About The Polished Table

Hi, I'm Liz! Wife, mother of three boys, and founder of The Polished Table. What began as a love of hosting for family and friends grew into a tabletop rental service designed to make gathering feel effortless.

Today, The Polished Table offers curated place settings and individual rental pieces that seamlessly complement what you already own. From intimate dinners to celebrations of up to 50 guests, our collection is thoughtfully designed to elevate your table while removing the stress of sourcing, styling, and cleanup.

At its heart, The Polished Table exists to preserve the joy of hosting, creating beautiful, approachable tables that feel personal, welcoming, and memorable.

Let's host together!

FAQ

Is delivery included?

Yes. Delivery, table styling, and post-event pickup are included within the Midlothian, VA area. Travel outside this area may include a small fee, which is always communicated upfront.

Do you set the table for us?

Yes, as long as the event space is ready to be styled, we would love to help you style the table.

What do I need to do after my event?

Simply wipe food from items, empty glassware, and place everything back into the provided storage containers. We return to collect and handle all cleaning.

How long is the rental period?

Our standard rental period is 24 hours, designed to cover your event day with convenient pickup the following day.

Do you provide linens, florals, or decor?

Right now we are focusing on dinnerware, glassware, and flatware.

Do I need to wash the dishes?

No washing required. We handle all cleaning. We just ask that items are wiped and returned to their containers for pickup.

What happens if something breaks?

We understand accidents happen. Minor breakage is expected; however, damaged or missing items may be charged at replacement value, which is outlined in your rental agreement.

What types of events is The Polished Table best suited for?

Our collections are designed for intimate, meaningful gatherings. Dinner parties, bridal and baby showers, engagement celebrations, holiday hosting, milestone events, and private chef experiences.

What makes The Polished Table different from traditional rentals?

We offer a boutique, hands on approach. Rather than large warehouse rentals, our pieces are intentionally curated and personally styled.

How far in advance should I book?

We recommend booking 3–6 weeks in advance, especially during peak hosting seasons. Short notice bookings are welcome when availability allows.

Can guest count change after booking?

Yes. Guest count adjustments can typically be accommodated based on inventory availability. Final counts are confirmed prior to delivery.
