Classes Open for upload July 5th to July 11th Judging begins July 12th

Patterns will be out of the 2020 pattern book, they will be posted the Friday prior to the show start date. E-file pattern books can still be purchased for $10.00 if you want to start practicing.

Entries will be accepted on the IHA Website and paid for using paypal or venmo only. You will have one week to upload your video to youtube and send the link to iHAWesternPleasure@gmail.com. Your video will be posted to the IHA FB Event for viewing by the judge and fellow competitors.

Trainers may not enter the walk jog classes, all other classes are open to all riders, the virtual horse show will not count towards any division eligibility at an in person IHA show. The judge will place each class and also critique the riders pattern giving tips for improvement and pointing out the positive parts.

The winner of each class will receive ONE free class at any IHA Western Series show.

If we have four adults and four youths entered we will divide the class by age for placing.

Dress Code, clean working attire, no chaps and bling not to count over good working equipment. Helmets must be worn by all riders Under 18 years of age.
