‘Iraq-Bound."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Now, Child, you ask about the Stock Market in the USA. Watch for a downward swing around the 10th of October. Several financial institutions within the USA will fall in the month of October. This will be caused by gambling and poor loans. Watch also for the Market in Tokyo to have more problems. Hong Kong more darkness and Russia more financial devastation. Child, your Father is going to bring about a worldwide crash in financial institutions and you will not escape this. One of the reasons Bill Clinton starts the war is to increase more faith in the government and better finances; but your slight rise shall be short-lived. See the train, which is steaming. Its whistle is blowing; and the conductor says, "All aboard. And Bill Clinton, Hillary and Chelsea get on the train. On their tickets are the words, ‘last ride.’"

"Yes, My Lord, I see all this."

"Then, Child, know that this job is the last political ride for the Clintons. Bill will die first, but Hillary will not be far behind. She, too, has many political enemies. They will not be needed in a government of world communism. They are playing with dangerous enemies and you will see what I have said come to pass. Bill will go first, but not long after the wars begin to tear down the USA. Watch for an indication of what is to come by 7 of ’99. Hillary will not stand a chance after this. You will see. Now, Child, be at peace in Me this day and go under My protection and love. I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Prophecies Fulfilled

A note to remember: We have seen some of these prophecies come to pass already. The financial crisis in Indonesia is still on-going. Indeed, there have been great food shortages and political unrest in this small country because of the crash of their financial markets. Just today on Feb 26th, 1999 as I was typing the above prophecy for Book IV, I read on CNN about the terrible famines in Indonesia. Truly, they can starve the poor people and make all as one and one as all.

An atheistic Jew by the name of Soros admitted his part in crashing the markets in several Asian countries, even playing a role in the manipulation of the market in Russia. Yet, he hides behind his "good" works to keep others from seeing his evil. Woe is to this lying man and to his evil works.

In the week of the 10th of October, the NASDAQ hit its lowest for the year. Thinking that Our Lord was speaking of the Dow when he spoke of the above fall in the market, I questioned this October date. For the Dow fell to its lowest point in August. But, Our Lord made it clear in previous prophecies that he was speaking of the NASDAQ.

During this time, there were several financial institutions, which fell, just as Our Lord indicated. And, they did fall because of gambling away people's money. We all heard about the infamous financial institutions and the billions the gambled away in "hedge funds." However, the FED and other private banking institutions came to their rescue, dishing out money to keep them afloat.

We also received word about stock market manipulation in the early morning hours at Wall Street by those, believed to be of the FED. They worked overtime to keep the market from going any lower, so as to maintain their own interests. Our Lord has told us that the stock market is manipulated and we got to see this firsthand in the fall of the market in 1998..

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

The market hit a low and started to rise again, as Our Lord states in the above prophecy. But, it is just a matter of time before the stock market meets with disaster. What we see on Wall Street is just part of the great delusion, part of the world-wide system of illusions set in place to deceive the people, attempting to keep everyone blind until the hammer of world Luciferian communism is put in place. Then, people, who have put all their saving in the market will be hit, just as in 1929, but this time much worse.

As far as Iraq is concerned, on the last day of October 1998, Saddam Hussein defiantly stood in the face of UN inspectors and denied them access to weapons facilities again. This defiance came to a head when the USA and Britain threatened invasion in November. But, because of our Father's hand, Hussein changed his mind at the last minute in November and war was avoided. However, this agreement did not last very long and by December the USA and British forces had invaded Iraq.

We have seen that prayer and fasting by some of God's faithful can bring about miracles, but the inevitable will not be delayed very long. Our Lord has made it clear that every day of peace is straight from God.

It is sad, indeed, that even now so many have mocked these few days of granted peace; and have become unbelieving that we have a merciful God. You have seen the miracle of Our Father's postponing of the war with Kosovo in the fall of '98; and you have seen Our Father intervene to stop war with Iraq at the last minute, also in the fall of '98. But, I can assure you that His patience will not continue to be with us here in this country. For, the masses have ceased to become vigilant. The masses have come to love a liar (Bill Clinton) and what he can do for them. The masses are blinded by money and do not care how they get it. They have cashed in their values for love of that, which is expedient, regardless of what it is.

They chase after the wild life, love the lewd and lascivious and make their homes places of dwelling for every foul demon imaginable. They have forsaken the Lord Their God and go the way of the world.

This is for Your Soul

I tell you right now, My Beloved Brothers and Sisters, if the above fits you or any part of your life, wake up to who you are and what you are doing with your precious soul. You are on a spiritual journey and whether you realize this or not does not change the truth of it. Will you go the way of the masses, the broad way, or will you take the effort to fight the current and seek the straight and narrow.

Be assured that the straight and narrow is fraught with great trials. It is difficult and you might find yourself on this path alone. But, in this is the separating of the sheep from the goats. Through the great trials of this path comes the cleansing of your soul and the whitening of your spiritual robe. Your journey on this path will carry you to higher truths, to greater knowledge and wisdom of our Beloved Father and Savior.

You will never grow spiritually unless you make a conscious decision to love your Father with all your being and to put him first. He wants your heart and He wants you to love and honor His Precious Son, whom He has appointed to be Lord of Earth.

If you are tired of going around in circles, going nowhere in your life, you must realize that no one can do anything about this, but you. Only you can get off the Broad Way and get on the Straight and Narrow. It is the only Way, and there is none other. But, it requires a commitment from you to serve our Lord and Savior and to follow the commands of God. This path requires that you dedicate yourself to Our Lord each and every day and that at the end of the day, you give thanks for another day to be able to walk with Him. This walk requires that you persevere in the love and service of Our Lord, no matter how difficult life gets, persevering and seeking more and greater truths to be able to keep on climbing ever upward in Our Fathers truths, yes in His Light.

What kind of person are you? Are you a seeker of eternal truths? Or, are you satisfied to just drift along with the crowd. I tell you now that you do not have much time to decide. For, the gates of hell are swung open and hoards of demons are all about us, ready to push you and goad you until they have pushed you right into the dark pits of hell. This is the end-result of living and loving the world and pushing out the Presence of the Spirit of God. Yes, a life filled with darkness is the end-result of rejecting our Lord and Beloved Father.

The Way back home if fraught with many trials; but there is no other way. Our time is so very short; and sadly millions upon millions are caught up in the dark, rushing river, which is carrying them straight into the abyss, into the dark howling pits, where every creepy thing imaginable lives. Wake up! Wake up and get dedicated to Our Beloved Lord! Your time is limited!

Do not put off until tomorrow what you must do today! This day, get on your knees before Our Lord and Our God and beg forgiveness for forsaking them. Cry out to Our Lord Jesus to guide you in all things and to save you from the darkness, which awaits those, who go the Broad Way. Clean out your home of every porno tape, of every violent movie, of every book of lust! And repent! Be sorrowful deep within your heart for what you have done! Make a pledge to our Lord to stop doing those things, which you know to be wrong!

Did you know that every time you lust after someone, whether on a porno tape, a lewd film, or even at work you are committing adultery? This is right! You are committing adultery! Why? Because you lust in your heart, which has been created as the dwelling place of the Lord. You lust in your body, which is the temple of God. You lust in your soul, which is a gift from God; and you make take these, which Our Lord has given you to keep holy and you feed them to the dogs. You give them over to the demons for manipulation and control. And control they do. For, a demonic obsession is at the root of every porno addiction. Only God can deliver you from this prison.

Those, who commit adultery through porno, do not want to look deeply at their adulterous acts. They want to ignore the fact hat they have defiled their bodies, their souls, their hearts and minds. They do not want to see how they have lied to themselves about the darkness of their lives. This is Lucifer's way. It is so very subtle.

Listen, My Beloved Brothers and Sisters, if this refers to you, look at what you are doing. Get in touch with your emotions. Get in touch with the dirty feelings and the darkness, which porno has brought into your life. Get in tough with the anger your feel toward yourself for deserting yourself; and get in touch with the guilt for letting yourself down. Then, get down on your knees and take your sorrow to our Precious Jesus. Beg him to forgive you and do not get back into this evil again. It makes the eye of your soul dark and you will lose your way. Please, I beg you. Come out of this darkness and come back to Our Beloved Lord. He is our only hope. Only He can break the obsessions of mind, emotion, body and spirit connected with porno. If you need prayer for this, write me with a sincere heart and I will pray for your deliverance.

Clean your houses of any violent films and stay away from horror films, such as Dracula movies, Stephen King films and so on. These are avenues by which demons can infiltrate your home and set up residence to stalk you and to control you. In the past, I have seen demons fly out of such films and Our Lord cautioned me against ever watching them again.

The Evil One has many, many tricks up his sleeve by which to seduce you; and they are on every corner. You must learn to be on guard against them. If you feel a tug in your heart against doing something, realize that Our Lord is speaking to your through His Holy Spirit or that even one of His angels may be nudging you to avoid some trap of Lucifer. My Precious Ones, Lucifer's traps are everywhere and they are like the gingerbread house. They are made to look so good and appealing; but their fast and cheap rides leave you exhausted; and you will have to fight the oppression and depression caused by the attacks of many demons when you give into them.

Stay away from the cheap thrills and go the sure Way. This Way is the Way of Jesus Christ and is the only Way, which will afford you any lasting or real peace. Get busy, My Beloved Brethren; clean out your life, dedicate yourself in the service of Our Lord; and He will put you on the road to salvation, providing you with a peace you have not had in years, maybe never in your life.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

Forgive that you may be forgiven; and be free in Jesus.

He is our Life,

CHAPTER EIGHT

The Lord's Promises

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus, Lord of Earth; and once more I have brought you to My Holy Mountain. Note the great warrior angel accompanying you, and that you go nowhere save this angel goes with you, even to The Tree of Life. For, times are perilous and a contract is out for your life. But, fear not, My Child; for I shall confound them and bring to naught all plans. I shall cause them to be like rubble after a fire; and I shall foul up their equipment. Yea, it shall be as if they went through the Bermuda Triangle when they come after you. My Little One, fear not their plots and schemes. I know every one."

"Yea, the hour is late; but am I not true to My word that I shall guide you in all things and shall prepare a safe haven for you in the presence of your enemies? They shall seek you and not find you. They shall hunt you and come up empty-handed. Do you see, My Child? All you have to do is to obey My commands. And, I have commanded you to get ready. Is this not so?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"And, I have commanded you to do other things, which you have not done."

"My Lord, I know and I am ashamed that I have not done all."

"Shame is good, but it is useless in this case. For, I command you to do these things that you have what you need. Do these things I have commanded and do not wait another day. Do you hear?"

"Yes, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"You have been promised other blessings and I will not let you down. In all things, My Child, you are tried and tested."

"My Lord, I know. Please forgive me."

"Then, Child, make haste. There is not time to flounder around."

"Yes, My Lord."

"There are others, Child; and I am sending them your way. When I command, you will speak with them." "Yes, My Lord."

"Now, Child, I need two more days this week to write. Get up early and give me this. Do you understand?

"Yes, My Lord."

"I am Jesus. I am Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Precious are the Singing Children

True to His word, Our Lord sent others to help. He showed me these Precious Singing Children in a dream. Many of you have come forward and you have been such blessings to us. I pray that His hand rests upon your shoulders and that you are guided and kept safe at all times.

Resist evil and let go of the material hold on your lives. Strive to be true to our Lord and true to yourselves. Stay away from games of manipulation, as these will bring great darkness into your soul. Let go of any anger toward anyone and forgive that you may be forgiven. Do not give yourself too much importance, as this is the beginning of pride. We are all lowly and able to serve Our Lord only because of His precious love, mercy and grace.

Be at peace when all seems to go wrong; we all experience great trials. There are times to move forward and times to be still. When you feel yourself pushing against the river, be still and seek Our Lord. You may be pursuing a course, which is not right or not at the right time. Remember that when Our Lord's time is right, you will be at peace with your decision. Forgive yourself when you stumble and know that to err is human, but to recognize one's weaknesses is the beginning of wisdom.

To all of you Precious Ones sent our way, I encourage you to continue to seek Our Lord's will in all things. Let go of your own willfulness and be at peace in Our Lord; for He is the harbinger of our salvation. There is none other.

So, cling to Him with all your strength, realizing that soon He shall return; and remember: what you cling to in this world may be no more than a passing fancy. Love Our Father and Our Precious Jesus with all your heart, putting them first and loving yourself and your neighbor.

Even in the face of great persecution, we must love others, lest we get caught up in the curses of the Law. We must forgive that our Lord can forgive us. Every soul is precious to Him, even and especially those of us, who have strayed.

We must fight always to keep from sliding back into darkness once we have seen and known the Light of our Lord; and we must encourage the lost to seek our Lord's love, mercy and grace so long as we live. For, He would not have a single one be lost.

My Precious Brothers and Sisters, we cannot afford to sit back and do nothing. We must work, work, work; for the night is coming. But, we must realize that Our Lord Jesus is also returning very soon and He does not want any of His sheep to miss the bounty He has prepared.

You, My Precious Ones, are His messengers; and you must get busy.

CHAPTER NINE

The Spinning Top

"Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus. Yea, you are precious in My sight and to your Father, as you strive to do My will and that of your Father. Child, your path is no easy path; for you are at odds with the world; but worry not, My Little One, about those, who mock you and deride My purposes in you; for they live in darkness. Even some, who come under the guises of helping, only gossip and spread their versions of help. Steer clear of these, Child. For, the more you stir a boiling pot, the more it boils. Have you not been told by Me that I will take care of those, who come to harm you?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, Child, be at peace and be not concerned in how others behave; for, the hour is late."

"Yes, My Lord, it is very late; and I am beginning to worry so about the upheavals, which are coming."

"Child, where there is worry, there is no faith. Rather than worry, spend your time doing those things I have commanded you to do."

"My Lord, I know I need to be doing so very many things, but it seems that I have so very little energy. Please help me, as I have been so very oppressed."

"Child, this is known; but as I have told you so many times, 'You shall not want.' I provide a way for your needs to be met. There is no need to worry so."

"My Lord, I worry as the hour is late, but I worry not for myself. I worry for all of mankind; for most will not see what is ahead and I am deeply saddened for the plights of their souls."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, this is understood, but not one hair can be changed upon the head of another by time spent worrying. Stay in faith, My Little One, for in and through faith are borne many miracles. Indeed, the hour is late, but it is not late for Me. And it will not be late for you if you use your time wisely. So, do not put off until tomorrow what you can do today. See?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Now, Child, as you look around you see that you are atop My Holy and Radiant Mountain.

"Yes, My Lord, I see and I suddenly feel so free; for the air is so very pure and clean. It seems that I have no troubles at all when I am here amidst your pure Spirit and in the presence of such beauty. The wind of Your Spirit carries me amidst such pure freedom and I am so relieved to be away from all the clamor and darkness below, if for only a while."

"Child, look before you and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I see Moses and He is holding a Star of David, which is radiant with a bright fire. Moses places this star around my neck and it melts into the one I already have."

"Child," Moses says, "you have sent the prophecies to Israel and they pass them from one to another, dissecting, analyzing and criticizing. Some believe, but most do not. Yet, the prophecies have created a fire among them; for all fear that Germany shall rise again and that the USA shall fall. They fear to believe and they fear not to. Yea, many rabbis have read them."

"My Lord, what is this darkness at my feet?"

"Child, it is your fear."

"My Precious Lord, and Beloved Moses, please heal me of this fear."

"Yea, Child, ‘tis so," Moses says. Then he touches my head and I feel a bolt of energy like lightening; and the darkness flies past. In its place I see a great radiance and hear a rushing sound like that of flowing waters. And around me I see the flickering of fire."

"Be bold, My Little One," says Moses. You have been entrusted with much and you shall be entrusted with more. You are blessed, Child, to persevere amidst great hardships; and your needs shall be met. As I persevered, so shall you; and as I led so shall you. You will be strengthened, Little One, and guided by Your Lord and Father in all things."

Suddenly, I see the three unfinished books in my left arm and I am cradling them against my chest. An image of Hitler flashes before my eyes and I see him marching with a baton, his black boots glistening in the light. Hitler wears the look of a madman, his lips pursed and his face snarled with a grimace of anger. "I am back!" Hitler says. "And, I shall rule with an iron hand."

Then, I see the communist sickle come down on the Star of David and attempt to burn it. But, the star is strong and it repels the hit of the sickle. The sickle falls to the floor and it breaks into myriad pieces. Amidst the pieces of the broken sickle, I see a person wrapped in a green army blanket. It is Hitler and he rises with a crinkled map in his hands. He wipes his eyes and says, "Sleep on;" but I cannot understand the rest of his garbled words. Next, I hear him say, "I have a toy for you!" And Hitler takes a toy top from beneath the blanket and spins it over the crinkled map. The top spins quickly, then slowly as it comes to a halt and falls over Bethlehem. On Bethlehem is a Star of David; and it is burned into the map. "Tomorrow is another day," Hitler says; and he goes back to sleep.

As Hitler sleeps, a very large army forms outside his tent. There are many countries represented in this army and these are the ones I see: Germany, Russia, China, New World Order, Great Britain, Norway, Sweden, Canada, Australia, Argentina, and many others. They form a pass called Gilgal and perform maneuvers called ‘Top Secret.’ "My Lord, I am lost in all this."

"Child, tell me what you do not understand."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Well, I see myself with the three unfinished books, but why?"

"You are destined to finish them."

"And, Hitler?"

"The German will come after mine."

"But, the sickle breaks into myriad pieces."

"Yea, it breaks; for the evil shall not conquer Me."

"So, the Star represents you?"

"It does."

"Why is Hitler sleeping among the pieces?"

"Child, look at the pieces and read what you see."

"My Lord, I see the words, "Italy, China, Russia, Great Britain, Canada, the USA, Australia, the Baltic, Germany, South America, Iraq, Iran, Pakistan", and other smaller pieces."

"Tell me what this means."

"Child, these are the pieces of the communist puzzle, which shall disintegrate before Me, My Star of David. Yea, the sickle shall come to reap the harvest; but I do the harvesting. None other. The sickle may give the illusion of harvest, but is only an illusion."

"So, Hitler awakens from within the pieces?"

"Yea, from Germany."

"And, he takes over these forces?"

"He does."

"What about the spinning top?"

"The spinning top is history."

"Tell me more."

"What is written on the surface of the top?"

"Tigris and Euphrates."

"'Tis so."

"So, this area is Hitler's toy; and he uses the Arab countries located here as toys in his game, especially as regards the birthplace of Christ."

"Exactly."

"In other words, they are pawns; and they do not see this."

"You are correct."

"But, My Lord, the German loses."

"He will; as his toy flips first this way and then the other. Is this not what a top does? Flip first this way and then the other, until it spins out of control."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, Child, know that this is coming."

"So, we know that Hitler is about to wake up?"

"He is."

"And, we shall see this great wave of communism originating once more in Germany?"

"And, it shall engulf much of the world. Go in Me this day, Child; and be at peace. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TEN

The Lord is Our Treasure

Precious Child, behold yourself atop My pure and radiant Mountain. Feel the freshness of the wind of My Spirit upon your face and see your prophet's robe astir in the gentle breeze. Fill your nostrils with the smell of heavenly aromas and be soothed this day; for, I am at work in your life to clean out any and all darkness.

Woe to those, who spitefully try to harm you or My word. Woe, woe, woe, My Child, to the goats of the world. Woe to those, who are powered by ego and rebellion; for, I shall cut them low. They shall not stand in your face and tempt Me; for I am in you, Child. When they accuse you, they accuse Me; and when they abuse you, they abuse Me. When they lie about you, they lie about Me. Woe, woe, woe to those, who come up against you, seething with spite. For, I shall break their will and pour their wicked ways upon their own heads. They shall reap what they sow in great measure.

My patience runs very low with their ways and mine anger is astir. In secret, a number of people plan how they shall confound you and bring you down; but I confound them. I make them like babbling fools; for they have tempted Me. They have come up against One, they cannot and will not win over.

Time is running out for the spiteful, for they have chosen darkness over Me. They have rebelled against Me and Me in you. They have loved a lie and what a lie can do for them. They are walking on thin ice; and I repeat Child, 'They are walking on thin ice; and below them is a dark abyss.' This is the reward for those, who spitefully abuse Me and My word, for those, who tempt Me.

Now, My Precious One, enter the door into My Inner Sanctum and receive from My Tree."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Precious Lord, thank you for taking my burdens; for they are great. My heart is very full of sadness. Deliver me, My Lord, and make my journey light."

"Child, have faith in Me and know that I provide. Look up and behold Timothy before you. Child, he has a blessing for you."

"Oh, My Lord, how blessed am I. Glory to Your name and to Your precious ways."

Timothy approaches me; and his hands are radiant with the light of God. He touches my head and I feel such sweetness, such lightness and inner peace. "My Precious Friend," he says. "Blessed are you for your love of Our Precious Lord and Savior. Where you are, I have been in a different place in time. We know your hurts and pains and your sense of aloneness and despair. Be blessed this day with strength from our Lord Jesus and Father Jehovah. Be strengthened where you are weak. Be happy instead of sad; for the days spoken of so long ago have begun. These days are few and intense; and Lucifer shall rise against you from many sources; and he shall speak through many mouths, through family, friend and foe. Be not discouraged, but strengthened in the knowledge that the day of our Lord draws nigh. I bless you with a heart full of love and forgiveness and with a clear, alert mind and with clear vision and hearing. I bless you that no weight has place in your soul; and I bless you with a place of safe refuge and the means to get there and survive."

"Yea, the Earth, itself shall open up and swallow select ones among you; and the evil ones shall not find you. I bless you with great faith and with pureness of heart, mind, body, and soul. Be free, My Precious Friend and friend of God. Be free this day of all sadness and believe in the Lord and God of miracles in all things. Know that your every need is realized and that your Lord sees your obstacles long before you encounter them. Be at peace, Precious One, and fill you heart with forgiveness. For, forgiveness brings freedom and peace."

"Thank you, Timothy. Praises to our Lord and to our Precious Father."

Suddenly, I feel a great vibration within me and around me as Timothy holds his hands upon my head; and I hear a cracking and breaking, like the sounds of ice boulders in a river. Then, I hear sounds like that of great amounts of steam being released, followed by the sounds of many rushing waters. And, suddenly I find myself before a radiant waterfall, which glistens like glass. ‘Jump in,’ says Timothy. And, I jump into the glistening water and dive deeper and deeper. After a short while, I come to a rock far beneath the surface and on the rock are the words, ‘Jesus is the Rock.’ I feel a great release of all sadness and despair and watch the darkness of sadness and despair flow into the radiant river and dissolve.

Now, feeling free and light, I swim back to the surface of the glistening water and I sit on a radiant rock called ‘Jesus is the Rock.’ The glistening water hangs from me like sheets of pure liquid glass and the Spirit of God whistles around me like myriad nightingales.

"Be free, My Child,’ Jesus says. "For, I walk beside you and indwell you, lifting and carrying your burdens. Let go of all burdens; for your burdens are Mine. Child, these are not your obstacles, but Mine. Give all to Me; for I am strong and I am able to carry them."

"My Lord, these burdens have seen so great and insurmountable. They have been so great and I so small."

"Yea, but I am your strength."

"Child, feel the release of all that has troubled you. Let go of every last remnant. Let me have every last vestige. Child, do the simple things you know to do, and I will handle the rest. Feel the burdens of all go, which has worried you?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"And, in their place, Child, I put a treasure box in your heart. I fill this box with hope, love, forgiveness, purpose in me, faith, charity and truth. I give you boldness in Me and courage, and an abundance of My Spirit; and I provide help in all things. I give you peace and comfort and I give you a supply of all things needed to stand strong in Me and forge ahead. I am in you, child, and you in Me. See the last remnants of despair disappear. For, there is no need for despair, but of hope and direction in all things. Swallow this key, Child, which says, 'Jesus is My Key;' and in your time of need always remember this key. I am generous with you, Child, in all things. My Treasure Chest runs over within you and spills out through you, going in all directions."

"Forgiveness abounds for the lost and ignorant. As you have been lost and ignorant, forgive others, who are lost and ignorant. Do not get caught up in games of tit for tat and do not play games with anyone under any circumstances. When times are hard withdraw unto Me and My abundance of gifts and treasures within your heart."

"My Precious Lord, forgive me my weaknesses and forgive me for hard feelings against those, who have tried to sabotage me. Please, My Lord, forgive me this day and set me free of any hard feelings toward anyone. Strengthen me, My Lord, that I can forgive all; and deliver me from any and all hurt and anger. I beg You, My Lord, please forgive me of this and set me free in You. Please, please, please, I beg you, My Beloved Lord."

"Child, this day, you are forgiven all."

"My Lord, heal my memories. Please heal every emotion and every thought and heal every fiber of my being. Heal every wound of my spirit. I beg and pray this day for this total and complete healing."

"Child, before this day is over, you shall have this. Now, Little One, look before you."

"My Lord, I sit at this Page of Time and I begin to cry uncontrollably. My heart sheds tears, my soul sheds tears and tears flood from my eyes, seeping out of my skin and covering my robe. I put my head down on the timeline, as I cannot see. Suddenly, I look to see that the tears have accumulated beneath me to form a pure radiant block called 'Sorrow for Others, Sorrow for the World;' and I begin to cry anew.

Beautiful, white doves fly around me and whisper ‘love.’ "My Lord, I feel so loved in my sorrow. I feel so very loved, but still weep uncontrollably, not for myself, but for others, who are so lost."

"Child, this is known. Now, look before you on the timeline and record what you see."

"My Lord, my tears have bathed this page and roll down it like a stream. Beneath the stream of my tears, a great light shines and I hear a mighty voice, which says: ‘I am your Father in Heaven. Blessed are you, My Child; for you are persecuted for the sake of righteousness. Be free, My Child, of all walls and prisons of self put there by others. I make your journey light. Receive My peace, My Child; for I love you. You are precious to Me, for you labor beneath such oppression to do My Work. I send mine angels before you to slay 10,000; and I send them behind you to slay 10 million; and around you and above you they do battle. They surround you in your every waking moment; and in your sleep they watch over you."

"Darkness shall flee from you and evil shall have no place in or around you. For, your mission I chose you and anointed you long ago. Now, My Child, rejoice in Me. Rejoice in your mission. Be free of your sadness this day and rejoice in Me and My purposes in you. Blessed are you, Child, and blessed is your every step. Have no fear; for, I give you great faith. I AM God of the Universe and My plans shall not be foiled! Worry not about how you shall proceed. For, these plans are already in action. Trust in Me and in your Lord. Trust none other. For, all shall forsake you in some way at some point. Lean not upon them, but lean upon Me and My Son."

"Thank You, My Precious Father. Thank you, thank you, thank you. Glory to your Holy Name and to your will in all things. I bow down to You and praise You, My Father, My Glorious God! Have your will in my life. Make me flexible and fluid like your Holy, Divine River; and make me filled with this River and with your beautiful and pure Spirit. Precious, precious, precious is Your Holy name and perfect is Your Holy Will. Thank You, thank you, thank you, My Father!

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child be one with My will. This is My blessing to you this day. I give this to you, my Child. My purposes are your purposes and your purposes are Mine. I cast away all willfulness on your part and bathe you in my will. Be free this day, Child, and go about your day in peace. I am your Father."

"Praises to You, My Father. Praises, praises, praises to you. Glory to You, My Father, the Most High God."

"Now, Little One, as I have spoken, as your Father has spoken and as Timothy has spoken…'Be blessed this day and be free. I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Page Four Continues

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus; and this day I bathe you in My glory. I take your burdens and make your journey light. Fear not, My Child, how you shall make it, what you shall do, or where you shall go. Remember the birds of the fields. And, let go of your sorrow for the choices of others. What you see is open rebellion against Me. Today rebellion, tomorrow strong drink, prostitution and porno. For, rebellion brings darkness. This, as you know."

"Yes, My Lord; for I lived in the midst of it so many years and am only free by your loving grace."

"My Child, the goats are separated from My Sheep. Remember: My Sheep are humble and teachable."

"Yes, My Lord, but a part of me is very sad about what I see in others."

"Child, you can do nothing save pray. And, you know how to do this."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Now, Child, see yourself atop My Holy Mountain with a holy angel. You shall take a journey today. Write as seen and given."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, enter through the plain tent and then through the open door to My Inner Sanctum. Then, pick up the book on the small table."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Lord, I have this book, and it is labeled ‘My Journal’, undersigned by ‘Jesus, Lord of Earth.’"

"Very well, Child, go to Page Four and record what you see."

"My Lord, The Book opens to Page Four and I see Turkish dancers, or some kind of Arabic dancers. I even hear bagpipes playing; and this is a strange combination."

"Yea, Child, to you, but not to me."

"My Lord, I follow the line of dancers to a small tent and in the tent I see Queen Elizabeth, who is conversing with Saddam Hussein. On the table before them is a crystal ball; and the Queen says, ‘What kind of weather shall we have today?" "I don’t’ know," Hussein replies. "Very well," the Queen says, "let us reload past midnight. In the darkness of the new moon, they shall not see. But, we shall see." "Yes," Hussein says, "this is so."

"Then, My Lord, the dancers are gone. Even the tent has vanished; and I see only an aircraft carrier out at sea. It is anchored; and I see soldiers scurrying and unloading boxes labeled ‘guns and ammo.’ Also, I see missiles and several large bombs. ‘This is top secret,’ the Queen says. ‘Not even my advisors know.’ ‘Oh, yes, Hussein says, ‘No one must know.’"

"Then, My Lord, I see a mad-made star; and it is blinking over Syria. Suddenly, a man appears beneath the star and his name is ‘Backstabber and Conman.’ He carries a pistol with a long barrel bearing the words, ‘Dead Man’s Paradise.’ Backstabber wears black knee pants with a white ruffled shirt, his eyes as black as coal; and he taps the heels of his ebony shoes, one, two, three times. Each time they come together, they create a spark; and with each spark rats scamper hither and yon. On the backs of the rats are the words, ‘Saddam’s Men.’"

Backstabber exudes darkness, but he is crafty, wise as the old owl and as dangerous as the most poisonous of serpents. When he opens his mouth, his teeth drip blood and on the blood are the words, ‘Red with the Blood of the Saints.’ ‘I howl at the moon,’ Backstabber says.

‘I break the neck of Cuba,
And destroy the arm of Castro.
I knee the Russian bear in the stomach;
And cause it to vomit blood.
I gouge out the eyes of China;
And I own Israel.
The Jew is me!
Hee hee!
See, see!
I own the whore
That bore the man with the plan
To save the necks of the sheep.
Poo, poo on you
If you believe in things unseen.
Believe in me;
And see firsthand my power.
I am God.
See!’

And, he raises his hands and summons a line of clones, their skin as white as pure chalk, a stark contrast to their dark and piercing black eyes.

‘I hide in the shadows,’ says Backstabber;
And when they are complacent,
Slow or unsuspecting,
I pounce.
See poor Israel.
See England.
See France,
Germany and more.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

See Greece,Italy, and Bermuda.
Poor Bermuda,
It is all mine!
They think they're wise,
T he UN –Nited Nations;
But what fools!.
No one can lie
And deceive like me.
I have many ages
Of stealth and deception.
No one can compare to me!
Hee, hee!'

"My Lord, in your holy name, I call down curses upon this evil, to bind it and shut it up!"

"Oh, Child, I shall do more than this. And, even though many shall die; and many saints shall come home, bathe in eternal victory over this evil, others of you shall remain behind to be a great sore in the side of this evil. For, I shall blind them to your presence. They will look at you and not see you, listen to you and not hear you. Yea, I shall confound them. Believe me, Child, you hear the words of a babbling fool. For, he believes that he usurps the power of God, when in fact he does only what your Father allows. I am the victor; and those, who follow Me, who believe in and trust Me, are saved from this evil, whether in life or death. See, Child?"

"Oh, yes, My Lord, I know this to be true. My Lord, about the arms dealings between the Queen and Hussein. Is she going to give him arms?"

"Child, she has sold them covertly already."

"Why?"

"To help whip you."

"But, why My Lord?"

"So, she can rule the world."

"My Lord, this does not make sense; as she now fights in this war."

"My Child, much has been done, which does not make sense. You need to know that when the weapons were sold, she did not anticipate being a part of this war."

"As you say, My Lord, their plans shall not come out as they think; and each shall turn on the other in their quest for world control. Changing the subject somewhat, My Lord, I read recently of the possibility that the Church of England may change their doctrine so that Charles can marry Camilla. He is divorced and as I understand it, this church policy forbids him to be king."

"Yes, Child, you see this; but it will not work. Do you believe that Charles will be king?"

"My Lord, you have shown problems in this."

"Child, a great anger is stirred up in England and Great Britain, even around the world toward the Queen. For, it is known that she orchestrated the deaths of Princess Diana and Dodi. Your Father shall raise the ire of the masses against Charles and Camilla; and the Church of England will be closed in a short while. Have you not seen this?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"I ask you again, My Lord, ‘Will there be a war between the USA and Iraq this month?’ I fear that I have seen wrong."

"Your fears are known; and I know that you wish to make no assumptions; but look at the letter before you. Open the tab on the letter and pull out the contents."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Lord, I pull out a large paper gun with a white flag attached, bearing the words, ‘Peace Efforts Failed.’ On the other side of the flag are the words, ‘Hussein caught with large cash of arms.’ Does this happen in October?"

"Child, look on the boots of the US soldier before you. What do you see?"

"My Lord, on the boots of the soldier, I see a door, which pops open. Behind the door is a flap, which also opens as it is pushed open by a large spring. Atop the spring is a heavy piece of metal, which radiates a great amount of light. This light blinds me for a moment, but I am able to reach out and touch this piece of metal. On this piece of metal is October 1998. So, the USA will go to war with Hussein in October of ’98?"

"You have seen this date."

"And, we are being pulled into this somehow by the Queen?"

"Have you not seen this?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"But, Child, remember the falling out between the Queen and Clinton. And remember past visions of illegal arms sales?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, remember that much double-dealing and sneaking is going on. They are all cutthroats; they lie and steal, and none of them can be trusted."

"My Lord, You are the Light of my life. Have your will in my life and in all things."

"Child, you are about to undergo great changes in your personal life. But, know that this must be. Trust in me. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

Note: ON the 31st of October 1998, Saddam Hussein was once more defiant in his position towards the UN inspectors. No one knew where this would lead; and we were poised to invade him in November, but at the last minute, Our Father intervened in this war. However, lasting peace was not to continue in this region, with an invasion by the United Stated and English forces coming about only a very few weeks later. This war continues, an undeclared war.

And, if you are keeping up, you see US allies among the Arab States diminishing and more of them calling for a halt to the bombings within the no-fly zone. Iraq no longer recognizes any agreements with the United Nations and is being pumped up by a number of her Arab neighbors, and by Russia, China and others. This is no longer a war concerning the USA, England and Iraq, but has become a hotbed for global war. And, we shall see this war escalate ever further, unless our Father intervenes with a miracle. But, I have doubts as to whether this shall ever come to pass, as the USA is going to be judged for its role in aggression and its support of Clinton's abominable behavior, which seems to come to light more and more each day.

CHAPTER TWELVE

MERCIFUL IS OUR GOD JEHOVAH

This morning, I awoke with an old spiritual tune on my lips. It rang from my heart and sang from my soul … "Victory in Jesus."

So many months, I have cried over the fates of millions regarding a war on December 12th of this year. When others were sleeping, I was up at 2:00 or 3:00 AM, praying, weeping and anguishing over the fates of millions of lost souls. Many nights, I have cried myself to sleep, only Our Lord Jesus knowing of my despair. So many times, our merciful Jesus has taken this unbearable load.

Last week, as I was weeping, broken before our Beloved Lord, He spoke to me and said, "Read the 91st Psalm." When I read these precious words, they were like a soothing ointment to my aching soul. Find this in your Bible and read it. Memorize it; and in your periods of despair lean upon these divine words. They will heal your aching soul.

As we were poised to begin a war with Iraq last week, all of us witnessed a miracle from Our Father Jehovah. At the last minute, His Powerful Hand dipped down and said, "No," to this war. Again, He stayed this war with Iraq, our memories still fresh with how He dipped His hand into Kosovo and said, "Let there be peace!"

Most people have absolutely no idea that if this war had ensued we would now be revving up for WWW III. This war with Iraq is ever so closely tied to the War on December 12, 1998. By avoiding this war, we have avoided an imminent invasion of this country, but only for now. Every day you live in peace is a day given to you by your Father in Heaven. Every day past December 12th that this country is not invaded by Russia and her allies is one day borrowed from God. (See the words of our Lord Jesus, which follow.)

MERCIFUL IS OUR GOD!

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus. Blessed are you, My Little One, for you persevere in your Father's work amidst great trials. See that I have brought you back to new heights upon My Holy Mountain. Yea, this ledge is narrow with room for only one to stand at a time, yet it is a space coveted by all disciples. For My vision in you is keen and my hearing in you is sharp. Yea, my mind and voice in you bring you to greater spiritual levels, heretofore unknown by you.

Yea, My Child, you worry about your footing on this narrow ledge, but know that if you did not first have the footing you would not be here. Be at peace this day, My Little One, and worry not for the war on the 12th of December. For, as you have been told, this has been averted through mighty prayer on the parts of many. But, do not get lackadaisical, as many shall, when they see that it does not come on this date. For, it shall come! As so many have begged and prayed and sought Our Father's mercy in this, this war will be forestalled, but you will see this threat return. How long Your Father shall stay His hand in this, even I cannot tell. But, it is only a short while before you shall see a re-run of the same. See the date before you…'January 10,1999', and it is very clear."

"Yes, My Lord, I see this clearly. It seems that I see all with a new intensity and focus."

"Yes, My Child, this is from a fresh and powerful anointing of My Spirit."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"And, my hands are aglow with this powerful bright fire."

"Yes, Child, this is for healing and for anointing prayer cloths, which you are to send to the needy. Now, Child, I know that you want to get on with Book IV. So, enter the door to your right and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, this door lifts up and makes room for me to enter. All is bathed in pure white and glows with this pure radiance of God. And unlike so many times past, this light does not hurt my eyes. Being on this new level seems to strengthen me in many ways. Suddenly, I see before me a very odd creature, which looks like a monster created of man. Atop this white horse, this monster rides, its thick, white, sticky hair flowing behind, reminiscent of sharp strands of fiberglass. The teeth of this monster are locked in a permanent grin and look like they are made of steel, painted white. Its eyes are wide open with bars and dollar signs filling them. Its ears are huge and shaped like satellite dishes and now and then it blows steam from its mouth.

In the belly of the horse is a man wearing a green military uniform; and he runs up and down stairs from the head to the feet of this monster. Inside this creature, there is no light, save that, which comes from all the computers. Now and then, the man inside utters, ‘Ready, set, go!" And when he says this, the mouth of the creature opens and a bomb falls out. It does not explode but runs down a hill and into an arsenal and disappears into darkness. On the white horse are the letters, ‘UN’, and on the creatures back are the words ‘UN Machine.’

Suddenly, Hussein appears and puts a coin in the creature’s mouth and it clinks as it goes down. Quickly, the horse takes off, its feet in motion, but it goes nowhere, much like a toy machine in motion. My Lord, please explain."

"Child, you see the UN Machine, which looks fierce. Yet, inside is a man at the controls, who makes sure that the UN goes nowhere."

"My Lord, who is this man?"

"Child, see the Rothschild buzzard situated atop the control panels. And on the back of the man are the words, 'Rothschild Whore.'

"Yes, My Lord."

"Then, Child, know that this machine, which is funded by US dollars, gives the appearances of doing things, of going places, but this is just for show. Now and then Hussein feeds the machine a token..."

"But, My Lord, what is this token?"

"Child, see ... it is a Rothschild token, and on it are the words, 'Germany in charge.'"

"So, Hussein believes that the USA is a paper tiger?"

"Child, have you not seen that your military is controlled by foreign forces? Have you not seen also how they control your monetary system, how they manipulate your stock market and control your media? Have you not seen how they stifle truth and mold the minds of the masses through fake polls and media mind control?

Child, the great masses believe media lies every day. The Luciferian way is subtle and ever subversive. Only those, who seek truth and wisdom, with all their hearts will receive it; and Lucifer will persecute you for loving and seeking truth. But, My Child, remember: Your Father is in control of all. He hears the cries of the Sincere of Heart; and your cries have caused Him to stop this impending war, just as your cries caused Him to stop the would-be wars against the Serbs and Iraqis.

Many will come back to God because of these prophecies, Child; and this will happen around the world as people open up their eyes and want to live by and serve Truth; for in Truth is freedom. Yet, to live by Truth requires great discipline and vigilance. You may have to fight very hard to get Truth and you will be persecuted for telling it. But, stick together and do not give in to evil forces. Even if it means losing your life to causes of Truth and Righteousness, hold your ground and do not give up."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Bless all of us, who love Truth, Precious Lord, and give us added strength and determination to love Truth, to live Truth and follow Truth so long as we live, no matter how difficult life may be!"

"This is My blessing to all, Child, who seek after Me and My Truth: 'I shall bless you with wisdom and I shall bless you with an inner peace and freedom. Even though others may incarcerate you or take your lives, I shall give you the greatest freedom you shall ever know … ETERNAL VICTORY OVER THE EVIL CONTROLS OF LUCIFER. This, My Precious Ones, is worth every bit of your strength and perseverance so long as you live.

Do not hide your light under a basket and do not go in fear; but go with faith in Me and with power and strength from your Father. Visit your neighbors. Love the lost and confounded and pray for all, even your enemies; for you never know when one will come back home, once lost but now saved.

Begin each day with a greater conviction to love your Father and serve His purposes; and love Me, as I deeply love you. For, I am your Shepherd and your key to eternal salvation. Your Father has given me this responsibility and precious honor to serve and bless each of you with peace, love over-flowing, joy, hope, charity and all, which is good and lasting. Fear not, My Precious Little Ones. But, have faith; for, I come for you very, very soon. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

As dictated and recorded this 20th day of November 1998.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

A Return of War

"Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. See the many angels in white, who stand around you. I have sent them, Child, to be with you each day. Fear not the oppressions of the world; and remember that you are only visiting, that you are sent by your Father for His works in these last days."

"Yea, Child, you are excluded from the circles of latter-day prophets, as these scorn you in private, but lack the courage to do so in public. Child, spend no thought in this, but continue to do what I have singled you out to do. And worry not that women are not recognized as apostles in these same groups; for they will be; as I shall make it so."

"Child, you are greatly loved; for you have been given many trials, one of the greatest being to carry the message that reincarnation is true. Huge numbers have reviled you because of this; and some have stolen some of the prophecies I have given you, and placed their names on them. Child, I shall scorn those, who steal; for thieves and liars shall not have any place in your Father's Kingdom."

"Now, Little One, your Father has a message for you: 'My Chosen One, I know of your great trials and sorrows for a world gone awry. I am merciful to the cries of many about the date of December 12, 1998. Yet, others revile you and curse you and withdraw from you, for they do not know and believe my love and mercy. They swear that I do not change my mind and that you are a liar. Child, I am merciful to those, who love me, but my patience runs low for the loud and pushy. I have little tolerance for those, who know it all. Yours, My Little One, has been a particularly difficult role, as my messages through you are flatly rejected by the greatest numbers. This is sadness to Me; for I have sent you, My Child, as a prophet and apostle. And, I am sending you a special blessing for your faithfulness. I know the financial struggles you and your husband have and I am sending you a financial miracle of substantial portions.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

You do not realize this, but these prophecies have been read and shared by hundreds of thousands. Even those, who criticize you, read them in secret. These prophecies are hot topics in round table discussions, which are done in secret. But, these same ones fear to come out and blaspheme you; for too many of My words have come to pass already.

Continue on, My Little One; for I am anointing you with greater truths and more spiritual power and freedom. Just know that these gifts are coming. I have chosen you and I shall bless you mightily to continue with these books. Know that this power is coming and with it more and greater revelations. Worry not about what others think or how My truths through you are discarded; for I shall raise you up to do mightier works still. Get ready to travel; for you shall; and you shall go in peace and freedom. And in My Precious Son's name, you shall perform many miracles."

"My Father, I am so humbled by your precious words; and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your direction. I know that you are aware of our needs long before we ever encounter them. I only wish your will for us; and that we be instruments in your hands. I have only one request; and that is that one day I be allowed to see and speak with our Beloved Gabriel or Archangel Michael. Is this asking too much?"

"My Child, when you expect it least, I shall send Gabriel. He shall visit you three times before you leave the earth sphere; and he shall teach you. I shall prepare you in spirit to receive him and to know that I, the Father, have sent him; and he shall bring my blessings and anointings. Go in peace, My Child and with my love. I am your Father Jehovah."

"Father, might I ask another question?"

"When will the war against the USA be, this invasion we have spoken of so often?"

"Child, on the 12th of December, you shall come very close. (This is when North Korea threatened to invade the USA. It may have seemed like idle chatter, but they were backed by China and Russia; and this scheming is still going on.) But, I shall intervene. Watch the 10th of January and the end of February 1999. (As if the week of March 10, 1999 when I am typing this chapter, we have seen an escalation of the war in Iraq and more talk of war in Kosovo. Most recently, Boris Yeltsin is reported to have said that if the USA does not leave Iraq and Yugoslavia alone, his weapons of mass destruction might accidentally go off against the USA. All the while, China is threatening the USA about building relations with Taiwan and the war pot is boiling hotter and hotter. Never can I remember so many countries wanting to invade the USA and/or to make war with us. We are facing WWW III right here in the USA and very soon.) Later, My Son shall show you their new plans for attack. Child, these new plans shall fall in the spring of 99, but these, too, CAN BE avoided for a short while."

"How long shall we avoid this, My Father?"

"Child, you will not make it through the year of '99."

"We will not?"

"You will not."

"You mean, no amount of prayer will stop this?"

"This war will not be stopped, but I can lessen it to some degree, depending upon the prayers and steadfastness of My Faithful. I am giving you more time because I am merciful. Be steadfast, My Child, and finish these books. I am with you."

"My Secret Door to All"

"Precious Child, I am Master Jesus. As you have sought Me and your Father long in prayer, asking, even begging for greater truths, I have brought you once again to this steep ledge high upon My Holy Mountain. Yea, the air is rarefied and it is cool, a swift breeze blowing. You are bathed in My Spirit, so fear not, My Child. You are here because you have been tried and found worthy. Now, turn and walk through the door named 'My Secret Door to All,' and you will find yourself in a long corridor. In this corridor are many doors and around your waist are many keys, a key for each door. Take the first key, Child called 'Love and Sanctity;' and open the door before you. Then, write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I feel so old, so worn and tattered as I reach down for the key; for it is so radiant, pure and glistening with the Light of God. I wear this old, tattered robe of humility, which you gave me a number of months ago. These surroundings are so beautiful and I feel so unworthy to be in the midst of such a Holy Place.

The key fits the lock well; and as it clicks the door swings open readily. Before me is a party with people mingling and a group of musicians. The singer appears to be singing reggae and these are the words I hear him singing:

"I'm so tired and I wanna go home.
Look around me,
There is nothing to see.
I'm so tired and I wanna go home.
Look to the left, look to the right;
But, there is no relief in sight.
I'm so tired and I wanna go home.
Who's gonna care,
When I'm dead and gone?

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

I'm so tired and I wanna go home.
Here I am no penny to my name.
Can't take a boat, a ship, or a plane.
I'm so tired and I wanna go home.
My money's all gone,
No food to eat.
I'm so tired and I wanna go home,
Help me, Lord,
I'm sinking fast.
I'm so tired and I wanna go home."

"My Lord, this is a sad song."

"Yes, My Child; and it is the song of millions. Yea, even billions, who have lost sight of God's purposes. For, they are caught up in the illusions of the world and cannot see past another song or festival. They are lost, Child."

"My Lord, I understand it all as I have been there."

"Continue on, Child."

"The musicians and the party disappear, save a distant beat of drums, and I continue now amidst a scene of pure white hills and trees. Snow is all about, and it is very cold; and snow steadily falls, covering my shoulders and the hood of my robe and. My feet are becoming very cold; even my breath makes smoke as I furiously rub my hands together. I must dance a jig to get my circulation going because the cold is beginning to settle in all over me. Just ahead, a single red bird comes to light in the snow-covered tree. Beyond the redbird in another tree is a lone bluebird. But, upon closer inspection, I see that the blue bird is fake, much like those put in floral arrangements. It looks real, but its feet are tied to the branches with twine. Its lifeless body is pushed about furiously by the swift breeze, but it clings to the tree fervently. What a strange contrast between the blue bird and the red bird; and these white surroundings only magnify this contrast.

Looking again at the red bird, I see that it is beginning to create steam. Quickly, it swells with this steam; and before my very eyes, it explodes, leaving a hole of darkness. Suddenly, I am caught up in this darkness and carried forth through this very hole. I find myself out on a ledge looking down at twinkling lights far below in a valley. Within the darkness below, I am able to discern military tents; and here and there are fires, dotting the night terrain. From within the darkness, I hear someone speaking German; and a German officer emerges saying, "She is a whore; and we must bring her down." "Yes," another German says, ‘and it shall come when she expects it least, at the height of her International Peace Conference."

"My Lord, ‘International Peace Conference?’"

"Continue, Child."

"Then, the German takes a paper, which is rolled up and unties the string, which binds it. On the paper are the words, "International Peace Conference, Berlin, June 1999."

"My Lord, have I seen right in the date of June 1999?"

"You have seen this. Continue on."

"Then, the man with the paper disappears and I find myself in a room, where I clearly see Saddam Hussein conversing with a German leader. "We shall take them out before sunrise," the German says. "It shall work, as we have the Russians, and the Chinese; and the Arab Alliance is building. We can count on Turkey, Iran, Syria, Jordan, France, Mexico and Nicaragua. Then, I see the German and Hussein take two shiny swords, both placing his sword in contact with that of the other. A pact has been made on the table, which bears the words, ‘deceit and treachery.’ And, as the swords lie in contact with one another, huge flames shoot skyward, making a roaring fire, which bears the words, ‘Death to the USA.’ As the fire rages, Hussein and the German join arms in a dance, singing the words, "We’re off to see the Wizard…"

"So, My Lord, Hussein worships Lucifer…?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, he is owned and controlled by him. Continue on."

"As they dance, My Lord, a trap door swings open beneath them; and I see them fall down, down, down, and land in front of the great frog, named ‘Rothschild Man.’ The frog whistles a tune I am not familiar with. It is much like that of a nightingale, very melodic and pleasing to the ear. But, suddenly I hear ominous drumbeats, which remind me of those in the funeral procession of President Kennedy; and suddenly I see the German army, marching back and forth, with red bands on their sleeves. Written on the red bands are the words, ‘Germany will rule the world.’

Suddenly, the frog takes a whip and begins to beat Saddam Hussein. He beats him until he makes red stripes all over his back; and as he beats Hussein, he mumbles words I do not understand. However, the Spirit of God readily translates them as ‘Ride Nigger!’ Suddenly, Hussein raises up and the red stripes on his back are ablaze with roaring red and yellow flames; and these flames quickly engulf him surrounding him with a great fire.

Totally unexpectedly, Hussein takes a hula hoop and begins to gyrate with it. There are words written around the rim of the hoop; and these are the words I see:

'I will not be conquered by the USA.
Pray and fast, pray and fast…
Phooey!
God is dead!
Jesus is a liar!
I will not be brought down by the Evil Whore!'

Suddenly, the hoop breaks and white balls of fire fall out of the whoop. They look somewhat like fiery mothballs; and they begin to make caustic fumes. Hussein grabs his nose and runs for cover, but the fumes burn him. They burn his nose and his eyes and he is stumbling, but does not fall. When I look closely at the balls, I see the words, ‘USA Assassination Plot.’ ‘But, the plot did not work,’ growled Hussein! Steam pours from his eyes, his nose and mouth as Hussein boils with rage. I see a date of March 22, 1999.

Next, I see Saddam Hussein riding a tricycle, pedaling along in the desert with ease. On the wheels of the tricycle, I see the words, 'infanticide and murder' and on the handlebars is the word, 'stealth.' As he journeys along in the desert, he comes to a swift creek; and attempts to pass over the rock bed, but as he enters the creek, called 'Swift justice,' the tricycle bogs down in quicksand. The creek is called UN Sanctions and the quicksand is named 'self-deceit.'

Quickly, the quicksand sucks Hussein down, down, down until he reaches a room far beneath the rock bed. In this room are many computers and a few people milling around, quietly working. Someone from France comes up and gives Hussein money; also someone from Turkey gives him money. Iran, Turkey and Russia give him military supplies. Syria gives him arms and Jordan gives him money. Lebanon gives him arms and the Chinese give him money and arms. Afghanistan gives him terrorists and others give him aid so that he can stand up to the USA. Across the foreheads of all present are the words, 'USA Haters.'

Hussein smokes a cigar and passes it to each one. On the cigar are the words, 'Our Plan to Bring Down the USA.' The date, May 15, 1999 appears and outside I see huge atomic clouds appear on the horizon as Russia gears up for war against the USA. China also prepares for this war and their other allies stand in line for a ticket called, 'USA Control.'

Standing before all of them now, I see the Rothschild Frog, who says, 'My Pockets are without limits; and I will provide for all, who bring her down.' Then, all applaud as the vision disappears."

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

A Message from Mother Teresa, and More

"My Precious Little One, others cannot grasp the fact that your Father has spared you this war on the 12th of December, though it is a stay of hand at the last moment. But, you have not seen all as regards this Dec. 12th date. Open your sleepy eyes, Child, and observe from your stance on My Holy Mountain."

"My Lord, I stand high upon Your Mountain, and rub my eyes, as truly it is early in the morning; but as I look far below I clearly see the old, red dragon. He is snorting smoke and fire from his nostrils; and surely he would destroy all, save for the loving interventions of You and Our Beloved Father. I could not imagine the depth of darkness in this world without the love of God!"

"Child, continue on; and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, the dragon is gone and I see faces emerge from within the darkness below. I see Saddam Hussein and, Yassar Arafat; and behind them is the Egyptian head of state. Around the Egyptian are the Turkish dancers and representatives of Iran. They meet in secret; but I hear the precious Spirit of God say, 'See others. See Afghanistan. See Jordan and Syria. Even Kuwait has sent representatives. Child, this is a very large meeting of Arab countries, with even Saudi Arabia present; and they are planning communist takeover of the USA. See them backed by Germany, Russia, China, France and others. This consortium is growing daily. Their hate for the USA is also growing; and you do not diminish this by your growing aggression and decadence.'"

"Tell me more of their plan, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, their plan is to hit you in the midst of your Christmas season, even on December 12, 1998. But, it shall be foiled by your Father; and it shall not come to pass."

"So, do they have another date set at this time?"

"Child, the date they have set is Dec. 12, 1998."

"My Lord, people have no idea how blessed they are. They just cannot imagine your mercy and love and that of Our Precious Father. They are sleeping and you are listening to the cries of a few, who are awake and pleading before you day and night for mercy. Please, please, please continue to have mercy on our souls."

"Child, feel the fire of the Spirit of God as it descends upon you in greater measure. Stand in this peace, love and joy; and know that you are greatly loved. Then, reach down, Child, and take the key, which says, 'hope and isolation;' and open the door before you. As you enter the door, you will find yourself inside My Holy Mountain and in the corridor containing many doors. Continue on to the second door and you will find the key called 'charity'. Take the 'charity' key and place it in the lock. Unlock the door, go in; and write as seen and given."

"I open the door; and straightaway, I see Mother Teresa. She is bathing the head of an Indian child, who is dying. On her heart are the words, 'My heart is pure;' and on her feet are the words 'love for the sick, the hurt and the dying.' Around her waist is a band with the words, 'I love the poor, the destitute, and the wretched;' and across her head are the words, 'I am a Saint.'"

"Mother Teresa," I say, "You are a harbinger of such love and strength; and I am truly blessed to meet you. How precious you are, My Sister.'

"Take this child's feet, My Friend; and touch them. They burn hot with the dark fevers of the masses. Feel his breath; it is hot with the disease of aids, for which there is no cure. See his backside which if full of sores. I weep for him, My Friend. Do not let my people go with no one. Pray for the people of India and help them, My Sister. They are in a grave way, lost to sickness and disease, and given to every kind of spiritual demon."

"My Beloved Sister, how I thank you for coming to show me this and to tell me about these hurting souls. I will begin straightaway to pray for India and to do as our Lord Jesus Christ directs me to do about India."

Then, I reach out and hug Mother Teresa; and she is frail and very thin. She hugs me briefly; I feel her deep grief, and I know I must do what I can for India. For, suddenly I feel as if every burden in the world is cast upon me; and the weight is more than I can bear. Deep sadness grips me and I cannot stop crying for all these sick and hurting souls; as they have no person to love them.

Mother Teresa continues to rub the child's feet; and in a moment she reaches into her pocket and says, 'Here, My Sister, take this ring and wear it in remembrance of India. I reach out and take the ring, noticing an inscription on the interior rim…'Love for India and its people.' And, I place the ring on the middle finger of my left hand, as it is too large for me. Then, I fall to me knees and weep, thanking our Lord and Father for this Precious Saint, who did so much for so many. I weep profusely and cannot stop. Then, Mother Teresa comes over and touches me on the left shoulder, 'Do not weep, My Beloved Sister. Be strong; for your trials have only begun in some ways. Go with charity towards the hurting and the lost and they will bless you through their simple love. Never give up on charity; for charity will never give up on you.' Then, Mother Teresa vanishes; and I look at the ring, feeling it and wondering what I shall ever do with it. For, I feel so unworthy to wear it. I look up suddenly to see our Precious Jesus standing before me; and I bow down on my face before Him."

"Get up, Child. Rise. For, I have a blessing for you. Take the lay of fresh flowers and wear it around your neck; for, it is a gift sent your way by the saints of the Most High. In it are interwoven many blessings; for you have been through great trials and this is a gift of love. Count your blessings and add one very special blessing this day; for before this day is over you shall receive one; and when it happens, you will know that it comes about through the intervention of saints in your Father's Kingdom. Your work is often with very few rewards from others, but I am sending one your way. Be humble in this, Child; for one is touched to help you in this work."

"Now, Little One, dust off your robe; and take the gold sash, placing it around your waist."

"How shall I wear it as I have the ring of keys around my waist?"

"Worry not, My Child. Just place it around your waist and tie it with a simple knot."

"Yes, My Lord." I readily tie the knot; and am suddenly swept into the radiant aquamarine waters of the River of Life. I go down, down, down in this clear river; and it occurs to me that I should be concerned about breathing, but amazingly, breathing in this pristine water renews me. As I take in the water, and it expands within me, filling me as tautly. Deeper and deeper, the River carries me, filling me with love, until finally I come to an area of white sand, which is very inviting.

"Child, let go of all your worries, that you may swim freely."

"My Lord, tell me of the worries you see?"

"You worry that you have seen wrong about the Dec. 12th date; and you worry that you may be responsible for anyone's falling away from God because Dec. 12th did not come to pass as you were made to see."

"Yes, My Lord, I do worry about this and whether I was somehow at fault, even though Our Father gave us a reprieve from this war."

"Child, you have written as you have seen. Now, place the block of worry on the white sand and let it go."

"My Lord, this block suddenly materializes in my hands and I place it on the glistening sand, as you advise." Before me, the block explodes readily into myriad light formations and it is totally gone. Feeling very thin, light and free, I am now swept along in the splendor of this beautiful River, its healing currents pushing me along in complete freedom.

This beautiful and living gift from our Father heals every wound and fills every void with complete peace and joy. This beautiful and perfect river sings a perfect melody, which makes my soul sing praises to our Father, our God Jehovah. How, I love this river; and in great freedom, I dive deeper and deeper, living each moment caressed in the pure love of our Father's creation. Precious Lord, tell me about this wondrous river."

"Child, it is straight from your Father; and it flows the length of heaven itself. And, as you swim it now, realize that you are on the outer edges of Heaven."

"My Lord, how often shall I be able to swim it?"

"Child, so long as you have the key to charity."

"What do you mean, My Lord?"

"So long as you practice love and forgiveness in the highest form, you will have the key to charity."

"Oh, my Precious Jesus, please, please, please help me to be worthy; for there is no other reason to live, save to do the will of our Father. You know, My Lord, how hard this journey is and how others seem to come from nowhere in deception. But I know that I must forgive them and pray for them, that their souls do not go down into the Pits, and that they find and know you, My Beloved Lord, before it is too late."

"Yes, My Little One, I know that your journey is difficult and that others have tried to hurt you; but forgive them and pray for them every day, lest they surely wind up in the Pits. For, some have come across your path, who love a lie. They are tools of Lucifer. Child, abhor their works of darkness, but love their lost souls, as Mother Teresa has loved them. However, do not allow them to control you or to stop my works through you, Child. And, remember that I am with you in all things. Now, Little One, as you find yourself back on the sands far down in the River, you will see a treasure chest beside you. Open this chest and take out its contents."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Lord, I open it and see that the chest is loaded with all manner of jewelry. I see a pearl necklace and other kinds of rings and bracelets. I am not sure why this is here, as you know that I no longer care much for jewelry."

"Yea, Child, but this is not the jewelry that you have on earth."

"Then, what is it, My Lord?"

"Child, this is heavenly jewelry. Eat it."

"Eat it?"

"As I have said, 'Eat it.'"

"Very well, My Lord, I take this pearl necklace in hand and fill my mouth with it. I bite down on it and hear it crunching beneath my teeth. The pearls have turned into small rocks and they fill my mouth, which seem to have the shape of diamonds. On closer inspection, I see that this is true. As on previous occasions, I ingest them and realize that they are filling me with sparking, white light. I reach for a bracelet and eat it in like manner. Then, I pick up an assortment of jewelry, eating it piece by piece, until I have finally eaten every piece. Many varied explosions erupt within me and I look down to see that words within them spell, 'Heavenly Knowledge and Wisdom.' All these explosions have brought great light into me and have brought a pure radiance. The last item in the treasure box is a very small box, which is neatly wrapped. As I begin to unwrap the box, I suddenly realize that the river has cast me out, and I am sitting in a small room. I am in the living room of a small house on a hill. A friendly poodle named Bozo nuzzles my ankle; and I pick him up in my arms as we both look out across the hills and valleys. A misty fog prevails outside and a fire burns in the fireplace. Above the fireplace is the date, April 1999. My Lord, where am I?"

"Your new home."

"Please tell me more."

"This is a gift from your Father. Be at peace, Child, and know that your needs have been provided for. Even now, this provision has been made. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

Great is the Love of Our Lord!

"My Precious Child, I am Master Jesus. Blessed are you among women, for you have been tried and tested and found worthy. Yea, your Father is full of love and mercy toward His creations; but His love and mercy are poured out freely on the righteous. Yea, My Child, He bears the cries of the righteous and they are most worthy unto the Most High. Now, Little One, I have anointed you anew and brought you back to this new spot, high upon My Holy Mountain. Child, the wind of My Spirit warms you, but the air is cool and brisk. Take the key of humility, My Child, and enter through the door, which leads to a corridor with many doors. Walk to the third door and take the key form your waist, which beckons to you. On it are the words, 'Desires of One's Heart;' and place it in the lock and open the door. Then, write as seen and given."

"My Lord, the key fits and I hear a click as the lock opens. But, the door is divided into two parts. The top half swings open, but the lower half does not move. How shall I enter?"

"Child, see the words on the top half, 'My Way;' and on the lower part are the words, 'Distractions of the World.' Child, just raise your leg and step over the distractions and continue on through the door of 'My Way;' for, this is My will.'

"Very well, My Lord, I do as told; and suddenly the door called distractions disappears and I step through the door with no problems. My Lord, I am in this beautiful terrain, where all is white, and it seems a bit cool. But, even as I say the word, 'cool,' the temperature changes and it becomes as a balmy spring day. Here and there are pools of crystal clear water, but as I look at each pool, I realize that these pools are as dark aquamarine and are very deep.

"Suddenly, an older man appears before me, and I believe that he is my son, John, the prophet, from another life. My Lord, I know that he is my son, John, from so very long ago."

"'Tis so."

"I reach out to touch him and my mind is flooded with memories of deep sorrow, yet joy. These memories of sorrow and despair overflow me and I suddenly feel so hopeless."

"Child, slow the memories."

"My Lord, I command them to move past very slowly; and they become now as picture frames, moving past in slow motion. Now, My Lord, he is before me on a camel; and I ask, 'Son, where are you going?'

"I am going to Ethiopia,' he says, 'where I shall visit the lost.'

"To Ethiopia?" I ask.

"Yes, My Dearest Mother; for the Lord calls me there."

"Then in an instant, he is gone. I look down to see that I am wearing black clothing, with a long black skirt and an apron. My head is covered with a scarf and I feel such sorrow that he is leaving; for I do not believe that I shall see him again. I look at my surroundings to see that I am high up on a mountain; and a most beautiful dove comes and brings me an envelope. I open the envelope and take out a piece of paper, which says, 'Your son has been murdered!' I fall upon the rocks and weep uncontrollably; for he is beloved and precious to my heart. Then, I behold a man coming; and he says, "Madam, why do you weep?" And, I say that I weep for the loss of my son. And, as I look closer, I know that I am speaking with Peter; and he is standing upon the Mountain of the Lord. In an instant, Peter is gone and I am climbing over rocks with my bare hands, which are bleeding; and my knees are bleeding."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Lord," I cry, "I feel that you have deserted me. For, You have taken one, who is so precious to me." Then, I hear our Beloved Jesus speak from within the clouds; and he says, "My Child, I have taken nothing, save that, which belonged not to you; but to your Father in Heaven. He has been on loan to you, only."

"Then, why must I endure such pain from his loss?"

"My Child, you have lost nothing, but have gained much."

"Then, My Lord, why do I suffer like this?"

"My Child, to suffer is the human way; but to suffer in love, and to accept God's will is the Divine Way. Get up, My Child; and praise your Father, that where your son is you shall be; and what your son has done you shall do!"

I raise up and just as quickly as I do so, the scene is gone; and I am on the Holy Mountain of the Lord, back in the previous terrain with many aquamarine pools. But, my heart is still full of sorrow. I cannot seem to stop weeping; and my hands and knees are bloody from climbing over many rocks. "My Lord, I do not know why you have given me this vision; for I have seen my son, John of so long ago, but he vanished so quickly."

"Yes, Child, in this past life, you had sons, who were full of love for me and for your Father. But, in this life, you have one, who loves me not and does not know your Father. Child, he is already in the throes of darkness, and does not even know this. He loves the material world and the lusts thereof."

"My Lord, I am so full of sorrow about his choices and I feel so wounded as I cannot reach him."

"Yea, Child, for your son in this life, you should cry great tears; and not for your son of ages past."

"My Lord, you are so right about this; and through the years you know that I have shed many tears. Even now, I am heartbroken that he is lost in rebellion. My Lord, you know how I pray for his soul and for all in his household. Yes, I am heartbroken; as I love him no less than one from so long ago. And, in some ways, I love him even more, as he is so lost and my heart cries out in love for him. He does not hear, My Lord; but I know that you are a Lord of miracles; and I do not give up, but continue on in prayer and faith that you will effect great changes in his heart. However, I must ask you, My Lord, what is the reason that you have brought back such memories from so long ago?"

"For love, My child. For love. Love your son, regardless of his behavior. Even as you have loved your son, John, from so long ago and still love him. Child, he was easy to love; but you must love those, who abuse you; for they are worthy of love by nature of being your Father's children. Have compassion, Child, and encourage them in your Father's works. For, your son and his wife are lost. And, their children do not know Me or your Father."

As our Lord bears these words, I sit upon a white stone by one of the beautiful pools of water and I weep deep tears; for I feel so powerless.

"Yea, Child, you are powerless; but your Father is all powerful and He can work miracles in your son's life."

"Then, I beg of You, My Beloved Father to please work miracles in their lives. Convict their hearts and give them a deep yearning to serve you and to walk with you in your precious will."

"I have heard you, My Child," says our Beloved Father. "Dip your face in the pool and be refreshed; for this is my heavenly water; and it will turn your tears to joy."

"My Precious Father Jehovah, I have done as you have commanded, dipping my face in this pure water; and as you have said, I suddenly feel renewed. But, suddenly, I am out on the side of a Mountain somewhere, but I do not know where I am."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Child, it is called ‘Self Will; and it is a large mountain. Let go of all self-will as regards your son and serve him, Child. Be his servant in love and truth and he will love you back. Forgive him for all; and forgive all, who have hurt you in any way. For, forgiveness is free to all and is completely healing."

"My Father, I shall do as you say. Please help me and make miracles in their hearts and lives."

As soon as I say these words, I find myself back on the ledge of our Lord’s Holy Mountain; and in my arms are two gift boxes. "My Father," I ask. "What are these?"

"Child, these are my gifts to you, a new home and a family filled with peace. Take these gifts and absorb them; for they are at hand."

Suddenly, the two boxes disappear into my robe and make me feel very heavy. However, just as I begin to focus on this heaviness, it disappears; and great radiance, peace and love move in. Once more, I am back among the white rocks and aquamarine pools, where there are many, many golden jonquils. They are blooming far and wide and the aroma is so soothing."

"Pick one, My Child," our Father says.

"My Father," I have it.

"Eat it."

So, I put it in my mouth and begin to chew; but it is very bitter. I struggle with this bitter taste, and the longer I chew, the worse it gets. It is a horrible taste, which makes my mouth water profusely and it seems that the very lining of my mouth will be eroded with this bitterness. But, I keep chewing and swallowing until it is gone. "My Father why would you have me eat something so bitter; and what does this mean?"

"Child, it is the date of Dec.12, 1998."

"I do not understand."

"I caused you to eat and to swallow the bitter flower; and it made you sick. But, I am merciful and delivered you and many others from this illness."

"I do not understand."

"Child, I have seen you suffering because of this bitter meal; and I am merciful to those, who love me."

"But, My Lord, war on this date was set to come about!"

"It was; and I was waiting on the prayers and the fasts of the righteous. My Child, this war has been planned by your enemy for many years. This date of Dec. 12th 1998 is not and was not a hoax, but represents real plans of your enemy. For this reason, I intervened in the Iraqi war. (This was in Nov 1998; but as you know we are now at war with Iraq and this has begun WWIII.)"

"Oh, Merciful Father, I can never thank you enough. Please continue to be merciful toward your lost and hurting children. So many are trying to do what is right, but are so oppressed day and night, weighted down by the evil one and great trials of this world."

"Child, I see and I know all. Now, go this day with my full love."

"My Precious Father, did our Beloved John go into Ethiopia, or did Ethiopia represent a land of inner struggles?"

"My Child, it represented both and both pertained to him. Be blessed this day, Child' and get ready to finish Book IV, my gift to all. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

"Summer is Nigh"

"Praises to You, My Precious Jesus and Beloved Father Jehovah. For, Your mercies are great and Your goodness is without bounds. You fill my heart with peace and wholeness; and I walk in the shadow of the Almighty's love, where I find comfort."

"Yea, My Child, Lucifer trembles; for his days grow short and his fury grows toward the saints. Walk carefully upon the rocks called 'tribulation,' and cross the 'Creek of Despair' clutching My word. I bathe your feet in My glory and I anoint you with My victory. Blessed is the name of Jehovah, Most High God, our Beloved mighty Father. For, in His righteousness is victory over Lucifer's plans. One by one, Lucifer's plans fall around the world because the righteous see and hear; and they cry out. There is freedom, Child, in doing what is right and according to your Father's commands; but there is prison in rebelling."

"Oh, My Lord, I know this to be so."

"Now, My Child, I have brought you high upon My Holy Mountain; and you stand on this narrow ledge, where the air is cool and crisp, but your Father's presence warms you. My Child, turn, use your key of humility, and enter through My door. Continue down the hallway to the fourth door, take the wooden key called 'Summer is Nigh;' and enter through the door."

"My Lord, I take this key and I enter through this door; but instead of a landscape bathed in white, I see a large tree, much like an old oak; and a monkey hanging from it. The Tree is called 'New World Order;' and the monkey is named 'Saddam Hussein.' The monkey hangs from his tail, a tin cup in his hands, giving the appearance of a beggar. In the tin can I see a small roll of money; and on the tail of the monkey, I see the words, 'Blazing Idiot.' My Lord, he is clearly attached to the New World Order tree."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Yes, My Little One, and remember that Hussein spins as a top for the New World elite; and he swings first this way and then the other. Remember the hand twirling the top?"

"Yes, My Lord, it is the hand of the evil one, called ‘Rothschild to the Core.’

"So, Hussein is controlled. He is forced to turn first this way and then the other way."

"Child, he does not make these moves alone."

"My Lord, Hussein shall rise in rebellion again soon; as we have not seen his end in Iraq."

"Child, many may wish it were his end, but Hussein is needed as a pawn to help deplete your military and drive your further into bankruptcy. And, make no mistake about it, Child; the USA is on the verge of bankruptcy. All the years of Clinton’s administration, your press has crowed about the great financial shape of the USA; and you as a people have bought this. When your economy goes south again; and see this begin to come to pass in the spring of 1999, you will know that you are in trouble."

"Yes, My Little One, you have bought the lies of The Fed that all is well; and you have bought the lies of Clinton and the congress that all is well financially, when just the opposite is true. But, all of this illusion is part of the great surprise for the USA. And, it will be a surprise for all to go to the banks one day and find them closed. Those in control will say that they are issuing new money, but in fact, they are getting ready for a cashless society. Note some of their plans starting to take shape toward the latter part of March 1999. By then, Child, the Russian machine will be well oiled for its attack against you, as you will have attacked Iraq."

"You mean, My Lord, that by then, we will have made a full attack on Iraq?’

"My Child, this is their plan."

"Will our Father be merciful again, My Lord?"

"Child, I cannot speak for His mercy. It depends upon the fasts and prayers of the righteous. As He has stayed the wars recently, some will get callous and believe that this will always be the case. But, My Child, he hears the cries of the righteous, and you know that they wax and wane."

"So, My Lord, when will this war come to pass with Iraq?"

"Child, sit at the desk and turn the knob three times."

"I have done as you have commanded; and suddenly faces of Hussein and Arafat appear on the top of the desk. As they talk, I see that Arafat is sending troops into Iraq, and Turkey and Saudi Arabia are sending them as well. Iran, Russia and China have sent weapons; and continue to send them via oil barges. Plus, My Lord, their submarines unload them in Iran; and Hussein picks them up there, adding them to his huge arsenal. Afghanistan is also sending in terrorists to aid Hussein; all this is taking place as Hussein gears up for war against the USA."

"Child, what date do you see for this buildup?"

"My Lord, I see this threat building as early as February 15, 1999; and a back door, which was open shuts with a bang. This door is called 'UN Peace Talks Closed with Iran.'

"My Lord, we know that the UN is divided."

"Oh, it is divided, Child; and the Rothschilds, the Royals and the Rockefellers are at each others throats like tigers. This is the beginning of the fall of the United Nations, as you know it, although it will continue under the rule of the Rothschilds, whose goal has always been world communism."

"So, the door for the UN peace talks with Iran is shut by Feb. 15th, 1999; and war with Iraq will begin when?" (By this date of March 1999, Iran has become very thick with Russia, with Russia beginning to build a nuclear reactor in Iran. Iran is clearly sided with Russia, China and all, who oppose the USA.)

"Child, see the date of Feb 29th?"

"Yes, My Lord, but 1999 does not have a Feb. 29th."

"This is true, My Child, but look ahead."

"My Lord, as I look ahead at this vision coming from this desk, I see the date of Feb. 21st and I see missiles are flying. Then, I see Feb.29th again, My Lord; and a huge, huge explosion, like that of a nuclear explosion, is taking place. Then, I see the date of March 1; but do not understand what I am seeing."

"Child, you write what I show you, even though it might not make sense to you, but in time it will."

"How so, My Lord? I feel foolish in writing what I do not understand. Please help me understand what I see."

"Child, an angel is behind you with fruit from Heaven. Eat the fruit and relax."

"My Lord, I eat the fruit, suddenly feel very sleepy, and find myself floating on a cloud somewhere behind this door. The date of Feb 29th keeps coming into my mind, but I do not know why. Quickly and for no apparent reason, I jump high; and I see that the date is February 29th, 2000. Bombs are exploding in all directions and sirens are going off as people run for cover everywhere. I am looking at New York City; and women and children are running and screaming as explosions take place all over the city. Bombs are pouring into the city and Chinese soldiers are running about wildly."

"Oh, My Precious Lord, the sight of these women and children fleeing among these flames will be with me always. I feel very sick!"

"My Precious Child, this is known, but let us continue on. Remember that you have seen two dates. You have seen February of 99 and you have seen February of 2000. Do you understand?"

"Yes, My Lord; but I fear so that I shall make a mistake."

"Child, sit at the desk and turn the knob."

"Yes, My Lord."

"See that by Feb 15th the UN closes the door on Iran and there will be an attack on Iraq well before February has come and gone. But, it will be only a trial run, as you would say. The Germans are gearing up for something very, very big and they want all their ducks in a row. First, they plan to fold your economic system and get you geared up for the mark. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"But, My Child, the system still has a lot of holes."

"Like what, My Lord?"

"Like people holding onto their money."

"They are trying to force the greatest numbers to gamble and spend, gamble and spend. See?"

"Yes, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, you need to get prepared. Do you understand?"

"Yes, My Lord; and the people need to get prepared!"

"And, My Little One, do not forget the passing planet."

"In February of 2000."

"'Tis so, My Child."

"So, they think that this will be the perfect time for war?"

"It will not go as they think, My Child; for the world will be in a mess; and many, who are lost, will come back to God with greater resolve."

"My Lord, our Father was merciful about Dec. of 1998. Will he be merciful about what is coming our way in '99 and 2000?

"Child, he will not continue to be merciful as the world slips into greater and greater darkness. But, he is warning, warning, warning of things to come, that you get prepared spiritually and physically. Many, many, many shall die; and you will not escape this when the Earth tilts."

"So, the New World Order will not allow Hussein to do much in Feb of '99; but by Feb of 2000, we will see him blow?"

"This sums it up; and this is a warning, My Children, that you do not get lackadaisical. For, the night comes quickly. I am Jesus. Yes, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

The Pirate and the Chicken

"My Precious Child, Holy is the name of your Father, and mighty is His will. Be reverent to Him at all times, taking many occasions throughout the day to humble yourself in deep prayer and thanksgiving for His mercy and love. For, in and through Him is your safekeeping. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord, I do; and I love you and our Father with all my heart."

"This is known, my Child; and I also bow down to our Father, who is full of love and unending mercy."

"My Lord, I remain concerned about the war with Iraq."

"Child, as you know there is a great valley marked in the sand; and as you stand now with your back slightly to Iraq (after the truce in November), you will receive a blow in your back from elsewhere."

"From whom?"

"From China."

"Please tell me more, My Lord."

"It shall come through fraud and deceit." (As I edit this on April 01, 1999, I am aware of so much that has come to pass about China. When Our Lord gave this, we did not know about the spy case at Los Alamos or of the implications of government wrongdoing reportedly included in the 700 page Cox Report.)

"How?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, let us go high upon My Mountain and look."

"My Lord, I am here high upon the ledge of your Mountain, and in my hand is the humility key. I fit the key into the lock of the door before me and it opens easily. As I open it, I am suddenly swept through the door by a mighty rushing current of water. My Lord, the River of Life has caught me up in its current; but I am not afraid. The water glistens all around me like glass, but it does not feel like glass. Rather, it is like being amidst the purest of energies, which wash me through and through. I know that I am many feet under the water, but I feel very calm and soothed. The hallway is beneath me and I am floating down, down, down to Door Five. A key drifts upward toward my hands and on it are the words, 'Jesus is the key.' I grasp the key and open Door Five, entering a room, which is bathed in pure, radiant white; and before me is the desk with the knob. Shall I sit?"

"Yes, Child."

"My Lord, I sit and the desk bathed in feelings of calm, peace, love and joy; and I am comforted."

"Child, look at your hands."

"My Lord, I am looking and them and they are shedding skin. The skin falls off and suddenly disintegrates, leaving my hands aglow with a radiant white light. Tell me what is going on."

"Child, what you see is what you get."

"What do You mean?'

"Child, you have received a powerful anointing this day, which has allowed you to reach these depths. Without this anointing, you could not come here."

"So, the skin means away with the old?'

"Yes, indeed. And, remember, Child, that as you progress your Father demands much. Do you understand?"

"Yes, My Lord, I understand; but at times life is so very hard. There are so many trials at times that I do not know how I shall go on, save through your miraculous hand."

"Child, Book IV will require more of you than Book III, which required more of you than Book II and so on. Understand?" (This has been true, as so many things have come to bear, over which I have had little control. Indeed, finishing this book has been really difficult.)

"Yes, My Lord."

"Now, Child, turn the knob once to the right; and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I turn the knob as you direct; and immediately I see Fidel Castro sitting at a table lighting a cigar. As he lights the cigar, I hear a crackling and I see a lot of smoke as the cigar blows up. Then, a flag drops from the remnants of the smoking cigar and hangs there. On the triangular flag are the words, 'Cuba in trouble, Better red than dead!' Castro now stands with the smoking cigar/flag talking with a Chinese leader, who is clearly dressed in military attire; and Castro is taking money from him. I understand that the Chinese is giving Castro money for a piece of land bought in Cuba by the Red Chinese. I am sensing that this move is one of retaliation about the Taiwan/USA negotiations."

"Child, this is so."

"And, the space, which the Chinese have bought is for storage of long-range nuclear weapons, which can reach far into Canada and of course all over the USA. There are and shall be all kinds of nerve gases, chemical weapons, and destructive missiles and bombs. Cuba is a stopping point for the Chinese in their plans to invade the USA. My Lord, how long has this been going on?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, long enough for them to have a secret base in Cuba. And, their subs are still landing there at night and unloading."

"So, our government does not know?"

"They do not know the depth of it; and if they did know they would keep it from the American people. Remember who runs your government."

"Yes, My Lord, the Germans, the Royals, the Rockefellers and other communists. But, My Lord, what fools they are. For, when we the citizens go, they go!"

"Yes, My Child, they will go. One, by one, these, who love evil, will be brought down. The situation may seem hopeless, but your Father is in charge; and these evil ones are able to do only as He permits. And, know Child, that they shall see their plans fall in over and over because of the prayers of the righteous. And, Lucifer knows this and for this reason he will try to get rid of all, who are righteous. But, he shall never be able to do this; for your Father shall blind him and his to many of you; and you shall be spared in great numbers. For, you Father loves you!"

"So, this situation in Iraq has steadily blown up to a near war situation, which has taken so much of our time and energy; and while we are focusing on this, the Chinese are down in Cuba stabbing us in the back. All the while, we are making them rich so that they can invade us."

"Yes, My Child, but this is not all."

"What else?"

"Turn the knob once more and write what you see on the screen."

"My Lord, I turn the knob again and I see a bunch of pirates on a street. The street is muddy; and the buildings look like the Wild West in the 1800s. Many people are mingling on the streets; but I am drawn to a particular pirate, who has a tin cup in one hand, filled with a few coins. And, in his other hand he has a dead chicken with no feathers, which he is holding upside down by his feet. The pirate keeps saying over and over, ‘A penny for your thoughts.’ Now and then, a person walks by and puts a penny into the tin cup and it makes a sound like money put into a soft drink machine."

"Then, the scene changes and I see Bill Clinton at a table talking with a man, who is called ‘Rothschild to the Core." Bill wears his usual smile, joking and laughing; but the countenance of the man bears frowns and derision. He is stiff, rigid and unmovable. Now and then, the Rothschild man gets up and looks out the window; and from the buildings outside, I can see that they are in Washington DC."

"‘I tell you, Bill,’ the man says. ‘Things are getting really bad; and there is a lot of pressure on me. I cannot afford to be seen with you. If they see me here, it is curtains.’ ‘Oh, I understand,’ says Bill. ‘The Cuban Accord is something we will have to live with. But, listen, do you have a smoke?’ ‘Sure,’ says the rigid man; and he gives Bill a cigarette called ‘The Ex-Post Facto Law.’ Bill smokes the cigarette quickly even into the stinky filter."

"‘Don’t you know when to quit boy? That’s your problem!’ ‘What do you mean?’ Bill asks. ‘Well,’ says the Rothschild man, ‘You have bitten the hand, which feeds you.’ ‘How so?’ says Bill? ‘See the ring,’ the Rothschild man says. ‘Sure,’ says Bill."

"’Well,’ says the Rothschild man, ‘Do you know that the ring is made of gold; and it shall not be broken. You should not have bitten the hand. The ring is solid; and you are out, Mister.’ ‘Well, what can I do to get back in?’ Clinton pleads. ‘Oh, this won’t happen,’ reveals the Rothschild man. Never again will you be IN!’ ‘Why,’ pleads Clinton? ‘Well,’ says the man; ‘you are damaged goods; and you have bitten the hand with the ring. ‘But, why is this ring so important that it cannot forgive?" begs Clinton. ‘Oh, this ring never forgives! The Luciferian ring does not forgive!’"

"And, suddenly the Rothschild man turns into a red dragon, which hisses and blows steam from its nostrils. The red dragon then turns sharply, taking its tail and scraping Clinton off the table. Clinton finds himself on the floor holding a rag doll. On the ragdoll are the words, ‘pieces of my life.’ The old doll is worn and tattered with no eyes and little hair. It has holes burned into its torso and the stuffing is coming out of its belly. Clinton grabs the doll as if it is his only friend; and he begins to weep. A great shower begins to fall on Clinton called the ‘Rain of Despair;’ and slowly the scene with Clinton disappears revealing the old pirate with the tin cup and the dead chicken out on the street begging for money."

"My Lord, who is this pirate and what is the significance of the dead chicken?"

"Child, pull up the right pants leg of the pirate and remove the tiny booklet. Read what is written."

"My Lord, I have the booklet and it is very old, filled with dust and old, dead skin from the pirate’s leg. As I open the book I see words on various pages and this is what I see. The first page says, ‘Danger is as Danger does. The second page says, ‘I have a crick in my neck.’ The third page says, ‘Crooked ways seem right.’ The fourth page says, ‘A blocked colon and a blocked artery, but no one knows.’ The fifth page says, "Innuendo and cover-up, these destroyed Bill Clinton.’ The sixth page says, ‘A lie is a lie is a lie.’ The seventh page says, ‘Blusterous blunders shall plague those, who love darkness.’ The eighth page has no words, but I see a spotted dog lapping up milk: and I hear the tune of ‘When Johnny Comes Marching Home.’ The ninth page says. ‘Jimmeny Cricket was here;’ and I see the cricket eating newspaper. And, the tenth and last page has no writing, only a swirling, black hole. As the black hole swirls round and round, the pirate scene totally disappears, leaving only blackness. My Lord, I know that there is much as regards this vision."

"Yes, My Child, but we shall stop for today. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

The Pirate and the Chicken Continued

"My Precious Child, it is I, Master Jesus. You have prayed long and hard this morning, much of it in tongues; and you have no idea what you have said, but part of it, My Child, is that your Father in Heaven intervene in the government of your country with His will. My Precious Child, this is a much-needed prayer; for your country is slipping into slavery more every day. Your constitution has been sidestepped for some time and your are under United Nations rule, which most of you do not know. Why else would the Germans, who fly low planes over your soil and say that they are not subject to your laws? Child, if the average person knew of the evil, which is being plotted against each of you, they would pick up pans, ball bats, or anything they could find and they would converge on the secret elite. They would storm your congress and take over your government. But, they do not know because the workers of darkness work in secret; and because of this you do not know of their evil plans. Germany is already the undisputed ruler of the world; and they continue quietly buying up the world's great wealth. It is Germany, who pushes for annihilation of every human in Africa; and it is Germany, who sends fake drugs and lethal poisons into Africa with the intent of furthering the spread of disease and the killing of innocent people. Child, it is Germany, who has inoculated these poor African peasants with any number of diseases, and the Germans are behind the shipments of military equipment into Africa, so that they can kill one another. 'Why,' you ask, Child? Because Germany wishes to own Africa, and to be able to add it to their vast material reserves."

"But, Child, all does not go as planned for the Germans. 'For, I am going to cause a plague of great proportions among some of the German elite,' says your Father. I am going to ravage them with burning eyes and burning skin; and I am going to shut down their immune systems. The Rothschilds shall not be immune, for I shall hit them one by one,' says your Father Jehovah. 'They have put a hand on My Loved Ones with the intent to destroy every one of you. But, I shall not give you over readily to the wolves, so long as a substantial number of you fast and pray. For, My Righteous are My feet. They are My eyes and ears. They are My arms in a world, where darkness could easily win. I am bringing up a few,' says your Father, who shall not be moved!'"

"Little One, the greedy, who run your country and the world, hope to hit you broadside with this war. They will know when it is coming and will have their dwelling places and assets elsewhere. But, your Father has a few surprises for the proud and haughty; and all shall not go for them as planned."

"Praises to You, My Beloved Father and Precious Jesus. Bring down this evil and raise up the Righteous. Tear down the television networks of the world, which act to suppress the truth and to keep us in darkness. And, be with us, Precious Lord; for this war for the souls of all grows in intensity with each passing day!"

"Yea, Child, but before this month is up, your Father shall cause many to wake up and to look and listen. As regards North Korea, you shall not come out of this problem unscathed. Now, My Little One, you have questions about the prophecies of the 2nd of December?'

"Yes, My Lord, shall we go upon your Holy Mountain?"

"Child, look around you; for you are upon My Mountain. I have brought you back to Room Five. Sit in the chair provided and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I am here behind the door surrounding by radiant white, which radiates with the Light of God. As I sit in the chair, I feel the area beneath me shaking and rumbling as if an earthquake is taking place. A door opens within the white rocks and someone emerges, wearing an old tattered robe of humility. He gets down on his knees and motions for me to place my feet in a small tub of steaming water."

"Allow this, Child."

"He takes off my old, ragged shoes and places my feet in the small tub, where he gently bathes and anoints my feet with an aromatic oil. 'Frankincense and Myrrh,' he says. The scent lingers in the air and I feel so refreshed and pure. My Lord, this was an act of love and I am so deeply humbled. His soul is so precious, My Lord."

"Child, I sent him as you have been ill and you need this, My Little One."

"Yes, My Lord, I have been ill and am so grateful for this act of love. I feel the power of the anointing as it moves up my legs and fills me; and I burst into tears, for this work is often so hard and I feel so alone it. I am so deeply humbled, My Lord, by Your abiding love and I cannot stop crying for I am bathed in your love and mercy."

"Yes, My Child, this is known; but be alert to the task at hand. For, there is much to do."

Suddenly, I feel very awake and focused, aware and ready to continue. 'I am ready, My Lord," aware of many angels all around and so very thankful for their love."

"Child, look who comes."

"My Lord, I do not believe that I have ever seen a picture of this man, but I know that this is Dumutri Duduman. He comes rushing through the white rocks from an area, which is lit up with a great amount of light. He kneels beside me, begging me to tell his wife something and his words sound like comstock. I am not sure I heard this right. 'Please tell my family that I love them more than ever and intercede for them always.' My Lord, I know that he wants to say more, but for some reason this is not allowed."

"Child, it is not allowed; for I have much to cover with you and you are still feeling poorly."

"Yes, My Lord, this is so. I do have many questions about the pirate and the vision of Dec. 2nd, 1998. Tell me My Lord, who is the pirate and what is the chicken?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, look on the pirate's back."

"My Lord, it says, 'USSR.'"

"You know, My Lord, that most would say that there is no USSR."

"Yes, My Little One, but it is running strong."

"So, the USSR is the beggar, but what is the chicken?"

"The chicken is the military of the USSR."

"But, it has no feathers and is dead."

"Child, they would have you believe all this; but remember the Red Rooster from a previous prophecy. It is very much alive."

"My Lord, tell me about the Wild West scene."

"Child, this is what Russia looks like today, a country, which is about 100 years behind the USA in many ways. They have always wanted to own the USA; and the Germans have helped build them up to attack you. So have the Rockefellers and the Royals. They have been of one accord."

"But, is this still so?"

"Child, they are battling bitterly among themselves. For, those, who love Lucifer, love a lie. And, none of them can trust the other. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"So, the beggar gets the coin and with it we see that the image changes to show Clinton and the Rothschilds and we find that Clinton is dumped from the "R" inner circle."

"It has been done."

"And, Clinton will not get a UN job?"

"He is a liability to them."

"So, the Red Dragon sweeps him away from the table?"

"It does."

"My Lord, why does the pirate say, ‘A penny for your thoughts?’"

"Child, look on the penny and see what it says."

"My Lord, it says, ‘I steal what I want.’"

"How does this relate to thoughts?"

"They steal thoughts."

"Yes, indeed!"

"How?"

"Through theft."

"In other words, they can read people’s minds?"

"They have perfected a way."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Perfected it?"

"Yes, Child; and they have been highly accurate at it."

"How, My Lord."

Through a technology they have been working on for years."

"For real?"

"'Tis so."

"They scheme to make us all slaves; and we shall not survive this without your hands upon us. I beg you, My Lord, to bring this evil to naught, lest they make slaves of every person on this planet. Burn them with the works of their hands and shut the door on this evil!"

"Oh, they shall burn alright; and your Father shall blow up their labs."

"Labs?"

"Oh, yes!"

"How does this work?"

"Through study and interpretation of electronic impulses."

"Where are these labs?"

"Slovenia and Leningrad."

"My Lord, this goes far beyond eavesdropping."

"Far beyond. But, they must be able to receive these impulses."

"So, how do they do this?"

"By locking a beam onto you."

"What kind of beam?"

"An electronic beam."

"How can one avoid this beam?"

"Hide behind metal. It will disperse the beam."

"Is this being carried out all over the USA?"

"No. Only against their targets; but they have infiltrated your country and this is going on regularly."

"My Lord, I am still amazed!"

"Child, remember that you live in the very last days before My return; and Lucifer has used the minds of many to create things, which they would have never created on their own."

"So, if they can read thoughts, mind control must be fairly easy for them."

"My Child, the Luciferians have developed the whole business of mind control into quite an art. Many are implanted with mind control implants, even your president and many, many in congress. However, their weapons of mind control do not always work as they forget about the 'X' factors."

"What are the 'X' factors?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Divine intervention and free will."

"My Lord, this is slavery of the most subtle kind; and it is almost too bizarre to grasp."

"Fear not, My Child, but rest on Me and on your Father Jehovah. Your prayers and fasts can destroy all their systems. The prayers of the Righteous can bring about many miracles!"

"My Lord, destroy this evil in your precious name! Cause it to blow up in their faces! It is a curse upon every soul!"

"Yes, My Child, it is a Luciferian curse upon the people. He wishes to destroy every Godly soul; but fear not, My Children. For, the power of God is with you and it shall bring down this evil, bit by bit until all is gone."

"I trust in you, My Lord, for all things. And I beg that the will of God be done as regards their plans to make us all slaves. Be with us, My Lord, and empower those, who love You and serve You. For, our time draws short and we need you now more than ever. Now, My Lord, I know that there is much more regarding the vision of the 2nd of December and I know that we need to proceed. Tell me more about the Chinese build-up in Cuba and about Bill Clinton's awareness of this?"

"He knows, alright; but will not talk for now as his life is on the line."

"You mean, they would kill him?"

"As they did Kennedy."

"You mean, the Rothschilds would?"

"The whole Luciferian bunch would."

"My Lord, back to the pirate's booklet, please explain to me the significance of the writing of the pages."

"Proceed, Child."

"Danger is as Danger does."

"Look at the bottom of the page and pull out the small slide. What do you see?"

"I see a Russian with earphones; and he is listening to a conversation between Bill Clinton and a senator. This Senator is the man from Virginia, whom Elizabeth Taylor was married to."

"I don't have any change in my pocket," Bill says. "I will call you back." And, Bill opens his pockets to show that he really does hot have any money. But, as he gets to the bottom of his back pocket, he finds a wooden coin; and on this coin is the face of Monica Lewinsky. Beneath her face are the words, 'Monica is a wooden nickel.' I don't get it, My Lord."

"No, Child, you do not; but think, 'Danger is as danger does.'"

"You mean that the danger has to do with Monica."

"Child, the danger has to do with Clinton and mind control and Monica."

"You mean that this thing about Monica and Bill Clinton involves some sort of mind control?"

"It does."

"Like they know that Bill is a sex maniac, so they somehow pushed him to move on his basic nature."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"There has most definitely been a Luciferian push toward Clinton's area of weakness."

"And, they pounded away at him through these implants?"

"Exactly."

"What about Linda Tripp? Was she under mind control?"

"More than you will ever know."

"What a mess!"

"Child, Washington is a hot area for implants and mind control of every kind."

"So, 'Danger is as Danger does means…"

"Child, look at the yield sign before the White House and see the policeman with white gloves stopping traffic and sending them one way or the other. Well, suppose that the vehicles ignored the policeman with the whistle and just turned this way or that way with no recognition of the policeman or the sign. What would happen?"

"Lawlessness."

"Well, this is what has happened with Bill Clinton. He has ignored the danger signs from the Russians and others. He has ignored as well the signals of his internal policeman, which guide him to make decisions based on right versus wrong. Fed by mind control and mind reading, Bill Clinton has disregarded your laws; Your enemy continues to bombard and control him; and Bill is a prisoner of your enemy with no sense of right and wrong; so, he continues to bow down to them to save his own neck. Now, My Child, we shall stop for today, but shall pick up with the visions of the 2nd of December next time. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWENTY

Back to Door Five

"Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus, and I am full of love for you, My Little One. Daily, you struggle with the weight of the world and with great anticipation for what comes. My Child, you can do little about the wheel, which is set in motion. Even now, you see your government dealing with the Palestinians and with the evil hoards in the Mid-East. Child, double-dealing and backstabbing policies have reached new heights under Bill Clinton as he continues to prostitute himself before Lucifer for a few crumbs. Child, he shall never be taken for anything more than a pawn by those of the Old World power scene. He is a whipping boy, whose days of power, will soon be over."

"My Child, others of great light have prayed for your spiritual welfare and their prayers shall be answered. You shall be healed soon. You are thinking of the Nazarene document; but know that it is only partially true. The task for all concerned is to tell what is true and what is a lie. Yet, many will jump on it and determine that all is true. This shall lead many astray. Understand, My Child?"

"Oh, yes, my Lord, I understand how Lucifer manipulates and how inept people are. Help us, my Precious Lord, that we do not get lost in the darkness."

"Child, print as I have just said on this week's message."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Now, My Little One, I have brought you once more to the top of My Mountain."

"Yes, my Lord, and it looks as if I am surrounded by a glass structure."

"Oh, this is not glass, My Child, but My great hedge."

"But, I have never seen this before."

"Nay, but Child, you need this now more than ever; and it is My gift of protection to you."

"My Lord, please, will you give it to my husband and place it around our dwelling and property."

"Child, I am before you in this; and it is around all your possessions."

"My Lord, our families need this also…"

"Then, Child, they must make themselves worthy to have it by living in obedience to your Father."

"My Lord, I know this and feel so powerless about the choices of so many."

"My Child, look before you. What do you see?"

"My Lord, I see rocks flying and buildings shaking and dust flying. Trees are toppling and cars are smashing into one another as they fall down hills. Surely, this is an earthquake."

"It is so, My Child."

"Where?"

"New Madrid." (This is a large fault line, in the northeast Arkansas, Missouri area, but many fingers extend from this fault line, permeating much of the southeast, even moving considerably, northward, eastward and westward. Not long ago, I read an article about the numerous earthquakes generated from this fault daily. Those of us in this area feel these small tremors frequently. And, just recently, a friend told me of a relative, who lives in northeast Arkansas, who can smell sulfur-bearing gases coming up through her house. People, this fault is going to blow and sooner, rather than later.

How many people are watching the New Madrid fault with a serious eye and how many people are being warned of what is about to come to pass? The wrath of God is being poured out on Arkansas, but his anger shall rip and tear through this whole country. For, the people have loved a lie and what it can do for them; and they shall suffer greatly for their choices. Wake up and serve Our Father in truth and honesty. Your journey will not be easy, but there is no other way.)

"In Arkansas?"

"And Missouri?"

"Yes, Missouri. Child, even Kansas and when it blows it shall hit many states."

"My Lord, you mean when it hits in May and June of 1999?"

"Exactly."

"But, why are you showing me this now?"

"To remind you that this is not far off."

"Yes, My Lord, this is at our door."

"This is so, My Child; but I am your Shepherd and I can protect Mine from the impossible."

"My Lord, I was so aware of this when a string or tornadoes hit this state back in 1997. Over and over the media told of homes, which were totally devastated and all carried away, save one or two people hiding in a closet and praying. Even my own son told of hiding beneath a house and seeing a tornado bearing down on them. He said that he looked up to see two angels standing over them; and in the very last moment the tornado split into two tornadoes and went along either side of the house, never touching them or the house they were hiding beneath."

"This is what I mean, Child."

"Fear not, but go in faith."

"My Lord, it is easy to become overwhelmed by the looks of the seemingly impossible."

"Child, this is known; but I am with you, so fear not. Now, let us continue with the vision of the pirate. Enter through the door called, 'Jesus is the Way;' and take the humility key. Then, go down the hall to Door Five."

"My Lord, I enter the door and once again I am swept along by the River of Life. Down, down, down, I go into this pure river until I get to Door Five. Words cannot adequately describe the pristine beauty of this living water, how it mesmerizes with its glistening aquamarine perfection, and fills me with life."

"Child, this is known. Now, enter through Door Five and sit in the chair."

"My Lord, I enter through the door once again and come to and area of totally white hills and trees. Before me is a small path, which leads to an area of brilliant, white light. This light coming from behind hills in the distance and leads into the area from which Duduman came. My Lord, I am not altogether sure that I understood his message."

"Child, listen again, as you did not get it all."

"My Lord, suddenly he is back, standing before me; and he is so full of love and kindness. He kisses my hand as he kneels beside me. Comstock, my friend, you are dear to me. Where you are, I have traveled; and I fear for your well being. You have made enemies, who would like to see your demise, as they wanted mine. Walk in faith; and fear not. Yes, my dear one, I love and miss my family; and they do need to stock up because of very hard times ahead; but they shall make it okay as God is with them. Soon I shall see several of them. But, so often you walk alone with little or no support from your family in spiritual things. Dear one, I had my family and this can make a difference."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Please intercede for me."

"I have."

"Thank you. I have needed this as I have had to deal with great sickness and few people have any idea."

"I am your friend."

"My Lord, he suddenly disappears and I feel so sad and depressed as if I have just lost a very dear and wonderful friend."

"Child, you have lost none, but gained one."

"Thank You, My Jesus, for allowing me to see him."

"Now, Little One, let us go back to the pirate."

"Yes, My Lord, we finished with ‘Danger is as Danger does;’ and this was referring the Russia’s mind reading and mind control."

"Yes, My Little One."

"The second page says, ‘I have a crick in my neck.’ So, tell me, My Lord, what does this mean?"

"Child, see the old pirate with his head held to one side, as it is too painful for him to straighten it out?"

"Yes, My Lord, but I do not understand why."

"Child, see how the muscles have become thick on one side and how they have become wasted on the other. Go up to his neck and look through the door on the thick side."

"My Lord, you are right about the thick muscles. I stand on the stool and can just barely reach the little door on his neck, but it pulls open easily. Out comes foul, billowing clouds of smoke, which is filled with many caustic gases! Whew! I must step down for a moment to let some of this pass, as it is suffocating! I am gasping for air and am having a terrible time breathing."

"My Child, all this is so, but look again."

"As you say, My Lord. I step on the stool once more and peer into the open the door within the neck. The caustic smoke has settled and straightaway I see Bill Clinton sitting around the fire eating peanuts. Yeltsin hands him a piece of old-fashioned candy, which looks like a 'Mary Jane', as the wrapping bears a picture of a little girl. I notice that Yeltsin's pockets are full of this candy; and as Clinton finishes with the mouthful of peanuts, he devours the candy. 'Give me a few more pieces of that candy,' Clinton says, 'brings back old memories."

"My Lord, I know there is more…"

"Yes, indeed, Child; look on the back of each piece of candy."

"My Lord, on the back are the words, 'horse manure.' But, what about the peanuts?"

"Look!"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Oh, My Lord, I am looking into Clinton's mouth, which is full of these partially chewed peanuts and before my eyes they are turning into worms. I am looking at an unchewed peanut, which bears the words, 'full of scum.' What is going on?"

"Look closely."

"My Lord, I see different words on the worms; and these are some words and phrases I see: 1.Difficult and messy; 2. Devoured, but red; 3. Don Juan Wannabee; 4. One leg up; and 5. Riddled with Riddles. My Lord, this is most disgusting, as the worms are crawling around in his mouth like maggots! Can you believe this?"

"Oh, I can believe it, My Child."

"My Lord, how long must I look at this revolting mess of crawling maggots? This is disgusting!"

"Yes, My Child; but I have not shown you all. Climb into his mouth."

"Into his mouth? Must I? Oh, My Lord, I have a dread about this in the pit of my stomach! I shall need extra strength from You to do this, as I am beginning to feel very ill. But, as you have commanded it, here I go. I step into this dark and foul-smelling cavern and move past the bottom lips along the rim of the jaw and into the side of the mouth. It is hard to step without walking onto the maggots, which now seem more like great snakes, wriggling and seemingly intent on devouring the dead and dying in his mouth. Caustic fumes fly up from the back of his throat and smell like a combination of sulfur dioxide (rotten eggs) and ammonia. My Lord, how long shall I have to endure this? And, why must I go on?"

"Continue on."

"I continue one, My Lord, aware that your love and protection is guiding me, but nonetheless am disgusted by the filth in here. I am coming around the rim of the jaw and back to the very last lower molar. What shall I do, now that I am here? Suddenly, a large box shoots up from the last tooth, which reminds me somewhat of a jack-in-the-box. And, on the box are the words, 'Bill's Treasure Chest.' Shall I open it?"

"You have the key."

"My Lord, I have the key in my hand and on it are the words, 'Jesus is the Key;' and I insert they key into the lock of Bill's treasure chest. As I insert the key, I feel a wind blow in behind me; and the door to the chest flies open. Inside the chest is a lamb with a goat's feet, a goat's face, and goat's horns. This goat/lamb is rocking Bill to sleep in a large cradle. My Lord, this is no goat/lamb; but none other than Lucifer, the Red Dragon. And, it hisses and spits and snarls as it swings its red tail back and forth.

"I shall devour you," the Dragon hisses at me! Bill is mine and I guard him jealously!"

"You are a liar, Lucifer! And, I curse your evil works in the name of Jesus Christ. For, soon Our Lord Jesus shall come and send you and your evil hoards into the Pits!" Then, the evil dragon pulls back on its red neck and spits fire at me. I watch the fire as it just rolls off the hedge and it falls around the crib containing Bill Clinton, its flames bathing him. Smoke is curling upward, over and around the crib, but Bill is fast asleep, a spell cast upon him by his evil master.

Suddenly, the floor drops out of the treasure chest and Bill wakes up as he is suddenly going down. But, it is too late; for he is headed down, down, down into the fiery lake. The sheep goat then turns into the evil "R" man, who dusts off his hands and says:

"Gimme a dime,
The dime is mine!
What can you say?
Hey, Hey!
Hey, Hey!
Curdle my blood!
I'm a big stud!
Only a Has-been,

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

Not a king-pen!
Never more will Bill
Make a hill
Outa me!
Hee, hee!

"Then, the vision is gone, My Lord. Bill's wormy mouth is gone. The Yeltsin scene is gone. Everything is gone; and I am suddenly aware that I am in a chair behind Door Five in the area, which is glistening with white."

"Yes, My Child, you think that all is gone, but it is very much present."

"My Lord, I need some help in understanding this."

"Very well, Child, what do you not understand?"

"Most of it. For instance, tell me about Yeltsin and the candy."

"Child, what is written on the back of each piece of candy?"

"Horse manure."

"Then, know, My Child, that this is what he feeds Clinton; and has been feeding him for some time."

"But, My Lord, Clinton cannot see this."

"Child, how can he see it when he is sleeping and controlled by Lucifer?"

"My Lord, this is so; and we also see that the pirate's neck is thick on one side and useless on the other. But, why?"

"Child, what is written on the thick side?"

"My Lord, it says, ‘US money for arms. So, the pirate’s neck…"

"Which holds up his head."

"My Lord, you mean its leadership?"

"Yes, My Child."

"So, money from the USA holds up the leadership in Russia so that it can do its crooked works?"

"Exactly."

"And, right in the middle of this neck is Bill Clinton."

"You have seen it."

"So, Clinton’s mouth is full of scum, but what kind of scum?"

"My Child, go inside the peanut and see."

"My Lord, I see Clinton in the room with many women and they are engaged in sex romps, sucking up cocaine. And, he is having these women kiss his shoes?"

"You see it."

"So, my Lord, this means that he treats women like dirt?"

"Child, he treats them like whores; and has no use for them, save to use them. Bill Clinton is what you would call a cocaine head."

"My Lord, this is both disgusting and scary!"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Yes, My Child, as he never inhaled."

"I guess most people will never forget that stupid remark; but the greatest numbers continue to follow him, in spite of all his lies! My Lord, I have more questions about the vision regarding the worms. Please explain, 'Difficult and messy.'"

"Child, see Monica Lewinsky in prison, hoping that Bill Clinton will come by and give her some attention. She has that puppy dog smile and come-on look."

"Yes, My Lord."

"But, My Child, you don't see her with the knife, which she digs into his rear end."

"No, My Lord, I do not."

"Well, the knife opens the prison door for her, but she is not free."

"My Lord, I see this."

"Child, Monica will come up dead under mysterious circumstances."

"She will?"

"This is their plan."

"What should she do to avoid this?"

"They plan to drown her and make it look like an accident. She is not free, Child; but is in more of a prison than before."

"My Lord, I see this killing, but will it come to pass?"

"Child, it will unless she comes to me earnestly. You will see. And, all will know that Bill is behind it, but nothing will ever be done, not by any government. But, worry not, Child, through your Father's laws, he will pay. Already, he has the blood of many of his hands."

"So, difficult and messy refers to his situation with Monica?"

"It does."

"But, what about 'Devoured, but Red?'"

"Child, look near Yeltsin's knee."

"My Lord, I see him pull up his right pants leg, and a flask of red booze is attached to his leg. Yeltsin drops each piece of the candy into the flask of red booze, washes it in the red liquid and re-packages it. But, why?"

"So, Clinton will not know that the horse manure is red to the core."

"But, My Lord, why should it matter to Clinton, as he is red?"

"Yes, Child, but in his mind Clinton must continue to convince himself that the Russians are true-blue friends."

"What a crock!"

"Oh, it is a crock, Child; as he has devoured the whole red scheme."

"And, I suppose that the 'Don Juan Wannabee' is all about Clinton."

"As you have seen. Clinton wants to be God's gift to women, to all women. And, he wants the praises and adulation of each and every one."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Yes, My Lord, as if he were God."

"Exactly, Child."

"What does ‘One leg up’ mean?"

"Child, Yeltsin has one leg up on Clinton. See what I have shown you about this leg?"

"Yes, My Lord, fully. It is about deceptions. Now, tell me about ‘Riddled with Riddles.’"

"Child, Clinton is riddled with riddles. His life is full of unsolved puzzles and riddles. And, the whole truth of Bill Clinton shall not be known until My return. But, I can assure you, My Child, that it is much worse than any of you can ever imagine."

"So, My Lord, Bill’s Treasure Chest tells us that he loves Lucifer."

"Child, he loves him and serves him as one of his ring leaders. But, soon Clinton’s days well be over. One more soul to hell."

"Go this day in peace, My Child. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

North Korea Barks War

"My Precious Child, as you have prayed mightily this morning, I have brought you once again to the heights of My Holy Mountain. Yea, the ledge is barrow and the air is crisp, as you are bathed in the pureness of My Spirit."

"Yes, My Lord, I am enwrapped in the splendor of Your Spirit and am at peace with the world."

"Yes, My Little One, but there is no time to tarry; for I have much to show you today. Enter the door, Child; and take the River down to Door Five; for we are not yet finished with this door."

I enter through the door, catching the current of the River of Life and following its pure radiance down, down, down until I come to the fifth door. I pass through the door and into the area, which has the glistening, white hills and valleys, and all is bathed in pure, radiant white. Before me is the chair in which I have sat before. "My Lord, I feel that I am in Heaven, itself."

"My Child, this is as you have seen. For, the River of Life runs the length of Heaven. Now, My Little One, let us go back to any questions you have from previous days."

"My Lord, is Bill Clinton totally possessed by Lucifer?"

"Child, he is possessed by many Luciferian demons and he is controlled totally by Lucifer, especially the German."

"My Lord, Lucifer turns into the "R" man in the last prophecy and he speaks in little understood phrases. Will you explain what these phrases mean?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"My Child, what does gimme a dime mean to you?"

"Perhaps, that Clinton must pay this man a percentage."

"That your government must pay him a dime, Child. It is like a tithe, but not 10%."

"So, what can anyone say?"

"Child, it matters not what anyone says. This has been going on for decades; and it has drained your coffers."

"Tell me about, ‘Curdle your blood, I’m a big stud.’"

"Child, these refer to two separate things. Curdle my blood refers to his blood kin, other Luciferians. And, to curdle one’s blood is not a good thing."

"No, My Lord; as when it curdles one could have a heart attack."

"Or a stroke."

"And, they’ve gotta have the blood flowing."

"Exactly. The Luciferian blood."

"And, the big stud thing?"

"Oh, he believes himself to be a big stud, alright."

"How so?"

"My Child, part of the Luciferian allure is sex and infatuation with the physical, but only the stupid get caught. Sex is one of the tools of making slaves of others; but only fools become slaves to sex."

"So, My Lord, the ‘Has-been and Kingpin phrases refer to Bill Clinton?"

"They do."

"So, Bill made a hill out of the "R" man?"

"He has and he will."

"How?"

"By dancing with the Queen."

"Oh, I see. This is the division we have seen forming among the 3Rs."

"Exactly."

"And, the evil "R" man is out for revenge?"

"Child, more that you will ever know. He is inciting your enemies to make war with the USA. He plans to own every one of you."

"My Lord, this is what we have seen all along."

"Yes, My Child."

"My Lord, we have seen the meaning of the ‘thick’ side of the neck; but tell me about the ‘thin’ side."

"Child, by thin, we are looking at internal reforms."

"So, My Lord, you mean that we are looking at actual inner changes within the Soviet Union/Russia?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Exactly, Child. They have given appearances of change so as to fool you and extort more money for arms; but not only have they NOT CHANGED, they have become more desperate."

"Even as you look at North Korea's threats against the USA, Child, to not think that North Korea is threatening to blow up the USA alone. It has the backing of China, Russia and other countries; and they have been planning this trap for a long time. Step into this trap and it is curtains for the USA."

"My Lord, will we step into this trap?"

"My Child, Clinton stands with his foot in the trap. See?"

"Yes, My Lord, but it has not clamped down as he does not have his full weight on it. This is a large bear trap, and on the trap are the words, "Russian Bear."

"If Clinton attacks North Korea militarily now, you can expect war in the USA before years end."

"Before year's end?"

"Yes, My Child."

"But, did we not get a reprieve from this war?"

"Yes, Child, from the one, which would have come about through Iraq, and others; but do you see how they hop from hither to yon, using first this one and then that one as pawns to start a war with you? If you have your troops scattered all over the world, you cannot defend yourselves if attacked. Do you see the strategy?"

"Yes, My Lord, it is like someone crying wolf. A naïve one hears the cry and goes to check, but does not see the band of thieves lurking in the bushes. As this one rushes in without thinking, the thieves pounce and devour. We are naïve to think we can win in this and the thieves are ready to pounce, taking us unawares."

"My Child, it is not a time to be naïve or to rush headlong into anything. You will all be sorry."

"So, My Lord, I need to warn others to fast and pray mightily."

"Yes, My Little One, for times are very perilous.

"My Lord, please help us. Please Beloved Father Jehovah, have mercy on us. My Father, we as a nation go as a ship without a rudder as we have been overtaken by pirates, who are pushing us to destruction upon the rocks of worldwide communism. My Father in Heaven, raise up mighty men and women of God, who are will take a stand against this evil and will be as lightening rods for your power and truth. Precious Father, I am begging you for this here in the USA and around the world; that we find one another, so that our voices can be as one in mighty service and worship of You, Our Father, Our God! Have mercy, mercy, mercy upon us, as we are powerless without You."

"Child, your prayers are heard. Now, let us resume with their plans. As you know, Little One, their plans have been for some time to hit you during your Christmas season; and their plans have not changed. They have only changed their plan of attack."

"My Lord, I thought surely we would have a Christmas without threat of war."

"Child, remember that every day of peace is a gift from Your Father. The Book of Life of the Gentiles, as seen by Dumutri Duduman is full. This is one reason he came to you. He knows it is full. Many believe what he was shown, Child, but few believe what you have been shown. Many pick apart these prophecies and take what suits them, throwing away the rest. Most disregard these prophecies because of the idea of reincarnation, but the very idea was brought to your mind by Me, Child, that you might seek understanding through Me. Remember that your Father is pouring out a rain of

His Spirit, which will bring great truths for those, who seek. But, most are comfortable and will not change until they are faced with great adversity."

"My Lord, I can hear some of the people complaining right now, 'first, you see war, then no war, then war, then no war. What is the deal?'"

"Child, the deal is that you are on borrowed time. Every day of peace is a gift from your Father. Some have continued to fast and pray, but most have seen that the threat of war has diminished and they have gone back to sleep."

"My Lord, I see this."

"Understand Child, that each day of peace is a gift from your Father and just because you are given one does not mean that you are guaranteed another. Don't take things for granted. This war situation will not go away. It will keep coming up, and you will be invaded. It is only a matter of time. "How long?" Once again, this depends on your Father's mercy; but, I can tell you, Child, that he is very angry with the fence sitters. He is angry with the passive, the pornographers, the atheists, the pushy homosexuals and other sexual deviants, and all, who love darkness. You, as a nation, are asleep and 99.9% in the USA do not know about North Korea's threat to blow up the USA. Your foreign-owned and Jewish press will not let you know the truth." (This finally came out in the papers in the USA, but it was several days before I saw it in the news here.)

"You said, 'Jewish.'"

"Oh, I said it, Child. Within certain segments of the Jewish community, there is a strong hate for all Christians. They would like to see all of you fall of the face of the Earth."

"Some will say that this message is anti-Semitic."

"They will say as they will, Child; but in your press there is a great move to stifle all truth, to cause any and all to see black as white and white as black. Many Jews with great wealth, and driven by intense greed to own an control all of you, have worked over time in your press to paint themselves in a good light, and to hide their control of you. My Children, it is time to wake up to the fact that certain Jews wish to control the world; as they control a lot of its wealth. This is a secret only to those of you, who are asleep. Many of them want to control the USA and many do, while the people sleep.

Child, do you see the sadness of what has happened to you as a nation? You were created as a nation under God, with a government by and for the people, but it has become a government to oppress and control the people and to run out God. To this end, more and more powerful money mongers vie for their agenda in controlling you.

You must not forget about this rogue Jewish population, which is Luciferian to the core. The same kind hung me from the cross. Why? To suppress the truth, and to control the masses through religiosity, which was and is big business. These rogue Jews have worked very hard to garner the support of the American people for their causes. Mind My word, Child, I am not referring to the masses of the Jewish people; they are caught up in religiosity and do not know anything more. But, these same factions, who control you, want to make it a crime for Christians to try to convert Jews. Why? Because they hate you. Hear me, Child, the power-hungry, greedy Jews hate those, who love Me."

"My Lord, what a mess!"

"Yes, My Child, and you are becoming prisoners more and more every day. But, listen to Me, Child, if you step into this bear trap in North Korea, you will have war in the USA before year's end. Stay out of this trap! Know it is a trap and stay out!!!!! I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

Behind Door Five for More

"Precious Child, the world groans beneath the weight of Lucifer. The letter you received yesterday from one, who has been programmed and implanted by the Luciferians troubles you. For, where there is one, there are many. Never let a day go by, Child, that you do not pray for the freedom of all, who are held captive in this way. In time, your prayers shall cause the chains to be broken on many and they shall be free. Engage the help of others over My Website and make this a global call for prayer. For, there are hundreds of thousands, who are held captive in such Luciferian chains."

"My Lord, when I picked up the letter from this person, I felt such discordant energies that I had to put it down and begin to pray."

"Child, you feel the rays directed at this troubled soul."

"Why, My Lord?"

"To confuse him, lest he remember some of the hideous tests and experiments he went through. So often they have carried precious souls to the underworld tombs of torture to mock and push and make fun of them. They hold many secrets in mind control, which have been shared freely with various governments around the world. But, all is coming to and end for many in your underground desert base; for I shall cause an explosion to rip asunder the human experimentation and mind control area beneath Salt Lake City. Yes, indeed, My Child, the works of Lucifer go deep into the Mormon Church; and many leaders of this church have been beaten down and oppressed by demonic spirits. Few there are at high levels of this church, who are not used and controlled by the secret Luciferian organizations. And so it is with the Catholics, as I have shown you already."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"At subconscious levels, many have given permission for Luciferian control through curiosity, straying from God, and love of money and gold. They have deserted Me and your Father. Yet, My Child, many innocents have been also taken and made captive; and this is an abomination. Their cries ring into the heavens as their souls howl from torture."

"Child, your Father's works are holy. Some make fun of you because you say that the prayer cloths are anointed by Me and Your Father, and are holy. But, Child, you are right in this. Few order them because they do not believe; but, Child, they should not have them if they do not plan to treat them with respect. They are a gift from God"

"My Lord, how long will they continue to imprison these poor souls beneath the earth in their hell holes?"

"Most will be imprisoned in Utah until they are destroyed in underground explosions."

"When?"

"See April 1999?"

"I hope I see this date correctly. Please bring this back to me later."

"And other underground facilities shall be destroyed by war?"

"My Lord, you mean this war, which is at our door?"

"Yes, My Child; and any, which are left behind I will destroy."

"But, My Lord, what of the poor innocent ones, who do not ever have any chance?"

"I shall make way for some to escape and the rest will come home bathed in your Father's love. Continue to pray and fast to this end."

"My Lord, will you break the yokes on their minds an bodies and destroy the implants?"
"As you have been told before Child, I will give you authority through prayer and fasting to destroy them with the fire of God. Some will remember all they went through and will live to tell about it. Many at top levels of your government are under mind control. These are constantly meeting in secret to determine more ways to enslave all of you."

"Who are they?"

"In time, Child, I will make you see."

"My Lord, can the Luciferian holds on these in government be broken through prayer?"

"Most will not be, Child, as these were evil people to begin with. Their works were dark and they loved darkness. That they have been overtaken by Luciferian control should not surprise anyone."

"I definitely see Ted Kennedy."

"And, he's not the only Kennedy."

"Child, there is a curse upon the whole Kennedy Clan."

"What do you mean?"

"The curse has been laid upon them through the mouth of a prophet, spoken by the voice of your Father Jehovah."

"So, the Kennedy Lineage is accursed."

"It is."

"What other kinds of manifestations can we expect to see from this curse?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Death, more killing, more scandals and plagues."

"Plagues?"

"Yes, Child."

"Like what?"

"Aids and undiagnosed diseases will take out three within the next three years. When this comes to pass, My Child, know that it is a curse from God. For, they have murdered and they have robbed and pillaged. They have blasphemed and cursed God, and they have lied and stolen. They have worked together to plan the demise of many."

"Yet, My Lord, we hear some of the Kennedy's talk about praying and see them attending various religious services."

"Yes, My Child, they are consummate actors and their God is Lucifer. Enough said on this."

"Now, My Little One, you may not have noticed; but I have brought you back through Door Five and you sit in the chair."

"Yes, My Lord, I am back in the midst of the radiant white surroundings and in the chair, where I sit to write."

"Child, do you have more questions about previous prophecies?"

"Yes, My Lord, I have more questions about the Pirate's Booklet. Would you explain the phrase, 'Crooked Ways Seem Right?'"

"Child, remember that we are speaking of the Russian Pirate. Don't crooked ways seem right to a pirate?"

"Well, My Lord, as the Russians have broken every treaty ever signed with the USA, I would say, ‘yes.’"

"Yet, My Child, this is much more than just a treaty we are speaking of. This has to do with reckless greed, authoritative control, bizarre outbursts of anger, mass homicides, boastful pride and arrogance and disdain toward God. Yet, these descriptions do not include all; as to adequately describe their crooked ways could not be contained in several pages. But, you get the picture, Child, that all these destructive ways seem right to them, as so many have been cut off from principles of righteousness for so long. Do you see?"

"Yes, My Lord. They are as children, who have no teaching of right and wrong."

"No, Child, they have not had this teaching; but soon many of them shall be wanting to find out."

"What do you mean, My Lord?"

"Child, see the great explosion in Russia?"

"I do; and it is huge. Great billowing clouds of smoke and debris are flying high into the atmosphere. I am witnessing a nuclear explosion and the effects of it extend for miles. Fires are everywhere and many, many people are dead and dying. My Lord, tell me about this explosion."

"It is a nuclear explosion."

"What happened?"

"Carelessness of their weapons."

"What do you mean?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Someone broke their code and blew up a cache of their weapons. My Child, this is international terrorism."

"Who would do such a thing?"

"Others, who know they these weapons will be used on them."

"Who?"

"Can you not see?"

"You mean, USA, England, etc."

"And, this is not all."

"But, why would they do this?"

"To get them before they get you."

"Will this not be known?"

"It will not be known as a lot of money makes things happen. And, money is flowing."
"Is this great explosion a certainty?"

"It will happen sooner rather than later."

"You mean, this year?"

"You will see it come to pass, sooner rather than later; but all will believe that it is an accident."

"But, My Lord, this could contaminate the whole world."

"It will do a lot of damage."

"This is frightening."

"My Child, step up to the desk, turn the knob and write as seen and given."

"My Lord, great balls of fire and huge clouds of billowing smoke shoot upward and out through the glass. The heat is overcoming me and I am forced away from the desk by the heat of the fire and the suffocating smoke. The fire is still racing over me as I lie face down. I am frightened."

"Fear not, My Child, it will not burn you. I just want to make you see that this explosion is real and that it shall come to pass. Look at the date."

"My Lord, it lies next to me on the floor; and as I pick it up I am aware that it says, 'June 1999.' Suddenly, a dark door opens to my right and I feel a very cold draft. It blows fiercely and is freezing me. I look past the open door into the cold, night air and suddenly find myself sucked through the door into the bleak cold of the night. Stationed now on a balcony overlooking the darkness below, I am aware that a vision begins to unfold far below. I see a very angry Boris Yeltsin, who is pacing back and forth with a ball and chain on his right leg; and he is swilling vodka. Before him is an open window with a red rooster on the window sill, and the rooster is crowing up a storm."

"A storm is right, Child."

"Yeltsin is saying, 'Nuke the bastards!' But, who, My Lord?"

"Child, what is before him?"

"A map of the USA."

"Please explain."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, he believes that right is wrong and wrong is right."

"Tell me more."

"An eye for an eye."

"But, if he does not know of any foreign influence about the explosion, why would he say this?"

"Child, they do not know, but they suspect sabotage from the USA. They always suspect you and are always looking for reasons to attack you."

"So, this is June 1999?"

"It is."

"And, this is the great threat of war for the USA?"

"Child, every day is a threat of war for you, as the Luciferians have overtaken your country; and sooner rather than later they will get you caught up in a great war."

"I always thought they would invade us for no apparent reason."

"They do not need a reason, but they will have one. And, this reason is US Imperialist Aggression. As I have told you to get ready for this war, all had best listen up. Your days of freedom are waning. The concentration camps are set up and your Luciferian government is all in place. There is a One World Government, Child, and it is red to the core."

"My Lord, many of your Sheep will die soon, but I know that many of these evil workers of darkness will go straight down into the Pits. But, as those of us, who love you shall die, My Lord, let us die in truth and freedom. Let us not fear death, but await our victory in You. And, while we can, let us be valiant, ever bold My Lord, that our voices be not diminished but strengthened more every day by Your power. We look to the future about this war with Russia, but what about North Korea' threats to bomb us now?""

"Child, this is a threat and could easily become a reality. Realize that all is not fixed as some believe, but can be changed through free will. And, the destiny of mankind can be changed through prayer and fasting. Understand? Your job, My Child, is to warn."

"Yes, My Lord, I understand. And, I also understand how crooked ways seem right."

"Not only do crooked ways seem right to the Russians, they seem right to all Luciferians, including those, who run your government."

"My Lord, I beg you to break up this evil ring, which runs the USA and the world: and I beg you to raise up righteous leaders in this land. Please, My Lord, hear my cry."

"Child, this prayer cannot be answered right away. For, you have allowed these evil people to take over your country. However, by degrees, I shall restore this land. As you have been told, Child, a curse of God rests upon the USA; and as a nation, you have some very hard times ahead. Your military is polluted and your government is overrun with darkness. The masses sleep and the darkness in your midst grows. Child, times are perilous and many shall soon welcome death. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

Back to Room Five

"My Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus; and once more I have brought you back to My Holy Mountain and into Room Five of the Sacred Hallway far under the River of Life." "Yes, My Lord, I am here sitting in the chair and all around me are the pristine white surroundings. The air is fresh and pure and I am enveloped in complete peace and calm. Yet, My Lord, as I look in the direction of the desk with has the screen with the knob, I hear rumblings emanating from it. In fact, this small screen, which sets of the pedestal, is beginning to shake violently and steam is spewing forth from it. The spewing steam has caused the screen to tilt toward me and I see a black train coming to a screeching halt. The conductor of the train says, "All aboard now!" I see Nancy Sinatra enter the train; and she is dressed as an early US settler, wearing peasant clothes and a bonnet. Smiling, she gives the conductor a quarter and she goes a little ways down the isle and takes a seat on the right behind the conductor. But, suddenly, My Lord, her whole attire changes to that of a witch and her countenance is angry. She wears a black top hat, a black dress and even black shoes with a buckle. He teeth drip blood and she hisses as she speaks. Nancy gets up and goes back to the conductor, 'The dime is mine,' she says.

And, the conductor opens his white gloves to show her that he has no dime in his hand, but a swimming pool with very clear water. Nancy jumps into the pool, leaving the witch's costume behind; and the conductor closes him palm, putting Nancy and the pool into his pocket. But, immediately the conductor has a heart attack and falls over dead. The train, which never left the track, has many ghoulish people, and a number of them are dressed as witches and goblins. On the outside of the train are the words, 'Hell bent!'

Nancy's witch clothes lie in a pile beside the dead conductor and his feet are partly out the doors of the train. Suddenly, a fight erupts among some of the passengers and they are clawing and spitting at one another. In the very back of the train, one is drinking and smoking dope and he howls like a dog. This is Jack Nicholson. Standing before him is Marilyn Monroe; and he reaches over and pinches Marilyn Monroe on the rear end. She is scantily clad in only a corset and fishnet stockings; and she giggles as he pinches her. 'Oh, Jack you are so cute!' However, before Marilyn's very eyes, Jack Nicholson turns into a werewolf and he attacks and kills Marilyn, biting into her over and over with his very sharp teeth.

Then, in his madness the wolf runs the length of the train, panting, growling and howling. One reaches down to pick up Marilyn's shoe and I see that the person is Carol Burnett. 'Poor Marilyn,' she says. 'She never had a chance!' Elsewhere on the train are many people dressed in black. Some are busy doing arts and crafts and others are fast asleep. I see several well-known actors, a well-known chef, an admitted sex addict and some other Hollywood types from times past. One, who stands out, is Janice Joplin.

Outside the train, I see Art Linkletter and he is whistling happily. 'Where is Mary,' he questions? 'I am looking for Mary.' Trailing behind him is Bill Cosby and he, too, is whistling happily. Suddenly aware of the train, Bill stops and says, 'Funny place for a train to stop. Nothing here but a graveyard.' And, as Bill says the word 'graveyard,' I see it to his left and the entranceway bears a huge arch with the words, 'Has-beens.'

A fairy with a wand comes up behind Bill Cosby and says, 'A penny for your thoughts.' 'Oh, I better not do that,' says Bill. 'My thoughts must not be bought, lest it be known that I am the man with the plan, well, for the DNA Plot.' The fairy stands there a while and continues to talk with Bill Cosby but Bill waves his hand as to indicate 'no'. And, as he does so, the ground suddenly begins to sink beneath Bill's feet, and he quickly finds himself at the bottom of a very deep hole. Art turns around and calls out, 'Bill?' And, straightaway, he sees the perfectly round hole carved out of the ground with Bill Cosby at the bottom of it. Bill sits there smoking a cigar and typing on an old manual typewriter. 'What are you typing, Bill,' says Art. 'I am typing my obituary,' says Bill. 'Why?' questions Art. 'You have plenty of time.' 'No,' says Bill, 'I am afraid that my time is running out and I don't want to wind up in that cemetery of Has-beens or on that train, which is bent for hell. I've got some thinking to do to unmuddle the puddle. Let me see here. I have denied and lied and made it seem that I'm no father, but let me see if there is not a better way to stay involved and make wrong a right. I don't want to fight with what is mine. I love peace and people and joy. My time is almost up and I must do what is right to get out of this hole.'

Then, a thick fog, a rolling mist, falls upon Bill in the hole. It covers Art; and the train can no longer be seen. The cemetery disappears, for all is caught up in the dense fog. But, from within the deep clouds of white mist, I hear the train as it begins to start up. Its engine belches fire and smoke; and the smoke begins to cause black whirls within the dense, heavy fog. Slowly, the long black train moves down the tracks, the sounds of metal grinding against metal. Erie screeches and grinding scrapes, painful groans and chugs fill the thick air. From the sounds of the train whistle, I know that that the hell-bent train is moving slowly but surely on its path to its final destination, straight into the howling pits of hell.

"My Lord, I do not know why you gave me this vision, but I suspect that it is both a statement of fact and a warning to others to repent and to come back to you."

"Child, you have seen it."

"My Lord, we know that the crafts of Hollywood are but fantasy and so many are lost in this illusion. It pains me to know that many cry 'Lord, Lord,' but are lost in the material world. I pray that all will take heed of this black train; for any, who love the world and dismiss You and what you have to offer, will surely get caught up on this train on it journey into the dark abyss."

"My Lord, I pray for Bill Cosby, that you strengthen him and help him through his great trials, as I know that He has suffered so. I know that he has a good heart and has helped many. Bless him, My Lord; strengthen him to make the right choices about his life, for as he shall soon pass, so shall many of us. My Lord, we all need your precious love and guidance in our lives more than ever and may it be so."

"I pray for all the souls on this train and others we do not see or know about. You know that I have been on this train and by your grace you delivered me. I pray for Nancy Sinatra, My Lord, that you bring a spiritual miracle into her life. And, I thank you, My Beloved Lord, that great miracles come about in the hearts of many on this dark train, that you deliver them even at the 12th hour. In your holy name, Precious Jesus, I pray these things."

"Now, My Lord, as you have shown this train, I pray that all take it to heart and begin anew to live for you, that each of us know your grace, your love, your peace, hope, joy and beauty. Help us all, My Lord; and deliver our families from this evil, lest they get caught up in this graveyard of has-beens or on this train into hell. My Lord, so many of us worry so about our families and I beg you on behalf of so many that you bring deliverance into our families. Please, My Lord, help us. For, the ones, who love you so, weep for the lost in their families. Let your will be ours and give us the strength to carry it out. In Your Precious Name, My Lord, let it all be done."

"Worry not, My Little One, for so much is out of your hands. Be steadfast and pray always for the lost. For, you never know who will receive My Light and be a light for many others. So despair not, my Little One, but continue on in faith, knowing that many of you shall see many miracles according to your faith; and many of your family members you suppose to be lost forever shall come around."

"My Lord, we cling to this hope. I know we must continue on with the prophecy of December 02,1998 and the pirate's booklet. Please explain the phrase, which says, 'Blocked Colon and Blocked Artery.'"

"As you seek to know this, My Child, go to the door, which is marked, 'No way in and no way out;' and knock three times. Then, enter."

"My Lord, I knock three times on this very old, thick door and it is so hard that it hurts my knuckles. I believe that it is made of black marble."

"'Tis so, Child.'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"The door swings open slowly to reveal a room, which has been closed off for a long time. A musty smell pervades; and dust flies up as I take a step into the room. Something is hanging from the ceiling. On closer inspection, I see that it is the remnant of a dead chicken, which is mostly bones with a few feathers and dried skin stuck to the bones. There is little light, but I see that the walls are made of jagged stone. Surely, I am within a cave; and before me is a very narrow pathway, which leads toward the back of the cave. What shall I do?"

"Continue on."

"A cool draft sweeps past me, and I have a spooky feeling, but I know that Your Spirit is my constant friend and companion, and I know that I am safe. So, I continue on the narrow path and around some boulders until I come to a second room. Even though the lighting is very dim, I can see clearly a very large casket before me, which is placed well off the floor on a pedestal. Atop this casket is a stone statue of Lenin. My Lord, I cannot be sure, but I believe I hear a heartbeat coming from the stone statue."

"Oh, you hear it, alright."

"You mean, Lenin may look like a cold, dead statue without life, but his heart beats still."

"He has never been dead."

"Tell me more."

"His spirit roams."

"Should he not be in hell?'

"Child, Lenin was possessed by demons of great measure."

"You mean, like Hitler?'

"Exactly."

"So, it's the same old demons haunting the same old places."

"Unless they are remanded back to hell; and most don't get sent back."

"Why?"

"There are two reasons: 1. No one with authority in the Earth has done so; and 2. Your Father has allowed them to stay."

"I see."

"So, Lenin's demons are just waiting to take over again?"

"They have and you know it not."

"You mean, people think that Lenin is asleep, but this is a lie."

"Exactly. People believe that Lenin is a thing of the past, dead, and out 'yonder.' But, he is alive."

"Well, My Lord, what does 'No Way in and No Way out mean?'"

"Child, it means that you have been tricked if you believe that you have caused a fall of communism in Russia. You have no way in and no way out in this. Understand?"

"No, My Lord."

"Democracy has no way in and no way out."

"I'm still lost."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"Child, freedom has no way in and no way out of communism. It cannot get in and it cannot get out. See?"

"Yes, My Lord, now that you say, ‘freedom.’"

"Child, communism is forced slavery. It is Luciferian at the core. The truth does not get in and it does not get out."

"But, My Lord, I know that Bibles have gone into Russia and that some people have been able to come out out of Russia."

"Yes, my Child, this is so; but truth, My truth has not reached the minds of the communist leaders. They will not change; for they are communists, who are owned by Lucifer, and controlled by demons of great statue. These people will not change, so you must see that there is no way in and no way out."

"But, My Lord, I pray for miracles."

"Child, you will see Russia go back full red; and when they can no longer drain you, they will become once more your arch enemies. They have played your games to use you. You have not made inroads into the minds of the communist leaders. They have played you for fools and they have told you what you have wanted to know."

"So, My Lord, no way out means that these evil people will not change, no matter what."

"They will not. Many, many will die of starvation, disease and natural calamities; and when I come I will set those free, who are worthy and the rest will take the train straight into hell. All demons will be commanded into hell by Me and they will stay for the thousand years of the Millenium. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord. But, until then, certain of your servants have the authority to send them there right now?" "Yes, My Child, so long as this is also your Father's will; and all should seek His will in such."

"So, we have seen the stone statue of Lenin with his heart still beating, but tell me about the blocked artery."

"See, My Child, there is no way into the heart, the center of communism, as the artery is blocked. And, the colon is blocked meaning there is no way out. The died-in-the-wool communists will not change. There is no way out for them as they are dark and evil and you sill not get through to them, ever. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, let us resume at another time. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

Innuendo and Cover-up

"Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus; and I honor your prayers, especially as regards the souls, who are lost to the Luciferian ways and held captive in the underground tunnels and labs. Many of them never see the light of day. They are held in total darkness, save the small amount of light, which drifts down the tunnel corridors. They are skin and bones, subject to the worst of concentration camp conditions."

"Why don't the just kill them? This would be merciful."

"Child, as those in times past, such as Hitler and Stalin; they get strength from the suffering of others."

"Strength?"

"Yes, My Child. They suck up the energies given off through suffering, and this energy actually feeds their frenzy, much like what the mass murderers do. They feed on suffering; it is actually food to them. Child, you read of the Russian plan to reinstate the gulags and their statements of making the prisoners work and suffer until they die. Suffering feeds them with energy and fans their evil as oxygen fans a fire."

"My Lord, this is sad; and it makes me feel sick."

"For this same reason, Child, they have reinstated the concentration camps among you, to torture you, to watch you suffer in agony as they watched Me."

"My Lord, what can we do?"

"Child, you can organize and converge on your congress about them; for they should not be among you. Stop their secret works by making them known. But, you must do more than make their works known. You must deluge your congress with mail, phone calls and visits demanding to know about these evil works and demand that these camps be destroyed! Do you understand? Demand that they be bulldozed under. Destroyed. Each of you must stop being passive. Armed with the truth about these camps, demand that they be shut down! Child, all of you vigilant ones must work; for the night is upon you. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"You cannot keep turning your back on the works of these Luciferians. You have a war on your hands, Child; and already you are in the midst of it, while the people are lulled to sleep by the lying, rogue Jews. Child, the story of the lying, rogue Jews is deep, deep, deep; and we shall get into this soon!"

"My Lord, I know that they want to take me out. How long do I have?"

"Child, you may have many years, depending on your desire to live. This constant war wears you down and it is not easy for you. But, I am with you and so are many angels. And, remember that your Father Jehovah never leaves your side. Soon, Child, you shall see His glory. And, so shall your husband."

"My Precious Lord, I beg to see Your glory and that of my Father and I await this in love and obedience, in anticipation, yet patience. For, in all things, the will of God be done."

"Now, My Child, you have questions still about the prophecy of December 02, 1998."

"Yes, my Lord, the Fifth Page of the Pirate's Book says Innuendo and Cover-up. These killed Bill Clinton."

"Child, you see that Bill Clinton is faced with impeachment, but My Child, this impeachment is scarcely about Monica Lewinsky, or even about his lying under oath. It goes much deeper into things like grand theft, murder for hire, fraud and money laundering. My Child, these things are known but have been craftily covered up and hidden by Bill Clinton and his Luciferian allies. His downfall covers a string of dark deeds, which would make Richard Nixon look like a schoolboy. But, his innocent face and your Jewish rogue press cover for him as he carries their agenda well."

"Which is?"

"To tear down your military and open you up for foreign invasion. Child, when have you seen a president so willing to go into war at the drop of a pin?"

"Never."

"This is right."

"He is willing to risk your invasion on any given day. But, My Child, you must remember the mind control being used on him; and since he is evil to the core, the mind control works well."

"My Lord, tell me more about how this mind control works."

"My Child, the Luciferians have used mind control through electronic impulses. People, who are unstable emotionally, or who are given to dark impulses, exhibit increased aggression, especially those in the inner city ghettos. But, those, who are righteous, are not as easily affected; and they know this. However, they continue to scheme and in so doing have been able to infiltrate many churches with messages like, ‘everything is just fine.’ And, the federal number for tax-free status has also been used to maintain control over them. After all, a money-oriented church will not bite the Luciferian hand, which gives it tax-free status. For, this reason, many of your churches will not ‘see.’ In addition, with this tax ID number comes a Luciferian covering, which is unseen to those, who accept it."

"My Lord, I have seen this covering over the churches and it is very scary."

"Now, My Child, do you understand the above statements about Clinton?"

"Yes, My Lord, but why is all this about Clinton in the Pirate's notebook?"

"Child, it is in the notebook because Clinton is part of the pirate's leg."

"You mean that he is an extension of communism?"

"Yes, My Child, but this walk will backfire on Clinton and he will die an early death because of it."

"Why?"

"Child, he knows too much. He is a weak link and no longer needed."

"My Lord, open the eyes of the members of the congress and make them see the rogues running this country. Make them read every bill and be accountable. Please, My Lord, start a fire among them. I am begging you to help us, please, my Lord. We are in dire need."

"So, I shall, My Little One. Go this day in peace and know that I am Jesus, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 12th day of December 1998,

Linda Newkirk

My Precious Brothers, much has come to pass since I was given this prophecy. We have seen the liars in the Senate uphold and love a lie when they voted not guilty for Bill Clinton. This decision marked this country and for this dark deed our Father has poured out a great darkness over the White House. His anger has been severely stirred and this country as a whole is about to be severely judged. This shall come swiftly now and many shall never know what happened as they die in the aftermath of great tragedies.

The Glory of the Lord…

Note: For several weeks, I begged to see the glory of the Lord and one night perhaps a month or so after the above prophecy, I dreamt that I was visiting with an elderly aunt, who died about a year ago. In this dream, she looked much younger and was teaching a class of alcoholics and drug addicts. I meandered to the back of the class and listened for a minute or so and left through the back door of the classroom, finding myself not exiting, but entering a smaller room. I noticed that I was carrying a few objects, which appeared to be plates. I looked around the room and noticed that it was bare save a very long table.

As I looked at a corner just across the room, I could see a light begin to emerge within it. As I beheld the light it began to grow in size and intensity until it became very bright, as bright as the sun. Its radiance began to frighten and overpower me. Within the all-consuming light, I began to see the form of a man, and he radiated with the light of the sun. Trembling and overcome with this power, which filled the whole room, I fell upon my face, knowing that I was beholding the glory of our Lord Jesus, our Beloved Christ.

The powerful force of the light caused the plates to shatter into myriad pieces, as they were forced from my arms. I believe that the plates are the plates upon which the Mormon church is founded and that they shall all be shattered by the light of our Lord. For seven years, I belonged to the Mormon Church, and have often wondered whether The Book of Mormon is based on fact of myth. In this dream, our Lord shows me that He is going to shatter the myth of these plates.

Because I was literally forced on my face, and cowered in fear because of the power of the glory of the Lord, I now understand why every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus is Lord. It is woe for those, who do not know or understand His love and power. For, He comes this time not to make peace, but to make war. He comes not as a dove, but as a lion. He comes not with the staff, but with the sword. Woe, woe, woe to those, who reject the truth of our Lord; for they shall wander aimlessly in darkness.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

The Vision of the US House of Representatives

"My Precious Child, I am Master Jesus, full of love and mercy for My Beloved Sheep. The world mourns beneath the weight of oppression; and wars of rumors of wars rage.

My Little One, you have asked for extra strength and anointing this day so as to be able to work on the next "Message." Find yourself upon My Holy Mountain with My sword in your right hand and the rod of Moses clutched to your chest. Child, take the rod of Moses and hit the top of the US House seven times."

"Yes, My Lord, I have taken the rod and have done as you have asked, hitting the top of this building seven times. And, suddenly, I see a great fire start in the middle of the floor in the House, which is the fire of God; and it travels up and down the aisles and rows quickly. Some don't seem to notice, but others cower and hide beneath the seats. I hear the voice of Our Father Jehovah, which is loud and resounding like many thunders and He says, "I am a just God, full of mercy and compassion, but with the USA and its immorality, I am angered. I crack my whip over this House and blood shall run down the aisles!"

Immediately, I see blood running down the aisles, entering the rows, building up around the ankles of those sitting there, but they do not seem to notice it. The blood quickly climbs up their legs and bodies until it completely covers them and they sit as if frozen, not making a sound, save a gurgle here and there. Beyond, the blood-covered members of the House is Henry Hyde, standing before them, a mighty statesman; and now and then the sound of the gavel punctuates Mr. Hyde's speech.

A large, black snake swims around in the blood and hisses now and then. But, all continues to be quiet, save Mr. Hyde, who is speaking. Out of his mouth come Your Words, My Lord Jesus:

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"You are a nation of vipers, a sorry people, who have given way to lies over truth. You have failed to be vigilant and evil has taken you over. On your hands is the blood of innocents and you bother not to look or be responsible; instead you applaud liars and give deference to murderers. Woe to America! Woe to the USA! For, you have dropped the babe of peace. Blind, you have led nations to war as you have pushed out God. You have allowed the murders of millions of innocent babes and the blood is upon you. Shall you escape the end-result of your murders? Nay, for when you fall from grace and love killing and what it can do, you fall under the law and the law is an eye for an eye."

"Few in this House know Me, but Henry Hyde pushes for truth. Black is not white and white is not black, but huge numbers have forgotten this. A murderous government and lying and deceiving Congress have taken over the land as you have allowed it. Where are the righteous, who stand for truth and fear not their loss of life for truth? Where are the preachers of The Word, who should be warning the flock of the ravenous wolves? Yea, you have become a nation of vipers, who thrive on violence and love complacency. The blood of the innocents rests not only upon your leaders, but on every one, who has loved a lie over truth. It rests upon everyone, who straddles the fence and loves both sides.

Yea, I spew the lukewarm out of my mouth. I want none of this. Those, who love Me love righteousness, are on fire for truth. They sit not idly by, doing nothing; but are armed with truth, prayer and fasting, they forge ahead. They never give up, but grow in determination, so long as they live and they stand for righteousness at all costs.

What kind of person gives up when the pressure builds? What kind of person says "yea" when I say "nay?" What kind of person backs down because the group goes one way, but I say go another?

Yea, My Children, know that mine are being put through the fire. Your weaknesses are being brought to the surface. Will you sink because of them? Or, will you rise to new and greater heights in Me, as you desire truth, and righteousness?

I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

"A Lie is a Lie and More…"

"My Precious Child, I am you Master Jesus. Yea, today is the eve of your Christmas Day; but sadly, Child, this day has become a mockery of Me and what I stand for. Child, did I not come to show you a simple and uncomplicated way? Yet, The masses love glamour. They love the illusion of Christmas and get lost in its 'stuff.' Child, if you do not give from the heart, it is pointless to give."

"My Lord, I understand and feel a great freedom in being delivered from the desire to give to feed the merchants' commercial markets. True giving is a release in my soul and it brings in your Spirit."

"'Tis so, Child. For, charity is filled with love and charity blesses the one, who gives and the one, who receives; for it is full of love and compassion. Charity makes the world go 'round."

"My Lord, I understand."

"Now, My Little One, find yourself high upon My Holy Mountain; and you are standing on a narrow ledge. The wind of My Spirit blows swiftly bringing a coolness, but a warmth to your soul."

"Yes, My Lord, this is so; but today I feel so ragged and old."

"My Child, you are neither ragged nor old. Now, Little One, take the key called 'Jesus is the key' from the ring around your waist and go deep into the River to Door Five. You have questions about the sixth item in the Pirate's notebook and this question is 'A lie is a lie is a lie.'"

"Yes, My Lord, I have questions about this and more. I take the key as you say and I place it in the door before me and suddenly I am swept into the crystalline Aquamarine River and feel myself radiating with its pure beauty. Down, down, down I swim in this pure River, engulfed in its cleansing waves. I emerge from the river and enter the hallway going to Door Five. The door, seeming to sense my presence, swings open before me and I enter beholding the chair, in which I have sat before. However, it seems that the heavens are opened up and where I would have seen a terrain bathed in white, I am beholding a night sky with many twinkling stars and even a spiral nebula. It seems as if I am on the edge of space looking far into its enigmatic beauty."

"Child, you are on the edge of Heaven, itself."

"On the edge?"

"Indeed, for the River has taken you here. But, for now, sit in the chair and we shall discuss item six of the Pirate's booklet."

"My Lord, I have gotten a real handle on a lie is a lie is a lie and how it pertains to Bill Clinton."

"Yes, My Child; for he is a steward or Lucifer. He serves the same master as the pirate; and the truth does not reside in Lucifer or in those, who serve him. What you have seen of Bill Clinton as regards lying, you will always see; for he knows no other say. He worships Lucifer and is guided by Lucifer and by others, who also serve him. They do not care about Bill Clinton. It is just that Clinton has served them and Lucifer well and they may not have another, who is as effective next time."

"My Lord, because so many cannot tell the difference between the truth and a lie and love a lie and what it can do for them means that we are in serious trouble as a nation."

"You are and for this very reason you shall fall as a nation. Long ago, you, as a people, gave up on the notion of honesty in government. Now, My Child, at the 12th hour, you will try to reinstate honesty; but you are fighting an up-hill battle. Communists (Luciferians) have taken over the USA from the top and they govern the USA in secret. But, do not give up, My Child. Never give up on truth. Never! Never!"

"My Lord, truth is my life. There is no other reason to live, save to serve truth. My Lord, you are our truth."

"'Tis so, My Child; now let us proceed to item Seven of the Pirate's Booklet."

"My Lord, it says, "Blusterous blunders shall plague those, who love darkness."

"Yes, My Child, look at Russia and its blusterous blunders. It is in ruins because of its game to manipulate the world. And, the red tide is running Russia, but beneath the red is great blackness. Internal corruption has caused the disintegration of Russia and its satellites; but do not be deceived. They have enough fire power to destroy the whole world."

"My Lord, I beg you to destroy their evil bombs in mass. Cause them to malfunction."

"Child, you shall see this come to pass in. Many of their bombs shall fall on their own cities."

"How so?"

"Through blusterous blunders."

"When, My Lord?"

"Have you not seen this in the spring of '99?"

"I have."

"Then, you shall see this and more."

"What about the USA?"

"Aren't you in a mess?"

"Yes, My Lord, with wars and rumors of wars."

"Yes, My Child; but this is not all. Look."

"What am I seeing, My Lord, out in the night sky?"

"Child, you are seeing a Luciferian fleet of space ships about to converge on the Earth."

"About to converge?"

"This is so."

"Many shall see them in open day light cruising your skies. They hold many of you captive and are using you as slaves. They have implanted many of your bodies with chips and blast you with mind control torture."

"How many are captive on these ships?"

"Many thousands."

"Don't people know that they are missing?"

"They do; but fear that the missing are dead. Many have been lost for years."

"How much worse is this going to get?"

"Much worse."

"When will these craft begin to be visible to the people?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"In February ’99."

"Where?"

"Over large cities like Paris, Rome and even in the USA in cities like Atlanta, Ga. Many will see them stationed in the skies for hours. Unfortunately, many will believe them to be friendly and will die for it."

"How?"

"They will be targeted and sucked aboard them, where they will be implanted. Also, My Child, the irradiation given off by these ships is very dangerous. It is cancer causing; and it will destroy the electromagnetic fields around your body and open you up to disease."

"My Lord, we feel so powerless."

"Yes, My Child, but you are not powerless. You have Me and your Father. So, get busy fasting and praying for their demise. Your Father will protect you and so will I as well as many leagues of angels. You are not in this war alone; but you have an endless supply of backups. Fear not, My Child; but be at peace in Me."

"My Lord, You are our only Way, our precious salvation for which I am filled with great humility, love and peace. My Lord, I am not afraid and ask only that the will of our Father be done in all things and to His glory."

"Very well, Child; let us proceed to the Eighth Page of the Pirate’s booklet, which shows a spotted dog lapping up milk to the tune of ‘When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Child, what does the spotted dog represent?"

"My Lord, I do not know."

"Go to his side and open the door. What do you see?"

"I see Bill Clinton in bed with Hillary and he is caressing her shoulder and saying, 'I love you, Hillary.'" But, suddenly, Hillary turns into a rabid dog with fangs, which are dripping blood. This rabid dog then turns into a demon, which looks like a dragon and leaps out of bed and onto the windowsill of the open window. The dragon/demon/ Hillary suddenly jumps through the open window and lands on the White House lawn, where it sits on a white bench. Once again, this demon turns into Hillary and it sits on the bench cracking and eating peanuts. As she flicks the shells out onto the lawn, she repeats, 'Love you, love you not, love you, love you not.' However, quickly she stops the chant; and she leaps back through the window and goes to Bill and says, 'Bill, we've gotta go. They're kicking us out!' But, Bill will not awaken. 'We've gotta go, dammit Bill, they're kicking us out!' But, Bill will not awaken. Instead he is caught up in a dream and sees himself leading a marching band. The band is called US Marching Band and Bill leads it, marching along, blowing his whistle; and the band obediently follows. Now and then, Bill turns and makes them play, 'Hail to the Chief.'

"Suddenly, Hillary turns into a black puddle and is reduced to the size of a midget of maybe only three feet high. She keeps on calling to Bill, "We've gotta go, we've gotta go! They're kicking us out! But, Bill will not awaken. Suddenly, a large bucket of ice water tips over from above and falls right on Bill. He awakens with a startle and sits up in bed. Breathless and frightened, he takes a handkerchief from a maid and dries his face. He looks before him, and he can barely make out what he sees, but he knows that there is writing in the light before him. "It says, Bill Clinton impeached by small margin."

"So, My Lord, he shall be made to leave office."

"Child, go back to the Mop Squad. Remember this."

"Yes, My Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1998

"And, Hussein and others came for Clinton and put him in the trash truck."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Well, you shall see Hillary Clinton push him out of the White House in a wheel chair and you shall see shots ring out around your land. Bill Clinton's actions shall bring down the USA as your sleeping president has served Lucifer well. Child, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

"1999 & 33+33+33"

"My Precious Child, I am Master Jesus. Yea, you have prayed long and hard this day to be able to receive. For, you have been burdened with much lately and still you are concerned for the downfall of others. Yea, I have brought you once more to My Holy Mountain and you stand high upon this ledge. Take My key, enter through the door, and follow The River."

"Yes, My Lord. I have the key in hand, which reads, 'Jesus is the key,' and I open this door. Immediately, I am caught up in a crystal clear, aquamarine river, which is so very warm and soothing. I feel its healing waters through and through and its radiance bathes me, washing away my sorrows. But, I see something behind me. What is this?"

"Child, this is the remnant of your sorrow."

"Please heal this, My Lord."

"Child, surface and sit on the white rock."

"My Lord, I clear the water and go to the white rock which is called, 'Jesus is the Rock.' Steam begins to form around me and I see a great light before me as bright as the sun. Within this light is You, My Lord, bathed in pure glory and dressed in a white robe with a gold sash. I hear you, My Lord, as you say, 'Come hither, My Child.' But, I am so very afraid, as you are afire with the radiance of God. I feel so imperfect and small, as a dot in the scheme of things; and I feel so unworthy to behold your radiance as I am so puny."

"Yea Child, you are puny, but I have chosen you and your Father has chosen you. Your work is hard and the oppression is great; but I love you, My Child, more than you will ever know. And, your Father is jealous for you, as a Mother Hen is toward her chicks.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

He watches over you with keen vision and awareness: and He knows how hard times have been. Come, My Child, and stand up."

"My Lord, this light is blinding."

"Yes, My Child, but come to Me."

My Heart quivers as I break out running and the power and light of The Lord envelops me like a warm glove. The peace of Our Lord is all consuming as I beg, "Please take my sadness, My Lord and give me joy."

"See it leave, Child. See it gone."

"Yes, My Lord, it is suddenly gone and I feel complete joy, caught up in such beauty and freedom. As the sadness goes, I hear a tinkling, like that of wind chimes."

"My Little One, what do you see?"

"My Lord, I see a most beautiful waterfall of pure, glistening water and I hear a rumbling as that of a earthquake."

"Child, you are beholding the River of Life. Jump into it."

"So, I shall, My Lord."

"Then, go to Door # 7."

"My Lord, I jump into The River at the waterfall, and the current is very swift. Quickly, I am carried down, down, down in its aquamarine radiance to a door, which reads, # 7. This door opens quickly and closes readily behind me. Suddenly, The River is gone and I find myself in a room, which is bathed in radiant pink light. But, this light does not stay long, for it is immediately displaced by a wave of light blue light. The blue soon gives way to green, then to radiant golden- white. Then, the colors come in quick successive waves, one after the other. While this is beautiful beyond words, I do not understand why."

"Nay, Child, you will not understand now; but take what the angel has on the tray."

"My Lord, these are large numbers and they read, '1999.'"

"Yes, My Child, go and stand in the shallow pool and drop the numbers in the pool. Write what you see."

"My Lord, the numbers drop at my feet and as they splatter in the water, they create a blast of fire. Quickly, the fire settles and I see German soldiers marching under the direction of Hitler. Near Hitler is a banner, which reads, 'Germany on the rise, 1999. 33+33+33. These are the numbers.' Before Hitler on a large desk is the book, Mein Kampf. He turns the pages in the book until he comes to a page called Dusseldorf area. Then, he smacks his lips and says, 'Give me a smoke, Bill.' (Note: This is from Webster's Dictionary: "Mein Kampf is a book written by Adolf Hitler while in prison in 1924, telling his political beliefs, theories, etc. and outlining a plan for the domination of Europe.")

Bill Clinton stands up with a lighter in his hand, but he is very thin. In fact, when he turns sideways, he is paper-thin. Clinton lights the cigar, which says, 'Germany is the big cigar.' Suddenly, the cigar unfolds to show the flag of the USA, which is in flames. It appears that at least one third of the flag is burning.

"Then, My Lord, I see several flutists and a sole drummer. The rear ends of the flutists are smoking and their huge feet say, 'Russia on the prowl.' The sole drummer looks like a toy soldier with a red face and the drum is written, 'China' on one side, and 'Hates the USA' on the other."

"Suddenly, the vision is gone, My Lord, and I am still in this pool of water, which is now steaming. At my feet is a dead duck, and on the back of the duck are the words, 'Clinton is the dead duck.' A door in the back of the duck opens and I see Clinton lying in a pool of blood. Over him is a fat man, who is smoking a cigar. This fat man wears a shirt made of the stars and stripes; his head is bald and he wears a headband which says, 'Europe first.' This man wears thong sandals and his big toes are very large. The left toe says, 'Germany is' and the right toe says, 'The Big Toe.' The man called Europe lights a cigar which says, 'USA going down!' and he begins to dance a jig as he sings:

'I am first,
A man,
A man,
I am first,
I can,
I can.
See me blow
A cloud of smoke.
A hill,
A bean.
Ha Ha!'

"My Lord, I don't understand this."

"No, Child, but you shall. 1999 shall put an end of the USA world dominance. This, you can be sure of. It is no longer possibly or maybe, but certainly. You have been warned and the wise will listen. Be free of debts and get prepared in Me. Get strong spiritually; and get on the straight and narrow and stay there. You cannot believe your senses this year. Truth and freedom rest in Me. This year, the economic house in the USA will tumble down, down, down. Child, this year brings the end of an era. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God of Earth.

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

"The Cricket and the Newspaper, and more"

"Precious Child, blessed are you; for you come once more to climb My Holy Mountain and to swim the pure River. Child, yours is a great battle and life is very hard for you; but remember, My Child: I shall never desert you, for I am sealed to you. And, by nature of your being sealed to Me, you are sealed to your Father. Though Lucifer shall mock and stalk the ones, who are sealed, he shall meet with failure in those, who serve Me in truth. For, I shall make his works come to naught."

"My Children, you have been told not to believe your senses; for your senses lie. Your senses want to believe what your media tells you. Lucifer knows that he is guaranteed a time, so you must understand that the Luciferians will get bolder and bolder and more and more oppressive. Fear not, My Children; for through your faith you will overcome. Through your faith, you will take authority over this evil and rid your homes of its dark influences. You have several years of persecution and darkness; but I am the Light of the World. Those, who do not know Me are already lost in the darkness. Those, who cling to Me and serve Me and serve your Father's purposes, shall have light in the midst of the greatest night. Fear not, My Little Ones; but you must work, work, work; for a great night is falling and many, many millions, yea even billions will soon be exiting the earth sphere. Those, who love and serve Me, will be hunted like animals and killed. If you are found and captured, go readily. Do not meet violence with violence. If it is the will of God, the Father, your life will be spared. Seek His will in all things. I am merciful and your Father is merciful; and through this mercy, many of your will not feel the sting of death. Know, this, believe it and; and ask for this mercy."

"Now, My Child, let us go back to the message of the 2nd of December and finish up with the Pirate's booklet."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

"Yes, My Lord, we have finished with the spotted dog lapping up milk, but I have one question, ‘Who is the spotted dog?’"

"My Child, Bill Clinton is the spotted dog."

"You mean, black and white, which stands for good laced with darkness."

"Exactly. Full or lies."

"Tell me more about the tune, ‘When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

"Well, this refers to Clinton, of course, leading the marching band."

"But, My Lord, he won’t be marching in the US marching band much longer."

"Exactly, Child. He will come marching home, but unfortunately for him, his home is one of great darkness, even into the Lake of Fire and torment. My Child, he has fooled many a one; but this spotted dog does not fool Me or your Father."

"This is why we find the spotted dog in the Russian notebook of deceit."

"You see both Bill and Hillary in the notebook. Fools are those, who cast a vote for Hillary. Remember, Child, the two would still be living as husband and wife if he had not gotten caught. All these years, she supported his evil works because they served her well. She knew of them, but remember: She has also lived a life of perverse sexual relationships. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord; and they would never divorce all those years because he could bring down the house of cards on her."

"Exactly."

"So, when we go to the 9th Page of the Pirate's booklet and see that 'Jimmeny Cricket was here'; and we see the cricket eating newspapers, does this relate to all the shredded Clinton documents?"

"'Yes' and 'No', My Child. It relates to the black truck before you."

"My Lord, I am looking at a very old black truck from maybe the '30s."

"'Tis so."

"And, this black truck has a driver, who is wearing a black cap, like those worn by the old taxi drivers. But, the mouth of the driver is taped shut. In the back of the truck are six five-gallon jugs, which bear a clear liquid. This truck is parked along side a curb and the name of the street is Pennsylvania Avenue. I have no idea why I am seeing this."

"No, Child, not yet. But, open the hood of the truck and write as you see."

"My Lord, there is no engine. And, in its place is a wooden tray filled with all many, small paper packets; which are sealed shut. Beside the packets is a long string of white pearls and on the pearls are the words 'Words of Wisdom.' I open the packets one by one and am very surprised to see that all contain only shredded paper."

" 'Tis so, Child; but you have not seen all. There is a secret compartment in the bottom of the tray below the packets and the pearls. Open it."

"My Lord, I remove the packets and place them alongside the pearls outside the truck on the curb; but as I do so, a stiff wind sweeps by and grabs hold of every one, carrying them hither and yon across the street. I continue on as you direct, removing next the wooden floor of the tray. What a cloud of dust and mold! I can hardly get my breath! I step back to watch the moldy dust lifting from the bottom of the tray and swirling, much like a dust devil. This dust is working up a storm, which goes on for two or three minutes. My Lord, there are people underneath this swirling, moldy mess.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

Clearly, I see Hitler talking with another, whom I believe to be Mussolini. Hitler raises his pants leg to show a knife in a case and Mussolini is muttering words I do not understand. Before them is a bottle of whiskey; and both are drinking from shot glasses. Beneath the table is a huge cricket, which looks like Jimmeny Cricket; and it is busy chewing up newspaper. Beside it is a pile of newspaper, which has been chewed into tiny pieces. My Lord, I do not understand what I am seeing."

"No, My Child, you do not; but remember that you saw the cricket on the 9th page of the Pirate's booklet."

"Yes, My Lord; but what does the truck represent?"

"Child, this truck is called 'shame and disgrace.'"

"So, why is the driver's mouth closed?"

"Because he is the driver of the truck."

"Still, I am lacking on understanding."

"Child, look at the six bottles."

"My Lord, they look like water; but as I look closer I see that they are filled with all manner of body parts."

"'Tis so, Child. They are filled with all manner of body parts."

"Tell me more about this, My Lord."

"Child, this black truck is parked on Pennsylvania Avenue (For those living in other lands, Pa. Ave is the street on which the White House is located.)"

"I see this, My Lord."

"Child, look at the wheels of the truck."

"My Lord, I see that it has no tires, but only rims."

"Exactly, it is not going anywhere."

"But, My Lord, I seem to be missing something."

"Child, you need to know that this truck serves the White House well."

"How?"

"Through Hitler and Mussolini."

"You mean, through Communism and Fascism."

"Exactly."

"But, I do not fully understand the role of the cricket."

"Child, you will never find a record of communism or fascism in the White House; for all has been chewed up and destroyed."

"Why are Hitler and Mussolini drinking whiskey?"

"Their drunkenness rules the USA."

"What do you mean?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

"Child, their drunken uninhibited state has taken over the USA. They are uninhibited and wild in what they are doing to the USA and around the world. Their goal is to conquer all and leave no paper trail."

"I understand this, but why are the body parts in the jug and why are there six jugs?"

"There are six jugs for six strong years of killing for body parts. Many of your youth, who have disappeared, have been killed for body parts. Child, this has become a huge market and will only increase during the next six years. Many in power have received the body parts of innocent youth. The Luciferians desire to kill innocent Christian youth and wear their body parts. And, the government, which is ruling your country, is in on it. These ruthless people are Clinton's friends; he runs in this circle and he is a spotted dog to the core. This is a deep shame, Child; and it is hushed up."

"But, why am I seeing a truck of the 30's era?"

"Because, My Child, the ruthless form of government, which took hold all these years past, in Germany and Italy is thriving well in the capitol of the USA. I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God.

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

The Senate Prophecy

"As I prayed this morning, our Lord Jesus said, 'Take the rod of Moses and hit the Senate chamber seven times.' So, I took the rod and pounded the Senate seven times. Then, I saw a great fire start in the Senate and heard sounds of breaking, crashing glass. Then, I beheld glass falling in great shards all around the periphery of the Senate. From within the clamor of the breaking glass, I heard our Father God Jehovah say, 'A portion of mine anger!' Immediately I saw a huge bucket appear over the Senate; and it began to pour out a liquid fire called 'Wrath of God.'"

"The wrath of God fire spread throughout the Senate; and it began to escalate in intensity. Amidst the roaring fire, I heard our Father Jehovah say, 'A double portion for the White House!' Suddenly I saw two buckets appear over the White House and from the buckets came a double portion of this roaring fire. Clearly, I saw the words, 'seducing spirits' among the flames. The fire filled with seducing spirits poured into the White House, quickly overcoming it, rushing out the doors and windows, and heading down Pennsylvania Avenue. It burned a road into the Capitol Building; its red flames shooting upward creating a great cloud of smoke. This cloud of smoke resembled a great mushroom cloud from an atomic explosion; and within the smoke I saw the words: 'Lucifer's Delight!'"

"Then, I heard music like that of an Irish tune; with the voice of a man singing: 'Weep no more my lady!' Suddenly, the arm holding the torch broke off the Statue of Liberty, and it came crashing down, taking away the light from The Lady. As I looked upon her face, I saw tears streaming abundantly from her eyes; and she muttered, 'Justice for a penny. Freedom for a dime. For a nickel, a place in any man's pocket.' Then, the statue began to cough; and plumes of dark smoke belched from her mouth. Upon the smoke rode words in a stream, much like those pulled behind airplanes in advertising campaigns. These are the words I saw:

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

‘Liberty is as liberty does,
A rope,
A noose,
A hangman’s noose.
For, hope divine
Is all that’s left
For a giant so blind.
It is blind.
It is blind.’

The statue continued to spew out great plumes of smoke and to shed many more tears; and alas, I heard more words coming from within the smoke and tears:

‘No hope for me,
You see.
No hope for me,
Save what is shed
In the blood,
Of The Perfect Man Divine
With the plan
Of salvation for all.
For, I am dead,
Save for His grace.
Look at my face.
It is black
With the soot
Of unrepentant sin.
Save for His grace,
No one can win.
No one can win!

Then, I looked out across New York City and it was very dark, with muted lights twinkling here and there. Across the city and for miles above the city lay a dark, heavy blanket; and from within the blanket of darkness, I heard the voice of a young child cry out. Suddenly, a beautiful, perfect, blond child emerged from within the darkness; and the child said, "Help me; for I am a Child of God; and, I shall not be consumed of this darkness. Yea, within me is a ray of hope for all humanity. Yea, I am a Child of God and I shall not be lost.'

"Yea, 'tis so, Child. I am Jesus, yea Jehovah, Most High God of Earth."

After thoughts of the tragedy in the Senate

In this message you see that Our Father has poured out His wrath on the Senate and has given the White House a double portion, filling the White House and the Capitol Building with his wrath and hoards of seducing spirits. We see the fire of God's anger and see that the US Capitol is Lucifer's delight. Why? Because so many love lies, and what lies can do for them. When the votes rolled in, time after time lovers of lies stood up and voted not guilty. By making these blasphemous choices before God and all mankind, they have become cohorts in Lucifer's plan of deception for the American people and the world. They have chosen darkness over light; they have been bought with a penny, a nickel, or a dime.

On the day of this vote, you witnessed firsthand the political whores and prostitutes in control of this country. This is a sad day in this land, and I believe that a great judgment will befall this land very, very soon. Each senator, who voted to cover up for Clinton, to put him above the law, will fall under the Clinton curses in some way. In time, we will see this come to pass in the lives of many, many of them. They will lose in many ways, whether it is through sickness, disease, death, poverty and so on.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

In previous prophecies, you may have read of the vision wherein the congress of the USA is shut down; it lights are put out. These elected officials had a choice to follow God's laws and to follow the laws of the land. They had a choice to do what is right; and they have let us down. They have let God down. They have made our system of government a mockery before the world, placing themselves above the law.

Woe, woe, woe to the political whores, who have been bought for a penny, a nickel, or a dime. Our Father's wrath has fallen upon them and upon the government of this once great land!

CHAPTER THIRTY

Timely Advice for All, and The Last of the Pirate's Booklet

"My Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus. Blessed are you, My Little One; for you have persevered against great obstacles to come to the final chapter of this book. Few know or understand the great inner struggles you have faced and the great spiritual battles you have had to fight day after day. Few realize the nature of this great war at hand and the great amount of spiritual discipline you have needed to continue on in these works amidst illness and great changes. My Child, I realize your love for Me and you need to understand that My love for you is without bounds; and so it is for all.

You know, My Child, that I have not cast you into the midst of wolves that they can devour you. My Child, I have sent you My Spirit, which is sealed to you. And, I have sent many angels, who fight for you constantly. Long ago Lucifer would have sifted you as chaff; but, My Child, he has not done so; for I have prodded you through the doors, which I opened for you before the foundations of the world. Yes, My Child, so long ago, this great day was known. And, My Faithful Warriors were known, selected and groomed, even then. My Child, you have known the truth of this time so very long; and when you heard My voice, you recognized it. See? My Sheep hear My voice and they know it. And, so it is, My Child, the world over. I have called Mine from their work, from their play and from their schools. I have called Mine; and they have heard. They hear Me; and they know the seriousness of this time; for it has been inculcated deep within their souls. And, now, My Child as a shepherd blows his horn to gather up his sheep, I am making My final call for Mine to wake up, to listen and to come back. For, the ravenous wolves are roaming in large packs; and there is no safety beyond that, which I provide. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord, I understand this more than ever. And, I have never been more worried about the souls of so many. For, so few care about anything save a good time, another movie, or another night out. And, in no way can they see how lost they are."

"Child, this is the great delusion, and it has fallen upon the minds of the people. They cannot hear and they cannot see; for they love the world, and they do not love Me. My Child, they are blinded by the glamour of the world and they are deafened by its raucous sounds. And, for their love of the world, they are caught up in the rapids of the dark river, which goes into the land of darkness. My Little One, the numbers of these are in the billions."

"My Lord, I am so saddened by this that I can hardly bear it. Some we love have been so cruel and want to steal every last bit of peace in our lives. I am so deeply, deeply saddened for what is about to unfold."

"My Child, this is a warning to all: Keep your eyes on Me. For, Lucifer will use other family members to knock you off center. Then, he will come in and beat you to shreds emotionally. Stay away from those, who are in rebellion. It does not matter if they call themselves family. Remember, I said that My mother and My brother and My sister are those, who do the will of God. The rebellious do not do God's will. My Little Ones, they will steal your peace. Stay away from the rebellious. Guard your peace and keep love in your home. Set boundaries as to what is allowed and what is not allowed. This "anything goes" attitude has destroyed families. It has destroyed cities and it has destroyed governments and will even destroy the whole world. "Anything goes" is rebellion. Your Father is strict as to what is acceptable behavior and what is not. And, those, who profess love for Me and for your Father, will be tried and tested over and over. Each of you has to prove your love and honor for your Father by your actions and discipline over and over. You have to prove that you will stand for what is right by the choices you make. You will be tried and tested to see if you are true. If you fail the test, you will be given another test, and this one may be harder than the last. And, even, My Child, amidst all the tests, each of you must be able to forgive and let go; for some of the greatest tests will come from those in your immediate family. I say, each of you must forgive and let go of the hurt that you can move on, remembering that you are only visiting the Earth Sphere, so let go of any turmoil as a child lets go of a toy in the ocean. Just let go and move on in Your Father's work as an obedient child.

At times, when life gets so hard that you do not know if you can go on, get on your knees and pray, pray, pray. Fast and pray. Call on the sincere and dedicated to pray for you. This is what all must do. Stay away from the rebellious and keep them out of your homes. Make your homes holy; make your hearts holy; and do this now, for you are running out of time. The hammer is about to come down on the USA. Understand?

"Yes, My Lord."

"My Lord, we have one part left and we will be finished with the Pirate's booklet."

"Yes, My Child, and this tenth part is the swirling, black hole. Do you have any idea what this represents?"

"My Lord, I believe that it represents the final destiny for those, who are dark to the very core."

"Exactly."

"Like the evil New World Order types, who have served Lucifer for a great while; and will at some point they will be sent into this swirling darkness, where their souls will be sucked apart by the force of this hole."

"Exactly. Some believe that they have an eternity to continue on in rebellion; but this is not so. To each is given a certain amount of time and only your Father knows how much time He will allow. It is very important that each of you understands this; however, few grasp it. Just know, My Child, that the swirling black hole shall be receiving a certain number of souls at some point in time, which is fairly soon."

"And, those going there have no idea…"

"No, My Child, they do not. Few grasp the concept that your Father is a tough taskmaster. My Little One, what is worth having is worth working for. And, all, who live with Me and your Father in the midst of the beauty I have prepared, will work for it. No welfare. Understand?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1999

"Yes, My Lord; but many will say that works do not matter."

"Yes, My Child, the ones, who want a handout, who want the easy way, will say this. But, I tell you that faith without works is death to the soul."

"My Lord, I fear that I have heard wrong about the rebellious. For all of us have them in our families and even because of this rebellion, we still love them."

"Yes, My Child, but we have come to the time of the sorting of the souls. And, if your minds, hearts, and your emotions, even your body and soul are caught up with the worries and confusion of the rebellious, you will not hear My voice. You will be blinded to Me and My purposes because of the confusion at hand. My Child, I am telling you to guard your homes and your lives from those, who love the world, and from those, who are caught up in rebellion. If the rebellious persecute you and call you all manner of names for My namesake, know that you have been warned in advance that this will be. For, Lucifer has hold of the rebellious and his demons are in control of them. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"I guard My Faithful like a mother hen guards her chicks."

"Yes, My Lord; and how grateful I am. I have a question about food storage. In the Scriptures, you tell us that we should be as the birds of the field and not worry about how we shall eat or be clothed."

"Yes, My Child, I have told you this. But, I have told you also that the world has never seen times as horrible as these shall be. Therefore, it is good to prepare. But, be advised that the evil hoards plan to take all your food, your homes and to kill every one of you. None will survive for long without Me and your Father. So, you must put you faith in Me, not in things. And, know that I will provide for each of you until it is time for you to come home."

"But, My Lord, most do not have the spiritual discernment to hear your voice."

"Nay, Child, but I can speak to any and all through dreams. And, I will do this for those, who seek Me with all their hearts. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"But, Child, I have warned all. N o violence! Do not return violence for violence. Stay away from the violent and unrepentant. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"Go this day in peace, My Child, knowing that I am Jesus. Yea Jehovah Most High God."

The Crown of Thorns

"My Precious Child, I am Master Jesus; and I am calling you back to My Holy Mountain on the wings of My Spirit, as I have a few final words for you to place in Book IV about this Holy Mountain. See that you stand high upon My Mountain; and the wind of My Spirit blows gently over your robe. My Child, receive of My power this day; feel it envelop you, and strengthen you and your household. Feel its healing rays and know its total peace and calm. As you have finished Book IV, see Book V before you; and see your new place on My Mountain, which grows as you continue in My work. However, you must understand that as you grow in My works, Luciferian attacks on you will become increasingly severe. My Child, take the key, which says, ‘Jesus is the key;’ and enter through the door to your right. Then, write as seen and given."

"My Lord, I open this door with your key and immediately I am flooded with a brilliant white light. I walk through this door, bathed in Your glory, enveloped in peace, love and such joy. Straight ahead is a small house, which looks something like an igloo, but it is made of radiant glass. I know that I am to enter this house and to sit on the shimmering bench. Before me is Moses, and he takes my sword and gives me a sword of greater light and power. He takes his rod from me and gives me a larger rod with greater power."

"As I lay hold of the sword and the rod, I start to shake and tremble all over. It seems that an earthquake is moving through my body. Steam starts coming from my eyes and ears; and the room fills up with steam. But, just as suddenly as the steam began, it ends; and the fire of God comes roaring through this tiny house, setting it ablaze. Suddenly, I see you, My Lord, as you stand before me in Your glory; and I fall to my face in awe and trembling; for my human frailties rush over me and I feel utterly unworthy. It seems that my every fault is magnified many times; and I cannot stop weeping, for I am surrounded by such love."

"My Lord, I am so troubled for the lost. I am deeply saddened by their choices. And, I weep for you have given greater responsibilities, while I often feel inadequate to carry out the tasks as hand. How shall I carry more? I am the least of the least, brought out of the darkness only because of your mercy and grace."

"This deep sorrow rips me apart and I feel so powerless. My Precious Lord, take this sorrow; for it is so great!" And, even as I say these words, I feel the sorrow lift until it is totally gone.

"Stand up, My Child and receive My Crown of Thorns. Yes, My Child, many may seek this crown, but few receive it; and, most would not want it; for it comes with a heavy price. But, My Little One, think not of a price; for the heavenly reward is greater than any price you would have to pay on this earth. Understand?"

"Yes, My Lord. Tell me about this crown."

"It is a gift from me to My Faithful, as I decide to bestow it. My Child, the price paid for it is great suffering; yet I paid the price for it already. The benefits you shall reap are more of My mind in you, more of My Spirit in you, more of My faith, courage, and hope in you and more of My heart in you. These, My Child, I freely give; for you have given freely. But, as you have paid a price to receive, so shall the serious minded pay this price to receive this spiritual blessing. It adds up to spiritual discipline over time."

"Now, My Little One, receive this wreath of flowers from the Saints of the Most High. Absorb it into your body and be healed."

"My Lord, as you say this, I see that the wreath is absorbed into my body. And, suddenly I am back in the living room of our house."

" ‘Tis so, My Child. Now finish typing Book IV today and I shall soon begin dictation of Book V; which you are to send out through the mail as I have warned you; and under the conditions I have set forth."

"Yes, My Lord."

"I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God."

Because of the flowers, I was healed of a pain, which had bothered me for months.
About the Crown of Thorns … In recent weeks a relative spoke to me of this Crown of Thorns. He told me of certain spiritual blessings associated with this crown and advised me to seek the Lord in this. I prayed about such a crown, as I had never thought of anyone receiving it; but Our Lord had not spoken to me about it before now. I know that He has revealed it here that you know of this crown, that you may have it as your soul is ready.

CHAPTER ONE

"The Mystery Mark"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Blessings to you this day, My Child; and blessings to those, who read My words and receive My words with pure hearts. For, these are My children. Yes, My Child, deep calls to deep; and deep are My words in Book Seven. For many days, I have told you that Book Seven will start soon; and even yesterday I told you that Book Seven will begin today, as on this day I begin dictation, but in actuality it began on June 07, 2001. It began on My day and My number; for great are My words, which are to be revealed in this book. My child, I know that you want to know how this book shall be dispersed; and I say to you that it will be dispersed freely on the Internet. For, those, who want a written copy, they are to send $25.00. This will cover the cost of the book and the postage. Outside of the USA, they must send $20.00 extra for additional postage. To mail the same from the USA to some parts of the world will be more than $20.00; but all will even out.

"Cherished One, I know that you wonder what I could speak of which could be so majestic, so great, so full of My wonders; for this book contains My number, the number Seven, the number of Me, Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, as I said, "Deep calls to deep," and My mysteries shall be revealed herein. Unlike Books Five and Six, which all had to order, this book is free to all; for a great work among My people is at hand; and a great and terrible tragedy the world over is also at hand. For, the Antichrist is about to rise in Europe. You are seeing his handiwork in the many plagues, which are hitting the world on all fronts. But, before he steps forth, I shall pour out My Spirit in great measure and prepare My people spiritually for what is at hand. Yea, a great and terrible judgement, My judgement is upon the world; and Europe will suffer mightily; for Europe is the seat of world Satanism; and what is unfolding will be told by you and others of My prophets and apostles.

"The Mark"

"The 'mark,' My Child … Look at the Mark of the Beast!"

"My Father, I see fabric, and it is a beautiful fabric, which catches the light and shimmers in an iridescent way as if it is made of many colors. This fabric rolls out in front of me on something like a conveyor belt at first. Then, it seems that a wind catches the fabric and it is carried forth into the air, a most beautiful billowy fabric. Now, it seems to glow, a most beautiful, radiant fabric. Around and 'round this fabric swirls in the air as if it is caught up in a whirlwind. And, as I watch this fabric, the whirlwind picks up in speed. Then, suddenly, this fabric flattens out, as if the whirlwind causes it to flatten out; and the fabric seems to be a flattened whirlwind, which is spinning in layers, somewhat like a whirlpool in water, yet flat and with only a very small center, which whirls. Suddenly, the whirlpool, or whatever it is, begins to lose its sheen and darkness begins to set in. It is as if a very dark shadow begins to settles in over the whirlpool and I hear sounds, like sounds of a train, putting on its brakes; and out of this whirlpool I see a pair of black boots emerge. These are obviously attached to a person, but I do not see his face, only his boots.

"It seems suddenly as if the whirlpool is sucked up into the boots, where it dissolves. Now, I see the man, who wears these boots! He is dressed like a prince, with all manner of ornate and decorative attire, similar to that, which I have seen Prince Charles wear. But, he is not Prince Charles. However, I do see him at a table now with Prince Charles and they are sipping a glass of wine together. I see that Prince Charles looks up to this man and that he obeys him. He respects him and even seems to fear him. In the background, I am aware of the train. It is a black train; and back at the table I see once more this "prince" with Prince Charles. He is now puffed up, standing with his chest protruding; and he wears a black baton by his side. My Father, I hear the word, "charisma;" for this man has charisma. He is a powerful persuader of people, yet he is heartless and cruel. His heart is as black as ebony. My Father, surely this man is the antichrist!"

"You have seen it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"But, My Father, tell me about the mystery of this fabric."

"You mean that it is woven together tightly, and that it is shimmering and beautiful."

"Yes, My Father."

"Oh, these are his works; and to the worldly they are beautiful. They are shimmering; for they offer to the worldly a great freedom, which is the cloth, floating in the wind. But, this freedom is short-lived, indeed! Once the people of the world come to admire this Satanic cloth and latch onto its empty promises of freedom, they shall enter into a Satanic whirlwind. This whirlwind of darkness shall get tighter and tighter upon the people of the world until it becomes a whirlwind of solid steel, which is as black as night. This whirlwind of evil is unyielding and those, who are trapped by its shiny allure will seal their fate, as if in steel. They will not be able to get out. The true author of this evil will emerge, who is the Antichrist, and he will bring forth the dark train of evil and destruction."

"My Father, what is his relationship to Prince Charles?"

"My Child, they are of the same family. But, remember this. The Antichrist has not taken his seat yet; for the height of deception has not arrived; and he is not fully empowered to do so."

"My Father, who empowers this man? You, or the devil?"

"My Child, I empower this man to utterly destroy the corrupt and to force Mine to choose either Me and My Son or the devil and his ways. And, this choice shall be forged through the mark of the devil."

"My Father, what is his mark?"

"Let me say this, My Child, that all, who enter into a covenant with Lucifer are marked by him. All churches, which have agreed to the 501 ( c) 3 have entered into a covenant with Lucifer, Satan, the devil and he has marked them. He has claimed them. This mark takes several forms and has several levels. One is the physical mark, a mark of ownership in the hand and forehead. Another is a spiritual mark, a spiritual covenant or agreement with Satan, Lucifer, the devil, which is binding spiritually. A third is an eternal agreement, which is binding through the eternities."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"And, what might the eternal agreement be?"

"A total renunciation of Me and My Son and a declaration that one is god!"

"My Father, this is what Lucifer, Satan, the devil, did when he started the war against you in Heaven!"

"This is so. He said, "I am God," and he fought Me. One Third of the hosts of Heaven also claimed themselves as gods, and they fought and were expelled. Nowadays, you have in the Earth ignorant souls, who have willfully entered into a covenant with Satan, Lucifer, the devil and they espouse his teachings, calling themselves gods. They have totally rebelled against Me and have sided with Lucifer in his on-going war."

"So, My Father, this war in Heaven just goes on down through the ages and Lucifer is continuing to build up his army with human souls, who say they are gods, and that they are truly parts of his army, making an eternal covenant with Lucifer that they are gods."

"This is so; and you see this in freemasonry and all religions and organizations, which have been founded by freemasonry."

"Oh, My! My Father, I understand that the Mormon Church was founded by freemasons and that even today Satanic sacrifices of humans, especially children, are done in the subterranean levels of these temples."

"This is so."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"And, some of the leaders are reptilian shapeshifters."

"This is so."

"And, My Father, they espouse eternal marriage and until recently, as I understand it, all took blood oaths in these temples."

"This is so."

"And, the Mormons are told that they are gods, gods in the making."

"You have known this to be true and it is yet true."

"But, My Father, you are saying that these people are entering into an eternal covenant with Lucifer."

"They have done it; and they know it not!"

"But, My Father, is the penalty different for one, who enters into such a covenant, knowing that they have entered into a covenant with the devil, than if they do not know?"

"Yes, indeed, but many know! The freemasons take increasingly more severe oaths until they give away all to Lucifer. They do so willingly, knowing what they are doing; and by the time that they reach the 32nd and 33rd degrees, they know exactly what they have done. Those, who enter, are dupes! But, My Child, member the beautiful cloth. They take what is good and of Me, what is Biblical and they mix it with all, which is dark and full of lies, which is of the devil. Mormonism is a huge diabolical cult. The people are in bondage, and they know it not! They believe many lies and willingly allow themselves to be controlled by reptilian hoards. Many of the Mormon children are sacrificed to the devil in the bowels of these temples and many little and precious children are sodomized and raped. Their lives are ruined. Many others are used by Lucifer in his mind control programs all over the USA and around the world. Yes, indeed, the church of Mormon is the devil's church, yet they are all made to believe a lie that this is the only true church. I ask you, My Child, when My Son, Yeshua, was on the Earth, what church did he belong to?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 1997

"None."

"My Child, My church is free. It has My Son at the head. Those, who preach and teach at My Church are free; for they espouse no denomination. My gifts of Spirit flow freely in My Church; for it is not bound by shackles of the world. Those, who go in and out of My Church are healed and set free; for My true leaders are free. I am your Father in Heaven and we shall speak more on this."

CHAPTER TWO

"Great Judgement for Europe!"

"My Beloved Child, hear Me speak this morning and know that I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Little do the masses know that as they sleep, they enemy advances on every front. Loud cries and protests the world over are heard against the UN/Satanic agenda; but look, My Child, the voices are few; and in many cases, the same ones cry out against these gross injustices over and over. I tell you, My Child, that the Antichrist has hit Europe with plagues and he is scheming on every front to waylay and subdue all peoples of the world; but I ask you, My Child, 'Have the people changed, who have been hit by the plagues?' Have they come back to Me in Europe? Have they repented? Nay, they have not! Though, they have been faced with grave hardships and losses, they continue on in their darkness and rebellion.

"Listen to Me, My Child, My whip is going to pop over Europe! It is going to burn the air; for it shall pop loudly and swiftly. Terror is coming down on Europe; but I tell you now that its effects shall be short-lived; for the people, in general, have lost their moral compasses. Tragedy is about to hit Europe in an even greater way and a fervent heat shall soon melt a third part of Europe, but I say to you, 'Do you believe, even then, that the people will repent?'

"No, My Father, I do not believe that the masses will, … that only that a few here and there will repent."

"I tell you, My Child, that you are entering therein the time of the great sorting, the goats on one side and the sheep on the other, the wheat here and the chaff there. This is a time of sorting and it is fixed. The train of destiny is set to start off soon and the harvest is ready for the plucking. Here and there the train of destiny will stop and its ride will mark a turning point for all upon the face of the Earth. You have seen the train of destiny in the first chapter of Book VII and I tell you, My Child, that this train is real and it is charged up and running, ready to head out across Europe. My Little One, in many of the visions, which have been given you by the Spirit of God, you have seen calamity strike Europe. You have seen war hit Europe and you have been told that the Antichrist will rise in Europe; but My Child, hearken unto Me; for you have not seen what is about to hit Europe. Many in Europe are smug; for they believe that the USA will be destroyed by war and that they will go free. Alas, My Child, what utter foolishness! What utter nonsense! Europe, the whole of Europe, is under shackles of the Antichrist. The stench of rebellion in Europe is foul! The stench has hit My nostrils and it is putrid! The rebellion among leaders and lay people alike is worse than that of Jerusalem before it was destroyed! It is worse than that of Babylon and Rome alike! Yea, every evil vice is made to look good; for evil has been give a wide license! Oh, wicked Europe, you believe that you will come out unscathed; for My anger is upon America. But, I tell you, Europe, My mercy is also upon America and though wickedness and rebellion is extant in America, the love of the few carry the nation. The love of My Beloved for all of mankind, but especially their devotion toward Me, keeps this land afloat. This pure love softens My anger; and for a season I have promised an extended time of mercy for the USA. What you see is a mercy run, but this mercy run will not go on forever! Yea, it is for a given time only and only I know what this time is. But, I say to Mine, 'Work, for the night is coming! Work, for the time of great troubles is at hand! Work, for the cornfields and the wheatfields will soon be empty! Work, for the storehouses will soon come up lacking! Work, for there is an appointed time and season for all things and this time of great judgement will soon hit the land! Work, for the harvest is great and the workers are few. Work, for the time of great peril is at hand and the dusk passes into nightfall. Yea, work, for the work is great and the dedicated workers are few!'

A New Song!

"Sing, My Beloved; for I am giving you a new song! Sing, My Beloved, for this song is about freedom! This song is about joy! This song is about breaking the yokes of bondage and persecution. Sing, My Beloved, and make merry; for I, Jehovah, Most High God, give you a new song!

Reaping is at hand!

"Reap, My Beloved, for this song is the song of the reaper! Reap, My Cherished ones, for what is planted is now ready to harvest! Sing songs of praise and joy; for your sickle shall not fall on barren ground! Reap, Mine Anointed, for it is a new day unto Me for My Faithful. Be of good cheer and look heavenward; for I shall pour out blessings upon My Faithful so bounteous that they shall not be able to contain them! Reap, My Cherished Ones, for the time of harvest has come!

"Behold My Hand; for it is stretched out to Mine Anointed for greater things. I have seen the dedication of My Anointed. I have seen their great trials; for I have orchestrated them. I have known their walks through coals of fire; for I have held their hands; but I say to My Cherished and Anointed Ones that these trials have not been for naught. They have not been for no reason at all; but they have been given you to strengthen you spiritually, that you would be ready for the long hours of reaping. They have been given you that you would not faint when the furnace gets hotter. Yea, My Little Ones, many of you have struggled sorely through the thickets of briars. You have shivered in the bitter cold and you have cried out in your loneliness and sorrow; but I say to you, 'Rejoice; for you have been tried and tested in the furnace of adversity for greater works. Now, many of you are ready, while many of you are yet babes with much time in the furnace ahead of you!'

"I say to you, My Precious Child, that I have a greater work for you! How you have wept and cried out because of your sorrows down through the years; but My Child, this has not been for naught. Great and mighty works I have for you; for I have given you a task of calling the people of Arkansas to revival. But, be advised, My Child, that you will not only be calling the people of Arkansas to revival, you will go hither and yon and you will pray for revival in lands both near and far. For, I have given you the revival fire anointing. Yea, great and mighty miracles shall follow you; for I have bathed you and your husband with a covering of the miraculous! Wherever you go, I shall open up the heavens and I shall pour miracles out upon you and upon those, whom you seek them for in the name of My Precious Son. Mighty miracles, healings and deliverances, these things shall follow you; and you will set the captives free, both near and far! Those, who bless you, will be greatly blessed; and those, who reject you, who scorn and mock you will be greatly cursed, immediately so, for what is in their hearts and for what comes from their mouths! Those, who love you, I love; but those, who hate you, I will turn on with a vengeance! For, those, who hate you, hate the One, who sends you; and this One is Me. For, I am at the helm of your ship.

"Good tidings come to you even now, My Child. A chapter is closed in your life and a new chapter is opening with mighty miracles and manifestations from Heaven on a regular basis. Great and horrible trials and persecutions you have been through for My namesake and you have endured, My Child. You have not been angry with Me and you have not cursed Me for your great trials; but you have humbled yourself before Me in great tears and sorrow, seeking more of Me and repenting daily for your many weaknesses. But, My Child, I know your heart and it is full of a pure love for Me. It is overflowing with love for your fellow man and it is time for you to move on out into a greater work for Me. My Child, you shall not want! And, the material things, which you need to live a comfortable life, are at hand. You have waited long to be free of a great persecution at the hands of the enemy and this time is at hand. Fret not, My Child, but rejoice; for great blessings are hand and these will not be stopped by any person, place, or thing; for these blessings are straight from My throne! I am your Father in Heaven!"

CHAPTER THREE

"Revival Fire"

"My Beloved Child, blessed are you this day; for you come in earnest seeking My will and My heart. As you know Me, I am your Father in Heaven. Yes, My Child, this is Chapter Three of Book VII. Rejoice! For, great and mighty are My works, which lie before you. My Child, I will not call one to such a task as the one, which lies before you, if I have not already prepared one for such an undertaking. Yea, I have prepared you, My Child; and I have found you worthy for the task at hand. You ask, 'Is this revival anointing, which I have called the "Revival Fire Anointing," not also called the "Holy Fire," or the "Holy Wind Fire" Revival Anointing? And, My response to you is that all are correct; but, I have shortened this to read, "Revival Fire." Yes, My Child, this fire is holy; for it is straight from My throne; and it is complete and pure. It is a wind as well; for it comes as a wind and most often you have heard the roar of this Holy Wind Fire. Does this give you the understanding, which you seek?"

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, I have told you that great blessings are at hand for you; but this does not mean that you will not be persecuted. For, even now the letters are coming in a steady stream from some of the errant churches; and they are full of hate and malice. My Little One, these churches, which are run by these errant preachers have already been judged; for My Spirit has long since left them. They are empty shells; and they are run by empty shells. Shake the mire from your feet; for you have entered therein with My word and they rejected Me. They have called you all manner of names. They have ridiculed you and they have stoned you in the spirit. Let the dead look after the dead; but keep your eyes on Me and My Son; for the dead shall not stop My works through you. Yes, My Child, this Revival Fire Anointing is falling upon you in its fullness; and in due season ministers of some of the churches will contact you in earnest. You will pray with these ministers and when prompted by the Spirit of God, you will bless them with this same Holy Fire Revival Anointing. This anointing, this spiritual gift, will come through you to others. Yea, many will rue the day that they have put women into corners, where they have been kept under thumb! For, indeed in these last days, I am calling some of My anointed women prophets, apostles, teachers, pastors and evangelists to step up to center stage, where they will lead the world spiritually. Great and mighty miracles shall follow these women; for unto them shall be given the anointings of the prophets and apostles of old. It is time to rejoice, My Child. It is time to sing songs of praise, which come from the heart; for a revival is going forth upon this land, here a little and there a little. What has been held back is now being given freely.

"Yes, My Child, at the end of this chapter, put the letter to the churches; and in due season I will also have you post some of the responses of the churches; but not now.

"My Child, look behind you! What do you see?"

"My Father, I see bleachers, like in an outdoor arena, or perhaps it is an indoor arena; but there are bleachers and they are all empty. I am standing alone, looking out across these bleachers, when suddenly I feel very sleepy, as if I am going to sleep, or perhaps being caught up in a vision. I look to see that I am dressed in white and as I look around me I see many angels; and a great light is manifesting before me. This light seems to come from Heaven and I hear a voice, which I know to come from Heaven, for Father, it is your voice. And, you say, 'Behold, My Son!' Coming from this radiant light is our Precious Jesus. He is caught up in the light, and He is full of glory and beauty, and as I lay prostrate on the floor behind the podium He looks at me and He says, 'Arise, My Child, for the Holy Fire Revival Anointing is upon you;' and I hear a wind, like a rushing wind and the whole stadium becomes aglow with this fire as it sweeps the stadium like a great wind. As this great fire goes forth, the bleachers all disappear; for a great light is everywhere and all that remains is this great light, which is a holy white fire. I arise and stand before our Precious Jesus and He looks at me and puts a cloth around my neck and it looks to be made of something like satin; for it is radiant and on the ends of either side are one, two, three bells. Then, our Lord Jesus says to me, 'The anointing of the prophet Aaron!' And, a great heat comes over me and I begin to dance and shout and praise God in unknown tongues and ribbons of fire come from my mouth. And, these ribbons of fire have different colors as they go out, but when they disperse, they become radiant, white light. And, when I move these ribbons of fire encircle my body and as these swirls of light go out, they form a white light fire. These same ribbons come form from my hands and feet and as they flow out they also turn into a white light fire. Then, our Lord Jesus places around my neck another cloth. Both of them remind me of neck garments, which are worn by priests; for they are sealed on all edges, yet they are straight. And, this cloth radiates a white fire, which also manifests a blue radiance. And, as our Lord Jesus puts this second cloth around my neck, I see that it is full of Living Waters. These Living Waters fall all around my feet; and they make a noise like a waterfall. These Living Waters bathe me all over, yet I am not wet. And, as I am bathed in these waters, I get a feeling that I am in many places at once. For, I seem to be here and there on many places of the Earth at once. I know the clouds; for I feel the clouds and seem to be a part of the clouds. I also seem to be a part of the Earth; for I feel as if I easily become a part of the Earth. I know sickness and disease in the bodies of others for I seem to be able to travel there. Our Lord Jesus now says to me, 'The anointing of Enoch!'"

As He says this, I find myself standing over a large waterfall, which reminds me of Niagara Falls; and the Lord says to me, 'The fall of man!' As I look at the falls, I see a man and a woman go tumbling over the falls and the falls become full of blood, guts and gore. As I look at this bloody scene, I begin to feel great pain all over my body. I feel as if I am being stabbed and kicked and I look to see that I am bleeding all over my body; and I, too, feel that I shall fall into the rushing waters and die. But, as I am about to fall our Lord Jesus picks me up by the back of my robe and embraces me. Then, He says, 'Save for My love, the pure love of God, all shall fall!'

I sit beside our Lord now overlooking the falls and I begin to weep uncontrollably. It seems that all the sins of the world are upon my back. I sense the murders of the billions of unborn babes worldwide. This weight upon me is so great that I feel that I will pass out. And, suddenly, I find myself sinking into the ground. I am headed down, down, down into the pits of hell! Dark, slimy creatures are all about, like snakes and eels and leaches. And spider webs abound; but these disgusting things do not touch me. I just keep going down, down, down. The wails of the lost fill my ears and their cries and moans make me feel sick all over. I stop for a minute and begin to wretch, and as I vomit, blood and guts come rushing out my mouth. I feel so sick as if I will faint and I back up to steady myself against a hard object, which I believe to be a rock; but the rock turns into a trap door and I am once more catapulted down as if in an elevator shaft. "My Lord and My God," I cry out, "Why are you doing this to me?" A black whirlwind carries me aloft and I am caught up in great darkness and confusion. "My Lord and My God," I cry out, "Why have you sent me here?"

"Finally, I hear the voice of our Lord Jesus and I see His face. Tears of blood stream from His face and as I look at him, he dips his hand into a vat and brings up dead babies, baby parts and blood and guts. All over again, I feel as if I will wretch, but I have only the dry heaves, which are full of bitter gall. I weep and howl before our Lord and tears of blood roll down my face. I feel so sick and so lost and cut off from our Lord Jesus even though He is before me. "Why? Why, my Precious Lord," I cry out! "Why have you sent me here?" And, I sob and weep uncontrollably. Suddenly, I feel His precious hand touch me, the hand of our Lord Jesus; and in a moment I am taken from the bowels of hell. Still, I weep uncontrollably as I rest my head upon our Lord's chest. He caresses my head and He begins to sing to me. These are the words He sings:

"Upon the branches of death and mire,
A thorn, a rose, a cactus in bloom.
Upon the branches of death, a hand unseen
Touches the dead and the dying.
Weep, Little Children, for the life that is gone!
Left among the thorns and cacti in the heat,
A rose, alone and dying!
But, I in My love do not miss a one,
For, all that is pure is at home in My love!
Reach out and touch the dead and they dying!
The children, I take home …
But, those, who murder them, will drink of the cup
Of blood, and guts and gore."

"For, this reason, My Child, I have sent you into hell to drink of this cup of blood and guts and gore; for if this nation will not repent of murder of the unborn, it shall soon drink of this bitter cup. I am sending you out, My Child, with this anointing of Holy Fire and Living Waters that you go to places you have never been before, and that you experience what you have never experienced before. This revival is the ultimate gift to the people of this land before judgement. The depths of this judgement depend upon the sincere repentance of the masses. All is not set in stone as many believe; but as our Father is merciful, He can change His mind. What you are to do, My Child, is to bring My people to repentance. You are to bless certain ministers with the Holy Fire of Revival and you are to heal the sick, raise the dead and set the captives free. All that the prophets and apostles of old did, you will do and more.

"Woe to those, who shut out women apostles, who hold apostles gatherings and deliberately shut the door to Mine anointed women apostles. For, I shall utterly embarrass those, who set themselves up to be gods. Because My anointed women apostles have been shut out, I shall raise them up to do great and mighty works."

"My Child, do you have any questions?"

"Oh, yes, My Lord! I have many questions, but one in particular comes to my mind. Is this anointing considered one anointing or two?"

"It is two in one."

"So, the Revival Fire Anointing has a counterpart, which is the Living Waters?"

"This is so."

"Yet, it is called the 'Revival Fire?'"

"This is so, but one without the other is not a balance."

"Why is it not called Living Waters/Holy Fire anointing?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"In these realms it is; but for the sake of brevity, it is shortened to Holy Fire Revival Anointing, or Revival Fire Anointing. Remember, My Child, that this anointing is a coal of fire from the throne of God and as it goes out, it is likened unto the flow of Living Waters."

"Oh, My Lord, I wish I could understand the works of our Father, but in my heart I am happy to be only a child in His service!"

"My Little One, because you know you are a child and because you have walked humbly before God, you have been called and chosen for great works."

"Oh, My Lord, I feel so unworthy. I feel like such a lowly person. I am so deeply humbled, My Lord, that I cannot help but weep before you. Forgive me, My Lord, but I feel so unworthy."

"But, you are worthy, My Child. You are not perfect; but you are worthy of the task at hand."

And, with this, our Lord Jesus takes my hand, the hand of a child, and he and I step forth into white light, which begins to engulf us. I look down to see white rose petals filling the stadium below us. As I look out across the stadium, I see that it is full of people; and when a white rose petal touches any person, he or she is instantly healed and set free of all manner of afflictions!

Praises to our Lord and God! To Him is the praise and glory forever and ever!

Per our Father's instructions, below you will find the prophecy from our Father in Heaven, Jehovah, Most High God, which was sent out to the churches in middle Arkansas on July 10, 2001. This letter was sent to six hundred and five churches, but at last count 50 had been returned for mail-related reasons. As of July 26, 2001, we have received two hate mails and one "do not send me anymore." Not a single pastor has written stating that he and his church want the blessings, which our Father promises! It is a sad day, but in this I am not discouraged; for in my spirit I know that our Lord and God is bringing revival to Arkansas, if only one or two people want it.

Since our Lord has anointed me with this anointing, I have seen Him give many miracles to the needy; and I have seen Him move with great and mighty healings! I know that our Lord and God is moving in a great way with His Spirit and that many will be healed and set free. Even the dead will be raised; for He has promised it!

To: The Ministers of the churches in the State of Arkansas

A PROPHECY FROM JEHOVAH, MOST HIGH GOD

Given on June 01, 2001

Warnings to the Churches!

To the churches of Little Rock and those of surrounding areas, both near and far, even throughout all the state of Arkansas, behold My words; for I am Jehovah, Most High God. Be advised and know, Shepherds of My Flock, that I see and know all. I am not a God afar, but One, who resides within your very midst. My eyes go to and fro throughout the whole Earth and I tell you that I am deeply ashamed of what I see. Yea, in the state of Arkansas, even in the very capital city, thereof, I see preachers, who are harlots. You whore after women and preach a word, which is not My word. You pick phrases from My Scriptures to suit your own agenda and you swindle My people. Yea, you pass the plate many times so that you may drive your Cadillacs and feed your every desire. Greedy preachers of the Word, I am disgusted with your hollow sermons. I am repelled by your empty words. I am angered by your callous attitudes toward the hurt and suffering. Through your vices, you have driven My people asunder. You visit not the sick in the community, not even those, whom you shepherd. You disgust Me with your piousness and sorely offend Me with your "holier than thou attitude." You refuse to allow My true prophets and apostles into your havens; for you are jealous for those, who do not even belong to you. Neither, do you want the Spirit of God to chastise you through the mouths of My true prophets and apostles; for you believe that you can hide your sins. Nay, you cannot hide your sins; for I know you, who are guilty of all manner of sexual perversions. You are full of adultery and even sodomy; and you believe that no one will know, that you can continue on in your wickedness. I see all and I know all; and I command you to repent, to come away from evil and cry out in true repentance, seeking forgiveness and full deliverance. For, many of you are possessed by all manner of demons. You have given My sanctuaries over to all manner of greed, lusts and sins and I am calling you to repentance! Repent or step down!

And, for the few, the very few, who truly love Me and who truly preach My messages of Godly love and repentance, I say to you, "I know who you are; and I say again that you are few, indeed! " For, this state or Arkansas is full of the blind leading the blind.

I am disgusted with the gargantuan buildings, which are laid up for the whole world to see, wherein you say in pride, "Look, what I have! Look what I do! How great I am!" Let it be known, Oh proud and arrogant preachers, that I am against you! In one moment, I will smash your centers of pride and I will scatter your flock; for you are an anathema to your very selves!

"Love My Flock!" "Bring them to repentance!"

To the good and faithful servants, who love Me with all their hearts, I say unto you, "Love My flock! Continue to bring them to repentance!"

God's Promise!

If the pastors will repent and cause My people to repent, I promise a great revival for the state of Arkansas. I promise to turn this state from a spiritual desert to a place of Living Waters.

God's Judgement!

But, if you will not clean up your churches and if you will not bring the people to repentance, if you will not go into the neighborhoods and minister to the lost, I shall smite this state through war, pestilence, famine, disease and death! I am a merciful God; but even now my judgement is falling all across the United States of America.

501 (c ) 3 Whores, Repent!

I say to you bought and sold whore preachers. "How many of you utterly refuse to speak against a Satanic government? Through your own tax-exempt agreement with the government, you have willingly agreed to look the other way, while one country under God has become one country under Satan. This tax exempt status is all about silencing the truth. Who among you is not bought and sold by this whore system? And, who has caused you to cower to a Satanic government, save you, yourselves?

Cowards, beware!

I ask you, "Are My people full of cowardice, that they will not speak the truth and stand for what is right?" Nay, these are not Mine; for I have given My people the boldness to speak what is true and to do what is right.

Church of Sodom, get thee hence from Me. I call Mine those, whose robes are made pure by great trials. Will a coward withstand trials and persecution for My namesake? Nay, a coward will run. A coward will renounce Me and My Son.

Church, come clean before God and be blessed, or perish in rebellion!

I say to you, Church, come clean before Me and I will bless you mightily; but if you will not come clean, I shall utterly destroy you. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER FOUR

"The Seal Is Broken"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Behold My words today; for I shall give you much, which shall benefit the Children of Men, yea even the Children of God, the Sons and Daughters of the Most High, even Jehovah, the One God. Listen to Me, My Little One, when I tell you that the Earth, itself, rests within a sea of darkness; for the cumulative sins of mankind have polluted not only the Earth, itself; but they space around the Earth, even far into space. For, this reason, many see through glasses darkly and many see only partially; for this polluted sea closes in on all. Were it not for My Devoted Ones, those, who put Me first and who love Me with their all, this planet would have already imploded. For, darkness is a bitter cyclone of destruction, which devours itself. Yea, My Child, I know that you are wondering why I have allowed Lucifer and those of like mind to stick around; and the key word is 'allowed.' I have allowed the same; for this is part of My Divine Plan, that all might be tempted, that all might be tried and tested and found worthy of the Kingdom of God.

Now, My Little One, I shall carry you into a new word and some of what you see shall surely surprise you. Nevertheless, My Child, proceed on with the next chapter of Book Seven, yea Chapter Four. Beloved One, write what is revealed unto you and when you feel the need, question Me; for I will answer what you ask."

"Yes, My Father. I see before me a book." This is a very large book and it is divided into sections with tabs at the beginning of each section. At first glance, I believe these tabs to represent letters of the alphabet, but when I look closer, I see that they have fuzzy writing and I cannot make them out. This book is sealed but when I touch it, the seal begins to melt from around the edges and the book. The book appears to have a dark cover, which is almost black, but when I touch it, the cover changes quickly into a beautiful blue, like the blue of crystal pure waters. As I have my hand on this book, I hear a sound, like that of rushing wind, and this mighty wind pulls me forth, like a whirlwind, and the wind carries me headlong through the cover of the book. Quickly, I am carried into a room, where I land softly on a beautiful floor, and on looking around, I see that this room is vacant. The floors seem to be made of hardwood; but when I look closer, I see that they are made of the most beautiful radiant stone, which is cut in long strips and joined together to look like wood. This stone even has a grain, which reminds me of wood; and when I touch the stone, it is not cold, but warm. As I look around I see no furniture at first, just a room with many windows and beautiful curtains, which seem to be made of silk. These curtains have designs on them, which are pumpkins, all interconnected by green vines. Yet, these designs are very tiny and can only be seen upon close scrutiny. The background color of the curtains is a soft cream and now and then the curtains move gently as if wafted by a gentle breeze. When I close my eyes, I am so very aware of this warm and gentle breeze, which reminds me of a sea breeze on an early Summer morning. As I look behind, I see a counter, which reminds me of a counter at an inn. The front of the counter is made of the same stone, which is on the floor and all is rather plain, save a white tope, which has an iridescent hue. As I look at the counter top, I cannot tell for certain what color it is; for it seems to be alive with various shades of blue and green. Behind the counter is a most beautiful being. Surely, this being is female! And, even as I think female, she looks at me and says, 'yes.' She is adorned in white, a beautiful white robe, which is worn over a white dress. On her left hand is a beautiful blue sapphire ring, which seems to be alive with a most intriguing radiance.

"Hello, I say to her," my name is Linda Newkirk, a servant of the Most High."

"I know," she says; for He has summoned you. Enter in at the straight gate; for the way is narrow and few find this way."

"Yes," I say to her, " I know." And, suddenly I feel great sadness begin to overcome me. Tears begin to well up in my eyes and I begin to weep so greatly that I fall to the floor, sobbing uncontrollably. Great sadness seems to grip me all over as I feel the burdens of the world upon my shoulders.

"Do not cry, Precious One; for the Broad Way calls to most." And, as she says these words, a gentle wind comes and dries my tears; and blue birds appear suddenly and begin to preen my hair. I can feel the flutter of their wings and as I reach up to touch them I sense that they are busy working in my hair. Such love comes from these precious birds and in a moment I feel great joy returning to my very soul."

"What are they doing," I ask the angel.

"They are beautifying your hair; for the tears had soaked part of your hair and they have come to beautify you, carrying your hair up here and there and holding it together with diamonds from the throne of the Most High God, our Beloved Father Jehovah."

"Why have they come?"

"Soon, very soon, you shall go through the door behind the counter and you shall visit with the Most High. You shall be carried into the Holy of Holies."

"Will I remember?"

"Oh, yes, you will remember; for this book is unsealed and the words of this book will be given unto you."

"Oh, I fear that I am not presentable!"

"But, you are; and were you not right in spirit, you would not have been given the power to unseal what has been written by the Most High and saved for you at this time."

"Oh, Beautiful Servant of the Most High, I am ready!" And, I look to see that I am wearing a white robe, which seems to reflect light like Mother of Pearl; for it radiates a pure light and my shoes radiate a pure light and my hands radiate this light! Suddenly, I feel so full of joy and light and radiance as if I could fly!

"Are you ready," she asks.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Oh, yes!" And, in an instant I am pulled through toward the door behind the counter, again as if in a whirlwind, and I rush through this door so quickly that I hardly remember passing through it. Suddenly, I find myself beside this angel and we are standing on a most beautiful radiant sea of electric blue. As far as the eye can see, this blue sea extends; and it appears to be made of pure glass, or stone of a radiant blue. I take a step forward and realize that what I walk on is as slippery as glass. Then, the angel takes my hand and lifts me up and says, "Behold your radiant feet; for they will cause you to glide above the sea!"

And, as I look down, I see my feet leave the slippery glass; for a beautiful light comes from them; and this power lifts me above the sea. Interestingly, I note that the blueness of this sea matches her ring and what is of the ring seems to be plucked straight from the sea, itself. All around, I feel an electric blueness. This vibrant blue is in the air, which is alive with electricity. Here and there I see vibrant blue swirls, vortices of blue, small electric whirlwinds. In an instant, I seem to be flying, caught up in this majestic beauty, full of joy and radiance. Oh, what a time of joy!

"Stay focused, Precious One; for we are entering into the Holy of Holies." And, with this comment I am brought back to the purpose at hand and the seriousness of this time. Before me are white banisters, simply carved, yet radiant and pure. "Wait here," she says; and she disappears before my very eyes.

In deep reverence I fall on my knees as a most beautiful song begins to bathe me. It seems to come from all directions and curiously enough I know the words of this song. I also know that I am to sing alto; however, in the Earth realm I sing soprano. This song is a most beautiful song of praise and it is about our Precious God Jehovah and His Loving Son. There is much praise for the Lamb of God. And, just as I am singing about the Lamb of God, I see before me our Beloved Lord Jesus; and He is atop a white horse. His eyes are like fire and He is dressed in white; and He carries a bow on his shoulder and in his hand is an arrow.

I feel a gentle touch on my shoulder and I rise up; for I am now prostrate on my face before the presence of our Lord Jesus. Rising up, I see that the angel has returned.

"The Most High will see you," she says. I try to rise and I am aware that my knees are wobbly and my feet are so very unstable that I feel that I will once again fall on my face.

"Fear not," she says, "for you have beheld Him many times."

"Oh, Beautiful Servant of God, I am only a young child; and I fear doing or saying anything, which will offend our Father and our Precious Jesus!"

"Yes, this is known, but be at peace; for He is ever full of love and mercy." With these words, we appear quickly before the throne of the Most High; and between us and Him is a carpet with the most unusual symbols and designs. As I behold the carpet, a thunderous voice says, "The Carpet of Creation;" and, just as I hear the voice, which says, "The Carpet of Creation," an eagle flies at my head and takes his claws, ripping at the diamonds from my hair. My heart leaps into my throat and I feel such fear that I fall onto the carpet before the Most High God, Jehovah, face first.

"My Beloved Child," He says. "Arise and weep not. I do not wish to frighten you." Oh, but I am afraid! Then, the angel picks me up and carries me to the throne of the Most High, where all my fears begin to dissolve; for I am bathed in such love and mercy. Before Him is a tray of fruit and He says, "My Child, eat of the Tree of Life; for in the earthly body, you shall not taste of death." And, I pick a most luscious fruit, which looks something like a pear, but the meat is rose in color and juice flows down my arm, as it is so abundant; and I eat all. "Eat another," He says. So, I pick another fruit, the likes of which I cannot compare. For, it is orange, like a persimmon, yet inside it is cream-colored, with a hint of vanilla in its fragrance. Oh, the smell of this fruit; for it is so wondrous!. When I have finished the fruit, our Father says to me, "My Child, do you know why you are here?"

At that moment, I look up at our Father and realize how awesome He is, for His eyes are a pure sea of love. I feel so small, yet so full of love and peace that I suddenly dread the moment that I must leave. Just the thought of leaving Him brings tears to My eyes. "My Little One," He says to me, "I know all your travails; for I have brought many across your path. I know your heart and I have found it full of love for Me and for My Son and for your brothers and sisters. My Little One, I know that often you long to come home. I hear you every time you tell Me how much you miss Me and My Son. I hear you every time you say you love Me. I know and understand your zeal for revival; for you know that it is to save souls. You know that this revival is not about you and you have no motive for fame or glory. I know your shyness and that you in no way want a spotlight upon yourself. You have not made riches your goal, but have walked simply before Me. My Little One, this is why you are here with Me right now and others are not. I know your heart and I have found it pure. My Precious Child, I shall withhold no good thing from you and your husband. Yea, the storehouse of Heaven is open unto you. What is Mine shall be give freely unto you two and I shall carry you to the ends of the Earth to take My words and to share of My Son's message of Salvation. Keep focused on My word and do not let distraction steal what I have for you. For, a time of great and mighty miracles is at hand for you two. Both of you shall move in the gift of translation, yet truly My Little One, you have moved in this gift for some time. Through this gift, I shall indeed carry you to many lands and I shall bring you back safely. No weapon, which is formed against you shall prosper; for I have deemed it so. My Little One, much is coming forth in this book, which is for the salvation of all. Therefore, make time daily for much prayer and fasting as I direct you. You ask about the translation key, which was given to two of you by Timothy Snodgrass, My Beloved Servant, and I shall tell you about this key. My Child, behold the key of translation, for it is upon your lap."

"My Father, I have it and it seems so large and weighty that I can hardly pick it up."

"It seems large to you now, but not when you received it; for in these realms you can see that this is a very large gift from Me. It seems heavy for you cannot pick up this key or even use it of the flesh; but one moves in and out of this gift through My Spirit. Pick up the key and eat it."

"My Father, you said, 'Eat it.'"

"Yes."

I pick up the key, which seems as light as a feather; and as it comes near my mouth, it flies down my throat as if it were caught up in a mighty whirlwind. Suddenly, I find myself in a vision standing before a door. Over the door are the words, 'The door of translation;' and I hear our Father in Heaven say, "Enter therein." So, I reach out to touch the door; and as I do so, the door flies open. On the threshold of the door are the words, "You will never be the same." Upon seeing these words, I feel uneasiness in the pit of my stomach, but I hear our Father say, "Proceed." So, I step across the threshold and as I do so I enter into a pink light. I can feel this light slashing through me like knives, but there is no pain. I just stand there, not knowing what I was to do. The light is full of powerful energies, which seem to run in lines, yet also in waves; and the longer I stand in it, the weaker I feel. Suddenly, this light turns into a massive whirlwind and I hear the angel say, "Hold on!"

"Hold on," I thought, "Hold on to what?" And, suddenly I realize that she means "Hold on to your bearings;" for the wind and the light are carrying me 'round and 'round; and I am going around so fast that I can hardly remember who I am, much less where I am. Amidst this whirlwind, I begin to plead with God; for I am afraid. Then, suddenly I am whirled back into the room with the angel and the counter; and I pick myself up from the floor, feeling that I had been ripped to shreds. But, I am not ripped at all. I wear the same clothes and my shoes still radiate with the Light of God, but now these shoes bear a pink radiance. On my left hand is a blue ring, like that of the angel; and just as I am about to ask her a question, great power comes from my feet and my body seems to torpedo up through the roof of the room and out through the cover of the book. I look down at the first tab on the book, which has been previously invisible; but now it reads, "The gift of translation."

CHAPTER FIVE

"The Words Unsealed"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me this day; for I have heard your cries. Yea, My Child, there is nothing, which is too great or small for Me; and this day I have destroyed the plans of the enemy to subdue you. I have taken note that certain ones within the office of another prophet have labeled you 'false prophet.' Woe to those in positions of authority, who wrongly label and accuse Mine Anointed! Woe to those, who only see in black and white, yet they deny the abstract! Yea, there was a reason that My Son spoke in parables. For, the swine would have truly trampled My pearls of wisdom and rendered them as mud beneath their feet. But, now in these very last days, I have opened up My deeper truths, that those, who hunger and thirst for them may not be denied them. Yet, the babes will not receive or understand them. And, the legalists will scoff at them, label them false and trample them under foot. It behooves all, who lack understanding to seek understanding! Now, My Precious Child, I ask you, do you have questions?"

"Yes, My Father, I do; and they pertain to the last chapter of the book and what I saw and experienced. What is this book, which is sealed?"

"These are My words for Book Seven, which have been sealed until this time."

"Why does this book change from black to blue in color?"

"It changes from a sealed book of bound words to a book, which is flowing with the Living Waters, as indicated by the vibrant blue color."

"And, the sound of the rushing wind, which sweeps me away is the Spirit of God?"

"Yes."

"Father, what is this room; and why are the floors made of stone?"

"My Child, this room is called the ante-room as it is here that many are brought before they are given special assignments. The stone is called gypsum and I chose this stone for reasons of My own."

"Father, it seemed so strange as the stone was warm, almost as if it were alive."

"In the Kingdom of God, all stones are living. What you experienced was a living interaction between the stone and you."

"Are these stones alive with the Spirit of God?"

"Yes."

"My Father, what is the significance of the pumpkins, which are interconnected with the green vine?"

"My Child, look at the pumpkins and touch one."

I reach out and touch one of the pumpkins and as I do so, I see an explosion of light; and in the midst of this light is my Mother. She looks at me and says, "I love you and I miss you. Give my love to all." Then, she is gone. "Father, I am so happy to see my Mother in Heaven and I thank you from the depths of my heart for allowing her to come and give this message? But, I still do unto understand all that I see."

"My Child, what did your Mother call you when you were young?"

"She called me 'Pumpkin."

"Then, realize that I have orchestrated this contact with your Mother, that when you came to Heaven, as you have in this vision, that your Mother would be able to say 'hello.' This has been her request and it has been granted; for she now understands that you are a true prophetess and apostle and she is pained that she would not accept this is the Earth."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"But, My Father, why are there many pumpkins?"

"My Child, there is only one, which is seen over and over. This is a remembrance of love from your Mother."

"Thank You, my Precious Father for allowing this. I feel as if I will weep that my Mother finally understands."

"Do not weep, My Child. For, I, too, weep when My Loved Ones weep. But, rejoice for the miracle, which has occurred in your Mother."

"Father, I do rejoice and I thank You and praise You; for You alone are Most High! Praises to your Holy Name! How I love and cherish you! Thank you from the bottom of my heart for allowing this visit!"

"Father, as we proceed to understand what you have given me, I would like to know the significance of the white counter top, which changes into beautiful hues of blue and green."

"My Child, this top signifies purity and it is flowing with My Living Waters. All, that is in this room, is alive with My Spirit."

"Father, what is this ring on the left hand of the angel; for when I left Heaven I saw that I, too, was given the same kind of ring."

"My Child, this ring is from the azure sea, which is before My throne. By having this ring, this angel has access to Me and to My throne at any given time. By nature of your having been given this ring, it means that you, too, have access to My throne at any given time. When you need Me, you will have immediate access to My throne."

"Oh, my Precious Father I am so very blessed and deeply humbled. You are so good to us, Father; and I praise You mightily; for I feel like the least of the least! Blessed Father, help me to further understand what is unsealed. Tell me of the blue birds, which came to preen my hair. They were so full of love. Why did they knit diamonds into my hair?"

"I sent them to you and they chose to put the diamonds in your hair; for they knew that you were coming here. This was their gift of love to you."

"Father, when this happened, it reminded Me of the way our cat preens my hair when the Spirit of God is upon Me; and this, too, is a most precious gift of love."

"If an animal on the Earth is capable of such love, imagine how much greater is the love of animals in the Kingdom of God."

"My Father, I have experienced this great heavenly love through these beautiful blue birds; and I am so deeply touched. Thank you, My Father, for this beautiful gift!"

"Father, I move on in these works to the song, which I was singing; and I ask you, 'Is this song the song of the 144,000?"

"You have experienced it."

"This is a most beautiful song. All that I experienced was so beautiful, especially the Carpet of Creation and I would so like to understand more of Your works of Creation."

"My Child, this carpet is called the 'Carpet of Creation;' for it is just that."

"My Father, surely no one could understand this carpet, save you; for it is full of signs, symbols and electric hues."

"This is so, My Child, and even this carpet is alive. Every symbol will open into a panorama of majestic experiences across time. And, each symbol bears a symbol within a symbol within a symbol. Such symbols open up into a great panorama of experiences and tell many beautiful stories about all creation and this carpet continues to be constructed. It is a living pattern of all creation."

"Oh, Father, how I would love to sit with you some day and experience the panorama of just a few of these symbols."

"Some day, this shall be so."

"Father, as we proceed to understand what you have given in this previous chapter, please tell me about the fierce eagle, which was attacking my head and trying to rip out the diamonds."

"This is Satan, the devil."

"But, why is he allowed here?"

"Even he comes before My throne; and he is trying to steal what I give you, to unnerve you and cause you fear as you come before Me."

"But, Father, why is this allowed?"

"Satan is a legalist and he knows the holy words better than the best trained preachers. He knows these words backwards and forwards and he, himself, comes here often to demand judgement upon many of you for the smallest of infractions."

"But, Father, why do you allow this? He is so evil."

"For a short time, this shall go on and then he will be shut up."

"Father, why did you have me eat the key of translation?"

"That it is within you and not without. This key, which is now within you will open many doors from within My Kingdom. In due season, you will move in and out of this gift with great ease. Yes, My Child, I have translated you already great distances. For, I did translate you to China, where you entered a prison and released one of My Cherished Ones and even so walked past the guards unnoticed. And, I have translated you across the waters to Burma, where you brought healing to three. In addition, I have translated you into certain meetings, where I wanted you to see all. Even so, these are not all, but a few. I tell you, My Child, that you have truly seen and experienced nothing yet. For, I shall translate you into remote jungles and frozen wastelands to save My people. This gift shall allow you to make provision where there is none, just as My Son multiplied the fishes and the loaves."

"Father, I wish I understood this gift."

"My Little One, I shall explain in detail in later messages that those, who have a heart after My deep words, may know and understand My hidden truths."

"Oh, my Father, I look forward to these messages; for surely a goodly number shall operate through this gift in these latter days."

"This is so, yet some have been ridiculed, despised and put down for telling of this gift. But since you have been ridiculed and despised by many for revealing the truth of reincarnation, you are well used to the attacks. Therefore, giving this message shall be easy for you."

"Oh, my Father, I cannot control what people think or even say. Your word says that we are all held accountable for every word, which proceeds out of our mouths. People have caused me pain in the past because of great ridicule; but I just keep on plodding along, loving You and our Precious Jesus and seeking Your holy will."

"Father, will you tell me about he door of translation?"

"You have entered therein. You have received the translation anointing; and you will never be the same."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Father, when you say, 'You will never be the same,' what do You mean?"

"When you least expect it, you will enter the translation plane and you will bring mighty miracles into the Earth."

"Oh, Father, I approach this with such awe that I do not even know how to respond to what you have said!"

"No, not now; but in due season I will have you write at length about it."

"Father, will you explain the nature of the pink light?"

"This will be revealed to you in due time."

"Father, why was I so afraid and why was I dumped from the anointing when I became afraid?"

"You were afraid because you did not know what to expect and you were dumped out of the anointing when fear developed; for to move within this anointing requires a total absence of fear."

"Father, will I get to go back there?"

"Over and over again. With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER SIX

"Keys To The Nations"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Little One; for I am giving you a message for the nations. I am placing in your hands keys to the nations; and I will open up new avenues, wherein I send you into these nations with My holy word."

"My Father, as I stand before your throne, I take both the written words and the keys upon a ring. There is one large key and many smaller keys and when I lay hold of these keys, the weight is so great that I am straining to carry them."

"Neither by might, nor by human power, but by the Spirit of God."

And, as the Most High says these words, the keys and the ring, which bears them, begin to radiate a great light; and I find myself above the Earth, traversing the lands. The waters move quickly beneath my feet; and here and there I see places on land and sea, which light up as I pass by. Here and there I throw seeds, which come from a bucket in my left hand; and these seeds are called the Holy Seeds of Salvation. North and South I go and East and West I go as these seeds dot the world. Then, after a while I stand above the North Pole and as I stand there, Our Father comes, full of love and mercy; and He places a crown upon my head. This crown is called the Crown of Salvation; for as He places this crown upon my head He says, "The Crown of Salvation; for you will bring many souls to salvation."

And, suddenly before me, I see a door; and our Father in Heaven says, "Enter therein and eat." So, I enter through the golden door and I sit to eat what is before me."

"Eat this book," says the Most High.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

So, I eat the book, page for page; and the taste is bitter and salty and also tastes of mold and mildew; and I believe that I shall be ill, for the taste is so bad.

"The travails of salvation," He says.

Soon, the book is eaten and I drink of the cup, which is before me and the taste is bitter and acidic, and it burns my tongue and throat. But, I drink all and He says, "Bitter is the cup of salvation."

I rise from the table and behind me is a mirror and standing beside the mirror is the prophet Timothy Snodgrass and He says, "Look!" Then, I look into the mirror and I see beasts of the jungle and I cringe; for there are rhinoceros and tigers and various birds of prey, snake and vermin. As I see what is before me, I clutch my chest and exclaim loudly, "Oh, my!"

Then, Timothy says, "Look!" And, I look again and behold that Dennis and I are in a boat and we are traveling a river in an outback and I gasp, for there are snakes in the trees and again I proclaim loudly once more, "Oh, my!"

Timothy touches the Crown of Salvation upon my head and I see that he, too, wears such a crown. Suddenly, for no apparent reason, I feel faint; for it seems that when Timothy touches this crown I am slain in the Spirit. And, as I am slain in the Spirit, I enter into another vision and I see souls, as it were, all dressed in white and they are levitating just above the ground. In the air above them is a great radiance and within this radiance is our Lord Jesus. He says, "Blessed are the peaceful at heart; for they shall inherit the Kingdom of God!" And at this instant I see a black door open and it leads directly into the burning fires of hell. Coming from these fiery pits, I hear great cries and moans and shrieks, like those of the devil, himself on a rampage; and I say, "Oh, Lord! Lord Jesus, save for your mercy, your love and your grace, there go I." And, in an instant the trap door is closed and I am back at the table. Timothy is behind me, yet he is fading away, as in a dream, and once again I am given to eat. This time an egg is before me, yet not a real egg; for this egg is made of jewels and precious pearls and it opens in half. Within this egg is a gold necklace and as I lift it out, the voice of the Most High God Jehovah says, "Eat this gold; for riches you have not, but in due season the wealth of the wicked shall be yours; and it shall be used for the salvation of many souls."

So, I take the gold necklace and I eat it and great smoke comes from my mouth. Acid, like that of sulfuric acid, spews from my mouth and the pain is almost unbearable; for my mouth burns with great pain. Then, I see a volcano blow; and I hear the words, "like unto that of Popocatapetl;" and ash and smoke and molten lave fill the air. People try to escape and some make it while others do not. Cities are burned and claimed! Then, another volcano erupts, "likened unto that of Kilauea," and houses are consumed and the sea is full of molten lava. Then, a third volcano blows sky high and this one is "likened unto that of Mt Fuji in Japan," and the top of this mountain is blown clean off. Huge boulders fly high into the sky and ash and fiery stone fly out for miles. Molten lava and boiling water and steam pour forth and I hear the voice of the Most High God Jehovah say, "Only three of Seven!"

I slump to the table and I weep and howl before God as tears of blood run from my eyes; and as I weep tears of blood I see the prophetess Sherri Elijah. She is sleeping; and I say to her, "Awaken, my Sister; for the sound of the horn fills the air!" And, as she looks, a great fireball fills the sky and another and another, such that great terror is upon the people and as she watches, she says, "Oh, My, what is that?" And, the Most High God Jehovah says, "My wrath and My fury." As I watch in great awe, I say to her, "Sherri, come here. Come high upon this Holy Mountain and look!" And, she comes with me high upon the Holy Mountain and as we stand and look below we see a great and mighty dam break and waters rush down between mountains and whole cities are claimed and I hear the words, "Like unto Peru." Suddenly, I feel faint all over; for the calamity is so great and many perish beneath the waters! And, just when I feel that I shall faint from the great sorrow and pain, a great bolt of lightening strikes over our heads and a "burning star," as it were, a great "burning star," crashes into the ocean and we both hear it and see it as it crashes. Then, I hear our Father say, "Like unto the Pacific Ocean." The winds howl and the air is electric with fire; and as rushing waters claim the islands, smoke, darkness, and steam fill the air. The world over, people are terrified; for great horror has hit the skies; and the people mourn and tremble. But, the angels rejoice; for they cry, "It is a new day unto the Most High. Souls will e saved! Victories will be gained! The Most High God Jehovah reigns supreme!"

But, below I see the Red Dragon and I say, "Look, Sherri!" For, the Red Dragon has risen to new heights and he thinks to seize this time of terror to advance his own agenda; but he is not allowed. His tail is pinned down by the Most High and his feet are pinned down by the Most High; for it is not yet his season. And, the voice of the Most High God Jehovah rings from His Holy Mountain and His words fill the air as He says, "Unto man is given a season longer!" Then, Sherri and I weep. We fall to our faces upon God's Holy Mountain; for we know that we will be given additional time for the salvation of souls. To Jehovah, Most High God, is the praise and the glory, forever and ever!

CHAPTER SEVEN

"The Box of Diamonds, and more"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. I bring you before My Throne this day to bring you to a new awareness. Open up your hands and receive of Me; for I have a blessing for you this day."

"Oh, my Precious Father! Glory to Your Name! Holy is Your Name! To You is the praise and the glory forever and ever!" And I fall on my face before the Most High God and I begin to weep. In my hand is a white box and this box radiates great light; but already in my spirit, I sense that Lucifer wishes to steal what is given to me; so I clutch the box tightly before my chest."

"Fear not, My Little One; for what I have given you none shall take away. Open the box. Eat all contents. Then, eat the box."

So, I open the box, which is full of radiant stones, which look like cut diamonds, and I do not know how I shall chew them. Nevertheless, I grab a handful of these stones and stuff them in my mouth; but to my surprise, these stones are not hard to chew. As I chew them, they crumble easily in my mouth and release the sweetest flavor. They are actually full of juice and oh so tasty that I look forward to eating all. I sit before the throne of God and I eat until I have eaten all stones and at the bottom of this box is a key. It looks like the key of translation. And, even as I think this, the Spirit of God says, "But, it is not."

"Father, what shall I do with this key?"

"Come hither, My Child; for this key opens another box." So, I get up; for I am seated before His throne and I take the key and the small box and I glide toward the throne of our Father."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Place the key in this box; for this key has been reserved for you to open this box at this time."

"Father, should I eat this small box first?"

"As you wish."

So, I fold the small box, which is malleable and I eat it bite for bite until all is gone. As I eat it, I hear and see explosions going off in the Spirit and I begin to feel unsteady, even drunk."

"My Father, I am feeling lightheaded, as if I am drunk."

"Yea, you are not drunk, but drunk with the power of My Spirit; for all is given to you for the increasing of My Spirit within you. This is My gift to you today and it is a mighty gift."

Slowly, the imbalances begin to subside and I sense a great radiance around me and one me, like I have never seen before and my heart leaps with such joy; for the love of God fills me and bathes me with such beauty. In my hands is the key and before me is the large box, and as I move to insert the key, I feel such anticipation as that of a young child at a birthday party. Gently, I insert the key into the box and I turn it 1/4 turn to the right and the box lid swings open. The box is rather large, almost large enough for me to crawl into, so I have to rise somewhat to see what is in the box. What I see are packages; and all are bound with ribbons. Curiously, I look at our Father and ask Him what I should do."

"Open all," He says.

"So, I take the first package and as I touch it the ribbon unties itself and the wrapper unwraps itself and a flowing robe unfolds before my eyes. On the back of the robe is the word, 'China;' and as I grasp the robe and pull it to my chest, I ask our Father, "Does this robe represent what I believe, that I will go to China?"

"Yes, My Child, my words through you shall get into China; for the door is now open."

"Father, what do I do with this robe?"

"Eat it."

"Eat this robe also?"

"Yes, My Child."

So, I take the robe and as I begin to put it into my mouth, it rushes down my throat and I hear and see a volcano blow its top. "Father, what was that?"

"That was communism in China. One day, it will blow sky high, just as you saw with the volcano."

"Father, how long?"

"When the sea implodes with the 'burning star,' that is when."

"Is this when I shall take your word into China?"

"This is when you will pass through the open door. Now, proceed."

Then, I look in the box and take out the next package, which is thick, but light as a feather. I open the package and see that there are five robes, which are wrapped as one. As I think to unwrap them, the ribbon lets go and the packages unwrap themselves. Before me are the five robes. One says, 'Malaysia.' Another says, 'Indonesia.' A third says, 'Bahamas.' A fourth says, 'Sahara Desert.' And, a fifth says 'England.'

"Eat them all," our Father says.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

And, immediately, all five robes become intertwined and they rush headlong down my throat. Immediately, I see terrible visions of fighting and killing and many lie dead in the streets with blood all about. And, the smell is a putrefying. Flies congregate and evil people with guns roam the streets. "Oh, Father, what is this? Is this what we will see?"

"You will, but violence will not come near you. Those, who think to harm you from henceforth will suffer a rapid death! Woe to those, who come to lay a hand on Mine Anointed, or who come to mock and scorn; for as the bear killed the rebellious children, who mocked Elisha, such will be the fate of those, who come to mock, scorn, and harm Mine Anointed."

"But, Father might I ask, what could we possibly do in such a desert?"

"Heal the sick and raise the dead! Provide Living Waters where there are none and physical water, too, to do what the mind calls impossible."

"Father, is this all I need to know about these five places at this time?"

"At this time, this is all."

"Father, I see three more packages in this box. So, I will take out the next one, which is on top. As I pick it up, I see that it is very heavy. It looks small and light, but feels like stone. Father, why is this?" And, as I say these words, the ribbons unravel and the paper unravels and I see a robe, which look like it is made of steel. It is radiant like metal, but malleable; and on it are the words, 'Robe of Translation.' And, within this robe is another robe, which is also attached to the first robe. And, this second robe says, 'For Dennis, in due season.' Father, shall I eat both?"

"Proceed."

And, even before I can think about what our Father has said, a long metal pipe goes down my throat and great steam bellows from the pipe as it goes down. I feel steam coming from my mouth, eyes and ears and my feet and hands. Suddenly, I feel myself shooting straight up, like a bullet; and I know that I am flying, soaring all over the Earth. Then, I hear the words of our Father and He says, "Precious Child;" and I am suddenly standing before Him.

"My wonderful and beautiful Father, what happened to me?"

"You got a taste of the gift of translation."

"But, Father, it seemed like more than a taste as steam was coming out of me everywhere."

"Yes, My Child, I know that to you it seemed to be more than a taste, but I can assure you that what you experienced is only a taste."

"Father, I am left with two packages and as I reach for them, I see that they are joined together. It is two packages in one." As I touch the top of the package, the two rise from the box and I witness them unraveling before my eyes. Two robes, side by side, yet with no names. One robe has a checkered pattern of white and dark brown and the other has a pattern of white with green stripes. Father, these two robes, which are joined, are a mystery to me. Will you explain this?"

"Yes, My Child, these two mystery robes, which are joined together, are you and Dennis. Your union was ordained before the foundation of the world. You are very different, yet very much alike. You have a different pattern, but a similar purpose."

"Father, what shall I do with the robes?"

"Eat them."

"Both?"

"Yes."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

And, even as I think to eat the robes, a plate is handed to me and the robes have suddenly been turned into a meal. I eat the robes, which appear as a pile of radiance on a plate; and when I am finished eating them, I begin to feel very sleepy. "Father I feel so sleepy, as if I shall fall off to sleep." But, before I can finish these words, I see myself in a bed with a canopy. This is a very expensive room and Dennis is sitting in a chair and reading a paper. I awaken and feel very sleepy still. I look out the window and know that we are in Israel. "Honey, tomorrow is Rosh Hashanah," I say; and a mighty celebration is at hand. Far below, a horn sounds in the street and I have a vision of people, who are fighting and dancing at the same time. In an instant, I am back before our Father on my knees, "Oh, My Beloved Father, how I love and cherish you and your Beloved Son, our Precious Jesus!"

"This, I know, My Child."

"Father, we are so blessed, truly blessed beyond words. How grateful we are! Thank you, Father, from the bottom of my heart."

"My Child, you have left a small book in the box."

I rise up to the top of the box and peer inside and see that there is remaining one small box. Inside are many airline tickets and train and ship tickets; and on the last page of this book, I read these words, 'You and Dennis will travel the world to save many souls. You will carry my gospel to the ends of the Earth and you shall not want. You shall stand before rulers of nations and you will decree My word. For, I, alone, am Most High. I, alone, am Jehovah, the One and Only God, the Great I Am." And, as I read these words and shut the little book, our Father says, "Eat the book; and go in peace this day for I know your every concern and you shall not want!"

As I think to eat the little book, it rushes down my throat quickly and with a great wind. The mighty wind of the Spirit of God catches me up and brings me back past cities and hills, until I rest comfortably in my home. Blessed is the name of Jehovah, Most High God, forever and ever!

CHAPTER EIGHT

"The Seven Thunders"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me and write; for this is the eighth chapter of Book Seven; and My words shall flow unto you like rushing waters. For, even now you are bathed in and swimming in the River of Life. I have told you, My Child, that no good thing from My Kingdom shall be withheld from you; and from henceforth you and Dennis shall see blessings coming to you from the most unexpected sources. Yea, I shall raise you up and I shall use you as a harbinger of My word from continent to continent, from sea to sea, from East to West and from North to South. Great and mighty miracles shall follow you; for My hand is upon you and I shall not fail you in My word to bless you two and to keep you safe.

"My Child, today I shall tell you of the Seven Thunders and if time allows before you get tired I shall them answer your questions from two chapters past. Listen unto Me and write as I tell you; for as you know much that much of this has been sealed until this time."

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, have you see a raven hop on one foot and then the other?"

"My Father, I know that I have seen birds do this, but I cannot remember whether I have seen a raven do this."

"Well, now you have. Behold the raven, which hops on one foot and then the other!"

"And, My Father, not only does the raven hop on one foot and then the other, but he has shiny rings on his toes; and when he hops on a given foot, I hear the clinking of metal and very briefly I see sparks flying from his feet."

"You do."

"But, my Father, this is an unusual thing to see a raven with rings on its toes, hopping in such a way."

"My Child, who is this raven?"

"Is he Satan, the devil?"

"You are half right in this and therefore, you are half wrong."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"I mean, as the raven shifts to one side, he is Satan, the devil; and as he shifts to the other side, he is the Kingdom of Man."

"The Kingdom of Man?"

"Yes."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"I mean that all, which is aligned with the devil, and focuses on the lusts of man and the things of the world, cannot be separated from the devil, himself."

"Yes, my Father, this I understand."

"Therefore, man will always fall, so long as he aligns himself with the world and with the chicanery of the devil."

"Yes, my Precious Father, I know this and I understand this, but surely there is more to this picture than meets the eye."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"My Child, you are coming to understand somewhat that My words are much deeper that what the eye can behold."

"Oh, my Father, I always feel so foolish when you talk to me. I always feel so small; for I know that I cannot understand even a single picture, a single word, or a single sentence, given to me by You, unless you give me understanding. This is why I always feel so foolish and have such a fear that I will not hear You correctly or will misinterpret what You say. I have a great fear of this, Father, and tremble and weep inside, lest I should offend You or our Precious Jesus in any way."

"This is known, My Child. What do you know about the Seven Thunders?"

"My Father, I know nothing of the Seven Thunders, only of the reference to the Seven Thunders in the Book of Revelation."

"Go and find the reference."

"Father, I have found it. It is in Chapter Ten of the Book of Revelations and it says, "And, I saw another mighty angel come down from Heaven, clothed with a cloud; and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire; 2. And he had in his hand a little book open; and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the Earth, 3. And, cried with a loud voice as when a lion roareth; and when he cried, Seven Thunders uttered their voices. 4. And, when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, seal up those words, which the Seven Thunders uttered and write them not."

"My Father, I have written, that which appears to be relevant. But, the word goes on to declare that there should be no more time, as spoken by the angel. But, in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God shall be finished, as he has declared to his servants, the prophets. Then, John took the little book from the angel and ate it and it was sweet in his mouth, but sour in his stomach.

Father, I have read as you have directed, but I do not understand why you wanted me to read this."

"My Precious One, sit quietly; for a meaning is about to be given to you."

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, we shall go back to the hopping raven; and I say to you: Go and take a piece of paper from beneath his left wing and read this paper."

"My Father, I have this paper. It is an envelope; and as I open the plain white envelope I see a piece of paper, which says, 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all shall be added unto you.' On the reverse side of this paper are the words, 'You are one of the Seven Thunders.' At this instant, the paper catches fire and I see a great explosion in the heavens. It is as if a great nuclear bomb has hit; for I see windows of buildings blown out and palm trees swaying as great tidal waves hit; and ravens, black ravens are coming at me and clawing at me, trying to peck me. But all around me there is a wall, which seems to be made of glass, yet it is not glass, but the pure power of God. All ravens have rings on their toes; and the whole horror scene reminds me of a very old movie, which is called 'The Birds.' I would be sorely afraid, My Father, save for your power. Oh, my Precious Father, I do not know what to make of all this; for I am only a child and I feel so insecure about writing what I have been given."

"My Child, were it not so, I would not have spoken it."

"Oh, my Father, what does this mean and why did you have me take this note from the back of the devil?"

"For, My Little One, he would have this hidden securely beneath his wings; but now is the time for the Seven Thunders to appear; and you are one of the Seven. See that the devil is quivering in his boots; for great power is given unto these seven to do great and mighty works in the Earth. Yes, My Little One, up to this time, you have been relatively hidden; but from henceforth you will not be hidden. Unto you this day are given many keys, and there is no way you can understand this now; but soon, very soon I shall go into this."

"Oh, my Father, this overwhelms me. How can I write this? For, I do not even understand what I write."

"Do as I say and write as I say, lest you should be found disobedient."

"Oh, my Father, I have such a fear, a terrible fear of upsetting you. Please forgive me for thinking such a thing."

"My Little One, you have seen the door open and you have seen on a wall many keys."

"Yes, my Father, I have seen this."

"All these keys, My Child, you will access and use. All. For, as I have said to you, 'No good thing from My Kingdom shall be withheld from you."

"My Father, I am deeply humbled. I feel so lowly, yet you have bestowed this unto me. Is this why I dreamt this morning of a great storm and darkness coming against our house and saw myself breaking giant trees in half and throwing them, roots and all into the fiery furnace of hell?"

"Yes, My Child, for Satan knows who you are and he knows what is being given you. But, to you is given the power and authority to break, to kill and destroy the enemy. For, this day the full power of the Rod if given unto you."

"Oh, my Father, I feel weak in the knees as if I shall faint."

"My Child, sit and drink of the Living Waters; for a great renewal and restoration is at hand for you."

"My Father, I am in such awe, such total awe. I ask you, shall I write what the Seven Thunders spoke? Or, shall I write part?"

"You shall write parts; for to each if given his own parts until all that is sealed is spoken."

"How long, Father? How long will this take?"

"It will take months and years; for as you know I have extended a season of favor to My people. During this season of favor the Seven Thunders will speak great and mighty things. They will transverse the globe. And, when this season of grace is past, there will be no more time. Mankind will either go the way of the Raven, or he will go the Way of the Kingdom of God. My Child, ponder what you have seen. You cannot comprehend it at this time; but in due season you will. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER NINE

"More Time"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God, the I AM that I AM, Creator of all. Blessed are you, My Child; for you have been steadfast in your faith; and you have a heart after salvation of souls. My Love for you and your fellow man and woman is kindled within your heart and this love shall bless many. Hearken unto Me this day, My Child; for I know that you have many questions; but at this time we will continue with the Sons and Daughters of Thunder; for surely there is much, which needs to be explained."

"Oh, yes, My Father. I am eager to know more that the people might also have understanding."

"My Little One, do you see the eyes of the owl as He is perched on the tree?"

"Yes, My Father, I see the owl and I see its eyes; and as I walk by his eyes move. They follow me; but he never moves a feather."

"Yes, My Child, I want you to remember this; for I am as the wise old owl; and wherever you go, My eyes are upon you, though you cannot see Me move, not so much as a twitch. I know your every movement. I know your every thought. I know your every emotion. There is not one thing that escapes Me about you and nothing escapes Me about any, who cross your path, who come in contact with you, or who have any communications, whatsoever, with you. I know every person, who has called you a false prophet. I know every conversation anyone has ever had about you. I know every finger, which has been wagged at you. Conversely, I k now every person, who has extended an act of kindness to you. I know everyone, who has helped with this ministry and likewise I know every person, who could have helped, who saw a need and had the means to help, but refused to do so. My Beloved, those, who have helped with these works, and who continue to help, will reap a mighty reward in Heaven. Those, who love and honor My chosen servants, are loved exceedingly by Me. They are blessed by Me and they are honored by Me. Woe to the scribes and the Pharisees. Woe to those, who see only in black and white and who deny higher truths. Woe to those, who bloat themselves up with pride and arrogance and go off on their own tangents. Woe to those, who love the world and follow after vanity, but will not help My chosen servants in a labor of love for souls! Woe to the hypocrites, who know to do right, but live a lie. Woe to the workers of iniquity, who love what is of this world, but know Me not. You have your just reward in the Burning Lake. Woe to the preachers, who feed the people honey, but will not speak the truth of My words, lest they offend. Woe, woe, woe to a generation of vipers. You have your just reward in the fiery pits. This said, My Child, let us proceed; for I have much to tell you. My Little One, what do you see before you?"

"I see the ravens; and they are lined up in a row. They most assuredly have the silver rings on their toes. They are standing shoulder to shoulder; and they are doing a jig. As they dance, I am once more aware of the clanking of the rings; and the sparks are shooting from their feet. My Father, I do not know what to make of this; for it seems that now and then, the heads of the ravens change to human heads."

"This is so, My Child."

"Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, do you see what is before them?"

"Yes, my Father, it is a sun dial."

"And, according to the sun dial, what time do you make it out to be?"

"Father, I am afraid that I do not know how to interpret this sun dial time very well. Will you let me see the time as if it is a clock with a face?"

"Yes, now what do you see?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"My Father, the clock says three minutes until 12:00. Is this 12:00 midnight, or is this 12:00 noon?"

"My Child, through there is light on the sun dial, My light, what do you see when you move past the ravens?"

"I see a forest and it is very dark, save a 1/4 moon."

"So, you see that it is not yet midnight."

"Yes, my Father, I see this and this most assuredly means that you have given us more time, In the Spring of this year, in March, when you said that you would give us more time, I knew you were truly extending us a time of mercy. Then, about two weeks ago when I was praying with another apostle, she said that she saw the hands of the clock suddenly turn back. To add another confirmation to this, the apostle Timothy Snodgrass came here to visit us from the Philippines and he told us that he felt that you would give us another generation as you did for King Hezekiah, and that this decision on your part was hanging in the balance at that time."

"This is so, My Child; and what you have all been given is correct. I have indeed extended My mercy upon an errant and prideful generation; but when this reprieve is up, there will be no more extended."

"Father, so many people believe that you do not change your mind. So many believe that what you say is always set in stone. And, when you say you will bring judgement and then extend your mercy, those of us, who spoke Your warnings, are often labeled as false prophets. The prophets warned and many people fasted and prayed and you heard their cries and were merciful. Above all, Father, you are full of love, mercy and tender kindness; but people cannot understand.

"My Precious Father, I will be the first to say that the stress of this close call with war this Spring , the illness of my Mother, plus the attempted murder of me by the covert government groups, all nearly finished me off. But, my Precious Father, in spite of all that I went through, when you decried that you would give a reprieve from this war, I was so relieved, so grateful, Father, and so full of love for You. I was so happy for the people, My Precious Father, that they would have more time to come in out of the cold. Oh, My Beloved Father, I was and am so very grateful that your mercy prevailed once more. To know that we have been extended more time that people might repent and that souls might be saved brings indescribable joy to my soul. Father, Precious Father in Heaven, how I love You! How grateful I am and how blessed we all are! Father, I beg you, please do not let the people go back to sleep! Do not let them forget your love and grace! Do not let them forget Your precious love for all of us! Father, I implore You! Do not let this happen!"

"My Child, you are in a war; and this is a war for the souls of all. Each, in and of his or her own volition, will make a conscious choice to choose Me and My Son, to follow after righteousness; or they will go the way of the world and the devil. My Child, the raven and his clones know that the time has been extended. They know and they also rejoice; for they know that they, too have more time to advance their evil agenda. But, I warn Mine that the sorting is going on, even now. My Child, the tall trees, which you broke and threw into the fiery furnace were servants of Satan, the devil. These tall trees have been taken down in the spirit and the physical bodies will soon follow. My Little One, you are a worker of the harvest and you are sent to harvest both the souls for hell and the souls for Heaven. This harvest is on-going and you will send many souls to salvation; but to each is given a choice. Will it be Heaven, or the fiery Pits of Hell? I warn all not to put off until tomorrow what must be done today; for some will not see another day. Violence and oppression will escalate the world over. Do not be so smug as to think that you, any of you, can sit back and do nothing while the devil advances. There is a great work to do and those, who will not do their part, who will not lift a finger to help in this war, may very soon become a victim of it. So, I say to each of you, who reads these words. Will you help My chosen with these works that souls may be saved, or will you sit on your wealth and take it to your grave? Will you do your part to save souls; or will you go the way of the grave in your own selfishness? A revival is coming to Arkansas and to the USA. Those, who will help with this revival, will reap mightily; but if you see and know of this need and you will not help, you will be judged accordingly. Now, My Child, I know that you have questions about the Seven Thunders."

"Yes, my Father, I do, but I really do not even know enough about the Seven Thunders to ask sensible questions."

"My Child, the Seven Thunders are Seven musical tones. They are Seven prophets and apostles. They are seven messengers from the Kingdom of God. They are called the Seven Thunders; for their walks shall be walks of thunder. Their words shall be words of thunder. Their demeanor shall be that of thunder. Wherever they go, they shall shake the people up. They shall wake the people up; for their words shall be as a double-edged sword. They shall cut to the heart of a situation; for My power and anointing shall be in their words. They shall reveal that, which has been hidden for millennia and because they reveal that, which has been hidden, many shall mock and scorn them . Many shall criticize them. Many shall deride them for the secrets and mysteries, which they speak. But, every foul word, which is spoken against them, shall be like a whip, which goes back and beats the one, who spoke the foul thing against Mine anointed. Fire shall come from the bodies of these seven. Over and over again, they shall stomp the head of the devil and his minions. They shall truly bruise the head of the devil. To these seven is given much authority and though many speak of the two witnesses, few, very few upon the face of the Earth, know of the Seven Thunders. Much wisdom and much understanding is coming forth through the mouths of the Seven Thunders; for their very words shall shake the heavenlies. Their very words shall rattle the world's infrastructure. Their very words shall smite the enemy and send him flying. To all seven is given the fullness of the Rod. All seven operate from the highest level in My Kingdom and all seven will be sent around the world to take My word, to take My miracles, to heal the sick, to raise the dead and to save souls. They walk upon the Earth and the devil trembles. When they stomp the Earth, the devil and his minions flee. When the Seven Thunders speak, lightening clouds and thunder will often follow them. Great judgements will be spoken out of the mouths of the Seven Thunders. All have the keys of translation and none of them will die. Many know of the two witnesses and what they will do; but now it is time that My people know of the Seven Thunders."

"My Father, I want to know about all the keys and also the storm in the Spirit, which took place yesterday."

"My Little One, I know that you are getting tired from writing, but we shall continue on. All keys in this room, you will use. These are keys of My Kingdom, which are given to the Seven Thunders to use in the latter days. No good thing will be withheld from the Seven Thunders. These keys will open many doors, which you believe to be totally inaccessible; and they will also close many doors. My Child, in no way can you comprehend the magnanimity of this with your carnal mind, but only through the Spirit of God. Wherever you to, these keys will go with you and when you need a key it is automatically given to you without your conscious awareness. You will see and understand more about these keys as time goes on. As for the storm, which hit the spirit world yesterday, yes indeed this was a mighty storm. The devil, Satan and his minions, have been put on notice; for soon, very soon, tall, very tall trees in his kingdom will meet the fiery furnace." (As I proof-read this chapter on 09-16-01, I can truthfully say that in no way did I know just how soon this latter sentence would come to pass; and I am afraid that we have truly seen nothing yet!)

"Father, what of the clones?"

"Those, which they have cloned, to look like those, who will be taken out, will begin to drop dead like houseflies. I am against the clones. I am against the genetic sciences, which they have devised to destroy My purity. I am against the evil alchemists, who play god. When they least expect it, I shall utterly destroy them. Go this day in peace, my Child; and know that My love for you is great. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

Beloved and Cherished Brothers and Sisters through our Precious Jesus, these last six chapters were given to me while I was on a ten day Daniel fast. The storm, which is referred to in this chapter, was also heard by another apostle. While I saw the storm and witnessed the devastation of the storm in the Spirit, this apostle heard the howling wind audibly, as if the wind were really blowing. This was a most powerful storm, which most assuredly manifested later in the physical realm in the disastrous chain of events, which we experienced in this country through the so-called terrorist atrocities. Great and awesome events are truly unfolding in the Kingdom of God!

CHAPTER TEN

"Our Father's Warnings of Impending Judgement"

"Beloved and Cherished Child of Mine, hearken unto Me this day; for I have words of meaning to pronounce to My People. My Child, you know that I am a jealous God, that you are to have no gods before Me. But, I say to you, look around and you will see that the world over people have made idols of vanity. They have made idols of perversion. They have made idols of hate! They have made idols of lust. They have made idols of blame and shame. They have made idols of endless chatter. They have made idols of news and print. They have made idols of broken heartedness. They have made idols of work. They have made idols of learning. They have made idols of comedy and play. They have made idols of sin and rebellion. They have made idols of witchcraft and on and on. What I am saying is that people the world over have made many things their gods and these gods have separated My people from Me, the Creator. My Child, I tell you that I am a jealous God. I tell you that I am a God of love and a God of patience; but I am also a God of destruction. I am a God of vengeance. I am a God of control; for when a world gets out of control, it is I, who puts on the dampers. It is I, who quenches the uncontrollable and destructive fires of man. It is I, who will bring order out of chaos; and I tell you that I am weary with the chaos on this Earth. I am weary with the rebellion on this Earth. I am weary with the excuses made by so many of you, excuses which are nothing but dust in the wind, excuses, which you conjure up to keep going on in sin and rebellion. Yes, it is I, who gives you every breath; and it is I, who has given you a body. It is I, who has given you the intelligence to work and make a living; and it is I, who at any moment can take all that you have. It is I, who stands beside you when you have no one else. It is I, who hears your prayers and who makes the impossible possible. It is I, who knows your every move and who attends to your every need even when you have no clue. Yes, It is I, yes Jehovah, Most High God, who hears your every cry and who attends even those, who have not a single clue; and I tell you now that it is I, who judges even when you expect it least.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

I tell you now and be advised that I speak the truth. I am ashamed of the greed on this planet. I am ashamed of the unbridled lust on this planet. I am ashamed that so many of you know My name; but you do not know Me; and you do not know My Son, Yeshua. Yes, I am ashamed of your fox-hole prayers! I am ashamed that when you need me or when you need my servants you have no qualms about asking, but when I ask you to do a certain thing, you do not carry through. When I ask you to repent and come clean before Me, you do not even hear. When I ask you to help with my works through My anointed servants you do not even hear. You read what you want to read and you understand what you want to understand, but when I ask you to do things you take it as an arbitrary decision.

I am telling you, My Cherished Ones, that I am deeply ashamed of the masses. I am deeply ashamed of the way you take and take and take, but you are willing to give so little. Woe to the selfish and woe to the hypocrites. Woe to those, who cry out for truth, but you do not want to live truth. Woe to those, who take freely of what is given you, but you dare not give back.

I have promised you a season longer without a great judgement upon this land. Yea, I have promised to hold back this war for a season; but I have not promised to hold back other kinds of judgement. I have not promised to hold back personal judgement upon the masses. I have not promised to hold back judgement of the finances of this land; for you have lived lavishly. You have lived selfishly! You have lived for self and when you have been asked to help my anointed servants, who labor with a love for you and for your salvation, you do not help. You look upon my pleas with blind eyes and I tell you that all, who have looked upon My pleas to help with blind eyes and have listened with deaf ears, yea when you come to me, I shall also look upon you with blind eyes and I shall listen to your pleas with deaf ears. Yea, this is truly a time of the sorting and my judgement is falling upon a proud and stiff-necked people. My judgement is falling upon a greedy people. My judgement is falling up an errant and haughty people. Yea, my judgement is falling upon a rebellious people; so be forewarned!

I am about to hit the finances of the USA. I am about to hit the factories and I am about hit the farms. I am going to cripple the economy of this land in a great way; and woe to the greedy. Woe to the proud and to the stiff-necked. Woe to the tale bearers and to the false accuses. For, this day the rod of judgement falls on the stock market. This day, the rod of judgement falls on the congress of the USA, a gathering of many whores. This day, my judgement falls upon the trucking industry of the USA; for I shall cause a traffic jam of trucks to push and pull at one another the length of this land. I shall cause trains to stop for weeks and I shall cause airplanes to fall unexpectedly from the sky. I shall cause many signs in the Heavens to fall all over the USA and on other parts of the world; for through these signs you will see and know that the wrath of God is stirred. You will know that My anger is kindled. You will know that what you see is not only a warning, but is a harbinger of much greater things to come. You will see the assassin strike to kill a man of great power. You will see the assassin strike not once but twice in quick succession.

Yea, you will know that mine anger is kindled against a proud, arrogant, and stiff-necked people, a people, who are caught up in their own prideful ways; and you will know that the God of Abraham and Isaac is still the God of All Creation, yea the Most High God, Jehovah, the One God. You will know that my judgement is upon this land; for you shall hear more and more of pestilence and plagues.

Yes, I am warning the greedy to get off their so-called "stashes of money" and help My people in My works; or I shall move in and take every dime. I shall move in and take your homes and your vehicles. I shall move in and I shall wreck your comfortable lifestyles and I shall leave you with little or nothing in your pockets. Yes, it is true that those, who have the least often give the most, but I tell you this day that they have their rewards in Heaven. Now is the time that you will come forth and help mine anointed with these works and you will help other of mine anointed with the works, which I have given them to do, or I shall cause a great and mighty fire to hit your finances; and this is not a fire, which will bless you. This is a fire, which will curse you; for this is the holy fire, which is from my throne.

I tell you this day, My Child, take the rod of power, which I have given you and hit the stock market of the USA seven times"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"My Father, I am taking this rod of power and I am doing as you say!"

"Now, I say to you, My Child, take this rod of power and hit this website seven times!"
"My Father, I have taken this rod of power and I have hit http//www.prophecies.org seven times."

"Very well, My Child, take this rod of power of hit the congress of the USA seven times!"

"My Father, I have taken this rod of power and I have hit the congress of the USA seven times!"

"Very well, My Child, you have done as I have asked and as of this day you will see changes in all. As of this day, you will see my handiwork go forth and bear fruit, not once but seven times over and above what you expect.

"Father, what do you mean?"

"This day, the stock market will begin to show the effects of my judgement! This day, those who see a need through this website, and are able to help and do not, will reap my judgement upon them not once but seven times greater than what they believe. Conversely, those, who see a need and help with a need will be blessed seven times more than they could ever believe. But, be warned! Those, who refuse to see and refuse to hear, will also find that I will refuse to see them and hear their cries before Me. What people do not understand and what they had best come to understand is that this is a new day for My Anointed. This is a new day wherein I have given you much power and authority in My Kingdom. What I have spoken to you in Book Seven about your being one of the Seven Thunders is a mighty word from Me and it is truth. What I give you bears much power and you have received the mantle of the Seven Thunders. Woe to those, who turn a deaf ear once they have received truths from this site; for they will be judged mightily. But, conversely when one receives truths from this site and acts accordingly such a one is in line to receive the Seven Thunders blessings. So, each will decide if he or she wants the blessings or the cursings.

"I tell you, My Child, that eyes have not seen and ears have not heard what I am about to do through many of Mine anointed. Great and powerful works are coming forth through My Chosen Ones! Woe to the unbelievers and to those, who will not repent when you see and know that truth; for you will be doubly judged. You will either choose to do what you know to be right and you will turn from your rebellion or you shall perish in rebellion. I say to each of you, you have been given a reprieve from a devastating war; and many of you have already gone back to sleep; but be warned. For, when you expect it least, judgement will come knocking at your door. Are you ready for My judgement? Are you ready to bear Mine anger? Are you ready to reap what you have sown; for none of you knows how many hours, days or weeks that you have left. None of you knows how long you have! None of you knows at what hour the death knell will toll for you! None of you knows! Only I know and I have extended My hand of mercy to a proud and stiff-necked generation, but I am not holding my judgement totally. So, I say you, 'Get ready; for you know not when I shall require your life. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God!"

"God's Judgement is Falling"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah Most High God. Proceed to write, even as I say, that the people might receive from Me. Behold the number eleven, which is given at the top of this prophecy, yea the number, which is cherished in the occult practices of the Luciferians. Yes, My Child, place this prophecy ahead of the last prophecy on "A Message for You" that the people may read, that those with the eyes to see may see, that those with the ears to hear may hear! For, these two prophecies are related!

"Yea, in My words below, wherein I told you to take the rod to the stock market and to the congress of the USA, I wanted you to see and know in advance that I am judging the finances of this land! I am judging the leadership of this land! The devil and his hoards know that I put the power in the rod, which is in your hand; and they know that I have orchestrated this judgement on this soil, which has been carried out by the very Luciferians, who carried out the Oklahoma bombing. These are the very same ones, who carried out the bombings of the embassies in Africa. Yea, these are the very same ones, namely the Rockefeller whores and their allies, who no longer count the USA as worthy to survive; for they are hell-bent towards the New World Order. But, remember, My Child, that I allow the New World Order to rise for a season, all to test and try, to humble My Faithful, and to make them ready for their heavenly rewards. Yea, I allow the old system to crumble and fall; for I am bringing into the Earth a new system through My Son. Yea, I am tearing down the old, the rotten and the putrid; for I am bringing in My glory. Yea, I warn all to take note, to observe what has happened today! I warn all , who trust in the riches and the fat of this land to behold; for what you see today is meant for the whole of this land! Yea, I warn each of you to get your spiritual houses in order and to get ready for the Coming of My Son; for He will come when you expect it least. Truly, here and there, one or two will be taken and the rest will be left standing. Yea, a grave warning is going out across this land to all, who trust in their riches, or in their self-sufficiency to sustain them! I tell you now that today many souls went to hell! Today, they cry out in anguish from the bowels of hell for water! They cry out for forgiveness, but it is too late! They cry out for another chance; but it is too late. They have missed the Marriage Supper of the Lamb! They have missed their heavenly inheritance because they trusted in the arm of the flesh. Yea, this day the bowels of hell opened up and took many; but few, very few made their way into Heaven. I tell you now that you do not know how long you have! Today could be your last day! Did those, who died today, think that it would be their last? Nay! They did not! For, even unto the end many partied! Many loved the world and what was in it and at their death, the Lord of this dark world, the devil, himself, was ready to claim his prey.

"Are you devil bait? Are you? If you will not live My commands, you are! Just as surely as the sun rises, you will end up in hell if you will not obey my commands! Will you stay in hell forever? Some will! Will you ever get out of hell? Only I know this answer! But, I can tell you this. The blood of the Lamb is not lost on those in hell! The blood of the Lamb will not forsake those in hell! Even My Son visited them in Hell; and as you see in Zechariah 9:11, some of them are loosed. (This is the reference, which our Father speaks of. Zech. 9:11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.) But, I tell you now that only I know which ones and only I know how long you must anguish in suffering and in agony in a desolate place, wherein there is no water! I tell you that you do not want to go to hell!

"Those of you, who live for this world are devil bait. Are you ready for the consequences of being devil bait? Nay, I say, 'You are not!' You are not ready; for how can you be ready for a torture, which is so great and so awful that it defies human description. Nay, you are not ready for hell and neither are the masses ready for Heaven!

"This calamity is a wake-up call. It is a wake-up call for those, who slumber. It is a wake-up call for the greedy. It is a wake-up call for the leadership of this country. It is a wake-up call for the fat and greedy whores in congress! Yea, it is a wake-up call for those, who will not lift a finger to help My struggling prophets! It is a wake-up call for those, who take and take and take; but will not give! Yea, it is a wake-up call for all, even and especially the rich!

"I say to you, My Child, take the rod and hit the right arm of the Rockefeller family seven times!"

"My Father, I take the rod and I hit the right arm of the Rockefeller Family high up in the shoulder seven times; and the arm breaks off and falls into myriad pieces. And, just as suddenly I see the remnant pieces of this arm become as dust in the wind and they blow away."

"Now, My Child, I say to you, take the rod and hit the left leg of the Rockefeller empire at the knee; and hit it there seven times!"

"My Father, I take the rod and I hit the Rockefeller empire in the left leg at the knee one, two, three, four, five, six seven times. And, as always, when the rod hits, great white fire explosions take place in the Spirit. My Father, I see that the leg buckles at the knee immediately. Then, suddenly the whole leg begins to twist and as it twists, all the clothing disappears readily from the leg revealing not bone, but steel instead of bone. And, this steel twists as a piece of twisted licorice candy until the leg disconnects quickly from the hip joint, which is also made of steel; and this piece of twisted steel bursts into smoke and flames and is gone."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Now, My Child, take this rod and hit the Rockefeller head seven times."

"My Father, I take this rod and I hit the Rockefeller head seven times and the head begins to splinter off and break as if is made of soft, yet brittle wood; and in place of the head, there remain brittle wooden stubble, which are hollowed out in the center as if leaving a nest. And, at the instant that I say, 'nest,' I see the black raven with the silver rings on its toes; and it is standing on first one foot and then the other. (For more about this black raven see the latest prophecies of Book Seven.) The raven looks at me with his black eyes and says, 'I am a wise, old bird, yea a trick, a whore am I; but My plumes on My tail are fresh. They are all here! Neither a dot nor a tittle do I miss! A whore, a goat, a whore am I! Oh, yes a fanciful whore!"

The bird begins to hop, first on one foot and then the other, with its tail feathers stretched out like a peacock. Then, as it were, a whirlwind hits the raven in the rear end and this wind sucks the feathers out of the raven's rear end, leaving only three tail feathers. On the feathers are the words:1. Standard Oil is still here! 2. Corrupt banking and fraud is still here! 3. Stinking, rotten, dope trade, body parts, terrorism and theft, these are all here!

Then, the bird turns to see that it is bald in the rear and the bird gasps and says, "A whore am I, a coward, a whore! How can I stand in a land where My arm is gone? My legs are gone! My head is exposed! "

Then, I see the Rockefeller body turn and on the rear end of this body, I see the words, "As of this day, the Rockefellers are burned and they are burned badly!"

"And, so it is, My Child, go in peace this day, knowing that those, who are mighty in this world, shall one day be as dust in the wind. I am your Father in Heaven"

CHAPTER ELEVEN

"Interpretation from Book One about the Towers"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea, Jehovah, Most High God. Blessed are you, My Child, for you are faithful to My purposes. Yea, they come now to stone you from many directions. Even some among My Chosen Ones, My Elect, stone you. They speak lies about you behind your back and gather against you as a pack of wolves; for they see you standing alone before Me and proclaiming My word. They believe that there is strength in numbers, so they pile up on one another, like football players in a football game, who are out to tackle a quarterback. The wolves do not win, so they send in the wolverines, their 'yea-sayers', to attack you and to bring you down. But, the wolverines fall and are utterly defeated. For, those, who stand around a circle, looking for a bombshell to drop, are practices of witchcraft. They are full of rebellion, believing that they are in a circle, which cannot be broken; but I tell you that they are broken and they know it not. For, their wooden bombshell is only a shell; and it is wooden. It has no power and no substance and with a slight of the hand I will utterly consume it with fire. Those, who come to make war with My Anointed need to know that they do not make war with you, but Me. My rod shall utterly destroy My enemies. Those, who are enemies of My Beloved Servants are My enemies.

"Yea, I am bringing Mine through fires of cleansing. Those, who will not knuckle under and do what they know to be right will be consumed with these burning fires. I will cause their lives to be hell on Earth if they will not repent. It is an abomination to Me to see My Chosen Servants backbite and gossip and mistreat those, who have only shown them kindness. I say, 'Beware to the users and abusers of My People; for I shall make your walk slippery like one's walk over ice. I shall cause you to fall over and over until you will not get up again, save you repent and come clean before Me. Yea, be advised that the wolves will come back empty handed. The wolverines will come back empty handed; and the circle of witchcraft, along with the wooden bombshell, will be devoured through My unquenchable fires.' Get ready, I say, for your redemption draws nigh! You have been warned in advance. Repent, or perish! For, I am cleaning house!

"Now, My Child, as one of My Loved Ones has called you repeatedly regarding certain parts of Book I, I shall further explain this vision. Write as written on page Four of Book One, that I may explain further.

"Yes, my Father, I am copying this vision from Book One below:

Vision from Book One

The following vision takes place as I am standing in the Vatican. Something falls from above and hits the floor in front of me. What I see reminds me of a cap, which we used to see on carbonated drink bottles, the kind of cap, which would have a cork at the top of the cap, which is placed therein as a sealant. I picked up the cap and could see that it the cork was already lifted on one corner, so I lifted the cork from the cap. The following is what I saw after I lifted the cork from this cap.

Something came pouring out from beneath the cork. There were many pictures connected one to another by plastic holders. These plastic holders reminded me of the ones used to hold pictures in a wallet, and were about the same size. The long line unfolded like an accordion, and fell from my chest area all the way to the floor. It kept unrolling all the way down the hall and into The Square outside where it finally stopped by a brick wall.

Someone climbed out of the last plastic picture holder. He wore cowboy boots and saddle pants with jeans. I followed his feet as he climbed a ladder by the wall. He kept climbing up the ladder until he stood on the wall. "Who is this man," I said.

Then, I saw him pull off his cowboy hat. He stood there on The Great Wall of China waving his hat back and forth and smiling. It was Bill Clinton.

Someone from the Secret Service ran up to Mr. Clinton, and said, "Mr. Clinton, you must come down from there. We've had a bad explosion, Sir. America is burning. The United States has been bombed, Sir."

"By whom?" the president asked.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"We do not know, Sir. Our towers aren't functioning. We can't track it. We can only tell that we're surrounded, Sir."

"My Father, I ask for an interpretation as You say that you will reveal more."

"This is so, My Child. Let us go back to the picture holder. As you held these empty picture holders before your chest, they tumbled out in front of you, like an accordion. Is this so?"

"Yes, Father."

"And, the last one, the last picture holder, is the one, which opened up to show what is above. What do you make of this?"

"My Father, I do not know."

"My Child, what is a picture?"

"It is a way of capturing an image, which can be held over time."

"This is so, My Child, time as you know it."

"So, you have therein an image, which is held over time. Yet, an image, which is held over time without any reference to a given time is illusion. Is this not so?"

"My Father, You know that I do not have all understanding, but only a small part. As I lack understanding, I ask that You give me this, that the reader may also understand what you are saying."

"My Child, I am saying that within the Earth, time is based on a linear system. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Father."

"And, when a picture cannot be connected to a specific event, does it not generally fall into illusion?"

"Yes, my Father, this is generally so as I understand it.

"So, with this vision of Bill Clinton upon the wall of China, have you been able to connect it to a certain event?"

"Not specifically, my Father; and even now I cannot be sure."

"Nay, you cannot be sure unless I give you understanding; but have I not said to all that if you lack understanding, come to Me and I will give you understanding?"

"Yes, my Father, you have said it."

"Therefore, I say to you, why did you see the series of plastic picture holders unfold before you?"

"Father, surely these represented a series of events, which would unfold at some point in the future; but as there was no point of reference they amounted to illusion to many."

"This is so, but I will show you that this vision is not illusion; and I will show you that a babe in Christ called to question you about this vision; for My Spirit stirred him to do so. Did he not ask you on more than one occasion if this vision and the one subsequent to it, plus another following vision had to do with the bombing of the Trade Towers and the Pentagon?'

"Yes, my Father, he asked this."

"And, what did you tell him?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

I told him that I could not answer this; for the visions, which you give Me, are often complex and that I do not understand them, save you give an understanding. But, I told him that I would present all to you."

"And, so you have. But, I say to you, 'What is the significance of the last picture holder and the fact that they are all plastic?"

"My Father, I can only speculate; for I do not know for sure."

"My Child, have you ever seen a spotted camel?"

"No, my Father."

"Have you ever seen a camel with stripes?"

"No, my Father, I have not seen this."

"Have you ever seen a black leopard?"

"No, my Father, I have not."

"Have you ever seen a bird fall from the sky and die in flight?"

"No, my Father, not that I can remember."

"But, you have seen desert sands and you have felt the heat of the same?"

"Yes, my Father, I have seen and experienced this."

"Well, then, My Child, I ask you this, "Does My River of Life run dry?"

"No, my Father, but I do not understand what these things have to do with this plastic picture holder and Bill Clinton."

"My Child, is there a common thread among these questions, which I have asked you?"

"Yes, My Father, and I believe this common thread to be truth."

"This is so, My Child, and this being so, I ask you, "Does the Spirit of God bear falsehood, or truth?"

"Truth, my Father, always truth."

"But, does it not speak in symbols, which many do not understand? Therefore, many regard visions as lies or illusions, unless backed by a parallel event in time."

"Yes, my Father, I understand this to be so."

"My Child, I have taken time to go into all this that the babes may be weaned from the breast. It is time that they begin to think for themselves and to question what they do not understand, even as the babe, who called you, that they may be given understanding. Thus said, My Child, behold the fountain of Living Waters. Go there, cup your hands and drink."

"As you say I do, Father."

"Then, take the last picture holder in your hands and write as seen and given."

"My Father, as I hold the last picture holder, it begins to crackle and to melt in my hands and as it melts, I see Bill Clinton at a table with Saddam Hussein. My Father, they both wear a ring, which has a Goat head of Menendez on it. These rings suddenly become ablaze with a roaring fire and in the midst of this fire, I see the vision of Bill Clinton, dressed as a cowboy, climbing this wall. On the wall, I see the words, 'Heroin and dope trade.' As Bill Clinton waves his cowboy hat, large numbers of dollar bills and large stacks of checks, measuring into the millions, all come streaming out and form a long trail in the air. This trail goes all the way to the leader of China and when he opens his mouth to smile, I see a front tooth with a goat head star on it. This is his left front tooth. Then, I see some strong hands with a set of pliers and these pliers rip out the right front tooth and what is within the tooth and left is the end of a screw. I do not see the head of this screw; for the head is embedded in the jaw of the Chinese leader. Suddenly, this screw turns into a peg leg soldier, who is wounded and blind in one eye. This soldier walks with crutches; and on its rear end I see the word, "Pakistan." The word "Pakistan" is actually written on a door and when this door opens up and I see within it US soldiers with helmets, combat gear, face grease and guns, and they are crawling on their bellies. Overhead, I see a helicopter and I see someone standing in the door of the helicopter. It is a Chinese soldier with a megaphone and the soldier is saying, "All aboard." The US soldiers, who are crawling on their bellies rise up, and form a line. The helicopter lands and the soldiers prepare to enter onto the aircraft. As each one enters the helicopter, he salutes the Chinese general. The general utters something, which I do not understand, but as the Spirit of God translates it, I know that it means, "Attention, this is a new order."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"This is a very large helicopter, which is flown by the Chinese and the US soldiers are now subservient to those in charge."

"Oh, my Father, I must go back; for I am so concerned for these things, which I see. Let us go back to the last picture holder. My Father, please explain."

"Did it not melt in your hands?"

"Yes, Father, but why?"

"My Child, the last picture of Bill Clinton, which represented freedom in America, was only an illusion. In the Clinton years, many espoused all manner of freedoms, yet all become ten times more a prisoner. During the Clinton years, he espoused great financial growth; but you know that this, too, was only a lie, for America is bankrupt and each of you is taxed more than ever. Bill Clinton took away many of your freedoms in the name of preservation of freedom; but how can one lose freedoms and preserve them at the same time? Yes, My Child, Bill Clinton was the last great picture holder. Oh, he rode high and he still rides high. He does not travel the world for the fun of it. He travels it; for he and George Bush are partners in power and crime. Many believe that Clinton is gone, just another retired president; but alas how far could you all be from the truth. You will see, My Child, that he has gone nowhere, but is very much involved in the shenanigans of Lucifer and the New World Order. You will soon see that he is very much alive and well and at the forefront of Lucifer's works."

" So, my Father, we know well that Saddam Hussein is a New World Order whipping boy. We know that he is just someone they use when needed."

"Oh, my Child, Hussein is a class servant of Lucifer. When I say, 'class,' I mean that he ranks near the top of the class among Lucifer's servants. He is key to much, which goes on in the Mideast and he is a silent key, very silent, to the dope trafficking in that part of the world. On, yes, he and Bill Clinton, the Bushes, the Rockefellers and even the Rothschilds and the Queen of England and more, are all pawns of the devil in this work of evil. For, remember, My Child, that Lucifer desires to enslave every person on Earth; and what better way to enslave all, save through the mental straight jacket of drugs? Not only are many enslaved in this way and tortured on and on by demons; but through addiction, many are robbed of the money they need to survive and support their families. Then, all in the family suffer because of the chains and shackles of dope. Therefore, at this time, there is a great push to increase the dope trade and this is why Bill Clinton is standing on the wall of China waving. My Child, he is dressed as a cowboy; for he is herding in the dope trade. He is herding in the body parts trade. What a blasphemy thrown into My face! And, what a stench upon the land! But, alas the body parts business flourishes through these very faces, which I have just shown you."

"So, Saddam Hussein, Bill Clinton and the Chinese connection all pull together; and this is why Bill Clinton is grinning and waving. For, his hat is full of evil money and the trail leads all the way to the President of China."

"This is so."

"But, Father, why is he told to come down off the wall?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"He is told to come down; for he is oblivious to what is going on back home."

"My Father, if he works with Bush, how is he oblivious?"

"He is not told all."

"Why?"

"For, often the right hand in government does not know what the left hand does. Clinton is an insider in this evil, but does not know all."

"But, my Father, You have shown that he is a Rockefeller and you have implicated this family in great evil."

"This is so; but it is also known that Bill Clinton is a liability. It is known that Bill Clinton can be manipulated and he is both an outsider and an insider."

"So, he is called off the wall and told that there has been a bad explosion and America is burning."

"Yes, My Child, this is the devastation of the Trade Towers and the Pentagon. These towers are not functioning and neither can the aviation towers provide accurate information."

"The Secret Service calls him Mr. Clinton and not President Clinton."

"This is so and also a clue that he is no longer President when this happens."

"And, the Secret Service says, "America has been bombed."

"This is so and you are learning that it was not the planes, which took out the towers, but explosives, yes even bombs."

"Oh, my Father, this is most interesting. I wish to go back to the vision, which proceeded Bill Clinton, Saddam Hussein and the goat head rings. My Father, much is self-explanatory, but what hand removed the covering from the right front tooth of the Chinese leader?"

"My hand."

"And, what does the screw mean?"

"That the Chinese screw will be applied to the American military."

"And, Father, what is this screw?"

"It is a twisted rod of steel, which will be put on the backs of the American military and it is coming from the Chinese head. This twisted rod of steel will cripple the American military. They will be sent out to crawl on their bellies like snakes in the dark and they will answer knowingly or unknowingly to the Chinese military. Eventually, they will be broken and will not only salute the Chinese generals, but will obey them. No good thing will come of this present war; for it is a war, which is based on total enslavement of the world' people. It is a war against terrorism, which is sponsored by world terrorists. In due season, all within your military will openly understand that this is truly a New Order and that China has been chosen by Lucifer to enforce the New Order. Let all be advised for you will not win this war. As a nation, you will fall through this long and protracted war, which brings terrorism upon this land over and over again. My Child, we shall stop for today and letter resume to explain more from Book I and how it relates to the burning towers."

"Father, I have just one more question before You go. What is the Pakistani door in the rear of the American military? What does this mean?"

"My Child, this door is in the rear of your crippled military and for this reason is not seen."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"What do you mean, 'rear?'"

"I mean that this Pakistani door is hidden in the Chinese tooth."

"Hidden in the tooth?"

"Yes, My Child, the twisted screw of steel will put a bite on the American military and help to make it subservient to China through the hidden Pakistani door."

"What do You mean, Father?"

"I mean, My Child, that Pakistan is allied with China and the purpose is to bring down your military. Yet, this is all known to the pigs in your very government, who know and work toward their common goal that America must fall. And, fall it will; for the masses have deserted the Very One, who has made this country great. Therefore, I am giving Lucifer power over you here a little and there a little; and if you will not repent in a great way, you shall surely fall to world communism."

"My Father, was Pakistan involved in the bombings?"

"More than you will ever know."

"What about China?"

"Have you not seen Pakistan in the Chinese head?"

"Yes, Father."

"Then, know, My Child, that this is complicated picture. All is orchestrated within your own government and the end goal is the enslavement of all. Go this day in peace. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWELVE

"God's Judgement will soon fall on the Mormon Church"

"My Precious Child, be at peace this day and know that mighty spiritual blessings are at hand for you and Dennis and for your household; for I shall soon part the heavens. And, I shall show you great and mighty things.

"My Little One, do not be dismayed because of two defensive letters, which you have received from the Mormons. My Child, do you not know how freemasonry works? Do you not know that those at the bottom levels innocently believe that they do right? Do you not know how these cults work, that deception is a slow process? Do you not know that the greatest numbers must be utterly deceived and tricked into following after Lucifer, that they would never openly agree to his shenanigans?

"Lucifer knows these things. He knows that he must operate behind the scenes. He knows that he must operate in the shadows and above all, he knows that he must control the top. Those at the lower levels of any freemason organization must all take oaths of allegiance. These oaths may vary, but they all serve the same purpose, to bind one to the leadership of the organization. Those, who receive temple recommends must show that they are loyal to the church. They must show that they are worthy to be counted 'in' and that they are not trouble makers. They must be made to see what a privilege and honor it is to receive a temple recommend and they must be made to believe that such a trip to the temple is a trip to the 'Holy of Holies.' In all things, those, who go to these temples, must show their obedience. Like wide-eyed children, they treasure these trips. They treasure these oaths, which they carry out in secret. They treasure this obedience to an organization, which at its highest levels, openly worships Lucifer. Willingly and in ignorance, they pledge themselves and their families forever to Lucifer and his oaths. And, as soon as they do so, the thick tentacles of blindness and deceit of Lucifer reach out to snare another person, another couple, another family. Yes, indeed these become 'marked' by Lucifer. They then come under his covering. Just as those, who pledge allegiance to My Son are grafted into the Olive Tree, so are those in Mormonism, who pledge themselves and their families, grafted into Lucifer's eternal tree. Without their open knowledge or consent, they have made an eternal covenant with Lucifer, the Devil.

"My Child, what I have shown you about sacrifices of children to Lucifer in the bowels of some of these temples is absolutely correct. What I have shown you about rape and sodomy of little ones and others within these satanic circles is absolutely correct. What those at thw lower levels of freemason organizations do not know is that Lucifer always requires human sacrifice. He always requires desecration and defilement of the human body; for this very body is the temple of the Spirit of God.

"What you need to know, My Child, and what people need to understand is that 'eternal marriage' is a lie. Neither are children sealed to their parents through time as many believe; but satanic agreements and curses can extend down through generations. When these innocent people go into these temples and make such covenants, they are putting themselves and their children under bondage for generations. In no way, do I honor such covenants; for they are purely Luciferian.

"Lucifer demands obedience and sacrifice, human sacrifice, and defilement of the human body. Those at the top of the Mormon Church are prisoners in the worse kind of way. You have been told of forced drugging at very high levels of this church and I tell you, My Child, that what you have been told is so. You have received words, which have backed up the previous visions of many months past, about human sacrifice and orgies in the bowels of some of these temples. Yes, My Child, the word is out and it is true. Let those, who will see, see. And, let those, who will hear, hear. For, My Son will not take a single one as His Bride, who is married to the devil.

"Yes, My Child, all, who have taken these lying covenants in these temples, are unknowingly, or knowingly (though these are few) married to Lucifer. They bear the same burden as all freemasons anywhere in the world. They have entered into Satanic agreements with the devil. They have made oaths and covenants with him, which are binding, yea upon their souls and upon the souls of their children.

"But, Father, how can such a covenant be bound upon an innocent child?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"I say to you, My Child, that such a covenant is not binding until the child reaches the age of accountability."

"Which is?"

"Twelve years of age."
"But, my Father, how can a child discern right from wrong at this age?"

"Many do not; for they go along. They accept what their parents have given them to accept; but from this age on, each of you bears a grave responsibility for your choices."

"Father, there is so much, which we do not understand."

"My Little One, ignorance is not a blessing. It is a curse. I would not have Mine to follow around as blind sheep; for the wolves of the devil are looking to harvest the blind sheep. I tell you now that the Mormon Church is full of blind sheep. They willingly do as they are told without questioning; for blindness is accepted and encouraged as a way of life. They are kept in place and threatened about going against the 'Only True Church.' But, I say to them all, 'You had better open your eyes to your plight and for your own salvation you had better seek refuge under My hand of safety; for therein is your truth. Yea, truth shall set you free if you will truly seek truth and be willing to give up a lying network of false security and fraud, which has been perpetrated against you. But, if you will not seek to be free with all your heart, you will remain a captive of Luciferian false doctrine and slavery."

"Yes, indeed, many, many within the Mormon Church would weep and howl if they could see the truth of what goes on in the bowels of some of these temples. Many would be so sick that they would pine away in great sorrow if they could truly see and understand. But, alas, they cannot see how they reptiles have taken over the leadership of this church. They cannot see why it is frowned on for members to prophecy and that they are told the big lie that there is only one prophet in the world and only 12 apostles. Do they not realize that even and especially Lucifer knew that in the Latter

Days, that prophets would be called and apostles would be called; and knowing this, he set up his church masterpiece upon this very order. But, alas, now many have been thrown out of the Mormon Church because they began to receive visions and prophecies from Me and My Son? My Child, you personally know of one, who was excommunicated for such; but this is only a small part of the story. Yes, indeed prophetic gifts within the Mormon Church must utterly be squashed by Lucifer; for he demands to be in control of all prophecy.

"Therefore, I say to all Mormons, 'You are first My Children; but alas you, who have entered into temple covenants have given yourselves over to Lucifer and his doctrines. I warn you to wake up and take note of what you have done; for none of you will be Bride of My Son. Yea, you have knowingly married yourselves to Lucifer, the devil, and you are his bride, whether you accept it, or not."
"Oh, Father, I am so sad; for I am not ignorant of this church, since I was a member of it for seven years in my youth. I have known some of the kindest and most gentle and loving people in this church and they are full of love; but I must also say that when I knew them they possessed a blind obedience to this church and to what they think it stands for. They are clean-living and decent people and this is what pains me so. Father, I am asking You for a miracle that these people are saved."

" My Child, you will not want to hear this and you will not want to see the end-results; but this day I command you to take My rod of power, which is in your hand and to strike the Salt Lake Temple seven times."

"Father, you know that I fear for those people, places and situations, which receive the power of Your rod; for this is not my rod of power, but yours. And, it is not in my hands, but Yours. Therefore, I fear, Father. Regretfully, Father, I hit the Temple in Salt Lake City seven times, knowing that Your judgement is going to fall on this church. With this rod in my hand I reach out and hit this temple one, two, three, four, five, six, seven times. And, I witness in the Spirit great explosions of light and with the seventh blow, I See Your power consume the temple far into the ground. I hear the wails of children and see their tears. I see prison cells burst open and I see a rolling fire consume an underground area, that looks like the bowels of hell. Father, I do not know what is going to take place, but You know. I worry for those, who must suffer; but I know that Your will shall roll forth as a great and mighty, thunderous fire."

"My Child, this day My judgement falls on the Mormon Church; for I would not have millions of souls go into captivity unknowingly as the Bride of Lucifer. Though you are only one small voice this day I add My power to your voice. I add My hand of judgement to this rod that those, who would be free, might be free.

"Go this day in peace, knowing that a shake-up is at hand for the Mormon Church; and I am the author of it. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

"Our Father Opens the Heavens!"

"My Precious Child, be at peace this day, knowing that you are within My will. Yea, I awoke you in the early hours of the morning that you would come out and pen My words. Hearken unto Me this day, My Child; for I have a new word for you and it is to go on "A Message for You" as a message, but also as the next chapter of Book Seven. My Child, I have recently told you that I shall part the heavens and I shall show you great and mighty things. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Father, and I have been eager to see what You will reveal."

"My Child, see My sword go before you. See its brilliant and fiery blade. And, see it move under My hand to cut and divide asunder the heavenlies."

"Yes, my Father, and as it moves forth beneath the power of Your hand, I see great fire and explosions in the heavenlies and awesome steam pours forth. Clouds roll forth, mighty storm clouds, and they are churning with a great wind. I hear piercing thunder and I see great lightening, as violent storms move in. Rain falls in sheets and hail the size of baseballs pours forth from the angry clouds. Below the clouds, on the face of the Earth, I see mountains crack and earthquakes rumble and rattle the earth, breaking and splitting the ground. Fiery lava flows are seen below as they ooze from the ruptured mountains. Then, suddenly I witness a great stillness come upon the land. The clouds develop a calmness and the wind is only a whisper as I behold before me a great rip in the heavenlies. And, even as I behold this rip in the heavenlies, Father, I hear your voice say, "A rip in the fabric of time." But, I do not understand what you mean when you say, "A rip in the fabric of time."

"Come up hither, My Child."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

Suddenly, I am drawn through this rip; and even as I sit and write, I know also that I am drawn upwards and through this rip in the heavenlies, flying within this rip in time. Great energy and power bathe me and a coolness settles on my face. I am traveling in spirit, yet at the same time I seem to be a part of rushing waters. The sensation changes back and forth from that of a cool breeze to that of rushing waters and I stand now atop a very tall mountain, sensing that I am on Mount Ararat. Below, I sense activity but I am prevented from knowing what this activity is.

"My Child, turn due East."

"My Father, direct my feet; for I do not know what due East is from where I stand."

"Very well."

And, in that instant, my feet are turned and my body is turned and before me is a substance, which looks like a fibrous web. I know that I am to part the web with my hands and it is as a cloud, but also like a web; and as I push my hands through it, I am drawn through this web. On walking through this web, I find that I am standing at the edge of a busy street in India. All around me, Indians are milling around, going about their daily activities. The streets are full of dark-skinned people and many of them just stare at me. I smell a foul scent and I look to see a dead corpse on the street near me. As I look closer, I can see that houseflies are all over his body and flying around in the street. I glance around to see people in a nearby shop and a few are at a counter, drinking something from cups. "My Father, there seems to be so much confusion here and so much sadness. Here, near my feet is this poor soul, who is most certainly dead, and people are going their way, seemingly oblivious to his plight. Why am I here; for I feel so sad."

"Do you not know?"

"No, My Father, I do not know and I feel so distraught by what I see. The people, in general, appear to be so poor and here at my feet is this dead man. What shall I do?"

"Reach down and touch his left wrist and tell him to awaken; for he only sleeps."

"Father, I know that you say he only sleeps, but surely he is dead; for as I reach down to touch his wrist, I see many flies coming out of his nose and his mouth and the smell is so putrid. My Father, I feel so sad; for he is dead like a dog on a road and it seems that no one even notices. " Reaching down, I touch the man on the wrist and I feel that he is ice cold; and words come out of my mouth, which I do not understand. However, I know that I am saying to him,

"Awaken in the name of Jesus Christ; for the Most High God Jehovah has commanded it." Than, as a zombie, the man begins to stir. He moves his eyes and blinks them a few times; and then he staggers to his feet, spitting out flies and muttering unintelligible words. He just looks at me as if he is frightened and I do not know what to say to him. His shirt is unbuttoned and his ribs are protruding. His trousers are very dirty and ripped and torn here and there and he appears disoriented. "Be healed in the name of Jesus," I say to him; and he looks at me, shaking his head in the affirmative as if he understands. As I behold the man before me, I look around to see a small crowd of people, who have gathered and as this man begins to say a few words, several of them jump back in disbelief or fear. One woman seems to faint and as I look at them and begin to tell them not to fear; for all is well, they look with wide-eyes disbelief. Then, the one, who is raised from the dead, begins to dust off his pants, and to brush his dusty hair back with his hand. One woman rushes forth with a sick baby and puts the baby in my hands. I touch the forehead of this child and feel that its head is very hot and its nose if thick with mucus. "I stand before you, Father, and present this child to you in the name of our Beloved Jesus, that this child may be made whole. Father, I pray that this child is healed in the name of our Precious Jesus. And, to you, our Beloved God Jehovah is the praise forever and ever." I hand the child back to the Mother and even as I do so, I feel that the cloud is moving in on me. I see the web-like substance and I am moving through this substance again, once more caught up in the wind and rushing waters, travelling at a great speed until once again I am here at home, yet deeply aware of this rip, which I perceive in the heavens. My Father, I do not know how to comment on what I have experienced. Please explain this."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"I parted the heavens today and a time of great and mighty miracles, My miracles, is upon this planet."

"But, Father, what do You mean when You say that You parted the heavens; and why was there such a mighty storm?"

"When I say that I parted the heavens, what I mean is that I have caused changes in the space/time continuum, which will make it easier for My Chosen Ones to be translated to distant parts of the world to work My miracles. The mighty storm, which you witnessed, is both a spiritual storm and a physical storm. Lucifer knows that I am empowering My Elect with My power to do great and awesome miracles in the Earth. This empowerment of Mine at much higher levels will put a severe crink in his work. Therefore, you will see him pick up speed in his evil in an attempt to stop what Mine are empowered to do. You will see him begin to restrict travel in an attempt to stop Mine Anointed from going to distant lands to work My miracles and to save souls. You will also see him pick up in his destruction and attacks on Christians worldwide, as in the "holy war," which he is initiating between Christians and Muslims. You will see evidence in many areas that Lucifer is building up steam to persecute and do away with all Christians. Just as King Herod sought to kill all babes when My Son was born, you will see great annihilation of Christians worldwide, in an attempt by Lucifer to kill off many before they can realize this new power. And, truly many, many Christians will die; but I will work great and mighty miracles through My Faithful. And, this will not be stopped."

"Father, was I just translated to India?"

"You were."

"Father, this was so awesome, but also so sad and painful. What happened with these two?"

"The man lives and the babe is healed."

"Father, do they understand that this is a gift from You through our Beloved Jesus?"

"They do."

"When I went back through the web, or curtain, did they see this?"

"They only saw you disappear."

"What did they do then?"

"They are still talking and a greater crowd has assembled."

"But, Father, will they come to You. Will they serve You and our Lord Jesus?"

"Some will."

"But, Father what will it take for them to come out of paganism and to give up demonic gods?"

"The same thing that it will take for the Mormons to give up membership in a freemason cult."

"Which is?"

"A shake-up of major proportions."

"But, Father what could this possibly be?"

"When their world falls apart and they see that their religion does not save them, but it persecutes them."

"And, when will this be?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"When the mystery mark begins to burn them."

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that those, who are marked by the devil, will be claimed by the devil. Those, who resist will be severely burned by him."

"My Father, how long will so-called Christians be allowed to continue in a lukewarm walk? Father, how long?"

"To each is given a free choice. Will each of you get a hunger and thirst after righteousness? Will you be on fire for more and more of Me? Will you hunger for deeper and deeper truths? Or, will you rot in complacency? Those, who are lost in cults, such as the Mormon Church, are rotting in complacency. Their religion will not save them. It will condemn them."

"Father, what happened today when this rip took place in the heavenlies?"

"As I said, I have caused this rip in the heavenlies and this rip will allow My Chosen Ones to move about much more freely in the miraculous."

"Do You mean, as far as being translated to other places, or as regards the manifestation of all miracles from You?"

"As regards all miracles."

"Father, how will this manifest?"

"Just as you experienced today."

"You mean with translation?"

"And, healing and other kinds of miracles."

"Oh, Father, I wish I understood this; but I feel so ignorant. I feel like such a babe. How can we ever comprehend your great and mighty ways?'

"You cannot save I give you understanding."

"Father, I wish I knew more questions to ask about what I have just experienced and what you are about to do for Your people, but I do not know what more to ask. However, I do have a very important question. Father, two days ago, you showed me an angel atop Your Holy Mountain and this angel was blowing a horn. Then I saw angels descend from this Mountain and they had scrolls and various ones around the world were give to read these scrolls. Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, look at the trumpet, which is in the hand of the angel. What do you see on the banner beneath the trumpet?"

"I see the word, 'plagues' written on the trumpet. But at the time of the vision I did not see this."

"And, what do you see written on the scroll, which is in the hand of the angel?"

"Father, I see the words, 'Great judgements from Jehovah, Most High God. And, on the rear of the scroll. I see a woman, who is weeping at well. She points at a water bucket, which only bears sand and debris and she says, 'We have no water. Israel thirsts for water.' Then, I see again this angel with the trumpet, who continues to sound the trumpet; and on the banner I see the word, 'plagues' again and beneath this word in smaller print I see the words,

"Devastating plagues are about to hit the USA!" The angel keeps on sounding the horn; and I look again and on the reverse side of this banner, I see a skull and crossbones. Beneath the skull and crossbones are the words, 'Antichrist machine rides the world.'

"Oh, my Father, on the afternoon following the morning when I saw the angel sound the trumpet, I read on the net that an ebola-like plague had hit the Afghan border. As we have read of Russian troops on the Afghan border, my first thought was germ warfare."

"You have sensed what is true. For, WWIII moves on."

"But, Father, what are the people to do? How can the masses survive such a war?"

"They cannot and they will not; for the greatest numbers will die."

"But, Father, what of those, who say that the Bride will be taken out and not have to go through hardships?"

"My Child, My Child, all are purified and made clean, who wed My Son. And, how are they purified and made clean, save through great trials?'

"But, Father, what does our Lord Jesus mean when He says that we should pray that we are counted worthy not to have to go through these things?"

"He means what He says. Some will actually be translated out of devastating situations or totally protected. Some will come home and will escape in this way. But, those on Earth, when He comes, will be purified by great trials, just as the apostles of old."

"So, Father, what we are about to experience is germ warfare right here in the USA?"

"Sooner than you can possible realize. Go in peace this day and type this soon, that people might prepare. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

The very day that our Father in Heaven parted the heavenlies, a storm came through this area; and for several days time we experienced a series of storms. Great, dark angry clouds continue to roll in and it is as if what I saw in the spiritual that day is now reflecting in the physical realm.

September 11 is "Only The Beginning of God's Judgement for America!"

My Blessed Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Blessed are you, My Little One; for you obey Me. You put Me first and you have heeded My words to come out of the worldly traps. You have walked the straight and narrow, loving Me with you all, putting Me and My Son first; and because of this I am using you in great and mighty ways. Just as I parted the sea for Moses, I now part the heavenlies for you. A new day is at hand for those, who love Me with their all, and who put Me first. And, this, My Child, is a day of great and mighty miracles, wherein My Faithful shall regularly drink of My Living Waters. They shall swim in My River of Life and eat of My heavenly manna.

Yea, My Child, it is a new day for those, who are faithful. It is a new day for those, who have willingly given up the world and its traps for love of Me and My Son. Yea, it is a new day for those, who are obedient to Me.

But, alas, for those, among My servants, who will not come out of the world, who will not give up the lure of its traps, yea even these, whom I love greatly, shall be whipped with many stripes. For, they will not give up the lure of the world. Those, who rely on television, and will not give up this mind control box, will be beat with many stripes by their own choices for mind control. Those, who will not live a life, which is based on truth, will be beat and gashed deeply by every lie, which they tell. Those, who will not knuckle under and live a life of obedience to Me, will obey Lucifer, willingly or unwillingly. Those, who return evil for good, will be deceived by evil. They will eat the fruits of evil and they will suffer mightily for it. Those, who are living a lie, will be consumed by a lie and the fires of lying and deceit will burn them with a white-hot fire.

Yes, My Child, I am cleaning up My people. The Bride of My Son is being washed and scrubbed through adversity. In the past, many have been allowed to put off for another day what must be done today. But, I tell you now that those, who run from My spiritual responsibility, will be beat by the irresponsibility of their choices. Those, who will not willingly give up the world and its traps will wrestle with these traps on a greater scale on the Broad Way to destruction. Yes, indeed, Mine will live a clean and pure life before Me and they will weed out the deceptive practices in their lives. They will broken by their own choices and obey me willingly, or they will fall to Lucifer and his wiles.

My Little One, I have put a rod of iron in your hands (See Book V); and this rod will judge the nations. This rod of iron will judge the wicked, along with the so-called righteous, who are inwardly no more than ravenous wolves. This rod of iron will break the backs of the wicked and it will deal deadly and consuming blows to the New World Order heads and to their plans. This rod of iron will judge and it will judge in a mighty way; for My power and My unbending will is in this rod; and when I tell you to pick up this rod and use it, it is not under your power that judgement goes forth, it is under My power. My hand rests atop your hand when this rod is used and those around the world, who are hell-bent on wickedness and defiance, had better get ready; for great judgement, My judgement is at hand.

Yes, My Child, I know. Many believe that the devil has orchestrated the attacks of 09-11-01 on the USA. But, I tell you now as I have told you previously: I orchestrated these attacks; for it is I, who controls this world. I am the Creator of all and I have orchestrated this destruction. I control Lucifer and I allow him to rise in these end-times, that each of you may be judged as to your faithfulness. It is time that you wake up to this; for I am Creator of all. I set the universes in motion. I created all life forms; and I always bring judgement upon a proud, stiff-necked and arrogant people. I am judging the USA and I am judging the whole world; for wickedness has taken over and the masses have loved wickedness. They have forsaken Me and most churches the world over are bone dry.

I am sickened by the stench of mediocrity. I am sickened by your paltry offerings to Me and to My work. I am tired of your petty foxhole prayers and I am putting the rod, My rod of judgement to the root of a spiritual tree in the USA and elsewhere, which is growing abominations. If the preachers will not repent and if they will not cause My people to repent, I shall utterly devastate this land from North to South and from East to West. Over and over, I have warned the preachers to repent and to cause My people to repent and you would not. Now, you shall repent and you shall cause My people to repent or you shall go by the way of the grave, lost in sin and rebellion and mediocrity; and the fires of hell shall rise up to meet you.

What you have seen on 09-11-01 is only a beginning of judgement in the USA. Soon, grievous biological attacks shall hit this land and you shall find yourselves dying by the hundreds of thousands with no cure. I have warned the leadership of this land not to start a war of annihilation against the Muslims. For, these 09-11 attacks were orchestrated by the hidden leadership of the USA and other countries, which you see at the forefront of this war. However, they would not listen; for, it is their design to start a "holy war" between the Arabs and the Christians! I tell you now that because they will not listen to My warnings, many shall fall by way of the sword. They shall die from strange and unusual conditions.

Within the USA, I shall cause the real sleeping terrorists functions to awaken and these terrorist functions are not orchestrated by your own government. I shall cause them to awaken in Europe. I shall cause Red China to attack Taiwan and North Korea to attack South Korea. I shall cause a bitter war for control of the world's oil supply to break out among China, Russia and the UN antichrist conspiracy. This bitter war for control of the world's oil supply will cause a war to ravage the USA. It will ravage Europe, Russia, China and the Mideast.

Yes, My Little One, the Antichrist machine is rising and they foolishly believe that they have the world in their pockets; but this could hardly be farther from the truth. Beware of the roads, which have been heretofore untraveled. For, the Antichrist, One World Order Machine is doomed to fail. But, I tell you that it shall rise and because of it, the world will be utterly devastated.

"My Father, I have a question and it is one, which has been passed on to me by a reader in Singapore. Since you moved back the hands of time, does this mean that the sequence of certain dates, given in previous prophecies, has also been moved forward?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"My Child, some of these dates have been moved forward and some have not. My advice to all is to live a holy and righteous life; for great and devastating changes are at hand and My Son will return when most least expect. Therefore, clean up your lives. Repent daily and watch always; for those, who are not spiritually clean, will not be His bride.

Go this day in peace, My Child, warning all to get prepared for some very hard times. Get ready for biological attacks of major proportions on US soil and for more explosions. But, these, which I speak of, will not be orchestrated by the US government. I will allow these things to come to pass; for you have entered into a foolish war, which I have warned against. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Post this on a 'Message for You', and also post as the next chapter in Book VII, that all may be recorded for posterity."

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

"I am Cleansing My People"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Child, and take note; for your redemption truly draws nigh. My Child, the world over, My people groan beneath the weight of oppressive darkness. They cry out to Me and to My Son because of their great pains and sorrows. I tell you, My Child, herein is wisdom. Listen to Me and write as I say that those with they eyes to see will see, that those with the ears to hear will hear and that those with a heart after Me will understand.

"I am cleansing My people. I am washing and scrubbing My people. I am getting them ready, here one or two and there three or four. Yes, My Child, I am getting Mine ready; for as they are washed, as they are cleansed, as they are made pure, I am elevating their vibratory rate. For, that which is clean and pure vibrates at a much higher level than that which is polluted with all manner of darkness.

"Yes, My Child, I am bringing Mine through the fires of adversity, where they will either voluntarily clean up their lives spiritually, or they will continue to stumble over the great dark boulders of their own making. I will not accept half-measures. I will not accept lies! This path is bathed in truth and carved out in purity. All, who walk herein, will walk at a higher vibratory level, or they will not walk it.

"Many, who follow Me and My Son, even many of My prophets and apostles have it wrong. They believe that My Son will come and change them into perfection in the twinkle of an eye. This is a fabrication and many will not make the grade because of this kind of thinking. Those, who put Me first and love Me with all their hearts, with all their minds, with all their strength and with all their souls; and who love others as they love themselves, walk this path. Those, who will not love in this way will not know this higher vibratory rate; for it is a vibration of pure love.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Therefore, I say to each of you, If you have a problem with your brother or sister, go to them and try to work it out. If they have offended you, tell them the truth of what they have done. If they will not listen to you and if you have no one else, no other person, to ally with you to make them see their wrongs, forgive them and go to My Son, asking him to bear your hurts and sorrows, to take your pain and to forgive you of your transgressions. He will do so and you will be free.

"Those, who will not look at what they have done with an eye toward honesty and who will not make amends, but continue to hurt others and to lie to self, will be cut off from the Spirit of God if they will not repent. What they have done will be a large stumbling block in their paths. It will become a millstone around their necks. Those, who agree with them in their wrongs, will suffer the same fate. They, too, will be cut off from the Spirit of God. They, too, will suffer the weight of the wrongs, which they have willingly agreed to carry and they, too, will have these wrongs as a continual stumblings block before them until they repent.

"My Child, the escapism and self-victimization, which many have used to manipulate in the past and get their ways is not going to work for them any longer. Those, who continue to hide behind victimization, escapism and all manner of lies and will not repent, will find themselves behind prison doors. They will find themselves isolated from Me and from My Spirit. They will find their lives full of darkness; for they have chosen rebellion. They have chosen a lie over the truth and regardless of how many they can gather as 'yea-sayers' and 'nay-sayers', numbers do not add righteousness to rebellion and darkness. Such numbers only create a feeding frenzy of demonic activity and this feeding frenzy is as one dark whirlwind, seeking to consume all, who will partake of it.

"I tell you all, I am cleaning up My people and you will either choose the higher road to salvation, that is the road of truth and purity and you will vibrate with a greater light of love; or you will choose the low road of lies, deceit, and manipulation and you will choose slavery and darkness.

"Many, who claim to know Me and My Son hide behind a fake light show! Many cry, 'Lord, Lord,' and even manifest all manner of miracles; but I do not know you. Many cry 'Jesus, Jesus, Yahshua, Yahshua, Yeshua, Yeshua, and Jehovah, Jehovah,' but you are far from Me. You will not receive your heavenly reward, save you repent. For, the darkness of your every word will keep you in chains. Your every dark deed is your great stumbling block.

"Hypocrites, hypocrites! My Son warned of you; for you are a poison among My flock. You are a seed of darkness, a bitter seed, and I spew you out of My mouth. You say one thing and you do another. You hide behind My work and you spew out scriptures and even prophetic words, all to deceive My people. You make a big show and you cry out to be seen of men; but I say to you that you are as a boiling teapot, wherein all the water is gone from you, save a few drops; and you are intent to get the most out of the last few drops. But, I say to you, You are barren and you are empty inside. You talk, talk, talk because you cannot stand the shrills of emptiness and confusion, which come from deep within your soul. You have no peace in your life and therefore you must constantly stir up confusion. You are a walking tower of Babel. You take, take, take and constantly manipulate to get what you want. Your ways are an abomination to Me and I warn you now, repent or perish!

"Hypocrites, how long do you think you can hide behind a mask of deception? Do you believe that I am fooled? Do you believe that you fool all? Nay, you fool few and the ones in bed with you are the poor gullible ones, who have not yet found you out, or they are of the same caliber. You use people. You bait them and you use them. This is an abomination to Me. You have no excuses; for you know the evil of your ways; but because of your selfishness you will do or say anything to stay on top. Yea, you are indeed on top, floating on the top, like dirty oil, which floats in the oceans after a toxic oil spill; and your words are just as devastating.

"I tell you, hypocrites, the oil, which is hidden deep within the Earth may turn to coal in millions of years and some fragment of it may even turn into a diamond in due season. But, do you have millions of years in which you can repent of your hypocrisy before the return of My Son? Nay, you do not. Therefore, I say to you that you will soon repent or you will perish.

My Little One, we shall stop for now. Post this as the next chapter of Book VII. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

"Jehovah, Most High, … God of great love and forgiveness!"

This chapter was posted with some exceptions, in the "Message for You" section of our site. You will see herein as well the prophecy of November 20th and the two letters, which were mailed to the churches in and around Little Rock, Arkansas. You will also read of the seventh tornado. You will not want to miss this at the end of this chapter.

A MESSAGE FOR YOU

Today, the 29th of November, I went to the post office; and there I saw a white Cadillac, which could have been a poster car for God's word and right to life. The windows and bumpers were full of an array of stickers and Biblical quotes. My first thought was that this person surely was not from Arkansas; for these kinds of display are illegal here. As I was driving off, he was also driving off, but as I was ahead of him, I thought for a moment to stop, get out and ask him if he were a minister. I debated this back and forth for a few seconds and then on impulse decided to put the car in park at the end of the drive, get out and ask him. He looked at me standing outside his car in the pouring rain and for a second started to drive off; but I motioned him to stop. I asked him if he were a minister and he said "No." Then, he began going through a seat full of spiritual paraphernalia and started handing some of it to me. I thought to myself, "More of us need to be this way. We need to be a road show for God!" This man gave me the following bumper sticker.

"THOSE WHO WILL NOT BE RULED BY GOD WILL BE RULED BY TYRANTS." .....William Penn

Rule by tyrants

Beloved Brothers and Sisters, pray that our Father in Heaven intervenes to stop further bloodshed by the leaders of this very government in faraway lands. Pray for a great spiritual awakening in the congress and that this land is returned to the governing elements of the constitution.

How can leaders of this government portray themselves as keepers of peace when they, themselves, have become the biggest bullies on the planet, all in the name of peace and preservation of peace?

Beloved Ones, pray for righteous men and women to raise up and to take an active part in the restoration of this government to a system of checks and balances, which it was set out to be. It was never intended for a president to be King; but now we have a president, who is making himself judge and juror over the so-called terrorists, by setting up a kangaroo court, corralling in the suspects and then denying them their legal rights to defend themselves, threatening to try them on military ships, even out to sea, so that their murders will never see the light of day! This is the kind of "justice," which has taken place in Russia for years and this is what took place in Spain years ago when the fascist elements made the so-called dissidents dig their own graves before killing them and burying them on the spot.

As we have often heard, … "absolute power corrupts absolutely." George W. Bush is drunk with the power, which he has stolen from the people through executive orders and through a bogus "terrorist" act, which was passed by members of the Senate and House; and according an article, which I read by congressman Ron Paul of Texas, very few, if any, ever read it. Something is seriously wrong with this picture and if people do not wake up and insist on one government under God, by and for the people, we shall most assuredly be ruled by tyrants! We are being ruled by tyrants!

Write your leadership in the US congress and demand accountability. Demand to know why they voted to give away your rights and pass such a law without ever reading it! Demand accountability; for if you and I do not take an active part in what is going on at leadership levels of this government, there shall not be any government left to worry about. This land is falling fast and what we can do is only a small part; but numbers do add up; and this is why I am telling you to make your voice known about the rape of the US constitution through the passage of this "terrorist" bill. Write your congressman or congresswoman and demand accountability! The ones, who have committed such an atrocity against the American people, should be made to step down! When they were sworn in, did they not agree to uphold the constitution? They have lied!

A Miracle from Jehovah, Most High God

Since I began working on this message, we have read that the militants in the Philippines have released 110 hostages and from what we can gather, the war is abating. Beautiful Children of God, this has come about because of your prayers. Be encouraged; for we have the same God today, who worked all the miracles of the Bible. He hears and answers prayers. We do not know what is taking place in Indonesia with the Christians there; but if any of you know, pass along the information to us and we will post it here on the site.

Proceed ahead for great news from God!

Cherished Brothers and Sisters, sometimes things happen in God's work, which are so beautiful, so awesome and humbling that we are filled to overflowing with the precious love and God, amazed at His handiwork and His faithfulness toward us and to His word. I shall tell you of such an incident.

Beginning in the Spring of this year, I felt the Spirit of God leading me to pray for revival for Arkansas and I am not talking about a revival, which is orchestrated by man. I am talking about a Holy Ghost revival, which is orchestrated by God and is akin to the outpouring of the Spirit of God during the time of the apostles of old. I am talking about a revival wherein people are healed of all manner of illnesses, restored, renewed and delivered, brought back to God and put on the road to salvation! I am talking about a mighty and sustained outpouring of God's Spirit upon His People!

I asked our Father in Heaven if He would send revival if only one or two people prayed for it; and He said, "Yes." This began an earnest desire in my heart in the hearts of a few others at that time, who also prayed for revival. But, as time went on, it often seemed to be just me, praying to God in the quietness of this house, interceding and begging God to send a mighty revival to Arkansas and to the USA.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

In early June of this year, our Father in Heaven dictated a letter and told me that He wanted it sent out to the churches in the Little Rock area. One would think that this would not be such a difficult job, except for the fact that I had to secure the addresses for the churches. Normally, this would have been a relatively easy thing to get from the telephone directory, but I would soon find that this was not so easy, as the churches were listed with a street address only and their physical location could be in any one of a number of small towns in and around Little Rock. Nevertheless, persistence paid off and I was able to get addresses for most churches in the telephone book and we sent out letters to 605 churches in and around Little Rock, AR in early July of this year. From the time our Father gave me this letter until the time that I was able to get the addresses and address the envelopes and put them together for mailing, about six weeks had passed, with me working a few hours daily on this project.

As some of you know, we received a few hate mails, but no positive responses from any church regarding this letter. Then, in September of this year, our Father in Heaven dictated another letter, which he said to send to the churches, and this was mailed out in early October. On the morning that I was to send out the letters, our Father told me to take His Rod and to hit the box of letters seven times; and I knew that if the pastors in the churches rejected what our Father had given me to send them, that there would be judgement hit this area.

The very day that I mailed the second batch of letters to 540 plus churches, my son told me that he dreamt the night before that seven tornadoes hit Little Rock and destroyed the city. He said, "Mom, I believe that tornadoes are coming because I dream of them every time bad tornadoes hit this area." I told him that I believed that this may come to pass if the pastors in the churches would not accept our Father's warnings, thereby repenting and preaching repentance to the people in their congregations. With the second letter, as with the first, we received no positive responses from any church. Yet, we were aware that many were praying against us as the devil came up against us with such a fury! Witchcraft is alive and well in the churches today!

In the November 20th "Message for You," you will read our Father's warning of his fury toward the enemies of his people. At the time, I thought He was talking about his fury toward those, who are fighting against His Loved Ones in Indonesia, the Philippines, etc. But, as it turns out this is not altogether the case. In going back and reading what He says near the very end of this dictation, we see that these are His words: "I say to you, 'Go forth winds!' And, I say to the devastating fires, 'Go forth fires of devastation!' I say to the worldwide calamities, 'Go forth, worldwide calamities!' And, I say to the proud and arrogant of the New World Order, 'I shall break you as matchsticks, one by one; and I shall throw you into the fiery furnace!'"

Prophecy of God calling forth the winds, … fulfilled!

Our Father's Message

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hearken unto Me, My Little Child; for an increased state of war in imminent worldwide; and this instigated and promulgated war is a contrived war between the Christians and the Muslims. Have I not shown you the Luciferian plan to create this war, that both groups be diminished and brought under control of the New World Order? Herein is the test of the Faithful. For, perilous times are upon the Earth."

"Our Father, I see a rolling fire. It is an all-consuming fire. I stand amidst this fire and I see it roll forth, burning and consuming everything in its path. Father, what is this?"

"This is My wrath against those, who harm My Little Ones."

"But, Father, many of Your Faithful are being harmed right now. In Africa, war rages. In Indonesia, many have been tortured and killed. In China, in India, in the Philippines and on and on."

"Yes, My Little One, this is so and I have tolerated much; but the enemies of My people have not yet seen My wrath. For, My wrath shall go forth as an all-consuming fire. Soon, very soon, people around the world will see evidence of My wrath against those, who harm My people. Heretofore, many have known My deliverance. Many have seen My miraculous provision; but few have seen My wrath."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Oh, Father, how will the world see Your wrath?"

"Through all-consuming fires. Through utter destruction. And, I shall break and take down leaders in high places!"

"Father, who will You take down?"

"I shall take down prideful and arrogant leaders of the New World Order, who believe that they are beyond correction. I shall take down congressmen and women in the USA. I shall cause trains to buckle, to collide and to destroy so-called "precious cargo." I shall cause confusion in the streets and mayhem in world governments. I shall wreak havoc with the terrorist plans of the US Government and of the governments of the world. I shall rumble and shake the Earth and people of large population centers shall perish. I shall cause strange lights in the sky and the sky in places shall look like a war zone. I shall cause the sleeping to fall into a deeper sleep; and I shall cause My Faithful to rise and do mighty exploits. I shall send parching winds and violent snow storms. I shall cause greater storms than man has ever known and I shall whip the seas with My fury. I shall consume ships and burn the lands with a blistering heat. Plagues shall consume many and pestilence shall consume crops. I shall lay waste to the enemies of My people and no weapons shall prosper against My Elect.

"I say to the winds, ' Go forth winds!' And, I say to the devastating fires, 'Go forth, fires of devastation!' I say to the worldwide calamities, 'Go forth, worldwide calamities!' And, I say to the proud and arrogant of the New World Order, 'I shall break you as matchsticks, one by one, and I shall throw you into the fiery furnace!'

"I say to you, My Child, take My rod of judgement and pound the White House seven times. For, a month will not pass until those, who conspire evil therein, know that the fury of the Most High God Jehovah is upon them!

"Father, I take Your Rod of Judgement and I strike the White House, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven times and each time Your rod hits this building, I see great explosions of white fire in the Spirit. I see the white fire go out into Washington and it hits the US Capitol with great sounds of a roaring and consuming fire. I see tables overturned in the Capitol and chairs overturned and what appears to be a whirlwind inside the capitol. I hear burning, hissing and cracking and I see several people cut down instantly as they are caught up in the whirlwind. I see the top of the capitol and it is swaying, and making sounds of hissing and spitting, like a boiling caldron. Than, I see great darkness. I look upon the Potomac River and there is great darkness, yet even in this darkness, I see the reflection of the devil in the River as he stands behind me looking over my shoulder; and He says, "I win!"

"I feel the power of God rise up in me and as I turn to see Lucifer begin to flee. I stomp his tail. Fire comes from my foot and I see an explosion of light go up his rear end. He turns and blows fire and I say to him, 'Devil, I rebuke you in the Name of Jesus Christ!' Immediately, I see a wall appear between me and the devil and it is shiny, like a glass wall, but thick. And, as the wall goes up, I can no longer see this evil serpent.

"Oh, Father, I fear for Washington. I fear for the White House ; for I see that Your judgement is upon them. I fear for those, who started this war for greed and for the eradication of Christians and Muslims. Father, I fear for their souls."

"My Child, do you not believe that those in the White House know that black is black and white is white?"

"My Father, I cannot say what all people believe in the White House, but surely most know that black is black and white is white."

"My Child, even evil knows that its works are evil. Nevertheless, the evil ones parade their evil as good. The terrorist bill has been passed for the 'good' of America; but its intent is to strip you of your rights. This is evil parading as good. My Little One, many innocent souls will die because of this evil bill and many will be persecuted for the sake of truth. But, I say to you, My Child, that even as it rises, this evil system is coming down. I say this day, 'Woe, woe, woe to the Bushes and to your cohorts in crime!' For, this evil will explode in your faces when you expect it least!'

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Go, My Child, in peace, knowing that I provide for Mine; but many of the fakers are about to have a very rude awakening. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

The Winds …

On Friday, the 23rd of November, I went on the internet to check the local weather and was surprised to find a tornado watch in effect for this area. I checked the radar and satellite images and saw a great cloud forming in the Midwestern USA, which looked almost like the formation of a small typhoon. As time passed, this cloud formation began to form a very large donut shape and the cloud cover was great. I told my husband that I was concerned about this cloud formation as I believed that we would see some very bad weather from these clouds.

We went to be early and I prayed for protection for us and for this area, not fearing, but trusting in God to protect us from whatever might unfold. At some point in the night, I awoke to hear howling winds and thunder with great amounts of rainfall coming down. Still, I was not worried; for I felt a great sense of peace and calm.

The following morning, I saw on the internet news that severe storms had ripped across Arkansas and Mississippi with several tornadoes, and a number were killed, eight I believe. Later in the day, I caught the headlines on an Arkansas paper in a paper stand and the headlines told of six tornadoes, which hit Arkansas and a number of homes and mobile homes were destroyed with 107 homes suffering damage.

I read this and thought of what my son had dreamed. Yet, he dreamed of seven tornadoes and I had just read "six." I thought of the way our Father had told me to hit the box of letters seven times with the Rod; and as I sought information about these tornadoes, I found out that the tornadoes struck to the northwest of us, to the Southwest of us, to the Northeast and to the Southeast of us. They literally hit in areas of the state all around central Arkansas, but this area sustained no damage that I could determine. On November 26th, great storms and howling winds hit Southeast Arkansas and brought great wind damage! This week, severely cold temperatures were shown in Texas and the weather forecasts for this area were advising of possible freezing rain and ice, even mixed with snow. But, as days passed, we would get none of these, … only rain.

Beloved Ones, many of you may not understand this, but what I am describing above is a great miracle! Little Rock is right in the middle of tornado alley and tornadoes have frequently ripped through this very area, year after year, bringing great destruction!

As servants of The Most High God Jehovah, we do as God commands us to do; but many times we are not able to see tangible results of some of the things He has us do. But, God wanted us to see that pastors in the churches have heard! He wanted us to see that this immediate area was spared the severe devastation of the winds of his fury and even ice and freezing weather because pastors are repenting in significant numbers; and that they are bringing their people to repentance! He wanted us to see that this storm was his handiwork! He warned in advance He was calling up the winds; and He wanted to verify to us that these winds had, in fact, come about!

Beloved Ones, let us sing praises and rejoice; for our God Jehovah is full of love and mercy. He also wants us to know that many of the enemies of His people are pastors of churches, and even so, right here in the South. But, most of all, He wants us to understand that all the work of hunting addresses, addressing envelopes, stuffing envelopes, stamping and mailing WAS NOT IN VAIN! This hub right around Little Rock, the very hub to which these letters was sent, was spared the severe devastation of tornadoes and even ice and snow because many preachers have heard and many are repenting!

Very few will ever know that Little Rock was spared the terrible effects of this storm because a goodly number have heard and they have repented! But, Beloved Ones, I want you to know! I want you to know that even as we have listened to God and even as we have taken the time to send out His letters, calling His shepherds to repentance, you can do the same in your areas of the country, and as others repent, you, too, will be spared his fury!

You may believe that you cannot make a difference. You may believe that there is nothing you can do to change anyone in this world or to alter the course of evil, which is enveloping this world. Do not believe it! You can make a difference! You can do something to change the downward spiral of rebellion in this land! You can do something to stop the great spiritual erosion of backsliding! You can make a difference! But, you will never know, if you do not put forth the effort!

Why am I sharing this with you? Our Father in Heaven, Jehovah, Most High God, is so awesome; and I want you to know and understand this! I want you to see His handiwork and to know His miracles! I want you to understand that this country is under His judgement; but more than this I want you to see and know His hand of mercy toward His people. I want you to see His love! I want you to see that He does not enjoy judging His people. He only wants us to love and respect Him that He might show us His mighty miracles and awesome love and that when all is said and done that you and I receive our heavenly inheritance of eternal life. I am telling you that this past Friday night and again on Monday of this week, God showed His love and mercy toward Little Rock. He showed that He is hearing and He is seeing that people are repenting!

South of Little Rock on I-30, someone has put up a billboard with a Biblical scripture calling people to repentance! On down the interstate towards Hot Springs, there is another beautiful billboard, which reads "I am the Way." Precious Brothers and Sister, people are hearing! They are repenting. They are turning back to God, here a few, and there a few.

We must keep up the momentum! We must keep on warning and we must keep on getting God's word out! There is a war going on between the forces of good and evil and the evil ones plan to snare the souls of all! But, evil does not win out in the end! God does! Light does! Love does!

If the sleeping will not awaken, they will never know the victory of the Righteous; for they are already prisoners of the devil and they are headed straight for the dark pits of hell! You and I must do our parts to wake up the people! We must do our parts to make people see their wrongs and come back to God. You and I must fight for the souls of our Beloved Brothers and Sisters! We must take up the word of God and move under the anointing of God's Spirit and we must reclaim souls for God! We must take the banner of truth and we must fight the lies of evil! The power of God within us defeats Satan! Evil cannot stand in the Light of God. The devil is whipped by the power and anointing of God!

Over and over, the Righteous defeat the devil and his followers! Those, who live righteously, are given the power to defeat the devil! Even if we die in this war and even if the devil has a temporary victory over our bodies, we still win! We know that these bodies are only temporary housing for the Spirit and soul. It is this spirit, which is our eternal body and it is this spirit, which goes on past this life on Earth.

However, if we do not live righteously by loving God with our all and obeying Him, we will not have the power of His Spirit when we need it most! Over and over again, the devil will have victory over us. He will steal what God has given us and he will destroy our lives over and over until he has the ultimate victory, gathering up the lost and rebellious and taking them straight into hell.

Beloved, get excited about God! Get excited about His work! Get excited about turning the tide on evil! Get excited about saving souls from a sure place in the pits of hell! Get excited about God's miracles; for you and I are about to see an outpouring of His Spirit that we could only dream about! Get excited about doing your part to bring the lost back to God! You can make a difference!

Yes, we are in a war and when you set out to defeat the devil, he will set out to make war with you; but Beloved Ones, when you will devote your life to God and live righteously, you will indeed bruise his evil head with your heel!

The Judgements of Jehovah, Most High God are being carried out against America. He is warning in advance and His judgement if unfolding rapidly!

Nine Prophecies Fulfilled!

In the prophecy, which was given by our Father in Heaven on September 05, 2001, He warned of great judgement upon this land! He warned that He was going to judge the finances of this land! He also warned that He was about to judge the stock market! Has he judged this land through the great catastrophes of September 11. This is prophecy fulfilled!

Has He judged the finances of this land? Most assuredly. This very government is finally admitting that this country is going through an economic recession. Joblessness is up all across the land with major businesses laying off hundreds of thousands. How did He judge the finances? The very symbols of economic power were destroyed in the very city in this country, which has long been noted for world finances, New York City! This is a second prophecy fulfilled!

If you will recall, after the disastrous events of September 11, the stock market took a deep plunge. Fixers of this market were quick to pour billions into the failing market, but remember that this is only a fix. Our Father in Heaven told in advance that He was going to judge the stock market and He did. This is a third prophecy fulfilled!

In this same prophetic message, our Father told me to take His Rod of power and to hit the Congress of the USA with this rod. He said at that time that He was going to judge the leadership of this country! In addition to the horrors of September 11, someone sent anthrax letters into congress. As a result of this, congress was closed down; and in the midst of this chaos, the evil ones in this very government pushed through a terrorist bill, which most all members of congress reportedly never saw and therefore never read, but they reportedly approved it, sight unseen! The passage of this very bill is going to further judge the bought and sold whores in congress! God's on-going judgement of congress is a fourth prophecy fulfilled!

In this same prophecy, our Father said that he was going to judge the trucking industry. I was not sure how this was to come about; but a Dear Sister wrote from New York and sent an article about 18-wheelers, which were backed up for miles on the interstate, all because of the terrors associated with the atrocities of 09-11. This is a fifth prophecy fulfilled!

Our Father warned of problems with trains and again on the Message for You on November 20, 2001, He warned once again of problems with trains. We shall see what He is speaking of here; and there may have already been problems with trains, but I have not seen it. If you have, e-mail us.

In the September 05, 2001 prophecy, our Father warned of airplanes falling out of the sky. Have we seen this? Yes! Four times, we have seen airplanes fall from the sky. This is a Sixth prophecy fulfilled!

In this same prophecy of September 05, 2001, our Father in Heaven also warned of signs in the heavens. Have we seen signs in the heavens? Yes, we have seen serious electrical storms around the North Pole, which have been seen even into Arkansas! These storms have been the result of intense solar flares! We have also seen mighty meteor showers! And, perhaps there are other phenomena, which I do not know about. This is the seventh prophecy fulfilled!

In the September 05, 2001 prophecy, our Father said that an assassin would strike twice in quick succession to kill a leader. Have we seen this? I cannot say for sure. But, if this has not come about, it shall!

In the prophecy, which was given by our Father on September 11, 2001, our Father says that He is going to judge the Rockefeller empire. I do not know how He has judged them. Perhaps, through the problems with the stock market is one way. However, we have read that anthrax was sent to the talking head of the Rockefeller empire, which is the New York Times; and also to agencies, which reflect the views of the Rockefellers, such as major broadcasting networks. Those, who sent this evil through the mail, probably had no idea that they were carrying out the judgement of God against the Rockefellers! This is an eighth prophecy fulfilled!

And, now we see the fulfillment of the November 20th prophecy, wherein our Father said that He is calling forth the wind! This is the Ninth prophecy fulfilled! Bear in mind that these prophecies in no way reflect the fulfillment of all that our Father in Heaven has spoken of lately, but only those things, which come to my attention now. If you search His messages, you may find many others. I am pointing out these things to you so that you will begin to take note of what He is saying; for God's judgement is upon this land!

Beloved Ones, I have saved the best for last. Below are our Father's words and a letter, which He gave for the churches of America. My husband had two weeks vacation and we thought that we might get to spend some time out in the country, perhaps camping out for a few days. But, clearly our Father did not have this in mind. Before the first week was up, He sent great winds and rains and just as the second week of my husband's vacation had begun, he was called back to work on an emergency. We thank our Father in Heaven for being in charge of our lives; for He knows best in all things. But, now I know and understand that the reason that our Father changed our plans is that He has something much more important that He wants done. Please read His words and take them to heart. He needs willing workers, who will take it upon themselves to do their parts to help bring this land back to Him. Are you a willing worker for God? If not, then why?

MESSAGE FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

November 27, 2001

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, you have been faithful in given works; and I shall appoint unto you works or greater and far-reaching consequences. You have faithfully sent letters into hundreds of Arkansas churches, bearing My warnings of repentance, or judgement; and though many scowled and prayed against you, even pronouncing curses upon you and your household, I have made you see and understand that the greatest numbers have listened. When I called forth the wind and told you in advance that I was calling forth the wind, you saw the wind come and you witnessed devastating tornadoes and high winds, yea mighty storms strike other parts of Arkansas; but destruction did not come upon Little Rock Arkansas. Let it be known, My Child, that these tornadoes did not destroy this area; for enough people have received My warnings through the letters, which I had you send to the churches and what would have been judgement if they had not received, was averted because the greatest numbers have heard. My Blessed Child, hear Me this day; for your long hours of searching for addresses and addressing envelopes, copying and mailing, and the expenses, which have been incurred, have not been for naught. All, who helped you and Dennis with the expenses, bear the blessings, which are coming about by others coming back to Me.

My Little One, I am pleased in this and I want you to see and know that all is not lost. Yea, My Child, My judgement is falling on the USA; but any of you can make a difference if you will. Therefore, as you have asked me for a letter of repentance to go into all the churches in America and even around the world, I will first give up a letter of repentance for all churches in America.

My Child, I call upon every able-bodied citizen to take your lead. I call upon everyone, who reads My following message of repentance for the churches to copy and send to the pastors of the churches, where they live. I call upon every one, who calls himself a Child of God, to rise up and take responsibility for the gross rebellion in this land. I call upon each of you to copy My word and to disseminate it across this land, that you may be spared my fury; that you may be spared My intense judgement, which will surely rip up and destroy this land from North to South and from East to West, if you will not repent in a great way. It is time that you understood that your government will not save you! Your government will bury you! Only I can save you, for I am sending the judgement!

"My Child, write as I say that this letter may be copied and sent to every church in America. My Little One, this is a great task and it is one, which you, alone, cannot do. Therefore, I am speaking to the Faithful and I am calling the Faithful forth to take the responsibility of disseminating My warning to the churches in the area in which you live.

A MESSAGE TO THE CHURCHES IN THE USA FROM JEHOVAH, MOST HIGH GOD

November 27, 2001

"Hear Me, hear Me, Pastors of My churches! Open up your ears and hear! Open up your eyes and see! Open up your hearts and understand! For, My judgement is upon America! Across America, churches are run by errant pastors, who teach a watered-down word. Across America, churches are run by whores, who have arbitrated My word to please the masses! Across America, the churches are run by preachers, who have entered into a blasphemous covenant with a Luciferian government, the purpose of this covenant being to silence My pastors and to keep you in shackles. Yea, great numbers of you have willingly entered into a blasphemous agreement with a Luciferian government, and this covenant is the 501(c)3 tax agreement. I tell you and hear Me well when I say that your agreement to be silenced for money makes you a whore! You have sacrificed the truth for money! My fury is turned toward you, who have entered into such an agreement; and I shall uproot you! I shall scatter your flock and I shall bring mighty judgement into your midst, save you repent! For, you have loved a lie!

"I say to you lying and errant preachers, repent or perish! I will no longer strive with such mass hypocrisy! I will no longer strive with workers of witchcraft and iniquity! I warn to you, "Repent and cause My people to repent; or I shall destroy this nation, here a little and there a little, until it lies as a heap of smoldering embers!

"Above all nations, I have blessed America. I have supplied your every need, but you have come to love the gift and not the Giver of the gift.

"I say to you today, your hours and days are numbered! If you will not repent en masse and weep and howl for the sins of this land, America shall fall and it shall fall with a thunderous roar! Hidden concentration camps dot this land from North to South and from East to West and the Satanists, who run this government from the very top, cherish the day when these camps will be filled with Christians! I warn you to take note of the persecution of Christians in Indonesia, Africa, China, Russia, as well as other countries. For, one day soon, save you repent en masse and weep for the sins of this land, you will see the same kind of persecution in America!

"I am judging this land and the intensity of My judgement is only going to escalate if you will not repent and cause My people to repent in a great way. I am sending devastating fires and I am sending more plagues and more devastation through terrorism; and these shall further divide this land, save you repent en masse! If you will not then repent, I shall tear up this land through violent storms and I shall lay waste to it through nuclear disasters!

"Too long, you have thrown rebellion in My face! Too long, you have lived and preached a lukewarm walk! Too long, you have led My people astray with your hypocrisy and I say to you, errant preachers, 'Repent, or perish!'

"Very few pastors in this land live righteously! Very few of you put Me first and love Me with your all! Very few of you honor Me through obedience to My laws. I say to you, 'I know who you are and you are few, indeed!

"The masses are lost in rebellion; for the churches are putrid with the lackadaisical and the shallow! I tell you now, 'Repent or perish! I am Jehovah, Most High God."

If you want to help in the dissemination of this letter to the local churches in your area, you will need to spend some time searching for the addresses. You will need to copy the above letter, then make copies, address envelopes, and obviously spend money on stamps. If you do not want to put your return address, feel free to put ours. Remember that many may pray against you and some may send you hate mail; but many will also hear and receive.

After we mailed out the first letter to the Arkansas churches in July, our Father in Heaven said that about 20% of the churches received what was written; but when His warnings of war upon this land, of plagues and even of pestilence began to unfold, He advised that upwards of 60% received the last letter, which was mailed out in October. Bear in mind that not one single person wrote a positive letter, acknowledging what our Father had said; and I could not know of any positive impact in the churches. The only way I could know for sure was when our Father said that He spared the Little Rock area of the recent tornadoes and devastating effects of high winds because enough preachers had heard and repented, causing their people to repent.

Be advised that at first you may feel the pains of defeat. The devil will surely come after you and try to unnerve you. You may feel the prayers of evil against you, but as you see these things come to pass, know that you are making headway and the devil is angry for losing souls, which have been in his grasp.

When we do God's work, often it is like swimming upstream against a great current; for we are fighting the Broad Way; but Oh, Beloved Ones, how rewarding a swim this is! For, we never swim alone! We swim under the anointing of the Spirit of God; and under His awesome power we go! Over and over again we know victories; for in and through our Lord Jesus and Father in Heaven we are victorious over the evil of this dark world!

Praises to the name of Jehovah; for He, alone is all-powerful! He, alone, is all-knowing and He, alone, created us and has the power over life and death. To Him is the praise and the glory forever; for He sent His beautiful Son, His Only Son, that you and I might have life eternal. How blessed we are!

Below, I am also re-copying the two letters, which we have sent to hundreds of churches in and around Little Rock, Arkansas. If you live in Arkansas and want to send these letters to churches in your area, copy them and proceed as outlined above. If you will do your part to reach out and cause the pastors to repent and to bring their people to repentance, you will see God's hand of protection and blessing extend into your area of the state and country. Therefore, if you feel the Spirit of God tugging at your heartstrings to send out His message to the churches, do not put off this work! Get up and get going! The salvation of many precious souls depends on the efforts of God's Faithful!!!!!

(First letter to the churches in Arkansas)

To: The Ministers of the churches in the State of Arkansas

A PROPHECY FROM JEHOVAH, MOST HIGH GOD

Given on June 01, 2001

Warnings to the Churches!

To the churches of Little Rock and those of surrounding areas, both near and far, even throughout all the state of Arkansas, behold My words; for I am Jehovah, Most High God. Be advised and know, Shepherds of My Flock, that I see and know all. I am not a God afar, but One, who resides within your very midst. My eyes go to and for throughout the whole Earth and I tell you that I am deeply ashamed of what I see. Yea, in the state of Arkansas, even in the very capital city, thereof, I see preachers, who are harlots. You whore after women and preach a word, which is not My word. You pick phrases from My Scriptures to suit your own agenda and you swindle My people. Yea, you pass the plate many times so that you may drive your Cadillacs and feed your every desire. Greedy preachers of the Word, I am disgusted with your hollow sermons. I am repelled by your empty words. I am angered by your callous attitudes toward the hurt and suffering. Through your vices, you have driven My people asunder. You visit not the sick in the community, not even those, whom you shepherd. You disgust Me with your piousness and sorely offend Me with your "holier than thou attitude." You refuse to allow My true prophets and apostles into your havens; for you are jealous for those, who do not even belong to you. Neither, do you want the Spirit of God to chastise you through the mouths of My true prophets and apostles; for you believe that you can hide your sins. Nay, you cannot hide your sins; for I know you, who are guilty of all manner of sexual perversions. You are full of adultery and even sodomy; and you believe that no one will know, that you can continue on in your wickedness. I see all and I know all; and I command you to repent, to come away from evil and cry out in true repentance, seeking forgiveness and full deliverance. For, many of you are possessed by all manner of demons. You have given My sanctuaries over to all manner of greed, lusts and sins and I am calling you to repentance! Repent or step down!

And, for the few, the very few, who truly love Me and who truly preach My messages of Godly love and repentance, I say to you, "I know who you are; and I say again that you are few, indeed! " For, this state or Arkansas is full of the blind leading the blind.

I am disgusted with the gargantuan buildings, which are laid up for the whole world to see, wherein you say in pride, "Look, what I have! Look what I do! How great I am!" Let it be known, Oh proud and arrogant preachers, that I am against you! In one moment, I will smash your centers of pride and I will scatter your flock; for you are an anathema to your very selves!

"Love My Flock!" "Bring them to repentance!"

To the good and faithful servants, who love Me with all their hearts, I say unto you, "Love My flock! Continue to bring them to repentance!"

God's Promise!

If the pastors will repent and cause My people to repent, I promise a great revival for the state of Arkansas. I promise to turn this state from a spiritual desert to a place of Living Waters.

God's Judgement!

But, if you will not clean up your churches and if you will not bring the people to repentance, if you will not go into the neighborhoods and minister to the lost, I shall smite this state through war, pestilence, famine, disease and death! I am a merciful God; but even now my judgement is falling all across the United States of America.

501 (c ) 3 Whores, Repent!

I say to you bought and sold whore preachers. "How many of you utterly refuse to speak against a Satanic government? Through your own tax-exempt agreement with the government, you have willingly agreed to look the other way, while one country under God has become one country under Satan. This tax exempt status is all about silencing the truth. Who among you is not bought and sold by this whore system? And, who has caused you to cower to a Satanic government, save you, yourselves?

Cowards, beware!

I ask you, "Are My people full of cowardice, that they will not speak the truth and stand for what is right?" Nay, these are not Mine; for I have given My people the boldness to speak what is true and to do what is right.

Church of Sodom, get thee hence from Me. I call Mine those, whose robes are made pure by great trials. Will a coward withstand trials and persecution for My namesake? Nay, a coward will run. A coward will renounce Me and My Son.

Church, come clean before God and be blessed, or perish in rebellion!

I say to you, Church, come clean before Me and I will bless you mightily; but if you will not come clean, I shall utterly destroy you. I am Jehovah, Most High God.

(Second letter to the churches in Arkansas)

A MESSAGE FOR THE CHURCHES FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

September 17, 2001

Jer. 6:13-16 "For from the least of them even into the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. 14. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying , peace, peace; when there is no peace. 15. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? Nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush. Therefore, they shall fall among them that fall. At the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the Lord. 16. Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." (Holy scripture given by our Father in Heaven on September 17, 2001, to accompany His prophetic words below.)

My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me this day and write as I say, that these words may go again into the churches. For, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God; and I say to you now, that the wicked will be wicked, the lost will be lost, kingdoms will come and go, but My word shall not fail you.

Yea, My Child, set your face against the churches and set it against them like stone; for My word has gone out to them, sent by you, My anointed and chosen servant. Yea, in July of this year, these words were sent; and I have beheld the responses. I have beheld the proud and the arrogant! I have beheld the slothful! I have beheld the "holier than thou;" and I have beheld the "tried and true", who have read, understood and received. Yea, in spite of what you believe, My Child, all is not lost; for a few have heard. A few have seen and a few have understood.

Yea, this day, My Child, let those with the eyes to see, see; and let those with the ears to hear, hear. Let those with a heart after Me, understand that My judgement is upon this land. Let those, who hunger and thirst after righteousness rise up and take the staff of righteousness. Let them eat of the Bread of Life and drink of My Living Waters. I know who you are; and I say again that you are few, indeed!

When war strikes this land, en masse you scramble for your fox-hole prayers. As a nation, you cry out, "How great we are," and you turn a blind eye to the real culprits within this very government. Yes, indeed, the New World Order is on the rise and the wise will be quick to see the real culprits; but those, who whore after the world and what is in it will soon line up to take the "mark."

I have warned the Shepherds of My Flock to repent and to bring My people to repentance; or I would destroy this land with war, pestilence and plagues. Have you listened? Have you? Nay! The greatest numbers of you have not! I warn you now that my prophetic words, which were penned by this apostle and prophetess in July and sent to you, stand to judge you. Yea, they stand to curse you or to bless you.

Get ready; for I am sending a revival upon this land. It will not just hit Arkansas, but it will hit here and there all across the USA; and it is not now, but very soon. When you see the factories close en masse and the farmers flee to the city en masse and when you see great devastation across the land, with wars all around this planet; when lines of people gather, for their pockets are empty and they have no food or shelter, then and only then will My people humble themselves before Me to weep and howl for this land. Then and only then! Yea, when suffering hits your home, you will weep and howl for this land!

I am ashamed of America. You stand amidst My judgement and bellow, "How great we are! How great this land is! It will not fall!" But, I say to you, "America shall fall!" It shall fall with a roaring thunder and the whore churches in this land shall fall with it.

Do you hunger and thirst after righteousness! Have you given up the lusts of the world! Nay! Very few! For, you live comfortably off the fat of the land!

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

I tell you now that My judgement shall only intensify upon this land! Are you ready to do your part? Will you set aside your differences and gather to weep and howl for this land? Will you weep for the sins, which hold this land captive? Will you?

I have told Mine anointed to stand by for those, who will come forward to weep and pray for this land. I have told Mine anointed to get ready to pray with a few of the meek and humble, who love Me with their all, and do My will daily. Yea, a few will come forth and when you do, I will bless you mightily. I will hear your cries. I will honor your prayers and you will bring revival to this land. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

(The letter below accompanied our Father's words in the above message and was also sent into the churches.)

Beloved Servants of the Most High,

On the morning of October 03, 2001, while I was standing at the sink washing dishes, I saw an angel of the Lord standing atop God's Holy Mountain. He held a trumpet in his hand and he was sounding this trump. When I later asked our Father in Heaven why this angel was sounding this trumpet, He showed me that great plagues are being poured on the USA and around the world. He told me that hundreds of thousands will soon die of these plagues within the USA, if the people do not repent in a great way. He also said that greater terror is coming upon this land, and if the people do not then repent, nuclear war will surely devastate this land.

In the fall of 1998 and again in the Spring of 2001, this country was closer to nuclear war than most will ever know; but in both instances our Father extended His hand of mercy. However, we are entering into a time wherein His judgements will become increasingly greater. We will soon see the Antichrist rise in Europe! If people will not repent in a great way, we will not escape an escalated destruction of this world.

Many believe that Lucifer and his pawns have orchestrated the latest round of destruction, but they do not realize that Lucifer is carrying out a much higher plan and that plan is the plan of the Most High God Jehovah. We are seeing God's judgement upon this land!

If the people will not humble themselves and repent, God will send increasingly greater earthquakes, hurricanes and even an asteroid impact. But, even then I fear that many will not repent; for in the Book of Revelation, we are told that even in spite of all the destruction, plagues and great judgements from God, that people still do not repent.

My husband and I are called to warn the people and we both hope that you will receive the words of our Father and repent and cause the people in your church to repent, that we may be spared some of God's great judgements. We belong to no group and represent no church. We only wish to carry out the will of God and we wish to bring God's people back to Him that their souls do not wind up in hell!

If you feel led to be a part of a prayer group for revival in this land and if you wish to gather here and there a few, we will meet with you and we will pray with you. We will weep with you and we will beg for God's forgiveness for the sins of this land. If you wish to repent of your own sins and need someone to pray with you, my husband Dennis and I will pray with you.

Our Father in Heaven recently showed me a rather large group of pastors, who had assembled for deliverance. I pray that this happens soon; for we have received numerous letters about pastors, who are lost in all manner of porn, lusts, greed and so on. If this fits you, realize that it is not too late for you to repent. We all fall short; but through the saving grace of our Lord Jesus, we are made whole. Now is the time to get right with God, to confess your sins and to seek deliverance through our Lord Jesus. Many sins seem insurmountable when they are kept secret, but confession is part of the healing process, which any troubled soul must go through.

Jesus wants us to be free and He wants us to bring every lost sheep back into the fold. But, there has been a great breakdown in the churches wherein many have become lost in the sins of the world and the Spirit of God has forsaken them. Many churches have taken the 501 (C) 3 tax number, agreeing to uphold a "satanic" government and agreeing to keep silent about government policy, to not talk against porn and a long list of other hideous kinds of agreements, just for money. This agreement with a "satanic" government has put a stranglehold on the churches and the preachers have willingly become silenced for money. By any definition, this is a whore church. If this is you, just remember that you do not have to enter into a covenant with the devil.

If these words concerning a "satanic" government seem strong to you, you need to study the works of such "secret" societies as the freemasons and understand how they work. You need to read of the blood oaths, which all must take and learn of the god, which they worship. From the very highest levels of these secret "satanic" organizations, they worship Lucifer, yet those at the lower levels are often duped. But, it would seem that when these at lower levels take increasingly more severe oaths, agreeing to have to be disemboweled, and to have their hearts ripped out if they tell of these events and ceremonies, that they would begin to suspect that something is not right. But, alas, belonging to such organizations has monetary kickbacks and prestige. These "satanic" organizations engage in human sacrifices and defilement of the human body at the very highest levels, which are all requirements for those, who serve the devil. You need to understand the occult layout of Washington DC and you need to understand something of the secret societies, such as the Bilderbergers, the Counsel on Foreign Relations, the Skull and Bones society and on and on.

Beloved Ones, these "secret" societies, who have entered into blasphemous covenants with Lucifer, now rule the world. Part of the freemason oaths require their members to hang a jury before they will convict a fellow member, even if this person is being tried for murder. When you understand the nature of these secret societies and their secret oaths, you will come to understand why many in Washington literally get away with murder. It is impossible to understand the horrors of this government without understanding how these secret satanic societies work.

I have read many times that the very president of this land belongs to the Skull and Bones, a super secret society, which is said to be the Thule Society by another name.

This very Thule society is what empowered Hitler to come into power. Hitler, himself, often spoke of a New World Order and I have read that George Herbert Walker Bush spoke of a New World Order no less than 200 times when he was president. This very Bush family played a role in putting Hitler into power through the Father of George Herbert Walker Bush. This information is readily available on the internet search engines for those, who are interested.

Once you get a handle on these secret societies and how they operate in stealth and cunning, with impunity, you will never view this government in the same way. You will come to understand why prayer has been taken out of the public schools. You will understand why these same secret groups control the media from the top; and you will understand and see mass media for the mass mind control tool that it is. You will want to protect your minds and the minds of your children from satanic mind control television and movies; for you will realize just how close we are to the reign of the antichrist.

If you have believed what you have seen on television and in the controlled newspapers, you are most likely comfortably asleep. However, even now, many are seeing that this "satanic government" will not save them. Many are waking up to George Bush's comments that those of the world, who are not with him and his counterparts for World War III, are against them.

Just this morning, we received an e-mail, which said in effect that concentration camps are now good investments in the USA. Yesterday, we received an e-mail, which was interpreted from the Russian newspaper Pravda; and this article went on to tell how martial law had been implemented in the USA. Do you know that when martial law is implemented the constitution is technically suspended and that FEMA is given power to rule the land? That's right, the constitution is technically suspended! All this has been made possible by massive numbers of executive orders, which were signed by past presidents, taking away all the rights of Americans in time of conflict. William Jefferson Clinton signed huge numbers of executive orders designed to take away the freedoms of Americans. Go and read them for yourself! You will be shocked!

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

Many do not know that the national guard has been called out here and there all over the USA to guard certain installations. And, most do not know that the skies all over the USA are now being patrolled by NATO planes. That's right. NATO planes are patrolling the skies all over the USA!( For more on this and the real reasons for this war, http://www.rense.com, on the internet has outstanding information.) Does it give you comfort that the skies over the USA are now being patrolled by NATO? Well, if it does, remember the NATO atrocities in Yugoslavia. Today, they patrol the skies, but tomorrow NATO will patrol the streets. In visions past, I have seen NATO make war against America!

We hope and pray that you will wake up and see the direction, which this country is headed in. We pray that you will repent and cause the people in your church to repent. We hope and pray that the people in general will wake up to what is going on in the world and come back to God in sufficient numbers, that we may be spared some of the horrible devastation, which is upon this land.

Please, if you feel a burden in your heart to help bring revival to this land, get in touch with us. We will pray with you and we will pray for you. We are not set up to take a volume of calls, so we respectfully ask that you write us a brief note at the following address, listing your telephone number; and we will get back with you.

We pray that our Father in Heaven blesses each of you with a new resolve to serve Him in great and mighty ways and that He anoints you anew to do great and mighty works in His Holy Name.

I am hearing our Father tell me to add this message as the appropriate chapter in Book Seven, that this message may be preserved for posterity; so therein you will see it again. I pray that in due season, we will be able to add other chapters to this book and even to subsequent books about the awesome hand of Jehovah all over America as more and more pastors come back to God and repent and cause their people to repent. I pray that many of you will write with awesome letters of praise for our Beloved God Jehovah and for His Beautiful Son, our Beloved Jesus, as You see the hand of God come down in your area of the country and spare you devastation because the people have heard and they have repented. I pray that our mail box is full with evidence of your hard work, as so many of you take up the challenge to bring the preachers and congregations in your area of the country to repentance! And, even if these churches never reveal a word to you, you will know that they have heard and that they have repented; for God will truly make you see, just as He has made us see! He will spare you and your part of the country of his fury!

Remember that you are a beautiful Child of God; and He loves you without condition. If you have drifted away from His love, now is the time to come back!. As you will see in a chapter, which will soon be posted in Book VII, God is raising the vibratory rate of His people, here a few and there a few; and He is raising this rate by taking us through the fires of adversity, wherein we are purified, made clean and filled with more of His precious love and radiance. God's work within us is about two very important things, love and forgiveness. If we will not forgive, we will not be forgiven and if we will not love we will not know the love of God. Forgiveness is an intricate part of loving. Therefore, we must forgive, lest these matters of unforgiveness become large dark boulders, which are continually in our path, over which we stumble over and over again. Therefore, our Lord Jesus tell us to forgive and to love our enemies; for if they are our enemies and we are servants of God, are they not also enemies of God? And, if they are enemies of God and his purposes, are they not lost and full of darkness, needing to be free, that they might be saved from great sorrow? Therefore, we should love our enemies and pray for them, that they, too, might be cleansed, healed and know the higher vibratory rate of the pure love of God!

Remember our Way home. His name if Jesus! Many call him Yeshua; but regardless of whether we call Him Jesus or Yeshua, He knows His Sheep! And when He calls His Sheep to come home, His Sheep know His voice! He will return soon for us; but remember that our robes must be white. And, how will they be white, save they are washed and purified in the fires, like silver and gold are purified?

You and I are tried and tested over and over again as to our faithfulness and this is only going to intensify as we near the time of the return of our Lord Jesus. Get prepared spiritually to go home; for Earth is not our home! We are only visiting. Reach out and love others. Help the lost and unfortunate and you will be blessed; for every act of love, which we give out, no matter how small, comes back to us when we least expect it. It is the love of God that makes life worth living!

Jesus is our Beautiful Love. He is our Precious Life and our Only Way home. There is no other way!

Your Brother and Sis,

Dennis and Linda

Beloved, I must tell you about the seventh tornado. If you remember in my Son's dream, he said that ht dreamt of seven tornadoes, which struck Little Rock and destroyed the city. He dreamed this the night before I sent out the last round of repentance letters to the churches in this area. But, there is more to the dream. A few days ago he reminded me of parts of the dream, which I had forgotten. He said, "Mom, there were six clear tornadoes and one black tornado." When he reminded me of this aspect of his dream I did recall him telling me this, but I had merely forgotten to write of this. This part of this dream would turn out to be very important.

We know about the six tornadoes. These hit all around Little Rock the day after Thanksgiving, but what you do not know is that this past Friday night the seventh tornado came ripping toward us. Just after nightfall, on the seventh of December we heard the tornado sirens blasting with their ominous sound. I looked at my husband and we both thought it the strangest thing as there was no rain, no storm. When I went outside to look, there was only dense fog. My husband remarked that they must be testing their equipment, but I did not believe this. As he was on the computer, I asked him to go to the local weather and find out where the tornado was. At the same time, I tore down the hall, praying in tongues and rebuking and commanding the tornado to move north. The sirens continued to wail and after a few minutes I came back up the hall and decided to turn on the television for a brief moment to check the position of the tornado, something we never do, unless a tornado is bearing down on us, the last time being about a year ago. Just as I was turning on the television, the wails of the siren stopped, and I was able to see on the local weather station that the tornado had veered north. The weather announcer continued to speak of the "well-defined" hook or tail, which was harboring the tornado. I began to pray against this tornado, demanding that this hook disintegrate and that this tornado totally disintegrate and be no more. I spoke to that thing with the anointing of the Spirit of God, commanding it to break up and be no more. I just kept on praying and speaking to it and with each round of the radar, the tail had diminished and the tornado was getting smaller and smaller. By the time the radar had moved around about four times, the "well-defined hook" was no more and the tornado was history! Beloved, praises to The Most High God Jehovah; for He, alone is Most High and to Him is the praise and glory forever and ever. He commands us to speak and to pray with the anointing of His Spirit and He tells us that is we will pray with a grain of faith as a mustard seed that we shall move mountains. I tell you, pray with the power of God and with the anointing of His Spirit and you will see the mountains move. They will not stand. Over and over, you will see God move in and give you victory. This seventh tornado was the black tornado. The weathercaster even said that it was a freak as the tornado was on the wrong end of the storm. The devil concocted this tornado and sent it right toward our house, but the power of God moved it out. Beloved, God is our safety net! We must move out in faith and He will move with us unto victory! Praises to the Holy Name of Jehovah, Most High God; for He is full of love and mercy!

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

"How God Speaks through His Prophets"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me; for I am your Father in Heaven and I love you mightily. My Little One, some things trouble your mind and you have come for a greater understanding. Have I not said that if one lacks understanding, let this one come to Me and I will give understanding and 'tis the same for truth. Seek ye truth of Me and it shall be given unto you."

"Yes, my Father, You have said these things through Your holy word."

"Then, know My Child, that as you ask I shall give. The essence of your question is why I speak different things to different prophets, as some of these things seem to contradict."

"Yes, my Father, I seek to understand this."

"My Child, what do you see before you?"

"My Father, it looks like a measuring stick of some sort; for it is rectangular and it is divided into sections. I see myself walking on this measuring stick, which is well-illumined; and as I look down at this measuring stick, I experience Your glorious light, which is full of love, peace and joy. I seem to be floating in such peace and beauty and suddenly feel so close to You. How I love You and how I miss You and our Precious Jesus every day of my life! Father, what was that? I heard a cracking sound like a whip cracking and I now see a team of horses pulling a wagon. I certainly do not understand this."

"My Child, what do you not understand?"

"I do not understand how we got from my questions about the measuring stick to this point and what this added vision means."

"My Child, when you behold yourself in the next vision before you, what do you see?"

"I see that I am a child and that I am seated at a large desk. I can hardly see the top of this desk; for my head if just above the top of it, yet I have a pen in my hand and I am busy writing at this desk."

"What do you believe this to mean?"

"Father, I do not wish to speculate; for the visions, which you give me seldom mean what I believe them to mean. I can only know if Your Spirit reveals."

"This is so, My Child and this is so for every prophet. My Little One, every prophet is a child. Every apostle, every minister, every teacher, every evangelist, every one, who works for Me is a child. You know you are only a young child before Me, but many lose focus of this. Many times, those, who are called to serve Me and My Son forget that they are only children and they will begin to usurp authority. They will begin to think highly of themselves. They get carried away with the office or calling I have given them and they begin to venture into the dangerous ground of self. Many want to stand in judgement of other prophets or apostles. Many cast unfair judgements, believing that they are beyond reproach. Many get puffed up believing that they are always right. Many set themselves up for a great fall.

"All, who are called of Me to serve Me and My Son, are children. Some of these children are older than others. It is not for the older children to 'lord over' the younger ones, but to speak truth to them and to help them if asked. My Child, the prophetic walk is unique to each of you. Though I give the same messages to many and these similar threads will be obvious, I often give very different messages. These very different messages may seem to contradict one another; for one may be lacking certain very important information, which is given to another.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"My Little One, do not concern yourself about what I say to other prophets. Just do as I say and write as I say, knowing that I do not speak the same things to all and I do not have the same plan for each prophet. Each of you is unique. Many of you live at different places around the world. Some of you will be used by Me much differently than others. Remember that each of you is unique. I warn all to look for deep meaning in much that I say. I am a merciful God and I do change My mind. To some of you, I show what is fixed and will not be changed. To many of you, I reveal what will be changed, if enough will repent. To some of you, I show impending calamities, that you may pray and ward these off. A certain prophet sees the impending calamities and shouts the alarm, thereby causing others to intercede in prayer, and the calamity is averted. Is this prophet a false prophet because what he has seen and warned of did not come to pass? He has done My will. However, many will say, 'Oh, what he warned of did not come to pass. Therefore, he is a false prophet!' I warn each of you about this kind of judgement! I warn each of you about labeling My true prophets as false prophets for some things, which you do not understand; for if you hurt one of My Faithful, you will feel the sting of My judgement. No one understands My works and no one understands My ways. Those, who believe that they know My ways or understand them are utter fools. My words and My ways are a mystery to all. Therefore, let the fools be advised. Just when you come to the realization that you have Me and My ways figured out, I will pull the rug out from under you. I will turn your life upside down and inside you. I will send a whirlwind into your very midst and show you that you are a fool. The proud and haughty will burn as stubble. The meek and the humble will enter into My Kingdom and they are all children. Not one will enter herein, who puts himself or herself in a position of power over My Little Ones. Egomaniacs are hell-bound. Those, who serve Me are meek and humble. Those, who are called to lead My people are servants to My people. They love My people. They help them. They do not suck the life out of them and use them up. My servants do not 'lord over' My Little Ones. Those, of the devil do this. My servants are not money mongers. They do not set themselves above the less fortunate. My servants are full of love and forgiveness; yet they are wise through My Spirit in their hearts. Each of you, who has a calling is to execute this calling, according to the dictates of My Spirit. Yet, look around! The masses have chased out My Spirit through rebellion! The churches are full of the proud and the haughty, full of the arrogant! I am not in this! I am not in the midst of greed and selfishness! I am not in the midst of confusion and clamor. I am a God of great love, peace and joy; but I am also a God of perfection, a God of judgement. I know hearts. You cannot lie to Me and 'fake me out.' You lie to self and when you lie, you become all the more a servant of Lucifer. I am a God of truth. I lie not, but neither do I give all truth, but part, and to each if given a work to take what I have given an to tell the people. Even when you are sure that a prophet is lying or has missed the mark, do not be so quick to judge. For, what may appear to your child mind as a lie may be in fact truth. Do not take what I reveal out of context and believe that you understand. For, often, I speak in symbols and even when you know that you know, you may be wrong.

"Stop judging My prophets! I judge My prophets! And, I also judge the whore prophets, who are none of Mine. For, they are full of covetousness, greed, selfishness, rebellion, backbiting and so on. These are not Mine. You know Mine by their fruits! My prophets are full of love and long-suffering; yet they are also full of truth, My Spirit of Truth. They abhor a lie and will not abide greed, selfishness, pride, arrogance, rebellion, so on.

"I tell you now, My prophets are on the precipice of great and mighty blessings. For, I am about to pour out My Spirit upon My Faithful in a great measure. Mighty miracles, the likes of which this Earth has not seen since the time of My Son, are about to unfold. Those, who do not respect My prophets, and who mistreat them are going to suffer a mighty judgement. The Elisha-types of judgements will go forth and hit many of the rebellious, who wish to harm My prophets, So, be warned! This day is at hand, wherein My judgement is falling on the enemies of My people. I am Jehovah, Most High God.

"My Father, might I go back and ask for more understanding?"

"Yes, My Little One."

"Father, what is the relevance of the measuring-like-device, on which I saw myself walking?"

"Is this walk not straight and divided into sections?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2001

"Yes, my Father."

"And, you are in the middle therein, yet ready to move on up?"

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, this is My Straight and Narrow Way and this also represents the walk of the prophetic. For, there are prophets, who are much younger than you and those, who are older. You are mid-way or middle-aged, as you might say."

"But, Father, this does not have to do with actual age, per se, does it?"

"This is good question. My Child, no, this is not actual age, but according to your prophetic walk in this life."

"So, I am near the middle, but moving up soon?"

"This is so and in due season, you will know what this means."

"And, the great light, Your light, which enveloped me?"

"This is all part of your walk and this light and power is going to increase in you in a great way. You are receiving this even now, but you are only on the precipice of this great wave of My power."

"Father, tell me about the whip and the horses with the carriage."

"My Child, this whip signifies a time of judgement for this land. It is also a time of judgement for My House. Those, who have been called to serve Me, who have entered into ego, pride, rebellion, etc are about to feel the sting of My judgement. My whip is going to sound in their very midst. Mine are going to clean up their walks, or they will be left behind."

"What about the horses and the carriage?

"The horses represent teamwork among My people. My people love one another. My servants love one another and My true servants work as a team. They are not out to destroy one another through backbiting and judging My others true servants. This teamwork is coming into focus. I am calling forth My Anointed, that they network and love and support one another. Many of My Loved Ones, have lived isolated lives because others of you are full of self. You reach out with one hand to love and you slap with the other hand. I say, 'Enough!' Those, who will ride in My chariot of great spiritual anointings and power will ride under My power and love, one for the other! All backbiters, gossipers, two-faced, and idolaters, will be soon shut out for good! You will either humble yourselves before Me and repent, making amends for your wrongs, or you will perish! With this, My Child, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

"The Runaway Train"

"My Precious Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hear Me this day and write as I say that all may be the wiser. The vision of December 11th 2001, regarding the slaves of Lucifer, who have commandeered a runaway train and plowed it through your constitution and military is taking place now. This vision does not relate to some distant point in the future. Did I not tell you that in one month, certain ones in the White House will know that there is a Jehovah, Most High God?

"Yes, my Father, You said it. You also said that you were calling up the winds and we have certainly seen this come to pass here. And, You said that you were calling up the fires; yet I have not seen this come to pass. (This very day, someone sent us an e-mail regarding a fire in the largest church in America, which is a cathedral in New York City. As I understand it, the fire in this church was started in the bookstore and caused extensive damage. A week or so before Christmas, as I was reading news on Rense.com on the internet, I was thinking of the fires, which our Father said He was going to call up and as I looked down at the very next article, I read of great fires in Australia. Since that time, we are all aware of fires in Peru that killed well over two hundred. This fire began in a shopping mall. Beloved, this saddens me so; but I sense God's judgement in these fires!)

"My Child, all has to do with My judgement upon the errant and rebellious of this land. My Child, do you believe that black is white?"

"No, my Father, I do not."

"My Little One, if the masses could see and hear, they would perceive the evil, which is coming out of Washington. They would perceive the lies and they would fight against evil so as to retain rights and freedoms."

"But, you have a president, who has been turned over to Lucifer; for he would not obey Me. You have a president, who is skating on ice, yet without the skates; and he shall soon take a fall. Oh, he will stumble to get up again, but he shall fall again and again until his work in the Earth is finished. Yes, indeed George W. Bush and his Father, plus the New World Order alliance, to which they belong, all gloat at the gullibility of the masses and the continued belief in and acceptance of the lies, which are foisted upon them. The world over they laugh, they guffaw, at the 'idiot' mindset of the masses. They ride upon great clouds of ego, not seeing their own Achilles heel. My Child, I have told you over and over that if people will repent, if the preachers and the congregations will repent and serve Me anew in truth, honor and Spirit, that I will delay judgement upon this land. I do not get joy from judging My people; but if you will not soon repent, greater, much greater calamities shall readily befall this land.

"My Beloved Child, I am aware of those, who are sending out the repentance letters to the Churches in America. I have heard your prayers, My Child, that all, who help with these works receive the Seven Thunders Blessings as I have promised. My Little One, I am true to My word, that those, who help with these works shall be blessed mightily. They shall see many a miracle straight from My throne; for each one, who works for Me by sending out these letters, is working to save souls and this is the most important work any of you can do. As pastors repent and as they cause My people to repent, I will show these parts of the country over and over that I have extended My hand of mercy upon them. Therefore, My Child, I say to the few, who have sent out this letter and to those, who are sending them out, 'My blessings are upon you and your households; and my hand of protection is upon you. Be faithful. Pray always and I shall send mighty spiritual blessings into your life. For, I am pleased in each of you and you shall know My great love and glory. Stay the course. Be faithful. Continue to come out of the world and put me first in your lives and I will give you a basket, which is overflowing with my miracles.'

"To those of you, who have read this letter of repentance and refuse to do your parts to bring America to repentance, I ask you, 'Do you love Me and My Son and your brothers and sisters in word only, or do you love Me and My Son and your Brothers and Sisters in word and deed?' If you love the lost and the rebellious, you will do your part to bring them to repentance. This land is full of rebellion and if you will not do your part to save your part of this country from judgement, who will? Do not pass off to another what you, yourself, are able to do. Get busy and get My message of repentance out into the churches; for My judgement is upon this land and save you repent in sufficient numbers, I will further bring down this land through grievous calamities.'

"Yes, My Child, the runaway train will be stopped in due season and I will stop it through My very judgements upon this land. Will each of you do your parts to cause My people to repent? Will you work to save the people of this land? Will you work to save this land? If you see the need and will not do your part, I shall doubly judge you. Each of you, who lives herein, bears a responsibility for the serious degradation in morality, for the rebellion, for the witchcraft and erosion of this government and for the spiritual erosion in the churches. If you will not do your part by helping in this work, even as I plead with you to do your part, I say to you, that there will come a time wherein you will also plead with Me and I will not hear.

"This land is in grave peril and for the sake of My Loved Ones, I am merciful; and I will always be full of love and mercy toward My Faithful. I will always provide for them. I love the wicked and I love the lost. I love the heathen and the rebellious and it is because of this love that I judge. For, I do not judge the wickedness and the rebellion, it will consume every bit of good. Evil absolutely destroys all good if left to do so; and I will not ever allow such to come to pass. For, My hand is upon the righteous, … My hand of protection and provision. Therefore, I say to each of you. There is work to be done. Will you do your part? My Child, put this on the next message and also as the next chapter of Book VII. I am Jehovah, Most High God.

"2002, a grievous year!"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me and write as I say, that My word may go forth, a warning unto My people! My Child, behold the pot before you; for it is broken, shattered and dispersed as shards. Even as you walk barefoot on the shards, feel them crumble beneath your feet. My Child, what more is the broken pot, than the government in Washington DC; and what more are the shards than the remnants of this constitutional republic, an empty, broken and destroyed pot before Me and My people?

"Weep, My Little Ones! Weep for what lies before you! The wolf is aprowl and it is a lean and hungry wolf with vacant eyes and steamy breath. Yea, when you least expect the wolf of hunger and destruction to strike, it will strike your corn fields and lay barren your wheat crops. Weep, My Little Ones, for soon radioactive fallout will taint your food supply. Farms will lie barren; for the ground will not grow crops.

"Weep, My Children, for the cover of protection, My protection, has been lifted off this land and the wild dogs of barbarism and Satanism are set loose to roam in packs. Calamities, yea grievous calamities are upon this land! The vacant and empty churches will perish and the hungry flock are soon to be scattered!

"Yes, weep, My Little Ones, for a time of great upheaval is at your door. Grievous calamities and dark upheavals will soon sweep this land! Are you ready? Nay! For, you have lived a life of ease! You have lived a life of pampering, living off the fat of the land!

"I am turning tables on the money changers in my churches! I am turning tables on the hypocrites, the two-faced and the backbiters! I am turning tables on the false prophets and the liars and the deceivers! I am turning tables upon the mockers and the scorners! Yea, My Little One, in 2002, I am turning tables. I 2002, I am going to root out and judge the false prophets! I am going to root out and judge those, who persecute My true servants and falsely label them as 'false prophets.' I am going to turn the tables and when I turn the tables, the lamp, which shines on the false prophets and the hypocrites is going to spill and the flaming oil is going to burn them. 2002 is going to be a year of grievous separation. Yes, I am shining My light upon the false and the obscene in My Kingdom and I am shining My Light upon My Faithful. Great anointings and much power is flowing into My Faithful; but I am closing shop on the false prophets! Many cry, 'Lord, Lord, but their hearts are far from Me. Many make a big show and fool the masses; but this year, 2002, I am bringing down the false shows! I am tearing up the fake light shows! I am turning the tables. As My Tried and True, as My Faithful, move out into the limelight of My work, I shall work great and mighty miracles through them; and I shall use them in great and mighty ways to save souls!

"Watch out, fakers! For, your days and hours are numbered! My judgement is upon you and you will not escape My wrath. Yes, 2002 is a war year! For, your President Bush has proclaimed it. The 'dead bush' has proclaimed a war year! But, I say, yes indeed it is a war year; but not the Satanic kind that he speaks of. For, I am bringing My warriors, My army to the front lines, and woe to those, who come to make war with Me and Mine!

"Yes, in 2002, Washington DC will proclaim war; for I Jehovah, Most High God, am going to tear up Washington DC. I am going to rattle windows and I am going to shake streets. I am going to pound the liberty bell into thousands of pieces and I am going to send a black horse of destruction through the streets of Washington DC. Yes, I will ring some bells and I will make My mark on some doors; for this year, the grim reaper will make housecalls in Washington DC. I am purging this land. From North to South, from East to West, I am purging this land. Not only am I purging the churches, but I am purging this land. For, above all lands, I have blessed America and you have become all the more the whore. You have bedded with every strange god and you have marooned with every dark ship in every dark harbor. Your filth has polluted the whole Earth and your murders of the unborn and the newborn have created a ring of darkness, a ring of crying and weeping, in the ethers around this Earth. America, the abomination! America, the accursed! For, the curses of Deuteronomy have come upon you and the land from afar is within your very borders. Yes, 2002 is a war year, indeed, and 2002 shall bring war to the streets of America! 2002 shall bring war to the corn fields and to the wheat fields of America. Yes, America is coming down and with it shall come down a blasphemous leadership, which is full of evil and rottenness. Woe, woe, woe to the whores of Washington DC. My wrath is kindled against you and with one fell swoop of My hand, I shall eradicate you. I am Jehovah, Most High, the One God, and I have warned you to have no gods before Me. Yet, in the highest offices of this land, you sacrifice babies and you drink their blood. I tell you now that this year will not pass before the Destroyer visits you. Be warned; for this evil system is coming down. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

"Our Father's Warnings to the World … being fulfilled even now!"

Beloved Ones, below you will see our Father's Message to the World. Following this message is another word from our Father, which you will also want to read, as well as other very pertinent information. Even if it is six months down the road, or two years down, or even longer, when you read our Father's message to the world, I urge you to copy and disseminate His message to the churches, that the Faithful may are encouraged and the rebellious are brought to repentance

"Our Father's Message to the World"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Beloved One, the winds come and the winds go; but the wind, which is at hand, shall not go. Yea, this is a mighty wind of My Spirit and it is being unleashed now upon My people. Yea, a mighty wind of My Spirit is rolling forth, even as a mighty tidal wave. It is rolling forth; and within three days, My Child, you shall know what I mean. This wind of My Spirit is bringing mighty miracles upon the face of the Earth; for as you know, My Child, Satan has been cast into the Earth for good. No more will he be allowed to come to My throne and no more will he be allowed the interdimensional spaces; for My mark of defeat if upon him. Even as he rises in his fury, he is bound by Me. He is bound for destruction.

"Yes, My Child, the devil is loosed and the antichrist is rising as you knew many months ago. Millennia of planning and millennia of human sacrifices and bloody orgies of evil have ushered in this time of great evil upon mankind. But, I tell you, My Child, the world is evil. The people are full of rebellion the world over. The churches are putrid with the shallow and with the lukewarm, with the cowardice. Yea, My Little One, the time of judgement is upon the world. I speak to you much about My judgement upon the USA and many in other countries think that they are exempt from My judgement. I tell you, My Child, Australia is under My judgement through fires. Yes, even the devil and his cohorts do My will and know it not. I can put My will into the smallest of creatures or into the minds of children; for I am all-powerful and all-knowing. Foolish men and women do not fear My power. They do not fear My judgement; but I tell you, Child, a great fear is upon this world. Those, who will not fear My power will fear the power of the devil. Yes, indeed, My Child, he and his have power; but not from Me. They get power from you. They feed off your sorrow and off your suffering. They feed off wars and violence. They feed of destruction and defilement of the human body. They feed off deception and horror. Yes, My Child, they are cut off from Me with little light, save that, which they steal from each of you. This is why they get great joy from sacrificing Christians in their bloody rituals; for you have My light. Even the lukewarm still have my light and these evil ones are vampires of My light and energy.

"Oh, yes, My Child, there is a feeding frenzy of evil. There is a feeding frenzy, which is motivated by horror, by blood and guts. Can you now understand why the television is a feeding ground for the devil. He puts out the evil. The masses slurp it up and in so doing they release My light; for I will not indwell those, who ascribe to evil.

"My People are in a constant deficit of My Spirit and My energy because they give it up for evil. Evil steals the light out of My people; but each of you gives permission. Each of you is accountable and each of you pays a price. For, you struggle with depression and with demonization of yourselves, your families, and your homes. You have no one to blame, but yourselves; for you have slept through the Satanic takeover of your government. You have slept through the Satanic rape of your homes through the violence of television, through the defilement of aberrant sex and through excesses of drugs, alcohol. Willingly, you have fallen into the Luciferian traps because you have loved the world and what is in it and willingly the masses will move out, take the mark, and they will willingly worship Lucifer.

"Get ready; for war is coming to America! Here a little and there a little until you succumb to nuclear attack! Yes, My Child, I have given America a little more time; for truly war was slated for America in 1998 and again in the Spring of 2001. But, you have not been given a lot of time. You have not been given a generation, only a few years.

"Countries outside of America, I warn you not to rally in your safety, believing that you are safe in your rebellion. Nay, you are not safe! I am going to tear up Scandinavia, … for your rebellion against Me, for your worship of pagan gods, for your idolatry. I am going to smash My fist right into your abdomen. I am going to cut off your circulation and I am going to further blind and deafen you; for you put on a fake light show; and you are full of the shallow and the putrid.

"Canada, Oh, Canada, do not think that you will escape My wrath. For, you are every bit the harlot that America is. You are every bit as blind and deaf and you are puffed up, believing that judgement will not befall you. Oh, it is coming! My judgement is at your very door and it will not be long before soldiers make their door-to-door rounds in your very midst. It will not be long before you know famine all across your land; for I am judging the wheat and I am judging the cattle and the crops. Grievous illnesses and diseases are about to escalate all over the world and you will not escape. War, war, war and rumors of war shall be your constant dread; for you have forsaken Me. You have gone whoring with America. When you least expect it, you shall hear a snap and you shall see the deadly results of this snap. Yes, Canada, you are under My judgement and it is time that you wake up. It is time that you repent; for a wave of utter destruction will soon sweep your land.

"Europe, Oh foul Europe! Your heart is cold as ice. You are robots of the devil. A black cloud of evil is brewing over Europe The Nazis are set to march from door to door. The trains of evil are set to run and the wolf of famine is howling in your backyard. No, you will not escape your evil hearts. You will not escape that hot breath of the antichrist as he comes to steal, to kill and destroy. Yea, it is time to wake up before it is too late to do so. You, the masses, you., who are full of darkness, rebellion, self-sufficiency, have dug your own dark graves. It will be nothing for you to worship Lucifer; for you already worship what is of this world.

"Yes, My Child, I know that a few, here and there in Europe, love Me. They obey Me and keep My commands; but these are few, indeed! I tell you, My Child, I am going to shake and rattle Europe. I am going to tear it up from North to South and from East to West. The dead will be so numerous that they will not have the manpower to bury them. Yes, war, grievous war is coming to Europe!

"The Mideast is on the precipice of an explosion of war. As you see this war unfold, watch China and Russia. For, China has plans of her own and when the world expects it least, she will move to usurp land and power. And, North Korea, riddled with disease and hunger is a lean wolf; but one, which is on the prowl. They will not bow down to the antichrist agenda!

"My Little One, this war on terror is all about getting rid of those countries and those elements, who will not bow down to the antichrist. This is why the world is on the verge of a great war, which is going to utterly devastate this planet. Some will not be bought and they will not bow to the antichrist agenda; for many hate NATO. Many hate America! Many hate Europe! Therefore, the antichrist has his hands full. On every front, he plans to squash rebellion. On every front, he plans to stamp out terror; but this is best said that on every front he will terrorize the world!

"My Child, you think, 'Why is the New World Order moving forth like a steam roller?' It is because Satan has been cast down. He knows his days and hours are numbered and he knows that I have given him a season in the Earth. Yes, he is going to terrorize the Earth. Many will die, just from terror, alone. But, My Little One, there is a Higher Plan. This is My Plan and My Plan is to bring My Sons and Daughters home. My Plan is to give eternal life to My Faithful, so that they truly do not have to go out anymore. Are the numbers great, who will make the grade? No. This is why My Way is called the Straight and Narrow and why few find it and stay on it. As long as any of you go by the beat of the world, you will not make the grade. You will not receive your reward of eternal life as My Sons and Daughters; for you are cut off from My Spirit and My word. Yes, My Child, the time of the great sorting of souls is at hand and it behooves all to clean up their lives. It behooves the preachers of America to get out of the blasphemous covenant with Lucifer, which is called the 501 ( C ) 3. It behooves the Shepherds of My

Churches around the world to arise from their slumber and to take up My staff of righteousness and to clean up their lives and to clean up their churches. For, if they will not repent and cause My people to repent, they shall soon be caught up in the fires of hell!

"My Little One, I am separating Mine out of this evil system. I say to you now, 'Come out of Babylon before it is too late!' Give up the porn. Stop the adultery. Give up the gambling, the drugs and the alcohol; for these are sure tickets to hell! Stop the lying and stop the deceiving; for those of you, who lie and deceive, are evermore the Child of the Devil. Stop fornication; for it is better to marry than to burn. Those of you, who look at My commandments and believe that you can pick and choose are evermore the fool. For, you are lost to the wiles of the devil and you know it not.

"Get ready, I say to South America. Get ready! Behold Argentina, for this is My judgement! Overnight, you will experience widespread conditions, like what you see in Argentina. A great wasting is coming upon Mexico and Central and South America. A great wasting is about to hit this part of the world with terrible plagues, which are going to wipe out many. This great devastation is coming, along with a great financial collapse, which will be worldwide, along with worldwide famine. A great and terrible dearth is headed for the whole world!

"When you see war, a great war grip the Mideast, and this is soon, know that a great war is about to grip the world. Great suffering is at the door of this whole planet. When you see foreign troops begin to go door-to-door in the USA, which is soon, very soon, then you will know that this will soon follow for the world.

"Yes, My Child, a howling is going up. Hear the great howling in the Spirit. A howling is going up even now and this shall soon manifest in the physical; for a purging or the Earth is at hand. Nuclear exchanges are at hand. How quickly you have forgotten! How quickly your memory has faded for the terrible destruction of nuclear war! When nuclear war hits the Earth, it will quickly spread throughout the world. Do not be so naïve as to think that it will not come to your part of the country or world. For, even if nuclear weapons are not detonated in your midst, fallout travels around the world. I tell you that areas of land will soon be uninhabitable and untillable.

"Are you prepared? Nay! The masses are not prepared! Has television told you to prepare? Has television told you to build fallout shelters? Has television told you to stockpile food and medicine for My people? Nay! For, you are scheduled for annihilation! Satan will devour you, for he feeds off your suffering! Over and over, I have told you through this very prophetess and through others, to prepare for hard times. Have you built fallout shelters? Nay, few of you! Have you stored food, water, and medical supplies? Some of you, but still the numbers are few! If the errant preachers were awake, they would warn My people. They would tell My people what is coming down; but alas, they are fast asleep!

"My Child, for those around the world, who would like to make a copy of this message to send to the world churches or even to the local churches in America, along with My last letter for the Churches of America, I say to make these copies and send them now. For, the world is on the precipice of grave peril. Let all be warned. For, the concentration camps in America and elsewhere around the world will soon be overflowing, not with terrorists or war criminals, but with average citizens. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

Beloved, the following warning from our Father in Heaven was given to me on the morning of January 7th, 2002. On the night of the 6th of January, I was aware of great witchcraft, which was coming against me in the Spirit. The following from our Father in Heaven tells of His wrath at the sorcerers and Satanists and His word pinpoints the source of these attacks. Utter fools do not fear God; but alas the world is replete with utter fools!

GRAVE WARNING TO SCANDINAVIA!

"My Beloved Child, sit and write as I say that he rebellious ones in Norway will hear My words. I say to you in Norway, in Finland, and in Denmark, who have polluted My word and entered into blasphemous covenants with Lucifer, 'I shall break you as matchsticks and consume you with the hot fires of My breath! Like wild horses, I shall utterly break you! A great shaking is coming upon you. You shall look around you and you shall ask, 'Why is this severe judgement upon this land?' But, I tell you now, look around you and see why My judgement is upon you! See why My mark of destruction is bringing you down!

"I shall rip you asunder and My walk, as the walk of a mighty giant, shall be felt all across your lands. Great volcanoes shall erupt and earthquakes, like you have never experienced before, shall divide you asunder. Tidal waves shall sweep inland and many shall be carried out to sea. My rage will be seen in your skies night after night and you shall tremble in your horror, asking, 'Who has brought this judgement upon us?' I warn you now that a month will not pass until you begin to see My wrath against you. For, in your ignorance you come to make war with My anointed and I tell you now that when you come up against Mine to make war, you come up against Me.

"I have warned you that 2002 is a war year, indeed! I am raising up My mighty warriors and assembling My mighty army. Mine angels are going forth and even now they are reaping souls for eternal life or eternal hell. My angels are binding up the power of the Satanists and they are binding up their demons, so that when they are called up, they will not be able to come.

"Fear and trembling is going to hit those, who come to fight with Me. You will run when there is no need to run and you will hide when there is no need to hide. From the time that you get up until the time that you go to bed, you will have no peace; for fear shall follow you everywhere you go.

"The great war, which is at hand, is not about Satan, it is about Me and My power. You were warned by My Holy Servant, John, of this end-time war. Yea, it is upon you; but while many believe that it is about Satan, they are wrong. It is My war. It is about Me and My power. It is about My judgement and it is about My harvest.

"Those of you, who are blind and deaf, do not know the power I am giving to My elect. You do not know the power I am giving to My angels; for if you did, you would repent. But, you do not repent. You have aligned yourselves with Lucifer and you are headed for destruction. You will be uprooted one by one by My angels and you will be thrown into the fiery furnace. I say to you, get ready; for your days and hours are numbered and when you expect it least, My fear shall befall you and you and many of you shall be driven to insanity; for your minds shall utterly betray you. Your hearts shall betray you. Your emotions and your bodies shall betray you.

"Let all be advised that when you come up against Mine anointed, you come up against Me. My fury is upon you and My whirlwind of destruction is in your very midst. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 7th day of January, 2002.

In the above Message to Scandinavia, our Father says, "You shall look around you and you shall ask, 'Why is this severe judgement upon this land?" And, in the second paragraph, He says, "My rage will be seen in the skies night after night and you shall tremble in your horror, asking, 'Who has brought this judgement upon us?" As I read what He says, I am reminded of the Book of Jonah. Remember Jonah. God called Jonah to work for Him, but Jonah ran from God. He got on a ship and tried to get away from the work that God had for him. But, while the winds were whipping the ship, those on board knew God and understood the fury of God, which was in the wind and in the torrents of rain and water. This is when Jonah got cornered; for those on ship knew that God was angry with someone in their midst. Remember what happened to Jonah? They threw him overboard and he spent some repentance time in the belly of the whale. Through God's punishment, Jonah came to his senses. He went into the rebellious city of Ninevah and told the people that because of their rebellion, their city would be destroyed within a few weeks. Oh, the fear of God was upon Jonah and he was all too eager to obey God after a few days in the belly of the whale. But, Jonah, was not prepared for God to change his mind. He was not prepared for the people to come to repentance and be spared God's judgement and Jonah was angered when God's judgement did not come upon Ninevah. Yes, we all need to remember Ninevah and we need to remember Jonah. For, in the life of Jonah, we see God's intense judgement for rebellion and we see His great mercy. We see and understand how God punishes the rebellious, and we see His great mercy toward the repentant! Our Merciful Father in Heaven hears the cries of the truly repentant and He forgives. From the works of God through Jonah and Ninevah, we must realize that in no way can we know what God is going to do. Only He knows. What you and I must do is to spread His word and to do our best to make people see their wrongs, so that they repent and are spared His great judgment.

Prophecy fulfilled!

In our Father's Message to the Nations, which is above, He says in the very first paragraph that He is sending forth a mighty wind of His Spirit, likened even unto a tidal wave of His Spirit. He advised me that within three days, I would know what He is speaking of. Beloved, this has surely coming to pass. But, first go back with me to the Message for You of January 4th, 2002. In this message, I relate a little of my conversation with a prophetess, who told me of a dream in which she saw soldiers going door to door, among other things. One thing, which she mentioned as well is that she and other prophets had been hearing loud explosions in the Spirit. She related that some had heard these explosions to such a degree that they were having trouble sleeping. She asked me if I had been hearing these loud explosions, but I had heard none of what she was talking about. However, Beloved Ones on the sixth of January as I was sitting in the living room, I heard in the Spirit such a loud explosion that it seemed to shake my very being. I jumped from the noise and shaking. This explosion penetrated my whole body and unexpectedly I proclaimed, "What was that?" Since that time, I have heard numerous very loud explosions in the Spirit and on one occasion heard smaller explosions, which reminded me of the explosions made when many fire crackers are lit in quick succession; and at that time I could even see the fire of these explosions. Now, let us go back to our Father's words above, "Yea, a mighty wind of My Spirit is rolling forth, even as a mighty tidal wave. It is rolling forth; and within three days, My Child, you shall know what I mean. This wind of My Spirit is bringing mighty miracles upon the face of the Earth; for as you know, My Child, Satan has been cast into the Earth for good." Let it be noted that on the afternoon of the second day, I began to hear these explosions. This is God's word come true. This is surely prophecy fulfilled! These very explosions are bringing in a great mighty tidal wave of God's Spirit! Many stalemates, which God's people have been up against for some time, are being broken in the spirit!

From our Father's Message to the world, above, you will see that He warns of His forthcoming judgements upon Canada, describing how soldiers will soon go to door. On the heals of His words comes this article about the New World Order's march of terror upon Canada. On the 7th of January, I read an expose on http://www.rense.com. This article was entitled, "Canada's Globalization, Militarization and Police State Agenda," and it was written by Ingrid Rimland. It is the transcript of a speech, which was presented by Roco Galati, an attorney, at a forum for Scientists for Peace in Toronto in December of 2001. Read on for some very alarming information about Canada's laws of "terror."

Canada's Laws of Terror

C-32 relates to "secret trials." Protests that interrupt public facilities are acts of terrorism and even if one does not know that he or she is facilitating terrorism, one is still labeled a terrorist. There is a 72 hour arrest on "suspicion" and one can be held for 72 hours without being charged. Secret trials ALLOW FOR CONFISCATION OF ONES PROPERTY. (Read this again. Arrested on suspicion. Tried in "secret." And, all your property stolen! Can we say "Nazi Gestapo?")

C-22 makes lawyers SPIES FOR THE GOVERNMENT as they must report anything "suspicious" to the government. (There goes legal representation in these "secret" trials!)

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

C-42 "allows ministers to declare military zones on the spot, issue orders, and no one can discuss the orders; for if one does, it is a criminal offense."

Included in the definition of terrorism is a "threat to and including economic security". Bill C-36 states that an act is prejudiced to the safety and interest of the state if a person:

1. Interferes with the security facility or system or computer program;
2. Damages property;
3. Adversely affects the stability of the Canadian economy, a financial system, or any financial market in Canada without reasonable economic or financial justification."

"Boycotts of the markets or the banks on ethical or environmental grounds are now an act of terrorism."

A terrorist, "impairs or threatens the capability of the government of Canada to conduct diplomatic or consular relations or conduct or manage international negotiation."

At the time that our Father in Heaven gave the above message for the world, I had read nothing of this anti-terrorist bill in Canada, but folks it is now law and any can read what is at the door for Canada. What we are seeing in the USA now with martial law and a declared state of emergency, is that the president is dictator and the constitution is no more! Read the executive orders, which enslave all Americans and you will understand what "state of emergency" and "martial law" mean. The USA is now under both, and Bush and company are proud of it, so proud in fact that they have been crowing about a ten year war, which they say may now be a six year war. All the while, they are working overtime to provoke the enemies of the USA to attack this very land! Keep praying, Beloved! Our Father in Heaven is going to stop this runaway train.

CHAPTER TWENTY

"The Castle on the Hill"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Blessed are you, My Little One; for you are nearing the end of Book Seven. Blessed are those, who have heard and who have seen My truths herein. And, blessed are those, who have come forth through My messages in this book, with willing hearts and working hands; for as you do My work, I shall give you greater works and greater anointings. My Blessed One, there remains two chapters of Book VII and in this chapter, we shall go back to Book One, that I may answer questions posed by one of My very own, a babe yet, but greatly loved by Me. My Little One, in conversations past, this Child of Mine has asked you of the meaning of certain prophetic aspects of Book One. In the past, I have covered some of this with you in Book VII. But, there is more, which we have not covered. What is remaining are certain aspects of the "Castle on the Hill," which are covered in Book One. This very castle is occupied by three evil families. These families are the Rockefellers, the Royals of England and the German family, which is called Rothschild. My Little One, we shall begin on page 55 of Book I. Reprint these relevant sections in this chapter, that all may have this information for easy reference."

"Yes, my Father."

From The Mountain Prophecies Book One-Chapter Six

"My Lord, this is terrible. But does it all relate to the castle on the hill? Tell me about this castle with the bats flying out turning into blue birds?"

"Child, I have reserved this for last. There is a rope ladder. Take it on up to the castle."
"My Lord, I have the rope, and I am climbing now up this ladder. This is very hard climbing, as this hill is very tall, and the castle sits way up on the hill, by itself. I see now, My Lord, that this castle has a door on either side. On the one side there is a sign above the door, which says Rothschild. On the other door, it says Rockefeller. Two families living in one, big castle on a hill."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Or, so it appears, My Child."

"Now kick the door that says, 'Rothschild'."

"My Lord, I am kicking, but it is only a paper door."

"'Tis true, Child, only a paper door. Go on in."

"My Lord, I am in a very light and airy room. I do not see the roof, as there are trees growing in here. It is a room full of computers generating huge piles of ticker tapes. These tapes fall into piles, My Lord, and these piles turn into something."

"What do they turn into?"

"Rocks. These are talking rocks. They make a sound like the sound of a loud horn. And, they say the same phrase."

"And, what is that phrase?"

"'Everything is alive and well on planet, Earth.' Then, My Lord, each of these rocks tosses a small piece of paper with this message into a spring, which bubbles up in their midst. The spring takes the messages and turns them into worms. My Lord, this spring is full of worms. And, at the base of this deep spring is someone sitting on a rock, weeping. My Lord, it is Rapunzel."

"Child, do not be tricked by this one. You know this is Luciferian."

"Thank you, My Precious Lord, for reminding me. I was about to be tricked by a sob story. Now, I see two very tall trees with very long trunks, and at the top are many, many branches with leaves. These two trees go all the way out the top of the castle, where I see many blue birds flying around the tops of the trees. Sitting among these blue birds at the very top of the castle, I see a very large, ugly, black vulture. My Lord, what does all this mean?"

"Child, go to the door on the right and open it."

"My Lord, I am at the door, and it is only another paper door. I can stick my hand right through it. In fact, I am walking right through it."

"'Tis so, Child. Now go outside and look at the name over the door. What does it say?"

"Rockefeller."

"Now, My Child, come around to the front of the castle. Walk around the circular porch. What do you see there?"

"My Lord, I see one empty bench. Then, I see a large clay flowerpot, which is also empty. This is all, My Lord, except for a screened door. The screen on the door is old and it is falling apart. The screen has large holes in it where it has corroded away. There is no need for this screen as it is so rotten and serves no purpose."

"Exactly, My Child. All is known."

"My Lord, will you explain this to me?"

"Child, I will. It is what you see. Two families living as one. They have no wealth save it be paper. This door to their castle is easily broken. Their computers constantly generate much saying all is well financially, but My Child, the rock solid appearance of their financial reports feeds Satan's spring, which is based on a lie. My Child, paper burns. It may enwrap the rock, as in a child's game, but in short notice it will turn into worms and feed Satan's stream of rot and destruction.
"Blue birds fly above these two trees, The Rockefeller and The Rothschild Trees, as they believe all is 'chirpy'. However, My Child, look who sits among the trees."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"It is a black vulture, My Lord!"

"'Tis so, and it shall devour them. For, they send out bats, which they wish all to see as bluebirds. Their works are evil, yet they wish others to see them as good. I stamp my foot in this castle, and the windowpanes crack and fall out. I toss a match into the midst of this castle and burn it to the ground. Now, Child what do you see?"

"My Lord, I see a hill with charred bricks and rocks. The trees are gone and nothing remains but one charred stub. The Rockefeller tree is burnt not even with the ground, but burnt into the ground, leaving a black hole where it once stood. The Rothschild tree, My Lord, has remaining a black trunk of about 18 inches high. This is all that remains."

"My Child, what you see is true. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah...even Most High God of Earth."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 9th day of July, 1997.

"My Child, as we begin this discourse, you will recall that we are speaking of the castle, which sets high upon a hill."

"Yes, my Father and this hill is very tall."

"My Child, the capitol of the USA is called what?"
"It is called 'Capitol Hill.'"

"Beloved One, remember this; for Capitol Hill is very important here. It is hard climbing as those, who sit in this castle deliberately isolate themselves from the world."

"But, Father, if the hill is Capitol Hill, what is the castle?"

"The castle is home to the money mongers of the world. These are the leaders of this evil scheme to rule to the world and they isolate themselves in their castle, high up and removed from all, lest others see their evil and utterly defeat them."

"So, Father, these three families come and go from this hill. Do they own the hill?"

"Yes, they come and go, but remember that they also reside there. Do they own the hill? They believe they do and most certainly they control it. When you kick the paper door, called Rothschild, and discover that it is only paper, realize My Child, that this is the same for all three doors on the hill. These paper doors represent the US currency, which is highly controlled and regulated by these three entities. Once you get inside the castle, you see only two trees, the Rothschild and Rockefeller trees; for the Queen of England, though very much a part as the other two, has kept her distance, lest more know and understand that you in USA have been for some time, colonists once more under the Crown of England. And, the ticker tapes are no longer generated by computers, but complex spread sheets and financial documents have taken their place; but in your youth, you would have known of ticker tapes."

"Father, what is meant by the ticker tapes turning into talking rocks?"

"My Child, remember the paper door. This paper door represents your financial system, which is only paper. Yet, many grab the paper and think that you have a rock-solid economy. You do not. You have only paper, which is worth the ink and paper it is made of, actually worth little or nothing. And, what do the talking rocks say?"

"They say that everything is alive and well on Earth."
"My Little One, these rocks also represent people. They also represent doctrines and words. Have the talking heads of your financial system not told you as a people, ad finitum, that all is well with your economy, even when you look around and see your economy falling apart with hundreds of thousands out of work, trillions lost in the stock market and poverty on the rise. Have they not told these lies?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, Father."

"Next, My Child, you see the talking rocks toss the same paper into Lucifer's spring and this message turns into worms. What do you make of this, Child?"

"My Father, I just have a vision that this lie will consume itself, like rot."

"Well, Little One, you are partially right and partially wrong. For, this paper is worthless; but when thrown into Lucifer's spring of evil, this lie takes on life. Albeit a disgusting life form to you, these worms are life."

"And, this spring is full of worms."

"My Child, there is more to these worms than meets the eyes; for worms have the ability to go where many creatures cannot. Worms can be destructive, or they can actually be constructive."

"But, Father, these worms are in Lucifer's spring. How can they be constructive?"

"My Child, look at it this way. When a system becomes so full of rot, what more is there to do, save turn it over to the worms?'

"But, Father, this is Lucifer's system to begin with. How can you turn his rotten system over to him to destroy?"

"My Child, few understand this, but Lucifer has an insatiable hunger, an insatiable thirst for more and more. He is full of greed and lust for more and more power and control. In this quest for power and control, he will devour his own tail to maintain power. So, in this, My Child, you will see him devour his own evil system as he pushes for more and more control of the world. Now, My Child, let us go to the very last sentence on Page twenty-five where you say, 'Now, I see two very tall trees with very long trunks, and at the top are many, many branches and leaves.' Those, who are reading along can follow the rest. Notice, My Child, that these tall tress go all the way to the top of the castle."

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, these two families, in particular, control the economy from the very top. Remember that there are others, but these two are highly significant. You see as well the paper door of the Rockefellers as you walk around to the front of the castle and you see a third door, that of the Queen of England, which is covered later in this book. Note, My Child, that this porch is circular. It goes all the way around the castle and connects all doors."

"But, the flower pot is empty and the bench is empty and this door has a screen; but this screen is falling apart."

"Yes, My Child, let us go back to what I told you about the silent nature of the Queen of England in controlling this country. Her seat is empty. Her pot, (visible treasure chest) is empty. She has tried to conceal her role in the theft on capitol hill, by hiding behind a screen. But, Little One, this screen is rotten and no longer can she hide. For, she is part of the same family; and this very Luciferian family has strangulated the finances of this country for many, many decades. They have fought bitterly to make you a crown colony and they have succeeded without your knowledge or permission."

"My Father, I read that these two families have no wealth, save it be paper. But, Father, do they not own much of the world?"

"My Child, no one ever, ever, ever owns the world. Many stake a claim to part of the world and many build up great empires in this world; but My Little One, this is all illusion. And, since no one can own any part of this world, what is left for them, save paper?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Father, as we move on down, who is this black vulture?"

"The Devourer, the very destroyer I created, and he will destroy even those, who do his will. He will turn on them after they have served their purposes."

"Oh, my!"

"That's right, Oh, My! For, evil turns on itself until it is utterly consumed."

"So, Father, you burn down the castle?"

"Did I not toss a match into it? Did I not stamp My foot in the very midst and say, 'Enough is enough!'"

"Yes, my Father."

"Do you see the hill with charred bricks?"

"Yes, my Father, and surely this is equivalent to the Pentagon, which is a part of Capitol Hill."

"This is so."

"Then, my Father, this is what I wrote, for I saw this, 'The Rockefeller tree is burnt not even with the ground, but burnt into the ground, leaving a black hole where it once stood."

"Yes, my Child, this is what you wrote and this is evolving even now. As these three families are brought down, which will come to pass, you will see the Rockefellers beat the most severely and you will see this come to pass first. Even now, My very judgement is upon them and they are losing on many fronts."

"But, Father, is this tree not also akin to the trade tower, which was burned below the very ground?"

"This is the very tree."

"And, even the day after the devastation of these two towers, which is extremely symbolic of these two families, you read how the FED sent 50 billion dollars to Europe, which has been stolen from you, the taxpayers, but truly this is not even a drop in the bucket, compared to what they have stolen. So, My Little One, with the fall of the two towers, you see the beginning of the fall of these two trees, of the two financial empires. For, remember that their empires are based on paper."

"But, what about the Queen?'

"Does she not live in the same house? Is she not fed by the same spring? Does she not put out the same lies? After the burning of the towers, did England not rush forth to help the USA chase the imaginary windmills of the Ben Laden myth?

"Yes, my Father."

"And, do you not now hear more of Germany, with German warships near Somalia and German troops even in Somalia?"

"Yes, Father."

"My Little One, what is given herein relative to the two trees represents the burning of these two towers. Very soon, all three families shall suffer mightily. Their evil is coming into their very houses to roost."

"But, Father, why would they destroy these towers?"
"They do not know that they are fulfilling prophecy and they do not know that in so doing they have begun their own demise. For, by blowing up their own towers for a greater greed and for a greater illusion, they have ripped the very rug out from under themselves.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, Lucifer, the very one, whom they worship, is the Destroyer. He destroys beautifully and I created him for this very purpose. He will destroy the very ones he has used to climb to power."

"But, Father, why does the Rothschild tree remain and is about eighteen inches high?"

"Did one tower remain a little above the ground and the other was burned below the ground?"

"Yes, Father."

"Then, realize, My Child, that the Rockefellers have been burnt so badly, that they will soon fall. As you know from the prophecies, the Queen also falls to the wiles of the Rothschilds; but the Rothschilds will remain for a while yet, before they, too, will be destroyed. For, evil always implodes upon its very self. With this, My Child, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

"A mighty thunder, … A mighty fire …"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Do you feel My great power come forth as I speak to you today?"

"Yes, my Father. I hear such great power in Your spoken word! It seems that every word is a thunderous roar, which reverberates through the heavenlies! Oh, Father, even as I hear Your words, I am seeing a mighty fire rolling forth. This is a raging fire and it is consuming everything in its path."

"My Child, My words are truly as a mighty thunder and they roll forth as a mighty fire, consuming all opposition until My will is accomplished."

"Father, You always speak so softly to me, but if people could hear and see in this way, they would be so afraid."

"My Child, once I spoke this way to My Children and they were so afraid that they believed they would die from My power. But, there will come a time when, once more, you will see Me and hear Me with your physical eyes and ears. My Child, I am opening you up to the power of My word. The many explosions, which you are hearing, are the manifestations of My Spirit going forth and fulfilling My word. My Beloved Child, it is time that all cease to fear the devil and his antics; for I am the source of all power. Those, who do not respect Me and who do not have a healthy fear for this power may very well end up as prisoners to their own fear of the devil."

"Oh, my Father, this is a terrible vision, which I am now having. For, it is night and the sea is churning. The waves are as tall as skyscrapers and the Earth seems to be wobbling and going out of control."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, what you see in only a small fragment of the great earth changes, which are at hand. This is only the surface; for you are yet to plumb the depths of what is at hand."

"My Father, you have said that this is the last chapter of Book VII."

"I have said it and this is so, but in many ways, My Child, you will see Book VII as only a beginning. For, what is revealed herein is only a harbinger of what is to come. A great shaking, a great rattling, is upon the whole Earth. The sun will shine after the eclipses, which are at hand; but you must first go through the eclipses. Murder and mayhem, murder and mayhem, these are at the door of this world and a shaking so great that even the tried and true will be trembling from the trials. Yes, My Little One, this is the great sifting and the great falling away, which you know of, and it is at hand. Each of will either see My light and walk in My light, or you will walk in the darkness and perish therein. There is no in-between. The gap between the believers and the non-believers is as one huge abyss, and it is ever increasing. This is truly a time of the sorting of souls and the time wherein each of you needs to draw closer to Me and to My Son with ever-increasing tenacity.

"My Child, you are about to walk through a gate and into a fenced area."

"Yes, my Father, I see this gate. It looks to be a normal gate of metal, which is attached to a fence; but when I touch this gate, I know that it is not made of metal, but of your holy power. On touching the gate, I think to open it and I sense that I am passing through it, but feel as if I am truly soaring over it, leaping high into the air. This is such a beautiful experience; for Your holiness is all around. The beauty of Your light engulfs me and I feel as if I could fly."

"And, fly you will."

"Father, what do you mean?"

"My Precious Child, are you all not beings of spirit, limited by flesh, but nevertheless beings of spirit? And, as spirit are you not one with My Spirit, which knows no bounds?"
"Yes, my Father."

"Then, know My Child, and this is true for all of My Faithful, that as you progress spiritually in your faith, I shall begin to remove some of the restrictions of the physical, which you perceive as permanent and unconquerable."

"Father, what do you mean?"

"I mean that I am about to make it much easier for My Faithful to be translated to parts unknown to do My work and to free My people."

"Like the time You carried me into Chinese prison?"

"Exactly."

"But, Father, what does this gate and fence mean? I see that You have carried me to the other side of this radiant gate and fence, and I feel so buoyant and free."

"My Little One, it means that up until now, you have been shut out of the fullness of certain keys; but you are now given what you have been denied for some time."

"Father, please explain what you mean."

"My Child, do you remember how My servant Isaiah wrote that each of you must go line upon line and precept upon precept?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Well, My Little One, those of you, who have been faithful over many years in the work that I have given you, are about to progress very rapidly in these precepts. What has been denied you is being given you, here one or two, and there, three or four. But this is only so for the Faithful, for the Tried and True, for those, who have been Tested and found faithful. These are the ones, who are even now going through these gates and receiving what has been promised, but denied before now. For, now is the time that My Faithful are coming forth and they are receiving papers from Me and My Son, yea assignments, very specific assignments for greater work.

" My Child, I know you have concerns about translators for these works; but My promise to you is that these works will be translated into many languages and that those, who work to translate these works, will move up quickly in My works; for they, themselves, are providing keys to others, that they do not even realize. And, in turn, I am giving them keys, which they do not even realize and when they expect it least, but most importantly, when they need it the most, they will find that they have the keys to unlock what is needed in their lives. My Child, these are not idle words, but My sure promises for those, who help with these works, but most assuredly for all translators of these works. They will come forth and they will be blessed.

"In addition, My Child, as I have promised, I shall send you and Dennis around the world to administer My word. I shall bless you in great and mighty ways so that you are able to do this and so that you, in turn, are a great blessing to My Faithful. Having passed through the gate means that many great works are at hand for you and Dennis and I will continue to bless you with more of My word and more of My hidden truths. For, as you have been faithful in a little, I shall give you much."

"Oh, Father, I am so humbled. I do not have the words with which to thank you; for there seem to be none, which can parallel the deep gratitude in my heart toward You and toward our Beloved Jesus. You and our Beloved Jesus are beautiful beyond words and we are so blessed to be able to do a very small part of Your work.

"Oh, Father I hear and see explosions in the Spirit all around and I see something, which looks like a curse, which is being consumed by Your holy fires. Then, out of this burning fire comes a beautiful angel and she puts something around my neck, which looks like a sash, which is worn by priests and there is much engraving and written symbols, which I do not understand."

"Not now, but you will soon."

"Father, Oh, Beautiful Father, I am so humbled by Your love and feel so unworthy to receive these awesome blessings; for I feel like the least of the least."

"My Child, you are not unworthy; for if you were, you would not receive."

"Father, the great fireworks in the Spirit continue and I wish I understood more of this."

"What don't you understand?"

"I do not understand why this is so great at this very moment."

"My Child, these explosions are breaking the power of the evil ones, who are coming up against you in prayer. These explosions are bringing down evil, which has risen up against you. These explosions are destroying the work of the enemy, and you will continue to see great explosions in the Spirit for the rest of your earthly life. Explosions in the Spirit will take place wherever you go and many of these explosions will mean My instantaneous judgement, which is spoken out of your mouth."

"Oh, Father, this is so humbling and frightening. Your power is so awesome and I have such fear of You and Your works. Father, have mercy on us! I am so afraid!"

"My Child, do not fear; for the fires will not harm you. But, be comforted, My Child, for this is a demonstration of My love for you."

"Thank You, Precious and Beautiful Father, You, alone are Most High and You, alone are worthy of praise! Father, comfort all those, who love You, but most of all, comfort the lost! Minister to the hurting! Strengthen the weak, and heal the sick, the infirmed! Father, touch the hurting souls with the miraculous; for so many are suffering!"

"My Child, I know you heart and it is full of love for Me and for My Son. You are filled with love for your Brothers and Sisters and I am pleased in this. I will never forsake you and I will never forsake the lost and the rebellious; for I remember My covenant with your Father Abraham. But, out of love, I must chastise the rebellious, lest they be forever lost. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

END OF FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES BOOK SEVEN

CHAPTER ONE

"… the silence of My people is deafening."

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hearken unto Me, My Child, and write as I say that all may be the wiser. Be bold, My Child, and proclaim My word loudly; for the silence of My people is deafening. While evil churns ahead at full speed, My people, My Loved Ones sit blind, deaf and dumb all across America and around the world. Listen, My Child, hear the war drums. Hear the flutists, the pipers; for tunes, which are beautiful to the world, is being piped by the Satanists all around the world …'One people, one voice,' 'voluntary work programs,' 'Give up freedoms for security,' 'Martial law for your own protection.'

My Beloved Child, if one is not removed from the sources of mass mind control, with his or her eyes, ears and heart attuned to Me and to My Son through My Spirit, this one will be utterly deceived; for the antichrist agenda is smooth as glass. Many, many, many believe such lies as what I have just stated; for these lies are being piped to you. They are being delivered to you through sweet and powerful words and you, who are convinced that they are for your ultimate good, are being deceived entirely.

Just as the Romans partied on while Rome burned, you, around the world, are partying on as a civilization is destroyed before your very eyes. Oh, My Little One, how bereaved I am; for I am witnessing a mass slaughter, which is upon My people. Yes, My Child, gravely perilous times and great suffering is upon the whole world and none will escape the horrors, which are at hand. Do not be so naïve as to believe that it will not come to your state or to your home; for when you expect it least, violence will break out in your midst. People, innocent people around you, will be seized and carried away to parts unknown. In the darkness of night and even in the openness of day, innocents shall be seized, carried away and tortured, even unto death. Gruesome crimes against humanity are now commonplace in the USA and these gruesome crimes against humanity are carried out at the highest levels of this government.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

Yes, My Child, this is the Satanic agenda and many of these evil ones believe that they will get away with the round-up and persecution of My People; but little do the Satanists know or understand My miraculous hand. Little do they know or understand that My judgement is falling upon them as a boulder falls from outer space. I am going to utterly destroy their evil covers from East to West and from North to South all around the world. They do not know Me and they do not know My power; but they shall. For, I shall pit enemy against enemy and Satanist friend against Satanist friend. Through fire, lightening, storms, earthquakes and war, I shall destroy them and bury them, here a little and there a little. Oh, My fury upon them shall be felt as a mighty tidal wave of destruction as I pummel them as a giant pummels sandstone with his shoe. Oh, My judgement is upon them. For, I will bury them under heaps of rubble so high that even their memory will be blotted off the Earth, to be remembered no more.

Yes, My Child, the trains with the shackles are packed into the train yards and alongside the tracks all across America, all across Canada, all over Europe, China, Russia, Australia and even South America. The Chinese have been kept very busy preparing for your demise. My Child, the USA is already under martial law. Years of planning and much stealth and cunning by the Satanists, who are high in this government and in governments around the world, have orchestrated a plan for world martial law plan. They will make most of you see that the national ID cards and then the computer chip/mark are good for their own protection, yes mandatory for world peace; and My Beloved Child, the greatest numbers will do as they are told. The greatest numbers will not hesitate to take the national ID card and they will not hesitate to take the mark.

My Child, it is wisdom to read the signs, to know where you are headed. And, I tell you again that the New World Order plans are to round up dissidents and to begin filling box cars by March's end. Can you stop these plans? My Little One, the prayers of the righteous avail much. Be wise as serpents, yet truly gentle as doves. But, Beloved One, be wise. Be vigilant; for those, who do not watch where they are going are the ones, who stumble and fall. These are the ones, who tumble, when they expect it least. Yes, My Child, the masses are about to tumble. They are about to take a great fall. Just as I warned you in a message past that George W. Bush was about to tumble, to take a fall, know that he is not alone in this; for people the world over are about to tumble, to take a great fall."

"Oh, Father, I have one question. On or around the 17th of January, I read that George W. Bush took a fall in the White House. I saw photos of his face, which looked to be a black and blue mess. Is this the fall you spoke of? And, I also remember that you said that George W. Bush would take many falls before his demise."

"I said it and be advised, My Child, that this tumble, this fall in the White House, by George W. Bush, signals the beginning of the end for him as president."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"I mean that he has cut his own throat."

"What do you mean when you say, 'cut his own throat?'"

"My Child, see his very hand on the knife as he slices his own throat?"

"Father, I do but, I do not know what this means."

"My Child, what does Kellogg's mean to you?"

"When I hear this word, I think of breakfast cereal."

"Yes, My Child, this is so; but when you hear the words, 'assisted suicide,' what do you think of?"

"Jack Kevorkian."

"Yes, but what more?"

"Terminal disease."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, but what more?"

"Oh, Father, what comes to mind are some of the so-called hit-men suicides, murders actually, but listed as suicides."

"This is so, My Child, these 'assisted suicides, or murders, made to look like suicides are rampant."

"So, Father, You are saying that Bush is in danger of being suicided by forces, which oppose him?"

"I never said that they oppose him."

"Well, if they do not oppose him, then they are from within his own camp."

"You have concluded correctly."

"But, why would they do such a thing?"

"To string a ham."

"Father, what do You mean when you say, 'String a ham?'"

"My Child, have you see a ham wrapped in string and bound for preservation?"

"I have seen hams bound tightly in cloth wrapping for preservation. Is this what you mean?"

"Now, you are getting the picture."

"But, Father, what picture?"

"How Bush's evil cohorts plan to do away with him."

"But, you are speaking of cohorts and not enemies?"

"Oh, he sees them as friends, but this could hardly be further from the truth."

"But, Father, back to the ham and the string. What does this mean exactly?"

"My Child, go to the side of the ham and on it you will see a small door. Open this door and look in. What do you see?"

"Oh, Father, it is dark and cavernous in there and there, and I see George Bush, who sits, bound and gagged. I see Vice President Cheney and he has in his hand a goblet, which is labeled, 'poisonous potion.' He whacks Bush across the face and says, 'Drink, for your days are numbered and this will ease your pain.' Then, he rips the gag off Bush's mouth and forces him to drink. Suddenly, I see an evil witch and beneath this black attire, I see Hillary Rhodam Clinton. 'Double, double, toil and trouble, ' she says 'for destiny is mine.' Then, she lets out a foul laugh and disappears into smoke. Oh, Father, I do not like this evil! Tell me, what does this mean?"

"My Child, it means that Bush is gagged and bound by the New World Order. He is being poisoned by the very one, who should support him."

"But, Father, why?"

"My Child, why do you suppose that Hillary is in this picture?"

"Because she plans to be the front president for Bill Clinton."

"Oh, this and more."

"But, why would they want to get rid of Bush?"

"My Child, it is all about power and greed, power and greed. And, realize, My Child, that I have warned George W. Bush of his demise if he will not live righteously. He does not realize that My Son and I are all that He has; for even now his friends in high places are plotting his demise."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"So, Father, what happened when President Bush fell in the White House?"

"As I said, My Child, this fall is the beginning of the end for George W. Bush. He survived this attack on his life this time, but may not the next."

"So, the story about the pretzel is garbage?"

"Straight from the sewer."

"So, what really happened?"

"An attempt on his life by his own friends in high places. My Child, the evil of this Bush family is coming home to roost. They will not be able to escape the effects of their evil acts and the Evil One cannot and will not save them. My Child, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWO

"The Secret Agenda and massive Earth changes"

Dearest Ones, as I prayed early in the morning, just before our Father in Heaven gave me the following prophecy, He had me read Jeremiah Chapter twenty. I read this chapter with diligence, wondering what He would say that would relate to this word. Therefore, I am reprinting this chapter, that you, too, may read it and better understand why our Father gave the first of the following prophecies.

Jeremiah, Ch20

Now, Pashur the son of Immur the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the Lord, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gates of Benjamin, which was by the house of the Lord.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The Lord hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor-missa-bib.

For, thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

Moreover, I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labors thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou has prophesied lies.

O, Lord, Thou has deceived me and I was deceived: Thou are stronger than I, and has prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the Lord was made a reproach unto me, and a derision daily.

Then I said, I will not make mention of His name. But His word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with the forbearing, and I could not stay.

For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

But the Lord is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

But, O Lord of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see Thy vengeance on them: for unto Thee have I opened my cause.

Sing unto the Lord, praise ye the Lord: for He hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my Mother bare me be blessed.

Cursed be the man, who brought tidings to my Father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

And let that man be as the cities which the Lord overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;

Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

Message from our Father in Heaven

"Grave warnings …"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Little One, for the night of the age is moving in. Look out your window and see through My Spirit. See, My Child, that there is little light. For, is it not as the sun has gone down completely, now past dusk, with night falling and darkness abound and complete, save a little light?"

"Yes, My Father; and as I look out, I see dark shadows of men, of soldiers, and they are hiding behind trees and buildings. As they run to and fro, watching this house, I hear the jangle of coins in their pockets and hear the clanking of handcuffs on chains. Oh, Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, it means that you have enemies in high places, who have ordered your arrest and execution; but I tell you, Child, they do not understand Me. They do not understand My power and they do not understand what is meant by, 'Touch not Mine Anointed.' Those, who watch you, who spy on you, who lay traps in wait for you, shall fall to their own traps. They shall fall into the very pits they dig for you. From the tallest trees they will hang and vultures shall eat their flesh. Those, who have set out to tamper with or destroy these works through My site, shall feel the raging fires of My anger. They shall know My wrath and My fury; for I am extending My hand among them and I will break them as matchsticks, one by one. I shall send judgement into their midst and a great howling shall go up. Fame and fortune will not save them for they are marked for the burning lake of fire. I tell you, My Child, those, who come up against you to do you harm, come up against Me. I shall smash them beneath My feet as a giant smashes an ant; for their evil and dark agendas are but a hiss in the wind. They will not succeed in their attempts to kill you and to take you captive; for you shall see 1, 000 fall at your right hand and 10,000 fall at your left; but My Little One, you shall not raise a finger. Yes, I know the plots and I know the schemes; but when they show up, death shall hit their camp as swiftly as a falling asteroid. A mighty thunder and a mighty roar will come up against them from My throne and I will utterly consume them. The best-laid plans of men and fools are but a wisp in the wind when they come up against Me and Mine."

"My Little One, hear this and let it be known. I am against the New World Order mayor of North Little Rock and though I have handpicked the governor of this state, I did not pick him to be a New World Order pawn. I did not call him to be blind and deaf to the agenda of the party elite. I called him to serve Me in truth, honor and spirit; but he has turned a blind eye and has arbitrated My word until he is milquetoast in the hands of the New World Order Satanists. I am speaking to this man, I am speaking to his family and I say, 'Remember your roots. Remember from whence your blessings come; for you have enemies in high places and a lieutenant governor, who aspires to sit in your very seat and he will, save you humble yourself before Me, clean up your life, put God back into Arkansas and make your way straight and holy. Let it be known that I have not called you at this final hour to be a wimp and a coward. I have called you to stand for what is right and true. I have made you beacon unto My people that you speak what is true and right and according to My word; but you have arbitrated with the Satanists, the very ones, who will not hesitate to snuff out your life in a grab for power. This is My warning to you. Let it be heard and let it be received; for Arkansas will soon receive a shaking so great that even the faithful, even the good-hearted, will be tried and tested to the core. Therefore, be warned."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 20th day of February, 2002,

Linda Newkirk

The following morning after the above message was given I went to Drudge Report on the internet to read what was posted and lo and behold, there was the FBI wagging their propaganda machine about a "non-specific" plot to commit terror against the Liberty Bell. Obviously, they could not divulge their top-secret source of information, but had sent soldiers to guard the Liberty Bell. Folks, this is bordering on the absolutely absurd! In a message past, as some of you may remember, our Father in Heaven said that he was going to tear up the Liberty Bell. But, as our Father in Heaven speaks in parables and in obscure symbols, one can never make an assumption that they understand what He means. These terrorists at the FBI have taken our Father's words literally, and have used His words as just one more excuse to dispense with more terror, more restrictions upon the American people. Furthermore, they have accused our Father in Heaven of issuing a "non-specific terrorist threat." They are scrambling for these "terrorist threats" at every turn, especially among God's people, so that they can label God's true prophets as terrorists. Woe to the liars, the thieves and the manipulators in these dark and secret organizations!

Second Message from our Father in Heaven

"The Earth is going to rock and sway ..."

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hearken unto Me, My Child, and write as I say; for My judgement is falling of Washington DC. My judgement is falling on the White House. My judgement is falling on the Senate of the USA and My judgement is falling on Pennsylvania."

"Oh, Father, I dread to see what you are going to do to these evil and rebellious Satanists in high places. Would that they humble themselves before You and repent! But, the wicked just get more wicked."

"My Little One, these, who call black white and white black, are pawns of the devil; but I tell you, My Child it is time for the pawns to know that there is a God, and this God of All Creation is not Lucifer. My Child, I am going to shake up these Satanists and churn their dark agenda with such fury that many shall run to and fro and cry, 'What shall we do? What shall we do?' They shall scramble for damage control with so much egg on their faces, that they will need a shovel to scoop it off. My Child, the best-laid plans of the evil ones are only fodder for My cannon."

"My Father, I see them scramble, like so many mice."

"And, scramble, they shall; for they think to mock Me. They think to call you a terrorist and to arrest you. But, I say, 'Woe to the New World Order whores! You are but bait for the fiery furnace.'"

"Father, why do you call them bait?"

"My Child, can a train run backwards?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, know, My Child, that these dark and evil execution trains are going to run backwards and they are going to be filled up with the Washington crowd. They are going to be filled up with the members of the secret government groups, such as the FBI, the CIA, and the NSA. I tell you, My Child, I am against these evil organizations and I shall tear them down. Then, I shall scatter them and make null and void their covenants of death against My people. I am going to make an example out of the FBI. When they expect it least, I shall utterly consume them. I shall tear down their buildings in high places and I shall dismantle their power structure. Like dogs chasing their tails, they run to and fro, spying on all of you, gathering information for the elite and planning your arrests and your demises. But, I say to the FBI, 'I, the Most High, the only God, speak your very demise. Those of you, who are the hunters shall become the hunted. Those of you, who persecute innocent people, shall be persecuted. In short season, these death camps and the gassing trains will be overflowing with you and with your dead corpses. Is say, 'Enough is enough!' You run to hide your mountains of illegal activities beneath mountains of law enforcement and guns, stealth and cunning; but all the manpower in the world will not save you and it will not save this rotten-to-the-core organization, which is no more or no less that an organized crime syndicate.

You are no different than the Mafia, or the drug runners in the streets; for you peddle terror against an innocent people.'"

"My Child, hear the windchimes as they blow in the wind?"

"Yes, my Father."

"My Little One, what do you see now?"

"Father, I see a mighty wind and a mighty storm, which is so violent, that it wrenches the windchimes off the tree. Then, I see a blackbooted thug stomp the windchimes."

"Well, know this, My Child, just as the blackbooted thug has stomped the windchimes into the dirt, I shall stomp the blackbooted thugs into the dirt."

"Father, why did You give me this vision?"

"My Child, what are windchimes to you?"

"They are creations of man, which make beautiful sounds when stroked by the wind."

"So, now you understand."

"My Father, I get some understanding, but not all."

"My Child, the windchimes are made of pipes. These pipes, without the wind, make no sound."

"Yes, my Father, I see."

"My Little One, I liken these pipes unto My prophets. For, when they are stroked by My wind, they make beautiful sounds, though truly many may not like these sounds."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, my Father, I understand."

"But, in the vision a violent storm came, a violent wind, and it blew the windchimes down."

"And, as you could see, My Child, from the vision, when the violent storm came it was almost night."

"And when it is fully night, no man can work."

"Exactly."

"But, what does the storm mean and why were the windchimes blown down?"

"My Little One, I am sending this violent storm upon the whole Earth and I am going to disrupt the whole Earth."

"But, what is meant when the prophets fall and are squashed by the blackbooted thugs?"

"My Little One, My prophets shall soon be murdered by the Gestapo, which is now running this land."

"But, this will take place after you send the violent storm?"

"This is so."

"But, Father, the violent storm comes at a late hour, as night is falling."

"This is correct."

"So, this means that this violent storm is at hand."

"You have guessed correctly."

"But, what is this storm?"

"A geomagnetic disturbance, which will cause the Earth to rock and sway. As the Earth rocks and sways, it will cause great storms and great lightening; and mighty earthquakes shall ensue with a string of volcanoes erupting at nearly the same time."

"How soon, Father?"

"My Child, I will give you a range. I say to you, within three months, but this may be extended to six months, or even a little longer, depending on the repentance of My people. But, even so, it will not be stayed; only limited by the prayers of the Righteous."

"But, Father,You said that this will happen anyway."

"This is so. My Little One, this is long overdue; for did you not see in visions this very thing taking place many months past? But, it did not come to pass then; for I am a merciful God.

"Yes, my Father, I saw this and I also saw the New Madrid fault go off and that date passed also."

"My Child, that date passed; for I have withheld My judgement until now."

"Oh, Father, this means that the New Madrid fault will go when this terrible shaking comes?"

"It does."

"With great destruction?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Like a mighty tidal wave of moving Earth and rock, which will extend North to Northeast, South to Southeast, West to Northwest. The damage from this quake shall be much worse that the damage the last time it occurred."

"So, Father, the California fault will go."

"It will and quakes into Washington State, Oregon, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, New Mexico, Texas and even Oklahoma will shake, as this quake pushes into Canada."
"Father, is this geomagnetic disturbance a pole shift?"

"It is."

"But, how long will this go on?"

"The actual event will be quick, but the results of the event, the shaking and the volcanic activity will go on for many, many months, even years. For, these faults will become very unstable and susceptible to movement for quite some time."

"How long?"

"Ten to twenty years, or more."

"Father, before this hits, will you give more warning?"

"I have and I will; for did I not give warning of a shaking to begin before March's end?"

"Yes, Father. When this great skaking takes pace, how bad will the storms be?"

"Great tidal waves will inundate coastal cities worldwide. Many rivers will run backwards and some will be clean displaced from their beds. Mountains will fall and land masses will rise out of the sea."

"Oh, Father, I feel so ill; for many, many shall perish!"

"It is at the door. I am taking down this evil system, bit by bit. I warn each of you to get your hearts right with me; for millions upon millions worldwide shall perish!"

"Father, I know whole cities will be destroyed, never to be seen again."

"And, so with many underground bases. For, in their cleverness, they have thought to outsmart Me; but they are utter fools. I shall bury many of them and their stealth and evil shall be removed from the Earth. Buried beneath mountains of stone, it will be no more."

"Father, when this comes to Arkansas, what will happen here? Will the Arkansas River change its course?"

"Yes, My Child, for the shaking and churning of the Earth will cause this to be so. It will be moved clean off its bed."

"Oh, Father, my heart mourns; for many will die."

"This is so and I am not pleased to do this; but as I say, My Little One, this evil system is coming down!"

"After this shaking, the jackbooted thugs will kill many prophets, but why?"

"The trying and testing of the saints and prophets. Many of Mine are coming home; but a remnant will not and neither will they ever want."

"Oh, Father, I am full of pain and sorrow. I feel utterly sick inside from all this, like the wind has been taken out of my sails."

"My Child, the wind of My Spirit is upon you and it is My promise to you that you shall never perish beneath the feet of the jackbooted thugs; for you have published My word in a faithful manner. You have loudly spoken the truth; but I warn all to make copies of everything on this site and to take these messages and books, just as they are written, and to post them on other sites around the world. I will mightily bless those, who do this. My hand of protection shall be upon them and I will provide for them in the most unusual ways. This is My solemn promise."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Father, what will Your people do?"

"They are about to be tried and tested in the most severe ways."

"After this devastation, the execution trains will take off full speed ahead?"

"This is so."

"And, they will kill millions?"

"Those, who can be found, who are on their lists, will be imprisoned falsely and killed."

"But, some are being taken even now?"

"This is true."

"Father, how many will die in the USA?"

"Millions."

"And, the Satanists know this is at hand?"

"A few do."

"But, Father, oh, how my heart weeps for the lost!"

"My Child, I know your sorrow; but this judgement must come to pass. Add this to the message from yesterday to make Chapter Two of Book Eight. I am Jehovah, Most High God. Go this day in peace."

CHAPTER THREE

"The Assignment"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Little One, and write as I say that My Loved Ones may receive, repent and live for Me. For, just as surely as the sun rises and sets My word, My truths, My Messages shall not fail you. For, those, who hear and obey shall know and experience My miraculous hand in their lives. My Little One, as you look around, you see many, who are wounded by the trials and tribulations of life. You see the barrenness and the nakedness in their eyes; for they have forsaken Me. They have gone whoring after the world and because of their rebellion they have been cut off from Me. Hearken unto Me, My Child, fine tune your ears to Me; for a great awakening is at hand; but there shall be no great awakening, save it is preceded by some grave tragedy. Herein, My Child, I shall begin a series of revelations for My people; for many perish for want of truth. My Little One, I know that you are well aware of My words in the last chapter of Book VII; for therein, My Child, I told you that I would be giving you an assignment. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Father."

"And, as I am true to My word, I have carried you into the heavenlies, where you have sat before My Elders and you have been instructed as to this assignment."

"Yes, my Father, this has happened."

"And, My Child, as this is Spirit to spirit, much has been withheld from your consciousness until this time; for as you know by now, there is a time for all things."

"Yes, my Father, I know this."

"And, My Child, you and your husband have also undergone many changes."

"Yes, Father, this is so."

"But, now, My Child, you have the book in your arms, which bears this assignment."

"Yes, my Father."

"And, as I have shown you, this assignment is divided into fifteen parts. Today, I shall give you Part One."

"My Father, even though I have this assignment, this book, which is in my arms is sealed."

"Yes, My Child, it has been sealed unto Me and sealed away from all until this time. Blow upon this book, which is in your hands and you will see that the breath of My Spirit will unseal this book and bring these words to a birth among My people.

"My Father, this book is in my lap and as I blow upon it, I see a fire fall upon this book and the seal is totally destroyed. Now, I am able to open the book and I open it to Part One. This page is called, "Darkness Upon the Earth," and even as I say these words I see a candle, which is all but burnt out. The wax is overflowing and the wick is almost out. There is only a dull flickering light."

"My Child, what do you believe this to mean?"

"My Father, I believe that this relates to the time that we all have left. We will either choose Your light and receive life or we will choose the light of the world, which is the candle, and we shall perish."

"My Little One, you have spoken truth."

"My Father, how is it that I know this, save it comes as a memory from what the Elders taught me?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Little One, as My Spirit reveals anew to you what is herein, you will often simultaneously recall through My Spirit, what has already been shown you."

"Oh, Father, you are so beautiful and I thank you. And, I thank the Precious Elders, who sit before Your throne; for they are my friends."

"My Beloved, I cherish you and I shall never forsake you. Stay close, My Child, for My truths are coming forth through this unsealed book. Now, My Child, let us go back to the title of this chapter, "Darkness upon the Earth," What you have spoken is true, but let us review #1 beneath the title. What do you see therein?"

"My Father, I see this: 1. 'River of Light or River of darkness and death.'"

"Yes, My Little One, this is where each of you is. You will either choose My way and live a life of obedience toward Me, which is filled with love for Me and My Son, love for your fellow man and love for self, or you will choose rebellion and you will find yourselves in the River of death, darkness and destruction. This is your choice and this is where you are. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, the world is overflowing with the rebellious and with the lukewarm, with the fencesitters. I tell you now that such great calamities are coming upon the world that soon there will be no fence sitters. There will be no lukewarm; for the fencesitters will be violently thrown to one side or to the other. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, my Child, read item #2.

"Father, it reads: 2. 'No sooner said than done.' Father, please elaborate as I cannot see what is written below."

"Yes, My Child, you can."

"My Father, I see the words coming into full view and this is what is written: 'You are entering into a space of immediate blessings and immediate punishments. For just as soon as rebellion enters into your lives, you will see immediate punishments. And, just as surely as you obey Me and live faithfully and according to My dictates, you will quickly see My rewards, My great blessings and miracles in your lives. For, the great repercussions of your behaviors, be them good or bad, will now come back and strike you like a rubber band, like a snare, or they will return to you like a showering light of blessings. When all seems to be going wrong in your lives, look to self. Analyze your own behavior and repent. Come full circle back to Me and you will see your lives turn around. This is called Divine Retribution and at this space in time, you will see that it is immediate.'"

"Yes, My Child, many will be asking why their lives are suddenly falling apart; but they only need to look within. On the other hand, many will know awesome miracles in their lives from moment to moment and from day to day. I tell you, My Child, each of you, who wants eternal life, will shape up and live according to My laws, or you will perish in your rebellion. Many of the rebellious will lose all they have overnight and they will end up in the streets with nothing. Many will whine and say, 'Why me?' But, they only need to look to themselves. These grave conditions will cause many to re-think their lives, to re-think their positions with Me and many will acknowledge their wrongs, repent and turn the course of their lives around. I tell you, Child, that many will bemoan their fates, but these very ones can and will be saved destruction if they will humble themselves before Me and live righteously. Now, Child, read #3."

"My Father, this is what I see: 3. 'Heartaches and the Sonshine.'"

"Continue on."

"My Father, I see a brilliant light, which is bright like the sun and stepping from within this light is our Precious Jesus. He is weeping and the sight of tears streaming down his precious face makes me so sad." Our Lord Jesus comes to me and places a necklace of pearls around my neck and suddenly each pearl turns into a blazing white light, until this is no longer a necklace, but a white holy fire anointing, which fills and surrounds me, creating a great sense of buoyancy within."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, read what is written."

"Yes, my Father. This is what I see. 'Keep the praises of the Most High on your lips. Keep a song of joy in your hearts; for so long as you stand in the light of God, destruction shall not come near you.' Then, our Lord Jesus gets on his knees before me and he takes a thread from his mouth and as he touches this tread to the cover of this book, it weaves and laces itself through every page. He then kisses me on the cheek and breathes upon me with the Spirit of God and says, 'Go with Life!' Then, he disappears into this beautiful light and is gone as in the twinkling of an eye."

"Oh, my Father, I am so humbled and feel so unworthy of such blessings and love. Deep gratitude fills me soul!"

"My Little One, this is the anointing, which I showed you about one month past. At that time, I told you that it was coming."

"Yes, my Father, You did and I feel so unworthy to receive such blessings."

'My Little One, were you not worthy, you would not be given this mighty blessing."

"Oh, my Father, how my heart aches for the lost. How it aches because of the perilousness of these times! Beautiful Father, have mercy on our souls!"

"My Child, I am full of love and mercy; but for the sake of My Loved Ones, I must judge the hearts of all. Yea, My Child, great trials and hardships are upon the world and in the coming pages, we shall learn much of what is at hand. But, for now, let us proceed to #4.."

"My Father, I read: 4. 'Glad tidings for the righteous.' And, as I continue on, this is what I see. 'My promise to My Faithful is this: I am breaking and destroying this evil system. Piece by piece, it is falling until it is utterly devastated; but I shall preserve the righteous. I shall keep the pure of heart and they shall not want. But, alas, many believe their hearts are pure when they are full of self. They are full of rebellion. Save they repent, they shall perish!."

"Yes, My Child, these words are correct. Great darkness is upon this planet and when we go back to the candle, we see, My Child, that this is the light of the worldly. This is what they possess and save they repent and come full circle back to Me, this flickering light within them shall be extinguished and they shall be turned over to the darkness of this evil and dark world system. So, My Child, with this bit of information, we shall stop for now, although this is not the end of Book Eight, Chapter Three; for more is coming, but as you tire, we shall stop for now; for this is a lengthy chapter. Be blessed, My Little One, for a great work for the benefit of My Loved Ones is being given herein. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER THREE … cont'd

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto me, My Child, and write as I say; for the whole world is on the precipice of great chaos; and for want of truth, the people perish. My Child, behold Israel and behold the dragon, which is poised to consume the remnant of My people. And, behold My mighty angel, even Archangel Michael, who is poised with the bow and the arrow, which will soon pierce and wound the dragon. For, have I not said that all, who come up against Jerusalem shall be troubled. They shall be wounded and they shall fall. Yea, even at this time, My Child, the Mideast is a boiling pot. It is not a steaming pot; but one, which is boiling over. It is hot and the flaming fires of hate and malice are enflaming these troubled waters. These waters are overflowing and they shall burn the whole world. It say to Mine, 'Draw close to Me; for family members are being pitted against family. Friend against friend and foe against foe.' This great boiling, which is upon the Earth is a great cleansing of My people. I say to you, My Child, how many are ready? How many are prepared to deal with this boiling pot? The world over, false prophets are sounding the prosperity bell. They are sounding the bell of peace. They are praising an errant president and believing his lies. My Little One, those, who espouse that good is evil and evil is good are NOT MINE."

"Oh, Father, I have read what some prophets are saying about George W. Bush. Some say, 'Pray for him, for God to bless him and I have heard others say, 'Do not criticize him.' Father, I do not understand this; for some of these seem to be your prophets."

"My Little One, if a prophet will not come out of the world and give up its illusions, this prophet will be deceived. How many times have I warned my people to give up the mind control press?"

"Many times."

"Know this, My Child. One cannot be fed by Me and by a Satanic press at the same time. For, so long as one chooses to be fed by this stream of evil, I will not feed him and if I do, it will be piecemeal; for I will retain My fullness and will not dispense it to the one, who will not obey. How many times have prophets said to you, 'Well, God did not tell me not to watch television,' yet if they truly sought Me in this, I would tell them. I say to you, My Child, television is a gross addiction. It is a source of foul spiritual pollution, which is governed by the antichrist whores and it shall only become darker. Those, who are among My prophets, who will not give it up, will find themselves increasingly deceived by it, and they will find themselves on the short end of the spiritual stick."

"So, some of these, who say that Bush is a brother and do not speak the truth of his evil ways are your true prophets?"

"Some are. They have been called by Me; yet they have blinded themselves. I tell you now, George W. Bush is no brother to the true saints. He is no brother to the true followers of Me and My Son; for he serves Lucifer. And, because he serves Lucifer, I ask you, 'How does he do My will?' My Child, I tell you that I am saddened to see this winnowing out among My prophets; but if they cannot see the great darkness of this man, who is full of lies and deceit, how can they correctly see the great darkness in anyone, or the great darkness, which is upon the face of this planet? Yes, My Child, a great winnowing is taking place among My prophets. Many will either open their eyes and speak the truth about evil, or they shall steadily lose ground spiritually until they are cut off from My Spirit. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, My Child, let us go back to the last message, which contains information from your assignment. I told you that we would finish Part I at this sitting."

"Yes, Father, you did."

"Therefore, My Child, as you have this unsealed book in your lap, go to #5 of Part I and reveal what is given to you."

"My Father, I see that I am at a radiant spiritual door and I am knocking on this door." As I knock, the door opens and I enter a beautifully radiant room, where I see the seven Elders, from your throne and I also see Moses. Moses motions for me to take a seat at a desk and he points to #5 in the book, which is on top of the small desk. As the words on the page are well-illumined, I have no trouble discerning them. These are the words before me. 5. 'A purloined letter.' Other words follow, but just as I am about to read them, our Lord Jesus appears. He kneels beside me and he points to the words on the page and as he points to these words, his eyes fill with tears and he begins to weep. As I look upon his precious face and see tears streaming down his cheeks, I, too, feel so overcome with sadness that I break down sobbing. A deep sadness grips my soul and I cannot stop my tears from falling onto the page of this book. Even as I strain to see what is written, I cannot, for I am consumed with great sadness. "Oh, my Father, I must pause for a moment; for I cannot see what is written." Then, our Lord Jesus looks up at me; for he is on his knees beside me with his hands on this page, and he says, "My tears for Israel." As I wipe my tears away, I see that the page before me is stained with tears and I am struggling to clearly see the words. Even as I look at them, I know that they are from our Lord Jesus and they are meant for Israel. Slowly, the words begin to take form and I am able to discern them, one by one; and this is what I see: "Dearly Beloved, I have longed for you with the desperation of a stranded child, longing for its Mother. I have wept for you with an intensity of a dying man, who is departing His Beloved. I have longed to sit with you, to cuddle you, to be near you and to hold and cherish you; but you would not. Now, My Beloved, a great error is upon you. A madness is gripping you; for Satan is stirring you up. He is whipping you into a frenzy for blood, guts and gore. My Beloved, Oh, My Beloved, war, grievous war is at your door! It is a slight of hand of the enemy and you will see it, but not in time to avoid what is at your door. Because you will not see Me, because you will not hear My knock on the doors of your hearts, you will see and hear the knock of Satan through the antichrist machine. You will see and you will hear; but it will be too late for many of you. When you least expect it, a grievous fire, a grievous thunder will rip this land. It will consume you with anger and it will ignite your passions for war; but know in advance, Beloved, It is a slight of hand from those you trust. Come, Little Ones, come to Me; for with outstretched hands and with a great brokenness of heart, I plead with you. Come, My Little Ones, and I shall refresh you. I shall mend your broken hearts and I shall give you a peace, which surpasses all understanding." Then, our Beloved Jesus rises and kisses me on the cheek and he says, "Go with My love, Child, for death is upon the land. Death, great death is upon this world. For, the arrow of war has been sent and you will see this war escalate on many fronts." Suddenly, our Lord Jesus is gone. The Elders are gone. Moses is gone; and I am back in out house, writing this message.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Oh, Father, Precious Father in Heaven, I am so grieved. How can one not be grieved when we see what is unfolding?"

"My Child, soon the whole world will grieve; for a world war shall soon course this planet."

"My Father, you know that I have been troubled about many things, but especially about the approaching of this rogue planet, this so-called brown dwarf star. In years past, I have seen it come this way, but the date of this has passed."

"And, so have other dates passed; and with reason; for as I have shown you before, I have given you, as a people, as a planet, a little more time."

"So, Father, you have set back the time a little and it has even altered the timing of the passage of this planet?"

"Am I not able to change time? Did I not create it?"

"Yes, Father."

"Then, know this, My Child, that this planet is bearing down on this solar system. Yes, it is a small star and it is returning and when it does it will flip the Earth."

"But, Father, how long do we have?"

"My Child, know this. What you have read about increased earthquake activity being due to the return of this planet is true. Its passage will also cause the Earth to stand still. Have you not read of this?"

"Yes, Father, I have read of such a thing in the Bible."

"Then, know, My Child, that the time of the passing of this planet is close and I will give you more information about its passage as it gets nearer; but realize, My Child, that you do not have many months."

"How long, Father?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, when Mount Vesuvius erupts in a mighty way, know that it is at hand."

":Father, I have so much to ask about this planet."

"Yes, My Child, and I will give you more information soon. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

Addendum to #5 … A Purloined Letter

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. You come with a question as to why the letter from My Son to Israel, the House of Judah, is called a 'purloined letter.' My Child, you know that purloined means 'stolen.'

"Yes, my Father."

"And, you do not understand why I would choose this word to apply to this letter."

"This is correct."

"My Child, what do you see before you?"

"My Father, I see the rear end of a spotted cow and this spotted cow defecates in a pasture. Out of this pile of manure emerges a fat, black snake and this snake sings beautiful songs of changing melodies. This snake turns into a prince charming, who looks like an Arab, then into a business man, who is dressed in a business suit, and even into a Jew, who is wearing a skullcap."

"You have seen it.

"And, Father, this 'it' is the Antichrist?"

"This is so, My Child. He will appear to be everything to all."

"But, why does he emerge out of manure?"

"My Child, what is manure?"

"It is waste. Garbage."

"Yes, but what more?"

"My Father, I do not know.

"Does it not consist of digested and undigested food?"

"Yes, my Father."

"But, I do not understand why you are asking me this?"

"My Child, what is 2+2?"

"Four."

"And a cow is said to have four stomachs?"

"I have heard it, but do not know if it is true."

"But, it is said and you have heard this?"

"Yes, my Father."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Then, know, My Child, that whether a cow has four or twelve stomachs, it will never be able to digest what is at hand."

"My Father, what do you mean and why did you pick a spotted cow to show me this?"

"My Child, the spotted cow is but one representation of the antichrist machine. It is a living machine with many stomachs; yet is spotted; for it is a crossbreed."

"Father, what do You mean by 'many stomachs;' and why do you say that it is a 'crossbreed?'"

"My Child, the antichrist machine is constantly churning out digested information to the people. This information, to be digested, must pass through many stomachs, or sources, so that it is always masticated and digested before it reaches the people. This machine is a crossbreed because it incorporates all people the world over and it is polluted with much crossbreeding. And, through much digestion, whatever comes out of this machine is feces. It is manure. It is digested and/or partially digested for consumption by the masses. So, My Little One, this is the New World Order diet for all and out of these feces, the Antichrist emerges. Yes, he will come forth as Jew. Yes, he will come as a German. Yes, he will appear to be an Arab, yet he is none of this. He is a renegade, a crossbreed, a spotted cow; and he will emerge out of what?"

"Waste?"

"Yes, My Child, out of waste and destruction."

"My Father, what does this have to do with the 'purloined letter?'"

"My Child, purloined means stolen, or even fabricated, as in replicated."

"Yes, my Father."

"Well, know this, My Child, the Jews will be deceived by this man. Not all, but most. This evil man, this antichrist will speak and write these very words, which are within this letter, almost verbatim, to the House of Judah; and most will believe. They will be utterly deceived into believing that he is the Messiah. My Son, they will not accept, but this imposter they will believe. This is why this letter is called 'purloined,' or stolen; for the Antichrist will steal these very words. He will steal this very letter and he will deceive the House of Judah, and very much like the Pied Piper, he will lead many to slaughter. With this, My Child, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yet Jehovah, Most High God."

"Thank Your, Father."

CHAPTER FOUR

"Words are only Words."

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Little One, and record as given this day, that My people may be the wiser. For, a great peril is upon the lands the world over, and this great peril is of a much greater magnitude than many of you believe. My Child, where trouble brews, there shall be a greater trouble and where people slumber, there shall be a deeper slumber. Where soldiers gather to make war, there shall be a greater war. The whole Earth is in a state of turmoil and what is shall be intensified. Those, who love Me and serve Me in truth, honor and Spirit, shall have a greater peace and a greater hope, even as they see the world falling around them; for My Spirit shall imbue Mine and shall empower Mine in a greater measure. My Little One, this greater presence of My Spirit within My Beloved is cleaning out the dross. It is cleaning out the sickness. It is cleaning out areas of dis-ease as it washes and scrubs each of you. Slowly, and at times quickly, I am changing Mine, changing My Faithful and changing the Pure of Heart into an immortal state. I am getting you ready for the return of My Son, wherein you will not taste death, but shall be changed from mortal to immortal in the twinkling of an eye.

Oh, how I am grieved to see so many lost in the quicksands of the world, lost in the quagmires, fooled by the gingerbread houses of Lucifer and tricked into the fires of hell for your foolishness. Yes, My Child, I say to all Mine, 'Remember the wise virgins! For, they slept not and when the groom came, they were prepared.' Let all be as the wise virgins. Keep your hearts full of love and forgiveness for all. Seek My will in all things and honor Me by obeying Me. If you will not live a life of truth and purity daily, My Son may come when you expect it least. For, this reason, I warn you to read and study My word, to observe My laws and to obey me. Repent daily and all through the day and forgive all that you carry no dark burdens within your souls. Love Me above all. Love and cherish My Son; for through Him comes your salvation, and love others, even as you love yourselves, knowing that each of you is created by Me and is created to bear My Spirit. Insomuch as many are lost; for they, in their rebellion, have chased out

My Spirit, is even more reason to love them. For, through your love, my love within you, many will return to Me and back to this source of heavenly love. My Little Ones, be an example of love and forgiveness; for love heals all."

"Now, My Child, we shall continue with this assignment, which has been given to you by My Spirit, through My Son, through Moses and through Seven of the Elders, who sit before My throne. As we have concluded Part I, we shall move on to Part II. My Child, as you sit and write, you see the unsealed book in your lap. Before you is Section II. Open the first page under section II and proceed to write as seen and given."

"My Father, I turn this page, which I notice to be a very thick page, and on the very first page of Section II, I read: 'Words are only Words." This is in large print and underneath are the following words in smaller print: 'Unless quickened by the Spirit. Look, listen and behold these words; for herein is your freedom.' Then, I read, 'Go to a column of light.' Suddenly, I am moved away from this book and away from this house, caught up in the Spirit of God, and I find myself standing on a beautiful and grassy hillside. However, the grass is not green, but is made of pure, beautiful, golden-white light; and all around me is this beautiful light. Once more, I stand before the door, and as I knock I recognize it as the very same radiant door I entered last time; for this is the interdimensional door, which leads into higher realms, into the realms of the Elders and of our Precious Lord Jesus and Beloved Brother Moses. As I knock, the door itself seems to disappear into a blaze of light and I pass right through, bathed in such joy, in such beauty and light. Simultaneously, I see our Precious Jesus and he is standing beside the Board of Seven Elders. Behind the Elders is Moses and my heart leaps with joy when I see them. I run to our Lord Jesus and fall to his feet, embracing them. I kiss his precious feet, and am filled with such love. Our Lord Jesus bends down and touches my hair and says, 'Rise, my Child and be blessed; for the curtains are rising. What has been obscured is being made known and what is known is being clarified.' Then, I see, as it were, what appears to be a small stage and before my eyes, the radiant curtains on the stage begin to part, and as they part, I hear the sound of wind and rumbling, and a brief thunder follows. Then, our Lord Jesus says, 'Go up and take your place on the stage.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

I look at his beautiful, kind eyes and I look back at the stage, then down at my folded hands; for I feel reserved and shy and want to part of a stage.

"Go ahead, Child."

"Oh, my Lord, I know you are telling Me to do this; but you know that by nature I am a quiet and reserved sort, and I would not feel comfortable there."

Then, our Lord Jesus kneels before me and he says, "See that small desk and see that small chair. This is your small desk and your small chair."

"Yes, but my Lord, it is on a stage. Why?"

"My Little One, you are quiet and reserved. Nevertheless, I have placed you here on this stage."

"Oh, my Lord, I do not think of this and never have to this point in time, and if I had thought of it, would not like it."

"My Child, this is known; but I placed you there and now that you are consciously aware that I placed you there, will you walk up there and work on this assignment?"

"My Lord, I will, but would that I were in basement; for I do not wish to appear to be above anyone, ever."

"Yes, my Child, I know, but I have called you and in due season, I will make you a ruler over My people. Already, I have given you a rod of judgement, which our Father has had you use in pronouncing judgement upon the errant."

"Oh, my Lord, I feel like the least of the least, totally unworthy to sit at your table, totally unworthy to be in your presence, and totally unworthy to serve you. I want no honor, only to quietly serve you and our Precious Father and I do not want to ever appear to be above anyone. This is why I would rather work in a basement than on a stage."

"This is known, my Child, but unfortunately many of my prophets and apostles are on this very stage. Working in this way in the limelight has gone to the heads of many and they crave the attention. They lap up the power and the prestige."

"My Lord, I want none of it."

"Nevertheless, My Child, this is where I have placed you. Will you go there and write?"

"My Precious Lord, your simplest wish is my greatest desire; for I know your wishes are our Father's wishes and I wish to please you both."

"My Child, have you ever seen a fish swim backwards?"

As I walk toward the stage, I ponder what he is asking and as I ascend the three steps leading to the stage, it occurs to me that I have not seen such a thing. "No, my Lord. How could a fish swim backwards?" I think for a moment about fish I have seen swimming in aquariums and whether I could be mistaken. "My Lord, I must say that I cannot recall having seen such a thing." Then, I take my seat at this small desk, where the book is opened to Part II of the assignment, and my eyes fall on, 'Words are only words.' Looking at these few words, I begin to feel as if this short statement may have a connection to fish swimming backwards.

"You are correct, My Child, " our Lord Jesus says, "there is a connection."

"In what way, my Lord?"

"My Little One, what I have just asked you is no more than meaningless words without the Spirit to quicken them, or to add life and meaning to them. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Lord, but why did you ask me this?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"To make a point."

"What point?"

"The point is, My Child, that if I speak words, or even if the Spirit of God speaks words and does not give understanding through illumination, what point is there in speaking the words?"

"Yes, my Lord, this is so; but truly many of us, as your prophets, speak words and receive visions, but do not have a clue as to what they mean."

"Yes, My Child, but if each one will pursue with a sincere heart a meaning for what is given, in most all cases, this meaning will be forthcoming. Granted, in certain cases, even as with Ezekiel and Daniel, some meanings are delayed. Nevertheless, they are forthcoming."

"So, you are saying, My Lord, that each prophet should seek interpretation from the Spirit of God for what is given; for if they will not, the visions and words are meaningless."

"Exactly."

"To receive is one part and to clarify for understanding is the other part. If a prophet receives only and does not seek clarification so that others can understand, what good is the message? How can it help people?"

"My Lord, I understand this, but does each prophet not have to come to this understanding on their own?"

"Yes, My Child, this is true; for words are only words. They are devoid of meaning without illumination through the Spirit."

"My Lord, why are you telling me this now and why did you ask if a fish can swim backwards?"

"My Child, as my prophets and apostles, are you not fishers of men?"

"Yes, my Lord, you told your apostles of old that you would make them fishers of men and surely this still applies."

"I did and you are correct. It still applies. My prophets and apostles, my teachers, preachers and evangelists are all fishers of men."

"So, what does this have to do with a fish swimming backwards?"

"Oh, my Child, it has much to do with a fish swimming backwards. If Mine Anointed are the fishers, the lost sheep are the fish."

"My Lord, I get this part, but what about fish swimming backwards?"

"My Child, did you ever try to hook a fish that did not want to be caught?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, did that fish swim backwards, pulling with all its might to get away from you?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"Then, know this, My Child, if you, as My Anointed Ones, speak words, that have no meaning, the lost sheep may be caught momentarily, but you will not keep them. They will wrestle and pull to get away from you; for what you say has no meaning to them. To be able to hold them once you catch them and to bring them forward and into My Light, your words must be illumined with My Spirit. They must be anointed. Words, which are anointed with the Spirit of God, have meaning. They have hooks and these hooks will snare the lost. These hooks will sink in and they will cause the lost to want to eat, to want to drink of My Living Word. Understand?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, my Lord, but why are you telling me this now?"

"My Child, I am cleaning up My prophets and apostles. I am washing and scrubbing them and a great sorting is at hand. Much apostasy has crept in among My Anointed Ones. Over and over, I am seeing My very own rise up with 'holier than thou' attitudes. I am seeing My very Anointed put themselves above others and sit in judgement of those, whom they have no right to judge. I am seeing a great rise in false prophets, who espouse great things, but they are full of self, and are none of Mine. For this reason, I am confounding many. I am drying up their visions and I am withholding meaning from their prophecies. If they will not humble themselves before Me and repent, I shall cut them off all around the world and I shall turn their lives upside down. I am cleaning up My house and this cleaning is taking place now. I ask you, My Child, how often have you reached out and loved My Anointed, only to have them slap you and stab you in the back?"

"My Lord Jesus, this has happened more that I wish to remember and it really makes me sad."

"Well, My Child, know this. This is coming to an abrupt halt. I am sorting out my Tried and True and I am setting them apart for greater works. The egocentric and the selfish shall either repent and put our Father's works first, or they shall perish. Now, My Child, I know you have many questions about this errant star. Our Father has told you that it is fast approaching Earth and this is so. My Little One, you will soon receive much about this planet. Know that it is real and that it is quickly returning. Worry not about it. Fret not. For, the Pure of Heart will be kept for greater works; however billions will perish."

"My Lord, how long do we have?"

"My Child, what is 2-3?"

"My Lord it is -1."

"Then, know, My Child, that this planet is overdue."

"Overdue."

"Yes, My Child, this great cleansing of the Earth is overdue, but because of the mercy of our Father, even this has been stayed; but that period has passed and it will not be stayed again."

"Do we have one year, two years, how long?"

"My Child, know this. A long time is never long enough and a short time is always too short. It is coming and it will totally catch most of the world unawares. How does one prepare? Listen to the Spirit of God. Come back to God. Read what is being given herein and obey the voice of God. With this, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus and all is given in accordance with the will of the Most High, our Father and God Jehovah."

CHAPTER FIVE

" …A Sampling of Things to Come."

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Blessed are you, My Little One; for your heart is pure and it is full of love for Me and My Son. Your heart is full of love for your Brothers and Sisters, even for those, who have used you and maligned you."

"My Father, I just saw a whip crack and I heard it as well. Then, again and again! And, as the whip cracks, I see a fire, a blazing fire. Father, in the Spirit, I sense such anger. This is not my anger, but anger that is associated with the cracking of the whip."

"My Child, this is My whip and this is My anger; for those, who come to use and abuse you and to malign you and mistreat you, are on the receiving end of this whip. They are on the receiving end of My anger."

"But, Father, I wish them no harm, only that You would have mercy on them; for their hearts are full of darkness and double-timing and save they repent, I fear for their souls."

"This is so, My Child, and save I judge them in their evil, they will not repent. My Child, a great woe is upon the two-faced. A great woe is upon the double-timers, upon the backbiters, upon the users and abusers. Yes, My Child, a great woe is upon them and save they repent, My whip shall sound in their midst and I shall rattle their comfortable world. Many cry that they are Christians, that their hearts are pure, when in fact, they have the blood of the prophets on their hands. My Child, the two-faced backbiters are about to be plunged into a great whirlwind of darkness, from which many will not recover. This is a grievous warning to repent or perish. My Child, you know that the execution trains are running. You see evidence of the tightening of immigration via passports. This means restriction on travel out of this country. You hear of a national ID card, which will soon go into effect, with prison terms for those, who are caught without one on their possession. Beware, My Little One, for this card will obviously not work, so the computer chip in the hand or in the forehead will be required. My Child, be aware of the Beast System and how quickly it is being implemented."

"Oh, my Father, I am aware and I know that we are experiencing a very slight lull right now. We are only being given a very brief reprieve; for I am surely seeing in the Spirit a grievous war by late summer or early fall."

"My Child, this is all part of the New World Order agenda and their schemes are going forth at a very rapid rate."

"My Father, I know that this country will be nuked one day soon; but will this happen before or after the upheaval, which is caused by the passing planet?"

"My Child, all is not set in stone and much depends upon the repentance of the people. My Little One, very soon, I shall carry you into a series of visions regarding this planet/star; but this time is not now. What I want you to understand, My Child, is that each of you is being grievously tried and tested as to what is in your hearts. If your hearts are full of deception, be careful; for this deception will come to the surface and it will control your life. If your hearts are full of anger, beware; for this anger will govern you, save you face it and repent. If your hearts are full of darkness, this darkness will increase, save you come to Me and confess and repent. The approaching of this planet is intensifying what is. For this reason, evil is greatly intensifying; for the world is overflowing with evil; but if your hearts are full of love, this will also intensify. If your hearts are full of sadness, let go of the sadness; for this will make you sick. Realize that what is coming upon this world is a necessary cleansing."

"Father, it is so hard not to be sad about what I see. Out of love and compassion for the lost, my heart weeps. I shed many tears. How can we not weep?"

"My Child, it is good to weep; for this is cleansing to the soul; but to carry unresolved sadness day after day will make one sick. This is why one must weep and then give the burdens to Me and My Son; for aside from repentance, fasting and praying, most of you can do little about what is at hand. This is why you are told to 'praise God' and to 'rejoice in God,' so that your souls are filled with My love and light, so that you are renewed and refreshed spiritually. Therefore, spend time in praise and thanksgiving; for even through this great upheavel, My will is being done. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, Little One, let us proceed with part Three of your assignment. As you have this unsealed book in your lap, turn to page one of Part III and write as seen and given."

"My Father, I have this beautiful book in my lap and I turn the page to page one of Part III. Immediately, I see a beautiful, clear stream and I step off a rock and wade this beautiful stream with my bare feet. As I walk down this beautifully radiant, stream a short distance, I come once more to the radiant grassy hillside and atop this small hill, I see the radiant interdimensional door; and even as I knock, I am carried through, as if by a teleportation of light. I am transferred from one side to the other as in the twinkling of an eye. As I enter through this door, I see the Board of Seven Elders, Moses and our Lord Jesus. Immediately, I fall on my face at the feet of our Precious Jesus and I begin to weep profusely. Oh, my Lord, I know I should not be sad, but I am so sad. I feel so heartbroken; for the cruelty of the world is so great. I feel so heartbroken for the lost. My Lord, so much evil parades as good and so many are being deceived. My Lord, I know I can do nothing about this, save weep and pray; but I just cannot stop weeping for the great numbers of lost in this world."

Then, our Beautiful Jesus reaches down, touches me on the shoulder and says, "Come, my Child." He then takes me by the arm and leads me to sit on a beautiful, white sofa. He hands me a white handkerchief and says, 'My Little One, dry your eyes and wipe the tears from your face. I am merciful unto my people. I am merciful unto the lost. I am merciful unto the rebellious; and even as our Father's judgement is falling, his mercy is ever great. Beloved Child, your tears are my tears and your sorrow is my sorrow. your sadness if my sadness; for I am with you in all things. But, Beloved, let not this sorrow steal your peace. Let it not steal your joy and hope. Let it not move in and steal space where the Spirit of God should dwell."

"Oh, my Lord, were we not in such perilous times, I would not feel so full of hurt and sorrow. But, Beloved and Precious Jesus, look where we are How can I not weep? Oh, my Lord, I wish it were not so. How I wish it were not so!"

"But, My Child, it is so! Nevertheless, I am the hope of this world. I am your way out of this world and into eternal life. I am your life; for through me comes life eternal. Put your faith and trust in Me and live for our Father in Heaven. Obey Him and seek His will in all things. Then, know, My Little One, that as each of you does this, you will be where you should be and you will do as you are supposed to do. Rejoice in this! Have love and peace in your hearts! Pour out your sorrow on me! Give it to me and I will give you a refreshing."

"Oh, my Lord, even as you speak these words, I feel this refreshing. I feel your beautiful love and I am filled with your peace. Oh, my Lord, you are our precious life and how I love you! How I cherish you! Without you, Precious Jesus, we are cut off, so alone and empty. How I remember those days and years of being cut off and so alone and so empty! How I remember those days and years of being lost; and no amount of words can ever, ever express my deep gratitude to you and to our Father for what you have done for me. Oh, my Lord, I am so deeply humbled, so grateful and so full of love for you and for our Precious Father in Heaven."

"My Child, I know your heart and it is full of love. I know you through and through and this is why I have chosen you. I have searched you, my Child, and I have found no guile in you. This is why you have been brought here and this is why you have been given this assignment and not someone else."

"Thank you, Oh, Beautiful and Precious Lord Jesus and Father in Heaven. I am so humbled and so honored, yet feel so lowly, my Lord. I feel like the least of the least and by no means worthy."

"My Child, would you like to proceed to Part III?"

"Yes, my Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Then, take your place."

"Yes, my Lord." And, I rise, fall to his feet and kiss his nail-scarred feet and hug them. Then, I get up and walk toward the small desk and chair. As I ascend the three steps, my mind trails back to my years of being lost and my heart is overflowing with love towards our Lord and God and I feel such mercy toward others, who are in the same state I was once in. As I take my seat, I behold the book, which is opened to Part III and this is what I read: 'This is only a sampling of things to come …" This is all that is written. I search the page, believing that perhaps some words are obscured, but there are no more words. I look at our Lord Jesus, who still sits on the white sofa, then at the Board of Elders and then over at Moses, who is in a chair beside the Board of Elders and they all look at me with such sweetness, with such love; yet I am at a loss for words. Suddenly, I see myself walking among very tall green reeds and as I walk I chop away the reeds. There, among the reeds is a baby, who has been left among the reeds. A wind blows up, the sky suddenly turns red and a mighty dust storm is blowing in. I hear someone say, "An eye for an eye," and someone loses a finger beneath a knife. Then, darkness moves in and I am seeking to cross a swift river with horses, who do not want to cross it. And, quickly this scene ends as I see our Lord Jesus atop His Holy Mountain. He reaches down and says, 'Come hither, my Child.' Suddenly, the horses disappear, the stream is gone and I am atop the Holy Mountain with our Lord Jesus."

"Oh, my Lord, what were those visions about? And, what does they mean; for I was behind the door with you and with the elders and Moses reading Part III when this deluge of symbols flooded my mind? I do not know what to make of it."

"My Child, what is the difference between fantasy and fact?"

"Reality. For, fantasy is from the mind, but fact must be based on reality, on truth. My Lord, why do you ask me this?"

"I ask you, my Child, for many do not know the difference between fantasy and fact. The world if full of fantasy. Is it not?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, because of this, many confuse fantasy with truth, with fact."

"Yes, my Lord, I know this is so."

"Regarding what was just given you in visions, how can you separate fantasy from fact?"

"I cannot, my Lord, and I do not know why you gave me those visions."

"First, my Child, what will you do with these visions?"

"My Lord, I can do nothing with them; for I do not even understand them and do not know why you gave them to me."

"Do you wish to offer an explanation?"

"No, my Lord; for I have none."

"If you had time to think about it, would you possibly conceive of one?"

"No, my Lord, for I have none."

"Then, my Child, Part III is closed."

"But, why, my Lord? Why is it closed?"

"My Little One, go back and read what is written."

"My Lord, it says, 'This is only a sampling of things to come.' But, my Lord, what is a 'sampling?'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"What you just experienced."

"You mean the flights of fantasy?"

"Yes, my Child, a flight of fantasy is upon the whole world and save each of you comes out of the world and gives up mind-control television and movies, you shall be consumed by these flights of fantasy."

"But, my Lord, we do not watch TV or movies."

"My Child, this is known, but why would your government propose an ID card with your movie-viewing behavior?"

"My Lord, I suppose this is to stereotype each of us psychologically."

"Oh, it is more than this, My Child, it is to know the mind of the individual so that they can better saturate this person's mind with what he or she craves. With the chip in place, the individual will act as a receiver and his or her mind will be constantly bombarded with what he or she craves. This is why. Those of you, who will not give up mind-control movies and television, will find yourselves lost to mind control fantasy. I tell you now, my Child, you as a people of the world, cannot imagine what is about to be hoisted upon you by the antichrist machine. Those, who will not come out of these worldly traps, will be consumed by them. With this, let all be warned. The trap door is being slammed tight upon those, who prefer fantasy to reality. Your days and hours and numbered. You will either serve Me and our Father in truth, honor and Spirit, or you will succumb to antichrist illusion and fantasy. You choose; but you had better make this choice quickly; for soon the trap will close upon you like a vice and you will not be able to get free. I am Jesus and all is given in accordance with the will of our Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

CHAPTER SIX

"No More Roses"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

"My Father, I have a question for You."

"Yes, My Little One, I know your question and it has merit. You ask why I refer to Myself as Jehovah when I commune with you and others call Me Yahweh. Some call me Yahovah, or Yahvah and this is confusing for many. My Child, it is a problem of language. It is a problem of semantics. It is a problem of translation across languages and many make grand accusations, one against another, for not using My correct name; but I tell you, My Child, that all are facsimiles. They are all close, but not My real name, but a semblance of My name. Therefore, I accept all; for I look at, I read and understand the intents of hearts. I will not deny you; for you do not speak My name correctly. I speak to you as you know me; and you, My Child, know Me as Jehovah. Therefore, I address Myself to you as Jehovah. To another, I may call Myself Yahweh, or Yahovah; but I know the hearts and the intents of hearts. My Spirit imbues those, who seek Me with a sincere heart and I respond accordingly. But, I do not respond to Allah, Mohammed, Buddha, or to any number of names of pagan gods. I am the God of Israel and as many of you, in the House of Israel are cut off from your roots, from your heritage, I know that confusion and misinformation have arisen. Yet I know those, who come to Me through My Son, and I will not turn a deaf ear to you, even though you may mispronounce My name. My heart leaps with joy and shouts with love as I behold each of you come to Me through My Son; for My love for each of you is never-ending. Now, My Child, let us proceed with Part IV of Book VIII."

"Oh, my Father, I do not know what is at the door for this world, but I sense something dreadful in the spirit. I feel like evil is escalating at such a great rate and we are only experiencing a small lull. Yet, what seems as a lull is only a time of re-grouping for the evil ones. It is a time wherein they are planning to add fuel to the fire, so to speak."

"My Child, you have sensed correctly. During this lull, many are slipping back into a deeper slumber; but the wolves are advancing on many fronts."

"Oh, my Father, I read again of how the Homeland Gestapo plans to imprison all, who do not have national IDs on their possession and I read of the military exercises they are conducting in preparation for this time."

"My Child, see the wind. It blows first this way and then the other."

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, what you are seeing whipping the trees, the buildings, the land, the people, is the wind of execution."

"The wind of execution?"

"Yes, My Child. As you behold the wind at this point, notice that it is only a small breeze, like a gentle summer breeze. It is so mild that most do not even realize that it is also a hot breeze."

"Yes, my Father, I sense this."

"My Child, with the advent of the national ID card, this breeze will pick up and become a scorching wind. This will be a howling, scorching wind and it will be very destructive. Right now, many are being executed in a quiet way, away from the eyes of the public. All is being done in secret, but soon, it will not longer be done in secret. These executions will be done 'for the good of the country,' all in an effort to stamp out terrorism, and even in the face of escalated evil, many will still cry that George W. Bush is a Christian."

"Oh, my Father, how long?"

"My Child, you may have three months, or you may have six months; but my point is that you have little time. Watch and listen, My Child, for your government is playing the American people like a harp. They are playing the emotions of the people, but this tune has only begun. Watch and listen; for a greater exercise of terror is in the works and this greater exercise of terror is being planned by this very government. Once the greater exercise of terror is carried out, many acts of great evil will be implemented quickly by those in power. But know this, My Child, I have an ax to grind with the Bushes. I have an ax to grind with the congress of this land; and I have an ax to grind with America."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"I mean that I have an ax of judgement, which will soon hit this land and it will come through those, who hate you. It will come swiftly and when you expect it least."

"Oh, Father, of all the repentance letters, which have been sent out, haven't some listened? Is there not repentance here and there?"

"Yes, My Child, some have listened and there is repentance here and there, yet My Child, the numbers are small in comparison to the people of the world. They are small, yet I hear the cries. I know their hearts and I shall not turn a deaf ear and a blind eye to them. I warn each of you to keep up this work. Keep sending the repentance letters to the churches; for with increased calamity, more and more will listen. And, I tell you, My Child, calamity is increasing on all fronts."

"Father, I do not wish to badger You and please do not be angry with me; but how long do we have before the planet comes by? And, Father, are there beings on this planet?"
"My Child, you have months, but the number of months I will not address at this time. 'Are there beings on this planet?' Yes."

"Oh, Father, this is all so overwhelming!"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, my words are a mystery and few understand them."

"Father, I am definitely among those, who do not understand."

"Let us proceed, My Child, with Part IV of your assignment."

"Yes, my Father. I now see that I have in my lap this most beautiful and radiant book and it is turned to Part IV. Just as I begin to search for words on this page, I find myself transported to the radiant hillside and I am standing before the radiant door. But, even as I think to knock, I am transported through this door as if by a wind of light. I see the beautiful Board of Elders and standing beside them and to my left is Moses. Then, beside Moses is our Precious Jesus. I rush headlong and fall at the feet of our Lord Jesus and I hug and kiss his feet. Overcoming me is such a wondrous outpouring of love and peace. He leans over me, touches me on the shoulder and says, 'Arise and address Moses and the Elders.' I then arise and walk over to Moses. Even as I hug him, I begin to weep, for I have missed him so. Wiping the tears from my face, I reach up toward the Elders; for they are seated above, and I extend my hands to the first one, look upon his beautiful face and thank him. Then, to the next and so on until I have greeted and thanked all; and as I look upon them I am very aware that two of them are female. They are all so beautiful and perfect in appearance and so full of light and love. One, who sits in the middle and wears a greater crown, stands and says, ' Do you know why you are here?' And, I say, "I do not know why you are addressing me at this moment."

Then, he motions toward the small desk and chair and says, "An arrangement has been made."

Looking up at him, I say, "Beloved One, I know that you are powerful before God and I am only a little person; but I know that as we lack understanding, we should ask. Therefore, I ask you to explain what you mean."

He looks at me and he says, "Behold the Lamb of God."

Then, I see the Lamb of God, who is our Precious Jesus and I want to ask more; but the Elders are suddenly gone from my sight. The Lamb of God has changed into our Lord Jesus and my feelings come rushing forth into words. "Oh, my Lord, I wish I were not so ignorant. Sometimes I feel like such an idiot."

"My Child, do not be angry with yourself."

"My Lord, am I angry?"

"Yes."

"But, why?"

"Because you do not understand."

"Yes, my Lord, I know that I lack understanding, but this is no reason to be angry with myself."

"This is true; for the Spirit of God will explain all."

"But, why would the Elders not explain more. Are they angry with me?"

"No, My Child, they are not angry; but as you seek, you shall find."

"Yes, my Lord, I know this is truth."

"Then, know this, my Child, I am the arrangement. I am the Lamb of God."

"But, explain to me, My Lord, how this relates to my being here at this time."

"My Child, I am the doorway to our Father. You have found this doorway and you have been carried into the Upper Realms many times. Yet, you are among the extreme minority."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Oh, my Lord, there is more, much more, what is it that I am sensing, my Lord? In the Spirit, I am sensing a grievous darkness and my soul knows. It perceives. What is it, my Lord?"

"My Child, it is the great cleansing of the Earth."

"And, my Lord, the scriptures say that it shall be through fire."

"Oh, my Child, fire shall surely consume many; but fire is not all; for massive Earth changes and grievous wars, great heat and pestilence and famine, these all combined shall take a great toll."

"But, specifically, my Lord what am I sensing in the Spirit?"

"You are sensing what you are about to read in Part IV. Go and take your place and read as seen and given."

"Yes, my Lord." And, I walk with haste to the small stage and sit in the small chair at the small desk; and before me is Part IV of the assignment. Even before I read it, I find myself outside in the bitter cold. The wind is a driving wind and here and there a drop or two or sleet or rain falls. As my teeth chatter, I reach to take a flier from a stack in my arms and I attempt to give one to each passerby. On it are the words, 'Food for the hungry.' And, as I reach out to give the fliers to the passersby, some do not seem to see me. As I call out to them, they do not seem to hear me. Now and then, a hungry soul stops, takes a flier and says, 'Thank you for saving my life.' Suddenly, I hear a mighty rumbling and the street begins to shake. The trees and houses sway and buildings begin to topple. I hear explosions and see missiles flying by and I take the papers and hide behind a rock. The rock is small and I fear it shall not protect me. The firing soon stops and I come from behind the rock. A stench of rotten flesh is in the air and even in the midst of this stench, I see spring flowers, which are in full bloom. Yet, even among these flowers is utter destruction and ruin. I hear someone say, 'Not a Chinaman's chance,' and I watch as a black vulture flies overhead. This black vulture changes back and forth between a black vulture and a black helicopter and on the side of the helicopter are the words, ‘I devour the survivors.’ Shots come from the helicopter and pummel the buildings and the hillside. There is great destruction and I feel so sad. Then, a voice says, ‘Come up here, my Child;’ and I look up, and high up on a rocky ledge is our Lord Jesus and Moses. Suddenly, I am swept up as if by a great wind of light and I see the words before me, "World War III.’ Looking down, I sense such great darkness and I feel such deep sadness for a world, which is overcome with darkness and war.

Just as suddenly as it began, this vision ends and I find myself back at the small desk and before me is Part IV of the assignment. I see these words before me on the page, "No More Roses." And, beside these words is a long stem red rose, a dead rose. It has a broken stem and dried up leaves. As I behold this dead rose, a great sorrow rushes forth from deep with my soul and as tears stream down my face, I rush headlong to the feet of our Lord Jesus, where I fall, weeping and clutching his feet. "My Lord, my Lord, what grave tragedy is upon us! Oh, my soul anguishes for the people of this land and of this world."

"My Child," he says, as he caresses the hair of my head, "See the warship. See the cargo. See the country, which possesses this warship."

"Yes, my Lord and it is China."

"Then, know, My Child, that this is a hidden warship and the crew on it is hidden; but when you expect it least, China will attack America. This is coming and it is very soon. Get ready; for this battle shall not soon be settled."

"My Lord, explain what was taking place when I was giving out fliers in the cold."

"My Child, you work is to feed the sheep, to feed the lost. Your place of work is in a very cold world and it is becoming colder and bitterer all the time. A few receive what you hand out and truly this work of love saves the lives of some. It gives them life in bringing them truth. But, many cannot see you. They cannot hear you. They are totally oblivious. As you stand out in the cold and minister to the lost, know this, war is coming to America and it is coming soon. And grave natural calamities are at your door."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"So, My Lord, these black helicopters represent war against those of us in the USA?"

"They do and this war will soon come to pass."

"But, my Lord, you will preserve and keep your faithful."

"I will preserve and keep the Pure of Heart. Many call themselves my Faithful, when they know me not."

"But, my Lord, what does the dead rose represent?"

"My Child, what do you see written on the broken stem of the rose?"

"My Lord, it says, 'Broken Promises.' But, what does this mean?"

"My Child, is a rose a rose?"

"No, my Lord, there are different kinds of roses."

"Then, this is self-explanatory."

"My Lord, what do you mean?"

"I mean, my Child, that my people the world over are full of broken promises to Me and to our Father and because they have repeatedly lied to me and to our Father, they are cut off from the Spirit of God. They are therefore spiritually dead."

"My Lord, I get this, but why do you say, 'No More Roses."

"My Child, once these very souls were beautiful to me. They were full of life; but now they are dead and as they are dead, they are No More Roses. Do you understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"Then, know this, my Child, the dead will be dead; but I am returning for the living. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, know this also, my Child. What you see in the Spirit is true. A grave calamity is brewing and by Summer's end the fires of this calamity shall run very hot and the very winds created by it shall burn and consume many. I am Jesus and all is given in accord with the will of our Father, yea Jehovah, Most high God."

CHAPTER SEVEN

"Behold the Fire and the Smoke!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, do you hear the wind in the trees?"

"Yes, my Father."

"And, do you hear the frequencies with which the Satanists have pounded you and your household for over two years?"

"Yes, my Father, I hear them."

"And, do you see My fist pound the Earth and open up rivers, canyons, deep basins and bring down mountains?"

"Yes, my Father, I see it."

"Well, then know, My Child, that within 13 moons, this number being a favorite of the Satanists, I shall smash and destroy their equipment. I shall uproot their cavernous factories, where they produce pollutants for the skies and the very poison, which they make My Loved Ones breathe, shall consume them in record fashion. Listen to Me, My Child, when I tell you that I am bringing this evil system down. The Catholic and the Mormon Churches, which are run by Luciferians from the very tops, I shall cast into a muddy mire. These two whores shall wade waist deep in their own corruption and filth. My Child, do you understand what I am saying?"

"Yes, My Father, you are saying that you are about to judge these two churches."

"Have I not told you as much in times past?"

"You have."

"And every errant preacher shall be thrown to his or her knees in deep repentance, or they shall rush headlong into the ‘mark.’"

"Oh, Father, Oh Father, how my heart is troubled for what is! How sad I am for the state of the world! Father, with the recent move, it has been so hard dealing with crooked business people. I have never seen so many crooks. Father, truly You must soon judge this evil; for there seems to be no moral standards governing the actions of these people. Yes, my Father, I know Your laws govern; but these people seem to be cut off from the internal barometer, Your Spirit, which governs right choices."

"You are correct, My Child. They are cut off from My Spirit, but how many of them will tell you a lie and then turn around and call themselves Christians?"

"Too many."

"My Child, remember this: This planet is coming and it is coming soon. But, in addition to this, you, who are left, have nuclear wars to deal with. You have famine and plagues and great trials. Those, who are present when My Son returns, will either be totally enslaved to Lucifer, or they will be fully ready to go home. There will be two types, those, who serve Lucifer, and those, who serve Me and My Son. But, I tell you, My Child, he will take only those, who have come out of the world and who have cleaned up their lives and hearts."

"Father, I cannot discuss these great tragedies without feeling a great sorrow permeating my soul. My heart is heavy and I feel so sad."

"My Child, there is not a single one of you, who would not be sad, if only you understood, if only you could see and hear. My Child, hear the rumbling?"

"Yes, Father."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Little One, the Earth, itself is preparing to overturn this evil."

"Because the Earth is alive with Your Spirit."

"Of course, it is alive with My Spirit. It is My Creation. It is a living and sentient organism, a living creation. Some understand this, but most do not."

"My Father, about two weeks ago, just as a storm was about to pass through, you know that about ten or twelve hawks, twelve I believe, assembled over our heads, just above the tree tops. It was the most awesome sight as they just stayed in one place, barely above the tops of the trees. At first, there were just two, then about eight and then more came to make a total of twelve, or so. It happened so quickly and both Dennis and I were so amazed, as hawks never come so close and never so many at once. We looked up and recognized them and they then flew away. Father, since then I have seen in spirit a very old Native American man with two braids and three feathers in his hair. I see him far away above mountains, but I do not know where he is. Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, it is a signal."

"Father, what kind of signal?"

"It is a signal from deep to deep."

"But, what do You mean, 'from deep to deep?'"

"My Child, the hawks know you two and they know your mission. Did a squirrel not ask you once if you were God?"

"Yes, my Father and I told him, 'No,' that I was only Your helper."

"But, my Child, all that is created of Me has a knowing of Me and My handiwork."

‘So, Father, You are saying that these hawks know that we work for You?"

"Yes, My Child, and so does this distant Native American healer; for he knows you in the spirit across many miles."

"For, we are all connected as one?"

"This is so; but he also knows you through the interdimensional door, for he, himself, travels one."

"So, Father, will I soon meet this man?"

"You already have and you know it not."

"I met him while I was doing spiritual work?"

"Yes, my Child, and in due season, you will be shown this man."

"So, Father, somehow, he is related to the appearance of the hawks?"

"He is."

"Father, this is so interesting, but also very strange, as I do not understand what I see."
"My Child, My words seem strange to many; for My mind is not the mind of man and My ways are not your ways."

"Father, will the hawks return?"

"Would you like this?"

"Oh, yes, my Father, I would!"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Then, know this, My Child, when you least expect it, they will return; and they will speak a message to you."

"Father, just as the squirrel spoke, through transfer of thoughts, they will speak?"

"'Tis so."

"Oh, Father, I cherish this and look forward to it."

"Now, My Child, I know what troubles you."

"Yes, my Father, the approaching of this planet troubles me."

"And, it should trouble all."

"Father, what should the people know?"

"They should know this, My Child: 1. The Earth will flip. 2. New land masses will appear and a great amount of land will disappear beneath the churning waters, never to be seen again."

"But, Father, how should Your People physically prepare?"

"Come away from obvious areas of destruction."

"Like what, Father?"

"Like coastal areas, like river banks and basins, like obvious fault lines."

"But, Father, You know that most will not do this. Some are old and infirmed. Some are very young and most will not believe."

"You are correct, My Child, most will not believe. Most will not obey; but those, who obey Me, who listen to My Spirit, will be led to safety. My Child, I have told you that a great purging is upon the Earth."

"Father, You have."

"And, calamities so severe that none of you can imagine living through them."

"Yes, Father, I know it is coming. Father, tell me more about what the people should do."

"My Child, I have told you for years, through My Spirit, to prepare for hard times. In My messages to the churches of the world, I have warned you to build fallout shelters under ground. Over and over, I have warned you to prepare for these very difficult times. My Little Ones, coastal areas and islands the world over are in grave peril. The instabilities, which are caused by the passing will go on for years."

"Father, people are going to panic."

"My Child, the ignorant, the rebellious and the uninformed will not have time to panic. For, the destruction will be sudden and with little warning. Those, who wait to prepare, or who do not prepare at all, will meet a calamitous fate. Even My Faithful, who listen and who prepare, will be sorely tried because of the severity of the times."

"Father, it is hard for many to prepare; for they have little money."

"This is known, My Child, but the longer they wait, the more difficult it will become. For, the masses are being sprayed with mind-numbing chemicals and they are being drowned by mind-controlling frequencies. You are literally being put to sleep, numbed out, so that you will not wake up. My Child, you know that the trains are running; for they are busy stamping out opposition before the great upheaval strikes. With many out of the way when these calamities hit, the Luciferians see their job of enslaving you all as being easier."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Father, I wondered why there was such a rush toward mass destruction at this time."

"After this grievous calamity, the Antichrist will emerge with all the solutions and the hungry, the destitute, the brokenhearted and downtrodden will rush to sign up. Many, especially in America, have lived a long time off government handouts and for those, who have this mindset, it will be easy to trust another government figure, who has all the solutions."

"Oh, my Father, You and our Beloved Jesus are our all. How frightening this world is. It is one scary place; for evil rules and deception is the byword of the day."

"You know it to be true. My Child, do you wish to continue?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, let us proceed."

"My Father, once again I see the radiant book in my lap and it bears the assignment, which you have for me. It is opened to Part V and even as I try to read what is written on the page, I cannot; for a brilliant light exudes from the page and once again I see myself climbing the beautifully radiant, grassy hillside to the door. I sense that I should knock three times and as I knock, one, two, three, the door disappears into a wall of light and I pass right through. As I enter the room, I see our Lord Jesus and he motions for Me to sit in the chair, which is on the small stage. He stands beside the chair and as I walk toward the stage I am also aware of the Seven Elders and Moses. The tone is serious. It is quiet and somber and I know that I am not to say a word, only to proceed as our Lord Jesus says. As I see our Lord Jesus, I say to him, 'I love you.' As I take the seat before him, he pushes my chair up the small desk. Then, he comes around to my right side and he points to the words beside Part V and the words are: 'Behold the Fire and Smoke!' And, suddenly I see the fire and I stand at the edge of the fire, safely situated on a rock, and I see all around me what appears to be a forest fire. The fire is so intense that the very air seems to be alive with a mighty heat and fire. As I look up, high up, I see great clouds of billowing smoke and I watch in awe as this smoke is carried upwards by great currents of wind. I hear cracking and popping and turn to see an evil one, whether Satan, or one of his helpers I cannot readily discern, and he is cracking a whip. As He cracks the whip over the backs of poor peasants, who are prostrate on their faces before him, he says, "Burn, baby burn!" Then, he takes fuel, perhaps gasoline, and he pours this on the fire and the very fumes of it make me feel faint. As I swoon beneath the effects of the flames, the fumes and the smoke, this evil creature takes a toothpick and begins to pick his teeth. Suddenly, out of his mouth comes a treasure box and on it are the words, 'Lost treasures of the Ages.' He opens the box and a large snake, like a cobra, springs forth, crawls out of the box and into the fire.

Just as I am about to be distracted again by this evil one, the Spirit of God says, 'Look the your left.' As I look, I almost lose my balance; but in turning, I steady myself. High upon a rocky ledge is this snake and before my eyes, he changes back and forth from a snake to a man of various countenances. Looking at me, he says, 'A penny for your thoughts.' Looking back at him, I blow in his direction and a billowy cloud consumes him. Inside the cloud, I hear the evil snake cursing and bitterly complaining. Then, I hear a rumble and a roar; as if he is trying to get free from something; but cannot. Then, before my very eyes the cloud begins to disperse and I see Lucifer on a rock. He is dressed as an angel of light and looking at me he says, 'Penny for your thoughts.'

"Be gone with you, Lucifer, in the name of Jesus Christ; for you are utterly evil!" And, I turn to walk away from the Rock and an angel grabs my arm and says, "Never turn your back on the devil!" Turning to the angel, I say, "Thank You." And with my feet still planted solidly on the rock, I say to Lucifer, "In the name of Jesus Christ, I rebuke you, Lucifer," knowing that of my own, I have no power, but it is by the Spirit of God within me that all is done. Then, just as I say the above words, a wall of light appears between me and the evil one, and he is gone.

The mighty angel beside me then takes my arm and once again I am transported back to the room with our Lord Jesus. But, as soon as I get back I begin to feel very sleepy, so I put my head down on the book and it seems that I am cast straightaway into a dream. I find myself in a beautiful spring meadow, which is full of spring flowers. I see that I am wearing a beautiful spring dress and my head is covered with a light and delicate bonnet. Casually, I walk about the meadow, steadily picking flowers, which are called ‘Forget Me Nots." Soon, the basket is full and I hear the Spirit of God say: "Look to the Son." As I look up, I see our Lord Jesus coming my way. His feet never touch the ground; for he is traveling in air, just above the ground. I am Oh, so glad to see him; for where he is I long to be. Suddenly, he is beside me and he says, ‘My Child, sit upon the rock; for I have some good news and some very bad news."

"And, even as he says, "Very bad news," I feel a deep sinking in the pit of my stomach."

Reaching over to this beautiful basket of flowers, he takes one of the ‘Forget Me Nots’ and he begins to chew upon the stem. "My Child," he says, the six days are finished."

"Yes, my Lord and now we enter into the Seventh."

"This is so. And, with the six days over, what does this mean for mankind?"

"My Lord, it means that we have entered into a new day and that soon you will reign upon the Earth."

"This is so, my Child, and this is the good news; for this is a time of love, hope and peace."

"But, the bad news?"

"The bad news is: away with the old and in with the new!’"

"And, my Lord, this is bad news; for many, many the world over are about to perish as the old decadent system is destroyed."

"This is so, my Child and know this: Even as this evil system rises, it is falling. Lucifer, in his attempt to rule the world, will nearly destroy it. But, he will not succeed. He knows his fate."

"My Lord, tell me about the vision of Lucifer."

"My Child, what is written in Part V?"

"My Lord, it says, ‘Behold the Fire and Smoke!’"

"And, you did. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Lord; but what was that about?"

"My Child, it is about Lucifer, Satan, the Antichrist beholding his work and his fate."

"What was that strange creature, who picked his teeth, took out a treasure box, and out came Lucifer?"

"Some call him a Minotaur, a half bull and half man; and others call him the Beast."

"What is he?"

"The Beast System."

"My Lord, this would make sense; for he was flogging the peasants with a whip."

"Do you not see this the world over?"

"Yes, my Lord and it makes me feel ill all over to see such a thing."

"Then, know this, My Child, in the face of mighty wars, the poor people suffer the most. This evil system is planning a worldwide assault upon the poor. They are going to carry the poor through grievous fires of terrible destruction and then this evil system will beat them while they, on their faces, worship the beast."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Oh, Precious Jesus and Beautiful Father in Heaven, how I am grieved!"

"Now, my Child, you understand that Lucifer is the treasure of the beast. He comes from the belly, from the bowels of the beast and out its very mouth."

"But, my Lord, he changes into many persons before my very face."

"Yes, my Child, for he is a chameleon. He wishes to appear in many ways and to trick all. He is truly many in one and his many appearances are to deceive the greatest numbers."

"But, why does he say to me, ‘A penny for your thoughts?"

"My Child, they wish to read your mind, to read your thoughts, but cannot; for you have been sealed in the forehead. Remember some time back when the Spirit of God told you that this process had begun and now it is complete. The evil ones wish to read your mind, but cannot."

"Oh, My Lord, I see this sealing and it is a beautiful geometric design. For some time, I have heard people talking about this ‘sealing,’ and I have read of certain prophets sealing others; but I am very suspicious of much of this talk."

"And, rightly so. Very few on the Earth have the authority to seal. My Child, you were sealed by me. Do not believe what this one says or what that one says, but come to me; for many have bought a lie that they are ‘sealed’ when they are not. Now that you know what this sealing looks like, you will be able to see it on others. But, I tell you, my Child, few have been sealed. Very few. However, these numbers are growing; for now is the time."

"My Lord, why does Lucifer’s box say, ‘Treasure of the Ages?’"

"Oh, my Child, is this not self-explanatory? For, truly his evil ways have been treasured by many throughout the ages."

"My Lord, why was he so angry when I blew the Spirit of God upon him?"

"My Child, the Spirit within you makes him angry; for he cannot contend with this. Yes, my Child, he is full of trickery. Do not turn your back on him; but be vigilant; for his evil demons possess many and through others, he will come to steal, kill and destroy."

"But, My Lord, you and our Father provide for us and you protect us."

"This is so, my Child and with this we shall stop for today. I am Jesus and all is given in accordance with the will of our Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER EIGHT

"Behold the Cross! Behold the Fire!"

"My Child, My Child, My Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Listen unto Me, My Little One. Evil has lined up against you on many fronts. Out of the mouths of the lost and the controlling flow prayers of abomination against you. They come to make war with you in the spirit. They gather to speak curses upon you and your household and they plot and scheme to take your life. But, know this, My Child, I am making examples out of your enemies. For, when they come to make war against you, they come to make war against Me and My Son.

The world over the battles rage. My Child, these are battles between the forces of Light, My Light, and the forces of evil and darkness, of Satan and his minions. A great war is being waged and the pawns are the humans. The pawns are those of you, who are but children in this war, yea even babes. And, what is truly a war of gods and men, as you have read, is a war for your freedom. It is a war against oppression. It is a war for righteousness. Out of the shadows, the dark and evil ones come to make war against each of you. They come to usurp power, to steal your light, to destroy your peace, to utterly control you with lies and deception and to destroy you on many levels.

Oh, My Child, if only each of you could see, you would know that you cannot win this war without Me and My Son. You cannot win this war without My Spirit. You cannot win this war if you are ignorant of it. You cannot win this war if you are blind and deaf to it. It is a raging war. It is a hot and destructive war and at stake here are your souls.

At stake is the future of mankind. For, these evil ones plan to eradicate each of you. They plan to have a planet, which is fully controlled by evil, in which each of you is evermore the slave. They plan to take away your individual identities and cause you to be automatons, robots in their hands, to be used as they please.

My Little One, you know the outcome of this war, but between now and then, a great terror is upon the world. As the evil ones fight for supremacy, as they fight for absolute power and control, realize this: humanity is on the chopping block. Humanity is set up for ready disposal. Your hope comes through My Son; for He is the Savior of Mankind. Through Him comes your gift of eternal life. Through him comes your salvation. There is no other way; for this has long been decided. Yes, it has long been decided upon. But, if you will not honor him and My covenant to each of you through him, you will be left out. You will not receive your inheritance.

I tell you, My Child, these are grave and perilous times and this war is heating up every day. There is no end to the plots and schemes of the Luciferians to eradicate each of you. This is a complicated maze of deceit and treachery; for human life is an abomination to them. Why? Because the just and the righteous among you will receive eternal life! You will get off the wheel of slavery and you will be opened up to the beauties of the Higher Realms. And, they are doing all in their power to stop this.

Yes, they are creating grave havoc around the world, and in the process, they are causing many to die, to perish. They are out to destroy the Earth and all that is in it and I tell you that they are doing much damage and will do a greater damage before the return of My Son; but in the end they will lose.

Yes, My Child, I am allowing much of this. Why? Because of the utter rebellion of mankind around the world. This gross sin and rebellion is a foul smell. It is a sickening sight. It is repulsive to Me; for I created you unto righteousness. I created you unto holiness and purity, that I may delight in you; but I tell you that the world over, the masses have become a curse upon the land.

Those over you call you consumers and this is a suitable definition for many; for you have an insatiable appetite for things of this world; but you care not for Me; for My Son, or for anything holy. You are content to live as filthy rags and to walk in utter darkness. This is your rotten state before Me and you take pride in it. This, My Child, is why I am allowing the eradication of many the world over.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

Yes, My Child, I know this grieves you; for it grieves Me; but I tell you now: Mankind, the world over is ripe with iniquity. You are ripe with rebellion and the ripe ones are about to be plucked en mass numbers and tossed into the burning fire.

As I look out and around the world, I see many, many, who proclaim love for Me and My Son; but they are gray. They are not filled with My Spirit. They talk a good talk; but they do not know Me. They call themselves Christians by day and fornicate with the world by night. I do not know them. My Son does not know them; but their mouths are full of talk, talk, talk. Do you see what I see, My Child?"

"Yes, my Father."

"When you look out and you see as I see, I ask you, My Child, how many pure of heart do you see? How many?"

"Oh, my Father, in the vision, which you are giving, I see throngs of people, who are all gray and there must be at least 10,000. But, within this huge mass of people, I see only three, who wear white robes, whose hearts are pure."

"My Child, what you see is correct."

"Oh, my Father, this pains me so. My heart is saddened. My Father, I do not know how to reach them. What can be done? For, huge numbers will not make it."

"You are correct, My Child. Now, you see what I see and you know the plight of mankind."

"Oh, Father in Heaven, have mercy! Open their eyes! Open their ears and make them see and hear!"

"My Child, to each is given a free will. As the saying goes, ‘You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot make him drink.’"

"What is going to happen to all these gray souls?"

"My Child, the great shaking is coming. Look at the shaking and see the sifting. For, when grievous calamities strike, many will be purified. Without these calamities, without My judgements, they will not change. Dire conditions must be imposed before they truly want Me and My Son. As long as they are allowed to continue in a lukewarm walk, they will; for this is the easy way. They believe that they can profess Me and My Son and continue to do as they please. This, My Child, is the nature of their downfall and the reason for My judgement."

"Oh, Father, I wish this were not so; but as I have been lost, I know that the best way for the lost to turn their lives around is on their knees looking up, begging and seeking Your will with a penitent heart.

Oh, My Lord Jesus, come quickly for your people; for what is at hand is horrible. It is so horrible!"

"My Child, as you tire, we shall finish this later. Then we go to Part VI of Book VIII. Go this day in peace and know My Child that I will never leave you. I will never forsake you and you and yours shall not drown beneath the churning waters. Neither will you fall to the earthquakes, or wars, famine or disease; for as I am with you and as My Son stands beside you, who will prevail against you? Though they come in droves with their curses and with their foul prayers of control and utter evil, they will not win. Through Me, My Spirit, through My Son and My many angels, they are utterly defeated. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Listen to Me, My Little One, and write as I say for a grave tragedy is upon mankind. It is upon the world. It is the old Luciferian game of divide and conquer, and through great division, many shall fall. I warn you, My Little One, that World War III is heating up. The USA is facing this. As you plot and scheme to subdue and rule the world, others plot and scheme to subdue and rule you. The Bushes are headed into the fire. If they continue with their war of terror upon the peoples of the world, a grave terror shall befall this very house. They will not win a war with Iraq. They will not win in a bid to separate and divide Israel and to control Jerusalem. They will not win, My Child. I tell you now that the USA is destined to lose. Even now, as your constitution is being shredded and a police state is rising in the USA and you are creating war on many fronts, you are as an emaciated tiger, rushing headlong into battle against the fat, the lean and the strong. You will not win. You will lose on many fronts and in your state of utter weakness and rebellion, you as a country, will perish. You will be evermore in shackles because you seek to put the world in shackles.

A grievous howling will soon go up in the Bush Crime Family as their fates come knocking. Their destiny is one of brokenness, for they have defiled the land. They have spit in the face of the everlasting covenant. Through blindfolds, lies and deceit, they are shackling America; but I tell you, My Child, you have the leadership you deserve. You have a congress of bought and sold whores, who have sold your freedoms to the highest bidders. And, you have a populace, which is numbed out and dumbed out through rebellion. You have churches across the land, who have signed into Lucifer's International Church organization and you have churches across the land, who have entered into a blasphemous covenant with Lucifer, which is called the 501 (c)3 tax agreement.

Oh, My Child, the war drums are beating. The war cries are escalating and blood is dripping from America. The Bushes are heavy with blood, blood of the innocents and blood, their blood, shall be required of them. In darkness, they plot your demise and they scheme to make each of you slaves; but I tell you, My Child, great ire across the world is mounting against them. Brotherhood will turn against Brotherhood. See My dividing ax divide and cut and separate this Brotherhood as pieces of a pie, cut and separated, which will not be re-assembled. Yes, I am dividing this evil Brotherhood and I am pitting piece against piece, section against section and never again will it know such unity, such power and authority. For, I am turning the lion against the snake and the snake against the leopard and I am raising the vulture to a new height. Yes, this very vulture of war shall pick the bones of the snake. It shall pick the bones of the bear, the leopard and the lion. So, what goes forth as a mighty sound of war, will retreat as a sick, wounded and dying beast. Yes, My Child, the beast is rising, but it is about to suffer a mighty wound. And sounds of great travail and weeping and mourning shall go up from the Bush House; for defeat is their fate. It is their destiny. Oh, My Child, how Lucifer has deceived the masses through the Bush House. How he has deceived the prophets; for through flowery words and fancy shows, Lucifer has deceived many, many, many through the Bushes. On stolen gold they rush forth to control the world. They ride over the backs of the poor and the destitute in their bid to control the world; but I tell you, My Child, this Bush carriage, which runs on stolen gold, shall flip on a road block. It shall suffer an utter defeat. It shall fall and it shall plummet and it shall be ripped apart. Yes, My Child, George W. Bush was destined to become president. I decreed it; but his ways have proven to be evil parading as good. With this, My Child, let us proceed."

"Yes, my Father, and even as you say these words, I see that this radiant book is in my lap and I begin to open it to part VI of Book VIII. As I try to open it, I find that the pages are hard to separate; for it seems as if an unseen force will not allow it. And, suddenly I am transported once more to the beautifully radiant hillside, where I have been before. As I stand before the beautifully radiant door and begin to knock, I am swept through it by a powerful wind of light and I am carried once more to the side of the small desk and chair. To my left is the Board of Elders. Moses stands before and beneath them and to my right on the stage is our Lord Jesus. I rush to him and fall to his feet with a deep feeling of sadness erupting within my heart; for I feel a grievous calamity stirring within my soul. "Oh, My Lord, My Lord Jesus…" And, then I begin to plead and weep before him in a language which is unknown to me. He kneels beside me and caresses the top of my head and as he does so, I feel a tear drop to the top of my head. As the tear hits the top of my head, I begin to shake and tremble as if an earthquake has hit my soul. Suddenly, I see that I am in bed, whether sick I do not know. Yes, I do; for I see that I am ill with a high fever and I am so thirsty. A beautiful angel comes and gives me a glass of water and says, 'Your Mother is dying.' In this state of sickness, I struggle to grasp what the angel is saying; for I know that one year ago, my Mother passed on. I reach out to take the water to drink it and I notice that the curtain beside my bed is open and a cool breeze is passing through. In my state of being half awake and half asleep, I peer through the window and outside I see Lucifer, the serpent, and he is changing shapes. Again, he says to me, "A penny for your thoughts.' Suddenly, I feel another tear hit the top of my head and I am aroused from the visions and find myself at the feet of our Lord Jesus and I am resting. Awakening, I ask him to forgive me, for I must have fallen into a slumber.

"My Child," he says, "arise!"

I arise to see our Lord Jesus' tear-stained face and Moses stands near me now, his eyes full of tears. I look at the Elders and see that two of them are weeping. Such sadness prevails and I am so concerned.

"My Child, sit," our Lord Jesus says, "for that, which has been hidden, is now known."

So, I rise and take my place at the small desk and the book is now opened to Part VI of Book VIII. As I focus on the words, I hear words, which are spoken in unknown languages, and I clearly do not understand. Then, I realize that I seem to be hearing words from the Book of Daniel, the very words, which are Mene, Mene Tekel. Quickly they come and quickly they go and I am led to focus on Part VI of Book VIII. The words flow like a river and I cannot focus on them. But, even as I think this, the Spirit of God says, 'Yes, you can.' Looking down, I see the words begin to take shape and this is what I see: "Behold the Cross! Behold the Fire!" As I see the word 'fire,' my chair is thrown backwards. Looking up, I see our Lord Jesus. He appears as on a huge picture screen and he is riding a huge white horse. In his left hand is a bow and in his right hand is an arrow and he says, 'They come to make war with the saints.' Then, he is gone and as I struggle to get up and off my back, I sense the touch of our Lord Jesus and he says, 'Not yet.' Then I look up a second time and I see a red train, which is packed with many people. As it slowly passes along the tracks, I see myself outside the train and I am trying to reach the hands of those, who are crying to get out. As each car passes, I reach upwards, grabbing for hands, pleading before God to intervene; for

I know that they go like cattle to a slaughter.. After what seems to be a very long time, I see the end of the train pass and I sit upon the track bereft and broken hearted and I weep profusely for what is. Oh, I am so heartbroken; for they are gone. Oh, how I weep; for they will soon perish.

As I sit on the tracks and weep, an eagle comes with a stalk of wheat in its beak. I take the stalk of wheat and see that the eagle is really an angel. "Arise, Child, for the Most High God Jehovah is calling you."

I arise and with the angel I am transported to the throne of God. As I bow prostrate on my face before Him, I hear the sound of rushing waters and I feel a coolness pass over me. "My Little One," He says, "Arise and stand before Me."

"Oh, my Father, I am not worthy; for I feel that I have failed. So many are gone and I could not reach them. The burden upon my soul is so great; for I could have done more. I could have worked harder and now it is too late!"

"Arise, My Child, and dry your tears; for all is not lost."

"Oh, but Holy Father, these souls are lost. They are gone and I missed the chance to reach them. The burden in my heart is so great and I feel sick all over."

"Yes, My Child, all these things I know. But, know this. You, as a people, as a nation, have an individual and a collective debt. Each of you bears a burden for what is. When I warned you to work for the night is falling, know that this was a valid warning. Now, My Child, you are moving into the night and this darkness is falling quickly."

"Oh, Father, I see it and truly there is little light left. The sun has gone down and I am seeing a few stars in the sky here and there and it is night, save for a little light."

"My Child, you are entering into a time where it will be very difficult to do My work and to proclaim the wonders of salvation through My Son. A great hammer is about to fall on freedom of expression worldwide. Many will be hauled before world courts and sentenced to death for proclaiming these truths. Others will be ripped out of their houses in the darkness of the night. Know that this is at hand. The red train of communism and the black train of death is running. Soon, they will be moving quickly and many, many will perish upon them."

As he finishes this sentence, He motions for me to stand before Him and as He places a small crown upon my head, He says, "I crown you with goodness with righteousness and purity, with truth and with honor; that so long as you live, you proclaim My truths, My laws, My power and My Way through My Son. Ten thousand will fall to your right and ten thousand to your left. Many will come to make war with you. Many will come to kill you; but it is my solemn promise to you that so long as you put Me first, so long as you humble yourself before Me, so long as you do My will, every one who attempts to do you harm shall fall by the way. Every one, who comes to lay hold of you will perish. My hand is upon you. Fear them not. Loudly proclaim My truth. I am with you. My Son is with you and your enemies shall not prevail over you."

And even before I can say, ‘Thank You, Father,’ I am caught up in a mighty rush of wind and I am once more back to our Lord Jesus and I find myself standing beside the small desk and chair. I feel dizzy as if I am coming out of a dream, so I feel for my head and there I find a small crown.

Our Lord Jesus senses my thoughts and he says, "But you are not dreaming. Look."

And, as I look down I see a small scepter in my right hand and as I behold these things, which have just take place, I do not know whether I should weep or sing praises; for I am so deeply touched with a great humility and great joy. And, as feelings of deep humility overcome me, I sit in the small chair, place my head down on the small desk, and begin to weep. Our Lord Jesus touches my head and says, "Arise, My Child, and address the Elders."

Suddenly, I feel so weak and as I arise my knees are trembling. Taking a few steps, I stand trembling before the Elders, feeling so small and insignificant, so unworthy; for they are all so powerful before God and I am only a child. As I approach them I feel that I should bow and even as I think to do so, the one in the middle, who wears the largest crown says, "Bow not." So, I stand before them and wipe my tears from my face, embarrassed, for I must look such a mess. Then, the leading Elder hands me a small booklet and on the outside of the booklet are the words, ‘Divine Decrees.’ However, this small booklet is sealed and as I wonder why I am given this, the Elder says, "For the benefit of those, who love and cherish Jehovah, the Most High." I look into the kind eyes of the Elder and I mutter a very humble, "Thank you,’ feeling like the least of the least and totally unworthy to stand before them.

Then, in a flash, I am back in my bed and the fever and the illness has totally subsided. The angel is gone and I look out the window to see that Lucifer is gone. I feel alive and well and can’t believe that I was ever sick.

This vision passes just as quickly and I am aware that I am standing with our Lord Jesus on my right and Moses on my left, and I am filled with such great love for them. My heart leaps with joy; for I feel the blessings of the Most High upon me and I shout with joy. "Praises to the most High God Jehovah, to our Beautiful Father in Heaven! For, He is full of love and mercy and goodness! Holy, holy, holy is His name!" Then, I fall to the feet of our Lord Jesus and kiss his feet. I arise and embrace Moses, filled with such love and awe.

And, suddenly I am back at home with pencil in hand and the voice of our Father in Heaven is saying, "My Little One, with this we shall stop for today; but as you have questions we shall continue this later."

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Behold the date, My Child; for it is a Satanic human sacrifice day around the world. (May 01) Watch this date, My Child, for darkness and evil flow forth from this day. Evil plans and schemes to devour mankind, to destroy you until none are left, are being decreed on this day. These plans are being pushed forth by Lucifer and his servants. But, listen to Me, My Child, I am preserving My Faithful. I am preserving the Pure of Heart and they shall not taste death. They shall not perish; for I have decreed it"

"Oh, my Father, my soul is troubled; for I am seeing how Your prophets are being divided and separated. I am seeing how the selfish are being consumed with a greater selfishness. I am seeing how the manipulators are slipping into a greater manipulation and stealth. I am seeing how those, who deceive, are being deceived in a great way by the world. Oh, Father, Oh, Father, I sense a terrible washing. I sense a terrible purging."

"My Little One, have I not said that I am cleansing My prophets? Have I not said that I am separating the phony light shows from the real? Have I not shown you that I am cleaning house? Those, who are selfish, will perish. Those, who love the world, will be deceived by the world. Those, who manipulate to suit self, will be crushed by Lucifer, the greatest manipulator of all. A great purging is at hand, My Child. It is a purging of My people. It is a purging of the land. And, this great purging is bringing in a new day of peace through the rule of My Son."

"Oh, my Father, the evil of this world saddens me so. How long, Father? How long? How long?"

"My Child, the return of this planet is going to clean house. It is going to purge this world in a great way. And, what this coming planet does not purge, wars and more wars will eradicate."

"Oh, Father, people are so full of rebellion. They are so full of evil and how my soul weeps for them. How I weep for the prophets, who proclaim you and our Beloved Jesus, yet they are full of self. Father, how can we look at this and not be overcome with grief?"

"My Child, I tell you this: All the tears you shed and all the tears My Faithful shed cannot make a single person change. Only a deep decision to change and a penitent heart before Me can bring one to the realization that they are lost. It is a singular road before Me, which each of you must travel. Each of you must be torn down, brought low, and be ridden of self. Then you can begin to grow in Godly love. My Child, I know you are heartbroken for the people of the world. I know you cannot imagine living through the carnage, which is at hand; but you will. Just as Jeremiah warned and warned and warned and lived through it all, so will you and Dennis. You will live to tell about this grave carnage and My words to you and the words of My Son will live on to inspire many to come back. My Little One, it is a journey of love. My work is about love. If I do not chastise the rebellious, how can I say that I love them? I am not an 'anything goes' God. I am a God of love, yet also a God of perfection. What I have, I want My Loved Ones to possess and this is My promise to the Pure of Heart. Where I am you will be and you will not perish, but will receive eternal life through the gift of salvation, which comes through My Son. Yes, My Child, he is coming back for the Faithful, the Pure of Heart, and he is coming back soon. Now, My Child, you have questions about the last message."

"Oh, yes, my Father, I have many questions."

"Then, let us proceed."

"Father, when you say that you are dividing the evil brotherhood and you list various animals, who will turn on one another, please explain who these animals are. Who is the lion and who is the snake?

"My Child, the lion is the Lion of Judah, My Son, and in the end he will utterly defeat Lucifer, the snake."

"The snake against the bear?"

"Lucifer against Russia and her provinces."

"The bear against the leopard."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Russia against he spotted cat, the United Nations."

"The vulture?"

"The bird of carnage and death."

"The vulture against the snake?"

"Great death and carnage shall come to Lucifer's camp."

"My Father, you say that the vulture will pick the bones of the bear, the leopard and the lion. But, how can the vulture pick the bones of the Lion of Judah?"

"This is how, My Child, though you do not grasp it at the time. The Lion of Judah, My Son, Yeshua (Jesus) has an army of saints. Many of these are on the Earth at this time fighting the good fight, fighting for truth and honor among My people. These saints constitute the body of Christ, the body of the Lion of Judah and I tell you now, My Child, that many, who love Me and My Son, shall perish in wars. Many shall become martyred. Many shall die in the carnage, which is at hand."

"But, Father, You say that You will preserve the Pure of Heart. Surely, many of these have pure hearts."

"Yes, My Child, this is so; but in every case that one becomes a martyr, at some level, whether conscious or subconscious, this person, the one, who is Pure of Heart, has made this decision."

"Oh, Father, there is so little that I understand. Forgive me for being so ignorant."

"My Child, I expect you to ask if you do not understand and I will give you wisdom and understanding."

"Oh, Father, I can never thank you enough. I am so humbled before You, so full of love for You and for our Lord Jesus and so utterly broken and unworthy."

"Yet, you are worthy, My Child, if not, I would not have called you."

"But, my Father, I do not feel this way; for I have been so lost and could never feel worthy in my eyes. Your beautiful love and the love of our Lord Jesus is such a precious gift and it brings tears to my eyes; for I know that none of us can ever be worthy of such a precious gift."

"My Child, I understand how you feel; but know that it is this very love, which keeps all going. It takes one away from doubts, away from fears, away from the mundane and the worldly. It is this very love, which is the salvation of all."

"I know, my Father, and this love is such a beautiful gift! Thank You, my Father, Thank You, Precious Jesus. I love You so!"

"My Father, I am saddened for the Bushes. I do not wish to see anything evil befall them. Oh, that they would turn from evil, that they might be spared. This is my heartfelt desire."

"My Child, your heart is known to Me and I, too, would like to see such a thing; but My Little One, I tell you that the line of division has been drawn. The die is set and they are firmly set on the other side of the line."

"My Father, as we move forward to a better understanding of the above message, a tear from our Lord Jesus falls on my head and I am catapulted into a vision, wherein I see that I am sick with a high fever. But, in realization I am not sick. Father, please explain this vision."

"My Child, My Sons tears fall upon your head; for he weeps for you. He sees you suffering. He sees your trials and out of great love for you, he weeps. You see yourself sick with a high fever and thirsty; for My Child, you have been through a desert of despair. You do not see yourself as sick; but going through great trials has tested you to the core and these trials have caused a great thirst for My Spirit within you. As you and your husband have suffered trials, Lucifer and his have come to spy on you and they have continued to persecute the two of you with mind control frequencies. All this has made you take to bed to rest; for you have been sorely tried."

"Oh, my Father, this is so. We have come under attack from all sides. I have prayed so often and have seen curses sent upon us and demons hounding us. Lucifer and his pawns have used many evil ones to steal from us and to rip us off. I look at this and all that is going on in the world and I am saddened. It robs us, Father; for the devil never gives up. But, in my heart, I know why we are being persecuted so. I know why. For, this same kind of persecution has come before other prophecy books. I have recounted it and I know that Book VIII has some powerful information. It is coming forth and Lucifer is hounding us. He is putting up road blocks in all directions and he is trying to defeat us so that the people will not receive what You have for them."

"This is so, My Child and some, who call themselves your friends, are agents of Lucifer. They are working for Lucifer and seeking to control you through errant prayers, which I do not answer; but Lucifer does. Yes, My Child, powerful messages for My people are coming forth and these messages can save millions upon millions of lives, if people will only listen and repent. This is why you are being attacked so, and this is why Lucifer wants to read your mind. But, he cannot; for it is sealed."

"My Father, when I come out of this vision and see Moses weeping and some of the Elders weeping, why are they weeping?"

"They are weeping for love of mankind; for they see the great purging, which is upon the land and they, too, are full of sorrow."

"Father, why am I hearing these words from the Book of Daniel?"

"My Child, do you remember what you heard?"

"Yes, my Father, it was Mene Mene Tekel."

"And, when you go to the Book of Daniel to translate, what do you see?"

"My Father, Mene means ‘God hath numbered thy kingdom and finished it.’ Tekel means ‘those, who are weighted in the balances and found wanting.’ But, Father, why has this been given to me?"

"My Child, if you think that this refers to you personally, you are mistaken. However, know this: These very words refer to My Kingdom on Earth at this time. I have numbered My Kingdom and I have finished it; but you, within My Kingdom, have been weighed in the balances and you have come up lacking."

"Oh, my Father, I feared that You were talking to me, that You were angry with me, that I had failed you in some way. Then, my Father, the words lead into part VI of Book VIII where I see these words, ‘Behold the Cross. Behold the Fire.’ Father, how does this relate to our Lord Jesus on the horse, with the bow and the arrow in his hands?"

"My Child, My Son is returning to fight for the Faithful. He is bringing the bow and he is bringing the arrow and he is going to subdue the enemies of My people."

"But, Father, how does this relate to the words, ‘Behold the cross. Behold the Fire?’"

"My Child, when you are told to behold the cross, know that this has several meanings. Each of you is told to pick up your cross and follow My Son. He died on the cross so that you may have life and now as you know that the planet, which is coming is also called the Planet of the Crossing, or Planet X"

"But, how does this relate to ‘Behold the Fire’?"

"My Child, out of the passing of this fiery planet, many will be put through trials by fire. Out of the fire, out of the ruins of this planet’s passing, Lucifer will rise. Those, who will not pick up their cross and follow Me and My Son, will be consumed by the fires of the passing of this planet, by the fires of the world and by the fires of Hades. So, each of you will repent and come to Me and My Son as Little Children with humble and penitent hearts or you will perish. This is why you are told to behold the cross and behold the fire."

"Father, I am so utterly devastated by the passage of the execution trains. My heart is breaking, Father. It is breaking for these lost souls."

"My Child, I know this. I know your great love for others. It is a pure love, My Child, but many have taken advantage of you. They have lapped up your goodness and they have returned evil for good."

"Father, this is so sad. It is so very sad to see the way people do."

"And, because of your sincere love for others, I have crowned you with goodness. I have crowned you with righteousness and I have set you up in preparation for what is to come."

"Father, what do You mean, ‘in preparation for what is to come?’"

"In preparation for My Son’s rule. Therefore, I say to you, My Child, continue on. Be not troubled. Trust in Me and obey Me and My Son. Do as you are told by Me and My Son and be not overcome by what you cannot change."

"Father, I look forward to receiving these divine decrees."

"Soon, My Child, very soon."

"I realize that I am not sick at the end of the vision and I know, my Father, that in finishing this section, you have taken many of my burdens. You have taken much heartache and pain from me and I am so grateful. Thank You, Precious Father, I love You so."

"And, My Child, I love you and all My Children more than you can ever know. With this, we shall stop for today. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

Beloved, the following was added as an addendum to this chapter; for this is our Father's will. As you read what is contained in this part of Chapter Eight, recall how our Father previously said that the evil ones will come to murder me and my husband. You will read herein about their on-going microwaving of our home, yet our Father is true to His words, that He is keeping and preserving us, regardless of what they do. To Him is the praise and the glory forever and ever!

Last Friday night, I had just gone to bed when I saw a two feet wide beam of microwaves come right through the wall. I felt the waves when they touched the top of my head and I felt the burning, which was associated with them. All day the next day, I felt nauseated and dizzy and this continued on into Sunday. On Sunday, I began to really seek God. I reminded Him about His promise that no weapons formed against us can prosper. I prayed for a total healing from their murder attempts. And, during my prayer, a most beautiful thing happened. All of a sudden, I saw a beautiful white light come through the top of my head. As this beautiful Light of God moved through my head and down my body, I felt a sharp pain go right down through the top of my head. I was lying down at the time and after a few minutes I got up and all the pain in my head was gone. The burning was gone and the dizziness quickly left me and has not returned. God totally healed me! Beloved, this is the love of God. He is true to His promises that no weapon, which is formed against us shall prosper, but what I know at this point is that He allows us to be tried and tested and to go through many things, that in the end He may have the glorious victory. To our precious Father in Heaven is the glory forever and ever! He is full of love and mercy!

Message from our Father in Heaven

"A Clap in the Heavens!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Listen to Me, My Child, and record what I say, that My Little Ones may have understanding. What is at hand is a bitter pill to swallow; for illusion shall become evermore a reality and reality an illusion."

"Father, explain what You mean."

"My child, as the eyes of the world have been on an Iraqi war, an illusion of a great war, the reality of an impending war is brewing between Pakistan and India."

"And, Father, will this be a nuclear exchange?"

"You have seen it."

"Father, is this not what the New World Order really wants?"

"Of course, they want it; for this would even the playing field and make their reign of terror easier."

"Father, why are we being attacked by microwaves and why have you allowed this?"

"My Child, what do you see before you?"

"Father, I see a peeled banana."

"My Child, take the peeled banana and take a bite of it."

"My Father, I try to bite into it, but cannot for it is soft on the outside, but is hard, like metal on the inside, and it is acidic and also very bitter. This taste is making my mouth very hot and fire and steam, even lava, are flowing out of my mouth. I now stand on top of a mountain, dressed for battle, with a bow and arrow in my left hand and a glittering sword in my right. Father, what does this vision mean?"

"My Child, what are we talking about?"

"Father, we were discussing why You have allowed certain attacks against us."

"And, what followed?"

"The peeled banana. But, what does this mean?"

"My Child, have you ever heard the words, ‘top banana’?

"Yes, Father."

"And what does this expression mean to you?"

"The one in charge."

"Yes, My Child, this is the meaning of what you see."

"So, the top banana is peeled?"

"Yes, he is peeled and exposed."

"But, why would you have me take a bite out of something, which is made of metal inside? Plus, it is acidic and bitter."

"My Child, the enemy portrays a soft front, just like the peeled banana. To the public, they look pleasing and appetizing. They present their plans and schemes in such a way that they are edible, they are digestible. But, their schemes and plans ultimately taste bitter and eat away at the insides of the masses."

"But, Father, I do not buy their schemes and try to stay clear of them."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yet, My Child, you cannot; for you speak against them. Through My words, you reveal who the enemy is and you reveal their evil schemes. Therefore, my Child, you cannot steer clear of them."

"Father, why did You have me bite into the banana?"

"To reveal two things: 1. That they are exposed 2. That by biting into the exposed banana and tasting its foul taste, a mighty change would take place within you."

"Which is?"

"A mighty warrior anointing, a new anointing of mighty power and fire."

"Father, tell me about this anointing."

"My Child, enemies in high places over the Earth have come to make war with you. I will put strong words in your mouth against your enemies and when you speak these things, a mighty fire shall come from your mouth, and through your words they shall be destroyed."

"Oh, Father, how long before this comes to pass?"

"My Child, reach out and take the glistening sword from the angel."

"Father, I have it in my hands and it is a heavy sword; but even as I touch it, I see fire and hear a deep rumbling."

"My Child, drink of the cup, which the angel gives you; for this is a cup of My wrath and indignation against those, who come to harm you and My Chosen Ones."

"Oh, My Father, I take this cup and I hear a mighty rumbling. I hear a mighty shaking and I see explosions, great explosions in the Spirit." Even as I put it to my lips, I sense that it is hot; for steam comes from it. As I drink it, the liquid goes down smoothly, but it sits in my stomach, like a block of stone. As I blow out, I see a trail of fire and smoke and I see explosions, which follow this stream of fire. Wherever I blow is fire and destruction."

"This is so, My Child."

"Father, I do not understand all that I see."

"No, you do not, My Child, but soon your enemies will. For, they come to kill you, My Child. They come with first this weapon and then another; but I tell you, My Child, the line of demarcation has been drawn in the sand. Know this, My Child. Your enemies shall perish but you and your husband shall not."

"Father, what is that noise, which we have heard since yesterday?"

"My Child, it comes from those, who never tire of evil and it is a greater war against you."

"Oh, Father, when will You stop these assaults?"

"My Child, I want you to pick up that sword and I want you to divide the Clinton/Bush White House. Take that flaming sword, My Child, and let it fall through the middle of this whore house."

"Yes, my Father, I take this sword and I do as You say."

"Then, My Child, take My fiery sword and let it dice and slice the 13 story anathema space station."

"My Father, I take the sword and I do as You say."

"Then, My Child, take this sword and slice and dice the NSA, the CIA and the FBI."
"My Father, as You say."

"Then, My Child, take this sword and slice and dice that whore, which sits on many waters, the Vatican, itself."

"As You say, my Father."

"Then, take My sword and slice and dice the Israeli Alliance. In the Spirit, you see it, My Child."

"As You say, my Father."

"Now, my Child, what do you see?"

"My Father, I see a rip-roaring, flaming fire. People are trying to put it out with water hoses, but the fire only grows hotter."

"Father, what of those, who are persecuting us from beneath the ground."

"Stand up, My Child and take My sword and slice and dice those 13 times, who are beneath the ground. This is the devil's favorite number and I will make an utter example of them."

"My Father, I have done as You have said."

"Now, My Child, take your foot and squash their evil plans into a state of utter powder."

"Father, I have done so and even the fragments of their plans have been consumed by burning fires."

"This is so, My Child and look, what do you see."

"I see angels, who are rounding up these evil ones, and they are throwing them into prison."

"My Child, all that you have been instructed to do shall manifest in reality and it shall begin even today. I will show you what is being done to your enemies; for you will read of it in the news."

"Father, tell me about this evil Israeli Alliance."

"It is the alliance of the fake Jews, the very ones, who scheme to rule the world, the very ones, who control Israel through an evil cabal."

"And, Father, You are going to destroy this evil cabal? Are these of this cabal also the ones, who are trying to murder me and my husband?"

"They are and these murder attempts are on-going."

"Father, when will you show us that we have achieved a total victory over them?"

"When you hear the clap."

"Father, what 'clap?'"

"The clap, which will divide the heavens and separate My people."

"Father, what is this clap?"

"An explosion, which will rock the world."

"You mean, nuclear?"

"You have seen it."

"And when this takes place, what will happen?"

"Some of My Elect will see mighty victories in their lives; for they shall overcome."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"What do You mean by overcome?"

"They will overcome the chains of this world."

"How, Father?"

"Through sudden transformation."

"Will this be a few, or many?"

"It will be few."

"What will happen with these few?"

"They will go between dimensions and worlds with ease, immune to the devastation in this sphere; for they cannot be hurt by it."

"Like angels?"

"They are angels."

"Oh, Father, this is so awesome!"

"Yes, My Child, and it is soon, much sooner than any of you think."

"Then, Father, what will these angels do?"

"They will do much; but they will particularly harvest souls."

"Oh, Father, this is so awesome."

"My Child, do not fear the evil ones and do not fear anything they try to do to you. I will make examples of everyone of your enemies. Every one of them, who comes to harm you in any way, whether through word or deed, will suffer utter defeat and many, many will die. Their families will perish and their evil words will come to naught."

"Father, I know that many are about to perish."

"You have seen it and this is so. With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Post this as the next Message for You and include it at the bottom of the current Chapter of Book VIII for all to remember in times to come."

As I write this addendum, it is June 01, 2002. This morning I read several articles on http://www.rense.com, all telling of complicity between the Bush White House and the FBI to cover up the 911 massacre. Several articles speak of the FBI's previous knowledge of the 911 massacre and others plainly state that Bush and his cohorts knew in advance about this horror. One article calls for Mueller, director of the FBI to step down. Surely, our Father is going to judge these mass murderers!

CHAPTER NINE - PART I

"Divine Decrees"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Precious Child, hear the wind in the trees; for it is the wind of My Spirit and it blows upon you with a beautiful joy. Hear the windchimes. They play a beautiful melody through the fingers of My beautiful Spirit."

"Oh, yes, my Father. The wind of Your Spirit is so beautiful and it is cool, even on a hot day. Thank You, Precious Father. Father, You, alone are Most High and You are worthy of our heartfelt praises forever and ever! Thank You, Precious Father. Thank you for life! Thank You for love! Thank You for our beautiful Jesus and for Your Precious Spirit. How my heart sings praises; for You are so beautiful and wonderful!"

"My Child, have you ever wondered why a frog jumps?"

"No, my Father, I have not wondered about this, but surely it jumps to get from one place to the next."

"Yes, My Child, but for what other reasons does it jump?"

"Perhaps because he is hungry or thirsty."

"Yes, My Child, but there is more."

"Then, my Father, You will have to help me, for I am stumped as to what internal stimuli or external stimuli could cause it to want to jump."

"My Child, what is 20+30?"

"My Father, it is 50, but naturally I am wondering how this relates to a jumping frog."

"My Child, what is the brightest star you have ever seen?"

"My Father, I suppose that it is the sun, for it is the nearest. But, if we think of distant stars, perhaps it is Sirius."

"My Child, how do you judge this?"

"My Father, by internal logic, by reasoning and by what I have studied."

"So, there are several reasons why you say what you say?"

"Yes, Father, but what does this have to do with a hopping frog?"

"Oh, My Child, it has a lot to do with a hopping frog."

"Like what, my Father?"

"Like carrots and beets."

"You mean that they are similar because both grow underground."

"Exactly."

"But, I am not sure I understand how this relates to a hopping frog."

"My Child, can you see a thought or a stimulus of a thought?"

"My Father, I cannot; but I have read that the New World Order Luciferians have computers, which can gather thoughts electronically and then these are deciphered through electronic means."

"But, My Child, can you see a thought or the impetus of a thought?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"No, my Father, I cannot for they are within and I am not allowed to see this."

"Well, this is the solution. This is the answer as to why a frog hops. It is an internal process and you can only reason as to why it happens; for you cannot see what goes on within it. Do you see?"

"Yes, my Father, but I do not understand why You showed me this to begin with and why You asked me the sum of 20+30."

"It is for the same reasons. How did you determine that 20+30=50?"

"Through internal reasoning, through use of my mental reasoning abilities."

"And, who gave you these abilities?"

"You did. But, Father, how does all this tie in together?"

"My Child, this is how. I created all. I know and understand all. My knowledge of all is complete and to each is given to understand a part of what I know and understand. The animals have an understanding. The trees have an understanding. The winds and clouds have an understanding. All that is have an understanding. Even the rocks, which many see as dead, have an understanding."

"Father, tell me more about this understanding."

"My Child, to each is imparted My knowledge, My knowing, as I see fit. You may see each entity as separate but you are all connected. You may wonder why the lizards do not move out of your path or why the spiders do not flee before you, but just stay and peer at you. My Little One, they do not see you. They see Me. They see and sense My Spirit. This is why. My Little One, you and your husband have brought a peace to the land. You have brought a peace to the mountain and the creatures know this peace. The birds have returned in great numbers and the wildlife has returned, wildlife, which you did not see last year; for My Spirit bathes the mountain. Beautiful, cool breezes stir among the trees and My rain comes often; for My Spirit bathes the land. My Little One, I am with you. The very Earth knows this and sings praises; for My love within you two bathes this land."

"Oh, Father, this is so beautiful! I have no doubt that if people the world over would humble themselves and honor and obey You and our Lord Jesus and Your Precious Spirit, that in an instant the whole Earth would be transformed into a new, beautiful and incorruptible place to live. But, Oh, Father, how evil breeds evil! How rebellion breeds rebellion and what a dark and destructive cancer evil is! Oh, Father, how I pray that the people come back to love You and our Lord Jesus! How I pray that they come away from evil! How I pray that they repent! My soul is grieved; for so many are lost and they cannot see or hear. They cannot understand. Father, I am deeply grieved! My soul is full of sorrow for what I see! When I look around and sense Your beauty in the wind and in the trees, I grieve that so many will never know or understand this beauty; for they are lost in the darkness of the worldly. Father, please help us! Please help us reach the lost! You know that we need translators for Spanish and Portuguese! Beautiful Father, we need to reach these people!"

"My Little One, many thousands read these messages weekly and of the thousands I am speaking to a few. I am touching your hearts and I am commanding you to come forth to help in the translations of these works. If you cannot translate them, send money for the translations so that these works can be translated. As I speak to your hearts about helping with these translations, do not turn from Me. Do not turn a blind eye and a deaf ear; for if you will not hear Me as I plead with you to help in these works, to help save souls, I ask you this: 'Why should I hear you cries?' The time is short and many of you are idling away your time. You are wasting your resources and when you could help in the salvation of souls, you do not. You turn a blind eye and a you turn a deaf ear. You will not help, yet in your time of trouble, you want help. I ask you, 'Does this make sense? Is this reasonable?' Is it not because of My love that you are fed and provided for? Did I not create your very soul and did I not give you life? Did I not give you a sound mind and a body, whereby you are able to work? Yet, many of you turn a blind eye and a deaf ear when I ask you to help with My works. Listen to Me, My Little Ones, there is a great work to do in reaching the lost. Will you help? There is a great work to do in sending out the repentance letters to the churches. Will you do your part? If many work together, much can be accomplished, but if you will not do your part, many stand to perish. Therefore, do not turn a blind eye and a deaf ear to My requests. For, I truly see and know all. Now, My Child, let us proceed to Part Seven of Book Eight."

"Thank You, my Beautiful Father. I love You so!"

"My Child, this is but My love, which is magnified within you. It is a gift to all! Would that all receive! My Child, as you look up ahead, what do you see?"

"My Father, I see a long, winding road and it appears very narrow as I gaze upon it from above. However, as I am transported and put on this very road, I see that is it wider than I thought, but still quite narrow." I am placed near very end of the road and as I walk to the end, I see that it stops atop a beautiful mountain. The air is so clear and the wind is very cool. "Father, Your love is everywhere!" From where I stand, I can see far in all directions and I feel such peace and love; but below at the base of the mountain, far below in the valley, I hear rumbling. I feel the waves of shock hit my feet; for they are bouncing off the mountain. A great shaking is going on. "My Father, what is happening?"

"From Tippecanoe to Tyler too!"

"Father, what do You mean?"

"My Child, it is a great scandal, which is about to rock the world and it is coming out of Washington DC." (NOTE: When our Father gave these prophetic words, who would have envisioned the wave of corporate and financial scandals, which would rock this very government to the core? Who would have envisioned that these very scandals would have brought the whole world to the very brink of a global economic collapse?)

"My Father, what is this?"

"It is 666 and the red flag of communism."

"Father, this is not news to some."

"No, My Child, but it is news to most."

"So, what is about to happen?'

"A step-up in martial law here and abroad." (Dear Ones, since our Father gave these very words, we have heard rumblings that Bush and company plan to do away with the Posse Comatatis Act of1787, which forbids the military from terrorizing the citizens of this country. One of Bush's cabinet members threatened that civil liberties are out the window if there is just one more terrorist attack! Big, big government and ultra secrecy is moving forth like a giant tidal wave. The Nazi police state is here and it moving forth like a terrible plague upon the land!)

"But, why Father?"

"To get rid of all, who will not be controlled."

"But, Father, they have to know that this is not going to work."

"My Child, does insanity know reason?"

"No, my Father."

"Then, this is your answer."

"Father, are the evil Bushes about to attack Iraq?"

"They are planning it and very soon."

"But, what about Taiwan and China?"

"Trouble is brewing."

"My Father, will the Bushes be foolish enough to attack Iraq again?"

"Oh, they are foolish enough!"

"But, You have said that they will not win?"

"They will not win just as they have not won in Afghanistan. The only thing they have successfully done is to show the world who they are really are."

"My Father, I am glad that people are waking up and I pray that the evil hoards are all brought before the world courts and tried for crimes against humanity."

"Oh, My Child, as the scenario unfolds, they will move to destroy the whole world before they will allow such a things. It is up to each of you to make sure that they do not succeed."

"Father, we have no weapons of war and would not use them if we did. You are our Source of Protection, our Source of Strength, our Source of Provision. Father, Your Faithful rely upon You and our Lord Jesus for all."

"And, I am faithful to My own. Yet, My Child, most in the world are lost; for they are in rebellion and it is these, who are being carried down a dark path of rebellion and destruction."

"Father, what are people to do?"

"Fast and pray. Now, My Child, behold!"

"Father, I am here atop this beautiful mountain and the beautifully radiant book is on a rock before me." I lift the book and suddenly see a brilliantly radiant door before me. Oh, how uplifting this radiance; for it fills me with profound joy! Even as I think to pass through the door, which is before me, a great wind of light picks me up and carries me through it. As I pass its portals, I hear the most beautiful and melodic singing. Surely, these are voices of angels. The words come flowing forth with such power: ‘ For, they pierced his hands and they pierced his feet and he died for you and me.’ Then, out of a radiant cloud of love, our Lord Jesus emerges! Oh, what love! Oh, what beautiful love he exudes! How I love him! Still caught up in the wind of light, I see his beautiful face and the love, which comes from him bathes me all over. I long to be near him, just to touch him, just to tell him how much I love him! And, even as I think these very thoughts, I find myself back on top of the radiant mountain and I am on my face before him, clinging to his nail-scarred feet! Tears roll from my eyes and down my face and as I touch his nail-scarred feet, I feel the sadness of a million souls! My heart is so full of sorrow as I experience what the evil ones have done to him!"

"Arise, my Child, and take my arrow and my bow!"

So, I arise and wipe the tears from my face. Looking up, I expect to see a huge bow and a huge arrow as I had seen him carry in a previous vision, but what he puts in my hands is a small bow and arrow, which fit perfectly in my hands. The bow glows with a great light and feels hot to the touch and the arrow likewise glistens with a radiant fire. As he positions the arrow in my hands, I ask him what I am to do with the bow and arrow and he replies, "You are to shoot it under my guidance and tutelage."

"My Lord, what is the purpose of the bow and the arrow?"

"My Child, you are in my army and you will use the bow and arrow against those, who wake war with the saints."

"How and when, my Lord?"

"You are to use it as directed by the Spirit of God."

"But, what am I to do with it now, My Lord?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, the first thing you are to do is to lift up the bow and take the arrow and shoot the arrow into the evil club in Rome, which seeks to destroy all that is holy."

"My Lord Jesus, what is this club?"

"It is a band of rogues and murderers."

"But, as this arrow goes out, what will happen to these rogues and murderers?"

"I am making war against those, who come to persecute, to kill and destroy my Saints."

With the Lord's hand on my hand, I pull back the bow and it flies into Rome. And even as it hits, I see foul, fleeing demons of every sort. They are black and they are red, many hissing like snakes, while some are growling. Truly, there is a feeding frenzy of evil! The arrow hits and a great fire is seen in the Spirit.

"Now, My Child, you are to wear this bow and this arrow is ever upon you; for once the arrow is sent out, it will always return, but never void of what it is sent out to do. Do you understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"My Child, are you ready for Part Seven of Book Eight?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"Then, sit upon the rock and open the Book and tell me what you see."

"My Lord, as I touch the Book, it opens to Part Seven of Book Eight and it is written: 'Divine Decrees.' This is all I see."

"My Child, feel in your pocket and produce the envelope. This is one of several envelopes, which are sealed and which are connected with the message of Divine Decrees. Read Number Seven of Book Eight, Divine Decree #1."

"My Lord, I have the envelope and it feels thick, but soft like cotton. I blow upon the seal, which is upon the envelope, but as the envelope opens, I see nothing, save a ball. I remove the round ball and notice right off that it is hot to touch and quickly burns my hand. Oh, my Lord, I cannot hold this ball, for it is hot and has a mind of its own!" Then, our Lord Jesus looks at me and say, "Remember that Sabbath." And, I say, "Yes, my Lord. I know that we must remember the Sabbath and we must make it a day of rest. We must keep it holy. But, what does this have to do with the ball, which is too hot to touch?"

"My Child, to honor the Sabbath is but one command, but it is a very important command. Those, who will not honor the Sabbath, will not honor other laws; for deeply intertwined within the Seventh Day is the pure love of God. Honor God by honoring His love and this very love will grow within you."

"My Lord, we know that the real Sabbath is on Saturday, but so many honor Sunday as the Sabbath."

"This is known, my Child, but many blessings are tied to honoring the Sabbath, which truly is on a Saturday of your week. Therefore, it may be an inconvenience for many to honor the true Sabbath, but many blessings are tied to honoring the true Sabbath."

"My Lord, I understand this and I pray that others will also. But, why is this ball to hot to handle?"

"My Child, that the whole Christian movement has been deceived by the club in Rome into honoring the wrong day is a ball, which is too hot to handle. But, this is only one of the deceptions and it goes against the divine decrees, which you were originally given. You were told to honor the Sabbath and to keep it holy. By trickery, you all have been blindsided into honoring a day, which has been set aside to worship the sun god."

"My Lord, are people forgiven this error?"

"Many do things in ignorance, but once they are informed, they are no longer ignorant and are accountable."

"Oh, my Lord, I pray that people read this with understanding and that they return to the true Sabbath."

"Now, my Child, reach into the other pocket and take out the other envelope."

"My Lord, I have it, but it is very thin. When I turn it sideways, I can barely see it." Taking the envelope, I blow upon it; for it is sealed and as the envelope opens I see a very small piece of paper within it, which read, 'Tithing. Give from the heart.' My Lord, why is the envelope so thin, but the message is so important?"

"My Child, many tithe, for it is expected of them by a church. They do not give out of love, but expectation. The true purpose of tithing is out of love and honor for God and fellow man. And, because many give as robots and not as loving beings, they miss many blessings."

"My Lord, you once said that tithing is like an infected leg."

"This is so, My Child. Look at institutions like the Mormon Church, which have become huge because of such an emphasis on tithing; yet the leaders of this group are evermore servants of the devil and those, who become their puppets are evermore their slaves."

"So, what should people do? How should they give?"

"My Child, giving takes many forms. A farmer may give away part of his food to help feed the hungry. Those, who provide services, such as doctors, may treat the sick for free, thereby giving freely. Giving takes on many forms and not just by passing money from one to another. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"Nevertheless, through money people can acquire needed services and pay debts. So, money is a bartering tool. But, I tell you, My Child, to give without the love of God in your heart is a waste of time; for it is truly love, which makes the world go 'round. Now, My Child, as you tire, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus and all is given in accord with the will of our Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER NINE - PART II

My precious Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Beloved Child, what you have seen today is taking place all over the Earth. Highly evolved beings have now taken their place within the Earth and they are awakening as to their true nature. In unison, these Chosen Ones are working to spiritually strengthen the Earth and to bring it to its next level of spirituality. So few realize that the Earth is living only because it houses a very beautiful and highly evolved spirit. As mankind has emerged and grown spiritually, now at the point of a sizable harvest into eternal life, so has the Earth grown and it has come to this point, wherein it, too, will be moving on up to a higher level. Those highly evolved beings, who have been handpicked and chosen by Me to help the Earth in its transition are called regulators, although they are most assuredly beings of a very high order. These regulators are interdimensional paths, or doorways. They cannot be separated from who they are and they are coming into full consciousness that they are the divinely placed doors or portals through which many souls will pass on into eternal life. These doors are truly hollow tubes, which are pulsating with My holiness, with My holy fires, and they draw to them those of like mind. Those of opposite minds, or those, who are devious in nature, or lackadaisical spiritually, will not be drawn, but will be repelled by the light of these doors. At the entrance of every door is My Son and behind each door are the Elders, the very Seven, whom you have seen often. These interdimensional "doors" are all "wayshowers." They point the way back home, which is through My Son. These doors are all radiant with a blue, purple or white light."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, Father some of these doors are red and some have strange signs and symbols."

"Beware the fakes! Beware the illusion and deception; for the doors into eternal life are all the same. One cannot enter into eternal life, save through My Son. Many will pass through doors into great illusion, into outer darkness, and into hell, itself. The time has come, My Child, wherein I must warm My people of these doors. Let it be known that much of the spraying now is to hide and cover up these doors. These doors can often be seen with the naked eye4 as radiant holes in the sky. They can often be seen on film and by cameras and the evil ones are working feverishly to hide the presence of these doors; for they pose questions, which they wish to hide. Some of these doors will be bright, like a small sun and when people see them, they will ask many questions. Some, who see them, will be frightened. These doors do not emerge from outside the Earth, but on the Earth through the Chosen Ones. These doors, when opened, pass through the center of the Earth and on into other dimensions. These very regulators are working to save the planet; for if it is left to the evil ones, the very spirit of this planet will perish. But, because of My love for the spirit of this planet, it will not perish, but will evolve upward through My help, which comes via these doors. I speak it again and I warn all to beware of the doors of illusion. Beware of the false and the other worldly. The evil ones are full of trickery and many will be deceived. No one and I repeat "no one" passes through these doors and into eternal life, save they go through My Son, Jesus, yea Yeshua. My Little One, much is coming about quickly, very quickly now and it is not good to let the right hand know what the left hand does, for deception is about. I continue to warn all to come out of the world and to live righteously; for My Son comes for you when you do not expect it. Many believe that they will be raptured out and not have to suffer; but I tell you that all will be tried and tested as to their faithfulness and the purity of their hearts. Therefore, be warned! Yes, My Child, there is coming a new Earth and those, who are pure of heart will live therein. Those, who are left behind on the old Earth, will live through unbelievable slavery and torture. Yes, the old Earth will pass, but its dross will remain for those, who love evil and deception and yes it is all part of hell."

"Oh, Father, this is very deep."

"Yes, My Child, it is deep. But, did the angels not come to you a few days past and bring you much meat of the word, which is being given to My people?"

"Yes, Father, they brought the greatest amount of meat I have ever seen."

"Then, know, My Child, I am going to give you much, which has been hidden for a very long time. Much of it has never been known in the Earth at all. And, My People, who hunger and thirst for the meat of the word, shall eat and they shall drink and they shall hunger and thirst no more. Now, My Child, we shall stop with this for now. Add to the next "Message for You" and also put at the end of the current chapter, yet to be typed."

"Thank You, Beautiful Father. I love You so!"

"My Child, you are one of My chosen ones, and I love you greatly. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TEN

"Love Conquers All!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Beloved Child, see the broken concrete before you. See the twisted metal and the burned trees and buildings."

"Yes, My Father, before me is a scene of great devastation, not only of twisted metal, broken concrete and great destruction, but of great carnage. Overhead, a singular bird flies, which appears first as a dove, then a vulture. Its cries sound like a hawk or an eagle and it circles the dead and the dying. My Father, I now see a bald eagle atop a solitary stump and he seems to be the only symbol of freedom, which is left of this carnage. What does all this mean?"

"My Child, it means that war is coming to America."

"Father, twice I have warned that war was about to hit this country and it was averted. Now, I fear that people will not believe at all."

"My Child, very few understand my great mercies. Very few understand My tremendous love for the people of this world. Very few understand that all is not set in stone, but can be changed if enough people pray and repent."

"Yes, my Father, I know this. Please explain this war scene. It is a terrible thing and many are dead and dying, but the bird of peace, which turns into a vulture, picks and eats the bones of the dead and dying, is really a bald eagle, the national bird of the USA."

"My Child, it is one in the same. It is a bird of perverted peace, a predator, which picks the bones of the dead and dying, yet it survives as the image of freedom."

"Father, how can such a bird be an image of freedom?"

"My Child, in the minds of the predators it is."

"But, many also revere the eagle."

"Yes, my Child, this is known; but it is also a bird of prey and as for the USA, it is the very symbol of the land. It is a perverted symbol of freedom."

"Father, are You saying that the USA will soon be attacked, bringing about war within this country, but that the USA will still survive as a predator country?"

"I am saying it and you have seen it."

"Father, what will lead to the attack on the USA?"

"My Child, the whole world is facing a financial meltdown. The rich and powerful, rather than allowing this, will start a world war. This will gear up the war machine. Their goal, which they continue to push, is peace through war."

"Father, this whole economy is in serious trouble."

"My Child, it is not only this economy, but the economy of the whole world; for it is built upon a lie and as more light comes into the Earth, all, which is built upon lies, shall fall."

"So, Father, this bleak economic picture is going to lead to a world war?"

"My Child, the handwriting is on the wall. When faced with a total economic collapse, world leaders will initiate a world war. This is all part of the antichrist agenda to put the world's wealth squarely into the hands of a very few Satanists."

"So, Father, the USA plans to attack Iraq soon?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"They do, but I tell you, My Child, without the same success as last time."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"My Child, I mean that other countries will come to the aid of Iraq. Russia will not like this invasion and China will not. Iraq has more friends in the region now. Plus, My Child, India and Pakistan continue to rattle their sabers. They are bitter enemies. And, sooner than most think, China will go for Taiwan and North Korea is eyeing South Korea like a rabid dog. My Little One, the Mideast is a powder keg, which is atop a roaring fire of hatred and enmity."

"So, Father, World War III is at the door of the world?"

"It is."

"Oh, Father, sooner or later I know that this is coming to pass and we have this rogue planet, which is bearing down on the world."

"It is."

"Father, will this planet X, or Niburu, come next year? People need to know this."

"I tell you, My Child, that it is overdue. Its return can be delayed by months and possibly a couple of years, but it is headed into the solar system and it will flip the Earth."

"Father, many believe that it is coming in 2012, yet in a vision years ago, I saw a comet crash into the Earth before the holy city appeared."

"You have seen it."

"But, Father, this is not to be confused with Niburu?"

"No, My Child."

"So, Father, how long do we have?"

"My Child, its great gravitational pull is already being seen in the sun's increased activity. It is being witnessed in the increased earthquake activity and in the breaking up of the Southern ice shelf. All these things are indicators that it is returning. You will continue to see the breaking up of this ice shelf; for this planet will come up from the South as you have read and it will flip the Earth, causing massive flooding."

"But, Father, will it be as bad as the ancient flood?"

"No."

"But, Father, what about Argentina, and other countries like it, which are so close to the South Pole?"

"They will be largely overrun with water."

"But, Father, the people in Argentina are already going through horrible times."

"My Child, the evil ones know what the return of this planet will do to Argentina and other places on the planet. They have deliberately crashed this economy so as to protect their own assets. Now, they are terrorizing the people with cattle mutilations and sightings of spacecraft. They want them to stay in such an exaggerated state of fear that they never wake up to what is coming."

"Father, please, You must help these people. Please, Father, they must know the truth."

"Then, My child, they must turn from their idolatries, from their whoredoms, and they must serve My Son. For, He is the Savior of mankind."

"And, Father, islands and countries like Australia, I am also worried about."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, at the time of the passing of this planet, many will perish but some will go on into eternal life, changed in the twinkling of an eye."

"Oh, Father, I am so glad to hear this! Praises to Your Holy Name! But, Father, not all will go into eternal life then, only some? Father, You are saying that people will be taken into eternal life at different times?"

"Exactly."

"Father, why do You not give the exact date of the passing of this planet?"

"For, it is not fixed in stone and much can be changed or altered through the prayers of the Righteous."

"Father, Oh, Father, have mercy on the people of this planet!"

"My Child, I am full of love and mercy."

"Father, how soon will World War III accelerate?"

"My Child, the plans are well-laid out. Expect them to go forth with them by fall; however to all is given a free will, but they will use the world economic condition as the impetus to move forward."

"Father, You told in Your repentance letter to the churches of the world about this impending worldwide economic collapse and now it is spoken everywhere."

"I did."

"Now, My Child, see yourself atop My Holy Mountain and know that you have fully traveled the length of My Holy Road. Much of the work, which you do from here on will be toward the stabilization of the Earth and the preparation of the same for the mass exit of souls." (Beloved Ones, take our Father's words very seriously. I cannot tell you more about this work; for our Father will reveal what He chooses. Just know that this preparation is well underway!)

"Yet, Father, I love Your people and want to continue to bring them to You and to our Lord Jesus."

"Yes, My Child, but the focus of your work is changing greatly because of this mass exit."

"Father, Your will is my heart's desire."

"My Child, we have been speaking of Divine Decrees."

"Yes, my Father, as the Elders have given this information to me and our Lord Jesus has expounded on the Sabbath and on tithing."

"This is so, My Child. Now, turn the book to Section Eight and read what is written."

"My Father, the book is in my lap and it is so bright that I cannot read a word." I am aware that a whirlwind of light surrounds me and I am no longer on this mountain but standing before the Board of Seven Elders. Oh, they are so beautiful and so full of love! I am humbled to the floor in respect for them; but I hear the leader, the one with the large crown, say, "Do it not." I arise, so aware of our Precious Lord Jesus and our Beloved Moses, whose eyes are filled with tears. I look at Moses and he hands me a small booklet, which reminds me of the booklet, which hold my college degrees and the booklet even has a tassel.

"Open it, Little One," Moses says.

I feel all eyes upon me and the love, which they all share, is so awesome. As I open the booklet, I see a single ring. It is simple, yet beautifully radiant and golden. Well aware of the wonderful outpouring of love, I am so humbled. Tears begin to well up in my eyes and to fall down my face. Suddenly, I am weeping uncontrollably.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

Our Lord Jesus steps forward, takes the ring, and puts it on the center finger of my right hand. Then, He says, "To thee, I do wed."

Suddenly I feel weak all over, as if I shall faint. As I feel myself slipping away, I am jolted by the awareness that our Lord Jesus has caught me, and I am stabilized once more on my feet. The Board of Elders comes and goes from my visual field and Moses, who stands before me, is very foggy. I hear a ringing and roaring in my ears and I am having trouble focusing. "What is happening to me? Surely, I am not long for this world."

Suddenly, the words of our Lord Jesus are coming through to me and I hear Him saying, "I am calling out My Beloved Bride, one at a time." His words are so beautiful! I feel a great wave a joy and happiness beginning to surge through my soul and the faintness is quickly fleeing. Rushing through my whole being is an overwhelming sense of great freedom! What total joy!

Suddenly, I find myself in a beautiful meadow with beautiful flowers all around. The aroma of these beautiful flowers in full bloom seems like that of heaven, itself. The air is so pure and as I look around, I realize that everything is pristine pure and ever so clean! Nearby are other souls and in our midst is our Lord Jesus. Together, we are all joyfully playing as little children in a spring meadow! Everyone is filled with happiness, and pure love and utter peace pervade all that is. Beautiful love, joy and peace everywhere!

As I look about, I see that others also have a ring like mine, which is also on the third finger of their right hands. Together, we sing a beautiful song and it is one, which we have known for a very long time. The words flow out with great love and in their wake, they create beautiful rainbows of light. The heavens seem to open up and the very words appear to go to the end of the universes.

The words of our Lord Jesus interrupt the singing, "Come, My Beloved, and I will show you what is to take place on Earth."

We all gather around Him and as He waves His hands, we see a great darkness falling on the Earth with much lightening and thunder. We see evil, such great evil, and it is lined up to destroy the saints, who remain. "See the staircase," our Lord Jesus says, "You will go up and down it and you will minister to My people. You will spend time here on the new Earth, but you will go back and forth to the old Earth until everyone of My people is brought home. Understand?"

I nod my head in the affirmative and look around to see that others are doing to same. Suddenly, as if I am caught up in another whirlwind, I realize that I am back in this small motor home, which we now call home, and I am feeling that I am existing in two separate worlds. With a great feeling of disconnectedness, I seem to caught up between worlds, feeling as if I belong in neither. Then, in an instant, I am back with our Lord Jesus, with Moses and the Elders and I feel so humbled, so lowly, and utterly shocked. Sobbing, I fall to the feet of our Lord Jesus."

"My Little One, rise for I have a few words for you. I know you do not realize the significance of what has just unfolded, but I assure you that it is real. You have returned and have been wed to Me through times and eternity."

"My Lord, I am Your bride? In a million years, I never would have expected it to happen this way."

"My Child, you do not know My ways; for they are the ways of our Father and you cannot know what is to be, save I tell you. My Child, the world is full of surprises; for very few, if any, know what is unfolding and how."

"My Lord, there are others, who are to do as you are instructing me?"

"Yes, My Child."

"And, I will still live in the Earth and work for You and our Father?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"You will, but many changes will take place within you and within those, who are close to you; for the power of God within you will be great."

"Oh, my Lord, I have no words; for I am so deeply humbled and in utter awe."

"My Child, this brings us back to the book and to the third Divine Decree. You know what is written, don't you?"

"Yes, my Lord; for it is written in my mind: 'Love Conquers all.'"

"What you see is correct. It is the love of God, which sustains all. Each of you is a breath of God's love. If you do not have a love for Him in your hearts, you cannot possibly love one another; for love is God's gift to each of you, and it is the essence of all creation. You are here, having been brought to this point, because you now operate in this space of love. You are now ready to move on up to the next work, to which you are called, and that is to help the Earth itself in this great move, as it, too, is moving on up."

"Oh, My Precious Lord, how I love You and how I thank you!"

"My Child, go in this love; for it is through this love that all are made free. And know that all is given to you and carried out at this time according to the will of our Father in Heaven."

CHAPTER ELEVEN - PART I

"America is Fallen!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, I have heard your cries on behalf of My people. Yes, My Little One, they are perishing for lack of truth, but through their own ignorance, through their own blindness and deafness, they have chosen to perish! Soon, the very streets of America will run red with the blood of Americans. Your president shall fall to the sword and another of equal cunning will step forth!

Rogues, thieves, murderers, child molesters and those, who are full of every kind of chicanery, have overthrown this republic. It has been a slow and systematic process; but know, My Child, as I told you weeks past, "America is truly fallen!" Your liberties, which were once safeguarded by your constitution and Bill of Rights, are gone! Your congress is a policing board in name only! Every dark and foul deed on the New World Order agenda is rolling forth upon your backs like a mighty steamroller. Those of you, who believe that you still have freedoms, are among the blindest of them all. For, you have no freedoms under the current system. America has fallen, just as surely as a lead ball, when it has been dropped to the Earth.

The years have passed when you could have done something to change this destructive course. Because the masses have slept on in a stupefied state and still sleep on, they shall not see what is upon them until they are fully enslaved. The few, who are awake and fighting for what is right and according to My laws, will be left to educate those, who are blind, deaf and dumb, when and if they decide to wake up!

I tell you, My Child, that any and all forms of resistance shall be met with deadly force. And, through their spying mechanisms, those in power fully intend to route out any and all resistance before it ever has a chance to surface.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

Yes, My Child, it is a bleak picture. I have shown you already how the execution trains are running. I have made you see how dissidents have been systematically done away with for some time, all with great secrecy. But, My Child, what is about to happen, none are prepared for. I say, "None." For, you cannot imagine the horrors, which are planned for any and all dissidents, for any and all, whom they deem as terrorists. There are absolutely none that they will not seek to do away with in their bid for control of the world.

Through terror and more terror, through wars and more wars, these evil hoards will advance and they will step over the bodies of their own kinsmen to reach the top of the heap. But, I tell you, My Child, judgement is Mine! Even as you see the evil system rise and even as you see a civil war break out in America with massive arrests and internments, even as you see violence in the streets and famine at the doors of many, know this: I AM GOD! There is no task too great or too small for Me! Around the world, I am setting up My own government in the Earth and this government is to rule with My Son. Kings, Queens, Holy Servants and Warriors! These, I am calling forth to fight on behalf of Me and My Son and My causes of righteousness, and through the mouths of My Faithful shall be spoken great and mighty judgements. Yea, at the feet of My kings and queens, armies shall fall! Bridges shall fall! Airplanes and spacecraft shall explode in the sky! Soldiers shall become confused and disoriented and they shall perish! Doors of concentration camps shall fly open and I shall let My people go! Yes, My Child, it is a time of great and mighty miracles for My people and it is a time of great and mighty judgement against Lucifer and his drones!

My Little One, many a knee shall buckle beneath the power of My Anointed and many shall fall to rise no more because they come to lay a hand on My Chosen.

Fire and war! War and fire! This is ahead for America! Those, who have shamelessly killed and destroyed for power and greed shall be mercilessly killed and destroyed for power and greed!

Yes, My Child, the attack on Iraq is well underway. It matters not to the Bushes and to their loyal supporters who concurs with this war; for they are drunk with power and greed! They are blind and deaf, goaded into their own destruction, caught up in a whirlwind of darkness. But, I tell you, My Child, they will not win! They shall not win, but shall lose on many fronts. And, out of this senseless war, the President of America shall take a hit. He shall fall, a product of his own insanity. But, to those in power, it shall little matter; for this war does not value life; but power and greed. Yet, in the wake of the death of a President, his own Father shall also take a hit. He shall fall and so it shall go!

My Little One, some time past, I told you that I would turn evil brotherhood upon evil brotherhood. The secret societies, which have been held together like glue, through their allegiance to Lucifer, shall turn upon one another like rabid dogs. Little One, you are seeing this beginning to take place now. Remember this, My Child. Lucifer has no allegiance to anyone. He is a liar, being the Father of all liars, and he will devour anyone and everyone in his bid to control the world. He has no allegiance to anyone and will do away with his so-called "Obedient and Faithful" at the wink of an eye. Yet, they have foolishly believed the Father of All Lies. They have foolishly and blindly become his servants and slaves, only to find that their heads are on the chopping blocks.

Yes, My Child, the Bushes, the Cheneys, the Rumsfelds and the Ashcrofts of the world had better look around themselves and they had better take a long, a very long and hard look; for among them are those, who are ready to take them all down at the drop of a pin. My Child, assassination plots are rampant and they are directed toward those of leadership in your country. Those in power are foolhardy enough to believe that if they spy on the populace enough, they can control any and all before they, themselves, can be had! Oh, what folly! For years, they have bedded with the enemies. They have taken and they have bribed! They have used and they have bought! They have traded! Yes, My Child, they have been thick with the enemy; for each and every one of them is a traitor to the American people. Therefore, My Child, they are all your enemies, terrorists, elevated to the positions of power! But, now, My Child, they have among them many, who are their enemies! Every branch of this very government has been infiltrated by enemies of America and by enemies of those, who are now in power. Therefore, My Child, as they rush to invade Iraq, all for greed and power, they forget the total infiltration of this very government. They forget that liars cannot be trusted; for like them, they will say one thing and do another. They will profess to be one's friend while they stab one in the back. Yes, indeed, they have many, who profess to be their friends and they are ready and waiting with the sword, ready and waiting to slay them. My Child, every one, who has sold out America, ought to be afraid; for they will all be sold out by their own so called 'friends!'

I tell you, My Child, in the wake of this Iraqi war is great bloodshed. Great bloodshed for certain ones in position of power and great bloodshed for America. My warnings to My people have never been more dire. Calamity upon calamity, waves of calamities, are about to hit the entire world. Those, who do not have Me and My Son at the center of their lives, shall perish in utter darkness.

Yes, My Child, the planet is headed this way and sooner than most will ever believe. It is a matter of very, very few years. On top of this, you have world war, a world economic collapse, world famine, antichrist torture, governments collapsing, the introduction of the mark and more.

My Child, never have times been so perilous for the whole Earth. But, I tell you, My Little One, I shall not leave My people high and dry! For, never in the history of the Earth has there been such a great outpouring of My Spirit, of My power, as what you are about to see emerging! For, My very own system of government is being set up amidst the Antichrist rule and through My very own, I shall bring forth a rule with rods of iron until the enemy is whipped and utterly defeated through the return of My Son. Yes, My Child, these are perilous times, but for My Faithful, these are times of great and mighty miracles!

My Little One, it is now time to update the Message for You. Put this on the current Message for You and place as Part I of the next chapter. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

Dear Ones, I do not believe that George W. Bush has to die! Right after he took office, our Father warned that if he did not walk the Straight and Narrow that he would die by the sword. I still believe that there is time for George W. Bush to turn around, but if he attacks Iraq, I fear that there will be so much international hate directed toward him that he may very well seal his own fate. Beloved, pray that he wakes up and stops the nonsense! I do not want to see this man perish!

CHAPTER ELEVEN - PART II

"Beware the Greys!"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me! Behold My words for you today, for they are laced with My love and heavenly guidance for My Children. My Little One, through the words of My Son, each of you has been warned of the severity of these times. You have been warned of wars and rumors of wars and you have been warned of earthquakes in diverse places. You have been told that these days, which are upon you, can be likened to the days of Noah and to the days of Sodom and Gomorrah.

My Child, let us speak of the days of Noah, wherein a flood overtook the whole Earth, and most perished. As you know from your studies, My Child, the return of the Planet Niburu was responsible for the flood. But, recall as well, that the heavenly watchers had also left their stations. They had mated with the human women on Earth and in so doing had produced giants. All around the world was gross corruption, stealth, cunning, lying, stealing and murder. And, in a few hours, it was all destroyed.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

In the days of Sodom and Gomorrah was utter rebellion and idolatry. Men with men and women with women, blatant rebellion so severe and animalistic that the whole of the area was irradiated, destroyed by nuclear weapons.

And now, My Child, you come to the current day, wherein these same kinds of foolishness are taking place. The fallen ones, Lucifer and his hoards, have mated with the humans, and all against their will, as in the days of Noah, and hybrids, many hybrids have been produced. My Child, in years past, the Spirit of God revealed these things to you and you wrote of them, warning the people that there would come a time wherein these hybrids would be brought forth. And, they would be used to help do away with all humans. Why? Because they are as automotons and they lack a conscience. They have been bred this way. All among them, who possessed too many human qualities as regards love and compassion, were straightaway done away with.

My Child, as you know, their plan is to enslave all humans on the planet, who are left after this planet is once again flooded by the passing of Niburu. Here and there, you are hearing of their plans and they are coming through what is called "channeling." Listen, My Child, the days of Noah and the days of Sodom and Gomorrah are now. These hybrids now number into the hundreds of thousands and they are capable of mating with humans; but through the regressive genes, hideous beings will come forth. BELIEVE NOT THE GREYS! For, as you know, they are indeed the fallen ones, the reptilian ones in disguise. You have heard tail of their skin tight suits and their goggles, which they wear to protect themselves from the sunlight, for their habitation is underground. They live in tunnels and burrow into the ground as ants and have a similar mentality. But, finding the humans fair they have traded technology with them, collaborating with them, while their fellow humans turn a blind eye to their evil works. Knowing the rampant greed among humans, they have worked side by side with them and they have manipulated and used them. But, My Child, those, who trust them are utter fools. The "Greys" are no different from those, who are called the reptilians. They are the reptilians and because they have lived within the Earth they must shield themselves from the light. They are creatures of darkness. Understand?

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, it is a lie that they have come from a faraway planet. And, it is a lie, a great lie, that they are out to help humanity in any way. They have come forth as servants of Lucifer, as pawns of Lucifer and his elect, and they are here to conquer, to kill, to murder and further enslave the remnant of mankind. Do you understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, know this, My Child, at the time of the great war in the heavens, in times past, they were cast into the Earth and they are now just as much a part of the Earth as humans. They have thrived within the Earth for they are creatures of darkness. Yet, of late, has their master, Satan, Lucifer, the Dragon, been cast into the Earth and now you see the battle escalating.

Yes, My Child, they know that the planet is returning. This is correct information. It is not coming from the coordinates they indicate, but an illusion is coming from these coordinates. So, beware! They have given intricate details of all parts of the Earth, which shall be safe, and which shall be inundated with water. There again, some truth and many lies!
My Child, listen to Me. I AM GOD! I AM THE MOST HIGH! I AM THE CREATOR OF ALL! Through My very hand, I am able to delay this planet. I am able to speed it up and I am able to slow it down. I am able to protect whole cities and whole continents from devastation. Therefore, My Child, only I know what areas are safe and what areas are not safe. I tell you now that I shall protect large areas for love of two or three of My Faithful. And, I shall totally inundate and destroy whole cities and large coastlines, even island areas, because of rampant rebellion. Yes, My Child, Niburu, the Lost Planet, is near. It is very near and billions of people do stand to perish. But, I shall never forsake My Faithful. I shall never forsake My Loved Ones. It is true that many of Mine will come home, but My Pure of Heart will go on into eternal life. They will not taste death! But, I tell you, My Child, the Pure of Heart are few and far between.

Yes, My Child, as in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah, a nuclear holocaust of mighty proportions is upon the world. And, just as Lucifer is planning it, all countries are lining up against Israel, the country, and my House of Israel, the USA. And, even though corruption is rampant in both countries, they both harbor My Beloved. They both harbor My Faithful. They both harbor My Tried and True. I shall fight on behalf of My Loved Ones. I shall intervene over and over and I shall give them mighty and unparalleled victories over the evil ones. They shall not win with guns or wars, but through My supernatural intervention.

Yes, My Child, I am the Victor and I shall not sit idly by and see My Loved Ones annihilated by the devices of evil. Even as I speak, My Child, My judgement is upon the Earth. My judgement is upon those, who call black white and white black. My judgement is upon the rebellious. But, to My Faithful I say, "Do not fear! When you see al these things upon you, do not despair. For, truly, your redemption is at hand.

My Child, post this on the current Message for You and post as Part II of the next chapter of Book VIII. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER ELEVEN - PART III

"Doors Within Doors"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea true Lord of Earth; for it has been deemed so, even from the beginning. But, now My Child, as you look around, you hear of wars and rumors of wars. You hear of earthquakes in many places. You see mighty storms and hear of great floods and upheavals among many people. You hear of massive famine in parts of the world and the fury of the devil is sent among the starving to assure that the greatest numbers die of famine and disease. You read of plagues, many plagues within the Earth and they have been spread by the hands of the evil ones. And, even among all theses things, I ask you, ‘How many repent?’"

"My Precious Lord, I believe the numbers are small."

"And, My Beloved, even as you see a world economic collapse at the door of this very planet, who is led to speak out for change? Even at the head of your own government, many clamor for war, rather than face the effects of years of decadent living, years of lying, stealing and scheming. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"My Little One, so often I have warned about what is at hand. So often, I have called my prophets to warn and many of them have succumbed to self. They have succumbed to the wiles of Satan, and they have fallen by the way. Yes, My Child, a great tragedy has fallen among My prophets and there are few left, who espouse my truths. For, My Father and I have cleaned them out. Every prophet has been through the fires of testing and many, many have fallen. As you look around, you will see that I have cut off many. I have sealed their mouths, yet some still proclaim words as if they are from Me, when they are from their own minds. Through this sifting, I am raising up new Elijahs. I am raising up new Peters and Pauls. I am raising up a new breed of holy fire anointed, mighty miracle-working, couriers and speakers for our Father's words. Yes, My Child, this year has seen the institution of a mighty sorting among my prophets. It has been a time of redirecting for some and a time of mighty training for all, who are left standing. Yes, my Child, I have opened a new heavenly door and all, who have been found worthy have walked through this door. But, I am sorrowful to say that these numbers are small. They are small, indeed! But, I am raising up these few to do mighty and unparalleled works in the Earth. These, who go forth, from among this group, walk in my holy fires and they shall move mighty and great mountains. But, I tell you, my Child, that every single one of them have heard My call to come out of the world. Every single one of them has heard my call to repent and to cause my people to repent. Every single one of them has been through great trials and mighty tribulations and every single one of them has been found worthy of greater works. Yes, my Child, I hear what you are thinking, of those, who did not make the grade, some will repent and come full circle back to me. But, I tell you now that these are few. Most, who have fallen, will remain fallen still; for their sins are grievous before me and they have not been found trustworthy for greater things. Do you understand?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, my Lord."

"Then, My Child, let us proceed. Let us talk about doors within doors."

"Yes, my Lord, what do you mean by ‘doors within doors?"

"My Child, I mean that the works of our Father exist in layers. One passes through one layer into the next, or from one door into another door, or into a deeper meaning."

"Yes, my Lord, I understand this about the word of God."

"So, my Child, you have people. Who are surface feeders and then you have a few, very few, who dive into the word and thirst and hunger for the deeper things."

"Yes, my Lord, I understand."

"So, my Child, from the standpoint of the deeper things, one knows that truths exist on many levels until one comes to an absolute truth."

"Yes, my Lord."

"An absolute truth is foundational and unchanging."

"Yes, my Lord."

"But, to find the absolute truths may not be easy. An absolute truth may be as plain as one’s nose, yet totally obscured from one’s perception. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"Yet, my Child, all our Father's works operate on absolute and unchanging truths."

"Yes, my Lord."

"So, my Child, based on what I have just said, you can easily understand why you live in a world, which is filled with illusion."

"Yes, my Lord, this is so and most people are comfortable living in illusion, very comfortable and when they are confronted with the deeper truths, they cannot handle them, so they mock and scorn."

"This is exactly what happens. So, my Child, in this world, you have souls, who are on many different levels spiritually. Those, who want to grow spiritually, will always be seeking the deeper and hidden truths. They will be disciplined and steadfast in their faith. But, those, who are content with the shallow walk, will always reject the deeper things, for these are alien to their thinking."

"Yes, my Lord, I know this and I have even known a number of your prophets, who scoff and make fun of the deeper truths."

"This is so, my Child, and they are then cut off in the shallow walk."

"My Lord, why are you telling me these things today?"

"My Child, I am sending this forth that those, who have the ear will hear, that those, who have the eyes to see, will see, and that they will open up their hearts to a deeper understanding of my word. But, if they will not, they will mock and scorn and they shall be further cut off. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"My Child, what do you see before you?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Lord, I see a beautiful stream, or I should say, I see a beautiful river. The water is crystalline and ever so pure. I am wading in this beautiful river and it is not cold, but wonderfully warm and inviting. As I wade out, I see that the rocks are radiantly crystalline and they reflect every color of the rainbow. As I continue to go out, the water becomes very deep. As I look out to the far stretches of the water, I see that this river is very wide at this point. It is so wide, in fact, that I cannot clearly see the other side. As the water deepens, I see that it stretches into a wide expanse of beautiful aquamarine. It is so beautiful! Here and there are very small lifeforms of light, which come out of the water, and from a distance, they appear as very small angels. Again and again, they dive down and resurface. My Lord, I am swimming in the River of Life."
"You are, for you have been here many times before."

"Thank you, my Beautiful Lord, for allowing this wonderful experience, but I feel so sad. My heart is suddenly so heavy and I must climb upon this rock for a spell. Deep sorrow is creeping into my heart and I cannot help but weep." As I weep, my tears fall onto my robe and they stain it blue as they trickle down. I look up to see our Beautiful Jesus. He takes a cloth and wipes my eyes and as I look down at the blue tear stains, I see that they begin to burn like a very bright white fire. I feel as if I shall be burned and our Lord Jesus says, "Be still and be at peace." Suddenly, The white fire grows brighter and brighter and I find myself amidst a very bright white-light fire, and the fire is not burning me, but is very uplifting. Suddenly, I stand up, aware that I am jumping for joy. And, each time I jump, I soar high, very high, and seem to float in air. As I come back down, I see the beauty of the face of our Lord Jesus He is so full of love.

"Do you know who taught you to fly?"

"Yes, my Lord, you did."

"This is so."

"My Lord, I was weeping, feeling so sad, and I am not even sure why, for I am so very blessed to swim in these waters."

"I know why you were weeping."

"Why, my Lord?"

"My Child, you were weeping for all the souls, who will never swim this beautiful river."

"What happened with the tears? Why did they turn blue and then create a blaze of light?"

"My Child, I know your every tear. I know your every sorrow and your tears are not shed for naught. Your tears are cleansing. They are purging and through your tears, I shall lift you up to new heights. Oh, my Lord, how my heart aches for the rebellious. How my soul is pained for those, who are lost in darkness and wish to stay that way. Oh, my Lord, I feel so helpless about so much, which is going on in the world."

"My Child, I know you believe in the miraculous hand of God; for you have seen many miracles."

"Yes, my Lord, I have seen many miracles and know that they all come through you from our Father in Heaven."

"This is so, my Child, yet do not forget the fake miracles, which come from Lucifer and his own and these will deceive many."

"Yes, my Lord, I pray to have a keen discernment so that I am aware of the fakers. But, in my life, I have seen over and over the miraculous hand of God and I pray to be worthy to see many more."

"My Child, I have told you that I will send you into the stores, into the streets, and that you will heal the sick, set the captives free, raise the dead, anoint the lost and that you will work many miracles."

"Yes, my Lord, you have said it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child, this work has only begun. I want you to anoint 100 prayer cloths and these are to be given to the sick and dying. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, after these are given out, then I will have you anoint 100 more. Understand?"
"Yes, my Lord."

"For, I am carrying you higher in my works and you will work many a miracle in the Earth. There will come a time wherein the sick will be healed and the possessed will be set free, just by touching the garments you are wearing. Understand."

"My Lord, I accept what you say, but I do not believe that I can ever understand our Father and how He works. My Lord, this is all very humbling to me and I do not feel the least bit worthy. For, I will always remember how lost I have been and I know that I am but a child."

"Yes, my Child, this is so, but you are loved greatly by me and by our Father and He has mighty works ahead for you."

"My Lord, I look forward to these works. To our Father in Heaven is the praise and glory forever and ever!"

"With this, my Child, we shall stop for today. Add this as the third part of the next chapter of Book Eight. I am Jesus and all is given in accord with the will of our Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWELVE - PART I

"The Golden Key"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, true Lord of Earth and heir to this planet and to her Chosen Ones."

"My Lord, pardon me for interrupting, but why do You say, ‘her chosen ones?’"

"My Child, there is so very much, which you do not k now and understand, as much has been hidden from your sight and understanding. But, I tell you, My Child, and you will have trouble understanding this, but the Earth, herself, the very spirit thereof, played a role in choosing those, who would help to fight with her for her survival in these end times. For, she, too knew of the grave upheaval to come, wherein her very existence would be threatened by the lawless ones. Therefore, My Child, many of you have also been chosen by this very planet and you have been stationed at various locations to aid in her survival."

"My Lord, of the hidden and deeper things, we truly have so little understanding."

"My Little One, do you remember when I gave you a very large golden key and I told you that it is My key to the hearts of My people?"

"Yes, my Lord and it is very heavy, in fact too heavy for me to pick up, save the Spirit of God gives me the strength."

"And, you have received word of how some have mocked and denied that I would have given you such a key…"

"Yes, my Lord, I have been told such."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"But, My Child, I have entrusted you with this key and I have given it to you so that you can unlock the hearts of My people, that you may know what is therein."

"My Lord, I never knew why You entrusted me with it and never asked; for I did not doubt, but believed that You would tell me what I should know. But, my Lord, if it pleases You, would you tell me why you have given me this key now and how you will use it though Your Spirit?"

"My Child, many come in My name and profess Me with their mouths; but their hearts are as black as pitch. My Child, you have known some of these and in fact you have met some, who proclaim to be prophets, but are out for self, serving Lucifer and are none of Mine. But with My key now in your possession, My Child, you shall know the hearts of others, for I shall reveal all to you. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord and I humble myself at Your feet, praising You and thanking You; for I do not feel worthy of such a beautiful gift."

"My Child, you are greatly loved by Me, by our Father in Heaven and by the angels of Heaven. The war in the Earth is moving quickly forward at an accelerated pace and I will never leave or forsake you. As time goes by, I will make sure that you and all my Chosen Ones are well-equipped to fight the war. From hence onward, you will be able to look at another and look within their hearts. I will show you what people are really like and rarely, rarely will you find one, whose heart is pure. This key, My Child, will show you the truth about all people and as you speak the truth to them, some will be pleased, but many will be very angry. For, the masses do not love truth They love illusion. They love a lie. My Child, ponder on these things and ad this as the first part of the next chapter. With this, we shall stop for today."

As some of you may remember, a few weeks prior to this message, our Lord Jesus appeared to me while I was out watering the garden. He gave me a message to speak on the radio that day and the message centered around the fact that America is truly fallen to the rogues, thieves and murderers. Among other things, which He showed me in the garden that day was a golden key. This was a very large and heavy key and at the time I did not know why he had given me this key, but he did tell me that it was His key to the hearts of His people. In this message, He explains what this key is and why he gave it to me at this time.

CHAPTER TWELVE - PART II

"The Evergreens and the Deciduous Trees"

"My Precious Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hearken unto Me and receive My words; for the world over My people perish for lack of truth. They perish for lack of knowledge, which is straight from My throne, and they perish for lack of understanding. My Little One, you know that all that is hidden shall be revealed; for surely My Son has spoken it. And, you know, My Child that in these last days, much is hidden, for Lucifer and his devoted ones thrive in secret. But, I tell you that all is known to Me; for I see all. I know all.

My Little One, when a tree sheds it leaves, you know that it is Autumn and winter is close at hand; and conversely when the tree puts on new leaves, you know it is Spring and Summer is soon at hand. But, did you know that an evergreen has no perception of the seasons; for it is green all year long?

My Little One, My Faithful, My Tried and True, are as the evergreens. The seasons of the world change from hot to mild to cold and intense, but those, who put Me first, who love and honor My Son, who are obedient and trustworthy, find that the seasons do not affect them. Just as the evergreens, they are unaffected by the hard times. Just like the evergreens, they stand tall and beautiful, regardless of the season. And, yes,

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

My Child, I know what you are thinking. In ice and heavy snow and in lightening, some of the evergreens perish and some are preserved; but do you not know that they see this coming?"

"Father, what do You mean by, ‘They see this coming?’"

"What I mean, My Child, is that in My hand is the divine ax and with this ax, I prune and take out even Mine Elect."

"Father, but some of these evergreens are very young."

"This is so, but even so, they are all evergreens and they are created to weather all storms, just the same. And, some grow to be very tall and very thick and I protect them over much time from all storms."

"Father, why is this? Why do some perish at an early age and some live to an old age?"

"My Child, to each of My evergreens is given My divine purpose. And, this divine purpose is not always known to each evergreen; but to Me is known all."

"But, Father, what of those of us, who lose our leaves with the changing of the seasons?"

"My Child, to those, who lose their leaves with the changing of the seasons, My advice is this. Stay on the Straight and Narrow, for you will face many storms and save you stay on the Straight and Narrow, you may perish in the frigid winters or in the scorching summers."

"But, Father, why were some souls created as evergreens and some as deciduous trees?"

"My Child, this has been My decision and is an inherent part of the soul’s journey. Yet, My Child, in the forest of humanity, do not all souls of trees have a place?"

"Yes, Father, all have a place."

"And, it matters not whether one loses its leaves, or retains its needles, the course is still the same. Stay on the Straight and Narrow and one will weather any and all seasons until My pruning ax falls. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father, but why are You telling me these things now?"

"I told you, My Child, as one wrote you about a vision of a tree with falling leaves. The one, who wrote, is this tree and this individual is facing a winter of her life. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"But, remember, after the winter is Spring for all, who persevere and live righteously. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, My Child, you are wondering if you will see the Board of Seven Elders again."

"Yes, my Father."

"And, you will ,but not today. My Child, I am very pleased in you, for you have shown your discipline in attending to a very important work and as you continue to discipline yourself I will show you great and mighty things. Would you like this?"

"Oh, my Father, You know I would like this!"

"And, some will mock and others will scorn. But, My Little One, those of little minds will have little minds still and those, who seek the deep and hidden mysteries of My Kingdom will come and they will be filled."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Father, my desire is to do Your will and I pray to be found worthy to reveal that, which is hidden."

"My Little One, rise up and go to the window before you. What do you see?"

"My Father, I look out a picture window and I see mountains, very tall mountains and much snow. I see a black helicopter fly over and I hear the pilot as he calls over the microphone and says, 'Mayday, mayday.' Then, the helicopter spins out of control and crashes into the snow below. Then, Father, it is as if I am in a skyscraper and I am looking down into a very busy street and far below I see fire trucks and police cars and people are running here and there as very black smoke is pouring from a shop window. And, through the smoke, I faintly see these words on the window pane …'USA disenfranchised.'

Then, suddenly the window before me is closed with heavy shutters and I cannot see, but can hear a distinct hum. Outside, I sense a skii-lift passing over the mountains and I hear someone say, "He will be alright." Still, I hear the hum as I take my seat in this very chair and focus on these words, which I am writing. "Father, what does all this mean?"

"My Child, in the first vision, what season did you see?"

"Father, it is a bitter cold season and I see a military man in trouble. He crashes into the snow."

"My Child, this bitter cold season is now upon the USA and the world and the helicopter pilot represents the military of the USA. Over-stretched and over-budgeted, you will see it take a nose dive into the snow. It will send out distinct warnings of its imminent crash and as you see in the last vision, it will get help through an airlift, but it will be too late."

"Father, what do You mean by airlift?"

"My Child, your military is already in trouble. Your Commander and Chief is going to further stretch it and in the dark and cold winter of this country, it is going to crash. Though help will come, it will be too late. This is at hand and is only more woe upon woe, which you already have in your economy. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father; but I am curious as to why you are showing me this now?"

"To warn you in advance; for grievous times are upon the USA."

"But, Father, what about the skyscraper vision with the fire trucks and police?

"My Child, greater calamities are coming in the streets of the USA. These planned terror escapades will be used to take away your rights to vote in free elections. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Know these plans are in the works, My Child; for the Bushes plan to stay in power any way they possibly can."

"Father, we have already seen a round of this."

"Yes, you have, my Child, but you have seen nothing yet. The anarchists in power are hell-bent to destroy America, destroy and rule the world and to kill every Christian after they have systematically destroyed you morally. My Little One, it is wisdom to know their plans. With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Yes, My Child, post as the second part of the next chapter."

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

"The Point of no Return"

October 10, 2002

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Lord of Earth. Beginning with this message, My Child, I shall begin to open up that, which has been hidden for a long time. Yea, like a long-forgotten door, which is covered with the sands of time is this door; and to you, My Child, I now hand the key that you may enter therein and witness what has been set aside and saved for these very last days. Therefore, My Little One, take this key and go to the door, which is partially covered by the sands of time and open the door."

"My Lord, I take this key, which flashes with a brilliant light." It is a small key, but it is a heavy key and when I look closely at they key, I see that it is divided into seven visible layers. But, there are three or more layers of spirit, which are part of this key and these are discernible only through the Spirit of God. With this key in my hand, I wade through rather deep sand until I come to the door, which is partially covered with the sands of time. Noting the lock, which is well above the level of the sand, I insert the key and feel a click as I turn it in the door. As if powered by an unseen force, the door glides open and some of the sand, which is blocking the entrance of the door, rushes forth into the opening. I feel a swish of wind from behind, as if a draft is pulling warm wind in behind me, and in the warmth of this ensuing wind, I take my first step through the portal of this door. Looking for writing or symbols on the door, I see none, however, I am keenly aware of the scent of fresh-picked roses. Looking about, I see nothing unusual at first, for I seem to be in a hallway of sorts. Yet, as my eyes become accustomed to the lighting, I can clearly see rooms, which go off to either side. I hear the Spirit of God say, 'Go left,' and following the direction of the Spirit, I enter into a most beautifully lighted room. Once inside, I see light coming from the walls. It is a white light and the walls seem to be made of beautifully cut crystal, or perhaps diamonds, but upon first glance I cannot tell. The smell of roses is even stronger and I am drawn to a beautifully carved and ornate table for two. It is white and the legs and rim of the table appear to be made of ornately carved gold, while the top of the table appears to be white marble with pale pink veins. I sit down in one of the chairs, which has a white cushion. It is soft and downy and as I sit I notice that a beautiful light shines directly onto the top of the table and comes from within the crystalline wall.

I hear a swish, again as if the passing of a current of wind, and I look up to see a dark opening in the wall beside the table. I cannot tell where this dark opening leads; but I sense great evil and much darkness. Looking into the deep and narrow abyss, I feel uncomfortable and do not like being here alone in this room. But, suddenly I sense the beautiful and loving presence of our Lord Jesus as He comes through the open door. He is so precious and beautiful, so full of love and mercy. Looking at me, He says, "My Child, today you will learn a lesson in containment." Not understanding what He means, I reply, "Yes, my Lord."

"Our Lord Jesus takes a seat opposite me and in the silence I am again aware of the slight hum, a hum, which was ever-so-subtle when I entered the room, but is now more noticeable. Jarring me suddenly into a state of hyper-vigilance are sounds of banging and shouting, which are coming from this dark portal. Swearing and shouting escalate and I hear sounds, like chains, which are dragging across a stone floor. A deep sense of foreboding begins to enter my spirit; for I do not want to see what is inside this dark portal. Sensing my repulsion, our Lord Jesus reaches over and touches me on the shoulder bringing into my spirit a beautiful sense of peace and love. "My Beloved," He says, "All is not as it seems. Take heed; for this is coming into the Earth." I shudder at the thought of more violence and I shudder at the thought that what is on the end of that chain is about to be released into the Earth. Oh, my heart feel so heavy and I feel that I just cannot face whatever this evil is and I begin to weep profusely as a small child. I look at our Lord Jesus through great tears and deep sorrow and I say, "Oh, Beautiful Lord, how shall the people go on? Already, the plagues are being poured out and so few even notice. Lucifer and his hoards are paralyzing the world, out to destroy all life and so few even notice. Now, my Lord, I have such a dread in my soul, so much sorrow and dread; for I sense that what is coming out of this dark abyss is so awful."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

In a beautiful and loving way, He reaches over, cups my chin in His huge hand, takes a cloth and wipes my tears and says, "My Child, look into My eyes."

Still weeping and sobbing, now almost uncontrollably, I try to focus on his beautiful eyes, but through a blur, and suddenly I am lost in such warmth and love, oh such beauty. Oh, the precious love of our Lord Jesus! How he loves us! For a moment, I am like a small babe, caught up in his arms and He is singing a most beautiful song of total and pure love.

Suddenly, I realize that He is speaking to me, "My Beloved, fear not and weep not for the lost! A great upheaval is in the Earth. North shall be South and South shall be North; but never the twain shall meet."

Even as He says these things, I feel a mighty shaking of the Earth. Oh, it is shaking and it is rumbling and I see mighty rockslides. Dams are breaking with water flooding great areas. Trees are pulled down and uprooted and forests are laid low. Power lines are twisted and broken and tall buildings are laid low as rubble. The ocean is churning and the winds are howling, creating mighty wind sheers of 400 mph. Tornadoes are spinning and lakes and rivers are being dumped out of their basins. People in houses are thrown out of their houses and houses and buildings and rubbish are covering whole cities. Great floods, mighty floods, and great rains are pouring out of the skies and thick clouds, which persist for many weeks fill the sky. And, lightening, like I have never seen, mighty lightening and ear-piercing thunder roll forth and fill the air."

"Oh, my Lord, I am so frightened!" And, I find myself sinking beneath the table, clinging to the feet of our Lord Jesus. I feel his hand on the top of my head and he says, "My Child, fear not! Come hither and I will show you what this racket is. I shall show you from whence it comes."

Then, as a small, frightened child, I crawl from under the table and my heart is racing. Pointing to a window, which is like a picture screen, our Lord Jesus shows me to a flaming, red planet. I recognize it from the ancient writings of the Sumerians and I know that it is Niburu, the Planet of the Crossing, or the Lost Planet. "Yes, my Lord, I know this is Niburu."

"My Child, this is so, but there is one thing you do not know about it."

"Oh, my Lord, I feel that I know so little about it, as to almost know nothing."

"Yes, my Child, but there is one very important thing you do not know and you need to know this."

"What is it, my Lord?"

"It is hollow."

"Hollow?"

"Yes, it is hollow."

"But it is a planet is it not?"

"Yes, my Child."

"My Lord, why is this so important? Why do you want me to know that is it hollow?"

"I want you to know this, my Child: very few things are as you believe them to be. And, this is also the case with Niburu."

"My Lord, what do You mean?"

"My Child, you believe it is a planet."

"My Lord, either a planet or a star."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"But, what if I told you that it is neither, but a wandering domain of the fallen ones, Would you believe this?"

"Yes, my Lord, I would believe this."

"But, it is believed to be a planet."

"It is believed to be a planet and even fits the definition of a planet, but is unlike a planet."

"But, our Father refers to it as a planet."

"He does as this is how you see it and understand it."

"So, did our Father create it?"

"He did, but it is a wandering home for the fallen ones."

"A wandering home? Sort of like a comet, a wanderer?"

"Yes, my Child."

"But, my Lord, were they the fallen ones before they mated with man?"

"Yes."

"But, my Lord, in the ancient writings, they talk of eating of the Tree of Life and they talk of eternal life. They even write that they live to be very old, like hundreds of thousands of years old, or even millions of years old."

"They do."

"But, my Lord these are not all of the fallen ones?"

"No, only some."

"But, my Lord, my question has been for some time … Why has the Earth been chosen as the place for this final battle with Lucifer? I do not understand this. Why, my Lord?"
"My Child, if a boomerang is thrown out and one with skill tosses it out, does it return to the one, who threw it out?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"Then, know this, My Child, this solar system captured the wanderers and threw them out. The Earth, itself, suffered a mighty blow because of the collision with satellites of this planet."

"So, it also relates to the Earth, itself, as to why this planet was chosen for the final battle?"

"Yes. Remember, My Child, that the planets are possessed of spirits, which are living, sentient beings."

"My Lord, our Father has shown this."

"So, my Child, the Earth, itself, agreed to do battle with this wanderer and to set up the stage for the final battle with those, who serve Lucifer."

"My Lord, are these the ones with the serpent spirits?'

"They are."

"But, all of them?"

"No, not all, My Child, but most. My Child, to you not see what is going on in the Earth? Evil, My Child, much evil. These evil ones are out to destroy this very planet and this is why. They are out to destroy each of you as they hate you. They are poisoning the waters, poisoning the air and killing the planet by degrees. All this, My Child, has been hidden from the masses. They do not intend to leave a single human on this planet. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, these, My child, are ruling this planet. Through their human counterparts, they rule. And, from their stations in space, they still rule. This is why, My Child, that I am bringing fleets. This is why I am bringing armadas from distant planets. For, there will be a great war in the heavens, wherein they will be rooted out. They will be subdued. They will be defeated and their souls will be cast into the lake of fire."

"And, my Lord, they know this."

"They do, but in their arrogance, they believe that they can defeat the Powers of Light. They cannot. They are already defeated; but those in the Earth, who do not love Me and our Father, will perish. Those, who trust in the evil ones, will surely perish beneath the weight of their evil rule."

"Oh, my Lord, this is awful! But, coming from distant stars are loving beings?"

"Yes, my Child, but many, who are evil, are helping to destroy this planet. They are helping to destroy the wildlife, the plant life and they are bringing forth their creatures of terror, like the chupacabras."

"Oh, my Lord, this is a dreadful thing."

"It is, My Child, and this is why I have a supernatural army on my side."

"My Lord, our Father has said that at the time of the nuclear blast, a goodly number will go home, but some will return to go between worlds. My Lord, these who get purified bodies and go between worlds, who cannot be hurt, are they part of your supernatural army?"

"Yes."

"My Lord, how long do we have?"

"My Child, you are on an accelerated course. When the Senate agrees to this war, they seal the fate of the USA and within a very short time thereafter, the first nuclear blast will take place. At the signal of this first nuclear blast, the first round of souls will be lifted off. Within this first round will be my kings and queens, many of my priests and certain numbers of the Pure of Heart."

"But, my Lord, this is only the first round?"

"It is."

"My Lord, how long do we have before Niburu passes?"

"My Child, it is not altogether the passing, which is the significant point, but what takes place before and after. But, I tell you, my Child, within twenty-four months grave and terrible catastrophes shall befall the Earth due to its passing."

"My Lord, you said within twenty-four months."

"I did."

"My Lord, we do not have long."

"No, my Child, you do not."

"So, between now and then, some will go home and return with purified bodies?"

"This is so."

"Oh, my Lord, we are facing some dreadful times!"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"This is so."

"My Lord, I am afraid to ask, but I know I must."

"Yes, My Child, what is now held in chains , that will soon be unleashed …"

"Yes, my Lord, what is it?"

"My Child, up until now, Satan has been kept in chains for he has not been released upon the world to do as he chooses; but My Little One, when the USA goes to war against Iraq, a needless and senseless war, he will be turned loose on the world. His fury will hit America and know this, My Child, … this is being allowed by the Most High; for you, as a nation, have willingly started WWIII, and all for greed, all for power and all for the purposes of the bought and sold whores of your congress.

My Little One, with this decision for war, the world shall rush headlong into WWIII. It shall rush headlong into a world, economic collapse. It shall rush headlong into a world famine. All these things, My Child, are upon the world; for this country is fallen. It is fallen to the thieves and rogues. The churches are full of the lackadaisical, the putrid, and very few walk the Straight and Narrow. This, My Child, is why all these things are upon America and upon the world. But, know this, I will never leave or forsake My Loved Ones. The Pure of Heart are safe, always safe within My love and they shall be counted worthy to escape death. Yes, they will be persecuted and many will know much sorrow; for all are being tried. They are all being purified. But, I shall keep them from death."

"My Lord, does this include any of the Pure of Heart, who agreed to become martyrs?"

"It does not. For before this life, they chose martyrdom."

"Do these know who they are?"

"Some do. Some do not."

"So, my Lord we have reached a point of no return."

The decision by your leaders to invade Iraq again is the point of no return and I tell you, My Child, they are all rushing headlong into slaughter."

"Oh, my Lord, this is so terrible."

"Yes, My Child, for it is the beginning of the end; and with this we shall stop for today. I am Jesus, and all is given in accord with the will of Jehovah, Most High God."

"My lord, where shall You have me put this?"

"Put in the next Message for You and also as the next chapter in Book VIII."

"Thank You, my Beautiful One."

CHAPTER FOURTEEN - PART I

"A Great Sifting"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Yeshua, Lord of Earth. My Little One, just as surely as you hear the wind chimes as they are stroked by the moving wind, you shall hear Me speak to you of the upcoming calamities. Yes, My Child, My warnings shall continue to sound through these writings, even until the very end. For, here and there all around the world, some are awakening to the truth of their plights. My Child, some say, 'It is never too late.' For even on their deathbeds, there are those, who repent and turn to Me. And, I tell you, My Child, that in some respects, this bears truth. For, truly even on their deathbeds, the Spirit of God visits some and they repent, being spared a sure and certain death. But, My Little One, this is but one scenario, wherein one is allowed time before the harbinger of death takes the spirit from the body. However, My Little One, what is emerging is a global war on many fronts and death shall take many unawares. There shall be no deathbed repentance; for the deathbed will not be in a home, or in a hospital; but in the highways and the byways, yea in the very streets, in the clubs as you have seen in Bali, in the schools, at the workplace and to and from home. Yes, My Child, in the air, in the sea and in places far and wide! And, for those, who believe that they will have time for a deathbed repentance, I say, 'Woe to you; for you are foolish, indeed! You gamble with your destiny and you may lose in a very big way.

My Little One, all should know that a choice for eternal life involves daily decisions of love toward our Father and fellow man. A choice for eternal life involves daily decisions to obey our Father's commands and to live a humble life through constant repentance and forgiveness. My Little One, these are conscious decisions, which are directed toward a common goal. These are not haphazard, but planned.

I tell you, My Child, as I look out all around the world at My People, who should have plans for eternal life, I see those, who are playing a game of chance. They are gambling with their destinies, believing that they have many years. My Little One, behold what I say; for none of you has many years. Look around you!

Many believe that the sniper attacks (in Washington DC) are a thing of chance, but they are not. They are well-planned military hits, which have been carefully orchestrated by the Satanists within your own government, and all to take your guns, all to declare martial law, and all to bring in the military and give evidence as a need for more and more spying. Under such abject fear, they know you will gladly relinquish your rights for reasons of 'safety.' My Little One, this is a Pentagon scam. It is a Luciferian scam and is but one more trick played by the same ones, who bombed Bali.

Listen, My Child, out of chaos, they are bringing in their New World Order. Yes, My Little One, it is a Luciferian system and like lost and abandoned sheep, the masses are following the Pied Piper of Lucifer. But, what are My People doing? Are you organized in your prayer efforts? Are you obedient to our Father's commands? Are you watchful? Oh, My Child, so few! All across this land, so few are organized in their works for our Father.

My Child, look around and see. Behold the prophets, who are telling the people outright lies! In these perilous times, you have prophets, who support George Bush. You have prophets, who will not speak out against a satanic government. You have prophets, who will only tell the nice things. They will only speak the good things, the 'warm and fuzzy' things. My Child, these are terrible times. They are perilous times. Many souls are at stake, ready to perish, and the prophets will not speak the truth. They will not warn My People. My Child, I am ashamed, deeply ashamed! These are not Mine; for Mine will not back down from the truth. Mine will not arbitrate the truth. Mine will not soft-pedal the real issues of slavery, which are rampant in this world.

If My prophets will not rise and cause My People to repent, I shall cut them off! I shall cease to speak to them! My Child, our Father has warned already of this and you are seeing it come to pass. As you look out, how many prophets do you see, who no longer receive prophecies? How many, My Child?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Oh, my Precious Lord, I have seen some."

"And, you are going to see more. You have only seen the first round. If these prophets will not rise up and come out of their stupor and speak the truth, causing My People to repent, I shall further cut them off. A great sifting is taking place in the prophetic. The Tried and True are moving forth to do great and mighty works, but the profane and the false shall further dry up on the vine! I am ashamed, My Child. Many have been called; but truly few are being chosen. Now, many are cut off from the Spirit of God. I send them not. Our Father sends them not, yet they run. Many set themselves up high and organize prophetic events; but I am not in this. Our Father is not in this."

"My Lord, my heart is so sad."

"And, 'tis so with My heart. My Little One, the putrid is rotting on the vine; but I am caring for the True Vine. I am caring for the Tried and True and all else shall perish."

"My Lord, I know that what you are saying is widespread with the prophets, but how widespread?"

"My Child, truly over 2/3 of those, who say, 'Thus saith the Lord,' have been cut off. They are speaking from their minds, or are tools of deceiving spirits. But, I tell you, My Child, before they were cut off they wandered into self. They wandered into pride. They wandered into ego. They arbitrated My word, here a little and there a little. They refused to discipline themselves and obey and when they were ripe with iniquity, our Father cut them off. Now, My Child, there are considerably fewer prophets; but those, who are left stand to do great and mighty works."

"Oh, my Lord, I have such a deep fear of our Father, such a deep fear, and my heart aches for those, who have transgressed. I pray, My Lord, that our Father is merciful to them, that He will allow them opportunities to repent and come back."

"My Child, the Spirit of the World has moved in; for they have opened themselves to it and unless they repent in a mighty way, they shall not be restored as prophets. My Little One, the ‘heat’ is being turned up. Those, who fell by the way, could not stand up to the heat they were under. Will they be able to stand up to a greater heat?"

"My Lord, only You and our Father can answer this. But, I ask You to touch them, My Lord, that they see where they have been wrong, that they will come full circle. I know that this will not happen to most, but I pray that it will happen to some as You and our Father see fit."

"Therefore, My Child, the few, who remain, are being molded. They are being shaped in the furnaces. They are being pulverized and refined and they are being raised up as the current day Elijahs. They are being stripped of all that is of this world and step by step, they are being rebuilt in ways that are pleasing to our Father."

"Beloved Lord, I thank you and I thank our Precious Father for all trials. I thank You for all fires, for all persecutions and for all hardships. I thank You, My Lord, for all things and to our Father in Heaven is the praise and glory forever and ever."

"With this, we shall stop for today. Place as the first part of the next chapter. I am Jesus, and all is given in accordance with the will of our Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER FOURTEEN - PART II

"A Beautiful Door"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Child. Listen. Look. For, the heavens are opening up to you and I shall take you on a walk, like you have not been on before."

"Oh, my Father, I see the heavens upon and there is a great rip, a great tear and even as a piece of fabric is torn, with the pieces wafting in the breeze, so it is what I am beholding. The rip has severed a fabric and the pieces on either side of the tear are wafting, like curtains in a summer's breeze."

"My Child, rise up and go through this door."

"Yes, my Father." And a current of wind catches me up and carries me through this gigantic rip. Oh, the wind is blowing, my hair is beating my face and my clothes are whipping at my limbs. But, just as quickly the wind ceases and I am put down in a beautiful garden. Beside me is a rock and all around me are beautiful flowers. Pathways of glistening, white rocks, which are crystalline in nature, lead here and there and there is such a feeling of serenity. What peace! Yet, before me is a portal, which leads into a hillside and I feel this portal to be very inviting. It seems to be speaking to me in a subtle voice and I feel that I shall pass through this door soon.

Looking up, I see our Lord Jesus approaching. Oh, he is so beautiful, so loving and so full of peace and joy. He reaches down and touches my arm; for I am sitting now upon the rock and He says, "You are right. You will pass through that door." And, at that instant I hear a swish as wind passes through me and I find myself on the other side of the door. Once again, I am met by a beautiful fragrance of fresh-picked roses and I hear sounds, like those of horses' hooves on a cobblestone street. The hallway is dimly lighted, but up ahead I see a radiant light, which is coming from a room, and this room seems to be at the end of the hall. Sensing that I am to go to this room, I hasten my steps until I am approaching this light. Oh, what power! What awesome power I feel in this light and I do not feel worthy to be in the midst of it. Easing up to the open portal, I see a most beautiful angel. I look at his eyes of fire and a lump of apprehension forms in my throat. My eyes catch a scroll in his hands as fear and trepidation begin to grip my heart. "Mrs. Newkirk," he says, "Take off your shoes, for you are entering the Holy of Holies." Feeling such raw power of God come through this door is both frightening and humbling and I bend to unloose my shoes. Now, looking up at this very tall and awesome being, barefoot and feeling very insignificant, I bow before him and say, 'Thank you.' He then proceeds to touch me on the head and says, 'Bow not; for as you, I am only a messenger. The Most High has a word for you. Enter."

Taking my first steps across the threshold, I am met with a wave of light and within this wave, I hear many messages, all compressed as one. Intuitively, I reach out to touch these messages, not knowing why and I suddenly find a scroll within the grasp of my right hand. Now standing on a trunk, which appears to be covered in diamonds, rubies and sapphires, I am gripping this scroll. A deep sense of foreboding is gripping my whole being and my knees are quietly knocking.

"My Beloved," I hear His voice from within the light. "Why do you fear?"

"Oh, my Father, I am so afraid. My Precious Father, I feel unworthy to be in Your midst. I am afraid that I shall displease you for I am such a sinner and You are so holy, so pure and so beautiful! Surely, I am among the least of the least."

"My Child, why do you weep? Are you not pleased to be here?"

"Yes, my Father, I am pleased, but I know that I am unworthy. That You would choose me, someone, who has been so lost, someone, who is so imperfect is so deeply humbling and I cannot help but weep."

"My Child, do you love Me?"

"My Father, you know I do."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"With your whole heart?"

"Oh, my Father, this is my desire and I pray that this is so."

"My Child, I know your heart and I am pleased in you. No, you are not perfect for none are; but you are continually striving, continually seeking and this is pleasing to me."

Then, a second wave a light hits me and I sense more messages. Then, another scroll winds up within my grasp. Then, behind this wave comes another wave, and another scroll. And, before I can even put down this scroll, another wave comes behind it and in my hand another scroll, so that I am now clinging to three small scrolls and one large scroll. Not being able to hold all scrolls, I have laid all but the larger one on the jeweled chest."

"My Child," our Father says, "Why do you fight Me?"

"Oh, my Father, do I fight You? How could I do such a thing? Oh, my Father, this is wrong!"

"My Child, do you know what day of the week it is?"

"Yes, my Father, it is Tuesday. But, how am I fighting You?"

"By not publishing what I say on time."

"Oh, my Father, I know I have been late at times and I have procrastinated and let things pile up. Please forgive me this. Father, how else do I fight you? I do not want to do this. Please forgive me for allowing other things to take precedence."

"My Little One, this is but a small thing, but I have one more thing against you."

"What is it, my Father? Please tell me."

"My Child, do you believe that black is white?"

"No, my Father."

"Then, tell My people the truth."

"My Father, this is my heart's desire. Father, how have I failed You in this?"

"My Child, do you believe that black is white?"

"No, my Father, but why are You asking me this?"

"My Child, those scrolls before you are sealed and they have been sealed for a long, long time. My Little One, you and you, alone, will open these scrolls. And, when you do, you will reveal what has been hidden for a very long time. Know this, my Child, were you not found worthy in My sight, you would not open these scrolls. My Little One, I have stripped you of your pride. I have stripped you of your vanity. I have stripped you of the worldly. I have stripped you of all that is not pleasing to me; but this is My warning that you further simplify your life that no thing, no person, and no place comes before Me and My words. Do you understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, regardless of the mail, regardless of the needs of others, My works must come first. Understand? You must not put off what needs to be done today. You must not procrastinate these works in any way and under no circumstances can the needs of others be allowed to come before Me and My works.

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, do you understand why I am being so strict with you?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, my Father, I believe I do. Time is running out and save I discipline myself in a greater way I will not get Your works done."

"My Child, this is but one aspect. My Little One, you do not understand fully who you are. You do not understand the work, which is yet to be done. You do not understand your calling, which will take you far and wide and you do not understand just how critical the world situation is. For, truly minute to minute, the world goes on grace."

"My Father, why did You ask me if I believe that black is white and warned me to tell the people the truth."

"My Child, I have warned you to be vigilant. Trust no one; but put your faith and trust in Me and My Son. Yet, many will come to deceive you. So be warned! In addition, My Child, know this. There are many levels of truth. Yes, you have worked hard to get the truth to My people; but you must work even harder to get these truths out; for time is short and the opposition is great. And, a new level of truth is emerging, which is being brought forth by the Pure of Heart."

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, know this, My Child, a radiance is coming upon you and into your life."

"A radiance?"

"Yes, my Child, it is a radiance as a rainbow and though you do not know what I mean now, you will."

"Father, I wish I even knew how to respond; but I do not, for I am truly humbled."

"My Child, this radiance is coming from the North, from the South, from the East and from the West."

"This is a visible radiance?"

"It is and when you see it, you will know that My hand is in it."

"Father, what will I do with this radiance?"

"You will do nothing; but it will bring certain ones to you, like some I am sending, but beware of the fakers."

"And, Father, why will these be sent?"

"They will know who you are."

"Who I am?"

"Yes, my Child and in due season this shall be very apparent to you. Though I speak it to your soul, this frightens you. Therefore, I will show you. Sign by sign, I will make you see and understand who you are. But, to operate under this anointing, you must let go of the world and you must live in Spirit. This, my Child, is why I am so strict with you. It is not because I am so stern and exacting. It is because if I am not stern, you will not move into this anointing."

"So, this anointing has to do with the rainbow?"

"It does and it will come to rest on you."

"All at once, or by degrees?"

"By degrees."

"Father, this is so awesome, so humbling, yet so frightening. For, I am so imperfect, and tremble with fear at the thought of upsetting you."

"My child, I know your heart. I know you through and through and I know you want to please Me. I know you want to serve your fellow man and I know you have been through great trials and hardships, but I also want you to know that I am further pruning you; for this mighty work at hand."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Father, I thank You for every trial. I thank You for every hardship. I thank You for scolding me and for correcting me. I thank you for all things, Father, for You, and You, alone, are my reason for being."

"My Child, you have four scrolls, three small and one large. You will open all three scrolls and you will write what is therein, and when you get to the fourth scroll, the largest, then My Child, you will know who you are."

"Yes, my Father."

"But, my Child, we will not open these scrolls today and not tomorrow, but at an appointed time. And, this time is not knows to you, but to Me and to My Son. But, before you open the first one, you will hear the horses on the cobblestones."

"Father, what do You mean by horses on the cobblestones?

"My Child, at the time that you hear them, then you will know it its time to open the first scroll. I will speak to you and I will say, ‘These are the horses. Then, the first scroll will open. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father. So, Father, what am I supposed to do?"

"Pray and fast. Fast and pray."

"Fast how long?"

"Three days."

"And, then, Father, this shall go forward?"

"Yes, my Child, but remember, do not procrastinate this fast, but start soon."

"Yes, my Father. Is there more I should know?"

"No, My Child, but know that I love you very much and in many ways your work is just beginning."

"Yes, my Father."

"Go in peace and love and be whole in My light."

"Thank you, Father."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 22nd day of October, 2002,

Linda Newkirk

Beloved Ones, I wept bitterly because of our Father's words, not realizing how I had been "fighting" Him. But, as I wept and prayed, I realized that many things were creeping in and stealing time from His work. I realized that answering e-mails and attending to everyday affairs was taking time away from praying and staying close to God. "Fighting" Him was in no was a conscious thing, but a very subtle thing, one which was not internalized and one, which I was not even aware of until He made me see. After His admonitions, I put all things aside and began to pray for many hours each day. In addition to the three times a day, which He had ordered me to pray in mid-summer, I added several more hours of prayer daily. In all things, I sought to make up to Him for any infractions on my part. I do not know how many days passed until I began to see the rainbows while I was praying, but at a certain point, this began to happen. It was at this time that our Father said to pray over the oil and to anoint the prayer handkerchiefs.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

The Spirit of God anointed these cloths for healing and for miracles and these have been sent to those, who have ordered them. Our Father said in advance that you would get miracles and healings and some of you are writing telling of your beautiful experiences. Praises to our Beloved Lord and God! To Him is the praise and glory forever!

I now know that this rainbow of His Spirit of called the "Rainbow Anointing" for our Father in Heaven has told me this. By anointing these cloths with the rainbow anointing, our Father is gifting you with a beautiful heavenly gift!

Many of you do not have any church affiliation. You do not have any spiritual group to which you belong. Many of you do not have anyone to contact when you need prayers for healing or deliverance and this is painful for our Lord and God to see. Know that our Beautiful Father in Heaven and our Beloved Lord Jesus loves you very much and because of this precious love God is ministering to you. Through our Father's anointing on these cloths, you are receiving a little piece of Heaven.

Cherished Ones, order your handkerchiefs, for many will be healed through these cloths. Below, I am posting a message from our Precious Sister, Antonietta, so that you can see how our Father is working through His anointing on these cloths. This is beautiful. As others of you write and give permission to reprint your letters, I will add them, along with this one, to the Miracle Page.

Miracle!

To God is the praise and glory forever and ever!

My friend Helen is a woman of 71 years old who had a stroke and the doctor told her family that she could not make it. When I went to visit her in the hospital, she was in a coma, so I started praying to Jesus to save her life. After two months she left the hospital. One day I was walking with my dog when I saw her walking very slowly. She kissed me and said: "My dear friend, thanks to your prayers Jesus has saved my life. I am alive, but I have a terrible pain in my legs and I cannot walk, and I know that only Jesus can heal it." I smiled to her and replied: " Can I come tomorrow to your house and pray with the rainbow cloth that the Prophet Linda Newkirk has sent to me?" She replied: "Yes, please."

The day after I went to her house and put the rainbow cloth on her feet and started to pray: " My Lord and God, please I beg you, impart the healing from this cloth into Helen. My Lord and God, please I beg you, impart the anointing from this cloth to heal, cleanse and deliver Helen of the bonds of sickness and disease. My Lord and God, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for hearing my prayer." When on the third day I went to her house she was crying and thanking Jesus and God as she had no more pain in her legs.

(Our Friend Antonietta said that she went to see this woman and found her cleaning out her garage! Walking just fine with no pain! To God is the praise and glory!)

Miracle!

To God is the praise and glory!

Two days later I was walking with my dog when an old man stopped me and said: " Please, I heard about Helen, could you be so kind to come to my house and pray with the anointing cloth to heal my handicapped son? I am not rich, but I will pay something. He is blind of one eye and handicapped and I believe that the rainbow cloth will do the miracle." I went to his house and prayed with the anointing cloth and Jesus has put in my mind that HE will heal the boy.

When yesterday evening I went to their house the old man was crying as the veterinarian told him that his dog had a tumor and needed an operation. He asked me to pray with the rainbow cloth to heal his little dog. I prayed and prayed with the rainbow cloth. This morning I went to see how was the little dog. The old man looked at me and said: " I am not sure, but I think your rainbow cloth has saved my little dog. I will tell you this evening, now I am going to the veterinarian."

This evening we are all thanking the Lord and God to have saved the little dog of an old poor man.

(The tumor disappeared and the dog is healed! Praise God!)

During this time since our Father gave this message, our telephone began to give us problems with lots of static on the line; and this went on for about six weeks. It was impossible to stay on the Internet for any length of time because of this problem and many days I could not get on at all. And if I did get on, was unable to stay on for more than a few minutes. Finally, the telephone problem was repaired and I was able to get God's work posted, but as I look back on it, I feel that this was all within the will of God. For, during this time, I have had beautiful spiritual experiences. He has given His gift of the rainbow and some of you have received it. For all things I thank God!

CHAPTER FIFTEEN - PART I

"Plans of the Evil One"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Yeshua, Lord of Earth. My Little One, as you look around and as you see the world falling around you, know that I love you! Our Father loves you! The angels of Heaven love you! Keep all in perspective and be not overcome by the troubles of the world. For, in some ways, you are only seeing the beginning of Jacob's troubles in the USA. My Little One, the holy and pure light of God is shining on you. It goes before you, behind you, all around you, even above and below you. Yes, My Child, the light of God is upon you and His tender mercies rest upon you; for My Little One, I am about to carry you through a dark door, that you are only allowed to enter. For, Our Father has tried you. He has cleansed you and he has purged you, as your heart has desired. And, now little One, I shall show you what all the fuss is about. I shall show you what the calamity is about. For, you stand clean before Me and before our Father and you are deemed worthy.

My Little One, I have brought you back to My garden and from this vantagepoint, I will teach you. I will feed you of the deep and hidden things. For, you are found worthy before our Father. My Child, see the dark door before you."

"Yes, my Lord, the one, which goes into the small hill."

"My Child, you are to write as you see and you are to write as I give you, that My people may be the wiser; for in all the world, the evil ones have risen to great power. Through lies and illusion, they are conquering the world. Though black, they say white and though white they say black. All that is truth, all that is good is being steadily replaced with all that is rotten, with all that is full of darkness and illusion. Lies and more lies! For, the truth is not in them, but great darkness, great cunning and much evil. I tell you, My Child, that the antichrist agenda is rolling forth like a mighty steamroller from Washington DC. Those in congress do not have a chance of survival in such a system; save they belong to Me. My Little One, take a few steps and pass through the dark door. The key with seven levels, plus the added spiritual levels, will allow you to pass through undetected. Understand? My Child, this is a door of great evil and save you were purged of every bit, which our father warned you of, you would not be allowed to go therein. Look around you, My Child, and you will see what seems to be a very thick wall of glass. This wall is holy and it will allow you to go therein undetected."

"Yes, my Lord." I bend down and cling to the feet of our Lord Jesus, and with tears in my eyes I kiss his feet. A solitary tear falls to his left foot and a blaze of white light rushes up to envelop me. For a moment, I am in a beautiful meadow and it is full of every kind of blooming flower. There, I am playing a game like Frisbee with our Lord Jesus. I do not have a care in the world, for total joy envelops my every move. Sensing the touch of our Lord's hand upon my head, I know that it is time to move on. I arise and look into his radiant eyes, and know that I must proceed with the work at hand. Rising, I turn and face the dark door. It is only about ten to fifteen steps away, but as I get closer, a repulsion for what is behind the door begins to sink into my being.

In the Spirit, I find myself speaking several words in tongues and I know these words to mean, 'Through the Spirit of God and by the blood of the Lamb, I enter." Reaching down, I pick up the key; for it is lying on the sand near the door. As I hold it a great power surge runs through my whole being and I shout, still in tongues, but translated, 'Victory is in Jesus. Victory is in Jesus. Beautiful Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. Victory is in Jesus.'

Bending down, I insert the key in the lock; for the lock is not high on the door, but low, around knee level. And, even as the key touches the lock, I am swished through the portal and into a very dark place. It takes a moment for my eyes to become accustomed to such darkness, but within a few seconds, I am able to see well; for the light of God bathes me. Keenly aware of the wall of protection around me, I realize that I am in a room, a very dark room, save a flickering fire, which is in the fireplace. I am also keenly aware of a very musty smell, like that of a cave or an old, run-down house. Still, not seeing totally clearly, I sense that someone is sleeping by the fire. This presence brings a chill of coldness to my spine and I feel as if I am approaching a very evil giant, for the chair is very large and would seat eight or ten people. Still, all is quiet, save the crackling of the fire, and what I perceive as subtle movements coming from the chair. Stopping for a moment to look around and standing still, a little ways behind the chair, yet still facing the fire, I see walls, which are chock full of books. Straining to see, I hope to discern what kinds of books these are; for they appear to be very old. All seem to be bound in leather and appear to have ornate covers, but the letters I cannot make out, for I am too far away to clearly discern. Near the fire and beneath the wall of books is a very large bench. On the bench, I see a skull of a human. "Oh my! It is not just a skull; for the skull is raised up." But on this large bench are what seems to be all the bones of the human body, all carefully laid out and placed in the same manner in which they are pieced together in the human body.

I hear a cough come from the chair and I sense that the occupant of this chair may be waking up. I stand still, swallowing hard, but remembering the words of our Lord Jesus that I will not be seen. Briefly, I catch the scent of roses and I sense that the Spirit of God is confirming through this beautiful scent that what I am writing is true. I take a few steps forward and move off to the left side of the chair, where I am better able to get a look at the occupant of the chair.

"Oh, my," I gasp, hoping I did not make a sound. Now catching a view of the creature, I see first its gnarled and scaly hand; for with its deep, gnarled claws, it is gripping the arm of the chair. My what large claws, at least six or seven inches long! Looking up at the arm, I am repulsed to see scales, deep-pitted scales and these lead to a scaly trunk and a scaly head. Oh, what a repulsion! This creature is now awake and its eyes are as red as fire! As I look upon this beast, I clearly see its countenance change from a dragon to that of a person. The first face to appear on the dragon is the face of Bill Clinton. Then, and no surprise to me, is the face of George Herbert Walker Bush. Each time, the transition is but a second or two and then the face changes again. Now, I am seeing the face of Queen Elizabeth of England, then George W. Bush, then Hillary Clinton. Now, Ross Perot. Ross Perot? Then, a series of faces pass so fast that I can hardly focus on them, but I will try to write quickly … There is John Ashcroft, Ted Kennedy, Walter Kronkite, Dan Rather, Connie Chung, Adolph Hither, David Rockefeller, Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld and now the faces are moving so fast that I am no longer recognizing them. As they pass quickly by, I hear sounds, like the clicking sounds of a typewriter, until finally the procession of faces comes to an end. Looking upon the countenance of the Evil One, I know for a certainly that this is Lucifer, yet still he is unaware of my presence. As I gaze closer, I see that he is reading a book, actually he is writing a book. And, it seems that he has already written at least 2/3 of it. But, I hear the Spirit of God say, "80%."

"My Lord, I really want to know what he has written, but how can I know, for he is holding the book?"

"My Child, in your right hand you will find a small key. It is a skeleton key. Go and put it into the mouth of the skull and in its place, you will draw out certain portions of the his book."

"Yes, my Lord, but do I leave the key inside the skull?"

"My Child, the skull is the repository for the key. Once you place the key in the skull, you will be able to withdraw the records I want you to have. To your rear, by the wall of books is a small table and desk. Take the records there and write what you read."

"Yes, my Lord." I take a few steps forward and place the key in the skull and as I withdraw my hand, I see that in place of the key is a stack of papers.

Ever aware of the evil one, I am alerted to his sniffing. "Roses," he snarls! "Damnable roses!" Then he calls out a name, which sounds like Parheleon, though I cannot be sure of the exact spelling. At once a very foul looking, scaly entity appears. As he whisks past, I sense an utterly repulsive smell, like that of a roadkill.

"There is a damnable smell in here," bellows the Evil One, "search it out and put it on the table, for into the fiery pits it shall go!"

I feel my heart pounding and then I hear our Lord Jesus say, "Do not fear, for you cannot be seen and you cannot be heard."

"But, my Lord, he smells the roses!"

"Worry not, for it is but fleeting and he will go on with something else."

A lump is forming in my throat and I find myself drifting, as if on air, to the side of the room. As I pull the chair away from the small table, I dread the thought of being in here any longer than necessary. Quietly, I sit and watch the evil serpent as he rises from his chair. Oh, he is bellowing and were I not under protection, surely my eardrums would burst. He is cursing! He is ranting and raving and he is pacing! "Get me that book," he bellows! "Get me that book!" And, seemingly out of nowhere, eight or ten fiery, little demons appear and they are scrambling here and there searching for 'the book.' One rushes over to the Evil One with the book in hand, hands it to him and bows. Growling, the Evil One says, "Scatter! Scatter," I say! Once more, he settles down in his chair with ' the book' in hand and I clearly see the words on the cover, 'The Demise of all Christians!' Again, the putrid smell sweeps past me as the Evil One's helper continues to search high and low for the origin of the scent of roses.

"Oh, I must hurry, for this evil is so great and save for the grace of God I shall have trouble maintaining!" I turn to the first page before me and what strikes me in the face is a picture of the inside of a jail, replete with bars and corridors. As I look upon this jail scene, I suddenly find myself in a very long corridor, instinctively knowing that this prison is a subterranean area. As I begin to walk the corridor, I begin to realize that I am not looking at human beings, but strange, genetic mutations. I see a lion's head on a dog's body and an ape, which is more human than ape, save the fact that the face has pink skin and little hair. I see chickens with red eyes and they hiss like snakes. "Oh, my! I am beginning to feel weak all over!" These are gross genetic experiments! As I look at the strange aberrations, which fill these jail cells, my heart seems to sink to my knees! Looking about, I can clearly see that humans have been mixed with animals and animals with serpents! Suddenly, I hear a door shut and feel that I will jump through my skin! But, looking about, I realize that I am looking at the outside door of this prison and on it are the words, 'Genetic destruction of mankind."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

Oh, my heart is sinking! A lump is forming in my throat and I feel so sick as if I will throw up all over these pages! But, I know I must be brave; for I have seen but one page and I have many to go! Once again at the desk, I realize that the evil servant is searching high and low for me. He has a dustbin and a broom and he is searching every corner; but I am not afraid. Disgusted and sickened, but not afraid! As I turn the second page, I am met by ear-piercing screams and I see a woman on the table, who is pregnant. A baby is being delivered by forceps and from looking at the woman, I can see that she is heavily sedated. These physicians look human, but I know that they do not have human spirits, for the Spirit of God reveals this. Inside them are the spirits of reptiles. The baby looks human, but it is not; for it has the eyes of a snake and it has a short tail. "This one may work," the evil doctor says. "From all appearances he is normal. Without the tail and with the eye changeover, who will know?"

"Who will know," I think to myself. "God will know! His servants will know!" Oh, a fury rises up within me and I want to annihilate these evil creatures; but 'Vengeance is Mine,' God says! I watch as the Mother lies there, bleeding profusely. The baby is hauled away. A cover is placed over the woman's face as an evil nurse turns up a drip and she is left to die! "No, no," I scream! "You cannot let her die!" But, I realize that no one hears me and I can do nothing, save what our Lord Jesus allows me to do. A door closes on this room and I read the words, 'Annihilation through substitution.' And, suddenly I see so clearly the plans of the evil ones to substitute the reptilian humans for humans in very important locations, like hospitals, and in these places they will be used to systematically kill and destroy humans. Clearly, women are being used as incubators and when the job is done, they are being left to die! Realizing all this, I am feeling so downhearted and distraught and a wave of lightheadedness sweeps over me and I feel for an instant that I shall surely faint! But, I know that I must fight these feelings; for there are more papers and I must get the plans of the Evil One out to God's people. For, we must pray, pray, pray!

Sitting quietly at the small table, I am aware once more of the gopher. For, he is now pulling books from the shelves and he is hastily searching every book! As he pulls the books from the shelves, I see that the shelves are lined with mirrors, and this evil one stops now and then to admire his abominable reflection! Now at the third page, I see a whirlwind and the Spirit of God says, "Step into the whirlwind." Oh, it is a black whirlwind, but in obeying God, I step into it and there, to my left is George H.W. Bush. Oh, this man is so utterly evil and the sight of him makes me want to run and throw up. For, he is no human at all, but a fake. A reptilian! And he is utterly disgusting! Behind him on a wall are all the continents of the world and they are all spread out, a map of the world. Here and there, he has placed markers on certain locations. Looking at the map of the USA, I clearly see that it is divided into ten sections and I see a black whirlwind coming down into Texas. Oh, this is a black and foul wind and on this whirlwind are the words, 'Death by dissociation.' "Death by dissociation," I ponder! "What does this mean?" Then again, the Spirit of God says, "Step into the black whirlwind!" Then, suddenly I find myself moving in spirit toward the map and suddenly I am getting sucked deeper into this black whirlwind. Oh, it is dark in here and I am trying to get my bearings when I realize that I am suddenly placed on a windswept plain. Just ahead, I see two cowboys, who are sitting in front of a small campfire and over the fire is a small cast iron pot. I catch the scent that they are cooking something and see them warming their hands over the coals. Faintly, I hear one say to the other, "They cows are mad! The deer are mad! Shot two dogs this morning!"

"What?" I am asking myself. "Mad animals? Mad dogs?" Suddenly, I look up and see a gray cloud, which is quickly falling. This is a very thick, gray cloud and it is beginning to cover all things, like a net. Every tree! Every plant! All the land! All the people! And, as I look out on the cloud, I see these words becoming visible within the cloud, itself … 'Cloud of Death'. I step back and clutch my chest as a deep pain of sorrow rolls through me; for I know that this very cloud has fallen onto these two men! Oh, my heart is breaking; for all life is in danger! I can hardly keep from throwing up; for now I look and behold huge piles of animals, all dead, and bulldozers are digging holes! The stench I shall never forget! As I watch the piles of dead carcasses, I remember mad cow disease and England and tears run down my cheeks. I sense the third door close and on it I see the words, 'Mass genocide!' As I look at these words I remember the Illuminati Satanic goals from the Georgia Guidestones, wherein they list their plan to leave only 500, 000, 000 people on the planet! Catapulted back into the room of darkness, I realize that The Evil One, Satan, has picked upon the scent of roses again and he is pounding the mantle above the fireplace. He is snorting fire and he is stomping his feet! As he walks, his scaly tail drags across the stone floor, now and then scraping books from shelves as he bellows out obscenities. With each growl of the Evil One, the evil servant hops, and he is now picking up speed in his search for the origin of the rose scent! Throwing books on the floor and now suddenly down on the floor, sniffing like a dog. "My Lord," he calls out to Satan, "It is coming through the door! I can be certain of it!"

Glancing toward the cracked door, I am now aware that Satan has taken his shoeless foot and has catapulted the evil servant through the crack of the door. Howling like a wolf, this creature picks himself up and scuttles down the hall!

But, I have a task at hand and must not get distracted. Turning to the fourth page, I see a huge door. It is a very tall door and the knob is many feet above my head. Then, I hear our Lord Jesus say, "Command it open!" In a whisper, I say, "Open door," and as my words go forth, the huge door begins to creek and move as if it is has not been opened in a very long time. Taking a very high step over the threshold, I realize that I am in a very large room, which is full of computers. Each computer has a designation and reading from the computers I see the following:

First Computer … "Crop Modification"
Second Computer … "Genetic Codes"
Third Computer … "Bilingual confusion"
Fourth Computer … "Hairpin curves"
Firth computer … "Dislocation Services"
Sixth computer … "Bone Marrow Secrets"
Seventh Computer … "Rose Hips Survey"
Eighth Computer … "A Walk in the Park"
Ninth Computer … DNA files (and these are many files)
Tenth Computer … History of Mankind (and at this computer, I see an android-like human, who is destroying files.)

"Oh, my Lord, how do I proceed?" Then, I hear the Spirit of God say, "Go to Number One." Approaching the first computer, I can clearly see that it is up and running and on the screen I can see the following:

The Death of humanity through starvation seeds that do not replicate destruction and prohibition of all pure seed stock.
Extinction of all food crops.

Choking back the tears, I move to the second computer and this is what I see:

Genetic codes:
destruction of all pure genetic codes in animals destruction of all pure genetic codes in plants annihilation of all mankind

Moving on to the third computer, this is what follows:

Bilingual confusion:
mass migration from country to country annihilation of race identity mixture of all cultures

Moving on to the fourth computer, this is what is written.

Hairpin curves:
death by slavery
death by suffocation of masses death by annihilation death by starvation death by sex and violence death by massacre
death by war

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

death by strife death by upheavals
death by sudden attack

"My Lord, what is meant by ‘hairpin curves’?"

"My Little One, that, which is sudden, unexpected and dangerous. A sudden turn, a sudden shift."

Moving on to the fifth computer …

Dislocation services:
concentration camps prison labor martial law
a. FEMA
b. FBI
c. CIA
d. All government employees

"My Lord, what is meant by ‘all government employees?’

"My Little One, during martial law, these will be used by the government as seen fit, or they will wind up in concentration camps or as prison labor."

The Sixth computer…

Bone Marrow secrets
glue factory …human/animal experimentation
Secret and clandestine (And, as I write this, I see in the spirit many secret works, which are being done in many hospitals without anyone’s consent.)

The Seventh computer…

And, here I see a picture of a rosehip with all the sepals gone and I sense that this is of spiritual significance. Then, I see the following:

destruction of all religions creation of serfs and automatons
a. mind control
b. destruction
c. annihilation

The Eighth computer…

A Walk in the Park … and suddenly I get a glimpse of Vince Foster
Annihilate all opposition
Demand total submission or death

The Ninth computer

DNA Files…

And, as I look, I see these files on all humans. They are all ordered according to national origin and now count over three billion souls. In fact, the DNA of 3.72 billion souls is on file and increasing rapidly. Suddenly, I realize that anyone, who has ever given blood, who has ever had an operation or biopsy, may very well be in their data banks.

Then, I hear the Spirit of God say, "All in search of the light beings."

"You mean the angelic line?"

"Exactly," the Spirit of God says.

"So, why all this work for that?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"My Child," our Lord Jesus says, "so as to annihilate this bloodline first."

And to the tenth computer…

History of mankind

And as I see these words, I see a folder, which is shrinking in size before my very eyes! "Yes, my Child," our Lord Jesus says. "Your real identity is being replaced with a fake identity. And, your real history is being replaced with lies!"

With this, the fourth door closes, and on it are the words, "Death to all Christians and death to all religions. Long live Lucifer!" Suddenly, I am aware that I am back in the room with this evil creature. He is before the fire and I know that he is scheming as to how he will proceed with his destructive plans.

And, now as I look at the fifth page, which is before me, I feel a great heat. Suddenly before my eyes are vast funeral pyres. Dead bodies are piled atop dead bodies. Piles and piles of dead humans! The words before me are: 1. Plagues 2. Famines 3. Genocide 4. War and destruction. Beneath these words is written, "world population 500,000,000, or less." Before me I see the rider of the pale horse. He is death and he rides across the USA from East to West and from North to South. Then, he rides over Canada, Europe and Australia. He rides Russia, China and all across Mexico, and even over South America. Great destruction, hunger, plagues and war!

Oh, my heart feels as if will break! I rise with my notes and I know that once more the Evil One has caught the scent of roses. Yet, I am not concerned; for I am safe in the love of God.

And this is what was dictated to me, what I witnessed and recorded in the den of Satan this 27th day of October 2002.

Linda Newkirk

Beloved, some time back a Dear Sister sent me a dream, which the Spirit of God gave to Nita Johnson, who is a prophetess of God. Nita has a website and http://www.worldforJesus.org. In this dream, Nita was taken into Satan's den and was shown some of his plans. I remember at the time of reading it that it surely would be wonderful if our Lord and God would show us more of the Evil One's plans. But, since that time until now, I had not given this much added thought. I truly believe that our Lord and God will take others into the den of Lucifer and others will also see his evil plans; for God would not have us be ignorant of these schemes.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN - PART II

"Being true"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

"Oh, my Father, it is so good to hear Your voice. My heart has been troubled because of what I have seen behind this dark door. My Father, humanity is surely headed over a cliff, or a destiny like Niagara Falls. The current is so swift and people are being swept away in a mighty tide; yet Father, so few are even aware of this tide! They eat, they sleep, they work and they continue on, oblivious to what is going on. And, these are the lost ones; yet my Father, what pains me so are the proud and haughty ones in the churches. And, your prophets with holier-than-thou attitudes, or 'anything-goes', 'flowery-words' messages. Father, my heart is heavy and my spirit is burdened."

"My Little One, what you say is what you know. Within this Earth, each has a perception of what is real; for one can only ascertain as real what experience or learning has taught. Therefore, when one's reality is challenged, often extreme resistance is the first reaction. When this reality is challenged over and over, one tends to relax that orientation and to open to new realities."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Father, this is both good and bad; for on the one hand one may move into a space of greater enlightenment, but on the other hand, one may accept as real certain programming, which is full of lies and illusion."

"My Child, this is true; and this is why all must be filtered through prayer. It must be filtered through the Spirit of Truth."

"But, Father, when one is rigid and filled with destructive programming to begin with, when one is filled with pride, lies and distortions, how can such a one move up spiritually?"

"My Child, every lie, every distortion, every bit of pride and rebellion, all these things must be looked upon with honesty. They must all be confronted and laid upon My alter of love and forgiveness that one might be set free. For, all information, which is processed through an impure heart, is polluted. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father and surely this is a lifelong work."

"You have seen it and it is so."

"But, Father, so many are struggling and they hardly know where to begin."

"Each must begin with repentance; for if one will not look at self and recognize wrongs, how can one overcome? Therefore, one must recognize wrongs. One must confess before My Son and one must be truly sorry for these wrongs. Then, My child, one must turn from these wrongs, evaluating all actions according to My commands."

"My Father, You mean the Ten Commandments and the laws of love?"

"My Child, those, who will not obey the Ten Commandments cannot truly love Me and My Son. For, every time one disobeys My commands, a dark door is opened into one's heart. This dark door allows the entrance of all manner of demons and as it opens, it brings darkness into one's being. As darkness enters, the Spirit of God flees. My Spirit will not indwell the rebellious. Yes, My Child, It may visit; but it will not live therein. Understand. This is why daily repentance is absolutely necessary. In addition to this, one needs on-going repentance for any and all past wrongs, which come to mind and continue to plague one. Even if it was 20 years ago and is still a problem in one's mind, this individual needs repentance. This one needs prayer. This one needs healing. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, My Child, you wonder why I decided to allow you into Lucifer's Den; for you have read of another prophetess, who went there in dreams."

"Yes, my Father, I do wonder about this."

"My Child, as My Son has revealed in times past, there is nothing, which is hidden, which will not be revealed. Therefore, what these evil ones believe as secret, shall all come forth."

"Father, will others also be given trips into his evil lair?"

"As I see that one is worthy, as I see that one is ready, I may allow this."

"Father, I have many questions about what I saw."

"And, these will be answered, My Child, but not at this sitting. My purpose in speaking to you today is to make you see and understand why many cannot be reached and they will never be reached. One must have a heart after truth, to desire truth, to be able to receive truth. Do not expect a liar to live in truth. Do not expect a liar and a schemer to love the Spirit of Truth. My Spirit of Truth is absolute truth and if one wishes to grow spiritually, he or she will clean up his or her life. Truth is not split down the middle and bent and warped to suit one's self. Truth is solid like a rock. It is unchanging, yet as you are thinking, My Child, 'tis true. For, truth does exist on progressively deeper levels, sort of like the layers of an onion.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

My Little One, it is through truth, that I am separating Mine out. My Loved Ones, the Pure of Heart, vibrate to the frequency of truth. They strive for purity. They truly love Me and My Son and they put My works first. Bit by bit, they let go of self; for theirs is a selfless work. They love others, but will not get drawn into their schemes. With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, most High God."

"Father, where does this go?"

"The next part of the current chapter."

CHAPTER FIFTEEN - PART III

"The First Scroll"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, see the pure stream?"

"Yes, my Father, it is so beautiful and clear and I stand with my feet at water's edge. It is also warm and inviting and I think to take a brief swim." Deeper and deeper I go, bathed in these crystalline, clear waters and the waters tumbles over me as if I am caught up in beautiful, warm waves. In short notice, I come to the bottom of this very deep and beautiful river and before me is a shimmering door, which seems to be made of pure diamonds. All around, the aquamarine water shimmers from the light of this radiant door and I am surprised to note that even at such a deep level, the water feeds me oxygen. For, I breather in and out like a fish, but with exhilarating effects. The light, which comes through this door is surely the light of God; for it gives me such beautiful peace and joy.

"My Child, do you know why I have brought you here?"

"No, my Father."

"My Child, as you touch the door, it will open before you and you will see why I have brought you here."

I touch this beautiful door and a wave of beautiful light soars through my body and I am caught up floating in the water. And, suddenly, as in the twinkle of an eye, I am carried through this radiant door. Once inside, I catch a smell, like that of cinnamon and oranges and I wonder what would be cooking at such a deep level. But, before me and unnoticed by me until now is a beautiful angel with eyes of fire. This angel looks at me and says, "The first scroll to be opened now." And, I reach out and take the scroll and thank the angel. The scroll is one of the small scrolls and though it seemed so light before, it is now heavy, like lead, and I almost drop it, believing it to be light as paper.

Catching the scroll as it begins to fall, at once I begin to feel a deep foreboding in my spirit and I sense that I am on a ship of sorts and out to sea. The fog hits me in the face and the salty air and slight smell of fish soaks my nostrils. In the distance, I hear a fog horn; though surely it is near; for it is already quite loud. Perhaps, it is not a foghorn, but a horn on this very ship, which is seeking safe passage, but at this point, I cannot be sure. I find myself on the deck of this ship and the air is slightly cool, but dense and thick with moisture and I am alone. Actually, I see now that it is a rather large boat and on the deck is a solitary table with two with wrought iron chairs. I seek to steady myself at the table; for the waves are rather rocky and I am looking around in the night for other people. I sense that this boat may be in trouble, so I follow the deck, looking for a door, which goes down under. And, finding one at last, I see that the door is locked and there is not a soul to be found. Looking for lights, I see none and realize that I may be on a ship, which is adrift and being battered by waves, adrift in a great fog. This is very unsettling and I wonder why I am here with a scroll, which has the weight of lead at a table for two, with no light to read by. "Oh, my Father, You have sent me here, but why? For, there is no one aboard, whom I can speak with. This ship is adrift amid dangerous conditions and I have a scroll to read. But, how Father; for I cannot see."

"My Child," our Father says, "Would I send you on a dangerous mission without provision and protection?"

"No, my Father, You would not."

"Then, know, My Child, that I have not sent you here without help." And at that very instant, the beautiful angel appears. He is dressed in white with eyes of fire and he sits in one chair and motions for me to sit across from him at the small table. He holds his hand across the table and a brilliant light comes from his hand and illumines the table. I take my place across from him and place the heavy scroll on the table. Before my eyes, it opens and I see the title at the top of the page, … 'Ruination of America.' I drop my head on the scroll and begin to weep; for it seems that the entire heaviness of the scroll has settled in on me and deep sorrow grips me. Oh, it is a terrible sorrow. For, before my eyes, I see the collapse of New York City. The Statue of Liberty is in chains and ropes are pulling at it in all directions. Now, I know that this statue is only a symbol of freedom and that the very origin of it is cloaked in mysteries of the secret societies; but to many this statue represents freedom. With a great tug on the rope, which comes from across the Atlantic, and goes into Europe, to England, in fact, I see the statue fall. Oh, New York City is a terrible mess! Soldiers have taken over New York City! Here and there are terrible fires and explosions and people are running here and there in great fear. Soldiers have lists of names and they are knocking on doors and filling up vans and other kinds of vehicles. As I look out, I sense that the heart of New York City is a burned and charred mess. It is gone, with remnants left here and there. I feel so sick all over as if I will surely faint and I leave the table to throw up over the side of the railing. Oh, I feel utterly devastated, for surely millions of souls are dead, and/or dying. I throw up until I feel that there is nothing but bile and I return once more to the scroll and to the angel.

Suddenly, the angel and I are removed from the ship and we are at another location, where bricks are piled, one upon another, and these bricks seem to obscure an underground passage. I follow the angel and step downward, as if following a passage into an underground cave. Surely, this is a cave; for it has the musty scent of a cave and as we travel we come to a balcony, which overlooks a meeting of men, who are below, and seemingly unaware of our presence. On the table before the men is a pie-shaped chart. Each of the men has taken a piece of the pie and seems satisfied that this piece belongs to him. Yet, as I look at this group of men, I am aware of great deception among them; for what has been decided among themselves by this group, will not be honored. My eyes are on George Herbert Walker Bush, who is standing behind his chair. I want to count the seats at the table, but the Spirit of God says, "No." And, I am not allowed to look at all faces, only the faces of the Bushes. But, I know for sure that what God wants me to see is that those present have been granted certain lands by this counsel. Yet, the Bushes will not keep their end of the bargain and have no plans to keep their end. What they want is the whole pie. Between the two of the Bushes, they may allow the Queen of England, whom I am allowed to see now among them, to retain 25%. What they plan to do is to take, to forcefully take, and or by trickery, the rest of the pie and out of a sense of duty, leave 25% for the Queen. Yet, those in the room have no idea that ravenous greed is about to move in and steal from them. I sense that all present are world leaders and that all are deep into the occult New World Order. This pie represents the world, and surely the Bushes plan to rule the world and allow the Queen to remain as a token of loyalty to her.

But even as I write what I see, I hear a very large racket in the back room, which is situated behind the meeting room. Looking back there, I see Saddam Hussein, who is bound and gagged and who is on a bed, on an old striped mattress, which lies atop a wrought iron bed. And, he is struggling to get free. Oh, he is making a fuss, but the more he kicks and gurgles, the wider they eyes of George W. Bush get. I look over and see smoke coming from the nostrils of George H. W. Bush and I wonder what he is steaming about. For, Saddam Hussein is already in chains.

As I watch this group, I see that each has taken his piece of the pie, but clearly all are in a very heated poker game. In the middle of the table, I see various ones, who are stacking up chips and first this one and then that one says, "I'll match. I'll call," and tosses in more chips. Finally, George H.W. Bush says, "I'll match and call you," and whatever is being bet on, the others seem to be outwitted. I see George W. Bush rake in all the chips and though the others never say a word, one by one, I see them fold up their belongings and leave the table. The only ones left are the Bushes and the Queen. A deep coldness sweeps this room and I see these men, all dressed in black, leave the room in this cave, one at a time. George W. Bush is like a child and he keeps exclaiming, "We won! We won! We won!" The Queen seems cautiously optimistic as she says little and draws up her belongings and a few chips, which I had not seen before and she, too, leaves.

Suddenly, the scene below becomes very dark and George H. W. Bush goes into the back room and begins to kick Saddam Hussein all over his body. He beats him with a razor strap and stomps him until he has nothing left but ragged clothes. Then, George H. W. Bush stands over Hussein's bloated body and says, "Ladies and Gentlemen, this man is not fit to rule. He is naked, save for a few rags, and he is no longer fit to lead such a fine people. Therefore, for the interest of this nation, My Son will rule. You will for once and for all be free of this tyrant. You will live in a democracy and your needs will be met. Never will your children be begging again. You will not suffer for want of medical care, but will have the best!"

And, George H. W. Bush believes that Saddam Hussein has been conquered. He believes he is gone, but he is actually safely tucked away planning his military strategy. Helping him is Putin of Russia, the President of China and leaders of other smaller countries, particularly Arab countries, who are all pitching in. And, while Hussein seems to be whipped, he is not whipped, but strong. And, from this meeting with Russia and China and others, I see a large military coalition emerge and an array of many hundreds of thousands of men come forth with the latest in military technology. This army prepares to take over Israel and to defeat the Bushes. They plan a military attack against the USA and I see that this attack is in stages; for it will not all happen at once. But at the top of the plan is the assassination of George W. Bush and his Father, George H. W. Bush.

With this the scene is gone and I am once again on the boat with the angel. And as I look at the side of the boat, which the angel illumines with his hand, I see that the name is "The USA."

Suddenly, all is gone and I am back home. "Father, Oh, Father, last night I saw the horses on the cobblestone and I heard them and now I know why."

"'Tis so, My Child, and with this we shall stop for today. Place as the next part of the current chapter."

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

"A Thousand times hotter"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, I have come to you today because of your tears, because of your sorrow and your pleas on behalf of this Earth and on behalf of all living and sentient creations. Yes, My Child, I know that what you have seen is overwhelming. I know that what you have been shown is unsettling. It is undermining to any sense of stability in a rapidly changing world."

"Father, I am so grieved. On the one hand, the evil ones are out to utterly destroy this world and to kill every form of life. And, on the other hand, it seems that the entire cosmos is in such an erratic state that it, too, is set to wreak havoc of immeasurable proportions. Oh, Father, to see what is unfolding is devastating! It seems to rip a hole in my being and rivers of sorrow run from my soul! Oh, the unquenchable grief to behold what is at hand and to see the lackadaisical spirit of the masses! Oh, My Father, so much is happening on so many fronts and to the average person the reality of things seem bizarre. They do not seem real to them, but like bizarre fantasy and they do not believe."

"And, My Child, save they wake up and come back to Me and My Son, save they make themselves worthy to harbor the Spirit of Truth, they shall not believe and they shall be further cut off. And, in their darkness, they shall perish."

"Father, this is the dilemma and this is what makes me so sad! Oh, my heart weeps! My soul weeps!"

"My Child, you have come to Me this morning asking for understanding of certain calamities, which are coming into the Earth."

"Yes, my Father and I asked you if you would also make these revelations known to Your people."

"Yes, My Child, you asked about the date of 2012 and the ancient knowledge of December 21st and 22nd of this year as the 'end of Earth.'"

"Yes, my Father, I have wondered about this for some time and whether this date is more occult mumbo-jumbo. But, the more I learn of it, the more I read of it, the more I wonder if it is significant."

"My Child, over and over I have told you that all is not set in stone; but that much depends upon the actions of mankind on this planet."

"Yes, my Father, You have said these things."

"Over and over, I have pleaded with you to repent; for through repentance you can change both the timing and the severity of the tide of these events."

"Father, I know how You have pleaded for people to repent. I know how You have warned over and over of the terrible consequences of rebellion and I know how you have mercifully averted nuclear attacks on America twice that I am aware of. But, Father, I tell You, and You know, that most churches are absolutely barren of Your Spirit. They are barren of Your miraculous hand. The preachers are full of pride, rebellion and mediocrity and they have chased Your Spirit out. And, Your Children have no place to go! They are turned out into the pastures and are bait for the rabid dogs of Satan. Oh, Father, I know what is happening. I see it, Father, and yet feel so helpless, so powerless to do one thing about it."

"So, My Child, you look around and you see that rebellion is rampant and very few have listened. Very few have changed, but most have become all the more entrenched in the worldly."

"Yes, my Father, I see this."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"And, you know, My Child, that if the masses do not soon repent in great measures it will be too late to make a significant impact, to divert what is coming. For, when World War III gets underway, a string of destructive calamities will be unleashed upon the Earth, from which there will be no return, that is no return to a previous safe level."

"Yes, my Father, and we are looking at World War III. You said that when Congress voted for this Iraqi war that we were entering a point of no return."

"Yes, My Child, this is so because the vote of this assembly to start a world war, all for power and greed, without regard for life, will draw My ire upon this land and will indeed lead to an enemy attack upon America. But, as I have made you see in previous words, at the time of the first nuclear strike, even before bombs hit America, I will remove the Pure of Heart. I will remove those I find worthy to escape these things. Now, herein is the dilemma; for many consider themselves 'worthy' to escape these things, yet their lives are full of sin and their hearts are filled with unforgiveness. Their walks are shallow. Their prayer lives are almost non-existent and their token to me is a visit to church on Sunday. Yet, on their day of 'fun in the sun' they sing high praises to me. They clap. They shout. They dance. Oh, one would think that they are on fire for their god. But, I tell you, My Child, this is the strange fire, of which you have heard. This is the fire of the world! This is the spirit of deception. This is the anointing of the fake, the false and the phony. For, they chose to believe a lie, so I have given them a bigger lie. Yes, all would be wise to leave such groups. All would be wise to separate from such groups. Why? Because, My Little One, the strange fire is contagious! Oh, it can be all-consuming! It can burn hot and it can make one believe that it is real. But, do you know how one can always tell the presence a the strange fire?"

"Because one leaves empty."

"This is correct. One not only leaves empty, but one stays empty, always looking, always searching, always hoping to be filled. Those, who harbor the strange fire, will hop from one church to another. They will chase this meeting or that, always looking for a greater high, somewhat like junkies. But, what they are really seeking is deliverance. They are seeking deliverance from the strange fire."

"Father, you mean deliverance from the spirit of the world?"

"Exactly."

"But, Father, to be free they must first realize that they have a problem."

"Exactly."

"And, most do not."

"You are right, My Child, they do not. They are happy amidst the strange fire and they will perish therein. But, My Child, you see the dilemma; for these believe that they will be raptured out. They believe that they will not have to endure what is coming."

"Yes, my Father, and this is but one more Satanic lie."

"'Tis so, for this spirit of the world is but one huge demonic entity."

"And, Father, it is so subtle. It is so utterly deceptive and few even suspect it."

"This is so, My Child, but the very spirit is blinding. It is deafening. It incarcerates ones spirit and it cuts one off from the True Spirit of God."

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, My Child, you see the beginning of the great troubles for this country and for the world with the second attack on Iraq."

"Yes, my Father."

"And, you see that it will lead to a nuclear attack on this country; for I shall not only allow it. I shall orchestrate it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"Yes, my Father."

"And, you see that at the time of the first nuclear attack, I will remove the Pure of Heart."

"Yes, my Father and some will return to this Earth with indestructible bodies and these are the Supernatural army of God."

"They are."

"But, Father, what then comes about is a world war?"

"This is so."

"But, Father, as the world war erupts, the Antichrist rises to power."

"He does."

"And, very soon the temple will be rebuilt in Israel and the Antichrist will move to rule the world through Israel?"

"You are seeing the bid now. The USA and Israel are out to take over all Arab states."

"But, this is not going to work."

"No, My Child, it will not work; but this is their plan. For, the fake Jews plan to rule the world through Israel."

"And, the Christians are blind to it."

"Remember the spirit of the world; for it will deceive many."

"So, my Father, we have World War III and the destruction of many nations, all to set up an antichrist rule?"

"You have seen it."

"But, Father, the evil ones are killing this planet. With the HAARP, they are destroying the Earth. In addition, the evil ones are spraying the skies with diseases and chemicals. They are pouring out plagues to kill all life. They are fomenting wars. Father, if so much natural calamity is coming into the Earth, and these evil ones know of these things, why are they out to kill all life and to destroy this Earth?"

"My Child, the evil ones know their fates. They know their rule is short and as far as they are concerned, if they cannot rule this planet like they have since the beginning, they will destroy it so that it will never sustain life again. They believe that they can enter other dimensions and live safely on other planets. But, I tell you, My Child, that they are sadly mistaken. For, in their fleeing crafts, they will be burned to a crisp."

"So, Father, we have the Planet Niburu, which is returning …"

"It is."

"Between now and 2012."

"Yes, this is so."

"And, the passage of this planet will lead to the flipping of the Earth?"

"It will."

"But, this is not necessarily synonymous with the Pole Shift?"

"Not as you understand it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2002

"But, Father, You showed me today that at some point, for a very brief time, that the sun will burn 1,000 times hotter. But, this does not relate to the passing of this planet?"

"It does not."

"Father, will you tell others through these writings what you have told me about this?"

"My Child, this phenomenon relates to cyclical patterns, which come from far away, even from what is called a central sun. Waves and ripples go out from this sun in patterns, which are often predictable, and you see them as sunspots. These waves and ripples from this central sun are moving forth into this sun in this solar system and they are effecting all life. As you have seen from pictures of the sun, certain passageways are being forced open within the sun, itself. The same applies to the Earth and to many, many points within this solar system. Within the heart of the sun is a very large door and this door has been blown open by a large influx of energies, which are entering through it. Because this door is now open, it is leading to violent activity on the sun. My Little One, what this violent activity of the sun does is to effect all life. Its effect on life can be positive or negative, all depending on the basic mindset of a person. If one is drawn to Me and My Son and lives according to My laws, this added influx can serve as a spiritual impetus, driving one closer to Me, …sort of like a booster rocket, if you will. But, if one's heart is evil, or if one is lost, this added impetus can excite one toward more evil, toward an explosive nature, toward more experimenting with the occult. For, this added energy excites the energy, which is already inside. See?"

"Yes, my Father."

"So, My Child, as I showed you, energy from this central sun is traveling into this system via the very large door within the heart of the sun and it is accelerating what already is there and darkness will be accelerated toward destruction and light accelerated toward its source. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, as I have shown you, at some point in time, a final wave will rush through the very heart of this sun. You have seen the date as it has been written millennia ago, … December 21st and 22nd, 2012."

"Yes, my Father, and my question has been, 'Is this so?'"

"And, My answer to you is this. If mankind continues in the same destructive course without serious repentance, this will come to pass."

"And, Father, I do not wish to be negative, but to deal in reality and I just do not see people repenting and getting real."

"I tell you, My Child, that you are entering a point of no return with World War III and after a certain point, it will be impossible to stop this progression of events."

"And, with this so, Father, the Earth will not only be flooded when it is turned upside down. It will be burned by this final wave of energy, which comes through this door in the center of our sun and even though this heat will be for only a short time, it will burn up most life."

"It will. For, the sun will surely become a thousand times hotter. My Child, you know that save people repent in large numbers, and save this comes to pass very soon, these terrible calamities shall not be averted, or stopped. My Little One, put as next chapter and also on the next 'Message for You." With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

"Illuminati Plot To Assassinate President Bush!"

Oh, Cherished Brothers and Sisters, how my heart mourns to reveal what our Father in Heaven has shown! On Wednesday of last week as I was praying I found myself in the middle of a cloud. As I stood in the middle of the cloud, I did not know why I was weeping, but Oh how I was sobbing. A great upheaval of sorrow was erupting from deep within my soul and great sobs were ripping at my whole being. As I continued to weep and plead before God, I was suddenly lifted through the top of the cloud and there before me was George W. Bush, lying before me and he was dead! Behind him were two soldiers, who had their swords drawn and coming together at an approximate 45 degree angle. As I looked through the swords and through a window, which was opened behind the head of the president, I saw a very large pyramid. Off in the distance I saw the image of another faint pyramid. As I weeped and sobbed uncontrollably before God, I knew that I was looking at plans of the evil ones and I sensed the imminent death of this president.

Oh, Dear Ones, I cannot begin to describe my sorrow for what is and for what is to come! As you read below my conversation with our Father in Heaven, you will glean additional understanding as to what the evil ones are planning. And, as you read His second message, you will be given more understanding!

Pray, pray, pray!

Oh, Cherished Ones, pray that our Father in Heaven destroys the plans of the evil ones to kill this president; for those who follow, will surely be even more evil! Pray for the safety of this president and for his salvation! Pray that our Father in Heaven breaks the stranglehold of evil on the government in Washington DC and that He awakens this rogue congress as to what this country faces! Pray that this Iraqi war is stopped dead in its tracks; for if God does not intervene supernaturally in these events, we are going to be thrown into a horrendous tumult, from which we shall see a total overturn in this government, as we know it to be!

Dear Ones, the evil ones in this very government plan to send our troops abroad while they marshal up foreign troops and use them to go door to door, picking up the so-called "dissidents" on their lists. Then, they will begin to fill up the concentration camps! Many have now verified thousands and thousands of Chinese troops, which are south of the US border in Mexico. But, according to our Father in Heaven, they are not just South of the border, but are now here and there all over the USA.

Beloved, hear me when I tell you that the New World Order is rising and that according to its plans the USA must fall and Europe must rise! Their schemes are coming to pass and very quickly now! You cannot say that you have not been warned! You cannot say that you have not been told to get on your knees, weeping and praying before God! You cannot say that you have not been called to intercede for this land! For, you have been warned! Therefore, as you see this land falling down around you, do not lament; for surely the Most High God Jehovah is judging the indifferent and sinful people in this land!

FIRST MESSAGE FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

January 22, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven; yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, you have come to Me this morning in fervent prayer, sorry for your sins and sorry for the sins of this country and world. Many tears you have shed, for your heart is breaking. My Little One, I know your sadness and it is ever so great; for you have seen the murder of George W. Bush."

"Oh, my Father, the pain in my soul is so great. I feel so utterly devastated. Father, I am saddened beyond any words; for oh that this were not so, but only a bad dream!"

"My Child, did I not warn him from the beginning to walk the "Straight and Narrow Way", or he would perish by the sword?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Yes, my Father."

"Yet, My Child, he has not heeded My warning; but has fallen even further into graft, greed and corruption. His evil and the evil of his family stinks to the highest of heaven, itself. This is a putrid, rotten sore upon this whole world and I shall open this festering wound. I shall expose all and I shall balance the scales!"

"But, Father, these evil ones do not fear You! They believe they are gods!"

"Yes, My Child, for this is their fallen heritage."

"Father, when You gave me the vision of George W. Bush today as he lay dead, I saw in the vision two soldiers, each holding a sword above his head. These swords were crossed to make about a 45-degree angle behind the head of George W. Bush and when in the vision I said, What is this? I looked through the swords and I saw large pyramids, as in Egypt. My question, Father, is: Do the Egyptians have something to do with a murder plot of the president?"

"My Child, you have been correct in seeing the two soldiers holding the sword in this way."

"Father, what does this mean?"

"Death by the sword."

"And, the pyramids?"

"At first glance, My Child, you may think that the Egyptians are behind a plot to assassinate this president. This is not the case. The pyramids, which you see represent the Illuminati."

"So, the Illuminati have a plot to assassinate the president?"

"They do."

"Oh, Father, this troubles me so! Would that it were not so! Oh, Father, speak to the heart of the President! Speak to the hearts of those, who can get through to him. Oh, how I am grieved by what I saw this morning! Father, this is so heartbreaking! Can and will it be avoided?"

"My Child, it is the utter arrogance of George W. Bush, which will cause this murder plot to come forth. He is doing and saying things, which are making his Illuminati handlers very nervous."

"But, Father, isn't he doing as they say? Has he not done well for the Illuminati?"

"Yes, My Child, but as you have been told, believe. For, George W. Bush and his Father are themselves slaves and addicts to alcohol and drugs. They have run drugs and destroyed the minds of many and now they are reaping what they have sown! For as you sow, you shall surely reap! George H.W. Bush is a mass murderer and so is his son. Truly, if you live by the sword, you die by the sword!"

"Oh, my Father, were this not so about the death of this President! Oh, my heart is broken!"

"Yes, My Child, and even at this late hour, this could be avoided if he would turn to Me and My Son, forsake alcohol and drugs and repent! Yes, my Child, much could be averted if he would humble himself before Me and My Son and repent for his sins!"

"And, Father, what concerns me as well are the huge numbers of hounds of hell, which I see, who are waiting to be released when the evil ones murder this president."

"This is so; for the ones, who orchestrate this murder, are his Illuminati handlers and these are behind the scenes. The truth of them will not immediately be known. Therefore, they will need a 'patsy.'"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Father, why would this surprise any of us?'

"Yes, My Child, it would not surprise any, who can see and hear."

"So, Father, they will find a 'patsy', maybe an American sniper. Then, they will be able to instantly declare martial law and get the guns!"

"You are not far off in your assessment!"

"So, Father, the hounds of hell will then be released on this country?"

"You have seen it."

"But, Father, tell me more about these hounds."

"My Child, the pits of hell are opening up and these very hounds will possess many, who will be used to gather up dissidents and enemy combatants. Martial law will see many rounded up from their lists. Mind you, My Child, I told you last year that the evil ones were already getting rid of certain ones on their lists and I have made you see how these are being loaded onto trains and many are already dead. This is the rise of the Nazi police state."

"So, this is going to intensity."

"My Little One, these are their plans; but I tell you now that the prayers of the righteous avail much. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father. Father, how close is this assassination scheme of the President?"

"My Child, the groundwork is being laid. Their plans are not set in stone, but many are forceful about his execution."

"Father, You said many. Many who?"

"Many in the darkness of the Illuminati."

"But, who are these handlers?"

"Who sits at the top of the Illuminati?"

"Satan, the evil one."

"But, what person?"

"Could You be referring to the Rockefellers?"

"These are a piece of the puzzle, but not all. My Child, do you remember when I told you that I was going to turn evil brotherhood against evil brotherhood?"

"Yes, my Father, You said it many months ago."

"Well, know this, My child. There is intense rivalry, intense striving going on among the different groups within the same brotherhood. One of these groups, a very powerful one, indeed, wants George W. Bush taken out! It just so happens that this group also exerts a great amount of control over the secret intelligence gathering groups. Understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Father, be with Your people and do not let Your people perish! Help us, Father! Do not let this landfall to their schemes! Father, please help us!"

"My Little One, I shall never leave or forsake My Loved Ones. Go in peace and know My great love. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

SECOND MESSAGE FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

January 26, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me, My Little One; for what I have to say is of utmost importance! Yes, My Child, you hear the rumblings in the Spirit. You perceive the tumult! You sense what is at hand and now I come forth with warnings of much that you already perceive.

My Child, you have heard of thousands of Chinese troops, who are amassing south of the border of the USA. Be advised, My Child, that these are not just amassing south of the border. Through underground tunnels and through transport by rail and by sea, there are many thousands, even tens of thousands, who are already in the USA. They are scattered here and there and many are hidden underground and in the national forests. Listen to Me, My Child, when I tell you that this is all by design. The Antichrist has raised up and equipped China to be the police enforcer of the world and they are being put in place at strategic locations throughout the USA. At the time of a pre-determined crisis, when most of your troops are without your borders fighting senseless wars, they will bring forth these troops to establish law and order. This chaos, which is to ensue, is planned chaos. A few weeks ago, I showed you in visions and spoke to you of the New World Order plans to blow up a large city in the USA. Yes, they plan to use nuclear devices. In addition to this, I have shown you how these very ones plan to murder your president. Do not believe what many of you see on television. For, all that is shown to you will be a lie. When they follow through with the murder of your president, and even if you see the very person pull the trigger, do not believe that you see. For, it is according to New World Order design that he be martyred for their purposes to further implement their designs and plans."

"Father, is there a possibility that the murder of this president can be averted?"

"My Child, there is always this possibility and much that is coming down depends on the repentance of the people. But, I tell you, My Child, that few are repenting. They believe that if they sing more, if they praise more, if they shout more, that they are alright with Me, even though their hearts are full of darkness. I am not in this. If any of you want Me and My Son, your repentance must be real. It must be sincere. It must be deep and you must stop disobeying My laws. You must come out of the worldly traps. But, I tell you, My Child, that over and over I have warned you to shut down television; for it is a conduit for Lucifer. I have warned you to stay out of movies and to keep your children away from them, but how many have listened? My Little One, if each of you does not want to be a mind controlled zombie, who is manipulated and controlled by Lucifer and the spirit of the world, cease to partake of the pollution. Burn these television sets en masse. Chop them up and load the garbage heaps! Refuse any longer to be a Satanic pawn. But, the truth is that most are addicted to television. To part with it is to part with one's faithful and trusted friend, informer and babysitter. I tell you, My Child, if each of you will not rid your lives of this smut, if you will not break serfdom to this New World Order trap, you will become further enslaved in many ways.

Oh, My Child, the world over the Luciferian war is picking up. The world over, you will see freedom vanish in air and you will see Nazism, communism and Satanism move in and take over. My Child, it is a day wherein I am calling Mine out of this world. I am calling Mine out of the mind control! I am calling Mine out of the clamor and if you will not hear Me now, how will you hear Me when foreign troops are on your front doorsteps? How will you hear me on the death trains and in the concentration camps? For, I tell you now, and listen to Me. As your troops are marshaled up and sent out to fight useless wars, the Chinese will go door to door to pick up those on the lists. From street to street, from road to road, they will travel to pick up those on the lists, the "dangerous" people on the red list first. But, I tell you, My Child, that many on this red list are already gone. They have met their deaths in underground bases, in remote concentration camps, and it has happened right under your noses."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Yes, My Child, the Chinese are infiltrating America; but you have seen nothing yet. Yes, you have heard it and it is so! George H. W. Bush is in on the murder plot of his own son! Yes, I have revealed it to another and I now confirm it to you. When it comes to pass, know this. The one, who takes his (the president's) place was also in on the plot and the one, who follows this man, is surely in on it. For, the rise of another to the presidency will be short-lived."

"So, Father, these evil ones plan to kill the president, blow up some cities, call martial law and take the guns?"

"My Child, it may not come to pass in the order you have mentioned, but yes these are their plans. And, not only do they plan to use the Chinese and the Germans to take up your guns, but they plan to use them to pick up those, who are on their lists."

"Father, is it going to be this easy for them?'

"All will not go as they plan; for they forget Me, the God factor. This, they have factored out. But, many, they will round up, who are outspoken and strong "believers;" and these they will murder."

"Father, how long?"

"My Child, I tell you their plans. Within a month, they plan to seize Iraq. Within six months, they plan to attack North Korea. And, at the time that your troops are nearly all out of your country, they plan to murder your President and to go on a rampage of blowing up several cities with nuclear devices. Out of the chaos, out of the destruction, they will bring about their New World Order. And, the black bird, their awaited Phoenix, will rise in Europe. As the USA falls by design of the evil ones, Europe will rise through the Antichrist. Watch Germany; for the Antichrist will rise in Europe as I have told you previously and he will be of Germanic descent."

"Father, You have said it and You have also told how Lucifer will inhabit the body of the Syrian."

"Both things are so. You will see the Antichrist rise in Europe. This evil man will unite Europe and cause it to rise to a position of world power. He will set out to conquer all nations and to cause them to worship the beast, along with the harlot, who rides the beast system."

"Father, You say that he will cause them to worship the beast and then you mention the harlot."

"Listen to Me, My Child, the scarlet woman is the Catholic Church. She is drunk with the blood of the Saints; for down through the ages, this church has persecuted and killed many of the Saints. At this late hour, you shall see this church go through great travail as this evil is exposed; but with the help of the Antichrist this whore will be used to sway and unite the peoples of the world. When this is done to suit the Antichrist, he will stomp the whore. He will burn the whore; for he plans to share his power with no one, only to use them and destroy them."

"So, how does the Syrian come into play?"

"Watch this, My Child, for one of foreign descent will be used by the Antichrist to deceive the people."

"But, does the Syrian not fight against the Antichrist?"

"He does; but not at first. They align with one another. When you see this Syrian rise to a position of power, remember My words."

"But, the Syrian is antichrist?"

"He is antichrist, but not the Antichrist. The Antichrist will rise in Europe and He is of Germanic descent."

"And, most likely a ‘fake Jew?’"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"You know the plan, My Child, the plan for world dominion, and at the root of it are the 'fake Jews', who are Satan's puppets."

"So, Father, the Antichrist push for these wars on two fronts is to expedite the destruction of America and to pick up all on their lists."

"You have been told as much."

"Yet, Father, even yesterday I was reading how the FDA has 22,000 bushels of hybridized corn, some of which has been slipped into the food supply. I read that this corn is making hogs infertile in Iowa and some are demanding that the FDA get rid of this corn."

"My Child, there is an all-out war to destroy your water supply and your food supply. The spraying of the skies is not killing people and animals fast enough to suit them; so they are picking up speed. These 22,000 bushels and much more, just like it, will be given to animals, even humans! The FDA is under UN control and is in no way subservient to the demands of the people of the USA."

"So, Father, with the destruction of the cities through nuclear blasts, the poisoning of the skies and the poisoning of the food chain, people will begin to go hungry."

"You are correct, but this is not all. The New World Order bankers will declare that all debts must be paid for this country is totally bankrupt and totally controlled by them. Many will not be able to pay their bills. Bankruptcy will no longer be an option and they will come to seize all property and to throw the debtors into prison. This is their plan and I tell you, My Child, that the enactment of the same is not far off. Understand?"

"Yes, My Father."

"Type this and post on the current Message for You along with the last message from Me. Also, add both as the next chapter to Book VIII. I am your Father in Heaven, Yea Jehovah, most High God."

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

"God's Great Judgement upon America! We are reaping as we have sown."

Our Father's First Message

February 03, 2003

"God's judgement against the 'whore churches'"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Listen to Me, My Little One. Hearken unto Me, for I am raising up a mighty Standard of Righteousness in this land and around the world. I am raising up this standard of purity, of wholeness, of humility and righteousness and through this standard, I am gauging My people. I am measuring My people. And, every one, who professes love for Me and My Son, shall be purified in My holy fires and they shall walk according to My Standard of Righteousness, or they shall be sifted as chaff in the wind.

'Listen to Me, My child. I have warned and I have warned My people to repent and live in righteousness and now comes sudden judgement. Those, who are caught in the throes of rebellion and darkness, shall perish in their rebellion and darkness.

(Below, our Father is speaking of the repentance letters to the churches, which many of you sent out. These letters are in Book VII.)

" I tell you now and hear Me, My Child, that every church, yea every pastor, who received My admonition, yea every church, which has defiled My words with sneers and scoffs, yea these shall fall. For, even now as I have shown you in visions, I am sending forth My angels; and in the Spirit the angels are marking the doors of these churches with Xs. My Child, My rod of judgement is coming into these churches and I shall take from them what they have. I shall confound them even unto destruction and death. Oh, I have warned Mine to come out of these polluted churches and I warn you again to come out, lest My ax of judgement fall, cut you off, and destroy you. Yes, My Child, I am sending the Destroyer into these churches. I shall burn them with torches and their memories shall be as dust in the wind.

"What you have seen recently with the arrogant preacher, who put you under foot, because of your looks and who refused to accept My word through you, is now taking place all across this land and around the world. Every church, which has received My warning and has scoffed, is marked with this red X. And, just as surely as the sun rises, I shall send the Destroyer and he will destroy every one.

"My Child, lament not; for I have sent you and you have run. I have raised up and I have sent couriers with these messages and they have run. Tens of thousands, even now well over one hundred thousand churches have received these letters of repentance; but I ask you, My Child, how many have repented?"

"Father, I would say that fewer than 1,000."

"My Little One, fewer than 500 have heard and of these fewer than 200 have taken this word seriously."

"Father, this is awful! I am deeply saddened!"

"But, my Child, as a prophetess of God, I have recently sent you into a congregation. And did the preacher accept you?"

"No, my Father."

"Listen to Me, My Child. Just as surely as I speak, this man shall not long live. For, I shall smite him. I shall send upon him what he has sent upon you and he shall not extricate himself from the grip of the same. For, in his prayers, he has cursed you and he has sent an array of demons on you. But, I tell you now, My Child, he is a fool. For, he has put you under foot and he is now under foot."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Father, I am so sorry about this. But, I tell you, Father, it is an awful thing to see those, who are fed by the 'strange fire,' yet they will not and cannot see it."

"Yes, My Little One, I am about to bring a great judgement against the 'strange fire.' For, I will send soldiers of other countries and they shall burn these whore churches. And the rest I shall send through the fires until I am satisfied that they measure up to My Standard of Righteousness. So, when you see these things come to pass, when you see foreign soldiers in the streets, who go door to door, who burn, kill and destroy, know this: this is My judgement upon the whores and their offspring. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

Second Message from our Father in Heaven

"The Last Wave of alarm bells and whistles before the USA is Invaded!"

"God judges the Congress of the USA in 2003"

February 05, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven; yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, do you hear the bells? Do you hear the whistles?"

"Yes, my Father, I hear the bells, as the bells of a sleigh, and I hear the whistles, which sound like the whistles, which cops use to when they blow them to regulate traffic."

"My Child, it is a time of bells and whistles."

"My Father, what do You mean?"

"My Child, I mean that I am sounding the bells and I am blowing the whistles."

"Father, what does this mean?"

"My Little One, it means that those, who hear the bells and whistles and wake up, repent and come back to Me and My Son, will be delivered. Those, who do not hear the bells and whistles, are about to perish in darkness."

"Father, what exactly are the bells and whistles?"

"The wake-up call, the last wake-up call, before the invasion of the USA."

"You said, 'invasion.'"

"I did."

"You mean the invasion by foreign troops, particularly the Chinese and Germans?"

"I do."

"Father, how long do we have?"

"I tell you, My Child, before year's end the power elite plan to have foreign troops going door to door."

"But, Father, if people will not repent in great numbers and come back to You, what hope is there?"

"My Son is the Hope of the world and he came that the lost may be set free. He is the Hope. But, the blind and deaf cannot see this. They cannot hear this and they cannot understand it."

"So, this being the case, they are without hope?"

"My Little One, they are not without hope; for My Son is their hope; but unfortunately most will not be able to see this hope."

"So, Father, in a sense they have lost this hope."

"They are surely cut off from it and they will surely perish."

"But, Father, You know and I know that many of the heathen will come to our Lord Jesus and they will know this Hope before many in this land of plenty."

"You have said it and it is so. But, I tell you, My Child, I am sounding the last wave of alarm bells and whistles before the USA is invaded."

"So, Father, the goal of the evil ones to have foreign troops in the streets of America is by year's end?"

"Or, sooner."

"And, You continue to warn people to repent even until this time."

"I have said it."

"Father, earlier this morning, You told me that this year, You will take the horns off the goat head in Washington DC. Someone told me that these horns on the goat head come out at the capitol. Father, what do You mean by Your statement?"

"This year, My Child, the horns of the goat head shall be ripped off the goat; for I shall do it, Myself."

"Father, what does this mean?"

"It means that those, who are on a one-way street will stay on a one- way street. It means that those, who are on a two-way street, will stay on a two-way street.'

"I still do not understand."

"My Child, look at it this way. Some in congress always look through a two-way mirror. Others just look in the mirror as a way of life and still others hate all mirrors and stomp every on they see. Those, who look through the two-way mirrors, will find themselves now looking in the mirror. Those, who look in the mirror, will now see through a two-way mirror and those, who stomp the mirror, will find themselves in a deep, dark pit."

"But, Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, it means that it is a day of reckoning for Capitol Hill USA. It means that I shall put My ax to the power base. It means that I shall force the hand of those, who lead double lives. And, I shall wreak havoc in the lives of those, who live for show. While those, who do not wish to be seen, will disappear into utter darkness."

"But, how does this relate to the removal of the horns?"

"This year, My Child, My judgement upon these whores shall be so great that I shall utterly rip asunder the Satanic power base in Washington DC. Everything that they believe is, I will show them that it is not. Everything that they hold true, I shall make them see to be untrue. What is real to them is unreal and what is unreal is real. But, this year, I shall turn upon this evil hoard with such vengeance that they shall scatter like mice before a spotlight. As never before, I shall pour out My judgement upon these whores and they shall find themselves utterly powerless.

"This is a new day wherein I am rising up in My ire and I shall utterly destroy the enemies of My people. I shall utterly destroy; and it is the beginning of the end for America, as you know it to be. 2003, My Child, is the beginning of My great judgement upon the USA. I shall arise, I shall shake this land, and I shall begin to utterly judge it. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

Third Message from our Father in Heaven

"America shall utterly fall!

Feb. 12, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, I know your heart and I know that it is full of love and sincerity for My people. I know you, My Little One. Through and through, I know you and I am well-pleased in you."

"Oh, my Beautiful Father, I feel so utterly devastated. I feel a great hopelessness deep in my soul and unparalleled sorrow rips up my innermost parts. I am so saddened and feel a sense of loss beyond any words; for Father, it seems that so much toil, so much work in the vineyard has been in vain. Masses upon masses of people, deep in the valley of decision and the darkness is upon all. Oh, I should tear my clothes and douse myself in ashes, for I feel so utterly destitute and barren. What more can be done; for it seems that whether the warnings go out, or not, this country is about to reap as it has sown."

"My Child, I know your deep sorrow and it is real. I know your sense of hopelessness and in a sense you are correct in feeling this way. For, I tell you, My Child, that billions are in the valley of decision and these same billions are lost in darkness. Yes, My Little One, you have warned and you have warned and the blood of the rebellious shall not be on your hands. For, you have done as I have asked. Nevertheless, the blood of the rebellious shall soon fill this land from north to south and from east to west. For, this I shall require of the rebellious.

(Dear Ones, weep! For, great is God's judgement upon this land!)

"Mark My words, My Little One. No longer will I tolerate a country so utterly full of evil and blasphemy. You have fallen to the level of swine and heathen and the putrid is fit for destruction. Into your midst, I shall send the prowler, yea the thief, the murderer, the soldiers from afar, and America shall utterly fall. Across this land, America shall burn. I shall send famine, disease, separation and utter destruction and I shall scatter the peoples of this land. And, for many, many days, they shall fall to the sword. They shall fall to sickness and disease and a foreign people of fierce and unrelenting countenance shall rule over you.

"Yes, your very government, your very leadership, I shall remove and in its place, rogues, murderers from afar shall I place over you. For, freedom you have been given and freedom you have taken for granted. Your prosperity, I shall pluck up and give to others, for prosperity you have known and you have wallowed in it like fat hogs. Your plenteous crops I shall destroy and sting with blights and diseases what is left and the grain belt of the world shall become a cancerous sore. For, plenty I have blessed you with, but you have cursed the hand, which provided it. To your churches, I shall send fire, I shall send the sword and I shall destroy them and scatter the flock; for I am sickened by the rotten smell of the lukewarm and mediocre.

"Yes, My child, America I am bringing low, and know this when you see it falling down around you. I blessed you. I made you great; but you have come to love the gift and not the Giver of the gift. Therefore, I am sifting you as wheat, the tares into the fires of destruction and the wheat into the fires of refinement.

"Yes, My Child, as you have so truthfully spoken, the curses of Deuteronomy 28 are upon America. Therefore, when you see all these things come to pass, know that what you see is My judgement. For, you have trampled My commands. You have spat upon My words. You have mocked and scorned My true prophets. You have worshiped idols and you have sought strange gods.

"Yea, when you see enemies in the street and many fall by the sword and by fire and by pestilence and disease, know this: I am judging this evil. And, many, many will hate Me and turn from Me and in the evil, they shall perish. But know this: those, who love Me and who stay the course of righteousness are saved.

"And, know this: few, very few are counted worthy to escape these things. And, many of My saints shall fall to the camps and to the fires, the wars, to the plagues, and to the famines. But, even so, even in the midst of their great trials, I shall make Myself known. And, even in death, they shall not know its sting.

"Yes, My Child, tragedy is not just at the door of America. Tragedy is within its gates and this year will not pass before you see the unfolding of what I am telling you now. So, let those hear, who will hear, and let those see, who will see. This is My word to all…REPENT! For, hell is enlarging itself. And, save you repent, you shall surely die! I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

Beloved, if you have not read Deuteronomy 28, go and read it. Perhaps, you have read it and forgotten about the curses, which come upon the people, who will not live according to God's commandments. It is time that you remember again; for these curses are upon America and upon other countries as well.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN - PART II

A MESSAGE FOR YOU

February 20, 2003

God has gathered together once more The House of Israel and again they have rebelled against God!

Beloved, herein I will seek to recount some of the things, which our Father in Heaven has shown me since the last update. I can tell you that with each passing day, a great sense of sorrow and dread began to grip my soul. As I watched many countries line up against the USA, our Father began speaking to my heart about many things. He told me of how He had gathered the House of Israel from the many countries into which He has formerly sent them because of their rebellion in ages past. He made me see how He had blessed the house of Israel again with their own land, with their own country. He told me how He had made their country great, even above all nations, for He loves the House of Israel and will always remember His covenant with them.

Beloved, these people are right now in America and this country is the USA. He then made me see clearly that Israel, the nation, is not the House of Israel, but the House of Judah and they have also been gathered together and blessed once more with their own country. It is true that the House of Israel is scattered still all over this Earth and is most assuredly in Canada, many countries of Europe, Australia, New Zealand, etc. He showed me how He has blessed these nations and how they have all gone whoring after the flesh, how they have gone whoring after idols and strange gods, how they have loved the world and have not loved Him. This is why they, too, shall fall and shall be sorely judged. For, they have been given the truth, but have rejected the same. These countries, which have known God's truth, who have known His blessings, shall be judged even more harshly than many of the heathen; for they are being judged according to what they know and have willfully violated, not according to what they do not know.

Study these books!

Several weeks ago, our Father in Heaven told me to go and study the books of Daniel, Isaiah, Ezekiel and Jeremiah, beginning with the book of Daniel. He warned me not to just read these books, but to study them and take to heart what I was to read. As I began to read the book of Daniel, which tells of how Daniel and other children were taken into captivity into Babylon, even as they were young children, God began to speak to my heart and I began to weep. Oh, how I weeped; for He was telling me right then and there that America is going into captivity. With every page of Daniel that I read, great sorrow began to tear at my being and it became so great that I could not even do everyday chores. It was so great that when I would go out to the store, I could not make it there without weeping. I felt that the whole weight of the world was on my shoulders and a great darkness had fallen on me, which was overpowering. It was a terrible sense of darkness, of depression, of bitter isolation and aloneness. During the course of this week, which was two weeks ago, our Father told me that within a week, our Lord Jesus would visit me and that also He would increase the anointing, which He has given to me. Yet, even with this to look forward to, I could not get myself out of this terrible state.

In visions, I saw the Chinese going door to door, burning and looting. I saw them lining up people, covering their heads with white hoods and mowing them down with machine guns. I saw the angels visiting the whore churches and marking them for destruction. I saw the churches burning and city after city burning. And, with each new vision, the deep sorrow increased within my soul. By Saturday afternoon of that week, our Father in Heaven told me that He would take away this horrible burden and by Saturday night it was gone.

On Saturday night, the 15th of February, our Father in Heaven lifted the burden and once more I began to know His beautiful light and joy. That night, I was awakened and I felt a powerful presence of God in the room. Even though in my body, I was able to see as if from looking through my eye lids and I saw a large hand pouring out upon me a substance of light. This substance of light covered my legs and lower torso and began to make a large pile on my body. As I watched this substance being poured out on me, my husband, who was also asleep, spoke to me and said, "I want some of that."

As the substance was being poured out, a voice spoke to me and said, "This is for the House of Israel." Then, I saw about two thirds of this substance disappear and I was left with one third. I got up at around ten minutes after three in the morning and came out into the living room. I began to pray and seek God about what had happened and He told me that I had been given a greater anointing, which was ten times what I had, and this is the part that remained. But, when I need it to minister to others, it will be 30 times more than what I previously had and will include the two thirds, which I saw vanish. When needed to minister to others, the two thirds will be there.

The next prophecy from our Father in Heaven, which is below, is relative to this anointing and how each of you, who wants your part of this anointing, is to receive it. Since you are scattered all over and I will have no way to reach you, you will need to write and request the "House of Israel" anointing. The cloths will be anointed with oil and these will be sent to those of you, who want this anointing. If you already have a cloth, you only need to wait for God to add the House of Israel anointing to the cloth you have and He will do this, that is if you are using your cloth and believing. But, if you do not use you cloth and you already do not believe, do not ask for the House of Israel anointing. For, if you have been blessed and you do not believe, neither will you believe for the additional anointing.

Fourth Message from our Father in Heaven

"The House of Israel Anointing"

February 22, 2003

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me; for I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, when the pear is ripe, the juice is sweet and succulent. And, when the sun bleeds red in the sky in the morning, the sailors have been known to take warning. I ask you, My Child, do you see any relation between the ripe pear and the red sky in morning?"

"My Father, what comes to mind is that this country is ripe with iniquity. This iniquity tastes sweet to many and because of this they are failing to see the red sky in the morning. They are fat with iniquity, which has reached its fullness, and they have not in any way seen the warning."

"My Little One, what you have discerned is true and is given you through My Spirit. For, indeed, even as the ripe pear is sweet, so do the masses find the taste of rebellion sweet; and because their lips are full of the sweetness of all that is come full term in its ripeness, destruction shall come suddenly and completely. They shall not see it coming and many, many will perish with their mouths full of the rebellious fruit. But, My Child, those, who have listened, those, who have understood, will not be surprised. Neither will they be confounded.

"Yes, My Child, My judgement upon this land is rolling forth as swift as a falling ax and many will soon perish with their lives laden with sin and rebellion. The time is at hand." "Father, here and there all across this land and around the world there are those, who love You very much. And, I know that You will never forsake Your Loved One. Father, You have imparted an anointing to me, which is for the House of Israel. How shall they receive; for they are so scattered?"

"My Child, you will anoint those I tell you to anoint. Those, who read these words and who want this increase need request it through the mail. I will have you anoint certain cloths with this anointing, which is for the House of Israel."

"Father, is this the same as the Rainbow Anointing?"

"It is part of the same, but not all; for the gift of the rainbow is without limit."

"Father, You have told me that from time to time, You will increase the anointing on the anointed handkerchiefs, which certain ones have already received. And, you told me that as these individuals use these cloths and as they believe, that from time to time You will increase the anointings on the cloths they have. But, if they do not use them and do not believe, that You will remove the anointing from the cloths, which they have."

"I have told you these things and some are seeing this increase of My anointing on their cloths. My Little One, through these cloths, I have already healed many, though most do not write you of these things. Nevertheless, it is so. And, those, who have these cloths, who use them and believe, will know many miracles and they will see many healed. During the times of great travail, of pestilence, plagues and persecution, many will be glad they had the forethought and belief to order these anointed cloths. For, many shall find themselves cut off from other believers, with no one to minister to them and they will be grateful for My gift through these anointed cloths. Those, who respect what I have given and who use these anointed cloths in faith will surely see the anointing grow. For these, there is no need to order another cloth; for to those, who use them and believe, I will add the increase so that they receive the 'House of Israel anointing.' Those cloths that you send out from now on will have the 'House of Israel' anointing.' Do you understand."

"Yes, my Father."

"With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 22nd day of February, 2003,

Linda Newkirk

So, Beloved Ones, if you want the cloths, which have the House of Israel anointing, please send a request to Linda Newkirk, P.O. Box 17277, North Little Rock, AR, 72117. It is easier to keep up with requests I receive via mail as I now have such a backlog of e-mails and our mail is often tampered with by the evil ones in this very government.
I also wish to share some very important Bible verses with you that our Lord and God has planted in my mind. He has been getting my heart ready for the captivity, which this land is about to see. But, I also warn Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Europe and Scandanavia, in particular, do not think that you will come out unscathed; for it will not be so. What is herein, you need to take to heart; for you will also see great destruction in your very midst. Do not cry, "Oh, this does not pertain to us. We are clean!" None are clean, for we are all filthy rags before God. Even you countries in South America will know great travail; for the devil is mindful and you and so is our Lord and God, and you, too, will be purged and cleansed, even by fires, and plagues and great famines. The evil ones will come out of the bushes and you will be caught unawares. For, none, no none will leave with our Lord Jesus, save they have been purified in the fires as gold and silver. So, when you see the destruction in America, know that it is a warning to you! For, what is here will also come into your very midst, save you repent in great measure and come back to God and serve Him in truth, honor and Spirit.

GOD WORD CONCERNING THE LATTER DAYS …

Antichrist persecution

Daniel 7:21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them.

Daniel 8:23-24 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

Daniel 11 32-35 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries; but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame and captivity and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

Tests and trials for God's people

Daniel 12:10 Many shall be purified, and made white and tried, but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

Zechariah 13:8-9 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried; they shall call on My name, and I will hear them. I will say, It is My people: and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Revelation 7:13-14 And one of the elders answered saying unto me, what are these which are arrayed in white robes? And whence came they? And I said unto him Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, these are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 3:5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before My Father, and before His angels.

Revelation 6:10-11 And they cried with a loud voice saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost Thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

Revelation 16:5-6 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou are Righteous, O Lord, which are, and wast, and shalt be, because Thou has judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and Thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

Repent!

Ezekiel 33:10-11 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying. If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?
House of Israel is going into captivity

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

Ezekiel 38 and 39 refers to the USA. We are the house of Israel, though not all, but above all lands, we have been blessed and have become all the more the whore! This is why America is going into captivity. Is this set in stone? Few things are, but truthfully I do not see many, who are repenting, but many becoming even more deaf, dumb and blind!

Ezekiel 39:24 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against Me, therefore hid I My face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid My face from them.

Vision of the Broad Way

Beloved Ones, what is about to come to pass in this country is a very sad picture, about which I have shed many, many tears. As I related above, for most of a week I wept and was unable to do what needed to be done; for I was so grief-stricken. The day after our Lord Jesus visited me and increased the anointing, I was praying to our Father in Heaven when I got caught up in a vision. In this vision I saw myself being lifted up out of a very dark river. This river was wide and swift and had many dark tributaries. As I was lifted higher and higher by a beautiful light, I asked our Father in Heaven why I had been in this very dark river and what it meant. He told me that He had placed me in this very dark river and that this river is the broad way. I knew that He was speaking of the broad way, which leads into destruction. When I asked Him why he put me in it, and even for most of a week, He told me that He wanted me to know how those on the broad way are going to feel. At that moment, I knew that many would kill themselves rather than go through the feelings of absolute hopelessness and helplessness, which I was feeling. I knew that many would be unable to stand; for they would have no hope. I painfully understood what was coming for the greatest numbers and once again I felt great despair. The greatest numbers are on the broad way of destruction and they know it not. And, when violence escalates, when war erupts and cities are destroyed, when great famines and plagues descend upon this country, these shall know what I felt for most of a week. But, for these on the broad way, there shall be no escaping, save they turn to our Lord and God and repent. But, oh how hard it is going to be; for the devil shall be greatly determined to sift their souls.

The Space Shuttle Disaster

Amos 9:2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall Mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down.

Many believe that the space shuttle disaster was an accident while others believe that it was sabotage, but I tell you that it is God's judgement.

Back in late spring of last year when the evil ones were trying to kill me and my husband by microwaving us through our house, our Father told me to take His rod of judgement and to strike the space station. He told me at that time that I would be reading about it in the news. And, it was not very many days before I was reading that all the shuttles had been grounded as they had developed cracks of some sort in the engines.

About two weeks before the current shuttle incident, as I was talking with my Brother one morning on the telephone, the evil ones were once again sending microwaves, or other harmful frequencies into the telephone. As we prayed, our Father in Heaven began to speak and He told me that He was going to judge the space station. He said that He was going to judge the 1st, 7th, 10th and 13th floors of this station and that they would never be able to get it working right again. He said that they would try to make this station work right, but never again would it be so; for just when they believed that they had it working right, something else would tear up. He went on to say that He was doing this, not just because they were trying to kill me again, but for all His Loved Ones that they had tortured, persecuted and killed. In my spirit, I knew that this was just the beginning of His wrath against the enemies of His people! It is sad that these lives were lost and I deeply regret to see such things come to pass, but God is no longer taking the persecution and murder of His people lightly. If the evil ones continue to sicken and murder God's Loved Ones, they will see greater retaliation from Him!

CHAPTER NINETEEN

"Shutting up the Strange Fire"

Leviticus 10:1-2 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which He commanded them not. And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord."

Our Cherished Brothers and Sisters, praises to the Name of our Lord and God; for He has heard our cries! He has looked upon our heartache and He has born our sufferings. And, Beloved, He is moving out on our behalf with His outpouring love and mercy. He sees the hearts of many, who come to Him now on bended knee and He hears our heartfelt cries before Him. He truly sees our oppression and He senses the great longing in our hearts to make things right before Him; and Beloved, once more He is moved with love, mercy and compassion towards us. He is giving the errant churches a season, albeit a short season, to come back. And, He is moving forth on behalf of His Loved Ones to empower us with a greater outpouring of His Spirit. Revival is truly at hand. He sees that we are repenting and He is doing His part to help this land and to help other peoples around the world. But, Beloved, our window of opportunity is short.

Herein, you will see what He is doing and you will see why we must all act now while we have time. We must continue to repent for the sins of this land and you in other countries must likewise fall on your faces before God Almighty for the sins of your land that He will hear your cries and move likewise in your behalf. Let it be known that our Lord and God loves us in a great and mighty way and He wants us to honor Him by obeying Him and loving Him back. He wants us to live right, to come away from the lusts of the world and to follow Him. He wants us to love one another, that we might be saved and that we might not fall as a nation. But, Dear Ones, we do not have forever to decide to come back to Him and to clean up our lives. We have only a season to move forward and accomplish much. As you read what He has done below, you will see His awesome power.

The devils tremble and the New World Order crowd will wail and howl; for their strange fire has been locked up in places around the world, even if for only a season. But, Cherished Ones, because this fire is locked up for a season is truly a mighty miracle from God. Praise God Jehovah; for He alone, is Most High. He, alone is Holy and He alone is going to make right all that the evil ones have destroyed! READ ON!

"Our Father in Heaven begins to shut up the 'strange fire'"

March 15, 2003

After praying in tongues for perhaps an hour, or so, I saw myself carried in a vision to a place of darkness. In this place, I saw what reminded me of a black stove top, the kind of stove that burns wood. It was like a kitchen stove; and the top was quite wide and long, with a series of openings. These openings were round, just like the openings on a wood stove. The coverings to the holes were laid to the side of the holes and a flame was coming up through each open hole. I took the covers, one by one, and placed them back over each hole. Then, I heard a sound in the Spirit, like a jackhammer, and as I held the cover in place, the cover was sealed to the hole. It looked to be welded in place, almost like it was sewed in place by a sewing machine, yet it was welded, metal to metal. I placed about seven covers on the holes quickly and they were immediately sealed shut by the power of God and when I finished placing all the covers and they were all sealed, I knew instinctively that I needed to hurry downstairs. For, more work was to be done.

Down below, I came to another level of the stove-top-like structure and this level had a number of holes, somewhere around ten, all in a row. On each occasion the covers were off the holes, yet not beside the holes as before, but pushed up into the air by the power of the fire, and they were floating in the fire above the holes.

For the first three, or so, holes, I could manage to push against the forces of the fire and put the covers back on the holes, then, hearing the familiar jackhammer sound and seeing the covers sealed to the holes, I would move on. As I went further down the line, the covers to the holes were pushed higher and higher up into the air and they were held up there by the force of the power of the fire, which came out of the hole. As the lids got higher and higher, I was unable to push them down onto the hole.

At first, I called a number of angels, I believe about fifteen, and was able to close the hole and it was sealed. But, the next lid would be even higher and I knew that this numbers of angels would not be able to do the job. With each successive hole, I would approximately double the number of angels I would call and with their help, the cover would be brought into place and sealed. Finally, the number that I called in was 130 angels and the force was so great that even with this number, the cover was very difficult to replace. Finally, I knew that I would have to call Archangel Michael. I called him and he came for the last two or three covers. He stood on them and they went back with ease. I then touched each cover and waited for the jackhammer-like sound. Then I knew that they were sealed. Praise God!

As you read below, you will see how our Father explains the sealing off of the strange fire.

Message from our Father in Heaven

"Questions and Answers about shutting up the Strange Fire"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, you have many questions about the shutting up of the strange fire, and at this setting I will answer your questions."

"Yes, my Father, I do have many questions. As I now understand it, this fire is bound up for a season, which You have told me is nine months.

"This is so."

"Father, what exactly does this mean?"

"It means that those individuals, those groups, those organizations, which depend on the ‘strange fire’ for manifestations, will not get the so-called miracles. This fire will not enter into them and into their groups; for they are cut off from it."

"Father, does this refer to the occult as well?"

"My Child, did you not go to a place of darkness to shut up the fire?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, I ask you, My child, who depends most on the strange fire?"

"My Father, I know that the secret, occult groups depend on the strange fire; but also many so-called Christian churches."

"This is so, but most assuredly the occult groups depend on this fire. And many well-known TV personalities, who parade as evangelists, ministers, prophets and even apostles are busy working miracles through the strange fire and they are fooling many."

"So, now Father, they will not be able to fool the people."

"Oh, they may still fool many, but it will not be through the strange fire, not for at least for nine months."

"Father, why did You shut up the fire?"

"Because of your cries and the cries of others against this fire and for revival. This fire will have to be shut up for a season to allow a real revival to break lose across this land; for this strange fire has such a hold on the people."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Oh, Father, this is such a merciful and beautiful thing You have done. I am in such awe; for there is nothing You cannot do. You are so full of love and mercy and You power is without bounds."

"It is."

"Father, call together those, who would be ready to bring in this awesome revival, and bless these as the harbingers."

"Even now, this is happening; for now many are praying for the same and it is about to break out."

"Father, has the strange fire been shut up all over the world or in the North American continent only?"

"At this time, on the North American continent only."

"But, Father, will You, will You please shut it up elsewhere?"

"When I find others on the other continents, who are ready and worthy to shut it up, I will use them."

"Oh, Father, if you do not find such a one, send me, Father. I will gladly go. I will gladly do as You ask to shut up this evil fire elsewhere. This would be a great joy for me."

"Within seven days, I will tell you if I will use you or if others, who are worthy, are found."

"Oh, Father, this is so beautiful! This is so wonderful!"

"Before I destroy the churches, I am giving them a chance to come back to Me. I am extending My hand of love and mercy to them. If they will repent and come back to Me,

I will not destroy even those, that I have marked for destruction. But, they had better turn to Me, or I will utterly destroy them."

"Oh, Father, turn them and they will be turned. Father, you can do what none can do by themselves. Turn them, Father. Please turn them. And, save this president! Father, it is an abomination that he is in a chemical straightjacket!" (Our Father showed me several days ago how the president's evil handlers are giving him two powerful pills, which make him a zombie. And, I have also seen them giving him sedative shots in the rear!)

"I have warned him from the beginning to walk the straight way and he would not. Most recently, I have warned of a plot to take his life and his handlers have now become afraid to kill him. So, he is now under forced medication, like many in the institutions. He is constantly drugged and one would say institutionalized against his will, brought out .now and then for show. But, in truth his Father and his Father's foes are running the show."

"You said, 'foes'?"

"I did, for many of George H. W. Bush's so-called friends are about to jump ship. He will soon find himself in a nest with many vipers; for he is about to reap as he has sown."

"Father, we need You more than ever. Please help us! Father, clean up the viper's nest in DC."

"My Little One, the days and hours of this group of whores are truly numbered and finished. For, it will not long stand as you see it."

"Father, are You speaking of taking the horns off the goat's head?"

"Not only the horns, but the whole head will soon go. Mark My word on it. The time of payback is at hand"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"But, Father, how can such a thing take place without major destruction in this land?"

"It will not. But, truly as you have sown, you shall reap as a nation."

"Oh, Father, this is dreadful."

"It is; but eventually everyone must pay back what he or she has stolen."

"Father, what will happen with all these evil ones, who continue to persecute and threaten us?"

"They will all die!"

"Father, I am sorry to hear this. I would like to see them repent and be spared."

"My Little One, My rod of judgement is upon these secret government spy societies and I shall strike them with such a fierce blow that they will never again be allowed to do the evil they have done. They believe they are gods, but I shall show them the power of the One God. With one blow, I will knock the horns off the goathead and with the second blow will go the whole head. When they read what I am telling you, they will laugh and scorn, but when they see the horns go, they will then take note. For, within 90 days of the horns being blown off, will go the whole head. Mark My words. What goes around surely comes back around. Forewarned, they are! With this, we shall stop for today."

"Father, before You go, I have one question. I just had a fleeting vision of George W. Bush with a noose around his neck and he was hanging to death. What is this?"

"My Child, in the state he is in, he does not wish to live."

"Oh, Father, this is so sad. Would that you preserve him even as you did King Nebuchadnezzar, that he would come full circle and be saved."

"My Little One, this is what I will do because you ask. Right now, I take the noose off George W's neck, and I put it on his Father's neck."

"Father, thy will be done."

"With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

Sealing up the strange fire in the Vatican

March 18, 2003

Our Lord Jesus was speaking to me about the strange fire being sealed up in North America and as He explained once more why, he told me that certain ones in other countries would rejoice in this.

Quickly after this conversation, I saw that I was being transferred elsewhere and knew at once that I was being sent to help shut up the strange fire in the Vatican. I found myself in a very dark place and there was fire coming up through the Earth, via a very large hole, which resembled a large sewer, with a manhole cover, which was laid over to the side.

Taking hold of the cover, I pushed it over the opening of the hole and once more, I heard the jackhammer-like sounds and saw the hole sealed up. Then, I ascended a short flight of stairs and did the same with a cover immediately above the last cover, but still in the sewer-like hole. As it turned out, many covers were stacked, one above the other, and after each cover was pushed into place and sealed, I would ascend a short flight of stairs to the next one and each successive hole would be covered and sealed. There were approximately ten to twelve covers, one atop the other, and all were sealed until I came to the very last one, and it, too was quickly sealed.

Then, I was led to a series of very large holes, which were side by side, like the previous stove-top holes, yet these looked more like manholes in size. The first two covers, I could easily slip onto the holes and hold down while they were sealed by the power of God. But just as before, I began to see the subsequent covers pushed up and into the air and held there by the power of the fire.

I called in 25 angels and together we were able to push the next cover down onto the hole and the hole was sealed with the fire extinguished. The next hole required 50 angels and the next required 100 to get the job done.

Looking at the height of the fire for the remaining holes and the covers, which were pushed up high by the fire, I knew that this was a job for Archangel Michael. I called out to him and he came and stood on the covers and as he stood on them, there appeared beneath each cover a very large screw. As he stood atop each cover the screw worked its way down into the hole and the cover was screwed into place, the hole then closed with a second cover and sealed with the familiar jackhammer sound. This same process repeated itself for four of five holes as Archangel Michael stood atop the covers, each hole being sealed.

Then, our Lord and God told me that the strange fire would be sealed in the Vatican for 90 days. This does not mean that it is sealed in all the catholic churches, but in the Vatican, itself. Praise God! To Him is the praise and glory forever and ever! Hoo-eeeeee!

"Subsequent Conversation with our Lord Jesus and our Father in Heaven"

March 18, 2003

"My Lord Jesus and Father in Heaven, what are the repercussions of the sealing off of these fires in the Vatican?"

"Confusion. A sense of powerlessness. Disarray, disharmony, inability to carry out their evil as they wish. Fear."

"My Lord, I have read how the black pope is over all the intelligence agencies of the whole world."

"You have read correctly and these very ones believe that they are untouchable, but they have no concept of the power of the One God. I give them 90 days to cease to persecute you or I will further erode their power base and make them naked before all men. What they esteem as secret will be cannon fodder for their enemies. I shall raise up hoards, who will utterly pluck their gold and utterly destroy them, save they stop persecuting you and others of My Loved Ones. They do not realize that they are because the God of Israel allows them to be. But, they are about to know this and like ants on a hot stove, they are going to squirm. Little do they know of the real power, the power of the One God, but they are about to find out; for it is nothing for Me to shut up their strange fire. And, at the end of 90 days, if they do not break all torture of you and others of My Loved Ones, I shall begin to break their backbone. So, let all be warned; for they have never seen My fiery breath. But, it is at hand. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

Comments: To Mrs. Newkirk, alleged Prophetess

>From the Exalted Order of Light, Holy Pontificate and Beneficiary of Global Perfection
We of the Order are not pleased with your spotlighting of us in your last visions. Do you not understand that our goals are the peaceful unification of Earth under which peace, harmony, and tolerance will be given a chance to grow? The Order of Light has orchestrated many events stretching back to the dawn of time, and always behind the scenes. The Illuminati? Our cover organization. The Freemasons? Our unwitting dupes. The Mormons? Simply another cult spawned by us that grew beyond our expectations. And we are not pleased, Mrs. "Newkirk," at your bringing our activities to light. Because we know (Oh, yes... we know more about you than you can possibly imagine) that you will not betray our exalted organization or its purpose to any others outside of your enigmatic prophecies (which, fortunately, few have attached to us), we plead with you to cease these detrimental diatribes against the Order! Please, we must repeat: our organization is only attempting to unite the world in peace and harmony under one ruler, the Virakhala, of whom so many prophecies have foretold. We fear you, truly. Where you get such detailed descriptions of us we do not know, but it must stop... you must not give any more coverage to our activities, for you mis-represent us badly. And we do not tolerate such intrusions on our private matters. If you insist on channeling (or however you get your revelations on us) your visions to the public, be advised that we are prepared to take appropriate measures.
Do not toy with us, Mrs. Newkirk. You call yourself a Prophet of God... we can see through such veils easily. God is on our side. Flee your cursed visions and embrace the Light- the Order of Light. We could use one of your capabilities.

A Message to the above Luciferians from our Father in Heaven,

Jehovah, Most High God!

"You, who await the false prophet, the very one, who rides the back of the beast, I say to you, ho, your days are numbered! Though you raise yourself as high as the heavens and though you boast of your feats and smirk at all laws, I tell you now that you are under My judgement. I see your every move and I know about all your foul deeds; for you are a putrid lot and the smell of your stench has reached far into the heavenlies. Yea, you are granted a season and within this season, you will fool many, who will follow you into the bowels of the dark abyss and even into the fiery lake. But, you will not deceive all and to My Loved Ones, I shall give great power. And though you will overcome many, you will not overcome all. From the mouths of My holy ones shall flow great judgements upon you and one by one, I shall pluck you up and cast you into the fiery furnace. Yes, you brag of your dark deeds, but in short season, your 'How great I am' song will turn into 'Woe is Me'. Judgement is Mine and My judgement shall be upon you, regardless of where you go; for you cannot hide from the coming firestorm. But, just as King Nebuchadnezzar was forced to give up the 'How great I am' song and to recognize the One God, so will some of you! As you see fires in your midst and your world falling around you, some of you will repent, even then, and you will recognize the One True God and My Son Yeshua. But, I warn you now and let it be known. Touch not Mine anointed; for My judgement shall be upon you as swift as a falling ax and many of you will not live to see another day. Forewarned you are! I am Jehovah, Most High God."

The Saturday morning after I received this hate mail, our Father told me to get up and roll over on the carpet three times. As I rolled over twice and began to roll over the third time, He told me that by the time I rolled over the third time, the three, who had been sent to kill me, would be dead!

It is not good to try to kill one of God's loved ones!

The House of Israel Rainbow Anointing

Dear Ones, we have been pleased to see so many of you writing for the House of Israel anointing. If you have not read the last message for you, by all means go back and read of the House of Israel anointing, which is also the Rainbow Anointing, and it is being given to the House Of Israel through the anointed cloths. Those of you, who have ordered these cloths will soon be receiving them. We have had so much mail and I am behind as always, but during the interim our Father in Heaven has given special instructions about how to use these cloths and to unlock the deeper anointings, which He has sealed in these cloths. You, who take these anointings seriously, are about to be blessed in mighty ways! As you read the instructions, which our Father has given, you will be pleased! I will post these instructions on the site, but not at this posting. If you want an anointed cloth, please send a request to Linda Newkirk P.O. Box 17277, North Little Rock, AR, 72117.

We Must Pray Against this evil!

Beloved Ones, it is extremely important that you pray against the high black mass satanic days of March 20th and 21st. Many innocents will be sacrificed at the hands of these evil ones on those days. I am asking you right now to get into a serious prayer mode and plead with our Lord Jesus to visit every foul, satanic meeting. Plead before Him to save the innocent souls, who are about to be sacrificed. Plead with Him to intervene and visit these cults and shower His light into their midst. Plead with Him to convict these evil ones and to bring them to repentance. Plead with Him to bind up their evil demons that they cannot be called out on these days to serve their evil masters. Plead with him to intervene and to scatter these evil flocks that their evil plans come to naught. Plead with Him to save every soul He will save that they do not wind up in the fiery lake. Beloved, someone must plead for the souls of these lost people and you and I need to do it. But, we must also plead with our Lord and God to stop this horrible encroachment of evil across this land and all around the world. He will hear our cries. We have very few days, so let's get started!

Moving forward…

It will be easier to accomplish many things with the strange fire shut up for a season. All, who have been pushing against the mountain for a long time, will find that they are suddenly getting a tailwind from God; and this tailwind will make it easier for many to succeed in their goals. Money, which the evil ones have held back through great deception, will now begin to be freed and many will begin to see miracles come forth, which they would have never thought possible. I believe that during this time, God will release much of the wealth that has been confiscated by the liars and thieves of the world elite and God's people will begin to come into their monetary inheritances on this Earth.

Much that has been heretofore impossible will now begin to flow. Those, who are pushing for government reforms, need to push for this now as you will have the added asset of God on your side in achieving much, if you will but seek Him. Those of us, who have long sought a great revival in the churches need to spend much time on our knees before God seeking guidance. And those of you out there, who know ministers, need to bring them together in prayer and deep seeking before God that this mighty outpouring of God's Spirit might come forth and usher in this great revival in this land and also in Canada!

Those of you in Italy, who have long been oppressed under the lies of the Vatican need to take advantage of this time wherein they are severely crippled. Move forward in mighty prayer before God and expect Him to move in great and mighty ways!

Many of you all around the world will begin to feel an uplifting as the evil ones in the Vatican are severely hampered in their secret work because the evil fires are locked up.

Now is the time to move forward in many things, which have been put on hold. But, you know the time we are given, and save God, in His mercy extends this time, we have only very few months. Do not count on the fact that our Father in Heaven will extend it; for He has not said so. Just jump in with all you have and get busy and if He will extend the time, He will, but if not, at least we have known His awesome and incredible mercy for a season!

Beautiful Ones, you and I have been in a war for our very lives, and we have been in a terrible struggle for the very fate of this nation. Do not forget our struggles. Keep on fighting the good fight and keep on praying!

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

You are a beautiful Chalice of Love, fashioned by the very hands of God. Do not let the world push in and rob you of this beautiful heritage. Things of the world come and go, but the love of God is eternal. Each of us must remember that the love of God truly sustains. His love is from everlasting to everlasting. Therefore, regardless of what happens, each of us must reach out in love and we must forgive; for a new earth is coming. The rebellious shall surely perish, but all, who are full of God's love, shall live on on! Praises to His Holy Name!

Remember: Jesus is our Only Way Home,

CHAPTER TWENTY - PART I

"Deep trouble lies ahead!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Listen to Me, My Little One, for the fullness of My Kingdom draws close."

"Oh, my Father, my heart longs for peace upon the Earth and the love of God within the hearts of all. But, as I look around, Father, this is not what I see, but double-timing and evil of the greatest measure.

"My Little One, do you hear the two blasts?"

"Yes, my Father, and I see great darkness and as it were, I hear sounds, like those of bats' wings and truly this rustling is coming from a floor of great darkness. And, as I look further into the darkness, I see a very large demon and this demon is guarding a dark door. And, again, I hear the sounds of horses on cobblestones. Father, what does all this mean?"

"My Little One, it means that two bands are about to be broken and when these two bands are fully broken, great evil will go forth upon the Earth."

"But, Father, great evil is already upon the Earth."

"Yes, my Little One, this is so; but you are witnessing the rise of the Antichrist and truly you have seen nothing yet."

"Father, what do you mean by showing me this great darkness and the rustling in the darkness?"

"My Little One, great evil is stirring in the Earth and most are oblivious to the depths of it. For, truly, the hounds of hell are being unleashed."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Father, what is meant by the great evil demons, who guard the dark door?"

"My Little One, as you well know, the evil ones always meet in secret, where they conjure up greater and more sophisticated ways to kill off humans and to promote deception. This is all they know; for they are full of darkness and they despise the light of God; They plan to eradicate all this light and to proceed with their dark plans, untouched and out of My sight. But, this is the profundity of their absurdity; for I see and know all."

"Oh, Father, my soul is troubled for what I witnessed this morning in prayer."

"Yes, My Child, I put My sword in your hand and you lopped off the heads of Bush Jr., Bush, Sr. and Cheney."

"But, Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, it spells disaster for these three."

"But, how, My Father?"

"Through a crook in the turn."

"But, what does this mean, ‘through a crook in the turn?’"

"Death by assassination."

"All three?"

"You have seen it?"

"But, Father, this is a terrible thing; for all three are involved."

"Do they not stand together?"

"Well, surely in deed they do; but somehow I do not understand this."

"No, not now, but you will."

"Aren't they doing the New World Order bidding? Should Lucifer and his not be pleased?"

"My Little One, never believe your eyes; for what you see is deceptive. Believe, instead, what I show you."

"But, Father, I am shocked, really shocked."

"Have I not shown you that Bush Sr. and Bush Jr. shall be under threat of assassination with the advent of this war?"

"Yes, my Father, even in Chapter Fifteen, Book Eight."

"And, have I not since told you that Bush Sr. and Bush Jr. will both die and soon?"

"Yes, my Father, you have shown me this."

"And, now I am telling you again of death and assassination for all three."

"But, why Father?"

"They are listening to the 'wrong people.'"

"What do you mean 'wrong'" Do they not all listen to Lucifer?"

"My Little One, remember this. I have turned brotherhood against brotherhood and there is much infighting among those in secret societies and with many of their decisions, they are raising the wrath of the bankers. They are so intent on war that they are failing to pay attention to the results of this war on the bankers."

"But, are the bankers not getting wealthy from this war?"

"Some are and many are not; for the monetary control is being hoarded by a group of elite industrialists and some of the bankers are being squeezed out. They are complaining and they are plotting."

"Well, these have to be the ‘fake Jews.’"

"You have surmised correctly."

"Oh, Father, this world is headed for trouble."

"Far greater than you can imagine!"

"But, Father, what will become of this country if all these go?"

"My Little One, the evil ones are never without their plans and schemes. The Clintons are surely waiting in the wings."

"The Clintons?"

"I have said it and you will see it emerge."

"Oh, Father, there is truly no end to their evil."

"No, My Little Child, there is no end; but what they plot in secret is known by Me and they cannot long hide their evil schemes."

"My Child, take My rod and strike the black box three times."

"My Father, I take Your rod in my hand and I strike this black box one, two, three times. As I strike this black box, white fire flows from the rod and creates an explosion with each strike of the rod, the explosion gets greater and greater until I see the box disintegrate into thousands of tiny pieces, which fly out in all directions. With the explosion of this box, I see dust and smell an awful smell, like that of sulfur, even sulfuric acid and it burns me face and nose. I can hardly breathe; for this is so dreadful. Father, what is this?"

"It is woe."

"What do You mean, ‘woe?’"

"It is chemical warfare in the midst of America."

"But, Father, why did You have me to break open the box? Now, I feel so badly about this; for surely innocents will die."

"My Child, I have put in your hand My rod of judgement and when I tell you to take My rod and use My rod, what it falls on will surely see My judgement."

"I know, Father, for I have seen this judgement and even when I know this is Your will, My heart mourns for what shall come to pass. Now, I see chemical warfare and I feel sad, Father, I feel sad for what I see. Father, where in America will this be?"

"My Little One, it is coming in the skies. It is coming in the streets. It is coming to the subways, here and there all across America."

"But, when Father?"

"Soon, my Child, soon."

"Father, yesterday, our Lord Jesus told me that events have been speeded up. What does this mean?"

"It means that I am shortening the time."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"So, Father, it means that we are seeing World War III and following is the Antichrist and false prophet?"

"I have said as much to you already."

"Father, about two or three weeks ago, Just as I was about to go to sleep, the Spirit of God told me that the Fifth Seal is about to be opened. Father, this means that the first four have already been opened. Father, I do not understand about these seals."

"My Child, many believe that when the seals are opened that they are fully opened. They are not fully opened, but once they are opened, what is beneath the seals is released in stages. Therefore, the first four seals have been opened and the fifth is now opening, also in stages. The cries of the saints and martyrs will cause time to be speeded up."

"Father, this is very interesting. I feel so ignorant, Father, for I understand little, save what You give. My Father, I want to know more of the Seven Thunders. I know that each thunder is a prophet and apostle, but what more do these thunders do?"

"My Child, there is one thunder on each continent. These thunders are also the Seven eyes."

"What do You mean by Seven eyes?"

"I mean that these seven are given to see what few others see and they are all given to bring forth and speak great judgements. Many know of the Two Witnesses, but few know and understand about the Seven Thunders. But, now the Seven Thunders shall rise and they shall go forth and do wondrous works for Me."

"Oh, Father, this is an awesome thing and a frightening thing. My heart is puzzled."

"My Little One, you know you are one of my thunders; for I have spoken it in a previous book."

"Father, You have said it, and even when You told that the Seven Thunders are seven prophets and apostles, I still could not understand anymore of these thunders. My Father, I am so afraid of You and Your power and when I think of You, I feel weak all over, as if I might faint."

"My Child, all had best humble themselves before me; for My power is coming forth through My Chosen Ones to such a great degree now, that many, who come to make war with Me and Mine, will drop dead on the spot. Remember those, who have died for disrespect of the Ark of the Covenant?"

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, the power of this covenant, which was brought in and solidified through My Son, shall rest on My mighty Chosen Ones. Even so much as a thought to harm one of My Chosen Ones can mean instant death. Heretofore, I have allowed much persecution against My Loved Ones and many have fallen ill. Some have died in this country and many around the world, and as these saints cry out for vengeance from beneath My alter, I shall utterly smite an destroy the enemies of My Loved Ones. For, I am sending My power to My Holy Ones and even as they speak the words, My will shall be accomplished."

"Father, in visions, I have seen a New York City Rockefeller man die and when his body was found it was full of maggots and covered in flies. I ask You, Father, how soon?"

"My Little One, do you see the dry mop in the corner?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Go and pick it up and dip it into the pail of water."

"My Father, I have the mop and I am swishing it in the pail of water. Now, what do I do?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Take the mop out of the water. See the black and white checkered tile floor before you."

"Yes, my Father."

"As you look at this floor, see that a long section of this black and white tile appears to be distinct from the rest, though still connected. Take the wet mop and carefully mop this strip from wall to wall and re-wet the mop if you need to."

"Yes, my Father." So, I take the wet mop and I move to the far wall. Looking carefully at this strip of tiles, I begin to mop the tiles and they are actually rather large, black and white tiles. And, wanting to make sure that they are all covered with water, I now go back and get the large pail of water. Soaking the mop, I go back to the tiles and one by one, I thoroughly soak each tile until I am satisfied that each tile is very wet. Slowly, I work my way backward across this section of tile until I see that the far wall is now in sight. Dipping the mop once more, I slop the floor with the mop and realize that as I stand on this last section, I had better move. For, as I look toward the opposite wall, I hear a cracking and a crumbling and the floor is bending, warping and exploding into thousands of tiny pieces before my very eyes. As I watch this floor, where the tiles were, I see nothing now but blackness emerge as this whole process goes quickly from wall to wall, until all the tiles are obliterated, leaving a hole beneath.

Peering through this hole, I see rafters and the blackness of night. A very cold wind is blowing as I find myself suddenly walking over the rafters below. This is a very big building for this rafter is huge and I sit on my heels for a moment to take a view of the city below. Clearly, I can make out the Empire State Building. As I look over the city, I wonder how much longer it will exist intact. I hear the Spirit of God say, ‘Not long.’

Looking above me, I see a beautiful angel, who motions me back and in an instant I seem to leap upward, surely carried by the Spirit of God and I am back on the tiled floor. Looking around, I see many angels, some with fiery eyes and very stern countenances. They all wear white and all have flaming swords.

Now, I see a dead body and kneeling over this body is a small child, who is weeping. This small child is beating the bloated body of this man and she is saying, "Why did you do this to me? Why? Why?" As I look again at this child, she disappears before My face and in her place, I see the word, 'abortion.'" At this very instant, the bloated man's swollen guts pop and the bowels of the dead man push out. Oh, this is so fowl! It is so stinking, and I can hardly bear the sight, but one of the angels looks at me and says, "Look!"

At that instant, I am back on the rafter and I see New York City aflame. It begins with a massive explosion and now I cannot see the Empire State Building. But as I search the fire, I see that this building is aflame; for fire is coming out of its windows. As I watch this fire, I hear other explosions, round about New York City and off into the distance, but probably not more than fifteen to twenty miles northwest of this building I see a nuclear explosion.

It is night and few are aware of what hit them. This is a terrible thing! Oh, it is terrible! For, I smell the fumes again. The fumes of chemical warfare. Oh, this is dreadful! This evil man is dead and this city is full of burning embers. Before my eyes, I see a very large bridge buckle. It explodes and is carried completely down by a series of explosions. Oh, this has been so well-planned! Father, tell me. What does this mean?"

"My Child, you have seen the floor of a very evil building. A main part of that floor will soon disappear."

"Father, what is this floor?"

"It is the floor of the United Nations and soon a large section of it will come up missing."

"What is this section?"

"The Rockefeller/USA section."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"But, Father, why?"

"Utter greed, a desire for the whole pie."

"But, the Rockefeller man will soon die."

"You have seen it."

"And, his rotting body will not be found for some time."

"You have seen it.

"And, soon, very soon New York City will fall to various fires and explosions."

"It is planned and well underway."

"Father, we have little time. I have seen an earthquake devastate New York City and in a dream two nights ago, I saw half of it disappear."

"You have seen it and it is so."

"Father, the next seal is a great earthquake."

"It is."

"But, how soon?"

"Sooner than most believe."

"My Child, My judgement is upon Denmark, and Norway, in fact all of Scandinavia. For, they are rife with rebellion and through this quake, I shall utterly judge them. When I am through judging these countries, little will be left of them, save small islands."

"Oh, My Father, what the world faces is so terrible!"

"And, Europe, proud and haughty Europe shall rise, it shall sway, it shall stagger and fall utterly, never to rise again. My hammer of judgement is coming down on Europe and I shall utterly judge it with plagues, famine, wars and great earthquakes, which will wipe out whole countries.

And, be advised, My Child, that the evil ones have little time left to stop persecuting you with frequencies; for every one, who is involved in your on-going torture and murder attempts, every one shall drop dead! When the Rockefeller man is found dead and covered with maggots and flies, let this be a warning to any and all, who would ever think to harm you. For, every one, save he or she repents soon, shall all fall to a horrible death. Time is running out for every one! With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

CHAPTER TWENTY - PART II

Second Message from our Father in Heaven

"The Evil World System and God's Supernatural Army"

April 09, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Listen, My Little One, as you hear the wind in the trees and as you know that the same force that is in the wind does cause it to blow in varying directions, know this. The same force that created the parallel universes created you.

Little One, I am the great I AM. I AM that force and this very force caused the creation of all things, both great and small. Listen, My Child, when I tell you that now is the time for the sorting of all. The pure, those, whose hearts are full of My Love, compassion, wisdom, knowledge, understanding and beauty, are in one stack and the impure, the vile, the vain, the lost, the winebibers, the profane, these are in the other. My Little One, look upon these stacks and tell Me what you see."

"Oh, my Father, I see first the pure stack and the numbers are very small, but the light, the brightness, which comes from these small numbers is great. Father, this is such a beautiful light. I feel like a carefree child in a spring meadow in this beautiful light, for there is such beauty, peace and joy. Oh, my Father, how glorious! Oh, that all could live in this utter peace and joy!"

"My Little One, this is the heritage of the true lovers of peace. For, these shall inherit the Earth and all that is in it. These shall find a beautiful home on the New Earth and they shall inherit eternal life. Now, My Little One, what is left?

"Oh, my Father, this other pile is so high that I cannot see the end of it and it is so big around that I cannot see the girth of it. For, it seems to go on and on without bounds. I hear a terrible buzzing sound, then a roaring, which is almost deafening; and, this dark pile is full of this sound. Oh, my Father, I do not want to look, but I am now caught up in this pile of darkness. And, as I walk down the street, I am drawn to look in an open window and I see a man sodomize his wife. I weep. My heart feels broken and I feel sick. With tears streaming down my face, I struggle off the sidewalk and back into the street. Now comes a horse-drawn buggy and a very evil man calls out to me and says, "A drink for a dime, two for a quarter." Still feeling sick, I motion for this man to go on, but he will not give up. "A drink for a dime. Two for a quarter."

I am beginning to feel very irritated with this man; for I sense such evil. He wears a partial clown suit and his face is even painted as a clown; and he puts a dipper into a brewing concoction and reaches out to hand me a drink. "Devil, in the name of Jesus Christ, I rebuke you! You are evil!"

Before my eyes he turns into a reptilian beast, and with whip in hand, he beats the horse. As the carriage rounds the nearest corner, I see written on the back of it, "Son of Perdition."

Feeling wounded and sickened by all that I have just seen, I get back onto the sidewalk and continue on, now coming to a movie theatre. Feeling the push of the Spirit of God, I enter the theatre. Passing the ticket agent, who does not seem to see me at all, I go into the theatre, which is called the 'theatre of war.' Taking a seat in the dark theatre, which is called the 'theatre of war.' Below is a lighted arena and I see soldiers come forth. They are on horses and they are fighting with swords. As they fight and kill one another, the people cheer! Looking at the blood and carnage, I feel so ill, like I will throw up, but all around me people clap and cheer. I am reminded of the gladiators in ancient Rome and I simply cannot understand why so many people love evil.

I get up from the theatre and go out and throw up in the street, feeling as if I will surely faint. Crossing the street to the other side, I take a seat in a park near a fountain. From the fountain come the sounds of nursery rhymes and these words come to mind, 'Twinkle, twinkle, little star! How I wonder what you are!"

Out from behind the fountain comes Jon Benet Ramsey and she carries a sign, which reads, "Satanic ritual abuse and kiddy porn.' On seeing this Precious Child, once again I feel waves of nausea and get up and run from the park. I run into the street and sit on the curb, cupping my face in my hands and I begin to sob deeply.

Oh, my soul is so full of sorrow. I am so very sad! Tears stream down my face and I cannot stop weeping for the children. "Father, Oh, Father, why have You sent me to this evil place? It is full of blood and guts and sorrow and all that is evil and my heart is so burdened."

Amidst my tears, I hear His gentle voice say, "My Little One, have you had enough of the world and what is in it?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Father, You know that I hate what this world stands for. You know how repulsive it is to me and I want none of it. However, as long as we are here, we must live. We must carry on. But, Oh, Father, this world is full of madness."

"Come hither, My Child."

And, suddenly the darkness is gone and I am back beside the stack of the light bearers and our Lord Jesus is wiping my tears. "My Little One," He says, "Today, I give you to eat of the manna of Heaven." Before me is a bowl with a white food that is like bread, but also like pudding. I put the small bowl to my mouth and the bread flows like pudding. It has a beautiful smell and a taste like bananas and cherries, yet a substance like pudding. As I tip the small bowl, it flows into my mouth and as I eat, my sorrow disappears.

"My Child," our Lord Jesus says, "Now, you fully understand the nature of the Broad Way; for it is full of the world. And, as you know, My Child, most are on the Broad Way. But, a few are not as these few are separated out of the world. And through these few, I shall do great and mighty works. But, My Little One, the whole process whereby these few have been separated has been painful for them. These have come out of the world and have gone through great trials. They have gone through great hardships and many sorrows. Truly, My Little One, these have been through the fires of purification and continue to be purified in these fires and these will be counted worthy to escape these things, which are upon the Earth."

"Oh, my Lord, I am so sorry. I am so sorry, My Lord; for these numbers, who are clean before You are so few. How my heart wishes that these numbers were greater!"

"But, My Child, these few are pure and these are about to do great and mighty exploits for Me and your Father. My Child, you are looking at the Supernatural army of God and these are about to receive their supernatural bodies. This is a process and the culmination of the same is at hand. When this takes place, the power of God is going to be unleashed in this army in unimaginable ways. They will be used greatly in warfare against the enemy. They will be used greatly in warfare against the enemy. They will be used greatly in unimaginable ways. My Little One, the Earth has never seen times such as these.

"Oh, my Lord, I feel sickened all over to see such huge numbers in the theatre of war and they are getting their highs from murder, from war. Even now, many believe that with Baghdad being supposedly brought under control, that the Iraqi war is finished."

"My Child, remember how I showed you previously that Saddam Hussein is as a fox?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Now, my Child, do your suppose that this fox will roll over and play dead?"

"No, my Lord."

"Then, know this, my Child, a great surprise for the USA is at hand and they will see that with all their high tech equipment and machines, they have been outfoxed. This war is not over, My Child, just because Washington DC says it is over. It has truly only begun. What you are seeing is a fake victory. Did you hear Me, My Little One? This is a fake victory."

"My Lord, I have a very important question about John Ashcroft. You know that the Spirit of God has shown me that this man is alike a robot of some sort. What I see on his head reminds me of the cyborgs in the Star Trek episodes. And, when I look into his eyes, I see only darkness. My Lord, I have seen similar things on the heads of George W. Bush."

"What you have seen is correct. The real John Ashcroft has been replaced with a replica, who is a robot. My Little One, it will be impossible for most to tell the difference between the cloned robotic humans and the real humans. But, there is one thing that will make them obvious."

"What is this, My Lord?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Little One, they will be given to peculiar movements. Peculiar movements of the head, the feet, the hands, the eyes, etc. This is the obvious thing and also, My Little One, what is not obvious through observation, will be revealed through My Spirit. You know that Ashcroft is robotic because I have shown you and you now know that George W. Bush is robotic because I have shown you."

"But, My Lord, what of the real Bush?"

"The real Bush is still around and he is drugged up, but when need be, the robot is brought out. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord. So, when the real Bush is killed, these evil ones can use a robot."

"They have and they will, but there will come a time when these robots will not work. Understand?"

"No, my Lord."

"My Child, they are sensitive to electronic variations. They will not survive severe electromagnetic pulse variations."

"My Lord, this has occurred to me. Also, my Lord, I have received word that some in congress are also robotic people."

"My Little One, can you believe this?"

"My Lord, I do. How else would so many be utterly deceived? My Lord, it looks to me like about 75% are being controlled in this way."

"My Child, could you believe that the numbers are higher?"

"Yes, my Lord, I could. But, what has happened to the real congressmen and women?"

"Some are still alive and some are not."

"Oh, my Lord, who would ever believe such a thing?"

"My Little One, few would believe and this is why this terrible trap of Lucifer is upon the world as a snare; for it is full of illusion. Most are asleep; for they believe what their eyes and ears show them."

"My Lord, how can we defend ourselves against robots?"

"My Child, those in My army shall speak death to them and they shall die!"

"My Lord, how long? How long, My Lord, must Your people live under this evil?"

"My Child, nuclear attacks on America are imminent. Did you hear Me?"

"Yes, my Lord. Just yesterday, I saw in Los Angeles in a vision and it seemed to be a burned and charred mess."

"My Child, this is World War III and it is going to escalate. The foolish Americans, who cry, 'victory' today will weep tomorrow. For, your heralded victory in Iraq shall be very short-lived. Several cities in America now face a nuclear attack. I shall show you a few of them. Los Angeles is one. New York City is one. Chicago is one. Tampa/Miami is one. Phoenix AZ is one. DC is one and there are others. But, I am giving you only a few, which are in sightline of the enemies of America. Do you hear Me, My Child?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"My Little One, what you see in Iraq is a carefully crafted illusion. While Americans applaud their victory, and while the news shouts victory, the coalition of forces behind Hussein is growing."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Lord, the numbers on the Broad Way are so great. My heart aches for what will become of them."

"My Little One, a few will come out of this evil and during the great tribulation they will be spared. Many, many will end up in hell."

"My Lord already the fifth seal is open and this is shocking."

"My Child, few have their eyes open and few know just how far along the New World Order is."

"My Lord, to hear of how the new military recruits got a computer chip on the back of the right hand and one in the forehead is utterly devastating!"

"My Child, this is what I am saying. Few realize how far along the New World Order is in their plans. Those, who have this chip in their forehead, have received a bombardment of messages to 'kill, kill, kill and fear, fear, fear.' This is why you read that approximately half of the American soldiers are being killed by their own kind. This is the New World Order attempt to create an army of one mindset. This is why you read of so many women and children being killed. They want a killing machine and this is it. These same ones in the military will use these chips for ID purposes to buy and sell. Understand? See how craftily this has been done. Nevertheless, as you have heard, many thousands have received these recent chips, well over 125, 000 and increasing every day, without so much as an objection."

"Oh, my Lord, I fear that they are doomed!"

"My Child, what Lucifer does is very cunning, cunning indeed!"

"My Lord, I do not understand it. Many times, I have given people the warning, which was given by You and our Father, that people need to come away from TV; for it is a mind control device. They need to come away from the movies for these are mind control devices; but My Lord, they do not shut the TV down. They will not give it up! They will not stop the movies!"

"My Little One, all have given their powers to the beast. Those, who are addicted to TV, who believe what they see on it, will go forth and take the chip, save they turn from this evil. For, just as the soldiers have willingly taken these chips, so will the TV lovers. For, to take it will seem like the right thing to do and the brainwashed will go out and take it. But, all have been warned. So, the wise will come out of the world. For, I have shown you the fate of the world."

"Yes, my Lord, I know."

"And, with this, we shall stop for today."

"My Lord, I have one more question. What will happen when these evil ones attempt to grab one of Your Loved Ones to make robots of them?"

"My Child, this is a good question. The evil ones have taken the DNA from many and at a certain time, they will attempt to capture My Tried and True, My Light Bearers, so that they can easily release clones. When this comes about, the perpetrators will drop dead on the spot. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"So, be at peace, My Child; for the time is at hand that the awesome power of God is coming into My Faithful, the Tried and True, the Pure of Heart. I am Jesus and all is given in accordance with the will of God, yea Jehovah, the Most High."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE - PART I

"The World of Illusion"

May 05, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Lord of Earth and heir apparent. My Little One, do you see the old, rotten tree stump before you?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, if you break a piece off and put it to your nose, can you tell what kind of tree it is?"

"My Lord, I will break a piece off and I will see if I can determine what kind of tree this is." I go to the stump and seeing a small section, which appears more fragile than the rest, I tug at it and a small piece splinters off. Straightaway, I see the resin in the wood and as I put it to my nose, I know that this tree stump is a remnant of a pine tree. "My Lord, this is a pine tree stump."

"My Little One, come hither."

"Yes, My Lord."

"My Child, take the splinter and break it into two pieces." So, I take the splinter and break it into two pieces.

"My Child, take each piece and break each piece again. What have you now?"

"My Lord, I have four pieces."

"And, likewise, My Child, break the pieces again."

"Yes, my Lord." And, I now have eight pieces.

"Can you break them again?"

"Not with my hands; for the pieces are too small."

"But, with a tool, you could further break them?"

"Yes, my Lord; but I do not have a tool to use."

"Yes, my Child, this is so, but if you did, you could break each piece into many smaller ones, but even so, would you have the smallest unit?"

"No, my Lord; for the smallest unit is submicroscopic and cannot be measured by normal means."

"And, truly My Child, even then one cannot get at the smallest unit, which by Earth sciences has not been discovered."

"My Lord, You have a reason for telling me these things and I do not understand what this is."

"My Little One, you thought you were looking at a tree stump. Right?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"But as you went along, you realized that this tree stump, this visible object, is only a manifestation of that, which is invisible."

"Yes, my Lord, but why are You telling me this?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Little One, it is a natural tendency for all to focus on what is visible and to believe that this is the reality of all that is. But, in truth, the reality of all that is, is invisible to the human eye."

"My Lord, You are speaking of the visible world of illusion in which we live."

"I am."

"But, my Lord, we do live in a concrete world, where people deal with the tangible."

"Yes, My Child, but this very world, this concrete world is full of illusion."

"My Lord, I know it is, but is this not the inherent nature of this very world?"

"It is, My Child, but this very thing, this concrete nature, this state of illusion, is a trap from which all must emerge to be free. For, what appears real is not real and what seems like fantasy may very well be real."

"Yes, my Lord, this is so, and the evil ones, being very aware of this, have sought to keep all human beings as prisoners to this dark system of illusion. And, my Lord, the illusions get greater . The lies get more grandiose and more and more fall to them. My Lord, my heart is deeply troubled. I cannot think of these things without weeping my heart out. My soul is full of anguish and sorrow and my heart aches for the lost. Oh, my Lord, I am so deeply troubled; for the world is suffocating beneath lies and illusion and the people are lapping up these lies, like a bunch of lapdogs. My Lord, I am so burdened by what is going on and my soul is so full of sorrow that I cannot make it from minute to minute, save You help me, for these burdens are so great.

My Lord, my Lord, how, how, how, how can people be so deceived about this Satanic government in Washington DC? How, my Lord, how can they ‘support’ our troops on these murderous rampages? My Lord, how, how, how, how can they turn their eyes, their hearts, and their minds away from the bloody murders of women and children? How, my Lord, how? I am literally sickened by this, my Lord. We have thousands upon thousands of troops, young men and women, who are over there with the microchip in the forehead and in the right hand. They are mind-controlled robots, who are killing machines, and people are cheering this on. They are praying for this. My Lord, I am utterly disgusted. I am ashamed and full of sorrow. A deep sense of foreboding and tragedy grips my soul. My Lord, these soldiers have taken the "mark of the beast" and they have willingly taken this "mark." We are looking at the beginning of a war, which is intended to usher in the antichrist and people are cheering it on, behaving and responding just as they are told to behave and respond through TV and they do not have a clue. Oh, My Lord, how my heart weeps! I am utterly devastated by what I am seeing."

"My Child, they are ripe for the plucking."

"My Lord, what do You mean exactly?"

"My Child, I mean that they, themselves, are ready for the 'mark.' They, themselves, are ready for the guillotines. They, themselves, are ready for the concentration camps. For, I tell you, My Child, when the time comes for them to receive of these things, most will buy the illusion, just as these troops have bought it when they willingly took the 'mark of the beast.' My Child, the whole world is ripe for the picking and this is why this evil is accelerating. But, even so, My Child, all these things and more must come to pass before My return."

"Yes, my Lord, the 'mark of the beast' is being implanted and no one has been 'raptured' out. But, the early-out-rapture-crowd would probably not accept that our own troops have willingly taken this 'mark;' for it would be inconsistent with their illusions."

"My Child, these, who see and hear, are few and the chasm between those, who love Me and who love truth and those, who love illusion, is becoming deeper and wider all the time. Be of good cheer, My Child, for the redemption of the Pure of Heart draws nigh. I am Jesus and all is given in accord with the will of Jehovah, the Most High."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE - PART II

SECOND MESSAGE FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

"God's Judgement against this evil system! Victories for God's people!"

April 11, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Listen to Me, My Child, when I tell you that attacks on My people are about to pick up. Through their spy technologies, these evil ones, have kept constant surveillance over many of My Loved Ones and much evil is coming forth through the space station. This day, I have had you take up My rod of judgement on this orbiting horror from hell and I tell you now that the very fate of this evil place is sealed. For, the days, hours and weeks of this evil abode are sealed with my hand. This evil whore house will soon explode into billions of pieces and bit by bit I will take out this house of evil. Yes, My Child, trouble abounds for this evil castle above the sky and this day, My hand of judgement has sealed its fate.

And, know this, My Child, because I have bound up the strange fire for nine months, much of the evil in the world shall be confounded and its progress shall be halted. I shall put victories in the laps of many of My Loved Ones and in the courts I shall hand some victories over this evil. The very camps, which the evil ones have set for many of you, shall now hold them. The torture, whereby they torture many of you, shall be reserved for them.

I shall stir up the nations against this evil government in America and you shall begin to see some fall here and there. I shall stir up the states against the whores in Washington DC and the states shall rise up. I shall cut the foundation from beneath these whores and they shall begin to fall, just as surely as the statue of Hussein fell. And, I shall use this Iraqi invasion to beat the Bushes into the ground and with them shall go Cheney.

My Little One, they have had so many successes in their evil that they no longer continue to hide their evil. It is all out in the open and in the faces of everyone all over the world. I tell you, My child, the horns are coming off the goat head in DC and then I shall smack the goat's head right in the middle of the forehead with My fist and this hollow head shall utterly explode into millions of fragments.

Listen to Me, My Child. I am beginning to raise up My Supernatural Army and they are going forth to conquer, to overcome, and to overturn this evil, here a little and there a little. You will look out and you will see the impossible ones doing the impossible; for through Me, there is no such thing as impossible and these, though their status seems to be of no consequence, shall rise and they shall do the impossible through Me.

Therefore, My Child, now is the time. It is the time to go forward with government reforms, with prosecution of the evil ones, with demands on a mind-controlled congress. And, you will see My hand move out on behalf of My people over and over, and you will see the impossible move forth into the realm of possibility, then completion and victory.

My Child, know this. I am beginning to empower My Supernatural Army in supernatural ways. I shall send them forth and I shall protect them from all harm. And, though all the hjgh-tech equipment in the world shall surveil them and torture them and though armies come out after them, they shall not die, but live. For, I am in them and they are in Me.

Victories, My Child! I am handing victories to My Supernatural Army, unheard of victories, and many shall stand in awe! Know this, My Child. I shall not leave My people powerless against this evil machine. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE - PART III

MESSAGE FROM OUR LORD JESUS

"Weep for the sins of this land and get your heart right with God!"

April 10th, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Lord of Earth and co-maker of heavens without end. My Child, weep for this land and for the sins of this land; for these sins are great and stand as a great rule over the back of this land, and the backbone of this very land shall soon crack and crumble beneath this weight. Weep, My Child! Weep for the errors of this war and for the countless souls, who are yet to perish and wind up in dark, desolate and windswept places. Weep, My Child! Weep for the newborn and the unborn the world over, who will die in the horrors of this war. Forlorn are their faces and full of sorrow are their eyes. Yes, weep, My Child, for the fall of America is at hand. And, even, My Child, with the reprieve of the binding of the false fire, how many will see and recognize this reprieve? I tell you, My Child, the world is in shackles. The people are in prisons of their own making and their destinies are at hand. Oh, weep, My Child! Weep! For, if you will not weep, then who? The masses are asleep. They are doped up and tranquilized, put to sleep with the vanities of evil. Oh, the perils that await and few hear the trumpets sound. Few notice the timing; for the world sleeps on. Into dark oblivion it goes and few even notice."

"Oh, my Lord, I know these things; for You have spoken them into my spirit and my heart is broken. My soul is full of sorrow and I cannot get the tears out of my eyes. Oh, My Lord, it is all sin and vanity and it is a hangman's noose. Oh, my soul is troubled and my heart is heavy! Oh, my Lord, trouble is upon this land and the masses are in love with the theater of war. Oh, how they have been trained by TV and movies and now they are lost in it, captives to fleeting images and pure lies and propaganda. Oh, the troubles of this world! How long, my Lord? How long must Your Loved Ones be in the midst of such horrors? How long, my Lord? The alarm is sounding. The warnings have gone out, yet the masses reject them! Confusion, oh utter confusion reigns and now many go willingly for the 'mark of the beast.' Oh, my soul is grieved! Trouble is brewing and my soul is weakened with sorrow. Oh, Lord, come quickly for the sake of Your Loved Ones; for the war is great. The sorrow is seep and few even perceive it at all."

"My Little One, count to three."

"On, two, three …"

"Was that hard?"

"No, my Lord."

"Then, know this, My Child. As easy as it was for you to count 1-2-3, will be as easy as it is for Me to remove My Faithful at the appointed time. My Child, I have told you that some will be counted worthy to escape these things and as I said before, these numbers are small. Nevertheless, these are a few and they are scattered here and there. Many will call this a pre-trib rapture. This is a lie. There is no pre-trib rapture. The whole concept is a lie from hell and many are deceived by it. All, who are worthy to escape these terrors, which are upon the world, will have already been through the refining fires. They will have already cleaned up their lives and they will be spiritually ready to go"

"How soon, my Lord?"

"My Little One, open the letter before you, which bears your name."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Lord, I have it and as I open it and take out the letter, the paper is full of fire. It is enveloped in a flame of white fire and it is too hot to handle. My Lord, what shall I do with it for the heat is so great?"

"Eat it."

"Eat it, My Lord? This is too hot to eat."

"My Little One, take one hand and put on one side of the fire and one hand on the other. Roll the fire into a ball and put into your mouth."

"Oh, My Lord, this is hot, but with Your help I am doing this." I roll and roll and roll it. This letter is now one round blaze of white fire and I hurriedly bring it to my mouth, push it into my mouth and a great explosion takes place within me. Suddenly, I feel that I am blown to pieces; for the fire is so great. I see smoke and tiny pieces of me going here and there. Suddenly, a great, white fire engulfs me and I am ablaze in this white fire, ablaze with this beautiful light, and I hear a most beautiful music. I see people dancing, like at a ball, and there is such peace and joy. My Lord, tell me, what is this letter and what does this mean?"

"My Child, this letter is an invitation to My wedding dance and you are invited. Will you come?"

"Oh, my Lord, how greatly I want to come! I delight in this, my Lord. Holy is Your Precious Name and I love You so!"

"My Little One, one by one, I am getting Mine ready for My wedding and by degrees I Am cleaning Mine up so that they will be ready for My Marriage Supper. This time is now. What you have seen is now. The great harvest is now and My bride had better be ready for her invitation or she will be left behind. I tell you, My Child, the hour is at hand."

"My Lord, what does this explosion of light mean?"

"My Little One, the invitations are set and at some point soon, an explosion of light will envelop all, who are worthy and they will be removed. They will be gone. Understand? However, these numbers are few and most will never realize that they did not make it."

"But, my Lord, I want to be clear in my understanding that this is not the same as the time when you put Your feet on Mount Olive."

"It is not; for herein I refer to those, who are counted worthy to escape the horrors at hand, yet truly these have already been through the fires and they are ready. This is not the time when I return in blazing fire for My Faithful. These, who go, will be quickly taken in a blaze of white fire, and out of these, 144,000 of the Pure of Heart will return as the Supernatural Army. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord."

"My Lord, I have a question, which is unrelated to this, but is related to the space station and all the evil, which comes from it. In visions, You have shown me how this space station explodes into a fiery ball. How long before You take out this place of evil?"

"My Child, know this. From the last message, I have given them 90 days to cease persecution of you and others of My Loved Ones through these frequencies. They do not stop, but get worse. Therefore, I shall attack their backbone and when I do, this space station is history. It will blow up without so much as a remnant of it remaining. Understand. But, this is only the beginning of My retaliation against them for torture and persecution of you and others of My Loved Ones. With this, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus and all is given in accord with the will of Jehovah, Most High God.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO - PART I

"The Remaining Scrolls"

"The Second Scroll"

March 16, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Yeshua, Lord of Earth, One with the Father and Co-Creator of universes without end. Blessed are you, My Little One; for you hunger after righteousness. Blessed are you, for you love our Father in Heaven with a deep and pure love and your love for Me is the same. Blessed are you, My Child; for you love the lost, the sick, the weak and the hurting and because of this love, you shall minister to many people in many nations. They shall respond to the love of God within you and they shall be set free of all manner of diseases and shackles of evil.

My Little One, this day I bring you back to the River of Life to swim the deep rivers within rivers. You have found the secret corridors and you have come to a bridge, which separates this world from the world to come. My Child, you stand on the precipice between these two worlds and you are about to take a leap into the hidden and unknown. Let the tides carry you forth and then swim ashore to a new day."

"Yes, my Lord." I am now diving into waters, which are warm and inviting, and these waters are radiant with the pure light of God. The waves push me quickly until I am washed ashore onto a beach of sand, so sparkling that the very sand seems to be made of diamonds with pearls scattered here and there. I rise and take a few steps to a beach to sit and behold the beauty.

Suddenly I am transported to a room, where the window is open and the curtains are wafting in the breeze. Far below, I see the beach I just came from and I watch the waves as they come in now, full of every color of the rainbow. My heart leaps with joy at the beauty before me, yet sensing the presence of someone in the room with me, I turn to see a man, who is dressed in a hooded, white robe. He has a beard, a moustache and the kindest eyes and he motions for me to take something from an open box. On first glance I feel this is our Lord Jesus and wonder if I am feeling like the apostles and others, who saw Him after his death and did not recognize Him. I cannot say for sure that this is He, but something in my spirit tells me that this is so. I search His countenance, but He does not raise his eyes from the contents of the box, wherein I see several scrolls, which are all tied up very neatly.

Looking at the contents of the box, He motions for me to take a scroll; but before I can reach into the box to get a scroll, a scroll rises in the air. I reach out to take the scroll and as I touch it, a flash of light explodes before me. Temporarily, I am blinded by this light and when I can see again this man is gone and I am left with a scroll in my hand; and this scroll is so hot that I can hardly hold onto it. As I stand with the scroll, wave upon wave of light rolls through me and with each wave I feel an overwhelming sense of indescribable power. Repeatedly, these waves roll through me and I am beginning to feel very weak all over. It seems for an instant that I will faint or drift into some sort of dream; for visions upon visions are rolling past me, and I seem to be fighting to stay in one sphere and not go into the other.

Then, I remember our Lord's words about the precipice, so I let go of all apprehension and begin to follow the visions. Suddenly, I feel a deep jolt in the spirit, as if a great explosion has occurred nearby and it seems that all sorts of negative things are going on all around me. I look and see streamers of darkness all around and I am making my way through these dark streamers by reaching out and pushing them out of the way.

I look out through a window, which seems so similar to the room I just came from. The window is open and the curtains are wafting in the breeze. Even the curtains have the same patterns, yet it is not beauty I see, but explosions, and outside are many soldiers and burning buildings. Fire and smoke. As far as I can see are fire and smoke. Within this fire and smoke are soldiers, who appear to be American, and they are fighting. I see one of the soldiers scurry behind a burned out car. He speaks to another, who is hiding from flying scrapnel, and he says, "Old glory has faded. It has fallen into the fire and now it is burning."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

I sit watching and tears begin to well up in my eyes. I look at my hands and I am shaking. Through the tears and through the smoke I am hardly able to see. I break down in deep sobs and as I weep I sense the presence of someone coming through the window, or through the wall. Sensing the presence of light, I brush my eyes to wipe the tears and before me I see a most beautiful angel. She has the most beautiful golden hair. And beautifully dressed in white, she is exuding such pure love. "Do you see what I have brought you?" she says. I look at a tray before me and on the tray is a very small book of about 3" X 3" square.

"Yes," I said. "I see."

"Take the book and open it; for within it is a very important message for you."

So, I take the small book and it opens with a click. Inside is a small pocket and in this pocket is a very small egg. I know that this egg is a jeweled egg and I see a small latch, which is keeping it closed. I flip this latch and find myself suddenly beneath a most beautiful waterfall of glowing crystalline water. The water has formed a most beautiful pool of sparkling, aquamarine water and from the top of the water comes fire. I hear the Spirit of God say, ‘Bathe in the fire.’ I feel this fire penetrate every bone, every never, every fiber, every organ, every bit of tissue, every bit of skin and hair, every limb. As I stand in this fire, I hear this fire roar and crackle. This is such a beautiful experience; for this is a roaring fire, which does not burn, but exhilarates. Oh, I do not want to leave this fire; for it is so wonderful. Yet, I sense that I shall soon be made to go. Then, I hear the beautiful Spirit of God say, ‘No, not yet.’ First, you must reach down and get the key.’ Looking down at my feet, I see a radiant key. It is very large, and surely as long as I am tall. I reach down to pick it up and find that this key is as light as a feather. I stand it up before me and I can see that it is taller than I am. "My Beautiful Lord Jesus, what shall I do with this key?"

"Bring it close to you and hold it to your heart. It will be melded into you by the fire and this key will become a permanent part of your makeup."

I take the key and put it to my chest and embrace the key. Suddenly, there is a great explosion of light and I am flying through the air like a blazing rocket. I do not know where I am headed, but am not in the least concerned; for I am caught up in this beautiful fire and feel absolutely free, absolutely full of the love and joy of God, full of His beauty and peace and without a care in the world. Soon, I realize that the fire has carried me back to the beautiful beach and I find myself sitting on this beach, feeling such a great desire to get up and jump and shout praises to God. Rising, I begin to jump and shout, jumping much like a kangaroo, but with each jump I am going higher and higher until once again I am soaring in the sky. I am soaring over the glowing ocean and as I soar, I hear the Spirit of God say, "It is time."

"It is time for what?" I ask.

"It is time for you to know who you are."

Suddenly, I plummet to the Earth, like a fallen bird and I ask, "Tell me what you mean."

"My Little One," our Lord Jesus speaks. "Do you remember when I told you that in the scrolls I would make you see who you are."

"Yes, my Lord and I am afraid to see this."

"I know you are and it has not been time; but today you received the key."

"What does this mean, my Lord?"

"My Child, it means that you have been given the key, which will unlock the mysteries of who you are. For, some have long-waited for you."

"Oh, my Lord, would that I did not have to write these things. For, now I am afraid."
"My Little One, what is there to fear?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"I fear what you will say. I fear what this mystery key will reveal; for My Lord, I feel to be among the least of the least, a sinner, My Lord, brought out of it all only because of Your love and grace."

"Do you know, My Little One, that you were chosen, even before the foundations of the world? Do you not know that even before you were born, you knew the darkness you would grow up in? You knew the trials you would face and you knew that I would not allow you to perish in darkness. All these things you knew and you also knew your role in uniting the peoples of all nations."

"Me? I knew this? But, my Lord, I do not understand what you say. I am only a housewife, someone, who lives an isolated life. Yet, you say these things, My Lord. I have a fear. How can this be? Oh, my Lord, I do not understand."

"No, My Child, you do not understand now, but very soon, you will understand that what I tell you is very true and now is the time of this impartation of the anointing into you for this work."

"Oh, my Lord, my greatest desire is to do the will of God, but Oh, my Lord, please be patient with me. For, I am at a loss for understanding. Help me, my Beautiful Lord; for these words are very difficult to digest."

"My Child you do not have to digest them now. But, full digestion will come about by degrees as you see that what I say is true."

"My Lord, what you have shown me is beautiful; but my heart aches because of what you showed me about the American flag."

"My Child, America shall surely fall; but I will never desert My Loved Ones. I will not leave the poor without hope. I will not leave them without miracles. Therefore, My Little One, I shall send you and your husband among these people and you shall work great and mighty miracles."

"Oh, my Lord, the evil ones will not like this."

"No, they do not like this. The evil one knows what you are and this is why he has tried to kill you for many years."

"Oh, my Lord, with fear and trepidation, I receive what You say."

"Because you receive, take a step off the bridge and sink into the tomorrows at hand."

So, I leap off the bridge and sink into a substance, which is thick, like pudding, but light and fiery."

"Sit, My Child, for what is will be a part of you wherever you go."

"What is this, My Lord?"

"It is the anointing for what is and for what is to come. With this, My Little One, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus and all is given according to the will of our Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE - PART II

A MESSAGE FROM OUR LORD JESUS

"ICE AND FIRE"

April 15, 2003

"My Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Yeshua, true heir and Lord of Earth. My Little One, this day, I have brought you back to the top of My Holy Mountain and as you stand beside Me and look far below, you can hear the rumbling. You can see the smoke."

"Yes, my Lord, I hear the rumbling and I see the smoke."

"My Child, come and stand before Me and as I kneel before you, write as you see."

As I look into the beautiful eyes of our Lord, I see tears coming down his cheeks and I begin to feel a sense of deep sorrow, followed by feelings of being cold all over. As I look around, I see snow falling over this warm valley and over the snow I now see a sheet of ice and over the ice go many armored tanks and personnel carriers. The crunching of the wheels over the ice is loud and now taking the hand of our Lord, we walk out into the valley below and we follow tracks of the tanks, walking at times and gliding through the air at other times. We cross a brook and I wonder if this could be the Brook Kishon, which Elijah crossed during the days that he went after the priests of Baal. Still, we continue over the ice and past other brooks until we come to a hill, which is covered in dry grass. Our Lord Jesus reaches down, picks up a few twigs of dry grass and a few grains of sand and he puts one blade of grass between his teeth. Watching the blade of grass, I hear a snap and our Lord Jesus takes both parts of the blade of grass and puts both pieces in his right hand. One piece of the blade of grass is about 1/3 the length of the whole blade and the remaining piece is about 2/3 of the total piece. Pointing at the two pieces of grass with his left hand, our Lord Jesus says, "Pick one." I reach out and point to the smallest piece of grass and He says, "Take it and read it." Then, he takes the remaining piece and puts it into a pocket on his white robe.

Holding the piece of grass in my hand, I begin to witness a small fire. It is a blaze in my right hand, which begins as a small blaze, but suddenly begins to grow at exponential proportions until I witness a blazing, white light fire. This fire consumes me, the environment around me and begins to light up the whole side of the hill. This beautiful, white fire is full of love, beauty, peace and the power of God, and as it expands it moves out into the valley, past the brooks and it melts the ice. It melts the snow and the tanks are halted in their tracks. Soldiers begin to get out of these vehicles and beneath the power of this fire, they fall to the ground, slain by the power of this fire. I see this fire make, as it were, a river and this river is headed for the battlefield. This fire is so awesome and it is changing everything in its path. I stand back and cannot believe my eyes. Turning now, I see our Lord Jesus and he is rolling up the sleeves of His white robe. He looks at me and motions for me to come and sit beside him. He kneels beside me and says, "Do you know what time it is?"

"My Lord, the night has fallen and it is surely past midnight."

"My Little One, the clock is striking; for a new day is dawning and it is time to get to work."

"My Lord, what do You mean? Have I not been working?"

"Yes, My Child, you have been working; but now is the time of a deeper walk. Now is the time of My power walk in you."

"My Lord, please tell me more about this walk."

"My Child, remember the blade of grass, which I bit in two and gave you the choice of the bigger blade or the smaller blade?"

"Yes, my Lord."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"And, you chose the smaller of the two."

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, because you chose the smaller, I shall give you the larger; but if you had chosen the larger, I would have given you the smaller."

‘Oh, my Lord, my heart trembles. My very spirit trembles; for I so fear doing the wrong thing. I so fear making the wrong choice and I am so humbled by what You say and I feel so utterly unworthy."

"My Little One, I see your tears. I know your sorrows. Daily, I search your heart and I find no guile in you. This is why I have chosen you for this fire walk and this is the same reason that I have bypassed many. My Little One, you delight in doing the will of the Father and you have suffered great persecution because of your love for Him, for Me and for your fellow man. Because the evil ones could not control you, they have been intent on killing you through electronic weapons. But, listen My Child, as I wipe your tears today know this: Every tear, every emotion, every thought, every prayer that you have brought before Me and our Father on behalf of others has not been in vain; and even now many, many are bearing fruit.

My Child, it is a new day and the evil ones are going to quake in their shoes because of the power I am about to put in your words. It is a time of great judgement against those, who have persecuted you and many of My Loved Ones and truly you shall begin to see them drop like flies.

Oh, they rejoice because of their ‘easy victory’ in Iraq. But, I tell you, My Child, that this is no victory, but a lie. And, when they least expect it, a coalition of Iraqis and Arabs of other countries shall rise up and you shall see an utter bloodbath. Yes, My Child, the ‘fake Jews,’ the very ones, who worship Lucifer, are at the helm of this war ship. Do not be deceived by them; for these very ones hate the real Jews and plan again to annihilate every one. This World War III is being staged to bring in the antichrist and false prophet, who will rule out of Israel. All, who applaud this war, applaud the antichrist regime. All, who look upon this war with lust for blood and more blood, are on the side of Lucifer, whether they know it, or not. But, the wise ones will not support this Luciferian war; for it is a war for utter control of the world.

Therefore, I warn Mine to come out of this Luciferian system. Cease to partake of it. For, you are being led by Lucifer with a ring in your noses and when the 'mark' is issued, you will also go forth. For, just as the masses are deceived now, they will be deceived then."

"Oh, my Lord, what is this snow that turns to ice and is destroyed by Your holy fires?"

"My Child, this snow and ice represent the hearts of the warmongers. For, any and all, who cry, 'War, war,' and 'Death, death,' in such a thing as this Iraqi war is a cold-hearted person and only the heat of My holy fires can change this war machine mentality. Therefore, My Child, I am raising up My Supernatural Army and these will begin to go forth under My fire power and now and then, they will be used to destroy this cold-hearted war machine."

"Oh, my Lord, how? How, my Lord?"

"My Child, this mighty anointing is upon you, first as a small blaze, then a mighty holy fire. For, I have long watched you. I have pruned you and raised you up and made you ready for the task, which is at hand. The two remaining scrolls will soon be open and then, My Child, you will know who you are."

'Oh, My Lord, with fear and trembling, I receive what You say and I await your beautiful words."

"And, with this, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus, and all is given in accord with the will of the One God, Jehovah, Most High."

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO - PART III

THE THIRD SCROLL

May 02, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Lord of Earth and heir to the same. My Child, we come now to the third scroll and information is forthcoming, which many have waited long to hear. My Little One, I and our Father have carried you through many battles. You have been through many battles and you have walked through many fires. You have lived through many murder attempts and you have survived on-going torture and persecution through military weapons of the US government and the New World Order. The evil ones have been out to kill you for a long time and save for My hand upon you and the hand of our Father in Heaven upon you, you would have surely succumbed long ago. But, you are still around in the Earth sphere because of the love of God and in many ways your work is just beginning. My Little One, the world has been beat out of you. It has been burned out of you. It has been whipped out of you and you have come to the point wherein you recognize the real reason for your being. You recognize the only reason for you role in the Earth at this time and you are at peace with your reason for being. Now, My Little One, you are ready. Yea, my Child, the avenue on which you are about to embark is an uncharted course for you. But, know this, My Child, I am Captain of your ship and I will carry you where I will that you may do the bidding of the Father.

My Child, I have brought you now to the third scroll and you know some of what is therein; for I have been speaking the same to you for almost a year. You have seen the twelve hawks and you have spoken on more than one occasion with the Grandfather of Three Feathers. You have ridden the horse with the Grandfather of Three Feathers and he has brought you a white fur and put it around your shoulders. You have ridden with him on the white buffalo and he has taken you to the top of His Holy Mountain.

My Child, I am the Grandfather of Three Feathers and you, My Little One, are the only one, who will ride the white buffalo with Me. There is none other and many have waited a very long time for this revelation."

"My Lord, for over a year, You have told me these things and for over a year, I have sought to hide this knowledge from myself; for I could not come to grips with it. Such a feeling of fear and uncertainty would grip at me and I would try to hide myself from this revelation. Even last Summer when You told me these things and gave me pictures in the clouds to make me see, I would not see and believe for the thought it was too frightening. Oh, my Lord, I have sought to hide from this revelation and I have drawn closer and closer to You, longing and longing for Your perfect will. Longing and longing for Your direction in all things, but knowing also what is coming forth in these scrolls, for you have told me."

"My Little One, you have but one more scroll after this one, but in this scroll is what is so very important. See the angel before you, who has the tray with the scroll."

"Yes, my Lord."

"Take the scroll and eat it."

"Yes, my Lord."

I look before me and there is a very beautiful angel with golden hair, who is dressed in white and this angel glows with a beautiful radiance of light. Before her is a tray and on this tray is a scroll, which is rolled up and tied with a ribbon. I take the scroll, which burns with a bright fire and as I touch it, my hand begins to burn with this fire, yet the fire does not physically burn me. I take the scroll and feel like a fire eater, for I open my mouth wide and feed the fire into my mouth and as this scroll goes down, I feel myself begin to expand like a balloon. Suddenly, I feel a great explosion and see myself amidst a great fire. In the fire, I am clutching this scroll as I am carried forth with a great velocity.

Amidst the fire, I am carried through an open door and into a room. Before me is our Lord Jesus and He is seated at a small table. As I come to a halt before him, I bend to kiss his feet; for I love Him so and I cannot help but weep. For, every day of my life, I miss him so. My tears bathe His feet and amidst my sobs, I beg His forgiveness for coming to him weeping again. He touches my head and caresses my hair and my sorrow melts away. He motions for me to rise and he wipes my tears.

"My Child, sit." And, I sit across from Him at a small table. "My Child, you have eaten the scroll and it has empowered you. Yet, you are still clutching it; for it is not yet opened. My Little One, open this scroll and write as you see."

"My Lord, I untie the ribbon and the scroll opens up before me". Suddenly, I see a very large, white buffalo. It looks like a mechanical buffalo with a door that is open in its side. "My Lord, You are there with me and You say, ‘See the door open within the white buffalo. Enter in through the door.’ So, I crawl through the open door and I see that I have entered into a dark night and Native Americans are gathered around a fire. They are passing a pipe among themselves and I just stand and watch them. "My Lord, I do not know why they continue with this pipe; for it is You they should be passing around and not the pipe."

I sit on a rock, now with the telescopes attached to my eyes and I look far past them into the distance. I see Native American children, who are playing with white children and around them are Asian and black children. There is peace and all are happy. "There is no need for a peace pipe; for You, My Lord, are the peace of the world. I sense the beauty and wonderful joy of a time that is near, when races will not divide people, but love will prevail in their hearts and all will be united through You, my Lord. The love of God will unite all and there will be no prejudice. There will be no war. "Oh, My Lord, how I long for this day!"

"My Child, this is the message of White Buffalo Calf Woman."

"My Lord, that it is time to bury the animosities. It is time to bury the differences and to come together as one people in the love of God and under the direction and power, the love and guidance of our Lord Jesus. For, my Beautiful One, You are the Savior of all mankind. There is none other. You are the Grandfather of Three Feathers. There is none other."

"My Child, this is the message of the third scroll. You are White Buffalo Calf Woman. Many will laugh and many will scoff at this, My Child, but there is none other besides you. None other will come. I have brought you up. I have carved you out and I have made you ready for this work. My Little One, I know that this is a lot to digest. It is a lot to deal with; for you do not understand this journey into uncharted waters. But, I do. Therefore, trust in me and My Child, I will open doors that no man can shut. I will shut doors that no man can open. The time is now and your power walk is about to begin; for I shall use you to help unite My people in love. My Child, I am the Savior of the world. There is none other."

"My Lord, I know."

"And, with this, My Child, we shall stop for today. I am Jesus, yea Master, Lord and Savior of all mankind. And, all is surely given in accord with the will of Jehovah, Most High."

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO - PART IV

THE LAST SCROLL

"Dark Thunder is coming"

"My Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Lord of Earth and the only Savior of all mankind. My Child, do you see the beautiful waterfall as it cascades over the rocks and makes a crystal-clear pool below? See the sun as it glistens in the clear water and do you hear the sounds of many songbirds as they come to drink and play."

"Yes, my Lord, I see all this and I hear the many sounds."

"But, My Little One, you do not know why I am showing you this?"

"No, my Lord, I do not."

"My Little One, you have heard the tale of the tortoise and the hare."

"Yes, my Lord and the tortoise travels very slowly, unlike the hare, but it still reaches its destination."

"And, on time, My Child, according to its timeframe."

"Unless, of course, it gets hit by a speeding car."

"And, My Little One, this is a point well-taken; for this whole scenario is relevant to this place in time."

"My Little One, the whole Earth is polluted and how often does one find a clear stream, a pool of clear, pure drinking water."

"Oh, My Lord, if this is to be found, I do not know where it is."

"This is My point, My Little One. The whole Earth is polluted. The air is polluted. People are polluted and the Earth, itself, is dying here and there. My Child, these things are not secret, but are known to many."

"Yes, my Lord, many do know, but most seem to be powerless as to what is to be done."

"My Child, as long as evil entities control this world, this situation will never be corrected. For, darkness breeds darkness. Hatred breeds hatred. War breeds war. Rebellion breeds rebellion. And, all that is of the darkness destroys itself in time; for without the light of God all will perish."

"But, my Lord, you know that under the current world system, this problem in the Earth will never be corrected."

"Yes, My Child, and to use a worldly phrase, …'there is going to be a regime change, and sooner than most realize."

"You mean, my Lord, when the evil ones are thrown into the depths of hell."

"This is exactly what I mean."

"But, my Lord, even before then, there is much evil to come."

"My Little One, this is so; and many, who profess love for Me and the Father of All, will fall away. It is happening already. And, truly, My Little One, the world has seen nothing yet, not in terms of destruction and devastation."

"Oh, my Lord, my heart is troubled to think of what is; for the utter arrogance of these evil ones defies description."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Child, does two plus three make two?"

"No, My Lord."

"Then, know this: To a rational mind, evil makes no sense. For, it feeds off sorrow. It feeds off crime. It feeds off rebellion. It loves hate and horror and it thrives off fear. So, to those, who love truth, who live righteously, evil will never make sense. For, righteousness lives according to truth and order; and unrighteousness thrives on destruction and chaos. Therefore, My Child, those, who love Me and our Father can never fit into this system. They are thrown out of it, as a centrifuge would refine and throw out; for they will never mesh in. They will never fit in and many are at a loss, lacking understanding as to why they do not fit in anywhere.

I say to these, who do not fit into a wicked system: rejoice; for there is a perfect plan for you. There is a perfect plan for you within My will, within the will of our Father. Draw close to Me and live righteousness. The refining fires will shape you and mold you and make you right to move on up in righteousness. Do not curse the trials. Do not bemoan your troubles; but embrace all with love and thanksgiving. For, all who profess love for Me and for our Father, will be tried as to their sincerity.

Many will fall away. Many will take the mark; for it is easier for them, less trouble to take the mark, than to persevere in faith. Mark My word that all, I said all, every one, who professes to be a Christian, who professes love for Me and our Father will be tried and tested; and through great trials and tests, this love will be shown to be for real and will grow in intensity. Or, it will explode as a tiny puff of smoke and will be gone in the wind. All, I mean all, every one will go through the fires of purification and not one will be spared.

My Little One, this is why so many, many, many will simply fall by the way because of this early-out rapture creed. When troubles, great troubles come into their homes, they will utterly fall to pieces spiritually and they will curse Me. They will curse our Father. They will curse their churches and the preachers in them; for they have believed a huge lie. And, rather than build a spiritual foundation, which is based on truth, love for Me and for our Father, they have built their houses on shifting sands. My Little One, the time of reckoning is at hand. For what you have seen with terror bill #1 and the two subsequent wars is nothing compared to what is in store for America and for the world."

"So, My Lord, how does the tortoise and the hare fit into this?"

"My Little One, what is the sure way, one that is hurriedly accomplished, or one that is slowly and carefully built, line upon line and precept upon precept?"

"Oh, my Lord, it is the one, which is slowly built, even as the Prophet Isaiah has told, … line upon line and precept upon precept."

"So, My Child, when these perilous times hit, those without a real foundation, a real spiritual connection to Me and our Father, will be swept away. So, I say to those of You, who have found yourselves alone and struggling before Me and our Father, Rejoice, for it is better to be alone and able to swim than to be with many aboard the Titanic. For, I tell you now, that many, many churches are in deep, dark waters and they are about to sink. When these churches sink in these deep and dark waters, how many will be able to swim well enough to make it back to Me? For, those, who have attended these churches, who have lapped up these lies and delusions, will also lap up the judgements, which await them. Those, who have sustained these churches will also sustain their judgements. Therefore, be warned. Come out of them and get a strong foundation, or continue to lap up their lies and suffer the final judgements with them. Am I pleased with these hollow sermons and lukewarm walks? Surely, I shall vomit them out of My mouth. For, truly, it is better to be hot or cold."

"Oh, my Lord, I have only been to two churches in recent months, the first being full of the ‘strange fire’, the early-out rapture and the doctrines of men and the second, though really trying, still full of the early-out rapture and the doctrines of men. But, when the second preacher tried to call up the strange fire to cause someone to be slain in the spirit, it did not work. Praises to the One God, the Most High and to his Precious Son, our Lord and God."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"My Little One, you have discerned correctly. My hand is upon this man; for he has a heart after Me; but the doctrines of men are very hard to give up, once embraced. And, you are correct about the ‘strange fire’; for it is sealed up for a season."

"Oh, My Lord, this is so awesome. It is so beautiful and I thank you and praise you and our Beautiful Father in Heaven."

"And, My Child, this brings us to the fourth scroll. Go out and pick it up."

"My Lord, I am here beside this scroll. It is so big and it is partially opened." I touch it and it rolls open before me, like a large blanket of radiant, white fire. I step into the scroll and sink, as if I am in a world of downy, cotton candy. I wade and splash for I am in the midst of a liquid, yet it is a fiery, white light and all makes me very buoyant. I leap and rise high, very high, to the tops of mountains and I soar like a bird through the air. "Oh, my Lord, this is the most joyous experience." I come to a beautiful rock in a meadow and kneel beside it and pick a beautiful flower, that looks like a daisy, but has the smell of honeysuckles. I breathe in this beautiful smell, close my eyes and hear the sounds of many waters running all at once. As I close my eyes, even with them closed, I know that our Beautiful Lord Jesus is beside me and I open them and there he is. "Oh, My Beautiful Lord, it is so good to se you." I give him a big hug and do not want to let go; for I have missed Him so. And, reluctantly, I leg to of His neck and sit beside Him on the floor of a beautiful meadow. "My Lord, where are we?"

"My Child, you are in Heaven."

"In Heaven?"

"Yes, this is where you are."

"Oh, My Lord, that I might stay … But, no, My Lord, this would not be right; for so many are lost and my soul weeps for them. My heart weeps for them. For, the harvest is great and the workers are few and save they come to You, My Lord, they shall end up in darkness a very long time."

"This is so, My Child. My Little One, do you know what I am placing around your neck?"

"No, my Lord. It is like a long scarf; but is not a scarf. It reminds me of something worn by priests; for it is straight and narrow, with fringes on each end; but is soft and downy, just like the substance I described earlier."

"Feel it, My Child."

"Yes, My Lord, and it truly is like cotton and so comforting that even at the feel of it, I could slumber for a moment. And, even as I say these words, I feel myself becoming very sleepy and suddenly I find myself atop a very tall and pointed mountain peak. The wind is blowing fiercely and it is whipping my clothes against my body. Suddenly, I am transported to a teepee below at the base of the mountain and then through the walls of the teepee. Before me a man is asleep. I hear the words, 'dark thunder,' and I shake this man, trying to awaken him, but he continues on sleeping. I open a door and go into his dreams and say to him, "Awake, for the terrible plagues are upon mankind the world over. The locusts will come and devour your crops and if the locusts do not, the hail and the drought will. Wake up; for dark thunder is coming and save you awaken and turn to the True Savior, the Only Savior, our Lord Jesus, you shall perish. Your gods cannot save you. You evil spirits cannot save you. Your herbs and potions will not save you. Only Jesus can save you. Wake up. Pay attention. For, death and dying is coming. It will devour you and there is no hope, save through Jesus Christ. For, He, and He alone is the Grandfather of Three Feathers and He is coming back. Listen to me. Your people will perish. They will die of disease. They will die of hunger. This dark thunder will devour the whole world. Jesus is the Light of this dark world. He is the Savior for your people There is none other."

And with this, I exit the door to his dream world. Then, I close this door and go out through the wall of the tee-pee and back to the top of the holy windswept mountain. At the top of this mountain is our Lord Jesus, the Grandfather of Three Feathers, and he motions for me to follow Him. Leaving the mountain, I follow Him along a narrow trail. In due season, we come to a dead-end and at the end of this trail is a very tall and beautiful angel.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

The angel falls to her face before our Lord and begins to weep. "Oh, my Master, they have fallen. The Beautiful Ones have fallen and I fear they shall not rise again." I stand quietly and hold my peace; for I am full of sorrow, not even knowing what she means conceptually; but in my heart is a sinking and I know it is bad.

Our Lord Jesus turns to me and His eyes are full of fire. "My Little One, the hour is very late and the going is about to get very hard. The going is about to get very tough and you will need the mantle, which I have given you. For, many of the beautiful souls, the ones, who love Me and our Father very much, My Child; they are falling. Here and there, they are falling into the traps of Lucifer. They are being deceived by evil ones, like the Bushes. They are falling to flatteries and to the wiles of the enemy. My Little One, these are the Beautiful Ones and they are blinded."

"Oh, my Lord, I am so sorry. I am so sad. Oh, my Lord, would that this were not so!"

"But, my Child, it is so and here is the quandary. Herein is the perplexity. My Little One, many o the Beautiful Ones shall fall and oh how the angels weep. For, some will never recover; but most will come back. My Little One, some of these are tall trees. They have done much good and have been harbingers of truth and freedom."

"Oh, my Lord, my soul is deeply touched."

"My Child, this is to purge them and to make them clean; but some will not make it out of the bogs. This is why the angels weep so."

"Oh, my Lord, help us all; for this is such a fragile walk. It is perilous and save You intervene in love, many, many shall fall. Oh, my Lord, I am so sorry."

"My Child, one of the reasons I put the Bushes into office is to try the hearts of My people. The churches are full of the blind leading the blind. They totally lack spiritual discernment and they believe what their eyes see. George W. Bush is a great stumbling block and I put him there to be a great stumbling block. I put him there to try the American people."

"My Lord, I can see this and I know You put him there, but the blind Christians believe that You put him there because he is a Christian."

"My Little One, he is an idolater. He is a worshiper of idols. He serves Lucifer and the truth is not in him. He is a drunk, a proud and haughty man. He is full of evil and rebellion and he and his Father aim to rule the world. But, it shall not be; for both shall soon meet the grave and Barbara Bush will not be far behind. Do you understand?"
"Yes, My Lord."

"My Child, it is payback time for the Bushes and while they have long gotten away with much evil, this evil reign is soon coming to an end. I have been merciful to them and I have extended George W.'s life beyond the assassination plot earlier this year. But, he will not survive the next plot. And, My Child, this will mark the beginning of My judgement upon this evil House of Bush. Mark My word, My Child, this shall come to pass and when many least expect. With this, we shall stop for today and with this we conclude Book VIII. I am Jesus, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

And so it is our Precious Brothers and Sisters.
For a long time, I did not know a thing about White Buffalo Calf Woman and if I ever read anything about her, I could not recall it. Even when our Lord Jesus began telling me these things, I could not bring myself to go and read about this woman, but finally in the late fall of last year, I did go on the internet and read a few articles about White Buffalo Calf Woman. If you want to have a little understanding about White Buffalo Calf Woman, you may want to go and read for yourself. For, aside from what our Lord and God has revealed, I know little.

"Several Messages From GOD"

A WORD FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN FOR THE PEOPLE OF SOUTH AFRICA

On the morning of the 24th of May, and after I had prayed in tongues for about one and a half hours, I found myself in the Spirit on a spiral staircase, and I was traveling downward. Before me and attached to this staircase were a series of open portals, perhaps 30 or more in sequence. I do not know for sure how many; for God was having me take the covers and quickly place the covers over these holes. As I placed these covers on these holes, I would see the spirit of God move in with great power and seal each hole. On placing the covers over the holes, I would notice that dark entities would be pushed back into each hole and with them the strange fire was also pushed back and sealed up. I knew that I was some place working for the Most High to help seal up this strange fire and to shut up these evil entities, but at the time I did not know where.

I continued on down the spiral staircase until I came to the very bottom. Before me were holes within holes, each separated by a barrier, so that in effect I was looking at concentric holes. Upon looking at these very large holes and the great amount of strange fire, which was coming from these holes, I knew that I would need a lot of help from the angels. I asked our Lord and God how many angels I would need and He said, "Five hundred." So, I asked Him to send five hundred angels and I took my place among all these angels and we stood on the covers of these holes, pushing the coverings in place, while the Spirit of God sealed them up. What was left was the largest hole in the center and none of us stood on this cover; for we knew that Archangel Michael was to stand on this cover. He took his place and this very large hole was sealed off.

Then, our Lord and God said, "Tell the people of South Africa that I have heard their cries!" Praises to His Holy Name! He then told me that He has sealed up the strange fires over South Africa for three years.

Precious Brothers and Sisters in South Africa, God is going to give you mighty victories. In areas where you have pushed and fought and have failed, you are going to make headway. As Brothers and Sisters through our Lord Jesus, you must now come together in love and worship of our Lord and God. As you seek God's direction in overcoming the evil, which has overtaken your land, God will guide you in what you must do. He will show you what you must do and how to achieve victories.

Because He has shut up this strange fire, which has been overrunning your part of the world, You are going to feel His beautiful Spirit in your midst pushing you along to victory after victory. As you get these mighty victories, write to us and we will share them with the people here. Glory to God! Praises to His Holy Name; for He is ever faithful and full of love and mercy!

TALK SHOW HOSTESS

Six weeks ago, I was invited to appear on an Internet talk show, the hostess having the name of Hehpsehboah. This woman lives in Canada and has a show with Paltalkradio.com. At the time that I was invited to appear, our Lord and God told me that I could not be on her show then, but would have to wait for six weeks.

This woman calls herself a prophet of peace; however, in advance the Spirit of God showed me the great demonic influence over her. In all honesty, I did not want to be on this show, but went on it as our Lord and God directed me to. Yet, even before I went on the show, I felt that my presence on it would be short-lived.

I talked for about forty minutes or so of the two hour time period and began to expound a little on what we are headed for as far as prophecy. However, when I mentioned the Bible and the name of our Lord Jesus, this woman began to rise up in ire. She told me that the Bible is written by the freemasons and that Jesus went off to Japan, married, had several children, and lived into his years. She also told me that the Brother of Jesus died on the cross, among other things.

Dear Ones, I have seldom heard such blasphemy against our Lord and God! This great blasphemy against our Lord and God caused the Spirit of God to rise up in me! I could not in any way accept the utter evil, which was coming out of this woman. When I called her ideas of peace New Age mumbo jumbo and warned her that I wanted nothing to do with it, she kicked me off her show.

Why am I telling you these things? So, that you will have some understanding of the message, which our Lord Jesus gave me for this woman; for He has told me to post His message.

It is of note that this woman claims to be Jewish; yet she has no idea that she is fighting against the only One, who can help her. Please pray for her salvation; for truly our Lord and God loves her and He would not have her to be lost!

As for me, I would be inclined to keep my peace and let God deal with this situation, but as He has instructed me to mail this letter to her and to post it on this site, I willingly obey His command. In reading the letter, you would have trouble understanding the reason for the posting without some background.

LETTER TO HEHPSEHBOAH

FROM OUR LORD JESUS

"I am Jesus, yea Yeshua, Maker of Heaven and Earth, the True Lamb of God, who came to take away the sins of the world. I was martyred for love of My people and for love of My Father, who is in Heaven. I have walked the Earth to and fro' and I have seen the pollution. I have seen, I have witnessed the utter arrogance of those, who call themselves Jews, but are not. They are the servants of Lucifer. They are of the Synagogue of Satan.

Hehpsehboah

Like a wild horse, you have ridden over My back! Like a fierce tiger, you have verbally assaulted Me and assailed Me. Angry lies against Me have foamed from your mouth. Over and over, you have crucified Me, but even so I stand ready to forgive you. If you will humble yourself before Me and cry out to Me, I will hear your cries!

I have set My rule of judgement against you. I have measured you and you have come up extremely lacking. You have chased strange gods. You have danced with Lucifer. You have swallowed his yarns and you have walked deeply into rebellion and witchcraft. But, even so if you will come to me on bended knees, if you will confess your sins to me, I will hear your feeble cries. But, if you will not honor Me, if you will not humble yourself before me, and if you will not repent, I will break you like a matchstick!

You will not longer evoke spirits from the lower world; for I have shut this door. And, those that have served you, yes these very evil spirits, shall now turn on you; and a great weeping, a great howling shall go up from your lips before I am finished with you.

Even so, if you will confess your witchcraft to me, if you will confess your rebellion, your idolatry, I will hear your cries and I will save you from hell! But, if you will not the jaws of hell shall surely reach up and grab you!

Yes, I know the arrogant Jews, the proud and haughty Jews, who are full of venom. They are the very vipers from hell, who will not honor Me, the True Messiah. But, these very ones will fall to their faces and they will honor the false Messiah.

Hehpsehboah

You will honor Me now or you will honor Me later. You decide!

My Child, send a copy of My message to this woman and post on My site. For, publicly this woman has crucified me and publicly I warn her! I am Jesus, yea Jehovah, Most High God!"

And so it is our Dear Brothers and Sisters. The judgement of God is coming down on the mockers and the scorners!

I can tell you from my own experiences of being lost in rebellion, YOU DO NOT WANT TO BE ON THE RECEIVING END OF GOD'S JUDGEMENT. Only utter fools would mock and scorn God and His true servants, but alas the world is replete with fools!

Dear Ones, be ever watchful. Be vigilant; for the world as we know it is fast coming to a close. Do not let the evils of the world distract you from your connection with God. Make a determination to do what is right, regardless of what others do; for now is the time of the sorting of souls!

What side are you on? Your daily choices make this known!

CHAPTER ONE - PART II

"God is judging this terrible evil!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, I am Maker of Heaven and Earth and worlds without end. I am the Creator and have come into your very midst through My Only Son, Jesus, Yeshua, the Saviour of the World. I and I alone, have sent My Spirit into your midst that you may know Me and that you may be free. Who else is the Creator? It is I. There is none other.

Listen to Me, My Child, when I tell you that with My very hand I have parted and made the heavens and with My very hand I shall remove them again from the Earth. The thunder of My voice shall move the mountains and it shall shake the heavens and Earth. Yes, My Little One, every knee shall bow and every tongue will confess that I am the Lord your God. For, I shall walk among you and you shall see Me and you shall know My power. You shall know My glory!

Have I created evil? Do I continue to create all that is? I have and I do. My hand is in all and evil survives because I allow it."

"Oh, my Lord, would that there were no evil!"

"My Little One, if there were only good, how would one know evil? If there were only light, how would one know darkness? If one were not persecuted by evil, how would one know and appreciate the hand that set him free? Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord, but evil is a terrible weed and it is taking over."

"My Little One, to each is given a choice."

"But, my Lord, but the little children do not know how to choose, save what they are guided to choose. And, who is given a choice in being raped and pillaged by these evil Luciferians?"

"My Little One, each souls has a very long history. It is far greater than the one life you see. Yet, even so, I allow certain things for reasons you may not understand."

"But, my Lord, why are you allowing this horrible genetic experimentation beneath the ground? Why?"

"My Little One, I am allowing it so that My judgement upon these evil ones will be complete."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"I mean that I have given them enough rope to hang themselves."

"Oh, Father, would that you never allowed it at all."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Yes, my Child, I understand your pain. I know your sorrow; but know this. Each of you is spirit and to spirit you return. The physical realm is a lie. It is not reality; but a lie; for all that is of the physical world erodes. It is constantly breaking down and being destroyed. There are far greater worlds and far greater dimensions and as it happens you are now in a concrete world in a lower dimension. Listen to Me, My Child, when I say that now is the time of graduation of souls from this sphere, this dimension, into a higher dimension. Those, who love Me, who love truth, who are beacons of light, will go on. The innocent, the pure, these will go on up to higher levels. These are the peacemakers and they will inherit the new Earth. Understand?"

"But, my Father, it seems that these are so few."

"My Child, at the present, they are few; for most love the physical world. They choose evil. They are content within this evil system and they will remain at this level."

"My Father, I am sorry for this."

"Yes, my Child, I know; but they are not ready for anything else. They do not want it. However, some of them will be beaten so severely by evil that they will turn from this evil system. My Little One, as I have warned previous, the surges of great energy, which are coming in through the Sun, are amplifying what is within a person. These things I have told you. If one is full of darkness, this is amplified. If one is full of light, this is amplified."

"And, this is the war between light and darkness, between good and evil. Oh, my Father, you know what is in my heart."

"I do, My Child, I know it all."

"And, you know how the evil ones attempted to kill me."

"My Little One, they wanted to drive your spirit from your body so that they could take over your body for evil. This is why the hand came through the wall and attempted to put the rag over your face. My Little One, this is government black ops. This is Luciferian. Yes, My Little One, you have seen it first hand. Most would believe that this is science fiction, but it is done to possess, or kill another without leaving any trace. But, My Little One, what happened to those, who came to kill you?"

"Some of these foul spirits did not make it back to their bodies."

"And, the bodies are now dead. The spirits are in hell."

"My Father, You know that these are only gophers. They did not issue the orders."

"No, My Child, they did not. Others issued the orders; but I tell you this, My Child, every one that was involved in these orders to kill you will die and they will all die soon! From the very highest to the low-level gophers, they will all die. Some will die by accidents. Some by fire. Some by plagues. Some by apparently natural causes, but I tell you now, every one, who was involved, from the greatest to the least, all will die and sooner rather than later. Some big names will make the news. You will see them fall and I will say to you, 'This one was involved.'

Yes, My Child, it is a pity that evil has no respect for Me. I created it and I harness it. My Child, I am no respecter of persons. Those, who love Me, who serve Me in truth, honor and Spirit, despite all obstacles, will know My power. They will see My hand in their lives and over and over I will utterly destroy their enemies. My Child, I have a work for you. You will not die by the sword and neither will you visit their prisons. Every one and I mean every one, who would think to harm you or to lay a hand on you will feel My wrath. Every one will feel My sting of judgement and many will drop dead on the spot. My Little One, do not worry if ten million rise up against you or if billionaires rise up against you. They are no concern to Me. The big shall fall with the small.

"My Father, this reptilian from the DNA radio show. What of him?"

"My foot is upon him and his cohorts and he shall not see the light of day."

"What do You mean, ‘he will not see the light of day.’"

"My Child, this evil man was part of the group that came to kill you. Never again will he touch you. My hot breath is upon him and the fires of hell surround him. As for anymore cowards, who wish to continue to persecute you through the telephone, through the computer, through the satellites, microwave towers, and other government systems of torture, know this. They are all coming down! With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

CHAPTER ONE - PART III

"More of God’s judgement on the Vatican!"

"My Little One, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My blessings are upon you, My Little One, and My power and authority rests within you to bind up, to shut up, to plant and to uproot and to pull down; for I have called you to the nations. And to the nations I send you to carry My word and to do My works.

My Child, I have sent you this day to the Vatican and I have had you bind up and cripple the evil demon, who is the black pope. Furthermore, My Child, I have put My fire in your feet and I have ordered you to stomp with My fire many of their evil plans, that try as they might, these evil plans will come to naught. Furthermore, I have had you further seal up the strange fire in a more complete way and at deeper levels; for these very ones have not heeded My warnings, but have tried to kill your body and hijack your spirit. In addition, I have had you drive My death knell into the evil one, who ordered your assassination, and he shall not be long in this Earth. Do you hear Me, My Child? These evil ones believe that they can commit the perfect murder without so much as leaving a trace by exiting their bodies and traveling here and there, committing murders and leaving no clue, so that it appears that one died of natural causes. But, I tell you this. They do not know My power and they do not know the power that I am putting into My Supernatural Army. For, I shall pluck mine up, send them through walls, over walls, and they shall do My bidding. And, who shall stop what I deem to be done? I am Jehovah, Most High. I am the Creator and I do My will in the Earth.

Yea, I have warned them to stop persecuting you. I have warned them not to touch My anointed and they continue on. I tell you, My Child, that this is a small thing compared to what is headed their way; for they believed not My word. Therefore, they will believe My hammer. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWO - PART I

"My Soul is Troubled!"

"Oh, my Beautiful Father in Heaven! My Lord and my God! How my soul is troubled! My heart is grieved! The days and hours of evil have lengthened themselves; for the darkness thrives twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. There is no end to the evil, which is devised among the secret councils. In the bowels of the Earth, they plot and scheme and lay wait for your people. The leadership of this land has fallen! This country has been hijacked and it being run into the ground! Oh, my Father, my soul is troubled; for the blind are more blind and the deaf are more deaf. We have the dead leading the dead. Those, who truly love you, the light bearers and the truth bearers, are being persecuted and killed. They are being scattered. Here and there, here and there, they are feeling the affliction, feeling the pain and sorrow with few to help. Oh, my soul; for I am troubled! The reptilian hoards from the bowels of hell parade as human beings, but are vipers on the prowl. Oh, my Father, I am troubled; for the Earth, itself, is groaning. The Sun is rising in its anger and from the South comes great destruction!

Oh, my Father, my heart is heavy and my soul is troubled! Onward toward the precipice of destruction goes mankind. It is a swift course. It is a dark course and oblivious to their plight the masses go. Oh, my Father, my heart weeps and my soul cries great tears; for calamities are coming, great calamities, and the masses are mesmerized by the "ignorant box!" They are in love with the world and never the wiser. Their fate looms. Oh, it is a troublesome fate! It is a horrible fate when the Earth shall rumble and the seas shall roar, the mountains shall swoon and billions shall die! Oh, my Father, I hear the wailing! I see the waves! I hear the crackling of the Earth! They are gone! They are perished! Gone by the billions and never the wiser! For, like a thief in the night, it has come upon the world! Trouble, grievous trouble! And, of those, who have made their ways to the tunnels, to the underground cities, few survive! Yes, my Father, the best-laid plans of man and devil are coming to naught! Weep, oh angels of the heavens! Weep for humanity! For, it is headed for the cliff!"

"My Child, My Child, it is so! What you sense, what you feel is so! Grievous calamities are coming up from the South. The Sun is unstable. The Earth is unstable. The planets are unstable. The solar system is unstable; for the great Destroyer is coming up from the South."

"My Father, I know you are referencing the Lost Planet. You are referring to Planet X. This is Niburu."

"It is and it is coming. Like a thief in the night, it is coming. Up from the South as swift as a dark wind in the night. It is coming and the world is sleeping."

"My Father, the evil ones know. They know it is coming and they continue with their tunnels. They continue with their underground cities. For, they do not believe that they shall be touched."

"I tell you, My Child, that a house, which is built on shifting sands shall not stand and what have they built, save a house on shifting sands?"

"My Father, this year, alone, comets, many, many have come up from the South and they are pounding the sun!"

"This is so, My Little One. And, more are coming!"

"My Father, they have the solar satellites and they have the Hubble telescope. They watch the stars and they know it is coming, but My Lord, they hide this information. They lie and they steal public funds for their own greedy desires. They have killed astronomers and shut down observatories so that we would not know what is coming. Father, if You do now tell us, who will tell us? Father, You and You, alone, are the Creator. Please, Father, will You not tell Your people? Will you not warn Your people?"

"My Little One, have I not told you that it is coming?"

"Yes, my Father."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"And, have I not told you that you will begin to see the devastating effects of its approaching?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, know this, My Child, you are seeing the devastating effects of its coming. While this planet has been slowly approaching, it is now picking up speed and truly, My Little One, it will be upon Earth before the masses know a thing. And, even when some can see it, even when they know, most will still not 'know'. For, it will be hidden from the news worldwide. My Little One, My Son is the hope of mankind. He is the Saviour. I am the Creator of all and if each of you will not put your faith in Me, if you will not love, honor, and cherish My Son, you are doomed. For, He is the Light of this very dark world. He is the salvation. So, what difference would it make if I were to say that this lost planet will be here this year or the next? Understand?

I have kept it at bay for several years. It is in fact overdue, but I must say, My Child, as I have told you previous, because the fifth seal is opened, events are being speeded up and one of these events is the speed of the Destroyer. It is speeded up and you will continue to see great upheavals on the Sun. Many satellites are about to be destroyed. I, Myself, shall shut off the Soho feed. I shall pummel the Hubble and I shall even blind those, who think they see and know all."

"My Father, how will your people survive?"

"Am I not able to save a mosquito in a whirlwind if I so choose?"

"Yes, my Father."

"So, My Little One, if I am able to save a mosquito in a whirlwind, whom I esteem lightly, am I not able to save my Loved Ones, whom I love greatly?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, My Child, know this. The Righteous live by faith and through faith they are saved. It is the unrighteous, who ought to be fearful; but alas they are in the darkness and in the darkness, they will perish."

"My Father, still I feel so sad. I feel so devastated."

"My Little One, put your burdens on my back; for I am able to carry them. As I have said before, even as this evil system rises, it is falling."

"Father, what about all the genetic experiments within the Earth? Poor souls, trapped by these evil hoards! Father, I beg for their salvation."

"My Little One, I shall set the captives free and their captors shall go to the Lake of Fire. I am bringing an end to this evil. Though evil rises and threatens to consume the world, I will never leave or forsake My Loved Ones. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER TWO - Part II

THE MESSAGE OF OUR LORD JESUS FOR THE PEOPLE OF SOUTH AFRICA … ZIMBABWE

June 07, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea Yeshua, Saviour of mankind. My Little One, write this message today that it may be imparted to My Loved Ones in South Africa. Behold, My Child, it is a new day for those, who have sought Me, who have put Me first and who have remained steadfast.

Yes, My Child, I know the toil and I know the trouble. I know the terror, which flies by day and the terror, which flies by night. But, My Little One, this has all been allowed for the testing, for the trying and for the cleansing of My people. I know those, who have drawn close to Me and to our Father. I hear the cries of the forlorn and destitute; but know this, My Child, this has all happened for reasons that these may not understand, for they are in the middle of the fire. But, long before the fire, long before the chaos, rebellion crept in. Pride crept in. Vanity crept in. Greed crept in and as all these things took over, our Father's words were pushed aside. Therefore, rebellion rose up and rebellion took over and now a great terror has come upon the people.

But, even so, our Father has heard the cries of the faithful. I have heard the cries of the faithful and as they push further into truth and righteousness, I shall go before them. I shall place My angels in their midst and I shall begin to give them back their land, here a little and there a little. I shall give them authority over the heathens; but it must be a right authority, not one of abuse. I shall once again bless their land and their crops shall grow plenteously again, but they must bless the poor. They must not oppress the poor; but show them the Way, the Truth and the Life. I shall cause their enemies to fear them and before their very faces, they will flee. But, they must not rise up in pride, thinking that they have done a thing. For, the heritage of My Faithful is the whole earth; but the evil shall perish in darkness.

Therefore, I say to My people in South Africa, continue to unite yourselves in prayer and be thankful for the victories, which our Father is giving you. Rejoice for the small victories. Be thankful. Praise and honor the Creator of All, who has given you victories, great and small. And, you will once again rule over this land. I will see to it.

Build your places of worship. Train the heathen in the ways of God. Be faithful and I will give you power over the evils of your land and once again you will know freedom. Live by the commandments of God.

Make these your laws and all will be well with you so long as you humble yourselves and live righteously. Put up remembrances of your captivity. Here and there, put them up, so that you will never again want rebellion as a way of life.

Remember the warnings of the Most High in the Book of Deuteronomy; for the curses have come upon you because of rebellion. Live righteously and you will be blessed! I am Jesus. Yea, Jehovah, Most High God. "

CHAPTER TWO - Part III

"The Puppet Masters"

"More on Planet X"

June 16, 2003

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High. My Little One, I look upon you with love and mercy; for you have found favor with me. I look upon you with tenderness, My Child; for I know your great sorrows. I know your great travails. Wherever you are, My Child, I am. Wherever you go, I go. Whatever you do, I am in the midst of it; for I have called you. I have set you apart and I have chosen you for greater works. Yes, My Little One, I watch for every move. I know your every thought, your every word. I know you have a heart for perfection; but your flesh is weary and your spirit at times grows weak. But, listen to Me, My Little One. It is truly a new day, wherein all that has been hidden for millennia is coming into full view. All that has been kept secret shall now see the light of day. That, which thrives in darkness, shall now struggle to maintain in the light.

My Child, many are not seeing these reptilian humanoids. They are not new to this sphere; but have been here since the beginning. They truly pride themselves in their evil. They gloat over their clandestine works and they are truly the authors of great evil the world over. But, even so, My Child, they follow the orders of those above them, of those, who manipulate them. And, these are the fallen one. These are the watchers on high. But, even so, these fallen ones, whom few have seen, shall soon meet their demise. They are the puppet masters. Those, you call the greys and those, which are referred to as reptilians are their puppets and beneath them those, whom they deem as lowly humans. To the puppet masters and their organizer, Lucifer, you are all a grand nuisance, which must be dealt with And, if not through plagues and wars, then surely through the passing of the planet. Their grand design is to leave no humans alive, save the automatons, the robots, who are micro-chipped slaves. And, My Little One, they are headed toward initiation and completion of the plan at several levels."

"My Father, this whole thing is so tragic and my soul is continually troubled by it."

"My Little One, it is tragic; but have you not all been warned through the Book of Revelation? Have you not all be warned through the teachings of My Son? Have you not been warned of the curses upon the rebellions, even in the Book of Deuteronomy? Have you not been warned against rebellion? Have you not been told to study the word so that you may know truth? Have you not been warned to isolate yourselves from the traps of the world that you be not deceived? Have you not been warned to stay away from witchcraft, from divination, from fortune telling, astrology and the like? Have you not been warned against strange gods?

Yes, all this and more I have warned against! Yet, My Little One, the blind get more blind and the deaf get more deaf. Why? Because of rebellion, continued rebellion against Me, for rebellion against My Son! They cannot see and they cannot hear; for I have shut their eyes and ears!

Now, My Little One, I know your heart is full of questions. But save the questions. This is simply put, the way it is. And, those, who are cut off from My Spirit, are falling into a deeper darkness, save they humble themselves and repent before Me and My Son. But, I tell you, My Child, few have a motivation to repent; for as long as they can continue on in rebellion and live as they choose, they will not repent. My Child, I am not to blame for the state of this world, though many will blame Me. My Son is not to blame, though many will blame Him.

My Little One, without the saving grace, which was delivered to mankind through My Son, there would be little hope for humanity. My Child, He is the Saviour of all mankind. There is none other and no one is coming back as the True Saviour, save He. There is none other and those, who will not accept Him and His beautiful gifts of freedom and divine inheritance, will languish in darkness with the rest of the rebellious. They will languish in hell with the reprobates. They will suffer terribly at the hands of the reptilian puppets and their evil over-lords. They will not be free; but will continue in illusion until their bodies perish.

I tell you, My Child, that this planet Niburu, what is called the Lost Planet, or Planet X is picking up speed. Yes, My Child, the Sun is greatly affected by this on-coming planet. The whole solar system is greatly affected. The outer planets are roaring because of this fierce electrical imbalance. These planets are literally dancing with these electric firestorms and their orbits are being affected. My Little One, this is a very large heavenly body. The many comets, which precede it, are minor things and the effects on the Sun, thus far, are minor. Do you understand Me, My Child? These are minor."

"Oh, my Father, my Soul aches so for the lost; for this planet shall mean sudden destruction."

"It shall, My Child; for the world will not see it coming until it is too late. The press, which is controlled by the reptilians and their overlords, will not print about it. The observatories will not reveal information about it. Scientists will continue to die, who speak of it; for these evil overlords would not have any of you know. My Child, I am the hope of humanity and My Son is the Way, the Truth and the Only Lifesource any of you has. Yet, if you, as a people, continue to reject Me and My Son, what do you have, save death and destruction?"

"Oh, my Father, sometimes it is too much to think on. It is utterly overwhelming and my very soul is so troubled that the sorrow of it all is utterly overwhelming."

"But, My Child, am I not able to save a mosquito in a tornado, whom I esteem lightly?"

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, know this. I will save whom I choose."

"Yet, my Father the early-out crowd believes that they will not have to suffer these travails."

"Some may not; for they may be taken."

"What do You mean, ‘taken’?"

"Their time may be up."

"You mean as in death?"

"This is so."

"But, Father, You have said that events are speeded up. This planet is speeded up. And, truly everything is escalating."

"And, this is why. They know that the planet has speeded up and the evil ones know the timeframe. The see and they know. Save you love Me and My Son, the rest of you do not see and know. Even many of their own (kind) are kept in the dark and lied to; for they want this approaching planet kept utterly secret."

"Oh, Father, how long? Last year, I asked You how long and You said that with Your very hand, You are able to speed it up and slow it down. So, I ask You now, How long?"

"My Child, I am still able to slow it down; but I have speeded it up. I will say this.

Count yourselves blessed if you have two years. Count yourselves exceedingly blessed if you have four."

"My Father, every day is a gift from You and I know that we have been on borrowed time for a number of years."

"Know this, My Child. If I cause this planet to continue at this rapid rate, you do not have even one year. But, I regulate the very speed of this planet and this is why I have spoken as I have. For, now it is speeded up and this is one reason why the evil ones have also speeded up. This is what you need to know for now. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER THREE - PART I

"Never again will America be a safe place to live!"

June 23, 2003

"Blessed Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High. My Child, do you know why I first introduced a system of mathematics and governed all creation accordingly?"

"My Father, would this be so that all is created according to order and is thus governed by design, a specific design?"

"My Little One, this is part, but not all. My system of mathematics rests principles upon principles, building block upon building block; for this is not only a system of order and is My Way. It is a system also of reverse engineering."

"You mean, by looking at the whole, one can take it apart, block by block and understand the design."

"This is so."

"But, Father, why are You sharing this with me at this time?"

"My Child, it is to make you understand somewhat that I am a God of order. I am a God of perfection. I am not a God of half-measures. I do not deal in lies; but truths, and I will not arbitrate My way to suit another. Therefore, if one wishes to understand a little of Me, look at My creations. For, I created the universes. I established the system. It is by My design and none other. Do you understand?"

"Yes, my Father."

"So, My Child, My system is orderly. It is based upon order. These building blocks are concrete and stable and when I so deem, they are torn down and rebuilt, if at all."

"Yes, my Father, I understand this."

"Lucifer and his, on the other hand, have a system, which is based on disorder. This system is based upon lies, treachery and deceit, and whatever is built upon this system fails. This is a system, which is built upon shifting sands."

"Yes, Father, I know this."

"But, My Child, how many do not know and understand this?"

"Most do not and many even say that Satan, the devil, does not even exist."

"And, My Child, their ignorance is their heritage for choosing rebellion."

"And, this is very sad."

"It is fact, My Child. It is fact."

"But, Father, how many are in the middle of the road! They know evil exists. They know much information, yet they still choose to disobey You. Many are in the churches and many claim to be Christians, but they want both worlds."

"You know and I know that this cannot be. By one's very choices, one's heart is known. Therefore, My Child, the fencesitters, the middle-of-the-roaders, are deeply accountable. For, they know and choose not to do. The middle-of-the-roaders, who know to do right and choose rebellion, have a much greater debt; for they do know. And, My Child, these numbers are very great."

"Father, three weeks ago, I must have prayed for five or six hours on a Sunday afternoon. The Spirit of God told me how the lives of many were saved because You had me interceding for so long. The Spirit of God revealed how the evil ones had planned that very day to blow up dams and bridges in this country. Father, what are the plans of the evil ones for America?"

"My Child, never again will America be a safe place to live. Never again. Your leaders are utterly evil and they continue on their murderous rampages without any remorse whatsoever. They have killed many Americans through the 911 scheme. They have started two wars for oil and greed. (Afghanistan and Iraq). They have mobilized many in the US capitol and they continue on without thought for anything but their New World Order. My Little One, this is Satanism. This is Luciferianism. This is evil, what unrestrained evil ones. And, you as Americans, in general, are more dumbed down and asleep to it all. Therefore, My Child, other countries will rise up and stop you. Other countries will utterly destroy this country. It is here, My Little One, and it will not be long delayed. The attacks of the bridges, of the dams, of the aqueducts, of the public places, like subways and rails, all these things are at hand. And, I tell you, My Child, that America shall reap as it has sown. It is madness, My Child, utter madness!"

"And, my Father, these reptilian beasts are getting bolder and bolder!"

"My Little One, they are gaining control of the whole world. They are possessing humans, creating robotoids and surging full speed ahead with their New World Order. You are seeing it."

"And, Father, these reptilians are changing shapes."

"Some do."

"Why is this?"

"My Child, these are creatures of illusion. They thrive on illusion and working in the darkness. But, now they are becoming bolder and bolder and more fearless; for they believe that they have the world sewed up and they are meeting little resistance. Most do not even know they exist."

"Yea, and how charming for the evil ones! My Father, what is coming down for America?"

"War for America. War in America. And, right now, the USA sits on the precipice of war, war in America!!!! As the New World Order moves out to take all weapons of mass destruction from the countries that they consider 'rogue', they will find that it is not like taking candy from a baby. Great opposition is mounting against America and within six months, you will see the results of this opposition beginning to flame up, right here on American soil. America is going to burn! Here a little and there a little until much of it is a nuclear wasteland! Do not say that you, as a nation, have not been warned! I have warned you! My Son has warned you! You have been told."

"And, Father, within six months, on December 15th, the strange fire will be released again."

"It will and America is going to become a boiling pot. You will not be able to control the waves of anger, directed at you for what you have done. Evil always reaps evil. The Bushes will fall and soon! Mark My word on it and when this happens, know it is an inside job! For, they have done much evil and evil will consume them."

"Oh, Father, I know that this country is on the precipice and this is a dreadful thing! And, Father, why are the evil ones tunneling under this land?"

"They think they will control the vortex."

"But, they will not."

"My Child, ignorant is as ignorant does. They believe they will control the vortex, but those, who even think to do so, will be met with My fiery bolts of lightening! They are ignorant, My Child, and do not have a clue whom they are up against. But, soon, very soon, they will find it out. And, furthermore, when they expect it least, I shall pulverize this tunnel."

"How, my Father?"

"Through My own mathematical designs."

"Father, to You is the praise and the glory forever and ever! Father, the reptilians are so utterly evil and their ways are revolting!"

"And, My Child, their ways should be revolting to all. All should renounce their world of illusion and they would straightway be hand-tied. But, most love their world of fantasy and illusion and thereby are enslaved to it. My warnings to give up television and movies fall on deaf ears. My warnings to seek Me and My Son and to pray and study the Holy Scriptures, for the most part, fall on deaf ears. So, My Child, day by day, here a little and there a little, each of you makes choices. Each of you decides your fate. And, it is indeed tragic that the greatest numbers choose the way of the reptilians. Therefore, their inheritance shall be the same, the pits and the Lake of Fire. My Child, each of you must choose righteousness. You choose Me and My Son and you live, or you choose the world and its illusions and you perish in darkness. There is no in between. Time is truly running out; for a mighty judgement is at hand the world over. But, I tell you now, My judgement shall soon be severe upon this land. You have six months, if even six months, before you see exactly what I mean. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER THREE - PART II

A MESSAGE FROM OUR LORD JESUS

"The evil ones know no laws … They take by force what they want."

July 10th, 2003

"My Precious Child, I am your Master Jesus, yea heir apparent, true Lord of Earth and Saviour of mankind. My Child, as you sit and write for Me, you hear the tunneling of the evil ones; for they are purposely tunneling under the ground, which has been given to you by our Father. My Little One, these evil ones know no laws and take by force what they want. Their whole purpose in tunneling beneath you is to own this very piece of land, to seek to control you and to own the vortex. But, I tell you, My Child, that I stand ready with My sword. I stand ready with My armies and when they least expect it, I shall deliver a deathblow to them. Yes, My Child, you are dealing with the Luciferians. You are dealing with the Satanists. You re dealing with the Fallen Ones. They believe erroneously that they own the world and everyone in it; but this is just one more huge lie, which fills them with delusion. My Child, you, each of you, must remember that evil knows no bounds and if you do not enforce boundaries upon it, evil will utterly take over. This is the nature of evil and how evil is winning out; for good people have fallen asleep. They have turned their backs on evil and it is flourishing. It is one thing to warn of evil. This is essential; but evil must be stopped. It must be brought before the laws of the land and it must be punished or it will take over and destroy all that is good and right."

"My Lord, I am so aware of the truth that You speak. And, I have a question about the tunnelers. How long before You destroy them and their evil works?"

"My Child, I will only say this. When they least expect. My Little One, you know that 2+2= 4."

"Yes, my Lord, I do."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"And, you know, My Child, that 2+3 = 5."

"I do."

"And, you know that 3+3 = 6."

"Yes, my Lord."

"And, this is systematic and based upon fact."

"Yes, my Lord, it is."

"But, My child, evil says that 3+3 = 5. Evil says that 2+2 = 1, and on and on. It is not based upon fact, save fact can be used to further distract. The whole purpose of evil is to deceive. This is how it thrives and it must thrive in darkness, save others find out and put an end to it. Now, it is not enough just to expose evil, as I have said. Evil must be dealt with. It must see the light of day and the perpetrators must be brought to justice. Here and there, all across America, you are beginning to see that this is happening, but still, My Child, this is only a beginning. Evil must be uprooted. It must be pulled up to be brought down. Otherwise, it will spring up and grow again. Understand?"

"Yes, my Lord, but this evil has such a stronghold on the world that these victories seem slim when compared to all the evil."

"Yes, My Child, this is so, but nonetheless, some are awakening. You are fighting back here and there and you are receiving victories. This is what our Father has promised, a time of victories for those, who will rise up, fight evil and put an end to it."

"Yes, my Lord, He has promised this and we are seeing some victories."

"Now, My Child, when you count your toes, how many do you see?"

"I see ten."

And, this is normal. It is as it should be; for your body was created to have ten toes, not seven, not six, not five, etc."

"Yes, my Lord."

"But now, My Child, the evil ones are out to destroy all genetic blueprints, to destroy the gene pools of all creation, so as to utterly destroy life upon this planet as it is known."

"Yes, my Lord, through all the genetically modified crops and through all the genetic experiments on humans."

"Yes, My Child, this is so, and the rush is on for a greater and greater destruction until all is destroyed."

"Yes, My Lord, I know. I see it. I understand what You are saying."

"As they see the planet speeding up and see the results of this, they are intensifying on their assaults."

"Yes, My Lord, I know this."

"For, truly, My Child, their days grow shorter and shorter."

"My Lord, I hate this evil and I despise the thought of it rising to greater heights; but I know it will rise."

"This is so, My Child, but even as it rises, it is falling."

"Yes, My Lord, I know this."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"So, My Child, this is the dilemma for all mankind. Will each of you do what is right in the face of evil, or will you bow down to evil? If you bow down to evil, your demise is at hand. If you stand up to evil, and do what is right, your may still fall to the sword, but so long as you do not go the way of violence, but abide by My laws, I shall surely catch you. And, even if you fall to death or death by torture, I shall take your spirit before death befalls you."

"My Lord, the Spirit of God has shown me this… how even when some are beheaded, or shot by firing squads, that Your Tried and True, your Faithful, will not feel the pain of execution. Their spirits will be gone from their bodies before they suffer the pains of death."

"This is My promise to My Faithful. I will be standing there to receive their spirits and they will know the love and glory of God."

"My Lord, this is so beautiful. Your Loved Ones must not fear, but walk in faith, trusting in You and our Father."

"This is so."

"But, My Child, this will not be easy, for the assaults on My people are picking up. The death tolls are rising. The persecution is rising."

"My Lord, I know it."

"My Child, you know in the Spirit that great evil is about to befall America. The deck of cards is stacking up against America and rightly so. Your leaders have become the biggest bullies in the world. They know no laws. They are full of evil and they are out to rule the world. This is common knowledge."

"My Lord, every prophecy, which our Father gave about this war with Iraq has come to pass. But, I have a question. I received word from a prophetess of God, who said that our Father is for this war."

"My Little One, He is not for this war and never has been. Yet, I have sought Him greatly about this war, to allow it, or not. And, in the end, it was allowed, not for reasons that many think, but to bring judgement upon the runaway train in America."

"But, this woman witnessed three spirits, or three entities of some sort in Iraq, that were about to be released, so the war was allowed."

"My Child, the spirits, which are bound up at the head of the Euphrates, are still bound up, and would have been released already if Hussein had attacked Israel. He did have plans to attack Israel, and this is unknown to most. And, he still has these plans. They have only been shut down for a while."

"So, this war was allowed because of these plans to attack Israel."

"And to bring judgement upon the evil leaders of America. My Child, if the brave ones do not rise up against these evil ones and put them in their places, they will soon set off a catastrophe, which is so great, that all of America will be under speedy martial law. The whole reason for provoking the Arabs, for provoking North Korea and other nations is to cause more attacks on America. The whole plans of the evil ones are wrapped around the destruction of America and its Christian population. So, this is their agenda. They believe that if they gouge North Korea enough, that it will attack America. They will have martial law and with your troops outside of America, they will use foreign troops to save you from the dissidents within. The cattle cars with the guillotines will run. The crematoriums will gear up and the Christians will be short-lived. I tell you, My Child, this is at the top of their list. As more and more scandals come forth regarding the Bushes, they are becoming even more desperate. Their plans, along with the fake Jews, is utter destruction of America and its Christian population."
"So, My Lord, they first want to cause North Korea to attack us."

"This is so and if they cannot cause this by fall, they will proceed with destruction of certain power plants, certain reservoirs and dams, and underground rail systems. These plans involve the detonation of small nuclear devices and I tell you, My Child, that New York City is still at the top of their list, along with nuclear power plants in the

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

Rhode Island/ New Jersey area (East Coast?). Any large dam is suspect. Heavily involved in all this planned destruction of America is the Israeli Mossad. You, as a nation, would be well advised to watch all Israelis, who have infiltrated this government. There are many so-called double agents and they are obeying the fake Jews plan to destroy America and to kill the truth bearers. So, My Child, in spite of the fact that I have many, many in Israel, that I love greatly, I tell you that the leadership of that country is full of venomous wolves and I am not with them. Nevertheless, My Little One, I have a great love for My people in Israel. I hear their cries and My love for them is great. But, this is My warning to America."

"So, my Lord we do not have much time."

"No, My Child, you do not. This is grave. For, if North Korea is provoked to war, you, as a nation, will surely loose in a great way. But, this is how evil is consuming America and it is consuming the world. So, be warned, My Child; for several US cities could be nuked. Do you hear me?"

"Yes, My Lord. Which cities are under the greatest threat?"

"Washington DC. New York City. Miami. Chicago. Los Angeles. Seattle. These are under greatest threat, but there are others, like Demoine Iowa."

"Even Iowa?"

"This is so and Houston. These, My Child, but not only these; for if North Korea attacks, it will not be alone. Understand? But, with other countries."

"Yes, My Lord."

"But, what about all the foreign troops in America?"

"They are here and are increasing daily, especially the Chinese, for, they will be used to pick up the so-called dissidents."

"And to destroy Christians. My Lord, is it going to take something so bizarre to wake up the churches?"

"My Child, I am sorry to say that it will take this and more before they wake up to what is truly going on."

"And at the same time, they plan to crush the economy."

"My Little One, America has little left and your economy is in serious trouble. Expect devastating financial conditions to hit the average American very soon. My Little One, this is at hand and it is going to take a devastating toll."

"My Lord, our Father says that Planet X has speeded up."

"'Tis so."

"So, everything is speeding up?"

"It is."

"Oh, My Lord, I know these things must come to pass, but it is a terrible thing to see. What more can we expect from this approaching planet?"

"More bizarre weather. More fires. More droughts in places. More rainfall in places. More bizarre storms. More earthquakes of a greater magnitude. More comets. More mania and aggression as the Sun continues to explode with angry outbursts. My Child, this approaching planet will cause instability in all things relating to this planet. In people. In animals. In weather. In all things. More wars. More instability. This is what you see and it will escalate."

"So, my Lord, it will only get worse?"

"You know it."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Yes, my Lord I do."

"My Child, I and our Father, … we are the safety net for all mankind. There is none other. My Child, destruction of the world as you know it is at hand. It is best that all get prepared spiritually; for the ride is going to get very rough. The kinds of persecution that you have known, many shall begin to taste. Those in churches, who are asleep, shall soon be shocked into an awakened state; but it will be too late for many.

My Child, your government is bringing in many foreign troops, steadily taking your troops out of the country, and when the planned devastation hits, they are sure that you will welcome the Chinese roadblocks. They are sure that you will welcome the Russians, who will go door to door. For, they will be your 'saviors' in time of need. This is planned, My Child, and these plans are unfolding rapidly. To avoid this evil, which is imminent, people in large numbers must repent of their evil and they must humble themselves before our Father. Time is running out for America. For, if they (these evil ones) get their way, many millions of you will soon perish. I am Jesus and all is given in accord with the will of Jehovah, Most High God."

CHAPTER FOUR

"Government Hit Men, Front Men & Others!"

Many of you will remember the warnings of our Father in Heaven regarding an illuminati plot to assassinate President Bush in February of this year. What you may not know is that Stew Webb of http://www.stewwebb.com took this warning very seriously and began to broadcast it on many radio programs. This very warning from God unleashed the fury of the evil ones against Stew Webb and me.

As Stew began speaking this prophetic warning on DNA Live Radio show, which is hosted by Dennis and Ann Bossack of http://www.ufolab.info, Stew was cut off the air for a period of time and was not allowed to speak of our Fathers' warnings. Yet, the very next day, the Bossacks spent an hour expounding upon the Nostradamus prophecies and have since spent an hour expounding upon the Mothman prophecies.

Within very few days of Stew Webb's being on Bossack's radio show, our Father in Heaven warned me that the evil ones planned to kill Stew Webb, but that they would not be able to do so. I called Stew Webb early in the morning and warned him of this assassination plot. Stew reveals that within twenty-four hours of this warning, he awoke, at around 3:00 in the morning, suffocating. Struggling against the perpetrators, he saw towels flying around the room. Knowing the great evil he was facing, he states that he pleaded the blood of Jesus over the perpetrators; and as his vision cleared, he clearly saw two shadowy figures going through the wall.

Dear Ones, to many of you this may very well sound like science fiction, but I can assure you that it is not. The shadowy societies in this very government have assassination hit teams, who leave their bodies and travel through time, to commit the "perfect" murders. Many of these murderers are not human at all, but appear to be human. The real inhabitants of these bodies are the ruthless and utterly evil reptilian monsters.

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

It was shortly after our Father's warning of the plot to assassinate President Bush that I received the following letter from the evil ones, who call themselves Ha' Virakhala. Two different sources sent me information, which showed that this e-mail was sent from Berry Country Club outside of Austin. Dear Ones, thank you for your detective work. There are more of us than them and when we work together under the power of God, we can do great and mighty things. The receipt of this letter from those, who call themselves Ha Virakhala, was just the beginning of the harrassment of these evil reptilian hoards and their human counterparts. Their disgusting assaults continued through e-mail, through persecution through the microwaves over the telephone, and in other ways, as I will describe.

It is very important that you, as Children of God, begin to understand the nature of the evil that is taking over this planet and the very nature of the evil that you are going to have to deal with. It is because of love of each of you that I am going into these horrible events. Dear Ones, to our God is the praise and glory; for He and He alone, saved me and Stew Webb from their evil tentacles. This is a most horrific chain of events, but is not isolated to me and Stew Webb. I can assure you that this kind of persecution is going to accelerate for all, who call themselves Christians. So, read on! Print and keep a copy of these revelations, so that when you get lackadaisical about your spiritual walk, you can go back and read these things. Perhaps, you will then be jolted back to the seriousness of these very times!

Comments: To Mrs. Newkirk, alleged Prophetess

>From the Exalted Order of Light, Holy Pontificate and Beneficiary of Global Perfection
We of the Order are not pleased with your spotlighting of us in your last visions. Do you not understand that our goals are the peaceful unification of Earth under which peace, harmony, and tolerance will be given a chance to grow? The Order of Light has orchestrated many events stretching back to the dawn of time, and always behind the scenes. The Illuminati? Our cover organization. The Freemasons? Our unwitting dupes. The Mormons? Simply another cult spawned by us that grew beyond our expectations. And we are not pleased, Mrs. "Newkirk," at your bringing our activities to light. Because we know (Oh, yes... we know more about you than you can possibly imagine) that you will not betray our exalted organization or its purpose to any others outside of your enigmatic prophecies (which, fortunately, few have attached to us), we plead with you to cease these detrimental diatribes against the Order! Please, we must repeat: our organization is only attempting to unite the world in peace and harmony under one ruler, the Virakhala, of whom so many prophecies have foretold. We fear you, truly. Where you get such detailed descriptions of us we do not know, but it must stop... you must not give any more coverage to our activities, for you mis-represent us badly. And we do not tolerate such intrusions on our private matters. If you insist on channeling (or however you get your revelations on us) your visions to the public, be advised that we are prepared to take appropriate measures.
Do not toy with us, Mrs. Newkirk. You call yourself a Prophet of God... we can see through such veils easily. God is on our side. Flee your cursed visions and embrace the Light- the Order of Light. We could use one of your capabilities.
Kindest regards,
-We of the Virakhala

THE FOLLOWING IS A MOST INTERESTING BIT OF RESEARCH FROM AN EAGLE-EYED OBSERVER!

Greetings in the name of Y'shua Ha Maschiach! I came across your March 18th Message For You section which had an "interesting" letter from 'Ha'Virakhala'. Given the IP address (which is unique for each individual user) I did some digging. Here's what I came across...

Many sites have shown that this individual utilizes a Macintosh in the state of Texas. The ISP utilized for the pseudo name "berrycc" is none other than 'On Ramp Access', operating out of the Austin area. I'm pretty sure this is just an alias account. During 3/03 to 5/03 this individual was somehow affiliated with Metropolitan Christian School in a suburb of Dallas. This individual also has ties in Belton, TX and perhaps lives there or commutes during college break. It looks like they might also be involved at the University of Mary Hardin- Baylor in Belton. While trying to narrow it down I stumbled on this: www.immanuel.net/OverseasChurch/main/Front.asp?OrgID=1938 . It lists the same unique IP address as having made a post/update to the site. The IP# is registered to VVM, Inc. (http://vvm.com/). Looking to tie the elements together fbcbelton.org is listed on VVM's customer list.The individual has a good chance at being Benjamin Sheng (254-780-9407 chinese@fbcbelton.org). A wolf in sheeps clothing???

Below, is another letter, which was sent to me by these very same schemers!

Sorry Stew,

I'm not buying into this story of a black helicopter shooting at your house. Unless, of course, you live on a firing range where they practice.

This is just another publicity stunt perpetrated by Stew. Stew has resorted to doing interviews on New Age radio shows due to the lack of invitations from serious radio shows.

Think about this for a minute. If a helicopter (of any color) were to chance firing at his house, or even if that helicopter's crew were given orders by Bush (or anyone else) to do so, they would have strafed his house with a lot more than just twenty rounds. They would have leveled his house. If they were attempting to assassinate Stew, his house would have been strafed until it collapsed into a pile of kindling.

Furthermore, has anyone ever heard machine-gun fire? How can you count twenty rounds of fully automatic fire? Has Stew become Superman? Also, the guns used on a helicopter do not go "tit-tit-tit." Believe me, they are a lot louder and more prominent than a "tit-tit-tit."

It's now two (2) days after the incident. Where are the spent casings, Stew? In two days of searching at least one or two should have been located by now.Stew stated that no one was directly shot at. So, are we to believe that This black helicopter just fired randomly into the air? What about the risk of hitting an innocent bystander?

If an incident like this did happen, there would have been folks reporting This all over the place. I've heard nothing,except, of course, from Stew Webb, blower of his own whistle.

Stew, I cannot believe the way you insult the intelligence of the good truth- seeking people out there with your ridiculous stories. As for your other articles...In Clouldcroft, New Mexico, two illegal Israelis were arrested for speeding through a school zone and having expired passports. These two Israelis were headed to Deming, New Mexico. Am I to assume, and you all know what assume means, that these men were coming to Deming to hit Ann and me?
I mean Deming, New Mexico, is a very small town and an extremely quiet laid-back town. Were these "Mosad hitmen" coming to shut down our radio station and assassinate us?
Get real, Webb. The only assassination going on here is Stew Webb assassinating any credibility he has left. Stew is attempting to assassinate the intelligence of all who listen to this poor, mind-controlled, deranged man.
Stew, please seek some real help. Not Linda Newkirk (whom you stated to me Delivers the answers from God and Jesus after you pray to them. Doesn't this sound like mind control? Is Linda Newkirk your handler?). I mean a real, live licensed psychiatrist. Maybe a couple of weeks "R&R" would help, Stew. Seek help.
Sincerely,
Dennis Bossack

Cloudcroft Chief Stops Israelis With Suspicious Cargo
By Michael Shinabery Staff Writer

(This is the article Dennis Bossack is referring to. The ridicule of Stew Webb relates to government persecution through black helicopters and other means!)

CLOUDCROFT -- That they were speeding through the school zone first got his attention. That they had Israeli driver's licenses and expired passports made him suspicious. Cloudcroft Police Chief Gene Green stopped the 2-ton van on Thursday, for speeding. Initially, Green thought the truck was commercial because of exterior markings. But when he found it was out of Chicago, he asked for documentation such as logs books and manifests. "They said this is a U-Haul truck and handed me a rental agreement (for) in-town delivery only in Illinois, (which) had expired two days before," Green said. He called for backup, and Otero County Sheriff's Deputy Billy Anders, who patrols the Sacramento Mountains, arrived, along with Capt. Norbert Sanchez and Det. Eddie Medrano. "We got them out and started digging a little deeper," Green said, "got permission to search the truck. They claimed they were hauling furniture from Austin to Chicago." When officers advised the men they were not exactly en route from one town to another, Green said the two men claimed they were Deming bound. "But they couldn't give us an address in Deming they were going to," he said. "Once we got into the truck, they had some junk furniture I wouldn't have given to Goodwill." Also inside the vehicle were, Green said, "50 boxes" they claimed was a "private" delivery, but the men insisted they had no "idea what was in them." At that point, the officers called for drug-sniffing and bomb-sniffing dogs. The men were turned over to the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and U-Haul recovered the truck. Contents of the boxes remain unknown, pending investigation. © 1999-2003 MediaNews Group, Inc. and Mid-States Newspapers, Inc. http://www.informationclearinghouse.info/article3484.htm

Dear Ones, read on and you will find out more about Dennis Bossack, government black ops hit man! This man is possessed by a reptilian entity! So, be warned! How clever that he lures patriots into his radio show to find out what these people know! This man is a front for a dangerous black ops government program by his own admission! A most interesting article about Dennis Bossack can be found at the following address! Go there and read it for your own enlightenment. http://www.100megsfree4.com/farshores/ufoboss.htm

Dear Ones, this is most, but not all of the correspondence that came from these evil ones and it all came about because of the revelation of a sinister plot to assassinate President Bush! I do not like many things that George W. Bush and his entourage do, but I do not wish to see any of them perish in the Lake of Fire. I would certainly rather see them come clean before God and be spared the horrible fate, which awaits them!

In obedience to the Most High God Jehovah, I posted the warnings to the President that his life was in danger. This is the only reason that George W. Bush is still alive. This assassination plot was known by the intelligence agencies of this country, but I am not sure that they knew the ones involved. They would be well-advised to check out people in their own ranks and files!

Murder attempts on my life!

On the morning of the 28th of May as I was sleeping I was aware of dark, shadowy figures, who were running through the forest outside of our house. At the same time that I was aware of these figures a short, fat, baldheaded (chrome-domed) man appeared in my sleep state and began speaking to me. I honestly do not remember all that he said at that time, but I clearly, ever-so-clearly, remember that this man was demanding that I come with him! I told him that I would not come with him! And, at that instant, a cloth came through the wall behind our bed! This man intended to suffocate me! However, before he could get the cloth on my face, I awoke and went out into the living room to pray. It was about 12:20 AM.

Dear Ones, I will not go into all that followed as many of you would absolutely not believe it. But, I can tell you this. At least five of those, who left their bodies and time traveled to kill me, did not make it back to their bodies. Our Father in Heaven showed me their spirits in hell and some of them are reptilians, others humans. Our Mighty Father in Heaven warned them not to touch His anointed; but they did not believe. Now, their spirits are in hell and their bodies are in the grave! To our Lord and God is the praise and glory; for the evil ones planned my demise, but met their own! He is full of love and mercy and He goes to bat for His Loved Ones. I am alive today because of His never-ending love and mercy!

The day after the murder/kidnap attempt, I told two different persons over the telephone about the bald-headed man, who tried to kill me. The responses of both was that this description of the bald-headed fat man fit the description of Dennis Bossack. They both knew of the verbal assaults of Bossack against me and Stew Webb. One of these individuals had seen a picture of Dennis Bossack on his site with the bald head and apparently without a beard. But, even before she could get back to the site and copy the picture, it suddenly came down off his site. Left on his site were only pictures of a Dennis Bossack with a huge hat, beard and glasses!!!!!!

How did they know to pull the picture so fast? How else, save they listen in on every conversation on our phone? For several days, the attacks from these evil sources settled down. I knew that God had hit this man and more is to come if he does not repent of his evil ways!

On the 11th of June, our Father in Heaven took me to a morgue and showed me the bodies of the ones, who had died as they could not get back to their bodies. He told me that two more would soon follow.

Second murder attempt

On the morning of the 13th of June, Friday the 13th, two shadowy figures came through the wall, invaded my dream state, and tied me up in a blanket, then disappeared back through the wall. The Spirit of God said, "This is nothing. Just slide out of it." I did and was fine, but these are the two that our Father spoke of. They will soon find themselves in the pits of hell and their bodies will be added to those in the morgue!

To many of you, all this may sound like science fiction, but I can assure you that it is real. We are not dealing with human technology, but that of the fallen angels. They deal in darkness and thrive on illusion and if people do not understand this concept, many will continue to be deceived by them. They are always looking for ways to commit the perfect murder and through the means of time travel, how convenient for them; for they can murder and leave without so much as a trace! And, anyone, who might come forward with the truth of their evil ways, will be ridiculed as a "nutcase," or "fruitcake."

But, our Lord and God has warned us of what we are dealing with. Therefore, you will be well-advised to take note of all that I have revealed to you; for in due season you will be faced with many of the same kinds of things I have been faced with. For, what is not so common today will be very common tomorrow. It will not be long before the robotoid soldiers are released upon humanity and even when people look at them, most will not know what they are looking at. And, most would never even believe that many in congress are also robots, but how else can you account for a whole group in congress idolizing a liar, a rogue and mass murder, by the name of Tony Blair. Dear Ones, when things do not make any sense, it is up to you and me to look further and determine exactly what is going on. Unfortunately, most will not be able to see; for they are cut off from The Spirit of Truth because of rebellion. And, this is a warning to each of you that if you do not stay on the Straight and Narrow, you will fall to the deceptive illusions of the evil ones. Times have never been so dire and they are getting worse with each passing day.

There is only One Way out of this mess and this Way is our Lord Jesus! I am reaching out to each of you with a great love in my heart. Come back, Dear Ones. Make your ways straight. Abhor evil and do what is right; for if you arbitrate the truth, if you waver in your determination to do what is right, evil will slip into your life. Darkness will come in, here a little and there a little, until you are completely enslaved. You must not arbitrate with evil. You must not give in, here a little, and there a little. If you do, in due season, you will have nothing in your life but darkness, and you will be no different than these evil ones.

God created us to be holy! He wants us to live righteous lives. We must not lie! We must not steal and we must not uphold evil; for if we do, we are not different than the fallen ones and our fates are the same. So, Dear Ones, make your way straight. Choose righteousness. Do what is right, regardless of what others do; for this world is falling quickly and if you are to make it, you must come out of the world and its evil traps! Daily confess your sins to our Lord and God and be truly sorry for what you do wrong. If you will do this one thing, God will hear your cries and in your time of need, He will be with you. Please do not put off for tomorrow what you must do today; for you truly may not have a tomorrow. With so much destruction coming down on every front, this is a serious warning for every one! It is out of love for you that I am pleading with you! Please hear my pleading; for time is so short. If you put off until tomorrow what you must do today, you may miss your beautiful inheritance from God, but more than this, you may receive the fate of the evil ones. With all the love in my heart for you, I am pleading with you. Please, please come back and walk the Straight Way regardless of what others do. You are precious to God and He loves you so!

I hope that through my revelations in this chapter, you have been helped to open your eyes to what is unfolding. Dear Ones, this is utter evil and none of us can fight it in the flesh! But, Praises to the Most High God; for He is with His Faithful and when we depend upon Him, He will do for us what we cannot do for ourselves. I tell you and with all my heart I know it, I am alive today because of the love of God and there is no other reason. To Him is the praise and glory forever and ever. Praises to His Holy Name! I love Him so!!!!!

CHAPTER FIVE

"Changing the Signature of Time and more!"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, as the wind blows among the trees, the wind of My Spirit blows upon you. As the sun shines upon the Earth, so does My holy fire bathe you. As the moon sets and rises, so do My gifts rise and set in you. My Child, I am raising you up to new levels. I am carrying you to new heights and I will show you great and mighty things. (As I type this, I tell you that this is already beginning. Perhaps at some point, our Lord and God will allow me to share some of these beautiful things with you.) As on the wings of a mighty eagle, you shall travel on the wings of My Spirit. Neither storm, bitter cold, not extreme heat shall keep you from the destinations I have for you. For, I have spoken it and I have carved these words out with My voice. I have etched these with My hand and My words shall go forth. My plans shall go forth. Understand?"

"Oh, yes, my Beautiful Father. I understand."

"My Child, foolish men and raging serpents seek to take what is Mine. They seek to destroy what I have laid out, but My Child, know this. Their plans shall come to naught; for I shall turn their plans into a pile of dust and I shall visit them in their smugness with My fist in their faces. Yes, My Child, they seek to overcome you and your husband. They tunnel beneath you night and day as their plans are to steal the very vortex, which I have opened. But, I tell you, My Child, that even as they carve out this tunnel, I am carving it up. Every military commander and every alien being, who is involved in this cursed thing, will meet with the jails in the pits of hell, and yes some will go on to the Lake of Fire. They are ignorant, My Child, for they actually believe that they will control, that they will own, this vortex. But, I tell you now that their fates are the pits of hell. The very base, which is associated with this tunnel, shall be destroyed off the face of the Earth; and this tunnel shall be closed and forgotten. Mark My word on it; for this shall come to pass.

Yes, My Child, they are many, and you and your husband are but two, and they falsely believe that you are but a wisp in the wind. But, I shall take one or two and I shall make an example out of armies of them. And, I tell you right now that I shall make a bitter example out of all, who are involved in this tunnel. From the greatest to the least, I shall make utter examples out of all of them.

For a very long time, evil has gone unchecked. It has grown and it is taking over the whole Earth. These evil ones have kidnapped many of you, hybridized you, and used you against your will and without your conscious knowledge to do their evil works. Some of you, they have turned into murderers and they have used you at will to do their dirty deeds and all beyond your conscious awareness. These underground bases are utterly full of evil and they plan to open up another extension of their evil arena beneath you, where they will continue to carry out their evil. But, I tell you right now, My Child, they have picked the wrong mountain and they have picked the wrong person to persecute and torture. My Child, you cannot imagine what I am about to do, but in due season, you will get a glimpse of it and you will understand. I tell you now that the plans of these evil ones are going to backfire in their faces and they are going to be utterly burned and destroyed.

Until now, I have allowed certain things, but I tell you that it is a new day for My people. What I have allowed in the past is fast coming to an end. Just know, My Child, that I am moving out in a new way. It is a new day and what has been is going to be cut out. It is going to be cut short. It is going to be terminated. This is My promise to you. There will come a time and soon, very soon, that I am going to utterly destroy by fire these underground bases. I am going to shut down their time travel as I, and I alone, am changing the signature. When this happens and soon, they will find themselves trapped. Some of this you will not be aware of, but some you will. In many, many ways, I am going to confound them. I am going to cripple them and overnight they will find that the signatures no longer work. They are going to become scrambled and they will not be able to determine the new codes. When this happens, many of them will be stuck between worlds. They will be stuck in places they do not wish to be. What they have relied upon as predictables will no longer be predictable."

 From The Mountain Prophecies Copyright 2003

"Oh, Father, praise you! Glory to Your holy Name! You, alone, are Most High and I love you so!"

"And, so My Child, these are truly exciting times and what they think they know will suddenly be as 'Greek' to them."

"Oh, Father this is beautiful. How long before you do this?"

"Oh, My Child, it is here a little and there a little. But, you will find as priceless the looks of bewilderment on their faces when they discover that their so-called system is falling apart. It does not work. And, this, My Child, is what they will find in this vortex in which you live. And, in others their formulas will not work. Their systems will not work. Their evil will not work and this will spread to other systems at other locations. It will be to them like a terrible virus that destroys a computer. All the minds, alien and human alike, will not be able to fix Humpty-Dumpty again. Do you see? Their ships will go awry. Their computers will go awry. Their best-laid plans will fail over and over. They will not work. For, this is My force they are dealing with and try as they might their plans will fail. But, just as a computer virus can spread, once My plans hit them, My plans will spread among their systems and they will not be able to isolate the cause, to find the problem. They will spend a great amount of time trying to determine the problems, but will not be able to. So, My Child, they believe they will simply come in and take what they want. But, I tell you now that they will never take this vortex. They will never take this mountain. They only believe they will; but they are about to get a whole lot more than they ever bargained for. I am about to teach them a lesson they will not soon forget."

"Praise You, Father. Holy is Your beautiful Name, I love You, love You, love You! Thank You, Father."

"So, be at peace, My Child, for I am about to move out on your behalf in ways that you cannot imagine. I am Your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 23rd day of July, 2003,

Linda Newkirk

Dear Ones, I do not know if you recognize the seriousness of what our Father in Heaven is revealing herein. For, truly when these evil ones are totally locked out of time travel, the evil one, Satan will also be locked down in the Earth. Unable to travel the upper realms, unable to time travel, unable to go out and change probable future events and unable to time travel and assassinate others (as they tried to do to me and to Stew Webb) they will become absolutely furious.

But, all along they have had a choice. As anyone would expect, when given this choice they have continued to choose evil! On march 15th of this year, our Lord Jesus gave them ninety days to stop persecuting me and others of His Loved Ones through electronic warfare and other means. But, instead of stopping this persecution, they tried even harder to kill me, Stew Webb and others. Truly many are already dead at the hands of these evil ones, who know no laws.

It has now been well over three and one half years since they began to persecute us with audible frequencies and they continue with it. For well over four years, they have been persecuting us with microwaves and they have been ordered to stop by our Father in Heaven, but they continue on. Truly, our Father in Heaven has repeatedly warned them to stop persecuting His Loved Ones and these evil ones have only picked up speed in their persecuting and killing. Therefore, because of this on-going evil, He has begun to hit their backbone even as He promised back on March 15th of this year.

They have learned little, perhaps nothing at all. He warned them that He would judge the space station if they did not stop persecuting us and others of His Loved Ones; and subsequently the space shuttle blew up in air. And, many have sought to blame this on
