Dearest Louise,

I just received two letters from you, Nov. 9, and 29th. It is the first mail since Christmas Eve that I have received. So you can imagine how pleased I am. I am very glad to hear all the news although it resembles a marital column. Tom's marriage shouldn't have surprised me as it did, nevertheless please send Tom and Helen my best regards. Being that Tom and Charles Prater are married now, that leaves me practically the sole survivor and champion of our home town bachelordom. Even you, little sister, hint of matrimony! Hello to Pauline and Dorothy. I appreciate the interest of Barbara and your other friends, thank them for me. I hope the family is still all right. I'm glad Daddy went on a hunting trip. Mother probably needs a jaunt around to the kinfolks. She need not stay at home all the time now. By the way I have not heard from Shirley, probably married or discouraged. So very glad to hear from you. Love fall

Robert
