Dearest Robert,

Our last letter from you was Feb. 21st. I do hope you are well. I talk about you so much I bet all of my friends get bored stiff; but they always ask about you. Last week I mailed a package to you. Brud was here to help me. The list to choose from was quite varied. I hope I sent some of the things you can go for. Example one is chewing gum.

Phyllis Gay Milsap has a little baby boy. On June 3rd Dean Redus married a girl from Lubbock in Rhode Island. They went to Tech together. Now they are living in New York. I must admit that I was rather surprised as the last week-end in May Dean was here visiting me and never said word one about his bride-to-be.

Last week Brud came to town to see me. We really had fun. We went sightseeing, bike-riding, night-clubbing, and on the Potomac River boat cruise one night. He is really wooing me right. He left on Friday, but was back on Saturday night for the week-end. Right now he is in Maryland. About 200 quit that old racket. They had more than they could handle. So Brud and his friends quit and are going back to their old jobs which they like much better. We are not getting married now, says me! Ha!

Thomas Williams is now at Abilene. Charles Tignor, our cousin, is in Leone's town. One week-end, H.A's girl from Temple went to visit him and stayed with Leone. Loy Fry is in Miami.

While Brud was home he met Kathryn Gardner who said she was tired of teaching school and was going to Abilene to get a job. Clifford Reynolds was home then also. Every one goes fishing or to the movies. Ada Jane and Marjorie Riddle keep the town alive. Laurence King is also in Abilene now with Thomas. Leane has gone to Lincoln for a visit. The younger generation at home informed Mother that Paul Junior will be home next month. Little Faye Martin is taking leave from her work in California to be there for Paul. H'M?

I love you - Louise
