

OFFICIAL LETTER

SANTA CLAUS

Dear

It's freezing up here in a very snowy North Pole. Snow is falling everyday, but we are keeping warm by drinking lots of hot chocolate, I like mine with extra cream and marshmallows. The toys are almost all made, the sleigh is being packed by the elves ready to make our deliveries on Christmas eve.

I have checked the Christmas Nice List twice and it's great news you're on it, well done. It's important to be on your best behaviour throughout the whole year.

It won't be long until we set off on our journey. We are looking forward to visiting you. It's a very long way from the North Pole but don't worry, Rudolph's shiny nose will be shining bright all night long. He's fantastic, isn't he?

I am so proud of all the things you have done this year, keep up the good work. You have been a star, a big shining one!

Do you want to hear a joke? What do Elves learn in school? The Elf-abet, of course. Ho! Ho! Ho! That did make me laugh out loud!

The Reindeer wear some very magical bells which sometimes do make a bit of noise but we will try to be quiet! I don't want to wake anyone up; we all need plenty of sleep to have the best ever Christmas day. Rudolph has been practising his landing all year, he's very good, but I do at times hear some children can hear his hooves on the roof.

I have just looked outside and the Reindeer are having their lunch. They eat so much food, carrots are still their favourites. Dancer once ate 100 carrots in under 2 seconds, that's very fast.
Do you like carrots?

Can I ask you to do something special for me, please? To give us all a bit of extra energy on what is the longest night of the year, could you leave us a little snack? maybe a mince pie for me and some carrots for the reindeer. Thank you very much.

Now I've got to go, the sleigh needs one more polish, I want it super shiny so it flies through the night sky even faster, I've got so many present to deliver this year

I hope you have a fantastic Christmas. Be good and kind as usual. Ho! Ho! Ho!

yours truly,

Santa Claus
