Friendship - Life's Most Valuable Commodity, It Cannot Be Bought, It Cannot Be Sold, It Must Be Earned

The Fraternal Order of the Knights of Pythias boasts a beautiful ritual based on the remarkable story of the boundless friendship between two men of ancient times - Damon and Pythias. Its founding took place in 1864 in Washington, D.C., with the institution of its first lodge. Chartered by an act of the United States Congress, three presidents became members: William McKinley, Warren G. Harding and Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Through the rituals of the Order and by the lessons taught and ceremonies performed, the Order seeks to inspire in its members a never ending quest for peaceful relations among all people. Present at every lodge meeting is an open Bible and the Flag of the country in which the lodge is located, each displayed with dignity and love. These symbols signify that the Pythians have a belief in a Supreme Being and love for their country.

The Order does not seek to shape the creed of its members regarding religion, although we require that every applicant seeking membership must have a belief in a Supreme Being. We do not inquire as to the particular religion of any applicant. Members worship the Supreme Being based on their personal choice.
