SELECTION WAIVER

Granite is a product of nature. No two pieces of stone are exactly alike. Granite Countertops will have variations in color, mineral deposits, veining and texture. Customer understands that there will be variation in color, mineral deposits, veining and texture, between samples provided and the fabricated materials. It is recommended that out customers personally select materials to be fabricated at a CKC authorized stone distributor. By waiving this selection the customer authorizes Custom Kitchen Countertops, LLC to select and fabricate material on your behalf. Custom Kitchen Countertops, LLC will inspect all slabs and avoid anything considered to be a blemish or fissure within industry standards.
