

Bus Tour - New York City

December 11-12, 2021

Departs Lancaster & Ephrata, Pa.

Christmas in New York City is Legendary

New York City has so much Christmas spirit, it inspired Clement Moore Clarke's famous poem 'Twas the Night before Christmas.' In addition, Miracle on 34th Street took place in NYC. This movie proved Santa resides at Macy's and it's been an iconic place to visit during a Christmas in NYC.

Rockefeller Christmas Tree - If you're a super-fan of Christmas, you're pretty familiar with the Rockefeller Christmas Tree. Radio City Christmas Spectacular - The Radio City Rockettes are an undeniable part of any celebration during Christmas in NYC. 5th Avenue Window Displays - Take a stroll 5th avenue, from 34th street to 58th street, to view storefronts festooned with holiday décor. The Nutcracker - The New York City Ballet's The Nutcracker is simply enchanting. Bank of America Winter Village - This Winter Village in Bryant Park is a one-stop holiday haven. New York Botanical Gardens Holiday Train Show - The Holiday Train Show is a Christmas tradition in NYC. More than 20 miniature model trains. Rockefeller Plaza - Rockefeller Plaza is the capital of Christmas in NYC. A larger-than-life Christmas tree adorns the plaza. Right in front of it all is The Rink, the most iconic place to skate during Christmas in NYC. Santaland at Macy's - Macy's holiday window displays aren't the only thing to see at this department store. Come inside to visit Santaland, a magnificent showcase of all things Christmas. Ice Skating in Central Park - Skating at Wollman Rink in Central Park is a beloved tradition of New York locals. Union Square Holiday Market - Internationally renowned, the Union Square Holiday Market is an excellent place to do your holiday shopping. Bonus: Giant Christmas Ornaments Across the city, you can also find Giant Christmas Ornaments decorating city blocks. Standouts include giant red ornament balls on 6th Avenue near Radio City Music Hall, as well as large vintage-style Christmas light bulbs in front of the McGraw-Hill building at 1221 6th Avenue.
