

Leadership Conference for African-American Males

“Educating Our Black Youth: A Community Responsibility”

Hosted by NC NABSE Affiliates (NCABSE, GCABSE & WCABSE)

February 12 and 13 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

West Charlotte High School (Day one) | UNC Charlotte Cone Center (Day two)

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. Students will attend day one only. Superintendents, higher education staff/students, administrators, principals, teachers, support staff, parents, faith-based leaders, and business and community leaders are invited to attend both days.

For registration information, please call 704.817.9341 or email ncnabseaffiliates@gmail.com. To register online, visit www.ncnabseaffiliatesconference.eventbrite.com.

Featured Speakers

Glenn Singleton, CEO
Pacific Educational Institute

The institute designs and delivers individualized, comprehensive support for school districts in the form of leadership training, coaching and consulting. Also addresses systemic issues of educational inequity by providing guidance to districts as to how to meet the needs of under-served students of color populations.

Eric Cork, Founder/President
Rebuilding the Writing Foundation

Eric Cork is an international and national speaker on literacy and Language Arts. You will leave his workshop with lively learning strategies to motivate students and systems to keep them actively engaged.

Dr. Lucian Yates, III
Dean of Education,
Prairie View A&M University

An award winning teacher, principal, superintendent and education consultant, he received his BA and MA in history, political science and education from Morehead State University and a Ph.D. in curriculum, instruction and supervision from Ohio University — where he studied the learning styles of children of color.

February 12 Topics

- “The Greatness In You”
- Skills for Success: Goal Setting, Study Skills, Leadership, etc.
- Real Voices of the Students
- Literacy & Language Arts
- College and Careers
- Rebuilding the Writing Foundation
- Mentoring Education & Resources

Community Town Hall Meeting, 5 to 8 p.m.

“Racial Equity In Public Education: How it Impacts African American Males”

Panelists:

- Glenn Singleton, Founder/President, Pacific Institute
- Mayor Dan Clodfelter, Charlotte, North Carolina
- Ann Clark, Deputy Superintendent, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools
- Bill Anderson, Executive Director, MeckEd

February 13 Topics

Keynote Speaker: Glenn Singleton
Cultural Competency

- Learning Styles of Children of Color
- Removing Barriers to African American STEM Achievement: The Impact of Culturally Relevant Instruction and Low Teacher Expectations on College Readiness