

This performance space is based upon the interior of a mosque, in particular the worship/prayer space of the members of the mosque. Its interior is designed to be an intimate space for less than 100 people and a single performer.

The purpose of this space is to create a new performance / entertainment experience centered around the intimacy of humbling one's self around your peers, similar as Muslims humble themselves before Allah.