Main Duties

A digital marketing specialist is someone who works alongside a company's marketing team to identify a target market, create a brand image, and create and maintain a marketing campaign for the internet and for digital technologies.

Marketing specialists can choose to specialize in certain areas, such as search engine optimization (SEO), paid search (PPC), display media, social media and shopping feeds. Additionally, they can have a more general digital marketing expertise and can still be referred to as a digital marketing specialist.

Art Festivals Of The North

Northern Lights Festival Boreal (around 1st of July)

<https://www.todocanada.ca/city/sudbury/event/northern-lightsfestival-boreal>

This is usually around the first of July.

This is a signature music & arts festival of Northern Ontario as well as one of Canada's longest consecutively running music festivals.

In addition to a great musical line-up, there are historical activities, visual arts, artisans and vendors, food offerings, creative family activities, and more.

<https://uphere.com>

Up Here is an independent urban art & emerging music festival. Every summer, Up Here brings together dozens of muralists, musicians and installation artists to transform downtown Sudbury into an urban art gallery. This year, one Saturday a month, every month until October, Up Here festival will be hosting Guided Mural Tours. These tours are a great way to get outside, enjoy the nice weather, and see some of what the downtown core has to offer.

The Northern Ontario Art Association (NOAA) proudly announces its 69th Annual Juried Art Show. An opening reception takes place 6-8:30 p.m. Sept. 5 and the show Sept. 6 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the T.M. Davies Community Centre at 325 Anderson Dr., Lively. This event will showcase an outstanding selection of original works from artists across northern Ontario. The artwork will be juried by two Ontario artists, Lauren Satan and Pierre Sabourin. The show features a wide variety of styles and mediums, reflecting the rich talent and diversity of the visual art being created in the north. This event is open to the public, admission is free and many of the art works will be for sale.

Sudbury Secondary arts education reunion

Sept. 19-21

Sudbury Secondary School will mark a major milestone this fall with a weekend celebration in honour of 40 years of arts education. From September 19 to 21, the event will bring together alumni, staff, and supporters to commemorate the school's long-standing impact on the region's arts and culture landscape. Tickets, including optional donations and full details, are available now through Eventbrite.

Art Gallery of Sudbury exhibitions

Ongoing

The Art Gallery of Sudbury is running its exhibition The Sky: New Quilts by Judy Martin until Aug. 30 at its 174 Elgin St. location. From her home on Manitowaning Bay, Manitoulin Island, Judy Martin gazes daily at the vast blanket of sky stretching over the water. Each work is a prolonged durational work of time, labour, and design, taking inspiration from the reassuring continuity of the cosmic circles and unseen stars above us. Each quilt is completely unique, involving multiple uses of materials, including linen, silk, cotton, wool, and multiples techniques including natural dying and over-dying, painting, embroidery, and hand-stitching. AGS also has two off-site exhibitions: Alexandre Fishbein-Ouimette until Nov. 17 and Rory Perras at the Laughing Buddha until Sept. 15. Learn more on the gallery's website.

Stargazing Dark Skies Places

Killarney Provincial Park

This park is a RASC-designated Dark Sky Preserve, offering a designated area for sky viewing with excellent visibility, especially for meteor showers and the Northern Lights.

Manitoulin Eco Park

Located on Manitoulin Island, this was Canada's first commercial Dark Sky Preserve. It features a large open field with 360-degree views, campsites, and special dark sky events throughout the year.

Stargazing Tips

Get away from city lights: Both preserves are ideal because they are far from city light pollution.

Check the weather: Clear nights are essential for good stargazing.

Consider the time of year: Autumn, winter, and spring are often the best seasons for observing, as the nights are longer.

Book in advance: It's a good idea to book accommodations or reserve a spot for events, especially at popular locations like Manitoulin Eco Park.

To Do Canada - A Night of Stargazing

<https://www.todocanada.ca/where-to-stargaze-in-ontario-dark-sky-areas-and-observatories>

Watch the stars and wonder at the celestial splendor.

Stargazing is not fun as well as relaxing. Lie back in your own backyard or in a dark sky area near you and take in the awe-inspiring star-filled night sky.

Astronomy - Star Gazing

For example, I like the parking lot or the back fields in Fielding Park: the horizons are quite good, and very little lighting to deal with if you keep your back towards the river. The Lake Laurentian Conservation hut has a decent yard for viewing. Or try Moonlight Beach parking lot. Our criteria work around horizons and streetlights. In Hanmer, I've lead a group in the parking lot of the Community Church.

A good time is past the full moon phase, which means the moon will be rising later each night, until new moon phase. To verify good darkness, use:

<http://www.timeanddate.com/moon/canada/greater-sudbury>

A planisphere or all round sky map is excellent. The four directions will be written on the periphery of your map. If you stand facing south, put the southern horizon against your belly. The portion closest to you, will be what you see straight ahead. When you turn east, put the eastern horizon of the map against you, and see the closest items on the page directly in front of you, and so on. in other words, turn the page about to match the direction you face. These maps are not meant to be held above your head. Maps can be challenging to read in the dark, so a red flashlight is strongly recommended (or very dark amber). Your eyes become dark adapted, and less than a second of exposure to white light will cause your pupils to constrict; it can take up to 20 minutes to become fully dark adapted again. Some flashlights come with a red beam, some come with filters, and I've used a multiple layers of red duct tape. If using a phone app, change the setting to night mode. You can also download a blue light filter to control white/blue light, making it easier to re-adapt to darkness. If you choose to simply use a regular unfiltered flashlight to read your charts, you will not become well dark adapted, and miss out on seeing all of the visible dimmer stars. The difference is huge!!

For good binocular viewing, you must be well positioned, not free standing!! Lie down, lean against a truck or tree, fully lean back against a chair. Your shoulders must be held firmly. Once you develop the skill of bino viewing, you will see the difference. Most stores with good magazine racks have either Sky News (Canadian magazine) or Astronomy (American). The latter is a tougher read, the Canadian read is a little more friendly to new users; both have a sky map for that time of year.

My favourite source is: www.skymaps.com The centre of the page has "download latest version", click that, and then scroll down on the next page. You'll note the opportunity to print the current month's sky map (but not in advance months), as well as maps for southern and equatorial skies. It's a beauty for travelers. The maps will include the position of the planets, which travel. A planisphere is good year round, but will not include visible planets. Skymaps from this site have a nice list on the back of the page, for easy naked eye items, easy binocular items, and then small telescope items (which are mostly all achievable by binos too). I've had no luck printing it from the website directly, but always download it, and print double sided. This is my most popular handout during public events.

Gordon's park on Manitoulin island

Its blackfly season, there is no escaping them lol.

Find a dark corner at Moonlight beach. That end of Ramsey lake has a lot less light pollution with the conservation area not too far away.

Back behind Laurentian U (on the other side of the conservation area) There's some trails and open areas that could be good too, but you're in bug territory over there.

Eden Township has very little light pollution, go on a moonless night and it's spectacular, and it's like 10 minutes out of the south end. Fairbanks, Panache and Wahnapiatae lakes have very little light pollution as well. Best sky I've ever seen was in Meldrum Bay on Manitoulin Island. Long drive, but worth it.

Get the Word Out

Get the Word Out is a publicity incubator for early career authors. Under the mentorship of an accomplished book publicist, writers will develop and execute publicity strategies to maximize the exposure of their first or second book, reach readers, and create a platform to propel their literary careers.

Get the Word Out fellows will:

Participate in a six-session online publicity workshop led by an experienced book publicist.

Attend six online seminars with leading media, events, marketing, and sales professionals, and accomplished authors.

Devote time outside of scheduled sessions to implement book publicity strategies they are acquiring in workshops and seminars.

Contribute to a peer learning community by sharing what works and what does not, helping each member of the cohort to amplify their impact.

In addition, alumni of the program are eligible to apply for The Poets & Writers Fellowship at Vermont Studio Center, which provides a fully funded three-week residency to fiction writers and poets in alternate years.

There is no application fee and no cost to those who are invited to participate. Learn about past Get the Word Out fellows.

Congratulations to Yu-Mei Balasingamchow, Roohi Choudhry, Kerry Donoghue, Lacey N. Dunham, Shasta Grant, Laura Venita Green, Benedict Nguyễn, Miranda Schmidt, and Daniel Tam-Claiborne, our 2025 Get the Word Out fiction fellows! Read the press release.

2025 Fiction Publicity Mentor
jennifer_huang.jpg

Jennifer Huang is a freelance publicist at Cento Lit, a farmer on the Oregon Coast, and the author of Return Flight. Previously a publicist at Riverhead Books and The Shipman Agency, Jennifer enjoys working with authors and books that don't neatly fit into one box and helping authors "do" publicity in a way that feels true to themselves. In their spare time, Jennifer enjoys walking wherever they can, eating popsicles, and learning new crafts.

Selection Criteria

Fellows will be selected based on the strength of their statement of purpose, writing sample, and suitability for the program.

Get the Word Out is open to all eligible applicants. The program aims to support writers who might not otherwise have access to in-depth publicity support and to help develop strong literary voices nationwide. To that end, we encourage applications from writers who identify as BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, or person of color), writers with disabilities, LGBTQ+ writers, writers from outside of New York City, writers who do not have an MFA or equivalent degree, and writers whose books are slated to be published by independent presses.

The selection decisions of Poets & Writers will be final and not subject to review.

How to Apply

Authors can apply to the program via Poet & Writers' online application. Applications must include:

A completed application form.

An excerpt from your forthcoming poetry collection (max: 10 pages, single or double-spaced, minimum of 7 pages).

An author bio (max: 250 words).

Applications for the 2025 Poetry Cohort are due December 31, 2024.

Apply

For more information, please email programs@pw.org.

Bar Nostalgic and Retro Games

Drinking wine and playing Jenga

If there's one thing Millennials and younger brewery-goers love more than anything, it's nostalgia. Lean into this trend in your game selection and watch your younger crowd go wild. These games are easy to store on a shelf or behind the bar. Having a designated space for check-out helps keep your games in good condition. These games are great for the younger bar crowd or establishments that cater to families.

Operation

Operation is hard enough as a semi-steady-handed kid. Throw a couple of beers in the mix and you're sure to see a fun crowd of bar-goers challenging themselves time and again to retrieve organs without deploying the loud buzz and bright red nose.

Trouble

It really is “fun getting into Trouble,” as the old tagline suggests. Red, blue, yellow, and green pieces evoke the familiarity of childhood games with the stationary dice that won't disappear as the game wears on. .

Guess Who?

A game of minor skill, Guess Who? is great for those first-time Tinder dates or long-time couples looking for something to talk about.

Jenga

Steady hands are a must! One by one players remove blocks from a skyscraper. The more pieces you take out the shakier the structure becomes. The first person to tumble the tower loses.

Battleship

A bit more aggressive than the previous options, Battleship allows players to work out their strife by sinking ships of their opponent. Curse that pesky patrol boat!

Bar Vintage Games

Clue board game in bar

If you're looking to offer something atypical, step outside of nostalgia and into vintage games. Try scouring thrift store shelves for rare games, giving your taproom a unique edge — just make sure they have all the pieces.

Murder Mystery

Grab this classic whodunit for patrons ready to try and catch a killer.

Mall Madness

In 2020, Hasbro updated this classic game, but how much cooler would it be to showcase an original? Let customers shop until they drop all while experiencing shopping malls — a unicorn in modern shopping life.

Clue

Following the Murder Mystery trail, Clue breeches nostalgia and vintage fun by allowing patrons to find a killer in a boardgame mansion.

Parcheesi

Honestly, I'm not sure if anyone truly knows how to play Parcheesi. But what better place for one to try their hand than over beers with friends?

Bar Strategy Games

Catan strategy board game at brewery

For those looking to hang for an afternoon, a game of strategy allows patrons to set up camp (literally) and try their hand at attacking a fictional civilization. Once word gets out that you offer strategic games, you'll pull in a niche crowd in addition to your mainstream drinkers. Strategy games are great for keeping customers for an entire afternoon or evening and ultimately increasing sales. These games tend to come at a higher price point (Settlers of Catan runs around $45 with expansion packs starting around $25) so these may be good games to either require a membership or at minimum collateral to ensure the game gets back to you in one piece.

Settlers of Catan

Groups of 3-4 can gather around and build their settlements, using their negotiation skills to acquire resources and outsmart opponents. Games typically take a few hours, giving customers plenty of time for fun and multiple rounds.

Risk

A conquest game for anywhere from 2 to 6 players, Risk involves significant analysis and is a precursor to Settlers of Catan. Just make sure not to insult Ukraine.

Ticket to Ride

All aboard! Build your tracks across the United States in a race to see who can construct the best routes. The longer your railroad the more points you earn.

Bar Intellectual Games

Playing chess outside of a bar

For those looking to challenge others to a game of smarts, grab some of these intellectual games. These are inexpensive games that often come in various themes. You can choose stylized versions to speak to your clientele while showcasing the unique character of your taproom.

Scrabble

Imagine the words patrons will come up with after a few brews. Make sure to have the official Scrabble dictionary on hand to ward off any potentially unfriendly rivalries.

Yahtzee

Dice, math, and strategy take hold during this classic intellectual game where players attempt to get as many points as possible through a series of rolls and wit.

Chess

That's right — good ol' fashioned chess. With The Queen's Gambit making us all believe we harbor an internal chess prodigy, chess will make your patrons feel smarter just for having a board at their table.

Bonus points if you have an official timer (you may also benefit from a few how-to-play manuals!).

Bar Cards and Dice Games

Playing card game at outdoor brewery

Having small games on hand for guests to take to their tables is an easy go-to, without much to keep up with. Price points are low, though requiring collateral for checkout is a good standard. When choosing cards, make sure to choose a material that is largely waterproof to increase longevity.

Regular ol' playing cards

Bicycle cards are perfectly fine. Grab at least 2 decks and patrons can challenge one another to MaNueVer, a strategic card game, as often happens in Legion Brewing's Plaza Midwood Taproom in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Cards Against Humanity

Honestly, any opportunity to get in some adult jokes tends to go a long way for taproom fun. Cards Against Humanity can be played from PG to MA and players make the call.

Phase 10

Not only is this game fun but it takes forever to get through, especially with lots of players. Allow your patrons to be entertained for literally hours with just one $6 deck.

Sushi Go

Sushi Go is not only incredibly cute (tiny little maki rolls smile up at you from the deck) but it's also a very engaging, fast-paced, points-based game involving varying card combinations for ultimate point acquisition.

Tenzi

Sleekly packaged, Tenzi consists of four sets of ten dice, each set its own color. Players roll all ten dice repeatedly until they make the pattern or combination on the card pulled from the accompanying deck. Make sure to pick up the expansion pack for more combinations.

Bar Group Games

Cornhole bean bag toss game at outdoor bar

Ready to bring groups to the table? Team games are a great way to engage your guests while setting them up for fun and adding to your events calendar.

Trivia

Bring on a local trivia master to host a fun game for patrons. Some breweries and brewpubs like Charlotte's Legion Brewing host a weekly team trivia. Others, like Wytheville, Virginia's 7 Dogs Brewpub host music trivia with faithful followings as song clips are played and teams rush to recall names. Asheville's Hi-Wire Brewing hosts Socially Distanced Trivia in their Bier Garden. And there's always the classic fallbacks of themed trivia, like The Office and other iconic themes, or general trivia to test common knowledge.

Bridge

An easy game to facilitate (all it takes is a few packs of Bicycle cards), bring Bridge back with tournaments not relegated to 1950's housewives (though a theme night could be fun). Fun fact: the Seven of Diamonds is informally the Beer Card. Set a house rule that if a player wins the last trick with this card, the partner has to buy them a beer.

Cornhole

Good weather, good beer, good game. While quite possibly the most basic of brewery games, cornhole is tried and true and is perfect for lovely days outdoors. Or, if there's space, bring the game indoors and take advantage of the unused brewery or unoccupied event space. Gathering guests up for a tournament keeps people engaged and looking for more.

Bar Outdoor and Active Games

Yard bowling or Bocce ball at outdoor winery

Bring in some outdoor flare for a packed patio and to grab the attention of passers-by. If your taproom has a more relaxed atmosphere, outdoor games will draw in a crowd ready to play the day away.

Giant Games

Whether it's giant chess, giant Jenga, giant Connect 4, add some creativity to your set-up with picture-worthy patio games. Charlotte's VBGB Beer Hall and Garden is the master of outdoor games and people can't get enough.

Volleyball

While they're acing the giant outdoor games, VBGB has multiple sand volleyball for patrons to enjoy, complete with the occasional competition. Whether patrons are looking for easygoing play with friends or a full-on competition, sand volleyball (or even a portable net in the parking lot) is a great time made even better by great beer.

Bocce

A team game (with lots of bright colored balls on a lovely grassy court), bocce is a great game to deviate from the norm. Stone Brewing's Liberty Station World Bistro & Gardens in San Diego sets a lovely standard for this historic game and Chicago's Half Acre Beer Company's Balmoral location's outdoor bar features a bocce court. Take it a step further by registering with American Bocce Company for official league status.

Darts

Whether indoor or outdoor, nothing says old-school fun like a game of darts. Morganton, North Carolina's Sidetracked Brewery brings the fun with barrel tables set up next to a dartboard for a fun, cheers-worthy game.

Ladder toss

Whether you DIY with piping or purchase the official ladder toss, this game of skill and balance is fun and surprisingly challenging, especially with drink-in-hand.

Duckpin bowling

Having made its way into our cultural game lexicon in the early 1900s, duckpin bowling has seen a bit of a comeback as bars and patrons look for something different to do while drinking. Cincinnati's Hoppin'

Vines brings mini-bowling alongside their vast selection of nationwide brews while Berlin's Brewdog rents lanes by the hour inside their educational brewery.

Bar Games

Darts

Darts is a classic bar game that people can play by themselves or in groups of any size.

And it's relatively inexpensive and easy to install so all you need is a bit of blank wall space, and you're good to go.

Pool

Like darts, pool is at the top of everyone's list of best bar games, and people will come from far and wide to play by themselves or with their friends.

The games are easy to learn but tough to master, so patrons will be motivated to return night after night to down a few beers and hone their skills with the cue.

Tabletop shuffleboard

Shuffleboard isn't just for cruises and retirement communities anymore. The tabletop variety is the perfect way to add some fun and competition to your business without taking up a lot of space.

Foosball

Soccer without all the running? And you can knock back a beverage or two while playing? Sign us up!

Air hockey

Another bar game that converts a physically-strenuous activity into one you can do standing still with a beer in your hand (or at least nearby).

Bar Drinking Games

Beer pong

A staple at every frat party ever held (all the way back to the actual Greeks), beer pong is super simple:

Set up 10 cups in a pyramid shape (like pins at a bowling alley)

Fill each cup about $\frac{1}{4}$ of the way

Try to toss or bounce a ping-pong ball into a cup

Quarters

Similar to beer pong, this game follows the same general concept but challenges you to bounce a quarter off the table into a cup.

If you're successful, your opponent has to drink the contents (minus the quarter, of course).

Flip cup

Fill a cup about a third of the way up with the adult beverage of your choice, chug said beverage, set the cup back down on the edge of the table, and then attempt to flip it so the open end is down.

Ride the bus

In this bar game, a dealer passes out cards to each player and asks a simple question with a "yes or no" answer (basically, one of two choices like red or black, high or low).

If you get it right, you can tell someone else to drink. If you get it wrong, someone tells you to drink.

Jammin'

Put on the song Jammin' by Bob Marley and take a drink every time Mr. Marley says "jammin'" or "jam."

Never have I ever

"Never have I ever punched a bear." If you have, in fact, punched a bear, you have to drink. Simple as that.

Medusa

Sit in a circle with drinks at the ready. Everyone puts their head down or just looks at their feet. On the count of three, everyone looks up and stares at another player.

If you're staring at someone who ISN'T staring at you, you're safe. If you're staring at someone who IS staring back at you, shout "Medusa!" and you both take a drink.

Rock, paper, scissors

A riff on the timeless method of deciding who should go first, this can be played in small or large groups. Pair up, throw your sign, and the loser has to drink.

Bar Arcade Games

Arcade video game cabinet at bar

If your taproom has space for an arcade game or two, grabbing an old-school arcade cabinet can go a long way toward attracting patrons. Some breweries, like Marz Community Brewing in Chicago, even have full arcades! Having coin arcade games also adds another revenue stream, as each player pays per game.

Pac-Man

If you're going to pick a single arcade cabinet, it better be Pac-Man. The dot-devouring namesake is a must for arcade players. And what's better than Pac-Man? Pac-Man and beer.

Pinball

A classic arcade game, the likes of which first made an appearance in saloons of the 1930s. Pinball in its varying forms—from James Bond-themed to The Simpsons—is a forever fun game, bringing in multiple generations of players. Some places, like Kickback Pinball Café in Pittsburgh, even make this a centerpiece of their experience.

Galaga

The 1981 classic galactic shooter game was a pioneer in arcade games. The pixelated starfighter fighting off deadly aliens provides hours of fun... should you make it that far.

Skee-Ball

The competition in this classic game never ends. Challenge your patrons to Skee-Ball competitions, upping the ante for a commitment to the cause.

Old School Nintendo

No space for a retro cabinet? Consider setting up a Nintendo Console for patrons to enjoy, just like the old days. Bars like Charlotte, North Carolina's Salud Beer Shop made a name for themselves with this simple staple, with patrons grabbing a beverage and challenging one another to hours of Mario and Zelda.

Skeeball

Toss the ball up the ramp and into the hole with the highest point value. Play for pride or fun prizes.

Pop-A-Shot

If underhand rolling isn't your thing, try the overhand fun of Pop-A-Shot and see how many baskets you can make before time expires.

Pinball

As bar games go, pinball is still one of the best. Patrons love to drop quarters in themed machines, like Star Wars, Adams Family, Buck Rogers, Kiss, and Batman.

Bar Table Games

Mancala

A mancala board and the right number of marbles or stones can provide hours of fun for bar goers of all ages. Move your pieces around the board, and whoever ends up with the most at the end wins.

Spades

All you need for this bar game is four people and a deck of cards. If you want a larger group, organize a tournament for even more fun.

Hearts

In Hearts, you have to follow suit if you can, with the goal of having the fewest points in your hand at the end of a round.

Euchre

Euchre is another classic card game that's fun for four players or more.

The rules can be a bit tricky to learn at first, but once you've got them down, it's like riding a bike — you never forget.

Uno

Discard based on color or number, yell "Uno!" when you're down to one, and avoid the dreaded Draw Four.

Dominoes

Set out some dominoes, and you'll be surprised how many different games you'll see.

Yahtzee

Dice are great for bar games, and Yahtzee is no exception.

Try to roll the category on the score sheet and be sure to yell the catchphrase when you get five of a kind.

Jenga

Jenga is fun to play whether beverages are involved or not. Want to kick it up a notch? Try giant Jenga instead of the tabletop version.

Blokus

Blokus involves placing your shapes on the board to occupy as much space as possible while preventing your opponents from placing theirs.

Backgammon

Great for two players or as part of a tournament. Get all your pieces to the end before your opponent, and you win.

Clue

Colonel Mustard in the library with the wrench. Enough said.

Sorry

This classic competition between four people is a great addition to any list of bar games. Work in a way to involve adult beverages, and you've got a winner.

Monopoly

A bit on the long side, but if you want to encourage patrons to stay a while, organize a Monopoly tournament and watch the fun (and the beer) flow.

Bar Games - Shuffle Board

If you've got the space, table games build a community vibe, unique to the games you choose and the neighborhoods you serve. Keep in mind your clientele by picking unique games not available nearby.

Shuffleboard

Shelby, North Carolina's Newgrass Brewing has strategically placed their shuffleboard table on a second-story loft, overlooking both the stage and brewhouse.

Cinderlands Brewing in Pittsburgh has the game on their first floor. Patrons sand down the table and slide the pucks down a 12-foot table. This game is astoundingly fun! People stop in just for the novelty.

Air Hockey

An excellent nod to childhood, air hockey is plain ol' fun. Patrons visiting Elkin, North Carolina's Angry Troll Brewing love hopping on board with air hockey boards and other games in their arcade not typical to breweries, bringing in crowds from across the state and more. If you're in Denver, definitely check out the tables at Sancho's Broken Arrow, an incredible Grateful Dead dive bar.

Ping Pong

You honestly can't go wrong with this classic game. Indoor or outdoor, ping pong gives guests an easy way to connect and be active while playing a game where (really) the rules don't matter.

Foosball

Perfect for most taproom vibes, Foosball is small and compact and a stand-out at breweries. In Standpoint, Idaho, MickDuff's Brewing Co. lineup of group games includes foosball, making it fun for patrons and their families to enjoy an afternoon with plenty to do.

Pool

We would be remiss not to add in classic billiards to a list of table games. It goes without saying that this is a quintessential bar game that isn't simply for dive bars.

Bar Outdoor Games

Cornhole

Toss a bean bag into a hole from 30 feet away and win the respect of your friends. Lose, and you'll have to drink.

Horseshoes

Place two stakes about 40 feet apart, take turns throwing horseshoes at the stakes trying to get a ringer. Tally the score based on the horseshoes that land closest to the stakes.

Axe throwing

Axe throwing is a relatively new addition to the list of best bar games, but it's popular with the younger crowd and is a fun activity for groups of all sizes.

Ladder ball

To play, first set up a three-tier ladder. Stand 15 feet away and toss a bola (a rope with a ball on each end) trying to land the bola on one of three rungs each worth different points.

Bar Choosing The Right Games

Not every bar can have every game (unless you're Barcade), and the right games for your business depend on a few factors.

Demographics/Clientele

As a bar owner or operator, you probably know your customers very well — their age, interests, spending habits, etc. With this information, you can choose the right game for those who regularly appear at your establishment. Or, on the flip side, you can use games to attract new demographics and customers that may not come to your bar. If 25-35 years old is the average age of your customer, chances are a trivia night will encourage regular locals to bring in their groups of friends. You live in a college town, but flocks of older students don't frequent your bar- setting up a few tables for beer pong and offering karaoke will probably fix that.

Costs

On top of knowing what your customers want, you'll also need to consider your business's budget and ability to facilitate games. Cards, board games, and some cornhole boards are affordable; a pool table or arcade cabinet are much larger expenses that may have extra considerations.

Space & Noise

Does your establishment have an outdoor area? If so, you can take advantage of games that require more space. If your bar is more of a cozy, intimate space, board and card games will fit the space best.

This is especially important if you run a restaurant as well as a bar or if you generally have a quieter atmosphere. You don't want the game to be so loud that it's disruptive to other customers, so it's important to consider the game's volume and overall footprint.

Logistics

Lastly, once your bar implements games, you must ensure everything continues running smoothly. No one wants to walk up to a dart board and not have darts. A ping pong table missing paddles is pointless. What happens if your trivia night announcer doesn't show up? Always have a back-up plan, and be aware that adding games at your bar may require maintenance and extra staff.

Bar Classic Games

The crack and roll of a pool ball and whirr of a dart is as synonymous with bars as the clink of a glass. When it comes to bar games, pool and darts reign supreme. They're fun to play, keep people eating and drinking, and invite groups to get together and stay a while.

Pool (Billiards)

Pool is a no-brainer for a game that many of your customers will love, no matter the demographic. You'll, of course, need space for a pool and the players to move around, and one table can cost $2,000-$3500. You can charge patrons to play or ask for a cover fee at the entrance.

Darts

If a dart board is up on the wall, customers will always be playing. This game is typically only played with two people, so consider adding multiple boards or other games. There are even magnetic or digital dart boards that are safer. No matter, be prepared to have extra darts on hand for those that go missing or break. You'll need to have a designated darts area to avoid damaging your walls, floors, or furniture; otherwise, it's a no-brainer.

Bar Arcade Games

For those of drinking age, arcade games are a perfect way to provide a sense of childhood nostalgia. On top of buying drinks, patrons also pay to play each game, bringing on more revenue.

Beyond the casual player, you can host leagues and tournaments at your bar to bring in some extra business on slower days of the week. Railyard Billiards and Pub hosts leagues for the cult classic golf game Golden Tee on Friday nights.

Of course, the right game for your bar depends on your space and clientele. You can find tons of great arcade cabinet options from Arcade1Up.

3. Classic cabinets

The classics are classic for a reason: they have mass appeal. Arcade games like Pac-Man (especially the cool table version), Galaga, Space Invaders, Frogger, and Donkey Kong are among the best games to add to any bar.

4. Sports arcade games

Appeal to every sports fan with great sports arcade games. Classics like NBA Jam, Big Buck Hunter, NFL Blitz, and the aforementioned Golden Tee will draw the interest of any sports fan, young and old.

5. Pinball machines

The best part about Pinball is the creative lights, sounds, and designs. There's a pinball machine for every theme, from the Wild West to Outer Space and everything in between.

6. Fighting and brawler games

The only bar fights you should ever be happy about should be on a screen. Let patrons get competitive with classic fighting games like Street Fighter II, Marvel vs. Capcom, and Mortal Kombat. Fighting games are also ripe for tournament play.

Bar Outdoor Games

7. Bocce ball

This leisurely game has roots in Italy and is perfect for small groups who prefer to move around with their drinks. Although associated with older crowds, this can be an enjoyable all-ages game for a mellow afternoon. It requires sets of bocce balls and a “pitch”. While best played outside, bars like Brooklyn's Union Hall have figured out how to make it work indoors.

8. Cornhole

Cornhole is a perfect game to set up if your bar or pub has an outdoor patio. This set-up is affordable (around $25-$70), and is a game that customers often look for when going out to a bar with friends. It's easy to learn, play, and is great for groups, couples, or families.

9. Giant Jenga or Connect Four

Jenga and Connect Four are great. But they're even more fun when giant-sized. Due to the big nature of these games, they're ideal for an outdoor space.

10. Horseshoes or ring toss

This is a great game to have alongside corn hole and be set up for around $60-$100. Although the payoff for this game may not be obvious, it can encourage patrons to linger longer and sip on a few beers while playing.

Bar Card, Board, and Dice Games

11. Decks of cards

One deck of cards can result in hundreds of games, from Go Fish to Old Maid. It's fairly cheap to add, and decks are easily replaced.

12. Modern card games

Beyond a deck of 52, modern card games are a great addition for younger crowds. Card games such as Cards Against Humanity, UNO!, Monopoly Deal, and Exploding Kittens are on their way to becoming classics. Each game is affordable, ranging from $15-$45, so you can keep a few on hand.

13. Classic board games

You can't go wrong with Checkers, Chess, Dominoes, or Backgammon. These familiar games are user-friendly, affordable and perfect for small groups of all ages.

Other great board games include:

Mancala

Sorry!

Scrabble

Bananagrams

Yahtzee

Boggle

Battleship

14. Settlers of Catan and other strategy games

While not as straightforward, strategy board games take a while to play (more food and drinks!) and draw groups of friends. While slightly more expensive than simpler board games, these strategy game are still a great inexpensive game option.

15. Trivia Night

Trivia night is a classic bar game that draws in new customers who may not have been to your bar before. This game attracts groups of friends and trivia teams and will result in a packed bar, especially if a prize is offered and you market this event well. The cost of this game is quite low - you can make up your own questions and run the night with your staff; you may need to purchase a mic. Teams can pay to enter (and get a free drink for each player with the entry fee), and you can leave out a tip jar for the host.

16. Karaoke is another crowd-pleaser that will bring in groups of college students, birthday parties, and bachelor/bachelorette parties. This will be one of the more pricey choices because your bar will need microphones, speakers, amplifiers, and a screen for lyrics. An all-in-one karaoke set-up can be purchased anywhere from a few hundred dollars to a couple thousand, depending on how nice the set-up is. Participants can be charged by the hour or per song.

17. Bingo

Bingo isn't just for retirement homes. It's an easy, all-ages game that can be played with large groups. It's a great way to attract a large crowd, too, and a great event for traditionally slow nights.

18. Murder mystery

Host a murder mystery night at your bar to draw in a large group on a day of the week that is typically slow for your bar. There are many ways to run this game, but the idea is to create a script and a set of clues to determine which character (either an imaginary person or someone in the bar) committed the fictional murder. This can be low-cost or pricey, depending on whether you buy a game kit or purchase costumes and decorations. Participants can purchase a ticket to join the night.

19. Movie nights and screenings

Instead of choosing between staying in or going out, you can let your customers have a perfect mix of both. Your bar can advertise playing fan-favorite movies on certain nights (Harry Potter, Star Wars, and Lord of the Rings are a few ideas) and create a list of rules for when patrons must drink. Perhaps a sip from your drink when someone casts a spell?

20. Couple's night

Your bar can offer the perfect date night by creating a couple's night filled with team games. The options are endless here - you can do games like trivia about each other or put couples up against each other in games like Jenga and beer pong. Offer “two-for-one” drink deals to keep the drinks flowing.

Shuffleboard in a bar

Playing giant shuffleboard at Royal Palms

21. Shuffleboard

Shuffleboard can take on many forms, from a tabletop game to the size of the room like at Royal Palms

22. Air Hockey and Foosball

Fast-paced and exciting, the table versions of hockey and soccer have fans of all ages. While only two at a time can play, games end quickly, allowing groups to gather and stay a while.

23. Ping Pong (Table Tennis)

This is another more active game requiring space in your bar for players to move around. If you have the space for this, ping pong can draw in lively crowds of all ages. Although only 2-4 people can play at a time, games typically have a quick turnover rate. Consider netting off a small area to prevent filling your space with flying ping pong balls.

24. Basketball

Have patrons go head-to-head to see who can sink the most shots with a pop-up basketball game. Pop-a-Shot has tons of captions available, so you can support your local NBA or NCAA teams and match your bar.

Bar Drinking Games

An entire article could be written on drinking games themselves - beer pong, flip cup, rat slap, and kings cup are just a few of the classics. So many variations and niche games have evolved from various colleges and regions, and your bar can feature drinking games that have arisen locally. These games are cheap to set up, typically requiring only red solo cups or a deck of cards. Larger groups can play, and the point of these games is to drink more (resulting in more cash flow for your bar).

25. Hook and Ring

This fun tabletop game has players competing to hook a ring faster than their opponent. Often paired with a shot ladder, the momentum swings back and forth losing player has to take a shot.

26. College games (Beer Pong, Flip Cup)

These games are incredibly affordable, setting your bar back only $8-$20. However, you'll need a table (double duty for the ping pong setups?) and possibly an outdoor space. If this game is set up indoors, ensure it fits your current atmosphere and customers (these games can get rowdy!).

27. Shot ski

While this is not necessarily a game, this is a super entertaining way for groups to take shots together. This set-up involves an actual ski with 4-8 holes cut into it for shot glasses. The shot glasses are filled, and patrons must be standing at the same height to lift the ski to their mouths and successfully take the shot at the same time without spilling.

Bar Other Fun Activities

While the following aren't games per se, they are leisure activities that sit right beside games and add to the fun of going out for drinks or food.

28. Photobooth

Let guests capture the moment with an in-house photo booth. And you don't need a hulking booth that requires film refills: tech has made it possible to turn any iPad or smartphone into a photo booth with a stand and ring light. Apps like SimpleBooth and Snappic make it easy to add your own branding and for guests to share photos on social media.

29. Jukebox

Jukeboxes may be old school, but they're still a huge draw for young and old customers. Like photo booths, you no longer need a big piece of equipment—no huge cabinet filled with CDs or records. Consider adding a digital jukebox that takes requests via text message or an app-based system like TouchTunes.

30. Mechanical bull

This might be one of the more expensive options out of all of the games, but it will certainly draw in a crowd and more cash (you can charge a few dollars for each ride). What would complete your Western-themed or whiskey bar more than a mechanical bull ride? And who doesn't want to see their friends fly off a bucking bull? Chances are anyone who rides the bull will post about it on Instagram, Snapchat, or Tik Tok.

This classic card-based drinking game involves players taking turns drawing cards, each card representing a specific action or rule, providing laughter, camaraderie and a chance for patrons to bond over shared antics and memorable moments.

53. Quarters

Perfect for the bar counter, Quarters is a game that requires players to bounce a quarter off the table and into a cup, with successful shots leading to opponents taking drinks, infusing a sense of friendly competition and skillful aiming into the atmosphere.

The playground equipment at this complex is great for all age groups and developmental stages. It's squishy ground surface is ideal for toddlers, and it is accessible for handicapped children.

This complex also provides football and soccer fields, a baseball diamond, and tennis courts.

Furthermore, there are clean washrooms near the Lily boardwalk that are open on weekdays, a water fountain, and lots of parking.

Indoor Basketball & Community Centres

Open Gym/Drop-in: Free basketball is available at some community centres, such as the Capreol Millennium Centre (up to two courts) and the Dowling Leisure Centre.

Sudbury Basketball Facility (SBF): A dedicated facility offering specialized training, skills development, and summer camps.

Hoops and Spikes: Provides sports and recreation instructions.

Outdoor Basketball Courts

There are several outdoor basketball courts, many of which were slated for revitalization in recent years:

Central/Downtown: York Street, Victory Park (496 Frood Road), Ryan Heights Playground (736 Bruce Avenue), and Elm West Playground.

Greater Sudbury Area: Delki Dozzi Sports Complex, Cedar Park Playground (49 Normandy Crescent), Ridgecrest Playground, and Minnow Lake Place.

Additional Courts: Levack/Onaping Public Library area, Garson Arena, and various schools like Lo-Ellen Park Secondary.

Leagues and Organized Basketball

Greater Sudbury Basketball Association (GSBA): Offers the "Sudbury Storm" competitive (rep) program for skill development and high-level competition, as well as a house league for all skill levels.

Little Ballers: Programs for younger children (ages 5-8) are available, often in the spring/summer.

Sudbury Five: The local professional team in the Basketball Super League (BSL) plays at the Sudbury Community Arena.

All Sorts Of Sports

JAM Sports Sudbury offers All Sorts of Sports leagues for players who like to mix it up! Each week, you'll play a different sport—like dodgeball, basketball, floor hockey, ultimate, gym soccer, benchball, or European handball. Other games might make an appearance too, so come ready for anything. You can register a full team or sign up as a free agent to join the fun and meet new people. Team registrations include shirts for your roster shipped right to your door at no extra cost. It's the perfect way to stay active, social, and never bored in Sudbury!

Hoops and Spikes

<https://hoopsandspikes.wpcomstaging.com>

Hoops and Spikes provides fun, foundational skill development for basketball, volleyball and badminton athletes of all ages. Through a variety of programming, including: camps, leagues, training and tournaments participants will learn key skills, practice them in controlled drills then put them to use in game play. A primary goal of Hoops and Spikes is to create opportunities for participants to play and love basketball, volleyball and badminton.

Basket Ball Loaning

Greater Sudbury Public Library

You want to borrow a basketball to play? Visit the Lively or Valley East libraries and sign a waiver to check out a basketball for the week. Basketball is not renewable nor available for delivery or holds, and costs $20 to replace. Let's break a sweat and play ball!

Bat Boxes Explained

In Greater Sudbury, bat boxes, or bat houses, can be a valuable tool for providing alternative roosting habitat and supporting declining bat populations, especially as cities expand and natural roosting sites are lost.

Here's a more detailed look at bat boxes in the context of Greater Sudbury:

Why are bat boxes important?

Habitat Loss:

As cities expand, large, old trees that bats naturally use for roosting are being cleared, leading to habitat loss.

Declining Bat Populations:

Bat populations across Canada are facing multiple threats, including habitat loss and disease.

Alternative Roosting Sites:

Bat boxes provide safe, clean, and stable summer housing for bats, helping to address habitat loss.

Pest Control:

Bats are natural insectivores, and bat houses can help reduce mosquito populations on your property.

Tips for installing bat boxes:

Location:

Mount bat boxes on poles or buildings, rather than trees, as trees can block sunlight and harbor predators.

Ensure the bat box is at least 12 feet (3.5 meters) above the ground, 15-20 feet (4.5-6 meters) is preferable.

Position the bat box where it will receive 6-10 hours of direct sunlight per day, especially during the summer months.

Keep the bat box at least 20-30 feet (6-9 meters) away from trees.

Make sure the bat box is less than 0.25 miles (0.4 kilometers) away from a water source.

Orientation:

Bat boxes work best when facing south or east to maximize sunlight exposure.

Temperature:

Bat boxes can overheat, so consider installing multiple boxes to give bats a choice of temperatures.

Temperatures above 40°C (104°F) in bat boxes can be dangerous, and temperatures over 50°C (122°F) have been recorded in some Canadian bat boxes.

Monitoring:

You can monitor bat activity by checking for guano (bat droppings) under the box, and by observing bats swooping around at dusk.

Safety:

Avoid any physical contact with bats for both your safety and the bats' safety.

Participation in Studies:

The Canadian Bat Box Project is looking for volunteer participants to measure the temperature inside bat boxes using temperature loggers.

If you have a bat box, or want to participate in thei

BBQ Public Regulations

Parks and beaches: You cannot use portable gas or charcoal BBQs in any city park or beach without a permit.

Permits: For events, a permit may be required for food and alcohol, and barbecues must be placed at least one meter from tents and nine meters from trees and buildings.

Open-air burning: The city has a by-law that regulates open-air burning, which may require a permit from the Fire Chief for specific types of fires like brush or crop residue fires.

Beer Can Picking Up Club

This is illegal activity made popular. Maybe you'd like to start a club seeing as how it's a precedence now by law if you want. Beer cans could be used to put underwear and socks in for the poor. Put a lid on it.

Some cities in Canada allow you to pick up garbage in programs called "Adopt A Road" and other names. You are limited to pick up only so many occasions though and our streets are filling up with garbage on account of it. Ask for extra times to pick up garbage if you are smart and can force the issue of dirty streets in your neighborhood. Beer cans can be used for arts and crafts as well as containers.

Bicycles – Two Seater Rentals

Double Bikes - Lake Nipissing Waterfront

This year at the North Bay waterfront from Thursday till Sunday you can rent one of these bikes from FunRentals.ca.

The business is owned by Daryl & Michele Vaillancourt. Daryl Vaillancourt is North Bay City Councillor as well as a local business person. If you go to their website you can see the current prices for renting for 1hour or the day.

I personally haven't ridden on them but they do look like a lot of fun! When I have been riding along the Kate Pace Way bike path and pass the people (usually families) riding these bikes, they all seem to be smiling and laughing and having a grand time! I just may have to give it try sometime before winter lands!

Bicycle – Fat - Clubs

Are you looking to take advantage of long northern winters and fat bike Sudbury? More and more options are becoming available, with Kivi Park and Walden Trails leading the pack for expertly groomed, dedicated single-track for diehard riders, with dozens of kilometres available. What's more, the volunteer Sudbury Singletrack Trail Collective maintains a network of fat bike trails at the Nickeldale Conservation Area. Many of Sudbury's urban bike paths are also packed and perfectly suited for winter cycling on fat bikes, making it possible to ride year-round in the heart of the city.

Bicycle BMX Parks

Rotary Park BMX Facility

The BMX track is located at Rotary Park (Adanac Ski Hill): 744 Beatrice Crescent, Sudbury, Ontario, P3A-5B5

Open from May 1 to October 31 (weather and track conditions permitting) Open daily from dawn to dusk

The track has been built to United Cycliste

Internationale (UCI) standards in partnership with the Ontario Cycling Association. BMX Club: The City of

Greater Sudbury is looking for interested participants and volunteers to establish a local BMX club to assist with maintenance of the track, encourage registration and help organize events. BMX stands for bicycle moto-cross - a sport in which racers ride bicycles with 20 or 24 inch wheels over a course which is carefully designed to challenge the participants, but with the safety of the riders very much in mind. BMX racing is a participation sport where competitors are matched against others of the same age and proficiency level.

The club will work with the City and the Ontario Cycling

Association, who will provide support for volunteer training, coach's clinics, seminars and promotion of the sport. Interested individuals are asked to contact Anne

Gervais, Recreation Coordinator, at anne.gervais@greatersudbury.ca or 705-674-4455 ext. 2333.

Ramsey Lake Tour de Sudbury:

This ultimate 22-km urban ride combines bike routes in Sudbury's downtown with the wilderness fringes of Lake Laurentian Conservation Area, making it best for bikes that can handle some easy trail sections.

The Kelly Lake Trail starts just west of Sudbury on Fielding Road and covers a 4.5-km linear path along the lakeshore to the Fielding Park Bird Sanctuary, along a mixture of boardwalks and packed trails.

Looking for a Sudbury bike path to the city's ultimate urban beach? Ride the 3.5-km segment of Trans-Canada Trail from Laurentian University to Moonlight Beach.

The Rotary Park Trail is a popular Sudbury path that provides a convenient 2.9-km commute between New Sudbury and downtown.

For a longer ride west of Sudbury, check out the 10-km Vermillion to Hillfield section of the Trans-Canada Trail.

It's easy to extend your ride by connecting this route with the many other segments of Sudbury bike path.

Bicycle's Mountain Bike Trails

Lake Laurentian

Imagine a 2,400-acre protected greenspace of lakes, wetlands and lush boreal forest located adjacent to the downtown core of a vibrant city. The Lake Laurentian Conservation Area is a big reason why Sudbury is one of Ontario's top adventure towns. The trails here are multi-use, so expect to share the single-track with hikers. Highlights of the network include great scenery and the opportunity to take a dip in a secluded lake. In particular, the 10-kilometre Lake Laurentian Loop has a couple amazing panoramic lookouts.

Kivi Park

Kivi Park is a fantastic all-season, multi-sport outdoor adventure destination set on 480 acres of Canadian Shield terrain. This great cycling Sudbury destination includes something for everyone, with 15.4 kilometres of mountain bike trails and on-site rentals by Adventure365. Options for hiking and paddling make it a great place to mix it up or try something new.

Walden Mountain Bike Club

Located just west of Sudbury in the outlying borough of Lively, the Walden Mountain Bike Club has built and maintains Sudbury's best cycling trails. Walden has a world class xc mountain bike trail system. Discover 15 kilometres of single-track, with options available for novices to Canada Cup cross-country racers. The Walden Trails capture the best of cycling Sudbury, with plenty of distinctive hardrock sections as well as scenic woodlands. The trails are open June through October.

Bicycle Best Road and Gravel Routes in Sudbury

With abundant rural roads and plenty of diverse topography and great scenery, there's no shortage of excellent Sudbury cycling routes for road and gravel riding. For starters, Sudbury is the eastern terminus of the Lake Huron North Channel section of the Great Lakes Waterfront Trail. Starting in Sudbury, you can trace up to 570 kilometres of backroads through 26 communities all the way to Sault Ste. Marie.

You don't have to pack panniers for a great road ride around Sudbury. Plenty of options exist for shorter rides around the city's outskirts. One favourite road ride traces an eight-kilometre route from Junction Creek to Bell Park. For a great gravel ride, start at Centennial Park and follow the Great Lakes Waterfront Trail to the community of Gibson, a 21-kilometre Sudbury cycling route with plenty of ups and downs. Gravel Bike Sudbury is a good resource for mapping out routes.

Bicycles - E-bikes - Rules

E-bikes are allowed in Sudbury, as long as users follow the provincial regulations for use, including being over 16 years of age, wearing a helmet, using the appropriate lights for night riding and not riding on sidewalks. Electric-assist mountain bikes are allowed on Sudbury mountain bike trails at Kivi Park, Walden Trails Park and Lake Laurentian Conservation Area. A driver's license and birth certificate are required to purchase them at some places.

Best Bike-Friendly Campground in Sudbury

Sudbury offers riders a tremendous variety of dedicated cycling routes and spectacular mountain biking trails. Fans of singletrack can put knobby tires to the test on the bare rock ridges of the Precambrian Shield at Walden Trails Park, Kivi Park and Lake Laurentian Conservation Area. Recreational riders will find more than 25 km of community trails exploring all corners of the Nickel City along the Rainbow Routes Trail Network. Download the trail map to plan your ride—ambitious cyclists can circle Ramsey Lake on the grand Tour de Sudbury route.

On the south side of the city, Carol's Campsite and RV Park is popular with local campers and offers quick access to the outstanding trails at Lake Laurentian Conservation Area and Kivi Park. Cyclists will find a designated tenting area, hot showers, and laundry facilities, as well as canoe rentals and a beach for a refreshing après pedal dip in Richard Lake.

If you're in need of a bike tune-up, rental, or cycling gear, check out these welcoming Sudbury bike shops: Sessions Ride Company, Adventure 365, or The Outside Store. And if you're dying to try fat biking, there are on-site rentals at Kivi Park.

While you're here, don't miss out on Sudbury's vibrant culinary scene. Start your day at Salute Coffee Company. Cheese-lovers can grab lunch on the outdoor patio at La Fromagerie. After your ride, satisfy carb cravings with delicious wood-fired pizza or fresh pasta at di Gusto authentic Italian dining. Top it off with the city's best milkshake at funky Flurple's—"a little ice cream window with a lot of heart".

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude.

Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult -
Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Candle Making

Candle Making Workshops and Events

SWAX Candle Co This local business in the New

Sudbury Centre offers regular candle-making workshops where participants can create their own

wooden wick candles. The workshops are often scheduled on Saturdays and details/booking information can be found on their website.

City of Greater Sudbury Leisure Programs

The city occasionally organizes one-off candle-making classes as part of its leisure programming. These events are often seasonal (e.g., a "Pumpkin Spice" workshop) and require registration via the city's website.

Makers North & Local Markets Makers North

hosts annual markets featuring local artisans, including candle makers. While these are primarily shopping events, they are great opportunities to connect with local chandlers who might offer private classes or future workshops.

Other Event Organizers Companies like

Paint Nite sometimes list candle-making events on their calendars, offering another option for a casual class experience.

<https://www.paintnite.com/ca/on/greater-sudbury/events>

Candle Making Courses

Candle-making workshops in Greater Sudbury include hands-on classes from providers like Swax Candle Co (offering workshops for $99.99, featuring wooden wick candles) and various seasonal, themed, or girls' night in events (e.g., pumpkin spice workshops). These sessions often include all supplies, catering to beginners looking to craft scented soy candles.

Swax Candle Co: Offers hands-on workshops ($99.99) where participants can make two 320g wooden wick candles, suitable for groups. They have previously held workshops on weekends (12 PM–2 PM), offering options for wicked and wickless candles.

Seasonal Workshops: Events such as "Girls Night In Pumpkin Spice Candle Workshops" are held locally, focusing on basic candle-making techniques.

Other Creative Options: Other options in the area include "Paint Nite" candle-making events and themed candle holder workshops.

Note: Swax Candle Co. recently announced a move to New Brunswick, so it is recommended to confirm the current availability of their local workshops.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

In the cards: Veteran survives changing trends

BY SCOTT HUNTER HADDOW

In the early 1990s the sports card industry was riding a massive popularity surge of biblical proportions.

name="valign" top >

?The industry has changed dramatically from...when I first opened my store,? said Brian Vancleave, owner of The Great Canadian Card Company. ?The sports card market is soft in Sudbury now.?

In Sudbury, the hysteria was mainly over hockey cards. At one point there were about 10 stores in and around the City of Greater Sudbury specifically dealing sports cards. This was on top of all the convenience stores, grocery stores and department stores selling the red-hot cardboard pictures of top professional athletes.

The fever caught all kinds of people from all ages and backgrounds. Collectors were pulling cards out of their basements or raiding their grandparents' homes for ? cardboard gold? in hopes of cashing in on the craze.

For awhile, hockey cards seemed to be a great quick investment. However, the interest soon dwindled and the fever broke. The middle to late 1990s saw the card stores drop like flies after being drowned in insect repellent.

Now, only one true year-round sports card store remains open in Sudbury. The Great Canadian Card Company survived the volatile market purge and still deals with sports cards today, but it has had to adapt to stay alive-just like sports cards themselves.

“The industry has changed dramatically from 11 years ago when I first opened my store,” said Brian Vanclieaf, owner of The Great Canadian Card Company. “The sports card market is soft in Sudbury now.”

The big business in the card market now is gaming cards.

“Right now people are after Yu-Gi-Oh! Cards,” said Vanclieaf. “When I first opened up my business it was 95 per cent sports cards and now it’s about 30 per cent.”

The early 1990s saw a major explosion of popularity in sports cards.

“People thought they were going to get rich by buying them and tripling it down the road,” said Vanclieaf. “It didn’t happen.”

In fact, the popularity of sports cards fizzled out almost as quickly as they blazed in.

“People got into it for the wrong reasons,” said Vanclieaf. “It was a case of the ‘in’ thing to do at that the time and people thought they were going to get rich, but they didn’t.”

The sports card industry has changed with the times offering items like high-end sports cards with memorabilia attached to them.

In Sudbury, hockey cards are the mainstay and the only sports cards that still generates any kind of real interest.

“There is zero demand for sports other than hockey and it doesn’t matter who the player is,” said Vancleave. “Hockey is still the ‘hot’ product on my shelves.”

Vancleave has about 30 different hockey card products. They range in price from $1.99 to $100 a pack.

The sports card industry isn’t for anyone, but anyone can have fun collecting cards. Currently, rookie cards of Jason Spezza, Rick Nash and Henrik Zetterberg are hot, according to the sports card veteran.

Vancleave believes sports card collecting is still a great hobby as long as you do it right.

“You should collect what you like and set a budget for yourself,” said Vancleave. “Having fun is the biggest thing and you should never lose sight of that.”

Cigarette Butt Collectors

Sudbury.com Staff Jan 9, 2009 8:06 PM

Former marina owner Harry Welch has taken it upon himself to provide an attractive and cheap means of encouraging smokers to butt out in his recycled containers.

Posted by Sudbury Northern Life Harry Welch, an 82-year-old Coniston senior, hates cigarette butts left lying around. The former marina owner has taken it upon himself to provide an attractive and cheap means of encouraging smokers to butt out in his recycled containers. "Cigarette butts last for years. I am pushing hard this year to get them off the ground," said Welch. He goes to the local dump and scavenges recycled materials that could be made into containers. Then he sets them up in places where smokers congregate, such as outside the Coniston arena or in front of the nearby Colonial Inn on Cedar Street.

After about a month and a half, he arrives at the site, retrieves the container, and empties it.

"I collected 1,022 butts in eight weeks from both the arena and the Inn. I also collected 234 butts from my container outside of Imperial Collision on the Kingsway," he proudly noted.

If more people quit smoking, there would be less of a need for his free community service. But Welch is cynical about that.

"If people quit smoking what would the government do for revenues?" Welch admitted to smoking once.

"My brother and I tried to smoke my granddad's corn cob pipe when I was eight. I got so sick I never tried smoking again."

Welch said a highlight of his environmental work was running into top Canadian environmentalist David Suzuki in Coniston.

"I saw him at the Colonial Inn when he was in town for a ceremony at Laurentian University recently.

He was having breakfast so I did not want to bother him. But I did tell him he was crazy, like a fox. He seemed like a nice guy," said Welch. Though he admits his environmental days are numbered at his age, Welch finds hope in the younger generation.

"I admire them. I think the ones coming up next will be even better and do the right thing for the environment."

Welch said he has been trying to get city officials and the mayor interested in getting behind his low cost butt containers.

I have contacted them, but no luck so far."

You could collect cigarettes and recycle them too if you want to find a use for them.

The Living Nativity, a beloved Christmas tradition, returns to the grounds of Science North for its 38th year. Put on by All Nations Church, the event takes place nightly Dec. 21-24 2024, with the presentation commencing at 7:30 p.m.

A fireworks presentation takes place after the show on Christmas Eve, in partnership with KFM 95.5.

The Living Nativity brings to life the story of the birth of Jesus Christ, featuring a cast of volunteers in an immersive and captivating experience for people of all ages. The event is free to attend, and spectators are encouraged to arrive early to enjoy the Christmas lights generously provided by the Sudbury Charities

Foundation. In the spirit of giving, attendees are also invited to contribute to their meaningful cause.

“Join us in celebrating the magic of the season at The Living Nativity – an event that has been a cherished tradition in Sudbury for 38 years,” said a press release.

“We look forward to sharing the joy and wonder of Christmas with our community once again.”

Services: Provides information, referral and support service to women who have been impacted by difficult life circumstances. The centre offers public education, outreach programs, legal clinics, a resource library, internet access, a clothing depot, and workshops about violence prevention and economic independence.

Sudbury Women's Centre has received funding from the Ontario Trillium Foundation to launch and run a Collective Kitchens Program for 92 women in Sudbury for the next three years to increase the number of economically vulnerable people who are able to meet their basic needs. A collective kitchen is a "small group of people who get together to cook in bulk for their families. These cooking groups pool their money, skills, and energy to cook healthy and economical meals that they take home to share with their families"

(Collective Kitchen Partnership, personal communication, 16 March 2004). Groups of 4-5 women will work together with a lead facilitator to form a collective kitchen meeting twice a week for 5 weeks to learn about nutrition education, menu planning, budgeting, cooperative buying, food handling and recipe development They will cook together, share a meal with each other, and take additional portions home. Volunteer leaders from the groups will be trained so they can continue the group facilitation of the collective kitchens once the initial 5 weeks is over. Evidence indicates that once women participate in a collective kitchen they are likely to continue cooperative behaviors after the program ends. Women will learn ways to stretch their limited dollars to buy and prepare more food that is both tasty and nutritious.

This program is supported in LaCloche, Valley East & Capreol. This program offers parents the chance to get together to enhance their skills in planning nutritious meals for their families. They learn how to shop on a budget while improving the nutritional quality of meals by swapping ingredients and taking advantage of seasonal and sale products. One session is dedicated to planning meals and preparing shopping lists, the second session to meal preparation. Participants enjoy a meal together and take their nutritious meals home to share with their families. How Will This Program Benefit Me And My Family? In a small group format, participants will learn how to plan and cook nutritious meals based on the Eating Well with Canada's Food

Guide. Participants get to take the prepared meals home to their families. What Can I Expect? During the planning session, participants will go through local grocery flyers, according to what's on sale, participants will work together to choose 4-5 healthy recipes. Participants will create a grocery list around a specific budget provided by Our Children, Our Future. Shopping tasks will be divided within the group. During the program, children are playing in a high quality learning environment with trained support staff. Because of safety concerns, during the cooking session children are required to be in the childcare area at all times. During the cooking session which is usually held a few days later, participants come together to prepare & cook the meals decided on. Gain more knowledge on how to increase the nutritional quality of meals and how to reduce the costs by maximizing the budget. The planning and cooking sessions will be facilitated with the guidance of a staff and/or a trained volunteer. The opportunity to get out of the house and meet new people. Gain more knowledge on how to read food label information. Participate in discussion and experience sharing. The opportunity to learn new recipes. To apply safe food handling practices. To improve planning and cooking skills. Healthy snacks & refreshments are provided. Transportation may be provided. Services: Program runs out of Minnow Lake Place located at 1127 Bancroft Drive in Sudbury, 4477 Notre Dame St, Unit 3 in Hanmer, 137 Sheppard St in Espanola, and 355 Government Rd West in Massey. Collective Kitchen This program offers parents the chance to get together to enhance their skills in planning nutritious meals for their families. This program is supported in LaCloche, Valley East & Capreol. This program offers parents the chance to get together to enhance their skills in planning nutritious meals for their families. They learn how to shop on a budget while improving the nutritional quality of meals by swapping ingredients and taking advantage of seasonal and sale products. One session is dedicated to planning meals and preparing shopping lists, the second session to meal preparation. Participants enjoy a meal together and take their nutritious meals home to share with their families. How Will This Program Benefit Me And My Family? In a small group format, participants will learn how to plan and cook nutritious meals based on the Eating Well with Canada's Food Guide. Participants get to take the prepared meals home to their families. What Can I Expect? During the planning session, participants will go through local grocery flyers, according to what's on sale, participants will work together to choose 4-5 healthy recipes. Participants will create a grocery list around a specific budget provided by Our Children, Our Future. Shopping tasks will be divided within the group. During the program, children are playing in a high quality learning environment with trained support staff. Because of safety concerns, during the cooking session children are required to be in the childcare area at all times. During the cooking session which is usually held a few days later, participants come together to prepare & cook the meals decided on. Gain more knowledge on how to increase the nutritional quality of meals and how to reduce the costs by maximizing the budget. The planning and cooking sessions will be facilitated with the guidance of a staff and/or a trained volunteer. The opportunity to get out of the house and meet new people. Gain more knowledge on how to read food label information. Participate in discussion and experience-sharing. The opportunity to learn new recipes. To apply safe food handling practices. To improve planning and cooking skills. Healthy snacks & refreshments are provided. Transportation may be provided. Services: Program runs out of Minnow Lake Place located at 1127 Bancroft Drive in Sudbury, 4477 Notre Dame St, Unit 3 in Hanmer, 137 Sheppard St in Espanola, and 355 Government Rd West in Massey. Collective Kitchen This program offers parents the chance to get together to enhance their skills in planning nutritious meals for their families. They learn how to shop on a budget while improving the nutritional quality of meals by swapping ingredients and taking advantage of seasonal and sale products. Colleges and universities

Cambrian College

Offers courses in its Pre-Trades/Technology program that cover basic computer competency, maintenance, and upgrades, which can be a stepping stone into the field.

Canadian College of Business, Science & Technology (CCBST)

Provides a 12-week PC Technician Certificate program focused on CompTIA A+ and Network+ certifications, covering in-depth knowledge of computer hardware and software.

Laurentian University

The School of Engineering and Computer Science offers a variety of programs, though more focused on computer science and engineering than hands-on repair, notes Laurentian University and Laurentian University.

Other training providers

Cybernaut Computer Services

Offers professional training services in addition to their repair services. They can provide customized training to help you or your business with specific I.T. needs.

Certstaffix Training

Provides both live online and self-paced eLearning courses for individuals and groups. They have instructors available for public and private training sessions in the Sudbury area.

Free online resources

Greater Sudbury Public Library

Provides access to free, self-paced online tutorials through platforms like GCFLearnFree.org. These tutorials cover everything from basic computer skills to Microsoft Office and can be a great starting point.

How to choose the right option

For a foundational understanding and basic skills, the library's free resources or the Pre-Trades program at Cambrian College are good starting points.

If you want to become a certified PC technician and launch a career in IT, the PC Technician Certificate at CCBST is a direct path to certification.

For customized or team-based training, consider Cybernut Computer Services or Certstaffix Training.

Post Secondary Classes

Collège Boréal

Offers a Computer Systems Technician program that provides hands-on training in computer assembly, installation, configuration, and troubleshooting. It also has a Computer Technical Support program focused on diagnosing and solving IT problems.

Cambrian College

The Computer Systems Technology - Security program includes a course on Windows PowerShell, which involves administering servers and workstations.

Computer Programmer Analyst is another advanced diploma program offered, which may include relevant skills.

Cooling Stations - Home

Learn how to cope with extreme heat

During a heat warning, check in frequently on friends, neighbours and relatives —especially those who are at higher risk of developing heat-related illness, such as small children, pregnant people, people with chronic illness and older adults. Ensure that everyone stays cool and hydrated.

According to the City of Greater Sudbury's Hot Weather Response Plan, prevention is the best defense against heat-related illness.

Tips to stay cool in hot weather:

Plan activities for earlier in the day when it's cooler.

Go to an air-conditioned public place. When the City of Greater Sudbury activates the Hot Weather Response Plan, certain public locations will have extended hours.

Go to the beach, splash pad or a park where there is shade.

When you are working or exercising in the heat, don't expect your usual performance. Drink lots of water and take ample breaks.

Practise sun safety! Wear a wide-brimmed hat, choose light-coloured, breathable clothing and wear sunscreen labelled SPF 30 or higher.

If it's very hot in your home or apartment:

Draw the blinds during the day and open the windows at night.

Take cool baths or showers until you feel refreshed.

Stay hydrated and drink plenty of water.

Watch for symptoms of heat exhaustion such as headaches, nausea or vomiting, dizziness or fainting, rapid breathing or a rapid heartbeat. In children, symptoms can look different. Look out for changes in behaviour, like sleepiness or temper tantrums. If any of these symptoms arise, move immediately to a cool spot (an air-conditioned place is best), and hydrate. Heat stroke is a medical emergency. If someone has a high body temperature and is either unconscious, confused or has stopped sweating, call 911.

Learn how to beat the heat.

Bring along your watercraft to the Ramsey Lake launch and cruise along the shore.

From Space Science to Beaver Ponds

Later that afternoon, we made our way to Lake Laurentian Conservation Area, and it ended up being one of our favourite spots in the city. With over 60 kilometers of trails, you can go as big or small as you want. We stuck with three short hikes, and each one delivered serious wow factor.

Panoramic lookout view at Lake Laurentian Conservation Area Sudbury

Our first was the NASA Trail, a 15-minute walk that passes the site of a former satellite observatory. It's a quiet path with a big presence, a reminder that Sudbury isn't just about mining and regrowth. It's also a place where science has literally reached for the stars.

The Sudbury You Don't Know - NASA's Secret Training Ground? We continued to the Duck Trail and the Beaver Pond Loop, and this is where Sudbury's transformation really hits you. The rocky moonscape we'd seen in old photos is gone. In its place? Lush forest, rich wetlands, and peaceful trails that wind through some of the most resilient nature we've ever walked. It's hard to believe this was once written off as wasteland. Today, it's a global success story in restoration.

Croquette

While regional options exist in Muskoka Croquet Canada, recreational opportunities in Sudbury are often focused on other sports or specialized, smaller, or non-active local historical clubs.

Regional Alternative: The Muskoka Lawn Bowling & Croquet Club is listed as an affiliated club, located in Bracebridge, Ontario,.

Alternative Activities: The City of Greater Sudbury offers 55+ summer games that include lawn bowling, but not explicitly organized, public, year-round croquet.

Historical Reference: A historic "Gorringe Club" was mentioned in relation to early 20th-century social activities in Copper Cliff.

It is recommended to check with local community centers or the Sudbury Parks and Recreation department for casual, public, or pop-up croquet opportunities in local parks.

Downsizing

Goshenite Seniors Services Inc.

705-698-5318, www.gosheniteservices.com Moving is among life's five most stressful ordeals. This stress is far greater for seniors who are often dealing with other challenges at the same time: a major health setback, the loss of a friend or family member, a feeling of vulnerability in their home and the heartache of having to leave it. For seniors, moving is just ... harder. They can't do it alone. Lifestyles change over time, and part of that is Downsizing or Right-Sizing for your new Condo, Apartment, Retirement Residence or Long Term Care facility. Planning and organizing is the key to success. Goshenite Transition and Relocation Team will manage, provide guidance, and coordinate services, for you and your loved ones to ensure a smooth transition. We will listen attentively as clients share their stories and memories in order to make the move as comforting as possible. Initial Consultation Free: Goshenite Seniors Services Inc. offers a one hour initial consultation for free. This allows us to start developing a relationship with our clients, and discuss their needs in order to develop a plan that meets schedule and budget. Create Floor Plan: We will plan, measure, and discuss the floor plan according to the space.

Clients are encouraged to assist with the design of their new space by selecting some of their most treasured pieces of furniture, wall art or heirlooms. Pack, Label and Inventory: All packing supplies will be brought to the home. Everything will be labelled for storage or new location. Sorting & Organizing: We will organize everything in your home systematically and sort items by categories pertinent to the move, selling, shipping, recycle, donation or disposal. Arrange Movers and Home Sale: Coordination and Management of movers. Stage your home for sale. Pack and Unpack New Residence: We just don't pack and unpack. Your new home will be completely set up, with beds made, by the end of move day. Estate – Liquidation Sales: Arrange, manage and coordinate unwanted items to be sold in an Estate or Liquidation sale. Donate, Recycle and Discard of items. We will take care of all items that need to be disposed of or donated.

<https://www.facebook.com/EscapeArtistsSudbury>

Escape Artists on Kathleen is the best one. The other place is called Puzzled, it's good but not the best rooms I've done.

Welcome to Sudbury's Original Escape Rooms! Can you solve the puzzles and escape the room before time runs out? Rooms information can be found under the album 'The Rooms' FAQ... I LOVE THIS! HOW DO I MAKE A RESERVATION? Give us a call during business hours at 705-222-9933 or message us on Facebook anytime! CAN WE JUST SHOW UP WITHOUT A BOOKING? No. A reservation is required. HOW OLD DO I HAVE TO BE TO PLAY? Anyone under the age of 16 is required to be accompanied by an adult who will act as their guardian. WHERE ARE YOU LOCATED? We are across the street and just a few steps down from Tucos Taco Lounge. There is parking in the back of Escape Artists. We can get pretty busy and advise that you call us and book your mission ahead. Reservations will be held for 20 minutes, if you're late it will eat into your mission time and you will have less time to try to escape. We recommend having your group arrive at the scheduled time provided. Our facilities may require guests to participate in physical activity such as bending, crawling, and kneeling. There is a strong use of lighting effects, noises, and electronics. For your safety, participation is prohibited to those with heart conditions, seizures, claustrophobia, anxiety disorders, pregnancy, or physical ailments which make walking or standing difficult. All participants must sign a waiver before participating in any of our missions. We have a zero tolerance for attempting to participate while under the influence of drugs or alcohol. Our staff reserves the right to refuse any participants from entering our facility for any reason

OPEN DURING THE DAY BY RESERVATION ONLY. PLEASE CALL OR EMAIL FOR AVAILABILITY.

Electric Vehicle Club

EV Society

<https://evsociety.ca/sudbury>

Electric Vehicle Society – Greater Sudbury is a non-profit association based out of Sudbury, Ontario with the main goal of educating consumers on the benefits of driving electric. We also work with local businesses and municipal government to foster relationships with the broader BEV industry to spur economic development in our region.

Some of the additional things we do are:

We host education events throughout the year.

Monthly chapter meetings and online webinars.

Working with local and provincial governments to encourage introduction of EV-friendly policies and regulations.

Consult with local businesses and organizations to provide information and education about EV infrastructure, fleet vehicles, and more.

Provide insight and relevant information to business, government and consumers regarding EV adoption in our region.

Help plan and organize the yearly BEV in Depth Mines to Mobility conference.

We are Sudbury's number one choice for electric vehicle information and education.

Mailing Address:

P.O. Box 560, c/o Windy Lake Provincial Park

Levack, Ontario

POM 2C0

Physical Address:

26 kms north of Cartier, Ontario on Hwy 144

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult -
Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

Call or Text: 705-594-1823

Launched in 2018, Click Fork is an online Farmer's Market purchasing and selling local farms and artisanal products in order to make local food more accessible to you, local "eaters", via several FREE drop-off locations and home delivery services in Sudbury, North Bay, West Nipissing, French River, and surrounding areas. The drop-off dates and locations will be available at checkout or you can view our delivery and pick-up schedule HERE. You will also have the option to choose your location at that point. Deliveries are bi-weekly year-round now!

Mission:

To work together with other local farmers to sell and distribute regionally grown, ecologically produced foods to customers in North Eastern Ontario.

Vision:

To make regionally produced foods convenient and accessible to residents in North Eastern Ontario, while connecting eaters with the stories and relationships to where their food comes from.

Values:

We value that our interaction with the land and its people is a shared responsibility for today and for future generations.

We commit to actions and practices that will either minimize negative long term impacts on the earth, and/or have regenerative, improving impacts in the long term, whenever possible.

We aim to produce nutrient dense, GMO free and ecologically produced foods.

To provide quality foods through great customer services.

To build lasting long term relationships between the partners.

The Peter Schneider Concert Series has been a highlight of Greater Sudbury's summer, filling Bell Park with free, live music every Sunday evening. From June through August, the vibrant sounds of local and seasoned musicians have delighted audiences of all ages. With an eclectic list of performers every Sunday at 7 p.m, the concerts have become a beloved tradition for the Greater Sudbury community to come together and enjoy the magic of live music. Performing at the Katherine Bell Gazebo Aug. 24 is Cass and Jack. Cassandra and Jack met at a talent show in 2021, where they were competing with their respective rock bands- Restored and Pop Mach!ne. Since then, they've been jamming acoustic music together, performing at various venues and events around the Sudbury area. Cass and Jack love the challenge of trying to cover multiple genres of music with just two acoustic guitars and vocals.

YES Theatre presents Casey and Diana

Sept. 16 to Oct. 19

Toronto - 1991 - At the height of the global AIDS pandemic, Diana Princess of Wales makes a visit to the Casey House, Canada's first free standings AIDS Hospice. The historic visit sparked a mammoth change in the AIDS Advocacy movement; shepherding a new perspective, smashing stigmas and shifting the hearts and minds of people across the globe. Nick Green's new play has been lauded as one of the greatest new Canadian plays of the decade after debuting with a sold out run at the Stratford Festival followed by acclaimed runs across the country. Casey and Diana was originally commissioned by the Stratford Festival, Ontario, Canada. The show runs Sept. 16 to Oct. 19 at Sudbury Theatre Centre. Purchase tickets online here.

SSO presents Magical Symphony Tour

Sept. 19

Long before “crossover” was a buzzword, the Beatles were blending classical textures into pop masterpieces. Magical Symphony Tour brings together musicians from the Sudbury Symphony Orchestra and Greater Sudbury’s vibrant music scene for a one-night-only concert experience. This concert shines a spotlight on those iconic orchestrations, culminating in a full performance of the beloved Magical Mystery Tour album. With arrangements by Beatles producer Sir George Martin, you’ll hear symphonic winds, strings, and brass in electrifying harmony with guitars, bass, and drums—just as the Beatles imagined. The show runs Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at Laurentian University’s Fraser Auditorium. Purchase tickets online here.

Sept. 19-21

Sudbury Secondary School will mark a major milestone this fall with a weekend celebration in honour of 40 years of arts education. From September 19 to 21, the event will bring together alumni, staff, and supporters to commemorate the school’s long-standing impact on the region’s arts and culture landscape. Tickets, including optional donations and full details, are available now through Eventbrite.

French Fest

Get ready to experience an exceptional day: French Fest, a francophone festival that celebrates all the nuances of Sudbury's francophonie. More than just an event, French Fest is a true reflection of the cultural richness of our community—an invitation to come together, to engage in dialogue, to feel deeply, and to be moved as one. Performers include Djely Tapa and Mourir de trop gueuler. Réseau de soutien à l'immigration francophone du Nord de l'Ontario (RIF) will hold a Recognition Ceremony in la Grande salle as part of French Fest. The festival opens its arms to little ones, teens, parents, and grandparents with a Family Day. Learn more online here.

Ongoing

The Art Gallery of Sudbury is running its exhibition The Sky: New Quilts by Judy Martin until Aug. 30 at its 174 Elgin St. location. From her home on Manitowaning Bay, Manitoulin Island, Judy Martin gazes daily at the vast blanket of sky stretching over the water. Each work is a prolonged durational work of time, labour, and design, taking inspiration from the reassuring continuity of the cosmic circles and unseen stars above us. Each quilt is completely unique, involving multiple uses of materials, including linen, silk, cotton, wool, and multiples techniques including natural dying and over-dying, painting, embroidery, and hand-stitching. AGS also has two off-site exhibitions: Alexandre Fishbein-Ouimette until Nov. 17 and Rory Perras at the Laughing

Buddha until Sept. 15. Learn more on the gallery's website.

Fishing -Guided Trips

Greater Sudbury offers a wealth of fishing opportunities across its 330 lakes, with options ranging from guided trips and charters to numerous public access points and lodges. You can find charters, guides, and various lakes to explore, targeting species like walleye, northern pike, smallmouth/largemouth bass, and lake trout.

Guided Fishing Trips and Charters

For a tailored experience, several local services offer guided trips and charters:

Pro Fishing with Frank Clark: Offers highly recommended guided fishing experiences. You can find more information and contact details on their Facebook page.

Chasing Tail Fishing Charters: Specializes in guided packages and hut rentals on Lake Wanapitei, serving as a local outfitter and guide service.

White Moose Wilderness Outpost: Provides fishing charters and tours in the region.

Copper Blues Fishing Charters, Fathom Five Fishing & Private Boat Tours: Other options for guided fishing experiences in the area.

Top Fishing Destinations

Some of the most popular lakes in the Greater Sudbury area include:

Lake Panache: Known as a premier year-round fishing destination with a diverse range of species including smallmouth and largemouth bass, lake trout, walleye, and northern pike.

Lake Wanapitei: One of the largest local water bodies, offering great opportunities for lake trout, walleye, pike, and smallmouth bass. Boat launches are available at Rocky's Restaurant and Marina and Wanapitei Provincial Park.

Ramsey Lake: Located right within the city limits, it is well-stocked with pike, smallmouth bass, walleye, and perch. A well-maintained access point is near Science North.

Fairbank Lake: A good location for lake trout and smallmouth bass, with a launch available at Fairbank Provincial Park.

Onaping Lake: Part of the Spanish River system, this destination fishery is known for trophy-class walleye, smallmouth bass, pike, and lake trout.

Resources and Information

Fishing Licenses: Ensure you have the appropriate Ontario fishing license. You can purchase one online via the Ontario government website.

Equipment Rentals: You can rent equipment from local outfitters like Ramakkos Source for Adventure or explore options at Kivi Park.

Tackle Share Program: The Greater Sudbury Public Library offers a tackle share program, allowing you to borrow rods, reels, and tackle if you don't have your own.

Boat Launches: The City of Greater Sudbury maintains a list of public boat launches, which can be found via the Tourism Sudbury website.

Lodging: Consider staying at local lodges such as Agnew Lake Lodge, Blue Heron Resort, or Sportsman's Lodge for multi-day trips with accommodation and gear options.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult -
Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

Ramsey Lake: A popular spot for walleye and bass, with fishing particularly good at night.

Windy Lake: Good for pike, walleye, and some lake trout and perch. A public launch is located in Windy Lake Provincial Park.

Kukagami Lake: Another well-known fishing destination.

Fairbank Lake: A good option for anglers in the area.

Lake Panache: Offers a variety of fish species.

Vermillion Lake: A shallow lake with options for walleye, pike, and other fish. Be aware of sunken trees.

Other lakes: Ella Lake, Lake Laurentian, and Nepewassi Lake are also popular choices.

Food Healing Solutions

Food Policy Council

https://sudburyfoodpolicy.com/?utm_source=sudbury.com&utm_campaign=sudbury.com%3A%20outbound&utm_medium=referral

Who we are

We are a not for profit organization directed by the passion of volunteer members who want to ensure a healthy and sustainable food system across Greater Sudbury.

We connect people from across the food system including areas such as farming, food processing, environment and health.

Why we were formed

In 2004, the City of Greater Sudbury and the Sudbury & District Health Unit, now Public Health Sudbury & Districts, endorsed the City of Greater Sudbury Food Charter, one of the first food charters in North America. In 2013, local community leaders and stakeholders formed the Greater Sudbury Food Policy Council to help move the Charter forward and address the many significant food security needs of our community.

Our Vision for Greater Sudbury

The Greater Sudbury Food Policy Council (GSFPC) envisions a Greater Sudbury where:

All residents have access to adequate, affordable, safe, nutritious and culturally preferred food.

Our food system is financially viable, equitable, and environmentally sustainable.

Citizens are knowledgeable about the food system and its impact on their lives, community, and environment.

Our Mission

The Greater Sudbury Food Policy Council champions an affordable, equitable and sustainable food system.

Our Mandate

The Greater Sudbury Food Policy Council recommends food policies, plans and programs to various constituencies (including municipal, provincial, federal, business, public sector, community and households) and works to enable their implementation. It has set the following objectives:

Supporting the implementation of policies, plans and programs related to the five pillars of the Greater

Sudbury Food Strategy:

Healthy Food Access and Literacy

Growing Food (Non-profit)

Forest and Freshwater Foods

Food Retail, Service, and Tourism

Agriculture and Food Processing

Conducting and supporting research, analysis and advocacy to identify food systems issues and solutions.

Facilitating collaboration and knowledge sharing among diverse food system actors.

Encouraging and supporting community-driven food systems initiatives.

Raising awareness on local food issues and opportunities for engagement.

Food Waste Go Away Ideas

Food: Too Good to Waste

Focus on waste reduction first. This can also help you save money!

Buying in bulk is fine if you can eat it all. If there's extra, freeze it, can it, donate it, or make soups, smoothies or baked goods.

Apps/sites like BigOven, Yummly, Super Cook or My Fridge Food will suggest recipes based on ingredients you want to use up. You'd also be surprised what comes up by just searching the ingredients you want to use + "recipe" in Google.

Never going to eat that can of beans? Donate it to a local food bank.

Make a meal plan and stick with it. Apps/websites like Whisk, Mealime or Paprika help with meal planning and generating grocery lists.

Best before dates have to do with food quality – freshness, texture, flavour and nutritional value – not safety. They are not expiry dates.

First In, First Out. When unpacking groceries, move older products to the front of the fridge/freezer/pantry and new products to the back.

Use apps like Flash Food to buy near-expiry foods at discounted prices at local grocery stores.

Food Wasting Soon Deals To Get

Produce To Be Removed Soon

Flashfood and Too Good to Go are apps you can download where grocery stores are selling their produce that need to be removed from their shelves at reduced prices to reduce food waste.

Mini Football Teams

Mini football opportunities in Greater Sudbury for youth include the UA Rise Flag Football league (ages 5-17) and the Joe MacDonald Youth Football League (ages 8-12). These programs provide non-contact, skill-focused, and competitive options for children to learn the fundamentals of football in a safe environment.

Key Mini/Youth Football Options in Sudbury:

UA Rise Flag Football (Sudbury): Provides a competitive, co-ed, and all-girls flag football experience for ages 5-

17. It is a high-energy, non-contact option powered by Under Armour.

Joe MacDonald Youth Football League: A long-standing league (since 1994) offering youth football for children up to age 13, including non-contact spring camps for ages 8-12 at the Lancerdome.

Sudbury Spartans Youth Programming: The Sudbury Spartans are expanding to include flag football for boys and girls ages 4 to 17, and they operate competitive U16/U18 tackle teams.

Sudbury Flag Football (Gridiron): Offers co-ed and girls programs for kids and teens to learn fundamental skills. These leagues focus on skill development, teamwork, and confidence-building for young athletes in Northern Ontario.

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/742633562762572>

Welcome to The Sudbury Friend Zone: A group to meet friends and share hobbies! People sometimes post events, suggest group activities.

How we started: An anonymous post on Shoutout Sudbury sparked the interest for a solution to how a new person in Sudbury can meet friends with no interest in bars. There were so many of us that said

"me too" with suggestions of activities that 22 of us formed this group on November 2nd, 2018. We are an eclectic group of all ages and we love it!

How we work: Members introduce themselves, share their interests, and suggest & create events around town! There are zero expectations, and only opportunities to make good friends. New members are always welcome! We look forward to meeting you!

Sudbury Ultimate Club offers 4v4 indoor turf leagues during the winter (typically Jan-Mar) and sometimes holds spring indoor pickup, often located at the Lancer Dome. These leagues are designed for all skill levels, offering a "hat league" format where players are mixed into teams, allowing for both beginner and competitive play.

Winter 4v4 Indoor League (2026): Runs from late January to March, featuring 2:2 gender ratios and catering to both new players and veterans.

Registration: Usually organized as a "Hat League," where individuals sign up and are placed on teams.

Location: Games are held at the Lancer Dome.

Other Opportunities: The club sometimes offers spring indoor pickup to prepare for the summer season.

For the most current team sign-ups and schedules, visit the Sudbury Ultimate Club website or their Facebook page.

Games Why Add to Your Bar, Brewery, or Coffee Shop

The minimum expectation from patrons when going to a bar or cafe is a beverage and a place to sit. With so many bars to choose from; many patrons are looking for a little more than the bare minimum. Games are a great way to add value to your bar, brewery, or coffee shop without changing the core of your business. Here are a few reasons to add games to your business:

Create a more relaxed and social atmosphere, leading to increased customer loyalty and repeat business.

Improve your bottom line by increasing your revenues and profits. Games give incentives to stay longer, and when guests stay longer, they are more likely to spend more money at your establishment.

Promote your brand and build customer awareness.

Differentiate your business from competitors. You may have a similar draft list to the bar down the street, but games can help make yours more fun.

Garage Sale Phone Apps

Garage Sale Rover

What's better than telling you exactly where a yard sale is located? Well, it's allowing you to search by the specific items you are looking for. Whether you want toys, clothes or a microwave oven, this app can help you find it. Once you have located the garage sale that you want to visit, the GPS system will automatically direct your paths to help you find it. The garage sale finder app is totally free and very user-friendly. Using GPS satellite positioning, you can find any yard sale wherever you are.

Yard Sale Treasure Map

This app doesn't scour newspapers and other online sites, it goes straight to Craigslist listed garage sales. It has a handy map that allows you to view their location or you have the option to view them in a list format. It sorts the best garage sales in your area based on the preferences you set up. It has a filter so that you can change your location, distance, and even the day of the week you are shopping. Get new pop-up sales that are entered into the system when they are close to you. Plus, this app gives you a map and directions to the sales. No wasted time on being lost.

Garage Sales By Map

This app uses numerous online resources to compile the best yard sales near you. It has more than 60,000 sales to comb through on a weekly basis. Use keyword features to find exactly what you are looking for. The app covers the entire country, so you can see what's going on in another location too. The great thing is you can call a relative and let them know about a huge sale or you can use it when traveling. It combs through Gsalr.com, Oodle.com, Weekendtreasure.com, Craigslist.com, and Estatesales.org.

Garage Sale Wizards

This app offers just a little bit more than others. It includes estate sales, moving sales, auctions, and traditional multi-family style sales. Contributors upload sales here so that the avid shopping won't miss out on a great sale in their neighborhood. This totally free app is compatible with the iPod, iPad, and the iPhone. You can use it on your tablet to keep your phone free.

Garage Sales Tracker

This app provides the best of both worlds. It is designed to help both the host and the buyer. Those who are having yard sales can list them for free with this app. They can let the customers know of an upcoming sale weeks in advance. The buyer can use the zip code area to find sales nearby. Because it uses Google maps to store locations, it is really great at helping to find flea markets, consignment shops, and the ever-popular garage sales.

Yard Sale Watch

You can be alerted when items that peak your interest are being sold in your area. This free app links to other social media sites. Since so many people list their sales on Facebook and Twitter, this app will comb through those listings to help you out.

While it is one of the newer apps on the market, the reviews so far have been really positive. It is definitely an app to watch and be on the lookout for new and exciting updates. It is estimated that this app will be one of the leaders in the garage sale seeker industry.

Private Garage Sale

If you like eBay, then you will love this app. Sellers can list their items for sale on here rather than having a yard sale on their lawn. Buyers contact the seller over this free network. There are no commissions or fees to be a part of this community, even if you buy or sell. If you sell on this site, you keep 100 percent of the profits. Use this app with other private garage sales sites for maximum savings potential.

College Garage Sale

If you love supporting your local alma matter, then this may be the app for you. Everything that is bought or sold on this app gives a percentage to the school of the seller's choice. You can locate a garage sale or just buy items on this app. Some items start as low as $1.00.

Scrounge Around

The best app for all your garage sale needs is Scrounge Around. It is updated daily and has the largest network of users. They comb through social media, online postings, and allow users to make posts too. Integrate this app with a map app and you are set for a day of fun.

Garage Sale Finder Aps

GSALR <https://gsalr.ca>

Garage Sale Rover What's better than telling you exactly where a yard sale is located? Well, it's allowing you to search by the specific items you are looking for. Whether you want toys, clothes or a microwave oven, this app can help you find it. Once you have located the garage sale that you want to visit, the GPS system will automatically direct your paths to help you find it. The garage sale finder app is totally free and very user-friendly. Using GPS satellite positioning, you can find any yard sale wherever you are. Yard

Sale Treasure Map <https://yardsaletreasuremap.com> This app doesn't scour newspapers and other online sites, it goes straight to Craigslist listed garage sales. It has a handy map that allows you to view their location or you have the option to view them in a list format. It sorts the best garage sales in your area based on the preferences you set up. It has a filter so that you can change your location, distance, and even the day of the week you are shopping. Get new pop-up sales that are entered into the system when they are close to you. Plus, this app gives you a map and directions to the sales. No wasted time on being lost. Garage Sales By Map This app uses numerous online resources to compile the best yard sales near you. It has more than 60,000 sales to comb through on a weekly basis. Use keyword features to find exactly what you are looking for. The app covers the entire country, so you can see what's going on in another location too. The great thing is you can call a relative and let them know about a huge sale or you can use it when traveling. It combs through Gsalr.com, Oodle.com, Weekendtreasure.com, Craigslist.com, and Estatesales.org.

Garbage Zero Waste Clubs

Garbage Collecting Clubs

Junction Creek Club

I think you can still sign up for the spring garbage clean up thing Check out the waste wise app, used to be kind of social younger person thing.

Fish release coming up for Junction Creek.

Junction Creek cleanups. They are pretty much all done by teens and a few adult volunteers.

Adopt-a-road –from the City Of Sudbury–call 311

In this program a group of people adopt a 2 kilometer section of Road way. They have the responsibility of picking up litter in that section of the roadway twice a year.

Garbage Reduction Stores

The Nickel Refillery Inc.

227 Regent Street

Greater Sudbury, Ontario P3C 4C4

(705) 805-9969

info@thenickelrefillery.ca

The Nickel Refillery was started by a motivated group of people who came together over their knowledge and passion about reducing waste. With clear support from the community, The Nickel Refillery opened its doors in Sudbury, Ontario on October 5th, 2019.

Sudbury, Ontario is the hub of Northeastern Ontario and boasts many zero waste initiatives that span across the city! We wanted to support these initiatives with a services and tools that help reduce single use waste.

When possible, we also offer local and Canadian-made products that place a focus on people and the planet.

Today, we host regular workshops, offer reusable dish rentals, and continue to expand our household, DIY ingredients and personal care refillable product options. Recently, we've also started supporting other local businesses, Airbnbs, and restaurants to reduce their waste too.

We have a fun, engaged team that is the driving force behind our shop...just look for the green aprons!

We are deeply grateful and want to acknowledge that we are operating on the Robinson-Huron Treaty territory and that the land on which we provide our services is on the traditional territory of the Atikameksheng Anishnaabeg.

HOW IT WORKS

The Nickel Refillery offers a wide range of diverse sustainable and often fully unpackaged products to help reduce waste in many areas of life including fresh and dry foods, cleaning supplies, and housewares.

Zero waste shopping might sound intimidating at first, but we promise it's easy! Not only does it save you from accumulating unnecessary waste, it can also save you money!

Gardening

Check out your local community garden (Website) They do meetings, workshops, events.

There is a Sudbury horticultural society that has regular meetings

Sudbury Shared Harvest (website) has a very casual volunteer drop in session on Wednesday evenings at Delki Dozzi food forest. I did this quite frequently and it was a lot of fun - the bonus is sampling all the fruits as they come into season! I know they are looking for help in gardens in different areas too.

Garden For Money Ideas

Bake Seeds

Pumpkin Seeds baked on a cookie sheet are good for protein and may have uses to sell for this.

Sell Seeds for art or Halloween theory

Make collages out of seeds or statues and they could be Halloween oriented.

feed birds for therapy of soul

Feed birds in the park to see if they could help the soul see what man needs to be successful and make the soul happier. Ideas come from the birds often.

sell seeds for added to candy at flea market

Make Candy Apples with seeds added to them or another candy idea to be original and sell at Flea Market donate tomato plants to food bank for concern of one sandwich donate tomato plants to food bank for concern of raffle etc...

Donate a single plant for enough for one sandwich at a Food Bank to say I know better than starve my neighbor.

Ask if you can raffle off a food plant at a Food Bank for humanitarian relief or food for them.

donate to nurseries to raffle

You could raffle plants as consignment at nurseries if the idea is accepted by them.

donate seeds to Delki Dozi Park garden

Some parks may be able to plant your seeds or plants for better service to you like harvesting at a later dates.

sell seeds as fertilizer

Your own fertilizer could be better than others or unique for a reason not thought of to sell worldwide.

sell seeds as antacid

Could you have the next plant mulch that's the next ant-acid or do you happen to know a better way to coat them to sell a new mulch in liquid form perhaps.

sell seeds as cat litter or absorbants for dog or cat's piss

Can you make a cat litter or an absorbant mash for mechanics with oil on their garage floor for sale?

make hemp matts for poor

Matting can be made of many garden leaves or vines etc to sell or give to improve the economy. Perhaps a welcome matt to say "No Pestilence" to speed up the world events. You could donate them as pillows or mats for the poor as well as long as they are made fire retardant.

make a hemp matt for God

Make God a bed. Perhaps he'll stop by to say thanks.

make dyes for Easter Eggs or clothes

Make dyes for Easter Eggs, clothing or anything you can come up with. Perhaps a non-alergic dye is needed for sailing sheet.

put seeds in beer cans and sell as "Faith For Man" and bill should say

I'm in love with the waitress

Sell an abomination gift to people telling them global warming is killing the beer industry with a plant in the can and a funny note. Make real money look unattainable or another way to insult man for stupidity. Probably a few out there. No more pet rocks. LOL make greeting card and put seed in to promote poppies for Remembrance Day or Tulips for Holland Soldiers

Tell a child his graduation card is for planting a tree seed inside it to say I believe you'll swing from the top of it one day. Etc.

make a disinfectant for sidewalks or household cleaner

Several seeds or plants kill bugs and may even disinfect if the mixture deodorant comes from one or a sidewalk spray for ointment gum. LOL

Make a hemp table top and sell

Sell a table top of hemp and make a good deal of money on one and if it's unique even better.

make beverage from seeds

Some juices or oils in plants may make the next energy drink to sell.

make seed oils

Make a new oil for something like pavement to make it last and sell it to the city to reduce potholes.

make potpourri to sell for scent or incense

Some like smells. Put your nose to the roses and maybe you smell out a better cologne or perfume that makes you think it's early morning.

make rubber plungers with plants

A mold would be useful for rubber extracts from plants or mixture.

make particle wood or polyfilla or wood filler

Sawdust wood or even a new plywood is achievable with plant matter. You could even make wood filler better to sell.

grow plant for stuffing for winter coat

Who doesn't want fluff to winter. Make me a better reason to sell to a clothing manufacturer.

make a cardboard out of plants

Could you make cardboard? Try. It WILL Sell.

sell plants as mulch you make

Mulch is many things. You could make horses mulch and tell the farmer you sell it to him to remove ticks.

Maybe it's smart on a farm.

make pen ink from seeds

Ink is too expensive not to make and sell. Corner the market wise.

make miracle grow formula

Accelerate the crops you can for money with a better mix of fertilizer to make big fruit or vegetables.

Perhaps larger mushrooms is good.

make drink cups for containers of all things

Make a potter for plants out of plants or a drinking cup that's of sterile plants.

make bow ties or fabric

Clothe is able to make things like bow ties.

sell sugar plants ground to new sugar

A new sugar that does not rott teeth. Could you do that and not give me cancer? I'd pay ya.

make napkins to sell cheap

Who won't wipe up after a farmer hands him an ale wipe. Dang.

make dice out of hemp

Dice can be pressed with store bought pressers. Use an oat for that.

make preservative fluid for seeds

Can you make a seed preservative or a coating for them?

make wax

A new wax for baking might help. An edible wax for dogs maybe?

make pressed buttons for shirt or badge

I'm on my way badges for others to pass you by are great for making people purchase futures of slogans. Perhaps a button for moccasins.

"Walk don't think-I'm understood for toe gaizers. They're bent to see dogs bark at my shoes and defend the laces. Moccasins keep me from them to say "Try Again Mind Reader"

make butter

What person wouldn't enjoy a new butter to slide on for flavor. Eat what you want but come back for more.

make plants to neutralize acids

An acid may need neutralizing but maybe one could turn it into toffee.

Grow Groceries

Grow healthy groceries like green beans, yellow beans, corn, peas, broccoli, squash, turnip and green peppers.

Make Medicines

You could always make a medicine to sell or heal
Sanitize occasionally

Donate Food For Several Purposes

You could donate food for a gold ticket event and a lottery could ensue.

Spirit

Sell a plant to an Indian for prayer or plant it in a sacred spot for the community to get together for a plant festival.

Products

Make a handle for a shopping cart that's cool to the touch.

Resale

Resell the food or seeds for more money.

Auction

Tell your neighbor your beets are bid on NOT did on.

Retool

Come up with a new reason for fertilizer or slurry.

Service

Sell garden time to the neighbors for more money or power to do something like build a raft for Tom Sawyer.

Poverty

Give your food to charity's poor or tell the rich to save it until it gets too much to be just food and is not an economy event for feeding Africa.

Inexpense

Offer new reasons to bring seed or plant prices down by inventing a new shovel to speed up work by putting a seed dispenser in it for better time saved in transplanting. Perhaps the handle is made of plant for your business whole to family made profit.

Food Banks

Give to Food Banks or shame them with coupons to pick from your garden. That's rude.

Charity

Tell the neighbors you're a charity and ask them what you can plant them for money. Be a Lion and pretend.

Government Ministry Of Citizens

Let others know the price of grapes is six cents and put a sign to say they come from money land. Then ask them to donate for grape juice each time they come across the orchard as a toll for The God Of Wine. That could bring the cost down with your sales not supporting what the extra money raises the price and kills the competition.

Sharing Costs

Tell the neighbor you'll pay half of everything he sells. Start with what he plants and consider your time his.

Global Spread Inventing

Sell an apple to Rome that they don't have to save the fruit flies there.

Repugnants

Make stinc and sell a plant modified to push away bugs or girls. Perhaps a dog so I don't sound sexist. Humor lost. LOL

Attractants Of Wildlife

Make an animal want your turnip more than others. Say the turnip has a sweeter gene you add.

Sauces

Make a sauce no one knows of and even for a strange use.

Craft Parts

Make dried carrots for snowmen kits etc...

Dyes

Tell politicians their hair dye could be natural and ask for a grant.

Collecting

Collect Apples to make Apple Dolls. Collect seeds to save the planet from drought. Collect dehydrated melons or large vegetables for alternatives to sandbagging flooded areas.

Field Markers Of Art

Make a Mona Lisa out of your corn without corniness being invasive.

Fuel

Sell a corn cob oil to an old-school conservationist who drives his car on French Fries.

Cloth Making

Make a cloth of many colors and call it scarecrow stuff.

Oils

Sell oil to Arabs for mustaches that know gold cars have trimmers on the dash for hot days that need refueling for heat in desert.

Bricks

Make a brick from potato leaves and sell it as Lego.

Insulation

A beet may make a good insulation to a mud hut overseas or here.

Particle Wood

Press blueberry stems into wooden rulers for kids and corner market with wooden set squares.

Ozone Gas

Create Ozone Gas and release it. This is another fine mess you got me into.

Dog Food

Make a new kibbles and bits that is nature friendly and vaccinates foxes when it falls on the ground.

Grafting

Join trees in marriage for holy buck-romony and that's purple peaches to a nice Hawaian punch.

Paper or Cardboards

Can you make pulp? YES! A good new paper on the market might be worth having for recycle reasons.

Size

Ask for the Mayor to bless your yard for growing contests to raise money for the biggest pumpkin. Tell the Mayor he's getting soup.

Contests

Make a contest out of watching your garden grow. A sign out front to say how many potatoes are in the garden in 3 month with no bug bites will win you a ticket prize at fifty cents.

Paint

Make a paint that paints only sand for the kids.

Perfume

Sell your excess rubarb for candle in liquid form to make campsites bear resistant.

Laxatives

Offer the Mayor one of your new stodgy laxatives for people sitting too long and say it's a charm thing to be sure he know he can move afterwards and then sell him on business cards at the city desk to promote business cards soaked in tomato ryhynne that kills cromosomes for better bowel regulation when at social events counsellor's travel.

Tea Leaves

Pretend tea comes from leaves and bag it to sell at the fair.

Fertilizer

Get people to believe your plants fertilize ONLY winter gardens and it must be applied in the winter to special vitamin analogies of the sun to make them see you as a God. giggle

Vitamins

Harvest vitamins from some plants for dogs only. That'll corner the market. GARDEN DOG STRENGTH – UNDERDOG STATUS

Ointments

Make a slauvve for your wife's back and tell the neighbors word of mouth makes her fertility rate go up to sell it better.

Bacteria

Make a bacteria in a sludge and water the neighbor's plants for money of special procee.

Anti-oxidents

Sell a tooth rinse that removes excess gas from teeth for poor brushing being a thing.

Transplants

Offer transplant service and wait to buy product for them when asked.

Spices

Ask what works for hot and select pepper understanding in you for a better understanding of ridding wimps at the table. Add that to your honey and create a toast that pickles morning breath from forming tartar.

3D Printer Core INK

Come up with a maleable new 3D-Printer ink.

Drum Making

Make bongos from large fruit or vegetable.

Wallpaper Faunas

Take pictures of your garden for Playboy in faunas chosen by them. Ask to be enlisted in the process. Become a Gee Ehhhh Ohhhhh!

Photography Hunt Contests

Rent your garden out to trolls for photo contest for the best photo of the garden's hunt. Maybe a calendar prize for the $5 entry fee cost they pay you.

Snacks Only

Sell snacks only from your garden and offer only kids the right to be your advertisers. Create a rucus.

New Packaging

Offer new packaging for berries so the package is a travel mug that you pick a cup of fruit tea in and then you have top that holds a volume of water for the stilizer.

String

Make string from rubarb stem strands and sell them as string toffee in a solution of carmel.

Illustration Art

Offer your garden to Amazon for Photo Edit Machines that mugs need background scenery and update the back drops.

Chezio Patterns To Sprinkle

Offer Aztec training sessions in how to influence birds to return next year based on hay patterns you lay down for mortality rates.

Praying Plants

Raise Indian plants for Saging or just a sacred plant to start a new holiday for the Indian based on his ideals of the creator or God/Entity.

Gums

Make a chewable gum with berry additive to sell.

Science

Make science clubs part of your garden by enlisting elementary school children to outdoor learn as part of the school's regiment for money and get the kids fresh air and exercise as well.

Antifreeze

Can a plant be able to stop heating in car radiators for cheaper?

Wildlife

Roast a vegetable to make a land powder for spreading over deer parks to say the deer will be fed better for supplements they treat their feet to in earnest of rutting.

Phalic Symbols

Make a phallic symbol that best describes the Mayor and suggest a name book for kids to choose another way to label people by their plant signs. Perhaps the Mayor's a yearn up for this idea. Funds provided.

Acids

Sell only beet whites as acid of the stars to say they are special in small clutch like bags to get them to donate to your garden wing of excellence.

Montgomery Burns Paradeth. LOL

Gardening-Regeneratively

Regenerative agriculture is the key to sustainable modern farming

<https://www.sudbury.com/spotlight/green-living-regenerative-agriculture-is-the-key-to-sustainable-modern-farming-10295890>

Regenerative agriculture, by contrast, emphasizes farming in harmony with nature and the community. Its practices strengthen the processes that support plant growth and can improve things like soil health, plant health and resistance, water and nutrient retention, and pollination.

Geologic Formations

Sudbury Basin: A 1.85-billion-year-old meteorite impact structure that is the source of the area's nickel and copper ores.

A.Y. Jackson Lookout: Located near the northern edge of the crater, offering views of the geological features and a GeoTour explaining the impact.

Dynamic Earth: An immersive visitor attraction that explains the region's geology through exhibits on the meteorite impact, the Canadian Shield, and a large replica of a Canadian nickel.

Copper Cliff: A driving tour location that highlights the mining industry and the smelter.

Copper Cliff Smelter Superstack: A prominent chimney of the smelter, representing the city's historic mining industry.

Science North: A museum that includes exhibits on the Canadian Shield, featuring stories of ancient meteorite impacts, faulting, and glacial sculpting.

Lake Laurentian Conservation Area: Features natural trails with geological insights.

Go Carts

You should probably start in a 4 stroke Briggs which isn't the quickest but will let you learn and get used to driving a kart. There is ROK which is the much much faster 2 stroke class but is also a lot more expensive to run.

I'm sure if you go to Mosport and take to the parts shop they can give you a break down of the budget needed for both.

Located at 3525 Forest Ridge Road, Forest Ridge Golf & Country Club boasts a challenging and rewarding course as it is built on land that originally had several rock outcrops, swamps, low and high lands, and water ponds. This is an extremely fun playing experience, regardless of your ability.

Whether you're looking to play 9-holes or 18-holes, a golf cart is recommended due to the spacious layout between holes. This well-kept course is also known for the abundant wildlife that dwells there. A game here brings a relaxing and fulfilling experience regardless of your skill level.

If you visit for a game, be sure to visit the clubhouse afterwards. It has a reputation for good food and a large but cozy atmosphere. A terrific way to complete a day on the course!

Pine Grove Golf Club -

<https://www.golfpinegrove.ca/en>

Pine Grove Golf Club, at 3767 Hwy 69 South, is an 18-hole facility only 20-minutes from downtown.

Beautifully designed and magnificently maintained, it is ranked as one of the most challenging courses in Canada. Most greens are on a slope, one way, the other way, or both!

With reasonable prices and fast greens, it is recommended that you use a golf cart as the course is long and covers a large area. Cart paths take you through cool, shady areas and you can rarely see the next tee box from the last hole's green.

If you visit Pine Grove for an 18-hole game, the back nine is beautiful. It includes a hole called "The Chasm" which has an elevated tee box with a great view of a heavily overgrown gully. The beauty of this course alone is well worth taking the time to play. This course has a lot of water and little sand. They also have a twilight rate!

Course Details

- Location: The course is located at the corner of Selkirk Street and Burton Avenue, with the first tee near the gazebo.
- Holes: There are 22 holes with a mix of technical shots in the woods and more open fairways, featuring both flat sections and elevation changes.
- Cost: Play is free for recreational use.
- Accessibility: The park entrance and parking lot are wheelchair accessible, but the course itself is not recommended for individuals with limited mobility due to the variable terrain.
- Amenities: A seasonal port-o-potty is available near the softball field.
- Rules: Park users have the right of way, and discs should not be thrown over roadways. Yell "fore" if there is a chance your disc might land near someone.

Equipment

While any frisbee can be used for casual play, disc golf involves specialized discs (drivers, mid-range, and putters) designed for different shots. A regular frisbee will not perform the same way as a disc golf disc.

You can purchase appropriate discs from local retailers like Canadian Tire or Sport Chek, or online.

Sudbury Disc Golf Club

The Sudbury Disc Golf Club is active and runs leagues, which are open to all skill levels. For more information, you can contact the club via their Facebook page or by emailing sudburydiscgolf@gmail.com.

Good Food Markets (Wholesale Prices)

The Good Food Market is a pop-up produce market that sets up weekly in neighborhoods that are under-served by grocery stores. It operates on a not-for-profit basis, with the goal of encouraging local families to make healthy choices by making it easier for them to access a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables. Market patrons are able to purchase a variety of quality produce at wholesale prices. We visited 7 different communities weekly and served over 500 people from July to October.

www.goodfoodboxsudbury.ca

The Good Food Box is a non-profit community initiative that allows individuals and families to purchase a variety of nutritious, delicious and fresh vegetables and fruit at wholesale prices. The program runs like a large buying club. Anyone who wishes to purchase a box is welcome. Each month, customers pre-pay $17 (large) or $8 (small) for a box of fresh fruits and vegetables. The Good Food Box Coordinator uses these deposits to place a bulk order through local distributors and producers. Food is then delivered to the packing site where volunteers separate the variety of fruits and vegetables into individual boxes. The boxes are then distributed throughout the Sudbury region to host sites where the boxes are to be picked up.

Each box contains the same mix of fruits and vegetables and are always below market price. There are at least two local food item in each box, numbers varying by season.

Airsoft

I've been wondering why airsoft is so unpopular in Canada and I can't see any other reason aside from the ridiculous import laws that are restrictive on owning an airsoft rifle. Paintball here is much more prominent and the only time there's any airsoft action is when the good people at ASC organizes a game on one of the paintball fields.

Halloween Events Annually

Dynamic Earth has a pretty awesome weekend event called Pumpkinferno the month of October.

Leisure farms in Sturgeon Falls. Lots of different kinds of pumpkins to choose from. The corn maze and haunted barn is fun too !

Foraging during the fall is super fun. Lots of cool mushrooms growing this time of year. Just careful about eating them without spore printing and identifying

Terror train in Capreol around Halloween is always fun

That's not a thing anymore. Northern Screams moved to Blezard and now it's called the "Fields of Fear" I think?

Love this. Did it last year and will again. Great Pumpkin Hunt

<https://kivipark.com/events.php>

Sudbury Market (downtown at the rail station across from the arena) will be hosting a Harvest Festival on Oct 15 9am-4pm. More info on their social media (Instagram and Facebook).

Lively used to host a fall fair but it's been cancelled (I believe due to restorative work being done to the grounds/museum) so that should return next year.

I believe Wagon Wheel Ranch has a pumpkin patch but haven't been. And I think a similar thing in Sturgeon Falls but I don't know the farm's name.

Isn't their pumpkin patch more of a "pile of pumpkins in a field"? If OP wants that experience, best to hit up Leisure Farms in Sturgeon.

No really fairs but Wagon Wheel Ranch in the Valley usually has a pumpkin patch and some activities (wagon ride, petting zoo) and Leisure Farms in Sturgeon has that as well. Theirs is bigger. There's usually some haunted houses in Blezard Valley as well (field of screams? I think is what it's called).

Leisure Farms in Sturgeon has that as well

Dynamic earth and science north both have events for halloween. Also, Terror train in Hanmer for Halloween

I just got an email from Blezard Valley Fields of Fear for early bird tickets, look them up! It was great last year.

Dynamic earth has Halloween events for family. Bring cash. For no reason at all they don't do cashless at this event.

Sudbury burlesque is selling tickets for their Halloween shows. Always worth the ticket price.

Helicopter Course

Where to find training

Great Lakes Helicopter Corp (GLH): Offers a variety of Transport Canada-approved programs, including Private and Commercial licenses, instructor ratings, and night ratings.

Helicopters Canada: Provides a full-time, structured program designed to achieve a Commercial Pilot License.

Central North Flying Club (CNFC): Located in Coniston, offers both ground school and flight training at multiple locations, including the Sudbury Airport, {according to their website <https://learntofly.ca/central-north-flying-club-cnfc/>}.

Aircrew Training Canada Ltd. (ATCL): While focused on a future simulator training facility, this company's development indicates a growing helicopter training sector in the area, {as reported by Skies Mag <https://skiesmag.com/press-releases/atcl-frasca-sign-letter-intent-purchase-4-simulators-new-sudbury-training-centre/>} and {Sudbury News <https://www.sudbury.com/local-news/seven-st-591697>}.

Types of courses

Private License: For recreational flying. Requires a minimum of 45 flight hours and 40 hours of ground school, {according to Great Lakes Helicopter <https://glheli.ca/pages/courses-glh>}.

Commercial License: Professional-level training. Requires a minimum of 100 flight hours and 80 hours of ground school.

IFR Rating: Instrument Flight Rules rating for flying in low visibility conditions. Involves 40 dual hours and 20 hours of ground school.

Instructor Rating: To become a flight instructor. Requires 30 flight hours and 25 ground hours.

VFR Night Rating: Allows you to fly at night. Requires 10 flight hours (5 dual, 5 solo).

Specialized courses: Includes Winter Survival, Vertical Reference, and Aerial Spray Training, {as listed on the Great Lakes Helicopter website <https://glheli.ca/pages/courses-glh>}.

Size: 5142.00 ha

Year established: 1985

Park Classification: Natural Environment

Mailing Address:

P.O. Box 560, c/o Windy Lake Provincial Park

Levack, Ontario, P0M 2C0, CANADA

Physical Address: 26 kms north of Cartier, Ontario on Hwy 144

Birding: Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating: Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing: Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route: Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program: Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing: Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking: Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting: Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming: Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

Sudbury Friend Zone

A group to meet friends and share hobbies!

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/742633562762572>

Welcome to The Sudbury Friend Zone: A group to meet friends and share hobbies!

How we started: An anonymous post on Shoutout Sudbury sparked the interest for a solution to how a new person in Sudbury can meet friends with no interest in bars. There were so many of us that said "me too" with suggestions of activities that 22 of us formed this group on November 2nd, 2018. We are an eclectic group of all ages and we love it!

How we work: Members introduce themselves, share their interests, and suggest & create events around town! There are zero expectations, and only opportunities to make good friends. New members are always welcome! We look forward to meeting you!

Hunting Ideas For Sudbury

Crown Land For Hunting Section Or find someone who has lots of private land Section or Suggestions Of Hunting Land Section

Kind of new to hunting here in Sudbury, I am looking for any good open or indoor range and anyone or a group that goes deer hunting or wild turkey hunting to show me the ropes and hunting spots, or if there is any crown land to do that around.

I won't reveal where I hunt birds. But, you can hunt them locally. Turkey, I've only gone south for. And, they're very smart. Requiring more effort than I'm willing to do on my own.

I believe the mnrf has an atlas. It shows crown land and acceptable uses.

Your best bet is to look at different clubs. Find one that suits you. Restricted/non-restricted uses. The better the facilities usually carry higher dues. But, all clubs will welcome you and are a wealth of knowledge. Many members would welcome you joining a hunt.

To note, I've noticed a decline of moose locally. Deer are in fewer numbers as well. Manitoulin has an overpopulation of deer as its almost all private land. You can hunt on private property with the express written permission of the land owner though.

Many ranges also have community day events

<https://www.riflesandreeels.ca/>

<https://trailsmenrodandgunclub.com/>

These are my 2 personal favorites. The first has Sudburys longest range that I'm aware of. And, has many experienced people. The second is also great. It's like hanging with family. And, depending where you took your course, you might already know a member.

I would just start googling, assuming you already have your PAL/outdoors cards you should be welcomed like anyone else

When it comes to meeting people, good luck that is just a part of life but I would like to think hunters can get along well with other hunters - I personally don't go to any official ranges/clubs to shoot

I personally hunt birds (grouse) towards the west of Sudbury (will not be revealing locations haha) I don't see turkeys they are usually for more north west areas from here

When it comes to deer on the island you'll basically need your own land to use/borrow and moose you can find but you gotta go even deeper west/north west

With grouse there's plenty of crown land (or areas you know no one really "owns" monitors or cares about)

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

KNOT TYING CLUBS

Specific, dedicated, and independent knot-tying clubs are rare in Greater Sudbury, but enthusiasts can find similar skills through local scouting, specialized workshops, and crafting guilds. Key options include Scouts Canada groups for traditional knot-tying, macramé workshops for artistic knots, and the Lively Heritage Arts Guild for fiber-based knotting.

Scouts Canada (Sudbury Groups): Local troops, such as Troop 65, focus on wilderness skills, including knot tying for camping, bear bag hangs, and pioneering.

Macramé Workshops: The City of Greater Sudbury hosts specialized, beginner-friendly workshops (e.g., "Girls Night In: Macrame and Mingle") that teach knotting techniques for crafting.

Lively Heritage Arts Guild: This group focuses on various crafts, including fiber arts, which can include knot-related skills, and meets in the community.

International Guild of Knot Tyers (IGKT) - North America: While not a local club, this organization has an active online presence for enthusiasts.

For more artistic or functional knotting, checking schedules at local craft stores or the Sudbury Public Library for hobby workshops is recommended.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be competed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult -
Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

Kayaking Enchanting Places

By Conor Mihell

Conor Mihell is an award-winning environmental and adventure travel writer and experienced sea kayak guide based in Sault Ste. Marie.

March 1, 2023

Sudbury is shedding its gritty Nickel City reputation and replacing it with the greener title of “City of Lakes.” A quick look at the map shows that the distinction is well-earned: Greater Sudbury is surrounded by freshwater, ranging from dozens of urban lakes to pristine freshwater jewels that offer canoe route connections to some of Ontario’s finest backcountry tripping, as well as easy access to magnificent sea kayaking on Lake Huron’s North Channel and Georgian Bay. In fact, there are 330 lakes within city limits, more than any other municipality in Canada.

In Sudbury you’ll discover amazing day paddling by kayak or canoe on lakes in the heart of downtown. Nature is always close at hand, even within city limits. Local outfitters can set you up for a great day trip or the wilderness adventure of your dreams. The region bridges the open waters of the Great Lakes with the labyrinth of inland waterways in Ontario's Killarney and Temagami regions, with excellent season-long whitewater canoe tripping on the Spanish and French rivers.

Paddling only enhances a visit to this Northern Ontario hub. Sudbury is a bustling city with plenty of attractions, accommodations, fine- and casual dining, coffee shops, breweries and more, making the city a great destination for paddlers who love to travel. A trip to Sudbury isn't complete without a visit to Science North, the city's award-winning science centre on the shores of Ramsey Lake. This list is an introduction to what makes Sudbury a great place to paddle.

Kivi Park

Located in Sudbury's south end, Kivi Park is a splash of boreal greenspace within the tapestry of the city. This 480-acre park includes great mountain bike, hiking and cross-country ski trails as well as scenic paddling. Crowley Lake provides the feeling of a northern lake, with a shoreline of rocks and dense forest, as well as a sandy beach at the launch. Canoeists can paddle and portage from Crowley into adjacent Camp and Linton lakes for further exploration. Kivi Park offers on-site canoe, kayak and standup paddleboard rentals. A day pass is required.

Visit Salute Coffee Company on Armstrong Street for a great cup of coffee in Sudbury's South End, or venture downtown to check out Twigg's Coffee Roasters, Kuppajo Espresso Bar and Old Rock Coffee.

Peddler's Pub features local beers and an axe-throwing venue, and M.I.C Eatery & Whisky Pub features distinctly Canadian flavours of food and drink.

Ramsey Lake and the Lake Laurentian Conservation Area

Along with Kivi Park, there are multiple options for paddling mere minutes from downtown Sudbury. There's a boat launch on Ramsey Lake located just east of Science North, or you can carry your canoe, kayak or SUP and put in at Bell Park, located off of Paris Street. Ramsey Lake is large with a convoluted shoreline that invites exploration, and offers a unique perspective on the city.

The nearby Lake Laurentian Conservation Area also offers urban paddling in a natural setting. The launch is located at the area's Nature Chalet on South Bay Road, about 10 minutes from downtown Sudbury. Lake Laurentian offers plenty of paddling opportunities, with connecting channels and portages to nearby wetlands and ponds (including the larger waters of Ramsey Lake). Fishing is reasonable for northern pike and perch, and birders can admire loons, herons, eagles and a variety of songbirds.

Lake Laurentian Conservation Area piloted a rental kayak and canoe program in 2022, which is set to continue for summer weekends in 2023.

Ramsey Lake canoe and kayak rentals are available from the Sudbury Canoe Club.

Lake Laurentian Conservation Area boasts plenty of great hiking, too. And Bell Park is your starting point for a scenic waterfront boardwalk on Ramsey Lake, with access to beaches and swimming spots.

Ramsey Lake is also a great destination for recreational cycling, with the awesome 21-km Ramsey Lake Circle Tour ranking as one of the best rides in Northern Ontario.

Windy Lake Provincial Park

This protected area is located on Highway 144, less than an hour's drive north of Sudbury. Windy Lake Provincial Park features an outstanding drive-in campground with 93 sites for tents, trailers and RVs as well as two camp cabins. The park offers great access to its namesake lake, a large, crystalline body of water surrounded by a northern forest of jack pine that begs exploration by canoe or kayak. You'll find great fishing for walleye, northern pike, lake trout and smallmouth bass.

Be sure to check out the stunning 55-metre cascades at Onaping's High Falls and the A.Y. Jackson Lookout, which inspired some of Canada's greatest landscape painting.

Visit Ruby Berry Farms in nearby Chelmsford to pick your own strawberries.

Cousin Vinny's offers (you guessed it) great Italian food in Chelmsford.

Kukagami Lake

The majestic white and red pine that once dominated all of central Ontario still stand tall over Kukagami Lake, about an hour's drive east of Sudbury. The area is accessed via Kukagami Lake Road, where Sportsman's Lodge offers a launch site, parking, vehicle shuttles and waterfront accommodations. Kukagami Lake is great for kayakers and canoeists alike.

Besides a virgin forest, the region also beckons with clear, aquamarine waters, plenty of backcountry camping (free for Canadian residents; non-Canadian residents must purchase Crown Land camping permits) and portage connections to many more lakes and waterways, stretching north to the vast Temagami canoe area. You can paddle for a day or a weekend on Kukagami Lake or venture off on a wilderness adventure for a week or more.

Kukagami Lake and neighbouring Matagamasi Lake provide the best access to the stunning scenery of Temagami's Wolf Lake area, an azure wilderness gem surrounded by white quartzite hills and old-growth red pine, located within a few days' paddle (and several portages) from the nearest launch.

Sportsman's Lodge is the preeminent outfitter for the region, providing a peaceful place to stay and secure parking to start and finish your canoe trip to Kukagami, Matagamasi or Wolf lakes.

Spanish River

The Spanish River is a classic Ontario canoe route that's beloved amongst trippers for its great scenery, wilderness camping and novice-level rapids. The Spanish has plenty of history, beginning with the Indigenous paddlers who traced its corridor to the log-drivers who named many of its rapids.

Multiple trip options are available depending on your river-tripping experience and how much time you have to explore the river. The classic 5- to 7-day trip from Duke Lake (accessed by way of Highway 144, north of Sudbury) to Agnew Lake (located about an hour west of Sudbury, off of Highway 17) is paddleable all summer long. You'll need a backcountry camping permit to travel this popular route; reservations can be made online up to two weeks before your departure.

More experienced paddlers can ride the VIA Rail passenger train west from the station in Capreol to Biscotasing Lake to paddle the more boisterous whitewater of the Spanish's West Branch. Fly-in canoe trips to the sprawling waters of Biscotasing Lake are also possible with Sudbury's True North Airways.

Local outfitters including Agnew Lake Lodge and Fox Lake Lodge can help with Spanish River canoe trip logistics, including canoe rentals, vehicle shuttles, accommodations and more.

Black Feather Wilderness Adventures offers all-inclusive guided canoe trips on the Spanish River, including early season whitewater adventures on Bannerman Creek and the Spanish River in May and June and a West Branch Spanish River getaway in July.

Lake Huron and Georgian Bay

Lake Huron's North Channel and Georgian Bay offer some of the finest sea kayaking in the world, with a mix of open water and archipelagos of glacier-polished granite islands. Sudbury provides easy access to multiple options: The community of Whitefish Falls, located on Highway 6 on the way to Manitoulin Island, has a launch site for the aptly named Bay of Islands at the eastern end of the North Channel. Or you can start a trip at the community of Spanish, about 90 minutes west of Sudbury on Highway 17, to paddle out to the stunning Benjamin Islands.

The quaint Georgian Bay hamlet of Killarney is located an hour's drive southwest of Sudbury, at the end of Highway 637. Launch from Killarney Provincial Park's Chikanishing River to access the open water and amazing offshore islets of Phillip Edward Island. You'll need a park vehicle permit to launch (available for purchase at the nearby George Lake Campground); camping is free for Canadian residents (non-residents require a Crown Land camping permit). Note that the sheltered waters of Collins Inlet on the north side of Philip Edward Island are part of Point Grondine Park and camping permits are required.

Horizons Adventures is a long-time local outfitter with over 20 years experience offering kayak rentals and all-inclusive guided trips and certified sea kayak instruction on the North Channel and Georgian Bay.

Black Feather Wilderness Adventures also has years of experience offering guided trips on the North Channel and the Georgian Bay Islands.

The village of Killarney offers plenty of tourist options, including luxurious accommodations at the Killarney Mountain Lodge and renowned fish and chips at Herbert's Fisheries.

Manitoulin Island is a lesser-known paddling destination that's also located within easy striking distance from Sudbury. Rent a kayak at Manitoulin Wind and Wave and ask for local advice for day trip options on inland lakes or Lake Huron.

Killarney

Killarney Provincial Park's George Lake entry point is wildly popular amongst paddlers for good reason. It's the gateway to some of Ontario's finest backcountry canoe tripping. But access to the lesser travelled (and equally spectacular) west side of the park is even closer to Sudbury city limits, with Widgawa Lodge on Highway 6, just south of Espanola, serving as the entry point to breathtaking Nellie and Grace lakes.

You'll find accommodations and canoe rentals at the launch site, but you're best to book your backcountry camping permits in advance online. For a more adventurous trip you can venture into the sprawling waters of nearby Lake Panache, with portage connections to and from the more common Nellie Lake loop.

For authentic Indian food in Espanola check out Sukhdev Restaurant and visit Farquhar's Dairy Bar for post-trip ice cream. The western edge of Killarney was a favourite sketching destination for Group of Seven artists Franklin Carmichael and A.Y. Jackson. Willisville Mountain offers great day hiking with outstanding views that inspired iconic Canadian landscape art. Canoe upside down on shore at sunset.

Point Grondine Park

Point Grondine Park is an Indigenous Protected Area nestled between Killarney and French River provincial parks on the Georgian Bay coast. The 7,300-hectare expanse is accessed from Highway 637, with a trailhead located 38 kilometres from the Highway 69 exit. The park is managed by Wiikwemkoong Unceded Territory, the traditional stewards of this amazing landscape, and open to paddlers looking for an immersive wilderness experience in an ancient land. The park offers a limited number of rental canoes.

There are options for day trips and multi-day adventures, including day paddling on Mahzenazing Lake and about 20 km of interior canoe routes with several portages. A portage connection to Collins Inlet on Georgian Bay allows for longer trips, with connections to the village of Killarney, the mouth of the French River and beyond along the 48.5-km Coastal Water Trail, for more experienced paddlers.

Point Grondine also offers Indigenous guided canoe day trips and hikes, as well as programs delivered in conjunction with Killarney Provincial Park.

The Avalon Eco-Resort provides unique off-grid cabins adjacent to Point Grondine Park, with access to canoes and kayaks for resort guests.

Check out Killarney Kanoes or Killarney Outfitters for more options for canoe and kayak rentals in the area.

French River Provincial Park

The historic French River forms a key central link in the ancient canoe route between the Great Lakes and the Ottawa River. There are multiple options for kayakers and canoeists, all within an hour's drive south of Sudbury on Highway 69. Kayakers can access Georgian Bay (by way of the maze of islands at the French River delta) from the launch at Hartley Bay.

Meanwhile, the 18-Mile Island loop starting at Loon's Landing is a popular 4- to 5-day canoe trip for novice to intermediate paddlers. Backcountry camping permits are required, with reservations available within two weeks of your departure date.

Black Feather offers all-inclusive guided canoe trips on the French River, with multiple options available for groups and families. For luxurious French River lodging and canoe rentals check out The Lodge at Pine Cove. Canoe rentals are also available at Grundy Supply Post if you're arriving from Southern Ontario. Don't discount the French River for sea kayaking! The river's island-strewn delta provides access to the offshore Bustard Islands, a great destination for experienced open water paddlers. Horizons Adventures offers a guided Bustard Islands trip. Silhouette of two paddlers on a lake.

Lacross

The Sudbury Rockhounds Lacrosse Club

Is the main organization offering both house league and representative levels of lacrosse for ages U5 through U22. They use a few different arenas for their programs.

Primary Arenas: The association typically runs its house league programs out of the Coniston and Garson arenas, though locations are subject to change based on availability.

University Level: Laurentian University also has a field lacrosse team, the Laurentian Voyageurs, that competes in the Canadian University Field Lacrosse Association.

Other Arenas: The City of Greater Sudbury manages several other arenas, such as the Carmichael Arena and Gerry McCrory Countryside Sports Complex, which may be used for tournaments or rentals.

Sudbury Rockhounds Lacrosse Club

Information on programs, registration, and current schedules can be found on their website. The Sudbury Rockhounds Lacrosse Club website provides details for new and returning players.

Greater Sudbury Lacrosse Association (GSLA)

The GSLA encourages participation from all areas and focuses on skill development and fun. You can find registration information on the GSLA SportLink page or directly through the club's registration portal.

Ontario Lacrosse Association (OLA): For those new to the sport in Ontario, the OLA offers a "Where Do I Play?" tool on their website to help connect players with their home association.

Lakes Statistics

With a geographic area of 3,627 square kilometers, the City of Greater Sudbury is the largest municipality in Ontario based on land mass. Home to 330 lakes, Greater Sudbury is locally known as the City of Lakes and contains more lakes than any other municipality in Canada.

Lake Facts

330 lakes over 10 hectares in size are within city limits.

112 lakes over 100 hectares in size.

16.5% (or 601 square kilometers) of the City's total surface area is covered by water.

12.2% of the City consists of lakes rivers and creeks.

4.3% of the City consists of wetlands.

Lake Wanapitei is the largest city-contained lake in the world at 13,257 hectares, which represents 1/3 of the total lake area.

There are currently 28 lake stewardship groups in Greater Sudbury.

In 2009, approximately 7,000 people or 4% of the population lived on a lake.

City of Greater Sudbury is divided into two main watersheds: the French River Watershed (to the east) drains the Wanapitei River, French River and flows into Georgian Bay and the Spanish River Watershed (to the west) drains the Vermilion River, Spanish River and flows into Lake Huron.

Within these two watersheds there are 25 sub-watershed units.

Lakes – Polluted

Minnow Lake and Kelly Lake are quite polluted apparently to environment standards of specifications. Although these lakes are still considered safe by government standards.

Greater Sudbury has many polluted lakes due to historical industrial pollution, including acid rain and heavy metals, as well as modern issues like sewage and road salt contamination. Lakes like Hannah, Kelly, and Simon have been significantly affected by past mining and sewage discharge, leading to high metal concentrations and eutrophication. Recently, Ramsey Lake has seen high chloride salt levels, and blue-green algae blooms have been reported in several lakes, including Ramsey, Simon, and McCharles.

Lakes List And Description

Lake Pollution Cause

- Historical industrial pollution: Past mining activities led to acid rain and high concentrations of metals like copper and nickel in nearby lakes.
- Sewage and nutrient runoff:

- o Historically, raw sewage was dumped directly into lakes like Kelly Lake, upstream from Simon, McCharles, and Mud Lakes, causing phosphorus buildup.
- o Even after the installation of wastewater treatment plants, nutrient pollution from sources like lawn fertilizer, septic systems, and urban runoff continues to contribute to eutrophication.
 - Road salt:
 - o Winter road salt runoff is a major problem, particularly in lakes like Ramsey, which is a drinking water source for many residents.
 - o Chloride levels in Ramsey Lake are now at critical levels, affecting aquatic life, and cannot be removed by standard filtration.
 - Algal blooms:
 - o High nutrient levels, especially phosphorus, can lead to the formation of blue-green algae (cyanobacteria) blooms in lakes like Ramsey, Simon, McCharles, and others.
 - o These blooms can produce toxins harmful to people and animals.

Lake's Reason Polluted

- Kelly Lake: Heavily impacted by historical sewage and nutrient runoff.
- Simon Lake: Experiencing algae growth due to phosphorus from historical sewage discharge upstream in Kelly Lake.

- McCharles Lake: Affected by the same upstream pollution as Simon Lake.
- Mud Lake: Also affected by historical sewage issues.
- Hannah Lake: Once had extremely high levels of copper and nickel from nearby smelting operations.
- Ramsey Lake:
 - o Suffering from high salt (chloride) levels from road salt runoff.
 - o Has experienced visible blue-green algal blooms.

Lakes Polluted

- o Other lakes such as Bethel, Ella, Grant, Kusk, Long, and McFarlane are known to have invasive species like Eurasian water-milfoil.
- o Minnow Lake is also a focus of restoration efforts.

Leather Making Clubs

Lego

While there is no single, permanent LEGO club in Greater Sudbury, opportunities for LEGO building can be found at local institutions like the Greater Sudbury Public Library and Science North. The library has hosted past LEGO clubs, and Science North frequently features LEGO-related events and exhibits, such as the recent Brick Masters Studio. You can also find current event listings and potentially join other groups through local online communities like the Downtown Sudbury Facebook group.

LEGO Activities in Greater Sudbury

Greater Sudbury Public Library: Check the library's social media or website for announcements about past or future LEGO club sessions.

Science North: This science centre often has LEGO-based activities, including exhibitions and workshops. They also feature permanent LEGO installations, such as a large mural.

Local online groups: Search local Facebook groups or other community forums for posts about informal meetups or clubs, such as the Downtown Sudbury group.

True North Bricks: This website focuses on LEGO adventures and sometimes includes posts about local Sudbury events, as noted in a recent article about a visit to the Big Nickel.

Outside, you'll find more interactive exhibits, a mining lab, and one of our favorite photo ops, the 9-metre-tall Big Nickel, a massive replica of the 1951 Canadian coin. It's kitschy in the best way, and it proudly reminds you that Sudbury's mining legacy still runs deep.

Sudbury Indie Cinema is a not-for-profit co-op. Since 2015, we have been bringing the best in independent cinema to Northern Ontario on a year-round basis. We are mission-driven, rather than profit-driven. Expect high-caliber, laudable films that give voice to lesser-heard perspectives on the big screen. Sudbury Indie Cinema actively supports other arts organizations, grassroots not-for-profits, and local homegrown filmmakers and host the Queer North Film Festival annually in August.

Musical Spoon Instruments To Buy

Where to Buy Musical Spoons in Sudbury

Long & McQuade Musical Instruments (Sudbury):

Located on King St, they stock various percussion items, including:

Dory Dan Spoons: Newfoundland-style, metal with wooden handles.

Mano Percussion: Wooden spoon sets.

Empire Music Co. Ltd.: Pro-series 9-inch wooden spoons.

Jett-Landry Music Ltd: A long-standing independent music store on Lasalle Blvd that carries a variety of instruments and accessories.

Common Types of Spoons Available

Heritage Musical Spoons: Often available in Canada (and through online retailers like Amazon/Walmart, sometimes in local shops), these are handmade in Quebec from Canadian maplewood.

Dory Dan Spoons (Newfoundland Style): These feature stainless steel spoons on a wooden handle, designed for easy playing.

maplehillfarm.inc@gmail.com

maplehillfarm.ca

<https://www.facebook.com/maplehillfarm.inc>

Located in Hanmer, this is the main local sugar bush for the Greater Sudbury area.

Activities: The farm offers a shop with various maple products, group and private tours, and hosts special events, especially during the spring "sugaring off" season (typically March and April) and in the fall. These events can include tours of the production process, maple taffy on snow, and meeting farm animals.

Note: The farm shop is generally open on Sundays from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m., or by appointment, but it's best to check their website or social media for current hours and event schedules.

Alban/Noelville Sucrierie Séguin Sugarbush

<https://seguinsugarbush.com>

While a bit further out, this third-generation sugarbush is a notable destination in Northern Ontario, located near Alban/Noëlville, which is accessible from the Sudbury area.

Location: 1838 Dokis Reserve Road (requires travel via Highway 69 south or east on Highway 17 towards Verner)

Activities: They offer tours and sell a wide range of maple products, including various grades of syrup, granulated maple sugar, and maple butter. They also participate in the annual Maple Weekend event organized by the Ontario Maple Syrup Producers Association.

Mazes – Farmers Fields etc...

In Greater Sudbury, the Fields of Fear offers a haunted maze experience inside a schoolhouse every October, while the St. Peter's Labyrinth, a non-religious, spiritual labyrinth, is available year-round at the Grotto of Lourdes. For those seeking a nature-based maze-like walk, the Lily Creek Boardwalk provides a unique trail experience with boardwalk sections.

Seasonal Maze (October)

Fields of Fear: This attraction in Blezard Valley features a haunted maze and other scary attractions within a century-old schoolhouse during the Halloween season.

Year-Round Options

St. Peter's Labyrinth: Located at the Grotto of Lourdes, this spiritual labyrinth is a gift from St. Peter's United Church and is open for visitors to walk and reflect on its symbolic path.

Lily Creek Boardwalk: This unique boardwalk trail offers a natural path reminiscent of a maze, with scenic views of Science North and the fall colors from its elevated walkways.

Tips for Finding Mazes

Check Local Listings: Look for updates on attractions like the Fields of Fear around the fall season on local news sites or CBC News.

Explore Nature Trails: For a maze-like experience in nature, explore other scenic trails in the area, such as the Loach's Walking Trail or Bethel Lake Trail, for beautiful fall colors and quiet walks.

Cambrian College in Sudbury, Ontario launches heavy duty EV mechanics course

<https://driveteslacanada.ca/news/cambrian-college-in-sudbury-ontario-launches-heavy-duty-ev-mechanics-course>

Cambrian College will begin delivering the course this fall in partnership with the College's Centre for Smart Mining. The course was designed with a focus on heavy duty equipment technicians in the mining sector.

According to the college, the use of industrial EVs is becoming more popular in modern mining and there is a strong need for skilled workers to implement and maintain the technology.

"An often overlooked, yet critical component, in the adoption of new techniques and technologies in the mining sector is ensuring the workforce is adequately trained," says Stephen Gravel, manager of Cambrian R&D's Centre for Smart Mining in a press release. "A major barrier to getting new technologies like BEVs into mines is the lack of familiarity and comfort among heavy duty equipment technicians in the field. The Centre for Smart Mining is looking to address this problem through targeted technology upskilling in a number of important high-tech areas; the first of which being BEVs."

The course will begin this fall with an online component, followed by in-person learning opportunities on the Sudbury campus.

The Peter Schneider Concert Series has been a highlight of Greater Sudbury's summer, filling Bell Park with free, live music every Sunday evening. From June through August, the vibrant sounds of local and seasoned musicians have delighted audiences of all ages. With an eclectic list of performers every Sunday at 7 p.m, the concerts have become a beloved tradition for the Greater Sudbury community to come together and enjoy the magic of live music. Performing at the Katherine Bell Gazebo Aug. 24 is Cass and Jack.

Cassandra and Jack met at a talent show in 2021, where they were competing with their respective rock bands- Restored and Pop Mach!ne. Since then, they've been jamming acoustic music together, performing at various venues and events around the Sudbury area. Cass and Jack love the challenge of trying to cover multiple genres of music with just two acoustic guitars and vocals.

SSO presents Magical Symphony Tour

Long before “crossover” was a buzzword, the Beatles were blending classical textures into pop masterpieces. Magical Symphony Tour brings together musicians from the Sudbury Symphony Orchestra and Greater Sudbury’s vibrant music scene for a one-night-only concert experience. This concert shines a spotlight on those iconic orchestrations, culminating in a full performance of the beloved Magical Mystery Tour album. With arrangements by Beatles producer Sir George Martin, you’ll hear symphonic winds, strings, and brass in electrifying harmony with guitars, bass, and drums—just as the Beatles imagined. The show runs Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at Laurentian University’s Fraser Auditorium. Purchase tickets online here.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

Lake Laurentian Conservation -

<https://conservationsudbury.ca/en>

Conveniently located only ten minutes from downtown Sudbury, this easily accessible natural area has 2,415 acres, (that 950 hectares), of protected green space. This area is ideal for everyone, including families.

With a man-made lake and pond, scenic lookouts, a self-guided nature trail, multiple wetland areas, and high bird populations, Lake Laurentian Conservation Area is a “must visit” destination for any season.

Regardless of your interests, this conservation area can meet them. You’ll find trails for hiking in any season, and in winter there are trails specifically for snow shoeing and cross-country skiing. It offers something for everyone – the photographer, the nature watcher, the recreationist – everyone will find satisfaction at the Lake Laurentian Conservation Area.

It even has activities for kids to learn and prides itself on environmental education. At Lake Laurentian you can touch a frog, eat blueberries, feed the birds, learn to survive if lost in the woods, learn about the animals through animal displays, and plant a tree.

Kids Ultimate Play & Party Centre Inc. (KUPP Centre) is Sudbury's Ultimate family entertainment centre. We are a family operated business, NOT a franchise. We have a large indoor playground with a three level play structure and a toddler soft play area where children can exercise, socialize and build self confidence all while having fun! Our playground area features a snack bar that serves food and beverages that appeal to children and adults with healthy options available. Our Laser Tag offers adrenaline challenge games with phaser guns in a glow in the dark arena of mazes and obstacles. Drop-in play available all day, everyday! Our indoor glow in the dark mini putt course features 13 holes! We also offer private rooms for booking your next event, social gathering, team building or party!

Kupp Centre - <https://www.kidsultimateplaycentre.ca>

The Kupp Centre at 1965 Lasalle Boulevard is home to both an awesome indoor playground and a laser tag center. If you get rained out and you have children with a lot of energy, Kupp Centre has you covered 7-days a week.

Indoor Playground -

<http://www.kidsultimateplaycentre.ca/playground>

This ultimate indoor playground provides a diversified family play area combining recreation, entertainment, and restaurant facilities. Activities are packaged into a safe, clean, climate-controlled environment for children aged 12 and under.

The space allows kids to exercise and socialize while stimulating their imagination and challenging them physically.

Laser Tag - <http://www.kidsultimateplaycentre.ca/lasertag>

With the entrance at the back of the Kupp Centre, kids must be 5-years old to play. Any children under 8-years old must be accompanied by an adult. Socks are mandatory to play, but not to worry if your children aren't wearing any, you can purchase socks when you purchase your tickets!

Be forewarned, a waiver will need to be signed before you or your children are permitted to enter the arena.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be competed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude. Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

The Wanderer's Guide to Türkiye: Antalya

Join me, Alex Outhwaite, as I explore Türkiye as Tripadvisor's latest Wanderer, along with my friend Tabitha Lipkin. This time we're taking on Antalya together—without an itinerary but with a big sense of adventure. I'll give you the backstory of our travels, during which we marvelled at how the historic and the modern sit comfortably side by side, as evidenced on our visits to ancient monuments, world class dive sites, and natural wonders.

Pinball Machines

Not Only Ice Cream in Val Caron rules, it's like a recreation of a '90s recreation of a '50s diner. The rolled ice cream is great, they have tiger tail by the scoop, and a bunch of pinball machines - modern Sterns and a couple of 80s-90s classics.

Poet Laureate – Apply To Be One Through Sudbury Public Library

The role of Poet Laureate (~a couple years term)

A poet honoured for literary achievement, appointed for a specific term to represent a particular country, region, or group. A poet laureate may also be acclaimed rather than officially appointed.

Greater Sudbury's Poet Laureate serve as an active advocate for poetry, literacy, and literature by initiating and participating in readings and other events throughout the community. The Poet Laureate's mandate also includes the creation of a legacy project that will be unique to them.

The individual must be a published poet, recognized for their achievements, and active in the cultural and literary community. Additional requirements include demonstrated leadership skills, public speaking ability and flexibility to carry out all duties required of the position.

Poetry Sites

Poemist — The Poetry Platform

It's a growing community around poetry lovers. It will introduce your poems to more than 50.000 other poets. Also it provides good tools for getting feedback from other writers as well as some stats. Also for sharing your poems on different platforms. Their interface is clean and easy to use. I generally get good feedback from the audience here.

HelloPoetry

It's an invite only community with a simple user interface. In terms of traffic numbers, one of the most popular poetry sites but community feedback is low compared to this traffic.

FamilyFriend

It's not easy to publish your poem here, especially if you are newbie and trying to get feedback because each poem submitted here must pass the editor's approval. Also they only let users to publish English poems. But their user interface is lovely.

PoemHunter

One of the oldest poetry sites around. Provides good source for poetry but the interface is too old and not useful at all. I don't like it but you may try.

1. AllPoetry

It's one of the largest poetry community around. It's a dedicated community for poets, they also have contests and writing groups. But personally I don't like the design of the site.

AllPoetry is the largest website for poetry in the world, despite the old feeling of web design.

AllPoetry is a website for poetry and claims to be the largest poetry community, and one can be inclined to believe that. You will find the feeling and the style of this website to be a little bit old, but for most people, how they feel when they post is the most important thing. The feel of the overall site might be a bit clunky and old. AllPoetry has several contests and writing groups as well as some of the great profiles. This can indeed be a plus point for this particular platform.

Pros

- It is a dedicated community for the poets.
- Like the profiles and tools, you will also find some nice bells and whistles features.
- The feedback of this website is pretty much on the point.

Cons

- Old website design and poor user interface.
- Lower reach and feedback for your work than other sites.

2. Photory

Photory is a new creative poetry platform that combines photos with poems. It has both a website and app.

Photory is a new and fast-growing poetry platform, outstanding with its picture-oriented content. It's an amazing community of writers and poets who are really creative in mixing photos with writing, and co-storytelling by those two artistic materials.

It's one of the most creative poem platform with both a website and app. Its core feature, a captioned picture story, can make poetry way more emotional, profound, or even sarcastic. You can make fun by personalizing any famous poems by adding your own or your friend's photo from the phone, and this is really fun to see.

The writing tool on Photory makes it easy for you to write poetry on a series of pictures.

Pros

- Its content is really eye-catching, and compelling to read.
- You can play with the photos by intentionally amplifying or twisting the meaning of the written poems. Personalizing the famous poems by your photo is really fun, especially if you are fond of reading poetry but not good at writing them.
- The creative concept of captioned picture stories gives more diversity and styles to any writing form, which you can see many categories of content on the website apart from poetry, and that are also fun to read.

- It has both a website and mobile app.

Cons

- It's a new platform with a relatively smaller audience than other sites.
- It takes effort to make a good content as you have to pay attention to the pictures.

3. HelloPoetry

HelloPoetry is a modern-looking website with plain white background and a poetry content feed in the middle.

This poetry site's overall feel is perfect, and it gives a much more modern feeling than most of the sites that are decently sized and are specifically dedicated to poetry. Although it is not that difficult to secure an invite if you are not promoting spam and writing actual poetry, they only keep the community invited.

In terms of numbers of traffic, HelloPoetry is pretty big, but its internal community is relatively small. That is why a few people don't post on this platform as often these days.

Pros

- You will get the feedback to be a lot more specific because of this community, particularly poetry.
- This is a tightly knit community, as it is invite-only to post.
- As far as the design is concerned, the other poetry specific sites are relatively old school. This particular site has a nice new feel to it.

Cons

- Though some people may not agree, the community might be small for the size of the website.
- When it is about exposure, it is a very hit or miss type. Therefore, HelloPoetry is less predictable than the few sites where it is possible to get reviews.

4. Medium

Medium is a famous writing platform with a large community. It also has a section for poetry.

Medium is also a very nice platform for writing, and many people have a clean experience using it. The creation tools and the elegant design of Medium are fabulous and unmatched.

Though, it still doesn't have a big number of poets, as you will see a few publications around poetry. Some may offer meaningful exposure, but overall it will take time to grow.

Pros

- The writing tool for Medium is straightforward to use, while the design is also immaculate.
- You will find the publications to be very lovely, and the Medium publications offer you a bit of additional exposure.

Cons

- There is not too much love for the poets in this particular site, as it is basically a writing platform; therefore, you will rarely see it. The publications that offer post poetry are relatively small and don't have a considerable reach.

5. Wattpad

Wattpad is a fictional writing platform. Its category for poetry is relatively small to other websites.

One may have a lot of success with fiction on Wattpad as compared to what he will have with poetry. Though it is quite possible to build an audience on this app, they don't happen to show many poems in the recommendations. Overall, you will find it to be a very nice app to post your writing; therefore, it is worth a shot. Some people may not have much success with it in poetry.

Some people have found it to be a little bit buggy, though it just seems like a temporary case, and one couldn't count out its qualities just because of that. With the poetry application, it is possible to make lists for reading, and you can also add text to the personal library.

Pros

- You will find Wattpad to be a great writing platform. As it is among the largest, your reach can be outstanding if you can get visibility.
- Wattpad app is also straightforward to use.

Cons

- If you are one of the poetry lovers, you will undoubtedly have a more challenging time seeing poetry over the fiction stories that are on Wattpad.

6. Scrivener

Scrivener is a paid app that offers templates for all writing forms including poetry.

Scrivener is one of the great apps for poetry creations and other pieces of writing. You can choose one of the templates before you start your work, which includes a collection of poems or recipes, novels, scientific work, lectures, scripts, and so on. The table of contents with Scrivener is convenient, and you can add and rename its sections as much as you like.

This tool must save the previous revisions of text if you want to return to the first, second, or third versions. The software is paid, but there is also a free period of use, and in this particular time, you can understand whether it is what you need or not.

Pros

- You can quickly get an overview when you need it.
- The sections can be rearranged as you go, and you can easily add any new chapters and scenes.
- All of your research can be kept in one spot, and the easy to use templates can help with formatting.

Cons

- Some people may find the platform to be intimidating. So much can be done that the learning curve can be steep at the start.

- The formatting is not that bad, but it is also nothing that you can write home about.

7. Write or Die

Write or Die is an app designed for helping writers overcome problems in writing and boosting creativity. The makers of Write or Die claim this app to be one of the best poetry writing apps. It is particularly designed to defeat the writer's block, creative crisis, procrastination, and fear of a white sheet. This is a great application that would not allow you to be distracted or procrastinate.

You will find everything to be in order when you are writing; though unpleasant consequences ensue when you stop, they are customizable. Deadlines, games, and risks will be motivating your creativity.

Pros

- You will find it to be a great time management tool.
- There are various difficulty levels available.
- It is up to you to specify your grace period and also the consequences modes.

Cons

- It is worth noting that its word count is not always accurate.

8. Daily Haiku

Daily Haiku is the website dedicated to English haiku poems.

Daily Haiku is a Canadian website for promoting and preserving the written art of haiku, with the intention to push the boundaries of contemporary English haiku and all related forms.

Pros

- It's mainly focused on Haiku.
- Lots of good contents by invited poets.
- If you are looking to keep your viewer engaged, then this is the perfect platform.

Cons

- Not well designed and looks unfinished.

9. Verses poetry creator

Verses poetry creator is the app that helps users pick the right words to fit in their poem line.

You can successfully create your own poems with the Verses app for poetry. If it is difficult for you to find the right word for the poem line, you can do it much faster with the poetry program's help. Verses poetry creator has a dictionary and a function with which you can arrange words in different words to find the best one. You have the option to create a poem and then save it to your Favorites or post it on your FB account.

Pros

- It has an amicable community that has a powerful overall reach.
- It helps you get more exposure.

Cons

- Despite getting more followers, some people complain that their reach has seemingly started to go down slowly.

Conclusion

Whether you are a veteran poet looking for places to share an amazing work, or a casual poem reader finding new favorite sites. There are numerous websites and apps in the world of poetry, the 9 platforms above may not be the best but surely the outstanding ones for all poetry lovers to take time and try.

Poverty Clubs Making Things

Hats Scarves Mittens

Red Oak Villa knitters For The Poor

Some of the Red Oak Villa knitters and their family members are at it again. This time they've knitted hats, scarves and mittens. Jeannette Rivard, Jackie Lecuyer and Theresa Lecuyer have crafted more than 30 sets of hats, mittens and scarves.

Jeannette and Jackie live and knit at Red Oak Villa, and are part of the Red Oak Villa Knitting Club. The club knits and crochets all year long and donates their work to the Daffodil Lodge, the hospice, and other charities. Theresa Lecuyer is like an honorary member as she is always helping with their handmade donations. Brother says Saskatchewan stabbing victim was a caring first responder. The ladies, who have become well known for their knitting, receive yarn and wool donations, which they use for their projects.

They knit as a fun way to stay busy and to “pay back” the community. “It’s very nice. It feels good,” said Theresa. Jeannette said, “It passes the time and I like to do that (donate knitting).”

These knitted hats, mittens and scarves will go to the Samaritan Centre to help keep their clients warm. This donation happens in conjunction with the Coldest Night of the Year Walk.

This is the ninth year that the Samaritan Centre is organizing the walk, which will take place on Feb. 22.

“This year’s goal was to raise $50,000 to support the partner associations that operate out of the Samaritan Centre,” said Lisa Long, executive director, “and we’ve met that goal.”

Anyone wanting to participate in the walk can still sign up at cnoy.org. The cost is $25 to participate in the walk, but those who raise $150 or more do not have to pay the registration fee. The walk starts at the Rainbow Centre at 5:15 p.m. Registration is any time after 4 p.m. Walkers can choose to walk either 2 km or 5 km. After the walk, participants enjoy live music and a chilli dinner.

“The Coldest Night of the Year Walk helps the most vulnerable citizens in the city,” said Long. “Whether people register for the walk, donate money, or knit warm clothing, every bit helps those who are at-risk.”

Miniature Portable Houses

Mohan "I was basically couch surfing. It took me awhile to find a place." Tossell says all the hoops someone must jump through to first apply for and then receive social assistance, are frustrating. He suggested individuals living under the poverty line have an Income Pass to avoid showing documentation to multiple agencies.

"You'd just show that to all the department services, whether it be for food banks, applying for any kind of services in town or going to the mission and so forth. It's very frustrating [when] we have to prove to someone you're low income in multiple areas just to get help," Tossell said.

Some of his other suggestions included better communication between various social service agencies and departments, more transitional housing and more accessible housing for people with disabilities.

Other solutions that were suggested from speakers included more emergency shelter spaces, safe spaces, more supportive housing and even digital billboards downtown.

Houses

Sudbury, Ont., project builds affordable housing by renovating existing homes. Local organizations are adding secondary suites to existing properties Josh Stone discovered an interest in construction and community work after being hired for this project. Stone was struggling with addictions before joining Community Builders. (Aya Dufour/CBC comments

A new affordable housing project is wrapping up in Sudbury, Ont. Ten new units will soon be available to rent thanks to the work of different organizations looking to prevent homelessness in the city.

Tenants will be able to move into four of the units as early as May, and renovations on the other six units should be completed by the end of the year.

National charity Raising the Roof invested in Sudbury real estate because it saw a "real need," said director of resource development Leslie Bellingham.

"It's a hub for northern Ontario and we see many people coming to the Sudbury area, or even from within Sudbury, who are in need of housing."

Raising the Roof bought five vacant single family homes in 2022. It then partnered with a local social construction enterprise to renovate them.

I just love working with my community. I need it for my recovery.-

Community Builders trains people who face barriers to employment to do construction work.

More than 20 people learned new skills by working on this project over the past six months, according to Carly Gasparini, managing director of Community Builders in Sudbury.

"Training people in construction really helps move people out of poverty and into good, sustainable employment," said Gasparini. Carly Gasparini is the managing director of Community Builders in

Sudbury. (Aya Dufour/CBC)

"That is particularly true in northern Ontario where there's such a labour shortage in the trades."

The individuals carrying out the renovations come from different backgrounds.

Gasparini said cohorts include youth, people recovering from an addictions disorder, new immigrants, women and former inmates.

"Identifying what the barriers are and getting these individuals into the workforce, it's magical," said Gasparini.

New Sudbury program aims to address affordable housing and worker shortages

Ontario Aboriginal Housing Services seeking land for more affordable housing in Kenora

Josh Stone was struggling with addictions before joining Community Builders as a general labourer.

"I just love working with my community. I need it for my recovery," he said.

"This is a great job. I can see a mother and her kids move in here right now, and that's more rewarding than anything else right now."

Supporting future tenants

Raising the Roof partnered with Sudbury's Centre for Transitional Care to screen and select tenants.

This new organization supports individuals who are in need of housing with support, and receives referrals from other services within the city.

The Sudbury Centre for Transitional Care will ensure tenants have wraparound supports tailored to their needs. But these are not transitional units.

The main floor units have three bedrooms, while the basement units have two. (Aya Dufour/CBC)

"These new homes are not limited to high needs, high intensity as far as the support goes", said Bellingham.

"Target tenants for the main floor unit are families with children, and then for the lower level unit, we're looking at single individuals."

Raising the Roof has not yet determined how much rent will be. But the organization is committed to making it 80 per cent of average market prices, or lower.

Railway Museum

Capreol Northern Ontario Railroad Museum and Heritage Centre

<https://normhc.com>

This hidden gem of a museum focuses on paying homage to the heritage of northern Ontario and the history of the mining, lumber, and railroading industry.

Northern Ontario Railroad Museum -

<http://normhc.ca/museum-house-2>

Located in the first Victorian style house built in 1916, you can now see exhibits that show the tools and histories of Sudbury's existence. It's rooms have been converted into themed displays focusing on Lumbering, which was important to the region before mining and railroad developments; Mining, which will teach you about the ore deposits found in the area and how they were mined in the good old days; and Railroad, which will exhibit the tools and equipment that were historically used in the industry.

Prescott Park - <http://normhc.ca/prescott-park>

Located behind the museum house is Prescott Park. It is home to lush gardens and a railway themed and interactive playground with picnic table for those wishing to bring their own lunch.

Prescott Park also exhibits various engines and cars and underground mining equipment that visitors can learn about.

Heritage Centre - <http://normhc.ca/heritage-centre-2>

Steps away from the Capreol Railway museum, you can see the former Capreol Municipal Building which was once the Fire and Police departments. This building showcases various exhibits that reflect on the region's social heritage and early history.

With rooms broken into themed exhibits, visitors can learn about the region's social heritage, sporting history, will be able to see the jail cells and kids can be finger printed and have their mug shots taken, see the truck bay and the last remaining fire truck, as well as see the model railway room with running model trains.

Rinks Outdoors

Shovel Superheroes Required at Neighborhood

Outdoor Rinks The City of Greater Sudbury is seeking more volunteers to maintain and operate 54 outdoor rinks in every part of the community. Neighborhood rinks would not be possible without the hundreds of volunteers who donate their time and energy each winter season.

Neighborhood volunteers are responsible for scraping, shoveling and flooding outdoor rinks, ensuring the fieldhouse is open and may also operate the canteen. At some locations, volunteers are involved in special events, such as carnivals and fundraising activities.

The City of Greater Sudbury supports local volunteers with funding and equipment to carry out these duties.

Please consider supporting a healthier community by giving your time at your local neighbourhood outdoor rink! For more information and to volunteer, contact the City of Greater Sudbury Leisure Services at 705-674-4455, ext. 2446 or email leisure.services@greatersudbury.ca

Rinks Information

Due to milder weather, the City of Greater Sudbury has now closed all outdoor rinks for the season.

Volunteers support 54 neighbourhood rinks throughout the City of Greater Sudbury. Everyone is encouraged to volunteer a few hours of their time this winter to help maintain these outdoor recreational facilities.

Rinks Opening Requirements

Outdoor rinks rely on our dedicated group of neighbourhood association volunteers, known as our Shovel Superheroes. The City's outdoor rinks are natural skating surfaces (no refrigeration systems) with concrete, asphalt or gravel surfaces. In mid to late December, depending on weather conditions, volunteers begin the process of flooding and building ice for the outdoor rink season. Temperatures must be consistently below freezing to build ice. Ideal temperatures for flooding outdoor rinks are between -7 and -17 degrees Celsius. Flooding continues until there is a minimum of a 2" base of ice and the rink surface is flat and level.

Rink Volunteer Ice Makers

Volunteers continue to build ice throughout the season to maximize the outdoor rink season (the thicker the ice, the longer the ice will last). Residents are asked to remain off of flooded ice surfaces to preserve ice. Outdoor rinks can last until early to mid March depending on ice thickness, ice quality and weather conditions and close when ice conditions deteriorate and no longer safe for use. Please note that ice availability is dependent on both weather conditions and volunteer availability. Once ready, ice surfaces are available for use at any time, however, hours of operation for fieldhouses/warming trailers vary. Please see individual rinks below for dates and times.

Morel Family Foundation Park 9/10, 7.4 Miles

270 2nd Ave N, Sudbury, Ontario P3B 3M7, Canada

Sudbury, a vibrant city in Ontario, Canada, offers a multitude of activities and attractions for both locals and tourists. One such place that stands out is the Morel Family Foundation Park.

Situated in the heart of Sudbury, this park is known for its welcoming atmosphere, serene environment, and most importantly, its dog-friendly policy.

At Morel Family Foundation Park, visitors can enjoy a wide range of activities suitable for all ages and interests.

The park boasts well-maintained walking trails, perfect for leisurely strolls or invigorating jogs. As you explore the park, you'll be surrounded by lush greenery, creating a tranquil setting for relaxation and rejuvenation. For dog owners, the park's "Dogs allowed."

-9009606.769 5860393.464

You can find Morel Family Foundation Park at 270 2nd Ave N in Sudbury. This newly renovated park has beautiful play structures, swings, (one is handicap accessible), and also features a splash pad. There are benches for adults to sit on as well as lots of space to accommodate picnics. There is also an outdoor rink that doubles as a basketball court in the summer months. This park also has a washroom facility.

The only thing this park is lacking is shade, so be sure to sunscreen your little ones and bring a shade umbrella if you have one!

Queen's Athletic Skating Oval

Queen's Athletic Skating Oval will open February 18, 2023 with extended hours of operation on Monday, February 20, from 12 to 10 p.m.

Queen's Athletic Skating Oval is now open for the season. Hours of operation are Monday to Friday, from 4 to 10 p.m., and Saturdays and Sundays from 12 to 10 p.m.

Residents are reminded that hockey, ringette and shinny are not permitted on the skating oval.

Due to fluctuations in temperatures, hours of operation may change without notice.

Queens Athletic Skating Oval Opening Requirements

An ice resurfacer (Zamboni) and other equipment is used to build and maintain the Queens Athletic Skating Oval. Depending on temperature and weather conditions, it takes approximately 2 weeks to prepare the skating oval. Preparations include packing and levelling the granular track surface and banking snow to hold water. To begin building ice, outdoor temperatures must be below -5 Celsius for multiple consecutive days. A minimum of 2 inch ice thickness is required for the entire skating surface in order to be safely opened.

The skating oval is historically open anywhere from mid December to early January and closes in March when conditions are no longer safe or favorable. Location Regent Street (near Spruce)

Facilities

Schools and community groups are asked to call the City of Greater Sudbury Parks Services at 705-674-4455, ext. 4578 for reservations.

Ramsey Lake Skating Path

The Ramsey Lake Skating Path will open February 17, 2023, with extended hours on Monday, February 20, from 12 to 8 p.m. The extension to Science North will not be available this skating season due to ice conditions in the area.

Hours of operation are Monday to Friday, from 4 to 8 p.m., Saturdays from 12 to 8 p.m. and Sundays from 12 to 6 p.m. The Ramsey Lake Skate Patrol will be available for assistance during hours of operation.

The path is for skating only; hockey, ringette and shinny are not permitted. The path is approximately 1.5 km long, from the Sudbury Canoe Club at the corner of Elizabeth Street and McNaughton Terrace to Science North, with an extension to the Northern Water Sports Centre. The Ramsey Lake Skate Patrol will be available to provide assistance during the hours of operation.

Location Elizabeth Street / McNaughton Terrace to Science North Facilities

N/A

Opening Requirements

In order for work to begin on the Ramsey Lake Skate Path, ice must be a minimum thickness of 12 to 15 inches depending on the type and weight of equipment being used. Test holes are measured starting in January to determine the thickness of the ice.

Depending on temperature and weather conditions, it takes approximately 2 to 3 weeks to prepare the skate path.

Preparations include plowing, sweeping, shaving and flooding the ice surface. Once ice is 18 to 24 inches thick, the skate path is deemed safe for opening.

The skate path has historically opened anywhere from mid January to early February, and closes in March when conditions are no longer safe or favourable.

Ramsey Lake Skating Path is a natural ice surface.

Report hazards to skate patrol employees or call 311.

Rock Climbing Basic Information

Introduction to rock climbing basics

The three main types of climbing you'll typically find at rock climbing gyms are:

Bouldering: 'free' climbing or climbing without a harness and rope, usually on lower rock formations

Top-rope climbing: climbing with the support of a rope that is looped through an anchor at the top of the climb and runs the length of the route, with a climbing partner below controlling the feed with a belay device.

Lead climbing: the most difficult climbing style involves the climber carrying the rope and attaching it to anchors along their climb, with a climbing partner below controlling the feed with a belay device.

Key rock climbing equipment: Belay, ropes and anchors: a system of controlling the feed of the supporting rope rock climbers use. The person operating the belay device is called the belayer.

Harness: nylon straps around the waist and legs connects to the supporting rope with a figure-eight knot allowing the climber the ability to 'sit' in mid-air while the climbing rope is controlled by the belayer.

Rock climbing shoes: flexible and light, rock climbing shoes have special rubber soles designed to provide excellent traction and grip.

Chalk bag: moisture on the hands may cause fingers to slip so climbers wear a small bag of loose chalk used to rub on their hands to keep them dry and secure a safer grip. Chalk bags are worn holstered to a belt or clipped to the harness with a carabiner.

Rifle Clubs

There are several rifle clubs and shooting ranges located in the Greater Sudbury area that cater to different shooting disciplines:

Crean Hill Gun Club: Located in Worthington, this is a multi-discipline club with seven outdoor ranges and an indoor 25M range, including a 200-yard outdoor rifle range. It is a non-profit, private members-only club that is open year-round to members.

Rifles and Reels Game and Fish Club: Situated in Garson, this is a volunteer-run club that has been in operation since 1968. It promotes various shooting sports, including archery, pistol, rifle, and shotgun shooting. Like Crean Hill, it is members-only.

Sudbury Game and Fish Protective Association: This association offers a variety of outdoor activities, including access to a rifle range, archery range, and hiking trails on an 80-acre lakefront property.

Membership also includes enrollment in the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters (OFAH).

Sudbury Revolver Club: Located on Maki Road in Garson, this club provides a space for individuals to practice their marksmanship skills, primarily focused on handguns (revolvers).

Important Considerations

Most clubs in the area are for members only and do not offer firearm rentals or public access for those without a valid Possession and Acquisition Licence (PAL) or without being the supervised guest of a member.

If you are new to firearms, you will need to obtain your PAL by taking the Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC), which can be completed through local training providers like Sudbury Firearms and Hunter Education.

RINGETTE HOCKEY

The Greater Sudbury Ringette Association (GSRA) (GSRA) organizes ringette for all ages and skill levels in Greater Sudbury, offering competitive (rep) and recreational (house league) programs from U10 to U19, plus a FUNdamentals program for young beginners.

Games are held at local venues like Countryside Arena, Garson Arena, and Raymond Plourde Arena.

Key Aspects of Ringette in Greater Sudbury:

Programs: FUN1/FUN2 (ages 4-8) focus on skating and basic skills, while U10-U19 divisions focus on development and competition.

Rep Teams: Known as the North Stars, rep teams compete in tournaments and provincial championships.

Volunteers & Events: The association, found on Facebook, hosts tournaments and relies on volunteers for coaching and officiating.

History: Sudbury has a deep history in the sport, dating back to the mid-1960s, and was a pioneering city for Ontario ringette.

Locations: Games are played across the region, including at the Countryside Sports Complex, Garson Community Centre, and T.M. Davies Arena.

For more information, visit the GSRA website or their Facebook page.

Greater Sudbury has several ringette teams under the Greater Sudbury Ringette Association (GSRA), with teams across various age groups (U12, U14, U19, 18+) and competitive levels (A, B, C, FUN 3), including names like Greater Sudbury North Stars (various levels), Walden Ring Devils, and teams named after coaches (e.g., Cuomo, Tocholke, Lafortune, Spence), playing in leagues like the Great Lakes Ringette League (GLRL).

Examples of Teams & Levels:

U12: North Stars (A, C - Bisson/Tocholke), FUN 3 (Lafortune).

U14: North Stars (A, C - Cuomo), Walden Ring Devils (Gauthier).

U19: North Stars (A).

18+: North Stars (A, B - Tocholke), GSRA 18+ Women (Spence, Diotte).

How to Find More Info:

Rinks Outdoor

Shovel Superheroes Required at Neighborhood Outdoor Rinks

The City of Greater Sudbury is seeking more volunteers to maintain and operate 54 outdoor rinks in every part of the community.

Neighborhood rinks would not be possible without the hundreds of volunteers who donate their time and energy each winter season.

Neighborhood volunteers are responsible for scraping, shoveling and flooding outdoor rinks, ensuring the fieldhouse is open and may also operate the canteen. At some locations, volunteers are involved in special events, such as carnivals and fundraising activities.

The City of Greater Sudbury supports local volunteers with funding and equipment to carry out these duties. Please consider supporting a healthier community by giving your time at your local neighborhood outdoor rink! For more information and to volunteer, contact the City of Greater Sudbury Leisure Services at 705-674-4455, ext. 2446 or leisure.services@greatersudbury.ca

Neighborhood Rinks

Due to milder weather, the City of Greater Sudbury has now closed all outdoor rinks for the season. Volunteers support 54 neighborhood rinks throughout the City of Greater Sudbury. Everyone is encouraged to volunteer a few hours of their time this winter to help maintain these outdoor recreational facilities.

Outdoor Rinks Opening Requirements

Outdoor rinks rely on our dedicated group of neighborhood association volunteers, known as our Shovel Superheroes. The City's outdoor rinks are natural skating surfaces (no refrigeration systems) with concrete, asphalt or gravel surfaces. In mid to late December, depending on weather conditions, volunteers begin the process of flooding and building ice for the outdoor rink season. Temperatures must be consistently below freezing to build ice. Ideal temperatures for flooding outdoor rinks are between -7 and -17 degrees Celsius.

Flooding continues until there is a minimum of a 2" base of ice and the rink surface is flat and level.

Volunteers continue to build ice throughout the season to maximize the outdoor rink season (the thicker the ice, the longer the ice will last). Residents are asked to remain off of flooded ice surfaces to preserve ice. Outdoor rinks can last until early to mid-March depending on ice thickness, ice quality and weather conditions and close when ice conditions deteriorate and no longer safe for use.

Please note that ice availability is dependent on both weather conditions and volunteer availability. Once ready, ice surfaces are available for use at any time, however, hours of operation for fieldhouses/warming trailers vary. Please see individual rinks below for dates and times.

Sudbury

Queen's Athletic Skating Oval

Queen's Athletic Skating Oval will open February 18, 2023 with extended hours of operation on Monday, February 20, from 12 to 10 p.m.

Queen's Athletic Skating Oval is now open for the season. Hours of operation are Monday to Friday, from 4 to 10 p.m., and Saturdays and Sundays from 12 to 10 p.m.

Residents are reminded that hockey, ringette and shinny are not permitted on the skating oval.

Due to fluctuations in temperatures, hours of operation may change without notice.

Queens Athletic Skating Oval Opening Requirements

An ice resurfacer (Zamboni) and other equipment is used to build and maintain the Queens Athletic Skating Oval. Depending on temperature and weather conditions, it takes approximately 2 weeks to prepare the skating oval. Preparations include packing and levelling the granular track surface and banking snow to hold water. To begin building ice, outdoor temperatures must be below -5 Celsius for multiple consecutive days. A minimum of 2 inch ice thickness is required for the entire skating surface in order to be safely opened. The skating oval is historically open anywhere from mid-December to early January and closes in March when conditions are no longer safe or favorable.

Location

Regent Street (near Spruce)

Facilities

Schools and community groups are asked to call the City of Greater Sudbury Parks Services at 705-674-4455, ext. 4578 for reservations.

Ramsey Lake Skating Path

The Ramsey Lake Skating Path will open February 17, 2023, with extended hours on Monday, February 20, from 12 to 8 p.m. The extension to Science North will not be available this skating season due to ice conditions in the area.

Hours of operation are Monday to Friday, from 4 to 8 p.m., Saturdays from 12 to 8 p.m. and Sundays from 12 to 6 p.m. The Ramsey Lake Skate Patrol will be available for assistance during hours of operation.

The path is for skating only; hockey, ringette and shinny are not permitted. The path is approximately 1.5 km long, from the Sudbury Canoe Club at the corner of Elizabeth Street and McNaughton Terrace to Science North, with an extension to the Northern Water Sports Centre. The Ramsey Lake Skate Patrol will be available to provide assistance during the hours of operation.

Location Elizabeth Street / McNaughton Terrace to Science North
In order for work to begin on the Ramsey Lake Skate Path, ice must be a minimum thickness of 12 to 15 inches depending on the type and weight of equipment being used. Test holes are measured starting in January to determine the thickness of the ice.

Depending on temperature and weather conditions, it takes approximately 2 to 3 weeks to prepare the skate path.

Preparations include plowing, sweeping, shaving and flooding the ice surface. Once ice is 18 to 24 inches thick, the skate path is deemed safe for opening. The skate path has historically opened anywhere from mid January to early February, and closes in March when conditions are no longer safe or favourable. Ramsey Lake Skating Path is a natural ice surface. Report hazards to skate patrol employees or call 311.

Rock Climbing Basics

Introduction to rock climbing basics

The three main types of climbing you'll typically find at rock climbing gyms are:

Bouldering: 'free' climbing or climbing without a harness and rope, usually on lower rock formations

Top-rope climbing: climbing with the support of a rope that is looped through an anchor at the top of the climb and runs the length of the route, with a climbing partner below controlling the feed with a belay device.

Lead climbing: the most difficult climbing style involves the climber carrying the rope and attaching it to anchors along their climb, with a climbing partner below controlling the feed with a belay device.

Key rock climbing equipment: Belay, ropes and anchors: a system of controlling the feed of the supporting rope rock climbers use. The person operating the belay device is called the belayer.

Harness: nylon straps around the waist and legs connects to the supporting rope with a figure-eight knot allowing the climber the ability to 'sit' in mid-air while the climbing rope is controlled by the belayer.

Rock climbing shoes: flexible and light, rock climbing shoes have special rubber soles designed to provide excellent traction and grip.

Chalk bag: moisture on the hands may cause fingers to slip so climbers wear a small bag of loose chalk used to rub on their hands to keep them dry and secure a safer grip. Chalk bags are worn holstered to a belt or clipped to the harness with a carabiner.

Rocket Launching

Launch Canada in Timmins refers to the annual national student high-power rocket competition held near Timmins, Ontario, on Mattagami First Nation lands, fostering Canadian aerospace expertise by bringing together post-secondary teams for designing, building, and launching experimental rockets, supported by local, provincial, and federal partners. It's a key STEM event with support from sponsors like MDA Space and the City of Timmins, aiming to grow Canada's space industry.

Roller Skating

The primary roller skating organization in greater Sudbury is Nickel City Roller Derby (NCRD), a volunteer-run non-profit league established in 2009.

NCRD focuses on roller derby but offers various related programs and events for all skill levels and genders, including:

Learn to Skate Programs: These programs are available for both adults (18+) and juniors (under 18) and teach fundamental roller skating skills.

Competitive Play: The league fields multiple teams for competitive roller derby.

Public Skates and Events: NCRD hosts public skating events like "Roller Discos" and open skate days at local venues such as the Northern Credit Union Community Centre.

Volunteer and Official Roles: Opportunities are available for those interested in coaching, refereeing (who can use inline skates/rollerblades), and volunteering.

For the most up-to-date schedule of events, learn-to-skate programs, and ways to get involved, visit the official Nickel City Roller Derby website or their Facebook page.

Other Skating Options

Outdoor Facilities: The City of Greater Sudbury maintains an outdoor paved loop at Delki Dozzi Park that is suitable for in-line skating and rollerblading.

Roller Skating Clubs

NCRD Nickel City Roller Derby

<https://www.facebook.com/NickelCityRollerDerby>

They are running a class to teach Roller Skating and also did a number of Friday night open skates last year that were very fun. The open skate nights were 10$ for entrance and skate rentals, and had fun lights and music.

Roller Blading

In Greater Sudbury, the main hub for rollerblading is Nickel City Roller Derby (NCRD), offering roller derby, roller discos (public skates with music/lights), and a popular "Skating 101" learn-to-skate program for all levels, operating out of places like the NCU Community Centre. For outdoor paved loops, Greater Sudbury city website recommends Delki Dozzi Park's 1km loop. While not specific clubs, look for local Facebook groups like "Roller Country in Sudbury Ontario" for community events and rink info.

For Organized Programs & Events (Mostly NCRD):

Nickel City Roller Derby (NCRD): An inclusive league for all genders/experiences, hosting derby, fun roller discos (public skates), and learn-to-skate (Skating 101) for beginners.

Where: They often use the NCU Community Centre (300 Wessex Drive) for events.

How to Connect: Follow their Facebook page or check their website for schedules.

For Outdoor Skating:

Delki Dozzi Park: Features a dedicated 1 km paved loop, great for inline skating.

Other Spots: Bell Park path and school parking lots (after hours) are also suggested.

Rugby Teams

Sudbury Stones RFC

Overview: The Sudbury Stones RFC is Northern Ontario's only sanctioned rugby club by the Ontario Rugby Union (ORU). They function as a social club and travel for matches.

Teams: They have both men's and women's groups, as well as junior and minor programs.

Location: Their field location is Northeastern Elementary at 45 Spruce Street, Garson, Ontario, P3L 1P8.

Laurentian University Rugby Club (LURFC)

Overview: This is the official rugby group for Laurentian University, with the purpose of promoting the sport within the university and the broader Greater Sudbury community.

Engagement: The club is active on social media and welcomes new members.

Note: The search results also mention the "Sudbury Rugby Club" and "Sudbury Sapphires Ladies Rugby Team," but these appear to be based in the UK (specifically, Great Cornard, Sudbury, with a CO10 0GB postcode) and are not located in Greater Sudbury, Ontario.

Running Trails

Greater Sudbury offers diverse running trails, from paved waterfront paths in Bell Park to extensive natural networks in Lake Laurentian Conservation Area and Laurentian University for all levels, with popular spots including the lakeside Kelly Lake Trail, challenging terrain at Point Trails, and accessible loops in Kivi Park, all managed by organizations like the Rainbow Routes Association.

Popular & Scenic Trails:

Bell Park Walkway: Paved, waterfront path along Ramsey Lake, great for easy runs.

Kelly Lake Trail: Offers paved start then gravel, wooded sections, and lake views (up to 8.7km out-and-back).

Lake Laurentian Conservation Area: Extensive trails (like the Lake Laurentian Loop & Point Trails) with varied difficulty, lookouts, and wetlands.

Kivi Park: Features the Orange Trail and other options for various abilities.

Laurentian University Trails: Connected to Lake Laurentian, with trails like Loachs Trail and Sophie's Loop.

Other Notable Options:

Junction Creek Path: An easy, multi-use path for urban running.

Delki Dozzi Trail: A 1km paved cycling track, good for laps.

A.Y. Jackson Lookout Trail & Mount Ramsey Trail: Offer great views with more elevation.

Moonlight Beach Trail: A wide, gravel section of the Trans-Canada Trail, generally easy.

Tips for Runners:

AllTrails: Use the app to find detailed maps, difficulty, and reviews for Sudbury trails.

Rainbow Routes: The Rainbow Routes Association website provides a comprehensive network map.

Running Routes Exert

I find the best running routes are in the Science North/Lo-Ellen/Laurentian area as well. Lots of variety of paved, gravel, and more rugged trails, especially if you're up for venturing as far as Lake Laurentian. As mentioned, there are great areas to run all around Sudbury (up by College Boreal has some lovely trails too), but the highest concentration is near the first suggestion. Very runnable city basically anywhere, although I generally steer clear of Falconbridge and the Kingsway.

Running Clubs

Sudbury Rocks Running Club

Description: The largest running club in the area, established in 1998 to promote public participation in running for fitness and enjoyment.

Group Runs:

Wednesdays: 6 pm from the Apex Gym parking lot (125 Loach's Road) for a 5km or 10km run, often a mix of road and trail.

Saturdays: 8 am from the Elizabeth Street parking lot at Bell Park for a 15-20km run, a mix of road and trail.

Events: Organizes various local races, including the signature Sudbury Rocks Marathon.

Pace: Generally a floating pace between 5 and 7 minutes per km.

Crosscut Distillery Run Club

Description: A club that meets on Tuesdays for a run followed by cocktails.

Group Runs: Offers both a 3km and 5km run option at 5:30 pm.

Route: Routes are relatively flat and a mix of road and easy trail.

Stack Brewing Run Club

Description: Partners with Adventure 365 to offer a weekly run.

Group Runs: Meets on Thursdays at 6:30 pm with 3km and 5km options available.

Social: Features a local pint at the finish.

Other clubs

Air Blastoff: A track and field club.

Track North Athletic Club: Another running club in the area.

The Sudbury Squash Club, located in Greater Sudbury, Ontario, is a recreational squash club with a strong passion to promoting an active and healthy lifestyle, and building a vibrant community of squash enthusiasts.

We cater to players of all ages and skill levels, providing a friendly environment for skill improvement, friendly competition, and camaraderie.

Programs

We offer a wide range of programs such as a competitive league, women's night, coaching/clinics, and junior classes.

Ladder

How is a squash match played?

The matches are conducted as a 'Best of 5 Games' format, following international rules. For club play, the official ball is the Dunlop double yellow dot ball, and these balls will be readily available on each court during club nights.

What equipment do I need to play squash?

A suitable squash racquet is the most important piece of equipment. Choose one that suits your playing style and skill level. Racquets come in various shapes, sizes, and weights, so it's a good idea to try out a few to find the one that feels most comfortable for you.

A squash ball. Squash balls come in different speeds, indicated by colored dots on the ball (typically red, blue, yellow). The color corresponds to the ball's bounce and speed. Beginner players usually start with a red dot ball, while advanced players use double yellow dot balls. Make sure to select the appropriate ball for your skill level.

Non-marking court shoes designed for indoor sports. These provide the necessary grip and won't damage the court surface.

Wear comfortable, breathable sports clothing that allows for ease of movement. Moisture-wicking materials are recommended to help manage perspiration.

We strongly encourage all players to wear approved safety eyewear while playing. It is mandatory for players under the age of 18 to wear safety eyewear.

What level of skill is required to play?

The Sudbury Squash Club extends a warm welcome to individuals of all skill levels to join in on any of our programs.

Who Are We

Ben Bonish: Owner/Operator & Sauce Maestro

Meet Ben, a sauce connoisseur with a passion for all things saucy! With a strong love of wings, he started his sauce library with The Incredibly Tasty Sauce 15 years ago and he hasn't looked back. Flash forward to 2021 and Covid-19 and Ben now had the time to turn his passion and knack for creating unique flavours into a side hustle called Saucy Pete's (named after his grandfather). From jars to bottles this little business has changed and grown more than we could have imagined in less than a year! These sauces are his pride and joy (next to his family of course!) and he can't wait to bring you even more exciting flavours in the very near future!

A.Y. Jackson Lookout Trail -

<https://goo.gl/maps/AsTLmpV66Ya3HgEeA>

The A.Y. Jackson Lookout Trail is a 2.1-kilometer all-season loop trail located near Greater Sudbury that features a fantastic forest setting. It is most popular for hiking, trail running, and bird watching. If you visit in the right season, you can even pick big juicy blueberries along the way.

The trail is said to accommodate all skill levels, but we say it can be very up and down and a little bit rocky – AKA, pleasantly challenging. It has a mixed terrain and offers a moderate workout with a well indicated path that takes you to a lookout with an incredible view of Onaping Falls, one of the biggest waterfalls in Ontario. The A.Y. Jackson Lookout Trail is a shorter trail that is sure to please any nature lover looking for great forest and waterfalls views.

Literacy Screening and Training

If it's hard for you to get or keep a job because you have trouble with reading, writing or math, we can help you get the education you need.

Learning, Earning and Parenting (LEAP)

If you're a young parent

between the ages of 16 and 25, the LEAP program can give you the supports you need to: finish high school, improve your parenting skills, and prepare for and find work so you can support your family.

Employment Placements

When you're ready for a job, we can connect you with employers who are hiring, help you prepare for the interview and help with training for the job, if required.

Community Placements

A placement in a community agency can help you gain valuable experience. You can practice your skills, improve your confidence and get up-to-date job references and contacts.

You can still get help after you've found a job

Once you get a job and you are no longer eligible to receive financial help from Ontario Works, you may still be able to get other kinds of help, such as: extended health coverage, prescription drug coverage, and job-related expenses, such as safety boots. For more information, please contact your local Ontario Works office.

Greater Sudbury City Hall

Our office can steer you in the right direction if you want to upgrade to complete a grade 12 diploma/equivalency or GED.

A not for profit organization which is run solely by volunteers who are dedicated to the sport of SCUBA Diving. Formed in 1958, we are one of the oldest and largest training diving clubs in Ontario.

Some of our members were part of OUC board of directors and ACUC board of directors and were instrumental in the development of the Fathom Five dive sanctuary in Tobermory, they also helped preserve the Sweepstake in Little Tub Harbour. Our members are influential in the local diving industry and give back whenever possible through helping with instruction or supporting one of our clean-up initiatives (below or above water).

Today we enjoy a membership of approximately 60 to 75 members a year and train divers – from Snorkel Divers to Scuba Instructor Trainers.

All monies collected from the training of new recruits is used to pay pool fees and certification. All other money collected by the club is re-invested in insurance fees , instructor certifications, yearly operation, equipment maintenance and diving excursions.

We are one of the few clubs in Ontario to possess portable and stationary air compressors that are available to our members once they have completed free training on the operation of the units.

allows women to partake in small sewing projects to encourage development and strengthening of both skills and relationships. Attendees will have the opportunity to exercise their abilities and creativity with the assistance of a volunteer instructor and with a large assortment of material options. The current project is for Days for Girls, to create sustainable feminine hygiene kits for women and girls in locations around the world who do not have the access to such resources. The kits help promote health and self-worth, enabling those less fortunate a chance to lead more comfortable and fulfilling lives. Provides information, referral and support service to women who have been impacted by difficult life circumstances. The centre offers public education, outreach programs, legal clinics, a resource library, internet access, a clothing depot, and workshops about violence prevention and economic independence.

Ship Wreck Viewing

Tobermory is a great spot for day trips

<https://tobermory.com/> Taking the Ferry over to Manitoulin island is a nice boat ride. the drive back along land can have you stopping in Sudbury to see the Big Nickle not really nature but it is a nice view.

- Collingwood a good bit closer, and more to do

<https://www.collingwood.ca/culture-recreation-events/experience-collingwood> the Scenic caves don't need a guided tour, my 4yr old managed them on foot yrs ago <https://sceniccaves.com>

- Go to Honey Harbour area and hike and see Big Chute (Lock 44)

<https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/lhn-nhs/on/trentsevern/visit/posteelusage-lockstation/ecluse-lock-44-BigChute> lots of marked trails in the area and Big Chute is really cool to see when it is running.

Day 1 - Toronto to Killarney - Hike the Crack trail or paddle George Lake. Get fish and chips from Herbert Fisheries in the town of Killarney.

Day 2 - Killarney to Sault Ste. Marie - stop in Sudbury for food/gas, picnic at Spanish River Rest stop, visit Chutes Provincial Park with your Killarney park permit.

Day 3 - Sault Ste. Marie to Wawa - only 200km, but many scenic spots. Take your time. Swim at Batchawana or Pancake Bay, visit the Agawa Rock Pictographs (dependent on conditions), picnic by the Sand River, take in the scenery at Old Woman Bay. Take a pic with the famous Wawa Goose.

Day 4 - Wawa to Neys Provincial Park - See Winnie the Pooh in White River, stop in Marathon for Chinese food and picnic by Pebble Beach. Hike the trails at Neys, or drive a little further west to explore Terrace Bay, Schreiber, and Rossport.

Day 5 - Neys to Sault Ste. Marie.

Day 6 - Sault Ste. Marie to Manitoulin Island. Visit the Bridal Veil Falls in Kagawong.

Day 7 - Manitoulin Island to Toronto via ferry (limited capacity, you must make a reservation). Hike the Cup and Saucer trail before you leave. Make plans to come back and explore these beautiful places again.

Sky Rider

Urban Air

A young girl flies around a track bolted to the ceiling of Urban Air Trampoline & Adventure Park on a thrill-ride called SkyRider, where you seemingly fly through the air.

The highlight for me was Sky Rider, pictured above. Even though it's a short ride, it was actually pretty exhilarating. Miss Q did it twice because the line took about 20 minutes but by the time she came off the second time, there was no line at all. Since there's no time limit, if you find lines at any area of the park, just try another space and come back later.

Slag Dump Nights

There's nothing more romantic than watching them slag at night. Take her to see the molten slag poured off Big Nickel Mine Road. It looks awesome between Sunset and dark!

Slo-Pitch

Slow pitch softball in Greater Sudbury is active, with leagues operating from spring to fall at various local fields like Delki Dozzi, The Honourable James Jerome Sports Complex, and Terry Fox Sports Complex. Popular options include the Valley East Mixed Slo-Pitch Association (VEMSPA) and various men's or mixed leagues, with some, such as 55+ options, offering specialized, recreational play.

Key details regarding slow pitch in Sudbury:

Leagues & Options: Options include the VEMSPA (Sunday, recreational), men's leagues (e.g., 30+ at Packham Road), and, for older participants, 55+ mixed leagues.

Venues: Games are played across the city, including Delki Dozzi Playground, The Honourable James Jerome Sports Complex, and Terry Fox Sports Complex.

Registration & Info: Teams and players often connect via Facebook groups like "Sudbury Mixed Slo-Pitch League" and local sports forums.

Tournament Activity: The community is active, with teams participating in local, regional, and national-level events.

Note: The Valley East Mixed Slo-Pitch Association (VEMSPA) specifically mentions focusing on fun and community.

Centennial Park to Black Lake Road

<https://www.ontariotrails.on.ca/trail/centennial-park-to-blacklake-road> 10.0 km Region

Snowmobiling has been a popular sport in Greater Sudbury for more than 30 years and the expansion of the organized trail system is a result of the hard work and dedication by the Sudbury Trail Plan with more than 1,000 km of trails to offer. Experience outstanding scenic vistas, fresh snowfalls, and well-groomed trails by checking out one (or all three) of these Loop tours.

Chiniguchi Wolf Loop (223 km)

This exciting loop travels through the Wolf Lake Forest Reserve, one of Ontario's largest old growth forests, showcasing colossal red pines that are well over 200 years old.

Check out the scenic lookout from the top of Wolf Mountain, which offers fantastic views of majestic lakes and Ishpatina Ridge, the highest point in Ontario at 693 m.

Stop for a Bite

Enjoy a hearty meal at Rocky's on the shores of Lake Wanapitei (temporarily closed) or in Capreol at MnR Grill or The Firehouse Bar & Grill.

Cartier Moose Loop (253 km)

Travel through the rugged and round rocks of the Laurentian Highlands and Boreal Forest, on a loop that is rich in history and wildlife sightings.

Along the loop lies the abandoned sawmill town of Sellwood, which rose to a population of over 1,500 before becoming a ghost town in 1930 and closing for good in 1978.

Stop for a Bite

When hunger hits, stop in at the Windy Lake Motel Restaurant to satisfy your hunger and top up your fuel.

Rainbow Elk Loop (225 km)

The loop covers some of the most diverse riding in the area including old rail lines, winding bush trails, old logging roads, fields and lakes.

Get up close to incredible scenic vistas in Killarney Park with its abundance of wildlife along the La Cloche Mountain range. The ancient quartzite mountains are located on the Northern shore of Lake Huron, Northern Ontario.

Stop for a Bite

Take a break from the cold and warm up with hot eats at the Killarney Bay Inn.

Visit The Honourable James Jerome Sports Complex at 112-198 Centennial Drive.

The playground equipment at this complex is great for all age groups and developmental stages. It's squishy ground surface is ideal for toddlers, and it is accessible for handicapped children.

This complex also provides football and soccer fields, a baseball diamond, and tennis courts.

Furthermore, there are clean washrooms near the Lily boardwalk that are open on weekdays, a water fountain, and lots of parking.

Splash Pads

City of Greater Sudbury Splash Pads are a fun way for children to cool off during the summer months! Each year, splash pads are open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. from approximately June 1 to the end of Labour Day weekend, weather permitting. Residents will be updated if a splash pad is closed due to a safety concern, mechanical issue or necessary repair.

Please note that splash pads are unsupervised water play areas. Parents need to supervise their children at all times while visiting the splash pad.

Morel Family Foundation Park

You can find Morel Family Foundation Park at 270 2nd Ave N in Sudbury. This newly renovated park has beautiful play structures, swings, (one is handicap accessible), and also features a splash pad. There are benches for adults to sit on as well as lots of space to accommodate picnics. There is also an outdoor rink that doubles as a basketball court in the summer months. This park also has a washroom facility.

The only thing this park is lacking is shade, so be sure to sunscreen your little ones and bring a shade umbrella if you have one!

About Us

Splash N Go Adventure Parks Ltd. offers a mobile inflatable splash park that travels across Ontario throughout the summer months. Our exciting park features a multi-course route system that allows for different challenge levels for participants.

We have something for everyone, including an easy and relaxed course for simple fun, and an ultimate course for the athletic quest and conquer seeker featuring the highest and most challenging obstacles available.

Our Mission

We know that time with friends and family is important, which is why we strive to offer a truly memorable experience for everyone ages 5 and up.

Our mission is simple: we aim to bring a fun twist to a day at the beach by encouraging friendly competition at our parks!

We are passionate about bringing people together through exciting new activities. That's why we ensure our park is accessible to everyone so you can have a blast!

Why Splash N Go?

We pride ourselves in bringing fun new attractions to many locations in Ontario. With numerous obstacles including slides, trampolines, ladders and more, you can count on us to be your next favourite summer activity!

Strengthening Classes For Environments Girls Desire

Y.M.C.A. On Durham Street

Amazing Me is a program designed to empower girls to participate in sport in a healthy and positive way. The curriculum has a focus on confidence, positive self-esteem, healthy participation, coaching and more. The program will be taught in person with physical distancing. The program begins Oct. 29 and costs $10 for members, $25 for public.

Strengthening Classes For Seniors To Contact Loved Ones By Technology And Exercise Slightly For Improvement Of Mental And Physical Attrusions In All Families

DISCO

Y.M.C.A. on Durham Street

DISCO, with funding support from the Sudbury Community Foundation and in partnership with Canadore College, The Village, focuses on teaching seniors how to use technology safely through educational workshops, providing them a way to connect with their loved ones virtually by lending devices to use and getting active with a short workout session. Advanced registration is required. Physical distancing practices are in place, equipment will be sanitized after each use and hand sanitizer will be available. Masks are required. DISCO begins Nov. 4 at the Sudbury YMCA, and Nov. 6 at the Valley East Public Library.

Birding

Bald Eagles, osprey, many species of woodpecker and a variety of northern songbirds, like the Yellow Warbler, are common sightings in the park.

Boating

Halfway Lake is ideal for smaller watercraft and offers a boat launch. All other lakes in the park have motor restrictions.

Canoeing

Two Narrows Canoe Route

The Two Narrows Canoe Route begins on Halfway Lake and travels south into Bailey Lake. It is here that you can see nesting Bald Eagles, a Great Blue Heron rookery and the origins of the 2007 forest fire. From there a series of portages and small lakes takes you deep into the heart of the park. The landforms and vegetation in the Two Narrows Lake area is the central natural heritage feature of the park. Ground moraines created by glaciers thousands of years ago lie on top of rolling bedrock cloaked in forests dominated by jack pine, white birch and poplar. The canoeist can then travel back from Trapper Lake along the original route or through Benny Lake. This canoe route can be completed in one day but there are interior campsites for those who wish to spend more time enjoying the solitude.

Dawn and dusk offer excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

Antrim Lake Canoe Route

Located at the northern edge of the park, Antrim Lake is accessed on the east side of highway 144. This day trip offers spectacular scenery including tall cliffs and ample wildlife viewing opportunities. There are a number of secluded sandy beaches that offer quiet picnicking and swimming opportunities.

Discovery Program

Join Discovery staff at an Exploration Station during the months of July & August. Bring along your Discovery Activity Book (or pick one up at the Exploration Station), and use the equipment and materials provided to explore the park, observe plants and animals, and discover the wonders of nature. Be sure to share your observations with park staff and to take the Discovery Ranger Pledge! For more information keep an eye out for weekly calendar of events posted throughout the park.

Fishing

Halfway Lake provides anglers some excellent fishing opportunities for Small-mouth Bass, Northern Pike, Walleye and Lake Trout.

Hiking

Moose Ridge Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 2 km, 0.5-1 hour

This trail winds along Raven Lake and up and over a small glacial ridge. This is an excellent trail for families and offers exceptional scenic vistas.

Echo Pond Trail - Rating: Moderate - Length: 6 km, 1.5 hours

This trail extends from Moose Ridge and continues along Raven Lake and over part of a steeper ridge system. The trail then wanders north along the west shore of Echo Pond where grassy wetlands provide an ideal place for sighting wildlife. Beaver, mink and the majestic moose are regular visitors to this area. Echo Pond Trail connects to the much longer Hawk Ridge Trail. Be sure to watch the trail signs so that you are not hiking onto the longer trail!

Hawk Ridge Trail - Rating: Difficult - Length: 15 km, 6-8 hours

This is the longest and most difficult hiking trail in the park. Hawk Ridge extends off the northern portion of Echo Pond Trail and travels deep into the heart of the interior. The trail passes through part of the forest devastated by the 2002 tornado when mature trees were instantaneously flattened. The trail visits several lakes including tiny Lost Lake with several low cliffs that provide great vantage points. One of the highlights of the trail is the lookout over Three Island Lake. It alone is worth the trip. There are a few interior campsites located along the last stretch of the trail that the weary hiker can rest for the night. * Interior camping fees apply.

Osprey Heights Trail - Rating: Moderate to Difficult - Length: 6 km, 2 hours

Located on the east side of Highway 144, towards the north end of the park, this trail starts across a short section of low wetland forest before climbing sharply up into the rugged rocky hills of the Canadian Shield. The trail meanders east through mossy clearings, forests and along cliff tops to the edge of Antrim Lake. The Osprey Heights Lookout provides a superb view from over 50 metres above Antrim Lake. This is a great photo opportunity and an ideal place to stop for lunch. The trail then loops back west.

Hunting

Hunting is permitted only in the park addition. For more information contact 705-966-2315 ext 701

Swimming

Halfway Lake has excellent swimming in its day use area and is close to the campground. The large buoyed swimming area and long sandy beach with shallow entry is perfect for children.

About Us

Splash N Go Adventure Parks Ltd. offers a mobile inflatable splash park that travels across Ontario throughout the summer months. Our exciting park features a multi-course route system that allows for different challenge levels for participants.

We have something for everyone, including an easy and relaxed course for simple fun, and an ultimate course for the athletic quest and conquer seeker featuring the highest and most challenging obstacles available.

Our Mission

We know that time with friends and family is important, which is why we strive to offer a truly memorable experience for everyone ages 5 and up.

Our mission is simple: we aim to bring a fun twist to a day at the beach by encouraging friendly competition at our parks!

We are passionate about bringing people together through exciting new activities. That's why we ensure our park is accessible to everyone so you can have a blast!

Why Splash N Go?

We pride ourselves in bringing fun new attractions to many locations in Ontario. With numerous obstacles including slides, trampolines, ladders and more, you can count on us to be your next favourite summer activity!

Team Building Activities

Urban Air: Team Building

Inspire your team's creativity & innovation with a next-level team-building event at Urban Air.

Looking for a fun and challenging way for your team to strengthen collaboration, trust and bonding? Team building activities are a great way to make any team stronger. There's no better place to host a team-building day than Urban Air. Whether you are looking for a team-building event for your work office, church family, youth group, sports team, etc., Urban Air Adventure Park has something for every organization! You'll be surprised how excited your corporate work team will be to spend a day in our Adventure Park. And there are many team activities to keep your team working together and bonding all day long. During an Urban Air Team Building event, teams will face challenges that require problem-solving, managing change, and being pushed beyond their comfort zone, all while igniting their spirit of fun as they navigate the adventures! Urban Air offers a variety of attractions for team-building experiences, from the Warrior Course, and Climbing Walls to Battle Beam and Dodgeball. Combine several activities for your team outing or include them all!

We promise this will be one day that definitely doesn't feel like work. In fact, Urban Air team building is so much fun, it doesn't even feel like team building. So, leave the awkward icebreaker activities at the office and bring your team ready for a day of fun.

Team building isn't just for work teams either.

Volunteer organizations, clubs, and other groups can benefit from team-building days as well.

We'll make it easy to plan your event and take care of all the details. Our facilities can accommodate large groups or small, so bring your small team or bring the whole company. We'll serve up the fun for everyone.

Let 'em spin, score, chase, race and climb while working together to accomplish structured activities as a team.

Urban Air is the indoor adventure experience that will help you create the best day of work ever!

Team Building Activities

Urban Air: Team Building

<https://www.urbanair.com/group-events/team-building-events>

Inspire your team's creativity & innovation with a next-level team-building event at Urban Air.

Looking for a fun and challenging way for your team to strengthen collaboration, trust and bonding? Team building activities are a great way to make any team stronger. There's no better place to host a team-building day than Urban Air. Whether you are looking for a team-building event for your work office, church family, youth group, sports team, etc., Urban Air Adventure Park has something for every organization!

You'll be surprised how excited your corporate work team will be to spend a day in our Adventure Park. And there are many team activities to keep your team working together and bonding all day long. During an Urban Air Team Building event, teams will face challenges that require problem-solving, managing change, and being pushed beyond their comfort zone, all while igniting their spirit of fun as they navigate the adventures! Urban Air offers a variety of attractions for team-building experiences, from the Warrior Course, and Climbing Walls to Battle Beam and Dodgeball. Combine several activities for your team outing or include them all!

We promise this will be one day that definitely doesn't feel like work. In fact, Urban Air team building is so much fun, it doesn't even feel like team building. So, leave the awkward icebreaker activities at the office and bring your team ready for a day of fun. Team building isn't just for work teams either. Volunteer organizations, clubs, and other groups can benefit from team-building days as well.

We'll make it easy to plan your event and take care of all the details. Our facilities can accommodate large groups or small, so bring your small team or bring the whole company. We'll serve up the fun for everyone. Let' em spin, score, chase, race and climb while working together to accomplish structured activities as a team. Urban Air is the indoor adventure experience that will help you create the best day of work ever!

Via Train Train from Sudbury to White River

<https://www.viarail.ca/en/explore-our-destinations/trains/regional-trains/sudbury-white-river>

Greater Sudbury has train tours available, notably the Sudbury-White River train operated by VIA Rail. This train, formerly called the Lake Superior train and nicknamed the Budd Car, runs three times a week between Sudbury and White River, with stops in Cartier, Chapleau, and Missinabie. Additionally, VIA Rail offers routes from Sudbury to other destinations, and the Agawa Canyon Tour Train is accessible from Sudbury.

VIA Rail's Sudbury-White River Train:

Route:

The train travels between Sudbury and White River, with stops in other communities.

Schedule:

It runs three times a week, departing from Sudbury on Saturdays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays at 9 a.m., and returning from White River on Sundays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 8 a.m.

Accessibility:

The train is green-certified and features amenities like free Wi-Fi, wide aisles, ergonomic seats, and wheelchair lifts.

Other Train Options:

Agawa Canyon Tour Train:

While not directly operating from Sudbury, this popular day-long tour is accessible by traveling to Sault Ste.

Marie and boarding there.

Other Destinations:

VIA Rail offers routes from Sudbury to other destinations, including Ottawa, Hamilton, and various locations in Ontario.

Trail Information

This 1.7km section of trail, known as Fisher Wavy Trail, marks the convergence of two major trails in Greater Sudbury: the Junction Creek Waterway Park (JCWP) and the Trans-Canada-Trail (TCT). The JCWP is an 18km linear park connecting 60% of Sudbury's urban population, while the TCT spans the country, with more than 28,000 km of connected routes. Greater Sudbury's trail system contains 95km of the TCT. Built in 2012, a number of challenges prevented it's official opening. Now we're celebrating it's 10th year in our City's trail network.

Best Running Route Trails For Quality And Safety And Fear Rating Of Trails

I find the best running routes are in the Science North/Lo-Ellen/Laurentian area as well. Lots of variety of paved, gravel, and more rugged trails, especially if you're up for venturing as far as Lake Laurentian. As mentioned, there are great areas to run all around Sudbury (up by College Boreal has some lovely trails too), but the highest concentration is near the first suggestion. Very runnable city basically anywhere, although I generally steer clear of Falconbridge and the Kingsway.

Community Access Network

You could also get involved with your community access network (CAN). They host meetings that you can participate in four times a year. There's a clean up blitz happening on May 4th. There's also a sub committee this year on urban planning. The city wants volunteers that could give feedback on what they want to see done in their neighbourhood for the next 5 years. You'll definitely meet nice people and it's a great way to get involved in your community.

Volunteering At Library

Volunteers provide a unique and vital role in the delivery of library services in our community. At Greater Sudbury Public Library (GSPL), we are committed to offering a variety of enticing volunteer opportunities for both adults and teens throughout our 13 locations.

Becoming a volunteer

To become a volunteer at GSPL, you will need to complete the following steps:

1. Review the Current Volunteer Opportunities for Adults or Teens to determine your area of interest
2. Complete an online application form or print an application and drop it off at your nearest location
3. Complete a brief intake interview determining if volunteering at GSPL is right for you
4. Receive an orientation including tour of the building, volunteer space, introduction to the staff, review of policies, procedures and health and safety basics
5. Receive additional job orientation and training from your in-branch volunteer coordinator related specifically to your volunteer role

Teen volunteer opportunities

Recognizing our volunteers

Recognizing the contributions of our adult and teen volunteers is important to us - for without volunteers we would not be able to achieve all that we do!

VolunTeens will receive an official Letter of Reference upon completion of their placement at the library, and a confirmation of the total amount of time spent at the library if the hours are to count as part of the Community Service Hours requirement for high school graduation.

For more information on our Volunteer Program, please contact Laura Lavigne at 705-673-1155, extension 4767.

Adult volunteer opportunities GSPL's volunteer program strives to connect youth with the library, and offers the opportunity for young adults to connect with other adults and seniors in their own community in a variety of ways.

The VolunTeen Program also provides volunteer roles for students in Grades 9-12 currently attending any high school in the City of Greater Sudbury so that they may fulfill their Community Service Hours requirement before graduation. By volunteering at the library you can make a difference while using and developing your skills and abilities in any one of the following areas:

Lake Laurentian

Has a few.

Kivi Park

Kivi park has some and if you want a more challenging hike/trail.

Onaping Falls (also known as High Falls): Located about 35 km west of Sudbury, these falls are considered one of the best in Ontario.

Views: Accessible from the A.Y. Jackson Lookout, with wheelchair-accessible viewpoints and a trail leading to a bridge at the top of the falls.

Hiking: A 1 km riverside trail runs from the lookout to a bridge, and a 2 km loop continues into the woods beyond the bridge.

Accessibility: Easy access from the lookout, but the trail down the rocks to the bottom is rugged and requires good footwear. Onaping falls is a nice trail with waterfalls! A main tourist attraction and a few difficult although beautiful trails worthy of pictures especially in the fall for the colors as endorsed by The City Of Sudbury for it's Cavalcade Of Colors Festivals.

The best time to visit for fall colors is mid-October, but spring offers higher water levels. The area is also popular for picnics and tobogganing in the winter.

Paradise Lagoon: A "secret" swimming hole with a waterfall, accessible only by canoeing along the Chiniguchi River. It's off the main portage and more suited for experienced canoeists. This is a more challenging destination for those who are equipped and enjoy canoeing.

Larchwood Cascade: Features many small falls within narrow rock channels. It's a good second stop after visiting Onaping Falls.

Water Testing

Where can I get my water tested in Ontario for free?

Bacterial testing for private wells is performed free of charge by the Ontario Ministry Of Health Public Health Laboratory at 2380 St. Laurent Blvd. Sample bottles are available for pickup at that laboratory, and at water testing pickup and drop-off locations. Obtain a water sample bottle.

How do I get my local water tested?

Often county health departments will help you test for bacteria or nitrates. If not, you can have your water tested by a state certified laboratory. You can find one in your area by calling the Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 800-426-4791 or visiting www.epa.gov/safewater/labs.

Wholesale Groceries

The Good Food Box is a non-profit community initiative that allows individuals and families to purchase a variety of nutritious, delicious and fresh vegetables and fruit at wholesale prices. The program runs like a large buying club. Anyone who wishes to purchase a box is welcome. Each month, customers pre-pay $17 (large) or $8 (small) for a box of fresh fruits and vegetables. The Good Food Box Coordinator uses these deposits to place a bulk order through local distributors and producers. Food is then delivered to the packing site where volunteers separate the variety of fruits and vegetables into individual boxes. The boxes are then distributed throughout the Sudbury region to host sites where the boxes are to be picked up. Each box contains the same mix of fruits and vegetables and are always below market price.

There are at least two local food item in each box, numbers varying by season. website: www.goodfoodboxsudbury.ca

Wind Damage Preparation

Strong winds sometimes seemingly come out of nowhere. We must be prepared for such events, especially as they become more prevalent with climate change. Taking the following measures to protect our homes and communities reduces the potential damages caused by these strong wind events.

Remove or report dead trees and branches that may fall onto your home or powerlines during a storm

Clean gutters, drains and downpipes

Ensure your roof is in a good state

Prepare an emergency kit

Visit Outage Safety – GSU | Greater Sudbury Utilities
(gsuinc.ca)

You can report hazardous trees near powerlines for both GSU and Hydro One

Wind Chimes

Wind chimes, flags and windsocks

Personalize your outdoor space with wind-activated decorations such as wind chimes, flags and weathervanes that can be hand-crafted and fun to create. Keep in mind that wind chimes can create noise pollution for wildlife and neighbours, so consider choosing quieter versions. Flags and windsocks can also be a great indicator of wind direction and speed.

Wind Surfing Locations

Ramsey Lake (Sudbury Canoe Club): Located on the west shore, the SCC offers comprehensive windsurfing programs, including training for water starting, using harnesses, and footstraps. It is considered the premier spot for lessons and finding a community.

Windy Lake Provincial Park: A popular spot with extensive shoreline and, as the name suggests, good wind conditions.

Other Potential Spots: Lake Panache (Sawmill Bay) is also mentioned in regional wind forecasts.

Beer Tastings & Tours Cooking Classes Wine Tours &
Tastings

Hello there, food and drink lover! My name is Stephanie Piché and I am a chef, cooking instructor, wine & spirits educator, blogger and the host and producer of the Flying For Flavour podcast. I offer classes that introduce you to something new - either a new flavour, a new idea or technique or sometimes just a new way of looking at something you think you already know about food and drink.

Why book with Stephanie Piché

Dining Instructor, Host/Producer of the "Flying For Flavour" podcast

With over 25 years of industry experience, I am always on a hunt for new flavours and experiences. I am constantly travelling to learn more about dining, recipes and the best wines and spirits.

Wildfire's Smoke Preparations

Protect yourself from wildfire smoke impacts

As we saw last year, wildfires can be raging hundreds of kilometres away and still greatly affect local air quality.

This kind of smoke contains a mixture of gases and fine particles and releases contaminants into the air, including fine particulate matter, nitrogen oxides, carbon monoxide and volatile organic compounds.

Different people can have very different reactions to the same amount of smoke.

Caution is especially important for older adults, people who smoke, pregnant people, infants and young children, people who do strenuous outdoor work or exercise and people with existing health conditions, such as cancer, diabetes, heart or lung conditions. Some of the milder symptoms of smoke exposure include mild cough, headache, and eye, nose and throat irritation. You can usually manage these symptoms without requiring medical intervention.

If, however, you have severe cough, wheezing, difficulty breathing, asthma attacks, dizziness, chest pain or irregular heartbeat, contact your doctor or seek emergency medical attention.

Take precautions to protect your health:

Stop, reduce or reschedule strenuous outdoor activities.

Drink plenty of water to help your body cope.

If the temperature is comfortable, keep windows closed indoors and in vehicles.

Use the recirculation setting on air conditioners and HVAC systems to prevent smoke from entering.

Visit places with cleaner, filtered air, such as libraries or shopping malls.

If needed, follow your health care provider's advice about managing your condition.

When smoke is in the air, should you wear a N95 mask?

If you must be outdoors when air quality is poor, a well-fitted respirator-type mask (such as a N95 mask) may help reduce your exposure to fine particles in the smoke. Fine particles generally pose the greatest risk to health. Keep in mind that respirators should not be used by children under 2 years of age, or by individuals who have difficulty removing the respirator. Do not use a respirator if you have trouble breathing while wearing it. Public Health strongly recommends residents check the local weather forecast to know when to take extra care. Monitor the Air Quality Health Index (AQHI) or sign up for notifications at WeatherCAN: How to set up custom notifications – Canada.ca.

Wood Carving

Carving classes in Greater Sudbury are primarily offered through the Sudbury Carving and Stained Glass Club at the Parkside Centre

<https://theparksidecentre.ca/event/sudbury-carving-and-stained-glass-club-2/2026-04-15/>, which meets for 10-month sessions and welcomes all skill levels. For specific techniques, workshops for epoxy woodwork, including charcuterie board creation, are held at La Fromagerie

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/556983771638909/posts/1836876123649661>. Other creative, hands-on options include adult craft classes and pottery at Minnow Lake Place

Carving & Woodworking Options

Sudbury Carving Club: Meets Tuesday nights at the Parkside Centre. Participants can bring their own tools (knives, chisels, rasps) and buy wood on-site.

Epoxy Woodwork Workshops: La Fromagerie offers sessions to create epoxy and black walnut boards (including charcuterie boards and clocks).

Woodworking Fundamentals:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/367626233416094>

/posts/2858628380982521 A beginner course in Sudbury covers basic tools, carving, and safety for creating, for example, a lidded box.

Alternative Creative Classes

Pottery & Clay: Great White North Pottery Supplies

<https://www.gwnpottery.ca/collections/pottery-lessons> offers wheel throwing and handbuilding workshops.

General Arts: Minnow Lake Place hosts adult craft and creation classes.

For more information, you can contact the Parkside Centre regarding the Carving Club and check the City of Greater Sudbury website for other available workshops.

Strengthening Classes For Environments Girls Desire

Y.M.C.A. On Durham Street

Amazing Me is a program designed to empower girls to participate in sport in a healthy and positive way. The curriculum has a focus on confidence, positive self-esteem, healthy participation, coaching and more.

The program will be taught in person with physical distancing. The program begins Oct. 29 and costs $10 for members, $25 for public.

Strengthening Classes For Seniors To Contact Loved Ones By Technology And Exercise Slightly For Improvement Of Mental And Physical Attrusions In All Families

DISCO

Focuses on teaching seniors how to use technology safely through educational workshops, providing them a way to connect with their loved ones virtually by lending devices to use and getting active with a short workout session. Advanced registration is required. Physical distancing practices are in place, equipment will be sanitized after each use and hand sanitizer will be available. Masks are required.

North Bay Section

Heritage Carousel & Winter Wonderland Carousel

The Heritage Railway & Carousel Company provides hours of laughter and enjoyment to 100, 000 + visitors each summer who stop by to ride the beautiful carousels and miniature railway at North Bay's Waterfront.

Dionne Quintuplets Museum

The Dionne Quints Museum, is a not for profit institution, operated by the North Bay and District Chamber of Commerce with the co-operation of Annette and Cecile Dionne. Housing in the original Dionne homestead, the museum contains many artifacts from the Quint's early days and their growing years.

Heritage Railway Company Mini-Train

This miniature railway located near the waterfront runs on 2700 feet of 15" gauge track. You experience travel in an old fashioned way as you buy your ticket at the station and once on the train, the conductor punches your ticket just like the old days.

@ Discovery North Bay

Since 1973 the former North Bay Area Museum, now @discoverynorthbay, has been a local voice of heritage preservation and education for the community. Our goal for our current exhibits is to tell the stories of our community in a way you've never seen before ...

Whether that means seeing archival film footage or photographs of North Bay throughout its history, listening to stories told by members of the community of their experiences in the city and surrounding area, looking at collectibles from North Bayites who put together their own small exhibits in "The Collector's Corner", riding a velocipede, driving a train, testing your skills as a railway postal worker or learning about the future of the "Community Waterfront Park"... there is something to see or do in every nook and cranny of the building.

Fun Rentals

Fun Rentals is North Bay's Most Unique Waterfront Attraction. Riding and pedaling our product is the most fun and unforgettable experience that a family can have together while enjoying our beautiful waterfront. The physical benefits of everyone pedaling is obvious and make the ride that much more interactive. The pricing is very reasonable and youth love the excitement of being on the equipment. The bikes are very stable and easy to pedal. Couples – Families – Individuals – Seniors ... all can enjoy our products ... simply put – they're a whole lot of FUN!

North Bay Sports Hall of Fame

Tourism Outside Sudbury

You could go to one of the amethyst mines near Thunder Bay. It was fun as an adult, I'm sure your kids would really enjoy it. Pro tip: go looking near where the miners clean up their hauls from the mine. Found a few nice ones there.

I loved the Agawa rock pictographs

Highly recommend the Algoma Canyon Train ride in Sault St Marie especially if you do the fall trip. Chutes Provincial Park has a great look out and other scenery.

Up by Thunder Bay I would recommend Kakabeka falls and Amethyst Mine Panorama. The mine is not very scenic but very interesting.

Temagami Fire Tower is a good hike and a good scenic lookout. Not too far from North Bay.

Nearby Mattawa is a nice visit; the area is scenic, the downtown has a series of wooden statues featuring historical and mythological figures important to the area. If you are looking for what might be the best poutine anywhere, head to the end of town to Riverview Burger stand. They have a great view of the Ottawa river, wonderful food, and a small but well-stocked antique stand where I have found the most insane and unique offerings.

Capreol north of Sudbury features a museum of the northern railways. If you can make it into the north end of Algonquin, the leftovers of what was once a railroad town now serves as an entry point for canoeists, but there are a decent number of historical boards showcasing what the town used to be like.

The Brent store features more obscure little artifacts than you can shake a stick at and the proprietor is a gem himself, a retired high school teacher who looks like a prospector and can still carry a giant canoe over his head like it was nothing. While not a swimming hole, the lake at the Brent townsite, Cedar, is strikingly beautiful and features many fine swimming beaches where you are likely never to find another person. The water itself has the perfect pH to make your skin feel like it had been to the spa for a week after just a few hours of swimming.

If you head north of North Bay an hour and change and pass by all the Temagami stuff, you get to where you see nothing but miles and miles of spruce, and oddly enough, open farmland. The soil turns to clay here and made farming possible on the otherwise difficult Canadian Shield, and a museum stands to testify to the difficulties encountered by the settlers: black flies and a stupid short growing season. The front of the building has a nice cow statue.

Further west out near the Sault, there is an amazing little rock and gem shop in Bruce Mines, S and S creations, which takes mineral treasures from nearby

Way around the other side of Algonquin on highway 60 is a small town called Wilno, Canada's first Polish settlement. It's a charming little place with a massive church set high on a hill that overlooks the region.

If nothing else, the drive from North Bay to about Deep River on 17 is incredibly scenic and dramatic. This is one of the few places in Ontario, along a major transport route, south of the French river, where the radio just sort of poops out.

I'm really looking forward to the Temagami Fire Tower! Scenic points/lookouts/'makout points' are my absolute bread and butter. I really can't describe how magical the Lions' Den Lookout in Huntsville was in the fall. Love these places that are at once brand new but incredibly familiar in a forgotten childhood sense.

There's a decent trail in Sturgeon Falls by the Fort, I don't know when it will open because it's so wet right now and the water is high but it would be a short trip for you.

Checkout the ghost towns and pioneer cemeteries in Almaguin. Seguin trail is nice too.

Depending on how far you want to go, but if out towards Thunder Bay, I'd highly recommend Ouimet Canyon. I don't know why this (and actually that whole area) isn't marketed more heavily as a tourist destination.

Bathtub Island in Lake Superior Provincial Park.

Indian Pictographs Lake Superior Provincial Park.

Aubrey Falls Provincial Park north of Lake Huron on Highway 129.

Giovanni's Italian Restaurant in Sault Ste. Marie.
Amazingly good.

Corn Maze in Sturgeon Falls

Leisure Farms is a total rip-off now, especially if you're going with small kids, so if you're willing to make the drive you're better off going to Old McDonald's Family Farm in Lavigne. I haven't personally checked that one out yet but I've heard it's really great and the price is much better than LF. Planning on making that one our new go-to after a super disappointing experience at LF this year.
