Somewhere in England
December 17, 1948

Dear mother, Daddy, and Jr.,

I got a letter from Leone - it was a V-mail letter.

I also got a letter from Charles Spencer, he asked for a letter of recommendation as he had been notified that he could go through aviation cadet training again, but as a bombardier. I sent him the recommendation and hope it gets there in time.

We have been making chairs, tables, and other gadgets in spare moments and have our hut sorta honsey. I made an easy chair something like the porch chair Daddy made - of course we don't have much to work with - one very large bald-peen hammer, pair of pliers, one bent screw driver, and a old beat up rip saw. The nails are just the few we straighten out after pulling them from precious boards - we picked up some English horse shoe nails too - We don't have anything to measure with therefore nothing fits very well -

I hope you haven't forgotten the package I asked for with stationery included in it. I know you didn't forget it, but it sure seems like a long time between us interpreted in mail time. I read in the paper over here of a cute ditty called the Gunner's Prayer - "yea, tho I fly through the Valley of the Rhur, my guns are with me, ~~and~~ my Pilot and Copilot. They comfort me and my navigator shall not lead me astray - I hope"

Did you ever receive my watch?

We have been getting some English winter apples and they are good eating - small, but good.

By the way Aunt Lula sent a five dollar money order - the way she talked you must have given the $5 check back to her - I thought you would just treat it up and forget about it. So I don't know what to do about it now -

Well, I have about twenty four more trips to make, then I can come home.

Love
Robert
