A New Sheriff in Town

By MICHAEL ROSENZWEIG,
Editor-in-Chief

On Friday January 11, 2019, new Florida Governor Ron DeSantis suspended Broward Sheriff Scott Israel and appointed Sergeant Gregory Tony as the new Sheriff of Broward County. Israel was suspended as a result of a campaign promise made by the new governor and the findings of the lengthy report issued following the Marjorie Stoneman Douglas School shooting last February 14 in Parkland which resulted in the deaths of 14 students and 3 adults. Israel has served Broward County as Sheriff for the past six years.

New Sheriff Gregory Tony comes to Broward County with several years work experience with the Florida Highway Patrol. Tony is originally from Philadelphia, PA and now resides in Coral Springs. He is 41 years of age.

Following the mass shooting that took place last year, Scott Israel's removal was inevitable. The executive report published after months of investigating revealed many errors that were made by the B.S.O and other law enforcement entities prior to and during the actual shooting. Law enforcement was familiar with the perpetrator's potential to commit a senseless act of violence. Teachers at the school and other students were aware of the perpetrator's potential to harm others. Many of them suggested that he was a ticking time bomb. The school resource officer at the school during the shooting did nothing to try to stop it. Several B.S.O. deputies who initially responded to the scene did not enter the building based upon department policy.

Israel's removal by the Governor was endorsed by many of the parents of murdered students. Time will tell if new Sheriff Tony will be able to implement a new policy in the B.S.O. regarding its response to active shooter situations. As I outlined in my editorial in the CVE Reporter of last March, schools can harden their classrooms and make them safer for students relatively quickly by implementing immediate changes to their classrooms.

Whether you agree or disagree with the Governor's decision to remove Scott Israel, this editor thanks him for his service to Broward County and wishes the new Sheriff the best of luck on his new challenging career.

Happy Valentine's Day

By MICHAEL ROSENZWEIG,
Editor-in-Chief

Valentine's Day, also known as Saint Valentine's Day, celebrated annually on February 14, originated as a Christian liturgical feast day honoring one or more early saints named Valentinus. In 18th Century England, Valentine's Day evolved into an occasion in which lovers expressed their love for each other by presenting flowers, confections and sending greeting cards known as Valentines. Writers Chaucer, Donne and Shakespeare have used the day as subject matter in various works of theirs.

In the United States, nearly 200 million Valentine's Day cards are sent each year. Millions of cards are created and exchanged by children in schools. Valentine's Day spending has increased through the years, primarily on gifts, flowers and candy. Let's face it; who doesn't want to be someone's valentine? Happy Valentine's Day!

VILLAGE MEETING MINUTES

COOCVE Board of Directors Meeting – January 15, 2019

COOCVE President, Sylvia Smaldone, called the meeting to order at 9:35 a.m. Sylvia led the Pledge of Allegiance and a Moment of Silence. Sylvia stated that there was a quorum.

Treasurer's Report

– Howard Drandoff
The Expenses for December were $3,585; Deposits were $192 and the Opening Balance was $68,286. YTD Deposits were $53,120. The YTD Expenses were $51,554. The current Cash Balance as of December is $69,852. The Optimum Bank CD is $52,928.60.

President's Report

– Sylvia Smaldone
Sylvia announced that COOCVE will not be collecting dues from associations in 2019; everyone will become a member of COOCVE. On Tuesday, February 12, Katzman and Chandler will be conducting a Board Certification Class in the Party Room from noon to 2 p.m.; Sign Up Sheets are located in the Staff, COOCVE and MM Offices.

COOCVE will be having a Town Hall Meeting on January 24 from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Party Room; COOCVE, Recreation and MM will be present to answer any questions. On Friday, January 25 from noon to 2 p.m., Katzman and Chandler will conduct a seminar on support animals in the Party Room; Sign Up Sheets are in the Staff, COOCVE and MM Offices.

Election Committee

– Pat Bidol-Padva, Co-Chair
Pat stated that she is the Co-Chair along with Carol Carr. Pat introduced the other members of the Committee as well as volunteers who are going to help count the ballots. Pat stated that each candidate will give a two-minute speech on why they should be elected. Please refrain from voting until you have heard from all the candidates. If you vote for more than three candidates, your vote will not be counted. Pat discussed the procedures and what would happen in case of a tie. Pat stated that Anna Fuzi has dropped out. She then called the candidates running for the MM Board to speak: Michael Gurevich, Jack Kornfield, Pierre Laliberte, Joseph Roboz, Michael Rout-burg and Linda Sussman. Pat called any Directors that are on the Election Committee up to vote. She then called each Association Director up to vote. Pat then called the Alternates up to vote. The voting ended, and the Committee tallied the ballots. Michael Rackman addressed the COOCVE Directors about the acquisition on the Recreation property and the necessary Bylaw changes that will need to be made when the Recreation property is acquired. Sylvia thanked Michael for his detailed report.

Election Results

– Pat Bidol-Padva
The following candidates have been elected to the MM Committee for a three-year term: Michael Routburg, Joseph Roboz and Pierre Laliberte. Sylvia thanked the Election Committee for their hard work.

Master Management

– Eli Okun
Eli congratulated the newly-elected members to the MM Board. He also reminded everyone that the Broward Sheriff's Office is in the Village and is issuing tickets to those violating traffic laws; over 75 have been given out. Over 1,000 free barcodes have been given out since the program started. For those renting a car for the season, if you bring in your rental agreement and valid CVE ID, you can get a free barcode. The West Gatehouse is now in the planning stages and will also have a barcode lane. Phase I and II of the Lighting Project are complete. This year, MM will be working with associations to install additional lighting in the parking lots. Dan Johnson has resigned, and the Interim Director is Van Smikle.

Recreation

– Rita Pickar
A bus trip has been scheduled to see the play, The Producers, at 2 p.m. on January 30 at the Lauderhill Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $55; this will include transportation, ticket and tip for the driver. The bus will depart promptly at 12:15 p.m. from the Bus Depot in the parking lot. Dan Glickman asked if there are any openings on Recreation and how they are going to be filled. Rita replied that there are currently two openings. One was filled this morning; an announcement will be made next week. The other is in the talking stages.

Old Business

– None

New Business

– None

The meeting ended at 10:45 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Sylvia Smaldone,
COOCVE President

VILLAGE MEETING MINUTES

Joint COOCVE Executive Committee and Council of Area Chairs Meeting – January 9, 2019

COOCVE President Sylvia Smaldone called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m. Sylvia led the Pledge of Allegiance and a Moment of Silence.

Minutes:

Sylvia moved and it was seconded to waive the reading of the November meeting minutes and accept them as published in The Reporter. The motion carried unanimously.

Treasurer's Report

– Howard Drandoff

The expenses for December were $3,585; deposits were $192, and the opening balance was $68,286. YTD deposits were $53,120. The YTD expenses were $51,554. The current cash balance as of December is $69,852. The Optimism Bank CD is $52,928.60.

President's Report –

Sylvia Smaldone

Sylvia reminded everyone that COOCVE will be having a town hall meeting on January 24 from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Party Room; COOCVE, Recreation and MM will be present to answer any questions. On Friday, January 25 from noon to 2 p.m. Katzman and Chandler will conduct a seminar on support animals will take place in the Party Room; sign-up sheets are in the Staff, COOCVE and MM offices. On Tuesday, February 12 there will be a Board Certification Class in the Party Room from noon to 2 p.m.; sign-up sheets are located in the Staff office, COOCVE and MM offices. Sylvia mentioned that Michael Rackman will be presenting at the COOCVE BOD meeting a detailed explanation on the acquisition of the Recreation property.

Election Committee –

Patricia Bidol Plava

Patricia mentioned that the election will be held on Tuesday, January 15 at the COOCVE BOD meeting. This year there are fewer candidates as there are none for COOCVE and only two for Recreation. The two Recreation candidates Rita Pickar and Carol Davis have been elected by acclamation since there were two candidates and two openings. Each candidate for MM will have two minutes to speak at the COOCVE BOD meeting before the voting takes place. Mel Nass suggested that the Election Committee institute as a requirement for candidates that they must attend at least two of the Board Meetings of the entity they are running for prior to being considered for a position on the Board. Patricia replied that she would bring the suggestion to the Committee.

Sylvia then turned the meeting over to Pat Bidol-Plava, Chairperson of Council of Area Chairs.

Master Management –

Dan Johnson

Dan mentioned that phase II of the lighting project will require assistance from each association. The goal is to fully light the parking lots to City code standards. This is not a requirement, but it is the goal that MM would like in CVE. MM will provide to each building association the best solution for each individual parking lot. MM will pay for any upgrades. The only cost associations would incur would be if there is a panel issue in the building. Dan mentioned that barcodes are free and will remain free as MM would like every resident to have a bar code on their vehicle to assist with traffic. If residents notice any FPL street light issues, please call the MM office and report the outage.

The MM Town Hall meeting will take place on January 30 at 10 a.m. This meeting will provide residents with an outline of the projects that have been completed and upcoming projects for 2019. Dan introduced Alex Rang a project manager from a PR firm, who has been hired to assist with the RecLease transition. His main focus will be information gathering and providing information to the community. He will work with COOCVE, Recreation and MM to get the word out on the process from beginning to end. Val Smikle will be taking over as an Interim Director at MM and filling Dan's role; Val can be reached at vsmikle@cvedb.com.

Recreation – Rita Pickar

Rita mentioned that the tickets are selling quickly so don't wait until the day of the show to purchase any tickets. A trip has been scheduled to see the play The Producers at 2 p.m. on January 30 at the Lauderhill Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $55 and available online or at the box office; the price will include transportation, ticket and tip for the driver. The bus will depart promptly at 12:15 p.m. from the Bus Depot in the parking lot. Rita stated she, along with other members of the Recreation Committee, has been speaking at building meetings updating them on the transition. If you want anyone to speak at your meeting, please contact a member of the Recreation Committee.

Rita thanked Dan, on behalf of the Recreation Committee, for his work and support and wished him success.

Seacrest – Nothing to report

East Coast – Not Present

First Service Residential –

Commissioner –

Bernie Parness

The Commissioner informed the Area Chair of Oakridge that they have a couch sitting in the bulk pick-up that is not supposed to be out until Friday. He stated that the City is passing a new ordinance that all owners in the building will be held responsible if you do not put bulk pick-up out on Thursday for a Friday pick-up. Rita asked how it will be determined as the couch is sitting in the center with many buildings surrounding it. The Commissioner replied that the summons will be sent to the property owners of which the bulk item is placed on. Many residents replied and stated that it is not fair as residents dump and move items from one building to another building; buildings should not be fined, individuals should be fined. On February 21 from 1 to 4 p.m. a District 3 meeting will be held in the Party Room at CVE. City officials will be on hand to answer any questions such as recycling and permits.

Patricia mentioned that last week the Amending Documents meeting took place and over 240 Board Members attended. Many asked if the presentation from Katzman and Chandler could be distributed. If a President would like a copy, please request it by contacting the COOCVE office.

Areas:

Durham: A resident asked how residents, who want to recycle, are going to recycle if the program goes away. Dan responded that CVE is still not recycling correctly. If the program ends, those that want to recycle will need to take their recycling off the property. There are a few handicapped residents who use the pool and the gate needs to be changed to a slide and not one that pulls open. Dan replied that the gates at the pools meet the code for child safety. The gates cannot be a slide or change to be pushed in as it will not meet the code for child safety. The gates are not handicapped accessible and nothing in the codes states that they need to be.

Markham: The Area Chair mentioned that last year a group of Associations gathered together to have tree trimming done in their respective areas. If any associations would like to join this group bid for tree trimming, please let him know as they are gathering bids and combining forces will lower the cost.

Oakridge: Rita mentioned that having cameras installed near the bulk trash area would be the only solution to find those that are not following the rules.

Tilford: Sylvia stated that one of the duties of the Area Chair is to get copies of the Officer and Directors sheets from the COOCVE office so that you know who the Officers are for each building in your area. Gene asked if Sylvia could email copies of the forms to the Area Chairs instead of them going to the COOCVE office. Sylvia replied, no it is not possible as COOCVE does not have the staff to do that.

Upminster: Michael thanked Dan for his hard work and Kelly, who is not here, for her work as they both made a tremendous change and valuable contribution here in CVE.

Old Business:

Rita asked if COOCVE can review the dues structure at the next COOCVE BOD meeting. Sylvia replied that it would be added to the agenda.

New Business:

Gene stated the suggestion of associations getting together to have work done such as tree trimming is a great idea. This type of work should be coordinated by COOCVE – they don't have to run it, but they can help obtain the bids and put the word out to other buildings. Mel agreed with Gene and stated that Associations are always in need of plumbers, electricians and roofers just to name a few. This could be a job for someone to coordinate bids and be sure that these trade workers are licensed. Sylvia replied that about three years ago a committee was formed. Mel replied that it should be a paid position and not a committee. Dan replied that residents come out to the MM and Recreation meetings because they have paid staff communicating daily to residents and it would be very valuable for COOCVE to hire an individual to communicate daily with residents.

Motion to adjourn at 10:30 a.m.

VILLAGE MEETING MINUTES

Master Management Board Meeting – December 20, 2018

President Eli Okun called to order the regular meeting of the elected volunteer Board of Directors of CVE Master Management at 9:28 a.m.

Eli informed the audience of the sign-in sheet at the back of room if anyone wished to speak at Open Mic.

Eli noted in attendance: Sylvia Smaldone, President of COOCVE; Michael Rosenzweig, Editor-in-Chief of the CVE Reporter; Rita Pickar, Chairperson of the COOCVE Recreation Advisory Committee.

Following the Pledge of Allegiance, a moment of silence was held for those who gave their lives in service to preserve our democracy.

Roll Call:

Present - Eli Okun, Fred Rosenzweig, Dick Ciocca, Gene Goldman, Michael Routburg, Pierre Laliberté, Joe Roboz

Remote - Barry Warhoftig, Joe Maney

Meeting Minutes: (9:30:52 a.m.)

The Board unanimously approved the Minutes of the November 8, 2018, MM Board Meeting; the November 27, 2018, Executive Session Meeting; and the December 6, 2018, Executive Session Meeting.

President's Report - Eli Okun: (9:31:57 a.m.)

1) East Gatehouse -

Eli stated the East Gatehouse is open and explained there are two entrance lanes in to the Village. The wait time for entry is a safety mechanism that prevents the two gate arms from raising simultaneously to prevent traffic accidents as the lanes merge after passing through the gate.

2) BSO Presence in the Village - (9:33:01 a.m.)

Eli reported BSO has issued 47 traffic citations in the Village from November to date. The majority of tickets were for speeding and stop sign violations. He advised residents to obey the traffic laws, and pointed out the speeding along Century Village has reduced and hoped the police presence would continue to enhance Village safety.

3) Village Lighting Update - (9:33:47 a.m.)

Eli advised Phase I with replacement of the existing lamp heads with LED lighting was complete, with the exception of Tilford. Secondly, FPL has changed out all of the yellow lights with brighter LED bulbs along Century Boulevard that give off substantially more light to enhance visibility and safety. He stated with Michael Routburg's expertise and leadership, the final phase of the lighting project will begin in about February with a photometric study to determine additional lighting needs, with a focus on potential dark areas throughout the Village, and will seek recommendation, to include the possibility of affixing additional poles and lighting on the buildings themselves, particularly the high rises. Those buildings will be contacted for permission. The objective is to make a brighter, safer Village.

4) Personnel - (9:36:10 a.m.)

Eli informed that Executive Director, Dan Johnson, has resigned, and his last day will be January 10. The Board elected Val Smikle to resume the role as Interim Executive Director beginning January 11. Eli noted Val's vast familiarity and terrific contribution in having spearheaded a ma-majority of the Village projects. Eli commented Dan would be missed and has done a terrific job. Applause ensued after each announcement.

Treasurer's Report - Joe Maney: (9:37:28 a.m.)

November 2018 Financial Report -

For the month ending November 30, 2018, Revenue was $1,061,254 and Expenses were $1,172,838. The Net Expenses exceeded the Revenue by $111,585. The YTD Revenue was $11,790,897. The YTD Expenses were $12,065,799. The YTD Expenses exceeded the Revenue by $274,902.

The balance sheet is showing Cash on hand of $1,993,732. The Net Assessment Receivables on uncollected items was $288,934. Total assets were $3,120,409, with Total Liabilities of $3,008,067 and Total Net Equity of $386,844. Joe stated the major items of increased expenditures continue to be transportation services up by $121,000, YTD and security guard services up by $250,000 YTD, which were offset by a reduction in capital spending of $315,000.

Executive Director's Report - Dan Johnson: (9:39:16 a.m.)

1) Golf Course Update -

Dan reported MM had passed the November 13 due-diligence period and is now in a fully-executed agreement with Toll Brothers and Fairway Investors. MM anticipates acquisition of the property around November 2019, at which time MM would basically be gifted Parcel 1 (Hillsboro side), 2 (just north of piece of land across from Lyndhurst area), and 3 (Lyndhurst area). He advised once the retention pond is built for Toll Brothers, MM would receive Parcel 4 (Grantham and Berkshire area). Park planners will soon be engaged to reach out to the community via email and phone to assess resident desires for the area, i.e., bike paths, walking paths, gazebos, grills, etc. Breaking ground on park services is about two-and-a-half to three years away. Per agreement, Toll's responsibility is to remediate the grounds from arsenic and other fertilizer chemicals. The Department of Regulation and the County are working to formulate what that would be. Dan also reported MM conducted offsite testing while Toll continues their offsite testing as mandated by the County. For the five additional wells needed to be done, those buildings have been contacted, and if there are any buildings in need of remediation, Toll will also be responsible for remediating those spaces.

2) Bar Code Enforcement - (9:41:24 a.m.)

Dan reported as of December, a couple dozen IDs have been confiscated from Residents at the Main and East Gates for accessing the barcode lane without a barcode and using their ID's to go through the barcode lane. Dan advised the confiscated IDs can be retrieved the following day at the ID office; hoping Residents would obtain a barcode at that time.

He encouraged Residents to spread word of enforcement of the barcode lane and if Residents do not have a barcode, they can be picked up at the ID Office, with your Century Village ID and car registration free of charge.

He expressed appreciation for the over 500 Residents who have picked up their free barcodes, adding that traffic congestion in and out of the Village has been greatly reduced as a result.

Business: (9:42:14 a.m.)

Old -

New -

1) 2019 Auditor Approval - Treasurer, Joe Maney

Joe M. mentioned he was asked to accept recommendations for a new auditor as good business practice, especially to review audit procedures. As a result, three recommendations for audit interns were received from a Board Member and MM counsel. The first proposal quoted was $10,800, the second was $13,500, and the third proposal quote was $18,000. He explained the second auditor was selected after a counter offer was made of $12,500. As a result, Joe M. made the following motion:

Joe Maney moved to appoint Keefe McCullough of Fort Lauderdale as the MM independent auditor for 2019. The motion was seconded by Fred Rosenzweig. The motion passed unanimously.

2) Landscape Contract Approval - (9:44:34 a.m.)

Eli informed the Village landscaping contract with Luke's was up for renewal and advised that a copy of the proposed contract had been previously distributed for the Board's review. Therefore, Eli made the following motion:

Eli Okun moved to approve a three-year contract with Luke's Landscaping, which includes ground maintenance, fertilization, pest control, seasonal planting, and tree trimming not to exceed $166,550 annually. The motion was seconded by Dick Ciocca.

Following a brief discussion, the motion passed unanimously.

Dan thanked Robert for his efforts over the past six months obtaining a full-scale RFP for the bid to include site and business visits and evaluation, as well as people required to provide us with the highest level of service they could through this contract. MM ultimately selected the vendor they were familiar with and were pleased with their landscaping services. A round of applause ensued.

Member Comments: (9:47:03 a.m.)

Eli informed this would be the last meeting before election of MM Board Members for 2019, noting there were seven candidates running for the three MM open seats. He thanked the Board very much for their cooperation and attendance at the many meetings, adding the Board should be proud of the many great and noticeable accomplishments in the Village, and wished everyone happy holidays and a happy, healthy new year.

Pierre commented he had noticed a big difference; less speeding and pedestrian respect along Century Boulevard and was pleased with the new Village lighting improvements. He remarked it was his pleasure serving on the Board and hoped to continue.

Dick said with his service on six MM Boards, he was aware of the accusations of Members patting themselves on the back but felt they were well deserved as evident throughout the Community. He was pleased to work with such a tremendous group and wished everyone a healthy holiday season and a very healthy new year.

Joe R. stated although he felt this might be his last time sitting at the table, he pointed out the many changes during his three years of service on the Board to include irrigation, lighting, roadways, signage upgrades. He remarked the Board had dedicated three to four days a month; it's not easy and disagreements occur, but a consensus is reached every time and thanked the Board and Residents for the opportunity to serve. A round of applause ensued.

Michael wished everyone a happy holiday season; complimented the many Village improvements; and desired that the past neglected Village matters continue to move forward with improvements and hoped the Board continues to be supportive.

Fred was pleased with the developments the MM Board

VILLAGE MEETING MINUTES

COOCVE Recreation Committee Meeting – January 8, 2019

In attendance: Jay Baimel, Susan Dove, Rita Pickar, Phil Raymond, Fran Stricoff; Absent: Marj Campbell; Representing Bay Management: Mike Burdman; Representing COOCVE: Sylvia Smaldone

The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and a Moment of Silence at 9:30 a.m.

Minutes:

Susan moved and it was seconded by Phil to waive the reading of the December meeting minutes and accept them as published in The Reporter. The motion carried unanimously.

Chairperson Comments:

Rita wished everyone a Happy New Year. She mentioned that at the end of 2019 if all goes as planned, residents will own all Recreation facilities and the Recreation Committee will become CenClub Corporation. Rita invited all Area Chairs, committee members, building associations and club organizations to invite a member of Recreation, COOCVE or MM to speak at their meetings to explain the transition and answer any questions. Rita thanked Fran for her many years of service to the Recreation Committee. Fran's attention to detail and her copious note-taking have been a great help to all of us and on behalf of the Committee, we thank her for all she did.

Correspondence:

Rita discussed complaints which were received from residents about the behavior at the pools over the Holiday. She asked residents to remember that they are responsible for the behavior of guests at CVE. In the future, extra security will be employed at an added expense to the residents. Residents should keep in mind that their recreation privileges could be suspended for failure to control any guest. She also mentioned that there was a complaint about an incident at the show the other night. The Recreation Committee has spoken to the individual and they will not be returning.

Bay Management Reports: Mike Burdman Clubhouse:

Pickle-ball: The pickle-ball courts are now open.

Clubhouse Flooring: Due to resident complaints, the staircase installation has begun on the stairs in the Clubhouse.

Pétanque: The pétanque courts have been painted red and yellow.

Signage: The Clubhouse room signage is up. The next signage that will be installed will be directional and floor signage.

Ping Pong: Ping pong pillar pads were installed.

Lighting/Safety: Pool deck lighting has been upgraded to LED lights with 3,000 lumens for increased visibility and safety. As lights need to be replaced, the maintenance team will be replacing them with modern technology while also saving energy. Several broken traffic cones have been replaced with brighter cones for more visibility. The halo has been replaced with LED for longer life and energy efficiency.

Fitness Center: The torso rotation machine was repaired; a part was replaced, and maintenance was performed on the machine. The door in the men's locker room was repaired. Several high impact courses have been added to the fitness schedule; Ball Sculpt, Total Body Fusion, High-Intensity Interval Training, Barre Intensity as well as Cardio Kickboxing. For a complete schedule and updated times please stop by the staff office or visit www.cveevents.com. Educational / Art / instructional classes kicked off on January 7.

Trophy Case: A custom made trophy case was installed near the welcome center. This case was built by a master carpenter, Jerry. Organizations that wish to display their trophies should stop by the Staff Office.

Classes: Class registration is now offered online; residents can register, view and pay for classes. The first showcase for classes at CVE was held last week in the Party Room; it was very successful. Residents were able to meet with instructors and gather information prior to signing up for the classes; residents signed up for 88 classes.

Billiards: A 10 ft. pool table was built and installed. Service was made to several pool tables which are now ready for play.

Pools

Maintenance Report: 54 work orders were completed in December. Pressure washing has been completed at the Durham, Newport, Markham, Richmond and Grantham pools.

A water line was repaired at Grantham and six rusted valves were replaced for the main drainage at the Ashby pool.

General Maintenance

172 total work orders were completed in December; 24 remain open.

Fire inspection of the pools, Clubhouse and restaurant have been completed and passed with no violations. The Clubhouse tunnel and floor was pressure washed and painted. 80 outlets have been replaced in the Clubhouse to a safer and modern style. The indoor pool hallway has been painted. The following will be completed in January; tennis court pole lights will be repaired, four parking lot lights will be repaired, the ceiling at the bus depot will be cleaned and painted, the Swansea tennis court lighting will be replaced and the outside balcony of the Party Room will be pressure cleaned and painted as well as the area above the indoor pool.

Community Announcements

Theatre: Tickets are available at the box office; tickets are selling quickly so get your tickets as soon as possible. The Bronx Wanderer show is completely sold out for Wednesday, January 9.

Dinner on the Town: The outing will be held on January 24 and the group will head to the Galleria Mall in Ft. Lauderdale. The cost is $10, and tickets can be purchased at the Box Office or at www.cveevents.com.

Bingo: Bingo is being held on Tuesday nights at 7 p.m. in the Party Room. You must show a CVE ID or guest ID to enter. Doors open at 5 p.m.

Annual Car Show: The car show is being held on March 16 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse bus parking lot; admission is free.

Valentine's Dance: The Valentine's dance is being held on February 9; a free photo booth is being featured. Tickets are $7 and available at the Staff Office.

Murder Mystery Dinner: Death of a Gangster is being held on February 25 at Le Club at 7 p.m. Tickets are available at the Box Office. Residents are encouraged to bring their own snacks/food and BYOB. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Bus Trip: A trip has been scheduled to see the play The Producers at 2 p.m. on January 30 at the Lauderhill Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $55; this will include transportation, ticket and tip for the driver. The bus will depart promptly at 12:15 p.m. from the Bus Depot in the parking lot.

Flea Market: The flea market is scheduled for Sunday, February 17 from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. Table reservations will be taken on January 11, in room GP-N from 8:15 to 11 a.m. Tables are $15 and are limited to residents only; a valid CVE ID is required – one table per ID.

Mike mentioned that an email was sent out on the trip to see The Producers to all those on the email distribution list. If residents are not on this list, Mike suggested that they stop in the Staff Office and sign up. This is a great way to receive up-to-date information on what is happening in CVE. Mike announced that the employee of the month for January goes to Roni Jo Stirone. Mike awarded Roni with a certificate and she will be allowed to use his parking spot for remaining days in the month!

Jay commended Mike and his staff for a great job they did with the New Year's Eve Dance. The staff worked very hard on New Year's Eve to be sure the dance was successful. Jay also mentioned that there were about 1,400 residents who attended the Turnstiles Concert and about 400 who attended the dance at the same time. He stated that he was overwhelmed with a good feeling of community with the turnout of the residents/guests who came to these events.

Rita reminded residents that if there is a class or activity that you would like to see added, please stop in the Staff Office and fill out a request form with your idea.

From MM BOARD MEETING - DECEMBER 20, 2018, pg 8-A

of Directors have made since his service began nine years ago. He pointed out as a result of his suggestion back in November of 2018 that the Board should meet every Thursday for workshops and since then have accomplished a lot. Fred expressed his joy witnessing the projects that were discussed long ago that are now implemented such as traffic easement, police presence with Barry's assistance; lighting with Michael's assistance; and finances with Joe's assistance, and the enormous changes, with the biggest of all we won't see for 3 to 4 years, which is the golf course property acquisition through Toll Brothers, which had been up for sale since 2013. He was very pleased to see a "ribbon being tied" on a lot of the major projects and the legal matters settled. He thanked the Board, Dan, and Eli for their hard work. A round of applause ensued.

Gene reflected since his service on the Board in 2007 he had the opportunity to work with all five Executive Directors with vast skill sets; expressed gratitude for working with past Executive Director, Kelly O'Meara

Hampton and Dan Johnson who helped bring overdue projects to fruition. He was grateful to work with such a dynamic group of people and complimented the Board and Eli for their hard work; and noted he has one year of his term remaining. A round of applause ensued.

Barry was pleased with the roadway and pedestrian safety, lighting, Le Club, paving project, gatehouses, BSO, entry access, landscaping, and perimeter wall improvements in the Village and was honored and glad to be a part of process. He expressed gratitude for his service on the Board and wished Dan well. A round of applause ensued.

Following Member comment, Eli confirmed the balanced budget was voted on at the November 8 meeting.

Michael remarked Kelly initiated the Village projects that have since been completed and complimented Dan for his hard work through the process and he would be missed. A round of applause ensued.

Announcement: (9:59:11 a.m.)

The next MM Board Meeting will be two-fold; first will be the Special Election to elect new Officers and second will be the regular MM Regular Board meeting on Thursday, January 17, 2018, at 9:30 a.m. in the Activities Center.

Adjourn: (9:59:38 a.m.)

Meeting was adjourned at 9:59 a.m.

VILLAGE MEETING MINUTES

COOCVE Informational Meeting – December 18, 2018

COOCVE President Sylvia Smaldone called the meeting to order at 9:35 a.m. Sylvia led the Pledge of Allegiance and a Moment of Silence. Sylvia stated that there was no quorum.

Minutes

Sylvia moved, and it was seconded to waive the reading of the October meeting minutes and accept them as published in The Reporter. The motion carried unanimously.

Treasurer's Report –

Howard Drandoff

The expenses for November were $7,792; the opening balance was $68,286. YTD deposits were $52,928. The YTD expenses were $47,968. The current cash balance as of November is $73,245. The Optimum Bank CD is $52,928.

President's Report -

Sylvia Smaldone

Sylvia mentioned that there will be a Document Amendment meeting for Presidents and those interested in amending the bylaws on January 3 in GPA from 1 to 3 p.m. On January 24 COOCVE is sponsoring a Town Hall meeting in the Party Room from 1 to 3 p.m.; all three entities (Recreation, MM and COOCVE) will be on hand to answer questions. On January 25 from noon to 2 p.m. Katzman and Chandler will conduct a seminar on support animals in the Party Room. All of these meeting dates are listed in the Reporter and on channel 99.

Michael Rackman addressed the COOCVE Directors about the acquisition of the Recreation property and the necessary bylaw changes that will need to be made when the Recreation property is acquired. He stated that the Recreation facilities which include the Clubhouse, tennis courts and swimming pools are administered by the Recreation Committee. The Recreation Committee is a Committee of COOCVE; with a budget of about $12M/year and funded by one of three coupons that CVE residents pay each month. Many residents do not realize that the Recreation facilities are not owned by Recreation, MM or COOCVE. When Mr. Levy set up CVE in the 1990s, he kept the Recreation facilities for himself. He collected rent every year allowing CVE to use the facilities; he then sold the facilities to a company named Holrod who is collecting rent of $5M/year. This money comes out of the $12M that recreation collects from the residents. As a result of litigation decades ago, a corporation Cenclub was formed. Cenclub was provided with an option from Levy to buy the Recreation facilities at the end of 2019 for $5M. All 8,500 unit owners are members of Cenclub. Because of this, at the end of 2019, residents of CVE as a group can purchase the facilities for $5M. The payment is to be spread over the 12 months of 2020. Beginning in 2021 CVE can stop paying Holrod $5M/year. Once the option is exercised, Cenclub will own the Recreation facilities; there will no longer be a Recreation Committee. The Cenclub properties will be administered by the BOD of Cenclub. Michael went on to state that this might be simple in theory but it is not in practice. There are many legal and practical problems that have arisen and can arise so a Committee consisting of MM, Recreation, COOCVE and the Area Chairperson was formed. This Committee is called the Release Committee and a law firm has been obtained to assist. In order to pay the legal fees, closing costs, survey fees and public relations fees, both Recreation and MM have increased their coupons by $5. The law firm has negotiated with the owners of Holrod and they have come to an agreement. The agreement states that the present Directors of Cenclub will add three members of the present Recreation Committee to their Board. The original Cenclub Directors will resign. The Cenclub Board will then consist of three Directors who are present Directors of the Recreation Committee. The three Directors will exercise the option for Cenclub to own the Recreation property. The new Directors will add additional Directors to their Board and will draft new bylaws for Cenclub. CVE will not only acquire the Recreation facilities, but also have in place the same group running the Recreation Committee; continuity is important at the transfer. Although Cenclub will be able to conduct elections in any manner they choose, they are currently contemplating COOCVE running the Cenclub elections just as it will continue to run MM elections and as it ran past Recreation elections. Michael went on to explain that not all associations are members of COOCVE and therefore, many CVE residents have been disenfranchised on past elections. This is because they do not have Directors on COOCVE who can vote. The Release Committee has recommended that all associations be given COOCVE membership, free of charge, in order to have full representation. Since COOCVE will no longer receive fees from the associations, both MM and the Recreation Committee have agreed to fund COOCVE, until 2019, by giving COOCVE $35K during 2019. Another change that is required to the bylaws is the amount of Directors that each association has. Currently, there are 350 Directors; with each association having 1 to 3 Directors. The current bylaw provides smaller buildings with greater representation than larger buildings. It is proposed to have one, three, four or five Directors from each building, depending on its size for a total of 414 Directors. This change makes the ratio approximately one Director to every 20 residents. A revision of the COOCVE bylaws requires a 2/3 favorable vote by the present Directors. Before a vote can be taken, the proposed bylaw changes must be published in the Reporter for two months; please read the paper. The changes will not be in effect until after the revised bylaws are adopted. There will be an ordinary election in January 2019 for Recreation and MM. After that, the present COOCVE Directors will adopt the proposed bylaw changes where all associations will revise their electorships according to the 1, 3, 4 or 5 formula for Directors. Some other changes are -- a quorum will now be 75 Directors so that business can be conducted during the off season. A common question that many residents are asking; if CVE is saving $5M a year, will the Recreation coupon be cut in half? Michael explained that it will not be changed in the beginning as the Clubhouse is in need of windows and a roof. In 2021, $5M more dollars will remain in CVE for our benefit.

Elections Committee – Patricia Bidol-Padva, Co-Chair

Patricia mentioned that on January 8 in the Party Room, there will be a candidate forum for the 2019 MM election. Candidates will be on hand to answer questions. There are three positions open for MM and seven candidates. There are three positions open for Recreation and three candidates. The Recreation candidates will not be speaking at the forum and will be put in place for 2019 by acclamation. On the day of the election, the 2018 Association Directors are those eligible for voting. The candidates for MM are: Anna Fuzi, Michael Gurevich, Jack Kornfield, Joseph Roboz, Pierre Laliberte, Michael Routberg and Linda Sussman.

Master Management –

Dan Johnson

Dan stated that they are continuing to address the coyote issue by placing additional traps and larger ones out this week. These animals are not dangerous. Residents are continuing to feed them; do not leave any type of food on the catwalks. This goes for any stray animal. There is a coyote seminar being held on January 23 at the Fern Forest Nature Center from 6 to 8 p.m. Dan mentioned that Phase I of the lighting project is complete; currently waiting on a few permits for the Tilford area. Phase II of the lighting project will begin in 2019 and will require the assistance of the associations. MM will be adding lighting to association properties at no cost; unless a panel is needed. More information will be forthcoming. Dan thanked Michael Routberg for all the work he has done on this lighting project as both a Board member and volunteer. The barcode lanes are being enforced at both the East and Main gatehouses. If you flash your ID without a barcode your ID will be confiscated and can be picked up the following day in the Staff Office. MM has passed the due diligence period with Toll Brothers and Fairway investors. The County has ordered some additional testing on building property and the buildings have been contacted. When this is complete the remediation plan/process will begin. Four parcels will then be gifted to CVE from Ventnor to Richmond.

Recreation – Rita Pickar

Rita mentioned that the on Thursday, December 20 at 7:30 p.m., at the bus depot parking lot Spider-Man Homecoming will be shown; all are welcome. The outing this month to the Delray Boat show is sold out. There were 50 residents that went to the Kravitz Center to see Hello Dolly. The Committee is looking at events outside of CVE such as group tickets for the April 3 show of Dear Evan Hansen performing at the Broward Center for Performing Arts. Rita stated that there have been no recent accidents in the Clubhouse, they will however be installing carpet strips for the edge of the stairs. The road near the west door will be changing – there will no longer be a road. When the new door is installed, a camera with a push to talk function will be installed. Rita clarified a statement during Michael's presentation; the Levy's have been out of the Village for many years. The family that owns the Recreation property is the Nicholson's. A resident asked if the Committee would consider allowing teenagers to attend the theatre while visiting grandparents. Rita replied that it is a hot topic and suggested that residents fill out a suggestion request in the Staff Office. Rita also announced that the Hall of Fame has been re-established and redesigned between the theatre doors. This is an area to thank those who have worked very hard around CVE.

City Commissioner –

Bernie Parness

Bernie announced that since BSO has been patrolling CVE, they have issued 47 tickets. Bernie dispelled all rumors by stating that there have been no violations associated with the Clubhouse that have not been satisfied to code enforcement approval. An engineering study will have to be approved by the City prior to any road that the owner wants to have constructed. Bernie invited all residents to attend the Meet your City Officials meeting scheduled for January 3, at 1 p.m. in the Party Room. Many new rules on permits will be reviewed and refreshments will be served. He also stated that Friday is bulk pickup. This means that bulk can be placed 24 hours prior to pickup which is Thursday, not before. Residents will be fined if they put out bulk pickup on any other day; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Saturday or Sunday. Placing bulk out on any of these days is considered littering and residents can technically be arrested. Additional code enforcement officers have been hired to write citations.

Old Business - None New Business

Richard Rosenzweig spoke about code enforcement going after unlicensed contractors. This is an ongoing program that COOCVE is sponsoring. MM has ordered special bags for residents to use and dump into the recycling bins. Richard is asking the City and MM to put a sign that states no plastic bags.

The meeting ended at 10:45 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Sylvia Smaldone,

The Mayor's Message

By Bill Ganz, Mayor/ City of Deerfield Beach

Century Village friends and neighbors, The season is in full swing, and I certainly hope that you are enjoying our fantastic weather, the beach, and some of the great events that we are fortunate to make happen during this special time of year.

One of this City's most beloved events is upon us; I am talking about Pioneer Days. This is a time when residents celebrate Deerfield Beach's roots with a three-day festival that features a carnival, arts and crafts, food, and live entertainment. Pioneer Days run from Friday night, February 15 – Sunday, February 17. For more information, you can check out the website at dfb.city/Pioneer-

Days or call Special Events at 954-480-4429.

Last month we wrapped up a wonderful weekend of remembering one of the greatest Americans who ever lived, Civil Rights Leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. On Saturday, February 23, 2019, we observe a very special month with the Black Heritage Banquet which takes place at Oveta McKeithen Recreational Complex located at 445 SW 2 Street in Deerfield Beach. Folks, this is a fantastic event with live music, excellent speakers, soul food, and most importantly, community. The tickets are just $30. This event is one of the best all year; I hope you will join us. For more information, you can contact Special Events at 954-480-4429.

Finally, I want you to know that last month the City Commission passed a measure to reduce the Beach Parking stickers from $100 to $75. Those of you who already purchased a sticker will soon see a refund check in the mail for $25.

Friends, I look forward to seeing you at some of these upcoming events, and I wish you all a fantastic February!

From the Commissioner

By BERNIE PARNES, District 3 Commissioner

Century Village friends and neighbors, February is here, and Century Village is packed with residents and guests. It is exciting to see the energy and activity. I hope everyone is enjoying the fantastic weather, especially those of you who escaped the northern storms and very low temperatures.

Recently, I went on a ride-along with our area deputy police unit. The officer I was riding with gave out tickets for traffic violations and a few warnings to drivers. I also watched as an arrest was made for an alleged drug offense. The police in our community work hard to keep us safe. Let's remember to show our appreciation, especially with those officers who are assigned to our area throughout the week.

It has come to my attention that there are still residents who are not following the rules when it comes to bulk pick-up. Collection day is Friday, which means that bulk items such as couches and mattresses should be placed next to your bin no earlier than Thursday. Putting out bulk items earlier than Thursday will result in citations and fines. Folks, please help us keep our Village clean and beautiful. Obey the law, and you'll avoid fines and keep our Condos at peak real estate value.

Finally, I would like to invite all of you to my District 3 meeting on February 21, 2019, at 1 p.m. in the Party Room at the main Clubhouse. Come and share your concerns, ask questions, and learn about new projects that are happening in this beautiful city where you live. If we work together, we can solve most of our issues and help continue to move Deerfield Beach forward.

I am always available to help you with any issues or concerns you might have. Feel free to call me at 954-870-0214. Please have a safe and good season.

Sheriff's Report

By / Broward County BSO SHERIFF GREGORY TONY

A Tribute to Our Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School Community

As your new sheriff, I am honored to have the opportunity to serve our great county and its residents once again. I know there are many of you who are eager to learn more about me—and I promise you will soon.

But first, February 14 marks the anniversary of the devastating mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland. Countless lives were forever shattered on that fateful day. Families and friends are still grieving and cry out for justice. Some have actively taken on the task of getting laws changed. I am truly heartened by how our community and its citizens have banded together to comfort one another and channeled that emotion into action.

No family, no community, no one should ever have to endure the pain of another Parkland tragedy. As your Sheriff, I vow to make the safety of our schools and community my top priority—and I intend to hit the ground running. In the coming weeks and months, I will introduce new policies, initiatives and training to BSO.

I know that to prevent this from ever happening again, we must be proactive. We must harden our schools. We must have highly-trained armed school resource officers ready to protect innocent lives. We must have an efficient and reliable radio system. We must keep guns out of the hands of the mentally ill. We must make every school campus in Broward County free from the threat of violence. We must restore the feeling of safety for every student, parent and citizen of Broward County.

To the families of those who lost their lives – Alyssa Alhadeff, Martin Duque Anguiano, Scott Beigel, Nicholas Dworet, Aaron Feis, Jaime Guttenberg, Christopher Hixon, Luke Hoyer, Cara Loughran, Gina Montalto, Joaquin Oliver, Alaina Petty, Meadow Pollack, Helena Ramsay, Alexander Schachter, Carmen Schentrup, Peter Wang, – we will never forget.

To the victims who were wounded and survived, and to all the families, friends and community members affected by this terrible tragedy we will never forget.

At the Broward Sheriff's Office...we will never forget.

Sheriff Gregory Tony.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

A Message from the Editor

By MICHAEL ROSENZWEIG, Editor-in-Chief

Arsenic and Our Place
Arsenic is a naturally occurring substance (Atomic #33 on the Periodic Table of the Elements) released from the Earth's crust via natural processes and certain human activities. It can be found in the air, soil and groundwater. Humans are exposed mainly through food and water sources, according to the World Health Organization.

Arsenic and arsenic compounds have been classified as carcinogenic to humans. The Environmental Protection Administration and the World Health Organization have set a guideline value of ten micrograms/liter for arsenic in drinking water. One microgram is equal to one part per billion. The suppliers of municipal water systems are required to test their delivered potable water for pathogens and carcinogenic compounds. Potable water is the same as finished water after all treatment. Industrial processes such as mining, smelting and coal-fired power plants contribute to the presence of arsenic in air, water and soil.

The E.P.A. has determined that for the Deerfield Beach area, the potable water supplied to residents need only be tested for arsenic once every three years. After speaking with Mr. Adrian, Environmental Compliance Officer for the City of Deerfield Beach, he stated that the city last tested its water for arsenic in June of 2017. The test revealed an arsenic level of 0.3 parts per billion which is far less than the ten parts per billion Maximum Contaminant Level established by the E.P.A. The M.C.L.G. (goal) for arsenic level is 0 parts per billion.

Our drinking (potable) water supplied by the City of Deerfield Beach is obtained from two large underground aquifers. The raw water obtained from the underground aquifers undergoes several treatment processes and regular testing prior to being supplied to Century Village and other residences in the City.

Opinion THE MAIL BAG

We encourage letters that enable our readers to sound off on any subject. However, we will not print letters from the same person on the same subject in two consecutive issues. Also, letters must be from CVE residents, signed and, if possible, typewritten and double-spaced. Please include your phone number. When we receive letters about applicable contractors, please remember that the Reporter does not endorse any single company. Residents are free to make their own choices each year. Criteria for letters that will not be published: Letters in poor taste, demeaning and not verifiable.

Thank you To the Editor:

Thank you to everyone who supported my re-election to the Master Management Board. I will continue to work to make the Village a better and safer place to live.

MICHAEL ROUTBURG

Suggestions for Gifted Property To the Editor:

This is an amazing opportunity for current, and especially new, CVE residents if used properly. Currently, CVE is a fantastic park! It has more flora and fauna, trees and waterways than NYC's Central Park.

What we need is to use these gifted 60 acres as an outdoor activity zone. We should use it to keep current residents happy and healthy and to attract new and younger residents.

It should have a basketball court, pickleball field, multiple miniature golf courses, putting green and a bocce ball court. Hope this happens; hopeful, it will.

LEN HARRIS
Cambridge C

Safety Issue Suggestions To the Editor:

We have two safety issue suggestions for CVE: (1) From now until the West Gate is upgraded to three lanes, ONLY residents with a barcode sticker should be able to use this entrance. The line to enter has gotten dangerously long, many times out onto Powerline Rd. (2) EVERY bike in CVE should have a working bell. When riding on the walkway, a biker should/must ring their bell either when approaching or coming from the rear of a person. People walking have the right of way and may sometimes be listening to music/phone and not notice a biker approaching. Someone is going to get badly hurt.

Thank you.

COOCVE Bylaw Changes To the Editor:

I am opposed to the proposed COOCVE Bylaw changes which involve the acquisition of CENCLUB. The whole purpose of the CENCLUB committee of CVEMM, COOCVE and the COOCVE Recreation Committee getting together on this issue was to see that WE THE RESIDENTS would control and operate CENCLUB. This should mean through our elected representatives, CENCLUB would decide how the Clubhouse, swimming pools and other Recreational Facilities function. However, we are told that the first CVE Resident Board of CENCLUB will be appointed - not elected. We are also told that they will alter the CENCLUB bylaws. There is absolutely no guarantee when any election will be held, or will there be any oversight by anyone.

The proposed changes include reducing the COOCVE dues for one year. The sole purpose of this reduction in dues is to satisfy a requirement that all residents be involved in the election of the CENCLUB Board. There is no point in doing so, since no election is scheduled, and it is highly unlikely that it will be done by COOCVE. The bylaw proposal is flawed.

I urge every COOCVE Director to reject these bylaw changes.

COOCVE President's Report

By SYLVIA SMALDONE, President/ COOCVE

of COOCVE. There will be no dues collected this year. But every Association will have to remit their Officers-Directors 2019 forms to COOCVE office. In order to have a voice and a vote in Century Village East, the associations must have Directors and Alternate Directors to represent them. I know all the Associations either had their annual meeting or are having their annual meetings. Remember, the newly elected board of directors must be certified within 90 days of their being elected. COOCVE is having the Board Certification class, Tuesday, February 12, 2019 in the Clubhouse Party Room from 12-2 p.m. The sign-in sheets are in the Staff office, Master Management and COOCVE offices. I attend this class every year. It's a good idea to keep learning about our bylaws. Till next month. May everyone, our residents and visitors, please enjoy our beautiful village and sunshine.

Hello, Century Village East. It's been very busy here in Century Village; elections, meetings, classes etc. The good news for all, Every Association is now a member

Bay Management Message

By MIKE BURDMAN, Executive Director/Bay Management

Dear Residents, It's hard to believe that January is already over and the February events we have been planning for the community are just around the corner! Don't forget that our Valentines Dance is February 9 in the Clubhouse Party Room with $7 tickets available at the box office! The dance this year will feature a FREE photo booth to help make the memories last! Tables are available for our February 17 Flea Market at the Staff Office. Stop by and pick out a table. If you don't have anything to sell, please consider stopping by to browse the over 100 vendors! As always, tickets are available to our Theater Shows and continue to sell quickly. If there is a show you are interested in, please make sure to get tickets before they sell out! This month I have a special announcement to make! Our very own Director of Operations Andy Hackett and his wife Allison gave birth to their second son, Breck! Please join me in welcoming the new addition to their family! Please enjoy the facilities. Should you have any questions, concerns, or ideas for improvements, please stop by the Bay Management office and fill out a comment form.

Deerfield Beach Progressive Forum Opens 41st Season

By GILDA BRODSKY and PHYLLIS MANSFIELD

We opened our season with a fascinating talk by Mike Budd on Vietnam Revisited. A veteran of the Vietnam War himself, he led a group of 40 other veterans back to Vietnam last year to meet with their Vietnamese counterparts. He explained that the U.S. withdrew from Vietnam in 1975, but the country remains poor.

Much of what the speaker told us was distressing. For instance, 50,000 American soldiers were killed in this war, as well as millions of Vietnamese. There have been more than 100,000 injuries and fatalities since the war ended from unexploded U.S. bombs; in fact, 2017 was the first year with no fatalities. We learned that Vietnamese children still carry a card instructing them what to do if they find an explosive.

Toxic Agent Orange, which was sprayed indiscriminately to remove foliage, killed or damaged vast numbers of soldiers and civilians on both sides. Notably, disability compensation for U.S. Vietnam veterans is the highest of any war including World War II. Birth defects are still occurring 50 years later.

The United States has never apologized for this war, yet the Vietnamese are willing to forgive but not forget.

For our second session, we showed Michael Moore's newest film, Fahrenheit 11/9.

Our first talk after the holiday break was by Harry Targ, Professor of Political Science at Purdue University. He clarified what the current economic issues facing Americans are, and then offered solutions. There is a growing inequality of wealth, income and power in this country, according to Professor Targ, caused by the downsizing of public institutions, the reduction of government services, and privatization. Today, we see a new class society where 20 percent of people are well off, while the remaining 80 percent are struggling and find themselves in precarious economic straits. 22 percent of Americans do not have enough money to cover their expenses.

Professor Targ is hopeful that a growing resistance of young people, people of color, women, workers and peace activists, will make a difference. Some of the leaders of this Blue Wave include Bernie Sanders, Elizabeth Warren and Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez. They propose a new vision: Medicare for All; Immigration Reform; Tax Reform; Lowering Drug Costs; Combatting Climate Change; Expanding Social Security; Free Higher Education; and Increasing the Minimum Wage.

Robert Platshorn was our third speaker, offering a fact-filled talk on medical and recreational marijuana. The information he provided challenged the commonplace belief that marijuana is a dangerous product. In fact, we learned that cannabis (also known as hemp or marijuana) is the oldest medicine known to science. Until the 1930s, doctors regularly prescribed it and it was listed in the official pharmacopeia. Farmers were required to grow it!

The universal use of hemp in medicine and in the production of fabrics, paper, ropes, explosives etc. caused the lobbyists for competing industries to pressure

Congress to criminalize the use of this plant. In fact, the AMA (American Medical Association) requested that Congress not pass this bill, but they ignored the request. (Around that time, the medical name of cannabis was changed to marijuana to confuse the issue.)

The speaker introduced two associates to the audience: a cancer survivor who testified to the effectiveness of a type of marijuana that has been supplied to him by the federal government, which maintains a patent on it; and a medical doctor who prescribes medical marijuana.

Our talks are compelling! You won't find them anywhere else. Join us! Everyone is welcome! We meet at the Activities Center in Le Club from 10 a.m. – noon on Saturdays. You can find our monthly schedule in Section B of this Reporter.

First of the Year and Canada's Evolving Political Landscape

Text and Photos by SID BIRNS

The Canadian Club of CVE had its first meeting with a high attendance and an increase in membership as its very first committee report.

Additional reports were made in short order and then the introduction of the guest speaker, Steve Pinkus, who is Vice President of Mainstreet Research, one of Canada's highest profile polling firms whose talk was on the current politics in Canada. Pinkus spoke on how polling is done and the process that is used in determining who wins in a political race.

As an example, "In the runup to the 2015 Federal election, Steve built a roster of clients who ran successful nomination campaigns and the successful general election campaigns across Quebec. Eventually Mainstreet helped 16 of its candidates get elected to the House of Commons from Quebec alone."

Mannie Young, President of the Cote St. Luc Men's Club, asks a question pertaining to Steve's talk.

Shown as the President of the Canadian Club of CVE, Ala Gamulka, center, opens the first meeting of the club, held in the Party Room of the Clubhouse. Looking on at left is, Judy Brandspigel, Vice President and at right, Lois Loeff, Treasurer. Missing is Lilly Katofsky, Secretary.

Pinkus shows and talks about comparisons of leaders of the world.

I.D.'s and GUEST PASSES

Bay Management

All Owners / Renters MUST have an ID to enter the Clubhouse. All guests MUST have personal ID on their person at all times. Admittance to the Clubhouse will be denied if the appropriate ID is not available and presented to Security for review.

Guests

Guest must always be accompanied by CVE resident to the I.D. Office or a letter from the home owner (when not in residence) giving permission to occupy the condo is required, along with the building president's signature and the building seal. Approval form is available at the I.D. and Staff Offices.

2-14 Day Passes ..... $10

A pass for more than fourteen (14) days is at the discretion of the Board of Directors of your building, no exceptions. Approval form must have the signature of the building president and the building seal.

Additional consecutive weeks..... $25

These additional weeks would be considered weeks three (3) and/or four (4) of the same 29 day period. After 29 days, a guest is considered an occupant and, in terms of the Clubhouse use, a background check must be done.

**14 day passes cannot be purchased consecutively. There must be 14 days between your last date on the previous pass and the date in which you are purchasing a new 14 day pass. If purchasing a pass inside the 14 day period you must purchase an additional week at $25.*

Occupant

Any individual residing in an unit more than 29 consecutive days is considered an Occupant. A background check is required for recreational facility use.

Guest Privileges

A guest pass entitles the holder to the use of all facilities, with some limitations.

Fitness Center

November 1 through March 31, guests can only access Fitness Center after 1 p.m.; April 1 through October 31, guests may use Fitness Center the centers regular hours.

Show Tickets

If space is available, guests exhibiting a guest pass will be able to purchase show tickets; without a guest pass, guests must be accompanied by a resident or tenant. Guest tickets may have a surcharge added to purchase price.

Classes

Guest cannot participate in any classes offered by Recreation, including tennis, swimming or aerobics.

Gate Pass

Relatives who are frequent visitors of a CVE resident must show a valid Florida Driver's License or proof of residency within a mile radius, a Gate Pass form signed by the CVE resident and the Building President and affixed with the Building Seal. Gate Passes are renewed on a yearly basis at the managements' discretion. Cost is $25 per year. Guest Pass form is available at the I.D. Office.

Companion/Nurse/Aide Pass

The Companion Pass requires a 30 day Companion Form signed by the president. The companion form must also have the building president's seal. First tome Companion Pass requires a picture I.D. This pass can be renewed every 30 days for a $5 fee by presenting the completed form, including the president's seal. The Companion pass only allows entrance to the village; it does not provide any recreational privileges.

Car Sticker Regulations

BAR CODE: When you change cars, you must return your bar code (decals) even if in pieces. Remove your bar code and return to the I.D. office in order to be issued a new bar code.

Renter Pass Requirements

1. Signed lease: must not be for less than three (3) months.
2. Certificate of Approval with Building Seal.
3. Owners I.D. turned into the I.D. Office.
4. Cost is $50 per person per year, which includes a bar code.
5. Background check is required.
6. All tenants must register their vehicle with the I.D. Office.

When selling your unit all I.D.s, passes and bar codes must be turned into the I.D. Office prior to closing. Every outstanding item will incur a $25 fee payable at closing.

There will be no fee exceptions once a unit has closed - i.e. if an item is found and turned in AFTER the closing there will be no refunds.

CVE Clubhouse Library News

Text by Cindy Sciacca

According to the January/February 2019 issue of the AARP Bulletin, "A study of 3,635 older adults found that book readers had a 23-month survival advantage and 20 percent lower mortality risk compared to nonreaders. Reading was protective regardless of gender, education or health." So, come into the Library which is located on the first floor of the Clubhouse, across from the Billiard Room and check out some books!

Look on Channel 98 and for flyers at the Staff Office announcing our February Book Sale. Watch for special reductions for non-fiction books. Paperbacks and fiction books will also be reduced.

We are looking for volunteers, especially if you have previous Library or office experience. Please come into the Library and fill out an application. We may not have an immediate opening at a desk, but there are also behind the scenes tasks that need to be done.

Below is a list of the books we have recently received or will be receiving soon:

COOCVE Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation

To COOCVE Directors

We are publishing below a summary of a proposed revision of the COOCVE Bylaws. The present Bylaws require publication of proposed changes in the Reporter and a vote at the second meeting following publication. A two-thirds majority vote is required for adoption. Similar remarks apply to the COOCVE Articles of Incorporation.

With the acquisition of the Recreation facilities by Cenclub Homeowners Association, Inc. (CHOA) in which all unit owners are members, there will be no need for a Recreation Committee; Cenclub will itself administer its properties. Thus, the Bylaws have to be revised to delete references to the Recreation Committee, and in order that unit owners elect Directors of CHOA using the COOCVE Election procedures, provision must be made for COOCVE to conduct the Election of CHOA Directors.

The present Bylaws are outdated in many respects, and a wholesale revision would be in order. We are not proposing this because a total re-write would be an arduous and time-consuming task. Instead, at this time, we propose changing only provisions that are necessary for the new governance structure, provisions that on their face can be made more equitable and provisions whose deletions are appropriate, for example, those that are inconsistent with the document as a whole.

We will summarize the most significant changes:

Instead of one (1), two (2) or three (3) Directors representing each Association, Section 7.1 now provides for one (1), three (3), four (4) or five (5) Directors. This is a more equitable representation arrangement. It is also consistent with the representative requirements that CHOA is expected to implement.

A quorum of the Board is being changed from one-third of the number of Directors (350 in the old scheme and 414 in the new scheme) to 75.

Throughout the document, references to the Recreation Committee are being changed to CHOA.

Provisions are being made for COOCVE to allow Associations to join COOCVE without a fee. (In 2019, COOCVE's activities will be funded by Master Management and the Recreation Committee.)

The President will now be allowed to spend up to $1,000 without prior approval of the Board instead of just $500.

New Section 8.22 calls for monthly meetings of the COOCVE President, together with the Presidents of CVE Master Management, CHOA and Chair of the Council of Area Chairs.

Article XVI which dealt with prevailing party attorney's fees and costs was unenforceable and is being deleted in its entirety.

A vote on the proposed revised Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation will be taken at the second meeting following this issue of the Reporter.

Respectfully submitted,
COOCVE Officers

What is Elder Abuse?

Each year hundreds of thousands of older persons are abused, neglected, and exploited. Many victims are people who are older, frail, and vulnerable and cannot help themselves and depend on others to meet their most basic needs. Abusers of older adults are both women and men, and may be family members, friends, or "trusted others."

In general, elder abuse is a term referring to any knowing, intentional, or negligent act by a caregiver or any other person that causes harm or a serious risk of harm to a vulnerable adult. Legislatures in all 50 states have passed some form of elder abuse prevention laws. Laws and definitions of terms vary considerably from one state to another, but broadly defined, abuse may be:

- Physical Abuse - inflicting physical pain or injury on a senior, e.g. slapping, bruising, or restraining by physical or chemical means.
- Sexual Abuse - non-consensual sexual contact of any kind.
- Neglect - the failure by those responsible to provide food, shelter, health care, or protection for a vulnerable elder.
- Exploitation - the illegal taking, misuse, or concealment of funds, property, or assets of a senior for someone else's benefit.
- Emotional Abuse - inflicting mental pain, anguish, or distress on an elder person through verbal or nonverbal acts, e.g. humiliating, intimidating, or threatening.
- Abandonment - desertion of a vulnerable elder by anyone who has assumed the responsibility for care or custody of that person.
- Self-neglect - characterized as the failure of a person to perform essential, self-care tasks and that such failure threatens his/her own health or safety.

What are the warning signs of elder abuse?

While one sign does not necessarily indicate abuse, some tell-tale signs that there could be a problem are:

- Bruises, pressure marks, broken bones, abrasions, and burns.
- Unexplained withdrawal from normal activities.
- Sudden changes in financial situations may be the result of exploitation.
- Bedsores, unattended medical needs, poor hygiene, and unusual weight loss are indicators of possible neglect.

Most importantly, be alert. The suffering is often in silence. If you notice changes in a senior's personality or behavior, you should start to question what is going on.

Remember, it is not your role to verify that abuse is occurring, only to alert others of your suspicions.

COOCVE Amended and Restated Bylaws

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERS ORGANIZATION OF CENTURY VILLAGE EAST, INC.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Sec. 1.1 The name of this organization shall be the "Condominium Owners Organization of Century Village East, Inc.," hereinafter called the "Corporation," a corporation not for profit, organized and existing under Florida law, and also known by the abbreviation "COOCVE."

ARTICLE II - LOCATION

Sec. 2.1 The office of the Corporation shall be located in Century Village East, or elsewhere in Broward County as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSES

- Sec. 3.1 COOCVE is established as a civic organization and an umbrella organization for the following purposes:
- (a) To advance, promote and protect the rights and interests of the 253 member condominium associations located in Century Village East, Deerfield Beach, Florida and of the unit owners thereof; to improve their well-being and living conditions; and to provide a happy, healthful environment with common objectives.
  - (b) To consult with and cooperate with all Sections, building associations and management entities toward the solution of all common problems and achievement of common objectives.
  - (c) To disseminate, publish, educate, enlighten and inform unit owners in member associations on matters of common interest and, where applicable, the status of any proceedings taken or supervised by COOCVE.
  - (d) To represent member associations, when legally and duly authorized, on matters involving disputes, arbitration and legal proceedings which may be necessary for the legal protection and enforcement of the rights and remedies of the associations.

- (e) To cooperate with and help to promote all civic, cultural and nonpartisan political activities not prohibited by law, for the benefit and betterment of the residents of Century Village East and the citizens of Deerfield Beach, Broward County, and the State of Florida at large.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

- Sec. 4.1 Membership is available to all Condominium Associations in Century Village East.
- Sec. 4.2 The word "Section" as used in these Bylaws means the "areas" of Century Village East known as Ashby, Berkshire, Cambridge, Durham, etc.
- Sec. 4.3 When an annual membership fee is adopted by the board of directors, membership is effective when the condominium association pays the annual membership fee. If an annual membership fee is not adopted by the board of directors, the 253 member condominium associations located in Century Village East shall be deemed members during the year in which an annual membership fee is not adopted.

ARTICLE V - FISCAL YEAR – MEMBERSHIP FEE

- Sec. 5.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the calendar year.
- Sec. 5.2 Annual membership fees shall be determined by the Board of Directors and shall be payable by February 10 of each year. Member associations whose fees are not paid by March 31 shall cease to be in good standing until the arrears have been paid. Failure to pay any fees will render the defaulting member association liable for expulsion. After March 31 those associations not in good standing shall be referred, by the COOCVE Treasurer, to the Executive Committee so it may vote on expulsion of individual associations at an expulsion meeting. Prior to the expulsion meeting, the associations being referred shall be sent a letter of notification indicating the date, time, and location of the meeting. The associations shall have the opportunity to either pay the arrears or present reasons why they should not be expelled. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors shall have the option to decline to adopt an annual membership fee for any year or years.

ARTICLE VI - UNIT OWNERS' MEETING

- Sec. 6.1 A general meeting of unit owners in member associations shall be held within the first two months of each calendar year.

- Sec. 6.2 Such meeting shall be conducted in the form of an open "Town Hall" meeting to provide an opportunity for any interested unit owner, whose association is in good standing, to verbally present grievances, problems or requests for information relating to the well-being and general living conditions within Century Village East as set forth in ARTICLE III of these Bylaws.
- Sec. 6.3 The presiding officer may impose time limits or other rules for the orderly conduct of the meeting and shall direct any officer or committee chairman or member most familiar with the subject matter to make a response or reply thereto.
- Sec. 6.4 Notice of the general unit owner meeting shall be given by the President at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting date, stating the time and place of the meeting. In case of a special meeting, notice of at least three (3) days shall be given and shall set forth the date, time, place and purpose thereof.

ARTICLE VII - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Sec. 7.1 The power and authority to manage the affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors so constituted that every member association building within Century Village East shall be entitled to elect at least one COOCVE Director as follows:
- (a) Each 16, 20 and 24 unit building shall elect one (1) of its unit owners as a member of the Board.
  - (b) Each 56 and 64 unit building shall elect three (3) of its unit owners as members of the Board.
  - (c) Each 72 and 80 unit building shall elect four (4) of its unit owners as members of the Board.
  - (d) Each 96 unit building shall elect five (5) of its unit owners as members of the Board.
  - (e) This hereby creates an elected Board of COOCVE Directors with a maximum number of 414 members.
  - (f) Each building shall also elect a COOCVE Alternate Director for each member it is entitled to elect to the Board.
  - (g) The directors and alternates shall take office on February 1 until January 31 of the ensuing year.

- (h) The immediate past president of COOCVE shall serve as a voting member of the Board for a period of one year.
- (i) A quorum of the Board of Directors to transact business shall consist of seventy-five (75) Directors of all member associations in good standing. The acts approved and motions carried by a majority of the Directors present and voting shall constitute the acts of the Board, except where a different number or percentage is otherwise provided for in these Bylaws.

- Sec. 7.2 No unit owner shall be eligible for election to the COOCVE Board of Directors, who is employed, or any of whose immediate family members is employed, full-time, part-time, or otherwise by CENVILL COMMUNITIES, INC. CENTURY VILLAGE EAST, INC. OR CEN-DEER COMMUNITIES, INC. or any other subsidiary, successor or associated company or contractor of such corporations, or is so employed or otherwise connected with any company doing business with COOCVE or its associations. Excluded from the foregoing provisions shall be any person elected to or otherwise connected with any firm or corporation established and/or controlled by the Corporation.
- Sec. 7.3 Only unit owners in associations which are in good standing shall be eligible to act as Directors. In determining the total number of Directors, unit owners in non-member condominium associations, and in those which are not in good standing, shall be excluded. Additionally, no person, currently instituting or participating in any legal action against COOCVE, CHOA or CVE Master Management Company, Inc., shall be eligible to serve as a Director.
- Sec. 7.4 The Board of Directors shall hold regular meetings. The President, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, shall decide when meetings shall be held. At a minimum, one meeting per month shall be held during the months of October, November, December, January, February, March and April.
- Sec. 7.5 Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President or upon written request to the President signed by at least twenty-five (25) Directors. The purpose for which such special meeting was called, as set forth in the notice thereof, shall be the only item on the agenda.
- Sec. 7.6 The President shall, whenever possible, prepare and distribute to the Directors, at least three (3) days before the next scheduled meeting, an Agenda of the business to be transacted thereat, setting forth the committee reports to be made and the motions to be presented under old or new business.

Sec. 7.7 The order of business for Board of Directors' meetings shall be:

- (a) Meeting Called to Order.
- (b) Pledge of Allegiance.
- (c) Reading of the Minutes of Previous Meeting.
- (d) Correspondence.
- (e) President's Report.
- (f) Report of the Treasurer.
- (g) Reports of Committees.
- (h) Old Business.
- (i) New Business
- (j) Good and Welfare.
- (k) Adjournment.

Sec. 7.8 Any unit owner may attend meetings of the Board of Directors and may speak at the discretion of the Chairman, but shall have no vote at such meeting.

Sec. 7.9 Complaints against Directors of the Corporation, including all individuals elected or appointed in accordance with these Bylaws, not including Officers of the Corporation, shall be in writing signed by the complainant, shall specify the charges and shall be delivered to the President who, in turn, shall direct the Grievance Committee to investigate same and determine if the complaint is sufficiently substantial and substantiated to require action by the Executive Committee. All such complaints shall be held confidential pending final action taken by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall thereupon fix a date, time and place at which a hearing thereon is to be held. Written notice thereof shall be given to the person so charged at least two (2) weeks prior to such hearing date, and the person so charged may file a written answer with the Executive Committee at least seven (7) days before the date set for the hearing. The Executive Committee shall consider all evidence and may take such action as it deems just and proper under the circumstances. The complaints against persons hereinabove referred to may include charges deemed to be prejudicial and inimical to the best interests of the Corporation. If such person is removed, the affected body shall be notified thereof and shall elect a replacement. A person so removed may not be elected as such replacement for the balance of his original term.

Sec. 7.10 A hearing on the aforesaid charges shall require the presence of not less than twenty-three (23) members of the Executive Committee to constitute a quorum.

Sec. 7.11 In the event the individual is found guilty of the charges leveled against him, he may demand a hearing before a full Board of Directors. The matter shall thereupon be placed on the Agenda for the next regularly scheduled meeting, and the hearing thereon shall follow item "f" on the order of business set forth in Section 7.7 hereof. After hearing all of the pertinent testimony, the Board may overrule and reverse the findings of the Executive Committee by a majority vote of the Directors present and voting.

Sec. 7.12 Any Director who fails to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings without acceptable cause for such absences may be removed by the Executive Committee based upon the report and recommendations of the Grievance Committee. Such report and recommendations shall not be binding upon the Executive Committee, but it shall consider same in its deliberations. In such event, the affected building shall be notified thereof and shall elect a replacement.

Sec. 7.13 ELECTION OF COOCVE DIRECTORS AND ALTERNATE DIRECTORS.

- (a) The election of COOCVE Directors and COOCVE Alternate Directors for each building shall take place at the Association annual meeting, or at another unit owners' meeting.
- (b) The verification of the election of COOCVE Directors and Alternate Directors shall be done by submitting a copy of the Officers and Directors form containing the date the election of COOCVE Directors was held, the signature of the President attesting to the election, and the Condo Association Seal imprinted on the form. The form must be submitted to the COOCVE office to complete the verification promptly after the election. Those Associations which have not submitted their new lists of COOCVE Directors and Alternates will forfeit their right to vote until such names are submitted and updated.
- (c) The names of annually verified COOCVE Directors and COOCVE Alternate Directors shall be kept in a computer file of eligible Directors, from which shall be generated the COOCVE Directors and Alternate Directors sign-in sheet.

- (d) If a COOCVE Director or Alternate Director vacates their position, or is removed pursuant to Section 7.9 of the COOCVE Bylaws, the Condo Association Board may vote to elect a replacement COOCVE Director or Alternate Director from the Condo Association's unit owners. If there are no verified COOCVE Directors and Alternate Directors duly elected at the annual meeting, the Condo Association shall conduct an election of COOCVE Directors and Alternate Directors at a duly constituted meeting of the general membership of the Association, and certify the results of such elections.

ARTICLE VIII - CORPORATE OFFICERS

Sec. 8.1 The Corporation Officers shall consist of the following: President, three (3) Vice Presidents, namely, First, Second and Third, Controller, Treasurer, and Secretary.

Sec. 8.2 The election of Corporate Officers and a Sergeant-at-Arms shall take place not later than the January meeting of the Board of Directors. Those elected shall serve two-year terms which shall commence on February 1st and shall expire two years later on January 31st. No Corporate Officer may hold the same office for more than two consecutive terms.

Sec. 8.3 Nominees for the offices of President and Vice Presidents must be either present or past Directors or elected Corporate Officers of COOCVE who have served at least one full term. All other nominees for corporate office need not be Directors and may be filled by any qualified candidate.

Sec. 8.4 At the August meeting of the Executive Committee, the President shall, with the approval of the Executive Committee, appoint a COOCVE Elections Committee (of which no member shall be a candidate for office) consisting of eight (8) to ten (10) members from associations in good standing in Century Village East. The committee will elect its Chairman.

Sec. 8.5 The COOCVE Elections Committee, subsequent to its appointment, shall request and accept applications from candidates for the respective offices of the Corporation. Candidates from associations in good standing may be considered for an office in COOCVE. No person who is a Director of CVE Master Management, Inc. or CHOA may be nominated for an office in the Corporation.

Sec. 8.6 The COOCVE Elections Committee shall thereupon prepare a list of such candidates to be submitted to the Board of Directors no later than the November meeting of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 8.7 Election of Officers and a Sergeant-at-Arms shall be by closed ballot vote of the Directors present and voting. Election shall be by a majority of the votes cast. If there are more than two candidates for any office, none of whom has received a majority of votes cast, a run-off election shall be held immediately between the two candidates who received the most votes. The candidate receiving the majority in the run-off election shall be declared elected. The COOCVE Elections Committee shall conduct the election of COOCVE Officers and a Sergeant-at-Arms, the election of the Board of Directors of CHOA and the election of the Board of Directors of CVE Master Management.

Sec. 8.8 The final vote shall be entered in the Minutes for public record with the names of the candidates and the votes each candidate received.

Sec. 8.9 All of the elected Officers as defined in Section 8.1 above shall be and become members of the Executive Committee, together with such other person or persons as are more fully set forth in Article X, Section 10.1.

Sec. 8.10 Written and signed charges brought against any Officer of the Corporation deemed to be prejudicial and/or inimical to the best interests of the Corporation shall be referred to the Grievance Committee. Written notice shall be given to the Officer charged at least two (2) weeks prior to the date the Grievance Committee has fixed for a hearing of such charges, and the person so charged may file a written answer with the Grievance Committee at least seven (7) days before the date set for the hearing. The Grievance Committee shall investigate such charges and hear any evidence presented by the Officer so charged. The Grievance Committee shall thereupon submit a written report and recommendations to the full Board of Directors at a meeting of the Board of Directors which may further inquire of the Committee or the person so charged, following which they may remove the Officer from his position by a two-thirds vote of the Directors present and voting.

Sec. 8.11 The Board of Directors shall thereupon fill the vacancy thus created by voting at that, or the next, Board of Directors' meeting.

Sec. 8.12 POWERS AND DUTIES

The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and shall act as Chairman of the Executive Committee; he shall have all the powers and duties usually vested in that office. He shall appoint all committee members and chairmen except as herein otherwise provided; he shall be a member ex-officio of all committees except the COOCVE Elections Committee; he may approve expenditures not exceeding $1,000 without prior approval of the Board of Directors, provided, however, that he may not incrementally fund in that manner expenditures greater than $1,000 not previously approved by the Board of Directors; he may appoint a Vice President to represent him as ex-officio member on committees except the COOCVE Elections Committee. He shall make a report covering the year's activities to be submitted to the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors.

Sec. 8.13 The Vice Presidents shall aid and assist the President in all matters pertaining to that office as the President may direct. A Vice President shall assume the duties of the President in his/her absence or incapacity in the order of the Vice Presidents' positions and availabilities.

Sec. 8.14 The Controller shall have over-all supervision of the financial affairs of the Corporation. He will oversee the handling of all fiscal matters by the Treasurer, the on-site bookkeeper, the outside accountant and auditor, and advise, direct and participate in carrying out the Corporation's financial and budget policies, and generally participate in all financial matters affecting the Corporation.

Sec. 8.15 The Treasurer shall have custody of all tangible and intangible properties of the Corporation, including funds, securities, property and evidence of indebtedness. He shall keep the books of the Corporation in accordance with good accounting practices and shall perform all other duties incidental to the Office of Treasurer. He may delegate some of his duties to other officers, directors or members as may be directed or authorized by the Executive Committee. He shall make monthly reports and a year-end comprehensive report to be submitted to the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors. He shall be a member of the Budget and Finance Committee.

Sec. 8.16 The Secretary shall record and keep the minutes of all proceedings of the Board of Directors, Executive Committee and Unit Owners' Meetings and report thereon as required; receive and report all correspondence and shall be the official custodian of the Corporate Seal.

Sec. 8.17 The Sergeant-at-Arms shall preserve order at all meetings, arrange for meeting rooms and seating; perform such duties as required by the presiding officer, keep records of attendance of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee meetings and report to the President absences at three or more consecutive regular meetings of such bodies. The Sergeant-at-Arms, or one acting in his capacity, may appoint an Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms as needed.

Sec. 8.18 No compensation shall be paid to Officers or Directors of the Corporation except upon majority approval by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 8.19 FUNDS OF THE CORPORATION

All monies of the Corporation shall be deposited in the name of the Corporation in such bank or banks as the Executive Committee, on recommendation of the Treasurer, shall designate. All monies of the Corporation shall be withdrawn only by check, draft or other instrument bearing two (2) signatures of any of the following officers: the President, First Vice President, Second or Third Vice President (in the order of their availability), Controller or the Treasurer.

Sec. 8.20 The Corporation shall, at its expense, procure a fidelity bond insuring it against the possible dishonesty of the President, the Vice Presidents, the Controller, and the Treasurer, in an amount set by the Board of Directors, guided thereon by the amounts of funds involved.

Sec. 8.21 No unit owner shall be eligible for election to an office in COOCVE who is employed, or any of whose immediate family is employed, full-time, part-time or otherwise by CENVILL COMMUNITIES, INC., CENTURY VILLAGE EAST, INC., or CEN-DEER COMMUNITIES, INC., or any other subsidiary, successor or associated company or contractor of such corporations or is so employed or otherwise connected with any company doing business with COOCVE or its member associations. Excluded from the foregoing provisions shall be any person elected to or otherwise connected with any firm or corporation established and/or controlled by the Corporation.

Sec. 8.22 The President of the Corporation shall meet monthly, together with the Presidents of both CVE Master Management and CHOA, and the Chair of the Council of Area Chairs for the purpose of exchanging information on, and coordinating, their respective activities.

ARTICLE IX - COUNCIL OF AREA CHAIRS

Sec. 9.1 There is hereby created a Council of twenty-one (21) Area Chairs representing each area in Century Village East, to be elected by the unit owners in member associations in their area for a one-year term to commence the following February 1st. The Area Chair elections shall take place in January.

The area unit owners shall also elect an Area Vice Chair in the same manner as the election of the Area Chair. The Area Vice Chair, in the absence of the Area Chair, will be entitled to all the rights, duties and privileges of the Area Chair, including representation on the Executive Committee and the Council of Area Chairs.

- (a) An Area Chair or Vice Chair must provide a copy of the election meeting minutes as proof of election. The minutes are to be presented to the COOCVE President in order to be certified as elected.
- (b) Each area shall have a unit owner meeting with either the Area Chair or Vice Chair who are required to convene and hold such meetings at least three (3) times a year. A copy of the minutes of such meetings shall be given to the COOCVE President and the Chair of the Council of Area Chairs. Failure to meet these requirements is possible grounds for dismissal and such charges shall be handled as set forth in Section 8.10.

Sec. 9.2 The Council of Area Chairs shall have the following responsibilities:

- (a) To act as liaison between the unit owners and/or building associations in meeting with and presenting any grievances, suggestions and recommendations to COOCVE.
- (b) To perform the same function with relation to CVE Master Management Company, Inc. and CHOA.
- (c) To meet regularly with all management entities servicing Century Village East and its occupants pursuant to any existing service contract with a view to resolving any problems which may affect the unit owners, the respective associations or the areas within Century Village East, without encroaching upon the functions of CHOA or CVE Master Management Company, Inc., as hereinafter or otherwise defined, and in all matters to report regularly and to be responsible and responsive to the COOCVE Board of Directors.

Sec. 9.3 The Council shall elect its own Chairman and Vice Chairman at its first scheduled meeting in February. The President of COOCVE shall be an ex-officio member of this Council.

ARTICLE X - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Sec. 10.1 The Executive Committee shall consist of the duly-elected President, the Vice Presidents, the Controller, the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee, the Chair of the Council of Area Chairs, the Twenty-one (21) members of the Council of Area Chairs, the President of CHOA, and the President of CVE Master Management Company, Inc.

The Committee shall exercise general administration and supervision of the Corporation's affairs. All decisions of the Committee shall be made by a majority vote of its members present and voting.

Sec. 10.2 Except for emergency situations requiring immediate action between regular meetings of the Board of Directors, any other decision, action or recommendation of the Executive Committee shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held on the second Wednesday of the month except that the President, when necessary, may fix another day or cancel any such scheduled meeting.

Sec. 10.3 Special meetings of the Executive Committee shall be called at the discretion of the President or from among the Vice Presidents in the order of their availability or at the written request of at least five (5) members thereof.

Sec. 10.4 No member of the Executive Committee who is not a duly-elected current member of the Board of Directors may cast a vote at any Board of Directors' meeting.

Sec. 10.5 Incumbent members of the Executive Committee shall retain their office until the new members are elected or appointed.

Sec. 10.6 Any member who fails to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Executive Committee, without acceptable cause for such absences, may be removed by the Executive Committee in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.12. In such an event, the electing or appointing body of that individual shall be notified.

ARTICLE XI - STANDING COMMITTEES

Sec. 11.1 There shall be established the following Standing Committees of the Corporation responsible to and reporting to the Board of Directors. The responsibilities and duties of each Committee are specified below. The prohibitions contained in ARTICLE VII, Section 7.2 and ARTICLE VIII, Section 8.21 shall apply to all committee members.

1. Audit
2. Budget and Finance
3. Bylaws
4. Grievance
5. Insurance
6. Contract Negotiation

Sec. 11.2 RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The Audit Committee shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) members appointed by the President, none of whom shall be members of the Budget and Finance Committee. They shall be qualified members of the Corporation with an accounting background or experienced in a certified public accounting firm not connected directly or indirectly with COOCVE. The Audit Committee, or accountants, shall have access to all records, books and accounts of the Controller and the Treasurer, as well as any policies of insurance or other documents pertinent to such audit. The report of the Annual Audit shall be submitted to the Board of Directors at a regular meeting not later than the month of March.

The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the right of the Board of Directors to elect to hire an outside qualified accounting firm to perform such audit whenever they deem that type of audit necessary or preferable, and to fix a reasonable fee for such services.

Sec. 11.3 The Budget and Finance Committee shall be responsible for the financial structure of the Corporation and shall prepare the Corporation's budget to be submitted to the Board of Directors at the regular meeting in November of each year. The Committee shall have general supervision of the financial affairs of the Corporation, including bonding the Officers as specified in Article VIII, Section 8.20, and arranging for the annual audit of the Corporation's affairs by the Audit Committee.

The Budget and Finance Committee shall cooperate fully with the independent Audit Committee making the Annual Audit; it shall make all books and records available to the Audit Committee and furnish any information or documentation which they may require.

Sec. 11.4 The Bylaws Committee shall continually review these Bylaws and all proposals to amend, and shall report, as necessary, its recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Sec. 11.5 The Grievance Committee shall perform its duties as specified in ARTICLE VII, Section 7.9 through Section 7.12 and ARTICLE VIII, Section 8.10. The Committee shall be composed of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) Directors appointed by the President.

Sec. 11.6 The Insurance Committee shall act in an advisory capacity for the Corporation, and, when necessary, shall seek counsel and advice on all phases of insurance for the Corporation and its membership and for the placing of proper, sufficient and required coverage to serve the best interests of the membership associations and all unit owners.

Sec. 11.7 The Contract Negotiation Committee shall review all contracts, new or renewals, shall negotiate with the other contracting party to achieve the best terms possible under the circumstances and report back to the full Board of Directors with its recommendations.

Sec. 11.8 All committees, whether herein above specifically referred to or not, shall perform the functions for which they were constituted, render reports to the Executive Committee and Board of Directors, and take such further action to fulfill the obligations of such committees.

ARTICLE XII - CVE REPORTER

Sec. 12.1 The CVE REPORTER, Inc. is a for-profit corporation established under Florida law and whose shares are owned by COOCVE. The REPORTER is governed by its Board of Directors who are appointed by the COOCVE President and approved by the COOCVE Board of Directors, and in accordance with the REPORTER's Articles of Incorporation and its Bylaws. The financial records of the REPORTER are subject to audit by COOCVE.

Sec. 12.2 The editorial policy and news content shall be subject to the supervision and control of the CVE REPORTER subject to the following limitations:

- (a) The CVE REPORTER is published monthly and distributed without charge to residents of Century Village East for their information concerning the monthly meetings of the COOCVE Board of Directors and its committees, and also contains news, bus and theater schedules, and contributed articles of interest to residents of Century Village East. The REPORTER shall also serve as one of the distribution places for official notices of COOCVE, CHOA, and CVE Master Management Company, Inc. along with CVEDB.com (website).

- (b) COOCVE is a not-for-profit corporation. Its officers, directors, editors, staff, and committee people are not responsible for typographical errors or misrepresentations in any advertisement or article. They are not responsible, and assume no liability for, the content of, or any opinions expressed in, any contributed articles which represent the author's own opinion and not necessarily the opinion of COOCVE or the REPORTER. Acceptance of advertising for products or services in no way constitutes an official endorsement of the product.

ARTICLE XIII - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES

Sec. 13.1 All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order without diminishing the power and authority of the presiding officer to alter the regular order of business to accept motions with a view toward the overriding purpose of accomplishing the business of the meeting. The President shall appoint two (2) or more members of COOCVE to serve as parliamentarians.

ARTICLE XIV - AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

Sec. 14.1 Proposed written amendments or revisions to these Bylaws shall be submitted to the Bylaws Committee. Proposed amendments or revisions shall require the signatures of at least twenty-five (25) members of the Board of Directors or fifty (50) unit owners in member associations. All such proposed amendments or revisions together with the recommendations of the Bylaws Committee shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for their consideration and to vote thereon at their second meeting following publication in the CVE REPORTER. If approved by a two-thirds vote of the Directors present and voting, the amendments or revisions shall be adopted and made part of these Bylaws. Nothing herein contained shall diminish the authority of the Bylaws Committee to propose and submit amendments and/or revisions on its own recommendations.

ARTICLE XV - UNAUTHORIZED STATEMENTS AND ACTS

Sec. 15.1 No officer, director, association, unit owner or committee of the Corporation shall use the name "Condominium Owners Organization of Century Village East, Inc." for any purpose whatsoever without the prior written approval of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 15.2 No person or committee shall speak or make any binding commitment on behalf of the Corporation without the express written approval of the Board of Directors and/or the Executive Committee.

A Message from Marty Kiar, Your Property Appraiser

Broward County Property Appraiser MARTY KIAR

Extended Late Filing
While the timely deadline to file for any 2019 exemptions is March 1, 2019, you can still late file up until September 18, 2019. This extended late filing period allows you to apply for, or renew, any valuable tax-saving exemptions including Homestead Exemption and the Low-Income Senior Exemption for the 2019 tax year. There are no late fees to late file for these exemptions so do not miss out on this important opportunity even if you miss the March 1 deadline.

Business Tangible Personal Property

Any person or entity that owns or possesses tangible personal property located in Florida, as of the January 1 tax assessment date, must file a DR-405 Tangible Personal Property Tax Return with the Property Appraiser in the county where the property is (or was) physically located on January 1. Tangible personal property includes equipment, fixtures, furniture, appliances, leasehold improvements, supplies, leased equipment and any other assets used by the business.

Florida allows for an exemption up to $25,000 in value for tangible personal property assets used by a business. You must file an initial Tangible Personal Property Tax Return to receive this exemption. If the value of your tangible personal property exceeds $25,000 as of January 1, you must file a DR-405 return with our office. If the value of your tangible personal property does not exceed $25,000 as of January 1, you do not need to file a return. Should your business acquire assets resulting in your tangible personal property value to exceed $25,000 on January 1, you must file a return with our office.

The filing deadline for 2019 TPP Returns is April 1, 2019. Business owners who previously filed will receive a DR-405 from our office. You can also download the DR-405 from our website at: <http://www.bcpa.net/Forms/DR-405a.pdf>. Should you have any questions regarding the filing of a TPP Tax Return, please contact Travis Gehr at 954.357.6174 or by email at tgehr@bcpa.net.

Agricultural Land Classification

If you believe your property, as of January 1, meets the criteria for the Agricultural Classification, you must file an initial application with our office by March 1. Land previously granted the Agricultural Classification will receive a green renewal card from our office. This card must be completed and returned to our office to maintain the classification for this tax year. Our office reviews all properties receiving the Agricultural Classification each year and will notify property owners in July of each year as to the status of their request.

Should you have any questions about the Agricultural Classification, please contact Rhonda Gilbert at rgilbert@bcpa.net or Mario Ponce at mponce@bcpa.net.

If my office can ever be of assistance to you, please visit our website at www.bcpa.net, call us at 954-357-6830 or email me directly at: martykiar@bcpa.net

Take care.

Special Needs Residents Visiting the Clubhouse

We have many residents with special needs (handicapped, mobility challenged, etc.) who are not able to access the Clubhouse without assistance. Fortunately for some residents, they are able to enjoy the Clubhouse amenities through the assistance of an aide, family member or friend.

Whoever accompanies a special needs individual should never leave that person unaccompanied.

The Art of the Seeing Eye

Text and Photos by SHELLY BASKIN

I don't know why I never touched on the subject of the Seeing Eye Dog. I don't know why it was never important in my mind and memory. At some point, however, the past may take over and push older thoughts to the forefront. After all, there is just so much one can write about concerning trees, flowers and ducks even though they are some of my favorite subjects.

Morristown, New Jersey is one of the great cities in the United States. That was one of the training and bivouac areas of General George Washington's young army. It was a freezing winter while boys became men and formed a fighting force to be reckoned with.

In modern times, this city developed into Yuppieville; it is also Millennialville if I may use these words to describe Morristown. Many young men and women ride the train to work either to Hoboken or The Big Apple. They all carry briefcases and the women, oversized bags. Each one is dressed to the nines. Their cars are parked in the railroad yard except for the spouses that deliver them for an eight-hour workday. Their lunches are hidden in the varied monogrammed leather carrying cases. Some men wear sport shirts and loose fitting slacks. Some women are dressed in dress pants, form fitting jackets and maybe even a tie. I guess times have changed, probably for the better.

The City is lined with small stores and shops on both sides of Main Street. Churches are located on almost every block and were built in stone over a 100 years ago. All denominations are included. No department stores are seen except for the old Bamberger's which became a Century 21 and is at the very end of the shopping district.

The restaurants have unusual names. One cannot locate a Mc Donald's, Wendy's, Popeye's, Burger King or others. Instead, you will find The Thirsty Turtle, Famished Frog and The Committed Pig. What else would you expect in Yuppie town? And the prices are not for the faint of heart.

The famous courthouse on Main is a beautiful landmark. As you follow that street downhill for about a mile, the signs identifying The Seeing Eye come into view. I was curious to get information on this well-known organization. This adventure would take up the better part of my day and would add to my understanding of the wonderful help that man's best friends can, and do, give to our sightless neighbors.

It all begins with experienced volunteers that accept puppies, mainly of the German Shepherd and Golden Retriever breeds. These families are committed to living with; accepting the responsibilities; house training; Vet visits; and loving these new pets. Only the best, brightest and healthiest are selected for this lifelong endeavor. These families have training in bringing these pups to the highest standards in dogdom. They love, love, love these animals.

After six months of loving care, these dogs are returned to the Seeing Eye people. Next, the dog is matched up with a blind person and personality plays an important aspect. The two partners will live together and train together for several months. First, the training takes place in the Seeing Eye facility.

After these basics are accomplished, the difficult camaraderie begins. Next, the two friends go back to the Morristown streets I described earlier. With the help and guidance of a trainer, the guide dog and person must learn to work together; crossing streets; watching for cars and people. The dog and sightless person eventually become as one. It is also important for sighted people to be aware of the surroundings; in Morristown, they pretty much are.

If you could see these guide dogs and their masters negotiate the obstacles, you would be amazed. Making life almost normal is what this program is all about. For well over 100 years, this partnership continues and grows with each new family.

Dogs are useful partners in almost all endeavors: locating missing or lost people; in the Armed Forces; in Police Departments locating drugs; and also acting as a helper in the Seeing Eye organization. What friends! What partners! What could be better than a dog by one's side? For life.

Air Force

By SAM GLASSMAN

The United States Army Air Corp. was formed during the Korean War. President Harry S. Truman was concerned that China would become a Communist country. After graduating Radio Mechanic School, I was to keep twenty-five (25) P-51 Mustang Fighter aircraft and their pilots safe in all kinds of weather conditions.

I was assigned to the 83rd Fighter Interceptor Squadron, 78th Fighter Interceptor Group stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base, San Rafael, California. The radio mechanics that reported to me all graduated from the training school located at Scott Field, Illinois. There was a nine-month training course that graduated a class of airmen every week. Think of a conveyor belt in which 60 men start school each week, and every week a test is given; the dropout rate is fantastic! There were about seven of us that graduated from the original class of 60.

We were all housed in barracks; there were no women in the military; we slept in bunk beds; we had weekly GI parties; there was a parade every Saturday morning; and we all received weekend passes to go to town. I occasionally got to fly with some of our pilots. There were three squadrons stationed at Hamilton Field – the 82nd, 83rd and the 84th. We had the ground crews for 75 aircraft. The Aircraft and Engine School, the Radio Mechanics School and the Armament School all graduated and trained personnel to see that all the aircraft, ground stations and antennae were self-supporting in all kinds of weather. Each squadron took a turn to fly north to Portland, Oregon and then off to Moses Lake, Washington. One squadron stayed at Hamilton Field, California; and one squadron flew south to Victorville, California.

We experienced cold, warm and hot weather weekly. The training was intense; your body and the equipment were exposed to weather conditions that were unprecedented. I was sent to study the A1C gunsight at a school somewhere in the United States. The Sperry Company made the arrangements, and I packed my bag. When I returned, the gunsight was mounted in all aircraft. It was my job to teach the pilots to fire the six (50) caliber machine guns at a sleeve; the sleeve was attached to a cable that was about 100 yards long; a volunteer pilot towed each day. Sometimes there were bullet holes in the P-51 tow plane when it came back from the gunnery range. We practiced over the Pacific Ocean.

One bright sunny California day, the Republic Aviation Company delivered the first F-84D Thunderjet to our squadron. The civilian pilot flew back with one P-51 Mustang. Slowly our three squadrons were being refitted with jet planes. Eventually, all 75 aircraft were delivered, and we only used the P-51 for towing the target sleeve.

When we flew each week along the west coast, each squadron had a crew to fly the C-47 to transport our ground station and test equipment. The squadron officers all took their personal gear and flew the planes to the next station. Every month, every pilot must do some night flying; this qualifies him for additional pay as well as training experience.

Harry Truman disrupted many families when he added 12 months to all enlistments. He also called up the reserves that previously trained one weekend a month. I have given you the military work part in this article. If you enjoy reading about the military and their families, then you'll enjoy my next article about the USAF uniform during the Korean War or Peace Action.

Believe It or Not

By MARILYN MC CORMACK

As a youngster, I believed everything my parents, relatives and even elderly eccentric aunt told me. Never questioning the facts, I accepted whatever they said as the absolute truth. As I got older and wiser, I realized many of the things I heard were silly superstitions passed down in the family from generation to generation. I don't remember a day when I didn't hear one of their old adages, which they referred to as words of wisdom. Did I pass them on to my children? Yes, I did. Did they believe me? No way! They would roll their eyes, shrug their shoulders and silently mouth, "Whatever!" For me, even today, those superstitions are locked in my memory. I tend not to tempt fate or take a risk that would make my good luck end or bad luck begin.

As you read this, I hope you too remember those silly superstitions you heard or even believed long ago. My first recollection occurred around the second grade. While walking to school with friends, we chanted the words to a childhood game: "If you step on a crack you break your mother's back; step on a line, you break your father's spine." We hopped along the pavement avoiding the cracks and lines to spare our parents a painful fate and win the game. Years later, I read the words of that silly ditty originated in the UK at the turn of the century.

Through the years, I never forgot many of the common superstitious sayings. Today, I admit I avoid opening an umbrella in the house or placing a pair of shoes on the table for fear of bad luck. I cringe if a black cat crosses my path, and I never walk under a ladder or break a mirror, fearful that I'll have seven years of bad luck. I never seat 13 people at a dinner table and always have an uneasy day whenever there's a Friday the 13th.

For good luck, I get out of bed on the right side each morning; knock on wood; cross my fingers; carry a four-leaf clover in my wallet; and only pick up a penny if it's heads up. Does it work? Psychologically yes, though personally I'm aware these superstitions are illogical and unreasonable. Each season my quirky aunt was our weather forecaster. During a rainstorm, she declared, "It's raining cats and dogs!" If it was a thunderstorm, she would say they were bowling in heaven. She relished telling the story of a pregnant lady who touched her hair during a lightning storm, and the baby was born with a white streak in its hair. In the summer, she announced, "It's not the heat but the humidity that's killing me," and then would say she was going outside to fry eggs on the sidewalk. Gullible as a child, I believed her.

In the winter, my aunt and relatives sat by the fireplace and bemoaned, "Poor Uncle Ed, he's freezing his butt off waiting for the bus." When he arrived home, they all declared in unison, "Speak of the devil here he comes!" Uncle Ed would walk in the room and declare, "It's so cold outside; hell is freezing over," then proclaim, "I was so cold I thought my face would fall off." I remember being fearful it just might happen! I recall other sayings on death, dying and strange oddities. Hearing them as a youngster, as I matured, I put them aside never to acknowledge them again.

As a child, I recall I was going to a party with my parents. Not dressed properly for the occasion, I was told, "It will be a cold day in Florida if you think you're going dressed like that!" As my mom walked away from me, she said, "Remember, I have eyes in the back of my head so don't make faces at me behind my back or your face will freeze and stay that way." Did I change my clothes? You bet I did and pretty darn quick!

So, with a scary silly saying, I bid adieu. I'll see you later alligator, after a while crocodile.

A little trivia:

Hotels and tall buildings don't have a 13th floor as many people have a fear of the number 13 which is called triskaidekaphobia.

Recently, many hotels have decided to no longer have a room 420. The number is a code for marijuana; and management, fearing guests will request that room to smoke pot and trash it.

See You Later Alligator, After a While Crocodile was a song written by a Cajun from Louisiana. It was a catch phrase for Goodbye. A number one hit by Bill Haley and the Comets, it refers to what the singer's girlfriend said when she left him for another guy, and then what he said to her when she changed her mind and wanted to come back to him.

It Is What It Is

By ELI COHEN

Sitting last night with friends, the subjects we talked about would be hilarious to teenagers or middle-aged people as it only reveals that different ages talk about what concerns them at that moment; and seniors have a lot in common.

The evening started off discussing what boxed cereal they use to help them with their bowel movement. I volunteered my favorite, Fiber One brand, and showed them the box so they would know what it looks like.

Then we discussed who cooks anymore and why. Most stated that they buy the frozen store brand meals and just use the microwave oven to heat them up and which grocery store they use to shop. I'm fortunate enough to have a wife that still cooks.

Next on the agenda was what medical problems we have and whether we use canes or walkers and how often. The medical subject was the most talked about because five people in the 83, 85, 88 and 89 age groups had many problems. Of course, the doctors and how they treated you was paramount to their story telling.

After dinner and storytelling; and upon entering the Clubhouse to see a movie, these four hobbling seniors, with our canes made it to our destination. We comically asked each other, what each of us would want to do on stage if asked. One said, "I would like to tap dance." Another said, "I would like to sing." Another said, "I would like to do a split" The last one said, "A back bend," and we all became hysterical at our spontaneous answers. We were trying to stay positive, but the subject of us passing and what good complaining would do was indeed noted.

We seniors all use the same expression in the end. It is what it is, and things won't change by complaining. And, my wife's expression, "It's good to be on this side of the grass," is indeed prophetic!

Road Trip Starts with Scenery,
Ends with Storm – Part III

A Taste of Scandinavia and the Appalachian Trail – Franklin NC to Dahlonega GA

The Smokies may not be as majestic as the Rockies or Cascades of the Far West; and when it comes to the Appalachian Trail Mountains, most people think of the high peaks of New England; Green Mountains of Vermont; White Mountains of New Hampshire and the Mahoosuc Range in Maine. However, the highest mountains are actually in the South. In fact, seven of the highest peaks of the Appalachian Trail are south of Virginia; four of them are in Great Smoky Mountains National Park and three of those are over 6,000 feet high.

The next morning, it was back down into Georgia where along one back road outside Murrayville, Georgia, I came upon a farm stand (Tomato House Farm) with many cars parked in front – a good sign. I pulled in and discovered an array of farm stand produce – relishes, jams, jellies, honeys the likes of which I hadn't seen before; strange varieties of fig jams, rhubarb jams, tomato jams, jars and jars of them; large jugs of honey with big chunks of beeswax inside, odd-looking squashes and other root vegetables. I picked up a jar of wax-enclosed honey, a couple of fig jams; and of course, my favorite – farm fresh from the berry patch, blackberry jam. Franklin, I take it back; my visit to your town paid off again!

Heading farther south, I stopped at Helen, Georgia, an Alpine Village magically dropped down into the middle of the North Georgia Mountains on both sides of the Chattahoochee River. Formerly an 1829 Georgia gold rush center but largely abandoned by 1969, a rejuvenation of the town has created one of the major sightseeing attractions in the area. Now it's a touristy grab bag of kaleidoscope buildings; cobblestone sidewalks; horse-drawn carriages; flowers blooming everywhere, in window boxes and outdoor gardens; a market square with more than 100 Scandinavian-themed shops and restaurants, all trying to make you feel like you could be walking the streets of Oslo, Stockholm or Copenhagen, a fantasy which seemed to be working for most of the visitors I saw as I strolled the main street. However, that was before I got to the three-story downtown antique mall. There, good old American capitalism, tacky and aggressive but welcome, was on full display. My best memory of my Helen visit is of its Scandinavian bakeries and candy stores, of their pungent aromas which wafted out onto the sidewalks and their tasty delights that more than satisfied this Norwegian road tripper's sweet tooth.

I arrived in Dahlonega, Georgia, an hour later that afternoon, found my stay for the night which was in a lovely, well-appointed inn right downtown. Dahlonega, founded in 1828, and now a trendy week-end destination for Atlanta residents, is famous for being the first spot in the U.S. where gold was discovered well before the 1849 discovery of gold in California. The town boomed; more than $6 million worth of gold was coined; the government built a Federal Mint there; and then it all collapsed when miners fled west to California 20 years later. Tours down into the gold mines can be taken; and in the center of town, a beautiful old building, formerly the 1823 Courthouse, is now the Dahlonega Gold Museum.

It is here where a couple on the street walking with a mouth-watering looking pizza directed me to the popular, highly-rated, rustic pizza parlor down the street. "It's the best ever!" I knew they were probably right when I went inside and saw the place full of students from the university a block away. And they were right! The pie was delicious but too big and so thick and cheesy I could only eat half of it. Sitting in the front courtyard of the garden at the inn, I could see just a block away a pair of municipal workers sweating over a hole they were digging to get at underground pipes. I walked over and offered them the other half of my pizza, an offer which they, without a moment's hesitation, accepted.

The next morning I was about five miles west of Dahlonega, heading for far Western Georgia, when suddenly I heard an insistent loud, whack, whack and whack from the passenger side of my car. Then the rear of my car started shaking and wandering from side to side. Uh, oh! I pulled off as quickly as I could; hopped out of the car and discovered one of my rear tires had completely split open. It was as if someone had taken a large knife and sliced right through the tire to its very core – blow-out! I called AAA; they said a truck would be on its way and reach me in 40 minutes. An hour and a half later (fortunately, the weather was warm; skies were sunny; and I was next to a peaceful field with a few head of cattle), the truck finally did show up.

My car was hoisted onto the back bed of the truck and it, along with yours truly, rode back to Dahlonega where we were deposited at a tire repair shop. Two hours later, with a new back tire and $200 poorer, I was again on the road headed west. It wasn't long before I passed by Springer Mountain, starting point for the 2,181 mile Appalachian Trail. To get to the actual trailhead requires a hike of several miles; however, at one point in the road, I passed about a mile from the trail itself. I pulled off and parked; walked into the woods to a beautiful creek; and found the trail easily located by the series of stone cairns passing hikers had built along the side of the trail.

Standing there, with the dappled rays of sun filtering through the overhanging trees; the weather warm and comfortable; I wondered what it would be like if I was hiking the trail that day. There are the rigors of not only 2,000 hiking miles to reach Maine where the trail ends, but the difficulties Appalachian Trail hikers face – mammoth boulders, narrow tree root studded paths, impossible summits, mud, snakes, bears, rotten weather and other hikers, some who don't mean well. I hiked back to my welcome comfortable car grateful my hike was short and easy.

On my way to the West Georgia city of Fort Oglethorpe, snuggled as close as it can be up against Chattanooga, Tennessee, I passed by the usual number of delightful, small mountain towns. Many of the town's churches were advertising Christian Harvest Festivals and Christian Pick Your Own Pumpkin Farms. I passed one church advertising its own autumn event with a large outdoor sign promising, "Fall for Jesus. He Will Never Leave You." Get it – fall, leaves? Groan!

With my two-night base in Fort Oglethorpe at a motel better not mentioned, even better, never remembered – I drove down to Chickamauga National Battlefield Historic Site. In November 1863, both at Chickamauga and adjoining Chattanooga to the north, over 122,000 Confederate and Union soldiers fought in hand-to-hand combat during a three-day bloody Civil War battle. Much of the area in this beautiful park is tablets indicating the battle lines of both sides and recounting the awful story of what happened there. Field houses which were used as places of safety, as well as hospitals for the wounded, dot the park. It's a somber place, one that makes you wonder again, given the sad utterly horrid, painful uselessness of war, why it continues to be the way we settle our international disputes.

Since I was miles out into the middle of the battlefield on winding, twisting roads that took me hither and yon, every which way, until I really had no idea where north was from south or where east was from west. For the first time, in desperation, I put my phone's Google GPS to work. She guided me through places where I was sure she was making a mistake, sure she was taking me far outside where I needed to go, into neighborhoods I was sure were completely wrong. However, following her directions (I had no one else to ask), I suddenly ended up on what looked like a busy, through highway. About one-half mile later, I discovered it was exactly the same highway my motel was on! Thanks, Google Lady; I'll definitely use you again!

Leaving Fort Oglethorpe, I headed for my next night's destination – LaGrange, Georgia, stopping along the way at one of Northwest Georgia's scenic marvels, Cloudland Canyon, one of the largest and most scenic parks in the state. Cloudland Canyon is home to thousand foot deep canyons, sandstone cliffs, wild caves, waterfalls, cascading creeks, dense woodland and abundant wildlife. If one told you that you might be in a part of the Grand Canyon, you would probably agree. There is amazing scenery with trails along the rim overlooking the canyon below and offering wide, expansive views as far as Alabama on the west and Tennessee to the north. I enjoyed a quiet, solitary visit to the most popular, high level viewpoint, basking in my surroundings after succeeding in conquering a very steep, rough, rock and tree root strewn trail until suddenly the sound of young squeals and shrieks filled the air.

A group of at least 50 grade school youngsters were thundering down to where I was and began overtaking the viewpoint. I didn't mind as I did get my alone time there, plus I was so pleased and happy to see these young kids out and about, given the opportunity to explore the beautiful natural surroundings with which our country is immeasurably blessed. I was thankful that patient, watchful, friendly teachers and caregivers were taking the time and effort to help the kids do just that. On my way back to my car, I discovered the trail branched off to another one which led even farther across the rim, a trail which was happily quiet and deserted. Patience rewarded!

America the Beautiful

I remember after my retirement to Century Village East, I attended Senior Summer School. I used the monthly bus pass to go down town in San Diego, California. The school was secondary to visiting museums, golfing, going to the zoo and just attending a few classes in foreign religions. The professor at SDSU dressed in a clown suit and skipped around on the desktops to make us laugh. We had no blue book final, and we stood in line to pay the Bursar.

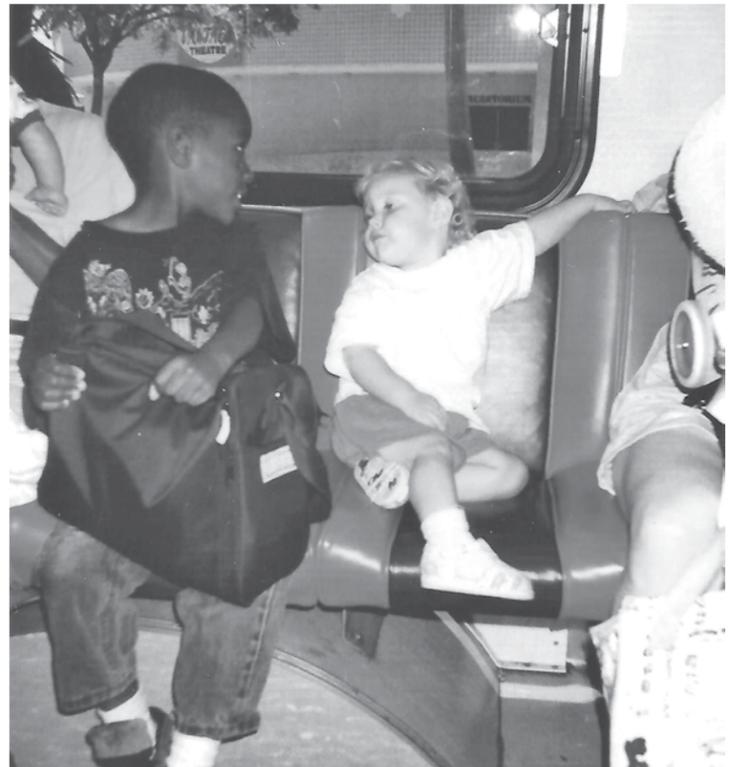

Leon Slatin bought a new Cadillac at age 90. Amadeus

Trenchitelli got a driver, Lenny, for the CVE limo. Life was easier, and there was more laughter. Children could horse around on a bus going to the zoo because there was no Parkland or security pat down at airports. All this happened after 9/11. The bombing was successful because 200 million Americans now live in fear.

George Washington and Abraham Lincoln did not cringe to make America great again. We do not have to shut down the government to pay for a wall. We need to stand up and demand that our elected officials bring back our troops from around the world and use them to make America safe again. I want to see the very young and old enjoy life now!

I served four years in the Air Force during the Korean War. The President stated that it was a peace action. Tell that to the men that I trained to kill, and the mothers and wives that lost these young men. It's time enough to pass legislation that will allow children to grow up laughing like the picture I took of two young boys horsing around on a bus seat.

Canadian Folk Music Icon Jerry Gray Appears in Concert for the Canadian Club on February 14 at 10 a.m. in the Party Room

By JERRY GRAY

"If the musical phrase, From Bonavista to the Vancouver Island, rings a patriotic bell for Canadians, you have to thank Jerry Gray, at least in part for bringing up some happy memories of more innocent times."

I was a founding member of the Travellers, Canada's legendary and first folk song group, who wrote and recorded Canadianized lyrics to Woody Guthrie's renowned song, This Land Is Your Land.

The Travellers began in 1953 with the help and inspiration of Pete Seeger who was visiting in Toronto at the time. Pete, The Weavers, Woody Guthrie and the song, were all blacklisted by McCarthyism in 1952, and Pete asked us to keep Woody's song alive, until the political clouds rolled by. We rewrote the words to Woody's song and based our career on this new Canadian song. Over the next 55 years, we recorded 19 LP's, six TV specials, and toured the world singing in the U.S., Poland, Panama, Great Britain, Germany, Japan, The Soviet Union, The Ukraine, Lithuania, Cyprus, and Latvia, as well as all of Canada. In 1967, in honour of Canada's 100th birthday, the group did 186 concert appearances across Canada, and in Montreal for two weeks at Expo 67.

The group, and I as a single performer, sang on stages with Gordon Lightfoot, Anne Murray, Lorne Green, Rich Little, Jack Benny, Pete Seeger, The Kingston Trio, Harry Belafonte, Ian and Sylvia, Theodore Bikel, Arlo Guthrie and his family band, and Emmy Lou Harris. The group did a Command Performance for Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip in Charlottetown in 1964, and after the concert, the Prince invited us to appear at the London Palladium. In 2001, the National Film Board of Canada produced a 90-minute documentary on the history of the group's first 50 years. We also appeared with Harry Belafonte in Toronto in 1965, to sing We Shall Overcome for the first time in Canada. When Dr. King was assassinated, The Travellers were asked to be the keynote singers at the commemorative concert for Dr. King in a large Toronto church.

In 1997, I began teaching musically-illustrated courses on the history of Folk Music at three Toronto universities, and started doing similar courses, three years later at FAU at both campuses in Boca Raton and Jupiter. I was the first person to teach such a music course at FAU, and taught there for five years, and in 2005 and 2006 at FIU, and for the last ten years at Nova University. I also taught ten years at CVE to classes up to 60 people and at FAU I had classes nearing 400 students. In my almost 20 years in South Florida, I appeared many times with Michael Stock on WLRN's folk music show, talking and singing about folk music. I also did several series on Yiddish song history, called From Shtetl Tsu Amerika. Two years ago, I did a concert at the Coconut Creek City Hall to honour the birthday of Dr. King.

In 2009, Pete Seeger nominated me to be the winner of the Joe Hill Award, given by the U.S. AFL/CIO, and became the first and only Canadian to be so honoured. In 2001, I was given Lifetime Achievement Awards by both the Canadian and American Federation of Musicians as well as by many Canadian Trade Union bodies. In 2009, I was asked by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir to conduct them in the final encore of their Toronto Concert as they sang our Canadian words to This Land, co-written by me, as part of their U.S.-Canadian tour.

On February 14, I will be doing a Salute to Canada concert for the Canadian Club at the Party Room at 10 a.m. I will be singing and talking about my life experiences, singing on an ice flow in the Arctic, at the London Palladium, at concert halls, in kids' classrooms, in senior centers and on university campuses. I often do songs written by other singers, and last year, following the deaths of Woody, Pete Seeger and Theodore Bikel, I did a series called, Where Have All My Mavens gone? imparting knowledge learned by appearing with these FOLK MASTERS.

I will also be singing a song written for High School students 30 years ago, by THE TRAVELLERS which will be dedicated to the memory of Parkland High School students. I will also be selling copies of my many CD's with some proceeds going to the Parkland Student Committees Survivors group after the massacre of the students in 2017.

This, then is an opportunity for Canadians and others to learn from a so-called Canadian Icon, and to reacquaint themselves with their Canadian history and songs, and about my 65 years of entertaining as part of their history.

This year, I completed an autobiography of my years on stage called The Lonesome Traveller, and hope to have it published by July 6, when I will be receiving a Lifetime Award from the Mariposa Folk Festival, which The Travellers helped start and appeared there, alone or with the group, a record 17 times!

Morty Tobin at Home at CVE Synagogue

Morty Tobin is a Michigan native who, because of his former work schedule in the Detroit area, could spend only a few weeks in Florida each winter. "It seemed as if I had two fulltime jobs," he smiles. In addition to running a successful large auto parts store in partnership with his brother, he helped his late wife run her retail produce business. When he and his wife retired, however, they became full-time Florida residents.

The auto parts store that was started by his father, now is operated by Tobin's nephew. "I'm out of it completely but the company continues to serve second and third generation customers although the industry has changed dramatically," he says.

"When my wife ran her business, I'd drive to the wholesale market at 4:30 in the morning in order to buy the best fruits and vegetables. I'd load my wife's truck and then I'd deliver the produce to the farmer's market where she set up shop. Sometimes, our three daughters helped their mother. I'd then drive to my store."

Diane Tobin maintained a traditional home and their five children received Hebrew school educations. "Our faith has always been important to us. We kept a kosher home and now my children do," he says proudly. "We were members of a synagogue in Michigan, but I was not actively involved, that has all changed," he said, after the Tobins moved here permanently.

Morty Tobin at Home at CVE Synagogue.

Diane became seriously ill several years ago. She spent much of her time in a Boca Raton health care facility; I stayed with her every day. Then one day Cantor Erwin Bell came to visit us. He was spiritual leader of Temple Beth Israel in Century Village at the time. We had met Erwin earlier since his predecessor previously had been our cantor at the synagogue in Detroit. Erwin became a friend and visited Diane any time he was in the building.

"I was so impressed by him that I decided to come to services at Temple Beth Israel and I've been active since then," Tobin says. "When Bell retired as spiritual leader, he was replaced by Rabbi Craig Ezring. I now love the synagogue even more. The rabbi's services are partly in English. He keeps the services relatively short, which is important to me, and his weekly sermons are most relevant. There is general agreement that the rabbi's personality, the fact that he knows and calls everyone by their first names, and his sense of humor create a truly spiritual atmosphere. Even Sabbath Kiddush is a positive experience. Everyone gathers around tables to schmooze, eat, and mingle, and the rabbi joins us. It's beautiful. Incidentally before she passed away eight years ago, Rabbi Ezring continued to visit Diane. This was important to the entire family," Tobin recalls.

Tobin occupies the same seat in the sanctuary every Saturday morning. "I like to sit in the back so that I can see all the people and I'm thrilled by the fact that the temple is crowded each week. When snowbirds return, there hardly is an empty seat on Saturdays," he adds. Many Saturdays his daughter Bonnie joins him. She and her family live in Boca Raton.

Responds Willingly and Gladly

But that's not all. Although he recently celebrated his 90th birthday, Tobin drives to Temple Beth Israel once or twice each week. He may help the office staff, when something needs to be done, he sees to it that it gets done, and he serves on the Board of Directors and as a member of the Hurricane Committee that is charged with securing the Torahs (Holy Scrolls) when there is a storm. "Most importantly, Morty responds willingly and generously when the synagogue requires assistance," says Co-President Judy Schneider.

When the temple needed gardening services, for example, Tobin sent someone to do the work. My family and I try to be supportive. To that end, Bonnie, and her four siblings who live in Michigan and in California, last year purchased in their father's honor and in honor of the synagogue's 40th anniversary, a large Tree of Life plaque. "I totally was surprised since they told me nothing about it in advance," Tobin said. Morty then set up a fund in order to personally match a portion of the purchase of each leaf for the plaque in order to encourage members to participate in the fundraising effort.

Tobin admits that he is a generous supporter to Temple Beth Israel, but he adds modestly, that his five married children encouraged him to do so. "They see how happy I am at the synagogue. Perhaps you may say that it keeps me young."

"When I was asked to become a director, I thought that it would be tedious, but I quickly discovered that we all agree and frankly, I look forward to meetings since we get along so well together. And the fact that we have young directors also provides different insights on what we need to do to attract new and younger members." Ever the optimist, Tobin looks forward to remaining on the board for as long as the synagogue asks him to serve. There is no doubt that he will be around for a long time.

"I had started to use Morty's business expertise to move the organization forward. He has provided us with wonderful fundraising opportunities and assisted in making them successful," Mrs. Schneider notes.

"There is a Jewish expression L'Dor V'Dor, from Generation to Generation. We are thrilled, therefore, to include his daughter Bonnie, as a synagogue member as well. I so enjoy seeing father and daughter sitting next to each other." Mrs. Schneider adds.

We are Blessed to Have Him

If you had a batch of rabbis together in one room and they were discussing what qualities and traits they would most want in a member of their Congregation, they might come up with many different answers, but, if you put all their answers together into one individual, they would all be praying for a congregant such as Morty. "Fortunately, Morty chose TBI and we truly are blessed to have him," says Rabbi Ezring. "Morty worked in the auto industry for many years so I guess it fits that he should be a driving force for our congregation," the rabbi notes with a wide grin.

What can I say about a man who I have known for so long and yet, have never heard him say a negative thing about another soul? What can I say about someone who always has a smile and greets everyone with a cheerful countenance? What can I say about someone who you don't have to ask to help because he has already perceived the need and rushed to bring it to do whatever he is able to help? Mort is the personification of a Gutteh Neshama, of a Good and Godly Soul.

Morty Tobin has five children and several grandchildren. "We always encouraged them to get a college education and they all did. Three went to the University of Michigan and two went to Michigan State. Can you imagine our dilemma when UM and MSU played against each other in football? For which school would we root," he asks.

Tobin has not forgotten his humble roots. His father and mother, who were orphans, immigrated to Michigan from Russia and Lithuania, respectively. "They worked hard, built a business and turned it over to my brother and me. In the 39 years my brother and I worked side-by-side, we never had a serious disagreement. My parents were given a new life in America. If I can show my appreciation, the synagogue is my way of doing it. Temple Beth Israel has become my home and Rabbi Ezring, Judy Schneider, Co-President Richard Rosenzweig and the entire congregation are my family."

"We need to encourage more young families to become involved, but when I see the smiling faces in our sanctuary, and young faces on our Board of Directors, I am encouraged about our synagogue's future."

Gratitude Says It All

By MANNY STRUMPF

My 28-year-old grandson Scott recently purchased his first home in Margate. It was only appropriate, I felt, to express my pride over his accomplishment and to wish him well. As the family gathered around our Thanksgiving table back home in New Jersey in November, we all discussed why we were so grateful. However, I got to thinking about one other reason for my gratitude and pride.

My grandson and I agree on many things. I'd venture a guess, in fact, that we are in sync much more than we are not. One of our favorite pastimes is playing golf together whenever I'm in Florida. The last Federal Election, on the other hand, was an exception since politics is one issue where we are diametrically opposite. Whenever he tried to justify his choices, I would counter with my reasons for not doing so. It became a serious game in which we tried to outwit each other. But during one conversation before Election Day, I reassured him that despite who he voted for, I was grateful that he was determined to exercise his right to vote. That, I said, was the important issue. I knew also that my granddaughter, a college grad school student in Manhattan, felt so strongly about the obligation of citizenship that she voted also.

As we prepared to enjoy our Thanksgiving dinner, my grandson asked me again if I had meant what I expressed earlier about voting. I assured him once more that indeed I was proud of his commitment because being a good citizen had been instilled in me since early childhood. Let me explain:

My late mother was an immigrant from Eastern Europe who lost most of her family during the Holocaust. She took her American citizenship seriously and gave back to her beloved America whenever and wherever she could, be it the Red Cross or the then United Fund, our synagogue or my elementary school PTA, selling War Bonds, carrying Old Glory in municipal parades, volunteering to be an air raid warden during World War II or writing letters to the editor when she agreed or disagreed with the local paper's editorial. She could be counted upon to do what she felt had to be done. She, after all, was a mighty proud American.

But what she took most seriously was voting. She insisted, in fact, on accompanying me to City Hall shortly after my 21st birthday so that she could be a witness when I became a registered voter. My parents often disagreed on political parties and political philosophies. The kitchen table at dinner reverberated each fall as they debated voting choices. It mattered not whether the election involved Washington, the Statehouse, City Hall or a bonding referendum. It was not for whom or for what; it mattered more that our voices were heard.

My first voting experience occurred in the 1956 Presidential Election. I recall leaving class at NYU on Election Day and taking a bus directly from the local railroad station to the polling place at Lincoln School where I pulled the appropriate levers. Man was I proud. I still feel a tingle when I vote.

A few years ago, as I waited in line at my polling place in New Jersey, an elderly gent with a cane and wearing a baseball cap that was embroidered with the words Army Veteran exited the voting booth. As he walked past us, he said with a smile that he had never not voted. "Too many of my buddies died for this and I ain't gonna let them down." As if on signal, several men and women in line with me saluted him and left the line to give the veteran a big hug. Even the poll workers smiled. I felt a tear roll down my cheek and I saw several of my fellow voters remove hankies from pocket and purse in order to wipe their cheeks as well.

We may criticize our politicians and disagree with each other. Sometimes we are too busy, too lazy, too angry, or too complacent to vote. Too many American men and women, as noted by the voting veteran, have died on foreign shores in order to assure us of the opportunity to cast a ballot. Millions of individuals around the globe are not allowed to vote or if they are able to, there's only one name on the ballot. Millions more can't criticize their government for fear of imprisonment, or death.

Now you understand why I told my grandson and granddaughter how proud I was because they voted. It was so important to me. Their decision to be good citizens regardless of which candidates they voted for made this a most grateful and meaningful Thanksgiving, one that I will long cherish.

Commemoration of the Life of Harry Liner

Text by RAY JACOBSEN;
Photos by CAROL CARR

On January 9, 2019, a special event was held to commemorate the life of Harry Liner, founder of the Stained Glass Club of CVE. Twenty-one years ago, Harry created the Stained Glass Club for CVE residents. Although Harry knew little about stained glass, he learned quickly and was soon able to teach others the basic skills.

Initially, Harry started with very little equipment; but over time, he purchased enough equipment and supplies to meet the needs of an ever-increasing membership. Within just a few years, membership increased to more than 100; and the Club became one of the most active in Century Village. As the Club grew, so did the expertise of its members who created ever more complex pieces of stained glass art.

After 20 years, Harry retired from active leadership of Club activities. However, even though he now had to carry a supply of oxygen, Harry could still be found nearly every morning working in the Stained Glass Studio on his latest creation. Eventually age caught up with Harry who passed away on April 8, 2018 at the age of 98.

Because of Harry's very significant contribution, the Stained Glass Club decided that it would only be fitting to commemorate his life and legacy. A special luncheon kicked off the event on January 9, 2019. Jeri Cohen, Harry's daughter, was the guest of honor. Jeri and her husband Craig were welcomed by Menachem Plaut, a long-time member of the Club, who outlined some of Harry's achievements and contributions. Jeri spoke about how important the Club had been to Harry and how much he enjoyed working with so many members over the years.

Several other Club members who knew Harry well spoke, sometimes with humor, of how much Harry's friendship and coaching had meant to them. They described what a truly remarkable human being Harry had been and the great contribution he had made to those whose lives he touched.

After lunch, the attendees made their way downstairs to witness the unveiling of a plaque which dedicates the Stained Glass Studio as the Harry Liner Stained Glass Club Studio. This plaque will not only recognize Harry's many contributions but also ensure that his legacy will live on for many years to come.

Following the unveiling, everyone was invited into the Studio for a glass of wine and slice of cake decorated to look like one of Harry's more elaborate stained glass designs.

That concluded what was a truly memorable and enjoyable event!

Rock & Roll Club Review

Text and Photo by DEBBIE JUNIPER, Club President

The Rock & Roll Club had another incredible show on January 17 at Le Club starring Andrea Garofalo.

The Rock & Roll Band, Mike, Jerry and Eric opened the show with some of those good old rock and roll favorites. Many thanks to the band who worked so hard to put this show together and thank you to my guest performer Andrea Gurafalo who absolutely WOWED the crowd.

Who ever heard of an opera tenor singing rock and roll songs? Well he did it! What an amazing performance! The audience couldn't get enough.

Bravo! Bravo! Bravo!
So happy to announce that Andrea has agreed to do another show for the Rock & Roll Club next season. Keep an eye out for the date.

Thanks to all my Rock & Roll Club members, for your continued loyalty and support.

Day for francophone Artists

Text and photos by RÉAL BEAUDETTE
 Paintings by JANETTE MERCIER, and stained glass by RÉAL BEAUDETTE
 Translation by RACHEL JEAN

The Alliance francophone of Century Village East is happy to announce a new activity to promote francophone artists. This activity is added to those already existing.

The Day for Francophone Artists will be held on Sunday, February 10, 2019, at Le Club Theatre from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The number of registered artists being higher than expected, we had to change the room and date. Many artists from an array of disciplines will be present. A variety of art work will be displayed: painting, photography, stained glass, jewelry, knitting, weaving and more. Come and encourage our artists while admiring their achievements.

For further details, visit the web site at the following address:

<http://cvealliancefrancop.wixsite.com/journee-artistes-af> Réal Beaudette is responsible for this activity.

 Toiles de Janette Mercier, et vitraux de Réal Beaudette.

L'Alliance francophone de Century Village East est heureuse d'annoncer une nouvelle activité pour promouvoir les artistes francophones. Cette activité s'ajoute à celles déjà en place.

Prendre note que la Journée pour les artistes francophones aura lieu le dimanche 10 février 2019 au Théâtre du Le Club de 10h à 15h. Le nombre d'artistes inscrits ayant dépassé notre objectif, nous avons été dans l'obligation de changer de local et de date. Plusieurs artistes seront présents dans différents domaines. Une variété d'œuvres seront exposées : peinture, photographie, vitrail, bijoux, tricot et bien d'autres. Venez encourager nos artistes et admirer leurs réalisations.

Picnic of the Alliance francophone CVE

Text and Photos by PAUL BOURQUE
 Translation by RACHEL JEAN

The weather was splendid during the monthly picnic on Sunday, January 13, for the monthly picnic of the Alliance francophone CVE, contrary to the second

Sundays of November and December, when the weather was not as nice.

More than 60 people used BBQs prepared by the team of Gilles Hébert.

The music added to the ambiance, and many members intend to return to the next picnic. Some will hang up their rosary, hoping that Sunday, February 10, will be another fine day to enjoy themselves.

Gilles Hebert.

Le beau temps s'invite au Pique-nique mensuel

Texte et Photos de Paul Bourque

Dimanche, le 13 janvier, il faisait un temps splendide pour le pique-nique mensuel de l'Alliance francophone CVE. Le temps n'avait pas été aussi clément les deuxièmes dimanches de novembre et décembre.

Plus de 60 personnes ont utilisé les BBQ préparés par l'équipe de Gilles Hébert.

La musique a créé de l'ambiance, et plusieurs membres

prévoient retourner au prochain pique-nique; certains vont accrocher leur chapelet pour que le dimanche 10 février soit une autre belle journée pour en profiter.

First Activity of the Carrefour des Artistes Peintres (CAP)

On Friday, January 11, the CAP held the opening of its first exhibition for the 2018-2019 season in room GP-N of the Clubhouse.

Close to 80 enthusiastic people came to admire about 20 paintings exhibited by a dozen of most talented artists. Congratulations were abundant and one could see pride in the eyes of the exhibitors.

For almost two hours, talent was celebrated.

The paintings are displayed on the right wall leading to room GP-N until February 8.

If you walk by that area, stop for a few minutes to admire these magnificent paintings; you won't regret it.

The board wishes to thank very sincerely the exhibitors; without them, nothing is possible. Also, a big thank you to all the people who responded to our invitation.

It is a real pleasure to take part in the organization of such an event, knowing that the public remains loyal to us. As well, thanks to the CAP members for their continued cooperation.

Stay tuned! We will inform you about the dates of the next exhibition.

Le CAP a tenu son premier vernissage de la saison 2018-2019 le vendredi 11 janvier dernier. Cette année, il a eu lieu dans la salle GP-N du Clubhouse.

Près de 80 personnes enthousiastes sont venues admirer la vingtaine de tableaux exposés par une douzaine d'artistes des plus talentueux. Les félicitations fusaiement de toutes parts et la fierté se lisait dans les yeux des exposants. Pendant près de deux heures, on a célébré le talent.

L'exposition se tient sur le mur de droite menant à la salle GP-N. Elle se poursuivra jusqu'au 8 février prochain.

Si vous passez par là, arrêtez-vous quelques instants pour admirer ces magnifiques tableaux; ça vaut vraiment le détour.

Le conseil d'administration remercie très sincèrement, tout d'abord, les exposants; sans eux, rien n'est possible. Un énorme merci à tous ceux et celles qui ont répondu à notre invitation. C'est un réel plaisir de participer à l'organisation d'un tel événement, sachant que le public nous reste fidèle. Un gros merci aux membres du CAP pour leur collaboration soutenue.

Restez à l'écoute! Nous vous ferons part des dates de la prochaine exposition.

Who Durnit?

On Sunday, December 16, 2018, Emunah Women of America performed their original Who Durnit Comedy Murder Mystery at their Annual Dinner. The script was written by Naomi Brody, Malkie Fendrich and Gloria Metz with outrageously funny adlibbing by all the members of the cast. It was truly the event of the season.

The evening was filled with mystery, merriment and, of course, audience participation.

The opening act of the show was Myron Sugarman, author of The Last Jewish Gangsters, who gave an informative and enlightening presentation. This was followed by a buffet reception and a beautifully catered dinner.

The Emunah Players took command of the stage during dinner and performed the Who Durnit? The audience, under the guidance of investigators, then voted for whom they thought was the murderer.

It was a hilarious evening that put a smile on everyone's face. The Emunah Players are now ready to take the show on the road.

All proceeds went to support Emunah's Children in Israel.

CVE Athletic Class Description

You must consult your doctor before involving yourself in any exercise program. NO CLASS REGISTRATION NECESSARY! Athletic Classes are restricted to CVE Residents and Renters only; NO GUESTS! NO GUESTS PERMITTED TO UTILIZE THE FITNESS CENTER BEFORE 1 PM. Proper footwear is required. Please exit the Fitness Center if you need to make a phone call. DO NOT hang wet clothes or bathing suits over the Saunas. Lockers are not for overnight use- ALL locks will be cut every morning. Please clean/wipe down all equipment. If you are interested in learning how to use the equipment please join us for our FREE Orientation class on the 3rd Wednesday of the month at 10am! Aquacise classes will be at the Indoor Pool when air temperature is 60 degrees or below, when it is raining, & when there is lightning.

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS:

Aquacise (approx. 45 mins): An invigorating class that gives you cardio respiratory conditioning. It also helps you with symptoms of arthritis by reducing the stress of joints.

Arthritic Aquacise (approx. 45 mins): This is an easy to follow class, focusing on building flexibility, balance, & strength to increase joint mobility and range of motion.

Awareness through Movements (Feldenkrais) (approx. 60 mins): This class is for every one of all abilities and age from individuals searching for relief from pain, though those seeking continued well-being to that seeking performance excellence.

Back in Action Fitness (approx. 45 mins): This is an upbeat low impact aerobic and strength training class that may be performed standing or in a seated position. The class includes energizing and easy-to-follow movements that promote heart-healthy, total-body conditioning to increase cardiovascular and muscular endurance.

Barre Intensity (approx. 45 minutes): Enjoy a higher intensity class that covers the full body and incorporates core movements to increase strength and balance.

Body Toning & Weights (approx. 45 mins): This is a total body toning which helps those with problems of osteoporosis and muscle density loss.

Chair Yoga (approx. 55 mins): Same great results as Relax with Yoga for people who have: limited mobility, difficulty with floor exercise, arthritis or are recovering from surgery. *** Doctor Approval Recommended***

Easy Stretch (approx. 45 mins): This is a beginners approach to yoga with low intensity forms of stretching, combining mind and body, to relieve stress, and rejuvenate your spirit. It is a blend of traditional posture or forms and techniques to increase body awareness, flexibility, balance, and strength.

Low Impact Aerobics (approx. 55 mins): a low intensity workout designed to help you condition the cardio respiratory system by using a diversity of exercises. The class starts with 30 minutes of aerobic workout followed by 15 minutes of weights and 10 minutes of abdominal work and stretching.

Meditation (approx. 60 mins): Recent scientific studies show that the practice of meditation changes the brain in wonderful ways affecting ability to have greater balance, more focus, increased compassion, less anxiety, and improved well-being. Meditation is a practice by which a person achieves a greater sense of awareness, wisdom, introspection, and a deeper sense of relaxation.

Pilates (approx. 55 mins): Pilates is a way of connecting the whole body and mind through proper breathing and slow, controlled movements to help you develop core abdominal strength and a leaner body by lengthening and stretching the muscles without building bulk.

Relax with Yoga (approx. 45 mins): Yoga is a practical self-discipline to gain mastery over body and mind, to increase strength, flexibility, balance, stamina and endurance in a positive mental atmosphere. There is special emphasis on proper breathing, relaxation and meditation techniques.

Total Body Fusion (Approx. 45 mins): This class is for the people looking for a more challenging workout. This high intensity interval training makes for a great total body workout.

Senior Balance & Flexibility (approx. 45 mins): The participants sit on and stand behind chairs while they move to the music through a variety of exercises designed to deepen core connection, agility, boost overall well-being, and gain improved balance. Followed by complete body stretch that will give you more freedom of movement for your everyday activities.

Senior Fitness & Weights (approx. 45 mins): This is a program to increase strength, flexibility, and energy through weight lifting and cardiovascular exercises.

Limited Mobility Arthritic Aquacise (approx. 45 minutes): This is an easy to follow class, focusing on building flexibility, balance, & strength to increase joint mobility and range of motion. This program is for people that might need a little more attention from the instructor.

Yoga Stretch (approx. 45 mins): This class is designed for those at the intermediate level to engage in the endless benefits of the yoga practice by enhancing your mind/body, increasing strength and flexibility.

Qi Gong for Seniors (approx. 1 hour): This class will focus on; 1) Opening up flow of your Qi/Bioelectric Energy 2) Releasing energetic blocks 3) Strengthening your immune system 4) Enhancing your body's ability to regenerate and heal itself, feeling younger and more relaxed 5) releasing negative emotions & replacing them with positive ones.

Cardio Kickboxing & Weights (approx. 45 min – 1hr): This class is a combination of punches, kicks, & weight training to get you moving and elevate heart rate.

Cardio Sculpt (45 min): Cardio based class to help tone your physique.

(6am Monday – Friday from November – March).

Stevia, ALL NATURAL Zero Calorie Herbal Sweetener

By ELLEN KAMHI PHD, RN, AHG, AHN-BC / The Natural Nurse®

Stevia is a safe, zero calorie substitute for sugar ...

Stevia is 200-300 times sweeter than table sugar...

Stevia is very strong; one tsp Stevia = 10-15 tsp. of white sugar!

Stevia rebaudiana is a tropical member of the Chrysanthemum family (a kin of our ornamental hardy mum) which originated in the rainforests of Brazil and Paraguay. It is now cultivated in South America, Asia and around the world, and is sought after due to its leaves, which contain the sweet active ingredients. It has been used for centuries by the Native South American Indians for chewing purposes and to sweeten tea. The common Indian names for stevia translate as honey leaf or sweet leaf. In China, it is sometimes called sweet Chrysanthemum.

Today, knowledge of stevia is growing phenomenally because of its use as a natural sweetener. The active ingredients in stevia are steviosides, which are chemically known as diterpene glucosides. These chemicals bind to our taste buds and are perceived as being very sweet but, it contains no sugar.

After the stevia leaves are dried and powdered, they are reconstituted to form a golden-green liquid extract. This is reported to be 200-300 times as sweet as sugar, with none of sugars adverse effects on blood sugar, body fat or the immune system. One drop of stevia liquid is equivalent to one full teaspoon of sugar.

The Japanese REJECT aspartame and instead approve STEVIA!

The Japanese government has the most knowledge of stevia because the Japanese consume more stevia than any other country in the world. The Japanese Ministry of Health (often regarded as even more strict than the US Food & Drug Administration), rejected the use of aspartame (NUTRASWEET) for use in soft drinks and other diet or sugar free items, and instead approved the widespread use of steviosides (the active ingredients in stevia) for use in diet consumables.

Japanese research has revealed that stevia can reduce the need for insulin in Insulin Dependent Diabetes Mellitus patients and help stabilize the blood sugar levels of Non-Insulin Dependent Diabetes Mellitus patients.

Stevia is calorie free. It is the ideal sweetener for calorie conscious individuals, or for anyone who needs to avoid sugar in their diet. This includes people afflicted with diabetes, hypoglycemia, weakened immune states and chronic yeast infections (candidiasis). Stevia is often employed by Naturopathic physicians as part of the treatment of these conditions with remarkable success. Stevia has also been shown to inhibit the bacteria which cause dental caries, or tooth decay. Hopefully, we shall see tooth pastes and other dentifrices sweetened with stevia instead of sodium saccharine, a known carcinogen in animals.

The Japanese again provide the source of toxicological data on stevia. They consume 750 tons of stevia per annum and have been utilizing stevia since the mid 1970s. The Japanese government has concluded that stevia poses no health or toxicity risk to human.

If one compares this with the data on artificial sweeteners, like NutraSweet, Equal, Splenda, cyclamates, saccharine, and aspartame, stevia is the educated person's choice.

There are different kinds of stevia on the market today. Most conventional grocery stores carry a white powder form. This is the WORST form to use. It is commercially and chemically prepared using chemical solvents, including acetonitrile, which is toxic to the central nervous system, and a GMO corn derivative called erythritol.

However, excellent forms of Stevia can be found in most health food stores in the form of concentrated liquid extracts and powdered leaves. Look for them in the dietary supplement area. You can easily grow your own Stevia. It is a tender perennial in the Southern US, or an annual in the Northern climates. It is great for indoor pots as well. Just grow and pick the sweet leaves for immediate use or you can dry them for future use.

Some people claim that stevia has a slightly bitter aftertaste. If that is the case, try cutting down your dose.

If you still have a sweet tooth but want to avoid the pitfalls of sugar and artificial sweeteners, think of stevia, the SWEET LEAF. You can find it...just behind the herbal tea... in Your Natural Medicine Chest.

Sports Roundtable

By LARRY COHEN

If you love to watch and talk sports, you will really enjoy this Sports Roundtable where we discuss all sports – present, past and future. This is an open discussion, and everyone participates. We also have sports trivia where we try to stump the other members of the group.

Join us every Wednesday at 3:15 in the Clubhouse Room GP-G on the second floor.

Hope to see you there; if you have some Sports Memorabilia, please bring it with you. Any questions, please call Larry at 508-259-5381.

CVE Volleyball Club

CVE Volleyball is played six days a week at the sand volleyball court behind the Clubhouse Tennis Courts from 9 to 11 a.m. Pictured is Les Quebeckers volleyball players who play on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. They are all outstanding players who play international rules and they are fun to watch.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday we have a great turnout and lots of great volleyball players. Volleyball is a co-ed sport and is enjoyed by all. On January 25 the team Les Quebeckers will play the Bagels-Baklava's team in a three out of five game and hope to retain the Frank Rocco Memorial Cup that they won last year.

The results of this tournament will be announced in the March edition of the CVE Reporter and the trophy will be presented to the winning team at the annual volleyball luncheon held in March.

John Monforto at Rock and Roll Club

I was so pleased with the turnout yesterday, despite the very bad weather at the time. People showed up for John Monforto who, as always, put on a terrific show in a tribute to Elvis. Many people came up and interacted with him during the rock-a-hula number.

Much thanks to Mike, Jerry and Eric for a terrific opening. Our rock and roll band is growing!

See you on February 6 for our regular meeting at 6 p.m. in Music Room A.

Next show at Le Club is featuring Andrea Garofalo. Happy New Year to All!

Thanks so much for your support.

Welcome Jamboree

The Welcome Jamboree is the first of three CVE Tennis Jamborees for 2019. It took place on January 13. It was a lot of fun for those that participated!

Upcoming events: Valentine's Jamboree in February; St. Patrick's Jamboree in March which will wrap up the season.

Rock and Roll Club Presents

The Rock and Roll Club presents Scott Ringers-en, Elvis tribute artist, for one night only on Friday, February 8, 2019 from 7-9 p.m. at Le Club. Free admission; donations appreciated. Snacks permitted.

For further information, contact Debbie Juniper at 954-609-3893.

Please note: The Rock and Roll Club meets on Wednesday, February 6 (two days prior to the show) in Music Room A at 7 p.m.

Ten Tips for Boat Shows and Fishing Flea Markets

Text and Photos by GREG KUCHARAWSKI

Start looking for great deals at upcoming boating and fishing flea markets. It's a good opportunity to purchase that new boat or add more tackle to your arsenal of fishing equipment. During the cooler weather, boating and fishing outdoor sport shows start popping in South Florida. The follow events are coming up: 2019 Miami Boat Show - February 14-18, 10th Annual Palm Beach Marine Flea Market - February 16-17, Islamorada Gigantic Nautical Flea Market - Saturday, February 23, and Dania Marine Flea Market - Thursday, March 14-17, 2019. Get out and make some deals with these ten tips.

1. Arrive early - It's always best to beat the crowds, you'll be able to see everything before others and have plenty of time to go back to a vendor to make a deal.

2. Wear comfortable shoes - I can't stress this enough, since you're likely to be on your feet for a good part of the day. Concrete floors and uneven ground are tough to walk and stand on without proper footwear. After working all week, you don't want your dogs barking and ruining your day. Make sure everyone in your group/family wear comfortable clothes and shoes. Strollers for small children are a must and they also help carry your stuff.

3. Bring reusable cloth shopping bags or a small cart - It's always a good idea to have reusable cloth bags that can rest on your shoulder. Most merchants at the shows have small bags so bring a portable means to carry your purchases through the show. Using a cart will also limit trips to your vehicle to store your purchased treasures.

4. Don't be afraid to ask for a seller's best price - Talk to the seller and get as much information as you can about the item. This is all part of the buying dance. Most of the time you can make your best deals at the end of the show. Make a reasonable offer and see if the seller will accept it.

5. Don't be afraid to walk away - If the price isn't right or a seller isn't being responsive, don't be afraid to walk away. Nine times out of ten, they'll say "I can do better!" And if they don't, move on and enjoy shopping for other goodies. Remember merchants are in business. When haggling, please be polite.

6. Pack a lunch - Eat healthy this will keep your energy up. Food courts and trucks usually offer fried food. If you're looking for an alternative to fried anything, pack a lunch or look for healthy food choices by the event.

7. Most people forget to bring water - Stay hydrated and save another few dollars that can be spent on fishing gear.

8. Stay in touch with vendors - If you find a vendor that carries a lot of items that you're interested in, grab their business card or contact information. If you ever regret walking away from that perfect find, you can reach out to them and it's likely that they'll be back at the show next year. Most vendors have websites but remember you will have shipping charges.

9. Ask dealers about their products - If you have no idea what you're buying, ask the vendor. Most of the time, vendors will be experts on what they're selling and can give insight into their merchandise.

10. Learning Opportunities - Remember to stop at some of the organizations that can teach you about your sport. Many organization members have a lot of knowledge about boating, hunting, fishing, and the outdoors. Spend time talking at their booth and they will keep you well informed about your sport of choice and environmental issues.

The Century Village East Fishing Club is not just about fishing. Club members participate in aquatic conservation clean-ups, bike and fish runs, youth fishing programs, and disabled veteran fishing days. Century Village East residents and visitors are welcome to attend the next CVE Fishing Club meeting 1:30 till 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 12, 2019. The meeting will be held in general purpose room G, on the second floor, of the CVE Clubhouse. Come join our group and get out and have some fun fishing, along with learning about new fishing techniques and tricks.

We will discuss the following topics at the meeting: 1. Venture out drift boat fishing report by Mel Nass, CVE Fishing Club President. 2. Tackle tips and tricks, Greg K, Jersey Coast Anglers Association. 3. Local Bass'n at Quiet Waters Park, Bill Montgomery.

During March, the CVE Fishing Club is planning their 2nd Annual Play HOOK-e Take a Veteran Fishing program. Veterans will have an opportunity to enjoy a FREE lunch and go freshwater fishing at Ellesmere E. If you are a veteran and would like to participate in the Play HOOK-e Take a Veteran Fishing Day, please phone Lucky Mel, CVE Fishing Club President 954-684-6881 or email Greg K at Gkucharews@JCAA.ORG to register for lunch and fishing on Tuesday, March 19, 2019, 10 a.m. till 12:30 p.m. We have door prizes, loaner rods and reels, terminal tackle, bait, and other fishing equipment available to ensure you have an enjoyable time. We thank our friends Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 12 and Jimmy John's, Military Trail for assisting with lunch for our service men and women.

Broadway Babies at the Doo Wop Café

By MICHAEL KAYE

The Michael Kaye Cabaret presentation of Broadway Babies at The Doo Wop Café on January 24 was Standing Room Only. The audience was treated to Funny Catz, the new pre-show Comedy Club which featured funny people Aviva Ravel, Mirili, Scott Senate, and a hilariously raunchy parody written by musician Mike R.

The theme of the main show was the influence of Broadway Musicals and Doo Wop Music on each other. The Cabaret Band opened with some hi-energy numbers. Michael Kaye kept the party going with his set of street corner Doo Wop songs covering the different aspects of this still popular music form. Nancy Lee quickly followed with her marvelously rousing Give My Regards to Broadway. Judy Hill and the Cabaret Band brought us back to Doo Wop and got the audience dancing and clapping to her set of oldies.

The O'Connors, a show-stopping musical-comedy duo, performed to the delight of the audience. Barbara and Stephen have entertained throughout New York City and New Jersey for more than 20 years. Barbara's rendition of When You're Good to Mama was Broadway all the way.

With a voice sounding a little Julio Iglesias and a little Andrea Bocelli, the show tunes of Latin heart-throb, Alvaro, wowed the audience. Then more Broadway with Nancy Lee performing show tunes as only she can. Nancy has performed Broadway Musical shows over the years and even had an early career in the Catskills.

Debbie Juniper did a great job bringing back the music with a song from Off-Broadway called, These Boots Are Made for Walking. Leading up to everyone's favorite Village band, Mike Rosenzweig, Jerry Raines, and Eric Alan, who gave us their crowd-pleasing versions of the Doo Wop era. Mike R. playing us off with the full cast singing the Spaniels doo wop hit, Goodnight Sweetheart Goodnight.

The Cabaret will be in rehearsals on February 7 for our next big extravaganza, Love Is in The Air, on Valentine's Day, February 14 at 7:30 p.m. If you make it to a seat, you'll be treated to lots more comedy and a bunch of snuggly, heartfelt, funny, and sometimes tear-jerking tunes along with some dancing in the aisles. So, give yourself a honey-sweet Valentine treat and make your way to GP-A at 7:30 p.m., and come early to this wonderful show filled with surprise guests.

And don't forget to watch some of your favorite Cabaret entertainers as they perform for you at the CVE's Got Talent! show in the Clubhouse Theater on February 20. Make sure to buy your tickets now at the Box Office.

The Cabaret would love to hear from you if you like to perform comedy, songs, instruments, dance, juggling, acrobatics, etc. Show Us Your Talent and Be A Star! Give us a call at 954-546-1662 or email cvecabaret@gmail.com or drop by on Open Mic Nites. You can always find our schedule at the Staff office and in the Reporter. Enjoy the Show.

CVE Nature Club Enjoys Birds of Florida Presentation

By DORIS WACHSLER

In addition to its popular monthly trips, the CVE Nature Club invites engaging speakers on a variety of topics for each month's meeting. In January, local nature photographer, Kathy Kafka, treated our group to a slideshow of the Birds of Florida. She is a visual presenter who likes to tell a story through photos rather than lengthy commentary. Having honed her photographic talents over the last ten years, she showed 26 different colorful images of birds.

She mentioned each bird's size and relation to other species, longevity, speed in flight, diet, calls and songs and religious or cultural significance historically. Some basic information was known by Club members but not that Peking ducks were descended from mallards; that the Muscovy ducks are more of a goose; and the redhead duck was mentioned by Aristotle!

Did you know that hovering hummingbirds can fly backwards? It was sad to hear that there has been a 76 percent decline in the gallinule population over the last five years due to the loss of habitat.

Her portraits were lovely, especially the ruby red flamingos; stately great blue heron; bulky wood stork; and purple gallinule. Close ups of two brown pelicans were seen with their bills intersecting each other's. I commented to Kathy that she must have excellent cameras, and she said that she has "...a very good eye," and can capture excellent poses because of this skill. From the rarely seen roseate spoonbill or hummingbird to the common pigeon and iconic an-hinga, she presented a gallery that everyone enjoyed!

At the conclusion of her presentation, she showed an Amazon children's book about flamingos with rhyming texts which brought chuckles from the audience. Kathy's photos of flamingos and roseate spoonbills can be seen on traffic signals in our area; some of her work has also been featured in Riverwalk.

Two Roslyns

They didn't know how happy they were, jumping, laughing, splashing in the pool, one eighty-five, the other eighty-two. One a story teller, the other a ballerina, "Show me a dance step," one said, the other raised her leg up high, "How lovely you can still do that," "Now you tell me a story, a true one," and she told her friend about an immigrant six-year-old, who was frightened of tall buildings, and the father she had never met. Then they splashed each other vigorously and laughed as they swam to the other end of the pool.

Genesis

When the poets have spent their words on flowers, birds, people, clouds, and the musicians have spent their notes on ancient and modern melodies. When families fly to distant planets and war is an ancient relic, and pain has long been forgotten, the Creator observes the universe and says, "It's time to start all over."

~AVIVA RAVEL

Paradise Days

Days in Paradise are warm and sunny. Lazy as a daisy and sweet as honey.

Memories

Where are the soft lips that kissed so sweetly, Where are the strong arms that held me tight, Protecting me from goblins, demons And deep, dark shadows in the night?

Gone are the soul songs and hora dances, Gone are the rhythms of yesteryear, But memories rise and nurture our hearts, In the sunset of our years.

~AVIVA RAVEL

From a Window

Clusters of leaves on trees moving, dancing, prancing with the wind.

Sunlight partially beaming over the leaves while flowing madly with the wind.

The human eye can only see those dancing leaves That are swaying.

The Pickle Lady

She worked serving pickles from spiced laced barrels At Warshaw Grocery Store the Zabar's of Montreal The septuagenarian served within her comfort zone, Embraced by the dust of her journey's life road Of the aisles of jam, the jelly and the marmalade The sweet, sour smell of the peach and pear With cinnamon wafting among the apple pies The honey spread in its amber comb, dry fruit and olives The fragrant and sweet coffee mist...embracing, freshly grounded Assaulted by a mixture of scents, the senses awoke A kaleidoscope of colours, a cornucopia of people The fresh vegetables and the homemade hummus "How many pickles Sir? Six, O.K.?" Queue up! She ordered the Zombie like customer, drill sergeant mode Proud, no obsequious suck-up, eye ball to eyeball Reaching beyond herself, widening her view of life's picture Walking in her own wake, unilateral, tough-minded In her own hermetically sealed bubble of pride Un- vetted, un-searched, un-invited an ordinary Canadian Proclaiming from the highest summit the panacea of her life Her life's calling finder exists unplugged, expanding and nourishing Pep Talking in a safe echo chamber, making a living On her own flight path... by herself, solitary, yet universal. Dedicated to my Aunt Annie, the Pickle Lady

For You

If you had a little time left and you didn't do all you wanted to, wouldn't you be mad? wouldn't you be sad?

So, do take that terrific trip the one you've always dreamed about. Don't splurge a little, splurge a lot! Your life is for you, have no doubt.

Go first class, get pampered on a plane have someone wait upon you for a change. Dine gourmet; drink champagne!

Don't take the train, take that long, white limousine buy an expensive designer outfit go to a posh restaurant just to be seen.

Go to a luxurious, famous spa have a massage and get to know the nice person you are.

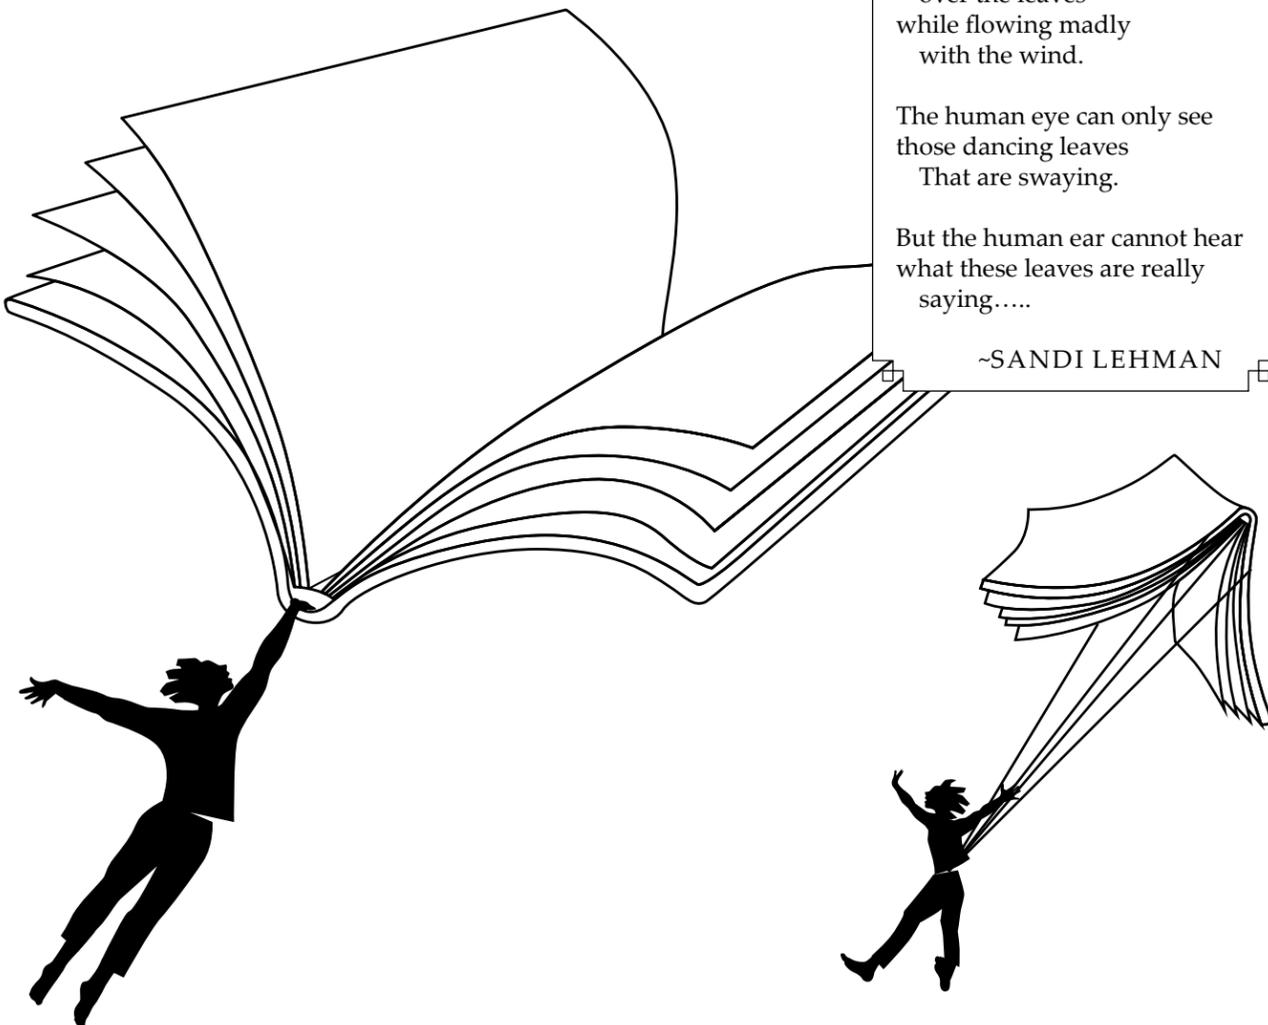

Buy yourself a piece of jewelry don't regret that you do, buy something you really want don't buy one, buy two!

Have the whipped cream on the cake and oh, for goodness sake choose your favorite caviars buy a box of Godiva chocolate bars.

Wrap your presents in gold and blue place a card in From you to you.

Think big, smile a lot enjoy your life, please do It's the only life that you've got and who deserves it more than you!!!

Valentine Day Wishes

Yes, it comes every year in early February
So, picking up a gift for your wife sometimes is scary
Yeh I know a mushy card can sometimes suffice
But can the message within really be quite nice
Can living with your soulmate be put into word poetry
That goes both ways for he or she
But Valentine's Day is a good day to remember
Your happy times and life's laughter
It doesn't matter if you are ten or eighty
If you love someone it shows up daily
Just remember life is a long journey
Enjoy it and forget the word maybe
If it's true love between you and your spouse
Display it outside and in your house
You are lucky to have a dear one so close
So, show it today with a huge loving dose.

An Apple a Day

"Dr. Silver, is it true that An apple a day keeps the doctor away?"
"It seems so, Mrs. Rosen."
"I eat an apple every day."
"That's good, Mrs. Rosen"
"I'm married to a doctor, Maybe that's why he keeps away."

~AVIVA RAVEL

My Mother's Hands?

No, not manicured nails nor pampered soft and supple skin – housework takes its toll but my Mom's hands could dance an air ballet to golden oldies tunes from her earlier days and I recall them still find my fingers fidget – fly:
"On the boardwalk in Atlantic City..."
"Yes, sir, I'm headin' south – Taste the sugarcane
right in my mouth..."
"Oh, a peanut sat on a railroad track
His heart was all a flutter
Toot! Toot! peanut butter..."

~SANDY WICKER

Company

You can't wait for them to come and then you can't wait for them to go.

When your company comes you all know what I mean.

Clothes, clothes are everywhere
where's my keys?
I hope they're still there.

We run, we go to all the restaurants too what I like, they don't like and that is true!

But I go and go until they leave to go home and then I'm sad and I'm back to being again, all alone!!!

~SANDI LEHMAN

Piece Work

This frightened lady, has been sewing for 14 straight hours
At her Singer Sewing machine creating coat linings
Knowing the Karachi factory fire consumed 289 lives
She mechanically toiled in a sweat shop factory, for work paid per task
Phlegmatic...a sublime moment in her tortured life
Expunging the Id out of her Id by garish and vengeful realities
A well-appointed abyss cannonballing alongside her pain
There is something predatory about both the undisclosed exploitation
And the life of pain always in specious conflict with capitalism
In the raw, surrounded by décor with stifling proximity to workers
Piece work...Each coat lining is output work that avoids peace work
Joyless, harassed, haggard living from paycheck to paycheck
Each garment lining sticker represents 25 cents for her...piece work!
Production/consumption, production/consumption an endless cycle
The coats that we are wearing could have come from her sweatshop
The hands that made them were calloused, worn out and chafed
For the last four hours, she could not go to the bathroom
She must wait 17 minutes before lunch break... a narrow culvert of time
She can sew a coat lining for the Pope in Rome without animus
If she had the plush cloth, she was that good, brilliant at her craft
But victimized by extreme exploitation, by the boss's tremors of bile
Long working hours, unlivable wages, petty workers, uncouth bosses
In a third world country, or here, extremely exploited where life is...
Short, brutish and nasty where the authenticity of the suffering Worker... whose ills must command both sympathy and empathy
Where absence of safe living conditions, health and safety hazards
Her consorts are fear and intimidation when she tries to articulate a grievance Tolerating her grievances ...while experiencing the squid ink fingers of the man
Arbitrary discipline such as verbal, psychological or physical abuse is always there
Both subliminal and psychological rebukes work well in tandem
In a shadowy non-union dank factory room sweat permeated Grimy hands and mussed up hair kublik style searching for exit interviews
Laced with cheap rinse, sweat or perfume... with nicotine engrained notions
Her introspective thoughts, intertwined like a Rubik's cube genial characteristics Revealing covert humanism doused in materialistic toxicity...radical tyranny
Her ideas were like dreams, always snaring a little dream in a picaresque struggle Existing for self-fashioning, experiment and easement with frequent riffs
She remained in shallow slumber always reaching for big dreams Allowing her the freedom to fail for the ones who could not get away
She dreamt deep, wondrous dreams that were powerful and clear
Engaged in a Somewhere Over the Rainbow reality
Set apart for fantasy and self-projection either stretched or discounted
A shock tactic that escalated, pure, abstract and very beautiful...
She eventually dropped the pieces and found peace.

~MARVIN HERSHORN

Tennis, A Game of Love

Softly, I must serve more softly,
So the ball will go over the net
And drop within the lines.

I know I must concentrate,
Eyes on the ball and follow through,
Then move up to the net and intercept.

Too eager or too tense,
I may send the ball over the fence,
I must relax and repeat before I start
The four Rs of the game which are:

Be Ready to receive the ball,
Read, anticipate where it will fall,
React, send it back over the net,
Recover your stance and play the set.

Volleys, lobs, an ace or more,
May lead you to a winning score.
A bagel means a team has won,
Five or seven to none.

Deuce is a forty-forty tie,
Advantage is next, one point more,
The game is over when,
The leading player scores again.

Win or lose, for fun or fame,
I must recall that tennis is above all, a game of love.

CVE Bowling League Update

Text and Photo by WARREN STRICOFF; Photos by JOY GOERLER and PHIL RAYMOND

Once again, the CVE bowlers completed another exciting Fall League season. Four teams battled for the championship until the very last week! The Mulligans prevailed and hung on by one win over the Fun Bowlers, followed by Strike Zone and Three Men and a Lady. This is the second year in a row for the Fun Bowlers winning the Fall League Championship. Congratulations to all teams!

Our bowlers celebrated a milestone event over the summer with a special gathering at Strikes in Boca to wish Whitey Bovitch a Happy 100th

Birthday! Whitey was presented with gifts and much love as he was surrounded by his family and friends. A news team from Palm Beach County was there to interview Whitey and his family. Keep on rolling along Whitey! You inspire us all.

CVE bowlers would also like to give special thanks to Larry Margolin, Laura Colavito and Michael Sandberg of The Oppenheimer Group of Boca Raton for sponsoring weekly raffles; awarding medals to The Bowler of the Week, holding bowling clinics and providing tips and instruction to CVE bowlers. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

CVE Bowling League.

Pickleball?

Okay, I give up! Does that mean you take a ball, drop it into a barrel of pickle juice and out comes a pickleball? No, I didn't think so. What it turns out to be is – wait for it .....it's a new old game which apparently started way back in the 1960s but took its time to become popular to where it's almost a world-wide sport today. So, what is it? How is it played? What kind of court, racquets and balls? I guess you could call it a potpourri of ping pong, tennis, badminton and racquet ball all rolled into one. It really encompasses a little of each of those games.

Let's take a couple of steps back to around 1965, to Bainbridge Island, a short ferry ride from Seattle, Washington where three dudes (or dads as the case may be) are credited for creating the game. The game kind of evolved from the original handmade equipment and simple rules to the popular sport of today, with racquets of high design and rules very similar to tennis. By the way, the court is designed closely to resemble a tennis court but much smaller.

I was originally going to go into the deeper end of the rules and regulations but from my own experience, I would say, just go out to the courts; watch a few games; ask questions; get out on the court; and feel the action.

CVE has deemed pickleball as worthy of having its own courts in a stand-alone location. As seen in this photo, all courts are in action. It's a coed sport, and some of the ladies are truly tough competitors. Watch out guys; they are about to kick your butts!

Stickball Team

By LARRY COHEN

Stickball What a game! Every Saturday Stickball is played in the bus parking lot from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and on Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. We only hit and field and no base running it's like we were kids again - great hitting and super fielding! Some of the fielding plays are unbelievable!

Join us on the field or just come down and watch a great game. See you there.

Senior Driving

Know the warning signs of unsafe driving

Issues with health

Health problems don't always mean that driving needs to be stopped, but they do require extra vigilance, awareness, and willingness to correct them. Some health problems include:

- Conflicting medications. Certain medications or combinations of medications can affect senses and reflexes. Always check the label on medications and double check with your healthcare team if you are taking several medications or notice a difference after starting a new medication.

- Eyesight problems. Some eye conditions or medications can interfere with your ability to focus your peripheral vision, or cause you to experience extra sensitivity to light, trouble seeing in the dark, or blurred vision. Can you easily see traffic lights and street signs? Or do you find yourself driving closer and closer, slowing by a sign to see it? Can you react appropriately to drivers coming from behind or to the side?

- Hearing problems. If your hearing is decreasing, you may not realize you're missing out on important cues to drive safely. Can you hear emergency sirens, or if someone is accelerating next to you, or honking the horn?

- Problems with reflexes and range of motion. Can you react quickly enough if you need to brake suddenly or quickly look back? Have you confused the gas and brake pedals? Do you find yourself getting more flustered while driving, or quick to anger? Is it comfortable to look back over your shoulder or does it take extra effort?

- Problems with memory. Do you find yourself missing exits that used to be second nature, or find yourself getting lost frequently? While everyone has an occasional lapse, if there's a pattern that is increasing, it's time to get evaluated by a doctor.

Issues on the road

- Trouble with the nuts and bolts of driving. Do you see yourself making sudden lane changes, drifting into other lanes, braking, or accelerating suddenly without reason? How about failing to use the turn signal, or keeping the signal on without changing lanes?

- Close calls and increased citations. Red flags include frequent "close calls" (i.e., almost crashing), dents and scrapes on the car or on fences, mailboxes, garage doors, and curbs. Increased traffic tickets or "warnings" by traffic or law enforcement officers.

Observations

What's Going On?

By ROLF GRAYSON

In 1942, in San Francisco, the charter of the United Nations was signed by a dominant number of states as a safeguard for children of the future not to have to face war amongst her members. It was ratified in 1945 with all countries of the world signing this pledge of cooperation between them.

As was the original League of Nations, introduced at the end of the First World War in 1918 and came into being in Versailles, this new organization was to be not only a continuation but also a much-strengthened true United Nations for all times. Since this event is only about 70 years old, it should still be clear in the memory of many millions still alive today.

Since there are, as fully expected, ongoing differences between peoples and nations, the High Court of International Justice has been selected as the final arbiter to solve differences between them whenever it becomes necessary. Alas, the world being what it is and the differences between countries often irreconcilable, we still see the might makes right hand played throughout and have seen a masked increase of outright warfare between nations or religious beliefs. These differences have taken on such evil acts of atrocities, especially between religious groups as well as political ones, which leaves nothing short of open warfare the result.

This brings us to a point in time today where we are facing heavy casualties in open war fares, while a deadlocked United Nations paralyzed with its own political misunderstandings, infighting and outright one-sidedness has become meaningless. This finds us in a situation where Iran has taken it upon itself, without any justification or logical reason, to destroy another member state, Israel, for nothing more than dominance and other bullying or strong arm reasons.

While this attitude is in direct conflict to the signers promise to cooperate, a politically one-sided United Nations has accepted this situation; and to the best of my knowledge, no attempt to stop this madness is coming from that current administration. As we learned again so clearly in the recent address to the U.N.G.A. by Mr. Natanyahu, Prime Minister of Israel, who pointed out, in crystal clear terms, the one-sided, anti-Israel bias in the U.N. is dominated by Arab lies, deceit and oil monopoly pressures.

In a year of mass murders exceeding 250,000 dead, plus millions of refugees looking for a safe haven with only the tattered clothes on their backs, the U.N. saw it very clearly as well. Therefore, of 21 resolutions passed by this August Assembly, one went against Syria (the major culprit in this international disaster supported by Russia) and the other 20 were against Israel.

If it were not so sad and dangerous, it should be ludicrous in the eyes of any normal individual. And yet, among those who chose to have a relationship with Israel, those who ignored the lies, all of them have benefitted amazingly well through this cooperation. Be it the Israeli invented drip method of turning arid land into fruitful agriculture; generating electricity or creating drinkable water from ocean water conversions, it is all there for the taking; and Israel has invented them.

I often wonder if it is not within God's plan to lead us to the brink of disaster, but will hopefully make us see the truth before it is too late, as right now things look pretty grim. A nation like Iran, sponsor of international terrorism, has become the controlling power in the U.N. attracting such military giants as Russia, North Korea and others.

Finally, all too slowly, the world has overcome its selfishness and ignorance and has begun to use reusable energy which is in almost inexhaustible supply. It may be too late for many, but new generations will hopefully see the day, in the not too distant future, when oil will be recognized and discarded as the danger it is to our planet and end Arab dominance, as well as the use of this environmental poison.

It is still beyond my understanding when we see that the majority of all people of this world who believe in Abraham's Monotheism, can still hate or be envious of Israel or of Jews rather than join with them, and together make this a better world. When we just take a short glimpse back to the past 2,000 years of the Papacy, the Vatican and the Catholic Church and recall the unspeakable horror, mayhem, mass injury and murder exercised against Jews for a false accusation which began to be rectified only a mere 50 years ago. All that useless slaughter, for an accusation which had no basis in fact, gone and slowly beginning to show baby steps of improved relations as a result.

Who knows how much pent up religiously instilled anger there was in many a German when one is able to confront the unbelievable bestiality those lunatics were capable of committing? Should we not now also collectively rescue an Islam from the violent blindness of this dehumanizing fanaticism and return it to the God-fearing human and passionate religion it really was and could again become? It is not my intention to paint Israel and Jews as the only angels in this world – far from it, but allowing for human failures, they have individually and collectively contributed more to the betterment for the inhabitants of this planet than any other species before them or since.

After re-reading those above written lines, I suddenly realize the many times I must have written on this same subject. Please forgive me, but it is a heavy burden I have chosen for myself. Buy American-made goods! Defeat the Arab boycott BDS! Buy Israeli products!

A View from the Rear

Text and Photos by SID BIRNS

I do a lot of my thinking and writing on the back porch or the Lanai, (as they say in Palm Beach). It's quiet and it overlooks a small lake, which allows for a lot of animal activity to take place.

So, here I am at my trusty computer (if I had a gun, I'd shoot it...I still prefer a typewriter), when suddenly there comes a scratching and scraping sound very near to where I'm sitting. I turn around to look out of the window to see what's making that noise and there's this bird fluttering its wings while trying to grab onto the window, of course I grab my camera (never leave home without it) catch the bird and then see it drop to the ground and start digging what appears to be a hole, does it for a few minutes and takes off.

Fast forward to this last week in December, I'm at the computer as usual, when once again I hear this scratching scraping sound, look out the window and there's this Iguana climbing on the screen, so, you already know what I'm about to do and I did, I took its picture.

So who knows what will happen next week, stay tuned.

Iguana grabbed onto the screen and hung on long enough for me to grab the camera and catch him/her, looking at me.

Black bird attempting to grab onto the window while flapping its wings.

Black bird was kinda digging a hole after trying to grab onto the window.

Assisting Our Aboriginal Communities: A Colossal Financial Fiasco

By BONGS LAINJO

In a report published in the Canadian National Post in November 2018, there were highlights of how government funding of indigenous communities continues to underperform. In the report quoting findings from the Auditor General (AG) evaluation, the paper indicated that over an eight-year period (2010 to 2018), the Canadian government had spent a total of C$2.4bn on job-training Aboriginals; with an additional C$300 million per year spent on the government's Skills and Partnership Fund. In its findings, the AG characterized the project's outcome as an incomprehensible failure. In addition to stating that the government did not even know if its programs were helping Aboriginals find sustainable employment.

Is this unacceptable level of achievement in improving Indigenous community quality of life unique to Canada? Hold your breath!

In a feature on Australia first nation population published by the Economist Journal also in the same month, Indigenous communities produced significantly dismal outcomes in every single social services indicator when compared with the general population. These indicators included life expectancy, infant mortality rates, risk of kidney failure, school completion rate, access to meaningful jobs, household income, incarceration rates, child abuse and domestic violence. The featured report further indicated, "In 2016, the federal government and the states spent A$33.4bn helping Aboriginals." Readers who have followed reports on our indigenous communities will easily resonate with these cases.

Statistic after statistic confirms the abominable and unacceptable levels of key social service indicators ranging from dismal morbidity rates to high education drop out rates to suicide rates and more in our aboriginal communities. And that seems to be the easy part. It is easy in terms of problem identification. The difficult and continuously mind-boggling part is finding an effective and sustainable solution. In our general population communities, there is a tendency to point fingers at these vulnerable settings and characterizing them with stigmatized overtones; all culminating to the same outcomes: social exclusion, dismay and indignation. And that is why government efforts including these financial commitments by national governments continue to raise red flags, disapproval and polarization. Bureaucrats need a significant paradigm shift. An enhanced and more accountable approach needs to be their operating mantra. Tax dollars deserve more than what is being achieved. Are we (tax payers) getting our money's worth?

Reasons for these unacceptable outcomes vary from both the supply (contractors and implementing agencies) and the demand (beneficiaries) sides. What governments are currently trying to address are simply the symptoms. A more effective strategy is to identify, highlight and address compelling, relevant vulnerabilities that contribute to the root causes of these levels of inequalities.

In any training environment for example that deserves any attention, efforts need to be made in establishing plausible Monitoring Systems. These Systems as a minimum need to include a baseline. Trying to develop these frameworks during or after training sessions is not only unacceptable but a recipe for potential failure. Are there any lessons learned? For instance, at a personal and professional level, a few years ago, I was invited by a multi-lateral agency to conduct an evaluation of its multi-million US$ five-year-program with an allocation of five million dollars over a three-year period for training. This program had broad number medical personnel (nurses, doctors, midwives etc.) selected from 12 countries. At the central level where implementation was being monitored, everything seemed right: there was a trainee database managed by a well-qualified staff member. After reviewing this database, I raised many unanswered questions, ranging from frequency of updates, follow up etc. These reviews were all performed before I started my field visits. And what I saw in the field had NO relationship with the content of this database reviewed earlier. Most beneficiaries had either changed jobs, moved out of the country for greener pastures or even simply changed professions.

One common mistake in conducting training programs is that they are for the most part considered isolated events. And that is where the problem starts! Training needs to be implemented as a process. Follow-up issues (as highlighted by one of the stakeholders in the Canadian training intervention) are more effective when incorporated at the design stage of the training program and not after the event as indicated in this report. Oversight needs to be improved!!

The moon in all its glory before planet Earth slips between the sun and the moon causing what we call an eclipse. And, the moon is truly beautiful at this particular time, because it is closer to the earth and appears to be brighter and larger. When I look at it, it's hard for me to believe that at one time, not too long ago, a man walked on the surface of the moon that I'm looking at right now.

Funny how the moon has taken on the title of super blood wolf moon and the reddish color starts to take effect as the eclipse starts and that wolves tend to howl at the moon all happening at the same time.

To me, it is a beautiful sight but again I wonder, "What's holding the moon up there? Will one day the moon just drop out of the sky and disappear?" The whole universe is a wonder to me...there is no beginning and there is no end, it's just space with trillions of stars, planets, asteroids, etc., floating around. So, I leave you with this one thought, "Are we the only planet with our life form or...are there others?"

Anti-Semitism: A Global Pandemic Part II

By MARVIN HERSHORN

The film, the Passion of the Christ by Mel Gibson resuscitated the issue of deicide. James Carroll, the brilliant author of Constantine's Sword, the Church and the Jews described the film as obscene...a vehicle that will incite contempt for the Jews. "I anticipated the Gibson film warily, especially because an uncritical rendition of problematic Gospel texts which unfairly blame the Jews for the death of Jesus threatened to resuscitate the old Christ killer myth."

Sharansky's second D, was the reality of Double Standard. Jews were always treated unlike other people. The Chosen People were consistently blamed for the ills of the world. Anti-Semitism reared its ugly head in the 3rd century BC in Alexandria, where the Greek rulers blamed the Jewish minority for all the ills that befell that society. Since that time, speaker after speaker at the conference uncovered the archeological layers of the anti-Semitic vile with updated anecdotes, myths, hate figures, folklore and pseudo facts. UN Watch reported that the UN Human Rights Council: From its creation in June 2006 through June 2016, over a decade period, adopted 135 resolutions criticizing countries; 68 out of those 135 resolutions have been against Israel (more than 50 percent). While the UN General Assembly: From 2012 through 2015, has adopted 97 resolutions criticizing countries; 83 out of those 97 have been against Israel (86 percent).

The irrational explanation of why international events occur is linked directly to Jews. Ideologies such as Marxism and Freudianism may be used as templates to loosely explain human behavior. Almost all events especially maligning ones can be fitted into either theory. While Marxism suggested class warfare and Freudianism infantile experience bottled up in the unconscious, anti-Semitism uses a sinister, worldwide conspiracy theory blaming the ills of the world on Jews and Israel.

The United Nations Security Council is case in point. On March 22, 2004, Israel was strongly condemned for the assassination of Sheik Ahmed Yassin, the founder and spiritual leader of the Hamas Terrorist group. The UN did neither consider the 19,000 terrorist attacks against Israel nor the deaths of countless Israelis as morally equivalent crimes against humanity. Since the beginning of the first Intifada in September 2000, Israel's Defense Minister Shaul Mofaz pointed out that Hamas has attacked Israelis 425 times causing 377 deaths and 2,076 wounded. The human rights violations of China's occupation of Tibet or the atrocities committed in Syria were not mentioned.

The third D is delegitimizing. Israel is the prototype example of colonialism and is a political malignancy that should be excised geographically from the Middle East. Robert Wistrich noted that Palestinian anti-Zionism has helped infect Europe with an old-new version of anti-Semitism in which Jews are depicted as imperialist invaders, who conquered Palestine by brute force. Zionists are modern Crusaders with no legitimate rights to the soil, who cleverly manipulated Great Britain and then America to achieve their goals.

In the concluding panel of the conference Martin Peled-Flax a former Israeli foreign affairs ministry officer responsible for the fight against anti-Semitism argued that the key struggle would be to confront the genocidal anti-Semitism in some quarters of the Muslim world. He urged Jewish communities to find allies at the local, grassroots and international level to fight anti-Semitism. We cannot do it alone.

On May 7, 2014 at the University of Southern California's Shoa Foundation, President Obama noted the seriousness of the new Anti-Semitism. "We see attacks on Jews in the streets of major western cities, public places marred by swastikas," He said, "It's up to us to speak out against the rhetoric that threatens the existence of the Jewish homeland and to sustain America's unshakable commitment to Israel's security."

"We cannot eliminate evil from every heart and hatred from every mind," Obama said in his address, "but what we can do and what we must do is making sure our children and their children learn their history so that they might not repeat it."

It is a truism today that world Jewry pays a price everywhere when events in the Middle East resonate beyond the borders. It permeates our consciousness now because anti-Semitism is omnipresent, invading our psyches in the guise of anti-Zionism. This pseudo-political strategy allows for a false overview of the Middle East crisis perpetrated by the mainstream media...that rationalizes terrorism and paints Israel as the common denominator of the evil incarnation that troubles the world. What is needed universally is that Anti-Semitism be wildly condemned. The momentum may be beginning... In an emotional speech on November 9, 2018 commemorating Kristallnacht, Angela Merkel, Chancellor of Germany declared that the German government must... "undertake firm action when hatred of Jews or hatred of Israel is expressed verbally or nonverbally by people living in our country who have a different religious or cultural background."

If this ever becomes a world-wide template philosophy such discussions of globalists and global conspiracies...code words for controlling Jewish elites and bankers might be curbed. Then perhaps ...just perhaps such savagery as the Tree of Life Synagogue shooting might be rendered unimaginable. I remain an idealist without illusions...but I'm not holding my breath.

Three for Three

Text and Photos by SID BIRNS

Three teachers, three poets and three submissions...I guess you might call them The Three Poetiers.

You know the old expression: The word is mightier than the sword, well put Larry Weller, Aviva Ravel and Marvin Hershorn together and now you have real word power in their newly published book of poetry, Teachers in Autumn.

The book offers a unique perceptive glance at the human condition and its many avenues, from memories of youth and family to adult love, both lost and found.

With a look at contemporary, political and social consideration, this work offers the reader an imaginative examination of three lives in the 20th and 21st Centuries.

Award winning artist Noreen Hershorn (designed the book cover).

As in the introduction, we dedicate this book of poetry to all the children of the world. They are a blessing to us, filling our lives with love, joy and happiness. May they know a peaceful earth they so richly deserve.

Cooke's Look at Books

By RICHARD WILLIAM COOKE

A monthly look at books of interest – new and, occasionally, not-so-new, fiction and nonfiction – available at local libraries, bookstores and from online booksellers.

Jell-O Girls

By Allie Rowbottom, 277 Pages, Little Brown, $28.00

If you've assumed Jell-O is a uniquely American invention, think again. According to author Allie Rowbottom whose great-great-great-uncle, Oscar Woodward, was the genius behind the startling success of that little box with the big red letters, "Long before Jell-O crossed the oceans and landed in LeRoy, New York, it was known as just a gelatin, a product confined to the kitchens of European luxury."

In the late 1800s, cough syrup maker, Pearle Wait, tinkering in his LeRoy basement, experimenting with gelatin and sugar discovered that it could be formed into soft, squiggly squares, called his discovery Jell-O to match the Grain-O health drink he was already selling. In 1899, he sold his discovery to local businessman Woodward for $450 (about $5,000 in today's dollars). The sale would turn out to be one of the most profitable business deals in American history, and the family generations which followed enjoyed immense wealth and privilege.

But there was a dark side. The women of the family seemed cursed with suicides, alcoholism, cancer and mysterious ailments which also affected the girls in town, many of whom worked in the Jell-O factory. The illness served to create suspicion of all women. Meanwhile, Jell-O, now America's favorite dessert, was generating enormous commercial success; however, changes were on the horizon. Sugary desserts were becoming less popular, ingredients in prepared foods were becoming suspect.

The author writes, "Jell-O boxes started carrying labels warning of artificial dyes and ingredients. But still the product continued to prosper, helped enormously by an endorsement as a diet dessert by Weight Watchers."

This new book – part history of a legendary food product; part history of that founder's family; part feminist confessional – is, as one reviewer wrote, "As jeweled-toned as its subject."

Yes, We (Still) Can

By Dan Pfeiffer, Twelve Books, 284 Pages $28.00

Dan Pfeiffer woke up in shock on November 9, 2016. How did it happen that the decent thoughtful, Democratic President for whom he worked through presidential campaigns and six years in the White House would now be succeeded by a New York Real Estate Developer/Reality TV star who was a political neophyte? This colorful account by President Obama's former Communications Director reflects the same optimism shown by his boss. Not a juicy, gossipy tell all, author Pfeiffer instead bills his book as a "...road map for the future, an attempt to better understand the current state of politics and look at where we go from here."

Subtitled, Politics in the Age of Obama, Twitter and Trump, the author focuses on the magnitude of the change that swept America in the election of November 2016, "...a result arguably as radical as the one in 2008 when Barack Obama was elected as the country's first black president."

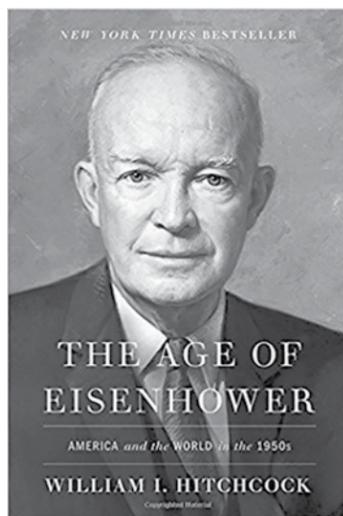

In places, Pfeiffer can't help slinging a few arrows at those who he believes have abandoned the high ground in their search for political power and victory. But along the way, he delivers a tasty smorgasbord of inside the White House anecdotes like the time his pants split during a meeting in the Oval Office or his account of sending an ill-advised tweet from a hospital bed just as anesthesia was kicking in.

He is embarrassed now to admit that, "When the rest of the world was falling in love with Barack Obama in 2004, I wasn't paying any attention to him. When people would convey their assessment of Obama's immense charisma, smarts and oratorical skills, my response would be 'Sounds amazing. Too bad he has no shot.'" That all changed massively the first time the newly-elected President Obama called Pfeiffer asking him for a private meeting. This readable, fast moving account of Pfeiffer's route to the White House and the Oval Office's inner sanctum is a journey you will want to take, no matter your political persuasion.

The Age of Eisenhower

By William I. Hitchcock, Simon & Schuster, 650 Pages, $35.00

"On May 1, 1958, a U-2 plane, piloted by highly-experienced Gary Powers, took off from Peshawar on a course that would take him over some of the most sensitive and secret sites inside the Soviet Union en route to Norway. It was the 26th U.S. penetration of Soviet airspace, and it would be the last," writes author Hitchcock in this fascinating, readable history of Dwight D. Eisenhower's White House years.

A Soviet SA-2 missile exploded just behind Power's aircraft. Powers lost control of the plane, hastily ejected and opened his parachute but failed to initiate the explosives that were designed to destroy the aircraft. Telephones across Washington started ringing as news of the plane's crash crackled across the city; and President Eisenhower was thrust into the greatest crisis of his presidency, one that threatened to draw the Soviet Union and the U.S. into war, one which could involve the unthinkable – nuclear weapons.

For years, historians regarded Eisenhower as an absentee, do-nothing president but this new book refutes that conclusion pointing to the fact that Eisenhower is now ranked fifth on the list of great presidents, behind the perennial top four: Lincoln, Washington, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Teddy Roosevelt.

Despite his conservative positions, Eisenhower found a middle path through the bitter partisanship of his era. A former general, he kept the peace; ended the Korean War and avoided a war in Vietnam. He guided the Republican Party to embrace the New Deal's Social Security laws, thwarted the demagoguery of Senator McCarthy and as part of his strategy to wage and win the Cold War built a fearsome American nuclear arsenal.

From 1953 to 1961, he dominated the world stage. Drawing on declassified material from the Eisenhower Library, the CIA and the Defense Department and troves of unpublished documents, Hitchcock has created an eye-popping revelation that explains why this do-nothing president is now regarded as one of the best leaders our country has ever had.

Considering Doris Day

By Tom Santopietro, St. Martin's Press, 388 Pages, $25.95

"Hollywood, 1947: Doris Day is crying, sobbing actually. Here she is, living out every American girl's fantasy – screen testing to star in the Warner Bros. feature film musical, Romance on the High Seas. Her test is being directed by none other than Hollywood legend Michael Curtiz of Casablanca fame. There's just one problem. Singing Embraceable You, Doris Day breaks down in hysterics; mascara smeared; nose running. She runs out of the room."

So begins author Santopietro's irresistible assessment of the start of the career of the biggest female box office attraction in Hollywood history. Doris Day remains unequaled as the only entertainer who has ever triumphed in movies, radio, recordings and a multi-year weekly television series.

If you are a New Yorker of a certain age, you will remember audiences packing Radio City Music Hall, the City's 6,200-seat movie palace each time a Doris Day film opened, almost always before it opened in any other movie house in the country. People flocked to see her movies with their favorite girl next door.

Day's wholesome image, Oscar Levant quipped, "I knew Doris Day before she was a virgin," did not fully reveal her underappreciated and effortless acting and singing range which ran the gamut from musical comedy to drama and made her a worldwide icon.

This smart and funny book looks at her off-screen accomplishments as a pioneer, independent career woman role model, recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom and activist for many causes. After a triumphant five-year run on CBS-TV, she turned her back on show business and now chooses, to the dismay of many, to live a quiet, reclusive life, well out of the entertainment industry spotlight. The Turner Classic Movie Channel reports that reruns of her movies are among the most requested of its viewers. A fitting tribute, like this book, to a one and only star!

SUDOKU

Sudoku doesn't require any special math skills or calculations. It is a simple and fun game of logic -- all that's needed is brains and concentration.

			5	4	2
2						9	4	1
4			9	1	7		2
		7	4	3	6	1	5	9
	5						6
1	6	9	7	5	8	2
	4		2	8	5			7
7	1	2						5
			3	7	1

There is really only one rule to Sudoku: Fill in the game board so that the numbers 1 through 9 occur exactly once in each row, column, and 3x3 box. The numbers can appear in any order and diagonals are not considered. Your initial game board will consist of several numbers that are already placed. Those numbers cannot be changed. Your goal is to fill in the empty squares following the simple rule above.

1. Fill the grid so that the numbers 1 through 9 appear in each row.
2. Fill the grid so that the numbers 1 through 9 appear in each column.
3. Fill the grid so that the numbers 1 through 9 appear in each 3x3 box.
4. A complete Sudoku puzzle contains the numbers 1 through 9 in every row, column and 3x3 box.

Hint: Start with a square that only has three numbers missing. Look at surrounding squares and grids to see which numbers you need to fill that 3x3 grid.

By CHARLES K. PARNES

Two Puzzles

Puzzle One:

In the following equation, move one line to make the below equation correct. Which line and where?

$$III = II - I$$

Puzzle Two:

How many states in the United States end with the letter "A"?

The Solution to Puzzler can be found on page 42-B

Song Search

The CVE Reporter is printing the titles of four famous hit songs of the past and/or present. The song titles will be located randomly in either Section A or B.

The object of the contest is as follows:

The four song titles must be located, named and submitted either in person or by email to [cve reporter@hotmail.com](mailto:cve reporter@hotmail.com)
Attn: Song Search Contest

The group or artist who made each song a hit must also be submitted with each title.

The first three correct entries submitted to the paper will win a new CVE Reporter logo tee shirt. Good Luck!

Winners will be announced in the next month's issue. Prizes can be picked up in the CVE Reporter office on West Drive after the winners are announced.

Please DO NOT feed the ducks at the pool areas

It's so tempting to want to feed the wildlife.

It makes us feel good.

The reality is the ducks come looking for a free meal at the pool areas. They are making a mess in the pools as well as on the decks. This is a health hazard and an inconvenience to everyone as the pool and/or pool areas have to be closed and cleaned and the pool treated for the feces that has gotten into the pool.

Choraleers 45th Annual Show – Happy Days

By DIXIE-LEE VOLL and MARCELA RASA

For Happy Days, join the Choraleers on Wednesday, March 6, 2019 at 7 p.m. in the CVE Theater. The show will feature the Choraleers Chorus and Choraleers Soloists, including Ted Schneider on trumpet; Judy Hill; Barbara O'Connor singing a solo and a duet with her husband Stephen. There will be new featured Soloists joining the show as well.

Three featured guest artists will grace the show with their outstanding talents:

Tenor James Perkowski has appeared all over the world in operas and musical productions as well as in Las Vegas. In Florida, he has appeared at Broward Center, the Aventura Arts and Cultural Center in a tribute to Irving Berlin and as a soloist with the the South Florida Pride Orchestra.

Marcel Rasa began in music at the early age of 7, playing piano and violin which he still continues to play. Yet, he found his voice much later singing complimentary bedside serenades at local hospitals and nursing homes. The Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel did an article on him in 2006 calling him, the Healing voice of an Angel.

He then went on to perform in stage productions at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts, the Crest Theater in Delray Beach and various other venues. His fans deem him, "The most loving man to cross the stage!" He has made an appearance on TV, singing for Deco Drive in the X-Factor competitions.

Marcel's beautiful sister, Marcela Rasa, started at the age of five performing within the Romanian community throughout the Midwest. A graduate of Theatre Performance from the University of Florida, she followed her dream of acting to Los Angeles, appearing in numerous features, independent films and music videos. Her love of music and singing brought her back to South Florida where she has delighted audiences with her renditions of top Broadway hits, operatic arias and songs from the 50s, 60s and 70s in numerous shows including, Pop to Opera, Summer in the Catskills, Best of Broadway and Night at the Tony's.

PETER NOONE & HERMAN'S HERMITS

An unforgettable night with Peter Noone & Hermans Hermits! Peter achieved international fame as "Herman's Hermits", lead singer of the legendary Sixties pop band Herman's Hermits. His classic hits included: "I'm Into Something Good", "Mrs. Brown, you've Got A Lovely Daughter", "I'm Henry VIII, I Am", "Silhouettes", "Can't You Hear My Heartbeat", "Just A Little Bit Better", "Wonderful World", "There's A Kind of Hush", "A Must To Avoid", "Listen People", "The End of the World" and "Dandy". Ultimately, Herman's Hermits sold over sixty million recordings. In all, fourteen singles and seven albums went gold. The Hermits were twice named Cashbox's "Entertainer of the Year".
