

KNIFE CRIME, KNIFE CRIME

*Knife crime, knife crime, they've tormented me again! I'm lost; what do I then?
Carry me around, I promise it will never be found.*

*Knife crime, knife crime, are you sure?
Of course, they've showed you no remorse!*

Knife crime, knife crime, I am still not sure!

Endure more pain or feel powered? Why can't you trust me? I knew you were a coward.

Knife crime, knife crime, you're right, I won't back down from a fight.

Knife crime, knife crime, are you proud of yourself? You never took my pain, now you passed it to someone else.

Knife crime, knife crime, I know you have no life but that does not mean you had to take someone's else tonight.

Knife crime, knife crime, you are driving me insane! I can't sleep when I've caused that much pain!

Knife crime, knife crime, I can't stop washing my hands; it's driving me absolutely mad!

Knife crime, knife crime, why won't you answer me? I'm locked up, can't be free.

Knife crime, knife crime, I know you said we would never get caught and I actually believed you; it's true!

Knife crime, knife crime, I am stuck here for 25 years, thanks for causing everyone all these tears.

Knife crime, knife crime, I know you know you never are, were and will ever be worth it; not even a little bit!

Knife crime, knife crime, this is my last message. I don't need you anymore; I am going down a different passage.

Knife crime, knife crime, one last message before I go, I just wanted to let you know that our 'never to be found secret' has been added to the Knife angel. From the beginning, you were never a fable.
