Dear Robert:

How are you feeling to-day?
Trust you are well. We sure miss you, and want you to know we are interested in you, and always glad to hear from you, I usually see your mother down town or your Dad passing our office on the way to Post Office & we ask him also about you.

Sure lonesome now as so many of our young men and women are away in the Service:

I saw Eva Louise while she was home visiting, she & your mother came by the office and visited awhile. Eva Louise sure looked well, and your mother really enjoyed her visit, more so at this time.

We are having nice spring
weather, fruit trees are budding & lilacs blooming & won't be long now until every thing will be pretty and green.

Robert remember we are thinking of you & trust you are well and that it won't be long before we can see you.
Until then as J.C. says it is Chin up, for all.

With kindest regards
your friends

Mr + Mrs Jno C. Turner.
