

IHA DRESSAGE SEAT EQUITATION VIRTUAL SHOW PRIZE LIST

Dressage seat equitation is a relatively new class offered at dressage shows. Unlike a dressage test, the horse's gaits are not judged, although the horse's frame is taken into consideration by the judge, but rather it is the rider who is evaluated.

Open to IHA Members Only

Open to Adult Amateur and Junior English & Western Riders

Open to Trainers who may Enter the Open Division only

Divisions: English; Western and Open. If entries warrant, we will split English & Western classes into Adult and Junior Divisions.

Judge: Raul de Leon

Show Instructions:

1. Submit a completed entry form with payment by email or mail.
- 2. Video your test following the "Video Guidelines" below, a separate video for each test
3. Upload your video(s) to YouTube
4. Post a comment with the YouTube link to your video (ride) on the appropriate class on the entry form. Be sure to add your name, your horse's name, division and class #.
5. Entry closing date is July 16, 2020. Video submissions open on July 17 and close midnight of July 24.
6. The judge will have a week after the show date, July 25, to score the rides, followed by the processing of scores. The results will be emailed to each competitor with scores. Placings for each division will be posted on the IHA website, the Dressage page and on the IHA Dressage FB page no later August 3.

Video Guidelines:

1. Videos must be in landscape (horizontal) view
2. Use a tripod or steady surface to keep the video as steady as possible
3. Film from "C" - the judge's position, approx 10 ft back from edge of arena & 2 ft up if possible
4. Arena - the perimeter needs to be marked, at least in part, on all four sides; corners HAVE to be marked; minimum size is a small arena which is 20x40m; arena can be DIY, it does not have to be fancy
5. Arena letters (markers) have to be visible, they can be DIY
6. Keep the entire horse/rider from hoof to helmet in view at all times
7. Zoom in as the horse/rider are further away
8. The test must be ridden from beginning to end, no editing or cutting of videos
9. Upload at the highest resolution possible with a minimum of 480

Note: The judge reserves the right to decline any video due to poor quality. Please review your video for clarity and appropriate lighting prior to submission. If needed, a request for new video footage will be sent to the competitor's email address.

Rules & General Information:

Entries: Open to IHA members in good standing in 2020; Adult Amateur and Junior riders only. No trainers.
