A Bike Under Every Tree

by Julie Mikus

For the seventeenth consecutive year, Todd Financial Services has mobilized the generosity of hundreds of donors to achieve a remarkable goal of ensuring that children awaken to a new bicycle on Christmas morning.

This initiative is supported by three United States Marine Corps Toys for Tots organizations, which distribute bicycles to marginalized children. For over seventy years, the Marines, alongside thousands of

This effort is made possible through a partnership with Variety - The Children's Charity, based in Wexford. Variety empowers children with disabilities to lead fulfilling lives by supplying essential mobility and communication equipment, ensur-

However, the Toys for Tots program has restrictions on toy donations, and items exceeding a value of $30, such as bicycles, must be provided as direct donations to recipients.

Al's Bike Drive addresses another significant need by providing adaptive bicycles for children with disabilities and special needs. Due to their customized ing that the children participate in various activities. The organization serves fifty-nine counties in Pennsylvania, tailoring adaptive bikes to meet the unique needs of each child.

Additionally, the bike drive collaborates with Walmart, where Al and his team coordinate the delivery of the bicycles. "I want to thank Walmart and their team!" Al remarked. "I also want to express my gratitude to my colleagues at Thrivent who helped manage the program," he added. Todd Financial Services is situated on Ferguson Road near Hampton Township, and Al's Bike Drive operates entirely as a volunteer initiative.

The outcome of this year's efforts was impressive, with the bike drive collecting 589 bicycles and 15 adaptive bikes, enabling children to wake up on Christmas morning with joy. For these children, the gift is not merely a toy; it represents a significant milestone in their lives. Many individuals cherish the memory of receiving a new bike, as it symbolizes freedom, independence, along with the development of new skills and confidence essential for a healthy and active lifestyle.

Blood Drive: We Need Your Help

by Sophie Shelkey

Every year, Hampton High School hosts three blood drives that run from 9 a.m. - 7 p.m. The value of blood donation should not be minimized, as it can save so many lives. Hospitals all over the world need a constant supply of blood for their patients, making the demand very high. Donating blood is a great way to help your community, and to make a big difference to someone in need. To emphasize the importance, patients in hospitals need about 30,000 units of red blood cells, and 6,000 units of both platelets and plasma per day in the US. If you are interested in getting started in donating blood, Hampton's blood drive is a great way to get involved. To make matters even better, this is listed as a scholarship blood drive, because the monies for the scholarships come from the number of donors per drive.

The next drive is Wednesday, January 29th, 2025. We hope to see you there!

Sophie Shelkey is a Junior at Hampton High School. During this school year, she is involved in track and field, FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America), and as a student council officer for the class of 2026. Hoping to pursue a career in the healthcare field, she values how crucial blood donations can be. Having seen the impacts of donations through her grandmother, who underwent many life saving transfusions, she truly values the importance of donating.

Collecting Names of Service Members for Gulf War Memorial Plaque

Hampton Township, The Hampton Community Association and Hampton American Legion Post 296 are collecting the names of service members who previously lived in Hampton Township or currently live in Hampton Township and served on active duty during the Gulf War beginning on August 2, 1990 through the current date. We wish to recognize their service to our country and create an additional plaque to be added to the Hampton Township Veterans' Memorial. This list will be closed for submission of names and information no later than January 16, 2025 so that preparation and presentation of the plaque can occur on Memorial Day 2025.

We encourage current or past active duty Hampton Gulf War Veterans to submit their information for coordination and review of eligibility. The period of Gulf War wartime service continues through a future date to be set by law or Presidential Proclamation.

Cookie Baking

wanted to extend this into my high school years. Sophia Nguyen and I presented the project to Dr. Imbarlina, and she referred us to the clubs. I have a passion for making people smile, and what better way to do that than making cookies for a cause?"

The project involved baking cookies to sell at the Busy Bean, the school's coffee shop, with all proceeds going to NHCO. Janice Wolff, a Hampton resident and sponsor of the Interact Club at Hampton High School, eagerly took on the task. Reflecting on her five years as a sponsor, Wolff noted the Interact Club's growth from just three active members to around twenty participants.

Interact Club president Lizzy Sapovsky shared, "Sisters Olivia and Maya Tirpak reached out to Shop-N-Save on Route 8 in Hampton for baking supplies. The grocery owners, Bradley Zupancic and Kevin Verikes, generously donated the ingredients needed." On December 9th, the students gathered in the high school's family and consumer science kitchens directly after dismissal. Hampton Rotary members Larry Vasko, Rebecca Cunningham and Michael Loughead joined the students for the baking process, using a hand mixer to help with the Toffee Chocolate Chip and Grinch Cookies. Members of the Hampton Rotary and Hampton Interact Club came together for a sweet deal, packaging and delivering the cookies to the Busy Bean to sell the next day. Between both sales the Interact Club raised $338!

TIP OF THE MONTH:

Prevent exposed pipes from freezing as temperatures drop. A frozen pipe can crack or burst, flooding your home. If you're planning a winter vacation, don't forget to wrap pipes with heat tape you can control with a thermostat. And if you haven't turned off water to outdoor spigots yet, consider yourself lucky—if they haven't yet burst, shut off water valves and open spigots to drain existing water.

Meet An Officer

Evan Egerter

by Jenn Edmonds

Hampton Township Police Department welcomed a new full-time police officer in October, Evan Egerter. Egerter currently resides in Ross Township with his wife, Christina, his almost 6-year-old son Liam, his 3-year-old son Landon, and his Springer spaniel Millie, and comes to HTPD with a lot of accolades and experience.

After high school, Egerter served six years in the U.S. Air Force as part of the Military Police, and knew he wanted to pursue being a police officer after his service concluded. "I'm not built for a 9-5 desk job or doing the same thing every day," explained Egerter on why he chose police work. "Every day is different in this job."

After graduating from the Police Academy, Egerter worked for the Reserve Township Police Department and the Millvale Police Department. While at Millvale, Egerter was recognized with the DUI Award by the PA DUI Association four years in a row. Now in its 27th year, the DUI Award is given to officers that excel or dedicate themselves to DUI enforcement. Winners are determined based on metrics such as the number of officers in the department, call volumes, and the number of arrests.

When asked what he enjoys about being a police officer, Egerter explained, "I like being able to help people at their worst times, to change perceptions in the community, and to have a positive impact." Egerter has ties to Hampton in that his mother works in Hampton and his brother-in-law, Ben Colosimo, is a current Hampton Township police officer.

Egerter has primarily worked the night shift, which he said was a good shift to work with young kids at home, but Hampton rotates 12-hour shifts. This shift rotation will allow him every other weekend off, which also works well for the family. Egerter played hockey growing up and enjoys watching sports, going to parks with his kids, and hiking the trail at Fall Run Park.

Nominations Being Accepted for the Heart of Hampton Award

This year's HAEE 5k brought in roughly $30,000, surpassing last year's total and meeting the organization's fundraising goal. HAEE president Lissa Shulman said, "Our board really stepped up to meet our fundraising goal of $30,000 and it is the hard work of every member doing their part that leads to a successful event each year!"

More exciting things are to come in 2025. For the first time ever, HAEE will present the Heart of Hampton Award. Historically, the award had been conferred by Hampton Magazine, but for many years had been shelved before HAEE set out to reconceptualize and reintroduce this important honor within the Hampton community. The award will be given to an individual or group within the community who exemplifies criteria such as innovation in education, commitment to excellence, impact on the community, leadership and mentorship, and collaboration and teamwork. HAEE will host an award ceremony and cocktail party at Lucky Sign Spirits Distillery in Gibsonia on Saturday, February 22, 2025. Tickets will go on sale in the new year and will be open to the community. In the meantime, HAEE invites and encourages people to nominate potential award recipients at <https://www.hamptonalliance.org>. Shulman stated, "This award is a way to acknowledge organizations and individuals who contribute to our excellent school district and the broader Hampton community. We also see the celebration event as a way to add a second signature event (especially for non-runners or non-athletes) which will help to raise additional funds, allowing us to grow our scholarship awards and grants to the schools."

which was prompted by the success of the flag retirement boxes located at both the Community Center and the Hampton Volunteer Fire Department on Duncan Avenue. These boxes were established as part of an Eagle Scout project by Patrick McClelland, a 2024 graduate of Hampton High School, aimed at facilitating the honorable retirement of flags within the community.

"I decided to place a box at the [Hampton Community Center] to provide community members with an accessible way to ensure their flags are retired properly. Retiring flags is a meaningful tradition that shows our respect for this national symbol," McClelland said.

The flag retirement ceremony exemplifies the respect afforded to our nation's symbols, a fundamental aspect of scouting. The scouts adhere to specific protocols for the dignified retirement of the American flag.

The American flag was first adopted by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777—almost 250 years ago. Scout master Keith Essig said Hampton residents can fly a flag at their residence "to show pride in our country and support for the military."

As part of the ceremony, the troop rescued stars from the retired flags to create accompanying cards for veterans at the VA Hospital in Aspinwall, delivered on November 12, 2024. These cards explained the origin and significance of the stars. Dakin noted, "Using the stars of the flag in this manner for veterans is permissible and does not constitute a desecration of the flag." These mementos were also handed out to veterans at the Hampton Heroes event held at Fridley Field.

When flags are deemed unfit for display, the stars are carefully removed and placed in small plastic bags accompanied by a note that reads: "I am part of an American flag that has flown over the U.S.A. I can no longer fly. The sun and winds have caused me to become tattered and torn. Please carry me as a reminder that you are not forgotten."

From its inception, the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) has demonstrated a strong commitment to patriotism. The Scout Oath and Law emphasize a duty to America and respect for the nation's laws, making the honoring of the flag a central tenet of scouting. Such civic engagement fosters a sense of national pride, encouraging scouts to become active, responsible citizens.

The high regard for the United States flag is well-founded, as the boy scout handbook articulates that the flag is "...the symbol of America; it stands for the past, present, and future of our country. It represents our people, our land, and our many ways of life."

For Troop 17's Scout Master, the flag has deep meaning. "I'm a U.S. Navy Veteran. The flag represents the country I served. It is a symbol that represents those heroes who sacrificed their lives for our country," Essig expressed. He also reminded the times when the flag is used to commemorate service. "For all who served, the flag is placed over their casket and then given to their family as a lasting reminder of their service," he added.

Local AARP Supporting our Libraries

You might be interested to know about the AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) Community Service Project that has recently benefited the Hampton, Shaler, and Northern Tier Libraries.

Members of the local AARP Chapter 595 collected over 100 books to donate to these libraries. Additionally, they received a $1,000 grant from the National AARP to support books and special programs at these libraries.

This group promotes an active and fulfilling life after retirement, focusing on fellowship, social interaction, and community service. They also participate in other service projects for the Lighthouse Food Bank, Meals on Wheels, and Hosanna Industries, Inc. This is the first time Chapter 595 has reached out to local libraries and qualified for the organization's grant program.

Most members live in the North Hills area. If you're interested in joining, they meet on the first Tuesday of each month at Hampton Presbyterian Church. With 345 members, it's one of the largest chapters in Pennsylvania! Membership dues are only $10 a year. For more information, you can contact them at 412-486-7465.

Dear Neighbor,

As a new year begins, I'm struck by the enormous honor it is to represent all of us and to serve as our Congressman down in Washington. I will never take this job, or the responsibility it requires, for granted.

In my first term, I've been dead set on lowering costs, confronting the corporate powers that are price gouging and ripping us off, fighting against monopolies squeezing out small businesses, making more goods here, and standing up for workers. We've made some progress, but I'll be straight with you: there's a lot still to do.

Right now, people work hard, follow the rules, and yet too many still can't achieve the American Dream of a good job, a home to call their own, and dignity in retirement. That's devastating. My goal is simple: to make life better and to start charting a path back to the American Dream.

My office is available to help Hampton residents with issues they are having with federal agencies, including tax refunds, passport renewals, Social Security and Medicare, veterans' benefits, and more. Please call or message my office at 412-344-5583 or deluzio.house.gov/services/.

Very respectfully, Congressman Chris Deluzio

Rep. Arvind Venkat

30th District
Allegheny County

Back to Work for Pennsylvanians

Dollars for School Safety and Mental Health Resources

by State Rep. Arvind Venkat

I hope everyone had a safe and enjoyable holiday season. I am incredibly honored to continue serving all of you in the 30th Legislative District, and look forward to the year ahead. I will again advocate for several key health issues and more as a new legislative session begins.

I am set to reintroduce multiple bills, including establishing the Pennsylvania Medical Debt Relief Program so no one is forced to choose between putting food on the table or getting the medical care they need.

Providing opioid overdose and food allergen awareness materials in public places are two pieces of legislation I look forward to getting across the finish line as well. Too many individuals have lost their lives to these health crises, and it is my goal to unite colleagues on both sides of the aisle to empower our neighbors and communities in addressing these public health challenges.

I am also happy to share that the Hampton Township School District was awarded a state grant of nearly $150,000 to make its facilities safer for students, teachers, and staff, and to address behavioral health needs. I am proud to be a physician-legislator and privileged to help secure these dollars to assist keeping our kids healthy and safe inside and outside of the classroom.

For more information about legislation I have introduced or how my staff and I can help you with state services, please call my office at 412-348-8028 or email me at RepVenkat@pahouse.net. We are always available to address your concerns.

State Senator
LINDSEY M. WILLIAMS
38th Senatorial District

Many people I talk to don't know that they have a State Senator or they have little positive to say about who represents them. I am doing my best to change that.

I want everyone who interacts with my office feels listened to, supported, empowered, and helped. We have a "no wrong door policy" here—we may not be able to resolve your issue in-house, but we'll work with you to identify other resources who can help.

This extends to my work in Harrisburg. As we begin the New Year, the Senate is starting a new Session in Harrisburg, which brings a chance to make the legislative process more open, accessible, and bipartisan.

My colleague Senator Katie Muth and I are again introducing Senate rules that would make Harrisburg work better for Pennsylvanians. First, we want to take the guesswork out of what bills are being voted on, giving people a chance to voice their opinions to their State Senator on the bills before a vote takes place. We are also introducing reforms that would ensure popular, bipartisan legislation passed by the State House receives a vote in the Senate. It should not take years for the legislature to pass common-sense solutions to address real problems that people are facing. If you want to learn more about our rules reforms efforts, please visit my website at www.SenatorLindseyWilliams.com/rules.

My staff and I wish you a happy and healthy New Year. We look forward to seeing you in 2025, whether that is at one of our events, out in the community, or in our office. Please give us a call at 412-364-0469 or stop by the Ross Township Office at 5000 McKnight Road, Suite 405, Pittsburgh, PA 15237.

Looking Forward to Serving You

As the new year begins and a new session gets underway in Harrisburg, it is my distinct honor to begin my tenure as the state representative of the 28th Legislative District. My commitment to you is to give my all to work with both parties to ensure our community and Commonwealth are second to none.

Jeremy Shaffer

As my term begins, my ambition is to establish policy which will grow our Commonwealth into a prosperous and welcoming place for all generations to succeed. Improving our quality of life in Western Pennsylvania starts with a focus on improving infrastructure and strengthening our communities by supporting families, teachers, and our valued first responders.

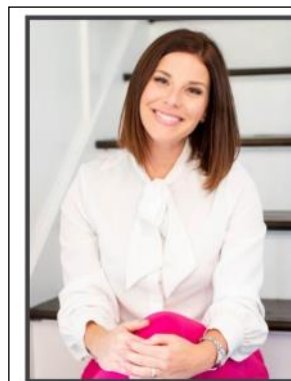

I am honored to be your voice in Harrisburg to work to reduce taxes and regulations, help support our businesses and families, and always advocate for reasonable, effective government.

Our state government is unfortunately ranked near the bottom on several metrics. We need to work in a bipartisan way to fix this broken system. I am pleased that the first bills I have co-sponsored are for term limits for state legislatures and downsizing our state house and senate which are some of the largest and most expensive in the country.

Our team has already hit the ground running, with my offices set up and ready to serve you. In Wexford, my office is located at 5500 Brooktree Road, Suite 100, and can be reached at 412-369-2230. My Gibsonia office is located at 4411 Gibsonia Road and can be reached at 724-939-6265.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve you as your state representative; it is truly an honor. I look forward to serving you and building our area to be the envy of Pennsylvania.
