

Hitting for Contact in Race Conversations

WEBINAR

Zaner-Bloser is pleased to partner with NC NABSE Affiliates to present an important webinar with special guest presenter Matthew R. Kay, author of Not Light But Fire.

Join us Tuesday, October 27, 2020 7 P.M. ET for this free webinar: Hitting for Contact in Race Conversations. When it comes to leading tough conversations, Hollywood has taught many of us to always swing for the fences. Yet this all-or-nothing approach to tough conversations, especially race conversations, just as often leads to catastrophe as it does to success. In this timely webinar, Matthew R. Kay will present a counter vision to home-run-or-nothing thinking and work with fellow teachers to design curriculum for regular, predictable successes.

Register Here: October 27, 2020

PRESENTED BY:

Zaner-Bloser

HOSTED BY:

North Carolina National Alliance of Black School Educators

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Matthew R. Kay is a proud product of Philadelphia's public schools and a founding teacher at Science Leadership Academy (SLA). He is a graduate of West Chester University and holds a Masters in Educational Leadership with a Principals' Certificate from California University of Pennsylvania. He deeply believes in the importance of earnest and mindful classroom conversations about race.

North Carolina Affiliates

Greater Charlotte ASBE

ABSE-UNC Charlotte

Wayne County ASBE

QUESTIONS?

Ask Zaner-Bloser
ZBWebinar@zaner-bloser.com

Certificate of Attendance will be provided.

ZB Zaner-Bloser