France Reaches States in Track

by Gail Scott

Cambell France concluded her senior year at Hampton with a great finish in Track at the WPIAL championship. France finished 3rd in the 800m, which advanced her to the PIAA state championship meet. On the finals day, she placed 8th with a time of 2:15.40 and she received a medal.

In the fall, Cambell will attend the University of Pittsburgh majoring in bio-engineering. She has decided not to run track next year at Pitt even though one of the Pitt track coaches encouraged her to be a walk-on for the Pitt team.

Cambell was also a part of the HHS color guard and winter guard. She said, "I have learned so much about perseverance and patience from my experiences on the Hampton track team, and I am very thankful for the supportive team that I was a part of and the friendships that I've made from it."

Therapy Dogs

he was a pup. He listens to her more than me!"

The children, ranging in ages from 4 to 12 years old, learned many things. They learned about the particular qualities of Tucker and Henry, poodles who are hypoallergenic, intelligent, and social. They are hypoallergenic because they have hair instead of fur. They don't shed but go to a groomer just like people! Tucker, who is Henry's uncle, is a blue poodle and Henry is a black poodle who was the biggest in his litter and weighs 63 pounds. Tucker was the smallest in his litter and weighs 47 pounds. The kids also learned that Henry falls asleep if you sing to him, so the children sang Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star and sure enough, Henry fell fast asleep! Tucker, also an excellent watch dog, who used to work at a store with Suzy and caught someone who was trying to steal jewelry. He stared at the person until she gave it back!

Suzy also spoke about the dogs' jobs as therapy dogs. They make weekly visits to the cancer center at UPMC Passavant Hospital, an elder care home, preschools, and even the Pittsburgh International Airport where they visit with passengers and employees. Tucker has been a therapy dog for 9 years and Henry for almost 2.

During the program she demonstrates some of the obedience commands such as sit, down, stay. These are all things the therapy dogs need to pass in their test in order to become a therapy dog. Finally, the children were given the opportunity to ask questions, pet, and get kisses from the dogs. Of course, they first were taught the best ways to approach a dog: always ask permission, always approach from the front, and let the dog sniff your hand first.

Kindergartner Evelyn Mascaro, 1st grader Elijah Wharton and 3rd grader Lily Haberman (not photographed), were named winners in the 2019 WQED Writers Contest and were acknowledged at the school board meeting by Mary Alice Hennessey and Superintendent Dr. Michael Loughhead.

Will Power Forever

by David Bianco

On May 25th, 2019 a group of 31 Hampton boys traveled to the Laurel Mountains to remember their friend Will Pilarski. The group was at 7 Springs Mountain Resort to get themselves good and dirty running in the Will Power 2nd Annual Mud on the Mountain race. This is the second year the boys have raced in memory of Will and their numbers are growing. They went from 22 kids last year to 31 this year. All of the boys running were sporting Will's favorite colors of orange and blue and yelling "Will Power!" as they ran through each obstacle. The staff at Seven Springs gave the boys their own heat so they could stay together throughout the race. They all finished the race once again and were awarded their medals still yelling "Will Power Forever". The entire Pilarski family was on hand to watch and cheer the boys on as they did what Will loved to do, get dirty. They are already talking about next year's race and the tradition they have started in memory of their friend Will. The boys are an inspiration to the Pilarski family, to the parents, and I'm sure their friend Will. He may not be physically with these boys but he definitely lives on in their hearts and minds.

Dreams Really Do Come True

The Route 8 Rebels baseball team consists of players from Hampton and Shaler area townships. Their coaches planned a week trip to Cooperstown Dreams Park for these young athletes to experience a cultural and life-enriching experience in baseball. The venue is a family themed baseball park and features fun, excitement and the opportunity to watch and participate playing baseball with teams from all around the country. The Route 8 Rebels played teams from Illinois, Utah, Mississippi, Florida, Georgia, and Alabama. There were 104 teams in total from 24 different states. Some of the games were streamed live through DreamsParkTV.com. The boys enjoyed the team bonding time in the barracks and visiting the Baseball Hall of Fame together. The coaches were Paul Hanna, Jason Eichas, and Brad Cox. Overall their record was 2-5.

Aside from success in their sport, the nominees need to demonstrate characteristics such as an optimistic attitude, teammate encouragement, servant leadership, a heart for others, ability to admit imperfections, giving 100 percent at all times and putting the team before individual goals.

Hannah was nominated for the impressive award by her Jewart's gymnastics coach, Lainy Carslaw. Carslaw nominated her because of her positive fight back from an injury. In 2016 Hannah landed badly after a huge double back dismount from the bars on an 8-inch mat, half on and half off, causing an ankle break in 3 places and a dislocation. The potentially career ending injury took 1 1/2 years to recover from and return to the sport. Recovery included lots of rehab, getting cleared to return to the sport, and then retraining to get back to her previous skill level. Throughout it all she stayed positive and kept her strength up in the gym doing conditioning and cheering on her teammates. This past year she was able to overcome the hardest part, doing the same skill that caused her injury. She went to the same meet in Philadelphia and placed 1st not just on bars, but overall in the all-around. She continued on to go to states, regionals, winning first on floor, and was an alternate for nationals where she was only a few tenths shy.

Her coach also recognized her achievements in track. Hannah shined in the high jump and triple jump, going to WPIALS for both. At WPIALS she placed 7th for high jump. She had taken a stronger interest in track when she was not sure she'd be able to return to gymnastics. Throughout it all she kept a good attitude and demonstrated a strong work ethic.

One vehicle had to be towed from the scene due to sustained damage.

 On June 12, 2019 at 5:03 p.m., Hampton Township Police responded to Route 8, near South Pioneer Road, for a two-vehicle accident. Upon the officer's arrival, they found that both involved vehicles were blocking both southbound lanes of travel. The accident occurred when one vehicle operator was waiting to turn left to travel south on Route 8 from a parking lot. The operator failed to see an oncoming vehicle traveling north in the passing lane, as the vehicle was obscured by a line of stopped traffic in the curb lane. The operator attempted to exit the parking lot and struck the oncoming vehicle. Both vehicles sustained disabling damage and had to be towed from the scene.

 On June 18, 2019 at 11:22 a.m., Hampton Township Police responded to Mount Royal Boulevard, at Sample Road, for a two-vehicle accident. Both vehicles sustained substantial damage and were both towed from the scene.

 On June 21, 2019 at 1:28 p.m., Hampton Township Police responded to Route 8 for a three-vehicle accident. One vehicle was stopped in the northbound passing lane of Route 8 in a line of stopped traffic. A second vehicle was traveling north in the same lane of travel, and failed to stop in time, which resulted in their vehicle rear-ending the stopped car. The second involved vehicle was then struck from behind by a third vehicle. All vehicles were able to be driven from the scene and there were no reported injuries.

They Aren't Much to Look at; But the Heirloom Tomato is a Gem (originally published 8/2008)

by John Rizzo

They come in all shapes and colors and are nothing like the traditional bright red, blemish free, round and pear shaped tomatoes that we are all used to. I know when I first saw one I thought to myself, "These tomatoes are hideous." Then I tasted one and changed my whole point of view. It was firm, sweet and meaty; it was the ultimate tomato.

Heirloom tomato plants are "open pollinated" which means that the seeds grow true to their type. The tomatoes we are used to seeing are hybrid which means they were genetically altered for desirable characteristics, such as color, shape, size, plant yield and their resistance to disease. Many heirloom tomatoes come from seeds that are passed down from generation to generation.

Heirloom tomatoes are gaining in popularity and more and more farms are beginning to commercially produce these. There are literally hundreds of varieties of heirlooms to choose from ranging in colors from deep purple, bright green, yellow, and a variety of reds.

Although heirlooms are not as readily available as the hybrids, they can be found in your upscale supermarkets, whole food stores, and at the produce yards. You will often find that heirloom tomatoes are grown organically as well; meaning no pesticides, fungicides, herbicides, or chemical fertilizers.

One last significant point about heirlooms is that most of our commercial tomatoes are grown from very few varieties. If something catastrophic would happen to these crops such as pest infestation, disease or blight; it could wipe out the entire future of the commercial tomato. Heirlooms are genetically unique from each other and from commercial tomatoes; which means that many would likely survive the conditions that destroyed the commercial crop.

HOME SWEET HOME.

These are friendly words from years ago—but today, you think twice before opening your door to strangers. Will you be comfortable allowing strangers from an unfamiliar home care service into your parents' home? St. Barnabas Home Care is the answer.

For decades, we have provided home care services to people just like your parents, right in their own homes. We are not a franchise service, and every one of our employees passes a background check and drug test. Rest assured, we take caring for your family seriously.

Familiar care in the comfort of home. Contact St. Barnabas Home Care today.
