Dear Robert,

I got a letter from Mother today & she said that she had received two letters from you in the past two weeks. We are all glad to hear from you & hope that you continue to receive aid from the Red Cross, for I know they are doing everything possible to make you comfortable.

You spoke of ball games in your last letter & I, too, am playing softball occasionally. I think we are to play in a league soon.

I read in the Herald that Inzer's have taken out their fountain; it just won't seem like the same store with the fountain gone & I guess that leaves Billy's out, too.

Daddy, Mother, & Louise are well although I haven't left school to see them for quite some time. Louise sent me a year's subscription of The Reader's Digest. It was really sweet of her to think of me. I also have a wonderful brother - the best.

Thinking of you many times throughout the day.

Love,
Paul
