Dearest Robert,

Dec. 22nd 1944

We have just received your letter dated July 28 - Do hope you have received some mail from us. Also some of the packages. Tiny has moved to Canal St. S.W. and is doing fine. -

Mother and I are well and fine

So is Louise, - We sent her some Bare grass, Mistletoe, and Fretoes - That is a Real Treat where she is - I see Tom Taylor Every day or Two.

I yanked all his teeth and put in some store bought ones. - He sends his regards and has written several letters. - We hear from all the Crew Family's -

Don't think we have forgotten you. - Keep writing -

We had a letter from Miss Barnes, saying she had a card from you in Dec. dated July - Keep the spirit up.

Grand Mother and Grand Daddy are well and send you lots of love. - We are writing once each week - Lots of love to you from all of us,

Paul
