AM Radio for Every Vehicle Act of 2023.

bill requires the Department of Transportation (DOT) to issue a rule that requires all new motor vehicles to have devices that can access AM broadcast stations installed as standard equipment. (AM broadcast stations are often used to deliver emergency alerts and news and entertainment programming; some newer vehicles do not include AM equipment.) Until the law passes, Congressman Gottenheimer (NJ) is calling on the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NTSB) to require automakers to label vehicles without AM receivers as “unsafe in certain emergencies.” (<https://www.congress.gov/bill/118th-congress/senate-bill/1669>)

United Nations (UN)

The UN’s UNESCO agency is promoting the “education, science, culture, communication and information to foster mutual understanding.” The agency designated February 13, as “World Radio Day,” by releasing a broadcast-quality public service announcement, calling broadcast radio a “vital lifeline” and encouraging the “protection of emergency radio frequencies for the public dissemination of vital information.” (<https://theradiosource.com/sounds/World%20RadioDay.mp3>)
