ABOUT THE COMPANY

Welcome to Sakshi Packers- Cornering Perfection, Packaging Protection. Established in the year 2000, we have built a formidable legacy as a leading manufacturer of angle boards, OD/ID protectors, angle trays, flat boards, and laminated sheets.

We work to understand the specifics of your protective packaging needs, from a single product for use in your existing installation to turnkey end-of-line packaging design, installation and service, for most industries. With the size and reach to create solutions globally and implement locally, we're able to create opportunities for your business' success working together to make a complete, integrated system.

QUALITY POLICY

At Sakshi Packers, quality is not just a standard; it's a commitment ingrained in our ethos. Embracing the highest international benchmarks, we maintain a zero-tolerance policy towards subpar quality, ensuring that every product aligns with our legacy of exceptional standards. With an unwavering focus on customer satisfaction, we continuously improve our processes, foster sustainability through the use of recycled paper, and drive innovation.

OUR GOAL

Our goal is to help our customers develop the best sustainable packaging to protect their goods from manufacture location to the ultimate user/consumer. This is done by analyzing your goods, packaging, transit, handling and distribution and then providing protective packaging that is sustainable. Sustainable packaging is designed to protect goods intended for industrial and end user consumption. Our packaging goes a step further by providing protection with minimal waste and resource consumption. Protecting goods as they travel from manufacturer to distributor and distributor to retailer is where Angleboard products can help.

Welcome to the heart of innovation and precision – the state-of-the-art infrastructure of Sakshi Packers Pvt Ltd. Our manufacturing facility stands as a testament to our commitment to excellence in every aspect of angle board production. Spread across 50000 Sq.
