

Prisoner of War

Via Air Mail

Received October 17, 1944

2nd Lt. Robert L. Fowler
American POW #1895
Stalag Luft III
(via Stalag Luft I ~~II~~), Germany
VIA: New York, New York.

11186
U.S. CENSOR

Miss Eva Louise Fowler
1867 Kalorama Road, N.W.
Washington 9, D. C.
U. S. A.

EXAMINED BY

EXAMINED

May 16, 1944
1867 Kalorama Rd., N.W.
Washington 9, D. C.

Dearest Robert,

This week we learned that our cable did not go through to you. We are very sorry, but hope that our letters will reach you soon.

Last week Constance and Loren were here. Constance flew home and we saw her off. She admitted to me in a letter that she is not very well "air-conditioned" as she was rather sick at the first stop. Peggy will be coming home soon with her two children, as L. C. will be busy. Won't the Teagues have their hands full with two and soon three grandchildren?

Over the week-end Barbara came down from Philadelphia to visit me. On Saturday night I had a surprise visit from Dean Redus. So all of us went to the movies and had a grand time.

Sunday morning we went to church. While I am there I always think of you, home, and the folks. It was Mother's Day. I sent Mother a subscription to a magazine and a pair of hose.

Laurence King was home visiting his wife and new baby daughter who live with his grandmother. Loy Fry did not finish up, but was home on a visit. Mattie Logan wrote that Mack Daniels was killed. Jeanne McCarthy is sending out wedding announcements Mrs. Mack is in San Antonio. Next month I plan to go to Georgia on a week-end to see Brud. He is following the itinerary that Billy McCough went through. Mother and Daddy are fine, but miss their children. Fishing season has opened, so Daddy has been out at the lake a great deal.

To reach you in time, I'll begin now to wish you our best of birthday wishes!

All our love

Louise + Folks
Louise.