Managers: Please make sure and check in with proof of insurance and birth certificate for each rostered player

Metal Cleats are not allowed in 8u-11u, metals cleats ok in 12u-16u except on portable mounds

Noise makers are NOT permitted during tournament play.

NO Alcoholic beverages allowed. Coaches must inform your parents “no drinking of any kind of alcoholic beverages is allowed ANYWHERE near the fields”.

Parents in violation of this may cause your team to forfeit

A pitcher can still step toward second and not throw to that base.

Baseball Rules (8U thru 18U Divisions)

Mandatory team check in is:

One hour before your first game time. Your team must have the following items: (A) Official Team Roster Form, (B) Valid team insurance with team name as insured, (C) Copies of birth certificates for all participating players. IMPORTANT: Your respective game will not start until all documentation and/or payment has been received. Game will be a forfeit if this is not done in a timely manner. *Please Note: Any player without birth certificate is not eligible to play until copy of birth certificate, or some other acceptable proof of age is produced and approved by tournament director. Player age documentation must be present with team manager for the duration of any given tournament.

Age divisions are based on the following:

This tournament ages 8's thru 18's will use the May 1, 2019 age cutoff date. To determine your team's age, determine your oldest player's age as of April 30th. Player participating in a given division cannot turn the next age before May 1st. Example: Player in 10U division cannot turn 11 before May 1st or he is too old for that division and must play in the 11U division. Players may play up but not down in age.

Field dimensions:

Age Division Distances= 8u 43ft. mound, 60ft. bases. 9U 46ft. mound, 65 ft. bases with leadoffs, 10u – 46 ft. mound, 65 ft. bases with leadoffs, 11 & 12 – 50 ft. mound 70 ft. bases, 13u (54/80) dependent on field availability. 13- 18 60 ft. mound, 90 ft. bases (High School Fields)

Managers must report and verify score of each of their games:

Team Managers are required to report and verify their scores immediately following completion of all pool play games during the tournament. Please verify the accuracy of the score before leaving the complex, that game score will be reported to the tournament director. If you see an incorrect score on the bracket please report the error to the tournament director immediately following your game.

Playoff seeding is determined by:

- 1. Total Record (Winning Percentage)
- 2. Head to Head (Moves onto Runs Allowed with 3 teams)
- 3. Runs Allowed
- 4. Runs Scored
- 5. Coin Flip

Managers, upon completion of all pool play games in your division, please check the official tournament seeding posted to confirm your team's seeding for the playoff round. Managers please note that if you should feel that your seeding is in error please contact the tournament director immediately by phone or in person at tournament site.

Pitching limitations & rules:

There are no pitching limitations in this tournament play. Parents and managers please use common sense. If a pitcher is removed from the mound, he may not pitch again during that same game.

Metal cleats:

Allowed in ages 12u - 18u Only!!! Except on Portable mounds

Slide or avoid rule:

Is in effect at all age levels. Any player is out when the runner does not slide or makes no attempt to avoid a defensive player while in position of the ball (or is judged to be in the act of catching the ball) and waiting to make a tag. All players are required to avoid collision with another player while running the bases. If, in the judgement of the umpire, the runner does not make an effort to avoid collision, he is to be declared out. If in the judgement of the umpire the act is deemed to be malicious, the runner will be ejected from the game. Base runners are not allowed to maliciously go after a defensive player to break up a play at any base.

Flagrant collision:

When there is a collision between a runner and a fielder who is clearly in possession of the ball, the umpire shall judge whether the collision was avoidable and whether the runner was attempting to dislodge the ball or simply attempting to reach the base. If the runner is judged to have attempted to intentionally dislodge the ball, the runner shall be called "Out", the ball is dead, and all runners return to their last base touched at the time of the interference. Any player, in the judgment of the umpire, flagrantly colliding with any fielder is subject to immediate ejection.

Head coaches responsible for players, fans and team conduct:

Head coaches are held responsible for the conduct of their players, coaches and fans. Game personnel (including spectators) shall not use language or gestures that will, in any manner, refer to, or reflect negatively toward opposing players, Coaches, umpires, or spectators. PENALTY: In the case of unruly fans or unsportsmanlike conduct from fan(s) the team's head coach will be given the opportunity to inform fan(s) that their behavior is subject to that fan(s) being ejected from the game and from the park. If once fan(s) is warned by manager and behavior persists fan(s) will be ejected from park. If head coach does not warn fan and behavior continues both head coach and fan will be ejected.

Head coach only allowed to appeal to umpire:

Only head coaches or recognized head coach is allowed to appeal to umpires during the game and all conversations with an umpire should be conducted after a time out has been called and be held in a calm and professional manner. Verbal abuse of the umpire will not be tolerated and may result in ejection from the game. Assistant coaches that do not adhere to this rule are subject to immediate ejection from game.

Head coach and a max of 3 coaches allowed in dugout:

During games a max of 4 coaches, 1 head coach and 3 assistant coaches, will be allowed. The coaching staff may not exceed a total of 4 coaches at any time during any game at any age division. All assistant coaches must be listed on your team's roster. In addition, no one other than official coaches and players are allowed in the dugout at any time.

All ejections of head coaches & coaches:

Any head coach or assistant coach ejected from the game is required to sit out the next game at Tourney Director's discretion and/or severity of action that caused the ejection. After being ejected, a head coach or assistant coach must vacate the premises of the current game and the next game of which he is suspended. Any head coach caught continuing to coach after being ejected or suspended will be suspended for an additional period of time and/or possibly the remainder of the event.

Player ejections:

Player ejections: Any player ejected from a game is subject to an additional one game suspension at the tournament director's discretion and/or severity of action that caused the ejection.

Game misconduct:

No coach, player, or team shall, at any time, whether from the bench, coaching box, or playing field, attempt to incite by word or sign, any unsportsmanlike conduct or demonstration by spectators.

Penalty: Offending team member is subject to immediate ejection from game. (Profanity of any sort is strictly prohibited and is grounds for immediate ejection)

Post-game misconduct:

If a team, coach or player displays misconduct or poor sportsmanship AFTER a game has concluded, the player or coach may be ejected from the next game or at the directors discretion – the team may forfeit the next game – or may be suspended for the remainder of the tournament. (No refund of fees no matter how many games played)

Failure to leave park after being ejected from game: If any head coach, coach or fan, upon being ejected during game, refuses to leave the park in a timely manner determined by the tournament director the game shall be deemed a forfeit.

Team Line-Up Card: Must be turned in to Home Plate Umpire at or before Home Plate meeting before the beginning of each game. All players participating in game must be entered on official team line-up card to be eligible to participate in game. Note: Any players arriving after start of game must be listed on the team line-up card that is turned in to the umpires prior to the start of the game to be eligible to play.

ATTENTION: No “Sunday Only” players, a player must participate on Saturday or be listed on roster to be eligible to play Sunday unless previously approved by Tournament Director; name and number of player must be reported to Director prior to starting pool play Saturday. No duplicate uniform numbers allowed. If a player is not able to play Saturday for whatever reason, that player must be on roster to be eligible to play Sunday. Once roster is submitted (before your first game) you may not add players, NO EXCEPTIONS! Make sure all your players are on your roster before your first game.

Teams may elect to bat 9 or 10 players with the 10th player as an EH. Managers will also have the choice of batting the whole roster

Team must field a minimum of 8 players to start game. If a team has less than 8 players at game time, team will forfeit game. Teams may also bat entire roster in age division 9U thru 16U. Teams electing to bat their entire roster should note that in case of a player not being able to continue due to injury will only be an out the first time that player's spot comes up in the batting order, however in the case of a player ejection, the ejected player's spot will be an out every time that player's spot comes up in the batting order. Starters may re-enter one time only in their original batting order.

DH is not permitted in any age divisions. NOTE: In the event of a player being injured during the course of a game and injured player cannot continue and the team has no more players with eligibility (subs have been used) the last declared substitute used by respective team then will be allowed to sub for the injured player. No outs are declared at this point. This exception is used to promote player safety and in the spirit of fair play.

Extra Hitter:

A team may use the EH, (extra hitter) if desired in any (Ages 9 thru 18) game. The manager must declare the use of an EH prior to the start of the game. The EH position shall be considered the same as any other position. Normal substitution rules apply. However, any team that begins play using an EH, must maintain a 10-player line-up throughout the game. If, due to injury, a team shall fail to field nine players, an out shall be recorded each time the EH was to have come to bat. Note: The extra hitter listed on the original line-up is considered the extra hitter for the entire game no matter what defensive position he assumes during the game. The extra hitter may occupy any position in the batting order. Once the game has commenced, the position of the EH in the batting line-up cannot change during the game.

Jewelry prohibited:

With exception of Medical Alert bracelets. One warning be given per team followed by player (possible) ejection for ensuing infractions by players of the team for the remainder of the game.
