

PRIVACY AND DISCLAIMER

Explanation and Acknowledgement of our Organization's Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Information Rehabilitation Network Canada Inc. is committed to protecting client privacy through its policies. RNC's policies and practices are in keeping with standards of client confidentiality, in keeping with PIPEDA and FIPPA.

It is important to collect pertinent client personal information to provide the best services possible through your informed consent. The services you are going to receive are funded in part by Canada, and therefore the Ministry of Labour, Training and Skills Development (MLTSD) requires us to collect data to access services/programs. By signing an Employment Ontario (EO) contract, you are agreeing to the Ministry's collection, use and disclosure of your personal information, relevant only for services we may provide, in keeping with laws and regulations set down by (MLTSD).

When clients provide consent, they also provide the Ministry permission to collect information about them from third parties and to share information about a client with third parties. Information collected is used to determine which employment services/programs best meets your needs to provide personalized service. You may have possible access to: facilitation, assessments, tests, case management/ counselling, job development and other client services/programs. A history of the service plan and/or activities for employment services will be collected. Personal information that is collected from our clients and partners will be retained, or destroyed, in accordance with company policy, agreement obligation and/or local laws.

Rehabilitation Network Canada Inc. has links to other sites on our website, which may not comply with our privacy policy. Websites may contain links to other sites that may/or may not abide by privacy principles. Rehabilitation Network Canada Inc. will not be held responsible for the content or privacy practices of third party websites. Rehabilitation Network Canada Inc. is not responsible for the content or privacy practices associated with these websites. Any questions or concerns with respect to the above should be communicated directly to RNC's management.