Dear Louise,

I am guessing that you are all settled down with Pauline by now. I hope you like it here. Tell Pauline hello also Dorothy Gardner. So Margerite Nobles is teaching school now, that makes me wonder just how many changes there will be in the old home town when I get back. I gather from the news I have been getting that everyone I know are married, moved away, and raising a family except maybe one or two. Please send my congratulations to Constance. I know she is proud of her little boy. I get a letter once in a while from Ida Mae Hudson, so write her for me and let her know I appreciate her letters. She was very friendly and entertained me when I was in school there.

None of the books I asked for have come in yet, I guess it takes some time.

I wish you could send a steak and a bottle of beer - Ha! I am all right. I send all my love.

Robert
