An Elegant Night at the Prom

by Diane Prem

On May 4th, couples dressed in elegant evening gowns and color-coordinated tuxedos started Prom night off strolling down the red carpet at Hampton High School flanked by paparazzi and well-wishers. They continued into the pre-party room decorated in a Hollywood theme and sipped fizzy mocktails while sampling light appetizers. For Prom Walk, visitors enjoyed a photo montage of each senior artfully compiled by Senior Erik Andersson. Then couples strutted down the stage modeling their attire along with a few comical antics to delight the audience.

Afterward, approximately 240 students traveled by bus or private limousine to the Omni William Penn Hotel downtown

Amazing Glaze is Amazingly Generous

by Lainy Carslaw

On May 15th, many people in the community came out to Amazing Glaze Donuts to help raise money for Marco Mangieri.

Just before his third birthday, Marco was diagnosed with leukemia. Sarah Cadarette, owner of Amazing Glaze, has a close relationship to the Mangieris and wanted to do something to support him and his family.

She decided, using her donut shop would be the best way to do that and on May 15th, she held the fundraiser, "Donuts for Dinner." Over a three hour period, people stopped into the shop to enjoy a donut, with 100% of the proceeds going to charity.

Thanks to her efforts, $1,900 was raised for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

"It was amazing to see the outpouring of support from the community," said Cadarette.

"We were happy to be a part of bringing awareness to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and to help such a special little boy."

Will Pilarski Honored in Muddy Mountain Run

by Dave Bianco

On May 26th, the Seven Springs Mountain Resort hosted the Kids Mud on the Mountain event. This race is a tough mudder that goes up the mountain, across, and back down for a 1.5 mile stretch of muddy, wet obstacles. This year was special for many parents and kids from Hampton because 23 boys and girls came together and formed Team Will Power in memory of their friend Will Pilarski. Will just loved getting dirty, so this mud race would have been something he would have loved to be a part of. He got that chance through the hearts of his friends and classmates

Many exciting things are happening with the Rachel Carson Trails Conservancy. The twenty-second annual Rachel Carson Trails challenge is coming up on June 23rd, 2018. This year, the Challenge starts in Harrison Hills Park at sunrise, 5:50 a.m., and ends 35 miles later in North Park at the 8:45 p.m. deadline. Yes, you can hike the entire trail in 1 day! Over 600 people hike/run the entire 35 miles however, over 200 take part in the 18 mile Homestead Challenge beginning near the Rachel Carson Homestead, and over 50 participate in the 7 mile Family & Friends Challenge starting in Hartwood Acres Park. The goal of this event is not to win but to endure!

Also, if you are up to an even greater challenge, you can sign up for the Baker Trail Ultra Challenge. This event features a 50-mile ultramarathon on the Baker Trail. This year the challenge will be held on the central section of the trail. The goal of this challenge is for you or your relay team to win, or at least finish within 14 hours!

In addition, the conservancy has created the 100 Mile Quest. Participants who complete the entire 100 miles (which also includes the Baker Trail) within 365 days can earn a cool, colorful RCTC 100 Mile patch and certificate! You can hike any of these trails any number of times to accrue miles.

Another fun activity to check out is the Geotrail. 40 geocaches have been placed along the Rachel Carson Trail and when participants find 26 caches they earn a geocoin. If all 40 are found, a wooden trackable coin is earned. Geotrail caches have "RCTC" in their name on geocaching.com for easy identification. The goal of this activity is to combine hiking with the fun sport of geocaching.

The Conservancy, named after Rachel Carson, a marine biologist and early ecologist from Springdale, Pa, is also working on expanding the trail network in Western Pennsylvania. The project is called, Many Trails, One Community. Current target areas include: Hartwood Acres to the Allegheny River, Rachel Carson to Baker Trail Connection, Harmony Trail North, and Allegheny Valley and Plum Creek Greenway.

There are many other ways you can get involved with the Conservancy besides these activities. You can volunteer to work Trail Work Days, become a Trail Steward, or even be a Hike Leader. The Conservancy is a nonprofit, volunteer-based organization dedicated to the development, protection, and promotion of

Boys Tennis Falls Short in Quarterfinals

by Gail Scott

The Hampton Boys Tennis team had a good 2018 season, finishing second in its section behind North Allegheny. The boys pulled off really exciting close matches against Moon and Butler (3-2 for both) in order to finish 8-1 overall in the section. The tennis team was 12-3 for the year.

Hampton made the WPIAL playoffs for the second straight year as the 6th seed. After beating Penn-Trafford HS in the opening round, they lost to the 3rd seed Shady Side Academy in the quarterfinals. Two doubles teams made the WPIAL tournament. The teams were Abheet Badrinath and Tim Miller as well as Ben Ringeisen and Ted Donegan. Ted and Ben also made the state doubles championships where they went 1 and 1, losing in the quarterfinals to a team from Council Rock North. The graduating seniors are Ted Donegan (captain) and Tim Miller (captain) and Sai Kondisetti.

Grant McKinney is the coach of the boys tennis team. McKinney commented; "It was a lot of fun to take two teams to the WPIAL tournament and have the shared memory. Seniors Ted and Tim did a fantastic job leading this team as captains. It was clear the team rallied behind their leadership. Abheet won the MVP award for his clutch plays throughout the year. All 8 players on the team would probably agree that the best team memory this year was going to

Rounding Third Base: The Next Step in the Journey

by Brett Burkhart

The Hampton varsity baseball team had a home run of a season this year, excelling in the regular season as well as the playoffs, promising a very bright future for the ten seniors on the team. As these young men wrap up their final high school season of America's favorite past time, they now get to look on to the next step of their future.

Greg Susi, first baseman, is a three year varsity letterman, a member of National Honor Society, and part of the CYO Basketball Diocese of Pittsburgh Champions. He plans on attending Penn State University Park to study mechanical engineering, and he advises to the underclassmen players, "Always work hard and support your teammates. Also, don't leave anything on the blue paint!" Christopher Suddeth, pitcher, remembers being able to pitch and catch at PNC Park. As a three year varsity letterman, he plans to study sports management at Xavier University. "Never take anything for granted," says Suddeth.

Third baseman, Michael Schuetz, also plans to study at Xavier in the major of sports management. As a 2 year varsity letterman, he remembers going 3-0 at Dodgertown, and his advice to the underclassmen is, "You have to put in the work to get the results you want." Kevin Morgan, pitcher, also played basketball through his school career. As a gold medal winner at the 2017 Keystone Games, Kevin shares some of his wisdom: "Enjoy your time, because it goes fast. Work hard to be the best you can be." Kevin will attend the University of Pittsburgh, Johnstown.

Outfielder, Andy Kubay, is a three year varsity letterman. One of his favorite memories is beating Mars 2-1 in his sophomore year. He too will study at Pitt in the major of supply chain management. Andy encourages his underclass teammates to build great relationships with other players. Michael DelBianco, pitcher, has played for Hampton baseball since the eighth grade. He is also a yearly volunteer for the Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix. Michael will attend Xavier University to study marketing and finance, and he has a witty and wise

Ryan Dayton, pitcher, was an individual finalist in WPIAL Golf 2017, a varsity golf and basketball captain, and an Eagle Scout. Also a member of the National Honors Society, he will attend Allegheny College and continue to golf. He encourages his teammates to focus on the positives. Phil Conti, shortstop, was selected to the Pittsburgh Pirates Scout Team in 2016 and 2017. As a PBR top 15 state ranked player and a 2018 Super 60 Pro Showcase selection, Phil enjoyed playing for the Allegheny Pirates. He is an honor student, scholar athlete and he will play Division I baseball at William and Mary.

Pitcher Matt Bagley, is a Harvard Book Prize recipient, a Morehead-Cain Scholar nominee, an AP Scholar with distinction, and a member of the National Honors Society.

As the Student Council President, he remembers overcoming adversity after returning to play his senior year from a torn labrum. Bagley will study economics at the University of Virginia. Trent Aguiar, is a center fielder. Playing Hampton baseball for four years, he became a two year starter and letterman. He played basketball for St. Catherine of Sweden for three years and enjoys fitness and working out. Trent has joined the Marines and will leave for boot camp on July 16th. Trent advises his underclassmen, "Keep your grades up so that you are not ineligible."

Our Hampton community is proud of these fine young

[soon to be] alumni. We wish you all much continued success as you round third base and head for home. The best of luck on your individual journeys, and congratulations on an outstanding season and your successful high school careers. Home Run!

Continued Success for Varsity Lacrosse Teams

Another year, another successful season for the Hampton Girls' and Boys' Lacrosse teams. The girls' team, led by Coach Kelsey Viets, repeated as WPIAL champions of Class 2-A, while the boys' team lost in the championship.

The girls' team, strong both offensively and defensively, went 18-2 in the regular season, winning their section and earning the top seed for the playoffs. After victories against Blackhawk and Mars, they defeated Quaker Valley in the finals by a score of 11-9. Unfortunately, the season ended when the team lost in the first round of the PIAA championship to Kennard-Dale. The strength of the team has been the comradery that Coach Viets has cultivated among all of the players, both JV and Varsity. She instituted a Big Sis/Little Sis mentoring program which created a strong bond between all of the girls.

The boys, led by Coach Jim Vollberg, also won their section with a regular season record of 14-5, earning the second seed, after Mars, for the playoffs. After defeating South Fayette and Quaker Valley, the boys unfortunately could not beat Mars in the finals. Having qualified for the PIAA championship, however, Hampton traveled across the state to play Palmyra in the first round. Although they made a strong showing, they ultimately lost 7-5.

Seven athletes from the boys' team were selected to the All Section team: Richy Myros, Max Saltrelli, Jake Schwarzbach, Ross Andersson, Josh Andersson, Rob Voinchet, and Isaac Gallogly. The All WPIAL boys' chosen are Ross Andersson, Robby Voinchet, Isaac Gallogly, and Richy Myros. Four athletes from the girls' team were given All Section honors: Riley Killian, Rachel Hurst, Katie Cyphers and Melinda Maers. Hurst, Killian, and Maers were also voted All WPIAL.

Given the strength of both teams and the number of returning players, Hampton can look forward to another winning season next year.

Bongiovi said, "Having moved to Hampton from North Carolina my freshman year, I am very blessed to have made a positive impact in such a short amount of time. I am incredibly thankful for all the friends I have made." McGinley said, "I think everyone deserved a crown – everyone looked gorgeous. I loved the Omni and driving in the bus and seeing Pittsburgh at night with all of my friends. It was an awesome Prom."

For the After Prom, students took a survey and voted for a shorter one held at the Omni instead of the high school. Activities included a photo booth with props, two henna tattoo artists, games, guitar hero, karaoke and Fortnite. For the final hour, a hypnotist provided nonstop laughter as students watched their peers perform one hilarious feat after another. "It was crazy to see your classmates be hypnotized and to wonder how it actually works. Everything was great," said Junior Burke Camper. Seniors Sarah Wolf and Madeline Bailey said, "I like the new things they added – the Pre-Party and the red carpet walking in -- it was a very nice touch. I like not having the After Prom at school and that it finishes earlier." Each attendee received a commemorative water bottle and their personalized Hollywood Walk of Fame Star. The evening ended at 12:30 am, and students were handed breakfast treats before embarking home.

Depreciation Lands Museum

What did we eat out here on the Western Pennsylvania frontier? How did we cook our food?

Naturally, it depended very much on your circumstances. A hunter living for weeks in the woods ate mostly what he found. The settlers, struggling to feed their families in those early years ate simple meals of what they could grow, hunt or collect. Soldiers on the move had their rations, while the tavern keeper needed meals and beverages for his public.

Both hunters and settlers had a need to preserve their meats by first salting, and then smoking them.

Throughout the village, you will visit with all these folks as they go about their everyday tasks, preparing their daily meal. Stop to chat and learn more about their way of life.

As always, school will also be in session in the one-room school house and the village blacksmith, spinners & weavers, and woodworkers will be busy with their trades. Surround yourself with history! See you soon in the 18th Century! The Depreciation Lands Museum, 4743 S. Pioneer Rd, Allison Park, PA 15101. For more information call 412-486-0563.

Gene Kelly Awards

The character of Cookie McGee was one of the most enjoyable characters in the show to watch. Cookie was funny and unpredictable. Joe, a sophomore, said he really loved playing the part of Cookie. "I was able to go up on stage without any prior knowledge of his character and just perform the way the words on the page felt to me. It got to a point where I wasn't even acting. I just sort of became Cookie. The character was even slipping into the way I was interacting with people outside of the musical which I found hilarious."

This was the 13th year that Hampton has participated in the Gene Kelly Awards for Excellence in High School Musical Theatre. The Hampton cast had the honor of performing a number from "Nice Work" live at the show because they were nominated for Best Musical. This marked the 8th time in 13 years that Hampton was nominated for Best Musical. The cast performed a song and tap dance number from the show called "Fascinating Rhythm" that allowed for the full cast to perform on the Benedum stage.

Joe Fish, Best Supporting Actor

The show's director,

Dan Franklin, said, "Hampton put on a stellar performance! In my opinion, their performance that night may have been one of the best times I've seen them perform the number. The audience response throughout was electric and you could tell that they enjoyed it." The musical was a heavy dance show this year. Musical Co-Director and Choreographer Jennifer Lavella commented, "I am so proud of Hampton's students for all of the hard work that they put into "Nice Work" this year! We knew before starting rehearsals that there would be a great deal of dancing and complex choreography, but our kids took on the challenge. It's an amazing experience to see a group of students work together towards a common goal; these kids strove for excellence and absolutely achieved it! They continue to inspire me year after year!"

State Representative Hal English followed by remarks from State Senator, Randy Vulakovich and the posting of colors by Hampton HS U. S. History teacher, Tom Gleason. A moving rendition of the National Anthem was played by volunteers of the HHS Band. Next, Scouts from Troop 17 recited the Pledge of Allegiance and the crowd was welcomed by American Legion Post 296 Commander, Mark Hieber. Other touching moments included the reading of WWI poem, "In Flanders Fields" by the Boy Scouts, and the reading of the Gettysburg address along with the presentation of the flowers in front of the memorial by the local Girl Scout troop. most moving part of the entire celebration occurred when all of the veterans in attendance proudly walked up and encircled the memorial while the band played the Marches of the Armed Forces. ## Active Shooter Response (ALICE) Training for Hampton Residents

Where: Hampton Township Community Center

When: Sunday, July 22, 2018

Time: 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. Cost: FREE

Do you feel prepared to respond if you find yourself in an active shooter incident? Do you know what action you can take that would dramatically increase your chance of survival? Do you know how to respond to an active shooter in a movie theater, shopping mall, concert, school campus, place of employment or any other public place?

If you answered "no" to any of these questions, then you should sign up for the Active Shooter Response Training sponsored by the Hampton Township Police Department and Hampton Township School District (training is free, but space is limited)

The ALICE training and exercises will teach participants not only an understanding of the threats faced, but also the risks and options available in active shooter incidents. ALICE is a nationally recognized program taught by certified instructors. ALICE Training has been implemented since 2015 in the Hampton Township School District and is now being offered to all residents of Hampton Township free of cost. The program will be instructed by Chief Thomas Vulakovich, Officer Aaron Zola from the Hampton Township Police Department and Dr. Rebecca Cunningham, the Assistant Superintendent of the Hampton Township School District. All three are certified instructors for the ALICE Training.

The ALICE training consists of two parts. The first part of the instruction will be classroom. The second part of the instruction will practice the skills that were learned in the classroom by engaging in various scenarios. It is suggested, but not necessary, for participants to engage in both aspects of the training. It is recommended that anyone who is pregnant or has existing injuries or physical disabilities not participate in the active shooter exercises since it will require physical exertion. These individuals are invited to observe the physical scenarios from a safe distance.

Please join us for a 4-hour class in which you will learn:

- ◆ Run, hide, fight
- ◆ ALICE (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate)
- ◆ The difference between Shelter-in-Place and Lockdown
- ◆ How to properly lockdown and secure a room
- ◆ How to counter an active shooter's aggression

All attendees will be required to sign a "Release of Liability Waiver" in order to participate in the program (release

Hampton Band Commemorates Ryan McCutcheon

by Diane Prem

Hampton High School's band performed the world premiere of Beacons of Light on May 16th. The approximately six-minute composition was an emotionally moving experience that brought everyone to their feet in a standing ovation. It was commissioned by the band to honor the memory of Ryan McCutcheon. Ryan was a Drumline Percussion Instructor at Hampton while attending Robert Morris University when he passed away suddenly last fall at age 19. The Band commissioned Chad Heiny, percussionist, composer, and Assistant Director of Bands and Percussion at Kiski Area High School, to write the piece. Heiny conducted the premiere performed by the 16 members of the marching band percussion section along with Percussion Instructor Mr. Hickly. "Beacons of Light ... portrays the frailty, hope, reverence, and finally deliverance involved in processing the loss of one that means so much to so many," stated Heiny. Band Director Chad Himmler said, "You all sound so good. It's truly been a privilege to be able to work on this piece with you!"

Congratulations on the outstanding premiere of Beacons of Light! Performing the composition were all of the high school percussionists: Rose Brienza, Reid Burger, Liam Casey, Chris Chengshi, Micaela Ebberly, Elliott Gmiter, Nathan Hutchison, Tyler Lapiana, Grace Modlin, Evan Prem, Shane Ritz, Sriram Schelbert, Jessica Stuftt, Lizzie Waters, Benji Wilkins, along with instructor Matt Hickly. They all signed Heiny's original score and it was presented to McCutcheon's parents.

Recycle Rama Recap

by Danelle Jameson

The 11th Annual Recycle Rama was held at Hampton High School and Hampton Community Park. The main attraction and collection was the electronics station, sponsored by JVS. We had plenty of adult and student helpers who worked for over 3 hours unloading electronics from cars. The Hampton Police and Hampton Fire Police kept traffic moving and in good order on Topnick Drive and through Hampton Park and the high school grounds. Several volunteers collected puzzles, books, and games which were given to anyone who

Innovative Outdoor Program for Children

Are you worried that your child is spending too much time on electronics? Are you concerned they are not getting outside as much as they should be? Are you troubled that they seem to know the name of every single player on Fortnite, but can't name the flowers growing in your own front yard?

If these questions keep you up at night, than you are joining an increasing number of parents who want their kids to get back to a simpler, more interactive, and creative time—where they built forts outside, caught fireflies in hand-made jars, and searched for creepy-crawly things hidden under rocks.

Because of the growing demographic of concerned parents and the overwhelming research that shows the benefits of getting outside, nature schools are popping up all over the United States. And we have our very own, right here in Hampton.

The Wild Woods opened its outdoor classroom in the woods behind Jewart's Gymnastics last fall. The students range from age 3-6 years old and attend two or three afternoons a week. Come rain, shine, snow, or sleet, these preschoolers can be found outside digging, exploring, and discovering.

And they are also getting other benefits they may not even realize. Studies agree that kids who spend more time outdoors are happier, more confident, and more creative. Being outside teaches them responsibility, gets them moving, and reduces stress. You know what a little fresh air can do for you and that is only intensified when it comes to a child.

Nature Deficit Disorder is a growing problem in our society. While kids spend only an average of four to seven minutes outside engaging in unstructured play, they spend an average of seven hours inside watching a screen. The increase of screen time has been linked to major health issues and a child's ability to focus.

Head instructor at the Wild Woods, Pat Hilko, is familiar with this problem and working to combat it by helping kids get back outside. Hilko has a degree in Environmental Studies and received his nature school certification at Cedarsong Nature school in Oregon.

"Nature has played a crucial role in my life and I want to make sure in today's fast paced world that kids have an opportunity to slow down, be in nature, and learn from all it has to offer."

The Wild Woods is currently accepting applications for the fall semester. Times and prices can be found at www.jewarts.com.

Recycle Rama

wanted to take some home, a few different charities, and Shaler North Hills Library. Other items collected were eye glasses and sunglasses, Halloween costumes, towels, blankets, and animal toys for Animal Friends, medical supplies, craft items, batteries and light bulbs, scrap metal, and bikes that will be repaired and given to people in need. Sports items and spirit wear were also free for anyone to take, as were business attire and shoes. The Salvation Army truck was present as well to collect items. Representative Hal English once again sponsored a truck to collect papers to be taken off site and shredded.

For the most part, people were very patient with the traffic and we received a lot of positive feedback. Our committee, which is comprised mostly of volunteers and some Hampton Township employees, felt it was another great community event and a very successful day in terms of repurposing items and keeping them out of landfills.
