As an Information Systems Analyst at Dykema law firm (then Dykema Gossett PLLC) and a backup Network Administrator, I conducted work in a virtual/remote environment years before the 2020 pandemic. I went on to become the salutatorian of my Cisco Networking Academy at Focus: HOPE Information Technology Center in Detroit where I earned CCNA, A+, MOUS, and Panduit certifications; became a magna cum laude graduate of Henry Ford College with an associate degree in Business Administration; a graduate with honors at the University of Michigan-Dearborn School of Management with a degree in Business Administration; and, an honors graduate at the University of Michigan School of Information with a degree in Information Science. I am an information scientist and I love to solve problems creatively.

Ms. Johnson is thankful to God, and to her dear and cherished family and friends who encourage, believe in, and support her academic and professional career and pursuits. In her spare time, she enjoys reading comics and sci-fi, skating, artistic outlets, action movies, and outdoor music concerts.
