April 1944

Dearest Robert, Another busy fall and the town is filled with Mexicans and cotton pickers. A large carnival is here near the Bryan Lumber Co., one block off main street. Rummage sales are doing a big business on each Saturday in town by different organizations. Houses are selling good now and one can hardly find a rent house. Mrs. Sauls is going to sell her house. Martie Jean has been working in Houston and is now on a trip to Arizona and California. (They say she had a nervous breakdown, but it sounds like a racket to me!) Constance has been at our church with the Griffin family with her little son two or three times. He is a fine looking baby.

Aunt Lulu and Christine have visited us. Lulu and Carol came a week earlier than Christine. We just fell in love with Carol. She will be two years old in November. Christine made a fruit cake for Elmer and mailed it. They also visited in Abilene and Valera. I have seen you twice in my dreams and you were here at home and everything was all right. I hope soon my dreams will come true. I hope by now you have had several letters. I am looking for a letter from you any day now. We surely do rejoice when we hear from you. I almost memorize your letters. Every one asks about you. Avis and his wife ask of you. So your name is mentioned from coast to coast. They say the Post Office form letters go faster, so I will get Louise to type my letters as they must be typed or printed. The Praters are expecting Charles and Arlie Cassle home. Maybe they have seen Paul Junior. I will ask them. I thanked the Stephenville Legion for you. They had a nice writeup in Stephenville paper about you and three others who had received and thanked them. Tell us what to send you. It is time for the Stamford and Hamlin football game this week. I saw Marguerite Nobles coaching the Pep Squad girls for the game. The Stamford and Coleman primary schools have closed. The TCU and A&M game is also this week. Joan Gulbersen and TSCW college girls are going to the game and dance." John left this week, so on Sunday I moved over to South east into the apartment with Pauline and Sharon. Write soon. All of our love, Mother & Louise
