Highland County Beef Queen Rules and Expectations

Rules

1. Contestant must be between the ages of 15 and 19.
2. Contestants may run for Beef Queen more than once.
3. Contestants will be judged on the basis of personality and poise, the content of their speech, their ability to express themselves orally, their school and community activities, and their knowledge of the beef industry.
4. Contestant must live or work on a beef operation, or exhibit beef animals.
5. Contestant may submit a copy of their speech at the county banquet. The theme for the speech must be on a “current topic relating to the beef industry”.
6. Contestants will present their speech at the Annual Highland County Cattleman’s Banquet.
7. Bring a tentative plan of activities you plan to complete as Beef Queen to present to the judges.

Expectations

1. Work the Cattleman’s booth at the Festival of Bells.
2. Be present and work all beef events at the Highland County Fair.
3. Host a minimum of 4 promotional events, one per quarter promoting the beef industry throughout the year in the county.
4. Participate in at least 2 local parades.
5. Work the Ohio State Fair Booth the day our directors work the Cattleman’s food booth.
6. Provide pictures of her activities while serving as Queen to the Highland County Cattleman for them to use in press releases and also in awards applications.
7. Highland County Cattleman’s strongly suggest that the Highland County Beef Queen participate in and run for Ohio Beef Ambassador Team. This includes attending a seminar in either the Spring or Fall at the Ohio Cattleman’s office in Marysville, and participating in the contest in January at the OCA Annual Meeting.
8. The Highland County Beef Queen is expected to conduct herself with the utmost dignity and respect. This includes dress. Please remember the Queen is a representative of the Highland County Cattleman’s at all activities you attend.
9. Expenses accrued during these events will be reimbursed by the cattleman’s (receipts required).
10. Failure to complete expectations may result in loss of title.
