

Prisoner of War.

Lt. R. L. Fowler
Stalag Luft I Via
Stalag Luft III
Germany

% P. M. New York City, N. Y.

11386
U.S. CENSOR

3-24-44.

Dearest one,

I just finished a letter to Louise so thought I would drop you a few lines too.

I am still working as hard as ever.

The folks are trying to get me to go on to college but haven't fully decided as yet what I will do. There are so many things that I want to do that it seems as tho' I can't settle down to only one thing.

Saw a very cute show last evening, "Girl Crazy" starring Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland. I mean every-one in the theatre was roaring because it was so funny.

Robert, the latest song is — "I wish I could get inside this letter and seal me up and send me off to you". How true this is. Really, I mean it - from the bottom of my heart.

Now, I sent Louise my uncle's address. He is almost 30 and is single. He stayed awhile with us when we lived in Hamlin. You might have known him. He helped dad
a lot in the store.

H. Preston seems to be very happy with married life.

He is gone from here now.
Bye, bye for now - I've got to run or I will miss my bus.

Always,
Shirley

