Dearest Robert,

In March I tried to send you a cable through the American Red Cross,

I want to assure you the family is all well and rejoicing that you are alive.

Everyone asks about you and you are the hero of our home town!

I'll give you a survey of the events of home. Elizabeth Meadows married the McCelvey boy from Temple, and they are living near Corpus Christi. Margie is in Virginia with her husband. About two weeks ago Constance went home from Va. She will become a mother in June and Rosemary Carlton Adams will have her baby in September.

Paul Junior is still at Gulfport, Mississippi. I hope he gets to visit at home soon. He has been away since January.

Mary Emily Eakin married a fellow who works for the same oil company she does in Louisiana. Virginia Sue Flowers married in Fort Worth to a fellow from South Carolina. James Nicholson married his college girl friend in California. Both Fred B. and Lanny were home recently with their wives. They double-dated with E. J. and his wife. Clifford and Lovell are home from California bidding their time. Helen R. received her card which mentioned Eddie. This was the first time anyone had heard good news about him. All other reports had been bad in his behalf. His wife's joy is ours. Mother corresponds with all of the families. It helps and everyone shares their news.

On March 2nd we received our first letter from you and that was our happy day. But now we are looking for another one. We think of you all of the time and are eager for your return. If things were not going right at home, I was going to resign or be transferred, but all is fine.
The fishing season is open and Daddy is enjoying that.
Our old white cat had two little kittens with fuzzy hair.
So people were glad to have them and we did not have to have any more carting of them off. Remember the day you and Leone carried them off. Ha! Love, Louise
