JOHNSON CONSULTING SERVICES LLC (DETROITJCS™)

A woman-owned and founded professional company providing outstanding consulting services in Detroit for the surrounding communities.

MISSION STATEMENT

Johnson Consulting Services LLC provides professional consulting services that produce positive results and exceed expectations.

Johnson Consulting Services provides unparalleled consulting, schooling, auditing, and signing services for individuals, businesses, and nonprofit organizations. An application for professional business, nonprofit, or education services is required. The application for businesses and organizations share a standard QUICK BIZ application, while there is a standard EDUCATION application for families (parents with college-bound students or adult students). Each application is an Adobe PDF document that is easily accessible and user-friendly. Prior to and after completion, all questions and inquiries are answered in the initial free consultation.

To access grant only services, simply request and complete the appropriate DETROITJCS™ application. After your free ½ hour initial consultation and once payment is received, the clock begins and your specific funding request process begins. Within a 15 – 30 day period, your results are finalized in a marked, protected spreadsheet that contains your unique funding results, and the file is then emailed to you. It contains detailed tabs and key contact information throughout so that your time is not wasted...It's that simple!

At this time, the company uses the Zoom marketplace and other virtual, online platforms to communicate in lieu of face-to-face contact, but reserves the right to use other available online resources to comfortably and safely meet virtually with clients and customers. At this time, to protect ourselves from one another due to the COVID-19 global health pandemic, the company strictly uses PPE equipment and materials for any in-person contact.
