Dearest Folks,

We had a real hard ball game today with regular uniforms, steel cleated shoes and hard wood bats.

Letters and packages are coming in the camp much oftener. Officers that have been here a month longer than I are receiving cigarettes, pipes, tobacco, chocolate, summer clothing, soap, cigars, coffee, sugar, soup cans, toilet kits and many other things. I will be looking for my package next month.

The talented officers of the camp have produced two good plays, one play was a J.B. Priestly and the other was a Bernard Shaw play. of course the feminine parts were necessarily impersonated.

Do not worry about me. I am alright.

I send all my love to all of you -

Robert
