Note: The JDFM does not have access to microphones, speakers, tables, tents or chairs. You'll need to bring all that's required to make your event a success. Additionally, power cords, cord covers to prevent tripping, signage, is all encouraged to promote a better visitor experience. Most of the customers are at the market from 8-10am, so we ask you to begin by 8:00am for the best coverage to promote your group and have entertainment for our market. You may park near the deck area to unload and then park in the nearby grassy areas for ease of set up and take down. Normally the location of your programming will be on the east side of the deck.

Additionally, 5% commission is charged for any merchandise sales, but sales are permitted and encouraged to promote your organization.
