Dear mother and Daddy,

On the last day of last month I received three letters and one ^{was} from you. I was relieved that you had heard from me. Two tobacco parcels and nine letters is the total mail I have received.

Some of the fellows have received game, book, and second clothing parcels.

Our garden has furnished us beets, lettuce, carrots, a few peas, and many radishes.

Riley received two cartons of pipe tobacco last week. We traded a few packets, for a change of brand is an added pleasure occasionally.

The library is enlarged occasionally with new books from Y.M.C.A.

I am still in good health and certainly hope you are all the same.

Send my love and regards to Junior and Louise.

Love

Robert
